Eruptions

Dry, moist, scaly tetter, all forms of eczema or salt rheum, pimples and other cutaneous eruptions proceed from humors, either inherited, or acquired through defective digestion and assimilation.

The thing to do is to help the system discharge the humors, and strengthen it against their return.

Hood's Sarsaparilla permanently cured J. W. Hines, Franks, Ill., of eczema, from which he had suffered for some time; and Miss Alvina Wolter, Box 212, Algoma, Wis., of pimples on her face and back and chafed skin on her body, by which she had been greatly troubled. There are more testimonials in favor of this great medicine than can be published.

Suicide on S.S. Montfort.

Quebec, Oct. 1.—Charles Miller, a cattleman on the Elder-Dempster steamer Montfort, committed suicide yesterday by swallowing a dose of Paris green. Members of the crew made the discovery about 8 o'clock in the morning, and the man was removed to the Hotel Dieu about 8 o'clock, where he died half an hour later. Miller was a German and was 46 years of age.

The Guard Deceived Himself.

Canton, Ohio, Oct. 1.—Captain Biddle, commanding the guard at West Lawn Cemetery, said yesterday, after a careful investigation:

"I think the sentinel deceived himself in the occurrence. I don't think it probable that an attack such as he stated actually occurred. When daylight came we could find no evidence of a struggle."

She Wanted to Die.

St. Thomas, Oct. 1.—Mrs. Pettit, a middle-aged woman inmate of the Elgin House of Industry, became violently insane Sunday and endeavored to cut her throat with a butcher knife and kill the other inmates. She was overpowered, one man only, Ezra Webb, receiving a gash from the knife.

Kissing Bug Killed Her.

St. Thomas, Oct. 1.—Mrs. McIntyre, wife of Ewen McIntyre, a prominent Southwold farmer, died yesterday morning from the effects of the bite of a kissing bug on Tuesday last. Deceased was a sister of Dr. Fulton of this city, and Mrs. Archibald Kerr of London.

Received a Commission.

Ottawa, Oct. 1.—Sergt. W. R. Wright of the R. C. R. I., who has been at headquarters here as clerk, has received a commission in the coast regiment of the West African Frontier Force.

FUND GROWING RAPIDLY.

Strathcona Will Give $5,000—Government Will Subscribe $60,000 When a Like Amount Has Been Subscribed.

Montreal, Oct. 1.—Capt. Bernier, who is anxious to get to the North Pole, made an interesting announcement yesterday.

"The hardest part of a polar expedition, I find," he said, "is getting started. Still I am receiving substantial encouragement. When I began asking the Canadian people for assistance in my polar project I wanted $120,000. Now I only want $35,000. So you see I have made progress. The latest addition to my list is Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, who seems always ready to lend a helping hand to any project that will redound to the credit of Canada. I saw Lord Strathcona last week and laid my plans fully before him. He expressed a favorable opinion of the feasibility of my scheme, and promised me help on the same lines that the Dominion Government has."

"The Government, after examining and approving my project, promised me $60,000 when I should raise a like amount by private subscription. That is when I have $55,000 subscribed by the people of Canada. I can call upon Lord Strathcona for $5,000, which will give me $60,000, and with this $60,000 I can call upon the Government for another $60,000. The expedition will then start.

"Since the last list of subscribers was published, Senator Garneau of Quebec has promised me a contribution of $260, in bedding. Senator A. M. Dechene has subscribed $100, Mr. Mann of Mackenzie and Mann, has put his name down for $100. There have been several contributions of amounts of $50 or more. Mayor Prefontaine has promised $200.

Light Winds Predicted.

Washington, Oct. 1.—The Weather Bureau issued the following forecast for to-day's yacht race at Sandy Hook:

The winds will be light to fresh northerly in the morning, but they probably will decrease toward noon and become variable and light.

Customs Receipts.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 1.—The Canadian Customs receipts for the three months of the current fiscal year to the end of September, amount to $8,035,094, an increase over the same period of 1900 of $488,924. The increase for the month ending yesterday has been $382,810.

Dr. Borden's Condition.

Ottawa, Oct. 1.—Col. Hon. F. W. Borden was able to leave his room yesterday. He hopes to be able to attend the Toronto review on Oct. 11, but will have to use crutches, as his fractured ankle will not be well by that time.

Every Wreck Hurts.

London, Oct. 1.—Liverpool men engaged in the shipping trade have no faith in the proposed Canadian fast line. Every wreck on the Canadian shore is a nail in the coffin for the fast line scheme.

According to advices received at the Toronto office of the Manitoba Government on Monday, the weather in Manitoba has cleared up and threshing operations are now in full blast. Threshing will be completed in about six weeks.

Sir Claude Macdonald's Trip.

Ottawa, Oct. 1.—Sir Claude Macdonald, British Ambassador to Japan, and Lady Macdonald, accompanied by Mr. Lech, secretary of legation, went for a drive around the city yesterday morning in the luxurious street car used by the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall when in Ottawa. In the afternoon Sir Claude and party left by the Imperial Limited for Banff. They are traveling in the C.P.R. president's private car.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

CURES CHRONIC AND COMPLICATED CASES OF RHEUMATISM.

IT BANISHES EVERY TRACE OF POISONOUS ACID FROM THE BLOOD.

HAS MADE MORE PERMANENT AND WONDERFUL CURES THAN ALL OTHER MEDICINES IN THE WORLD.

All rheumatic sufferers dread the variable and trying weather of October and November. Sufferers from various forms of rheumatism—articular, muscular, inflammatory, gout and lumbago—suffer more intensely in the autumn months. Chilling winds, damp air, cold rains and night frosts, aggravate existing misery and agony.

Thousands of victims of rheumatism have come back from summer health resorts only to find themselves as badly tortured and crippled as they were before they started for their false Meccas of health. Mineral springs, baths and massage systems can never drive out the morbid principle of terrible rheumatism from the blood and joints.

Careful medical tests and a long experience prove that Paine's Celery Compound is the only agent and medicine for the cure of all forms of rheumatism, and succeeds when everything else fails. With a confidence created and strengthened by thousands of victories over rheumatism, we urge suffering men and women to use Paine's Celery Compound. Its marvellous virtues will meet your case and do for you what it has done for others. Mrs. J. Vince, Barrie, Ont., says;

"I am happy to say I have taken Paine's Celery Compound with great results. I had sciatica so badly that I could not turn in bed or walk without help, and for a period of three weeks was helplessly laid up and suffered pain that at times was almost unbearable.

"I tried many medicines, but all in vain. I was afterwards recommended to try Paine's Celery Compound. I used six bottles and am entirely cured, and enjoy good health. I take great pleasure in recommending the valuable medicine that cured me."

Duke Reaches The Far West

Pacific Coast Vies With East in Its Celebration of Royal Visit

Sifton Trial in London—Doctors Differ in Their Testimony—Hon. Clarke Wallace Critically Ill—Roosevelt Will Intervene—Fifteen Miners Entombed.

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 1. — The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall completed their trans-continental tour westward yesterday, and are the guests of the people of Vancouver. Their special trains made the run down through the canyon and valley of the Fraser River yesterday morning, and at 11.30 o'clock pulled into the Canadian Pacific depot. On the terraced heights back of the depot a great crowd was gathered, and the royal special halted to a salvo of cheers. A guard of honor, composed of Bluejackets from the North Pacific Squadron, was drawn up at the depot platform, and back of them were a detachment of the Northwest Mounted Police, in their smart uniforms of scarlet and black.

Premier Laurier and the Countess of Minto, who had arrived by the pilot special, joined with the local reception committee in the formal welcome to the Duke and Duchess. The former wore his uniform of admiral of the navy, and after the committee had been introduced the officers of the North Pacific Squadron were presented.

Through Decorated Streets.

The Duke inspected the guard of honor before he and the Duchess were escorted to the state carriage which awaited them. They were then driven through artistically decorated streets to the Court House. An attractive feature of the street decorations was a series of arches, one of which was erected by the Chinese residents of the city and another by the Japanese.

At the Court House Mayor Townley read an address of welcome, and the Duke, in reply, thanked him and the people of the city for their cordial reception. The Duke and Duchess then assisted in the formal opening of a new Drill Hall for the local militia.

Opened New Drill Hall.

The guard of honor at the Drill Hall comprised the Duke of Connaught's Rifles, 100 veterans, and 100 members of the Boy's Brigade. The Duke on entering inspected the guard and addressed the veterans and boys. His Highness contrasted the old and young. Veterans had shown what they would do for the Empire, and the boys were there to testify that they were ready to defend the throne and Kingdom should need arise. Medals were then presented by the Duke to 28 South African veterans, including Nurse Affleck of Ottawa, who went out with the first Canadian contingent.

At 1.30 a civic banquet to the royal guests took place, and in the afternoon Hastings' large lumber mill was visited. Before leaving the mill the royal guests were presented with a souvenir book in morocco cover, the leaves of which were finely polished veneers of woods found in the forests of British Columbia.

Drove Through Stanley Park.

Leaving Hastings Mills the royal party was driven round Stanley Park. The drive covered eight miles, the scenery all through being most beautiful, as the park occupies the whole of a peninsula, the greater portion of which is covered with virgin forest, some trees en route being 30 feet in circumference at the base.

At Brockton Point 3,000 school children greeted the royal party, and the Duchess, with a few gracious words, presented a silk banner to the school possessing the most efficient drill team.

Indian Chiefs Address Duke.

The closing function before embarking was the presentation of loyal addresses by Chiefs of Sechalt and Fort Simpson Indians, who were in full native costumes. Indian chiefs presented addresses to the Duke, who shook hands with the leading chiefs and spoke a few gracious words, through the interpreter.

Off to Victoria.

Late in the afternoon the Duke and Duchess boarded the steamship Empress of India, on which they are to be taken to Victoria, convoyed by the North Pacific Squadron.

Last night the city and fleet in the harbor were illuminated in honor of the royal party. On shore thousands of electric lights burned brightly, while the ships were outlined in lines of lamps.

The Empress of India and her convoy reach Victoria this morning, and the Duke and Duchess are to be given another loyal reception there.

When the Duke Was a Boy.

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 1.—A touching incident in yesterday's ceremonies was the recognition of an old Marlborough House gardener amongst the crowd outside the Drill Hall. The man looked tough in his shabby old suit, but the Duke and Duchess freely conversed with him, talking of the King, the Queen, Marlborough House grounds and other home scenes in the Duke's life. The man reminded the Duke of the games they had together when the Duke was a boy.

Guelph Contractor Dead.

Guelph, Oct. 1.—Thomas Dobbie, a well-known contractor, died suddenly in his bed Sunday night about 12 o'clock from heart disease, at the age of 71. He came from Stirlingshire, Scotland, to Guelph in 1861, and has resided here ever since. He was a first-class mason, and many fine structures remain as monuments of his handiwork, such as the Central School, postoffice, Cutten's block, addition to the main building Ontario Agricultural College of Guelph, the Court House and jail, Orangeville, etc. His last large contract was the Winter Fair building last year.

Controversy equalizes fools and wise men in the same way, and the fools know it.

ROOSEVELT, NON-INTERVENER.

Kruger Will Not Send a Delegation to See Him.

London, Oct. 1.—"Mr. Kruger," says a despatch to The Daily Mail from Brussels, "has abandoned the idea of sending a delegation to the President of the United States, having ascertained that Mr. Roosevelt will pursue the policy of non-intervention."

Paul Kruger's Son Is Dead.

Pretoria, Sept. 30.—Tjaardt Kruger, son of the former President, who recently surrendered to the British, has just died after a short illness.

Botha Repulsed.

Durban, Natal, Sept. 30.—A force of 1,500 Boers, commanded by Gen. Botha, made an attack which lasted all day long on Sept. 26 on Fort Itala on the border of Zululand. The burghers were repulsed, but at a heavy cost to the garrison, whose losses were an officer and eleven men killed and five officers and 38 men wounded. In addition 63 men are missing, of which number many are believed to have been killed or wounded. The Boer commandant Opperman and nineteen burghers are known to have been killed.

TO LEAD SOCIAL CAMPAIGN.

Lord Roberts Has Leased Famous Old London House for Season.

London, Oct. 1.—Lord and Lady Roberts have leased one of the most noted old houses in London and intend to make it the headquarters of military society, which is now on top of the social heap.

It is the former homes of the Dukes of Richmond in Portland Place, notably that vigorous Duchess of Richmond, who gave the famous ball at Brussels the night before the battle of Waterloo. Wellington made Richmond House his favorite social resort, and Roberts intends to revive the military social regime of a century ago.

He has spent one-fifth of the £100,000 voted to him by Parliament in preparing to live up to the position of Commander-in-Chief, and Lady Roberts is engineering the campaign.

THE OFFICERS ALSO FELL.

Further News of the Disaster at Balangiga, Philippine Islands.

Manila, Oct. 1.—Gen. Hughes, from the Island of Samar, reports the arrival of Sergeant Markley and one private at Tannan from the fight at Balangiga, where over forty men of Company C, 9th Infantry, were killed by insurgents, who attacked the troops while at breakfast Saturday last. The men who have reached Tannan say that the officers of the company, who were at first reported to have escaped, were killed with the majority of the company. The troops were attacked while unprepared by four hundred bolomen, of whom the Americans killed about 140. Many of the soldiers were killed in their quarters before they had time to grasp their rifles. Gen. Hughes is going to the scene of the disaster, and personally will command the troops.

Officers Narrow Escape.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 1.—Advices received from Foo Chow by the steamer Athenian, tell of the narrow escape from death of five officers and several seamen of the United States cruiser Wilmington, when that vessel arrived at the Chinese port at the beginning of September. The officers were going ashore in the cruiser's launch when the boiler exploded and the top of it flew high in the air. Fortunately, everyone on board escaped uninjured.

Dizziness

Is a very common consequence of indigestion and torpid liver. Sometimes there are spots before the eyes and hot flashes. At other times a sensation as of vertigo occurs, at once suffocating and blinding. It is a waste of time to attempt to cure this condition by ordinary means or medicines. The stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition must be restored to healthy activity, the blood must be purified, the liver cleansed and strengthened, before a cure can be hoped for. This is the work done by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a medicine specially beneficial in diseases of the stomach, blood and liver. It strengthens the stomach, purifies the blood, cleanses the clogged liver, and promotes the health of every organ of the body.

"My wife was greatly troubled with indigestion, torpid liver, dizziness, and also irregular periods," writes Mr. W. A. Preston, of Shuqualak, Noxubee Co., Miss. "We tried many different remedies, but none of them gave perfect relief until we were induced by a lady to try your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' 'Favorite Prescription,' and 'Pleasant Pellets.' These medicines did more good than anything we ever tried for those complaints. We have used four bottles of your 'Golden Medical Discovery,' one of 'Favorite Prescription,' and two vials of your 'Pellets.' These medicines have done the work we desired, and I do heartily recommend them to all similar sufferers."

FIFTEEN MINERS ENTOMBED

Explosion in a British Columbia Coal Mine.

Will Probably Result in Wholesale Deaths—Rescuing Party Overcome by Gas—Premier Dunsmuir and Citizens of Surrounding Towns Hurrying to the Rescue—Some Narrow Escapes Are Reported—Fire Gaining Headway.

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 1.—No. 2 and No. 3 slopes of the well known extension mines at Ladysmith are on fire and 15 men are down in the burning mine. Little hope is entertained for any of them, for the fire is still raging and clouds of smoke can be seen in the air for miles.

The 15 supposed to be dead in the mine are:

The fire started yesterday afternoon near where the workings of No. 2 slope tunnel of No. 3 converge, a miner's lamp coming in contact with the blanket being the cause.

Horses and appliances have been sent from nearby towns, and relief is on the way from many places.

Premier James Dunsmuir, head of owning company, left last night for the scene on a special train, which will prevent him from welcoming the royal party to-day as was expected.

A later report says the fire is still raging and gaining headway.

This report says that nearly all who were at the wrecked mines escaped, and those lost are members of a relief party that went down.

Some narrow escapes are reported.

One miner, who was running from No. 2 workings when the fire broke, fell exhausted by the gaseous matter, but in falling he knocked the door open leading to the other workings and escaped through them.

MR. HAYS' SUCCESSOR.

Mr. Edward H. Harriman Elected in New York.

New York, Oct. 1.—At the meeting of the Southern Pacific Railway directors yesterday Mr. Edward H. Harriman was elected President, to succeed Mr. Chas. M. Hays, who was formerly General Manager of the Grand Trunk Railway.

No Reductions Just Yet.

Winnipeg, Oct. 1. — "I am very sorry to say that the promised reductions on wheat rates on the Canadian Northern lines cannot be put into effect on Oct. 1 as anticipated," was the reply of Premier Roblin to an inquiry made yesterday afternoon.

"The reduction promised," he continued, "was two cents per hundred pounds from all points on the Canadian Northern to Lake Superior. I regret exceedingly that this cannot be complied with at present, for two reasons, only one of which I am able to disclose, viz.: That the Canadian Northern line to Port Arthur is not finished. This is owing partly to the scarcity of labor and partly to the present weather.

"The company have asked for an extension of time, which we have granted."

Found Dead by the Track.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 1.—Yesterday morning the crew of the westbound freight train found the body of a man apparently about thirty years of age, lying beside the Grand Trunk track about two miles west of Kingston. The back of the head was crushed in and the right foot was severed at the ankle. He was respectably dressed.

C.P.R. Land Sales.

Winnipeg, Oct. 1.—The C. P. R. land sales for the month of September were much heavier than usual. The aggregate will be in the neighborhood of 63,000 for $210,000. In September, 1900, the total sales amounted to 21,807 for $69,012.54. The land sold this year exceeds the sales up to the same period of last year by about 40,000 acres.

Czolgosz Silent.

Auburn, N. Y., Oct. 1.—Czolgosz's first Sunday in the condemned cell was unmarked by special incident. He is taciturn and his only conversation with the guards is concerning meats. His appetite is unimpaired, and he seems to have entirely recovered from his recent collapse. He has had no callers.

Negligent Letter-Writers.

London, Oct. 1.—Canadian correspondents must remember that two cents postage rate to the United Kingdom and the colonies is for half-ounce letters. Very little regard has been paid to the weight, and in consequence thousands of letters received here are surcharged double.

Quick Death at Kingston.

Kingston, Oct. 1.—Mrs. Thomas Moore, wife of a keeper in the Kingston Penitentiary, dropped dead Sunday evening. After supper she went to her room, toppled over on the bed and expired almost immediately, death being due to heart disease. She was aged about 60.

Fatal Railway Wreck.

Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 1.— Two freight trains on the Berkshire division of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company collided head-on at Long Hill this morning. Three men were killed and two seriously injured.

The McKinley Islands.

New York, Oct. 1.—A suggestion which is meeting with favor, is to change the name of the Philippine Islands to the McKinley Islands, says the Washington correspondent of The Tribune.

The Czar's Peace Dream.

London, Oct. 1.—It is stated that the Czar is again working diligently upon his universal peace idea, and his plan for general disarmament, and that he means to spring another surprise as astounding as The Hague Peace Conference. He proposed to President Loubet that Alsace and Lorraine be converted into an independent buffer state, which would remove the chief obstacle to general disarmament.

SIFTON TRIAL AT LONDON

Day Spent With the Doctors Who Are Both Ways.

Crown Closed, and Defence Began Its Case With Medical Testimony—Injuries Were Not Inflicted by an Ax Say Some of Them—Fourteen Blows Would Have Crushed in the Elder Sifton's Head Like a Shell.

London, Ont., Oct. 1.—At the Sifton trial yesterday morning the first witness was John Sifton, brother of the late Joseph Sifton, and uncle of the prisoner. He was introduced to give information about wills. He was called as a Crown witness. He said that Gerald Sifton did not, as far as he was aware, know of the contents of Joseph Sifton's will. He said further, he had never asked for an inquest.

In cross-examination Mr. Johnston got the facts about the famous butter-paper will, made on the night before the tragedy, before the jury, and all about Edgar Morden and his doings with it. John Sifton had entered suit against Morden and gained a verdict, having proved that the butter-paper will was a forgery.

By John Waters, registrar of Middlesex, it was attempted to prove that Gerald Sifton was financially involved, and in such circumstances that the death of his father would afford great relief and a great inheritance.

Mr. Johnston objected. He pointed out that there was no evidence that Sifton knew the contents of his father's will.

The court upheld the objection.

David Lockie identified the knife found in the straw in the Sifton barn mow as the one he had lent Joseph Sifton a few days before his death.

Martin Morden was recalled. He said that Gerald Sifton had told him that the late Joseph Sifton had in his will left an inheritance to him (Sifton). He would not swear to the day or month the conversation took place, nor anything more about it. Sifton had said to him, "Everything is willed to me." That he remembered distinctly.

"Why did you not tell of it when in the box the other day?" asked His Lordship.

"I did not think it was necessary," said Morden.

Edward Peters, a neighbor, said that there had been trouble between Joseph and Gerald Sifton, because of Joseph calling Mrs. Sifton names. He said he would have been mad, too, if his wife had been called such a name. Joseph Sifton was a quarrelsome man.

An adjournment was here taken to permit of consultation of Crown lawyers.

The adjournment made by the Crown was brief and the medical evidence was resumed.

Dr. Williams of London said he believed the bruises on Sifton's head might be made by a fall or a series of blows. He discredited Herbert's statement that 10 or 12 blows were poured on the head.

Dr. Williams stated that neither Sifton's skull nor Dr. MacNeil's evidence as to the conditions he found, told any such story as that told by Walter Herbert of the number of blows from two such powerful men delivered with intent to kill.

Dr. Roome told much the same story.

The Defence.

The Crown closed its case with the evidence of medical experts, and the defence was initiated with more expert testimony; so that it was a day spent with the doctors. The evidence summed up was that "it might and it might not."

The defence put Dr. A. J. Johnston and Dr. John Caven of Toronto in the box, and both gentlemen inclined in their statements to the theory that the injuries could not have been inflicted by an ax as described by the prisoner, Herbert.

The defence are understood to have decided not to put the prisoner in the box, as had been intended at one stage of the case.

During the afternoon Dr. Hossack of Lucan said he could not understand one impact causing the injuries. Dr. Morris of Delaware and Dr. W. T. Teasdell of London were strongly against the theory of the fracture and wounds being due to a fall. Dr. John Ferguson of Toronto did not believe in the theory of a fall. This closed the case for the Crown. The cross-examination of Dr. Caven was in progress when the court rose at 6 o'clock.

MR. WALLACE CRITICALLY ILL.

Five Days Will See Him Around or on Verge of Total Collapse.

Toronto, Oct. 1.—Hon. N. Clarke Wallace was resting easily last night. There was no perceptible change in his condition from the day previously, but he was so weak as not to be able to raise himself up in bed.

Dr. McPhedron held a consultation with the local physician, Dr. King, yesterday afternoon, and they express the opinion that his condition is extremely grave, yes, even critical. There is a possibility, however, that Mr. Wallace may be able to be around in a few days, and whilst this is the hope of his friends, it should not be built upon too hopefully, in view of his present very low condition. From a reliable source it is learned that five days will find the patient improved or on the verge of total collapse.

Mr. Tarte Must Explain.

Montreal, Oct. 1.—A special meeting of the Montreal Harbor Board was held yesterday to consider what action the board should take in regard to the charge made by Mr. Tarte that the sum of $20,000 had been offered to the board on behalf of Mr. Jamieson to rush through the elevator contract. It was finally decided to write to Mr. Tarte asking for an explanation.

Inquiry Wound Up.

Ottawa, Oct. 1.—Prof. S. J. McLean, who has been conducting an enquiry into the railway rate grievances in Canada, on behalf of the Government, has concluded his investigation, and returned to the University of Arkansas. There he will draw up his report and forward it to the Minister of Railways.

A Nine-Hour Day.

Knoxville, Tenn., Oct. 1.—Judge C. D. Clark, W. R. Fairly and Henry Well Davis, arbitrators in the coal miners wage scale controversy, have rendered a decision providing that nine hours shall constitute a working day without change in wages now paid, and that one pay day per month shall remain.

King and Queen in Venice.

Venice, Oct. 1.—For the first time since their accession to the throne, the King and Queen of Italy have paid a visit to Venice, arriving here last evening shortly before 6 o'clock. A grandiose and picturesque reception was given by the Queen of the Adriatic to the young Sovereigns.

C.M.G.'S AND K.C.M.G.'S.

The conferring of honors by the Heir Apparent to the Throne of Great Britain, now on a visit to Canada, has created no little dissatisfaction and comments by some who thought themselves of sufficient importance to deserve distinctions which they did not receive.

His Royal Highness tendered, as a mark of approval of what had been done, the order of C.M.G. to the Mayors of Quebec, Montreal and Toronto, not, it is to be presumed, for any great service rendered to the state, but for the reason that they are Mayors of the three chief cities which he visited, or intended to visit. The two former gentlemen, Hon. Mr. Parent, of Quebec, and Mr. Prefontaine, Mayor of Montreal, declined the honor, because the order of C.M.G. was not to their liking, at least that is the conclusion to which the reader of current events must arrive, if the published interviews with the Mayor of Montreal, who does not conceal his disappointment, but indulges in a good deal of unseemly comment, and displays not a little chagrin, on account of his not being offered a higher distinction, that of K.C.M.G., and, what is more extraordinary, the fault he lays at the door of the Governor-General, by telling interviewers that Sir Wilfrid recommended a higher distinction for himself and Quebec's Mayor, but that His Excellency Lord Minto intervened and prevented the much coveted distinction being bestowed upon them.

Without discussing the pros and cons of the right of the Premier to advise or the prerogative of the Governor to act without his advice it would be interesting to learn who conveyed the information to Mr. Prefontaine that the advice was given, and rejected by the Governor.

Members of a Cabinet, if we understand our system of Government, are solemnly sworn not to divulge any advice given to the Governor General by the head of the Government. Who has forgotten his oath of office in order to appease the wrath and wounded feelings of Mayor Prefontaine, and divulged the secrets of the Council Chamber, by betraying the advice given to His Excellency for no other purpose than that of relieving Laurier from blame by throwing the responsibility upon the Governor? This is a question for the Opposition to probe in Parliament when it next meets.

Under our system of Government, under ordinary circumstances, the Governor is bound to act upon the advice of his Ministers, or they should resign. There is, however, another view to be taken of this question, is the Governor-General bound to seek the advice of the Prime Minister upon a question of conferring of honors upon His Majesty's subjects? We doubt it.

Upon this point and upon the unseemly conduct of the disappointed Mayor of Montreal and his friends in talking and complaining of not being sufficiently recognized by Royalty, and throwing the blame upon the Governor-General, the Montreal Star, editorially, makes the following sensible and pointed comments:—

> Without serving any good purpose, there has been a good deal of unseemly personal discussion of the honors recent bestowed upon Canadians, and of those that were not bestowed. These honors are of value and significance only in so far as they are conferred strictly upon merit. If there are any who have real cause for disappointment they should remember the saying that it is better to have deserved and lost than to have won without deserving. Take, for example, the knighthoods most generally bestowed in Canada—those of the Order of St. Michael and St. George. These were specifically created by the Sovereign as rewards for those who had to their credit some great service to the Empire in connection with the colonies. To accept such a decoration without deserving it, would indicate a very mean nature in the recipient. The Governor-General, who sends his recommendations to the Sovereign, may or may not consult the Premier, whose advice, when sought, or volunteered, may be conveyed with the recommendations, or entirely disregarded. The Governor-General has in these matters a very serious responsibility, as his discretion is relied upon, and it is safe to say he may always be depended upon as utterly beyond susceptibility to wrong advice. The Governor represents the Empire, not Canada, and it is the good of the Empire he keeps in view in his official acts. In the matter of honors he is just as much alive to the claims of justice as a commander in the army, whose advice is accepted in the bestowal of rewards. Suppose in time of war a general should recommend for the Victoria Cross a soldier who had never crossed the danger zone or who had never been in action. Would not such conduct be a source of injury to Imperial interests? The Governor-General quite as keenly knows that a swerving from the path that justice points out to him would make him equally guilty of creating mischievous precedents.
> To seek to exercise political or personal influence to procure the unworthy bestowal of honors is in itself ignoble. To yield to such influence would be degrading.

TIMELY TOPICS.

This is the last week in which the Fifteenth will have an opportunity to prepare for the Royal review, so it behooves everybody connected with the Regiment to do his utmost to help along the efficiency of the Corps. Departure from Belleville will be made about 11 o'clock on the night of Tuesday, October 8th. On Wednesday there will be a rehearsal of the review. On Thursday the troops will line the streets for the Royal procession, on Friday the Royal review and presentation of medals will take place, and on the same evening the Regiment will leave for home, thus leaving Saturday untouched, quite a consideration to Belleville people.

It's going to cost London, Ont., $33 a minute to entertain the Duke. If Belleville's reception costs that much we may as well prepare to mortgage the City Hall at once.

Rev. Thos. Atkins, of Hamilton, appealed to his congregation for a thousand dollars on Sunday last, and got it. It was a case of pay, pay, pay!

A gentleman remarked to The Intelligencer: "I see by your account of the Shannonville Fair that it was very successful. Why is it that Belleville cannot have an exhibition? Is it because the farmers won't support any fair but their own little one, or is it because the people of Belleville won't do their share towards it?"

Probably both the above questions are partially correct. One thing is certain, however, Belleville should have a fair, and could if the proper amount of interest were taken. In days gone by the Belleville Fair was second to none between Toronto and Ottawa. The Government grant is available any time our people are ready to put themselves in a position to claim it. Why not make an effort next year?

Congratulations to Miss Edith Jones. Gold medallists are not so plentiful in Belleville that an event of this kind should pass unnoticed; therefore we join in felicitating this clever young lady.

The Duke of York has had a new shoe named after him. It takes such a high polish that Major Maude can see his face in it.

The elections must be near at hand, for the Wiarton Canadian says "agents of the Ross Government have been endeavoring to touch Mr. Clergue for $50,000 for campaign purposes." No better sign of what's coming is needed, than this attempt to levy blackmail upon men who have received favors from the Ross Government.

An attempt was made to blow up the vault which contained the body of the late President McKinley. The soldier on guard was stabbed and fired at one of his assailants. The Anarchists seem to carry their enmity to the late President beyond the tomb.

It is to be hoped the Duke of York won't arrive here on one of those nights when the electric lights are not going. He might think we were given to deeds of darkness.

If anyone wants to learn how the Grits carry elections in Nova Scotia let them read the following appeal of a Lunenburgh Grit organ: "Fishermen! Davison and MacLean have a big pull with the federal and local governments. By your vote, on Wednesday next, show that you want your harbors dredged. Drop party and vote for your own interests. If the opposition candidates are returned, they can do nothing for you." This is how public money is used to buy votes!

What would Jenny Geddes have said could she have had a forecast of the "organization" of the Scottish Presbyterian churches by Mr. Carnegie? —Ottawa Free Press.

She would have thrown two stools at him.

Alderman Lewis, of Ottawa, has asked the Court for an injunction to restrain the city from spending $7,000 on the Royal reception. The defence of the city is, that being an alderman, Lewis is disqualified from suing the city, and having sued the city is disqualified from being an alderman. A singular defence, truly. If the defence of the city be upheld by the courts, it would simply mean that no member of a municipal corporation could ask the courts to step in and prevent illegal expenditures. This would be a sad state of affairs.

The spectacle, says the Bobcaygeon Independent of half a dozen top-notch medical men searching for four hours for the bullet that killed McKinley and then being stopped by the family, looks as if an ordinary hospital student was needed on the job.

The strict punctuality with which the Royal party now touring Canada keep engagements, writes the Arnprior Chronicle, is exciting comment. They do everything on schedule time and nobody is kept waiting after the hour—an hour announced weeks beforehand. Royalty's example in this respect might well be copied by the general public. Much annoyance would thereby be saved, much trouble averted. Punctuality has been defined as the first test of politeness; a great many people appear to regard it as the last. Late comers and late goers make a note of it.

The colored witness, being asked his age, said to the court:

"Well, suh, I was a young man w'en freedom broke out."

"What year was that?"

"Hit was the year de Yankees come in, suh."

"You do not seem to have a very accurate idea of time?"

"Oh, yes, suh; hit was 'long 'bout hog-killin' time!"

A gentleman who works in a mine not a thousand miles from this city tells of the rather ingenious way in which a gold stealer managed to get away with some of the yellow metal which didn't belong to him. "'Twas the witching hour of night when church yards yawn," as Shakespeare says, and the people who were in the portion of the mine where the gold is kept were surprised and terrified by seeing a ghost. They knew it was a ghost for it was dressed in white. Without standing on the order of their going the spectators went out of the doors and windows. Some of them were sure they could smell sulphur. When they went back the ghost was gone; so was some of the gold. This is the story as it is given to us. If you don't believe it go and ask the ghost for further particulars.

DIAMOND DYES

—AND—

DIAMOND DYES MAT AND RUG PATTERNS

Are the Favorites Everywhere.

For over twenty years the Diamond Dyes have been the chosen and popular home dyes all over the civilized world. In Europe, Asia, Africa and Australia, Diamond Dyes are as eagerly sought for as in the home of this continent. Diamond Dyes dye perfectly all weights of fabrics, producing rich and brilliant colors that never fade.

The "Diamond Dye Mat and Rug Patterns" are also deservedly popular. The designs are artistically colored on the best Scotch Hessian and ready for hooking. Any lady in her spare time can make up a pretty mat or rug at small cost. Send your address to The Wells & Richardson Co., Limited, Montreal, and you will receive free of cost sheets of designs to select from.

THE DUKE OF ARGYLL

WRITES AN INTERESTING LETTER TO COL. PONTON — A DEER STALKING STORY.

Col. Ponton has received the following letter from the Duke of Argyll, Hon. Colonel of the Fifteenth:

Inveraray, Argyllshire,
Sept. 15, 1901.

My dear Colonel Ponton,—I only received to-day your welcome letter of the 29th August, containing so much news interesting to me. Our Regiment will greatly regret your departure, though they will congratulate themselves that you have a worthy successor in Major (I suppose by this time Colonel) Halliwell. I will have the photo forwarded. * * *

When you tell me of men who were Ministers in my time in Canada, as well as men of Hulme's age, running off to the Klondyke, it makes me fear that there will be no one left in Ontario, and that the seat of Government will be placed at the mouths of mining shafts or around banks of the best stream "claims."

Here we have just had a war medal distribution to members who have served. One or two of them were Lovat's Scouts, recruited in the Highlands. The Cockney chaff in South Africa against them was that once when the Boers unexpectedly decamped, one of Lovat's Scouts, an old deer stalker, said, "They surely cannot have got our wind!"

Believe me, yours truly,
(Sgd.) ARGYLL.

Suits FOR Young Men

For the young fellows who are nearly men, but who are a mighty sight more particular than most men—those young fellows who knows what's what when it comes to the shape of a coat or the hang of the trousers—for those exacting young fellows we have provided a larger variety in Suits than heretofore. They've encouraged us to do so, because they are always looking to us for everything that's fashionable and snappy. And then they appreciate the efforts we take in fitting their clothes.

$5 to $15.

An investment in a policy of life insurance is far preferable to deposits in a Savings Bank. They both accumulate interests and take care of deposits, but the life company does more, it provides for the payment of a larger sum in case of the death of the depositor. S. WILLIAM CLACEY'S VERY CLOSE CALL

Had Just Put Animal in Stable When Injuries Were Received

William Clacey, a young man 18 years of age, who for the past six months has been in the employ of Mr. Sine, blacksmith, met with terrible injuries last night which it is feared may prove fatal.

The young man was last evening sent out in the country by Mr. Sine, to procure some straw. He arrived back in Belleville a few minutes before 11, Mr. and Mrs. Sine, with whom he lived, being in bed. His employer had left everything in readiness for the young man's return. The latter drove into the yard, unhitched the mare and put her in the stable. Shortly afterwards Mr. Sine was awakened by the neighbors, who told him that young Clacey had been terribly injured by the mare. On hastening to the stable Mr. Sine found the poor young fellow lying just outside the door, unconscious, but moaning. His head was frightfully cut and smashed, and he was also seriously injured internally.

Mr. Sine thinks that the mare must have stepped on the lad's foot, as one of his boots bears the mark of a calk; this frightened the mare and she kicked the lad somewhere in the body, causing him to fall beneath the animal's feet, which had then, in her fright, trampled on him. He had, doubtless, just sufficient strength left to crawl outside the stable before he became unconscious.

Mr. Sine says he left a lantern burning when he went to bed, but the oil had all burned out before the unfortunate young fellow got home, so it was very likely on account of the darkness that the mare became frightened.

The animal has always been quiet and well-behaved since Mr. Sine owned her, and he cannot understand why she acted in such a manner last night.

Medical aid was summoned so soon as the injured man was discovered, and he was at once removed to the hospital. Enquiry to-day elicited the statement that his case was a very grave one, indeed.

"Canada is Good Enough for Me."

SO SAYS REV. DR. CROTHERS, WHO THIS MORNING RETURNED FROM A VISIT TO THE OLD COUNTRY.

Rev. Dr. Crothers, Pastor of Bridge St. Church, who has been in London attending the Methodist Ecumenical Conference, arrived in the city early this morning. His experience, he says, has been a most enjoyable one. This was his first visit to London, and, naturally, he saw much to make him open his eyes. The Doctor went to the Glasgow Exposition, and says Canada's exhibit was the best one there.

"People can't do too much for Canadians," he said. "When I told them I came from Canada, they were very kind, indeed.

"You had some trouble with the pro-Boers in the conference, didn't you?" he was asked.

"That was a small clique," said the Doctor, "who simply wanted to make a noise. They were pretty well dressed down by Mr. Gibson and Rev. Dr. Potts of Canada. There is no doubt at all, in my mind, though, that the pro-Boer agitation is responsible for the prolongation of the war in South Africa."

"Popular opinion, however, is with the Government, is it not?" asked the newspaper man.

"Entirely," said the Doctor. "I talked with all sorts of people, and the people, almost as a unit, want to see the war finished properly this time. They believe the Government to be doing the right thing, and support them heartily."

"You had a pleasant journey, I suppose?" asked the scribe.

"Very," said the Doctor. "It was a source of much enjoyment and inspiration; I shall never forget it. But there's one thing I'm quite sure of," he said, smilingly, "Canada is good enough for me."

SOME STATISTICS.

The statistics prepared by the recent Ecumenical Conference of Methodism, which met in London, England, from the 4th to the 17th inst., are as follows: Ministers 48,334, local preachers 104,780, Churches 89087, Sunday Schools 81,228, Sunday School officers and teachers 861,392, Sunday School scholars 7,077,079, Members of the Church, 7,659,285, Adherents of the Church 24,899,421. Total Members and Adherents 32,558,706. An increase in ten years of 5,051 Ministers, 5,584 Local Preachers, 17,891 Churches, 1,155,326 Members of Church, 4,536,939 Adherents, 2,442,917 Sunday School Scholars.

Shamrock Had A Very Good Lead

But Wind Was Not Strong Enough to Complete Race in Time Limit.

Shamrock Turned First Mark Over Two Minutes Ahead of the Yankee Boat

New York, Oct. 1.—Columbia and Shamrock are to-day contesting the second race of the International Yacht series. The course is a triangle, ten miles to a leg. Betting on the race is light here. Small wagers are the rule.

The official time of the start was: Columbia 11:00:10, Shamrock 11:00:22.

The wind was very light. At 12:10 Columbia passed Shamrock to windward on port tack, and was then leading; wind light.

At 1 p.m. the yachts had covered about 4 miles, and unless the wind freshened they could not finish inside time limit.

At 2:12 the Shamrock turned the first stake boat; Columbia turned at 2:14:20.

At 3 o'clock both yachts were standing to the southward on the port tack, and the Shamrock was increasing her lead.

The next despatch said the race had been declared off.

CLOTHING PRESSED FREE.

In buying your clothing it is just as well to bear in mind that all clothing purchased at the Oak Hall is pressed free (as often as you wish) for one year. It costs 75cts. the suit to get it done in the regular way. When you consider that you always get the best value at this store, don't you think the pressing idea quite a consideration?

AN APOLOGY CALLED FOR ANOTHER INSTANCE OF HOW A CONTEMPORARY MANUFACTURES ITS FACTS.

A case was before the Police Magistrate yesterday, evidently arising from a misunderstanding, which has not been decided when this paper went to press last night. A Mrs. Sidley, of this city, attended an auction sale at the residence of Dr. Elliot and claimed that she bought, for 35 cents, a "cosy corner." It seems that Mrs. Sidley thought she was buying the article complete, framework, tapestry, cushions and all, to the probable value of $20 or $25, whereas the auctioneer only sold the lower part. Mrs. Sidley claimed the whole thing, and, when all but the lower part was refused her, took the case to the Police Court. As before stated the case was not decided till after both local papers went to press yesterday, and the Magistrate, after hearing the evidence, decided that Mrs. Sidley had no grounds for her action, so dismissed the case, ordering the costs to be paid by the plaintiff.

A local paper, without waiting till the case was decided, took on itself to "fake" a verdict, stating that the case had been decided in favor of Mrs. Sidley, and that the Doctor had been ordered to give up all the articles claimed, whereas the opposite was the case.

FURS.

Having completed my annual stock of furs and secured the services of a first-class cutter, I am now prepared to fill all orders PROMPTLY, and will also keep in stock samples of my own manufacture. All work and goods guaranteed.—M. H. HERBERT, residence Charlotte St., west of Commercial. Hours 10 to 12, and 2 to 6.

A Gold Medallist

The many friends of Miss Edith Jones, daughter of Mr. W. Flint Jones, of this city, note with pleasure the fact that she has been awarded the gold medal in the graduating class of Grace Hospital, Toronto. It was confidently expected that Miss Jones would do herself credit in her chosen profession; that the hope was not a vain one has been amply proven.

ALWAYS BUY AT THIS STORE.

Quick & Robertson have the well merited reputation of dealing squarely with their customers, and in having at all times a most complete assortment of clothing for men and boys. In their hat and cap department special pride is taken both in the lowness of prices and the choiceness of their stock. It is no wonder that this store is always busy.

Disorderly Conduct

Shortly after midnight last night the police had a call to the G.T.R. station, it being reported that two men were acting in a disorderly manner. It appears that both were under the influence of liquor and got into Walter Lambert's hack and did some damage to the vehicle by tearing the lining and cushions. They settled for the damage done and were allowed to go.

WEAK BACK AND SPINAL PAINS.

Pains in the back number their victims in thousands. Only very powerful and penetrating remedies will reach these distressing complaints, but Polson's Nerviline is as sure to cure them as anything in this world can be sure. Rub Nerviline over the sore parts night and morning, and see how quickly it drives out the pain. Five times stronger than any other. Good for internal and external use. Large bottles, 25c.

New Leader for the Band

At the conclusion of the I.O.O.F. band practice last evening, a meeting of the members and officers was held for the purpose of considering the question of engaging a new leader. I was decided to get a new leader at once and Mr. John Denmark, of Deseronto, was selected. Mr. Denmark has for ten years been leader of the Deseronto band, and has also led the Napanee band. He is highly spoken of as a musician and leader.

METHODIST WOMEN TALK ON MISSIONS

First Session of the Eighth Convention Opened in Bridge St. Church This Morning.

Attendance Not Large, but is Expected to Increase—Committees Appointed.

The eighth annual convention of the Bay of Quinte Branch of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church was opened in Bridge St. Church this morning at 10 o'clock, Mrs. G. D. Platt, of Picton, the President, being in the chair.

The platform was beautifully decorated with plants and flowers, and the sight of the ladies, all very much in earnest, gathered together to uplift the cause of the Master was a pleasant and impressive one.

On the platform were seated, besides the President, Mrs. (Rev.) Wilson, of Brighton; Mrs. L. Massey, of Wallbridge, and Mrs. (Rev.) Copeland, of Port Perry, the two former ladies being vice-presidents and the latter lady being recording secretary.

Devotional exercises were conducted by the two vice-presidents, the prayers being fitting in every way to the occasion.

The roll call of delegates showed a large number already in attendance.

The next order of business was the appointment of two Committees, namely: Memorial and Courtesy. Those composing these Committees are as follows:

Memorial—Mrs. (Rev.) T. M. Campbell, Mrs. (Rev.) J. H. Locke, Mrs. (Rev.) W. D. Harrison, Mrs. A. W. Gray, Mrs. C. H. Elliott.

Courtesy—Mrs. D. Harrison, Mrs. (Rev.) M. E. Wilson, Mrs. G. E. Fraser and Mrs. Wm. Charters.

Mrs. (Rev. Dr.) Crothers, Mrs. (Rev.) J. G. Lewis, and Mrs. A. Davis were appointed a press Committee.

Mrs. Raynor was appointed Assistant Secretary.

Reports were read from the organizers of the Napanee, Campbellford, Madoc and Tweed Districts, which were very satisfactory in their nature.

A letter of greeting was read from the Epworth League of Bridge St. Church extending to the delegates a hearty welcome, and also a cordial invitation to all to avail themselves of the privileges of the reading room.

The greeting and invitation was cordially received.

The session was brought to a close by the singing of the Doxology and the pronouncing of the Benediction by Mrs. (Rev.) J. C. Wilson.

NOTES.

The visiting delegates are billeted with members of Bridge St., the Tabernacle and Holloway St. churches

Mrs. Henry Pringle and Miss Lazier preside at the table of literature.

The conference opened auspiciously, and much good is expected to accrue.

Some of the ladies look sleepy. No wonder, they were in the cars all night, having been on the trains from the west which were delayed owing to a run-off at Darlington.

The singing it may be remarked had not in it much of the heartiness that one is accustomed to in Methodist gatherings.

One lady has her baby with her. That's one way to "train up a child in the way it should go." It may be a lady missionary yet.

The President, Mrs. Platt, of Picton, is the wife of the Public School Inspector for Prince Edward Co.

The Recording Secretary is a former resident here, wife of the Rev. Mr. Copeland at one time Pastor of the Tabernacle.

Mrs. James Kendry is the wife of the Member of Parliament for the West Riding of Peterboro. She is one of the District organizers.

The number of Ministers' wives who are delegates is remarkable. It speaks well for the popularity and zeal of these ladies, to be the free will choice of the churches of which their husbands are the pastors.

Mrs. Crossley, wife of the Rev. D. O. Crossley, another former pastor of the Tabernacle, represents the Charlotte St. Church, Peterboro.

Probably the most interesting person in the gathering is a young Japanese lady. We haven't got the correct pronounciation of her name, and haven't had time to learn to spell it.

One of the lady Missionaries will introduce an innovation to us at such meetings. She has found out how valuable an aid "the lantern" has been to convey truth from the eye to the mind and will to-morrow evening illustrate her talk with it.

Police Court

Insulting Language.

Some more evidence was taken this morning in the case of Wm. Haight, who is charged with using insulting language towards Dr. Baker. The Magistrate reserved his decision until Saturday. Mr. McMahon for plaintiff; Mr. Carnew for defendant.

Bright Young Man Dead

Many residents of Belleville will learn with genuine regret of the death at Montreal on Sept. 17, of Mr. Willie Walsh, of Ormstown, Que., a nephew of Mrs. (Dr.) Clarke, of this city. Two years ago Mr. Walsh was for some months a student in this city and his genial disposition and many good qualities made him a favorite among a large circle of friends. He had suffered from several attacks of appendicitis, but the last seemed more serious and an operation was considered necessary. The result was for a few days apparently successful, but a change for the worse set in and death ensued.

Broke His Arm.

A lad named Delbert Page, residing on Catherine street, met with a painful accident last night. He, with a number of boys, was playing, when, attempting to get over a fence, he fell, fracturing his right arm.

CORN LIGHTNING.

That's Putnam's Corn Extractor. Gives corns tired feeling in about twenty-four hours. They consequently get out, as they cannot keep up the pain any longer—makes them weary—it's Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor that does this. Now don't forget. All druggists.

UNTOLD MISERY — WHAT A WELL-KNOWN COMMERCIAL TRAVELLER SUFFERED, AND HOW HE WAS CURED.—Gentlemen, About five years ago I began to be troubled with Dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time travelling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine and when the third bottle was finished, I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of Dyspepsia. (Signed), T. S. McINTEE.

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung and throat troubles, there is no preparation of medicine can compare with Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to afford prompt and permanent relief. It removes all soreness, and heals the diseased parts. It immediately soothes the most troublesome cough, and by promoting expectoration, removes the mucus which stops up the air tubes which causes difficulty in breathing, thereby gives relief to that depressing tightness experienced in the chest. Public speakers and singers will find Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup of inestimable value, as it speedily and effectually allays all irritation, and huskiness in the throat and bronchial tubes, and gives power to the vocal cords, rendering the voice clear and sonorous. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of "Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup," and whenever a child has taken cold, has a cough or hoarseness, give the Syrup according to directions.

Bile Poisons, Liver Disorders,

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.

There is no single organ in the human body which exerts such a wide influence over the other organs as does the liver. It has been well named the regulator of the system. Once the liver grows sluggish and fails to filter bile poisons from the system, there comes pain, disease and death. The head aches, the tongue is coated, the bowels become constipated, the digestive system is thrown out of order, and foul impurities, that should be removed from the body, are thrown back into the blood stream, to find their way to the weak spots of the human frame.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have a direct action on the liver, and bring prompt relief and lasting benefit. Nearly everybody is familiar with the extraordinary virtues of this famous treatment. Here is a sample of the letters received from cured ones:—

Mr. John Skelton, the well-known bridge builder of 101 Sherwood street, Ottawa, states:

"I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for kidney and liver derangement, brought on by exposure, and find them better than any pill or medicine I have ever used.

"They cleansed my system and made me feel healthy and vigorous and better in every way. I can recommend them as the best liver and kidney medicine that I know of."

Mrs. G. Bird, Harriston, Ont., says:

"I have suffered agonies from sick headache and dizziness, often having to take to my bed. Reading of your celebrated Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, I tried a box of them. They indeed are wonders—relieve quickly."

Mr. James Baird, postmaster, Consecon, Ont., states:

"It gives me and my wife much pleasure to recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills as a family medicine of superior value. We use them in preference to all other pills in our family, and I might here state that they cured me when suffering from biliousness, and also cured my wife of sick headache, from which she suffered severely."

Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Company, Toronto.

A Dread Experience.

Oh, warfare is a dreadful thing,
For when its cloud appears
We fight three months, and afterward
We quarrel for several years!

Risky.

Customer—What! Never shave yourself? How's that?

Barber—I'm so nervous I'm afraid.

Good Reason.

"No; I don't think I'll marry Cholly."

"Why not?"

"I can't get him to propose."

Ill.

Marriage sadly fails in cases,
And doubtless always will,
For the vowels "u" and "i" to diphthongs
Lend themselves but ill.

True Enough.

"Well, may be; it certainly turns a man's head.

A New Departure

A NEW, EFFECTUAL AND CONVENIENT CURE FOR CATARRH.

Of catarrh remedies there is no end, but of catarrh cures, there has always been a great scarcity. There are many remedies to relieve, but very few that really cure.

The old practice of snuffing salt water through the nose would often relieve and the washes, douches, powders and inhalers in common use are very little, if any, better than the old fashioned salt water douche.

The use of inhalers and the application of salves, washes and powders to the nose and throat to cure catarrh is no more reasonable than to rub the back to cure kidney disease. Catarrh is just as much a blood disease as kidney trouble or rheumatism, and it cannot be cured by local treatment any more than they can be.

To cure catarrh, whether in the head, throat or stomach an internal antiseptic treatment is necessary to drive the catarrhal poison out of the blood and system, and the new catarrh cure is designed on this plan and the remarkable success of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is because being used internally it drives out catarrhal infection through action upon stomach, liver and bowels.

Wm. Zimmerman, of St. Joseph, relates an experience with catarrh which is of value to millions of catarrh sufferers everywhere. He says: "I neglected a slight nasal catarrh until it gradually extended to my throat and bronchial tubes and finally even my stomach and liver became affected, but as I was able to keep up and do a day's work I let it run along until my hearing began to fail me and then I realized that I must get rid of catarrh or lose my position as I was clerk and my hearing was absolutely necessary.

"Some of my friends recommended an inhaler, another a catarrh salve, but they were no good in my case, nor was anything else until I heard of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and bought a package at my store. They benefited me from the start and in less than four months I was completely cured of catarrh although I had suffered nearly all my life from it.

"They are pleasant to take and so much more convenient to use than other catarrh remedies, that I feel I cannot say enough in favor of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets."

A little book on cause and cure of catarrh will be mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., and the tablets are sold by all druggists in the United States and Canada.

MIRAGE SURPRISES.

PUZZLING PICTURES IN THE DESERT COUNTRY OF ARIZONA.

Wonderful Illusions That Vanish From Sight Like a Shooting Star and Some Others That Linger Until the Going Down of the Sun.

As the mirage is so infrequent in the populous part of our country and as so little is said about it, it is probable that the majority of Americans know it only by name, though they may have read descriptions of the mirage of the Sahara desert or the Fata Morgana of Sicily and southern Italy. Occasionally it may be seen across Lake Ontario, and New York state may look upon a Canadian town pictured upon the sky. This happens but once in many years.

But the mirage of the southwest becomes a friend, a sort of traveling companion. As the traveler passes through Arizona on the train he sees the lakes coming and going all the time and wonders if it is not a mistake to call it a desert. Occasionally he will be astonished to see wild animals come so near the train, but when he sees some great beasts, larger than the elephant, he begins to ask questions and is likely to feel skeptical when told that it is all a fancy and due to the mirage. Our party was growing so used to phantoms that we were confident we could not be mistaken again. Nevertheless we were.

We had left the Moqui reservation and were traveling toward the Chiquito river when we beheld a city chiseled out of marble, with cathedrals and towers, with pillars capped with Grecian gods and Christian saints, with streets of marble and a river winding its way through the city. We believed it a real city and thought it was built of marble because it was so plentiful here. It was a city of splendor, but a child of the sun, which gave life and beauty to the sand barren desert, and, lo, when we look again the magic city, with its wonderful towers and pillars and river, has vanished like a shooting star!

Along the Colorado river the mirage is frequent. Sometimes the objects are reversed and appear to be upside down, sometimes vertical—that is, standing one above the other. The scientists say that these mirages are caused by the beating of the sand, the atmosphere being of much higher temperature near the surface, where it expands rapidly, but leaves the greater volume of air above dense; that the sun striking the air obliquely forms an angle of light because it passes uniformly through the dense air, but when reaching the diffused air it pierces more rapidly and inclines straight toward the earth instead of obliquely, with a tendency to turn back toward the denser atmosphere. This angle of light causes a reflection. The objects on the earth are shadowed in the lower strata and reflected from that upon the higher. And yet this was not a satisfactory explanation to us, for the mirage astonished and amused us after the sun had gone.

One evening we were sitting on the steps of a ranch cabin when, looking toward the south, we saw a magnificent monastery. We were surprised that we had not seen it before. It was then growing dark, and we could see it until total darkness closed. In the morning it was gone. The next morning we were aroused before daylight in order that we might see the train at The Needles, about 80 miles south. We could see the cars plainly, as well as the men. The whole scene seemed but a few hundred yards away. This, we were told, may be observed almost any morning in the year.

The next surprise the mirage gave us was near the Papago Indian reservation. One morning we were presented the picture of a lively city. The houses and the markets were plain, and the inhabitants, wearing their serapes and sombreros. Many were going to church, the water carriers were hurrying about, men on mustangs were going here and there and there was no mistaking the fact that it was a real city. We learned afterward that it was the town of Magdalena, Mexico, a hundred miles or more south.

But the most wonderful of all the scenes is that of the Jim Jam valley, in the San Bernardino mountains, over the Arizona line in southern California. From Yuma to the mountains we passed many scenes, the most interesting being the mud "volcanoes." The mud is thrown up from many openings, some springs spouting several feet in height. There is a continual making and destruction of mud pies. These so called volcanoes are sometimes below sea level and generally quite cold, though a few are boiling hot. Both are accompanied by a rumbling noise. One sees the skeletons of many birds that in their search of water have perished by the fumes of the "volcanoes." We saw the remains of mocking birds, golden eagles and the Mexican snowbird.

When we entered the Jim Jam valley through Dead Man's pass, the sun was shining brilliantly. We had not gone far when we witnessed strange things. The walls of the cliffs are frightfully seared and the peaks twisted into tortured forms. Not a living creature of any kind inhabits the valley, which is only 20 miles or so in length and probably half as wide. So far as we could tell, when in our right senses, not a plant or living thing of any nature inhabited this valley. Yet we saw many lakes and rivers and foliage and birds and water fowl which vanished as we proceeded and formed again beyond. We saw strange beasts coming toward us in all directions, which made us restless and the women of our party almost hysterical.

Beyond we saw Indians in their canoes and thought to reach them, but they, too, vanished. In their stead we saw a mountain rise in a lake of silver. Great birds of different hues seemed to hover over the lakes; beautiful trees, with fantastic forms, hung over the water. The mountain seemed to move, and as it moved its summit was crowned by a great ball of blue fire, which was surrounded by a halo of light. We were astonished to see the mountain nearing us. Of course we knew it was an illusion, but when the mountain top appeared to break off and to be falling upon us our nerves were quite unstrung. The women were almost prostrated. We knew that a storm was brewing, so we hastened back. The storm broke before we reached Dead Man's pass, the lightning flashing on all sides of us, [illegible] stars, halos and other fantastic forms. The thunder crashed from wall to wall and seemed to tear the mountains and the very atmosphere.

Upon leaving the valley a feeling of [illegible] came to us, and we all agreed that if it had not been named we certainly would call it the "Jim Jam valley."—De[illegible]

DOCTORS FOR THE DEFENCE

Several Testify in Support of the Defence Theory of a Fall

One Defence Physician, However, Admitted That It Looked as if There Had Been Foul Play, But That Walter Herbert Had Not Rightly Described the Blows Given—Mr. Johnston Accuses Mr. Riddell of Base Trading Practices.

London, Ont., Oct. 2.—At the opening of the court yesterday morning Mr. Justice MacMahon said that he feared that it would be necessary to have evening sessions in order to finish the trial by Friday.

The examination of Dr. Caven amounted to this: The death of Joseph Sifton might have been due to a fall or to blow. He was inclined to the fall theory. A series of blows would have separated the periostium from the skull. A single blow from an ax at right angles would not have produced the skull fracture. A fall would have produced all of the wounds found.

Dr. McCallum of London said that the wounds were consistent with a fall, or two or three blows from an ax, but not consistent with a dozen hard blows. He favored the fall theory.

Dr. Wishart of London was of the same opinion.

Mr. Johnston—"Could a man," he asked, "who wished to conceal a crime, so gauge the blows with an ax to produce these wounds?"

Dr. Wishart declined to answer.

Dr. Balfour, superintendent of Victoria Hospital, London, laid stress on the fact that there was not much blood about. If an ax had been used in the mow there would have been blood.

To Mr. Riddell he said that blood might have been spilt on the chaff and never reached the floor.

The medical evidence continues to pour in. Dr. Routledge of Lambeth, and Dr. Neu corroborated what had already been said by other doctors. They said the injury to the skull might have been caused by an ax, but the blows must be very light ones. A fall was more consistent.

Dr. Shaw of London went further and said he would recognize an ax wound and this was not of that kind.

Dr. J. D. Wilson, London, based his evidence of a fall on the fact that there was blood in the bladder, which means a sudden shock.

Provincial Analyst Ellis said there were no traces of strychnine in the body, there was a trace of mammalian blood on the ax and also hair, probably cow's hair, though he would not be certain.

Dr. Peter Graham of Lobo, a witness for the defence, admitted at the Sifton trial yesterday afternoon that it looked as if there had been foul play, but that Walter Herbert had not rightly described the blows given.

The admission created a sensation.

His Lordship objected to the number of medical witnesses the defence were calling.

"Is this the same thing over and over again?" the judge asked.

The defence refused to forego any of the medical experts, however.

Dr. Gunn of Ailsa Craig, Dr. McWilliam of Thamesford, Dr. H. J. Stevens of London, Dr. Elliott of Napier, Dr. Hugh Lang of Granton, Dr. Bertram Spencer of Toronto University and Dr. Irving Cameron of Toronto were each called.

They favored the theory of a fall—some with greater emphasis than others. They would expect to have found blood in the barn if the Herbert story was correct.

Mr. Johnston, counsel for the prisoner, accused Mr. Riddell, crown counsel, of horse trading tactics, and there was quite a scene in court, crown counsel carrying a protest to the judge.

The defence will take up another line in the morning.

Hon. N. C. Wallace's Condition.

Toronto, Oct. 2.—According to the physicians in attendance upon Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, he is still in a precarious condition. The following notice was given out by the patient's brother, T. F. Wallace, last night: "Last night very restless and this morning very weak. This evening somewhat easier, but is still in a very critical condition. Took considerable nourishment to-day."

Election Case Postponed.

Ottawa, Oct. 2.—In the Terrebonne election case yesterday the former solicitor for the respondent charged collusion between the parties, but the court ordered postponement until next term of court, which will be rescinded if collusion charge is proved.

The Beauharnois election case was heard, and judgment reserved.

Ontario Cheese Wins Gold Medals.

Buffalo, Oct. 2.—Ontario cheesemen have done splendidly at the Pan-American Exposition. They have won the only gold medal awarded for the best exhibit of cheese. The Ontario exhibit consisted of 140 packages chosen by a committee of the Western Dairymen's Association from samples shown from all over the province.

Brakeman Seriously Hurt.

St. Thomas, Oct. 2.—Daniel Handley, brakeman, M. C. R., of this city, fell under an engine at Inwood yesterday, receiving, it is thought, fatal injuries. His right leg was taken off below the knee, while he sustained a double fracture of the left leg, his back, head and arms also being badly injured.

Pope Leo Failing

Rome, Oct. 2.—While the Pope shows no special signs of illness, his physicians note a decrease in his vitality, and his failure to rally quickly after any special exertion, is causing alarm as to his condition.

THOUSANDS OF REBELS.

Chinese Attacked German Mission and Hin Nan City.

London, Oct. 2.—"Thousands of rebels," says a despatch to The Daily Mail from Hong Kong, "after sacking the German mission at Piang Thong, attacked Hin Nan, a city near Canton. They were repulsed, but they then attacked Shakma, where they were again repulsed. Two thousand Chinese troops have been sent to suppress them."

Another Chinese Revolt.

London, Oct. 2.—"Disorders have arisen in Yangtse Province, owing to the ravages of the floods and the diversion of the relief funds by corrupt officials," says the Shanghai correspondent of The Standard. "They threaten to culminate in rebellion. The situation is very grave, and the local authorities have been ordered to raise troops and to prepare to put down any revolt."

What Shall We Eat

TO KEEP HEALTHY AND STRONG?

A healthy appetite and common sense are excellent guides to follow in matters of diet, and a mixed diet of grains, fruits and meats is undoubtedly the best, in spite of the claims made by vegetarians and food cranks generally.

As compared with grains and vegetables, meat furnishes the most nutriment in a highly concentrated form and is digested and assimilated more quickly than vegetables or grains.

Dr. Julius Remusson on this subject says: Nervous persons, people run down in health and of low vitality should eat plenty of meat. If the digestion is too feeble at first it may be easily strengthened by the regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal. Two of these excellent tablets taken after dinner will digest several thousand grains of meat, eggs or other animal food in three or four hours, while the malt diastase also contained in Stuart's Tablets cause the perfect digestion of starchy foods, like potatoes, bread, etc., and no matter how weak the stomach may be, no trouble will be experienced if a regular practice is made of using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets because they supply the pepsin and diastase so necessary to perfect digestion, and any form of indigestion and stomach trouble, except cancer of the stomach will be overcome by their daily use.

That large class of people who come under the head of nervous dyspeptics should eat plenty of meat and insure its complete digestion by the systematic use of a safe, harmless digestive medicine like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, composed of the natural digestive principles, peptones and diastase, which actually perform the work of digestion and give the abused stomach a chance to rest and to furnish the body and brain with the necessary nutriment. Cheap cathartic medicines masquerading under the name of dyspepsia cures are useless for relief or cure of indigestion, because they have absolutely no effect upon the actual digestion of food.

Dyspepsia in all its forms is simply a failure of the stomach to digest food and the sensible way to solve the riddle and cure the indigestion is to make daily use at meal time of a safe preparation which is endorsed by the medical profession and known to contain active digestive principles, and all this can truly be said of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

All druggists throughout the United States, Canada, and Great Britain sell them at the uniform price of fifty cents for full treatment.

On The Fringe Of Fair Canada

The Extreme West Does Its Duty to Britain's Heir Apparent.

Doctors Testify in Defence of Gerald Sifton The Mine Disaster—Philippine Disaster to U. S. Troops—Arabi Pasha Welcomed Home—Mrs. McKinley's Allowance.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 2.—The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York completed their westward tour through Canada yesterday, and today set their faces eastward and toward home. They arrived here yesterday morning and were given one of the most enthusiastic receptions of their trip.

Perfect weather prevailed throughout the day, and the city was in an attractive dress of flags and bunting.

Escorted by Men-of-War.

The last stage of the westward trip from Vancouver to Victoria was made on the steamship Empress of India, which was accompanied by the cruisers Warspite, Amphion, Phaeton and Condor; the destroyers Sparrowhawk and Virago, and the Dominion steamer Quadra. As the fleet neared Victoria, the cruisers ran ahead, dropped anchor and dressed ship, and when the Empress of India steamed in their guns roared out a royal salute and the bluejackets manned the yards. A shore battery at Work Point took up the refrain of the guns, firing another salute.

Arrival Cheered.

Great crowds filled the shore, driveway and the streets radiating from the outer wharf, and when the royal party landed there was a long cheer of welcome. Sir Wilfrid Laurier presented Lieut.-Gov. Sir Henri Joly and the members of the local Reception Committee, who showed the Duke and Duchess to their carriage. The drive to the Parliament Buildings, where the formal welcome was extended, was through crowded streets decorated with flags and streamers.

Addresses Presented.

The civic address was read by Mayor Hayward, after which addresses from the Presbytery of British Columbia and the American-British League of Seattle were offered.

The Duke, in his reply, said in part: "I desire to assure you of the gratitude which the Duchess and I feel for the kind words of welcome and good wishes which are expressed in the addresses you have presented on behalf of the citizens of Victoria, the residents of Seattle and other parts of the State of Washington, and of the British Columbia Synod of the Presbyterian Church of Canada. I shall have much pleasure in informing my dear father, the King, with what especial satisfaction I have noticed your strong declaration of loyalty to the constitution and pride in the heritage of British citizenship, and your unfaltering resolution to share in the responsibilities of upholding the glory and integrity of that heritage. I know what proof of this you have already given in the blood of your sons, which has been shed on the South African veldt. I am confident that the sacrifices you have made will not be in vain. They have forged another link in the golden chain which binds together the brotherhood of the Empire."

Medals to Victorians.

The Duke then presented medals to the Victorians who served in South Africa, after which he and the Duchess went among the school children, who were all marshaled in front of the Parliament Buildings.

The royal party drove to Esquimalt and were entertained at luncheon by Admiral Bickford on the Warspite. When the Duke and Duchess reached Esquimalt the ships fired a royal salute and the yards were manned.

Late in the afternoon the Duke and Duchess returned to the city and drove to the Exhibition grounds, passing en route through the Chinese quarter, which was fantastically decorated in their honor.

Opened the Exhibition.

The Duke spoke briefly in opening the Exhibition, and, with the Duchess, looked at many of the exhibits.

Last night the Ducal party were entertained at dinner at Government House, and in turn gave a reception at the Parliament Buildings. The latter was brilliantly illuminated, and the reception made one of the prettiest affairs of the day.

The Duke and Duchess rest to-day and start eastward to-night.

Thrown from His Buggy.

Stratford, Ont., Oct. 2.—Rev. Father O'Neil, an aged Roman Catholic priest, stationed at Kinkora, near here, was driving into this city when he was thrown from his buggy and sustained serious injuries, his body being severely bruised and one rib broken. As the reverend gentleman is well advanced in years the consequences may be serious.

Heavy Damages Awarded.

Toronto, Oct. 2.—The jury in the Civil Assize Court action of Hugh McCaugherty against the Gutta Percha Rubber Manufacturing Company yesterday afternoon returned a verdict awarding the plaintiff $2,000 damages. Young McCaugherty lost his left hand and part of his right hand in a roller machine, while working for the company.

Seth Low Nominated.

New York, Oct. 2.—The Greater New York Democratic party, of which John Sheehan is the leader, held its city convention last night and nominated the Fusion ticket, headed by Seth Low, for Mayor.

Foundered at Play.

Copenhagen, Oct. 2.—The Danish gunboat Moen, while at gun practice yesterday with Prisant shells, foundered to the eastward of the middle ground. Her mast head can be seen a few yards above the water. The crew of the vessel was saved.

AFTER TEDIOUS EXILE.

Arabi Pasha Welcomed Home to Cairo By Fellow Countrymen.

Cairo, Oct. 2.—Arabi Pacha arrived last evening. He was met by a large crowd of natives at the station.

The papers of the National party attack him bitterly. His praise and gratitude to the English have no limit.

Eighteen Years in Exile.

The commander of the Egyptian army which revolted against the Khedive of Egypt and was dispersed at Tel-el-Kebir, in 1882, by Lord Wolseley, was banished from Egypt for life. He had spent 18 years and a half in Ceylon, until he received pardon from the Khedive last May. He is now over 60 years of age, and has expressed the desire to live as quietly and privately as possible, accepting the present condition of things in his native country.

Two Workmen Killed.

St. John, Oct. 2.—Yesterday Thomas Coram was working in Cushing's mill, about one of the large belts, when his clothing caught in the belt, and with great force the unfortunate man was hurled round and round. He was instantly killed.

Charles McFrederick of the West End, died at the hospital, as a result of injuries sustained at Sand Point. He was struck by a sling of deals on a steamer and crushed to the deck. His head was literally crushed in.

10,000 Sovereigns Recovered.

Bennington, Vt., Oct. 2.—Ten thousand English sovereigns, after lying for nearly a century and a quarter in an old hulk at the bottom of East Bay, Lake Champlain, have been recovered and are now deposited in the Allen National Bank in Fair Haven. The money was intended to pay off the troops of Gen. Burgoyne in 1777. Its recovery clears the reputation of Capt. Johnson of Quebec, who, it was supposed, had run away with the treasure.

Drowned at Perth.

Perth, Ont., Oct. 2.—A boy of 8 years of age, eldest son of Mr. A. Gibson of this town, was drowned in the Tay Canal Monday night. He was seen starting home from a pasture, but that was the last time he was seen alive. It is supposed that in some unaccountable manner he must have fallen into the water. His body was found the same night about 11 o'clock.

Sir Louis Davies Sworn In.

Ottawa, Oct. 2.—The swearing in of Sir Louis Davies as a Judge of the Supreme Court bench yesterday morning was made a brilliant social function. Many ladies and gentlemen, representative of Ottawa's four hundred, were present, and the occasion was honored by the presence of all the Cabinet Ministers in town.

Iroquois Bylaw Carried.

Iroquois, Oct. 2.—A bylaw to borrow $12,000 for the construction of an electric light plant was submitted here to-day, and carried by a vote of 84 to 14.

Miner Drowned.

Halifax, Oct. 2.—Henry Brooks, a miner, was drowned at Sydney Mines yesterday by the upsetting of a boat. His two companions were rescued. Brooks leaves a widow and one child.

Going to bed to tumble and toss and dream; to pursue in vain the phantom sleep through long weary hours and rise to a new day unrested and unrefreshed. That is the way with many a woman, who is tormented by the aches and pains resulting from female weakness, and other diseases of the delicate organs of woman. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was made to cure just such cases and it does what it was made for. It heals ulceration and inflammation, dries debilitating drains, cures female weakness, strengthens the body, soothes the nerves and enriches the blood. It gives lasting strength for the day and sound sleep for the night.

"For three years I suffered continually," writes Mrs. L. J. Dennis, of 118 East College St., Jacksonville, Ills. "I sought relief among the medical profession and found none, until induced to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. When I commenced taking this medicine I weighed ninety-five pounds. It built me up until now I weigh one hundred and fifty-six pounds—more than I ever weighed before. I was so bad I would lie from day to day and long for death to come and relieve my suffering. I had internal inflammation, a disagreeable drain, bearing down pains and such distress every month. But now I never have a pain—do all my own work and am a strong and healthy woman. Thanks to your medicine."

NO RACE AROUND TRIANGLE

The Second Race of the America's Cup Series a Failure.

Wind Light and Variable, and the Yachts Failed to Finish Within the Time Limit—Shamrock Half Mile Ahead at 4 1-2 Hours, With Miles to Go—Columbia Was Over Three Minutes Behind When Committee Declared Race Off.

New York, Oct. 2.—Yesterday's attempt to sail the second of the present series of international yacht races for the blue ribbon of the sea proved a dismal failure. Between 25,000 and 30,000 people who crowded the pleasure fleet off Sandy Hook lightship in the hope of seeing a repetition of the thrilling sport of last Saturday, witnessed, instead, more of a drifting match than a race. The wind was light and variable, at times falling so low that the Gossamer wind pennants which were as light as the thistle down, rung limp against the masts of the big single-stickers. The wind, with crews lined up on lee rails, was not sufficient at any time to make a racing machine heel to their lines. At the end of four and one-half hours' racing the two yachts had covered less than one-half of the prescribed course of 30 miles, and as there was no possibility of their finishing within the time limit, the Regatta Committee declared the race off.

COURSE FOR THE CUP RACE.

Shamrock Half a Mile Ahead.

When the gun was fired announcing this decision the challenger was about half a mile ahead of the defender and to that extent yesterday's trial was a victory for Shamrock II. But the fluke yesterday demonstrated little as to the question of supremacy between the two boats, except, perhaps, that Sir Thomas new champion is more dangerous in light airs than was supposed, after her two former meetings with the white flyer, to which the patriots are pinning their faith. In fluky winds of variable strength, shifting as they did to-day, through six points of the compass, luck cuts almost as much figure as model and seamanship and yesterday fortune unmistakably favored the foreigner.

Columbia Started Ahead.

The course was an equilateral triangle, 10 miles to the leg, the first leg being a beat due east into the wind. The Yankee skipper at the start outgeneralled his adversary in a splendid piece of jockeying, crossing the line in the windward berth 12 seconds ahead of the Englishman. This advantage Columbia held for two hours, while both yachts steered far off their course to the southward looking for a streak of wind that would profit them. Finally Barr declined longer to continue the vainless quest. He put his helm down and headed inshore on the starboard tack.

The Shamrock at this time, after both boats had been sailing in the same airs, was a beaten boat and her skipper could afford to take a gambler's chance with fortune. He held doggedly on, and fortune smiled upon him. Within five minutes she got a breeze out of the south which ruffled the crestless seas and wafted him like a ghost, through the Columbia's weather. But this was not his best piece of good fortune. After this reverse the Columbia, slipping through the seas at an astonishing pace considering the lightness of the breeze, had worked out ahead of the Shamrock but to the leeward.

Good Luck for Shamrock.

When the two yachts were in this position about two miles from the first turn a cant of the wind threatened to blanket the Columbia, and to avoid such a possibility Capt. Barr went under Shamrock's stern. Just as he did so, the wind hauled round more to the south, knocking the Columbia head off until to the astonished spectators, she seemed headed almost for the lightship at the starting line. The golden boat, favored by the same breeze, was headed in exactly the opposite direction. When the shifting wind backed up again and Barr got the Columbia straightened out he was a third of a mile astern. In this position the two boats rounded the first mark, the Shamrock three minutes and eight seconds before Columbia or a gain for the Shamrock in the beat to windward, adding the 12 seconds, which Columbia beat her over the line, of three minutes and 20 seconds.

Race Declared Off.

During the next hour in a close reach for the second mark, the yachts were able to cover about four or five miles of the remaining 20, and as only 50 minutes then remained before the expiration of time limit the race was declared off. After turning the mark the experts thought the Shamrock increased her lead slightly. This gain may, however, be accounted for by the fact that she carried a large reaching jibtopsail, while the Columbia was working close to the wind with a small baby jibtopsail, a mere handkerchief compared to Shamrock's larger sail.

Shamrock Turned 3 Minutes Ahead.

The Shamrock had beaten the defender 3 minutes and 20 seconds in the first 10 miles, and, try as the Columbia would, she was unable to lessen the wide gap that separated her from her antagonist. She held her luff hunting for wind, but, failing to find it, dropped slowly astern, until the gun from the committee boat brought the contest to an end, with nearly half a mile of blue water between her and the golden boat of Lipton.

When the excursion fleet headed back for home the only realties of the day occurred. It was the race for New York. Last night both the Yankees and foreigners were praying for a good stiff breeze on Thursday, when yesterday's race will be resailed.

HOW IT ALL HAPPENED.

General Chaffee Sends Official Cablegram of Philippine Disaster.

Washington, Oct. 2.—The following cablegram was received at the War Department yesterday afternoon from Gen. Chaffee:

"Manila, Oct. 1.—(12.13 p.m.)—Adjutant-General, Washington.—With reference to your telegram of the 30th ult., will cable names of missing enlisted men as soon as ascertained. The company was rushed about 6 o'clock in the morning by a large body of Bolomen, about 400. Gen. Hughes thinks the surprise was due to the confidence of the commanding officer in assertions of friendship from the natives. Result of the investigation will be cabled as soon as obtained. (Signed) Chaffee."

This message is in response to one sent to Gen. Chaffee by Gen. Corbin on Sunday, immediately upon receipt of the news of the disaster to Company C of the 9th Infantry.

Six Hundred on Strike.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 2.—A strike of the employes of the Scranton Railroad Company, covering the entire Lackawanna Valley from Pittston to Forest City, began yesterday morning. Not a car started. The men refused to accept the offer of General Manager Silliman to leave the question involved in the discharge of the two Carbondale conductors to the arbitration of Bishop Hoban, or one of the priests of the diocese whom he might name, because the offer did not give the employes the representation they demanded. Six hundred are on strike.

Ontario Christian Endeavor.

Brockville, Oct. 2.—The annual meeting of Ontario Christian Endeavor Union opened yesterday afternoon in this city. Sessions will also be held on Wednesday and Thursday. Toronto gentlemen took the leading part in the program yesterday, their subject being: "What has been gained in 20 years of Christian Endeavor," Rev. S. J. Duncan-Clark taking the "Young People" part of the subject, while G. Tower Ferguson will discuss, "What the World has Gained." Rev. Dr. Cameron will preach the convention sermon on "The Promise of Power."

Graduates of Queen's.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 2.—Seven degrees of Bachelor of Arts were awarded yesterday as the result of the supplemental examinations. They are: W. Brokenshire, C. W. Walker, Kingston; Catharine H. C. Cox, Mountain Grove; E. O. Lubner, Orillia; P. A. McIntosh, Dunhala; E. A. Wright, Renfrew and A. E. Wager, Toronto.

The Frontenac Law Association adopted a congratulatory resolution and tendered it to Justice Britton on his elevation to the bench. The association will tender the new justice a banquet.

Quebec as a Winter Port.

Montreal, Oct. 2.—The feasibility of navigation through the channel of the St. Lawrence to the Gulf during the winter months will, it is believed, be put to a practical test this winter by Mr. F. H. Clergue, of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont. Mr. Clergue has just purchased the ice-crusher Algoma, which was used last year in Green Bay, Michigan, and for some time previous in the Straits of Mackinaw. He will make the tests for the present between Quebec and the Gulf.

Venezuelans Defeated.

Bogota, Oct. 1.—Colombian Minister, Washington: We have obtained a signal victory over Venezuelans that invaded the Goajira, under Venezuelan officers and under the Venezuelan flag without previous declaration of war.

Abdia Mendez, Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Two Months For Manslaughter.

Montreal, Oct. 2.—"Guilty of manslaughter, with a very strong recommendation to mercy," was the verdict rendered yesterday afternoon in the case of Mary Egan, wife of Patrick Bulger, who was indicted for the murder of her brother-in-law, Timothy Corbett, Aug. 1 last. She had nothing to say when the court pronounced sentence of two months' imprisonment.

Manitoba Wheat.

Montreal, Oct. 2.—Mr. G. V. Hastings, manager of the Lake of the Woods Milling Company, Winnipeg, who arrived in the city yesterday morning, said: "Roughly speaking, we estimate the wheat crop in Manitoba and the Territories at 46,000,000 bushels. This will leave a surplus to be disposed of of over 40,000,000 bushels."

BELL TELEPHONE CO.

DRIVES FOR THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY.

If you can only get your stomach to assimilate the food you eat; if you can only relish your food, when you have consumption, you are on a fair way to recovery. This is a practical demonstration of the way Powley's Liquified Ozone builds the system. John Britton, a driver for the Bell Telephone Co. had lung trouble, he tells how he was cured:

THE OZONE COMPANY, Ltd.
Gentlemen: I have been troubled for over five years with bronchitis; sometimes so severe I was forced to leave off work. I coughed so badly I could not sleep at nights. During the five years I had been treated by several doctors, but I could get no relief.
About the first of June, 1901, I saw your remedy, Ozone, advertized and I procured a bottle and began taking it. Before I had finished it I began to feel better. I have now taken three bottles, and my cough is all gone and I am entirely cured. I can perform my labor with greater ease than for years.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

TARTE — BRIBERY AND CONTRACTS!

The Hon. J. Israel Tarte, Minister of Public Works, may well be described as one of those who is "never at peace unless he is at war."

He has now fallen foul of the members of the Harbor Board of Montreal, by insinuating, or rather stating, that a Mr. J. A. Jamieson had offered, or promised, to pay $20,000 to that Board, or the members thereof, if they would push through and give to him a contract for the erection of an elevator in the harbor of that city, his tender for which, is between $600,000 and $700,000.

This infamous statement, if not true, raised the ire of the members of the Board, and an explanation was demanded from the Minister, why informed the interviewer that whatever was said in relation to the matter was said at a private meeting and not for publication. It is now admitted, however, that the Star's version of the scene when the statement was made, as well as the report of the interchange of compliments between Mayor Prefontaine and Mr. Tarte, when the latter told the former that he wanted a portfolio in the Laurier Cabinet, and that he was not fit for it, and the Mayor's retort in equally complimentary terms, are true.

The matter is not to end there. The Star says:

"The Minister of Public Works and the members of the Board met on Monday evening last, 23rd September, in order to decide, if possible, relative to Mr. J. A. Jamieson's bid for the erection of an elevator in the centre of the harbor. Mr. Tarte at that time stated, in effect, that the Harbor Board had been hurried in its judgment. He also intimated that all was not open and above board, and further said that he had been informed that the sum of $20,000 was forthcoming from Mr. Jamieson or his agents, provided the aforesaid Mr. Jamieson received the contract."

No satisfaction having been given by Mr. Tarte for the serious charge made by him, and the facts having become public through the means of the press, a subsequent meeting of the Board was held, when it was resolved to draft a letter to the Hon. Mr. Tarte upon the subject, requesting in substance that he clear the members of the Board of the serious imputations which now stand against them. It is expected that the letter will be finally submitted at the regular meeting of the Harbor Board, to be held at an early date.

So the matter stands for the present.

No one who has watched the career of the gentleman who has made this serious charge will be surprised at the statement made by him. The means adopted to extract money from Whelan, a Quebec contractor, might naturally lead the operator in that transaction to suspect others of attempting to utilize other contractors in the same manner.

It is lamentable that the impression prevails that no contract of any importance for public works can be touched or given out, without someone's fingers being greased. In the present case the members of the Montreal Harbor Board owe it, not only to themselves, personally, but to the character and reputation of so important a body of commercial and professional men as those who compose the Harbor Board of Montreal, to probe this charge to the very bottom, and compel the Hon. Mr. Tarte to prove his charge or apologise. If they do not, the public, it is feared, will draw not very complimentary conclusions of the courage and characters of those who have been accused of so serious a crime by a Minister of the Crown.

To-day's despatches say that at a meeting of the Montreal Harbor Board, held yesterday, a resolution was passed asking the Minister of Public Works to give his authority for stating that Mr. Jamieson had offered to give $20,000 in order to secure the contract. What will Tarte do?

Here's a pertinent question, now: Why wasn't the name of Lt.-Col. Sam Hughes among those who received Royal honors or D.S.O.'s? The gallant Colonel has a flowing pen, we all know, and his tongue may be hung rather loosely, but he's a brave fellow and did good service for the Empire in South Africa. Col. Sam doesn't seem to have any friends at Court, and Lord Minto, perhaps, wouldn't arise from his downy couch and travel ten miles barefoot to do the Lindsay Colonel a good turn, so the former Belleville school teacher seems to have been forgotten when the plums were given out. However, his friends, and they are not by any means few, will not forget that Col. METHODIST WOMEN TALK ON MISSIONS

Juvenile Mission Banders Gave a Delightful Exercise—The Singing Was Excellent.

The Women's Missionary Society opened its afternoon session at 2 o'clock yesterday, the President, Mrs. G. D. Pratt, in the chair, and there was a fair attendance.

After devotional exercises, the Treasurer, Mrs. (Rev.) A. R. Campbell, gave her report for the year, which was in every respect satisfactory and encouraging, showing that the Missionary work is increasing in every branch. The total receipts for the year were $6,770, an increase of $906.52 over that of last year. The sum of $2,715 was received for membership fees.

On motion the report was unanimously adopted.

The next business taken up was the memorial service, conducted by Mrs. (Rev.) J. C. Wilson, of Kingston. During the past year 22 members have died, and as the name of each was read out, some friend present spoke words of eulogy and kindness in reference to the departed.

A consecration service followed, conducted by the President. A number present took part in this service. The closing hymn of this service was "Take Time to be Holy."

The President gave an interesting paper on mission work generally, which was much appreciated by all.

Reports were presented from some of the district organizers, which showed progress.

The session was brought to a close by the singing of the Doxology.

EVENING SESSION.

The attendance last evening was very large, and the proceedings were most interesting in their character.

Rev. Dr. Galbraith was chairman and was assisted in the devotional exercises by Rev. Dr. Crothers. The chairman in his address referred to the good work being accomplished by the Women's Missionary Society.

Mrs. C. H. Elliott, representing the local branches, extended words of greeting to the delegates.

Miss Holden on behalf of the W.C.T.U., and Mrs. (Rev.) M. W. Maclean, on behalf of St. Andrew's Church Women's Auxiliary, spoke words of greeting and wished the convention every success.

These words of greeting were most appropriately responded to by Mrs. (Dr.) Fife, of Peterboro, and Mrs. S. Gibson, of Napanee.

A number of little girls and boys, representing the Mission Bands of the Tabernacle and University churches, gave an interesting missionary exercise entitled, "Little Lights." All were provided with candles which were lighted in turn. The characters represented by the girls were: Faith, Eva Emsley; Love, Ella Upper; Hope, Lily Turner; Joy, Keitha Bonisteel; Peace, Susie Wiggins; Patience, L. Davis; Pity, N. Snider; Courage, Grace Garrett; Comfort, Vera Cook; Good Cheer, Ethel Slater.

Chorus by the girls, "Jesus Bids us Shine," and chorus by the band "Come ye Blessed."

Miss Gardiner, of Albert College, gave a paper on Missionary work, and Miss Munro, a returned Missionary from Japan, gave an interesting account of Sunday School work in connection with missionary work in that country.

The choir of Bridge St. Church assisted in the service and Miss Marie Wheler sang very sweetly, a solo entitled "Go Out and Bring them In."

The proceedings were closed by the benediction, pronounced by Rev. Mr. Martin.

WEDNESDAY MORNING SESSION.

Devotional exercises on Wednesday morning were conducted by Mrs. W. J. Jeffers, Lindsay, and Mrs. T. M. Manning, Lindsay. The scripture passage chosen was from John 15, and the importance of prayer impressively dwelt upon as the way to abide in Christ and have his presence always abiding in us.

The minutes of yesterday's meeting were read and adopted, after which the business of the convention was proceeded with.

All the reports were encouraging, numerically, financially and spiritually.

A few of the features calling for special mention were the use of mite boxes and birthday boxes and the 1 cent a day band.

Mrs. Massey, of Wallbridge, gave a terse and comprehensive paper on Proportionate and Systematic Giving, setting forth the obligations of the Christian to render unto God a part of the increase of the "land and of the flock," which belongs to Him and which we only hold as stewards. Recognizing this obligation, the question comes how much rent or interest shall we pay God for the use of His property? In the Jewish dispensation the tenth was required by law, but in addition there were many special gifts called for, as well as voluntary gifts. Christ gave his approval to the paying of the tithe. Not only must the giving be proportionate, but it should be systematic. All may not be able to follow the rule laid down by Paul to lay by on the first day of the week, but all may have some system. By many apt quotations from Scripture, Mrs. Massey showed the rewards promised to those who give of their substance. "The liberal soul shall be made fat." "Freely ye have received, freely give." "Give and it shall be given you, good measure, pressed down, shaken together shall men give into your bosom, etc. Added spiritual power and peace and an increased earnestness for the salvation of souls will also be a result. Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse and prove me herewith saith the Lord if I will not open the windows of heaven and pour out a blessing such as there shall not be room enough to receive it. Mrs. Massey then pointed out the consequence of the neglect of duty—leanness spiritually and temporally, Mal. 3, 8-9. She concluded by asking what the W.M.S. can do to cause this grace of liberality to abound—self consecration the first essential, then we shall be both liberal and prayerful. We find pleasure in making gifts to our friends. Should we not much more in giving to our best friend?

Rev. Amos Campbell then made a few very appropriate remarks bearing on this subject. He told how he as a young man had opened his book with one column headed O.P.J.R.—Old Patriarch Jacob's Rule, and he had throughout his lifetime adhered to it, with the result that God had prospered him. He thought that if the Church would adopt this rule it would not have to go begging.

On account of other business, the discussion, proportionate and systematic giving was laid over till another time.

Reports were received from Belleville, Hilton, Brighton, and Picton Bands and Circles.

The following resolutions were adopted, "That, whereas, there is no rule in this constitution bearing on this point, resolved, that we recommend to our circles and bands that the older members each in turn be made responsible for the programme and that this member preside at the meeting.

"Whereas we regret the fact of so many of our Mission Bands being merged into Junior Leagues, it is resolved that where there are Junior Leagues but no Mission Bands, the members of the Auxiliary be asked to bring the subject of our missionary work before the members of the League at least once a quarter, and urge them to contribute to the funds of the Society."

At 12.30 the meeting adjourned.

NOTES.

The meetings are open to the public. Being so, it would do some "liege lords" that we know of good to attend. They would get "pointers" from these ladies on how to conduct business.

The president requires no gavel to keep order. The attention to business is remarkable. The president's little finger has as much authority in it as the proverbial London policeman's uplifted hand.

The fussy, gad-about, chitter-chatter individuals, so apparent at male meetings of this kind, are conspicuous by their absence.

The motto of the gathering evidently is "Attend to business, then go about your business."

To touch on a tender subject as lightly as possible, it is manifest that the great majority of the ladies are, at least, past "sweet sixteen."

Perhaps these "elect" women of the church will excuse another criticism. We note the absence of cheerfulness. A funeral could not be more solemn.

The singing of to-day was somewhat better than yesterday, yet, it does not seem as though they came there to sing or that to be a singer is a qualification in choosing delegates.

Mrs. (Rev.) M. E. Wilson, daughter of Mr. James Chisholm, is in attendance and is being welcomed home by numerous friends.

The wife of the ex-M.P.P. for Addington, Mrs. (Dr.) Meacham, represents Odessa.

Misses Maud Elvins and M. Crothers were to-day in charge of the literature department.

Mrs. L. W. Yeomans this morning personally invited the ladies to visit the Hospital and Home for the Friendless.

An invitation was read from Principal Mathison, asking the delegates to visit the Deaf and Dumb Institute.

FOR EVERY Humour.

CUTICURA SOAP to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle, CUTICURA OINTMENT to instantly allay itching, inflammation, and irritation, and soothe and heal, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT to cool and cleanse the blood. A SINGLE SET of these great skin curatives is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, bleeding, crusted, scaly, and pimply skin, scalp, and blood humours, with loss of hair, when all else fails.

MILLIONS OF PEOPLE USE CUTICURA SOAP Assisted by Cuticura Ointment, for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, for baby rashes, itchings, and chafings, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Millions of Women use CUTICURA SOAP in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and excoriations, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sanative antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, and especially mothers. No other medicated soap is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. No other foreign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines in ONE SOAP at ONE PRICE, the BEST skin and complexion soap, and the BEST toilet and baby soap in the world.

would be a justifiable cry directed against the countless humbugs that offer a cure for Catarrh. There is only one scientific method of treatment for Catarrh. Make the air you breathe the carrier of healing, balsamic, curative agents. It bathes every inch of mucous membranes with its healing, soothing properties. That's Catarrhozone. Your druggist or doctor will tell you it's the only effective method of treatment and that it is sure—prompt—permanent. Remember the name, Catarrhozone. All dealers, 25c. and $1.00.

Suits FOR Young Men

For the young fellows who are nearly men, but who are a mighty sight more particular than most men—those young fellows who knows what's what when it comes to the shape of a coat or the hang of the trousers—for those exacting young fellows we have provided a larger variety in Suits than heretofore. They've encouraged us to do so, because they are always looking to us for everything that's fashionable and snappy. And then they appreciate the efforts we take in fitting their clothes.

$5 to $15.

Come, look them over. If you want to know what's going to be worn come in and take a look at them. They won't cost you anything.

GAS IN PRINCE EDWARD CO.

REPORT TO THE BUREAU OF MINES SAYS IT WAS STRUCK NEAR BLOOMFIELD.

Toronto, October 2.—Natural gas in considerable volume is reported to the Bureau of Mines to have been struck on the farm of Mr. R. J. Noxon, about a mile and a half from Bloomfield, in Prince Edward County. The discovery took place at a depth of 83 feet, when boring was being done for water. This is believed to be the first gas found in that locality though it has been discovered in small quantities at other points on the north shore of Lake Ontario.

NO DANGER.

There is no danger of throwing money away if you take Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure for rheumatism. In a little while you will say it is the best spent money you ever invested in your life. S. Donaldson, postmaster, Dufferin, P.O., Pittsburg, Ont., was lame for two years and could not get out of a rig. One bottle of Dr. Hall's, with the Climax Iron Tonic Pills, cured him. This great blood purifier is put up in bottles containg ten days' treatment. Price 50 cents a bottle at all drug stores or The Dr. Hall Medicine Co., Kingston, Ont.

Improvements to the Hospital—Record for the Year—Officers Elected—Some Figures.

The twenty-second annual meeting of the Woman's Christian Association, held in the Council Chamber yesterday afternoon, was largely attended, and the proceedings proved to be interesting and profitable. The various reports presented were of an encouraging nature, showing that the Association is doing excellent work.

After devotional exercises, reports were presented from the various departments, a synopsis of which is given below.

Miss Caswell gave a report of the Devotional Committee, showing the meetings held and the ministers and laymen who took part.

Miss Emberson gave a minute report of the work performed by the Dorcas Society.

Miss Epps, Corresponding Secretary pro. tem., presented a report, showing the correspondence done during the year; cards had been sent to all ministers of the city churches, asking for the thanksgiving collections to be given to Home and Hospital; also to ministers in the County, reminding them of Thanksgiving Sunday. Received $5 from Treasurer, of which $2 was handed back to Miss Caswell

Number of patients remaining in Hospital Sept. 30th, 1901, 27; number admitted during the year ending Sept. 30th, 1901, 382; total number registered and treated, 409. Of these 199 were males and 203 females; 354 were Protestants and 55 Catholics. Private ward patients, 245; public ward patients, 164. From the city were received 234 patients; from the County of Hastings, 128; 44 from other counties, and 3 from the United States. There were 6 births and 19 deaths during the year, being a percentage of 4.64. Total number of Hospital days, 7,608. In addition 27 outdoor patients were treated. Eight persons have occupied the "Edward Corby" room during the year. Could the donor of this gift have heard the expressions of gratitude from those patients he would have been fully repaid. The causes of death were: Tuberculosis 2, pleuro-pneumonia 1, (24 hours after admission), apoplexy 1, cardiac dropsy 1, coal gas asphyxiation 1, pyemia 2, appendicitis 1, shock 2, pelvic abscess 2, cerebro spinal meningitis 1. The daily cost of food per head, before preparation, for all tables and special diet, has been 12.90 cts. All gifts to the Training School and Nurses' Home have been gratefully acknowledged, with the exception of a black walnut dining table, the gift of Dr. Elliot. The new broad balconies are much appreciated by convalescing patients and also a great convenience in many ways. I sincerely hope the work of improvements will continue.

ELIZA J. FLINT,
Treasurer W.C.A.

Oct. 1st, 1901.

Miss Caswell, Recording Secretary, presented a voluminous report of the work of the Association for the year. During the past year some necessary improvements have been made on the east wing of the Hospital, and it is now well-equipped and ready for use. In December a brass tablet was placed in position in the Board room, to the memory of the late Mrs. Jaques, the first President of the Association, also one in the surgery to the memory of Daniel Stoddard, who bequeathed to the Association his life insurance. Owing to enlargement of the building, as stated, last year they opened this year with a debt of $1000. Since then one payment of $152 has been made so that the debt upon the building now amounts to $935.60, including interest. This year $517.65 was spent in improvements upon the institution. The membership at present is 219. The monthly collectors this year brought in $95.30. They have received from the city for three years past an annual grant of $300 for the treatment of city poor in the hospital. From Mr. Corby for two years the sum of $250 has been received annually, as an endowment upon the Edward Corby room, where such patients as are deemed eligible by the Board are treated free of charge. The County Council granted $100 this year, and an appeal was made to congregations in the county to give thanksgiving collections, which was done in some instances. From the entertainment last May of the Women's Parliament of Prophecy, $152 was realized after all expenses were paid, and a garden party at Mr. Thos. Ritchie's residence realized $102.08. During the year two valuable members passed away, namely, Mrs. McAnnany and Miss Smart. Our Home for the Friendless receives each year $300 from the City Council, also 9c. per day from Government for each inmate. We have at present in the Home 5 men and 4 women. During the year 3 inmates died. The total expenditure for the Hospital and Home for the year amounted to $6,940.35. The usual grant of $1200 was received from the city for indigents and carefully disbursed. [illegible] families were relieved and 142 persons treated in the public wards at the hospital. The indigent fund was expended as follows:

Foster Ward	$288.55
Samson Ward	13.25
Ketcheson Ward	24.00
Baldwin Ward	26.00
Bleecker Ward	56.25
Murney Ward	218.50
Coleman Ward	252.20
Ambulance	8.00
Undertaking	173.50
Cemetery	20.00
Cartage	1.25
City patients	253.45
Total	$1235.04

The thanks of the Association are extended to the City and County for assistance; to those who have contributed; to the city press, the colleges and the various congregations who have helped.

At the conclusion of the reading of the reports, addresses were given by Mayor Graham, Rev. Canon Burke, Messrs. J. J. B. Flint and W. R. Aylsworth, all of whom congratulated the ladies upon the good work they had performed.

ALWAYS BUY AT THIS STORE.

Quick & Robertson have the well merited reputation of dealing squarely with their customers, and in having at all times a most complete assortment of clothing for men and boys. In their hat and cap department special pride is taken both in the lowness of prices and the choiceness of their stock. It is no wonder that this store is always busy.

Died in Moosomin

Mrs. Sarah Cragg, wife of Mr. Garvin Cragg, of Holloway, died in Moosomin, N.W.T., on Sept 21st. She had been ill and went west some two months ago, hoping that the change of climate would benefit her. In this, however, Mrs. Cragg was disappointed and she died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ketcheson, where she had been staying. Her husband and four children survive. Mrs. Cragg was a Methodist in religion, and was about 38 years of age. The remains were interred at Moosomin.

MARRIED 'MID SWEET FLOWERS

NUPTIALS OF MISS ADA W. SHERK, OF THIS CITY, AND MR. ARCHIBALD J. McBRIDE, OF MONTREAL.

Amid palms and blooming flowers of sweet fragrance, a pretty home wedding took place this morning at 11:30 at the residence of Mr. James C. Sherk, corner of Bridge and George streets, when his eldest daughter, Miss Ada W., became the wife of Mr. Archibald J. McBride, of Montreal, superintendent of the Gault Bros.' factory. A number of invited guests were present to witness the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. W. D. Campbell, of Toronto. The bride was prettily gowned in cream crepe de chene, over white silk, the trimming being applique and chiffon. She wore a bridal veil and carried a handsome bouquet of white roses. Miss Norma Sherk, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, being attired in a dress of white organdie, trimmed with white lace and pink ribbons. She carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

The bride's mother wore a gown of mauve silk, with overdress of black silk grenadine.

The groomsman was Mr. W. H. Huss, of Montreal. The wedding march was played by Miss Eva Sherk, of Hamilton, a cousin of the bride.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a rich repast was partaken of, and this afternoon Mr. and Mrs. McBride left for the east and will take up their residence in Montreal.

The groom's gift to the bride was a diamond ring and to the bridesmaid a pearl ring.

The bride received many presents, which were both handsome and useful, including a Persian lamb coat from her father. The bride's going away gown was of navy blue camel's hair cloth, white tucked taffeta silk waist and hat to match.

REGIMENTAL PARADE

GOOD TURN-OUT LAST NIGHT—SERGT.-INSTRUCTOR THOMPSON IS "ALL RIGHT."

The Fifteenth had a very good parade last night, and the showing made was quite creditable. Sergt.-Instructor Thompson drilled the men in the manual and marching exercises, and showed himself to be a first-class instructor. He has already made a big improvement in the bearing of the men. After drilling some time in the Armory the Regiment was marched to the Hospital lot, where the men were put through movements which will be given in Toronto. Good progress was made. There will be company drill every night this week, and on Friday a full Regimental parade, with both bands. It is expected that a church parade will take place on Sunday next, but definite information will be given on Friday night. The officers and men are working together well, and there is every reason to believe that the Fifteenth will do credit to itself and the city at the Royal review.

To-night, at 8:45 Drill Sergt. Thompson will give a lecture to the non-commissioned officers of the Regiment on the duties required of them at the Royal review.

WEAK BACK AND SPINAL PAINS.

Pains in the back number their victims in thousands. Only very powerful and penetrating remedies will reach these distressing complaints, but Polson's Nerviline is as sure to cure them as anything in this world can be sure. Rub Nerviline over the sore parts night and morning, and see how quickly it drives out the pain. Five times stronger than any other. Good for internal and external use. Large bottles, 25c.

UNTOLD MISERY — WHAT A WELL-KNOWN COMMERCIAL TRAVELLER SUFFERED, AND HOW HE WAS CURED.—Gentlemen, About five years ago I began to be troubled with Dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time travelling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine and when the third bottle was finished, I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of Dyspepsia.

(Signed),
T. H. McINTEE.

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung and throat troubles, there is no preparation of medicine can compare with Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to afford prompt and permanent relief. It removes all soreness, and heals the diseased parts. It immediately soothes the most troublesome cough, and by promoting expectoration, removes the mucus which stops up the air tubes which causes difficulty in breathing, thereby gives relief to that depressing tightness experienced in the chest. Public speakers and singers will find Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup of inestimable value, as it speedily and effectually allays all irritation, and huskiness in the throat and bronchial tubes, and gives power to the vocal cords, rendering the voice clear and sonorous. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of "Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup," and whenever a child has taken cold, has a cough or hoarseness, give the Syrup according to directions.

A Sure Cure for Headaches. — Bilious headache, to which women are more subject than men, becomes so acute in some subjects that they are utterly prostrated. The stomach refuses food, and there is a constant and distressing effort to free the stomach from bile which has become unduly secreted there. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are a speedy alterative, and in neutralising the effects of the intruding bile relieves the pressure on the nerves which cause the headache. Try them.

Some persons have periodical attacks of Canadian cholera, dysentery or diarrhoea, and have to use great precautions to avoid the disease. Change of water, cooking, and green fruit, is sure to bring on the attacks. To such persons we would recommend Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial as being the best medicine in the market for all summer complaints. If a few drops are taken in water when the symptoms are noticed no further trouble will be experienced.

To Those of Sedentary Occupation.—Men who follow sedentary occupations, which deprive them of fresh air and exercise, are more prone to disorders of the liver and kidneys than those who lead active, outdoor lives. The former will find in Parmelee's Vegetable Pills a restorative without question the most efficacious on the market. They are easily procurable, easily taken, act expeditiously, and they are surprisingly cheap considering their excellence.

OBLIVION ATTACKED

ARMED WITH GOD'S STRENGTH REV. DR. TALMAGE ROUTS IT.

FAMILIES RISE AND DISAPPEAR.

How the Domain of Forgetfulness, the Cemetery of the Human Race, May Be Swallowed Up in Victory by the Christian—Cheer for Despondent Christian Workers Everywhere.

Washington, Sept. 29.—In this discourse Dr. Talmage shows how any one can be widely and forever recollected and cheers despondent Christian workers; texts, Job xxiv, 20, "He shall be no more remembered," and Psalms cxii, 6, "The righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance."

Of oblivion and its defeats I speak to-day. There is an old monster that swallows down everything. It crunches individuals, families, communities, states, nations, continents, hemispheres, worlds. Its diet is made up of years, of centuries, of ages, of cycles, of millenniums, of eons. That monster is called by Noah Webster and all the other dictionaries "Oblivion." It is a steep down which everything rolls. It is a conflagration in which everything is consumed. It is a dirge which all orchestras play and a period at which everything stops. It is the cemetery of the human race. It is the domain of forgetfulness. Oblivion! At times it throws a shadow over all of us, and I would not pronounce it to-day if I did not come armed in the strength of the eternal God on your behalf to attack it, to rout it, to demolish it.

Why, just look at the way the families of the earth disappear. For awhile they are together, inseparable and to each other indispensable, and then they part, some by marriage going to establish their homes, and some leave this life, and a century is long enough to plant a family, develop it, prosper it and obliterate it. So the generations vanish. Walter Scott's Old Mortality may go round with his chisel to recut the faded epitaphs on tombstones, but Old Oblivion has a quicker chisel with which he can cut out a thousand epitaphs while Old Mortality is cutting one epitaph. Whole libraries of biographies devoured of bookworms or unread of the rising generations. All the signs of the stores and warehouses of great firms have changed, unless the grandsons think that it is an advantage to keep the old sign up because the name of the ancestor was more commendatory than the name of the descendant. The city of Rome stands to-day, but dig down deep enough, and you come to another Rome, buried, and go down still farther, and you will find a third Rome. Jerusalem stands to-day, but dig down deep enough, and you will find a Jerusalem underneath and go on and deeper down a third Jerusalem. Alexandria, Egypt, on the top of an Alexandria, and the second on the top of a third. Many of the ancient cities are buried thirty feet deep or fifty feet deep or 100 feet deep. What was the matter? Any special calamity? No. The winds and waves and sands and flying dust are all undertakers and gravediggers, and if the world stands long enough the present Washington and New York and London will have on top of them other Washingtons and New Yorks and Londons, and only after digging and boring and blasting will the archaeologists of far distant centuries come down as far as the highest spires and domes and turrets of our present American and European cities.

Call the roll of the armies of Baldwin I. or of Charles Martel or of Marlborough or of Mithridates or of Prince Frederick or of Cortes, and not one answer will you hear. Stand them in line and call the roll of the 1,000,000 men in the army of Thebes. Not one answer. Stand them in line, the 1,700,000 infantry and the 200,000 cavalry of the Assyrian army under Ninus, and call the roll. Not one answer. Oblivion! Are the feet of the dancers who at the ball of the Duchess of Richmond at Brussels the night before Waterloo all still? All still. Are the ears that heard the guns of Bunker Hill all deaf? All deaf. Are the eyes that saw the coronation of George III. all closed? All closed. Oblivion! A hundred years from now there will not be a being on this earth that knew we ever lived.

In some old family record a descendant studying up the ancestral line may spell out our name and from the faded ink with great effort find that some person by our name was born somewhere in the nineteenth century, but they will know no more about us than we know about the color of a child's eyes born last night in a village in Patagonia. Tell me something about your great-grandfather. What were his features? What did he do? What year was he born? What year did he die? And your great-grandmother? Will you describe the style of the hat she wore, and how did she and your great-grandfather get on in each other's companionship? Was it March weather or June? Oblivion! That mountain surge rolls over everything. Even the pyramids are dying. Not a day passes but there is chiseled off a piece of that granite.

Why, there is only a crust between us and the furnaces inside raging to get out. Oblivion! The world itself will roll into it as easily as a schoolboy's india rubber ball rolls down a hill, and when our world goes it is so interlocked by the law of gravitation with other worlds that they will go too, and so far from having our memory perpetuated by a monument of Aberdeen granite in this world there is no world in sight of our strongest telescope that will be a sure pediment for any slab of commemoration of the fact that we ever lived or died at all. Our earth is struck with death. The axletree of the constellations will break and let down the populations of other worlds. Stellar, lunar, solar, mortality. Oblivion! It can swallow and will swallow whole galaxies of worlds as easily as a crocodile takes down a frog.

Yet oblivion does not remove or swallow everything that had better not be removed or swallowed. The old monster is welcome to his meal. This world would long ago have been overcrowded if not for the merciful removal of nations and generations. What if all the books had lived that were ever written and printed and published? The libraries would by their immensity have obstructed intelligence and made all research impossible. The fatal epidemic of books was a merciful epidemic. Many of the state and national libraries today are only morgues, in which dead books are waiting for some one to come and recognize them. What if all the people that had been born were still alive? We would have been elbowed by our ancestors of ten centuries ago, and people who ought to have said their last word 3,000 years ago would snarl at us, saying, "What are you doing here?" There would have been no room to turn around. Some of the past generations of mankind were not worth remembering. The first useful thing that many people did was to die, their cradle a misfortune and their grave a boon. This world was hardly a comfortable place to live in before the middle of the eighteenth century. So many things have come into the world that were not fit to stay in we ought to be glad they were put out. The waters of Lethe, the fountain of forgetfulness, are a healthful draft. The history we have of the world in ages past is always one sided and cannot be depended on. History is fiction illustrated by a few straggling facts.

Now, I have told you that this oblivion of which I have spoken has its defeats and that there is no more reason why we should not be distinctly and vividly and gloriously remembered five hundred million billion trillion quadrillion quintillion years from now than that we should be remembered six weeks. I am going to tell you how the thing can be done and will be done.

We may build this "everlasting remembrance," as my text styles it, into the supernal existence of those to whom we do kindnesses in this world. You must remember that this infirm and treacherous faculty which we now call memory is in the future state to be complete and perfect. "Everlasting remembrance!" Nothing will slip the stout grip of that celestial faculty. Did you help a widow pay her rent? Did you find for that man released from prison a place to get honest work? Did you pick up a child fallen on the curbstone and by a stick of candy put in his hand stop the hurt on his scratched knee? Did you assure a business man swamped by the stringency of the money market that times would after awhile be better? Did you lead a Magdalen of the street into a midnight mission, where the Lord said to her: "Neither do I condemn thee. Go and sin no more?" Did you tell a man clear discouraged in his waywardness and hopeless and plotting suicide that for him was near by a laver in which he might wash and a coronet of eternal blessedness he might wear? What are epitaphs in graveyards, what are eulogiums in presence of those whose breath is in their nostrils, what are unread biographies in the alcoves of a city library, compared with the imperishable records you have made in the illumined memories of those to whom you did such kindnesses? Forget them? They cannot forget them. Notwithstanding all their might and splendor there are some things the glorified of heaven cannot do, and this is one of them. They cannot forget an earthly kindness done. The kindnesses you do to others will stand as long in the appreciation of others as the gates of heaven will stand, as the "house of many mansions" will stand, as long as the throne of God will stand.

Another defeat of oblivion will be found in the character of those whom we rescue, uplift or save. Character is eternal. Suppose by a right influence we aid in transforming a bad man into a good man, a dolorous man into a happy man, a disheartened man into a courageous man, every stroke of that work done will be immortalized. There may never be so much as one line in a newspaper regarding it or no mortal tongue may ever whisper it into human ear, but wherever that soul shall go your work upon it shall go, wherever that soul rises your work on it will rise, and so long as that soul will last your work on it will last. Do you suppose there will ever come such an idiotic lapse in the history of that soul in heaven that it shall forget that you invited him to Christ; that you, by prayer or gospel word, turned him round from the wrong way to the right way? No such insanity will ever smite a heavenly citizen. It is not half as well on earth known that Christopher Wren planned and built St. Paul's as it will be known in all heaven that you were the instrumentality of building a temple for the sky. We teach a Sabbath class or put a Christian tract in the hand of a passerby or testify for Christ in a prayer meeting or preach a sermon and go home discouraged, as though nothing had been accomplished, when we had been character building with a material that no frost or earthquake or rolling of the centuries can damage or bring down.

There is no sublimer art on earth than architecture. With pencil and rule and compass the architect sits down alone and in silence and evolves from his own brain a cathedral or a national capitol or a massive home before he leaves that table, and then he goes out and unrolls his plans and calls carpenters and masons and artisans of all sorts to execute his design, and when it is finished he walks around the vast structure and sees the completion of the work with high satisfaction, and on a stone at some corner of the building the architect's name may be chiseled. But the storms do their work, and time, that takes down everything, will yet take down that structure until there shall not be one stone left upon another. But there is a soul in heaven. Through your instrumentality it was put there. Under God's grace you are the architect of its eternal happiness. Your name is written, not on one corner of its nature, but inwrought into its every fiber and energy. Will the storms of winter wash out the story of what you have wrought upon that spiritual structure? No. There are no storms in that land, and there is no water. Will time wear out the inscription which shows your fidelity? No. Time is past, and it is an everlasting now. Built into the foundation of that imperishable structure, built into its pillars, built into its capstone is your name, either the name you have on earth or the name by which celestials shall call you. I know the Bible says in one place that God is a jealous God, but that refers to the work of those who worship some other god.

A true father is not jealous of his child. With what glee you show the picture your child penciled or a toy ship your child hewed out or recite the noble deed your child accomplished, and God never was jealous of a Joshua, never was jealous of a Paul, never was jealous of a Frances Havergal, never was jealous of a man or woman who tried to heal wounds and wipe away tears and lift burdens and save souls, and while all is of grace and your self abnegating utterance will be, "Not unto us, not unto us, but unto thy name, O Lord, give glory!" you shall always feel a heavenly satisfaction in every good thing you did on earth, and if iconoclasm, borne from beneath, should break through the gates of heaven and efface one record of your earthly fidelity methinks Christ would take one of the nails of his own cross and write somewhere on the crystal or the amethyst or the jacinth or the chrysoprasus your name and just under it the inscription of my text, "The righteous shall be held in everlasting remembrance."

There is another and a more complete defeat for oblivion, and that is in the heart of God himself. You have seen a sailor roll up his sleeve and show you his arm tattooed with the figure of a favorite ship, perhaps the first one in which he ever sailed. You have seen a soldier roll up his sleeve and show you his arm tattooed with the figure of a fortress where he was garrisoned or the face of a dead general under whom he fought. You have seen many a hand tattooed with the face of a loved one before or after marriage. This custom of tattooing is almost as old as the world. It is some colored liquid punctured into the flesh so indelibly that nothing can wash it out. It may have been there fifty years, but when the man goes into his coffin that picture will go with him on hand or arm. Now, God says that he has tattooed us upon his hands. There can be no other meaning of Isaiah, where God says, "Behold, I have graven thee on the palms of my hands!" It was as much as to say: "I cannot open my hand to help, but I think of you. I cannot spread abroad my hands to bless, but I think of you. Wherever I go up and down the heavens I take these two pictures of you with me. They are so inwrought into my being that I cannot lose them. As long as my hands last the memory of you will last. Not on the back of my hands, as though to announce you to others, but on the palms of my hands for myself to look at and study and love. Though I hold the winds in my fist, no cyclone shall uproot the inscription of your name and your face, and though I hold the ocean in the hollow of my hand its billows shall not wash out the record of my remembrance. 'Behold, I have graven thee on the palms of my hands!'"

What joy, what honor, can there be comparable to that of being remembered by the mightiest and most affectionate being in the universe? Think of it, to hold an everlasting place in the heart of God! The heart of God! The most beautiful palace in the universe. Let the archangel build a palace as grand as he can and then you enter this palace of archangelic construction and see how poor a palace it is compared with the greater palace that some of you have already found in the heart of a loving and pardoning God and into which all the music and all the prayers and all the sermonic considerations of this day are trying to introduce you through the blood of the slain Lamb.

Oh, where is oblivion now? From the dark and overshadowing word that it seemed when I began it has become something which no man or woman or child who loves the Lord need ever fear. Oblivion defeated. Oblivion dead. Oblivion sepulchered. But I must not be so hard on that devouring monster, for into its grave go all our sins when the Lord for Christ's sake has forgiven them. Just blow a resurrection trumpet over them when once oblivion has snapped them down. Not one of them rises. Blow again. Not a stir amid all the pardoned iniquities of a lifetime. Blow again. Not one of them moves in the deep grave trenches. But to this powerless resurrection trumpet a voice responds, half human, half divine, and it must be part man and part God, saying, "Their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more." Thank God for this blessed oblivion. So you see I did not invite you down into a cellar, but up on a throne; not into the graveyard to which all materialism is destined, but into a garden all a-bloom with everlasting remembrance. The frown of my first text has become the kiss of the second text. Annihilation has become coronation. The wringing hands of a great agony have become the clapping hands of a great joy. The requiem with which we began has become the grand march with which we close. The tear of sadness that rolled down our cheek has struck the lip on which sits the laughter of eternal triumph.

THE MINE DISASTER.

Flames and Explosions Kill Seventeen Men in the Dunsmuir Shaft No. 2 in British Columbia.

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 2.—Seventeen men are dead as a result of a fire and explosion in Extension Mine No. 2, belonging to the Wellington Colliery Company. The flames started from a curtain which caught fire from a miner's lamp.

Fire broke out at the bottom of Level No. 3 and was communicated across the slope by one of the curtains. In half an hour the whole slope was on fire. Rescuers flocked to the mine and reached the place where the miners had been at work, but the men had gone. They had run with the fresh air instead of against it, in an attempt to get out by the accustomed route, thus meeting death half way.

While the rescuers were at work several explosions occurred. When it was realized that the men could not be saved, a strong force started to choke the mine, but their work was undone by a terrific explosion which blew down the barricade. A little later the fan house was burned. Hundreds of men will be thrown out of work.

VARICOCELE

No matter how serious your case may be or how long you may have had it, our NEW METHOD TREATMENT will cure it. The "wormy veins" return to their normal condition and hence the sexual organs receive proper nourishment. The organs become vitalized and manly powers return. No temporary benefit, but a permanent cure assured. NO CURE, NO PAY. NO OPERATION NECESSARY. NO DETENTION FROM BUSINESS.

STRICTURE

Thousands of young and middle-aged men are troubled with this disease—many unconsciously. They may have a smarting sensation, sharp, cutting pains at times, weak organs, and all the symptoms of nervous debility—they have STRICTURE. Don't let doctors experiment on you by cutting, stretching or tearing you. This will not cure you, as it will return. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT absorbs the stricture tissue, hence removes the stricture permanently. It can never return. No pain, no suffering, no detention from business by our method. The sexual organs are strengthened, the nerves are invigorated, and the bliss of manhood returns.

Cures Guaranteed

We treat and cure BLOOD POISON, NERVOUS DEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, STRICTURE, VARICOCELE, SEMINAL LOSSES, BLADDER and KIDNEY DISEASES. CONSULTATION FREE. BOOKS FREE. CHARGES MODERATE. If unable to call, write for a QUESTION BLANK for HOME Treatment.

The Stimulus of Pure Blood

That is what is required by every organ of the body, for the proper performance of its functions.

It perfects all the vital processes.

William Ross, Sarnia, Ont., took Hood's Sarsaparilla to make his blood pure. He writes that he was all run down, his appetite was gone, and his nerves were so unstrung he could not rest nor sleep. He had tried many remedies without benefit when Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and he began its use. Three bottles of this medicine entirely cured him.

AWAIT JUDGE'S CHARGE.

Then the Jury Will Take the Sifton Murder Case Into Its Hands—Addresses of Counsel.

London, Ont., Oct. 3.—At the Sifton trial yesterday morning Dr. John D. Wilson of London swore that he had examined Mary McFarlane after Joseph Sifton's death to ascertain if she was pregnant. He found that she was not in that condition, nor had been, as far as he could find out.

The defence, in explanation of blood stains found in the barn, offered the evidence of H. L. Smith, a butcher of London, who testified to having bought sheep-skins on several occasions, and to having hung two skins with blood on them a few feet from the trap door, and it would be possible for blood to drop on the floor.

William Rutledge, inspector of sheep-killing cases, substantiated this statement, and added that he had seen sheep bleeding from dog bites in the barn.

Peter Lewis, a hotelkeeper, swore to having met Edgar and Martin Morden at the Ross House, outside of London, about two weeks after Joseph Sifton's death, and he saw the former with a peculiar knife that looked like the one found later by Constable McLeod.

Richard Trivell and J. L. McIntosh swore that the prisoner was left-handed, and could not use an ax right-handed. In his evidence, Herbert swore that Gerald delivered right-hand blows when he was striking his father with the ax.

Story to Counsel Correct.

T. F. Hellmuth, counsel for the prisoner, gave evidence on his client's behalf. He said that he was asked on July 26 by Mr. Scandrett to act for Herbert. He saw him in jail and heard from him a circumstantial story of the affair. The next day a confession was published, and then Mr. Hellmuth told Herbert he could not act for him. He also asked him which story was correct, and Herbert said: "Whatever may have appeared or whatever I may have said, the story that I told you was correct."

The Sifton murder trail is almost at an end. Only His Lordship's charge to the jury remains to be given. The defence cut their case shorter than had been anticipated, and are depending almost solely upon the medical testimony to clear their client.

Yesterday afternoon the defence called two witnesses, who claimed to have seen the deceased Sifton on the way to the barn on the morning of the tragedy, carrying an ax on his shoulder. This was calculated to disprove Walter Herbert's story that Gerald Sifton had taken the ax to the barn himself.

Addresses of Counsel.

The addresses of counsel to the jury occupied four hours and forty minutes, of which Mr. E. F. B. Johnston, for the prisoner, used up three. The learned counsel devoted much of his opportunity to fiercely criticize the three Mordens, who were Crown witnesses.

The prisoner is showing marked evidences of the terrible strain which is upon him, and the whole afternoon his young wife sat close to the dock, where she wept almost continuously.

SHAMROCK II.'s CHANCE.

Fresh Northwest Winds and Fair Weather Predicted by Weather Bureau—Will Now Race Daily.

New York, Oct. 3.—Yachting enthusiasts and the general public last night expected a most exciting race to-day between the cup defender, Columbia, and the challenger, Shamrock II. They based their high hopes on the strong wind blowing last night, and which the local weather prophets assert is likely to keep up for 24 hours or more. The Washington Weather Bureau adds to the expectations, which it is hoped will be realized by holding out a promise of a strong breeze off Sandy Hook. The bureau says:

"Fresh northwest winds and fair weather for to-day. The winds ought to hold good throughout the day."

The contest between the two yachts to-day will be over a 30-mile triangular course, the same as that attempted on Tuesday.

Will Race Daily.

The agreement as to the days for the races was modified so that it now reads the races shall be sailed on the following dates, until the series be completed: Oct. 3, and on each following day except Sunday, provided, however, that immediately on the conclusion of the race of Oct. 3, and each subsequent race, the Regatta Committee shall enquire of each contestant whether he is willing to start the next day; and, should either contestant reply in the negative, one day shall intervene before starting the next race. Sunday shall not count as such intervening day.

NOVA SCOTIA ELECTIONS

Every County in the Province But One Has Returned a Liberal.

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 2.—The Liberals of Nova Scotia won the greatest victory in the history of Canadian politics to-day, when they swept the whole province from end to end. They carried every county, and out of the thirty-eight representatives in the House thirty-six Liberals have been returned.

One Conservative, McLeod, has been returned in Cumberland, while Hon. T. R. Black, the other successful candidate, is a Liberal.

In Pictou two Liberals have been returned, by over 400 majority. The other seat in this county is doubtful, and possibly C. E. Tanner, the Conservative, may be returned by a small majority.

All the candidates in the Island of Cape Breton have been elected by overwhelming majorities. In Halifax all three Liberals were elected. The Conservatives carried the city by a small majority, but the Liberals made gains in the outside districts.

The contest in Colchester was a spirited one. Thomas F. Pearson, Liberal, and John F. Stairs, Conservative, both of Halifax, contested the county. Pearson and Laurence, both Liberals, were elected by over 100 majority.

The Liberals made very large gains in many of the counties, and it is expected that several of the Conservatives will lose their deposits.

Premier Murray had over 500 of a majority in Victoria County. The elections passed off very quietly, and were conducted on strict party lines.

All three Liberals in Halifax were elected. Keefe, the lowest Liberal, has a majority of 90 over Crosby, the highest Conservative.

A New Departure

A NEW, EFFECTUAL AND CONVENIENT CURE FOR CATARRH.

Of catarrh remedies there is no end, but of catarrh cures, there has always been a great scarcity. There are many remedies to relieve, but very few that really cure.

The old practice of snuffing salt water through the nose would often relieve and the washes, douches, powders and inhalers in common use are very little, if any, better than the old fashioned salt water douche.

The use of inhalers and the application of salves, washes and powders to the nose and throat to cure catarrh is no more reasonable than to rub the back to cure kidney disease. Catarrh is just as much a blood disease as kidney trouble or rheumatism, and it cannot be cured by local treatment any more than they can be.

To cure catarrh, whether in the head, throat or stomach an internal antiseptic treatment is necessary to drive the catarrhal poison out of the blood and system, and the new catarrh cure is designed on this plan and the remarkable success of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is because being used internally it drives out catarrhal infection through action upon stomach, liver and bowels.

Wm. Zimmerman, of St. Joseph, relates an experience with catarrh which is of value to millions of catarrh sufferers everywhere. He says: "I neglected a slight nasal catarrh until it gradually extended to my throat and bronchial tubes and finally even my stomach and liver became affected, but as I was able to keep up and do a day's work I let it run along until my hearing began to fail me and then I realized that I must get rid of catarrh or lose my position as I was clerk and my hearing was absolutely necessary.

"Some of my friends recommended an inhaler, another a catarrh salve, but they were no good in my case, nor was anything else until I heard of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and bought a package at my store. They benefited me from the start and in less than four months I was completely cured of catarrh although I had suffered nearly all my life from it.

"They are pleasant to take and so much more convenient to use than other catarrh remedies, that I feel I cannot say enough in favor of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets."

A little book on cause and cure of catarrh will be mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., and the tablets are sold by all druggists in the United States and Canada.

Have Set Their Faces Eastward

Royal Guests Depart From Victoria in Their Return Trip.

Boer Casualties Were Heavy at Woedwill—Annual Meeting of C. P. R.—$250,000 Set Apart for Nucleus of Pension Fund to Employes—Nova Scotia Elections Trade With China.

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 3.—Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York left by R.M.S. Empress of India at 10 o'clock last night for Vancouver, having again turned their faces to the east for their homeward trip, which will occupy exactly a month, including stops at all the large cities of Canada and a short one on the prairies to enjoy a hunting trip.

Yesterday was spent in an informal way, the party enjoying a trip in the admiral's launch through the pretty island waters, known as Victoria Arm, and then taking a drive around the roads which have made Victoria famous. The hospital was also visited. In fact, the only formal affair of the day was the presentation of a nugget bracelet, sent down by the miners of Atlin.

The party embarked on the steamer shortly after six o'clock. The Mayor and aldermen were on hand to bid them good-bye.

Their Royal Highnesses requested the Mayor to convey to the citizens of Victoria their appreciation of the kind treatment they had received from the people of the city. They had enjoyed their stay very much, indeed; particularly yesterday, when they had a good opportunity of seeing the beauties of the city and its surroundings.

Will Meet Coast Indians.

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 3.—The royal party will not visit New Westminster, the announcement made that they would having been unauthorized.

When the Empress of India arrives in port Thursday morning the Duke will meet the chiefs of the British Columbia Coast Indians and will reply to their addresses.

Through a newspaper correspondent the Indians happened to hear that the Duchess is very fond of Indian relics. The chiefs accordingly met, and, as they expressed it to your correspondent, decided to give "the daughter of the King the best we have got — the kite-um-shamorget, or the 'hat of the chiefs.'" This headdress, belonging to Fort Simpson Indians, is equivalent to the royal crown, and has been used by the chiefs for many generations, so long, indeed, that they have no record of its origin. It is very highly prized among Indians, and Rev. A. E. Green, interpreter, expressed surprise that they were willing to part with it, but they are so pleased at the Duke's kindly reception of them and at his graciousness at meeting them again, that they say, "We can only give the best we have to our King's daughter."

MINES ARE SEALED.

Will Take Months to Smother the Flames in Extension Shafts.

Nanaimo, B. C., Oct. 3.—The Extension mine situation remains practically unchanged. Seventeen men are known to be entombed in No. 2 slope. The mines are sealed to smother the flames. This is the only possible way of extinguishing the fire, and it will take months to effect the result desired. Air has leaked in once or twice and caused explosions which have blown out the stoppings. Such an explosion on a large scale would utterly wreck the mines, and, it is feared, that it may happen at any moment.

How the Accident Happened.

Quebec, Oct. 3.—The official inquiry into the grounding of H.M.S. Indefatigable was opened here yesterday: Pilot Alfred Bouille, the pilot in charge of the man-of-war, when she struck, was called, and unhesitatingly told his story of the accident. He had never been in charge of a man-of-war before, but it had been explained to him and he fully understood that men-of-war were steered by degrees, or rather the orders for steering were given by degrees. He explained the course the vessel was pursuing. He could not account for the accident except on the theory that the vessel was struck suddenly by a current and did not answer quickly enough to her helm.

Other witnesses were examined, but nothing new was elicited.

Mr. Wallace's Condition.

Woodbridge, Oct. 3.—Hon. N. Clarke Wallace's condition last evening was about the same. He enjoyed a good sleep Tuesday night, and rested well during yesterday.

Hon. N. Clarke Wallace's condition showed a slight improvement yesterday, which augurs well for recovery. He rested easier, took considerable nourishment and was able to dictate a little.

Found Dead on the Road.

Clinton, Oct. 3.—Thomas Elliott, a well-known young farmer, living a few miles from town, was found lying dead on the roadside yesterday morning by his father, the result of his team of horses taking fright and running away. The deceased was the second son of Mr. Gabiel Elliott, and leaves a wife and one child to mourn his sudden call.

Queen's Opens.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 3.—The sixty-first session of Queen's University opened yesterday morning, with a large attendance of students. The registered students in attendance will number 800, an increase of about 100.

Winnipeg, Oct. 3.—Sir Claude Macdonald passed through the city yesterday en route to Banff, where he meets the Duke and Duchess.

THE SCHLEY ENQUIRY.

The Accused Admiral's First Witness on the Stand on Wednesday.

Washington, Oct. 3.—An interesting turn was given to the Schley Court of Inquiry yesterday by the introduction of the first witness in Admiral Schley's behalf. He was Lieut. James J. Doyle, who was a watch officer on board the flagship Brooklyn during the war with Spain. The fact that Lieut. Doyle was put on the stand does not mean that the Navy Department has concluded the presentation of its side of the case. Mr. Doyle was called by the department, but, as it had also been the purpose of Admiral Schley to summon him, advantage was taken of his presence on the stand to question him as an original witness for "the applicant." He was under examination by Mr. Rayner in the interest of the admiral when the court adjourned for the day.

Burrard Election Case.

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—The appeal of Duval v. Maxwell was heard in the Supreme Court yesterday morning. In the lower court the objection to the petition against Mr. Maxwell, the sitting member of Burrard, B. C., was sustained, and the petition dismissed. The rule of practice required a copy of the petition to be left with the clerk of the court when it is filed, and the objection was that such a copy was deposited on a later day. The court below held that the rule was imperative that the copy should be left contemporaneously with the petition. J. Travers Lewis, for the appellant petitioner, and J. Lorne McDougall, for the respondent, Mr. Maxwell. Judgment was reserved.

Canadian Cattle at Buffalo.

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—The Department of Agriculture has received a report of the winnings of Canadian cattle at the Pan-American. Canadian cattle made a very good showing, especially shorthorns. The winnings of Canadian and American cattle summarized is as follows: Shorthorns — Canadian, $1,001.60; American, $418. Herefords, $355—$740. Aberdeen Angus, $72.50 — $480. Galloways, $197.50 — $347.50. Fat cattle—Canadian, $110. Guernseys, $130 — $710. French-Canadian, $402.50 — $157. Ayrshires, $430 — $130. Holsteins, $412 — $930.

Railway in Temiscaming.

Toronto, Oct. 3.—W. R. Russell, chief engineer in charge of the Temiscaming Railway surveys, in a letter to the Department of Public Works, says that he has located 25 miles of the line, from North Bay, and has continued his explorations four miles farther.

Goldman Lecture Called Off.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Mayor Harrison yesterday ordered the police to prevent Emma Goldman's lecture here to-night. The Anarchist organ Free Society, was issued yesterday for the first time since the President was shot. In it neither the memory of the dead President nor the grief of the public is respected, or even considered. The leading article, a review of Czolgosz's crime, is by Emma Goldman.

Lost an Arm.

Whitby, Oct. 3.—While working a cutting box on the farm of Henry Souley, Mr. Hall, a young man 23 years of age, had his arm caught in the knives. Medical aid was at once summoned, but it was found necessary to amputate the arm above the elbow.

"A Bit Shaky."

A man looks at his trembling hands and says: "I feel a bit shaky this morning, and shall need a bracer." His real need is not nerve stimulant, but nerve strength. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery gives strength to the nervous system. It does not brace up, but builds up. It is entirely free from alcohol and from opium, cocaine, and other narcotics usually found in so-called nerve medicines.

David Duggins, Esq., of Jones, Ohio Co., Ky., writes: "When I began taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I think I had nervous or general debility of three years' duration. I took three bottles of the 'Discovery.' During the time I was taking it my sleep became more refreshing and I gained fifteen pounds weight, and also gained strength every day."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay cost of customs and mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for book bound in paper, or 50 stamps for cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

ANNUAL MEETING OF C.P.R.

$250,000 Set Apart for Nucleus of Pension Fund for Employes.

C.P.R. Shareholders Authorize Issue of Bonds of $2,500,000 for Acquisition of Steamships—Congratulations to Sir Thomas Shaughnessy—Board of Directors Elected With Sir William Van Horne as Chairman of Board.

Montreal, Oct. 3.—The twentieth annual meeting of the shareholders of the C.P.R. was held yesterday, there being a large attendance of shareholders. Sir William Van Horne, chairman of the Board of Directors, presided.

The annual report, which was published some time ago, was taken as read. Sir Thomas Shaughnessy moved the adoption of the report, which was carried.

The shareholders then, by resolution, gave approval to the lease of the Kootenay and Arrow Head Railway, the lease of the Vancouver and Lulu and Lake Island Railway, and the British Columbia Southern.

A consolidated debenture stock issue of not more than $75,000 on account of branch lines was approved.

Then the chairman read a resolution setting apart $250,000 for a pension fund nucleus, and providing for the creation of a new department, which shall have charge of the administration of the fund, shall decide under what conditions, and find to what employes of the company pensions should be granted. The resolution was adopted.

Congratulations were extended to the president on the honor of knighthood recently conferred on him by the King. Sir William Van Horne said that all regarded the honor as not only for Sir Thomas Shaughnessy personally, but also for the Canadian Pacific.

The Board of Directors for the ensuing year was then elected, as follows: Right Hon. Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, Sir William C. Van Horne, K.C.M.G., Sir Thomas G. Shaughnessy, Richard B. Angus, Montreal; Edmund B. Osler, M. P., Toronto; Sir Sandford Fleming, K.C.M.G., Ottawa; George R. Harris, Boston; Wilmot D. Matthews, Toronto; Thomas Skinner, London; John MacKay, New York; General Samuel Thomas, New York; Charles R. Hosmer, Montreal.

After the election of directors, the meeting was changed from an annual one to a special meeting to vote on a proposed bond issue for an extension of the steamship line. A resolution was adopted authorizing the issue of bonds to the extent of $2,500,000 for the acquisition of steamships and their equipment.

A meeting of the Board of Directors was held after the general meeting, when Sir William Van Horne was elected chairman of the board and Sir Thomas Shaughnessy president.

An Executive Committee, composed of Sir William Van Horne, Lord Strathcona, Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, R. B. Angus and E. B. Osler was also appointed.

Trade With China.

Ottawa, Oct. 3.—Lord Minto has received the following cable from Hon. Joseph Chamberlain:

"By protocol, signed Sept. 7, the powers have consented to Chinese import duties being placed on a treaty basis of an effective 5 per cent. on all goods brought into China by sea, including articles hitherto free, with the exception of rice, cereals and flour of foreign origin. The reduced tariff will come into force two months after Sept. 7, and exception has only been made in case of merchandise en route ten days at latest after Sept. 7. Duties will be levied ad valorem, pending conclusion of specific duties."

All duties in China are specific, but from above it is evident they will be fixed so as to equal 5 per cent. ad valorem.

C. E. Officers Elected.

Brockville, Oct. 3.—At the convention of Ontario Christian Endeavorers yesterday the following officers were elected: President, Rev. D. S. Clendinnen, Brockville; Vice-Presidents, Rev. A. L. Geggie, Toronto; T. H. Best, Brantford; John Hopkins, Woodstock; Dr. Steele, Tavistock; junior superintendent, Miss Whitworth, Brockville; councillor and district superintendent, eastern district, Dr. Lyon, Ottawa; central district, W. R. Thomas; western district, T. A. Moon, Hamilton; Secretary-Treasurer, A. T. Cooper, Clinton; Editor, A. Graham, Lancaster.

An Interesting Slander Case.

Owen Sound, Oct. 3.—Mr. G. M. Boyd, M. P. P. for North Grey, has instructed his solicitor, Mr. H. G. Tucker, to issue a writ in the High Court against Mr. A. J. Creighton, manager of the local branch of the Queen City Oil Works, asking damages for slander in certain alleged statements of the latter reflecting upon the character of the member. The case will probably be tried in December, and will excite much interest in both town and country, as the parties to the suit are so well known.

Induction of Prof. Douglas.

Toronto, Oct. 3.—There was a large attendance of clergymen and representatives from the different Presbyterian Churches of the city at Knox Church yesterday afternoon. The occasion was the induction of Rev. A. Halliday Douglas as professor of apologetics, homiletics and pastoral theology in Knox College, and the opening exercises in connection with the college.

BOER CASUALTIES WERE 550

Enemy Lost More Than Half Their Force at Moedwill.

Lord Kitchener Confirms the Heavy Loses of the Enemy in Attack on Itala Forts—Col. Kekewich Twice Wounded—There is a Prospect of Guns Recently Captured at Vlakfontein Being Recovered.

London, Oct. 3.—The Boer reverse at Moedwill occurred Sept. 29. The Boers are reported to have been 1,000 strong.

Lord Kitchener, in his despatch, says the British repelled the attack with great vigor. After the close of the fighting Col. Kekewich was found to be slightly wounded in two places.

He says that all ranks behaved extremely well. The wounded were taken to Rustenburg, half way between Pretoria and Mafeking.

Lord Kitchener confirms the heavy losses of the Boers, about 250 killed and 300 wounded, during their attack on the forces at Itala.

There is a prospect, he says, of the guns recently captured at Vlakfontein, being recovered from the Boers.

Many British Killed.

London, Oct. 3.—Lord Kitchener yesterday reports that two officers and thirty-one men have been killed in an attack made on Col. Kekewich's camp at Moedwill. The Boers, who were under Commandants Delarey and Kemp, had 14 officers and 114 men wounded or killed, after two hours' night fighting, when the Boers were driven off. Col. Kekewich was among the wounded.

Boer Refugees Recaptured.

Hamilton, Bermuda, Oct. 3.—Fresh attempts at escape have been made by some of the Boer prisoners of war. Last Saturday night, under cover of darkness and a rainstorm, as one of the Boers asserts, with the electric lights playing upon them all the time, three men, a nephew of the late Commandant Joubert, Alfred Martinus Joubert, and two brothers, George and Hendrick Indemaur, made good their escape from the prisoners' pen at Darrell's Island and swam over to the Princess Hotel, where they landed, dressed themselves in the clothing which they had carried over, tied in bundles, on a plank, and, making their way to a livery stable in Hamilton, hired a trap and directed the driver to take them to the residence of Dr. Outerbridge, at Bailey's Bay, and then repaired to a place of concealment in the neighborhood. One prisoner was retaken on Monday morning, and the other two were recaptured late that evening.

Five Hundred Meetings.

London, Oct. 3.—Five hundred public meetings, arranged by the extreme wing of the Opposition, to protest against the Government's South African policy, will take place throughout Great Britain during October and November. The specific purpose of the movement is to fight the Government's proposition to subject the Transvaal and Orange River Colonies to the Crown colony system following the war.

Filipinos Burned the Bodies.

Manila, Oct. 3.—The advices from the Island of Samar give harrowing details of the slaughter of the members of Company C, 9th United States Infantry, last Saturday at Balangiga. It seems that the president of the town, claiming to be friendly, led the assault in person. The body of Capt. Connell had been tied by the hands, saturated with kerosene and partly burned. Forty-five bodies had been burned in a trench, leaving seven unaccounted for. The charred remains of many were recovered. In numerous instances the bodies had been badly mutilated.

Indian Blew His Head Off.

Portage la Prairie, Oct. 3. — A Sioux Indian was found dead in the village east of this town Tuesday night. His head had been blown off and suspicion was directed against one of his companions, but it was learned yesterday morning that it was a case of suicide.

Deceased had been drinking and was despondent. In the afternoon he took the gun, expressing his intention of going shooting. He went into the bush and pulled off his boots, placed the muzzle against his jaw and pulled the trigger with his foot. Death was instantaneous.

The Richelieu Went Down.

Kingston, Oct. 3.—The steamer Richelieu, owned by the R. & O. Navigation Company, and under charter by the Lake Ontario Navigation Company, and engaged on the route between Kingston and Belleville, foundered at noon yesterday while bound for Kingston. She was within three miles of the city, in what is known as the lower gap, when she took a header and sank. A fairly heavy sea was running, which caused her cargo to shift, and before she could be righted she filled and went down in about sixty feet of water. The crew and the one passenger got ashore safely, but had a narrow escape.

A Sarnia Jail Delivery.

Sarnia, Oct. 3.—Robert Thompson, who had only late Tuesday afternoon received a sentence of ten years at Kingston for burglary, made a daring escape from the jail here, sawing through an inch and a half bar and climbing a twenty foot wall. Himself and a pal had robbed one of the cottages at Sarnia Beach, for which each was given a ten-year sentence. Shortly after being returned to jail Thompson, who was confined in the lower ward, was at liberty. The escape was discovered when the prisoner was to be given his supper.

Nearly $300,000 a Day.

New York, Oct. 3.—The Billion-Dollar Steel Trust launched last spring by J. Pierpont Morgan completed its first six months yesterday, and judging by the meagre statement vouchsafed the public it has been a great success from the viewpoint of the $200,000,000 syndicate which floated it. The net earnings for the first six months were close to $5,000,000.

Mr. Whitney at Listowel.

Listowel, Oct. 3.—The seventh annual exhibition of the Listowel and South Wallace Agricultural Society closed yesterday, and was the most successful ever held here. Mr. J. P. Whitney, K.C., M.P.P., opened the fair and delivered an address in response to addresses read to him by the president of the society and Mayor Watson. Mr. Whitney's presence contributed in no small degree to the very large attendance. The weather was unfavorable, rain falling at intervals all day.

Daily Intelligencer.

HON. MR. BLAIR AND CHINESE SERVANTS.

During the last session of Parliament, the Government introduced and passed a Bill increasing the tax levied upon each Chinaman entering Canada, for the purpose of becoming a settler, from $50 to $100. This Bill was introduced to meet, partially, the demands of trade unions, whose members demanded a levy of $500 per head, or total exclusion, so as to prevent Chinese competition in the labor market with white labor.

The Hon. R. W. Scott, Secretary of State, expressed strong views in opposition to class legislation, though the Ministry of which he is a Member was responsible for the additional tax proposed to be levied upon each individual Oriental, and which he, notwithstanding his expressed views, supported.

Hon. Mr. Blair, Minister of Railways and Canals, while becoming also responsible for this anti-Chinese legislation, ignores it, as the Government does all its election professions in practice, by, as the Ottawa Citizen tells its readers, employing two Chinese, who were imported from Vancouver, as servants in his own house. This, as might have been foreseen, has raised the ire of organized labor; and the Citizen reports that the other servants of his household "have shown their resentment by packing their trunks and leaving the aristocratic Minister short of help. Mr. Blair will in future eat viands prepared by Chinese cooks. The Canadian brand of cook is not good enough for him. The Canadian workingmen have been clamoring for years for an increased embargo on Asiatic labor and this Minister shows his contempt for labor's voice by employing Orientals in his home in the Capital city. The action of the Minister was referred to at the meeting of the Allied Trades and Labor Association last night (27th Sept.)"

These remarks and the action of the "Allied Trade and Labor Association" of the city, have, as was to be expected, caused the Ministerial organ, the Free Press, to rush to the Minister's defence, as follows:

> "Things are coming to a pretty pass if a gentleman cannot employ an Oriental in his house as cook or anything else, without being abused and dictated to by outsiders. This is supposed to be a free country, and in the present position of the domestic servant issue it looks as though it cannot be long before every house in which external help is required will be compelled to have its Jap as cook, housemaid, nurse, and otherwise. And the little women will be better liked the better they are known. As nurses they are without comparison."

This sounds well, coming, as it does, from a Government organ, which for years was denouncing Conservatives for not acceding to demands for the exclusion of Chinese from the Dominion.

It is further said that Mr. Ralph Smith, the British Columbia Labor Member of the Commons, is to visit Ottawa, "at once," to enter, on behalf of labor organizations, a protest, and to demand from the Minister an explanation of his conduct, in daring to employ a Chinaman to cook his dinner, and wash the children's clothes. This is an exceedingly delicate question for Mr. Smith, the representative of allied labor, to grapple with, and with him it may be safely left. The Laurier combination, which professes one set of principles and practices another, no doubt will be able to satisfy an ardent supporter like Mr. Smith that it is none of his affair, and send the gentleman about his business with the language of the Free Press ringing in his ears, "that things are coming to a pretty pass if a gentleman cannot employ an Oriental in his house as cook or anything else, without being abused and dictated to by outsiders."

TRAITOROUS WORDS BY HOME RULERS.

A telegram to the Mail and Empire, from Dublin, dated October 1st, says:

"At a meeting to-day of the Irish League, a letter from William O'Brien was read, expressing the hope that "if the English King carries out his threatened visit to Ireland in 1902, the League will succeed in arousing such a spirit as will convince his Majesty that he comes among a people discontented and disaffected to the core, who only need arms and the training of the Boers to testify their hatred of English rule with an eloquence equal to that of the South African Republics.

"Mr. John Redmond, M.P., leader of the Parnellite Nationalists, in the course of a speech said that the Irish were always prepared to take up arms to effect the freedom of Ireland, but were not strong enough.

"Mr. John Dillon, M.P., also attended the meeting."

It is just such inflammatory utterances as these that lead to murder and other crimes. Such firebrands as O'Brien should be locked up.

TIMELY TOPICS.

Good evening; have you donned your winter underwear yet?

It may be timely to remark that this is V.C. weather—very cold.

Under the circumstances, perhaps, the ladies of the Women's Missionary Society may be excused for thinking The Intelligencer was the only newspaper published in Belleville.

Belleville is not the only place where the men of the militia find it hard to get away from business to attend the Royal review. Even the famous Thirteenth of Hamilton has its troubles. The Fifteenth will probably be as good as most of the militia regiments which march past in Toronto.

It is safe betting that the fellow who wrote that wasn't thinking of the Yankee garrison in the Philippines which was surprised while at breakfast the other day, and wiped out. (Wherever Kitchener eats his dinner he'll eat it with his eyes open.

The Intelligencer is being complimented on its reports of the W.C.A. and W.M.S. yesterday. This paper, it may be remarked, believes in properly reporting an important matter, even though, in so doing, it differs from a contemporary.

Every member of the Fifteenth should make an effort to attend the Royal review. It will be the chance of a lifetime to see Major Maude and the Duke.

We hope the ladies of the W.M.S. enjoyed their stay in Belleville. We know their labors will be productive of good. Good-bye, ladies; come again. The latch string will always hang out for you

Incredible as it may appear, the Duke and Duchess had a day off yesterday, and didn't lay a cornerstone or even receive an address. Must have been Thanksgiving day for them.

After the yacht races are over and the Duke has hied himself away and gone to tell his Royal Dad what a lung-up time he had in Canada, the Citizens' Committee, which intends to turn municipal things inside out in this fair city, will begin to show their hand. Popular cry, isn't it, this slogan of "civic reform!" Great list of candidates the civic reformers have got. The mantle of any previous Council, they say, wouldn't reach half way down the back of the Council which will manage the city's affairs next year. So all we have to do is to be patient and we shall see what we shall see.

Pretty school marms must have rather a nice time of it out west, judging by the following story, which is told by the Moosomin World: "A pretty school marm, who teaches the young idea in a rural district not more than a hundred miles from Moosomin, recently made the offer to kiss the first pupil who arrived at the school next morning—as an incentive to punctuality. On going to school the following morning she found six young men sitting on the fence—where they roosted all night—three school trustees standing in the porch and a couple of elderly farmers behind a desk in the school, they having crawled through a window. And each one declared he was the first and wanted the teacher to fulfil her promises."

A few months ago the Hon. J. Israel Tarte had a Chinese cook turned off a Government dredge in British Columbia to please the labor organizations. Hon. Mr. Blair now imports a brace of Chinese to work in his own household. Mr. Smith the Labor M.P., who is now in Ottawa, will no doubt arrange the household affairs of the Minister of Railways and inform him who shall cook his dinner.

The Montreal Herald, a Government organ, stated the other day, that Mr. Mulock was going to Hot Springs, Ark., U.S., and that he would resign his portfolio if his health did not improve, and that Mr. Sutherland was to take his place. Hon. Mr. Mulock, in an interview with a Globe reporter, denies with much explicitness that he proposes to resign or that Hon. James Sutherland will succeed him. The probability is that the Herald was inspired to circulate the report so as to gently convey the idea to Mr. Mulock that it was time he made room for some one else.

Mr. Ralph Smith, M.P., President of the Trades Congress of Canada, accompanied by Mrs. Smith, arrived in the Capital yesterday on departmental and labor business.—Ottawa Citizen.

Will the Citizen ascertain and let Canada know if Mr. Smith left instructions as to what the nationality and color of Mr. Blair's servants are to be in the future? He has Chinese now, are they to be dismissed?

Germany, unlike Canada, is not afraid in tariff matters to do unto the United States as the United States do unto Germany. The United States Tariff has been so framed as to materially affect German trade, and the reply of the German press is "If America vexes us so boldly, then we must have for America, and on account of America, an autonomous tariff with high rates to teach that country manners".

The C.P.R. Directors in Canada are going to ask the shareholders for power to issue bonds to the extent of $2,500,000 for the purpose of securing additional steamboats.

Hamilton's Chief of Police is going to take great precautions to guard the Duke. No wicked people will get a chance to sell H.R.H. any brass guineas.

What a pity the Hon. Edward Blake was not present at that meeting in Dublin, where his Irish confreres talked such treasonable rot. Perhaps he would have remonstrated with them, and then again, perhaps he wouldn't.

The Duke of York likes the train he is travelling in very much, and would prefer to take it home with him. Perhaps if he is a good boy Santa Claus may put it in his Christmas Eve stocking.

A Kingston "Veteran," writing to the papers, wants to know why the Fourteenth Regiment of Kingston should go to Toronto to attend the Royal review. Because they have been ordered by the Government to do so. What better reason could soldiers want?

A country clothing store has the following sign in its window: "Pants 90 cents a leg; seats free."

Hail, Columbia!

There don't seem to be much to do but acknowledge the corn.

It was a great race, but the Yankee boat had a little too much speed.

Lipton has made a gallant effort, in the face of adverse conditions which didn't exist when the America won the cup. Probably no better effort will ever be made while the Yankees refuse to play fair.

Those two Conservatives in Nova Scotia Legislature will be lonely, sure.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The first object in life with the Canadian people is to "get rich;" the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health), by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well known August Flower will relieve you at once. Regular size, 75 cents. You can get Dr. G.G. Green's reliable remedies at R. Templeton & Co's.

Stole the Melon

A lad named Martin was yesterday afternoon proceeding to his home, carrying a good sized water melon, when two other boys approached and took the melon away from Martin and skipped. The boys' names have been found out, and they will have to answer to the charge.

Chafing and Itching Skin

Dr. Chase's Ointment

There is always mystery and doubt about the action of internal remedies. Time is required for the medicine to take effect. It is different with Dr. Chase's Ointment, for it is applied externally, and you are sure to be surprised by the remarkable change it brings about in a few hours. Its cleansing, soothing, healing action allays inflammation and irritation, removes redness and roughness of the skin, and leaves the skin delightfully smooth, soft and velvety.

Notwithstanding its powerful action in the severest cases of skin diseases, Dr. Chase's Ointment can be used with perfect safety on the most tender skin and is especially suited for the chafings, itching and irritations which are so troublesome. Ladies keep it constantly in their toilet, and mothers who have used it in place of powders for their babies would not think of changing. It does not clog the pores of the skin as do powders, does not stain the linen, and is pleasant to use.

Mrs. E. Clark, 71 Inchbury street, Hamilton, Ont., states: "The results experienced from using Dr. Chase's Ointment on my children for various sores have been satisfactory in the extreme, especially so with baby, now two months old. All the soreness, scalding and chafes were removed from the little fellow immediately after using Dr. Chase's Ointment on him, which freed him from pain. It came as a blessing. The cuts and bruises my children meet with always disappear before it, and I consider Dr. Chase's Ointment the very best of its kind. I advise mothers to have it in the house always."

Mrs. A. McKnight, Kirkwall, Wellington County, Ont., writes: "I feel it my duty to let you know what Dr. Chase's Ointment has done in a very bad case of eczema on our baby. We had tried any number of cures without any permanent relief, but from the hour we commenced using Dr. Chase's Ointment there was great relief, and the improvement continued until there was a complete cure. We think it the greatest of family ointments."

Dr. Chase's Ointment is the standard ointment the world over. It promptly and thoroughly relieves, and cures eczema, salt rheum and the most torturing forms of itching skin disease. Sixty cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

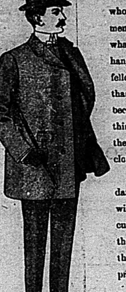
Suits FOR Young Men



For the young fellows who are nearly men, but who are a mighty sight more particular than most men—those young fellows who knows what's what when it comes to the shape of a coat or the hang of the trousers—for those exacting young fellows we have provided a larger variety in Suits than heretofore. They've encouraged us to do so, because they are always looking to us for everything that's fashionable and snappy. And then they appreciate the efforts we take in fitting their clothes.

$5 to $15.

Come, look them over. If you want to know what's going to be worn come in and take a look at them. They won't cost you anything.

THE STREET RAILWAY

NOTHING DEFINITE IN REGARD TO THE SALE HAS YET TRANSPIRED.

The Street Railway deal is still in statu quo. There seems to be a difference of opinion between the Bank of Montreal and the party who, through the Mayor, bid for the road at the auction sale the other day.

The Bank people have nothing to say beyond the fact that, in any event, the road will not be operated by them any more. When the road is sold they will gladly tell the name of the purchaser, and that's all they care to say.

Mr. J. W. Vandyke, the Grimsby gentleman who has been dickering with the Bank for the road, says that he has nothing to give to the press, and whatever any paper publishes about his alleged plans is simply guesswork. When the matter is satisfactorily arranged, if it ever is arranged, he will give both press and public any information they want.

There didn't seem to be much left for the newspaper man to say, but he essayed a parting shot.

"Has the deal yet been effected?" he asked.

"It has not," said Mr. Vandyke.

METHODIST WOMEN TALK ON MISSIONS

Another Large Audience Assembled in Bridge St. Church Last Night

Lady Missionaries Talk on Their Work—Dr. Crothers' Inspiring Address.

The Bay of Quinte branch of the Women's Missionary Society has every reason to congratulate itself on the excellent results so far obtained in its present session. Increasing interest has marked its sessions, and all the members speak hopefully of the good accomplished. It is expected that this afternoon's session will be the last of the present meeting:

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION.

Wednesday afternoon's session opened promptly at 2 o'clock, Mrs. Platt, President, in the chair.

"A Model Auxiliary," conducted by members of the Belleville Auxiliaries and presided over by Mrs. (Rev) J. H. Locke, was a bright innovation to the proceedings, and was thoroughly appreciated by the delegates. The systematic way of conducting an auxiliary was demonstrated, and excellent pointers were given as to the watch tower. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to those who took part in the demonstration.

An excellent paper on "What can we do to Increase our Membership," was read by Miss Carlisle, of Peterboro, and commented upon by several delegates.

"What can we do to Improve our Meetings," was the subject of a paper presented by Mrs. Valleau, of Selby. A higher standard of prayers living and giving, was recommended. Some were members, but not workers; all should be earnest workers as well as members. In view of failures the speaker asked the members if they had been found alone with God in prayer. Let us, she said, like Jacob, prevail with God, and go to Him as the fountain head for motive power, and our auxiliaries will not lack interest.

Mrs. (Rev.) G. Nickle, of Bridgenorth, gave a paper on "What can we do to Increase our Income." The average giving for the past year has been $1.40 per member. Several suggestions were advanced as to how the increase of income was to be obtained. Frequent public meetings were recommended and a closer study of the work and needs. Monthly collections and systematic giving were a source of income which might be adopted. They should give because they loved to give and because it is a privilege.

This paper caused considerable discussion, which was taken part in by many members.

"A Study of Methods," by the President, Mrs. Platt, was a paper full of points of interests and also notes of warning to the members.

The session closed by the singing of a hymn and the pronouncing of the benediction.

WEDNESDAY EVENING SESSION.

Bridge Street Church was well filled last evening, and the proceedings were, as usual, very interesting.

Rev. Dr. Crothers was chairman and he was assisted in the devotional exercises by Rev. Dr. Galbraith, who gave the opening prayer after the hymn "All Hail the Power of Jesu's Name" had been sung.

The chairman in a few well-chosen remarks, congratulated the ladies not only upon the success of their gathering, but upon their work in general. The past year had been to them one of profit and blessing. They were doing a grand work, which was not surpassed by any other department of church work. He did not think they had, however, reached the highest and grandest point of their work. He wished them every success and God's blessing in the future.

Miss Paul, a returned missionary from Port Simpson, gave an excellent account of the missionary work which was being done among the Indians at that place. The Indians at Port Simpson were a nice lot of people, and took kindly to the missionaries. There was a large school for boys and girls, who were being taught various trades in addition to receiving religious training. They applied themselves assiduously to the work and were progressing nicely. Some difficulties were encountered at first, but gradually they are being overcome. In speaking of visitors to that part of the country the speaker referred to the fact that whilst she was there they had the pleasure of a short visit from Sir Mackenzie Bowell, who was accompanied by the Hon. T. M. Daly and others. It was a pleasure to receive such distinguished visitors to the school and mission buildings. Miss Paul, in the course of her address, referred to Christmas day and how it was fittingly celebrated. The address was very interesting and was closely followed by all present.

Next followed a descriptive address of mission work in China, by Miss Brooks, who was for some time engaged in the work in the Flowery Kingdom. Limelight views were displayed upon a large canvas, and were exceptionally good. As each picture was shown Miss Brooks explained it, and her manner of description could not be improved upon. A large number of views were shown of cities, towns and villages; the great Chinese wall was shown and the mode of travelling by water and on land. In addition to the Chinese pictures, two views of missionary homes and buildings in Japan and Port Simpson were showed, which were commented on by Miss Munro and Miss Paul.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION.

Devotional exercises were led by by Mrs. J. A. Jewell, Camborne, Mrs. D. W. King, Oakwood, and Mrs. T. W. Jolliffe. The topic chosen was "Scriptural Methods of Giving."

After the reading and approval of the minutes of Wednesday afternoon's session, the Branch Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. A. Grange, Napanee, gave the following report:

Auxiliaries in Bay of Quinte Branch	150
Annual members	2721
Decrease	360
Life members	118
Increase	10
Total members	2839
Mission Circles	9
Mission Bands	17
Members of Circles and Bands	547
Decrease	29
Amounts raised by Auxiliaries, Bands and Circles	$6775.77
Increase	915.45

New Auxiliaries: Rawdon and Westwood, Campbellford District; Bethel, Camden East and Yarker, Napanee District; Oak Hill, Brighton District; Manchester, Whitby District; Bethel, Whitby District.

Eight Auxiliaries have disbanded, leaving the number of Auxiliaries unchanged. $900.00 worth of clothing has been sent out through the Supply Committee.

Number of Outlooks taken 616. Increase 111.

The business of election of officers was entered upon, with the following results:

President—Mrs. G. D. Platt, Picton.

Vice-President—Mrs. T. M. Campbell, Trenton.

Good reports were given by the organizers of Bowmanville and Tamworth Districts.

Mrs. (Rev.) J. H. Locke made a few pointed remarks, dealing with the difficulties of the billeting Committee, and Mrs. Grange followed with some directions to the delegates to guide them in future preparations for the Branch meeting.

ECHOES OF THE MEETING.

In his address as chairman at last night's meeting Rev. Dr. Crothers endorsed the notes of The Intelligencer as to the ability with which the ladies conducted their business.

It was manifest that Dr. Crothers had recently been in that land which possesses the mint in which are coined the choicest compliments of the language. Dr. Crothers must have improved his time while in Ireland.

Dr. Crothers' comparison of Mrs. Massey, District Organizer of the Belleville District, with Mrs. Wiseman, of London, was the greatest praise Mrs. Massey ever received.

"There were no solos and choruses last night," said a lady who has been present at all the sessions, "and though the proceedings were interesting, they were not so bright as on Tuesday night." Is there a hint for the ladies in the above remark?

What matter-of-fact people these returned missionaries are! No sentiment, no gush, no pyrotechnics. Facts are their stock in trade, and what an array of these they have presented for the past two evenings! That's why women's missionary meetings are ahead of men's.

As the hour for the election of officers approaches, the old questions arise here as in more demonstrative conclaves. Will the "Rest and be thankful" party succeed? or will the "There are as good fish in the sea as ever were caught" party get their friends on the "Treasury benches?"

The only "amoosing" thing as Artemus Ward would have said, in last night's gathering was the announcement read by the chairman, that "A Friend from the Jumping-Off Place" would like to meet "Mrs. From Away Back" at the front northwest door. That's not exactly how it was read, but it meant the same thing.

Now that's quite an idea, even if it is somewhat rural! The array of pulpit announcements at the commencement of each Sunday's services would lose whatever little interest they had, if only, at the close, the congregation was informed at which door the young man would meet their best girls. It would, however, spoil the present Donkey Clubs which assemble on church corners.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING

MR. JAMES CASKEY WENT TO MOUNTAIN VIEW AND TOOK MISS JENNIE WAY AWAY.

A very pretty wedding occurred last evening at the residence of Mr. Gilbert Way, of Mountain View, Prince Edward County, when his daughter, Miss Jennie, was married to Mr. James Caskey, of Madoc, son of the late Mr. John Caskey. Over one hundred invited guests were present to witness the ceremony. Miss Blakely, of Picton, assisted the bride, whilst Mr. John Caskey, a cousin of the groom, did honors for him. The interior of the house was beautifully decorated with palms and flowers, the bridal party standing beneath an arch of flowers whilst the nuptial knot was being tied. The guests were royally entertained after the ceremony. During the evening the Roblin's Mills brass band appeared upon the scene and serenaded the party. The presents to the bride were very numerous and valuable. Mr. and Mrs. Caskey left for a trip to Buffalo and other places, and upon their return they will take up their residence in Madoc.

COLUMBIA WON TO-DAY'S RACE

Slowly But Steadily Gained on Shamrock and at Finish Led by 2 min. 52 sec.

It Now Seems That, Barring Accidents, the Cup Will Stay in America.

(Special to The Intelligencer.)

New York, October 3.—To-day's race for the America's cup was a magnificent struggle. The wind was about 17 miles an hour, and the yachts tore through the water at a terrific pace. The race was over a triangular course. The first leg was a close reach on the port tack, the second a broader reach, and the third leg a dead beat to the finish. The official time of the start was:

Shamrock	11 00 13
Columbia	11 01 47

As the race progressed it was evident that the defender was slowly but surely outfooting the challenger, as the official figures for the first turn show:

Shamrock	11 51 06
Columbia	11 52 17

On the second leg the Columbia continued to gain slowly, the official time of turning the second mark being:

Shamrock	12 45 15
Columbia	12 45 45

Columbia had thus gained 1 min. 34 sec. in twenty miles.

On the last leg, a dead beat to windward, the Columbia increased her advantage. The official time for the finish was:

Columbia	2 15 05
Shamrock	2 16 23

Columbia thus winning a great race by 2 minutes and 52 seconds.

BAD FIRE IN TRENTON.

Shortly before 1 o'clock this morning fire broke in a roughcast block on the west side of Front street, in the town of Trenton, and before it was subdued the block was nearly all destroyed. In the block was W. Potter's barber shop, George Burtt's butcher shop, W. Hubble's second-hand store and a Chinese laundry, in addition to these, Mr. W. Meith, with his family, lived over the second-hand store.

When discovered the flames had gained considerable headway and appeared to have originated in the second-hand store. The occupants were hastily aroused and had to escape hurriedly in order to save their lives. The laundry adjoined the second-hand store, and in these places nothing was saved. Mr. Meith lost all his household effects.

The building was the property of Mrs. (Dr.) Dean, and was insured, but for what amount could not be ascertained. The loss to the occupants is considerable, some of whom had no insurance.

How the fire originated is not known.

Since the above was in type we learn that Mrs. Dean had an insurance on the building of $1500 in the London, Liverpool and Globe. Wm. Meith had an insurance of $320 on contents of dwelling and Geo. Hubble $200 on contents of second-hand store; all in the London, Liverpool and Globe.

THE RICHELIEU'S LOSS

WAS CAUSED BY THE CARGO SHIFTING—PASSENGERS HAD MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

The Richelieu foundered while crossing the lower gap. She was bound down from Picton on her regular daily trip, and had her cargo of fifty tons of tomatoes on her deck, consigned to a Rochester, N.Y., firm. Long swells were rolling as the Richelieu entered the gap. Suddenly the steamer gave a lurch to one side, the cargo shifted, and the vessel began to fill rapidly. The crew were on deck, and in an instant two lifeboats were swung out, and all aboard the doomed vessel jumped into them. There was no time to waste, for the Richelieu sank inside of two minutes after making the lurch which held her over. The lifeboats reached Kingston at half-past one o'clock. There was but one passenger aboard, J. A. Lolonne, traveller for the Reinhardt Manufacturing Co., Montreal. The steamer's officers consisted of Captain Van Vlack; S. Newman, mate; H. Windel, purser; George Boyd, chief engineer; M. Redmond, assistant engineer; T. Harrison, fireman.

The Richelieu was built at Montreal in 1845. She was very light draught. Mr. Gildersleeve has been very unfortunate this season with his boats, the Hero having been burned at Belleville last June. The place where the Richelieu foundered is 100 feet in depth. This afternoon the Donnelly Wrecking Company sent a steamer to see if the Richelieu can be located, and to determine if she can be raised. The Richelieu is owned by Captain Filgate Montreal, and was chartered last spring by H. H. Gildersleeve. Last May she was partly rebuilt above decks. Her value would be about $8,000.

UNTOLD MISERY — WHAT A WELL-KNOWN COMMERCIAL TRAVELLER SUFFERED, AND HOW HE WAS CURED.—Gentlemen, About five years ago I began to be troubled with Dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time travelling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine and when the third bottle was finished, I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of Dyspepsia. (Signed),

T. S. McINTEE.

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung and throat troubles, there is no preparation of medicine can compare with Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to afford prompt and permanent relief. It removes all soreness, and heals the diseased parts. It immediately soothes the most troublesome cough, and by promoting expectoration, removes the mucus which stops up the air tubes which causes difficulty in breathing, thereby gives relief to that depressing tightness experienced in the chest. Public speakers and singers will find Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup of inestimable value, as it speedily and effectually allays all irritation, and huskiness in the throat and bronchial tubes, and gives power to the vocal cords, rendering the voice clear and sonorous. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of "Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup," and whenever a child has taken cold, has a cough or hoarseness, give the Syrup according to directions.

Some persons have periodical attacks of Canadian cholera, dysentery or diarrhoea, and have to use great precautions to avoid the disease. Change of water, cooking, and green fruit, is sure to bring on the attacks. To such persons we would recommend Dr. J. D. If a few drops are taken in water when the symptoms are noticed no further trouble will be experienced.

To Those of Sedentary Occupation. —Men who follow sedentary occupations, which deprive them of fresh air and exercise, are more prone to disorders of the liver and kidneys than those who lead active, outdoor lives. The former will find in Parmelee's Vegetable Pills a restorative without question the most efficacious on the market. They are easily procurable, easily taken, act expeditiously, and they are surprisingly cheap considering their excellence.

WEDDED AT TUFTSVILLE.

One of the happy events, which, though old are ever new, took place in our village on the beautiful morning of September 25th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Juby, when their youngest daughter, Miss Hester Blanche (Lily) gave her heart and hand to Thomas P. Eggleton, of this place. At 10.30 the bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss A. Tufts, to the place assigned for the ceremony, and Rev. Harris, the local pastor, made them one for life. The bride was attended by Miss Sarah Eggleton, sister of the groom, while Mr. Lewis Juby brother of the bride, was best man. The bride looked charming in a suit of light blue cloth, trimmed with white satin, while a beautiful bridal rose nestled in her hair. The bridesmaid was similarly attired. Each carried a bouquet of white geraniums. After the ceremony all sat down to an elegant wedding breakfast. Only the near relatives of the young couple were present. After a pleasant time had been spent, all joined in singing "God be with you till we meet again," then the happy couple left amid a shower of rice for a visit to friends in Belleville and Bayside. It can be safely said that a more handsome or popular couple were never united for life in this village. All join in wishing them happiness and prosperity in their new home.—Com.

HAROLD.

Miss Anna Douglas, of Fuller, is stopping a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Gay.

Mrs. Stephen Innis, who has been under the care of Dr. Wales, for appendicitis, is convalescent.

Mr. Geo. Cotton attended the sittings of court as juryman the past week.

Mrs. John Nugent, of Butte City, Montana, formerly Miss Violet Hurst, is visiting at her old home, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Reid.

Mr. S. Bailey is still in a very serious condition and his medical attendants have no hopes of a permanent recovery.

A GIFT OF 500 ACRES

Would be no temptation to Mr. Beemer in exchange for Dr. Agnew's Ointment. Itching Piles of seven years standing took to themselves wings after a few applications.

Mr. Jas. Beemer, of Knotsaul, Mich., says in a letter of recent date:—"I have had itching Piles for seven years. I have tried most everything that was ever recommended as a cure but never got the least bit of relief until I used Dr. Agnew's Ointment, and I haven't words to express the thankfulness I feel for the great cure. I would rather have the wonderful cure than 500 acres of land. 35 cents. 83

IVANHOE.

The badly needed rain has come at last, and things are looking better.

Ploughing has been partly abandoned lately, on account of the dry ground, only fall grain plowing being done.

Threshing will soon be over for this season.

Miss Blanche Harvey has returned home, after spending a few weeks in this vicinity.

Mr. Albert Timmerman made us a flying visit on Sunday last.

Miss Janet Haggarty is spending a few days at Miss Holden's.

Mrs. Ryerson Mitts is on the sick list.

Mr. Clement Timmerman, of Montreal, is spending a month under the parental roof.

Rev. W. D. Harrison has been on the sick list, but is able to be out again.

Among the lucky fellows is Mr. J. Chambers, who was married to Miss Chambers, of Madoc, on Wednesday evening last at the bride's home. The young couple have settled down on a snug little farm. We wish them success and happy and long life.

The English Church people of this vicinity are erecting a fine hall at Crookston, and intend holding a red letter day the 5th of November.

MONTREAL MARKETS.

Montreal, October 1.

The local grain business, which was expected to look up with the coming of fall, shows no signs of improvement. A prominent dealer said this morning that he saw no signs of any change for the better. This is, of course, in the export trade. The trade for local account is quiet and a good many are buying from the Ontario millers direct.

GRAIN—New crop Manitoba wheat, 77 1-2c afloat for Oct. shipment. New crop, No. 2 oats for this month's delivery were quoted at 38 1-4c afloat; prompt, 39c, and for local consumption, 39 1-2c. Peas are quoted at 79 to 80c afloat; rye at 50c; No. 2 barley at 53c.

CHEESE—Ontario, 10 1-8c; Eastern counties, 9 7-8c to 10c; Quebec, 9 3-4c to 9 7-8c.

EGGS—14c; best 17c to 18c.

FLOUR—Manitoba patents, $4.20; strong bakers, $3.90 to $4; straight rollers, $3.20 to $3.40; in bags at $1.65; Ontario patents, $3.75 to $4.

FEED—Bran quoted at $15 to $16; shorts $17 to $18; middlings, $17.50 to $18.00.

ROLLED OATS—Miller's prices to jobbers', $4.20 per barrel, and $2.05 in bags.

HAY—No. 1, $11.50; No. 2, $10.50; clover $9 per ton in car lots on track.

BUTTER—Choice creamery, firm at 19 1-2c to 20c; seconds, 18c to 19c, dairy, 16c to 16 1-2c.

MAPLE PRODUCTS—New syrup, 6 1-2c lb., in wood; 70c to 75c pertin; sugar, 9c to 10c per lb. to 40c in bags.

HODGSON BROS. PROVISION MARKET REPORT.

Liverpool, Sept. 20.

BACON.—Under moderate arrivals and higher cables, with continued good consumptive demand, the market has further advanced, and holders are firm.

HAMS are firmer and in good request.

LARD has advanced considerably on higher c.i.f. quotations, but business is now somewhat restricted.

BEEF rules firm at slightly higher prices.

CHEESE.—The market has shown more activity, and with some speculative buying of cool late made goods, and higher quotations from the States and Canada, holders have endeavored to advance prices and make some progress in clearing the accumulated stocks of ripe summer makes which require to go into immediate consumption. We quote to-day, finest colored Cool Canadian Cheese, latest makes 45s to 45s 6d; White, 46s to 47s.

BUTTER — The advanced quotations for strictly choicest Continental, and the diversion of shipments of Russian and Siberian produce to North Germany—this being but a temporary movement—has caused more enquiry for Choicest Canadian, which has sold more freely, but not so far with much improvement in values. We quote Fancy Canadian Creamery, in boxes, 102s to 105s; States, 94s to 98s.

FLOUR AND WHEAT.—The market for Wheat rules steady. Flour unaltered. Indian Corn firmer.

Wednesday Evening, Oct. 2.

Declines were again quoted for wheat in the Liverpool cables to-day. December was ⅛d lower and March was ⅛d lower. Corn futures were also fractionally off.

Paris quotations for wheat futures were 15 centimes below yesterday.

Wheat held about steady in Chicago today, closing ¼c lower than yesterday. Corn strengthened ⅝c and oats ¼c since yesterday's close. Since the issuance of the government report on corn the price of this commodity has fallen off 6c.

GREYHOUNDS.

They Are the Fleetest of All Four Footed Animals.

Comparatively few people realize of what remarkable speed dogs are capable. Some remarkable statistics in regard to this have been gathered by M. Dusolier, a French scientist.

After pointing out the marvelous endurance shown by little fox terriers who follow their masters patiently for hours while the latter are riding on bicycles or in carriages, he says that even greater endurance is shown by certain wild animals that are akin to dogs.

Thus the wolf can run between 50 and 60 miles in one night, and an arctic fox can do quite as well, if not better.

Nansen met one of these foxes on the ice at a point more than 70 miles northwest of the Sannikow territory, which is 480 miles from the Asiatic coast. Eskimo and Siberian dogs can travel 45 miles on the ice in five hours, and there is one case on record in which a team of Eskimo dogs traveled 6½ miles in 28 minutes.

According to M. Dusolier, the speed of the shepherd dogs and those used in hunting ranges from 10 to 15 yards a second. English setters and pointers hunt at the rate of 18 to 19 miles an hour, and they can maintain this speed for at least two hours.

Foxhounds are extraordinarily swift, as is proved by the fact that a dog of this breed once beat a thoroughbred horse, covering four miles in 6½ minutes, which was at the rate of nearly 18 yards a second.

Greyhounds are the swiftest of all four footed creatures, and their speed may be regarded as equal to that of carrier pigeons. English greyhounds, which are carefully selected and which are used for coursing, are able to cover at full gallop a space between 18 and 23 yards every second.

How great an achievement this is may be judged from the fact that a thoroughbred horse rarely if ever exceeds 19 yards. Moreover, it is said that a hare at its greatest speed never goes faster than at the rate of 18 yards.

These interesting statistics are exciting much comment among sportsmen and other lovers of dogs, and the opinion is unanimous that M. Dusolier has fully proved the right of the greyhound to rank as the swiftest of the quadrupeds. Express engines only surpass them.—London Mail.

BACHELORS.

Some Reasons Succinctly Stated as to Why They Are More Unhealthy Than Are Married Men.

Are you aware that the married man endures far less physical trouble than does the bachelor? There is no question of this, and the explanation can be put in a few words. "It is not good for men to be alone" may be read in more senses than one. Loneliness is at the root of the bachelor's ailments. There is many a clerk, many a business man, or journalist, who will say that one of the most trying features of his unmarried life is to have to eat alone. And a premature dyspepsia is the only thing that ever takes him to his medical man. There are some few happily disposed individuals who can dine alone and not eat too fast, nor too much, nor too little. With the majority it is different.

The average man puts his novel or his paper before him, and thinks that he will lengthen out the meal with due deliberation by reading a little with and more between, the courses. He will just employ his mind enough to help, and too little to interfere with digestion. In fact, he will provide that gentle mental accompaniment which with happier people conversation gives to a meal. This is your solitary's excellent idea.

In reality he becomes engrossed in what he is reading, till suddenly finding his chop cold he demolishes it in a few mouthfuls, or else he finds he is hungry and paying no attention to the book, which he flings aside, he rushes through his food as fast as possible, to plunge into his armchair and literature afterwards. In either case the lonely man must digest at a disadvantage.

For due and easy nutrition food should be slowly taken and the mind should not be intensely exercised during the process. Everyone knows that violent bodily exercise is bad just after a meal, and mental exertion is equally so. Wise people do not even argue during or just after dinner, and observation of after-dinner speeches will convince any one that most speakers neither endure themselves nor excite in their hearers any severe intellectual effort.

In fact, the experience of countless generations, from the Red Indian of the woods to the white-shirted diners of the modern party, has perpetuated the lesson that a man should not eat alone, nor think much at this time, but should talk and be talked to while he feeds. Most people do not think much when they talk, and talking is a natural accompaniment of eating and drinking.

How does it fare with the many solitary women of to-day? No better we know, than with the men, but differently. Alone or not a man may generally be trusted to take food enough. (We suppose, of course, that he can get it.) With a woman it is different. She is more emotional, more imaginative, and less inclined to realize the gross necessities of existence. Therefore, the woman doomed to dine alone as often as not does not dine at all.

WORKING IN PUBLIC.

Show Window Artisans Can Command Good Remuneration.

A Broadway shoe manufacturer was asked what method of advertising he found most profitable.

"Placing my men near the window," he said, "so they can work in view of the public. I don't know of anything that catches the attention of the passerby more quickly than the sight of a demonstrator sitting close to the window running a machine for dear life.

"Manufacturers of all kinds of goods have adopted this plan. Waistmakers put their most skilled workers on exhibition to show how the finest garments are cut and sewed. Cigar manufacturers take the public into their confidence and let them see the process of rolling as performed by the cleverest hands. Men who deal in mechanical contrivances have found that it pays to have at least one machine set up near a window so the crowd outside may observe the intricacy of its parts and the rapidity of its action. Jewelers have stationed their most expert lapidaries within view of the street that possible customers may see how precious stones are cut and polished and set.

"It isn't everybody who can work in public. It takes a person with good strong nerves and concentration of thought to do difficult work in a show window. I have men in my employ who are excellent workers, but they get flustered when subjected to unusual surveillance and ruin everything they put their hands to. I have tried some of them as window operators, but they can't get used to it.

"A man who can run a machine at full tilt or paint a picture or fry pancakes or iron a shirt in the full gaze of the public eye and not lose his head is an artist and worth several dollars more a week to his employer than the more modest individual. And he gets it too."

A Little Gentleman.

A small boy was at a table where his mother was not near to take care of him, and a lady next to him volunteered her services. "Let me cut your steak for you," she said. "If I can cut it the way you like it," she added, with some degree of doubt. "Thank you," the boy responded, accepting her courtesy. "I shall like it the way you cut it even if you do not cut it the way I like it."

SEDIMENT IN THE URINE.

Sediment in the Urine, no matter what its nature, whether it be brick dust, white particles floating through it, or slimy deposits, is indicative of serious kidney derangement.

There is no remedy can so quickly clear up the Urine and cure the kidney trouble as Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets—the modern medicine for backache, kidney, bladder and urinary disorders.

Mr. W. Patterson, electrician, Whitby, Ont., says:—"Permit me to say that the bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets I got at the store of J. E. Willis, druggist, Whitby, has done me a great deal of good. I have tried other Kidney remedies without result, and find in these just what I want. My water, that used to be dark, bad and full of sediment, is now clear and my bowels move easily, regularly and gently, with no griping. I have worked steadily and the pain I used to suffer with is gone entirely."

DUCHESS USES A CAMERA

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 4.—The reception of the royal party here yesterday morning on their return from Victoria was impressive. At dawn H. M.S. Warspite and Amphion arrived at port, and as H.M.S. Empress of India, with the Duke and Duchess aboard, convoyed by five warships, entered the harbor at 8 o'clock they fired a royal salute. On the dock to greet the royal party was an immense crowd, and one that might almost be called a gathering of nations.

Chiefs, people and bands of three Indian tribes were there, also military, naval and Italian bands, Scotch pipers. In the crowds were a large number of Americans, Chinese and Japanese. Many of the Indians, who had met the royal command to receive the reply of the Duke to their loyal address, appeared in the grotesque habiliments of barbarism, the groups presenting a most interesting and picturesque scene.

His Royal Highness received the chiefs of Port Simpson, Squimish and and Mission tribes, both the Duke and the Duchess shaking hands with them.

An interpreter then read the Duke's reply, and Chief Nelson presented the "Kite-tim-shamorgat" hat of the chiefs, or the crown of the Tiomphsian Indians to the Duchess. To the delight of the Indians Her Royal Highness received the gift in her own hands and asked many questions about it.

The Port Simpson Indians had traveled 800 miles to see the Duke and Duchess, and their gracious reception by royalty has caused a most wonderful feeling of loyalty among them.

On to the East.

Yale, B. C., Oct. 4.—The return of the royal train to the east is being marked by quite as enthusiastic greetings at the various stations as during the trip to the coast. The weather was delightful yesterday and the royal party found new beauties in the mountain scenery.

Divide at Banff.

Ashcroft, B.C., Oct. 4.— Several members of the Duke's party went to Fraser Canyon yesterday afternoon on an engine, and moving pictures of them was taken as they emerged from the tunnel. They greatly enjoyed the ride through the deep cut defiles and along the ledges high above the swift running river.

The royal special will reach Banff this afternoon, and the party will divide there.

The Duchess, with a majority of the party, remain at Banff, while the Duke continues on to Poplar Point, Manitoba, for a few days' shooting. The Duke and Duchess will meet again at Poplar Point and go directly to Toronto, where they are due on Oct. 10.

On to Poplar Point.

Winnipeg, Oct. 4.—Lord Minto, the Governor-General, will arrive here on this morning's train from the east on the private car "Metapedia," on his way to Popular Point, where he will engage in shooting with the Duke's party.

Three Men Killed.

Sherbrooke, Que., Oct. 4.—Yesterday morning an accident occurred to two trains on the I. C. R., Nos. 2 and 15. The former left here at 7 a. m. The engineer of No. 15 had been given a mistaken order to cross No. 2 at Robinson, a mile and a half beyond Thetford. They met the train on a deep curve, and so suddenly that there was no time to jump. Engineer Atto and Fireman Dean were buried beneath their engine and killed, and Mail Clerk Michael Roy was also killed. Another mail clerk and the express messenger were injured. All passengers escaped. The killed and injured have been brought to Sherbrooke.

Nickel in British Columbia.

Grand Forks, B. C., Oct. 4.—Word reached here to-day that the Dominion Government has accepted the plans of the V., V. and E. Railway for the proposed Phoenix branch. Construction work cannot start until the right of way is approved of by the Provincial Government. The delay in securing this formal permission has created an unfavorable impression here, as the plans were transmitted to Victoria over six weeks ago.

J. A. Leckie, M. E., and James Shaw of Greenwood, have just returned from a trip to the headwaters of the Tulameen River, where they located a nickel claim. The deposit is believed to be very extensive, but no work has been done in the way od development.

Not a Canadian G.O.C.

Ottawa, Oct. 4. — Hon. Dr. Borden has given emphatic denial to the story that Major-General O'Grady-Haly, upon the conclusion of his term in Canada, on Dec. 31, will be succeeded in the command of the Canadian militia by a Canadian officer.

The C. E. Convention.

Brockville, Ont., Oct. 4.—Yesterday was the last day of the Christian Endeavor Convention, and was without doubt one of the most enjoyable sessions at this or any other convention. The convention was brought to a close last night, one meeting being held in Wall street Methodist Church, and another in the First Presbyterian Church, both of which were largely attended.

World Call to Islam.

Constantinople, Oct. 4.—The Sultan is preparing a Pan-Islamitic encyclical, calling on the world to embrace Mohammedanism. He declares there is no religion more suited to the requirements of mankind than Mohammedanism or more certain to produce happiness in this world or the next.

Latest Casualty List.

London, Oct. 4.—The latest South African casualty list shows that the fighting in the attack on Col. Kekewich's camp at Moedwill, Sept. 29, put 26 British officers out of action. Four were killed outright or died of wounds, and twenty-two were wounded. Col. Kekewich was wounded severely, but he is doing well.

What Shall We Eat

TO KEEP HEALTHY AND STRONG!

A healthy appetite and common sense are excellent guides to follow in matters of diet, and a mixed diet of grains, fruits and meats is undoubtedly the best, in spite of the claims made by vegetarians and food cranks generally.

As compared with grains and vegetables, meat furnishes the most nutriment in a highly concentrated form and is digested and assimilated more quickly than vegetables or grains.

Dr. Julius Remusson on this subject says: Nervous persons, people run down in health and of low vitality should eat plenty of meat. If the digestion is too feeble at first it may be easily strengthened by the regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal. Two of these excellent tablets taken after dinner will digest several thousand grains of meat, eggs or other animal food in three or four hours, while the malt diastase also contained in Stuart's Tablets cause the perfect digestion of starchy foods, like potatoes, bread, etc., and no matter how weak the stomach may be, no trouble will be experienced if a regular practice is made of using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets because they supply the pepsin and diastase so necessary to perfect digestion, and any form of indigestion and stomach trouble, except cancer of the stomach will be overcome by their daily use.

That large class of people who come under the head of nervous dyspeptics should eat plenty of meat and insure its complete digestion by the systematic use of a safe, harmless digestive medicine like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, composed of the natural digestive principles, peptones and diastase, which actually perform the work of digestion and give the abused stomach a chance to rest and to furnish the body and brain with the necessary nutriment. Cheap cathartic medicines masquerading under the name of dyspepsia cures are useless for relief or cure of indigestion, because they have absolutely no effect upon the actual digestion of food.

Dyspepsia in all its forms is simply a failure of the stomach to digest food and the sensible way to solve the riddle and cure the indigestion is to make daily use at meal time of a safe preparation which is endorsed by the medical profession and known to contain active digestive principles, and all this can truly be said of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

All druggists throughout the United States, Canada, and Great Britain sell them at the uniform price of fifty cents for full treatment.

Jury Disagreed In Sifton Case

Stood Eight For Conviction and Four for Acquittal.

Duke and Duchess Enjoying Themselves—Tarte Refuses to Investigate the Montreal Elevator Charges—Coal Miners Threaten to Strike No Canadian G. O. C.

London, Oct. 4.—The Sifton jury has disagreed, and there will have to be a new trial is the issue of the last day of the present proceedings. Greater interest than ever was manifested in the case yesterday. The courtroom was packed.

At 10 o'clock Mr. Justice MacMahon began his address to the jury. After warning the jury of their duty he spoke of the motive of the crime, which, according to the Crown, was formed on the evening before the tragedy, when Sifton learned of the approaching wedding of his father.

"The motive is established," said the judge, "by evidence not very reliable." The case was an unusual one in the fact that, according to the Crown, Sifton had gone about here and there offering rewards to people to kill the old man. He went to James Morden, who directed him to Martin Morden.

Here His Lordship commented very severely on the conduct of the Mordens for not at once informing the authorities and telling Sifton that they intended to inform.

Following up the story His Lordship spoke of Herbert's evidence regarding a bargain with the prisoner on the morning of that day. He pointed out that both Rogers and Mrs. Sifton contradicted the statements made, and showed the impossibility of such a bargain being made.

The butter-paper will was touched on to show that the Mordens had some inducement to give evidence against Sifton. They got an offer of $1,000 for that will from Gerald Sifton. Did the Mordens go further and offer an inducement? If Herbert's evidence is untrue, there is no evidence upon which a conviction can be made.

The judge seemed to make much of Dr. McNeill's evidence. To him Gerald Sifton suggested giving the old man, when about to die, strychnine. "That was incomprehensible, but people are sometimes incomprehensible."

"To sum up in a word or two," said His Lordship, "Walter Herbert was an accomplice, and although the jury may convict on the evidence of an accomplice alone, the law says the judge is to warn the jury, as I now warn you, that it is unsafe to convict on such evidence without some corroboration, for it is very easy for an accomplice to shift the blame from his own shoulders to those of the man he accuses.

"The corroboration you have is the fact of prisoner's going to James Morden and Martin Morden, and the statements made by Dr. McNeil. This evidence may or may not afford corroboration. That is left to you to say. Most of the medical evidence was to the effect that if the blows were administered as described the skull would be crushed, and that the theory of a fall is more consistent. But if Walter Herbert struck the first blow, as he says, the medical evidence must be eliminated. If you have any doubt, give the prisoner the benefit of the doubt."

The charge was completed at 11.40 and the jury retired. It was slightly in favor of the prisoner.

The jury was out from 11.40 till 6 p. m., when the disagreement was announced and the jurors dismissed. It is understood that eight jurors were for conviction and four for acquittal. The trial lasted from Sept. 24 till last night—nine days.

B.C. Election Cases.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 4.—The Supreme Court heard argument yesterday in the Victoria, B.C., election case, in which preliminary objections to the petition against the return of the sitting members, Messrs. Prior and Earl, were overruled by the election judge. The objections were that the status of the petitioner was not proved, that the petition did not complain of either of the members' nomination, but only prayed that the members were not duly elected and that the election should be set aside. It was also claimed that the security was insufficient, $2,000 being deposited to meet the costs of both respondents, which would not be available to one of them.

On the conclusion of the hearing the court adjourned till next Monday for the re-hearing of Quebec appeals.

Coal Miners Threaten to Strike.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 4.—A strike of the men employed in all the mines of the New York and Scranton Coal Company, controlled by the New York, Ontario and Western Railroad, is threatened, by which 5,000 employes would be made idle. On Tuesday 700 men struck at the Pine Brook shaft against workingmen who could not show their union cards. When these men obtained cards the committee reported all ready for work, but General Superintendent Freedin kept the mine closed, locking the men out.

Succumbed to the Gale.

Sault Ste. Marie, Oct. 4.—The propeller M. M. Drake and its tow, the barge Michigan, Wednesday afternoon succumbed to the fury of a gale off Vermilion Point.

It was when off the point the captain of the steamer saw that it would be impossible to save the boats, and he began whistling for assistance. The steamers Northern Wave and Superior City ran to their assistance and rescued the sailors, who were brought to this port. The rescue was fraught with much danger, but was accomplished without mishap.

NO INQUIRY WILL BE HELD.

Mr. Tarte Refuses to Investigate the Montreal Elevator Charges.

Ottawa, Oct. 4.—Hon. J. Israel Tarte Wednesday sent the following letter to the secretary of the Harbor Commissioners of Montreal in reply to an application for an investigation into the charges connected with the Jamieson tender for the new elevator at Montreal:

"Ottawa, Oct. 2.

"David Seath, Esq., Secretary Montreal Harbor Commissioners:

"My Dear Sir,—Permit me to acknowledge the receipt of your communication, dated Oct. 1, forwarding to me copy of a resolution unanimously adopted by the Harbor Commissioners at a special meeting held on Sept. 30, 1901, and to say in reply that I am too busy a man to lose any time in holding investigations in reference to 'what purported to be a report of a special meeting of the commissioners held on the 23rd inst.' Your board very truly stated that the said report was 'exaggerated and misleading.' The meeting to which I was invited was of a private nature. Somebody who was present gave out to a newspaper an inaccurate, 'exaggerated and misleading report.' It is not my business and my duty to investigate erroneous and misleading statements published in newspapers. I have not done so, and do not intend to do so in this case. Believe me, truly yours,

"(Signed), J. Israel Tarte."

SUPPORTS KOCH'S THEORY.

Berlin, Oct. 4.—An analytical investigation completed by the Hygienic Institute of the University of Breslau is considered as giving additional proof of the correctness of Prof. Koch's theory that the danger of the infection of human beings by bovine tuberculosis is very slight. The institute collected samples of fresh butter from 444 dairies in various parts of Germany, and found that only 60, or 13 per cent., contained tuberculosis bacilli.

TAPS FROM THE WIRES.

William Hilts, Richard Waldron, Edward Culbert and Joseph C. Wilkins were drowned in Behring Sea, near Port Safety, early in August.

Five men were seriously injured, one fatally, in a wreck on the Grand Rapids and Indiana Railway at McManus siding, three miles south of Boyne Falls, Mich., on Thursday.

The schooner Sea Queen, from Hanisport, which arrived at St. John, N. B., on Thursday, brought two sailors, whom she picked up on a raft in the Bay of Fundy on Monday. They had deserted from a vessel at Avonport.

The body of Moses A. Abbey of Preston, Ont., was found floating in a slip at the foot of Grange street, Buffalo, on Thursday. Mr. Abbey was a license inspector of the south riding of Waterloo, Ont. At one time he had been worth $30,000, but lost it all through speculation.

The Brooklyn's Loop.

Washington, Oct. 4.—After Lieut. Doyle, formerly of Commodore Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, had completed his testimony before the Schley Court of Inquiry yesterday, Captain William C. Dawson of the Marine Corps was called and was followed by Lieut. Charles W. Dyson of the Bureau of Steam Engineering of the Navy Department.

Captain Dawson was signal officer on board the battleship Indiana during the naval engagement off Santiago, and he gave an account from recollection of the behavior of the various ships of the American fleet during that battle. He said the Brooklyn had gone about 2,000 yards to the southward before joining in the pursuit of Cervera's ships.

Baby's Future.

The fond mother dreams great dreams of baby's future as she holds the sleeping little one in her arms. But the dreams will never come true unless she has given him a strong body and a healthy mind. Children die in hosts, or live to struggle through life feeble of body and dull of mind because the mother was unfit physically and mentally for motherhood. Women who use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription endow their children with strong bodies and bright minds. It is every mother's duty to give her child the advantages of a healthy body and mind. A weak or sickly woman cannot do this. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Mrs. Chris Stiles, of Downing, Dunn Co., Wis., writes: "I have been intending to write to you ever since my baby was born in regard to what your 'Favorite Prescription' has done for me. I cannot praise it enough, for I have not been as well for five years as I now am. In July last I had a baby boy, weight 11 pounds, and I was only sick a short time, and since I got up have not had one sick day. I have not had any womb trouble since I got up. I was not only surprised myself but all of my friends here are surprised to see me so well."

SECOND WIN FOR COLUMBIA

That Was the Actual Sailing Time Without the Time Allowance—The Race Was Sailed in a Fresh, Steady Breeze—The Third Race Down for Decision To-Day—Sir Thomas Lipton Is Still Hopeful.

New York, Oct. 4.—Here is the official log of the second race between the Shamrock II. and the Columbia for the America's Cup:

Start—Shamrock, 11.00.13; Columbia, 11.01.47.
First mark—Shamrock, 11.51.10; Columbia, 11.52.22.
Second mark—Shamrock, 12.45.57; Columbia, 12.46.30.
Finish—Shamrock, 2.16.23; Columbia, 2.16.05.
Elapsed time—Shamrock, 3.16.10; Columbia, 3.13.18.
Corrected time—Shamrock, 3.16.10; Columbia, 3.12.35.
Course—Triangular.
First leg—East ½ south, 10 miles.
Second leg—Southwest ½ south, 10 miles.
Third leg—North northwest, 10 miles, to finish.

Weather—Fresh breeze from north northwest, which remained true and maintained its strength throughout the day.

A Glorious Breeze.

In a glorious wholesale breeze, which heeled the big cup contestants down till their lee rails were awash in the foaming seas, Herreshoff's white wonder, the Columbia, yesterday beat Watson's plucky British creation over a triangular course of 30 miles by two minutes and 52 seconds actual time. With the 43 seconds which the Irish sloop must allow the American boat on account of her larger sail plan, the Columbia won the second race of the series by three minutes and thirty-five seconds. It was the fastest race ever sailed in a cup contest. It was not a royal struggle from a spectacular point of view.

Wind 18 Knots an Hour

The wind was strong and true, blowing around 18 knots out of the northwest. From the time she crossed the starting line, one minute and forty-five seconds behind the mug-hunter, until she picked up and passed the Irish boat three miles after rounding the second mark, Columbia's pace was faster and she seemed to behave better than her rival. Reaching for the first mark, ten miles down Long Island shore, with the wind abaft the beam, she gained 22 seconds. In the closer reach for the second stake she gained 30 seconds, and in the thresh to windward on the leg home she gained exactly two minutes.

Plowed Through Foam Crests.

The tall, clouded-canvas racers heeled as the wind smote them, until their crews could with difficulty keep their footing on the slippery, sloping decks and the spurting spray was tossed thirty feet high as they shot their lean noses free of the foam crests. On the reach to windward their decks were a smother of white and fountains of foam curled away from their graceful bows.

Captain Sycamore rushed his boat into position and sent her away almost in the smoke of the gun. Thereupon Capt. Barr tacked back of the line and held off for more than a minute. Then, with a flying start, he went over just before the handicap gun was fired. For the first 15 miles no human eye could tell which ship, if either, was gaining, so closely were they matched.

Overhauled the Challenger.

But gradually it became apparent that the Columbia was overhauling the flying challenger. Slowly, inch by inch and foot by foot, the white boat gained. Both were going at a terrific pace. The patrol fleet to leeward, steaming ahead at intervals of four hundred yards, had no difficulty in keeping the excursion fleet clear of the winged giants. Everything in the fleet had to crowd on steam to keep the racers in sight, and the gait at which they were going left the tugboats and some of the steam yachts astern. The guide boat, which started fifteen minutes before the racers, dug out at full speed, but she was hardly able to log off the distance, and get the float overboard before the racers were upon her.

As the yachts approached the outer mark a stream of signal flags were set on the revenue cutter Gresham, the flagship of the patrol fleet, instructing them in the universal language of the sea, to change direction by the right flank. The patrol boats swung round to line of west, and charged down upon the excursion fleet. The latter, with bells clanging in the engine-rooms for more speed, turned tail, and the whole fleet rushed madly to leeward of the last leg of the course.

Shamrock in the Lead.

Leaving the first mark on the starboard hand, Shamrock in the lead, gibed over their big booms and went careening for the second mark, the Columbia gaining slowly. They had covered the first ten miles in a little over 50 minutes. When they swung around the second stake they took in their baby jibtopsails and hauled their wind for the beat home. Both yachts heeled until their underbodies were lifted high over the water and their lee rails dipped a foot into the swirling billows.

The rush of the leviathans on the final tack was magnificent. The excursion boats, black with people from gunwale to pilot house, gathered about the finish in a great horseshoe. As the white flyer swept across the finish the din was soul-destroying. Whistles split the ear, and steam sirens wailed. Until after the gallant Shamrock, beaten but not disgraced, crossed a minute and 18 seconds later, whistles and sirens were kept going.

Takes a Beating Well.

Sir Thomas on the Erin, like a good game sportsman, after the Columbia went over the line, ran the Stars and Stripes to the forepeak and fired a salute in its honor. The rival crews cheered each other as they were towed home behind their tenders, escorted by the whole excursion fleet.

CAPT. BARR.

Will Race Again To-Day.

Within half an hour after the conclusion of the race the committee boat, in accordance with the agreement to race daily from now on, set the signal for a race to-day.

Sir Thomas Lipton, although plainly depressed at the result of the race, stood bravely at the gangway of the Erin and bid a cordial adieu to his guests. He also entertained a large party of yachtsmen and ladies who visited the Erin after the day's guests had departed.

When asked what he thought of the race he said: "I admit frankly that I got licked by the best boat in a fair and square race and I maintain this before there is not a better skipper afloat than Captain Sycamore nor a better crew than mine. I have as much esteem for my captain and crew as when I came to this side, but they can't do impossibilities. They took as much out of the boat as could be taken.

"I am very much disappointed at the result," continued Sir Thomas. "I know that the wind was true, and that the Columbia won without any fluke."

Sir Thomas Still Hopeful.

When asked by a visiting yachtsman if he felt despondent, Sir Thomas cheerily replied: "As long as the Shamrock flag flies there is just as much fight in me, and unless I'm beaten in the third race I'm just as hopeful."

Speaking of Designer Watson, Sir Thomas said: "I feel very much for Mr. Watson. He has done his best and if he does not succeed it is simply because he has a more able man to meet on this side in Mr. Herreschoff. He has worked hard for two years on this boat and he has neglected nothing that he thought would help her."

Sir Thomas said that what he was most disappointed about was the defeat of the Shamrock in the windward work.

"We were all so sure she would do well in that, and in such a breeze, but she seemed to 'pound' too much."

10 to 12 Mile Breeze To-Day.

Washington, Oct. 4.—The Weather Bureau last night issued the following special forecast of the weather for to-day's yacht race off Sandy Hook:

LANGUID
children are sick children. Their inactivity and sober faces are not in keeping with robust childhood. They lack vitality and resistive power, and are very susceptible to colds and contagious diseases.
Scott's Emulsion
brings new life to such children. It enriches the blood, it restores health and activity; it gives vigor and vitality to mind and body.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto.

Present conditions indicate prevalence of 10 to 12 mile breeze off Sandy Hook and fair weather Friday. Winds will hold from north to northwest.

Gilbert Parker's Gift.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 4.— Queen's University has just been the recipient of a valuable and highly interesting set of portraits from Gilbert Parker, M.P., in England, and known as one of her leading authors. The portraits comprise the Governors of Canada from its discovery to recent dates, and is one of the richest gifts the colony has yet received of this class. Mr. Parker in early days was a lecturer of Queen's, and he still recalls his happy association with the professors here. The gift is valued at £1,000.

Teamsters' Big Strike Ends.

San Francisco, Oct. 4.—The teamsters' strike has been called off through the intercession of Gov. Gage. It is a knockout for the unions, as the union principle is not recognized. The men return to work as individuals, and the employers will not recognize the unions in future dealings with the employes.

Mr. Wallace's Condition.

Toronto, Oct. 4.—Mr. T. C. Wallace reported no improvement in the condition of his brother, Hon. N. Clarke Wallace last night. The physicians in attendance said that their patient had held his own during the day, but no improvement was apparent.

King Has Rheumatism.

London, Oct. 4.—Sir Thomas Laking, King Edward's physician, went to Balmoral yesterday. His Majesty is reported to be suffering from an attack of rheumatism, but he went for a drive during the afternoon.

WEAKNESS
OF MEN AND WOMEN

Could we read the hearts of every man we meet, what a load of sorrow and despair would be disclosed. Indiscretions and Blood Diseases have caused more physical and mental wrecks than all other causes combined. They strike at the foundation of manhood; they sap the vital forces they undermine the system, and not only do they often disrupt the family circle, but they may even extend their poisonous fangs into the next generation. If you have been a victim of early sinful habits, remember the seed is sown, and sooner or later you will reap a harvest. If your blood has been diseased from any cause do not risk a return later on. Our New Method Treatment will positively cure you and you need never fear any return of the disease. We will give you a guarantee bond to that effect. We would warn you sincerely against the promiscuous use of mercury, which does not cure blood poison but simply suppresses the symptoms.

WE CURE OR NO PAY.

Don't Let your Life be Drained Away, which weakens the intellect as well as the body. There is no room in this world for mental, physical or sexual dwarfs. Our New Method Treatment will Stop all Unnatural Losses, Purify the Blood, Strengthen the Nerves, Restore Vitality, and make a man of you. If you are in trouble, call and consult us. Consultation is Free. We treat and cure Drains, Blood Diseases, Varicocele, Stricture, Unnatural Discharges, Gleet, Kidney and Bladder Diseases. No cutting or operations. No detention from business. Everything confidential. Consultation Free. Books Free. Question Blank Free for Home Treatment.

MARRIED IN VANCOUVER

TWO FORMER BELLEVILLIANS JOINED IN WEDLOCK ON THE COAST.

The Vancouver News-Advertiser gives the following particulars of the wedding of two former Bellevillians:

"At Christ Church, on Tuesday morning, the Rev. H. L. Roy united in marriage, Clara Blanch, daughter of Mrs. Diamond, of 600 Burrard street, Vancouver, and Mr. Richard Harold Glass, of Spokane, Washington. Both of the contracting parties are well-known in Vancouver, the bride being very popular in local society circles, while Mr. Glass was formerly C.P.R. Storekeeper in this city and at Donald. For the past five years, however, he has resided in Spokane, where he now holds the responsible position of Manager in the wholesale house of Spencer, Clark & Company.

At the wedding ceremony only the personal friends and near relatives were present. The bride entered the church resting on the arm of her brother, Mr. Jack Diamond, who gave her away. Miss Nina Burnett and Miss Ethel Barwick (niece of General Buller), attended her as bridesmaids. She was gowned in a handsome costume of white organdie and lace over white silk, and carried a lovely shower bouquet.

"The groom was supported by Mr. J. B. Furquier, while Messrs. O. Cannon and T. A. McDougall acted as ushers. Mr. Walter Evans presided at the organ.

"After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's mother, and at 1 p.m. the young couple left on their bridal tour to Victoria, Tacoma, Seattle and Portland. A large number of friends were at the steamer to bid farewell, and the bride was showered with rice and flowers as the vessel cast off.

"Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Glass will reside in Spokane. It was hoped that the brother-in-law of the groom, Bishop Anderson, of Chicago, would have been present to perform the ceremony, but His Lordship had, unfortunately, to postpone his Western trip, and will not arrive in Vancouver till the latter end of the month."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. WHOM DO STRIKES BENEFIT?

This is a question well worthy of serious consideration, particularly by artisan and laborer, as well as by the employer.

"A compilation," says a contemporary, "has been made by the United States Commissioner of Labor of the financial consequences of labor troubles in the United States during the last twenty years. He shows that from 1880 to 1900 labor and capital lost $468,968,581 through these misunderstandings. The strikes, which numbered 22,793, caused a loss of $390,769,392, and the lockouts, of which there were 1,005, added $75,199,181 to the bill. It is worthy of special note that the bulk of the cost fell upon the wage-earners. In the strikes the loss of wages was $257,863,478, whereas the employers' loss was $122,731,121. The lockouts took $48,819,745 away from the workmen, and $19,927,983 from the capitalists. Very few of the strikes were successful from the standpoint of labor."

The lesson to be drawn from these figures is one which the wage-earner should study, and then ask himself what he and those depending upon him have gained by striking.

That there are too exacting taskmasters no one doubts, but are they not the exception and not the rule? And could not less drastic measures be adopted than a general strike? Were this course adopted, there would be less work for the professional agitator, who lives on the hard-earned money of those whom he eventually dupes.

Take the case of the last strike of trackmen on the Canadian Pacific Railway, and what do we find? A man by the name of Wilson, the head of the Union, comes from the United States and orders a strike which affects the working of the road to a greater or less extent from ocean to ocean. Why? Because he says the men are not paid enough for each work, when in fact higher wages were being paid to this class of workmen than by any railway similarly situated. Who has profited by the action of this meddlesome Yankee? Certainly not the men nor the Company. Who knows what was the secret laying at the root of this interference by a foreigner, in the domestic affairs of Canada? It is known that the C.P.R. is the powerful and successful rival of United States' transcontinental roads, and that any disarrangement of the carrying trade by the Canadian line, must result in benefit to those of the United States. People can draw their own inferences.

If trade combinations through Unions are to exist in Canada, let them be presided over, controlled and managed by Canadians, whose interests are in Canada, and not by those who have no interests here, except it be to get money in the way of fees from Canadian members of Unions, upon which to live in luxury in another country.

It would be interesting to learn how much it cost the Trackmen's Union to keep that man Wilson during his stay in Canada? While the honest workmen were losing their wages and in many cases their families suffering, he was living in ease and luxury.

TIMELY TOPICS.

Well done, Shamrock! Beaten but not disgraced. No better boat ever crossed the Atlantic.

Mr. Aemilius Jarvis, of Toronto, probably one of the best yachtsmen in America, blames Capt. Sycamore for allowing himself to be jockeyed by Capt. Barr. He says that on one occasion the Shamrock had the right to poke her bowsprit through the Columbia's mainsail and put her out of business for that race. There is no doubt that Jarvis or Duggan would have done so, but Sycamore is not so scrappy, and then, again, Sir Thomas Lipton has no desire to lose his popularity with the Yankees. It might hurt the sale of Lipton's justly celebrated teas.

"Roughly speaking," says Mr. G. V. Hastings, manager of the Lake of the Woods Milling Co., "we estimate the wheat crop in Manitoba and the Territories at 46,000,000 bushels. This will leave a surplus to be disposed of of over 40,000,000 bushels."

The lawyers in the City of Quebec have in the past been in the habit of addressing the judges of the Superior Courts of that district as "Your Honor." In Montreal it has been varied from "Your Honor" to "Your Lordship," as is Ontario. This question has been considered by the judges of the Superior Courts and Sir Alex. Lacoste, Chief Justice, has spoken, and informed the legal gentlemen that in future they are to address the judges as "My Lord" and "Your Lordship."

More shuffling. La Patrie is authority for the report that Hon. R. W. Scott, Secretary of State, will shortly succeed Sir Oliver Mowat as Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario. A telegram from Ottawa to the Montreal Star, says that when "the position does become vacant, Sir Richard Cartwright has the refusal of the office; and it is not improbable that he will accept it. Should he refuse, it may be offered to Hon. R. W. Scott."

Poor Scott! It has, since the formation of the Laurier Government in 1896, been an open secret that he was not wanted in the Cabinet. Though Leader of the Liberal party in the Senate for 18 years, while in opposition, he was snubbed twice, by being made to play second fiddle in the Senate. He'll do what he is told to do!

Their Labors Ended

LADIES OF THE W. M. S. FINISH THEIR WORK AND DEPART FOR THEIR HOMES.

The eighth annual meeting of the Bay of Quinte Branch of the Women's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church was brought to a close yesterday afternoon. During the three days' session considerable business of importance was brought up and disposed of. The ladies have returned to their homes much profited by the gathering, and seemingly more than ever imbued with the missionary spirit. That their deliberations will prove of benefit to the Branch in general there is no doubt.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION.

Minutes of morning session were read and approved.

Miss Trevithick, a graduate from the W.M.S. school at Tokio, Japan, was introduced to the Branch meeting, in a few well chosen words, by Miss Munroe. This young lady has for two years been attending Ontario Ladies' College, and is soon going back to Japan to engage in teaching in the Tokio school.

Mrs. Locke made a characteristic little speech in response to her election as 2nd Vice-President. She said, "Ladies, I thank you for the confidence placed in me. If you had not wanted me in this position you would not have put me there. I hope you may not live to regret it."

Mrs. Grange, on being re-elected as Corresponding Secretary, thanked the ladies for their continued confidence, and said all she asked of them, was that they do as she tells them.

Mrs. Yeomans, the newly elected treasurer, warned the delegates that she intended strictly to adhere to the letter of the law, and would expect the Auxiliary Treasurers to do the same.

President—Mrs. Platt, Picton.

2nd Vice-President—Mrs J. Locke, Belleville.

Rec.-Sec.—Mrs. Rev. Copeland, Port Perry.

Cor.-Sec.—Mrs. A. W. Grange, Napanee.

Treasurer—Mrs. L. W. Yeomans, Belleville.

Mission Band, Cor. Sec.—Miss Annie Wilson, Brighton.

Representative to Conference—Mrs. J. Kendry, Peterboro.

Supt. Systematic and Proportionate Giving—Mrs. T. G. Raynor, Rose Hall.

Representatives to the Board meeting at Guelph—Mrs. G. D. Platt, Mrs. A. W. Grange, Mrs. J. Kendry, Mrs. S. Gibson, Mrs. L. W. Yeomans.

Alternates — Mrs. G. H. Copeland, Mrs. J. H. Locke.

Mrs. (Dr.) Harrison, of Napanee, was called upon and sang very sweetly a solo entitled "Never a Day so Dreary."

Revs. A. Campbell, E. Woodcock and W. Tomblin were called upon, and in a few well chosen words congratulated the ladies upon their work and the good they were accomplishing.

Mrs. (Dr.) Harrison presented the report of the Courtesy Committee, which, in substance, was as follows:

That our hearty thanks and appreciation be extended to our hosts and hostesses for their kind hospitality; to the pastor and trustees of Bridge Street Church for their cordiality; to the organist and singers who have brightened our meetings; to the reporters who have worked so hard that we may be benefitted.

That the thanks of our separate auxiliaries be conveyed to Mr. Morden, of Picton, for his kindness in supplying free a pamphlet of the proceedings of the Branch last year.

That the appreciation of the Branch be extended to our returned missionaries, who were present at the meetings, and by their talks inspired us to greater zeal in missionary work.

We desire to express our appreciation to Mrs. Campbell, the retiring Treasurer. While we regret that she is unable to retain the position of Treasurer; we trust that she may long be spared to engage in this work that she loves so well.

The convention was brought to a close by the singing of the hymn "God be With You Till we Meet Again," followed by prayer and the benediction.

Richelieu to be Raised.

The Donnelly Wrecking Company, of Kingston, yesterday secured the timber, chains, etc., with which to raise the steamer Richelieu. The steamer will have chains placed about her, and the lifting will be done with hydraulic jacks, the steamer Donnelly and lighter Grantham being used. The vessel is sunk about three-quarters of a mile off Wellburn's Point, six miles from Kingston.

STOP THIEF!

would be a justifiable cry directed against the countless humbugs that offer a cure for Catarrh. There is only one scientific method of treatment for Catarrh. Make the air you breathe the carrier of healing, balsamic, curative agents. It bathes every inch of mucous membranes with its healing, soothing properties. That's Catarrhozone. Your druggist or doctor will tell you it's the only effective method of treatment and that it is sure—prompt—permanent. Remember the name, Catarrhozone. All dealers, 25c. and $1.00.

ATTENTION, INVENTORS!

E. G. Siggers, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C., whose ad. appears in our columns, is an attorney of twenty-one years' active practice and is well recommended to us. He has sent us application blanks and other papers and inventors who are intending to apply for patents would save time by calling at this office and getting the papers before presenting their applications through any other source.

Suits FOR Young Men

For the young fellows who are nearly men, but who are a mighty sight more particular than most men—those young fellows who knows what's what when it comes to the shape of a coat or the hang of the trousers—for those exacting young fellows we have provided a larger variety in Suits than heretofore. They've encouraged us to do so, because they are always looking to us for everything that's fashionable and snappy. And then they appreciate the efforts we take in fitting their clothes.

$5 to $15.

Come, look them over. If you want to know what's going to be worn come in and take a look at them. They won't cost you anything.

COLUMBIA WON DECIDING RACE

But Shamrock Made a Gallant Fight—Result in Doubt To the End.

Columbia Crossed the Line Only Five Seconds in Front of Shamrock.

New York, October 4.—In accordance with the new agreement another race for the America's Cup was sailed to-day. Course, 15 miles out and back. The weather was clear, wind north-northwest, 15 miles an hour; sea moderate. When the preparatory gun was fired at 10.45 both Columbia and Shamrock were to windward of the line and holding away from it, as neither skipper wanted to cross first. The windward position was the coveted one, as it gave the stern boat an opportunity of blanketing the other. There was some pretty jockeying for this berth and 10 minutes later when the warning gun sounded both were still holding away from the line as if it were a reef of the most dangerous character. Both skippers were stubborn but at last Capt. Barr sent Columbia forward, Shamrock coming right behind him and breaking out her spinnaker on the starboard. An instant later Columbia's great spinnaker loomed out on the starboard side and as they crossed each broke out balloon jib topsails. Columbia crossed the line apparently about 18 seconds ahead, but the official starting time, the handicap gun having been fired, was 11.02 for both boats.

Twenty minutes after 11 the Shamrock had overtaken Columbia and was leading by about two lengths.

At 11:30 the yachts were in the same position, and the Shamrock was holding her lead.

At 12:05 the boats were half-way to the outer mark, and the Shamrock was increasing her lead.

Shamrock	12:48:50
Columbia	12:49:45

At 1:25 both yachts were on the port tack. Columbia had windward position, but Shamrock appeared to have the best breeze.

At 1:50 the yachts had covered half of the last leg. Shamrock was still leading.

At 2:10 the Columbia was outpointing the Shamrock.

At 3 p.m. both yachts were on the port tack, heading inshore, very close together.

Columbia won the race by the narrowest margin ever seen in a race for the Cup. The official time for the finish was:

Columbia	3:36:10
Shamrock	3:36:15

Painful Accident

A 12-year-old daughter of Mr. C. H. Parker, local manager of the Bank of Montreal, had the misfortune to fall off a bicycle on Albert St. this afternoon, sustaining a fracture of the left arm, just above the elbow. The fracture was reduced and the little sufferer made as comfortable as possible. At last accounts she was doing as well as could be expected.

The Royal Chorus

TRENTON VOCALISTS SANG IN THE TABERNACLE LAST NIGHT.

Eighty-six Trenton vocalists, who are to form part of the Royal chorus which is to sing before the Duke in Toronto, gave a concert in the Tabernacle last night, before a rather small audience. The concert was billed to start at 8 o'clock, but it was a few minutes after 9 before it commenced, and Rev. Mr. Locke, pastor of the Tabernacle, was kept busy making explanations. The concert company drove from Trenton to Belleville, and, as Rev. Mr. Locke naively explained, they probably had slow horses. The ladies and gentlemen of the chorus made a nice picture, the ladies all dressed in white, with a blue bow on the left breast. They rather uncomfortably filled the Tabernacle platform. The programme consisted of choruses, solos, a duet, quartette and one recitation. There were plenty of good lusty voices in the choruses, which, perhaps, helped to atone for the lack of precision. Many of the singers were suffering from colds, which possibly accounted for the fact that once or twice the voices didn't seem to have the needed range. However, for the most part the efforts of the chorus were pleasing, notably in "The Maple Leaf" and "Oh! Canada, Fair Canada." The soloists made a good impression. Miss Miss Fillon sang "Little Black Me," and Miss Pelletier "Now I dream of Thee," both young ladies singing sweetly. Mr. Wilkinson sang "God is Love," Dr. Shorey "Fear Not ye, O Israel," and Mr. Fred Wilkinson "Asleep in the Deep," the latter number being especially well rendered. Mrs. Ostrom's sacred solo, "I will Give Thee Rest," was very impressively rendered. A male quartette, composed of Mayor Phillips, Councillor Dickey, Dr. Shorey and Mr. F. Wilkinson sang in excellent style their rendition of "Guard Me While I Sleep" being one of the nicest things on the programme. A duet by Miss Gertie Leggatt and Dr. Shorey was heartily applauded. Miss Irene Stewart's recitation, "The Stovepipe Hole," was pleasing. Prof. Staniistreet conducted the chorus, which is composed of singers selected from the five church choirs of Trenton.

IMPROVEMENTS TO THE PARK

WILL LOOK PRETTIER THAN EVER NEXT SEASON.

Everybody will be glad to hear that the unsightly electric light poles which used to disfigure Queen Victoria Park, have been removed. Next spring the system of incandescent lighting will be put in, and the smaller, neat-painted poles will be more of an ornament than the old "gallows" which were made necessary by the former system of arc lighting. Preparations are being made for a large crescent-shaped flower bed on the north end of the park, which will be put in early next spring, and the signs which formerly were there will be moved out closer to the roadway.

It is the intention of the Harbor Commissioners, we are informed, to have the bend on the east side of the roadway leading to the Park filled in when they can secure the services of the dredge. People with vehicles will be allowed to stand there on band concert nights.

The caretaker has been busy with the paint brush lately; the band stand, benches, etc., have been touched up, and everything looks neat and tidy.

Indications point to the fact that, next year, Queen Victoria Park will be prettier and more popular than ever.

FANCY VESTS.

Oh, yes; you can get them at the Oak Hall. All the new patterns, mostly double breasted. We are making a special run in lines at $2. They were bought at a bargain and are worth at least $3. Suppose you drop in and look them over.

Married at Kingston

Kingston, Oct. 3.—A quiet wedding occurred this morning at St. George's Cathedral, the contracting parties being Miss Amelia Mace, daughter of W. D. Mace, Tamworth, and John Mair, Montreal. The union was conducted in the presence of only the immediate members of the family, after which a wedding breakfast was served in the Frontenac Hotel. Rev. J. W. Jones, Tamworth, performed the ceremony, and the happy couple left on the noon train for Buffalo.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The first object in life with the Canadian people is to "get rich;" the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health), by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well known August Flower will relieve you at once. Regular size, 75 cents. You can get Dr. G.G. Green's reliable remedies at R. Templeton & Co's.

GREATEST BATTLE OF S. A. WAR

Gen. Botha Led in Person, and Boers Fought Desperately.

Durban, Oct. 3.—Later details show that Gen. Botha's full force of 4,000 men made the attack on Forts Prospect and Itala, in Zululand. Botha led in person. The British fought magnificently against overwhelming odds for nineteen hours. The Boers were fearless, and fought desperately. They gained the summit of Itala, repeatedly, but were repelled each time. It was probably the news that Gen. Bruce Hamilton was approaching that caused a cessation of the fighting. The Boers suffered heavily. Three hundred and thirty-two of their dead were found, and in addition they carried off a number of their killed. They admit having 300 wounded. In their rushes they were met with cold steel. Six hundred men, under Emmet and Grobelaar, attacked Fort Prospect. They also suffered heavily. Sixty of their dead were found where they had been mowed down by a Maxim gun. At Fort Itala the British guns were put out of action.

London, Oct. 3.—All the accounts of the fighting at Fort Itala show that it was one of the most striking offensive and defensive engagements of the war. The whole British garrison there numbered only 300 men, with two 15-pounders, and a Maxim gun. An outpost of 80 men, under Lieuts. Kane and Lefroy, occupied the summit of the hill, out of sight of the main camp, which was on the slope of the hill. At about midnight 800 Boers rushed the outpost. Their onslaught was so sudden and fierce that for twenty minutes only bayonets were used. Overwhelming odds soon decided the possession of the outpost. Lieut. Kane fell dead shouting; "No surrender." Lieut. Lefroy was severely wounded, and the whole force was disabled. The main camp was thus reduced to 220 men. The Boers assailed from all sides. From about 1 a.m. throughout the remainder of the night and all the following day the little garrison withstood them, until seven in the evening, when the outlook seemed desperate. The British had been without water for many hours, the Boers having cut off their supply, and their ammunition was fast failing. Almost suddenly the Boer fire began to slacken, and soon after the attackers withdrew, either learning that General Bruce Hamilton was approaching, or, in sheer despair of succeeding. Their retirement opened the way for the wounded commander to withdraw his exhausted force, which reached N'Kandhla in the morning. Among the Boers killed were Generals Opperman and Schultz and Commandant Potgieter.

According to a statement which reached Durban from N'Kandhla, a British military surgeon who ascended Itala in the morning to attend the wounded there was immediately made a prisoner by Boers, who compelled him to attend their wounded. Consequently the British wounded lay unsuccored during the day in the broiling sun without water.

The attack on Prospect seems to have been only disastrous to the Boers. The camp was well situated for defence, and although the garrison numbered only twenty men, with one Maxim, they withstood all attacks, notwithstanding the dashing bravery of the assailants. The latter withdrew without achieving their purpose, and their dead were piled around the fort. The British loss was one killed and 12 wounded.

The Boers have never hitherto displayed such reckless daring, and their defeat is the worst smash they have sustained. Major Chapman, commanding the British, seemed to bear a charmed life. Gen. Kitchener has congratulated him.

On Saturday the Boers captured a large British convoy. Gen. Hamilton pursued them and came into action with them, but no details of the fighting have been received, though it is reported that the Boers were again punished.

UNTOLD MISERY.—WHAT A WELL-KNOWN COMMERCIAL TRAVELLER SUFFERED, AND HOW HE WAS CURED.—Gentlemen, About five years ago I began to be troubled with Dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time travelling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine and when the third bottle was finished, I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of Dyspepsia. (Signed), T. S. McINTEE.

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung and throat troubles, there is no preparation of medicine can compare with Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to afford prompt and permanent relief. It removes all soreness, and heals the diseased parts. It immediately soothes the most troublesome cough, and by promoting expectoration, removes the mucus which stops up the air tubes which causes difficulty in breathing, thereby gives relief to that depressing tightness experienced in the chest. Public speakers and singers will find Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup of inestimable value, as it speedily and effectually allays all irritation, and huskiness in the throat and bronchial tubes, and gives power to the vocal cords, rendering the voice clear and sonorous. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of "Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup," and whenever a child has taken cold, has a cough or hoarseness, give the Syrup according to directions.

To Those of Sedentary Occupation. —Men who follow sedentary occupations, which deprive them of fresh air and exercise, are more prone to disorders of the liver and kidneys than those who lead active, outdoor lives. The former will find in Parmelee's Vegetable Pills a restorative without question the most efficacious on the market. They are easily procurable, easily taken, act expeditiously, and they are surprisingly cheap considering their excellence.

THE KING'S DOMAINS

BRITISH MONARCH'S DOMINIONS BEYOND THE SEAS.

A Thought to Make All Men Pause—King Edward's Name Now Above All Other Earthly Names—He Rules Over an Empire 3,000,000 Square Miles Bigger Than That Bequeathed to His Mother.

King Edward has had another high-sounding phrase added to his name. "King of All the British Dominions Beyond the Seas" is the way in which the empire is recognized in the royal title, says A. M. in Black and White. It is a thought to make man pause. How many of us realize what are the "Dominions beyond the Seas"? How many know that King Edward reigns over an empire vaster than any over which any man has reigned since the beginning of time? On one continent on a hundred peninsulas, on 500 promotories, a thousand lakes, 2,000 rivers and 10,000 islands, King Edward is the name which is above all other earthly names. Queen Victoria ascended the throne of an empire embracing 8,329,000 square miles; she handed it down to King Edward with 3,000,000 miles added to it. Edward VII. to-day over an empire three times as big as Europe, and the English-speaking people control one-third of the area and population of the globe.

No man ever invented a title to cover such an empire. The Pope of Rome has been known among men as "Master of the World," the "Universal Father" and "Vice-Regent of the Most High." The King of Monomotapa was Lord of the Sun and Moon, an empire which seems to have outlived him, and the King of Ava, wherever that may be, lived among his people as the "King of Kings, whom all others should obey," and "Brother of the Sun and King of the Four-and-Twenty Umbrellas." The Kings of Achem, too, were "Sovereigns of the Universe," and the title of the monarch of Kandyar embraced the assurance that his feet were "as fragrant to the noses of other kings as flowers to bees." But no extravagant sovereign, in his most extravagant mood, has devised a name to cover the empire on which the sun shines forever.

Disraeli did his best. He gave the Queen one title, and dreamed of another, "Dictatress of Europe" was what he wanted to see the Queen whom he served twice as Prime Minister. A man who can create an Empress is likely to aim higher still, and while the millions of India were learning to know the Great White Queen as "Kaiser-i-Hind," Lord Beaconsfield was thinking how splendid the name of "Dictatress of Europe" would sound at the Court of St. James. "I wish to see the Queen Dictatress of Europe," he wrote from Hughenden Manor. "Many things are preparing which, for the sake of peace and civilization, render it most necessary that Her Majesty should occupy that position." The war in South Africa changed his plans — wars in South Africa have a way of changing plans—and "therefore," wrote Lord Beaconsfield, "some sense of annoyance on my part may be understood and perhaps pardoned."

Perhaps we shall never be quite sure who first called Queen Victoria Empress of India. The claim has been made for Sir Andrew Clark, but there is no real foundation for linking his name with the origin of the title. In a proclamation he issued in November, 1874, he spoke of the Queen as "Empress of India" in order to impress the Malays with a due sense of her importance, but that was not the first official use of the title of Empress for an English sovereign, nor did Sir Andrew invent it. It was suggested to him by an army major, who may have got it from a book of geography which was well known at the time. A gentleman who listened to the debate on the Royal Titles bill in 1876 was asked by his daughter, a girl of 12, what Parliament had been talking about, and on being told that the House of Commons had been discussing whether the Queen should be called Empress of India, the girl exclaimed, "What silly men they must be! I have known that for three years." "And how do you know it?" asked her father, who was astonished when his daughter showed him a geography book, in its 89th edition, in which it was stated that "British India is under the dominion of Great Britain. Her Majesty bears there the title of Empress of India." Where did the author of the book get the name from?

It is not an easy thing to say. The date of the book, if it were at one's disposal, might help us. In its absence we have a message of the Duke of Argyll to fall back upon. In 1869, as Minister for India, the duke telegraphed to the Ameer of Afghanistan in the name of the "Queen of Great Britain and Ireland and Empress of India," adding the latter half of the dignity on his own authority, and this was in all likelihood the first official use of the Indian title of the sovereign. But even this does not satisfy us of its real origin. Eleven years before Mr. Disraeli had written to the Queen in connection with the bill for transferring the Government of India to the Crown, advising Her Majesty that her name ought to be impressed upon the native life of India. The idea of an Empress of India was clearly there, and the claim of Lord Beaconsfield to the authorship may be better than that of either Sir Andrew Clark, the Duke of Argyll, the army major or the author of the book of geography. Who will tell us?

Nor does the mystery of the title end here. Who translated it for India into "Kaiser-i-Hind"? The probability is that the credit belongs to Sir William Muir, whose authority on all matters concerning India cannot be doubted. Lord Lytton spoke at a banquet to Sir William Muir on the occasion of his retirement from the public life of India, and in his speech the Viceroy, who was about to proclaim the Queen Empress of India at Delhi, said that while the Queen, on the advice of her ministers, had assumed the title of Empress, there was only one man who could make Her Majesty "Kaiser-i-Hind," and the man to whom Her Majesty was indebted for this title, by which she would henceforth be popularly known and revered throughout her vast Indian dominions, was no other than his honorable friend, Sir William Muir. So far, nobody seems to have anticipated Sir William's translation and it stands as one of his many links with fame.

The dolphin, a near relative of the whale, is credited with a speed of considerably over 20 miles an hour. For short distance, the salmon can outstrip any other fish, accomplishing its 25 miles an hour with ease. The Spanish mackerel is one of the fastest of food fishes, and cuts the water like a yacht. Predatory fish are generally the fastest swimmers.

PILLSBURY TO RETIRE.

American Chess Champion to Become a Lawyer.

It is stated on reliable authority that the professional career of Harry N. Pillsbury as a chess player will come to an end in about two years, after which he proposes to devote himself in earnest to the study of law.

Before that happens, however, some important events are likely to take place, not the least of which will be a match for the championship of the world with Lasker. When the latter was in New York three months ago, he and Pillsbury had a private confab, and the subject of a match between them was touched upon. Nothing definite can be had concerning this interesting affair until the American champion goes to Europe, which he intends to do early in 1902, to be gone a year or more.

Pillsbury's fourth tour of this country will be a brief one, beginning about the 1st of September and lasting until Jan. 1, when he and Mrs. Pillsbury will sail for England. While abroad he will enter all the large tournaments in Europe, including those at Hanover, Monte Carlo and Berlin, and will also tour the continent.

When Pillsbury leaves the professional arena for good, there will be no one to take his place in the realm of blindfold chess, for here he has done what no one else ever attempted. His record of 20 games simultaneously without sight of boards or men stands alone, aside from the fact that he is able to combine both checkers and whist with his blindfold chess playing. The champion has such a mastery over the art that he is confident of his ability to handle no less than 30 games of chess in this manner. It is a feat he is expected to accomplish before he retires.

A Costly Job of Painting.

Eighteen years ago, says the Kennebec (Me.) Journal, a Northeast Harbor man wanted to paint his house. He approached an Ellsworth man and told him if he would let him have $50 to paint his house he would give him the deed to a piece of land which he owned at Northeast Harbor. It wasn't much good for farming land, but might be worth something some day. The Ellsworth man gave him $50 and took a deed of the land. A short time afterward he sold a half interest in the piece to another Ellsworth man for $1,200. A few years ago they were asked for an option on the land at $10,000, of which $2,500 was paid down, to be forfeited if the land was not bought. The purchase was not made, and the Ellsworth men pocketed the $2,500 forfeit. A year or two later they sold one-quarter of the piece for $7,500. They still own three-quarters of the original piece, and it would take something like $25,000 to buy it. How that Northeast Harbor man must wish he hadn't painted his house!

A CONDENSED STORY.

Irving is nothing if not severely accurate. Shortly before he put on the "Merchant of Venice" he inquired of a brother actor if he could supply some stage "business" for the part of Shylock, says a writer in The Ledger Monthly. The actor, being, like Shylock, a Hebrew, thought he might and asked Irving how he meant to do the "imprecation scene," which occurs upon Shylock discovering that Jessica has fled with Lorenzo and the jewelry of her late mother, "Mrs. Shylock."

Irving knelt, held his hands prayerlike and rehearsed the terrible imprecation—"I would my daughter were dead at my feet and the jewels in her ear."

Upon the actor's saying he was wrong Irving rejoined that he had followed the best stage direction in the book and that all the best Shylocks did it, as the Keans, Brooke, Fechter and Phelps.

"Yes," said the actor, "but they were all Christians. A Hebrew in imprecating never kneels, but stands upright, passing his open hand over his face."

Irving adopted the hint.

Soon after a well-known London solicitor, also a Hebrew, who had seen the new version, told the actor in question that he had not before been aware that Irving was "one of us," and he refused to believe the contrary.

The Brown Pigment, Sepia.

The familiar brown pigment known as sepia is the product of a ten-armed cuttle-fish found in all European waters and common in the Mediterranean. The animal is of a whity-brown color, with red spots, and possesses a sac containing a dark liquid having an extremely high coloring power. When the animal desires to conceal its movements or escape from a dangerous enemy, it squirts this liquid in the surrounding sea water. The efficiency of this liquid may be inferred from the fact that it will render 1,000 times its volume of water perfectly opaque. The effect is produced by the presence in the liquid of a black pigment, which is insoluble in water, but which diffuses through it. It is insoluble in alcohol or in ether as well as in water. The commercial pigment is prepared in the following way: As soon as the cuttlefish is caught the sac is extracted and dried quickly. The pigment is then treated chemically, washed with water and then dried at a gentle heat. It forms an impalpable dark powder, which is perfectly permanent except when constantly exposed to the direct rays of the sun. It is then made up in the form of sticks and becomes the sepia of commerce. It is not suitable for use as an oil color, but it has been employed for water color painting for many centuries. It will mix with any other color, and it exceeds all other brown pigments in the ease with which a uniform coat of it may be applied with a brush. The commercial sepia contains about 79 per cent. melanin, 10 of carbonate of lime, 7 of carbonate of magnesia, 3 of sulphates and chlorides of potash and soda and 1 of miscellaneous organic matter.

Redeemer of Slum Children.

At the age of 87 Mrs. Smyly, a philanthropist, has just died in Dublin. More than 1,000 children are maintained in homes established through her exertions.

While still a young woman she founded a little school for poor children in a hay loft in a Dublin slum. She collected not less than £12,000 per annum in the cause of the destitute children of Dublin. As a result of her labors seven homes and four free day schools have been established in the city, and, in co-operation with the Bird's Nest at Kingstown, have turned many thousands of hopeless slum children into good and useful citizens of the British Empire.

SAVAGES IN JAPAN.

THE HAIRY AINOS AND THEIR RESERVATIONS IN THE EMPIRE.

Odd Customs Practised by These Aboriginal People of Japan. Unique Styles in Baby Names. Their Resemblance to Our Indians.

The Ainus, generally known to Americans and Europeans as "the hairy Ainos," are the only aboriginal people now living in Japan. They are called "hairy" in contradistinction to the smooth faced Japanese, Koreans and Chinese. Their present home is in Hokkaido, or Yesso, the most northerly part of the empire, although it is supposed that in earlier times they occupied most of the entire country. Ancestors of the Japanese of today found them in possession and by force of superior arms and civilization gradually drove them to the north, much in the same way as the savages were driven back toward the Pacific by the early settlers in America.

The Ainus live today pretty much as the Indians on their reservations in the west. They are still for the most part half savage, and the Japanese name for them, "Yesso," means barbarian. They are very skillful in hunting and fishing, which are their chief occupations. They are under the protection of the imperial government and are entirely separated from the Japanese. The latest census showed that they number very nearly 17,000.

Among the many curious customs of the Ainus perhaps the quaintest is their method of naming their children. They observe a peculiar economy in giving names. The infant must go without a name until it shows itself worthy of bearing one. If it is sickly and not likely to live, it is not considered worth while to waste a name upon it. As each child must by immemorial custom have a brand new name, used by no one in the community, names are scarce and must be guarded. If the child should be given a name borne by some one else, the ghost of the former possessor of the name may come back from the underworld to avenge the slight.

It is customary to take a name from some incident that occurred at the child's birth or it is left to the parents afterward to choose one for it. Should the infant come into the world with a smiling face it might be called Ikishimaburu, which means a smile, or fond parents may call it Kamoisange (a pulling rope of the gods) if they wish their child to be in the special care of the gods.

From the age of 7 to 10 Ainu children of either sex have their heads shaved, but after 11 they are allowed to have long hair and wear the same clothes as grown persons. They wear no clothing unless the weather is very cold.

The favorite and almost exclusive ornament is the earring, usually made of metal. What clothing is worn is made of straw. They never wear shoes or other covering for the feet except as a great luxury and mark of distinction on ceremonious occasions.

The men carry small knives and tobacco pouches, and the women carry small looking glasses and knives. The knife is used as symbolic. The maiden wears it with the blade bare, but when she marries it is worn in a sheath. The women also paint their faces, using a kind of ink for the purpose.

The Ainus live mostly by fishing and hunting. They hunt the bear and deer, catch salmon and other fish and grow potatoes and millet. Whenever they can get it they eat rice, which they regard as the best food, though they do not raise it themselves. Both sexes smoke tobacco and drink liquor.

The marriage customs differ widely from those of the Japanese. The question is first settled between the youth and maiden, who then refer the matter to their parents through a mediator, who should be a relative of the prospective bridegroom. The man must send a present of lacquered ware, which is regarded by them as one of the most precious things in the world. This, however, is reclaimed by him if his wife afterward seeks a divorce.

Ainus live in dwellings of about the same class as those of the American Indians. The rude hut has two windows, one of them for ordinary earthly uses, the other reserved for the entrance of the gods.

Woman is fairly treated and held in deep respect. The man is not allowed to enter the house when the woman is in it alone, and he is not permitted to walk behind a woman. When a man meets a woman, he must salute first, by smoothing his beard and rubbing his hands. Then she responds by touching her nose with a finger of her left hand.

During October the Ainus hold a religious fete, which is called the bear festival, because they sacrifice a bear which has been carefully fostered for three years.

Judicial punishment among the Ainus consists of a severe beating with a stick administered to the culprit. The crimes are generally theft—stealing articles or the wife of a neighbor. As there are eight men to one woman the majority of the males are not married, and wife stealing is very common. The accused is subjected to a long examination by the chief of the community and is then compelled to resort to the ordeal of fire. He must take a stone out of boiling water. If innocent, the Ainus think he will not be injured. If the question cannot be settled in this way, the principals in the dispute must fight it out.

The Ainus are polytheists, though they limit their gods to two, a god of fire and a god of water. The first is called Kabekamoi and the latter Hatokamoi. They, also, like most peoples who have a religious system, believe in some sort of heaven and hell.—Japan and America.

Most Desirable Home In the World.

Stafford House, the London residence of the Duchess of Sutherland, is said to be, taking everything into consideration, the most desirable of any home in the world. You can't express the value of Stafford House in coin any more than you could put a figure on St. James' palace, just around the corner. Conceiving such a thing possible, Stafford House would bring much the better rate of the two at an auction sale. Although it is not so vast as Buckingham palace, it is infinitely preferable as a place of residence, a fact that the late Queen Victoria neatly expressed on one occasion when she was the guest of the late Duchess of Sutherland, mother of the present duke. "Duchess," said the queen on her arrival, "I come from my house to your beautiful palace."

Catarrh

It is therefore impossible to cure the disease by local applications.

It is positively dangerous to neglect it, because it always affects the stomach and deranges the general health, and is likely to develop into consumption.

Many have been radically and permanently cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It cleanses the blood and has a peculiar alterative and tonic effect. M. J. McDonald, Trenton, Ont., writes, "I had catarrh, my system was weak, blood was bad, and my liver torpid and inactive. I tried many medicines without benefit until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has completely cured me and I highly recommend it to all sufferers."

BOY MISTAKEN FOR A CAT

Frank T. Fisher of Oakville Shot Through the Head.

Gilbey Hardy's Fatal Mistake—A Toronto Small Boy of Nine Years Shot His Niece—Father Was Strongly Censured by the Jury for Leaving the Rifle Where the Child Could Get at It—Other Accidents.

Oakville, Oct. 5.—The funeral of Frank T. Fisher, the 12-year-old boy, who was accidentally shot through the head on Thursday by Gilbey Hardy, will take place this afternoon. The details of the affair are particularly sad. Hardy, who is 22 years of age, and who was for a time a school teacher, started out with the lad to shoot a cat. The animal escaped to a hole underneath a barn, and young Fisher went in to chase it out. A moment or two later he emerged head first, and, Hardy, thinking it was the cat, fired without looking. The bullet took effect in the head, and death resulted an hour or so later.

Small Boy Shoots a Child.

Toronto, Oct. 5.—A particularly sad shooting fatality occurred yesterday morning at 304 Lippincott street, when nine-year-old Fred Wortley accidentally discharged a rifle, killing Grace Chater, his niece, but 19 months old. The little girl was in her mother's arms when wounded and died at Grace Hospital, where she was hurriedly taken.

Last night an inquest was held, and the jury's verdict was as follows: "We find that Grace Chater came to her death at Grace Hospital from the effects of a rifle shot accidentally fired by Fred Wortley, at 304 Lippincott street, and that no blame can be attached to the boy Wortley.

"We strongly censure the father, Ernest Wortley, for gross negligence in leaving the rifle loaded in reach of the boy Wortley."

Two Boys Probably Drowned.

Port Rowan, Ont., Oct. 5.—Two boys, Clarence Rockefellow and Arthur Bantum, went out in a small clinker during a heavy gale on Wednesday morning to shoot ducks, and have not been seen since. Their boat was found filled with water about two miles out from the shore, anchored, with a vest and pair of shoes in it. Thursday a party spent all day dragging the bay and failed to recover the bodies. A pair of pants, a pair of shoes and a gun were brought up from the bottom of the bay near where the boat was found. The boys' ages respectively were 16 and 14.

No One to Blame.

Sherbrooke, Que., Oct. 4.—The three seriously injured men as a result of the railway accident Thursday, Baggageman Niles has a broken rib and leg with internal injuries. His case is considered serious. Fireman Dodds, whose face is burned and an arm dislocated, is in a favorable condition; also is Mail Clerk LaChance. The coroner's jury's verdict yesterday afternoon was that the deaths were accidental and no one to blame.

Mangled by Hogs.

Sunfield, Mich., Oct. 5.—Mrs. Ansel Green, of Sebwal Township, was attacked by hogs and so frightfully mangled she will die. Mrs. Green was hunting for eggs in the barnyard, when three hogs suddenly turned upon her and knocked her down. The flesh was stripped from her right arm, and it had to be amputated. Her left arm and hand was also terribly tore. One side of her face was torn to shreds. The unfortunate woman's body was also shockingly mutilated. There is no hope for her recovery.

Narrowly Escaped Death.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Wigle of Maidstone Township drove their horse in front of an eastbound Sandwich car about 8.30 o'clock Thursday night and were almost crushed to death. The buggy was smashed into fragments and the harness torn into shreds. The horse escaped injury. The occupants were carried to Dr. Reaume's residence, where their injuries were dressed. Mrs. Wigle was severely cut about the head and body, her scalp being torn open in a number of places, and one rib was fractured. Mr. Wigle escaped with some bruises on the body, and a deep wound on the head.

BRITISH COLUMBIA CRISIS.

The Defeated Minister Has Handed in His Resignation.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 5.—Mr. Brown, the newly appointed Minister who was recently defeated in New Westminster, has placed his resignation in the hands of Premier Dunsmuir, who, however, has not yet accepted it. Mr. Prentice is acting Provincial Secretary and Minister of Education. Premier Dunsmuir's own resignation was looked for yesterday, but no official statement on the subject has been made.

BREAKS UP WRETCHED

COLDS

It is not for us to alarm you about your Cold; you are wretched enough as it is. Our province is to supply the cure, and we do so with confidence. Dr. Humphreys' "SEVENTY-SEVEN" breaks up a Cold by acting directly on the affected parts; restores the checked circulation, starts the blood coursing through the veins, awakens the numbed organs of respiration and digestion, cleanses the system, soothes the mucous membrane, and the Cold passes off without a struggle.

"77" is a small vial of pleasant pellets that just fits the vest pocket.

KRUGER'S MIND TOTTERING.

The Hague, Oct. 5.—A. D. W. Wolmarans, one of the Boer envoys, who has been visiting Mr. Kruger at Hilversum, found the mental condition of the former President of the Transvaal to be by no means satisfactory. Mr. Kruger is slowly growing weaker physically and mentally. His slowness in reaching a decision on important questions is found to be a serious hindrance to those working in Europe in behalf of the Boer cause. At the slightest question regarding his health, Mr. Kruger exhibits intense irritation and vehemently denies that anything is wrong. The approach of winter causes anxiety, as Mr. Kruger refuses to leave Holland.

According to a remark made by a prominent Boer, the former President's condition would long ago have been worse if hatred of Great Britain did not nerve him to continue.

Casualty List Greater.

London, Oct. 5.—The casualty list shows that the total British losses in the attack on Col. Kekewich's camp at Moedwill were four officers killed and 23 wounded, and 51 men killed and 115 wounded, numbers much greater than those heretofore reported.

Another Canadian Wounded.

Ottawa, Oct. 5.—The Militia Department yesterday received a cable announcing that Trooper Christopher of Glen Adelaide, Man., a member of the South African Constabulary, had been slightly wounded in an engagement with Boers.

The King Has Lumbago.

London, Oct. 5.—It was ascertained late last evening that King Edward's complaint is lumbago, but the attack is not at all serious.

Verdict Against the Sun.

Owen Sound, Oct. 5.—The action of Redfern v. Dawson & Davis, publishers of The Owen Sound Sun, resulted in a verdict for plaintiff for $1. Justice Ferguson, before whom the case was tried, refused to give costs, and expressed dissatisfaction with the verdict.

The Duke Will Hunt Big Game

Has Gone to Senator Kirchhoffer's at Poplar Point Manitoba.

Shamrock Crossed the Line Two Seconds Ahead—Boy Mistaken for a Cat and Shot—Kruger's Mind Tottering—Mr. Whitney's Programme Clarke Wallace's Condition.

Banff, N.W.T., Oct. 5.—The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall arrived here from Vancouver at 3.30 o'clock yesterday, and at 10 o'clock last night the Duke left for Poplar Point, Manitoba, where he goes for two days' hunting on the place of Senator Kirchhoffer.

Those Who Accompany Him.

The Duke was accompanied by Prince Alexander of Teck, the Duke of Roxburghe, Viscount Crichton, Lord Wenlock, Sir Charles Cust, Hon. Derek Keppel, Commander Faussett, R.N., Col. Percy Sherwood, Major S. F. Maude, Major Borand and Capt. Graham.

Sir Wilfrid Remains Behind.

The private car of Sir Wilfrid Laurier was attached to the Duke's special, but the Premier will not go shooting. He is to wait at Winnipeg for the royal party. The Duchess and the rest of the party are to remain here until Sunday afternoon. To-day the Duchess of Cornwall and the Countess of Minto go by special train to Laggan, and from there drive to Lake Louise.

The royal party enjoyed the ride through the mountains from the coast, and cow-catcher riding was a popular sport.

Duke Meets Sir Claude Macdonald.

Shortly after their arrival here yesterday the Duke and Duchess drove to Banff National Park and saw the herd of buffalo. Later they dined at Banff Hotel. While the royal party were out there, Sir Claude Macdonald, now British Minister to Japan, and who was British Minister to China during the siege of Pekin, in 1900, met them and was presented to the Duke. The two walked up and down the platform at the station during the entire stop of the train and engaged in earnest conversation.

When the Duke Leaves.

Halifax, Oct. 5.—From an official source it is learned that the Duke of York will not leave Halifax until 9.30 o'clock on the morning of October 21. It was originally intended that the Ophir should sail at daylight.

Duke Will See Gold Rivet.

Montreal, Oct. 5.—It is the intention of the Grand Trunk authorities to have the royal train, when it passes through the Victoria bridge, on its return from the west, stop at the central arch to allow the Duke and Duchess to inspect the gold rivet which King Edward, then Prince of Wales, put in place in 1860 on the occasion of his visit to Montreal.

DEPARTMENT REPLIES.

Complaint of "C" Battery re Deferred Pay Answered From Ottawa.

Ottawa, Oct. 5.—The Department of Militia has authorized the statement in regard to the complaints of "C" Battery about their pay in South Africa.

This is an old subject. The pay of the men serving in the Mounted Rifles and Artillery was fixed at 75 cents per diem. The Canadian rate was adopted for them. The British pay was to be supplemented to make the amount equal to the Canadian pay. The men of "C" Battery got Rhodesian pay, or $1.32 per day, while their comrades of "D" and "E" Batteries received only 29 cents. These amounts were paid the War Office. The matter was referred to the Justice Department here and it was decided that there was no parliamentary authority to give to "C" Battery "deferred pay" which the statute provided for, as they had received more than the 75 cents which was arranged for. As to the war gratuity, the department is paying for the Imperial Government. If the men do not parade to receive their medals no one will be injured but themselves, because they will be deprived of the honor of receiving these medals from the hands of H. R. H. the Duke of Cornwall.

Won't Let the Matter Drop.

Montreal, Oct. 5.—The Montreal Harbor Commissioners, despite the fact that Mr. Tarte has declined to investigate the matter, do not intend to let the charge made by the Minister that the Board was offered $20,000 to hurry through the Jamieson elevator contract, fall to the ground.

The matter was discussed at a meeting of the Harbor Board yesterday, and it was decided to request Mr. Jamieson to appear before the Board on Monday to tell what he knows of the matter.

Mr. Whitney's Program.

Toronto, Oct. 5.—Mr. Whitney left this morning for his home in Morrisburg. He attended a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Ontario Liberal-Conservative Association yesterday afternoon, but nothing was done to fix dates for meetings. Mr. Whitney states, however, that it is the intention to hold a few meetings after the Duke's visit. There will be no tour, but the leader will speak at several points, probably half a dozen, on dates best suited to each place.

Clark Wallace's Condition.

Toronto, Oct. 5.—Hon. N. Clarke Wallace's condition last night was not quite so favorable. Although there was no change in his temperature or pulse, he was a little weaker.

America's Earliest Map.

Berlin, Oct. 5.—There have just been found in the historic Castle of Wolfegg, Wurtemberg, the first maps that contain the name and geographical outlines of America.

The maps bear respectively the dates 1507 and 1516, and are stated to be in a remarkable state of preservation. The first, it is believed, was drawn under the personal supervision of Columbus.

Kaiser Paid Chun's Bills.

Berlin, Oct. 5.—Although it was asserted when Prince Chun arrived in Germany that he would be the guest of Emperor William for only two days in Potsdam, the Emperor footed all his bills while in Berlin and traveling about, together with the expenses of the entire mission until it crossed the Austrian frontier.

Sweden Giving Up Latin.

Stockholm, Oct. 5.—After prolonged controversy the authorities have decided to eliminate Latin from the lower grades in the higher State schools of Sweden, while totally transferring Greek to the universities.

CHRONIC RHEUMATISM CURED

Chronic Rheumatism Cured

The action of Powley's Liquified Ozone is quick in giving relief to rheumatism. The antiseptic action of the oxygen destroys the germs which produce the disease and antidotes their toxins. It will be worth your while to read the interesting statement of Mr. A. Charbonneau.

THE OZONE COMPANY

Gentlemen: In response to your communication of late date, I am happy to state that I have made use of Powley's Liquified Ozone, and the results have been far ahead of any thing I hoped for when I was first induced to try same. I have been a constant victim of rheumatism, lumbago, etc., for nearly two years and tried all sorts of remedies and so-called cures without benefiting from their use. I must say that I obtained some relief, but this was only temporary and quite unsatisfactory. When I was induced to try Ozone I had a very limited confidence in its merits, but I had taken less than half a bottle when I was notably relieved of my trouble and continued the use of Ozone. The results, I am happy to say, have been marvellous. With less than two bottles I am now entirely free from pain of any kind and feel rejuvenated by ten years, no trouble whatever having been my lot since I used Ozone. I have since used it in my family with the same beneficial results and I mean to have it handy at all times in the house.

You are at liberty to use the present testimonial as you see fit, and to refer to me as to what Ozone has done for me and may do for anyone in a general way.

Wishing your preparation all the success it deserves, and yourselves the recognition of the public for putting the same within the reach of everyone, I remain,

Very truly yours, A. M. CHARBONNEAU, 250 St. Hippolyte St., Montreal, P. Q.

Powley's Liquified Ozone is oxygen in stable liquid form. It's a new discovery, this way of using oxygen. If you are troubled with rheumatism, kidney disease, try a bottle, it will relieve you in a wonderfully short time.

Consult our physicians about your case. Write full details and you will get a specialist's advice free. Your letters are absolutely confidential. Address the Consulting Department, The Liquid Ozone Co., [illegible] Kinzie St., Chicago, U. S. A.

SHAMROCK 2 SECONDS AHEAD

But the Time Allowance Gave Columbia the Race.

British Yacht Ahead Nearly All the Way, and Looked Like a Sure Winner—Excitement at the Finish—Sir Thomas Lipton Voices His Disappointment, But Takes His Beating as a True Sportsman Should.

New York, Oct. 5.—With victory flags flowing from her towering mastheads, and the ends of her spreaders in honor of her concluding triumph in the cup races of 1901, the sloop Columbia returned to her anchorage last night under the escort of the entire excursion fleet. She yesterday completed her defence of the honored trophy in a stirring race with the Shamrock II. over a leeward and windward course of 30 miles, crossing the finishing line two seconds behind her antagonist, but winning on the time allowance conceded by Lipton's boat by 41 seconds.

For the second time she has now successfully foiled the attempt of the Irish Knight to wrest the cup that means the yachting supremacy of the world. And plucky Sir Thomas Lipton, standing on the bridge of the Erin, led his guests in three hearty huzzahs for the successful defender.

SIR THOMAS LIPTON.

"She is the better boat," he said, "and she deserves to be cheered."

The series of races just closed will always be memorable, as the closest ever sailed for the cup, and Sir Thomas, although defeated, will go home with the satisfaction of knowing that his golden yacht is the ablest foreign boat that ever crossed the ocean. During both series of races not an untoward incident has occurred, and Sir Thomas will return to Europe most popular.

Yesterday's race was the closest of the series, and the Columbia indeed had a narrow escape.

The conditions at the start yesterday were very similar to those of the day before. The wind was strong and from the shore, embroidering the sea with foam, but piling up no swell.

The racers were sent away before the wind each carrying a penalty for crossing the line after the handicap gun. No official record is kept of the time after that gun is fired, but the experts with stop watches estimated the Columbia's handicap at 15 seconds and Shamrock's at 30 seconds. The contest of the yachts fleeing before the wind was picturesque, but not exciting. The big racers, like gulls with outstretched pinions, had every inch of canvas spread, and all their light sails, including bulging spinnakers and balloon jib top sails. Their crews were gathered aft to keep the heads of the boats up, and therefore until the outer mark was reached, it was merely a question of holding to all the canvas and letting the wind do the rest.

Columbia Behind at the Turn.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Columbia beat Shamrock before the wind last Saturday, the challenger yesterday gained slowly but steadily all the way out and rounded 49 seconds before the defender, having actually gained one minute and four seconds. Immediately after the yachts turned their noses into the wind for

Loss of Flesh and Weight

AN INDICATION OF WASTING DISEASE, OF EXHAUSTING NERVE FORCE AND DECLINING STRENGTH AND VITALITY.

NOTE YOUR WEIGHT AND TEST THE FLESH-FORMING, TISSUE BUILDING EFFECTS OF DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD—THE RESULTS WILL SURPRISE YOU.

Can you imagine a more severe test of any preparation than that of adding firm flesh and increasing the weight of the body? It is possible, of course, to add fat by the use of fish oils, but the tissues created by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food are firm and natural. The blood is thoroughly enriched and the nerve force replenished. Pallor and weakness give place to a healthy complexion and strength of mind and body. Languor and discouragement are driven out to make way for vigor, new hope and confidence.

It might be worth your while to make a test of this great food cure as a builder of flesh and muscle. Note your weight when beginning the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and watch the gradual increase week by week. At first the increase may be slight owing to the wasting process, which must be stopped. Then, naturally and certainly, the whole system is built up and perfect health and vitality restored to every part of the body.

Mr. A. R. Fawcett, the well-known editor and proprietor of The Leader and Recorder, Toronto Junction, writes: "It is very seldom that I need medicine of any description, but this spring I got so badly run down and out of sorts generally that I became somewhat alarmed. Chancing to read a testimonial about the results derived from Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, from a gentleman whose case seemed to be identical with my own, I purchased a box, and commenced using it.

"The result was simply marvellous. I was benefited from the first, and soon restored to my usual good health. I never felt better in my life than I do now. To tell the simple truth, I did not have very great faith in any medicine until I used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, but now I have no hesitation in strongly recommending this great remedy to others as a valuable and effective remedy."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food 50c a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

(WHO IS TO COMMAND?

The statement which has been freely circulated that when Major Gen. O'Grady-Haly retired from the command of the Militia of Canada, a Canadian officer would be appointed to succeed him, is not correct, at least so says the Minister of Militia who upon being interviewed upon the subject, says the Ottawa Citizen, "gave an emphatic denial to the story."

"My impression," said Dr. Borden, "is that the General will probably remain as the Government is well satisfied with his services. If General O'Grady-Haly leaves I am perfectly certain that an Imperial officer will succeed him. To say that the Government has decided to replace the present general officer commanding by a Canadian is to state what is wholly without foundation," adding "that it had been long his opinion that as soon as a Canadian officer thoroughly qualified by service in the Imperial army, was available, he should be given command of the militia; but the time had not yet arrived for such an appointment to be made."

TIMELY TOPICS.

With the yacht races over and the Belleville races declared off we can settle down to steady going once more.

If Lipton can build another boat and improve as much as he did last time he'll have nothing to do but come over and win three straight races.

If Lipton is going to challenge again he, of course, has the call. If not, it's up to Canada. And large numbers of people in this country think Canadians can build a boat which will do the trick.

Two vital questions are now worrying the men of the Fifteenth: Will they be fed on emergency rations while in Toronto, and will they be permitted to get a good look at Major Maude?

When quartered at the Exhibition buildings in Toronto, of course the Fifteenth will be in the Fine Art building.

Navigation for this season will soon be over, but there is still time for bad luck to befall another of the Bay of Quinte fleet. Most unlucky season they ever knew, old sailormen say.

Now the old overcoat is being tenderly brought forth and critically examined. It's slightly disfigured, but will stand another campaign. You had hoped—but there, never mind. So another cherished dream fades away, and the odor of moth balls fills the air!

Isn't it about time Major Maude was letting us know whether we Bellevillians will get a chance to fire a couple of volleys of cheers at the Duke or not. Maude has got the languid movement down as fine as silk.

The latest vegetable to go on the warpath is the sweet potato. One of them exploded in Syracuse the other day and severely burned the cook. Must have been grown by an Anarchist.

Lipton, Limited, seems to be limited to no better than a close finish.

Whoever is grieving about the Street Railway, the farmers are not doing any weeping, for many of them professed to be afraid to come on Front street with restive horses. However, it is to be hoped somebody may see his way clear to continue the working of the road, for it was a great accommodation. Front street seems dead without the rattle of the cars and the clang of the bell. The present system was the best attempt ever made to provide a street car service for Belleville. If the city had a few thousands of dollars to spare it might do worse than take over the railway itself. However, that's another story.

QUE VOULEZ VOUS!
(Marmora Herald.)

Mr. J. J. B. Flint has contributed to the Intelligencer a long article on "Mysteries of the Universe." An article on the "Mysteries of Belleville Justice" would make interesting reading.

It's rather late in the season for lightning, but there were a few flashes last night. Probably a gentle hint to the people who are still wearing straw hats and talking about the yacht race.

* * *

After reading the different opinions expressed by United States papers, of the character, ability, idiosyncracies, etc., etc., of President Roosevelt, the St. James' Gazette, of London, England, sums up the man as follows:

"Smack of Lord Cromer; Jeff Davis a touch of him,
Little of Lincoln, but not very much of him;
Kitchener, Bismarck, and Germany's Will,
Jupiter, Chamberlain, Buffalo Bill."

Had not the Anarchists made him President these peculiarities and qualifications of the man would never have been discovered.

Beginning right. The Postmaster in Chicago has refused to allow the organ of the Anarchists to pass through the United States mails. The question has been referred to the Postmaster-General at Washington.

The Canadian Manufacturers' Association is to have a banquet in Montreal on the 5th or 6th Nov. next, at which Sir Wilfrid, Tarte, Fielding, Paterson and Mulock are to speak. It will be interesting to listen to these free trade gentlemen telling protectionists what to do and how to manage their business. Why is not Sir Richard, the denouncer of protection as "legalised robbery," to be there?

The output of the Rat Portage Lumber Company for this season was 76,000,000 feet.

In Toronto, a by-law preventing Trading Stamp business being carried on in the city has been passed, to take effect on and after the 1st of January next.

The best evidence that Manitoba and the Nor'-West is fast settling up is given in the increased sales of the C.P.R. lands, which for the month of September last were much heavier than usual, the aggregate being about 63,000 acres, which sold for $210,000. In September, 1900, the total sales amounted to 21,807 acres for $69,021.54. The sales by the Canada and Northwest Land Company were also very heavy, being 11,000 acres for the sum of $60,000. For September, 1900, the sales were 2,400 acres for the sum of $12,800.

The all-Canadian Government telegraph line to the Yukon was opened to communication on the 25th ult. The tariff from Eastern Canada is $5 for ten words, and 27 cents a word after, of which the Government's share is $4. The balance goes to the C.P.R. over whose line the message has to pass as far as Ashcroft, B.C.

A Leather Manufacturing Trust is being formed in the United States, Capital only $100,000,000.

The G.N.W. Telegraph Company were mistaken yesterday when they sent the despatch announcing that Columbia crossed the finish line five seconds ahead of Shamrock. To-day's despatches announce that the British boat got over the line two seconds in front of the Yankee, losing by 41 seconds on time allowance. Shamrock sailed a great race and lost, but she did what no challenger has ever done before—got over the finish line in front of the defender. It was a hard race to lose, and shows that Lipton's luck doesn't begin to equal his pluck.

The Hamilton Post has suspended publication. Another case of trying to saddle a town with one paper too many.

Perhaps they are waiting till the ground is frozen good and hard before they put the steam roller in winter quarters.

As the weather gets colder people who have to buy coal get hotter.

The man who invented time allowance should be keel-hauled.

Lipton's boat may be yellow, but he isn't.

Losing three straight Cup races must have caused a look of pain to appear on Lipton's mug.

The next great aquatic event will be Cap. Bernier's mad dash for the North Pole.

The Fifteenth won't go to Toronto for three weeks. Three days will be long enough.

The Shamrock may not be very fast, but she's like a streak of greased lightning compared to the people who sort the mail in the local post office.

Our Rossmore correspondent is thinking of building a boat to race for the Cup. As a bowl challenger he is a shining success, he says.

With eight senior football matches in Canada to-day there will be plenty of casualties to record without mentioning South Africa.

The Duke has eluded his pursuers and gone hunting big game. If he shoots a moose there'll be a Royal flush.

If the Hamilton Spectator man has to go to jail for contempt of court it will be a moving spectacle.

A NEW, EFFECTUAL AND CONVENIENT CURE FOR CATARRH.

Of catarrh remedies there is no end, but of catarrh cures, there has always been a great scarcity. There are many remedies to relieve, but very few that really cure.

The old practice of snuffing salt water through the nose would often relieve and the washes, douches, powders and inhalers in common use are very little, if any, better than the old fashioned salt water douche.

The use of inhalers and the application of salves, washes and powders to the nose and throat to cure catarrh is no more reasonable than to rub the back to cure kidney disease. Catarrh is just as much a blood disease as kidney trouble or rheumatism, and it cannot be cured by local treatment any more than they can be.

To cure catarrh, whether in the head, throat or stomach an internal antiseptic treatment is necessary to drive the catarrhal poison out of the blood and system, and the new catarrh cure is designed on this plan and the remarkable success of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets is because being used internally it drives out catarrhal infection through action upon stomach, liver and bowels.

Wm. Zimmerman, of St. Joseph, relates an experience with catarrh which is of value to millions of catarrh sufferers everywhere. He says: "I neglected a slight nasal catarrh until it gradually extended to my throat and bronchial tubes and finally even my stomach and liver became affected, but as I was able to keep up and do a day's work I let it run along until my hearing began to fail me and then I realized that I must get rid of catarrh or lose my position as I was clerk and my hearing was absolutely necessary.

"Some of my friends recommended an inhaler, another a catarrh salve, but they were no good in my case, nor was anything else until I heard of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and bought a package at my store. They benefited me from the start and in less than four months I was completely cured of catarrh although I had suffered nearly all my life from it.

"They are pleasant to take and so much more convenient to use than other catarrh remedies, that I feel I cannot say enough in favor of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets."

A little book on cause and cure of catarrh will be mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich., and the tablets are sold by all druggists in the United States and Canada.

Lyndhurst Fair A Failure.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Lyndhurst, Oct. 4

The Lyndhurst Agricultural Fair that gave such a fine promise of being a grand success, was a dismal failure. The people showed their interest by increased membership and making more than 800 entries above any previous year. The rain is responsible for the financial failure. It rained hard all that morning and did not show any signs of clearing up till the afternoon. The gate receipts were $63.00. There may be a brighter outlook next time.

The farmers will have a poor crop of potatoes on account of the rot.

The grain is turning out well.

WEAK BACK AND SPINAL PAINS.

Pains in the back number their victims in thousands. Only very powerful and penetrating remedies will reach these distressing complaints, but Polson's Nerviline is as sure to cure them as anything in this world can be sure. Rub Nerviline over the sore parts night and morning, and see how quickly it drives out the pain. Five times stronger than any other. Good for internal and external use. Large bottles, 25c.

BRONCHIAL AFFECTIONS, coughs, and colds, all quickly cured by Pyny-Balsam. It has no equal. Acts promptly, soothes, heals and cures. Manufactured by the proprietors of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer.

Suits FOR Young Men

For the young fellows who are nearly men, but who are a mighty sight more particular than most men—those young fellows who knows what's what when it comes to the shape of a coat or the hang of the trousers—for those exacting young fellows we have provided a larger variety in Suits than heretofore They've encouraged us to do so, because they are always looking to us for everything that's fashionable and snappy. And then they appreciate the efforts we take in fitting their clothes.

$5 to $15.

Come, look them over. If you want to know what's going to be worn come in and take a look at them. They won't cost you anything.

THE JUSTICE MILL

An Indian Drunk.

Joshua Brant, an Indian, was charged with being intoxicated. Joshua admitted the soft impeachment, but was mum when asked where he obtained the fire water, a flask of which was found on him when arrested. It cost the aborigine $2 to make his peace with the law. He paid the fine, but lost the flask.

Michael on his Muscle.

Michael McLaughlin is a stranger in Belleville. Yesterday, in his attempts to become better acquainted, he indulged in the pleasures of the flowing bowl. Then he began to step high and use unparliamentary language. As might be expected, this led to a clash with the law, and when Michael faced the Magistrate this morning his name appeared on the police blotter coupled with a charge of drunk and disorderly. The prisoner had his breath with him and couldn't prove an alibi, but, it being his first offence, he got off with a fine of $2 or ten days.

Insulting Language.

John Hurst was accused of using insulting language to his brother, Patrick. The defendant being unable to appear, the case was enlarged until Monday.

Drunk.

Thos. Hughes, who is a veteran of the North West Rebellion and South African War, was picked up on the street in an intoxicated condition. He was sent up on the hill for 30 days, in order to get sobered up.

RECITAL AT ALBERT

The opening of the new pipe organ in Massey Hall, Albert College, last night, was the occasion of one of the most pleasing and high-class entertainments ever given in the College. The opening of this organ begins a new epoch in the musical history of the College, adds another improvement and scores another success in the many steps in advance made since the erection of Massey Hall.

In his opening remarks Dr. Dyer contrasted the old days of the wood stoves and crowded class-rooms with the present days of steam heating, electric lighting and large, well-ventilated lecture rooms. The organ is but a natural result of the policy of progress and development of the past few years, and those who listened last evening to the rich mellow notes of the organ, felt that this recent addition to the equipment of the College was one of the most important of recent years.

Regarding the programme itself, it would be useless to specify where all were of the highest order of merit. Miss Wheler, the new vocalist of the College, and Miss Trotter, the teacher of elocution, showed that they were artists in their respective departments of the highest rank. Especially should Miss Wheler's rendition of "The Sands of Dee," and Miss Trotter's interpretation of "Hagar," be referred to.

The programme consisted of organ solos, played by Prof. Hunt himself and two promising pupils, Misses Frances Sharwood and Gerty Timmerman; readings by Miss Trotter, the instructor in elocution; songs by Misses Marie Wheler and Mabel Vermilyea, and a selection by the ever-welcome Bridge St. Church quartette, Misses Wheler and Wilson, Messrs. Vermilyea and Burns. There was not a weak number on the programme, everybody was in fine form and deserved a bouquet. Perhaps, in justice, the quartette ought to get an extra large one.

Public Meeting.

A Public meeting will be held at Madoc on TUESDAY, OCT. 15TH, at 2 p.m., for a discussion for and against a Government bounty on arsenic and for the selection of a delegation to interview the Governments at Ottawa and Toronto. Mining men and others from all parts of the district are urged to be present.

Civic Committees Met

BUSINESS CONSISTED CHIEFLY OF PASSING ACCOUNTS.

The various Civic Committees met last evening, the following members being present: Mayor Graham, Aldermen Bogart, Grills, Doyle, Panter, Harris, McFee, Latimer and Denmark. The business transacted consisted largely in the passing of accounts.

PUBLIC WORKS.

Ald. Harris, chairman, presided over this Committee.

The following accounts were passed:

Pay Sheet No. 20	$ 267.08
J. W. Walker	146.05
N. McDonald	18.30
F. McDonald	5.00
J. Graham	42.70

Thos. Blaind	1.25
W. G. Wright	1.75
P. Milne	20.25
J. St. Charles Omnibus Co.	12.70
M. H. Clarke	4.85

The Government signified its intention to build a granolithic walk in the gangway leading from Bridge St. to the market, on the west side of the Post Office, the same is to be built under the superintendence of the City Surveyor.

Plans and specifications are to be prepared for the building of a sewer on Victoria avenue, from John street to Front street, and tenders will be asked for same.

Ald. Harris and the Surveyor were instructed to see about repairing the granolithic walk in Front street in front of Mayor Graham's.

FIRE, WATER AND LIGHT.

Ald. McFee, chairman, presided.

The accounts passed were as follows:

Gas Co	$ 8.25
McCoy Bros.	3.00
W. H. McGregor	2.30
Trenton Electric & Water Co.	287.19

MARKET AND CITY PROPERTY.

This Committee was presided over by the Chairman, Ald. Panter. The accounts passed were:

J. Mulyea	$ 1.50
W. McGie	.55
Gas Co.	28.80

The chairman and Ald. Doyle were appointed a Committee to see about one new furnace for the City building. They were given power to act in the matter.

PARKS.

Ald. Bogart, chairman, presided. The only business transacted was the passing of three accounts, namely:

J. Tuft	$ 4.50
E. McGrath	15.00
J. Mulyea	11.00

EXECUTIVE.

Ald. Doyle, chairman, presided.

The accounts passed by the other Committees were endorsed and an account of the Bell Telephone Company, amounting to $2.78, was also passed. The Committees then adjourned.

FURS.

Having completed my annual stock of furs and secured the services of a first-class cutter, I am now prepared to fill all orders PROMPTLY, and will also keep in stock samples of my own manufacture. All work and goods guaranteed.—M. H. HERBERT, residence Charlotte St., west of Commercial. Hours 10 to 12, and 2 to 6.

Sports and Pastimes.

BASEBALL.

Frankford Defeats Victorias.

The Frankford baseball team, with the assistance of Young and Elliott, a battery from Kingston, succeeded yesterday afternoon in administering a defeat to the Victoria team of this city. The game was played at the Driving Park, and a goodly number assembled to witness it. At the conclusion of the game the score was 14 to 8 in favor of Frankford. For the first three innings a Mr. Ostrom, of Frankford, was umpire, but his decisions were such that he had to be displaced in order to have the game continued, and Mr. Gallagher, also of that place, was substituted. The latter made an impartial umpire. At the start the visitors took a decided lead and maintained it to the end. The players were:

The score by innings was as follows:

Victorias	0	0	0	0	0	1	3	3	1	8

would be a justifiable cry directed against the countless humbugs that offer a cure for Catarrh. There is only one scientific method of treatment for Catarrh. Make the air you breathe the carrier of healing, balsamic, curative agents. It bathes every inch of mucous membranes with its healing, soothing properties. That's Catarrhozone. Your druggist or doctor will tell you it's the only effective method of treatment and that it is sure—prompt—permanent. Remember the name, Catarrhozone. All dealers, 25c. and $1.00.

The Grand Sacred Concert in Bridge St. Church, Friday, Oct. 11th, under the direction of Mr. V. P. Hunt, will give the citizens an opportunity of again hearing Harold Jarvis, the magnificent tenor, who created such a sensation in the City Hall last spring. The concert will be given in the large auditorium, so that there will be plenty of room for the large audience which will undoubtedly greet this our greatest Canadian singer. The tickets are only 25 cents, and ticket holders will be admitted by side door up to 7.45 o'clock. Tickets may be procured at Mr. W. B. Riggs' music store, and also at Oak Hall. Programmes will be issued in a few days. 1t

COLLISION ON G. T. R.

TWO FREIGHT TRAINS COME TOGETHER — NO PERSON SERIOUSLY HURT.

A head-on collision between two freight trains occurred at 5.30 this morning on the line of the G.T.R. at Clay Cliff, about two miles west of Port Hope. Although both trains came together with considerable force, the remarkable part was that no person was seriously injured. Engine No. 936 was on the east bound train, the engineer being T. Sanderson, of York. The west bound train was hauled by engine No. 932, the engineer being J. Newman, of Toronto. As a result of the accident the two engines and a number of cars of both trains were derailed, blocking the track. Word was as soon as possible sent in here and the auxiliary despatched to the scene. On the west bound train was a car of horses, some of which were injured.

The wreck was a serious one, entailing considerable loss to the company. How the accident came to occur has not yet been determined. The road was blocked for some hours.

Regimental Parade.

The Fifteenth Regiment paraded last night, with both bands. There was a fairly good turn-out. The men were marched to the Hospital lot, by way of Church St., where they were drilled in battalion movements. The return to the Armory was made by way of Queen Victoria Avenue to Front St., thence by Bridge St. to the Drill Shed. The Band, under the leadership of Bandmaster Denmark, played excellent marching time. To-morrow morning there will be a Church parade to Christ Church.

A STEAMBOAT RACE

IT IS ALLEGED THAT ONE TOOK PLACE ABOUT THE MIDDLE OF LAST MONTH.

Picton Gazette; On Wednesday, Sept. 16th, the steamers Varuna and Aletha had a very exciting race on their return to Trenton, from the Napanee Fair. Both boats left Napanee about the same time, but Aletha won in the Napanee, River, owing to the deep draught of the Varuna, which prevented her running fast. The former accordingly arrived at Deseronto first. The Varuna left Deseronto a short distance behind the Aletha, which took a straight course to Belleville, while she had to call at Northport to load some freight and discharge a number of her large crowd of passengers, which took some time. She left Northport for Belleville, and gained on her rival, who was now a long distance ahead, quite a bit, for she reached that city only a short distance behind her. Great speed was observed by the crews of both boats, in discharging their passengers and other duties, and both boats left Belleville about the same time, for a 12-mile heat to Trenton. The Varuna, however, won out, and reached Trenton almost ten minutes ahead of the Aletha. This is considered fast running for the Varuna, as she had a broken wheel. This will settle the long-awaited fact as to which is the faster boat.

THE JUSTICE MILL

An Indian Drunk.

Joshua Brant, an Indian, was charged with being intoxicated. Joshua admitted the soft impeachment, but was mum when asked where he obtained the fire water, a flask of which was found on him when arrested. It cost the aborigine $2 to make his peace with the law. He paid the fine, but lost the flask.

Michael on his Muscle.

Michael McLaughlin is a stranger in Belleville. Yesterday, in his attempts to become better acquainted, he indulged in the pleasures of the flowing bowl. Then he began to step high and use unparliamentary language. As might be expected, this led to a clash with the law, and when Michael faced the Magistrate this morning his name appeared on the police blotter coupled with a charge of drunk and disorderly. The prisoner had his breath with him and couldn't prove an alibi, but, it being his first offence, he got off with a fine of $2 or ten days.

Insulting Language.

John Hurst was accused of using insulting language to his brother, Patrick. The defendant being unable to appear, the case was enlarged until Monday.

Drunk.

Thos. Hughes, who is a veteran of the North West Rebellion and South African War, was picked up on the street in an intoxicated condition. He was sent up on the hill for 30 days, in order to get sobered up.

RECITAL AT ALBERT

The opening of the new pipe organ in Massey Hall, Albert College, last night, was the occasion of one of the most pleasing and high-class entertainments ever given in the College. The opening of this organ begins a new epoch in the musical history of the College, adds another improvement and scores another success in the many steps in advance made since the erection of Massey Hall.

In his opening remarks Dr. Dyer contrasted the old days of the wood stoves and crowded class-rooms with the present days of steam heating, electric lighting and large, well-ventilated lecture rooms. The organ is but a natural result of the policy of progress and development of the past few years, and those who listened last evening to the rich mellow notes of the organ, felt that this recent addition to the equipment of the College was one of the most important of recent years.

Regarding the programme itself, it would be useless to specify where all were of the highest order of merit. Miss Wheler, the new vocalist of the College, and Miss Trotter, the teacher of elocution, showed that they were artists in their respective departments of the highest rank. Especially should Miss Wheler's rendition of "The Sands of Dee," and Miss Trotter's interpretation of "Hagar," be referred to.

The programme consisted of organ solos, played by Prof. Hunt himself and two promising pupils, Misses Frances Sharwood and Gerty Timmerman; readings by Miss Trotter, the instructor in elocution; songs by Misses Marie Wheler and Mabel Vermilyea, and a selection by the ever-welcome Bridge St. Church quartette, Misses Wheler and Wilson, Messrs. Vermilyea and Burns. There was not a weak number on the programme, everybody was in fine form and deserved a bouquet. Perhaps, in justice, the quartette ought to get an extra large one.

Public Meeting.

A Public meeting will be held at Madoc on TUESDAY, OCT. 15TH, at 2 p.m., for a discussion for and against a Government bounty on arsenic and for the selection of a delegation to interview the Governments at Ottawa and Toronto. Mining men and others from all parts of the district are urged to be present.

Who Knows J M. Honey?

Mr. J. T. Osborne, Secretary of Mizpah Lodge, I.O.O.F., received the following telegram this afternoon;

Morriston, Tenn., Oct 5.

J. M. Honey died at Middlesboro Ky., this morning. Notify his sister and daughter; names unknown. Wire me instructions; quick answer.

JNO. M. WOOTEN.

The "Black Knight's" Denial

Rev. J. H. Hector, the negro lecturer, is at Winnipeg. A reporter asked him if the story which appeared in a Belleville paper was true, to the effect that he was the man who had first struck Czolgosz after he had shot President McKinley. Mr. Hector drew himself up to his full height, stretched out a burly chest, and doubled up a fist that looked capable of knocking sense into a cigarette fiend. Taking a deep breath, he said: "This," shaking his fist, "is the arm that did not do the act." Then in a more pacific tone of voice, "I was two hundred miles away at the time, and never made any statement of that kind."

DEATHS.

POWER.—In Belleville, on Friday, Oct. 4th, 1901, James Walter Power, aged 6 years 9 months and 19 days. Funeral at 2.30 on Sunday afternoon from Dominion Hotel.

BIRTH.

AUSTIN.—At Sarnia Tunnel, Ontario, on the 29th Sept. last, the wife of John B. Austin, of the G.T.R., of a son.

An investment in a policy of life insurance is far preferable to deposits in a Savings Bank. They both accumulate interests and take care of deposits, but the life company does more, it provides for the payment of a larger sum in case of the death of the depositor. S. Burrows, General Agent, The Mutual Life of Canada.

Frankford Defeats Victorias.

The Frankford baseball team, with the assistance of Young and Elliott, a battery from Kingston, succeeded yesterday afternoon in administering a defeat to the Victoria team of this city. The game was played at the Driving Park, and a goodly number assembled to witness it. At the conclusion of the game the score was 14 to 8 in favor of Frankford. For the first three innings a Mr. Ostrom, of Frankford, was umpire, but his decisions were such that he had to be displaced in order to have the game continued, and Mr. Gallagher, also of that place, was substituted. The latter made an impartial umpire. At the start the visitors took a decided lead and maintained it to the end. The players were:

The score by innings was as follows:

Victorias	0	0	0	0	0	1	3	3	1	8

(Signed), T. S. McINTEE.

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung and throat troubles, there is no preparation of medicine can compare with Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to afford prompt and permanent relief. It removes all soreness, and heals the diseased parts. It immediately soothes the most troublesome cough, and by promoting expectoration, removes the mucus which stops up the air tubes which causes difficulty in breathing, thereby gives relief to that depressing tightness experienced in the chest. Public speakers and singers will find Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup of inestimable value, as it speedily and effectually allays all irritation, and huskiness in the throat and bronchial tubes, and gives power to the vocal cords, rendering the voice clear and sonorous. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of "Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup," and whenever a child has taken cold, has a cough or hoarseness, give the Syrup according to directions.

Shamrock 2 Sec. Ahead

the beat home the breeze moderated and turned fluky. The skippers split tacks, each searching for wind, with the result that first one would get a lift and then the other. At one time Columbia seemed a mile ahead, when a sudden slant of the wind allowed the Shamrock to point nearer the mark, and a mile from home the challenger appeared to be leading by fully half a mile. The home talent began to feel nervous, but as the yachts approached the finish the canny Scotchman, Barr, by some miraculous legerdemain, shoved his Yankee boat into the light air like a phantom ship, and 100 yards from home the two racers were almost on even terms. It was a pretty sight, and one seldom witnessed, when they crossed, rail to rail, the white yacht's bowsprit just lapping the golden boat's mast.

While taking his defeat gamely, Sir Thomas Lipton made no attempt to conceal his honest disappointment when he talked about the race last night on the Erin.

Sir Thomas Disappointed.

"I am very much disappointed," he said. "I can't hide that. I thought within 15 minutes of the finish that we had won. I was sure as my life that we had won. When I looked around the situation had changed and we had lost. It was a hard blow to be winning and then lose. I should like to get one race just by way of consolation. It is a very hard thing to be beaten by a breath, by a few beats of the pulse. It has been a severe strain on me. I have worked so hard for many months now, and I am glad it is over. To have won would have been a joy greater than to-day's disappointment. Columbia's win to-day was fair and square and honorable. There is nothing to protest, if I wanted to protest. In fact, I have a feeling in my heart that, if there had been any error in judgment at all, it would have been in my failure. If there had been any possibility of choice in the matter, I believe the New York Yacht Club would have given me the race. Sometimes a man may have the better boat, but even having it must have a wee bit of luck to win. I am very grieved, indeed, very grieved, and," he added, "I should like to have won one race."

Hardly had the Erin's anchors touched bottom, when a launch from the Corsair came alongside, bearing the Regatta Committee of the New York Yacht Club. Sir Thomas met them at the head of the gangway, and as he shook hands with them individually, he said: "Gentlemen, it was a fair beat. I want to say again that you have treated me with the utmost fairness and courtesy. You have met every wish of mine, and from my heart I thank you."

Commodore Lewis Cass Ledyard, chairman of the New York Yacht Club Regatta Committee, replied; "Sir Thomas, we have never had a truer sportsman to deal with."

Many of Sir Thomas' guests on board the Erin crowded around to express their sympathy at his defeat, and assured him of the high place he had won in the hearts of all Americans.

"When a man wins a heart he has won more than a cup," said one of them.

There were tears in the Irish baronet's eyes when he thanked them for their kind words. Said he: "The words you have spoken touch me far more than my defeat to-day. I tried to win the cup, and I have done my best. But, better than all that, I have the good wishes of this country."

Too Early for Future Plans.

When asked about his plans for the future, Sir Thomas said: "It is too early to talk about any plans. About the Shamrock, I cannot decide yet what I shall do, and, as to challenging again, it is too soon to think about it."

Columbia Behind at First Turn.

Shamrock	12.48.46
Columbia	12.49.35

Shamrock Ahead at the Finish.

Shamrock	3.33.38
Columbia	3.33.40

Corrected Time.

Shamrock	4.33.38
Columbia	4.32.57

SWAP YACHT CREWS.

Suggestion That an Interesting Question May Be Solved.

London, Oct. 5.—There is feeling of supreme disappointment in London over the failure of the Shamrock II. to win even a single race. Those who denounced Sir Thomas Lipton's ambition asserting that he was using his yacht to advance his business interests, now realize that his sportsmanlike efforts deserved a better result. The question is much debated here as to whether the defeat of the challenger was due to the superiority of American seamanship or the better constructive abilities of the American. With a view of settling the question the Daily Express has cabled Commodore Morgan and Sir Thomas Lipton suggesting they should arrange a race with the Columbia's crew on board the Shamrock II. and the crew of the challenger on board the defender.

AUTUMN RHEUMATISM CUTS OFF THOUSANDS OF VICTIMS.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

BANISHES PAIN AND AGONY AND CURES PERMANENTLY.

Why suffer the excruciating pains of rheumatism and allow yourself to become crippled and useless when thousands of others are banishing the terrors of the disease by the use of Paine's Celery Compound?

The wonderful cures effected by Paine's Celery Compound for almost incurable sufferers must be known to you. Your friends and neighbors can tell you of many rescues from suffering and death after use of the great compound. Your physician, if he is honest with you, will recommend its use. Past failures with other medicines should not utterly discourage you or cause you to think that Paine's Celery Compound is no better than the many medicines you have used.

Paine's Celery Compound is the true and only specific for every form of rheumatism; it cannot disappoint you if you give it a trial. Do not allow any dealer to suggest a substitute for Paine's Celery Compound. Substituting is practised by dishonest dealers for the reason that other medicines pay larger profits than Paine's Celery Compound. Mrs. Elizabeth King, Cedar Hill, Victoria, B.C., says:

"I have been troubled with rheumatism all my life, and about eight years ago I had a very severe attack, almost losing the use of my right arm. A friend recommended the use of Paine's Celery Compound, and kindly gave me a bottle. I was so much benefitted by that one bottle that I took three more, and was quite cured. Since then it has been almost my only medicine for all the ailments that I experience from time to time, and all my family have found some benefit from it. I am sixty-five years of age, I live on a farm, get up early in the morning, and am equal to a good day's work."

The other survivor of the Asia was Miss Morrison of Meaford, a passenger.

Sampson to Be Summoned.

Washington, Oct. 5.—In the Schley naval court of inquiry yesterday, Mr. Rayner, chief counsel for Admiral Schley, asked Judge Advocate Lemly to summon Admiral Sampson as a witness in the case. The request grew out of a difference in the construction of a sentence in Admiral Sampson's letter to Commodore Schley, written from Key West, May 20, while Commodore Schley was with the flying squadron lying off Cienfuegos.

This is known as the "Dear Schley" letter and in it, as printed in the Navy Department documents, supplied to the Senate, the Admiral said, after expressing his opinion that, notwithstanding the report that the Spanish squadron was in Santiago, it were better to continue to blockade Cienfuegos and Havana. "We shall continue to hold Havana and Santiago until we receive more positive information."

DUKE NOW AT POPLAR POINT

Has Been Joined by His Excellency Lord Minto.

Distinguished Party in Excellent Spirits and Looking Forward to Enjoying Good Sport—Ducks Will Be Shot From Canoes—Headquarters at Shooting Lodge on the Shore of Lake Manitoba—Royal Party Starts East Tuesday.

Poplar Point, Man., Oct. 7.—The royal train conveying His Royal Highness the Duke of Cornwall and York and suite arrived here about 11 o'clock yesterday morning and was received by Senator Kirchhoffer and Lord Minto, Governor-General of Canada, who had arrived to meet the party. The distinguished guests are in excellent spirits and looking forward with great anticipation to enjoying the shooting at Lake Manitoba. The shooting party consists of His Highness the Duke, Prince Alexander of Teck, Lord Crichton, Commander Godfrey Faussett, Sir Charles Cust, and Major Maude.

After luncheon on the train Senator Kirchhoffer and his guests drove out to the lake, a distance of about 12 miles. On arrival at the landing a fleet of canoes were ready to convey the guests to the shooting lodge, which is a five miles paddle across the marsh slough. The canoe conveying the Duke of York was guided by John Atkinson, premier guide of Lake Manitoba shooting grounds, with Lord Minto in the bow, the other boats forming a fleet of honor. The party reached the shooting lodge about 5 o'clock. Elaborate preparations had been made for their entertainment there which highly delighted the guests. The country is wild in the extreme, but the site selected for the shooting lodge is an ideal spot, and has the appearance of a shooting box. Outbuildings and a group of tents made a very pretty picture. The weather is perfect, and as game, particularly the ducks, are plentiful, there are prospects of a splendid outing. All the shooting will be done from canoes, and the sportsmen will be on hand in good time in the morning to catch the early flight of the birds.

Amongst those assisting Senator Kirchhoffer in the entertainment of his guests are the well known Winnipeggers, George J. Galt, Percy Galt and "Tip" Halliwell of Brandon, all of whom are expert duck hunters, and whose intimate knowledge of the country will be of great service to the party. Shortly after the arrival at lodge, dinner was served, and the remainder of the day was spent in a quiet inspection of the lodge and its surroundings. The party will remain at the shooting box until Tuesday and will in that time have plenty of opportunity of securing a large bag of game. They will entrain at Poplar Point at 2 o'clock Tuesday, reaching Winnipeg about 4 p.m. Sir Wilfrid Laurier left the party there and will remain in Winnipeg until Tuesday as the guest of Lieutenant-Governor McMillan and Senator Watson.

Duchess Leaves Banff.

Banff, N.W.T., Oct. 7.—The Duchess of Cornwall left here at 9 o'clock Saturday night for Poplar Point, Man., where on Tuesday she will rejoin the Duke. Yesterday morning, in company with the Countess Minto, she attended special services at St. George's Mission, and later drove to Devil's Lake and the buffalo and elk paddock in the National Park. She also visited the geyser caves and sulphur pools. She was so greatly interested in the Rockies and Selkirks that she purchased a collection of paintings of them, and also carried away a large number of souvenirs. The entire local population were at the depot when the royal special pulled out, and when the Duchess was leaving they gave a hearty cheer.

Lord Minto Meets Duke.

Winnipeg, Oct. 7.—The Earl of Minto, accompanied by Capt. Bell, A. D. C., and his private secretary, Arthur F. Sladen, arrived from the East by Saturday's Imperial Limited on the private car Metapedia. His Excellency's visit West is of a strictly private character and he was not met at the station by any one. Lord Minto meets the Duke at Poplar Point for a duck hunt. The royal and vice-regal parties commence their homeward trip Tuesday afternoon.

A Letter for the Duke.

Toronto, Oct. 7.—A letter lies at the General Postoffice bearing the King's seal and addressed to the Duke of York. It came last night. It may contain warrants for additional honors for Canadians.

HON. N. CLARKE WALLACE.

He Is Very Ill, and Physician Is Using Chloride of Sodium.

Toronto, Oct. 7.—Hon. N. Clarke Wallace passed a very bad night on Saturday. His condition was so critical that his physician, Dr. King, stayed near him all night, and the nurse in attendance found his respiration so weak at times as to think that the end was near. On Sunday morning he appeared much better. His mind was clearer and he was able to recognize Mr. Tighe, a friend from Montreal, who had called to see him. On Sunday night he was weaker again, and could not collect his thoughts sufficiently to tell Dr. King what he wanted, but at 8 o'clock was not as weak as on Saturday night. His physicians are injecting chloride of sodium into his veins with the hope of changing the condition of his blood.

The King Looks Well

Aberdeen, Oct. 7.—Notwithstanding the very stormy weather and the fact that King Edward was indisposed last week, His Majesty and Queen Alexandra attended divine service yesterday at Crathie Church. The King looked exceedingly well.

Prisoners Sentenced.

Toronto, Oct. 7.—Judge McDougall on Saturday passed sentence on the prisoners convicted at the sittings, the heavier sentences being as follows: Edward Renison, incest, seven years; John Madison, house-breaking, 5 years; Louis McCurdy, robbery with violence, 5 years; Austin Budd, robbery, with violence, 5 years; Sanford Johnston, uttering counterfeit money, 18 months.

Severe Storm in Britain.

London, Oct. 7.—A furious gale raged yesterday over Great Britain, the Channel, the North Sea and Belgium. Several fatalities on land are reported as the result of falling trees. Slight casualties at sea are also reported. There was a water spout near Calais. Telegraphic and telephonic communication was generally interrupted.

For the Children

TO KEEP THEIR DIGESTION PERFECT NOTHING IS SO SAFE AND PLEASANT AS STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS.

Thousands of men and women have found Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the safest and most reliable preparation for any form of indigestion or stomach trouble.

Thousands of people who are not sick, but are well and wish to keep well take Stuart's Tablets after every

But it is not generally known that the Tablets are just as good and wholesome for little folks as for their elders.

Little children who are pale, thin and have no appetite, or do not grow or thrive, should use the tablets after eating and will derive great benefit from them.

Mrs. G. H. Crotsley, 538 Washington St., Hoboken, New Jersey, writes: "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets just fill the bill for children as well as for older folks. I've had the best of luck with them. My three-year-old girl takes them as readily as candy. I have only to say 'tablets' and she drops everything else and runs for them."

A Buffalo mother, a short time ago, who despaired of the life of her babe, was so delighted with the results from giving the child these tablets that she went before the notary public of Erie Co., N.Y., and made the following affidavit:

Gentlemen,—Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets were recommended to me for my two-months-old baby, which was sick and puny and the doctors said was suffering from indigestion. I took the child to the hospital, but there found no relief. A friend mentioned the Stuart Tablets and I procured a box from my druggist and used only the large sweet lozenges in the box and was delighted to find they were just the thing for my baby. I feel justified in saying that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets saved my child's life.

MRS. W. T. DETHLOPE.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day of April, 1897.
HENRY KARIS,
Notary Public in and for Erie Co., N.Y.

For babies, no matter how young or delicate, the tablets will accomplish wonders in increasing flesh, appetite and growth. Use only the large sweet tablets in every box. Full sized boxes are sold by all druggists for 50 cents, and no parent should neglect the use of this safe remedy for all stomach and bowel troubles if the child is ailing in any way regarding its food or assimilation.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been known for years for the best preparation for all stomach troubles whether in adults or infants.

Boer Attacks Were Repulsed

General Smith's Cammando Turned From Grahamstown.

Mysterious Shooting in Toronto—Student's Death a Mystery—Duke Now at Poplar Point—Kidnappers Arrested in Philadelphia—Clarke Wallace's Condition.

Cape Town, Oct. 6.—Gen. Smith's commando, which went south toward Grahamstown some days ago, has now turned west and is being closely pursued by Col. Gorringe and other British columns.

About 180 Boers, a portion of Theron's commando, attacked Heidelberg West yesterday. Fifty of them galloped over the bridge into the main street, while the remainder fired from the river. The defenders, who numbered only 26 soldiers steadily replied from the sandbag fort and roof of the hotel. The Boers with and roof of the hotel. The Boers withdrew after two hours' firing, leaving one man fatally wounded. They did not loot the stores.

German Sympathy for Boers.

Berlin, Oct. 7.—The Lokal Anzeiger yesterday closes an article on the prospects of the Boers: "Who wants to blame the brave Boers for hoping, notwithstanding the non-interference of the Powers, in their final success? The Americans fought for eight years, often under unfavorable conditions, before the English yoke was shaken off. The independence of the Boer States is not yet lost."

Dr. Leyds to See Kruger.

Loss in South Africa.

London, Oct. 6.—An official report issued on Saturday shows that the British casualties in South Africa from the beginning of the war to Sept. 30, were 548 officers and 5,823 men killed in action, and 1,520 officers and 28,032 men wounded; 365 officers and 9,177 men are classified as missing or prisoners, of whom 354 officers and 8,471 men have either been released or have escaped. The deaths from disease and accidents numbered 10,738.

Major Blair Wounded.

Kingston, Oct. 7.—Major Blair, D. S.O., with Col. Kekewich's command, in South Africa, was wounded in the late engagement. He is not seriously hurt. He is a brother-in-law of E. Walter Rathbun of Deseronto.

KIDNAPPERS ARRESTED,

Prominent Philadelphians Charged With a Daring Crime.

Philadelphia, Oct. 7.—Four men—Howard K. Sloan, an unemployed reporter; Henry Wallace, society editor of one of the morning papers; J. Knight Findlay, stenographer, and O. S. Dunlap, a barber—were arrested yesterday on a charge of kidnapping Mrs. Mabel Goodrich, robbing her of her jewels worth $2,000, and compelling her to sign cheques for all the money she had deposited in the bank. Mrs. Goodrich was invited to go for a drive by a young man who had been a frequent caller at her establishment, and she consented. At a lonely place in Fairmount Park another man, who represented himself as an officer of the Law and Order Society, stopped the carriage and told Mrs. Goodrich he had a warrant for her arrest. She was invited out of the rig, and the next moment the woman was gagged and blindfolded and driven to a house, she did not know where, and kept there several days. The police have been working on the case since Monday, and finally got a clue, which led to the arrest of Findlay, who admitted his connection with the crime, and implicated the others. The punishment for kidnapping is life imprisonment.

THE CARLISTS.

Cerbere, Oct. 7.—The Carlist agitation keeps constantly increasing.

The Spanish Government became aware of it only after the Carlist chiefs had already disappeared.

News received from a good source states that the movement will break out in Berga and other localities in the mountains, which are hotbeds of Carlism.

The arrival of the Carlist generals with instructions from Don Carlos is expected for a meeting, which will take place Wednesday. The authorities have taken the necessary precautions.

The Carlists are in possession of 20,000 rifles, which have been brought in from time to time by smugglers.

The Carlists will carry on guerilla tactics. It is stated that the insurrection will break out before the proclamation of the majority of Alphonse XIII. The authorities are aware of what is going on, but forbid the publication of any news.

King's Visit to Ireland.

Dublin, Oct. 7.—The Freemasons' Journal asserts that King Edward and Queen Alexandra will arrive in Dublin to attend the next Punchestown races, and will remain a fortnight in Ireland, visiting Lord Londonderry and the Duke of Abercorn, and going to the City of Belfast. Their Majesties, however, will not go into the south of Ireland.

London Anarchists Meet.

London, Oct. 7.—A fairly numerous meeting of Anarchists was held yesterday in a hall in Tottenham, Court road, London, to hear a lecture on the assassination of President McKinley by H. Hellyn of New York. The audience, largely composed of foreigners, applauded all reference to "Saint" Czolgosz and his "meritorious" act.

WILL TAP GREAT NORTHERN.

Emerson, Man., Oct. 7.—There is great interest here over the movements of the Canadian Northern Railway. As is well known, the system being originally part of the Northern Pacific, it has always been run in connection with the Northern Pacific. Ever since the road was taken over by Mackenzie & Mann, since the Northern Pacific refused to make any arrangement satisfactory to the Canadian Northern people for the handling of Manitoba business from the boundary to Duluth, the latter people have been casting about for another outlet, and now it appears that an arrangement has been made with the Great Northern.

A few days ago a line was laid out from the Canadian Northern near here to connect with Mr. Hill's road at the boundary. Grading will be pushed forward with all speed, and the connection established as soon as possible. The old iron bridge over the Red River here has passed into the control of the Canadian Northern, and is now being rebuilt and put in shape for a railway traffic bridge. It appears to be that the Manitoba Government had the control of this bridge, because the province had guaranteed the bonds which paid for it. The Government seems to have handed the bridge over to the railway company for the purpose indicated above. The establishment of the connection with the Great Northern road is doubtless intended as an important feature of the business of Mackenzie & Mann's system.

SOUTH ONTARIO.

Conservatives Tender Mr. Charles Calder the Unanimous Nomination.

Whitby, Oct. 7.—Charles Calder of Brooklin was on Saturday tendered the unanimous nomination of the Conservatives of South Ontario for the Ontario Legislature. He asked time to consider and the convention adjourned till the call of the executive.

There was a good gathering of the party supporters in the council chamber and splendid speeches were given by T. W. H. Leavitt, J. J. Foy, K. C., M.P.P., Dr. Beattie Nesbitt and J. W. St. John, T. E. Kaiser of Oshawa, president of the association, was in the chair.

West Victoria Liberals.

Lindsay, Oct. 7.—West Victoria Liberals met in convention here on Saturday. The attendance was large and representative. Senator G. McHugh, R. J. McLaughlin, Thomas Stewart, James Graham, D. R. Anderson, Newton Smale, Dr. Herriman, F. C. Taylor, Dr. McKay and a host of others were proposed and addressed the meeting on current political topics. The convention unanimously decided in favor of Mr. Newton Smale of Ops, a popular young farmer, brother of Dr. Smale of Toronto. All the others withdrew in his favor.

Railway Will Be Tied Up.

Reading, Pa., Oct. 7.—The Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes on Saturday night ordered a strike on the entire system of the United Traction Company, covering 60 miles of track.

Black Damp in the Mines.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 7.—So much black damp has been found in the Extension mines that the work of reopening the mine and continuing the search for the bodies had to be stopped.

The Jolly Girl

Often changes to the jaded woman. "I can't see what's come over Mary; she used to be such a jolly girl," was the remark of a young woman visiting a married schoolmate. Marriage changes a woman. The drains and pains which are so often the sequence of marriage rob her of all vitality. Give her back her former strength and she'll be as "jolly" a wife as she was a maid. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription gives back the lost strength by re-establishing the health of the delicate womanly organs. It dries the drains and stops the pains. It cures ulceration, inflammation and female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"For two years I had been a sufferer from chronic disease and female weakness," writes Mrs. Allen A. Dobson, of 1125 Rodman Street, Philadelphia, Pa. "I had two different doctors and they gave me medicine which only relieved me for a time. My niece advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I concluded that to open a correspondence with you for your advice would be safest, so I did, and have been highly benefited. I find that after taking 4 bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and five of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and following your advice in regard to local treatment, I am now a strong woman. Accept my sincere thanks for the interest manifested in my case and the happy results obtained."

A Shooting That Is Either an Accident or a Suicide.

Allan Gibbons Received Note From a Greek Letter Society, Toronto, Before His Death—Members Make Light of Matter—Refuse to Say What Might Have Happened at Meeting Place—Many Other Tragic Deaths.

Toronto, Oct. 7.—Allan Gibbons, the 17-year-old son of Mr. George C. Gibbons, K. C., of London, died early yesterday morning at the Emergency Hospital under such circumstances as to warrant Coroner N. A. Powell in communicating the facts to Crown Attorney Dewart. The cause of death was a bullet wound through the head inflicted by himself, but whether by accident or with suicidal intent is not known. Friends of the young man stick to the theory that he was probably handling the revolver, and that it exploded accidentally.

The physicians who were in attendance say there were no powder marks on the lad's face, showing that the pistol must have been held at least a foot from him. If he had intended to end his life they say he would have placed the barrel against his head. On the other hand there is a strong suspicion that the young man committed suicide.

The police have in their possession a circular which was found torn up in the room occupied by the young man, and which, they say, may explain why Gibbons would want to take his life.

This note was addressed to "Neophyte," and was written in green ink, bearing the insignia of the Alpha Delta Phi Greek Fraternal Society, carried on by students of Toronto University. It read: "Be at southeast corner of St. George and Dupont streets on the evening of Saturday, Oct. 5, at half-past 7 o'clock, and there await a summons. Fail not in this, and mention not this notice." The note was not signed, nor was it dated.

Gibbons was taken to the hospital in the police ambulance about 10 o'clock on Saturday night by Policeman Thomas Bustard. He was removed from the home of Mrs. Glass at 56 Murray street, where he had apartments, and where he had been discovered in an unconscious condition by some members of the Alpha Delta Phi, who had called to see him. They rapped at the door, and getting no response, one of the party climbed through the transom. Gibbons was found lying across the bed with his head in a pool of blood which flowed from a wound in the right temple. One arm hung over the edge of the bed and within a few inches of the hand was a 32-calibre hammerless Iver-Johnston revolver.

Mr. George C. Gibbons, father of the young man, reached the city on a special train from London at 4.30 a. m., and was present at the bedside when his son expired. The dead lad is survived by his parents, three sisters and one brother. Many visits were paid by him to the Alpha Delta Phi Chapel at 43 Murray street during his short stay in Toronto, but in an interview one of the young men high up in the order said it was utterly absurd to think that Gibbons committeed suicide through a dread of the initiation proceedings. On the suggestion that there might be an investigation into the circumstances leading up to the death of young Gibbons, he observed: "The boy's father is satisfied that there was nothing wrong and it is nobody else's business."

A Probable Suicide.

Guelph, Oct. 7.—A very sad fatality occurred at Acton station yesterday morning, the indications of which point to suicide. Rev. H. A. McPherson was walking back on the track to the station, when he came upon the decapitated body of a man, with arms crossed, lying on one side of the outer rails, and the head on the inner side of the rail. He recognized it as that of Mr. Fred. Glebe, miller.

It would seem, from the position in which the body was found, that the unfortunate man had fallen across the rail, or had deliberately laid his head across the rail behind the tender wheels, and in front of the baggage car wheels, and that his life was crushed out as soon as the train started. The trainmen did not know of what had happened until they reached Georgetown. Mr. Glebe was a practical miller and came to Acton last June from Mildmay, where he had been in the milling business with his brother-in-law. He bought the mill formerly run by the Cheyne brothers, and spent a good deal of money in putting it in good shape and in building a nice residence. He had been telling his acquaintances lately that he was discouraged because the return for this expenditure did not come in so quickly as he thought it should, and he was quite despondent. He was about 45 years of age and leaves a wife and three children.

Homer Pingle Found Dead.

Toronto, Oct. 7.—Homer Pingle, the well-known telegraph man, was found dead in bed in his room at 84 Wellesley street early Saturday morning, and the gas jet was turned full on. When found deceased had been dead for several hours, the body being cold. Deceased was 54 years of age, and leaves a widow, who at present is visiting in Ottawa. He was born at Unionville, and at an early age commenced in the telegraph business, in which he had engaged all his life. He was appointed manager of the Canada Mutual Telegraph Company, and when the Canadian Pacific Railway inaugurated their commercial telegraph system, 14 years ago, he associated himself with the latter. Two years later he was appointed superintendent of the Ontario division of the C. P. R. Telegraph Company. He retired from this office after 12 years' service, owing to ill-health. He was a member of Zetland Lodge, A. F. and A. M. and other organizations.

Killed by International Limited.

Lancaster, Oct. 7.—A most distressing accident, resulting in the loss of two lives, occurred at the railway crossing a mile west of this town Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, when the International Limited, running at a speed of from 50 to 60 miles an hour, struck a ve- Symons and daughter and Annie, Symons and daughter Annie, of the second concession of Charlottenburg. The victims of the accident were at the time on their way to Lancaster, and, seeing the approaching train, made every effort to pull up their horses, according to the story of an eye witness. The result was that the occupants of the buggy, which was smashed to pulpwood, were instantly killed. The remains were terribly mangled. The accident has caused a gloom in the town, intensified by the fact that Mr. Geo. Symons pre-deceased his wife and daughter but six months ago.

Body Found on the Rocks.

Niagara Falls, Oct. 7.—The body of Patrick Duher, an employe of the Merritton cotton mills, was found lying on the rocks at the base of the cliff on the Canadian side of the river, just south of the cantilever bridge, at 3.30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. There was a deep gash in the back of his head, and Dr. Eames, who was sent for, stated that the man had been dead about 12 hours. Duher had $4.60 in his pockets. Duher left Merritton Saturday morning to meet friends at the Pan-American. He was seen at the Windsor Hotel in the evening and said he had been to the Exhibition. He was alone and perfectly sober, and his death is believed to have been due to suicide or to foul play. Duher leaves one little daughter and an aged mother, who depended upon him for support. He was 36 years of age.

Telephone Lineman Killed.

Toronto, Oct. 7.—George De Munn, a lineman, employed by the Bell Telephone Co., was almost instantly killed about 1 o'clock on Saturday by falling from a pole on which he was working at the corner of Bloor street and Brunswick avenue. He never spoke after he fell, and was dead in less than two minutes. Deceased was 20 years of age, and had been employed by the telephone company for about six months. He lived with his widowed mother and two sisters at 65 Sydenham street.

Killed by a Saw.

Rat Portage, Oct. 7.—Word has been received here of a fatal accident at Beaver Mills. Andy Hutchison, employed in the Rat Portage Lumber Company's mill there, while working on a slash table, fell on a saw and was killed. Deceased, who was 19 years old, was a son of Mr. Hutchison of Dryden. The remains will be brought here and an inquest held.

Dropped Dead.

St. Catharines, Oct. 7.—George Nesbitt, a well known man of this city, dropped dead on the street while returning from work on Saturday evening. Heart failure is said to have caused death. He was a native or Ireland, 70 years of age, and leaves one son and three daughters.

Over a Cliff.

Ottawa, Oct. 7.—The body of W. L. Scott, Nepean Township, 50 years of age, brother to Dr. J. G. Scott, Ottawa, was found at the foot of a cliff overhanging the Ottawa River, near Bank street on Saturday. He no doubt fell over the cliff.

Slipped From a Train.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 7.—Thomas H. Hunting, a leading resident of Indian Head, slipped from a train while bidding friends farewell at that point Saturday night. Both legs were taken off. Hunting died in a few hours.

Drowned in a Gale.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 7.—William McDonald, aged 22 years, was drowned at Little Narrows, C. B., on Saturday afternoon while attempting to land from a schooner into a small boat during a gale.

Suicided and Had Diamonds.

Chicago, Oct. 7.—A man committed suicide by shooting near the Grant monument at Lincoln Park Saturday night. He had $100,000 worth of diamonds in his clothing. The suicide was well dressed, and the police believe he was a stranger in the city. The diamonds are pronounced genuine by experts.

Four Railway Men Killed.

Logansport, Ind., Oct. 7.—Four Pan-Handle Railroad trainmen met death near Onward, 14 miles southeast of here yesterday morning in a rear end collision of freight trains. The bodies of three of the dead were taken out badly mutilated, but the fourth was almost entirely consumed by the flames, which broke out soon after the wreck.

KING OTTO NOW SANE.

French Paper Says the Bavarian King Has Recovered His Reason.

Paris, Oct. 7.—The Cri de Paris declares that King Otto of Bavaria, after 25 years of hopeless insanity, has recovered his reason and speaks freely and sensibly. He does not know of the deaths of his mother and brother, Louis II., and is not aware that he himself is King. He speaks of the events of 1876 as if they had happened yesterday.

It is thought possible that this is merely a brief moment of lucidity preparatory to a false issue of his disease, but the court and cabinet are embarrassed. If he recovers, however, the Government will be obliged to notify Parliament, and this will end the regency of Prince Leopold.

This story, although not impossible, is distinctly improbable.

HAD TWO WIVES.

Hamilton, Oct. 7.—Mrs. Mary Berryman of West King street left on Saturday for Rockford, Ill., to look after her case against the Fraternal League for $2,000 insurance on the life of her late husband, Albert Berryman, which comes up in Rockford this week. Mrs. Berryman claims to be his lawful but deserted wife, while Sarah Watson Berryman, who eloped from Toronto with the married Berryman some years ago and went to reside in the United States, also claims the same standing. While in the western states he procured a divorce from Mrs. Berryman of this city. Wife No. 2 was the beneficiary named in the policy and claims to be entitled to the money.

STOMACH GAVE OUT.

If you are troubled with coated tongue and bad taste in the mouth in the morning, sick headaches, stomach pains, flatulency or sour waterbrash, take Powley's Liquified Ozone. Alex. Lang suffered exceeding, he tells about his cure:—

THE OZONE COMPANY, Ltd., TORONTO, ONT.
Gentlemen: About two years ago my stomach completely gave out. I was in a wretched condition, and my life was anything but pleasure. I tried several prescriptions from my doctor, and also other remedies which I saw advertised for dyspepsia, but I was getting worse all the time. I might say that at the same time I had a breaking out on my face and body, which gave me great annoyance. No remedy I took could relieve me of this vexatious disease. At last I was advised to try Ozone. The first bottle gave me relief. I took about ten bottles altogether, and I am thankful I can report to you that I am completely cured. I can eat anything now without the least uneasiness; also the itching eruptions, which I believed were germs in my blood, are all gone. I also use Ozone for my children when any ailment overtakes them. (Signed) ALEX. LANG, 67 Sumach St., Toronto.
Shipper P. Freyseng & Co., Cork Mfrs., Toronto.

There is nothing like Powley's Liquified Ozone to cure stomach disorder. The condensed oxygen is most efficacious; it makes your food digest thoroughly and tones up your entire system.

Write our doctors about your case. Tell them just how you feel and how long you have been sick. They'll make a study of your case and give you advice as to treatment, absolutely free. Address the Consulting Department of The Liquid Ozone Company, 229 Kinzie Street, Chicago, Ill.

THE DOUKS.

Lieut.-Col. Sam Hughes, M.P. for North Victoria, has just returned from a trip through and beyond the Saskatchewan District in the North West. He reports in an interview with a Mail and Empire reporter that about 30 miles north of Prince Albert the wheat crop was splendid, averaging upwards of 45 bushels to the acre, and adds: "Despite the bluffs, there is no better wheat grown than is found at or near Prince Albert."

Of the Doukhobors and other foreign settlers and their peculiar habits and customs, he says;

"In my travels I met many Doukhobor villages, Galicians, Mennonites, Germans, Polanders, Hungarians, Icelanders, Scandinavians, Old Country French, French-Canadians, French half-breeds, English, and English half-breeds, besides Indians and some Canadians, who speak English. The Mennonites especially are very thrifty, and in three years have turned a barren prairie into a great grain-growing centre."

"The much-talked-of Doukhobors, too, Col. Hughes said, he found very industrious, very kind and hospitable, and very cleanly in person. True, they had their own peculiar vegetable diet, but withal they are a sturdy, healthy people. Tolstoi's photograph, in many instances bearing his own autograph, is found in many homes. Tokens of friendship, on meeting a Doukhobor are interesting. These incidents were so common as to cause enquiry, and it transpired, they are regular friendly customs. The Doukhobor dives his hand deep into one or other of his many pockets, and brings forth two or three small cucumbers. Retaining one, he presents the balance of the lot to the visitor. All doubt as to the meaning is quickly dispelled by the Doukhobor promptly eating the cucumber, as an Ontario boy would an apple. Another token of friendship consists in their filling the visitor's pockets with sunflower seeds, which are very palatable. Altogether, the Colonel is much pleased with the Doukhobors, and from the twinkle in his eye, it is surmised he has more pleasing incidents to relate another time."

TIMELY TOPICS.

"A Citizen" writes:

To the Editor of Timely Topics:

"I wish you would call the attention of the civic authorities to the dilapidated and dangerous condition of the sidewalk on Benjamin street. Last evening some people returning from church were compelled to walk upon the road, rather than risk walking on the sidewalk."

Everything is bustle around the Drill Shed these days. Officers and men are leaving no stone unturned to put the Regiment in a proper state of efficiency.

Mr. Vandyke has left the city, and it begins to look as though there will be no need for fenders on the Belleville Street cars.

The cup-lifting talk is all off. It will soon be up to a lot of able-bodied Canadians to lift the coal scuttle (providing of course, they can raise the price).

By the way, did you hear about that co-operative coal syndicate which is going to bring coal into Belleville? However, that's another story.

Are we going to do anything to celebrate the birthday of King Edward VII., which is on the 9th of next month? A member of the Cabinet is quoted as saying that it will be declared a public holiday. This will be His Majesty's first birthday on the throne. Something should be done to celebrate it.

A fellow signing himself "Grumbler" writes:

"Don't you ever feel sorry for the man who pays? I do. I mean the man who pays his doctor bills and his other bills and his taxes. He grumbles a little at the size of the bill and is told there are so many bad debts that doctors and store-keepers and municipalities couldn't live at all if it wasn't for charging it up to the men who grumble and pay. I know a man who pays taxes on a property valued at $1000 (mark, I said 'pays'). He lives not far from a man who is assessed for property valued at ten times the amount above mentioned. He doesn't pay his taxes, and the fellow with the small property has the sour satisfaction of knowing that the other fellow has a good deal to say about the management of municipal affairs, while by his own non-payment of taxes he helps swell the amount paid by his poorer neighbor. So it is in nearly every branch of business. Provision has to be made for bad debts, which means nothing more nor less than taxing the people who do pay for the people who don't. Here is a case in point, which is furnished to the Kingston News by a correspondent:

"'A coal dealer gave me a glance at his books showing last year's business. Certainly there were a lot of bad debts running from two to twelve tons. He said he had had to make up to lose fully one-half of the whole, also that it was the losses and dead beats that were the cause of the price of coal being raised in Kingston. In other words the honest man had to put up for his own coal and that of the dead-beat citizen's also.'"

Contrary to expectations, the Shamrock did her best in light or medium winds. It was the 'tow' that almost killed father.

Here's a pretty how-d-do John B. Spears, the greatest yachting authority in the United States, says Mr. Jameson, Sir Thomas Lipton's dear friend, who was given full control of the Shamrock in the races, interfered with Capt. Sycamore and was responsible for the failure of the British boat to lift the cup. This charge, mind you, is not made by a Briton, but a Yankee. Twice on the last day, Spears says, the Shamrock threw away chances to win which any amateur third-class yachtsman would have taken advantage of, and each of the blunders was made in obedience to the orders of Mr. Jameson. We don't know much about Mr. Jameson, but he's evidently a "Jimmy" sort of an individual. Send him over here and we'll put him in a cage with Major Maude.

Toronto Star: "The Belleville Intelligencer will be chuckling now because it said some days ago that what Shamrock II. needed was calm water and a screw right under its stern."

Upon second thoughts we believe that if they will throw Mr. Jonah Jameson overboard she could win without the screw. Perhaps, however, the Star man might land 'em the one he has loose.

No doubt the Duke and Duchess are pretty tired of sight-seeing by this time, so we can't blame them for making a short stay at Belleville.

But we'll forgive Major Maude everything for putting his foot down on the addresses.

Now let's get to work and show the Royal pair that we don't want to bore them, but simply to show that we admire them for their personal worth, and honor them as the future rulers of the great British Empire, in which every man and woman of us takes a personal interest. Some appropriate souvenir from the ladies of Belleville to the Duchess would be gracefully received, we have no doubt. The Duke himself would like nothing better than to see flags waving and hear good hearty cheering. All together, now. Let's show our future King and Queen that there are no flies on the little city which sent twenty men to fight for Queen Victoria in South Africa.

LOOSE STEAMBOAT INSPECTION.

(Toronto News.)

The authorities who permitted a steamer like the Richelieu to carry passengers on the lake are not fit for their positions. If the inspection of steamboats does not protect the people from the danger incidental to a trip on such a vessel it should be made more rigid. The boiler may have been in good condition, and the hull sound, and yet it is plain that the steamer never was safe. If there are other vessels of the same type it is the duty of the inspectors to tie them up and not allow the lives of crews or passengers to be endangered by their operation.

FEELING IN FAVOR OF BOUNTY.

(Marmora Herald.)

Mr. Joseph James has received replies to his letter on the Arsenic Bounty question from a great number of the most prominent men in the Hastings district, Fort Stewart, Bancroft, Queensboro, Cooker, Bronson, Madoc, Marmora, Trenton, Belleville and Kingston are some of the places from which letters have been received. There is a very strong feeling abroad in favor of this bounty, and the meeting to be held in Madoc on the 15th inst. will likely be largely attended.

The Township of Ameliasburg Fair, held at Roblin's Mills on Friday and Saturday last, was in every respect a success. The attendance on Saturday was one of the largest ever seen upon the grounds. ROYAL TRAIN WILL STOP AT BELLEVILLE

MAYOR GRAHAM HAS RECEIVED A TELEGRAM TO THAT EFFECT FROM MAJOR MAUDE.

It will be remembered that some days ago His Worship Mayor Graham sent a telegram to Lord Minto asking if it would be agreeable to the Duke and Duchess of York to stop for a short time at Belleville station and give our citizens an opportunity to give assurances of their loyalty. Some days ago the Mayor received a despatch stating that Major Maude was conferring with the railroad people in regard to the matter. This morning His Worship received the following telegram, which makes it clear that the loyal people of this city will have a chance to see their future King and Queen. The despatch reads as follows:

Gull Lake, N.W.T.,
October 5.

To Mayor, Belleville, Ont.

Their Royal Highnesses have been graciously pleased to direct that the Royal train shall stop at Belleville station for a few minutes between 9 and 10 o'clock on the morning of the 15th inst., to enable your citizens to see their Royal Highnesses. As stop will be very short, indeed, their Royal Highnesses will not leave the train nor will they be able to receive addresses on this occasion. Your Worship should be present.

A GENTLE HINT.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup, or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Regular size, 75 cts. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at B. Templeton & Co's.

DISTRIBUTION OF MEDALS

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE TORONTO PRESENTATION ON FRIDAY NEXT.

Toronto, October 5.—Major J. Lyons Biggar, of the headquarters staff, Ottawa, was the first to arrive in the city in connection with the review to take place on Friday next.

In reply to a question as to the arrangements in regard to Toronto, the Major said:—"We will have an office in the Divisional Office at the Exhibition grounds, which will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., on Wednesday, the 9th, and we will have one in the Drill Hall from 8 to 10 p.m. that evening, and from 10 to 12 and from 5 to 6 on the 10th.

"What is required of the men?"

"They will be required to bring their discharges, if they have any; if not, some non-commissioned officer or officer who knows them, and on my being satisfied that they are entitled to their medals they will get a card, which will admit them to the enclosure reserved for them in front of the grand stand. They will require to be on parade there by 10 o'clock on the day of the review; otherwise their names will be removed from the list."

"What uniform will they be required to appear in?"

"If they are members of any corps they should appear in the full dress of that corps. If not at present members of any corps, in plain clothes, or khaki, if they prefer it."

"How about those men who are not able to parade before the Duke to get their medals?"

"We will send the medals to those entitled to them as soon as we know their address. The medals of deceased men," Major Biggar added, "I am delivering, as far as possible, to the next of kin, and have delivered a good many on the trip." There had been eight presentations so far, representing about 700 medals, and expected to have three more, the largest of all being in Toronto, where between 400 and 500 men are expected to receive medals.

Deseronto Doings

(From our own Correspondent.)

Deseronto, Oct. 7.

A football match (Rugby) was played in this town on Saturday last, between Deseronto and Trinity School, Port Hope, resulting in a win for Deseronto. Score: Deseronto 10, Port Hope 5.

Harvest Thanksgiving services were held yesterday in St. Mark's Church. Large congregations were present, the preacher at both services being Archdeacon Worrell, of Kingston.

Mr. E. Walter Rathbun, of Deseronto, has received a telegram that his brother-in-law, Maj. Blair, D. S. O., was wounded in the action in which Col. Kekewich's column was engaged the other night. The telegram said that the wound was not dangerous. Although in the very thick of the fighting since the beginning of the war, this is the gallant major's first mishap.

Suits FOR Young Men

For the young fellows who are nearly men, but who are a mighty sight more particular than most men—those young fellows who knows what's what when it comes to the shape of a coat or the hang of the trousers—for those exacting young fellows we have provided a larger variety in Suits than heretofore They've encouraged us to do so, because they are always looking to us for everything that's fashionable and snappy. And then they appreciate the efforts we take in fitting their clothes.

$5 to $15.

Come, look them over. If you want to know what's going to be worn come in and take a look at them. They won't cost you anyrhing.

A reception will this evening be tendered to Rev. Dr. Crothers at Bridge Street Church.

The case of John Hurst, accused of using insulting language towards his brother, Patrick, was settled between the parties.

A yeoman named John Simpson left 45 cts. with the police, for a bag of potatoes which was bought from him, and he could not find the owner.

We are requested to say that the funeral procession of the late Mr. Jeremiah Aris will be from Kingston Road to Foster Avenue, and from Foster Avenue to Bridge St.

We expect a few Canadian and Michigan Peaches to-morrow (Tuesday). This will probably be the last good peaches we will have this season. We have plenty of grapes.—JAS. WALLACE & CO. 1t

His Worship Mayor Graham desires us to state that there will be a public meeting in the City Hall at 4:30 to-morrow afternoon, to discuss the question of a reception to the Duke and Duchess of York. Ladies, as well as gentlemen, are requested to attend.

Sanford Johnston, who a few days ago, was convicted at Toronto on the charge of uttering counterfeit money, was on Saturday sentenced to 18 months in the Central Prison.

The Grand Sacred Concert in Bridge St. Church, Friday, Oct. 11th, under the direction of Mr. V. P. Hunt, will give the citizens an opportunity of again hearing Harold Jarvis, the magnificent tenor, who created such a sensation in the City Hall last spring. The concert will be given in the large auditorium, so that there will be plenty of room for the large audience which will undoubtedly greet this our greatest Canadian singer. The tickets are only 25 cents, and ticket holders will be admitted by side door up to 7.45 o'clock. Tickets may be procured at Mr. W. B. Riggs' music store, and also at Oak Hall. Programmes will be issued in a few days. 1t

MR. HOPE McGINNIS TERRIBLY INJURED

Sad Mishap Which Befel a Prospective Shooting Party This Morning.

Injured Man Fell Over Dashboard and Horse Stepped on His Face.

A serious, and what may prove to be a fatal accident, happened to Mr. Hope McGinnis, of this city, this morning.

It appears that Mr. McGinnis, in company with Messrs. H. Day, R. Marshall, J. Phippen and H. Allen, left the city at an early hour this morning for the purpose of spending the day in the woods, shooting squirrels and partridges. They were in a democrat wagon, drawn by a team owned in a local livery stable.

Mr. McGinnis was seated in the front seat, driving, and two other companions were beside him. When driving along, near Thrasher's Corners, one of the lines dropped out of his hands and fell over the dashboard. In making an effort to reach the line Mr. McGinnis overbalanced and fell out, alighting first upon the wheel and was then thrown beneath the horses' feet. One of the animals in stepping back struck the prostrate man a severe blow on the face with its hoof, inflicting the injuries. The whole affair was done so quickly that the other occupants of the conveyance had hardly time to realize what had occurred.

Mr. Marshall caught hold of McGinnis as he was falling and he was also pulled out upon the road but escaped with a bruised leg.

Mr. Phippen jumped out of the rig and picked up Mr. McGinnis, who, it was at once seen, was severely hurt. Blood was flowing in streams down his face, whilst upon the forehead and cheek were gaping wounds.

As quickly as possible the unfortunate man was conveyed to the city and taken to the hospital, where every attention was given him.

Upon examination it was found that the frontal bone was crushed in, his nose broken and the right cheek bone severely hurt. In addition to this the left side of his face was cut.

The injuries were dressed and the patient made as comfortable as was possible.

At the hour of writing the unfortunate man was doing as well as could be anticipated, but it will be some time before the physicians can pronounce him out of danger.

Notwithstanding the serious nature of his injuries, the victim was conscious during the drive into the city, answering any questions which were asked him.

There doesn't seem to be any blame attached to anybody in the unfortunate matter. The report that the horses ran away is untrue, as the animals behaved with surprising docility.

INDIANS ON TRIAL

CHARGED WITH INCITING TO COMMIT ARSON.

Mr. and Mrs. Abraham P. Brant, two of the inhabitants of the Mohawk Reserve, Tyendinaga, were to-day on trial before Judge Lazier. It was charged that they did incite and procure one David P. Brant to set fire to a barn for the purpose of defrauding the London Mutual Insurance Company.

On the night of the 5th of March last the barn was burned and David P. says he set it on fire, being hired to do so by the defendants. He was promised $10, but only received $5. The building was insured for $275, which was paid over to Abraham P. Brant by the Company.

The trial was in progress all day, not being concluded when we went to press.

THE FIFTEENTH AT CHRIST CHURCH

Creditable Turnout—Regiment Looked Well—Excellent Sermon by Rev. Mr. Heeney.

The Fifteenth's church parade yesterday morning was fairly well attended, the men looking neat and clean and marching steadily. The route taken was down Bridge St., over the lower bridge, along Coleman St. to the church. The militia occupied the two centre aisles of the sacred edifice, and the remainder of the auditorium was quite full. The choir was in fine form, and the voluntaries of Prof. Willmott, the organist, were played with the good taste and skill for which he is noted. The service all through was bright and impressive, a marked feature being the deep attention paid by the young men of the Fifteenth to the eloquent minister, whose discourse, cultured and characteristic, was favorably commented on by all who heard it. Rev. Mr. Heeney took as his text the first seven verses of the Second Psalm, beginning "Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?"

In the text, the Rev. gentleman said, there was both history and prophecy. It records incidents in past history, incidents in the life of a great King of Israel. It had also a prophetic side, and showed the peculiar confidence the King of Israel had in the God who had placed him on the throne. Israel stood in the same relationship to God as a son stands to his father. The King was their representative, and anybody who illused or offended the King of Israel offended the God who placed him on the throne. He was the direct choice of Jehovah, and it was no wonder his confidence in God was supreme. No wonder he cared not for the word of earthly kings, for while he knew that Jehovah was for him he recked not who was against him. Speaking to the military men present, the preacher said he had little to say to them as defenders of the Empire. They knew their duty, which was the same as had been done by British soldiers the world over for many centuries. With the words of Nelson still ringing in their ears, with the knowledge that they were soldiers of the greatest Empire the world has ever seen, to know that the King's soldiers everywhere, in England, Canada, Australia, South Africa and all parts of the Empire, would uphold the glorious traditions of the British army. But there was something else. They must remember that the deadliest foes of our nation were not those which came upon us from without. The foe they should guard against was vice. So long as the people of Great Britain kept the moral standard of the nation high they need fear no foe, for, like David of old, they could be sure that Jehovah was on their side. They must not underestimate their foe, which mistake had been made in South Africa. They must be awake and alert, and put trust in God as their commanding officer, then they could with confidence look forward to victory.

Emmanuel Reformed Episcopal.

The Rector, Rev. W. J. Gilliland, preached two excellent sermons in the above church yesterday. In the evening he took as his text part of the tenth verse of the second chapter of Revelations:

"Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life."

Faithfulness in all things was the supreme duty of the Christian. In the church, in the home, in everyday life, the standard should be set high. There should be no compromise, no half-measures. Holy Communion was administered at the morning service.

Bridge Street.

Rev. Dr. Crothers, pastor of this church, who has been absent for over two months, as a delegate to the Ecumenical Conference at London, England, yesterday occupied his pulpit and preached two able discourses. Large congregations were present at both services. In the evening the subject discussed was "Wisdom and Glory," the text being taken from Proverbs, 3rd chapter, a portion of the 35th verse:

"The wise shall inherit glory."

During the service the choir rendered an anthem and Miss Marie Wheler gave a solo "The Holy City."

The Sunday School gave the Rev Dr. Crothers quite an ovation. He was received with the Chalaupua Salute and thanksgiving was given to God for his safe arrival home.

St. Andrew's

The Pastor, Rev. M. W. Maclean, occupied the pulpit at both services. In the morning communion service was held, and the pastor gave an inspiring address on the duties of communicants, basing his remarks upon several passages of scripture.

Tabernacle.

Good congregations were present at both services yesterday which were conducted by the Pastor, Rev. J. H. Locke. In the evening the Rev. gentleman's text was from Deuteronomy, 23rd chapter and 29th verse:

"Happy art thou, O Israel; who is like unto thee, O people saved by the Lord! The shield of thy help, and who is the sword of thy excellency, and thine enemies shall be found liars unto thee; thou shalt tread upon their high places."

Baptist Church.

In the morning at this place of worship the Rev. Mr. Russell, of Kingston, preached an acceptable sermon. At the evening service the Pastor, Rev. O. G. Elliott, officiated and gave an excellent discourse on the life of the prophet Elisha, basing his remarks on the 7th chapter of II Kings.

John Street.

Rev. T. J. Thompson, pastor, occupied the pulpit at both services. In the morning he continued his series of sermons on the life of Joseph. In the evening his theme was "Manly Christians," the text being "Man in Christ." Both discourses were thoroughly appreciated.

The choir sang anthems at both services and in the evening Mrs. Jas. Grant and Miss Ethel Coleman rendered acceptably a duet.

Holloway Street.

The pulpit of the above named church was occupied yesterday morning by the Rev. Chas. Adams, of the Carrying Place. He preached an exceedingly interesting and strongly helpful sermon from Luke, xxii; 31, 32. The preacher referred to the fact that humanity lives in two realms. The one of Evil; in which all Satanic forces combine to ruin us. The other of Spiritual Help, of which the Lord Jesus is the soul and centre. Without the help that Christ bestowes, the evil would prevail and man's discomfiture be speedy and complete. By the recitation of personal incidents and apt illustrations the Rev. gentleman impressed the comforting truths of the text upon the heart and conscience of his hearers.

St. John's.

Venerable Archdeacon, J. J. Bogert, of Ottawa, yesterday preached at both services at this church, and his discourses were thoroughly enjoyed by the congregations. His sermon in the morning was taken from Jeremiah, 36th chapter and 24th verse:

"Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king nor any of his servants that heard all these words."

Bleecker Street.

The Pastor, Rev. M. J. Bates, was the preacher of the day and good congregations were present at the services. In the morning the text was taken from Romans, 10th chapter and 1st verse:

"Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is that they might be saved."

St. Thomas'.

In the morning the Curate, Rev. Mr. Holah, assisted in the service and also preached. In the evening the Rector, Rev. Canon Burke, occupied the pulpit and gave an excellent discourse.

Answered His Last Roll Call

MR. JEREMIAH ARIS, A VETERAN OF '64—5—6, WAS MUSTERED OUT ON SATURDAY NIGHT.

Expressions of sorrow were universal yesterday when it became known that Mr. Jeremiah Aris, a well-known resident of this vicinity, was dead. The sad event took place on Saturday night, the cause of death being weakness brought on by hemorrhages in the last year or two.

Deceased was an Englishman, having first seen the light of day at Wyndham, Norfolk, in 1838. He had been a resident of Belleville for about 50 years, and obtained in this city the respect always accorded to an upright, honest man. He was for five years an employee of The Intelligencer, but left the printing trade and was afterwards in the employ of the late Mr. James Glass and Mr. J. C. Keith, both of whom were in the hardware business. Deceased, in his younger days, was a prominent figure in military circles, and when the call to arms was sounded in '64 no one responded with more alacrity than "Jerry" Aris. He was at Amherstburg in 1864—65, and at Aultsville in 1866, carrying himself honorably through both campaigns. Small wonder, then, that to-morrow afternoon his old comrades of the Veterans' Association will follow his remains to their last resting place, realizing with regret than another of the "Old Brigade" has gone to face the great Commanding Officer. But his memory will ever be green in the hearts of his comrades of other days.

Deceased was a Methodist and a staunch Conservative. The late Mr. Aris never married. Funeral at 2:30 to-morrow afternoon; services at his late residence, Herchmer Avenue, at 2 o'clock.

MRS. JEANNE McPHERSON.

Mrs. Jeanne McPherson died last night at the family residence, Charles street. Deceased had been ill for some time, cancer of the stomach causing death. Mrs. McPherson was born at Aberdeen, Scotland, nearly 66 years ago. Some 28 years ago with her late husband and family, she came to this city, where she has since resided. Deceased was a faithful member of St. Andrew's Church, and a lady who was esteemed by all who knew her. A family of two sons and three daughters survive. The sons are William, of this city, and George, of Seattle; the daughters are Mrs. T. E. Ewen; and Mrs. Geo. Bennett, of this city, and Mrs. P. York, of Oregon.

MRS. JOHN H. GORDON.

Mrs. John H. Gordon died this morning at Kingston, where she had been for some time. Deceased was for many years a resident of this city, and was well known. She was a member of the Methodist church. The remains will be brought here this evening for interment.

MRS. CATHERINE ROACH.

Mrs. Catherine Roach, an old lady, who resided on the Canifton road, north of the railway track, died this morning. Her neighbors say the old lady was nearly 104 years of age, and her husband, Patrick, predeceased her many years ago.

The Late Master Walter Power

Many were in attendance at the funeral of the late Walter Power, which took place yesterday afternoon. The remains were conveyed to St. Michael's Church, where services were held, conducted by Rev Father O'Brien, after which interment took place in the R. C. cemetery. The floral tributes by friends were numerous and very beautiful. The bearers were J. V. Truisch, H. Mackie, F. Dolan and John Hanley.

UNTOLD MISERY — WHAT A WELL-KNOWN COMMERCIAL TRAVELLER SUFFERED, AND HOW HE WAS CURED.—Gentlemen,—About five years ago I began to be troubled with Dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time travelling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine and when the third bottle was finished, I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of Dyspepsia.

(Signed), T. S. McINTEE.

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung and throat troubles, there is no preparation of medicine can compare with Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to afford prompt and permanent relief. It removes all soreness, and heals the diseased parts. It immediately soothes the most troublesome cough, and by promoting expectoration, removes the mucus which stops up the air tubes which causes difficulty in breathing, thereby gives relief to that depressing tightness experienced in the chest. Public speakers and singers will find Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup of inestimable value, as it speedily and effectually allays all irritation, and huskiness in the throat and bronchial tubes, and gives power to the vocal cords, rendering the voice clear and sonorous. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of "Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup," and whenever a child has taken cold, has a cough or hoarseness, give the Syrup according to directions.

A Sure Cure for Headaches. — Bilious headache, to which women are more subject than men, becomes so acute in some subjects that they are utterly prostrated. The stomach refuses food, and there is a constant and distressing effort to free the stomach from bile which has become unduly secreted there. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are a speedy alterative, and in neutralizing the effects of the intruding bile relieves the pressure on the nerves which cause the headache. Try them.

WILL NOT RESIGN.

Premier Dunsmuir Says He Will Remain in Office.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 7.—Premier James Dunsmuir has decided to remain in office. In spite of the defeat in New Westminster and the resignation of the Minister more directly involved in that defeat, Mr. J. C. Brown, he has concluded that he has the support of an overwhelming section of the Legislature. His decision was communicated in an interview in which he was asked regarding his intentions.

"I will remain in office," he responded, "and will meet the House with 22 supporters."

He was asked if a special session would be called, or if he would wait for the regular meeting of the Legislature. He replied that he would wait for the regular meeting of the Legislature, which will probably be held early in January. In reply to the question what was being done to fill the vacant portfolios or to bring on the election in the City of Victoria, he stated that no decision had as yet been arrived at in regard to either matter.

Accident to British Destroyers.

London, Oct. 7.—The torpedo boat destroyers Salmon and Angler went out on a steam trial Saturday, and met with a serious accident while they were off Margate. In rounding the Tongue lightship at full speed the propeller of the Angler struck the Salmon's stern and tore the steel plates to pieces like so much paper. The two destroyers were towed to Sheerness later on. No lives were lost.

A TRANSPLANTED CAVE.

The Field Museum's Rare Collection of Natural Formations.

Curator O. C. Farrington of the Field Columbian museum has opened an artificial cave at the museum, showing stalactites and other crystalline formations in their natural condition. Within this cave he has placed some of the rarest subterranean rock formations in just the positions in which he discovered them in nature. Besides the place has been stocked with many varieties of animals found in deep caves.

To give the exhibit all its natural environments there are pools and fountains. The pools abound with blind fish, salamanders and other subterranean forms of life. Many bats cling to the surfaces of the limestone.

This is the first attempt that has ever been made to reproduce cave formations in their pristine condition.

Several years of diligent search were spent by Mr. Farrington and other geologists in making the collection. There are two valuable old stalagmites. One of them is thought to be 3,000 years and the other 12,000 years old.

These two big chunks of crystalline substance are the largest in existence as far as have been discovered. Both were secured from a cave near Marengo, Ind.

Careful experiments have been made by geologists with a view to computing the ages of stalagmites and the rapidity with which they grow. By placing silver plates in stalagmites in caves and observing year by year they have learned that they grow at the rate of about one-two hundred and fiftieth of an inch in height each year.

These stalagmites and other crystalline formations are found by deposits from dripping cave waters. They are the resultant growth from deposits of salt water solutions.

The collection which Mr. Farrington is exhibiting is gathered from all of the best known caves in the United States. Many rare specimens have been brought from Wyandot, Ind., and Dubuque, Ia. The Ball cave at the latter city has furnished the most remarkable examples of the growth of stalactites.

One cave in Arizona has contributed odd specimens in green tinted stalactite. It is thought that the waters of this cave contain sufficient copper to color the deposits. Some of the stalactites are in the shape of folded leaves, while others are conical. The folded leaf variety is very rare, while the conical variety is the usual formation.

Pavements and Heat.

Tests made in Boston prove that wood pavements radiate more heat than any other kind. The time of the experiment was the early afternoon, with the thermometer at 98 in the shade. The average temperature was 124½ for the wood pavement, 115 for granite blocks, 113 for asphalt and 102½ for macadam.

A Woman's Hair.

Few women consider that they carry some 40 or 50 miles of hair on their head. The fair haired may even have to dress 70 miles of threads of gold every morning.

Clerical Sore Throat Explained.

Deacon Scrimp—Humph! Think you have got to have a vacation, eh?

Struggling Pastor—Yes, the doctor says I must go off until this cough is cured.

Struggling Pastor—Well, you see, we have to visit around a good deal, and we are always asked to hold a little service before leaving, and I think our throats become affected from breathing the dust that flies from the family Bibles.

HOW THE LEGS GROW.

As a fact, says the author, our lower limbs are not usually both of exactly the same length, though they are so for all practical purposes. The left is usually the longer, though the gait is not notably influenced by this fact. At birth the lower limbs are shorter than the upper, and their movements are rather of the prehensile type. "We are not born leggy like the foal or kangaroo, but we gradually achieve legginess." The bones increase in length, not so much by interstitial deposit as by addition to their ends—that is, by progressive ossification of the layer of cartilage which intervenes between the end of the shaft and the epiphysis. Ossification goes on till the component parts of the bone are all united by bony matter, and thus the stature of the individual is determined.

If from inflammation or injury an epiphysis be damaged, one limb may be shorter than the other, or inflammatory stimulation may even induce an increased length in the bone affected. The skeletons of tortoises, not being subjected to sudden jars, have no epiphyses at the ends of the long bones, whereas in the leaping frog the extremities of the humerus and femur long remain as separate epiphyses. The continuous concussions to which the ends of the bones of the lower limbs are exposed when a vigorous child is excited by its own natural spirit to run about are doubtless of great value in assisting the growth in length of the lower limbs, which soon lose their infantile character and become adapted for running and walking. By exposing the lower limbs to the same influences and resistances during their entire growth we manage to maintain them of the same length, and gentle jars upon the epiphyses at the joints may be considered favorable to growth.

Physical Culture.

An observant individual has discovered that every movement in the Delsarte system of physical culture is to be found in the exercise of everyday housework.

QUEEN ELIZABETH'S FAULTS

She Was Very Vain and Inordinately Fond of Fine Dress.

Yet Elizabeth was never really successful with her wardrobe as a more feminine woman might have been. Her dresses were never beautiful, only ludicrously and most inappropriately magnificent—laden with jewels, weighted down with cloth of gold, stiff with silver embroidery and so heavy that even her big, powerful frame must, without supporting vanity, have felt the fatigue of carrying them about. Elizabeth was certainly vain, but she cannot claim femininity merely on that account, for vanity is by no means an exclusively feminine characteristic. There are perhaps more vain women than vain men because women have more leisure and their costumes afford greater opportunities for vanity than the strangely hideous clothing which custom has arranged for men, but no thoughtful (feminine) observer can doubt that a vain man is vainer than a vain woman.

Elizabeth's hands were her especial pride, and, judging from her portraits, they were certainly beautiful. They were laden with jewels, and it was her habit in public to pull her rings off with absent artlessness and push them on again, moving those white hands about in the most obvious way. Once, during the grave consideration of a state paper, wherein her cold sagacity never took second place, she interrupted the discussion to ask whether the Duc d'Anjou, who was at one time one of her suitors, had been told what a pretty foot she had and how white and well rounded was her arm? This in the woman who financed the armada with hard headed economy, who dared the superstitious terrors of her own conscience in her high handed and impudent treatment of the bishops, whose interest in methods of torture for state prisoners was most mechanical and intelligent, entirely unhampered by any squeamish feminine hesitation as to blood or pain, is most curious.

In connection with this last characteristic of cruelty vanity is not at all unprecedented. Indeed, if one observe closely one will notice that excessively vain persons have almost always a strange inclination toward cruelty. The accounts of what Queen Elizabeth permitted and indeed commanded in this respect will hardly bear reading by us sensitive folk today.

The Life Line in One's Hand.

There are three prominent lines in the palm—the line of life, that of the head and the heart line.

The line of life begins on the inner boundary of the palm, about midway between the thumb and the forefinger. If we imagine the left hand to be a map, with the fingers pointing north, this line runs toward the southeast, then curves toward the south and in some hands curves finally toward the southwest. It thus skirts the base of "uprise" of the thumb, known as the uprise of Venus. If it is deep, broad, of good color and extends nearly or quite to the wrist and if the rest of the hand indicates vitality and cheerfulness, the subject may be expected to live to a green old age; he has a good disposition and the qualities which good health and good temper usually create.

Some Queer Verdicts.

What is "a reasonable state of intoxication" apparently just missed precise definition by a coroner's jury in Mississippi which stated in its verdict that "we, the jury, find that deceased came to his death by a stroke of an east bound train, No. 204, on I. C. Railroad, at Fentress, Miss., in Choctaw county, he being in a reasonable state of intoxication."

A somewhat similar indefiniteness of legal conclusion mars a verdict of a neighboring Georgia jury to the effect that "we, the jury, find the defendant almost guilty."

Equally as uncertain and ambiguous as these statements by laymen is the opinion in an early Maryland case which "acknowledges the corn" by saying that an occurrence referred to took place "at a former sitting when the court was full."

BLOOD POISON

If you ever contracted any blood disease you are never safe unless the virus or poison has been eradicated from the system. At times you see alarming symptoms, but live in hopes no serious results will follow. Have you any of the following symptoms? Sore Throat, Ulcers on the Tongue or in the Mouth, Hair Falling Out, Aching Pains, Itchiness of the Skin, Sores or Blotches on the Body, Eyes Red and Smart, Dyspeptic Stomach, Sexual Weakness—indications of the second stage. Don't trust to luck. Don't ruin your system with the old fogy treatment —mercury and potash—which only suppresses the symptoms for a time, only to break out again, when happy in domestic life. Don't let quacks experiment on you. Our New Method Treatment is guaranteed to cure you. Our guarantees are backed by bank bonds, that the disease will never return. The Costliest Cough Cure is Change of Climate, and it's a cure that's not often possible and not always sure. There's a better idea about coughs and cures: Why not fit the lungs to the climate instead of fitting the climate to the lungs? It is the power to do this that makes

AYER'S
Cherry Pectoral
THE BEST COUGH CURE

In the land. It is a sure cure for colds and coughs; a specific for Asthma, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough; it prevents Pneumonia, cures La Grippe; and it so strengthens the lungs and heals the torn tissues that many cases of disease marked by all the signs of Incipient Consumption have been absolutely cured by its use.

"We tried almost everything for asthma without success. At last we used your Cherry Pectoral and the relief was immediate." S. A. ELLIS, Keene, N. H.

"When I had almost despaired of ever finding a cure for chronic bronchitis, I derived most excellent results from Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I can testify as to its efficacy." R. G. PROCTOR, M. D., Oakland City, Ind.

"There were sixteen children in my father's family and there are seven in my own. We have never, since I can remember, been without Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and have never had a case of cold or a cough that this remedy did not cure." Hon. WM. E. MASON, Chicago, Ill.

"My wife was sick in bed for ten months and was attended by six different doctors. All of them said that she had consumption, and some of them said she could not live a month. I bought one bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It seemed to help her, so I secured one dozen bottles. Before these were all used, she was completely cured and to-day is strong and well." J. W. EWING, Camden Point, Mo.

"For more than a year my wife suffered with lung trouble. She had a severe cough, great soreness of the chest, and experienced difficulty in breathing. A three months' treatment with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral effected a complete cure. We regarded it as remarkable, as the other remedies she had tried had failed to even give relief." C. H. BURRIS, Marine Mills, Minn.

Scrofula

This root of many evils—

Glandular tumors, abscesses, pimples and other cutaneous eruptions, sore ears, inflamed eyelids, rickets, dyspepsia, catarrh, readiness to catch cold and inability to get rid of it easily, paleness, nervousness and other ailments including the consumptive tendency—

Can be completely and permanently removed, no matter how young or old the sufferer.

Hood's Sarsaparilla was given the daughter of Silas Vernooy, Wawarsing, N. Y., who had broken out with scrofula sores all over her face and head. The first bottle helped her and when she had taken six the sores were all healed and her face was smooth. He writes that she has never shown any sign of the scrofula returning.

A NEUTRAL ISTHMIAN CANAL

Old Clayton-Bulwer Treaty to Be Abrogated in Toto.

An Agreement Upon These Lines Said to Have Been Reached by Great Britain and the United States—The Yankees Reserve the Right to Close the Canal or Fortify It In Case of War and Alone Guarantees Neutrality.

Chicago, Oct. 8.—Walter Wellman wires The Record-Herald from Washington: The United States and Great Britain have reached an agreement concerning the Isthmian Canal question, and the new treaty will be presented to the Senate for its ratification early in the coming session. I am now able to give the substance of this treaty. It provides:

Basis of New Treaty.

1. For abrogation of the old Clayton-Bulwer treaty in toto.

2. For a neutral isthmian canal, in case one be constructed by the United States, open in time of peace to the ships of all nations, upon equal terms.

3. This neutrality is guaranteed by the United States alone, and other maritime powers are not invited to participate in such guarantee. Great Britain is inferentially one of the guarantors, because she is a party to this treaty.

4. In case of war, the United States reserves the right to take such steps for its own protection as it may deem proper.

It will be seen that the new treaty meets the principal objections which were offered to the old Hay-Pauncefote convention, and which led to its rejection by the Senate.

U.S. Alone Guarantees Neutrality.

While the principle of neutrality is asserted, the United States alone guarantees that neutrality, and no European powers are invited to give their assent to it.

It was this feature, more than any other, which led to the defeat of the former treaty. Many Senators were willing to join with Great Britain in a guarantee of the neutrality of the proposed new waterway, because England already enjoyed certain treaty rights upon the Isthmus. But they were decidedly unwilling to invite other European nations to give their assent.

Those nations had no standing in the case, and it was deemed most unwise to invite them to participate in a purely American affair with which they had no direct concern.

U.S. Supreme in War Time.

By the terms of the new treaty, the United States may, in time of war, deal with the canal as it deems best for its own interests. It may close the canal to the ships of its enemies, and could, if it were thought advisable (which no one believes it ever will be) fortify the channel or its terminal.

In the broad sense, the Isthmian waterway is to be "all-American." The United States is to build it and to have complete control of it, unhampered by onerous restrictions.

Englishmen Will Be Startled.

London, Oct. 8.—The Washington correspondent of The Daily Chronicle gives the alleged substance of a provisional canal treaty, abrogating the Clayton-Bulwer treaty.

Commenting editorially upon the advices, The Daily Chronicle says: "Englishmen will be startled to learn that we have abandoned our rights under the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, and surrendered every disputed point without any compensation. The new treaty is apparently another instance of Lord Salisbury's placid indifference and Lord Lansdowne's impulsive generosity."

KIDNAPPERS HELD.

Sensational Case in Philadelphia Looks Bad For the Prisoners.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 8.—Charged with abducting and robbing Mabel Goodrich, the proprietress of a disreputable establishment, Howard K. Sloan, Henry E. Wallace, D. Knight Finlay and Oscar S. Dunlap, were yesterday brought before a magistrate and committed without bail, for a further hearing next Monday.

The woman was the first witness against the prisoners, and identified each of them. She then told the remarkable story of her abduction, confinement and robbery, as detailed in these despatches. She concluded her testimony by stating that she had been robbed of her jewelry, valued at $2,500, and cash amounting to $70, and forced to sign cheques for $500. After a cheque for $155 had been cashed, she had been released, she said.

Detective Donaghy related the story of the arrest of the prisoners, and stated that all had confessed.

Death of Col. Strathy.

Montreal, Oct. 8.—Lieut.-Col. J. Alexander Strathy, who has been ailing for some time from a tumor on the brain, caused by a fall while hunting, passed away here yesterday morning. Col. Strathy, who had been a prominent figure in Montreal for many years, was the son of the late J. B. Strathy, formerly collector of customs at London, Ont., and was born in July, 1857. In 1883 he began business as a stock broker in partnership with his brother, Mr. Edward Strathy. He became a member of the Montreal Stock Exchange in 1880, and retired in 1896 to assume the management of the Montreal Trust and Deposit Company.

German Exports.

Berlin, Oct. 8.—The exports from Germany to the United States during the third quarter of the year show a total of $24,722,767, an increase of $858,962.

No Argument Needed.

Powders, lotions, salves, sprays and inhalers cannot really cure Catarrh, because this disease is a blood disease, and local applications, if they accomplish anything at all, simply give transient relief.

The catarrhal poison is in the blood and the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and trachea tries to relieve the system by secreting large quantities of mucous, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils dropping into the throat, causing deafness by closing the Eustachian tubes, and after a time causing catarrh of stomach or serious throat and lung troubles.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal remedy which will cleanse the blood from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion from the mucous membrane.

The best and most modern remedies for this purpose are antiseptics, scientifically known as Eucalyptol, Guaiacol, Sanguinaria, and Hydrastin, and while each of these have been successfully used separately, yet it has been difficult to get them all combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

The manufacturers of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, have succeeded admirably in accomplishing this result. They are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, to be dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane of the throat, and finally the stomach.

Unlike many catarrh remedies Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, opiate or any injurious drug whatever, and are equally beneficial for little children and adults.

Mr. C. R. Remiaandt, of Rochester, N.Y., says: "I know of a few people who have suffered as much as I from catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I used sprays, inhalers, and powders for months at a time with only slight relief, and had no hope of cure. I had not the means to make a change of climate, which seemed my only chance of cure.

"Last spring I read an account of some remarkable cures made by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and promptly bought a fifty cent box from my druggist, and obtained such positive benefit from that one package that I continued to use them daily until I now consider myself entirely free from the disgusting annoyance of catarrh; my head is clear, my digestion all I could ask and my hearing, which had begun to fail as a result of the catarrh, has greatly improved until I feel I can hear as well as ever. They are a household necessity in my family."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents for complete treatment, and for convenience, safety and prompt results they are undoubtedly the long looked for catarrh cure.

Two Tragedies At Ottawa

Isadore Burean Was Found Dead in His Own Doorway.

The Duke Bags 52 Ducks—Boers Ignore the White Flag—Clarke Wallace Dying—A Neutral Isthmian Canal—Philadelphia Kidnappers Held—Ameer of Afghanistain Dead.

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—Isadore. Bureau, 97 Cathcart street, an old man, was yesterday found lying dead in the hallway of his own house. On his breast was a Fenian raid medal, and his clothes and boots were covered with mud. His latch-key was in his hand. People in the house say they heard two men put Bdreau into the house Sunday night. He had about $30 on Saturday, but only a few cents were found in his pockets by the coroner. An inquest will be held.

Harry Turcotte, 7 years old, son of Charles Turcotte of the city fire alarm department, was drowned in Patterson's Creek Sunday, while playing in a boat.

Women Badly Burned.

London, Ont., Oct. 8.—The explosion of a hanging lamp in the parlor of Mrs. Donald Taylor's house caused a small fire Sunday evening shortly after 11. Mrs. Donald Taylor and a Mrs. Nicholson, who heard the explosion, hastened to the room, and found the carpet in flames. While endeavoring to extinguish the blaze, their clothing took fire, and they were badly burned about the face and neck. The loss of the fire was about $100.

Lost an Arm.

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—W. P. Webb, of Hamilton, who is employed in The Citizen office, had his arm crushed in the machinery yesterday morning. He was taken to St. Luke's Hospital, where the arm was amputated. Mr. Webb is President of the Ottawa Printing Pressmen's Union.

Suicide at Sixty.

Moncton, N. B., Oct. 8.—Mrs. Robert Lynch, 60 years of age, suicided yesterday by taking rough on rats. She was melancholy.

Nineteen Lives Lost.

Lisbon, Oct. 8.—Nineteen persons lost their lives yesterday, owing to the foundering of a fishing boat in the Bay of Peniche, on the south side of the Peninsula of Peniche.

Eighty Persons Killed.

London, Oct. 8.—In Pavlouka, a town of 4,000 inhabitants, 120 miles from Kharkoff, says a despatch to The Standard from Moscow, a quarrel between students and orthodox church people led to a free fight. The Russian church was wrecked. The police were powerless and troops were sent from Kharkoff to restore order. The Russian priests escaped with the more valuable sacred images and altar vessels.

A WHITE FLAG IGNORED.

London, Oct. 8.—A despatch from Lord Kitchener to the War Office says: "Lieut. Miers, Somerset Light Infantry, employed with South African Constabulary, went out from his post at Riversdraai, September 25, to meet three Boers approaching under white flag, who, after short conversation, were seen to shoot Lieut. Miers dead, and immediately galloped away. Inquiry is being made and evidence recorded."

War Will Be Over in Three Weeks.

London, Oct. 8.—The Cape Town correspondent of The Chronicle states that Mr. Sauer expresses the opinion that the war will be over in three weeks. This is probably too optimistic a view of the situation, says the correspondent, but Mr. Sauer ought to know.

Given Purse of $1,700.

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—Inspector W. H. Scarth of the Northwest Mounted Police, son of W. B. Scarth, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, is in the city on his way to Cape Town, having accepted a captaincy in the Baden-Powell police force. Before leaving Dawson he got a purse of gold amounting to about $1,700.

CLARKE WALLACE DYING.

Physicians Say West York's M.P. Can Last Only a Few Hours.

Toronto, Oct. 8.—Hon. N. Clarke Wallace was very much weaker last night. Dr. McPherson and Dr. Temple held a consultation at his bedside at 11 o'clock, having been summoned from the city after 8 o'clock. They met Dr. King, the local physician. After a careful examination the decision arrived at was that Mr. Wallace's case was hopeless, and that his end was only a matter of a few hours, perhaps a day at the most. His blood at the last examination had only one-eighth of the richness of an ordinary circulation. He was conscious at times and seemed to recognize those around him. Woodbridge is overcast with gloom.

150 Starved to Death.

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 8.—Steamer advices say the Island of Panay in the Philippines, which has been affected by the plague, is now visited by famine. One hundred and thirty deaths from starvation are reported to have occurred at Capiz alone.

The Natal Elections.

London, Oct. 8.—A Durban despatch reports that in the recent elections for the Colonial Parliament all the Ministers have been re-elected by substantial majorities.

United States Immigration.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The annual report of Thomas Fitchie, Commissioner of Immigration, has been received at the Treasury Department. The report shows that the number of aliens arrived at the port of New York during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1901, was 453,496.

FOURTEEN TIMES A MURDERESS.

Mrs. Witmer, a Dayton, Ohio, Widow, Makes a Record.

Dayton, Ohio, Oct. 8.—Mrs. A. J. Witmer, a widow residing in this city, has been arrested by the police at the instigation of the Coroner, and is held a prisoner at central station pending an investigation into very serious charges. Mrs. Witmer, the police say, is suspected of fourteen murders, the list including four husbands, five children, one sister, and four members of different families in which she was employed as housekeeper. The last supposed victim was her sister, Mrs. Anna Pugh, who died a week ago under mysterious circumstances. An autopsy, performed at the request of Mrs. Witmer's mother, who came here from Detroit, is said to have disclosed the presence of arsenic and coperas in the stomach. Following closely upon the death of her first husband, Fred Schweger, came, according to the police department data, the death of two children. The second husband died suddenly several years after the wedding, and the children of this marriage died in rapid succession. Her last husband, A. J. Witmer, died last April. In each instance, death was somewhat sudden, and all were strangely alike. The prisoner is 47 years of age and formerly lived in Middletown, this State. She has two sons in the Philippines, and a sister, it is stated, in a New York asylum. No conceivable motive for the suspected crimes has been disclosed. Drugs found in the house occupied by Mrs. Witmer, are in the possession of the police, and will be examined.

The third husband of Mrs. Witmer was William Stowe, who died in Middletown with alleged symptoms of arsenical poisoning. Mr. Stowe's death was investigated by the coroner, but without result. Shortly after Mr. Stowe's death Mrs. Witmer came to Dayton, and became housekeeper for Charles K. Keller, a widower. Keller died suddenly, and the information since gained by the coroner concerning Keller's death is that his ailment was similar to that of a person affected by poison. Mrs. Witmer next acted as housekeeper for John A. Wease, a druggist. In July last Wease's 4-year-old son suddenly died, and two months later Wease died. The doctors attributed Wease's death to blood poisoning, but now tell the coroner they were dissatisfied with their diagnosis at the time. Mrs. Stowe then went to live with a Mr. and Mrs. Gabler on East street, Riverdale. These two persons died suddenly, and the coroner now says the sickness was the feature of arsenical poisoning.

TIME EXTENDED.

The Brigands Will Give Miss Stone's Friends Another Month.

London, Oct. 8.—It is reported from Sofia says a despatch from Vienna to The Daily Express, that United States Consul Dickinson and an envoy of the missionary society arrived there Saturday intending to follow up Miss Stone, the abducted missionary, and to deposit a portion of the ransom. The brigands have extended the time of payment one month.

Ransom Comes Slowly.

Boston, Oct. 8.—The fund for the ransom of Miss Helen Stone, the American missionary captured by brigands in Turkey, at 11 o'clock yesterday had reached $27,000.

At noon yesterday the fund had grown to $43,959.

Ancient Monks.

What Is It?

A man who has been running a race with steam and electricity for years, finds himself suddenly stopped. It seems as if a cold hand clutched his heart. His brain whirls; he can hardly see. "What is it?" he asks himself as the attack passes. If his question meets a right answer, he'll be told that his seizure is a warning to pay more attention to his stomach, which is already deranged by irregular meals and rich foods.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It eliminates from the blood disease breeding poisons. It makes the blood rich and pure, and furnishes a foundation for sound, physical health.

"About ten years ago I began to have trouble with my stomach," writes Mr. Wm. Connelly, of 516 Walnut Street, Lorain, Ohio. "It got so bad that I had to lay off quite often—two and three days in a week. I have been treated by the best doctors in this city, but got no help. Some said I had cancer of the stomach, others catarrh, others dyspepsia. Then I wrote to you for advice. You advised the use of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets.' The medicines I have taken as directed. I commenced to get better from the start, and have not lost a day this summer on account of my stomach. I feel tip-top, and better than I have for ten years."

Keep the bowels healthy by using Dr. Pierce's Pellets. They don't gripe.

DUKE BAGS FIFTY-TWO DUCKS

Royal Shooting Party Early Astir Monday Morning.

After Five Hours the Tally Was 200—Delightful Sport, Splendid Luck Follows the Party at Poplar Point—Duchess Takes a Ride on a Hand Car and Has an Amusing Picture Snapped—Will Join the Duke and Then East.

York Lodge, Lake Manitoba, via Poplar Point, Oct. 8.—Sunday and yesterday were probably the most informal spent by His Royal Highness the Duke of Cornwall and party since they began their tour through Canada. After arrival at the lodge Sunday evening the party partook of a splendid dinner served in banquet style in a marquee erected for the purpose immediately adjoining the cottage occupied by His Royal Highness. The arrangements made by Senator Kirchhoffer for entertainment of his guests were perfect in every detail.

Early Astir.

At a very early hour yesterday morning the camp was astir, and the canoes carrying the distinguished sportsmen were under way to the haunts of the wild duck. There were in all seven canoes, and each chose a different route, a capable guide or veteran duck hunter taking charge of each boat. The well-known hunter and trapper, John Atkinson, handled the paddle of the canoe carrying the Duke and his valet. The morning was an ideal one for duck hunting, the sky being slightly clouded and a light breeze blowing, and the party took every advantage on the morning flight. For five hours the sound of the guns could be heard from every part of the big marsh, and shortly after 10 o'clock the canoes arrived at the lodge.

Delighted With Luck.

The first to land was the Duke, and although there were no cheering crowds to greet his arrival, this did not appear to distress his spirits, for the excellent morning's sport and splendid luck had thoroughly delighted him. Lord Minto, Sir Charles Cust, Prince Alexander of Teck, Major Maude and Senator Kirchhoffer, arrived in quick succession, and the duck-laden canoes were landed. As a result of the morning' sport nearly 200 ducks, which number included all varieties known to Manitoba hunters, were brought in, and in addition to this number numerous birds were shot but could not be secured because of the impassable marshes.

The Duke Bagged 52.

His Royal Highness proved himself an excellent shot, bagging 52 birds, and of the adventurous ducks coming within range of his unerring aim few indeed escaped. He expressed great pleasure and was enthusiastic over the outing.

Early yesterday afternoon the party started out again to remain until sundown. The guests are thoroughly delighted with the sport here, and will embark for the east to-day with feelings of regret.

A Threshing Scene.

Lord Crichton and Commander Godfrey Faussett are guests of Messrs. Galt of Winnipeg at the shooting lodge three miles east. This morning the guests will again go after the ducks and immediately after luncheon on their return the party will leave for the train. It is the intention to afford them an opportunity to witness a threshing scene near Poplar Point to-day before the departure of the train.

Royal Standard Flies.

As the Duke of York landed here Sunday, the royal standard of Britain was flung to the breeze from the flagpole of the Lodge Cottage, and it remains hoisted until his departure. Accompanying the party is Col. Sherwood of Ottawa, who is here in charge of the guard, and Captain Young of Souris, who is in charge of the camp. Several Winnipeggers are also assisting in the arrangements, looking to the comfort and pleasure of the guests.

DUCHESS ON A HAND CAR.

Regina, N. W. T., Oct. 8.—The royal special, carrying the Duchess of Cornwall from Banff to Poplar Point, passed here at 7 o'clock last evening, having completed 565 of the 872 miles lying between the two towns. The royal special was run in two sections, 30 minutes apart, the first carrying the Countess of Minto and part of the suite. The snow of ten days ago had disappeared from the plains, and fair weather made the day's ride an enjoyable one.

The Duchess was given a ride on a handcar at Parkberg. She was accompanied by Lady Mary Lygon and Mrs. Derik Keppel, and the car was manned by the following distinguished crew: Sir Arthur Bigge, Sir John Anderson, Major S. Edison, Dr. A. Manby, W. R. Baker, Superintendent Millstonemm mm mm mm intendent Milestone of the C. P. R., and F. P. Dug. The party rode for a mile and a half, and, after posing for an amusing photograph, returned to the town.

At Regina the first section of the royal special was stopped for 30 minutes, and Lady Minto formally opened Victoria Memorial Cottage Hospital, built from a fund founded by her. The Duchess' train is due at Poplar Point at 10 o'clock today, and will be met by the Duke and the other members of the royal party. There is to be an exhibition of wheat threshing at a Poplar Point ranch, at the conclusion of which the eastward journey will be resumed. At Winnipeg Sir Wilfrid Laurier will rejoin the ducal party.

Duke at Kingston.

Kingston, Oct. 8.—Through the influence of Sir Sanford Fleming, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Governor-General, H. R. H. the Duke of York has consented to lay the foundation stone of Queen's University new Arts Building.

No Halifax Review.

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—Dr. Montizambert, Director-General of Public Health for Canada, has reported against the holding of any military review at Halifax on the 17th inst., in honor of Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, because of smallpox at Halifax and a number of other places all over the Province. The likelihood, therefore, is that the review will be abandoned.

Mr. Fielding Will Come.

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—Hon. W. S. Fielding will leave on Wednesday for Toronto to attend the royal review.

Politics With Pleasure.

Winnipeg, Oct. 8.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Lieut. Governor McMillan, J. D. Cameron, Chief Justice Killam, Isaac Campbell, K. C., and several others saw "the buffalo" yesterday. The Premier is meeting quite a number of Liberals while here, and it is reported discussing his party's prospects.

SCHLEY DID RIGHT.

Witness Defends the Admiral for His Conduct During Battle.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Lieut.-Commander Hodgson again occupied the greater part of the Schley Court of Inquiry yesterday as a witness. He was followed on the stand by Captain W. M. Folger, formerly Chief of the Bureau of Ordinance of the Navy Department, but commander of the New Orleans during the Spanish war.

Commander Hodgson repeated and extended his story of the battle of July 3, giving the opinion that Commodore Schley's conduct on that occasion was such, as that of the commander-in-chief, should have been.

Captain Folger said that the bombardment of the Cristobal Colon on May 31 had been eminently successful in developing the strength of the ship's shore batteries, and had shown them to be very weak. He also said that if the ships had attempted to escape at night they could not have been seen by the blockading fleet in bad weather.

A Tardy Statement.

New York, Oct. 8.—Col. R. N. Thompson, President of the United States Naval Academy Alumnae Association, made a statement yesterday concerning MacLay's book, in which the author calles Admiral Schely a coward and a catiff. The story is that the proofs of the book were submitted to Admiral Sampson for correction, but, as soon as Admiral Sampson arrived at the part which contained the statement that Schely was a coward, he was very much angered, and said the statement was one the author had no right to make, that it was unjust and unfair to speak of any naval officer in such terms, and declined to have anything further to do with the proofs. His secretary then continued the reading of the proofs, comparing the book with the records, and marking corrections on the margins, but paying no attention to opinions expressed by the author.

PASSING OF THE AMEER.

Abdurrahman Khan Died Last Thursday After a Brief Illness.

London, Oct. 8.—A news agency last evening publishes the following despatch from Simla, dated the same evening:

"Habib Oullah Khan, eldest son of the Ameer of Afghanistan, has reported to the British agent at Cabul that the Ameer died last Thursday, after a brief illness."

Abdurrahman Khan was the eldest son of Mohammed Afzue Khan and was born 1830. In the civil war of 1864 he took sides against his uncle, was defeated in 1868 and forced to flee to Russia for protection. There he was given a pension and housed at Samarcand. In July, 1880, he returned to the Cabul frontier and was acknowledged Ameer by the British Government.

Released and Ticket-of-Leave Prisoners.

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—Reuben Hashen, sentenced at Toronto on Dec. 22, 1900, to 12 months' imprisonment for false pretences, has been released for good behavior, so also has Ralph Luke, who was given six months for theft on July 4. The following have been released on ticket of leave: R. Montague Webb, sentenced to six months for forgery on June 18; Thomas Stead, sentenced for three years for house breaking on Sept. 2, 1899, and Joseph Smith, sentenced to three years for robbery on Nov. 9, 1898.

Daily Intelligencer.

TARTE AND THE $20,000 BRIBE.

A few days ago the attention of the people of Canada was called to a charge made by the Hon. Israel Tarte that $20,000 had been offered by a contractor to some one or more of the members of the Montreal Harbor Board, in consideration of that Board accepting his tender for the construction of an elevator at a cost of between $600,000 and $700,000.

The members of the Board and the contractor denied the truth of the accusation, and the Harbor Board smarting under the accusation at a meeting called for the purpose, passed a resolution asking the Hon. the Minister of Public Works to investigate the charge which he had laid at the door of some of its members. Mr. Tarte, as is his wont, snubs the gentlemen of the Board who dared to ask him for the authority upon which he felt himself justified in making the statement he did, and tells them he is "too busy a man" to comply with their request. His answer to the resolution is unique, coming as it does from a Cabinet Minister, and justifies reproducing. Here it is:

"Permit me to acknowledge the receipt of your communication dated October 1, forwarding to me a copy of the resolution unanimously adopted by the Harbor Commissioners at a special meeting held on the 30th of September, 1901, and to say in reply that I am too busy a man to lose my time in holding investigations in reference to what purported to be a report of a special meeting of the Commissioners, held on the 23rd instant. Your Board very truly stated that the said report was exaggerated and misleading.

"The meeting to which I was invited was of a private nature. Somebody who was present gave out to a newspaper an inaccurate, exaggerated and misleading report. It is not my business and my duty to investigate erroneous and misleading reports published in newspapers. I have not done so and do not intend to do so in this case."

Great man is Israel. If the members of the Montreal Harbor Board are not a lot of political cravens they will resign in a body or teach their insulter a lesson he will not soon forget.

The facts as related by the Star, are that:—

"On the memorable evening of Monday, September 23, the Hon. Mr. Tarte informed these gentlemen that one of their number had told him that Mr. J. A. Jamieson was prepared to pay the sum of $20,000 in consideration of obtaining the contract for the building of a fire proof elevator on the harbor front.

"At that time the Hon. Minister of Public Works declared that his informant was present at the board, around which were seated every member of the Harbor Board, the Chief Engineer and the Secretary. Mr. Tarte refused, however, to state who his informant was."

The Star further says:

"Each and every member of the Harbor Board, with one exception, signed the document stating that they had no connection with a $20,000 bribe, or bribe of any other size. The one gentleman who failed to sign the letter was Mr. Jonathan Hodgson. It was stated by his brother commissioners that he refused to sign the letter from political reasons. As an ardent Liberal, he did not wish to mix himself up in anything which might give offence to the Government, in the person of Mr. Tarte, and as a consequence refused to place his name on the document."

Such reasons as those given by Mr. Hodgson for not putting his name to a document denying the truth of Mr. Tarte's statement, will not add to his reputation.

It is lamentable that public bodies or any member thereof should be looked upon as venal enough to be capable of betraying the trust reposed in them for money, hence the most searching investigation should be insisted upon to ascertain the truth. If this is not done members of municipal and corporate bodies will, whether justified or not, become a synonym for peculation, bribery and corruption.

PINCHED AND PUNY

South American Nervine is the Antidote for the ills which are induced by humanity's "mad rush" for an existence. The "eat and run" way of living is accountable for more of the pinched and puny faces than any other cause under the sun.

Dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, sick-headache are the prime causes for broken-up nerves. Nature foretold the strain that we would be compelled to live under and has revealed to medical science the favorite formula—South American Nervine—and its daily joy is to put back the bloom of perfect health in the faces of millions who do honest toil. 26

TIMELY TOPICS.

We think that the great majority of our citizens will applaud the decision of Mayor Graham and the Aldermen who last night firmly opposed any further extension of the tax rolls of 1899 and 1900. To use a homely but very expressive phrase, the willing horses of this city have been worked to death quite long enough. The halt has been called none too soon.

The question is not a new one. For years people have known what was going on. They grew warm under the collar, but were powerless to put a stop to the practice of making fish of one taxpayer and flesh of another. Now it looks as though the city had at last taken a step in the direction of civic reform. We hope to see the Council firmly adhere to the decision arrived at last night. If Tax Collector Starling cannot collect all the moneys owed on the rolls of 1899, let him make his returns on the 15th of this month, and so state. Then if some disinterested Alderman will move for the promulgation of all matters connected with the arrears, the end of an evil condition of affairs may be brought about. Stand to your guns, Mr. Mayor and gentlemen. Let's have this matter straightened up once and for all.

The action of the Council in granting another $3,000 to the Water Commissioners for the extension of the service is to be commended. To be successful the Water Works department must have customers. The Mayor says it will be able to pay 4 per cent. when matters are settled and the extensions made. Perhaps, when these good times have arrived, there may be some reduction in the price of the service. There certainly cannot be while only a select few get the water. More consumers, lower rates, that's the rule.

There does not appear to be any good reason why the Council should refuse to grant Mr. Corby the right he last night asked for, namely, power to run a siding across the market square to his new offices on the corner of Front St. and the market square. Mr. Corby promises that he will not run cars on the siding during market hours. That being the case the Council might well do all in its power to grant the request of a public-spirited citizen and large employer of labor like Mr. Corby, who, no doubt, will see that the interests of his native city will not suffer.

The Tarte-Prefontaine war still goes merrily on. The pot calls the kettle black, and the kettle truthfully says "You're another."

There seems to be unanimity among all classes of our citizens as to tendering a reception to the Duke and Duchess. That's right. This little City of Belleville don't take off its hat to anybody in the matter of loyalty.

In South Africa there was a place near Cape Town known as Stellenbosch. If, in the course of the campaign, an officer developed a cracked temper or any other defect which hampered operations or developed friction with the powers that be, he was ordered to Stellenbosch. Hence the verb "Stellenboshed."

• • •

The Dutch, who are making such a howl about Great Britain's "inability" to finish the South African war, apparently forget that Holland is conducting a war in Sumatra that has been going on with more or less violence since 1870, and is not by any means ended yet. The Dutch exercise a suzerainty over the island, but the Sultan made an attempt to throw off this influence. Originally the Netherlands only wanted to restore matters to their former state, but since then they have determined on the island's complete subjugation. In this effort they have already spent over $200,000,000, and the Sumatrans say they have only begun to fight.

Celebrated Their Golden Wedding

CROWDS OF WELL-WISHERS TENDERED CONGRATULATIONS TO MAJOR AND MRS. CASSWELL LAST NIGHT.

Of course you know the Major. Not a soul in Belleville but knows and admires the sturdy old English gentleman who, though crowding on to his eightieth birthday, walks with the erectness of a young fellow of 50. Though time has silvered his hair it has not dimmed his spirit, dampened the ardor of his patriotism nor weakened the enthusiasm with which he follows the Golden Rule. Truly, one of nature's noblemen is Major Caswell, who with his estimable wife and family, has been a resident of Belleville since 1885.

It would be impossible for the Major to live anywhere without making friends—everything in this world finds its level, as the realists say—but the kindly old gentleman never in his wildest dreams imagined that he had so many friends as turned out to meet and felicitate him last night, when, at his cosy residence on Bridge St., he celebrated the 50th anniversary of his marriage. Perhaps the easiest way to explain things would be to give the marriage notice, as it appeared at the time:

CASWELL—PAINE.—At the United Church of England and Ireland, Woodstock, Upper Canada, British North America, by the Rev. William Betteridge, B.D., Albert Caswell and Mary Elizabeth Paine, both of Ingersoll, October the 7th, 1851.

And so last night, surrounded by loving relatives and friends, the bride and bridegroom of fifty years made solemn thanksgiving to God for their happy married life and the many blessings He had vouchsafed them.

An "At Home" was held from 7 to 11, previous to which the thanksgiving service was held. The clergymen taking part were Revs. O. C. Elliott and Robert Wallace, of the Baptist Church, and Rev. Canon Burke. The members of the family and a few intimate friends were present.

A few minutes after 7 the guests began to arrive, and then the ladies of the family say the Major lost his presence of mind altogether. As tokens of esteem were rained upon him he fairly broke down. "Upon my word," he exclaimed, "I had no idea I had so many friends in Belleville."

The house was literally a mass of flowers, which had been sent by friends to the happy couple. After congratulations were over the guests were entertained in a musical way. Mrs. Campbell acted as accompanist; Miss Frances Caswell sang, as did also Mr. Milburn.

Regrets were expressed at the absence of many members of the family, who, being scattered all over America, found it impossible to attend.

Among those present was Mr. Thomas Hislop, of Ingersoll, who was married one year before the Major and Mrs. Caswell, the latter lady being bridesmaid at his wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Hislop celebrated their golden wedding last year.

The function came to an end about 11 o'clock, when the guests formed two circles around the happy couple and sang "Auld Lang Syne," Prof. Hunt playing Mendelssohn's Wedding March as they retired.

Telegrams of congratulations were received from Montreal, Digby, N.S., St. John, N.B., and Chatham, N.B. Letters of felicitation having been coming on every mail for weeks past.

Following are the members of the Major's family, together with their places of residence:

Mrs. Flint, Toronto; Mrs. Partridge, Petaluma, Cal.; Miss Caswell, who is at present with Dr. Caswell, at Gagetown, N.B., and Miss Frances Caswell, at home.

During their 50 years of married life Mr. and Mrs. Caswell have never lost a child or a grandchild.

The presents were numerous and simply magnificent, and would make many a latter-day bride turn green with envy. They included a rosewood cabinet from the Baptist church and a gold pencil from the Masons of this city.

One of the most pleasing features of the evening was the presence of the Fifteenth Regiment in front of the house a few minutes before 11 o'clock. They came to show their respect for the Major as an "old veteran" and a man, and the mark of esteem was gratefully received.

We heartily join in the parting words of the scores who were present last night. That the lives of the Major and his estimable wife may be spared for many years to come.

Malt Breakfast Food

A CREATOR OF BRAWN AND MUSCLE.

The health and strength-giving properties of Malt Breakfast Food are now fully known and appreciated by millions on this North American continent. The marvellous action of the pure Malt combined with the virtues of the choicest Wheat, gives to old and young an agent or creator of true brawn and muscle and a builder of physical health and brain power.

If you are a user of ordinary oatmeal or any of the common prepared foods falsely sold as health foods, we strongly advise you to give Malt Breakfast Food a trial for one week. The change will be so pronounced in good results that you will consider it a necessity to adopt the world's only true health food. You will soon discover that Malt Breakfast Food has no stomach irritating properties, does not heat the blood or cause unsightly skin eruptions. Your Grocer and your friends who have tried it will recommend its use.

A Run for the Firemen.

Shortly before noon to-day the Fire Brigade was called out to Mr. Henry Clarke's residence, on Victoria Avenue. A blaze became in some way started in a cupboard in the summer kitchen, but was extinguished before the firemen arrived on the scene. The loss was trifling.

WARTS AINT PRETTY.

Why do you hang on to yours? Don't know how to cure them? Why, Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor does the work in short order — you just try it. Guess your druggist has it all right—ask him.

"CEAD MILLE FAILTHE"

The Rev. Dr. Crothers, pastor of Bridge St. Church, ought to be one of the most grateful and best pleased residents in our city to-day, for he had every opportunity last night of seeing and hearing how delighted is the congregation of which he is pastor at his return after two months absence in Europe.

A large Reception Committee greeted each person as they arrived, and the cordiality of that welcome put everyone in the best of humor and gave to a number of strangers who have recently united with them some idea of how glad the congregation is to have them with them. An Introduction Committee next took the newcomers to Belleville in hand and the number of genial people they were introduced to must have been bewildering.

The Leagues had made the beautiful Sunday School rooms look extra pretty with flags and plants and flowers.

After more than an hour of social intercourse, Mr. Charles M. Reid took the chair and called on the Rev. Dr. Galbraith to lead in thanksgiving to God for what the function meant.

Ex-Mayor J. W. Johnson, on behalf of the congregation, in felicitous language welcomed Dr. Crothers back and also sketched in eloquent words the rise, spread and present dimensions of Methodism. Mr. Johnson was in his best form. It is fortunate for a congregation to have a gentleman who can so well express its sentiments.

The Rev. Dr. Crothers after thanking such a host of friends for their welcome to him, told of his visit to the land of his forefathers and of the Ecumenical Conference, out of which he thought much good would come.

The church quartette, composed of Miss Marie Wheler, Miss Q. Watson, Mr. J. T. Burns and Mr. C. H. Vermilyea, contributed two numbers to the all too brief programme. Miss Wheler gave a vocal solo and Mr. James C. Balis, B.A., contributed the hymn "Abide with Me" in the sign language; Mr. John T. Burns singing the hymn. Mr. S. Burrows sang a patriotic song, and after further hand-shaking the large gathering separated.

His Condition Improving.

Enquiry at the hospital to-day elicited the information that Mr. Hope McGinnis, who was terribly injured yesterday, had passed a very good night and this morning his condition was much improved. This will be pleasing news to the young man's many friends.

Charged With Horse Stealing

Alfred Fairman, of Marmora, a young man 19 years of age, was this afternoon on trial before Judge Lazier, charged with horse stealing. Some weeks ago the accused took a horse from Mr. Wm. Orser's place, in the Township of Rawdon, and made an effort to sell it before he was caught. He escaped from County Constable Scrimshaw after he was arrested, and was not found for five days later. The trial was not concluded when we went to press. Mr. Anderson for the Crown and Mr. McMahon for the accused.

Suits FOR Young Men

For the young fellows who are nearly men, but who are a mighty sight more particular than most men—those young fellows who knows what's what when it comes to the shape of a coat or the hang of the trousers—for those exacting young fellows we have provided a larger variety in Suits than heretofore. They've encouraged us to do so, because they are always looking to us for everything that's fashionable and snappy. And then they appreciate the efforts we take in fitting their clothes.

$5 to $15.

Come, look them over. If you want to know what's going to be worn come in and take a look at them. They won't cost you anything.

THE MAYOR SAID HE WOULD RESIGN

If the Tax Rolls of 1899 Were Extended Beyond the 15th Instant.

Warm Controversy in the Council Last Night—Rolls Must be Returned.

Mr. Corby Wants a Siding Through the Market—Water Main Extension.

A regular meeting of the City Council was held last evening, the members in attendance being: Mayor Graham, Aldermen Bogart, Denmark, Doyle, Falkiner, Harris McFee, Panter, Grills and Lattimer.

After the reading and confirming of the minutes of the last meeting the following communications, accounts, etc., were presented:

From Mr. Wm. Black, complaining of stagnant water being allowed to remain on the road in front of his residence on James street, which was injurious to health.

From Mr. Geo. H. Pope, asking that a granolithic walk be built in front of his residence on Commercial street. The present wooden sidewalk, he stated, was in a disgraceful condition.

From Mr. W. J. McCamon, as solicitor for a number of ratepayers on Victoria Avenue, opposing the construction of a sewer on Victoria Avenue and threatening a suit if the work was commenced.

From Mr. J. H. Starling, Tax Collector, asking for a further extension of time for the return of the rolls of 1899 and 1900.

Mr. Walter Alford, manager of the Water Works department, submitted a statement as to what had been done and is ordered to be done on extensions at a cost of about $6,000. Extensions were proposed on ten streets at a total cost of $5742.23, and the estimated revenue would be $641 per annum. The Manager said: "I would respectfully submit that one new High Duty steam pump of 2,000,000 gallons capacity in 24 hours, with corresponding boilers, be procured at a cost of about $8,000; also a new dock at pump house, at a cost of $3,000, and a new main across the river at a cost of about $1,500; the total cost of all expenditure being $19,242.23.

Mr. Corby's New Offices.

From Mr. H. Corby, stating that he had purchased the property on the corner of Front street and the market square, on which he intended expending some $6,000 or $7,000 in improvements. It was his intention to then move his offices and places of business from Bridge St. to the site spoken of. He asked the privilege of running in a railway siding by the market, the same to be done under the supervision of the Street Surveyor. He also stated that no cars would be run during market hours.

From Mr. Joseph James, of Actinolite, in reference to the public meeting to be held in Madoc in reference to mining matters, and inviting the Mayor and members of the Council to attend.

From Mr. M. Kelleher, asking for relief, as he was in a destitute condition.

A statement was presented from the City Treasurer, showing that $36,836.55 had been collected in taxes by Mr. Starling since his appointment, up to Saturday evening, 5th inst.

The accounts were:

Lewis Co.	$25 15
W. W. Chown	5 56
W. W. Chown	3 10
J. Weir	200 00
Rathbun Co.	8 72
A. Rollins	30 00
Trenton Electric Co.	317 19

Reports of Committees.

Reports were presented from the Executive, Public Works, Fire, Water and Light, Parks and Market Committees, which have already been published.

On motion the Council went into Committee of the Whole on reports, Ald. Panter in the chair.

The Executive Committee's report was first taken up and the various items of expenditure were passed without discussion.

The Committee recommended that the City Clerk hand over every day to the City Treasurer, fines and fees collected in connection with the police court, which recommendation prevailed.

Wanted a Further Extension.

The recommendation that no further time be given for the collection of the rolls of 1899 and 1900, caused considerable discussion.

Ald. Bogart said the Collector had stated that it was impossible for him to have the rolls of 1899 completed by the 15th inst. He thought a short extension should be granted.

Ald. Harris thought that if the Collector could not get the taxes collected by the time specified an extension might be granted.

Ald. Grills could not see why the time should be extended. If the Collector cannot do it himself he should get assistance. It was a mistake to keep extending the rolls.

The Mayor stated this question had already been threshed out. The rolls should have been in by last March. The citizens who were behind in their taxes knew the time, and he would not consent to one day more of extension.

Ald. Doyle objected to any further extension for the roll of 1899. He stated that he had received a letter from the manager of the Bank of Montreal in reference to this matter.

Some of the Aldermen asked that the letter be read, but as objection was taken to publicly reading a private letter only the last paragraph was read, which stated that there was some $30,000 apparently due the Bank on the two rolls and they must ask for a more vigorous collection of the taxes.

Tax Collector Starling was heard in reference to the matter and stated that on the 29th of July the rolls of 1899 and 1900 were placed in his hands, and he had done all he possibly could up to the present to make the collections. He could not perform impossibilities and he considered it an impossibility to complete the roll for 1899 by the 15th inst. The rolls had been extended from time to time for the previous Collector.

Ald. McFee asked Mr. Starling what time he desired as an extension.

Mr. Starling—"Say to the 15th or end of November." Having the rolls of 1901 on hand now he had double work and had assistants to help him.

The Mayor's Firm Stand.

The Mayor stated that if an extension of the rolls asked for was granted, he did not wish to sit any longer in the Council. The extension of the rolls of 1899 and 1900 would also mean the extending of the rolls of 1901, and he was opposed to it. This extending the time had to be stopped, and if the request was granted he felt very much like stepping down and out.

Ald. Doyle again spoke against any further time being granted; the city's business, he said, would suffer were the time extended. In that case he would not wish to sit in the Council.

Will Not be Extended.

The Committee's recommendation that no further time be granted prevailed, five members voting for it, namely, the Mayor, Aldermen Grills, McFee, Doyle and Harris.

Those in favor of an extension were Aldermen Falkiner, Bogart, Denmark and Lattimer.

The Public Works Committee report was taken up.

The Victoria Avenue Drain.

The Committee recommended that plans and specifications be prepared for the building of a drain on Victoria avenue.

The letter of Mr. McCamon was read and that gentleman also addressed the Council. He said a number of the tax-payers had protested against the building of the drain, as they had now to pay for a granolithic walk which meant an extra tax, and they did not wish to have an additional tax this year.

Mr. W. H. Ketcheson, a resident of Victoria Ave., said he was paying a heavy tax at present and did not wish to have an extra tax. There was a drain on the avenue at present.

The Mayor stated there was a stone drain down the street, which was not in a sanitary condition. At the Bank of Montreal there was sewer gas, which had been complained of.

Ald. McFee said it would be a hardship to compel certain tax-payers to pay their proportion of the extra tax, when they did not wish it. It should not be forced upon them this season.

Ald. Grills did not think it wise to force the building of this drain now. He moved that the matter be laid over for this year.

Ald. Bogart concurred in what Ald. McFee had stated. The matter could be laid over for the present.

Ald. Harris said there was a drain built loosely on that street, but it was of small dimensions, and did not properly carry off the sewage which was emptied into it. The Bank of Montreal had laid out hundreds of dollars in order to have their building in a sanitary condition, but it will not be such until a new sewer is built.

Ald. Grills' motion prevailed.

The Street Surveyor was authorized to construct a number of street gullies.

Market Committee.

This Committee recommended that the Chairman and Ald. Doyle be a Committee to see about a new furnace or repairs to the one on the north side of the City building which was not at present fit for use.

The communication of Mr. Black was referred to the Chairman of Public Works and the Street Surveyor, with power to act.

Mr. Corby's Request.

Mr. H. Corby's communication was taken up.

Ald. Harris was in favor of granting the privilege asked for.

The Mayor moved that the request be granted.

Ald. McFee Wants Time to Think it Over.

Ald. McFee said this matter required much consideration. We had a fine market and it was often crowded. He did not like to oppose Mr. Corby's request, but the City's interests had to be protected. We require all the room we have on the market and want no obstructions. If this track is built we have no guarantee when the cars will be moved. The G.T.R. is not controlled by Mr. Corby, and they would move cars whenever they pleased. It would, he thought, be a mistake to run a track across the market.

Mayor Graham said he had had some experience with the G.T.R., and knew that only two shunts would be made a day, namely, about 8 or 9 in the morning and about 4 or 5 in the afternoon. Mr. Corby says the city could have control of the siding, and no cars would be left on the market, but upon Mr. Corby's private property.

Ald. Panter thought we should have some plan as to where and how the siding was to be built.

Ald. Denmark thought a plan should be prepared first and submitted to the Council.

On motion the request of Mr. Corby was favorably received and laid over for the present, until the plans are received.

Extending the Mains.

The request of the Water Commissioners was taken up.

The Mayor stated that some extensions to mains were necessary, and the total cost would be about $5,000. Many had asked for the city water, and the Council would only have to provide some $3,000, as $2,000 was granted by the Council some time ago. If these extensions were made the earnings would show about 11 per cent. If this grant was going to be authorized it should be done at once, so that the work could be proceeded with.

Ald. Doyle did not know how this would agree with our finances. We should be careful how we spent our money until we know just how we stand. The Commissioners should give a statement of the Water Works department, showing the earnings.

A Missing Statement.

The Mayor stated that Ald. Doyle had been shown a statement, and he thought he had one in his possession.

Ald. Doyle—"I saw one at your office for a short time, but did not obtain possession of it."

The Mayor—"It has been missing since Ald. Doyle was there."

Ald. Doyle—"I did not take it."

The Mayor—"Well, it is gone."

Ald. McFee thought the matter could be laid over for two weeks and a statement sent to the Council, then they would know how they stood.

The Mayor said the grant, if it was to be given, should be given at once, in order to go on with the work. There was a hydrant rental of $3,500 about due the Water Works department from the city, and another large account from the G.T.R. which had been sued for.

Ald. Grills thought it would be useless to lay the matter over, and Ald. Falkiner spoke similarly.

Ald. McFee—"I withdraw my motion."

The Mayor said the total the city would have to provide of the $5,000 would be $3,042.

The amount asked for was voted.

The Committee rose and reported. The report was received and adopted.

Inquiries.

Ald. McFee asked if there was any information to be given the Council in reference to the Duke and Duchess of York's visit to the city.

The Mayor stated that he had received a telegram from Major Maude, which had been published, and a public meeting would be held to-morrow at 4.30 p.m. to discuss what would be done in the matter.

Ald. Grills asked when the drain was to be built on Pinnacle street, which was proposed some time ago in Council.

Ald. Harris—"It will be built soon."

Ald. Falkiner wished to know if some repairs would be made to Bridge street west, from the lower bridge to the foot of Murney's hill.

Ald. Harris—"I will attend to it."

Ald. Panter asked if the sidewalk on Benjamin street would be repaired. It was in a disgraceful state.

Ald. Harris—"I will speak to the patchers at once about it."

Ald. Doyle asked if some repairs would be made to the sidewalk on Dundas street, in the vicinity of the hospital.

Ald. Harris—"I will see that it is attended to."

Council adjourned.

LARGE STOCK OF BOYS' REEFERS.

If you were to take a look at the big piles of boys' reefers at the Oak Hall, you might wonder when they would ever be sold. They will all go this season and are selling fast now. We offer you reefers with high collars from $1.50 to $5. Be sure and see our fine assortment.

INDIANS FOUND GUILTY.

The trial of Abraham P. Brant and wife, before Judge Lazier yesterday, on the charge of inciting and procuring David P. Brant to burn their barn was not concluded until the evening, and His Honor reserved judgment until this morning.

At 10.30 judgment was given and both were found guilty of the charge. His Honor reviewed the evidence given and concluded that they had hired David to commit the act in order to procure the insurance money. It was evident that Mrs. Brant was not possessed of the intelligence her husband had, but both knew better.

The sentence of the court was that Abraham P. Brant be sent for one year to the Central Prison and Mrs. Brant confined in the County jail for a period of three months.

THE 15th REGIMENT

WILL LEAVE FOR THE QUEEN CITY TO-NIGHT—TO ENTRAIN AT THE MARKET SQUARE.

There was a good turn-out of the local redcoat regiment last night, and the men got a good stiff drill for the last one. There is every indication that the Fifteenth will give a good account of itself at Toronto.

The Regiment will parade at 8 o'clock to-night, in the Drill Shed. They will leave the Armory at 8:30, march to the Market Square and at once entrain as quickly as possible. Every man is urged to be on hand as near 7.30 as he can.

A Veteran's Funeral

The funeral of the late Mr. Jeremiah Aris, a veteran of 1864-66, took place this afternoon and was largely attended. The members of the Veterans' Association attended in a body and marched at the head of the cortege. Previous to leaving the house a service was held, conducted by the Rev. M. J. Bates, pastor of Bleecker Street Methodist Church. Upon the casket were placed many beautiful floral tributes. The bearers were selected from the Veterans' Association, being as follows: Messrs. John McKeown, Wm. Black, Wm. McKenna, Wm. Gibson, Chas. Addison, and Robt. Baker.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one-half, the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done, it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilious habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little effect. But since using 3 bottles of the Vegetable Discovery, the biliousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 60 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know."

THE PUBLIC should bear in mind that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has nothing in common with the impure, deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or hurts, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

When all other preparations fail, try Holloway's Corn Cure. No pain whatever, and no inconvenience in using it.

There is nothing else on earth so annoying as procrastination in decisions.

To get relief from indigestion, biliousness, constipation or torpid liver without disturbing the stomach or purging the bowels, take a few doses of Carter's Little Liver Pills, they will please you.

That tired, languid feeling and dull headache is very disagreeable. Take two of Carter's Little Liver Pills before retiring, and you will find relief. They never fail to do good.

They make one feel as though life was worth living. Take one of Carter's Little Liver Pills after eating; it will relieve dyspepsia, aid digestion, give tone and vigor to the system.

A man does not necessarily have to be a lawyer to have good, hard sense.

Sleeplessness.—When the nerves are unstrung and the whole body given up to wretchedness, when the mind is filled with gloom and dismal forebodings, the result of derangement of the digestive organs, sleeplessness comes to add to the distress. If only the subject could sleep, there would be the oblivion for a while and temporary relief. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, but will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

An indiscreet man usually lives to see the folly of his ways; and, if he doesn't, his children do.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Nine-tenths of the consumptives date their afflictions from a neglected cold, and the diseases that are caused by wet feet, damp clothes, or exposure are more numerous than are generally supposed. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which frees the lungs from viscid phlegm by changing the secretions from a diseased to a healthy state.

A man should always be close to the situation, know what he is doing, and not take anything for granted.

The Flagging Energies Revived.—Constant application to business is a tax upon the energies, and if there be not relaxation, lassitude and depression are sure to intervene. These come from stomachic troubles. The want of exercise brings on nervous irregularities, and the stomach ceases to assimilate food properly. In this condition Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a recuperative of rare power, restoring the organs to healthful action, dispelling depression and reviving the flagging energies.

Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is a speedy cure for dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera, summer complaint, sea sickness and complaints incidental to children teething. It gives immediate relief to those suffering from the effects of indiscretion in eating unripe fruit, cucumbers, etc. It acts with wonderful rapidity and never fails to conquer the disease. No one need fear cholera if they have a bottle of this medicine convenient.

Four Killed in a Feudal Fight.

Middlesboro, Ky., Oct. 8.—A feudal fight, in which four persons were killed and four wounded, occurred Sunday at the Big Springs Union Baptist Church over Tennessee line.

The killed: Tip Chadwell, James Chadwell, Rush Morgan and Henry Morgan.

The feud has existed between the Virginia Morgans and the Tennessee Chadwells since the civil war. Since then thirty Morgans and forty Chadwells have been killed in the numerous fights that have taken place.

Multiplying Holidays.

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—The 9th of November, King Edward's birthday, will be a public holiday throughout Canada. By law the birthday of the reigning Sovereign is a public holiday, whether proclaimed by proclamation or not. This will give Torontonians plenty of holidays. This week they take two days off in which to welcome the Duke, on the 9th of November they celebrate the King's birthday, on the 28th of the month comes Thanksgiving Day, followed closely by Christmas and New Year's.

Eating Their Children.

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 8. —The steamship Glenogle brings news of human flesh being freely sold in the famine districts of Shansi, China. Babes and young children are being butchered. The Empress-Dowager has commanded that the practice be stopped, but is able to enforce her orders only around Hsianfu. The money collected by The Christian Herald of New York has been distributed, saving many from starvation.

Mr. H. O. Asked to Resign.

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—The smallpox situation took on a decidedly bad face last night, when it was reported that seven new cases had been found in different parts of the city. The City Council last night decided to ask for the resignation of the Medical Health Officer, Dr. Robillard, who has held office for years.

Windsor's Population.

Windsor, Oct. 8.—Assessor Black of Windsor made public figures yesterday morning, showing the population of Windsor to be 12,642, an increase of 400 over the figures in the Government census.

Methodist Delegates Home.

Toronto, Oct. 8.—The 4.15 p. m. train from the East brought home to Toronto yesterday Rev. Dr. Potts, the leading delegate to the World's Ecumenical Council at London, England, and Chancellor Burwash of Victoria University. The students of Victoria met the rev. gentlemen at the station and gave them a warm reception. Upon arriving at the University, Chancellor Burwash and Dr. Potts made brief complimentary speeches.

Storm Did Great Damage.

Berlin, Oct. 8.—Violent storms raged in many parts of Germany Sunday and yesterday. A hurricane at Frankfort destroyed many houses and injured 20 persons. Heavy snow fell in the Brocken region, and in the Valley of the Moselle, heavy rains caused freshets, doing damage to the vintage.

THE FOUNTAIN OF HEALTH FOR OLD PEOPLE IS

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

It Gives New Vitality, Strengthens Brain Power and Maintains Perfect Digestion.

MR. G. CRAWFORD,

AN OCTOGENARIAN SPEAKS OF THE WONDERFUL MEDICINE.

Paine's Celery Compound has added years of peace, free from the infirmities of old age, to thousands of lives. It stimulates the vital powers; it keeps the body free from pains; it gives perfect action to the kidneys; it keeps up nerve force; it builds strength and makes life happy and enjoyable. Multitudes of people reduced in strength, sleepless, nervous, and apparently near the end of life, have joyfully testified to rapid gain in vigor with regular and refreshing sleep after a trial of Paine's Celery Compound.

Mr. Geo. Crawford, London, Ont., writes as follows:

"After using eight bottles of Paine's Celery Compound, I wish to let you know the results. I had a painful fullness and an unnatural heat in the top of my head, and it felt as if something was rolling through it. I had dizziness, I slept little and irregularly, was troubled with restlessness and uneasy dreams, and my appetite was bad. I am now vastly changed by the use of your medicine; I sleep well and relish my food, and nervous system is greatly renewed. I feel my whole system better. I cannot expect at seventy-nine years of age to be as I was at thirty, but Paine's Celery Compound has done wonders for me."

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—Judge Gregory of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick has, in addition to his other duties, been appointed a Judge of the Divorce Court, at $500 per annum.

Traveling Experiences.

Mother—Sir, I hope my little boy doesn't worry you by his fretting and crying. He isn't well, or he wouldn't act so.

Mr. Man—Oh, no. All children act that way. I'm used to it—in fact, I haven't seen a well child for 20 years.

A man should not be blamed for the mistakes he makes. He should be credited, as he profits by them.—Atchison Globe.

Sober Second Thought.

"I thought I was riding into office on a wave of popular enthusiasm!"

"Yes?"

"But after I'd paid the bills I felt as if I'd footed it in, so to speak."

Severe Cases OF Indigestion

CANNOT BE CURED BY ORDINARY STOMACH MEDICINES — THE KIDNEYS, LIVER AND BOWELS BECOME DERANGED — DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS CURE.

By far the most important part of digestion takes place in the intestines, as has been repeatedly shown in cases where the stomach has been removed and the patient has lived and digested food without the aid of the stomach.

It frequently happens that people who continually dose the stomach for indigestion and use pepsin and various kinds of digestive tablets and powders can obtain no relief from such treatment, because the real trouble is in the intestines, the liver and the kidneys.

There is fullness and pains after meals, coated tongue, headache, loss of appetite, pains in the limbs and in the back and shoulders, flatulency and constipation, frequently alternating with diarrhoea.

In cases of intestinal indigestion the liver and kidneys usually become clogged and sluggish in action, and poisonous impurities are left in the blood, which should be removed by these filtering organs.

There has yet to be a remedy discovered that is so prompt and thorough in curing intestinal indigestion as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. And as this is the most common and severe form of indigestion it can well be claimed that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are the most successful treatment extant for indigestion and dyspepsia.

It is not unusual for persons who have long been suffering from chronic indigestion, biliousness and constipation to be thoroughly cured by Dr Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, which have by far the largest sale of any similar remedy. You may be skeptical, as others have been before you but a single trial of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills will convince you of their unusual medicinal value.

Mr. Joseph Blackwell, Holmesville Ont., says:—"I derived more benefit from the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills than from any other medicine I ever took, and can highly recommend them for stomach troubles. I was in a terrible state and could hardly work at my trade. I tried most every kind of medicine and doctors until I was tired of doctoring and before I used one box of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills I could see that they were helping me, and after taking a box and a half found that I was cured."

Farmers' Institute Report

The report of Mr. G. C. Creelman, Superintendent of Farmers' Institutes, for 1900, has just been issued by the Ontario Department of Agriculture, and in addition to a record of the work and progress of the Institutes, comprises a large amount of practical information in connection with every branch of agriculture.

A number of important changes have been made in the system by which the usefulness of the Institutes has been materially increased. In future a number of the Institutes will hold their annual meetings at the nearest Fruit Experiment Station, or in a good, commercial orchard, which will give the members the advantage of witnessing expert demonstrations in horticultural operations.

Special attention has been given to the subject of poultry, experiments having been conducted under the joint auspices of the Farmers' Institute and the Ontario Poultry Association. Among the specialists who addressed the meetings on the subject were Prof. W. S. Graham, manager of the poultry department, O.A.C.; Prof. A. G. Gilbert, of the Ottawa Experimental Farm; J. E. Meyer, of Kossuth, and C. H. Cottrell, of Milton. The addresses were illustrated by practical demonstrations in the killing and preparation of fowl for market in accordance with the most desirable methods. This feature, which was much appreciated, will be continued. The lecture work in connection with the Horticultural Societies has been transferred to the Farmers' Institute and thirty successful meetings have been held.

There has been a notable increase in the number of Women's Institutes, thirty-two of which are now in operation, holding monthly meetings.

A highly popular feature has been the excursions to the Agricultural College under the auspices of the Institute, of which many thousand farmers took advantage.

A good deal of attention was devoted to the Provincial Winter Fair, and as a result of the endeavors to promote the attendance of Institute members, they were present to the number of 1,518. A special programme was provided for Institute workers, and among those who delivered addresses were; Hon. John Dryden, Dr. James Mills, Prof. I. P. Roberts, of Cornell, F. W. Dodson and Prof. G. E. Day.

The work of the Institute has been extended into New Ontario, where a number of gatherings were held. A new departure, from which the most favorable results are expected, is the establishment of Seed Fairs, held early in the year, which has been done in several localities. Much has been done to disseminate information regarding cold storage, which has been a popular topic at the meetings. Practical instruction has been afforded in the processes of refrigeration with the aid of the cold storage plant at the Agricultural College.

Superintendent Creelman has been appointed Assistant Secretary and Editor of the Association of Canadian fairs and exhibitions, in which capacity new opportunities of forwarding the work will be presented.

The year's record is a highly satisfactory one from every point of view. The total membership of Farmers' Institutes at the end of June, 1901, was 20,387, showing an increase of over two thousand. The report should be in the hands of every progressive farmer.

Literary Notes.

METHODIST MAGAZINE AND REVIEW FOR OCTOBER.

In this number Sir John Bourinot completes his admirable series of papers on "Builders of Nova Scotia," with numerous high-class portraits. Dr. Rankin concludes also his admirable illustrated "Story of Architecture." "The Storied Rhine," by H. A. Guerber and W. H. Withrow, has numerous engravings of that picturesque river. Other articles are, "Preaching in the Twentieth Century," by the Rev. Dr. Dewart; "Sir Henry Fawcett, the Blind Postmaster of England," by Mrs. Sarah Knowles Bolton; "The Romance of the Killing Time," by the Rev. A. J. Irwin, B. A., B.D.; "The Churchmanship of John Wesley," by the Rev. W. Harrison; and an admirable article on Christian altruism, entitled, "Let us Follow Him," by Isabelle Horton. A four-page review of "The Love-Letters of Bismarck" reveals the softer and better side of the Iron Chancellor. Portraits and pictures illustrate the chief topic of the month, the death of President McKinley.

The November and December numbers of this magazine will be sent free to new subscribers for 1902. A programme of special importance is being prepared.

MR. BOK'S ADVICE ON MARRIAGE.

A young man recently wrote to the editor of The Ladies' Home Journal, asking: "What have you to say, squarely and fairly, to a young man of twenty-nine who is about to marry?" In the October Journal Mr. Bok uses a page for his answer. Its salient points are these: That a man should make the woman of his choice his chum as well as his wife; that he should show her the highest consideration as well as love her; that he should remember that he owes his wife to her mother and treat his mother-in-law with respect, at least; that he should keep his wife informed as to his income; that he should give her a regular allowance, and that he should have his life insured in her favor. And above all, that when a young man marries he must remember that he leaves a world of self and enters into a world of another and self.

A MADOC MINISTER

HAD AN EXPERIENCE WITH A "DRUNK."—BOOTED AND CUFFED SENSE AND SOBRIETY INTO HIM.

Madoc Review: Tuesday evening a man named Alexander was found by Rev. Mr. MacKay "dead drunk" in his wagon about a mile from the village, and the horses in the fence corner. The reverend gentleman undertook to straighten the man up and get him safely on the road towards his home, but was rewarded for his kind intentions by foul-mouthed abuse. Mr. MacKay has a practical mind in matters of this kind, and believes that "toughs" should be treated as toughs, and so he proceeded to "cuff" and "boot" a little common sense, sobriety and respect for others into the foul-mouthed drunk, being evidently not afraid to administer a dose of both law and justice to such characters if the authorities are not equal to the occasion. We commend Mr. MacKay's vigorous method of dealing with an abusive drunk to the local authorities of the village, and the same method would soon clear our towns of such disgraceful characters.

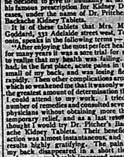
CANADIAN JUSTICE.

One of the employees of the Pan-American circus got a taste of Canadian law while at Indian Head. He had proceeded to maltreat a negro boy, who was also in the employ of the circus, beating him mercilessly with a rawhide whip. A citizen interfered on behalf of the boy, but was told that they had rented that piece of ground for the day, and that on it they could do what they chose to their own employees. A warrant was issued, however, and the magistrate imposed a tax of $15—a gentle reminder that equal justice is dealt out to black and white alike on this side of the line.—Wolseley News.

Tried Dr. Pitcher As a Last Resort.

A Toronto Lady's Experience With This Famous Specialist's Backache Kidney Tablets.

For many years in the hospitals of Detroit and as professor of Genito-Urinary Diseases in Michigan College of Medicine of that city, Dr. Zina Pitcher gave careful thought and consideration to diseases of the kidneys, bladder, and urinary system.



MRS. MAY GODDARD

So profoundedly impressed was he with the fact that many thousands of people suffer from some form of kidney derangement, who were unable to avail themselves of the services of a specialist, that he decided to give to humanity at large his famous prescription for Kidney Diseases, under the name of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets.

It is of these tablets that Mrs. May Goddard, 331 Adelaide street west, Toronto, speaks in the following terms:—

"After enjoying the most perfect health for many years it was a sore trial for me to realize that my health was failing. I had, in the first place, acute pains in the small of my back, and was losing flesh rapidly. Then other complications arose, which so weakened me that it was only with the greatest amount of determination that I could attend to my work. I tried a number of remedies and consulted several physicians without obtaining more than temporary relief, and as a last resort I thought I would try Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. Their beneficial action was almost instantaneous, and the results highly gratifying. The pain in my back disappeared in a short time, and my general health improved greatly. I am now feeling fine, and am glad to have this opportunity of expressing my appreciation of so valuable a remedy.

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50 cents a box at all druggists or sent by mail, postage free.

ENGLAND DIDN'T SURRENDER

Washington Says So, and That U.S. Also Preserved Dignity.

A Source of Danger for Past Half Century Will Now Be Happily Relegated to the Rear—Neutral Waterway Open to All—Both Sides Have Preserved the Underlying Principles of the Clayton-Bulwer Treaty.

Washington, Oct. 9.—There has been no surrender by England to the United States in the matter of the new Isthmian Canal treaty, according to the best authority possible. It is said to be equally true that the United States has sacrificed no principle in these negotiations, and the effect of contrary statements is depreciated as likely to seriously jeopardize the chances of the consummation of the convention, which shall finally and peacefully settle an issue that has been a source of danger for the past 50 years.

It is said that what actually has happened is that each side has preserved the underlying principles of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, and the new convention will provide for a waterway neutral at all times and open to the commerce of the world. The Clayton-Bulwer treaty, however, drawn half a century ago, has proved to be defective in mechanism for giving effect to this purpose. The new treaty simply provides this mechanism. England is relieved from the guarantee, which in her case was only troublesome, and which, being assumed by the United States in toto, is quite as effective.

As viewed from the American point of view even, there was no surrender on England's part in seeking the relief, inasmuch as the above mentioned principle is reiterated and affirmed as binding upon the United States. As for the form of the treaty, it may be stated that it embodies in substance the amendment to the Hay-Pauncefote treaty, which were adopted by the Senate, and beyond that the changes are believed to be textual, rather than substantial.

ROSSLAND STRIKE SERIOUS.

A. W. Puttee Sees Premier Laurier About Enforcing Alien Labor Law.

Winnipeg, Oct. 9.—A. W. Puttee, M. P., fears that their will be serious trouble in Rossland. Speaking to a Free Press representative yesterday, he said that the strike among the miners had grown serious, owing to the fact that the mine owners are importing large numbers of laborers.

"There were about 900 men on strike," said Mr. Puttee, "and they are beginning to feel that they are not protected by law. Laborers are coming in from the States in large numbers, and the Alien Law provides that, in cases where this is proven, the Government will deport the man brought in to work; that is, any man engaged on the other side to work in Rossland."

Yesterday Mr. Puttee waited on Premier Laurier at Government House, and, on behalf of the strikers, who had asked him to go to Ottawa with their case, presented Sir Wilfrid with the facts.

The Premier pointed out that if cases were known to exist in violation of the Alien Law, if the proper steps were taken to report them by competent parties, the law should be carried out to the letter, and the strikers given what benefit there was. Information for each case should be given.

TOWN NEARLY BURNED OUT.

Killarney, Manitoba, Visited by a Most Destructive Fire.

Killarney, Man., Oct. 9.—A destructive fire occurred in the business portion of the town yesterday. The Pritchard Block was the largest building destroyed. It was not insured, and was the heaviest loss.

The other losers are: W. Morgan, shoeshop, torn down; E. A. Leather, harness shop, $300 insurance on building, none on stock; W. C. Tait, tailor, and Chinese laundry, uninsured; John Sidors, harness shop, $250 insurance on the stock; J. H. Monteith, stationery and bookstore, and The Guide Printing Office, $500 insurance on both; the building formerly occupied by Cross & Co., valued at about $800, and uninsured, was destroyed; E. Sliter's residence was also uninsured.

Mr. McCrimmon For West Elgin.

Dutton, Ont., Oct. 4.—At the Reform convention held here yesterday, Angus McCrimmon of St. Thomas was chosen as candidate for the next Provincial election. The riding was well represented, there being 206 delegates present. There were 12 nominations, but all except two of these, namely, Peter Stalker of Alboro and Mr. McCrimmon of St. Thomas, withdrew. Upon a vote being taken, Mr. McCrimmon had a majority of nine, leaving him the choice of the convention.

Schley Inquiry Drags Along.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 9.—There were two new witnesses before the Schley Court of Inquiry yesterday. They were Commander Richard Wainwright, who commanded the Gloucester during the war with Spain, and Lieut. M. L. Bristol, who, as ensign, was a watch and division officer on the battleship Texas during that period. Lieut. Bristol had not concluded his testimony when the Court adjourned for the day.

Four Railroad Men Killed.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 9.—One of the worst wrecks in the history of the Mohawk Division of the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad occurred at 1.50 o'clock yesterday morning in the village of Oriskany, seven miles west of this city. Four railroad men were killed in the wreck and one was injured.

For the Children

TO KEEP THEIR DIGESTION PERFECT NOTHING IS SO SAFE AND PLEASANT AS STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS.

Thousands of men and women have found Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the safest and most reliable preparation for any form of indigestion or stomach trouble.

Thousands of people who are not sick, but are well and wish to keep well take Stuart's Tablets after every meal to insure perfect digestion and avoid trouble.

But it is not generally known that the Tablets are just as good and wholesome for little folks as for their elders.

Little children who are pale, thin and have no appetite, or do not grow or thrive, should use the tablets after eating and will derive great benefit from them.

Mrs. G. H. Crotsley, 538 Washington St., Hoboken, New Jersey, writes: "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets just fill the bill for children as well as for older folks. I've had the best of luck with them. My three-year-old girl takes them as readily as candy. I have only to say 'tablets' and she drops everything else and runs for them."

A Buffalo mother, a short time ago, who despaired of the life of her babe, was so delighted with the results from giving the child these tablets that she went before the notary public of Erie Co., N.Y., and made the following affidavit:

Gentlemen, — Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets were recommended to me for my two-months-old baby, which was sick and puny and the doctors said was suffering from indigestion. I took the child to the hospital, but there found no relief. A friend mentioned the Stuart Tablets and I procured a box from my druggist and used only the large sweet lozenges in the box, and was delighted to find they were just the thing for my baby. I feel justified in saying that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets saved my child's life.

MRS. W. T. DETHLOPE.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day of April, 1897.
HENRY KARIS,
Notary Public in and for Erie Co., N.Y.

For babies, no matter how young or delicate, the tablets will accomplish wonders in increasing flesh, appetite and growth. Use only the large sweet tablets in every box. Full sized boxes are sold by all druggists for 50 cents, and no parent should neglect the use of this safe remedy for all stomach and bowel troubles if the child is ailing in any way regarding its food or assimilation.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been known for years for the best preparation for all stomach troubles whether in adults or infants.

Have Started For Toronto

Great Preparations Made for the Reception of the Royal Party.

Death of Hon. Clarke Wallace—England Did Not Surrender—Rossland Strike is Serious—Grand Trunk Railway Report—A Manitoba Town Burned Out—A Number of Accidents.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 9.—The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York bade farewell to the West yesterday, and are once more speeding eastward on their special train. They will reach the lakes to-day, and on Thursday afternoon will be in Toronto.

The Duke and Duchess met again at Poplar Point yesterday afternoon. She arrived from the West in the morning and he came down from the hunting lodge of Senator Kirchhoffer in the afternoon.

He had been expected in the morning, but had found the game so plentiful and enjoyed the shooting so much that he tarried until the last moment.

Poplar Point is in the centre of the great Manitoba wheat belt, and an exhibition of threshing was given for the benefit of the royal party. A threshing outfit, drawn by a large traction engine, was brought into action close to the depot and placed beside an immense stack of sheafed wheat. The Duchess stood very close to the thresher, and a gust of wind brought the mass of chaff down on her head and shoulders. She raised her parasol in defence and laughingly retreated.

The Duke reached Poplar Point at 3.45 o'clock, accompanied by Lord Minto, Governor-General, and others who had formed his hunting party. He was very proud of his bag of game, and expressed the greatest pleasure at his hunting experience. His game was placed aboard the train, and he will have the hunter's pleasure of having birds shot by himself for his table.

The royal special reached Winnipeg at 5.10, and made a stop of half an hour, during which the Duke and Duchess visited the flour mills. A crowd of several thousand gathered about the depot and cheered the royal couple as they left their car and again when they returned.

The Duke and Duchess and members of the royal party, including Sir Wilfrid Laurier, left for the east at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. A large crowd was at the depot to see the Duke, but he did not appear outside the car.

The Duke is reported to have shot about 100 ducks in two days.

Royal Servants Arrive.

Toronto, Oct. 9.—A royal servants' train from Ottawa arrived yesterday morning. It consisted of a special baggage, carriage, one tourist sleeper, two ordinary sleepers and several horse cars.

A second servants' train reached the Union Station at an early hour this morning from Vancouver. A large number of servants were on board, who will prepare arrangements here for the royal party and suite.

The carriages which will be used by Their Royal Highnesses and staff while in Toronto, and the horses that will draw them arrived here yesterday. There are five carriages and sixteen horses, which came in on a special train from Ottawa. The magnificent coach which will carry the Duke and Duchess was taken to Government House, where it will remain until the royal party arrive. It is the one used by the King in England, and is of a quaint English design. It affords seating capacity for four persons, and is beautifully finished.

IN THE QUEEN CITY.

Preparation for Duke's Visit—The Troops on the Ground and Visitors Going With a Rush.

Toronto, Oct. 9.—The Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk railways were kept busy yesterday in bringing into the city the soldiers who will take part in the royal review. During the day 14 special trains arrived, bearing the country's defenders from various points of the Province. They were all landed at the Exhibition Grounds, where they went into camp.

42nd Regiment Was First.

The first to arrive was the 42nd of Renfrew and Pembroke, 300 strong, under command of Col. Irving. Then followed in succession during the day:

A and B Batteries of Kingston arrived at the grounds at noon with 160 men, 100 horses, and 12 guns, all 12-pound breech-loaders.

In Rapid Succession.

During the afternoon and evening the regiments arrived in such rapid succession that the arrangements for their reception were somewhat demoralized, several regiments arriving ahead of the time expected. The Guelph regiment was wired to delay its advent here, but had left the Royal City before the despatch reached there.

The arrivals included: 27th Sarnia; C and D Batteries, Kingston; 45th, Lindsay; 30th, Guelph; 14th, Field Battery; 31st, Goderich; 46th, Port Hope; Hussars, Kingston; Hussars, London; 8th Field Battery, Gananoque; Red Cross Bearer Co., London; 26th, London and Southampton, 22nd, Woodstock and Ingersoll; 21st, Windsor; 42nd, Pembroke.

A Review Rehearsal.

The commander of the forces in Canada, Major-General O'Grady-Haly, accompanied by Mrs. Haly and Major Heward, A.D.C., are at the Queen's Hotel.

The major-general inspected the Exhibition Grounds in the morning, and was very much satisfied with the arrangements made for the royal review. He thinks it will be the greatest military display in Canada's history.

Major-General O'Grady-Haly's staff will be composed of Col. Aylmer, Adjt.-Gen.; Col. Cotton, Q.M.G.; Major Biggar, Ordinance Department; Director-General Neilson, A.M.S., and Col. Rutherford, A.A.G. of Artillery.

This morning the general and his staff will again visit the Exhibition Grounds, and the staff will take up their quarters there.

The general will make a preliminary review of the troops at 3 o'clock this afternoon, when it is expected that all the outside corps will be on hand.

The Rush Is Great.

The influx of visitors to the city has commenced, and the demand for accommodation at the hotels has never been greater. Almost every city, town, village and hamlet in the country has sent its quota of sightseers, anxious to get a glimpse of the royal party, and to be present at the festivities attending their sojourn in the city. From the United States, too, visitors are beginning to pour in. Most of the visitors will arrive to-day and stay over until Saturday, so as to see everything worth seeing. Fully forty or fifty thousand of them will be in the city, it is estimated.

Going to Toronto.

Ottawa, Oct. 9.—All the Cabinet Ministers except Sir Richard Cartwright and Hon. R. W. Scott will be in Toronto during the visit of Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York. Sir Richard will not be able to be present on account of rheumatism and Mr. Scott will take charge of affairs for the Government here while the other Ministers are away.

MODERATE PROTECTION.

Australian Tariff Bill Provides Inter-State Free Trade and Promises System of Bounties.

Melbourne, Oct. 9.—In the Federal House of Representatives yesterday the Commonwealth tariff bill was introduced by the Right Hon. Chas. Cameron Kingston, Minister of Trade and Commerce, who congratulated the House that from this moment free trade existed among the states of the Commonwealth.

Mr. Kingston explained that the new tariff would be on lines of moderate protection.

He announced that the Government intended to introduce a system of bonuses instead of encouraging the establishment of new industries, especially in the case of locally smelted iron and locally made machinery.

The Ameer's Successor.

London, Oct. 9.—"Native reports asserts," says a despatch from Simla, "that the accession of Nabib Ullay Khan has been officially announced at Jalalabad and Dakka, and the announcement was received quietly."

C.P.R. Brakeman's Sad End.

Brandon, Man., Oct. 9.—William McIntyre, brakeman, of the Canadian Pacific Railway, was instantly killed in the yards here, ten loaded cars passing over his body, practically cutting him in two.

Two Syrians Drowned.

Prescott, Ont., Oct. 9.—Monday night, about 8 o'clock John Derby was hired to row two Syrians across the river from Ogdensburg to Prescott. One of the men lived in Ottawa, and the other, Harbib by name, had resided here during the past seven years. The latter intended returning to Ogdensburg with Derby. When near Prescott the boat in some unexplainable manner was upset. Derby succeeded in reaching the Prescott shore by swimming, but the two foreigners were unable to swim and perished.

The Bridal Feast

is not infrequently followed by a long, lenten period of enforced fasting and fleshly mortification. The cheek grows hollow, the eyes are dull and deep ringed, and the step is slow and languid. There is an "all dragged-out feeling," which makes life an utter burden. The great functional changes which follow marriage are not usually anticipated, or the wife-ly suffering might be avoided.

DEATH OF HON. MR. WALLACE

Grand Sovereign of the Orange Order Passes Away.

The End Came on Tuesday Night Shortly After 10 O'Clock—Long Struggle to Regain Health Was Fruitless—Funeral Takes Place on Saturday—Brief Sketch of His Active Public Career in Municipal, Political and Orange Circles.

Toronto, Oct. 9.—Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, M.P., passed away peacefully shortly after 10 o'clock last night.

Mr. Wallace had not been enjoying good health for over a year. Last winter, he consulted Dr. A. McPhedran, and, upon his advice, two months ago, he went to Fort McLeod, N.W.T., where he remained until about two weeks ago. The trip failed to bring about the improvement desired, and, shortly after his return, his condition became worse. He continued to fail, but, despite his weakened condition, bore up bravely until consciousness deserted him. Yesterday, he lost consciousness, and his speech. At times he would open his eyes, and appeared to recognize those at his bedside. He gradually sank during the day, and, shortly after 10 o'clock, he passed away.

The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late home of deceased to Christ Church Cemetery, Woodbridge. Rev. W. S. Swallow will conduct the services at the home and grave. The funeral will be under the direction of the Most Worshipful the Grand Orange Lodge of British North America, and the R. W. Grand Lodge of Ontario West.

N. CLARKE WALLACE.

He will be succeeded in the office of Grand Sovereign of the Orange Order of B.N.A. by Dr. T. S. Sproule, M.P., of Markdale, who is Deputy Grand Master.

The members of the Grand Orange Lodge of Ontario West have been requested to attend the funeral of their late Most Worshipful Grand Sovereign.

SKETCH OF HIS CAREER.

Attained to High Honors From the Hands of Fellow Countrymen.

In the death of Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, M. P., which occurred at his Woodbridge home last night at 10.15, there passes out of the public life of Canada one of its most illustrious sons, a man who for 23 years had a large share in leading and moulding public opinion, whose name is known in every house in Canada and whose personality has extended far beyond the limits of the riding he represented into the remote parts of British Columbia and Eastern Canada.

A Lifelong Orangeman.

Hon. N. Clarke Wallace was a lifelong Orangeman. The first Orange Lodge was started by his father in 1847, and in 1866 Clarke Wallace became its secretary and afterwards District County Master. He was Grand Treasurer of Ontario West in 1876, and in 1885 was elected Deputy Grand Master of British America. In 1887 he was promoted to Most Worshipful Grand Master and Sovereign of the Order and in 1888, at the Triennial Council at Carrickfergus, Ireland, was elected Vice-President. In 1891 he was elected President of the Orangemen of the World, and at the triennial meeting of that body in Westminster Hall, London, England, in July, 1894, was re-elected. In 1897, he retired from this office; but retained that of Most Worshipful Grand Master and Sovereign of British America until the hour of his death.

Born in Woodbridge.

Hon. N. Clarke Wallace was a son of the late Nathaniel and Ann Wallace of Carney, Sligo County, Ireland, who settled at Woodbridge, then called Berwick, in 1833. He was born on May 21, 1844, and was married in June, 1877, to Belinda, youngest daughter of the late James Gilmour of Ottawa. He received his education at the Weston Grammar School. This he turned to account in early life by teaching school for five years. In 1867 he and his brother, Thomas F. Wallace, commenced the business of general merchants in Woodbridge, and later they built the Woodbridge flour mills. Mr. Wallace always took an active part in public affairs, and in 1874 and the four succeeding years was elected first deputy reeve of the Township of Vaughan. Under the old municipal system, this position gave him a seat in the County Council, and in 1878 he was honored with the distinction of Warden of York County. In this year he forsook municipal life to engage in Federal politics, and carried West York for the Conservatives by a majority of 202 over Davin Blain, the riding having previously been in the hands of the Reformers for 24 years. He continued to sit as the member for West York from that hour until the hour of his decease, in each contest adding to his majorities until 1896, when he had a majority of 4,068 over John Brown, Patron, and Samuel Platt, Conservative, the largest majority ever given to a candidate in Canada. In the contest of 1900 he defeated Mr. Archibald Campbell by a majority of 820.

The abilities of Mr. Wallace as an administrator were first recognized in 1884, when he was appointed chairman of the Public Accounts Committee of Parliament, and which later, in 1891 and 1892, were again recognized by his successfully ruling over the stormy proceedings and investigations which took place during those years.

Benefactor to Order.

In 1890, Mr. Wallace became the everlasting benefactor of the Orangemen of Canada. In that year, after others had failed, he carried to a successful issue the Orange Corporation bill. In 1892 Mr. Wallace was appointed Controller of Customs, and in this position was known to every business man in Canada. He was an indefatigable worker in his new position, not a mere figurehead only, but one who delved into and became acquainted with all the small details of the department. To both Reformers and Conservatives, Mr. Wallace gave the greatest satisfaction in this position, for on all tariff matters he was so well versed that any suggestion was thoughtfully considered and answered almost spontaneously. Deputations of business men waiting upon Mr. Wallace invariably got an answer, and it was not the stereotyped one so often given to deputations, which runs, "This matter will receive our earnest consideration." Mr. Wallace was a man of ideas, and was frank in giving utterance to them. He disliked hesitancy, and some of his most telling speeches were made against political opponents at a time when their undeveloped policies have been waiting for praise or condemnation by the people of the country. As a speaker he was fluent and forceful, with a strong vein of humor running through his thoughts.

Through Six Contests.

Hon. N. Clarke Wallace passed through six successful electoral campaigns and was once returned by acclamation. His victories were over David Blain, T. Hodgins, Dr. Lind, W. H. P. Clement, S. Platt, John Brown and Archibald Campbell.

Deceased was 57 years of age. A wife, four sons and three daughters survive him. The eldest son, Thomas, resigned a captaincy in the 36th Battalion to serve as a private in the South African war. His second son is Lieut. L. Wallace of the Markham detachment G.G.B.G., and the youngest child is a girl nearing her eighth year. Mr. Wallace was a member of the Church of England, and for 25 years was superintendent of Christ Church Sabbath school, Woodbridge. The remains will be interred in Christ Church Cemetery on Saturday, October 12, at 2 p.m.

DR. KRAUSE, ALLEGED TRAITOR.

London, Oct. 9.—Dr. Krause, the former Governor of Johannesburg, who was arrested Sept. 2 on the charge of high treason, was arraigned in the Extradition Court at Bow street yesterday and charged with high treason and incitement to murder. The former charge is connected with the surrender of Johannesburg, when, according to the public prosecutor, Dr. Krause obtained from Lord Roberts 24 hours' armistice on the plea that street fighting would thereby be obviated, and utilized the period in getting all the Boer fighters out of town, and in sending £180,000 to Pretoria. After Dr. Krause had been paroled, he went to Europe and applied to Dr. Leyds, the agent of the Transvaal, for money on account of these services.

Krause Was in Bad Company.

The prosecution introduced evidence to show that Dr. Krause had been in communication with Dr. Cornelius Broeckman, the public prosecutor of Johannesburg, who was executed Sept. 30 last for treason, and had urged the necessity for shooting or otherwise disposing of Douglas Foster, an English lawyer attached to Lord Roberts' staff, who was very active against the Boers.

The prosecution introduced letters, in which Dr. Krause described Lord Milner (the British High Commissioner in South Africa), as "an arch scoundrel, an enemy of Boer national existence, and a willing tool of the jingoes" and advised the burghers to break their oaths and shoot traitors.

The letters indicated that Dr. Krause had acted as a channel of communication between the Transvaal and the Boer Government in Holland.

The prisoner was remanded.

Railway Conductor Killed.

London, Oct. 9.—Rectory street crossing of the Grand Trunk was last night the scene of an accident in which William Birkett, a well-known railway conductor, lost his life. Birkett had been running on the Stratford accommodation for the past five years. On its return trip down the train is due to reach London at 10.40 p. m. As the train pulled up at the East London Station Birkett alighted to register. The accommodation was on the second track, and as Birkett stepped between the rails of the first track he was struck by a yard engine, killing him instantly. Birkett was married and leaves a widow and children.

Suicide in a Barn.

Milverton, Ont., Oct. 9.—John Racie of this village committed suicide about 7 o'clock yesterday morning, by hanging himself in the loft of an old barn. He was about 35 years old, and a carpenter. He had been a patient in the London Asylum last winter, and his mind was unbalanced.

TARTE VS. PREFONTAINE.

The charge which the Hon. Israel laid at the door of the members of the Montreal Harbor Board, of having been offered a bribe of $20,000 to push through a contract for the building of an elevator in the harbor of Montreal, and his refusal to apologize or consent to an investigation, has culminated in considerable friction between the Mayor of Montreal and the Minister of Public Works.

Mr. Prefontaine, Mayor of Montreal and Liberal M.P. for one of the divisions of that city, having spoken in too plain language of Mr. Tarte's conduct, the latter's organ, La Patrie, makes a bitter personal attack upon the Mayor, who in an interview with a reporter retorts in the following language:

"Of course, it does not suit Mr. Tarte that matters should go quicker, he being selfish enough to imagine that nothing can be done except through him. The whole Board was unanimous in its decision to try to have the elevator constructed for next season, which cannot be done now through Mr. Tarte fussing about nothing, and then trying to squeeze out of his enviable position by throwing dust and mud in the faces of respectable people, as if we didn't know his game, which is purely and simply to have all the work under his control, in order to control also the 'rake-off,' a subject with which he seems to be familiar.

"The whole thing amounts to this, that we can't have anything more to do with the man, he having proved himself, not only now, but under other circumstances, unfit for the position he occupies, and the hope of the Liberal party is that the head of the Government will understand it at last.

"The man is what we call in French 'Unnevrose,' a man who sees enemies everywhere, and not knowing half the time what he is talking about.

"Mr. Prefontaine added to-night that he was quite prepared to resign his seat in Parliament, and to contest any of the Montreal constituencies with Mr. Tarte, and he had no doubt that the Minister would be defeated by an overwhelming majority. He challenged Mr. Tarte to accept his offer."

This sounds ill. A leading member of a party accusing a Minister of the Government of which he is a supporter, of endeavoring to delay a public work, so as to keep it in his own hands "IN ORDER TO CONTROL also THE RAKE-OFF; A SUBJECT WITH WHICH HE SEEMS TO BE FAMILIAR," sounds shocking. Yet, these gentlemen know each other, and the public must not be blamed if their opinions in this respect are accepted as true.

The latest phase in this Tarte-Elevator embroglio is that Jamieson, who has been cross-examined by the members of the Harbor Board, has denied in most emphatic language that any member of the Board ever approached him, asking for money in consideration of giving him the contract for the building of the elevator, or that he ever offered directly or indirectly any of them a consideration of any kind for their support. But he did admit that someone, not of the Board, approached him with a plea that he could influence certain members of the Board, but that it would necessitate the outlay of some money, which he, Jamieson, refused to consider. The name of the person who made this demand he refused to divulge. This is to be regretted, as the public should know how, and by whom, these "rake-offs" are worked.

The final action of the majority of the Board was, however, as disreputable and indefensible as the attempt of the unknown manipulator to get money to bribe them.

A motion having been made calling upon Mr. Tarte to give his authority for the statement he had made, was voted down by the majority of the Board, on the ground that the whole difficulty arose from the action of the newspaper reporter who told the truth as to what occurred at the Board meeting, and that it would be a reflection upon Tarte.

It is unnecessary to say the majority were Grit-Rouges. To the credit of the Mayor and one or two others, who are Liberals, they voted for the motion. The balance were willing to lie under the imputation of the crime, for such it was, laid at their door by Tarte, rather than wound his feelings. Of such is the New Liberal party composed.

TIMELY TOPICS.

Alderman Doyle desires us to state that in his remarks in answer to the Mayor's statement that the financial report of the Water Works Commissioners, for the half year ending 30th June last was missing, he (Ald. Doyle) had no time to examine the report which was shown to him by the Mayor, and that he had asked for a copy of it from the Treasurer, but it was not furnished him, and consequently he could not lay it before the Executive of the Council.

The fact that Mayor Graham and Alderman Doyle did their duty in insisting upon the return of the Collector's rolls for 1899, calls down upon their heads the wrath of the Grit Sheet, which would like to see them resign, is the best possible evidence of their being correct.

The attempt of interested parties to make people believe that those members of the Council who insisted upon the Collector's rolls for 1899 being returned at once cast a reflection upon the present Collector, is worse than nonsense. Every one knows that Collector Starling is not responsible for the non-collection of the taxes for 1899. So far, he has performed his duties as Collector well. Had those who attempted to enforce the return of the rolls last year been supported as they should have been in the Council, the probabilities are that the defalcation of the late Collector would not have been as large as it is. One thing is certain, the people of the city would have known the correct state of affairs long before they did.

If Mr. Prefontaine has a pull with the moneyed interests, Sir Wilfrid will drop Tarte even quicker than he snapped him up.—Mail-Empire.

Not a bit of it. Tarte knows too much to be "dropped." Sir Wilfrid dare not "drop" him. When Tarte is dropped he will "drop" himself.

Another provided for. Mr. Madore, M.P., says a telegram from Ottawa of the 8th inst., has been offered and has accepted the Chief Justiceship of the North-West Territories, in succession to the late Judge Rouleau. The lawyers who are in Parliament will soon all be snugly housed for life. Who would not be an M.P. lawyer of the Grit-Rouge school?

PROVIDED FUNDS FOR KINGSTON ELECTION

ALLEGATION MADE IN A PLEA IN CIVIL SUIT, AND AS A RESULT AN ACTION FOR DAMAGES HAS BEEN ENTERED AGAINST THE CONSUMERS' CORDAGE COMPANY.

Two interesting actions for libel have been taken out by Mr. E. A. D. Morgan, advocate, on behalf of Mr. Michael Connolly, the well-known contractor. The actions are directed against the Consumers' Cordage Company, and against their manager, Mr. Moses H. Day, and are for $25,000 each.

The libel complained of occurs in a plea which the company fyled in reply to an action for $7,350 brought by the firm of N. K. and M. C. Connolly.

The company pleaded that the amount claimed, and other sums of money, had been paid out, as the plaintiffs well knew, before February, 1890, in connection with elections, and notably the elections of one Harty, in Kingston, for the purpose of securing the good graces and favor of the party to which the said Harty belonged in the Ontario Legislature.

The election referred to was that of Hon. William Harty, who was at that time Minister of Public Works, and consequently, had the awarding of the contract for the binder twine manufactured at the Central Prison Toronto.

EDITOR'S NOTE.—It would be interesting to learn how much of this $7,350 was spent in paying the expenses of the "heelers" who were sent from Kingston to North Hastings for the purpose of playing the game that secured the return of Grits in Elgin, Huron, Brockville and other places. Perhaps Mr. Harty could tell us, particularly as North Hastings was not venal enough to be bought or manipulated.

POLSON'S NERVILINE CURES RHEUMATISM.

The remarkable strength and marvellous soothing power of Nerviline renders it quite infallible in rheumatism. Five times stronger than any other remedy, its penetrating power enables it to reach the source of the pain and drive out the disease. Nerviline is stronger, more penetrating, more highly pain-subduing in its action than any other medicine heretofore devised for the cure of rheumatism. Sold in large 25 cent bottles everywhere.

Shingle Social

The Shingle social given by the girls of Bleeker Ave. Sunday School last night was quite a success, and much credit is due the young girls who worked so energetically to complete the arrangements. Cake and coffee were served after the programme. Proceeds will amount to about fifteen dollars.

A KNOCK OUT FOR ASTHMA.

You have had many disappointments, filled your stomach with nasty drugs, tried lots of things, but they all failed. Not being a stomach complaint, of course Asthma can't be cured by stomach medicine. But Catarrhozone cures Asthma; it gives it a tired feeling in about fifteen minutes. Inhale Catarrhozone; it makes breathing easy, cures the cough, makes you well. Doctors say there is nothing like Catarrhozone for Asthma. 25 cents and $1.00.

Quick & Robertson's For Fine Clothes.

There's no use disputing the fact that this store stands pre-eminent in this city as the store for Men's Fine Clothes.

With our large and pleasing varieties, up-to-date style, and good making we've won the trade of every man, and especially the trade of those men who are particular about the Clothes they wear.

And why shouldn't we? You can't find a store that has, ready made, such exclusive styles in suitings and overcoatings as we are showing, and every one of them is from the best Canadian and English mills.

Then, too, every garment is built to come up to our high standard—built by the best makers who know how and do give close attention to important parts of tailoring—such as adjusting the collars, shaping the shoulders, proper placing the sleeves and stays and making the button holes.

Clothes made this way never lose their shape and by so doing we have overcome that appearance which marks clothes as being ready-made.

The prices for such goodness you'd expect to be high—but they are not—are no more than you would pay for ordinary sorts elsewhere.

BUSINESS SUITS—$5, $6.50, $8, $10, $12.
FALL OVERCOATS—$3.90, $5, $7.50, $8.50, $10, $12, $15,
CUTAWAY SUITS—$7, $8, $9, $10, $12, $13.

A GENTLE HINT.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Regular size, 75 cts. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at R. Templeton & Co.'s.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING

Many Important Matters Under Discussion.

A Proposition for the City to Purchase Street Railway.

At the monthly meeting of the Board of Trade held in the Council Chamber last evening a number of matters of importance appertaining to the city's welfare were discussed.

When the President, Mr. John G. Frost, called the meeting to order the following gentlemen were in attendance; Messrs. J. P. Thomas, C. P. Holton, W. J. McCamon, J. A. Laidlaw, S. Robertson, Dr. Galbraith, S. Retallack, Mayor Graham, T. Wills, J. W. Johnson, H. C. Hunt, J. A. Roy, M. M. Thompson, J. Mankie, sr., A. Wallace and J. H. Chisholm.

The Secretary, Mr. J. P. Thomas, read the minutes of last meeting, which were confirmed. Some communications were read, namely; from Mr. Thos. W. Gibson, of the Commissioner's Department at Toronto, acknowledging the resolution passed at the last meeting of the Board in reference to additional aid towards the Provincial Assay Office here, Mr. Gibson said he would visit the office officially and see what could be done.

A communication was read from Mr. Joseph James, of Actinolite, in reference to the proposed meeting to be held at Madoc on the 15th inst, to discuss the subject of a Government royalty on the mining of arsenical ore, or on production of refined arsenic in Canada. The communication asked the Board to send delegates to the meeting.

This matter was discussed at considerable length.

The President asked for opinions as to the desirability of sending delegates to the meeting.

Ex-Mayor Johnson said he had a conversation with Mr. James on this subject, and that gentleman desired to have representatives from the Board attend the meeting. The assistance of the public was asked to make the meeting a success. He moved that the President represent the Board at the meeting.

Mayor Graham seconded the motion. The interest of Belleville, he said, was identical with the interest of North Hastings, and we should do all we could to assist in the project.

The President thought that he should not be asked to go alone, but some one who was identified with the mining interest should also be named.

Dr. Galbraith said the Board should manifest especial interest in this matter. He moved in amendment that Mr. Johnson be a delegate with the President.

The delegates were named as follows; Sir M. Bowell, J. G. Frost, J. W. Johnson and Dr. Galbraith.

The Street Railway.

The President said another matter of importance to the city at present was that of the street railway. The Bank intended to close it up, as it would not run it. He thought a committee might be appointed to look into the matter thoroughly and see if it was not advisable for the city to purchase the road. It could be procured, he understood, for $6,700. The average daily earnings were from $18 to $20, and the cost of power was about $3,000 per annum.

The Mayor stated that he had been and was interested in the matter. He attended the recent sale and bid in the road for a gentleman who has since been in the city looking over the road. This gentleman offered the bank 10 per cent. down and let the Bank hold the road and he would use his means to extend the road. The Bank did not fall in with this proposition and the matter simply dropped. The same proposition is open to the city, and he will offer the same terms. The Bank will not operate it and will sell it in piece meal. In fact Mr. Parker was negotiating to that end now. He did not think anyone would lose money by taking the road at $6,700, but it must be extended to make it a paying concern. He did not think it wise for the city to take over the road and operate it itself, but the city might procure the line for another party. The line should be extended to Trenton, which he believed would pay.

Ex-Mayor Johnson asked if the right of way to Trenton could be secured.

The Mayor—"I think it can. The Committee could find this out.

Mr. Wills asked how the Peterboro railway was making out.

Mayor Graham—"It is buried under the mud. If the city would take over the Belleville Street railway as an investment they could no doubt sell it to some one who would operate it."

Mr. McCamon asked what it would cost to build a line to Trenton?

The Mayor said that the roadbed would cost about $25,000.

Mr. Thos. Wills thought that if the city had any money to spare it should pay some of its debts. We were heavily taxed now.

The President said this was not the matter under discussion, but the appointment of a Committee to see what could be done.

Mr. Wills was proceeding to speak as to our debts, when the President again spoke about being out of order, and Mr. Wills left the meeting.

After some further discussion the following Committee was appointed to look into the matter and report: The President, Mayor Graham, ex-Mayor Johnson, Dr. Galbraith, C. P. Holton and J. A. Laidlaw.

Insurance Rates.

Another matter brought forward by the President was that of insurance rates. He thought something could be done to get the city out of Class C to Class A.

The Mayor stated that he had considered this matter. In order to get in Class A it would be necessary to place in an electric fire alarm, and a new 16-inch main would have to be placed across the river and we would have to have a paid fire-brigade and Chief who would have to be on constantly on duty. This would mean a large expenditure and increased taxation. The fire and police duties might, he thought, be amalgamated. The insurance in force in Belleville at present was about $5,000,000, some $2,000,000 of which was on stock.

Ex-Mayor Johnson thought that it was not at all probable that the city could get into Class A. He thought, however, we could get in Class B. As to an electric fire alarm system he thought we should have such. This would cost about $2,000. He moved that the City Council be respectfully requested to provide an electric fire alarm, the money for same to come out of the special fund.

Mr. W. J. McCamon seconded the resolution, which was unanimously carried.

Other Matters.

Mayor Graham asked if there was any Committee provided to see about a programme for the meetings. He said that there were matters which should be discussed, namely; The trading stamp question and the sugar beet industry.

The Committee will draft a programme for next meeting.

The Board then adjourned.

OFF TO TORONTO

THE FIFTEENTH REGIMENT IN THE QUEEN CITY.

There was considerable activity upon the streets and at the drill shed last evening, the occasion being the departure of the Fifteenth Regiment to Toronto to take part in the Royal review. In anticipation of the trip the officers and men of the Regiment have for some time past been making ready by continual drill. The result was that every member of the Regiment was in a state of enthusiastic preparedness.

The parade was called for 8.30, and at that hour the ranks were filled up. The regiment, after being put through some manoeuvres at the drill shed, were marched out and proceeded to the market square, where the train was in waiting for them. The regiment made a fine appearance, and at various points on the march hearty cheers were given them. The train left the market square at 10.20 p.m.

Toronto, Oct. 9th.

Arrived safely and all well.

A SHORT RAGLAN.

Some men cannot make up their minds to wear one of those long raglan overcoats. The Oak Hall have had some made up considerably shorter, with not quite so much fulness. These coats are very handsome and will only cost you $10.

Death of of a Young Lady

Miss Nettie Wilson, third daughter of the late Mr. Alexander Wilson, died yesterday afternoon at the residence of her sister, Mrs. W. Steele, on Colborne street. The deceased had been ill for some years, being a victim of consumption. Miss Wilson was born at Carnifton 31 years ago and had lived nearly all her life in this vicinity. She was a young lady who was much esteemed by a large circle of friends, who will regret to hear of her demise.

NOT FOR SHOW.

It is frequently said that many young people wear glasses for appearance, particularly in the United States, but the following facts disprove this idea. France has one blind person to every 500 inhabitants, Germany and England one to every 1,000; in Egypt 21 natives were killed because of defective vision during the first week's operation of an electric railway; China has more blind than 11 other countries; Spain comes next. The United States has only one blind person to every 1,500, notwithstanding the fact that their eyes are constantly under much greater strain than in eastern countries. This is explained by the fact that the scientific fitting of glasses is better understood there than in any other country in the world. Serious trouble may result from what at first may seem only a slight eye strain. Consultation and examination free.—Alex. Ray, Expert Refractionist.

THE ROYAL PARTY IN BELLEVILLE

A Demonstration in Their Honor Being Arranged.

The Programme Which it is Intended to Carry Out.

A meeting was held in the City Hall at 4.30 yesterday afternoon for the purpose of taking some action in regard to the visit of the Royal party to the city for a brief period on Tuesday morning next. Mayor Graham presided, and the following ladies and gentlemen amongst others were in attendance:

Mrs. Hope, Mrs. Sewell, Miss Gibson, Miss Lister, Mrs. Mathison, Miss Butler, Miss Davey, Mrs. Northrup, Mrs. Flint, Miss Caswell, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Yeomans, Mrs. Denmark and Mrs. Moynes; J. Marshall, J. A. Tousaw, M. Rosenzi, A. Cartwright, R. Mathison, N. Demill, Col. Ponton, Sheriff Hope, ex-Mayor Johnson, Ald. Bogart, J. P. Thompson, Dr. Farley, Ald. Doyle, E. G. Sills, Mr. Starling, N. Burrell, H. Corby, ex-M.P.

The Mayor stated that the Royal party would be here on Tuesday morning next for a few minutes and some kind of a reception should be thought be provided. They would not leave the car, but the platform upon the car especially arranged was such that the Duke and Duchess could be seen at much advantage when they were out upon it.

A number of those present gave suggestions as to what would be an appropriate demonstration. It was suggested that the school children sing "Rule Britannia," the Fifteenth Regiment, No. 1 Company of the 49th Regiment and veterans attend also the children from the Deaf and Dumb Institution.

Mrs. Yeomans suggested that the children from the Institution might give in sign language a verse of the National Anthem, which would be a new innovation of the demonstrations given to the Royal party, and would no doubt prove a pleasing feature.

Mr. Corby thought nothing would be more pleasing than to have the children sing. Some decorations should also be made about the station.

Col. Ponton stated that the Station agent had offered the service of seven of the employees to assist in the decoration if it was decided to do it.

The question of finances was spoken of and Ald. Doyle said that a special meeting of the Council could be called and he had no doubt that that body would do what they could in the matter.

Ald. Bogart said he would hold up both hands to assist in the matter. The expense would not of necessity be much.

Principal Mathison of the D. & D. Institution said the children could give a silent welcome and all would be pleased to be present on the occasion as they were all loyal. Flags would be provided for each scholar.

It was unanimously decided to make a demonstration and a Committee was appointed to carry out the arrangements. The Committee was composed of the following: Mesdames Denmark, Flint, Graham, Clarke, Northrup, Lewis, May, Ponton, Sewell, Corby; Misses Caswell and Lister; Messrs. J. A. Marshall, J. Bell, R. C. Hulme, R. Mathison, E. G. Sills, W. B. Northrup, M.P., J. J. B. Flint, E. J. Butler, W. P. Hudson, H. Walker, S. Burrows, J. P. Thompson, T. Coppin, Mayor Graham, ex-Mayor Johnson, Wm. Johnson; Aldermen Doyle and Bogart and Sheriff Hope.

Mr. Wm. Johnson was elected convener of the Committee, which met immediately after the public meeting to form plans, and also met again this morning, when the following programme was drafted and adopted:

1st. Reception of the Mayor in car by Duke and Duchess.

2nd. On the appearance of the Duke and Duchess at end of train that they be received with cheers and waving of flags.

3rd. Two verses of National Anthem be sung.

4th. Three cheers be given for the King and Queen.

5th. Bouquet presented to Duchess.

6th. Three cheers for Duke and Duchess.

7th. Three cheers for their children.

8th. Two verses of Rule Britannia be sung.

9th. That as the train leaves flags be again waved and cheers given.

10th. That the pupils of the Public, Separate and High Schools, and the students of Albert College, Ontario Business College and Belleville Business College be requested to sing.

11th. That the pupils of the Deaf and Dumb Institution in the sign language take part in the singing.

12th. That the choirs of all the city churches be invited to assist in the singing, and they sing "Rule Britannia," the schools and colleges joining in the chorus.

13th. That the proper authorities be requested to arrange for a guard of honor to consist of the 15th Regiment and No. 1 Company of the 49th Regiment.

14th. That the Veterans' Association be requested to also act as a guard of honor.

15th. That the City Council be requested to provide a sum of money for necessary expenses.

16th. That the City Council, Board of Education, Separate School Board, Officers of the Deaf and Dumb Institute, Faculty of Albert College, Principals of the Ontario and Belleville Business colleges and the citizens generally be asked to co-operate in making the function an unqualified success.

Other Committees appointed were as follows:

Musical—Miss Caswell, convener; Mrs. (Col.) Campbell, Prof. V. P. Hunt, Miss Lister and Mr. S. Burrows.

Decoration—Mrs. J. J. B. Flint, convener; Miss K. Clarke, Mrs. W. B. Northrup, Mrs. Denmark, Mrs. Davy, Messrs. E. G. Sills, J. P. Thompson, T. Coppin and Sheriff Hope.

A Committee composed of Messrs. Sills, Wm. Johnson, J. J. B. Flint and Sheriff Hope was appointed to proceed to the station to see about the decorations and report at a meeting to be held at 4.30 p.m. to-day.

The Royal train of 9 cars will extend along the G. T. R. platform, but the end car, upon which the Duke and Duchess will appear, will be in such a position as to give all an opportunity of seeing them. The yard at the west end of the platform will be cleared for the occasion.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one-half, the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done, it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilious habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little effect. But since using 2 bottles of the Vegetable Discovery, the biliousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 60 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know."

THE PUBLIC should bear in mind that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has nothing in common with the impure, deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or hurts, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Nine-tenths of the consumptives date their afflictions from a neglected cold, and the diseases that are caused by wet feet, damp clothes, or exposure are more numerous than are generally supposed. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which frees the lungs from viscid phlegm by changing the secretions from a diseased to a healthy state.

RELIGION SUPERIOR.

JOB SAID: "THE CRYSTAL CANNOT EQUAL IT."

ITS QUALITY OF EXACTNESS.

There Are No "Happen So's" in the Christian Theology—"Whatsoever a Man Sows That Shall He Also Reap" Is a Truth That All History and All Fact Proves.

Washington, Oct. 6. — The charm of an exalted religion is by Dr. Talmage in this discourse illustrated and commended; text, Job xxviii, 17, "The crystal cannot equal it."

Many of the precious stones of the Bible have come to prompt recognition. But for the present I take up the less valuable crystal. Job, in my text, compares saving wisdom with a specimen of topaz. An infidel chemist or mineralogist would pronounce the latter worth more than the former, but Job makes an intelligent comparison, looks at religion and then looks at the crystal and pronounces the former as of far superior value to the latter, exclaiming, in the words of my text, "The crystal cannot equal it."

Now, it is not a part of my sermonic design to depreciate the crystal, whether it be found in Cornish mine or Harz mountain or Mammoth cave or tinkling among the pendants of the chandeliers of a palace. The crystal is the star of the mountain; it is the queen of the cave; it is the eardrop of the hills; it finds its heaven in the diamond. Among all the pages of natural history there is no page more interesting to me than the page of crystallographic. But I want to show you that Job was right when, taking religion in one hand and the crystal in the other, he declared that the former is of far more value and beauty than the latter, recommending it to all the people and to all the ages, declaring "The crystal cannot equal it."

In the first place, I remark that religion is superior to the crystal in exactness. That shapeless mass of crystal against which you accidentally dashed your foot is laid out with more exactness than any earthly city. There are six styles of crystallization and all of them divinely ordained. Every crystal has mathematical precision. God's geometry reaches through it, and it is a square, or it is a rectangle, or it is a rhomboid, or in some way it has a mathematical figure. Now, religion beats that in the simple fact that spiritual accuracy is more beautiful than material accuracy. God's attributes are exact. God's law exact, God's decrees exact, God's management of the world exact. Never counting wrong though he counts the grass blades and the stars and the sands and the cycles. His providences never dealing with us perpendicularly when those providences ought to be oblique, nor laterally when they ought to be vertical. Everything in our life arranged without any possibility of mistake. Each life a six-headed prism. Born at the right time; dying at the right time. There are no "happen so's" in our theology. If I thought this was a slipshod universe, I would be in despair. God is not an anarchist. Law, order, symmetry, precision, a perfect square, a perfect rectangle, a perfect rhomboid, a perfect circle. The edge of God's robe of government never frays out. There are no loose screws in the world's machinery. It did not just happen that Napoleon was attacked with indigestion at Borodino so that he became incompetent for the day. It did not just happen that John Thomas, the missionary, on a heathen island, waiting for an outfit and orders for another missionary tour, received that outfit and those orders in a box that floated ashore, while the ship and the crew that carried the box were never heard of. I believe in a particular providence. I believe God's geometry may be seen in all our life more beautifully than in crystallography. Job was right. "The crystal cannot equal it."

Again I remark that religion is superior to the crystal in transparency. We know not when or by whom glass was first discovered. Beads of it have been found in the tomb of Alexander Severus. Vases of it are brought up from the ruins of Herculaneum. There were female adornments made out of it 3,000 years ago — those adornments found now attached to the mummies of Egypt. A great many commentators believe that my text means glass. What would we do without the crystal? The crystal in the window to keep out the storm and let in the day; the crystal over the watch, defending its delicate machinery, yet allowing us to see the hour; the crystal of the telescope, by which the astronomer brings distant worlds so near he can inspect them. Oh, the triumph of the crystals in the celebrated windows of Rouen and Salisbury! But there is nothing so transparent in a crystal as in our holy religion. It is a transparent religion. You can put it to your eye and you see man — his sin, his soul, his destiny. You look at God and you see something of the grandeur of his character. It is a transparent religion. Infidels tell us it is opaque. Do you know why they tell us it is opaque? It is because they are blind. "The natural man receiveth not the things of God because they are spiritually discerned." There is no trouble with the crystal. The trouble is with the eyes which try to look through it. We pray for vision. Lord, that our eyes may be opened! When the eye salve cures our blindness, then we find that religion is transparent.

It is a transparent Bible. All the mountains of the Bible come out — Sinai, the mountain of the law; Pisgah, the mountain of prospect; Olivet, the mountain of instruction; Calvary, the mountain of sacrifice. All the rivers of the Bible come out —Hiddekel, or the river of paradisaical beauty; Jordan, or the river of holy chrism; Cherith, or the river of prophetic supply; Nile, or the river of palaces, and the pure river of life from under the throne, clear as crystal. While reading this Bible, after our eyes have been touched by grace, we find it all transparent, and the earth rocks, now with crucifixion agony and now with judgment terror, and Christ appears in some of his 256 titles, as far as I can count them—the Bread, the Rock, the the Captain, the Commander, the Conqueror, the Star, and on and beyond any capacity of mine to rehearse. Transparent religion!

The providence that seemed dark before becomes pellucid. Now you find God is not trying to put you down. Now you understand why you lost that child and why you lost your property. It was to prepare you for eternal treasures. And why sickness came, it being the precursor of immortal juvenescence. And now you understand why they lied about you and tried to drive you hither and thither. It was to put you in the glorious company of such men as Ignatius, who, when he went out to be destroyed by the lions, said, "I am the wheat, and the teeth of the wild beasts must first grind me before I can become pure bread for Jesus Christ." Or the company of such men as "that ancient Christian martyr" who, when standing in the midst of the amphitheatre waiting for the lions to come out of their cave and destroy him and the people in the galleries jeering and shouting, "The lions!" replied, "Let them come on!" and then, stooping down toward the cave where the wild beasts were roaring to get out, again cried, "Let them come on!" Ah, yes, it is persecution to put you in glorious company, and while there are many things that you will have to postpone to the future world for explanation I tell you that it is the whole tendency of your religion to unravel and explain and interpret and illumine and irradiate. Job was right. It is a glorious transparency. "The crystal cannot equal it."

People talk too much about their cross and not enough about their crowns. Do you know that the Bible mentions a cross but seventeen times, while it mentions a crown eighty times? Ask that old man what he thinks of religion. He has been a close observer. He has been cultivating an aesthetic taste. He has seen the sunrises of half a century. He has been an early riser. He has been an admirer of cameos and corals and all kinds of beautiful things. Ask him what he thinks of religion, and he will tell you: "It is the most beautiful thing I ever saw. The crystal cannot equal it."

Beautiful in its symmetry. When it presents God's character, it does not present him as having love like a great pertuberance on one side of his nature, but makes that love in harmony with his justice — a love that will accept all those who come to him, and a justice that will by no means clear the guilty. Beautiful religion in the sentiment it implants! Beautiful religion in the hope that it kindles! Beautiful religion in the fact that it proposes to garland and enthrone and emparadise an immortal spirit. Solomon says it is a lily. Paul says it is a crown. The Apocalypse says it is a fountain kissed by the sun. Ezekiel says it is a foliaged cedar. Christ says it is a bridegroom come to fetch home a bride. While Job in the text takes up a whole vase of precious stones — the topaz and the sapphire and the chrysoprasus — he holds out of this beautiful vase just one crystal and holds it up until it gleams in the warm light of the eastern sky, and he exclaims, "The crystal cannot equal it."

Oh, it is not a stale religion; it is not a stupid religion; it is not a toothless hag, as some seem to have represented it; it is not a Meg Merrilies with shriveled arm come to scare the world; it is the fairest daughter of God, heiress of all his wealth; her cheek the morning sky, her voice the music of the south wind, her step the dance of the sea. Come and woo her. The Spirit and the Bride say come, and whosoever will, let him come. Do you agree with Solomon and say it is a lily? Then pluck it and wear it over your heart. Do you agree with Paul and say it is a crown? Then let this hour be your coronation. Do you agree with the Apocalypse and say it is a springing fountain? Then come and slake the thirst of your soul. Do you believe with Ezekiel and say it is a foliaged cedar? Then come under its shadow. Do you believe with Christ and say it is a bridegroom come to fetch home a bride? Then strike hands with your Lord and King while I pronounce you everlastingly one. Or if you think with Job that it is a jewel, then put it on your hand like a ring, on your neck like a bead, on your forehead like a star, while looking into the mirror of God's word you acknowledge, "The crystal cannot equal it."

Again, religion is superior to the crystal in its transformations. The diamond is only a crystallization. Carbonite of lime rises until it becomes calcite or aragonite. Red oxide of copper crystallizes into cubes and octahedrons. Those crystals which adorn our persons and our homes and our museums have only been resurrected from forms that were far from lustrous. Scientists for ages have been examining these wonderful transformations. But I tell you in the gospel of the Son of God there is a more wonderful transformation. Over souls by reason of sin black as coal and hard as iron God, by his comforting grace, stoops and says, "They shall be mine in the day when I make up my jewels."

"What!" say you. "Will God wear jewelry?" If he wanted it, he could make the stars of the heaven his belt and have the evening cloud for the sandals of his feet, but he does not want that adornment. He will not have that jewelry. When God wants jewelry, he comes down and digs it out of the depths and darkness of sin. These souls are all crystallizations of mercy. He puts them on, and he wears them in the presence of the whole universe. He wears them on the hand that was nailed, over the heart that was pierced, on the temples that were stung. "They shall be mine," saith the Lord, "in the day when I make up my jewels." Wonderful transformation! Where sin abounded grace shall much more abound. The carbon becomes the solitaire. "The crystal cannot equal it."

Now, I have no liking for those people who are always enlarging in Christian meetings about their early dissipation. Do not go into the particulars, my brothers. Simply say you were sick, but make no display of your ulcers. The chief stock in trade of some ministers and Christian workers seems to be their early crimes and dissipations. The number of pockets you picked and the number of chickens you stole make very poor prayer meeting rhetoric. Besides that, it discourages other Christian people who never got drunk or stole anything. But it is pleasant to know that those who were farthest down have been brought highest up. Out of infernal serfdom into eternal liberty. Out of darkness into light. From coal to the solitaire. "The crystal cannot equal it."

But, my friends, the chief transforming power of the gospel will not be seen in this world, and not until heaven breaks upon the soul. When that light falls upon the soul, then you will see the crystals. What a magnificent setting for these jewels of eternity I sometimes hear people representing heaven in a way that is far from attractive to me. It seems almost a vulgar heaven as they represent it, with great blotches of color and bands of music making a deafening racket. John represents heaven as exquisitely beautiful. Three crystals! In one place he says, "Her light was like a precious stone, clear as crystal." In another place he says, "I saw a pure river from under the throne, clear as crystal." In another place he says, "Before the throne there was a sea of glass clear as crystal." Three crystals! John says crystal atmosphere. That means health. Balm of eternal June. What weather after the world's east wind! No rack of storm clouds. One breath of that air will cure the worst tubercle. Crystal light on all the leaves. Crystal light shimmering on the topaz of the temples. Crystal light tossing in the plumes of the equestrians of heaven on white horses. But "the crystal cannot equal it." John says crystal river. That means joy. Deep and ever rolling. Not one drop of the Potomac or the Hudson or the Rhine to soil it. Not one tear of human sorrow to embitter it. Crystal, the rain out of which it was made. Crystal, the bed over which it shall roll and ripple. Crystal, its infinite surface. But "the crystal cannot equal it." John says crystal sea. That means multitudinously vast. Vast in rapture. Rapture vast as the sea, deep as the sea, ever changing as the sea. Billows of light. Billows of beauty, blue with skies that were never clouded and green with depths that were never fathomed. Arctics and Antarctics and Mediterraneans and Atlantics and Pacifics in crystalline magnificence. Three crystals! Crystal light falling on a crystal river. Crystal river rolling into a crystal sea. But "the crystal cannot equal it."

"Oh," says some one, putting his hand over his eyes, "can it be that I who have been in so much sin and trouble will ever come to those crystals?" Yes, it may be — it will be. Heaven we must have, whatever we have or have not, and we come here to get it. "How much must I pay for it?" you say. You will pay for it just as much as the coal pays to become the diamond. In other words, nothing. The same Almighty power that makes the crystal in the mountain will change your heart which is harder than stone, for the promise is, "I will take away your stony heart, and I will give you a heart of flesh."

"Oh," says some one, "it is just the doctrine I want. God is to do everything, and I am to do nothing." My brother, it is not the doctrine you want. The coal makes no resistance. It hears the resurrection voice in the mountain and it comes to crystallization; but your heart resists. The trouble with you, my brother, is the coal wants to stay coal.

I do not ask you to throw open the door and let Christ in. I only ask that you stop bolting and barring it. My friends, we will have to get rid of our sins. I will have to get rid of my sins, and you will have to get rid of your sins. What will we do with our sins among the three crystals? The crystal atmosphere would display our pollution. The crystal river would be befouled with our touch. Transformation must take place now or no transformation at all. Give sin full chance in your heart and the transformation will be downward instead of upward. Instead of crystal it will be a cinder.

In the days of Carthage a Christian girl was condemned to die for her faith, and a boat was bedaubed with tar and pitch and filled with combustibles and set on fire, and the Christian girl was placed in the boat, and the wind was offshore, and the boat floated away with its precious treasure. No one can doubt that boat landed at the shore of heaven. Sin wants to put you in a fiery boat and shove you off in an opposite direction— off from peace, off from God, off from heaven, everlastingly off, and the port toward which you would sail would be a port of darkness, and the guns that would greet you would be the guns of despair, and the flags that would wave at your arrival would be the black flags of death. Oh, my brother, you must either kill sin or sin will kill you! It is no exaggeration when I say that any man or woman that wants to be saved may be saved. Tremendous choice! A thousand people are choosing this moment between salvation and destruction, between light and darkness, between charred ruin and glorious crystallization.

TURKEY ALONE RESPONSIBLE.

London, Oct. 9.—The Daily Mail has received the following despatch from its Vienna correspondent:

"In reply to a telegram I addressed to him to-day, Gen. Zontrichew, President of the Macedonian Committee, denies the committee had any hand in the abduction of Miss Stone. He adds: 'The committee desires the support of the civilized world for the Macedonian cause, and therefore would not commit such a folly. The Turks did the deed, and Turkey must be made responsible.'

"M. Danew, the Bulgarian Foreign Minister, indignantly denies the suggestion that the Bulgarian Government is not doing its best to rescue Miss Stone. He says three thousand troops are engaged in the search for her."

The Money Is Ready.

Paris, Oct. 9.—A letter received by the Havas Agency from Salonica, dated Oct. 4, says:

"The American Consul here has just received orders to make the arrangements with the Vali (Governor) for the payment of the ransom of Miss Stone. The United States will advance the money, afterwards settling with Turkey."

THE GRAND TRUNK'S REPORT.

Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson's Deliverances Unanimously Adopted.

London, Oct. 9.—At the meeting yesterday of the stockholders of the Grand Trunk Railroad the report of the President, Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, was unanimously adopted. The report referred to the tragedy at Buffalo, and said that, if President Roosevelt succeeded in carrying out the policy of reciprocity indicated in President McKinley's last speech, it would remove some of the most serious barriers to the prosperity of Canada and of the Grand Trunk Railway. He also said the expiring half-year had been the most prosperous since 1884. The company's relations with the Canadian Government, the President said, had been of the most pleasant kind.

A resolution that holders of 4 per cent. guaranteed stock receive two pounds per cent., and that holders of first preferred stock receive two pounds ten per cent., was adopted. The attendance at the meeting was small.

Live Stock for Chicago.

Ottawa, Oct. 9.—The United States Department of Agriculture has issued an order for the importation of Canadian cattle into the United States for exhibition purposes at the International Live Stock Exposition to be held from Nov. 30 to Dec. 7 next at Chicago, Ill., without being subjected to the tuberculin test. Such cattle must, however, be accompanied by a certificate issued by a Canadian official veterinarian stating that they are free from contagious and infectious diseases. The cattle must also be returned to Canada immediately at the close of the Exposition.

The Great Goktelk Viaduct.

The Goktelk viaduct in Burma, which has been constructed by American bridge builders and which has been the subject of discussion in the British parliament, has the distinction of being the largest structure of the kind in the world and the highest, with one exception. It is 2,260 feet long, and its extreme height above the foundations is 335 feet. The only viaduct exceeding it in height is at Loa, in Bolivia, on the Antofogasta railroad, that structure being 336½ feet high, but it is only 800 feet long. Moreover, the foundations of the Goktelk bridge rest upon a natural rock bridge, so that the track is no less than 835 feet above the river, which flows through the natural tunnel. A table published by Engineering News shows that the highest viaduct in the United States is that over the Pecos river in Texas on the Southern Pacific railroad, which is 321 feet high and 2,180 feet long, while close behind it is the Kinzua viaduct on the Erie railroad in Pennsylvania, which is 301 feet high and 2,053 feet long.

The Home of Echoes.

Many valleys described in guidebooks as "whispering valleys" are favorite resorts for tourists in all parts of the world. Few, however, exceed in wonder a valley at Stansfield in Essex, England. The rector of this parish in giving a careful account of his own experiences states that his house stands on a hill 288 feet above sea level, rising in rear to 300 feet, while in front the ground slopes away to a stream 100 feet below and again rises 180 feet on the opposite side. From the rectory the bells of 14 or 15 villages may be distinguished, while across the valley footsteps and voices in conversational tone may be heard at half a mile.

Domestic Joys.

Meeks—We compromise on coffee.

VARICOCELE

No matter how serious your case may be or how long you may have had it, our NEW METHOD TREATMENT will cure it. The "wormy veins" return to their normal condition and hence the sexual organs receive proper nourishment. The organs become vitalized and manly powers return. No temporary benefit, but a permanent cure assured. NO CURE, NO PAY. NO OPERATION NECESSARY. NO DETENTION FROM BUSINESS.

STRICTURE

Thousands of young and middle-aged men are troubled with this disease—many unconsciously. They may have a smarting sensation, sharp, cutting pains at times, weak organs, and all the symptoms of nervous debility—they have STRICTURE. Don't let doctors experiment on you by cutting, stretching or tearing you. This will not cure you, as it will return. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT absorbs the stricture tissue, hence removes the stricture permanently. It can never return. No pain, no suffering, no detention from business by our method. The sexual organs are strengthened, the nerves are invigorated, and the bliss of manhood returns.

Cures Guaranteed

We treat and cure BLOOD POISON, NERVOUS DEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, STRICTURE, VARICOCELE, SEMINAL LOSSES, BLADDER and KIDNEY DISEASES. CONSULTATION FREE. BOOKS FREE. CHARGES MODERATE. If unable to call, write for a QUESTION BLANK for HOME Treatment.

Nothing Tastes Good

And eating is simply perfunctory—done because it must be. This is the common complaint of the dyspeptic.

The only way to cure dyspepsia, which is difficult digestion, is to give vigor and tone to the stomach and the whole digestive system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cured Mrs. Frances Blondin, Pembroke, Ont., Benj. Webb, Clinton, Ont., and W. A. Nugent, Belleville, Ont., all of whom suffered greatly from dyspepsia. Mrs. Blondin writes, "I am fully cured." Mr. Webb, "It worked like a charm, restored a healthy appetite and toned my whole system"; and Mr. Nugent, "I cannot praise it too highly for the good it has done me."

THE TIME EXTENDED.

Though It Expired Tuesday, Miss Stone Is Still Alive.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The time allowed by Miss Stone's kidnappers expired yesterday, yet she is still alive and uninjured. It is known now officially that her captors have granted a short extension of time — how much is not stated — and the officials feel that if the responses to the appeals of Miss Stone's friends do not cease or diminish there is yet reasonable hope for getting the money in season to save her life. The danger in the situation lies in the abatement of public interest which was generously manifested during the first few days following the issuance of the appeal.

Miss Stone's Abductors.

Constantinople, Oct. 10.—A trustworthy report locates Miss Stone's abductors on the summit of a mountain at Gultepe, on the Turko-Bulgarian frontier near Dubnitza. It is said that the kidnapping band numbers 18. Arrangements have been made to surround the mountain with Turkish and Bulgarian troops.

Fund Only $56,600.

Boston, Oct. 10.—Additions to the Stone ransom fund have practically ceased. Only two small cheques were received up to noon yesterday. The fund aggregates nearly $56,600.

THE AUSTRALIAN TARIFF.

Some of the Duties Proposed For the Colony's Imports.

Melbourne, Australia, Oct. 10. — The Commonwealth Tariff Bill, introduced in the Federal House of Representatives on Tuesday by Mr. Kingston, Minister of Trade and Commerce, in addition to the duties already cabled provides for the following duties:

Sparkling wines, 12 shillings per gallon.

Other wines, bottled, 8 shillings, in bulk, 6 shillings.

Manufactured tobacco, 3 shillings 6 pence per pound.

Imported leaf tobacco, 1 shilling 6 pence per pound, excise 1 shilling.

Cigars, 6 shilling 6 pence, plus 15 per cent. ad valorum; cigarettes, 6 shillings 6 pence.

Sugar, imported, £6 per ton; excise, £3, with a rebate of £2 if grown by white labor only.

Cottons and linens, 10 and 15 per cent. Furniture, 20 per cent.

OUTBREAK REGARDED CERTAIN.

Russia Favoring Claims of Ameer's Fourth Son and Massing Troops.

London, Oct. 10.—"It is regarded here as certain that there will be an outbreak of civil war in Afghanistan," says a despatch from St. Petersburg to The Daily Mail, "arising from the claims of the fourth son of the late Ameer, Mohammed Uller Khan, who is favored by Russia. Telegrams were sent to Kush to-day, ordering large reinforcements of Russian troops along the frontier to be in readiness, if necessary, to seize Herat."

Afghans' New Ameer.

Simla, Oct. 10.—Habib Ullah Khan has been officially proclaimed Ameer, and the accession has been accepted by his brothers and the Sirdars. All is quiet at Cabul.

MARTIAL LAW PROCLAIMED

Cape Colony's Constitution Is Now Wholly Suspended.

Action, Which Is the Outcome of a Recent Visit of Colonial Officials to Sir Alfred Milner, Probably Foreshadows the Commencement of Vigorous Measures Necessary in Their Opinion to End the War.

Cape Town, Oct. 9.—The Gazette to-day proclaims martial law in the districts of Cape Town, Wynberg, Simonstown, Port Elizabeth and East London.

The proclamation is the outcome of the recent visit of the Premier of Cape Colony, Sir John Gordon Sprigg, and the Under Secretary of Native Affairs in South Africa, J. Rose Innes, to the British High Commissioner, Lord Milner. It places under military control the few points in Cape Colony hitherto exempted and the constitution therefore, is now suspended over the entire colony. The action taken probably foreshadows the commencement of vigorous measures which those on the spot are understood to believe necessary to end the war.

Martial law will be modified in its application to the ports, by leaving the docks, railroads and harbors under the control of the civil authorities. Military rule will be mitigated in some other respects.

Sergt. Wood Still Ill.

Ottawa, Oct. 10.—Sergt. John Truelove Wood, Canadian Scouts, is still dangerously ill with enteric fever, according to a cablegram received at the Militia Department yesterday.

Another Canadian Honored.

Quebec, Oct. 10.—Among the Canadians honored for their good work in South Africa, Capt. and Brevet-Major Charles MacPherson Dobell of the Royal Welsh Fusiliers, son of Hon. R. R. Dobell, has been named a Companion of the Distinguished Service Order.

Marriage of Divorcees.

San Francisco, Oct. 10.—The House of Bishops, the Triennial Episcopal Convention, adopted a canon relating to the solemnizing of marriage, forbidding the marriage of persons divorced for any cause not existing before marriage, such as insanity, inability to execute a contract, the existance of a living wife or husband or like reasons. The whole subject is to come before the House of Deputies to-day.

No Argument Needed.

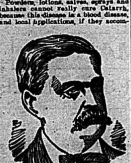
Powders, lotions, salves, sprays and inhalers cannot really cure Catarrh, because this disease is a blood disease, and local applications, if they accomplish anything at all, simply give transient relief.



The catarrhal poison is in the blood and the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and trachea tries to relieve the system by secreting large quantities of mucous, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils dropping into the throat, causing deafness by closing the Eustachian tubes, and after a time causing catarrh of stomach or serious throat and lung troubles.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal remedy which will cleanse the blood from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion from the mucous membrane.

The best and most modern remedies for this purpose are antiseptics, scientifically known as Eucalyptol, Guaiacol, Sanguinaria, and Hydrastin, and while each of these have been successfully used separately, yet it has been difficult to get them all combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

The manufacturers of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, have succeeded admirably in accomplishing this result. They are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, to be dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane of the throat, and finally the stomach.

Unlike many catarrh remedies Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, opiate or any injurious drug whatever, and are equally beneficial for little children and adults.

Mr. C. R. Rembrandt, of Rochester, N.Y., says: "I know of a few people who have suffered as much as I from catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I used sprays, inhalers, and powders for months at a time with only slight relief, and had no hope of cure. I had not the means to make a change of climate, which seemed my only chance of cure.

"Last spring I read an account of some remarkable cures made by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and promptly bought a fifty cent box from my druggist, and obtained such positive benefit from that one package that I continued to use them daily until I now consider myself entirely free from the disgusting annoyance of catarrh; my head is clear, my digestion all I could ask and my hearing, which had begun to fail as a result of the catarrh, has greatly improved until I feel I can hear as well as ever. They are a household necessity in my family."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents for complete treatment, and for convenience, safety and prompt results they are undoubtedly the long looked for catarrh cure.

Royal Party In Toronto

The Distinguished Visitors Reached the Queen City To-day.

Canadian Exhibitors Win Many Prizes at Buffalo—Martial Law Proclaimed—Tried to Rob a Bank—The Late Hon. Clarke Wallace—The Australian Tariff.

Chapleau, Oct. 10.—The special trains of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall swung around the north shore of Lake Superior yesterday and headed to the southeast last night, are on the run down through the Province of Ontario for the City of Toronto.

North Bay will be reached early this morning, and the royal train will there be transferred from the Canadian Pacific Railway to the line of the Grand Trunk.

Brief stops for short formal receptions will be made during this morning at Orillia, Barrie and Newmarket, and the royal train is scheduled to enter Toronto at 2 o'clock this afternoon. From the time they left Fort William, early yesterday morning, the specials were kept going, except for such stops as were necessary to take water or change engines.

There were crowds at Schreiber, White River and the other towns set up on the rock-trimmed north shore, ready with a show of friendship for the Prince and Princess.

The early hours of the day were bright and warm, but the afternoon was raw and cheerless. The Duke and Duchess are both very enthusiastic over their western trip, and regret that they were unable to extend it.

TORONTO ALL READY.

Toronto, Oct. 10.—The result of the work by the citizens in decorating the city was amply apparent yesterday and last night, the illuminations being tested and found to be of the most brilliant character. The public buildings were especially fine and the trial displays evoked delighted exclamations of satisfaction from the thousands who witnessed them.

The city is full of distinguished strangers, among whom are Colonel Hon. F. W. Borden, Mrs. Borden and the Misses Borden, Hon. W. S. Fielding and the Misses Fielding, Lady Laurier and Lady Davies, who left Ottawa for Toronto yesterday morning.

During yesterday afternoon the troops at the Exhibition Grounds practised the review, Major-General O'Grady-Haly and staff being the saluting point. There were 4,000 or 5,000 delighted spectators, who witnessed these preliminary spectacles. Thirty-five bands were present and played for the troops, who numbered about 5,000 of all ranks. By nine o'clock last night all the visiting troops, numbering 10,000 in all, had arrived.

THE TORONTO PROGRAM.

9.00 p.m.—Concert in Massey Hall.

Sir Oliver Mowat All Right.

The statement was authoritatively given out from Government House last night that Sir Oliver Mowat's health was "never better in his life," and that his absence from the reception of the royal party at North Toronto, and remaining at Government House to welcome his illustrious visitors is in accordance with what is recognized as the proper procedure. The duty of welcoming the royal party at the station thus devolves upon His Excellency Lord Minto.

Taken for an Anarchist.

Halifax, Oct. 10.—A man who was hovering about North street depot yesterday afternoon was taken by some of the officials for an anarchist. He was making inquiries about the Duke's arrival, said he was from Chicago, and had an important mission to perform. The police were communicated with, and the man, who was a retired British soldier, was arrested. After his identity had been made known he was released.

Coal for Royal Engines.

Sydney, C. B., Oct. 10.—The Dominion Coal Company received a rush order for eight carloads (160 tons) of coal, to be used on the engines hauling the royal train in Canada.

TRIED TO ROB A BANK.

Determined Effort Made at Owen Sound Early Wednesday Morning.

Owen Sound, Oct. 10.—A determined attempt was made between 3 and 4 o'clock yesterday morning to rob the Molsons Bank. The burglars burst open the door of the outer shed at the rear, one of them stood at the barred window and covered the sleeping clerk with a revolver, while the other burst in a panel of the door leading into the bank. This noise awoke Mr. Vandusen, junior clerk, who was sleeping in the bank. As he sat up in bed the burglar at the window shot at him, the bullet passing close to Vandusen; the latter returned the fire. They returned to the attack half a minute later, when another shot from Vandusen dispersed them. Apparently no one was hit. Vandusen notified the Central Telephone Office of what had happened and an alarm of fire was rung. The police are working on the case and some arrests are expected to be made today.

Edinburgh, Oct. 10.—Replying to an influential delegation representing Scottish agricultural interests, the President of the Board of Agriculture, Mr. Hanbury, said yesterday that so long as he was president of the board he would never consent to the removal of the restrictions on the importation of Canadian cattle.

To Take Over Harbor Works.

Montreal, Oct. 10.—A notice of motion has been presented by J. X. Pencault, calling upon the Dominion Government to take over the harbor works at Montreal, and place them under the Department of Public Works.

The Shamrock Barred.

New York, Oct. 10.—The New York Yacht Club yesterday formally declined Sir Thomas Lipton's proposal to race the Shamrock II. again next summer for the America's Cup.

Many a woman dresses to go out, feels irresolute, sits down, and falls into a fit of despondent musing. Ask her what's the matter, and she'll probably answer "Just the blues." And what are the blues? Only another name, in general, for a disordered liver and a diseased stomach. Cleanse the liver, heal the stomach, purify the blood, and there'll be no more blues. It can be done by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This medicine puts the diseased organs of digestion and nutrition into a condition of sound health. It eliminates from the blood all impure and poisonous substances, and cleanses the clogged liver. It contains neither alcohol nor narcotics.

"I had liver complaint for the past fifteen years, complicated with dyspepsia and gall stones," writes Mrs. N. Bernier, of 461 Elm St., Oshkosh, Wis. "I doctored with seven of our prominent doctors, and not one or all of them have done me the good, nor begun to do what your medicines have. I have used three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, one of his 'Pleasant Pellets,' and one bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and have gained about eighteen pounds since I first began to take these remedies."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness.

CANADIANS AT BUFFALO FAIR

Several of Our Government Institutions Win Awards.

Jury of Awards of the Pan-American Make Public Lists of Recompenses Adjudged—Many Ontario Exhibitors Figure in the Lists of Honor—Dominion's Agricultural, Forestry, Mines, Fisheries, All Lead the World.

THE LATE MR. WALLACE.

Toronto, Oct. 10.—The Executive Committee of the Grand Lodge of Orangemen in Ontario West held a special meeting yesterday in Victoria Hall to consider what arrangements should be made for the funeral of the late Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, Grand Sovereign of the Orange Order in British North America.

The interment will take place on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and a special train will leave the Union Station at 1 p.m., to accommodate the Toronto people. The interment will be in Christ's Church Cemetery, Woodbridge, and the Rev. William Walsh of Brampton, the Grand Chaplain of British America, assisted by Rev. H. C. Dixon, Grand Chaplain for Ontario West, will probably conduct the burial services.

The grand officers, the county officers and the district officers, will be in their official robes, and the other members will wear the badge. Wreaths have been sent by the Supreme Grand Lodge of British America, the Grand Lodge of Ontario West and the County Lodge of Toronto.

To Attend the Funeral.

Winnipeg, Oct. 10.—Hon. D. H. McFadden, who is also Provincial Grand Master of the Orange Grand Lodge, left for the east last evening in order to attend the funeral of the late Hon. N. Clarke Wallace.

A Loss to the Country.

Montreal, Oct. 10.—The local newspapers, without distinction of party, unite in deploring the death of N. Clarke Wallace as a loss to Parliament and the country. The Montreal Orangemen will send a large delegation to attend the funeral.

According to La Patrie, Mr. Arch. Campbell will again be the Liberal candidate in West York.

Tributes From Orangemen.

Toronto, Oct. 10.—At a representative gathering of Canadian Orangemen, at a meeting held last night, in Euclid avenue Orange Hall, under the auspices of Luther Western Pioneer L. O. L., 479, touching references were made in regard to the Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, and a suitable resolution was passed.

Dr. Sproule Will Attend.

Toronto, Oct. 10.—Dr. Sproule, M. P., of Markdale, now Grand Sovereign of the L. O. L. of B. A., will arrive in the city to-night. He will attend the funeral on Saturday afternoon of the late Hon. N. Clarke Wallace. It was learned yesterday that Dr. Borden, Minister of Militia, will send a wreath to be placed on the casket.

MR. JUSTICE BRITTON.

Formally Sworn in at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, Wednesday Morning.

Toronto, Oct. 10.—The Court of King's Bench, Osgoode Hall, was crowded this morning by a representative gathering of the bench and the bar, supported by a few ladies, on the occasion of the swearing in of Mr. Justice B. B. Britton, the newly appointed Judge to the Supreme Court, High Court and King's Bench of Ontario. On the bench were Chief Justice Falconbridge, Chief Justice Sir William Meredith and Mr. Justices Moss and Street. Dr. John Hoskin, K. C., on conclusion of the formal ceremony, extended the congratulations of the bar to the new judge. Mr. Justice Britton expressed his thanks in an excellent speech.

The Schley Inquiry.

Washington, Oct. 10. — In the Schley Naval Court of Inquiry yesterday Lieut. Mark L. Bristol completed his testimony begun Tuesday, and three new witnesses were introduced. They were Rear Admiral Henry C. Taylor, who, as captain, commanded the battleship Indiana during the war with Spain, Lieut. Commander Templeton M. Potts, who was navigator of the battleship Massachusetts during that period, and Lieut. Edward F. Leiper, who was on the New Orleans during the war, the last named being still on the stand when the court adjourned for the day.

Want the Matter Dropped.

Montreal, Oct. 10.—There was another lively spat at a meeting of the Harbor Board yesterday over Mr. Tarte's charge that a bribe of $20,000 had been offered to the board in connection with the elevator matter. Several of the members insisted on having an apology from Mr. Tarte, but friends of the Government on the board wanted the matter dropped.

Mr. John Torrance, who represents the Corn Exchange on the board, said the matter would go still further, as a good many people are interested who would not let it drop.

Winnipeg, Oct. 10.—When questioned yesterday regarding a report to the effect that there was danger of a wheat blockade at Fort William, Mr. MacInnes, assistant manager of the C. P. R., said: "The suggestion is very absurd. The elevator capacity at Fort William is 550,000,000 bushels, and there is only at present in store 1,750,000 bushels."

"BUSINESS IS BUSINESS"

ALDERMANIC CORRUPTION IN MONTREAL.

A case of more than usual municipal interest, says the Montreal Gazette, has been decided in the Superior Court by Mr. Justice Langelier. A contractor named Faure tendered for the construction of certain drainage works in the municipality of Maisonneuve. He had in connection with the business to see one Mr. Martineau, a member of the municipal council and also a member of the committee which had immediately to do with the awarding of the contract. To secure his good will, or to avert his opposition, the tenderer gave him a note for $1,250. The matter came before the courts in the course of an effort by the holder of the note to enforce its payment. The makers of the note pleaded that it was given as an illegal consideration and set out what is stated above. They supported it also by such evidence that the court accepted it, and dismissed the suit. The civil side of the case is thus disposed of, but there is another that is of even greater public importance. The defendants' allegations, accepted by the court, were equivalent to a charge that a grave crime punishable under the law has been perpetrated. Section 136 of the Criminal Code defines among corrupt practices in municipal affairs the act of any person who, being a member or officer of a municipal council, accepts or consents to accept any offer, proposal, gift, loan, promise, agreement, compensation or consideration, or in consideration thereof votes or abstains from voting in favor of or against any measure, motion, resolution or question, or performs or abstains from performing any official act.

After quoting this clause in the Criminal Code, the Gazette proceeds to say: "There is some reason to fear that such acts as are here condemned are not uncommon in municipal administration. At least there is a strong public belief to that effect, which this Maisonneuve case will give justification for, and which will be increased if, after the exposure in the civil courts, there is not a prosecution in the criminal courts that will bring about the punishment of the presumed wrongdoer, or, if he is not a wrongdoer, will give him the opportunity of clearing himself. The case is the second of the nature to attract public attention in the district of Montreal within a brief time, and it is not well that it should remain to increase the belief that the law for punishing municipal wrongdoers is a dead letter."

This is clearly another case of "business is business, you know," in which an intermediary demanded a consideration from tenderers for a supply to Government office, on the plea that "business was business," and which crime the then Minister of Justice, Sir Oliver Mowat, while not denying the crime had been committed, refused to punish the guilty party. The fact was, the offender was a political supporter of the Government and a defeated House candidate for Parliament, and therefore allowed to escape the penalties of the law.

The crime of aldermen selling the influence they possess through the fact of being aldermen, is, it is feared, as the Gazette remarks, becoming too common, and until the penalties provided by law for the punishment of the offenders is enforced, the crime will be repeated by the unscrupulous just so often as the opportunity presents itself.

TIMELY TOPICS.

Mayor Graham yesterday when going to Toronto forgot to take with him his insignia of office, namely, the long chain. It was however sent to him and to-day he took his place with the various city rulers, being properly clothed.

Although the visit of the Royal party to the City of the Bay will be brief, the reception will not only be unique but enthusiastic and inspiring.

The City is not in a position to fire a Royal salute, as the cannons are still in the mud. They may possibly be mounted when the next heir apparent visits our city.

Is it not a pity that the stay of the Royal party in our city will not be of such duration as to give them an opportunity of visiting the Dundas St. burying ground!

The New York Yacht Club has declined Sir Thomas Lipton's proposal to race the Shamrock II. again next summer for the America's Cup. The inference to be drawn from this is that the Club is afraid of Sir Thomas' yacht.

Those members of the Fifteenth who criticize the superior strength of the butter served out to them in Toronto, should have more appreciation for the eternal fitness of things. Isn't the Regiment itself over strength?

Mr. Conmee, M.P. for Algoma, declared the other day, in a speech made by him at Port Arthur, that "he had to record his vote against the Government in some of its actions, as a matter of conscience." Iniquitous indeed must have been the "action" of the Government, when Conmee's conscience revolted.

The Government of the Province of Quebec furnish 868 school districts and 80 convents with copies of the 1st Book to the number of 95,207 free. In Ontario the Local Government gives the school book supplying business to a friend or two, who "rake-off" from the poor people some tens of thousands of dollars annually.

Mayor Prefontaine says Tarte is "crazy" and that "this person (Tarte) "is exercising control over "them, because he wants to control "also the 'rake-off,' a subject with "which he seems to be familiar.'" This is a serious accusation, coming as it does from an admirer of Laurier, who declares "there is nothing too good for Tarte."

Speaking of the desertions from the Liberal party in Quebec, Mayor Prefontaine exclaims in the agony of his soul: "This exodus must continue if this fatal man (Tarte) remains in our ranks." By all means let him remain the confidential bosom friend of Sir Wilfrid, who has said "There is nothing too good for Tarte." Let the pair "rake-off" together for a short time longer, and the end will be sooner reached.

• • •

Mr. Tarte should offer to appease Mr. Prefontaine's wrath by naming a dredge after him.—Mail.

No doubt he would if the "rake-off" was sufficiently large in amount.

According to Mr. Prefontaine, says a contemporary, the obstructive attitude of Mr. Tarte towards the Montreal elevator scheme is assumed by the Minister because he wants the control of the "rake-off." Has this "rake-off" anything to do with "Business is Business?" Who with Mr. Tarte's well-known motto, gets the "rake-off?" Is the money personal revenue or party revenue? It is spoken of with such freedom by these Liberal statesmen in Montreal that the people who really pay the "rake-off" ought to know what the full particulars are. Yet what do they care who gets the "rake-off," provided they get the contracts!

It is a Wonder To Everybody

HOW SPEEDILY AND CERTAINLY THE WRETCHED ITCHING AND UNEASINESS OF PILES IS RELIEVED AND THOROUGHLY CURED BY

Dr. Chase's Ointment

It seems wonderful that after all these years of investigation and research the physicians are still helpless to relieve and cure one of the most common and most distressing afflictions to which man and woman are subject, viz., itching, bleeding piles. In nine cases out of ten the doctors still recommend a surgical operation, with its expense, extreme pain and danger, as the only cure for piles.

Prejudice alone keeps the physicians from prescribing Dr. Chase's Ointment in all cases of piles. It has made for itself a world-wide reputation, and is sold under a positive guarantee to cure any case of piles, no matter of how long standing, no matter how many operations have failed, and no matter how intense has been the suffering.

Rev. S. A. Duprau, Methodist minister, Consecon, Prince Edward County, Ont., states: "I was troubled with itching and bleeding piles for years and they ultimately attained to a very violent form. Large lumps or abscesses formed, so that it was with great difficulty and considerable pain that I was able to stool. At this severe crisis I purchased a box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, but I had little or no faith in it, as I had tried various remedies before and to no purpose.

"Now, imagine how great and joyous was my surprise to find that just the one box cured me, so that the lumps disappeared, and also the external swelling. I feel like a different man to-day, and have not the least doubt that Dr. Chase's Ointment saved me from a very dangerous and painful operation and many years of suffering. It is with the greatest pleasure and with a thankful heart that I give this testimonial, knowing that Dr. Chase's Ointment has done so much for me. You are at perfect liberty to use this testimonial as you see fit for the benefit of others similarly afflicted."

You are invited to make this test and prove to your own satisfaction the almost magical power of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Use it when you have the opportunity, and remember that it is guaranteed to cure any case of itching, bleeding or protruding piles; 60c a box, at all dealers, or by mail from Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

BRICKS WITHOUT STRAW.

More than a thousand years ago—
Shadows of time, how the days go by—
There was a man I used to know—
May seem strange, but you'll see it's so
After I tell you the reason why—
Worked in a brickyard, same as you
And all of us have to do;
Mixed in the trouble and worry and strife,
The mirth and the other things of life;
Stirred in the hopes and the pains and fears,
Kneaded the mud with his sweat and his tears,
Humblest man that ever you saw.
"Poor brick!" said the man, "but I have no straw!"

Up to his knees in the miry pit,
A pygmy's way, but a giant's grit;
His back was a chain of throbbing ache,
Lifting the mold with its earthen cakes;
Elbows rusty as hinges of steel,
Knees so lame he could hardly kneel;
Mud so stiff it would clog a plow
And couldn't be stirred with a wheel nohow,
Nights as short as the days were long;
Nothing seemed right, but everything wrong.
"Best I can do," said the man; "but, pshaw,
You can't make brick when you have no straw."

Taskmasters pitiless lashed the man.
"Can't!" sobbed Weakness, but Courage cried, "Can!"
"Don't!" said Despair, but Duty cried, "Do!"
"All right," said the man, "I'll worry her through!
Can't do much, and I reckon you'll see
Brick won't be just what they ought to be;
Ain't nigh so good as I know I could make
If I just had straw; but you'll have to take
The best I can do for the work's own sake."

He finished his tale of brick and then Went home to rest, and the sons of men
Looked on his perfect work and saw
He'd have spoiled the brick had he put in straw
—Robert J. Burdette.

MEN'S VIEW OF WOMEN.

Earth has nothing more tender than a pious woman's heart.—Luther.

Remember, woman is most perfect when most womanly.—Gladstone.

Lovely woman that caused our cares can every care beguile.—Beresford.

He that would have fine guests let him have a fine woman.—Ben Jonson.

A woman's strength is most potent when robed in gentleness.—Lamartine.

Disguise our bondage as we will, 'tis woman, woman, rules us still.—Moore.

Oil and water, woman and a secret, are hostile properties.—Bulwer Lytton.

Women need not look at those dear to them to know their moods.—Howells.

Kindness in woman, not their beauteous looks, shall win my love.—Shakespeare.

Raptured man quits each dozing sage, O woman, for thy lovelier page!—Moore.

He is a fool who thinks by force or skill to turn the current of a woman's will.—Samuel Tuke.

The most beautiful object in the world, it will be allowed, is a beautiful woman.—Macaulay.

If the heart of a man is depressed with cares, the mist is dispelled when a woman appears.

Taking Sunday Collections.

An old and not yet obsolete mode of taking a collection in a Scotch church is by means of a ladle—a small wooden box at the end of a straight wooden shaft about four and a half feet long, the top of the box being sufficiently open to receive contributions of money. For all special collections this was the usual mode in the chief churches of Edinburgh when I was a boy at school there 50 years ago, but it has gradually gone out of fashion and is not often to be seen nowadays.

For ordinary Sunday collections the general custom has been to have a metal plate or basin on a small table at the church entrance superintended by an elder—a mode which was often called the brod. When ladles are used, they are handed round the congregation by elders after the sermon or after the last psalm, and the common Scotch phrase to "lift" the collection may have come from this custom.

All a Matter of Taste.

A strange fact is told by travelers who declare that the Arabs in the deserts of Africa have contracted violent dislike to running water, and will only drink from stagnant pools when on journeys. This has become so much a matter of habit, that while the most poisonous-looking water agrees with them perfectly, pure running water will in a few hours make them violently sick. This prejudice against fresh water is common amongst the animals of the desert also, and is frequently acquired by European travelers. At first, however, when the latter drink of stagnant water, it produces nausea and even fever, but when once the system becomes inured to it, running water affects them in precisely the same way as it affects the Arabs.

Coming of Age.

The coming-of-age festivities of the son of Sir James de Hoghton of Hoghton Tower, Lancashire, were held the other week with elaborate ceremonies. The Hoghton family is one of the oldest in the Kingdom extending back without a break to the reign of Stephen.

One ancestress was that Lady Godiva, who, to save the people of Coventry from a burdensome tax, rode the streets "clothed o'er with chastity."

There is also a legend that during a visit to the tower that James the First knighted a loin of beef, making it "Sir Loin." The festivities are entirely old English.

Devastating Power of Locusts.

A swarm of these insects stopped the advance of a Russian army. They filled the air and blinded both officers and men, so that the former could give no orders, and even if they had done so the men could not have obeyed them. The horses would not face them, and they lay on the ground many inches thick. Every man and horse in the army was incrusted with the insects, and their clothing was literally eaten off the men as they stood helpless and blinded. The railways were useless, as the locusts covered the rails, and the oil which exuded from their bodies when crushed prevented the driving wheels from "biting." After they had settled whole regiments were detached for the purpose of trampling them to death. Trenches were dug across their path and filled with burning coals, but the crowding swarms actually smothered the fire, so vast were their numbers.

Even in a little island like Cyprus in one year one-fifth of the entire revenue was spent in destroying the locusts, and especially their eggs. When these eggs are laid, they are inclosed in a horny envelope called a "pod," each pod containing 35 eggs. In seven months 1,330 tons of pods were destroyed. Now, a single ton of pods contains 60,000,000 eggs, and yet, in spite of this almost incredible destruction, the locusts are still a dreadful plague and show little if any symptoms of diminution in numbers.

Life is too short to read the whole story, so don't criticise the book before you have read it.—Boston Transcript.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Ladies' Auxiliary took place Tuesday afternoon in the parlor. The following are the officers for the coming year: Mrs. W. W. Chown, Pres.; Mrs. (Dr.) Crothers, 1st Vice Pres.; Mrs. (Rev.) Locke, 2nd Vice Pres.; Mrs. (Rev.) Maclean, 3rd Vice Pres.; Mrs. (Rev.) Gilliland, 4th Vice Pres.; Miss Gibson, 5th Vice Pres.; Miss Gibson, Treasurer; Mrs. Gordon, Secretary.

The past year's work is very encouraging. Five new members were added to the auxiliary, and $149 secured from dues and other sources. In addition to making some needed repairs the Auxiliary gave the Treasurer of the Association a cheque for $60 toward their current expenses. The outlook for the coming year is a bright one. All the ladies seem deeply interested in the work.

The Boys' Club held their second meeting Tuesday afternoon. Following the bible study a lively game of basket ball took place; each team won one game, and before the tie could be played time was called. The game will be finished Saturday morning.

The meeting called to organize a gymnasium class was postponed till Tuesday, Oct. 22nd, owing to so few being present.

"THE PAIN WAS KILLING"

Rheumatism revels in the writhings of its victims until shorn of its pangs by South American Rheumatic Cure—It relieves in six hours and cures in one to three days.

Mrs. Geo. Smith, of 62 Charron St., Point St. Charles, suffered terribly from Rheumatism in her joints. The pain was killing. Doctors' medicines temporarily deadened the pain, but effected no permanent relief. She began taking South American Rheumatic Cure and when she had used four bottles was absolutely cured. 28

Quick & Robertson's For Fine Clothes.

There's no use disputing the fact that this store stands pre-eminent in this city as the store for Men's Fine Clothes.

With our large and pleasing varieties, up-to-date style, and good making we've won the trade of every man, and especially the trade of those men who are particular about the Clothes they wear.

And why shouldn't we? You can't find a store that has, ready made, such exclusive styles in suitings and overcoatings as we are showing, and every one of them is from the best Canadian and English mills.

Then, too, every garment is built to come up to our high standard—built by the best makers who know how and do give close attention to important parts of tailoring—such as adjusting the collars, shaping the shoulders, proper placing the sleeves and stays and making the button holes.

Clothes made this way never lose their shape and by so doing we have overcome that appearance which marks clothes as being ready-made.

The prices for such goodness you'd expect to be high—but they are not—are no more than you would pay for ordinary sorts elsewhere.

SCHOOL CHILDREN'S PART.

THEY WILL DO THEIR DUTY AT THE ROYAL RECEPTION.

The Board of Education was called together last evening to discuss the matter of the Royal visit here and the part the school children are to take in the proceedings.

Messrs. Wm. Johnson and E. G. Sills laid before the members the programme as outlined, and asked the co-operation of the Board in the matter. The Board was asked permission to allow the teachers to take a short time daily in drilling the scholars in singing, to allow the scholars from all the schools to assemble on Monday next at 2.30 at the Central School grounds for a rehearsal, with the various church choirs, and also to provide the scholars with flags.

The Board were unanimous in granting the requests made, and the work of training the children will be proceeded with at once.

In connection with the schools it may be mentioned that the scholars of the Separate School will participate, the proper authorities having unanimously given their consent.

AT TORONTO WITH THE FIFTEENTH

Regiment had a Field Day on Wednesday—There Were Soldiers Innumerable.

The Boys From Belleville Did Well in the March Past and Gained Applause.

(Staff Correspondence.)

Toronto, October 9, 9 a.m. — With the encouraging words of Mayor Graham and Col. Ponton ringing in their ears, the men of the Fifteenth left Belleville in a light-hearted mood last night. The trip, however, was a wearisome one, as their destination was not reached till 4 o'clock this morning, and some cheerful souls aboard the train objected to anybody sleeping while en route. However, the men soon turned in when they arrived at the Exhibition buildings, where plenty of straw and blankets form the bed. The grounds are full of soldiers this morning. Some of the regiments look very well indeed. Others don't. The gallant 45th, Lieut.-Col. Sam Hughes commanding, was the only regiment I saw which marched off to drill before breakfast. The breakfast, by the way, was not at all bad, though the meat was not spring lamb and the butter was walking round with a chip on its shoulder. I see by the Adjutant's roster that the Fifteenth musters 264 men—some ten over strength. An excellent showing, considering the blue prospects of recent days. Judging from what I have seen I don't think the Fifteenth have any reason to fear comparison with any visiting regiments. We hear rumors of a heavy drill to-day and a fifteen mile march to-morrow. However, the boys are all in good health and spirits, and will probably stand it as well as the rest of them. We saw some of the decorations in passing through this morning. Judging by them the city must be gloriously decorated. There goes the "Assembly."

Toronto, October 9, 6 p.m. — Well, you talk about a field day, but if the boys of the Old Fifteenth weren't in it up to their necks to-day your correspondent and a good many other people have another guess coming.

The Regiment paraded for drill at 9:30 a.m., and Major Halliwell marched the boys to the big common in front of the Exhibition buildings, where he drilled them in all sorts of battalion movements. It was warm and close, and the men perspired very freely, too freely, in fact.

Then there was brigade drill and a march past rehearsal. It was 12:05 when the Regiment got back to quarters.

Another parade was called for 2:15, when all the troops who will take part in the Toyal Review were to be inspected by Major-General O-Grady-Haly.

This was a memorable day for most of the boys. Commencing early this morning regiments began arriving, and so it went on up to 3 o'clock—only a few minutes interval between the arrivals. Bands banging away, each one in its own time and the men who tried to keep step to any one were in great perplexity.

Some of the bands were perfectly splendid.

Talking of bands—you just ought to hear the bugle band of the 43rd of Ottawa. They played the catchiest kind of a ragtime quickstep, and a man who couldn't get out of a sick bed and march to their music surely must have one foot in the grave.

But to return to this afternoon's parade. The Fifteenth started for the parade ground at 2:15 and surely if you could have seen us you'd have thought we didn't cut much ice. There were regiments in front, behind and to right and left of us, and almost anywhere you looked you saw them coming—the bands all cheerfully banging away and trying to drown each other. The artillery and cavalry were on the parade ground when we arrived there and a very smart-looking lot they were. The command was drilled in brigade movements by Gen. O'Grady-Haly himself, and then began the march past, which was gone through as it will be before the Duke and Duchess. The grand stand, by the way, was quite full to-day, though the spectators, I suppose, didn't have to pay the high prices for their seats which rumor says will prevail on Friday next. The cavalry, of course, were first in the march past. They looked well, the Mounted Infantry especially looking exceedingly fit. Then came the artillery, and really one wondered where the horses and guns came from. And in appearance and physique the Canadian Artillerymen and horses will compare favorably with any, either British or U.S., I ever saw. It was an inspiring sight to see the handsome horses hauling the khaki colored guns. The infantry followed the artillery, and then came our turn. The Fifteenth was about in the middle of the infantry parade, and after marching in quarter column through a bog that plastered their boots and leggings, the boys swung into the road and started to step out in style to the air of "Bonnie Dundee," grandly played by some big band. It would have pleased many Belleville folks if they could have seen how the boys held up their heads and swung their arms with the real soldierly swing. Crowds lined the roadway on both sides, and liberal applause gladdened the hearts of the boys. They certainly did march well. The spirit of the occasion had infected them, and they deserved the encouraging smiles which the brilliant general staff gave them when going by the saluting point. The boys forgot the many hard drills they had put in, then, and were just bubbling over with high spirits. After the march past the Regiment was marched to quarters and dismissed, and then pandemonium broke loose for awhile, and the boys cheered for their officers and promised to do even better next Friday. So ended a pretty hard day, considering that one hour's sleep was probably the limit for everybody last night. Just now there is a steady stream of soldiers going to the city, on leave, and Toronto's streets will to-night present a lively spectacle.

NOTES OF THE DAY.

While drilling this morning the horse of Major Putnam, of the Sixteenth, who is attached to the Fifteenth for the trip, stepped in a hole and fell, the Major having a narrow escape.

I just saw Col. Biggar, looking very swell in his staff officer's uniform.

All the men are well and in splendid spirits, and declare they wouldn't have missed the trip for anything.

To-morrow the troops line the streets for the Royal procession, and we are looking forward to a hard day. But the boys are cheerful, and say that if the other fellows can stand it they can.

LEFT GUIDE.

HANDSOME YOKE OVERCOATS.

The men who like to be right up-to-date in their clothing should see the stylish yoke overcoat the Oak Hall are showing. Talk about tailor-made; there is more style in one of our handsome well-tailored overcoats than in any ordered coat you can get. Our best yoke coat is only $15, and it would cost $25 to order.

THE ROYAL RECEPTION.

CITY COUNCIL ASKED TO MAKE A SMALL APPROPRIATION FOR EXPENSES.

A special meeting of the City Council was called for last evening to consider what steps that body should take in reference to the visit of the Royal party here on Tuesday next, and the question of finances.

Unfortunately there was not a quorum present, but five members attending, namely, Aldermen Doyle, McFee, Bogart, Panter and Grills.

A deputation consisting of Messrs. Wm. Johnson, J. J. B. Flint, Wm. P. Hudson and E. G. Sills as members of the Citizens' General Committee, were present to present to the Council an idea of the nature of the demonstration and the means required.

The Aldermen stated that there was not a majority of the members present, but if all present were unanimous as to a grant they had no idea but the Council would support the giving of a small grant to defray necessary expenses.

Messrs. Wm. Johnson, J. J. B. Flint and E. G. Sills spoke, detailing the programme of the proposed demonstration. It was necessary to have some decorations at the station, and this could not be done without means. They did not think the expense would be great, but thought the Council should provide the means rather than ask the citizens to contribute.

After the deputation withdrew the members of the Council present talked the matter over in an informal way and they were unanimous in supporting a grant of $50, which it was thought would cover all expenses. This amount will no doubt be endorsed by the Council.

GRACE, STYLE AND FINISH.

You will find that in Grace, Style and Finish, Clark & Robertson's will compare with the productions of the best class of merchant tailors at prices a third to a half less. Each garment is designed with a view to its shape. It will stay in shape on the wearer. No undue drag on the various parts of the garment, each pocket is stayed, collars are properly cut, sleeves and shoulders have the right "set." Design without good cloths is wasted. Every garment is properly and honestly lined with good linings. No shoddy cloths are used.

CHURCH WEDDING AT NAPANEE

A FORMER STUDENT OF ALBERT COLLEGE TAKES A BRIDE.

In the Western Methodist Church at Napanee yesterday afternoon a wedding took place which attracted a large number to the edifice. The groom is well known in Belleville, being formerly a student of Albert College, namely, Rev. A. W. Coone, S.T.L., who is at present on a circuit near Port Hope, and the bride was Miss Susan May Lattimer, of Napanee. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. A. McCamus, of Lakefield, assisted by the Rev. S. T. Bartlett. The bride was assisted by Miss Maud Garrison, whilst the best man was Mr. Fred L. Hooper. After the ceremony the young couple received the congratulations of a large number of friends. Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Coone went west where they will visit friends for a few days previous to returning to their church work.

Lewis Happin, late Postmaster at Deseronto. Probate of will granted to Margaret E. Happin. Estate $1,000. Mr. G. E. Deroche, solicitor.

A GENTLE HINT.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Regular size, 75 cts. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at B. Templeton & Co's.

WEDDING BELLS.

MARRIED 'NEATH AUTUMN LEAVES AND SCARLET BERRIES.

A very pretty wedding took place yesterday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Spafford, of Sidney Crossing, before about fifty invited guests, the contracting parties being their second daughter, Mary Maud, and Frere Bartle Hermon, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Hermon, of Rednersville. Rev. Dr. Dyer, of Albert College, uncle of the bride, assisted by the Rev. E. A. Tonkin, of Sidney, performed the ceremony, as the couple stood beneath an arch of autumn leaves in all their glorious tints, and scarlet berries.

The bride was neatly and becomingly attired in a going-away gown of castor cheviot cloth trimmed with silk of a darker shade, with a vest of tucked white silk, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. In attendance was her little cousin of eight summers, Miss Margery Whyte, who looked sweet and fairy-like dressed in white crepon trimmed with mousseline de soie and white satin baby ribbon, carrying a bouquet of pink roses and a silver tray with the wedding ring upon it.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a rich repast was partaken of, after which the bride and groom left for Toronto and Buffalo. Upon their return they will take up their residence in Rednersville.

The presents which were numerous were both useful and beautiful. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl pin and to the little maid of honor a pearl ring.

A KNOCK OUT FOR ASTHMA.

You have had many disappointments, filled your stomach with nasty drugs, tried lots of things, but they all failed. Not being a stomach complaint, of course Asthma can't be cured by stomach medicine. But Catarrhozone cures Asthma; it gives it a tired feeling in about fifteen minutes. Inhale Catarrhozone; it makes breathing easy, cures the cough, makes you well. Doctors say there is nothing like Catarrhozone for Asthma. 25 cents and $1.00.

A Successful Demonstration

The general committee selected to carry out the programme for the Royal demonstration here are all working hard to make it a success. Meetings were held twice yesterday and again to-day. Mr. Wm. Johnson is chairman and Mr. H. C. Hunt secretary. The various sub-committees have also got to work, and everything is progressing nicely. The indications are that the demonstration will be befitting to the City of the Bay.

WARTS AINT PRETTY.

Died in North Carolina.

Word was received in the city to-day announcing the death of Miss Alice Embury, eldest daughter of Mr. Allen Embury, Albert St., which occurred at the residence of her sister, Mrs. D. M. McIver, Charlotte, N.C. It is expected that the remains will arrive here on Friday for burial.

INSANITY IS INCREASING.

Statistics show that asylums are overcrowded with patients suffering from despondency and mental collapse, due to low vitality and impoverished blood, which cannot keep the brain healthy. "Climax" Iron Tonic Pills stimulate the brain cells and nerves, restore vitality and make new rich blood. Price 25 cents, at all druggists, or mailed on receipt of price. Did Not Get the Mushrooms

On Saturday last a well-known clerical gentleman of this city was waited upon by a man named James Crysler, and asked if he did not wish to procure some mushrooms. He answered in the affirmative and Crysler stated that he had them and would send them to him, but as he was afraid the party who would bring them would squander the money in drink if given to him, he asked the clergyman to advance him 25 cents, which was the charge for the supply. The money was paid but the mushrooms nor the man has not since been seen.

ATTENTION, INVENTORS!

Washing tells the tale.

It proves the difference between Stanfield's Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear and those that are simply branded "Unshrinkable," "Guaranteed," etc. Stanfield's remains the same in shape and size, as soft and pliable as when purchased. Every garment bears the guarantee of the Truro Knitting Mills Co. to return your money if they shrink. No special directions for washing. As the pants receive more wear than the shirts, they are made of heavier material. Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear is sold on a positive guarantee against shrinking in the wash. Your money back if it does.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one-half, the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done, it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilious habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little effect. But since using 3 bottles of the Vegetable Discovery, the biliousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 68 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know."

THE PUBLIC should bear in mind that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has nothing in common with the impure, deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or hurts, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

Sleeplessness.—When the nerves are unstrung and the whole body given up to wretchedness, when the mind is filled with gloom and dismal forebodings, the result of derangement of the digestive organs, sleeplessness comes to add to the distress. If only the subject could sleep, there would be the oblivion for a while and temporary relief. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, but will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Nine-tenths of the consumptives date their afflictions from a neglected cold, and the diseases that are caused by wet feet, damp clothes, or exposure are more numerous than are generally supposed. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which frees the lungs from viscid phlegm by changing the secretions from a diseased to a healthy state.

The Flagging Energies Revived.—Constant application to business is a tax upon the energies, and if there be not relaxation, lassitude and depression are sure to intervene. These comes from stomachic troubles. The want of exercise brings on nervous irregularities, and the stomach ceases to assimilate food properly. In this condition Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a recuperative of rare powder, restoring the organs to healthful action, dispelling depression and reviving the flagging energies.

Queer Ideas of Cure.

Modern wisdom smiles at the superstitious charms our forefathers and mothers used to depend upon to cure their ills and preserve them in health. We are not all wise folk yet, by any means, but at least we do not believe, as the Devon and Cornwall people used to do, that the knucklebone of a leg of mutton worn round the neck is a sure cure for sciatica, or that "blackheads" in the face will disappear immediately if the afflicted individual creeps under an arched bramble branch.

A Somersetshire cure for consumption was to lead or carry the sufferer through a flock of sheep in the early morning, when they were first let out of the fold. Some mothers used to place consumptive children in cots in the centre of a sheepfold and there leave them from 11.30 to 1 o'clock in the morning, believing that the malady would pass away before the rising of that morn's sun.

West of England folk say that an invalid, when going out for the first walk during convalescence, must take care to "go with the sun, from east to west, or west to east, if after sundown; otherwise a serious relapse cannot be avoided."

In South Wales, as late as 1848, a woman who had been bitten by a mad donkey was persuaded by her neighbors to go and eat grass in the nearest churchyard.—McCall's Magazine.

No Room for Kickers.

St. Peter sits at the heavenly gates, his hands on the strings of the lyre, and he sings a low song as he patiently waits for the souls of those who expire. He hears in the distance a chorus of song that swells from the foot of the heavenly throne, and he smiles as the music is wafted along, and he warbles a lay of his own.

"There is room in this region for millions of souls who by sorrow and woe were bereft; 'tis for those who have suffered the melody rolls, but the kickers must turn to the left.

"There is room for the people who, when they were young, persisted in sowing wild oats, yet boomed up their town with sinew and tongue, but the kicker must go with the goats.

"There is room for the people who pointed with pride to the beauty and growth of their town, who kept singing their praises aloud till they died, but the kickers will please amble down: They'd say that the music was all out of time and the angelic gown 'hand me down,' and they'd send to the moon for a jeweler to sample the gold in their crown. So, while there is room for a million of souls who by sorrow and woe were bereft, we want no complaint of the music that rolls, so the kickers must turn to the left."

Value of a Bee's Tongue.

In the new apiculture the length of the bee's tongue is looked upon as a matter of importance. The longer the tongue the greater is the insect's honey gathering capacity, and a new French apparatus, the glossometer, is designed to aid the apiarist who by judicious selection seeks to develop a long tongued race. The apparatus is simply a glass vessel for sirup, with a lid containing numerous small perforations and a floating scale to show the height of the liquid when the bees just reach it through the holes. It is estimated that the ordinary bee can draw sweets from a depth of about a quarter of an inch and that selection can increase its range a twenty-fifth of an inch.

HARD ON THE NERVES

It Takes Youth and Strength and Courage to Hold an Engineer's Job on One of These Brain Whirling, Nerve Racking Runs.

"One of the greatest difficulties of the real mountain roads, like the Colorado Midland, the Rio Grande Western and the Denver and Rio Grande, is in getting engineers," said the city passenger agent of the Rio Grande Western road. This gentleman is familiar with all the intermountain roads, where the trains have to all but fly to reach some of their destinations.

"One might suppose that all roads would look alike to the experienced engineer, but they don't. Along some of the prairie roads an engineer can take a run on any new track almost as well as on one he has traveled for years and knows with his eyes shut. But here in the west it is different. Down in Colorado, where are some of the greatest monuments to the railroad builder that have ever been erected, an engineer has to travel over the roads sometimes for weeks with old, experienced engineers who know the track before he will be trusted with a train. It isn't a question of engineering ability; merely one of experience.

"It is enough to take a fellow's nerve to sweep around some of those mountain curves and passes for the first time. Some good men never take more than their first ride. I have seen engineers come from the east, men of gilt edge character and ability, who lost their nerve with the first trip and took the first train for a flatter country. Dizzy reverse curves, trestles that seem to totter in the wind, precipices that seem to yawn for a fellow's life and grades that are a revelation of horror to the newcomer crowd in bewildering confusion on the view, and unless a fellow is as stolid as an ox or nervy as the mischief he is apt to lose his head.

"You would be surprised at the number of young engineers who are on the mountain roads. For one thing, a man does not last there as he does on a less picturesque, more prosaic run. It takes youth and strength and courage of a rare order to stand it all. The companies are the most appreciative in the world, for they realise how hard it is to get a good man, and they treat a good man right royally. But even this does not attract a surplus of the right sort.

"The principal dangers are in the heavy grades and in the sharp curves, though landslides are far from unknown. One must know his train and his road like a book to get through with his life on the Marshall pass, for instance, where you seem to plunge headlong down the mighty hill. A rock on the track, a broken wheel, a runaway car or a failure of the brakes to work would end in a smash up that would startle the whole country. The hill might be a glare of ice or frost, it might be wet or snowy, and if you set the airbrake too hard so as to start the wheels to sliding down the hill you go like a gigantic toboggan, with death and destruction at the end of the ride. The management of the airbrake and knowing where the curves and dangerous places are is the greatest part of an engineer's education in the mountains.

"For my own part, knowing the dangers as I do, I feel nervous after riding 100 miles over the wildest parts of the roads even as a passenger. I rode through the Royal gorge on the engine a few weeks ago and was glad when the ride was over. It makes a fellow feel trembly like to think what might be, though the worst rarely happens. Such is the care taken in equipment and in getting the best men that the mountain roads have as small a proportion of losses as the dead level roads of the plains. But it takes a man of nerve to pilot a train through some of the wilder regions.

"A freight train is the worst, in that it is much heavier than a passenger and is expected to make almost the same time. All the heavy stock trains going east, 25 to 30 cars, make passenger schedule. A freight is so loosely coupled as to be very unmanageable at critical points. The stock trains are the terror of the engine drivers and all the trainmen.

"A fellow isn't necessarily a coward when he throws up his job as engineer over the mountain roads, after seeing what the dangers are. Not one passenger in 10,000 would assume the same danger. The position calls for absolutely steady nerve, and one who feels that he is likely to get rattled is dangerous to himself, to the company and to all who ride behind him. A man must think and act like lightning in the face of so many dangers that he must be sure of his ability to stand the strain. No one stays any great number of years. It is beyond one's power to do so and be safe. A man may be brave and willing and all that, but these are not enough. He must be sure and proof against stampede. Such a man is worth everything to the companies, and they treat him like a prince."

A Black Flower.

Fame and fortune await the ingenious horticulturist who can succeed in producing a flower that is entirely black, a problem that has hitherto defied the efforts that have been made in that direction for more than three centuries past, for, notwithstanding the sensational novel of Alexandre Dumas, entitled "The Black Tulip," there is no such thing as a really black flower in existence, although almost every color and shade of the rainbow is present in flowers and blossoms.

An Early Canadian Governor.

Charles Gordon Lennox, fourth Duke of Lennox and Earl of March in the Peerage of England, Duke of Lennox, Earl of Darnley and Baron Methuen in the Peerage of Scotland, succeeded General Sherbrook as Governor of Canada on the 29th of July, 1819. He had previously acted as Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, and brought from the old to the new office a reputation for conciliation that was considered of good augury for the success of his later undertaking. He proved one of the most energetic and masterful of early Canadian Governors, though in estimating some of the acts of his administration it is well to bear in mind that the age was one when responsible government, with the significence that we have come to attach to the term, was as yet to be born. Thus when on one occasion the Legislature refused to grant the supplies necessary to defray the civil list, his act in drawing upon the Receiver-General on his own responsibility for the sum is not to be judged by modern standards. He died, while making a tour of Upper Canada in 1820, from a bite of a tame fox with which he was amusing himself.

CUPID'S ODD PRANKS.

WHY SOME WOMEN FELL IN LOVE WITH THEIR HUSBANDS.

Peculiar Reasons That at Times Influence the Fair Sex in Matters of the Heart—The Woman Who Won and Wedded a Woman Hater.

If there is one question more than another to which it is difficult to get or give a satisfactory answer it is surely this: "Why did you fall in love with your husband?" In 19 cases out of 20 woman would probably confess candidly that she did not know or else she would declare conclusively that she did because she did, and that ought to end the matter.

In the rare cases where the lady condescends to declare her reason the answers are both interesting and instructive.

"Whatever made you marry the prisoner?" a London magistrate asked a woman whose face bore "striking" evidence of her husband's affection. "Because he punched all the other fellows' heads," she answered, "and nobody else dared make love to me."

Another good lady confessed that she fell in love with her husband because he was the "only man who ever dared to snub her." While other men were stumbling over each other to pay her court and attention, he always treated her with absolute indifference and even rudeness.

The consequence was that she determined to bring him to her feet and his knees. She succeeded, but lost her heart in the attempt.

"I fell in love with my husband," one lady recently declared, "because he was the only man about whom no one was ever heard to say an unkind word. Even the women, although he paid them no special attention, were agreed that he was 'a darling;' and, although he was plain, almost to ugliness, and old enough almost to be my father, I loved him and determined to marry him long before he had any such thought of me."

Not long ago a Yorkshire lady of wealth and beauty shocked her friends by marrying a poor cripple. It had come to her ears that he had long loved her in silence and had counted each day happy if he only caught a distant glimpse of her. She discovered that he was a devoted son and brother and a man of unusual gifts and culture for his humble position, and, moved by one of those sudden, generous impulses to which some women are liable, she sought an interview with him, told him that she had learned his secret and offered him her hand and fortune. This may appear a strange and improbable thing, but thousands know that it is literally true.

Another lady whose marriage resulted from a similar impulse gives this explanation of it. Among the friends of her family was an old bachelor with a reputation for crustiness who had known her from a child and had often nursed her in early days. To her he had always been gentle and kind, and she had loved him "in a way" as long as she could remember.

One day she said, "Why have you never married, Mr. ——?"

"Marry, my dear? Why, no one would ever marry a grumpy old man like me!"

"Of course they would!" she answered indignantly. "Why, I would marry you myself!"

"Thank you, my dear!" came the unexpected answer. "Then we'll consider the matter ended."

In spite of her surprise and misgivings the girl loyally kept her promise, and she has never had reason to regret her "moment's indiscretion."

A lady friend of the writer married her husband for the very illogical reason that he was an avowed woman hater. He made no secret of his aversion to the fair sex and declared it so constantly that, as she says, "I vowed I would convert him and make him change his mind, at least so far as one of my sex was concerned." He was not difficult to convert, for within 12 months he had forsworn his creed so far as to conduct one of the "hated sex" to the altar, and now he declares that he "loves them all."

Killed by a Fall.

Dr. Pitcher's

BA KACHE KIDNEY TABLETS.

(Formula of Zina Pitcher, M. D., Late Professor of Materia Medica and Genito Urinary Diseases, Michigan College of Medicine, Detroit, Mich., U. A. A.

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are the quickest and surest relief for Backache and Kidney troubles, and can show more evidence to that effect than all other advertised remedies combined. Dr. Pitcher stakes his reputation on these tablets for Backache and Kidney troubles, and will not allow them to be advertised as a "jack of all trades" medicine.

Mrs. Sarah Bevan, of Port Hope, says: "Thirteen years ago I fell and injured my back, and since then have known very little comfort with Backache or Kidney troubles. I have tried all kinds of medicines and seen many physicians, but got no help until I began the bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets that I got from R. Deyell, druggist. They have done me a world of good. I feel stronger; the dizziness and pain are gone, and I cannot tell you how pleased I am, and everyone else says the same of them. They are just what everyone wanted. I hope others will use them and get well."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are put up in wooden bottles, with green paper, bearing the portrait and signature of Z. Pitcher, M. D. Each bottle contains 50 tablets; price 50 cents per bottle. Manufactured by the Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

FAMILY NEARLY KILLED.

G.T.R. Express at Forest Strikes Buggy Containing Four Persons.

Forest, Ont., Oct. 10.—Yesterday morning as John McKay, wife and two children of Plympton were driving out of Forest in a single buggy, they were struck by the G.T.R. express at the Main street crossing. One child was killed, and the others in the buggy were all badly injured. Mrs. McKay is probably fatally hurt, and the other child is in a very critical condition. The horse was killed and the buggy smashed to atoms. The streets were crowded at the time, as the fall fair was just closing. An inquest will be held.

Dorchester, N. B., Oct. 10.—The fast freight from Halifax on the Intercolonial left the rails near here while running a curve yesterday morning. The train traveled the sleepers for 300 yards, and then several cars went into a ditch. Two cars, containing 400 bags of cocoanuts consigned to Toronto, also a car of apples and a car of syrup were almost totally destroyed. The loss is about $2,500. The track was cleared during the afternoon. A broken flange caused the accident.

THE MARKETS.

Prices in Toronto Hog Market Have Lost Three Quarters of a Dollar in a Dollar in a Week—Quotations.

Wednesday Evening, Oct. 9.

British cables fail to respond to the advance in wheat in Chicago, and to-day Liverpool wheat futures declined ¼d to ⅜d. Corn futures came ⅛d lower. Paris cables quote wheat 5 to 10 centimes lower to-day, and flour at about a similar loss.

Hogs in the local market have taken a drop of 75c inside of a week, and the reason assigned is that the packing houses are looking for lower prices in England, which come with regularity about November in each year.

In Chicago to-day December wheat declined ⅛c from yesterday's close; corn, ⅛c and oats ⅛c.

The American Agriculturist, in its final estimate of the wheat crop, places the total yield for spring and winter wheat at 732,000,000 bushels—460,000,000 winter and 282,000,000 bushels spring. The largest previous crop was that of 1898, estimated at 715,000,000 bushels. The Agriculturist gives the previous average of corn as 52.8 per cent., an improvement over its September estimate of a trifle less than a point.

Basuto Sayings.

The Basutos are addicted to metaphor, and their metaphorical sayings are numerous and interesting. The following are a few in common use and are given as specimens:

"Men may meet, but mountains never;" "Do not prick an enemy with a two-pointed needle, as that hurts yourself quite as much as it does him;" "A mother is like the cow which sustains the family in time of drought;" "One hand washes another;" "A sitting hen never gets fat," an answer to our "rolling stone" aphorism. When all is quiet in the land they say, "We are sitting down building houses." Another saying is, "A man who is patient eats fatted beasts, but an impatient man has to content himself with the flesh of a lean goat."—Chambers' Journal.

Marketing Honey.

Never send out sections of which wood or comb is not perfectly clean and neat looking, or if such must be sold do not put your name or address on it, but let it sell on its merits, says American Cultivator. The honey may be as good as some that looks better, but it will not sell as readily or attract customers as quickly. The same is true of imperfectly filled sections, which are usually worth more to use for bees' food in winter or spring than they will sell for. Having neat and clean looking sections of comb honey, they will deserve clean crates for shipment. Use no soap boxes, saleratus boxes or the like, but get well made crates to hold 12, 18 or 24 sections in a crate, and better if the crate is glass upon one side.

Primitive Stoves in Spain.

In many parts of Spain the "stove" in general use is made from an empty petroleum oil can, by cutting a hole near the bottom on one of the sides to make a draft, the can being lined with gypsum to the pleasure of the constructor, giving the fire space accordingly. The stove thus made, primitive as it is in its appearance, is effective in purpose and costs the equivalent of but a few cents in our money.

To Lessen the Pest All Organic Refuse Should Be Buried.

Flies multiply at a prodigious rate. Given a temperature sufficiently high to hatch eggs, their numbers are only limited by the amount of food available for them. Linnaeus is credited with saying that three meat flies, by reason of their rapid multiplication, would consume a dead horse quicker than would a lion, and the fact that certain diptera having some outward semblance to the honeybee lay their eggs in the dead carcasses of animals probably led Samson and Virgil to make erroneous statements with regard to the genesis of honey and the manufacture of bees. The breeding of "gentles" for ground bait is an industry the practices of which could probably give much information as to the nicety of choice exercised by flies in selecting material for feeding and egg laying. According to Packard, the house fly makes selection of horse dung by preference for ovipositing, and as each female lays about 120 eggs and the cycle of changes from egg to fly is completed in less than three weeks it seems probable that a female fly might have some 25,000,000 descendants in the course of a hot summer. Other varieties of flies multiply, I believe, still more rapidly.

As flies multiply upon and in organic refuse of every kind, it is obvious that the sooner such refuse is placed where it cannot serve for the breeding and hatching of flies the more likely is the plague of flies to be lessened. The most commonly available method for the bestowal of organic refuse is burial. The egg laying of flies in dead carcasses commences at the very instant of death or even before death in the case of enfeebled animals.—Lancet.

VARICOCELE

No matter how serious your case may be or how long you may have had it, our NEW METHOD TREATMENT will cure it. The "wormy veins" return to their normal condition and hence the sexual organs receive proper nourishment. The organs become vitalized and manly powers return. No temporary benefit, but a permanent cure assured. NO CURE, NO PAY. NO OPERATION NECESSARY. NO DETENTION FROM BUSINESS.

STRICTURE

Thousands of young and middle-aged men are troubled with this disease—many unconsciously. They may have a smarting sensation, sharp, cutting pains at times, weak organs, and all the symptoms of nervous debility—they have STRICTURE. Don't let doctors experiment on you by cutting, stretching or tearing you. This will not cure you, as it will return. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT absorbs the stricture tissue, hence removes the stricture permanently. It can never return. No pain, no suffering, no detention from business by our method. The sexual organs are strengthened, the nerves are invigorated, and the bliss of manhood returns.

THE MARKETS

Wheat Cables Are Lower and Chicago Market Was Dull—The Latest Quotations

Thursday Evening, Oct. 10.

Wheat cables declined again to-day, futures ⅛d to ⅜d, and corn declined ⅛d.

Wheat was also lower in Paris by 20 to 25 centimes. Flour declined there also 25 to 30 centimes.

Chicago was dull to-day, pending the government crop report due this afternoon. It will show the condition of corn and other crops, but will probably take no account of the abandoned area. The important item will be the condition of corn, which it is expected will be somewhat better than that shown in the report of September 10, on account of the good weather during the month and the fact that the frosts came too late to do any appreciable damage.

The Schley Inquiry.

Washington, Oct. 10.—Just before the Schley Court of Inquiry adjourned to-day Judge Advocate Lemly introduced Lieut. J. H. Holden, formerly watch officer on the Scorpion, as a witness.

Other witnesses were Lieut.-Commander W. H. Schuetze, who served on the Iowa, and Lieut. A. W. Grant, who was on the Massachusetts, who testified concerning the general campaign of the flying squadron. Lieutenant Edwards F. Leiper concluded his testimony begun yesterday.

Smothered in Their Beds.

Montreal, Oct. 10.—The three younger children of Wilfrid Chapleau, a cold storage builder, living at 201 St. Germain-street, lost their lives by fire to-night. The parents and two older children had left the house for a short time, when a lamp in the kitchen exploded and set fire to the building. Albert, aged 6 years; Telesphore, aged 4, and Arthur, aged 18 months, were smothered in their beds. The damage to the house will amount to about $1200.

For the Children

TO KEEP THEIR DIGESTION PERFECT NOTHING IS SO SAFE AND PLEASANT AS STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS.

Thousands of men and women have found Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the safest and most reliable preparation for any form of indigestion or stomach trouble.

Thousands of people who are not sick, but are well and wish to keep well take Stuart's Tablets after every meal to insure perfect digestion and avoid trouble.

But it is not generally known that the Tablets are just as good and wholesome for little folks as for their elders.

Little children who are pale, thin and have no appetite, or do not grow or thrive, should use the tablets after eating and will derive great benefit from them.

Mrs. G. H. Crotsley, 538 Washington St., Hoboken, New Jersey, writes: "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets just fill the bill for children as well as for older folks. I've had the best of luck with them. My three-year-old girl takes them as readily as candy. I have only to say 'tablets' and she drops everything else and runs for them."

A Buffalo mother, a short time ago, who despaired of the life of her babe, was so delighted with the results from giving the child these tablets that she went before the notary public of Erie Co., N.Y., and made the following affidavit:

Gentlemen, — Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets were recommended to me for my two-months-old baby, which was sick and puny and the doctors said was suffering from indigestion. I took the child to the hospital, but there found no relief. A friend mentioned the Stuart Tablets and I procured a box from my druggist and used only the large sweet lozenges in the box and was delighted to find they were just the thing for my baby. I feel justified in saying that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets saved my child's life.

MRS. W. T. DETHLOPE.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day of April, 1897.

HENRY KARIS,
Notary Public in and for Erie Co., N.Y.

For babies, no matter how young or delicate, the tablets will accomplish wonders in increasing flesh, appetite and growth. Use only the large sweet tablets in every box. Full sized boxes are sold by all druggists for 50 cents, and no parent should neglect the use of this safe remedy for all stomach and bowel troubles if the child is ailing in any way regarding its food or assimilation.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been known for years for the best preparation for all stomach troubles whether in adults or infants.

Queen's City Welcome

Homage Paid Them by Loyal Subjects.

Shake Up in the British Cabinet—Two Deserters From British War Vessels—Ville Marie Bank Case—A Remarkable Death—Nitro Glycerine Blows Up a Factory.

Toronto, Oct. 11.—Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York were loyally received and heartily welcomed by the citizens of Toronto upon their arrival at the Dupont-street station yesterday. For about three hours before their arrival the military were assembling and the school children were gathering in the large amphitheatre which had been erected in front of the temporary station, a wooden structure with green carpet and white Corinthian columns suitably decorated with the Duke's colors and surmounted with Union Jacks and Canadian ensigns.

Notwithstanding the enormous crowds, probably one-half of whom were from the townships, villages, towns and cities of Ontario, the proceedings passed off without a single hitch, while the cheerful orderliness was unexampled and unsurpassable. For the sightseers the spectacle could hardly be improved upon. The procession itself was capitally planned, and the entire proceedings were carried out with almost mathematical accuracy. It was, in fact, an intelligent adaptation of circumstances to local surroundings.

DUKE OF YORK

Salute of Guns.

About 1.30, half an hour before the arrival of the Duke and Duchess, the Toronto Field Battery fired a salute of 19 guns, which was an intimation that the vice-regal train was approaching.

Upon its arrival Lord and Lady Minto stepped upon the platform, also Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier, both of whom were received by Hon. G. W. Ross, Premier of Ontario, and representative members of the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, Senator Cox, Commander Law, Major-General O'Grady-Haly, members of the City Council, Public School Board and others.

With the vice-regal party came Major Maude, Capt. Graham, A.D.C., Capt. Bell, A.D.C., Lieut.-Col. Drury, R.C.A., Mr. Guyse, Mr A. F. Sladen.

In the foreground of the amphitheatre was a regiment of the Queen's Own Rifles, under Major Gunther, whilst in the north-east corner, near the point of exit, was a guard of honor consisting of the Governor-General's Body Guards, Lieut.-Col. Denison commanding, the Royal Canadian Dragoons, under Major Forester, and the City Mounted Police, also another corps of the Queen's Own Rifles.

Children's Voices.

Upon the arrival of the vice-regal party, the school children, numbering about 6000, sang "God Save the King," accompanied by the band of the Cadets, situate in the centre and in the left. Conductor A. T. Cringan.

Royal Party Arrive.

The royal train was in sight of the station when Big Ben struck 2; but it was two or three minutes after the train was first sighted, during which the royal salute was boomed forth by the guns of the artillery, that it drew alongside the platform. Cheer upon cheer rent the air from the thousands of children assembled, and as the Ducal party stepped out of the train the National Anthem was sung. The Duke and Duchess were received near the extreme west of the session and walked up the platform, to the mahogany suite placed in the covered projection from which the procession started, accompanied by Hon. G. W. Ross, Lord and Lady Minto and the lords and ladies in waiting.

Conductor Presented.

The Duke and Duchess remained upon the platform for about 15 minutes, during which the children sang "Prince George," by H. H. Godfrey; "The Maple Leaf" and "Rule Britannia." Miss Vivian Spence presented the Duchess with a bouquet of red roses, intermingled with maiden hair fern and lilies of the valley, which was tied with a satin ribbon upon which were Canadian emblems. Chairman Spence presented the Duke with a specially prepared program of the choruses sung by the children, on the back cover of which are the names of the Reception Committee and the Musical Committee. A similar souvenir was presented to the Duchess by Trustee Kent. At the close of the choruses, Mr. A. T. Cringan, musical conductor, was presented to Their Royal Highnesses.

How Like His Photos.

The Duke of Cornwall and York wore his full admiral's uniform, with gold lacings, medals and cocked hat. To those who had seen his father in his younger days, it became a matter of frequent comment, how like the father is the son. The Duchess was garbed in black, a spray of pink and white roses being the only relief to her sombre dress. Her face, however, was brightness itself, and as she chatted with Ontario's Premier, that exquisite grace and unconscious dignity betokening the highly born, yet humble in heart, shone from her pleasant countenance, and it was evident that she was pleased with the cordial reception of Toronto city. Upon the departure of the Governor-General and suite, a slight shower came on, and when the reception at the station was over there was still a little rain falling. The royal carriage drove up to the platform closed; but an intimation from His Royal Highness the Duke, to his equerries, signified that he was desirous that the carriage should be open. The Duchess and Duke then stepped into their carriage and were accompanied by Lord Wenlock, G.C.S.I., G.C.I.E., Lord in Waiting and Head of the Household.

ROUTE OF THE PROCESSION.

Incidents in Drive From Station to City Hall.

The sky was sultry all morning, but an occasional peek of sunshine thru the threatening clouds gave hope to thousands who were preparing to see royalty for the first time in their lives. Notwithstanding the fact that the elements were inclined to be unsociable, the populace donned their best raiment, for one and all they would not like the Duke and Duchess to see them in anything but their best.

Altho everyone knew that the royal party would not be along until after 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the sidewalks along the route of the royal drive were sought before 11 o'clock by many, and at noon there was a sufficient number of patient people waiting in a drizzling rain to provide a splendid representation for a city of 250,000 inhabitants.

Suburban Visitors.

All along the route an observant person could notice residents of the townships near Toronto. They came in early in the morning with their lunch baskets and fodder for the horses. They took up positions as near as possible to the point where the Duke would pass, and they held them as far as the law allowed. Many came in wagon loads of ten or a dozen, and particularly was this in evidence in the vicinity of North Toronto near the station. They were all patient and good-natured.

When the royal party followed the Governor-General's party on the route to the City Hall, the crowd on each side of the streets had magnified itself into wonderful dimensions. One cheer commenced at North Toronto Station and continued as far as the City Hall. There it took a rest and commenced again with renewed vigor as the royal party drove to Government House. If there was any lack of vocal enthusiasm at any place, the Duke and Duchess have visited, it was made up with interest in Toronto.

Pleased the Crowd.

Those waiting for the royal party were much concerned as to whether they would come in an open or a closed carriage. The elements indicated the latter, but by the graciousness of Their Royal Highnesses, who preferred personal discomfort to the disappointment of such a vast crowd of citizens, the Duke and Duchess came along in an open equipage, and were generous in their appreciation of the plaudits in their honor. The brief stop for the presentation of the ladies' bouquet at the new pillars of the Queen's Park, north gate and the din of the students' welcome between St. George-street and Avenue-road, were the features of the royal drive along Bloor-street. The scheme of uniform decoration was noticed by Their Royal Highnesses, and an interest was taken by them in all the decorations along the streets.

At the City Hall.

From the City Hall steps nothing could be seen but several acres of umbrellas and uniformed lines of soldiers that lined Queen-street, Bay-street and the entrance to the Hall. The umbrellas were lowered at intervals, but only for a moment or two, and then hoisted again against the continued assault of Jupiter Pluvius. The scene was thus divested of its natural charm, and inspiration and enthusiasm were noticeably lacking.

Guard of Honor.

The guard of honor for the occasion was furnished by 100 men from the Royal Grenadiers, with the brass band and eight drummers. The guard was in command of Capt. Sloan and Lieut. Wilkins. The colors were in charge of Lieut. Hunter, and were guarded by Col.-Sergt. Eaton and Sergt. Bennett. The men were lined up in a double row from Queen-street to the upper level of the steps, leaving a carpeted passageway of about 20 feet up to the central arch, whereon were placed the two big chairs for the accommodation of Their Royal Highnesses.

The Royal Chorus formed up from east to west, in the main corridor, inside the Hall, and, at 2 o'clock, marched out and took their places on the grand stand. For the ladies, especially, the situation could not well have been more unpleasant, but everyone made the best of the affair. Nearly all had umbrellas, and kept them hoisted.

At 2.40 o'clock, cheers announced the arrival of Lord and Lady Minto and escort, who received a cordial welcome as they passed, and continued over the route to return later, when Their Royal Highnesses arrived.

It was 3.23 when the advance guard of the royal escort appeared thru the Foresters' Arch, followed quickly by the carriages of the royal suite.

Their Highnesses Arrive.

A dull roar, which swelled to a mighty cheer, was heard as the royal carriage appeared, and speedily the royal pair were deposited at the main entrance to the square. They were welcomed by His Worship, who escorted the Duke of Cornwall, while His Excellency took charge of the Duchess, and saw them safely to the point allotted for them. The guard presented arms, and the crowd waved handkerchiefs, hats and umbrellas in one continuous ovation.

THE ROYAL CARRIAGE

The first incident after their arrival was the presentation by Miss Evelyn Cox of the bouquet from the city to the Duchess. The act was gracefully performed, and won from the Duchess a charming smile.

Fun for the Crowd.

Two or three hitches occurred in the subsequent ceremonies, which occasioned much amusement to the spectators, and caused even Their Royal Highnesses to smile broadly several times. The first was when His Worship stepped forward to read the civic address. This would doubtless have been a most dignified proceeding only that the royal chorus took it into their head to sing the grand march from "Tannhauser," at the same time, and the effect was bewildering and evidently indescribably annoying to His Worship and Ald. Cox.

This is where the crowd had a good square laugh that compensated somewhat for the deluge they had been subjected to. The efforts of Ald. Cox to stop the music were immensely amusing.

His Worship paused two or three times in the reading of the address, and scowled as darkly in the direction of the chorus as his handsome lineaments will admit. Eventually the singing was stopped, but not till the chorus and the address were both almost concluded.

The address was signed by the Mayor, the City Clerk and the City Treasurer.

Conference Was Held.

A pause followed, during which a conference was held as to the best method of procedure in regard to the subsequent addresses. The matter was solved by the deputations from the various societies advancing and bowing before His Royal Highness, at the same time presenting their addresses unread to an aide.

At 3.43 the Duke began his reply to the united public bodies before him. He spoke for about 10 minutes, and altho his voice was strong the words were not audible 20 feet away by reason of the buzz and hum that arose from the crowd.

The Duke's Reply.

The text of his reply was:

Gentlemen:

The kind and sympathetic sentiments to which your addresses give expression are most gratifying to the Duchess and me, and we desire to thank you sincerely for these tributes of welcome.

At the same time we are anxious to acknowledge with feelings of deep gratitude the warmth and enthusiasm of the hearty reception given us to-day on our entry into the historical capital of Upper Canada, which has, I can assure you, profoundly touched us.

Passing thru your brilliantly decorated streets and witnessing your splendid public works, we are reminded of the value of that extended municipal government in the establishment of which this province led the way, and which it has so thoroly developed.

It will be a pleasant duty to convey to my dear father, the King, your declaration of loyalty and attachment to the Throne, and also the kind allusions to his visit to this province forty-one years ago which I find thruout the various addresses.

I rejoice to think of the prosperity, the material progress and intellectual advancement which characterize the general condition of Ontario at the opening of a new century, and that side by side with this progress is a spirit of deep contentment and unswerving loyalty.

The free and liberal institutions secured to the people of the Dominion have relieved them from the struggle for the right to manage and control their local affairs. As they have grown in power and influence, their aspirations have been lifted to a higher plane. Their patriotism has broadened and intensified. They have realized how closely they are concerned in the general welfare of the Empire.

In no uncertain manner they have shown their readiness to share in the task of defending its interests and maintaining its honor and integrity.

DUCHESS OF YORK

The deeds of your fellow-countrymen during the war in South Africa have indeed testified not only to the strength of your loyalty, but to the strong military instinct and capacity inherent in the sons of the Dominion. They have fully maintained the noble traditions of your forefathers who fought for hearth and home under the leadership of the heroic Brock.

I am glad that during our stay I shall have an opportunity of taking part in a review, and thereby adding to the experience I have already acquired of His Majesty's splendid forces in this portion of the Empire.

I have received with pleasure the address from the German residents of Toronto in which they testify to their appreciation of the advantages of British citizenship.

Thruout our long journey I have been interested to find in what high regard German emigrants are held as useful and industrious members of the community in the country of their adoption.

We have been looking forward with keen pleasure to our visit in your city. Perhaps I may be allowed to claim some special association with it in the fact that the name which it bore for forty years was identical with the first title conferred upon me by my dear grandmother.

The enthusiasm with which we have been received makes us certain that our expectations will be fully realized. [Loud cheers.]

The chorus sang another selection, after which the members of the Council were presented to His Royal Highness. This concluded the ceremonies, and Their Royal Highnesses departed at 4 o'clock amid thunders of applause and the playing of the National Anthem.

The Ladies' Presentation.

A fanfare of trumpets, announcing Their Royal Highnesses' arrival at Government House, had scarcely stopped re-echoing, when the Duchess of Cornwall, accompanied by Lady Minto and several aides-de-camp, walked to the verandah facing the south, and there the presentation of the gold writing set by the ladies of Toronto took place.

Miss Mowat, daughter of the Lieutenant-Governor, made the presentation to Her Royal Highness.

At the conclusion of the address, Miss Mowat, with a bow, handed the Duchess the case containing the beautiful gift. It was graciously accepted, with a smile, and Her Royal Highness seemed to be immensely pleased with it, and, in a few words, expressed her acknowledgments.

Animated Street Scene.

An animated street scene was presented to the people of Toronto and the thousands of visitors last night. The illuminations were on a scale of splendor never before attempted in Canada, and the populace who were out "seeing the Duke" added to the animation by a babel of noise which equalled Majuba and Pretoria days rolled into one. Locomotion was difficult, and, indeed, impossible for any but the most agile. The crowds formed walls of humanity on both sides of the streets, moving slowly, and almost barring the progress of vehicles at the corners.

The Royal Concert.

Escorted by the guard, Their Royal Highnesses arrived at the Hall at 10 o'clock. They were received in the entrance hall by Mr. A. E. Ames, one of the trustees of Massey Hall, and by Mr. Stewart Houston, the manager, who were presented to Their Royal Highnesses, and then conducted them up the red carpeted stairway to the Royal loge. The audience rose at the entrance of the Royal party and sang "God Save the King."

In the Royal loge were Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, Lady Mary Lygon, Hon. Mrs. Derek Keppel, Prince Alexander of Teck and Hon. Derek Keppel.

In the Vice-regal loge were His Excellency the Governor-General and Lady Minto, Major Maude, C.M.G., Captain Graham, Mr. Arthur Guise.

In the Lieutenant-Governor's loge were Miss Mowat and party.

In the next loge were Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier, Hon. Senator and Mrs. Cox.

In the special loge, immediately behind the Royal loge, were the Hon. G. W. Ross and Mrs. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan C. Ross, Hon. W. S. and Mrs. Fielding, Hon. A. G. Blair, Mrs. and the Misses Blair, Hon. Lieut.-Col. J. M. Gibson and Mrs. Gibson, the Misses Gibson, Hon. L. Harcourt and Mrs. Harcourt, Hon. E. J. and Mrs. Davis, Hon. John and Mrs. Dryden, Hon. J. R. and Mrs. Stratton, Miss Howland, Mrs. Merritt, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Houston, Miss Houston, Hon. F. R. and Mrs. Latchford.

In special seats were the Postmaster-General and Mrs. Mulock, Hon. Dr. and Mrs. Borden, General and Mrs. O'Grady-Haly.

Program for To-Day.

To-day the Duke will review the greatest massing of troops Toronto has ever seen, will inspect the city firemen, will receive a degree from Toronto University, and hold a Regal reception at the Parliament Buildings.

After the review, the royal party repairs to the Government House for luncheon. At 3.30 o'clock, the Toronto Fire Department will be inspected on University-avenue, while His Royal Highness is en route to Toronto University buildings, where he is to receive an honorary degree, at 4 o'clock p.m. After this, accompanied by the Duchess and his suite, he proceeds to the Legislative Buildings for dinner, and here, at 9 o'clock, will hold a Regal reception.

A Remarkable Death.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 10.—Peter Seguin, jr., of Elmstead, Sandwich East, aged 36, carried a small bottle of carbolic acid and two plugs of chewing tobacco in his hip pocket. The acid was designed to cleanse a cut in his hand. The bottle was broken, and the tobacco absorbed the acid. Despite the tobacco's peculiar flavor, he chewed the two plugs in two days, and for ten days tried to slake his parching thirst, with whiskey and water. Then two physicians tried in vain for two weeks to cure him, being puzzled at first to know the cause of his illness.

Seguin's throat swelled to several times its normal size, and the flesh became almost black. He suffered excruciating pain, as his mouth, throat and stomach were burned raw. The abscess, which formed on his lungs, broke and brought death yesterday.

An Emphatic "No."

Montreal, Oct. 10.—The Star has this cable from London: The emphatic "No" of President Hanbury of the Board of Agriculture to the Scottish graziers' request for a removal of the embargo on Canadian cattle again proves the omnipotence of the permanent official.

Mr. Hanbury is himself convinced from statistics that Canada is free from disease, but in the face of his officials and the British farmer he dare not admit that the disease may not arise.

He also used the argument that Canadians themselves are not unanimous on the subject. Moreover, he could not annul the Act of Parliament.

"So long," he said at Edinburgh yesterday, "as I am a Minister I will not yield to the graziers' demand."

Ville Marie Bank Cases.

Quebec, Oct. 10.—At the opening of the Criminal Court this morning, motions were made by the tribunal for the postponement of the Ville Marie Bank cases to the next term on account of the grave illness of the ex-vice-president of the defunct institution, Mr. Lichenstein, who is actually living in Boston, Mass., and, because Weir, the ex-president of the Ville Marie Bank, who is actually in the Penitentiary of St. Vincent de Paul, has lost his memory. Justice Blanchet, after having carefully examined the affidavits accompanying the motion, decided at noon that the cases of Weir be postponed till April.

Koch's Theory Correct.

New York, Oct. 11.—Interesting experiments of much importance to the public health are being made at the Bacteriological Laboratory of the Board of Health. They are being held to test Professor Koch's theory that human tubercle bacilli will not readily infect cows or calves. So far the experiments have shown the theory to be correct.

SHAKE-UP IN THE CABINET

Lord Salisbury Said to Be Waiting Opportunity to Retire.

War Party Threatens the Ministry Because of Alleged Blunders in South Africa—Sir Michael Hicks-Beach Under Fire—Chancellor of Exchequer Is Accused of Holding the Purse Strings Too Tightly—Public Incensed.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—The Record-Herald has the following from London: Rumors of impending cabinet changes are growing out of the severe and almost universal criticism of the government voiced in the press. It has long been recognized that Lord Salisbury awaits an auspicious moment to retire in favor of Rt. Hon. Arthur Balfour, First Lord of the Treasury, but it is believed numerous other changes will take place.

Popular suspicion points to Sir Michael Hicks-Beach as the guilty party in retarding military aggressiveness and thus prolonging the war. Many Conservative leaders also charge the Chancellor of the Exchequer with holding the national purse strings too tight. They say that his cheese-paring influence ought to be removed from the cabinet.

Accused of Cowardice.

While outspoken condemnations of the government's alleged blunders and inaction are harsh enough, veiled attacks are much more violent. The war party threatens the Ministry in dead earnest. A prominent Conservative member of Parliament said to a correspondent to-night:

"Lord Salisbury's mistakes would turn the country into opposition, lock, stock and barrel, if the people did not know that they could not trust the other fellows. Great Britain wants the war won and demands that the Ministry hew to the line of its original policy, let the pro-Boers howl till they are black in the face. The Salisbury cabinet has not done this. It has made concession after concession to the 'Little Englanders.' It even went so far as to begin the reduction of the army in South Africa in order to cheapen the war and thus shut the mouths of the weaklings, who said the country was going headlong into bankruptcy.

Causes of Embarrassment.

"These cowardly relaxations from the sound military rule of augmenting your forces until you have the enemy whipped are responsible for our present embarrassment. We sadly need a cabinet possessing the country's courage and pertinacity."

The government is beginning to realize the folly of obscuring its point of view, altho nobody expects it to adopt a different course, since newspapers are memorably barred from the War Office, and whatever activity reigns there is concealed. The cabinet also refuses to take the country into its confidence. Meanwhile an angry public sentiment is in process of formation that would enthusiastically welcome an alternative Ministry.

Scouts in Ambush.

Heilbron, Orange River Colony, Oct. 7.—Thirteen of Kitchener's Scouts have been captured in a Boer ambush.

No More Troops Wanted.

London, Oct. 10.—Secretary for War, Mr. Brodrick, replying to Sir Charles Howard Vincent's offer to raise fresh troops or do anything else to assist the government, declines the proposal, and, in doing so, lengthily reviews the British position in South Africa, obviously in answer to the persistent and searching criticisms of the Ministerial journals and members of Parliament, that the government is languidly content to let the war drag on.

TAKEN FROM AMERICAN SHIP.

Force Used at Halifax on Deserters From British War Vessels.

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 10.—Two British sailors who had deserted from the warship Niobe were forcibly taken from the American schooner Mist this afternoon.

Warrants for their arrest were issued by Admiral Sir Frederick Bedford, and an imperial government launch, having on board a squad of civil police and an armed escort of marines, went out to the schooner, which was lying in the stream. A demand was made for the men, and the captain of the vessel was prepared to give them up, but the sailors refused to come on deck. The police boarded the schooner and forcibly removed the men.

Previous to this action Admiral Bedford had consulted with United States Consul-General Foster about the matter. Mr. Foster thought the marines had better not go on board of the vessel, but gave his consent for the civil police to take the sailors. In compliance with the consul's wishes none of the marines boarded the Mist. The two sailors will be court-martialled on the flagship Crescent.

Four trainmen were killed and three others were slightly injured in a collision of freight trains on the Chicago, Great Western Railroad, one mile east of Lombard, Ill., on Thursday.

Sir Frederick Young, K.C.M.G., is on his way to Canada, via New York, to attend the laying of a corner stone for an extension to the Kingston University, at Kingston, Ont., on October 15.

The Earl of Fingal and Capt. Cooper of the East Lancashire Regiment, who arrived on the Oceanic at New York Thursday, have come for the purpose of buying re-mounts for the British cavalry in South Africa.

There came near being a killing at the Rockton Fair on Thursday. A farmer named John Henderson, who resides in Beverly Township, was cut in the head with a screw-driver in a row with a man who was selling cheap jewelry. He was very seriously injured.

At Port Elgin, Ont., on Thursday fire destroyed the old Royal Hotel building, formerly used as a shoe factory, but latterly as an apple evaporating factory, and chopping mill. The loss, which is about $5,000, was partially covered by insurance.

At Quebec, Thursday afternoon a drayman, named Villeneuve, while driving from one of the wharves leading to St. Andrew street, was run into by a C.P.R. shunting engine and was thrown from his vehicle. Both legs were cut completely off, and the man was otherwise injured.

Glavinovitch, the Anarchist, arrested at Rome recently, after having been heard to threaten the lives of the Pope and of Cardinal Rampolla, Pontifical Secretary of State, has been sentenced to a fortnight's imprisonment for carrying deadly weapons and then to be deported to his home in Dalmatia.

Harper's Nitro-glycerine Factory at Ridgefarm, four miles from Oil City, Pa., was blown up on Thursday. The cause of the explosion will never be known, as the only persons about the place at the time were instantly killed. They were: Clarence Ward, aged 33, the manufacturer, and his assistant, Frank Gross, aged 25.

There was a rear-end collision on the Grand Trunk Railway Thursday afternoon about 1.30. The westbound mail train ran into a freight train at Harrisburg. The fireman of the mail jumped, but the engineer, John Roberts, Niagara Falls, stuck to his post and nearly lost his life. When the pitch-in occurred he was pinned under his engine, and the escaping steam threatened to scald him to death. To free himself he broke one leg at the ankle, fracturing the bones in a horrible manner.

THE WAY GRITS CARRY ELECTIONS.

The Toronto Globe's Kingston correspondent of the 27th Sept. relates the following interesting facts:

"First—Mr. B. M. Britton, K.C., M.P., has received official notification of his elevation to the Bench!

"Second—The Locomotive Works Company are likely to receive contracts to build twenty engines for the Intercolonial Railway!!!!!

"Third—That Messrs. Pence of the Whig, and McKelvey, President of the Reform Association are mentioned as the Reform candidates to take Mr. Britton's place in Parliament."

Dovetail these three items, and it will be seen what a strong piece of political machinery is constructed for an election campaign. It is, however, but a repetition of what took place in Kingston just before the last general election. The Locomotive Works in that city had been closed for some time for want of work, the Government of Canada having given their orders for engines to United States' firms, but just before the election it was announced with a flourish of trumpets that a large order for locomotives had been given by Mr. Blair, Minister of Railways, and that the works, which had just been purchased, would soon be in full blast and some 200 men would immediately find employment. The bait took, and Mr. B. M. Britton was elected by a fair majority.

The Globe's correspondent innocently lets the cat out of the bag, and shows that the same tactics are being played over again. Will the Kingston electors, that is, those who are not of the Blair Machine stamp of politics, be again duped by such politically dishonest methods?

Don't be surprised if Tarte appeals to the head of the Church and to the President of the French Republic to ostracise Mayor Prefontaine.

The D. S. O.

(Toronto Globe.)

The Distinguished Service Order, to which several young Canadian officers have recently been gazetted, is preeminently a young man's decoration. The Bath is for senior officers who have conducted themselves well in the higher work of a campaign, and the D.S.O. has been instituted for the junior, on whom the rough work and the actual fighting falls. "Her Majesty," in formal official language, "having taken into consideration that the means of adequately rewarding the distinguished services of officers in the naval and military services who had been honorably mentioned in despatches were limited, instituted and created for the purpose of rewarding individual instances of meritorious and distinguished service in war a new naval and military order of distinction." The badge consists of a gold cross, enamelled white, edged with gold, having on the one side in the centre, within a wreath of laurel enamelled green, the Imperial crown in gold, upon a red enamelled ground, and on the reverse, within a similar wreath, and on a similar red ground, the Imperial and royal cypher, V.R.I. It is to be suspended from the left breast by a red ribbon, edged blue, one inch wide. The order takes precedence next after the Order of the Indian Empire, which in its turn comes after the Order of St. Michael and St. George. Awarded, as it is, for personal valor, energy or judgment, it is very highly prized in the navy and army.

THE LION'S BROOD.

—By Marie Joussaye.

"The Lion's Brood" is the chief poem in a book of verse, entitled Anglo-Saxon songs, which is now in press, and of which Marie Joussaye, better known by the English spelling "Josie." Miss Joussaye is a native of Belleville, Ontario, but now lives in Vancouver, B.C. The title of the poem carries an inkling of the text, which is possessed of more than an ordinary degree of merit. Miss Joussaye's contributions on previous occasions have been universally admired, and this latest production is one of her best. The book is dedicated to the King, and to him a copy of the poem was sent. His Majesty accepted the tribute, and extended his thanks in a very courteous note. We give the poem in full, as it will be read with interest by many of the author's old friends in Belleville:

To King Edward VII.

GREETING.

O King! who standeth in the place
Of her who ruled so well and long,
And lifts the sceptre she laid down,
God keep you brave and true and strong,
That you may worthy wear the crown
She wore with wisdom, strength and grace.

And if with grief our hearts should swell
When first with faltering lips, we say
"God Save the King!" and "Heaven bless
His Majesty!" forgive, we pray,
'Tis not because we love thee less,
Beloved of Her we loved so well.

But that we loved thy mother more,
And that our grief, as yet, is new,
When time hath dulled the edge of pain
We'll gladly render homage due.
"God Save Our King!" long may he reign,
And spread his realm from shore to shore.

Is it the sound of thunder by the salt winds borne afar?
Nay! tis the Mother-Lion calling her brood to war!
Where the cannons roar and rattle at the gates of "Far Cathay,"
She sounds the call to battle, and the Lion's Whelps obey.
From the Cross in the Southern heavens to the Pole Star of the North
Her children hear the rally and their answer thunders forth
In tones that ring true and steady, to the gates of "Far Cathay,"
"Mother! your sons are ready, speak and your sons obey."

Hark to the young ones calling across to the Eldest Born;
"Is the lion-heart not in ye? Are ye of the blood foresworn?
Are we not born blood brothers who speak the self-same tongue?
And greatest of Earth's nations is she from whom we sprung.
Shall the son stand coldly passive while the parent blood is shed?
Will the cub find friendly favor when the Mother-Lion is dead?
Is blood less thick than water? Is love less strong than hate?
Is he that harbors resentment than he that forgives more great?"

And the Eldest Born makes answer, "Peace! young ones, have no fear,"
Is it a time for clamor when the Lion's foes are near?
Is the heart of the Lion in me? Can I strike the Lion's blow?
Go! question her who bore us, she has a right to know.
Ask of the Mother-Lion if I'm of the blood foresworn?
In open field she has measured the strength of her Eldest Born.
And the strength I brought against her when she roused my fierce young wrath,
Will be hurled on the wolves and jackals when they stand in the Lion's path.

They have given me courtly greeting, the Wolf, the Fox and the Bear,
And the rest of the pack salute me with honied speech and fair,
They would have the quarrel endless 'twixt the Lion and her Eldest Born.
But I read their heart's black purpose, and laugh in my secret scorn.
And as for their friendly favor, I hold it for what it is worth,
Based on a deathless hatred for her who gave me birth,
Shall the Son stand coldly passive while the parent blood is shed?
Will the Cub find friendly favor when the Mother-Lion is dead?
I might look for courtly greeting and honied speech in vain,
Short shrift for the hated little when the brave old Lion is slain.

Hearken to me, my brothers, you of the Northland free!
And you of the far-off Indies! and you of the Southern Sea!
Hark to your elder brother who fought and held his own,
Long e'er ye ceased to suckle, or your teeth or claws were grown;
They call us the Lion's Litter, is it a cause for shame
To be lords over land and ocean, whom none can subdue or tame?
Aye! we are the Lion's Litter, bred from her blood and bone,
And the Lion and the Lion's Whelps will always hold their own.

Shoulder to shoulder, my brothers, and the hostile pack takes flight,
Let the blood of their slain bear witness that the Lion's Brood can fight.
Not for the lust of carnage, not for the greed of gold,
Do her sons go forth to battle like the Warrior Kings of old.
Not for the pride of conquest danger and death they face,
But to do the work that God entrusts to the Anglo-Saxon Race.

To strike the chains from the captive, to free the fettered mind,
And to preach the sacred gospel of Freedom to all mankind.
To foster the spark of Manhood in the breast of the hopeless clod,
And to bring more near together man and his maker, God.
This is "the white man's burden" as sung by a master bard,
All other tribes have skirked it, 'tis a heavy task and hard,
But the Lion's Brood accepts it, and the horrors of war will face
To fulfil the trust that God has laid on the Anglo-Saxon Race.
Shoulder to shoulder, my brothers, at the sound of the battle call,
Strong sons of a stronger mother, together we stand or fall."

And the Starry Flag of Freedom and the Flag that rules the wave
Float proudly out together, twin emblems of the brave,
While the New World sends a message on the wings of the free West Wind
To the Old World nations waiting, the New World speaks her mind.
"I choose my place in battle close to mother's side,
Let the War God give the signal, by my choice I will abide,
For the Lion heart is in me, fearless and strong and bold,
Ready to fight when the cause is right, and what we have, we'll hold."

And the heart of the brave old Lion throbs with a wild, fierce pride
As she waits the War God's signal, her brave whelps at her side,
And the Lion's roar and the Eagle's scream is heard in "Far Cathay,"
"The Lion and the Lion's Whelps can hold the world at bay."

Quick & Robertson's For Fine Clothes.

There's no use disputing the fact that this store stands pre-eminent in this city as the store for Men's Fine Clothes.

With our large and pleasing varieties, up-to-date style, and good making we've won the trade of every man, and especially the trade of those men who are particular about the Clothes they wear.

And why shouldn't we? You can't find a store that has, ready made, such exclusive styles in suitings and overcoatings as we are showing, and every one of them is from the best Canadian and English mills.

Then, too, every garment is built to come up to our high standard—built by the best makers who know how and do give close attention to important parts of tailoring—such as adjusting the collars, shaping the shoulders, proper placing the sleeves and stays and making the button holes.

Clothes made this way never lose their shape and by so doing we have overcome that appearance which marks clothes as being ready-made.

The prices for such goodness you'd expect to be high—but they are not—are no more than you would pay for ordinary sorts elsewhere.

PRINCIPAL GRANT TALKS TO HIS "BOYS."

A MESSAGE FROM THE SHADOW OF DEATH—"TAKE YOUR PROFESSION SERIOUSLY."

Kingston, Oct. 10.—At the opening of the medical college a familiar form was missing. Principal Grant, on a bed of illness at the General hospital, in full view of the university to which he has devoted his life, lay ministered unto by graduates, physicians and surgeons of the college, which has entered upon a new era. But he sent by Rev. Dr. Barclay a message which thrilled the assembly, who reverently stood during its reading. The words of the message were listened to in dead silence, for they came as a voice from the shadow of death. The Principal's message read;

"To my boys of the medical faculty: Ten years ago one of your professors told me to look into the kingdom of darkness. I did so steadily and found nothing to terrify. But several old truths were impressed upon me, one or two of which I give to you. Never was I so much impressed with the advantage of having distinct centres of medical education, or with the generosity of your professors. The old pagan idea that matter is evil and the body worthless is only now giving way to the Christian idea of the sacredness of the body and the high duty of understanding its mysteries. I pledge myself to do more for the faculty and for the hospital than ever before, and I hope that I may teach others their privilege in this regard. Your professors have earned the right to expect this.

"As for yourselves, for the sake of all that is noble and worthy, take your profession seriously from the outset, quite as seriously as the students of divinity take theirs. If you cannot do that, drop it and seek some honest way of making a living. It is awful to think that men, women and children should be at the mercy of irreverent and half-taught young doctors. I pledge myself that hereafter for your sakes and for the sake of humanity, I shall try to let no such student pass our examinations. God help you to lay this word to your hearts."

THE FIFTEENTH ON PARADE

A LONG MARCH AND A TEDIOUS WAIT FOR THE ROYAL PARTY.

(Staff Correspondence)

Toronto, October 10, 4.30 p.m.—Well, the gallant Fifteenth are a pretty tired lot of men just now, and not without reason. We paraded at 10 o'clock this morning, and have been under arms on our feet ever since—six hours and a half, with one hard tack biscuit to eat. It was a damp day, and the rain fell intermittently about half the time we were out—sometimes quite smartly. The military marched to the city and lined some of the streets through which the Royal procession passed. We were on Jarvis street, where we arrived about 1 o'clock. The Duke came by us about 3, so you can see we had plenty of time to cool our heels while waiting for him. There were great crowds on the streets, and the decorations were gorgeous, but everybody says the rain dampened the enthusiasm. However, it seemed to me there was enough of it anyhow. The ladies on the sides of the street were very good to the boys, and held their umbrellas over them when it rained.

The Duke and Duchess look just like their pictures, which, however, do not by any means flatter them. After the Royal party passed, the Regiments fell in behind it and covered the remainder of the route. Altogether, it is estimated that we marched at least ten miles to-day, and stood on the streets at different points for three hours.

To-morrow is the Royal review and after that there is to be a street parade through Toronto. The boys are rather dubious about the latter, and think they are getting more than they bargained for. However, it's all in the game. There is not a man sick so far, and nobody has misbehaved himself in the slightest degree. We leave for home on Friday evening.

THE 49th REGIMENT

IS NOT LIKELY TO ACCEPT THE INVITATION TO GO TO KINGSTON.

We have good authority for stating that it is not probable the 49th Regiment will go to Kingston next week to take part in the demonstration on the occasion of the visit of the Royal party to that city. While other regiments have had five or six weeks' notice that they would be wanted in Toronto, and have been drilling almost nightly for the occasion, the 49th has had no intimation that they would be called upon until the last minute. Being a rural regiment, whose members are scattered all over the county, it is not as easy for them to be collected together as it would be for a city regiment, consequently they should have had longer notice than urban organizations.

Moreover, the 49th has no clothing except what has been worn longer than the allotted time (three years) and this was severely tried at the last camp at Kingston on account of the very cold, wet weather prevailing at that time, while many city regiments have had new clothing issued especially for this trip to Toronto.

Many officers of the 49th, after some weeks' waiting for the call to go to Toronto and finding they were not required there, have gone to the review as private citizens and have made arrangements to go on to the Pan-American.

GRACE, STYLE AND FINISH.

You will find that in Grace, Style and Finish, Quick & Robertson's will compare with the productions of the best class of merchant tailors at prices a third to a half less. Each garment is designed with a view to its shape. It will stay in shape on the wearer. No undue drag on the various parts of the garment, each pocket is stayed, collars are properly cut, sleeves and shoulders have the right "set." Design without good cloths is wasted. Every garment is properly and honestly lined with good linings. No shoddy cloths are used.

BAD SMASHUP ON G. T. R.

CATTLE CARS TELESCOPED AND MANY ANIMALS KILLED.

A smash-up occurred on the line of the G.T.R. at Bowmanville at 6.30 last evening, which resulted in a big loss to the company. A freight, known as the Klondyke, and drawn by engine No. 920, with Engineer Kerr and Fireman Miller, had just run in from the east, and was taking water, when another freight train, drawn by engine No. 292, came at full speed, having orders to run through, and smashed into the rear end of the first train, crushing the van to kindling wood and derailing a number of the cars. The second train had a carload of cattle, and some half dozen of the cars were telescoped a number of the cattle being killed and others injured so badly that they had to be killed. The auxiliary from this city was sent to the scene to clear away the wreck. No person was seriously hurt.

A KNOCK OUT FOR ASTHMA.

You have had many disappointments, filled your stomach with nasty drugs, tried lots of things, but they all failed. Not being a stomach complaint, of course Asthma can't be cured by stomach medicine. But Catarrhozone cures Asthma; it gives it a tired feeling in about fifteen minutes. Inhale Catarrhozone; it makes breathing easy, cures the cough, makes you well. Doctors say there is nothing like Catarrhozone for Asthma. 25 cents and $1.00.

THE ROYAL DEMONSTRATION.

A SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR ASSURED—THE ARRANGEMENTS WELL IN HAND.

The general committee which have in hand the demonstration to the Royal party on Tuesday morning next are working hard to make it a success in every particular.

The Royal train will be backed down to the station about 9 o'clock and will occupy the whole length of the track in front of the platform. The placing of the scholars of the schools, the pupils of the D. and D. Institution and the populace in a position where the Royal party will be seen to advantage has been arranged as follows:

The pupils of the D. and D. Institution will be on the platform at the west end, near the Royal car; the pupils of the high, public and separate schools and the students of the three colleges will be placed on the north tracks in the yard. The Fifteenth Regiment will form a guard of honor on the platform and the veterans a guard of honor about the children.

There will be no engines or cars upon the track during the stay of the Royal train here. The platform on the rear of the car upon which their Royal Highnesses will appear will be some 8 or 10 feet above the track level, which will give an opportunity for all to see them.

In the various schools yesterday the children were practised at singing for some time and entered most heartily into the work.

The Mayor will be asked to proclaim Tuesday morning next a half-holiday and the Board of Education will grant the school children a holiday for the day.

Members of the various choirs of the city are requested to meet at Bridge St. church to-night after the concert there and to bring with them copies of "Rule Britannia." The committee are very anxious about this.

The Decorations.

The committee yesterday met Mr. Turner, of Peterboro, decorator, and arranged with him to do the decorations about the station, which work will be commenced on Monday. Some employees of the G.T.R. will assist in the work, and the company will also provide some decorations.

The time-table for the arrival and departure of the Royal train upon their trip eastward has been issued. A special train having on board His Excellency the Governor-General, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and other distinguished gentlemen will arrive here at 8 a.m. and the Royal train half an hour later.

POLSON'S NERVILINE CURES RHEUMATISM.

The remarkable strength and marvellous soothing power of Nerviline renders it quite infallible in rheumatism. Five times stronger than any other remedy, its penetrating power enables it to reach the source of the pain and drive out the disease. Nerviline is stronger, more penetrating, more highly pain-subduing in its action than any other medicine heretofore devised for the cure of rheumatism. Sold in large 25 cent bottles everywhere.

McIntyre v. Chisholm.—Judgment (H.) in action tried without a jury at Belleville. Action by Frederick McIntyre, a boy of fourteen, by Geo. McIntyre, his next friend, and George McIntyre personally, against Chisholm Bros., lumbermen and millers, carrying on business at the Township of Tyendinaga, to recover damages for an injury to the boy received on the 30th August, 1900, while working for the defendants in their saw mill. The boy lost his left arm. Held, that in a case like this it is for the plaintiff to prove in the first instance that he was in fact employed to work at the machine which caused the injury. As a fact this plaintiff was not so employed. It is not enough to make his employer liable that he saw him twice using the machine without reproving him for doing so. He was no more than a volunteer, and when he went to the machine he was deserting his own proper work. He certainly did so on this particular occasion, and for what happened, lamentable as it was, his employer cannot justly be held liable. As to the absence of a guard at the saw pit it was proved that there was a board partly obstructing the access to the saw pit, and this so far acted as a guard. The defect in the guard, if it was a defect, was not the cause of the injury. No liability is shown to have been incurred by the defendants. Action dismissed with costs. R. C. Clute, K.C., and W. Farnham (Belleville) for plaintiff. E. G. Porter (Belleville) for defendant.

ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE ACCOUNT

A CONFERENCE ARRANGED FOR, BUT NOTHING DEFINITE DONE.

At the June session of the County Council a committee composed of the Warden, Messrs. J. T. Holgate and H. K. Denyes were appointed to confer with a committee from the City Council in reference to the Administration of Justice Account.

The city pays to the county $4,000 per annum to this account, which sum has been paid for five years, ending with the present year. As it was necessary to make another agreement this conference was arranged.

On behalf of the city Mr. J. P. Thompson, Treasurer, and Mr. D. B. Robertson, City Clerk, were the only persons present. The members appointed were Mayor Graham, Aldermen Doyle, Bogart and Falkiner, most of whom are out of the city.

The question of having to obtain from the Lieut.-Governor an order-in-council in reference to the matter having been brought up and which has not been done, nothing was accomplished.

A subsequent meeting will no doubt be arranged for.

A GENTLE HINT.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Regular size, 75 cts. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at R. Templeton & Co's.

Fall From A Wagon

Thomas Jeffrey, a man about 35 years of age, residing on what is known as the Taylor farm, Front of Sidney, met with an accident at 12.30 to-day. He was proceeding to his home riding upon a load of lumber when he was jolted off the conveyance and fell in such a manner that a wheel passed over the right arm. He was conveyed to the hospital, where upon examination it was ascertained that the injuries consisted of a bad dislocation of the elbow.

The City in Darkness.

Owing to something going wrong at the power house at Trenton in the early part of last evening the city was in darkness for some hours. It was very dark and pedestrians had considerable difficulty in navigating. Many were to be seen going about with lanterns to aid them over doubtful places. Later in the night the electric lights were turned on.

ALL ABOUT A YACHT.

(London Express.)

Bold Sir Thomas built a yacht,
Spending money—such a lacht—
Part of that which he had gacht
Out of England's big tea-pacht.
And he sailed her many a knacht
Right out to the very spacht
Where the Yankee's little lacht
Rocked within its ocean cacht.

Lipton swore he'd have a shacht
To appropriate the pacht,
Show the Yankees plainly whacht
He could do against their lacht.
Laudable, you think, or nacht?
We wish him well, but oh! Great Scacht!
Isn't this a lacht of racht
To be writ about a yacht?

Washing tells the tale.

It proves the difference between Stanfield's Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear and those that are simply branded "Unshrinkable," "Guaranteed," etc. Stanfield's remains the same in shape and size, as soft and pliable as when purchased. Every garment bears the guarantee of the Truro Knitting Mills Co. to return your money if they shrink. No special directions for washing. As the pants receive more wear than the shirts, they are made of heavier material. Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear is sold on a positive guarantee against shrinking in the wash. Your money back if it does.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one-half, the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done, it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilious habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little effect. But since using 3 bottles of the Vegetable Discovery, the biliousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 66 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know."

THE PUBLIC should bear in mind that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has nothing in common with the impure, deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or hurts, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

Sleeplessness.—When the nerves are unstrung and the whole body given up to wretchedness, when the mind is filled with gloom and dismal forebodings, the result of derangement of the digestive organs, sleeplessness comes to add to the distress. If only the subject could sleep, there would be the oblivion for a while and temporary relief. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, but will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Nine-tenths of the consumptives date their afflictions from a neglected cold, and the diseases that are caused by wet feet, damp clothes, or exposure are more numerous than are generally supposed. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which frees the lungs from viscid phlegm by changing the secretions from a diseased to a healthy state.

The Flagging Energies Revived.—Constant application to business is a tax upon the energies, and if there be not relaxation, lassitude and depression are sure to intervene. These come from stomachic troubles. The want of exercise brings on nervous irregularities, and the stomach ceases to assimilate food properly. In this condition Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a recuperative of rare power, restoring the organs to healthful action, dispelling depression and reviving the flagging energies.

No one need fear cholera if they have a bottle of this medicine convenient.

MISTAKES TO AVOID.

It is a great mistake to set up our own standard of right and wrong and judge people accordingly.

To measure the enjoyment of others by our own.

To expect uniformity of opinion in this world.

To look for judgment and experience in youth.

To endeavor to mold all dispositions alike.

To look for perfection in our own actions.

To worry ourselves and others with what cannot be remedied.

Not to yield in immaterial matters.

Not to alleviate all that needs alleviation as far as lies in our power.

Not to make allowances for the infirmities of others.

To consider everything impossible that we cannot perform.

To believe only what our finite minds can grasp.

To expect to be able to understand everything.

Vicarious Advice.

Barkley—You're a pretty fellow. You advised me to lend Pitkins that $10, and he hasn't paid me back yet, and I don't believe he ever will.

Toomey—That's the reason I advised you as I did. I was afraid, you know, if he didn't get it from you he might try to borrow it of me.—Boston Transcript.

Literally.

"Oh, Johnny, I am awfully mortified to think you took two dishes of ice cream and four pieces of cake at Katie Ketchumb's party."

"But, mamma, they kept askin me if I'd have more, and you told me to always say 'Yes, sir,' and 'Yes, ma'am.'"—Philadelphia Bulletin.

SCRAPS OF SCIENCE.

A scientist who has made a study of the planet declares that there is snow on the moon.

There are 28 pounds of blood in the body of an average grown up person, and at each pulsation the heart moves 10 pounds.

While cyclones and tornadoes are different phenomena, the former appear to give rise to the latter. Tornadoes almost always break out, if at all, on the southeasterly outskirts of a cyclone.

A period of 5 seconds between a flash of lightning and thunder means that the flash is a mile distant from the observer. Thunder has never been heard over 15 miles from the flash, though artillery has been heard 120 miles.

Sir Robert Ball asserted that every 100 years the sun loses 5 miles of its diameter. To allay anxiety, however, be mentioned that the diameter of the sun is 860,000 miles and that 40,000 years hence the diameter would still be 858,000 miles.

SOME LOST SECRETS.

FAMOUS PROCESSES THAT WERE KNOWN TO THE ANCIENTS.

Things That Our Forefathers Were Able to Do That We Now Find Well Nigh Impossible—Cement of the Greeks and Romans.

Taking into consideration the marvelous strides we have made in almost every branch of knowledge during the last 200 or 300 years, it seems exceedingly strange that our forefathers should have been able to do things which we find impossible and that we cannot discover secrets which were almost common knowledge hundreds of years ago. But despite the fact that the average modern man knows more than did the learned men of long ago, there are mysteries of knowledge and science which our most advanced scientists cannot solve.

Thousands of years ago, for instance, the Egyptians used to embalm the bodies of their dead kings and nobility so perfectly that the bodies are in wonderful preservation today, as may be seen at the British museum. Clever as we are in this age, we cannot do the same. The valuable secret is lost and modern science cannot recover the lost knowledge. We can, of course, and we do embalm bodies, but only for temporary preservation and, comparatively speaking, in a most unsatisfactory manner. Bodies which are embalmed nowadays will not be preserved for more than a few days at most. Very many of the bodies the Egyptians embalmed before the birth of Christ are still so perfect that the lines of their faces are still as clearly marked as when they were first embalmed.

Sheffield turns out the finest, hardest and most perfect steel the world produces, but even Sheffield cannot produce a sword blade to compare with those the Saracens made and used hundreds of years ago, and the Saracens never possessed the machinery we have or had the advantage of knowing so much about metals as we are supposed to know. A huge fortune awaits the man who discovers the secret which enabled the Saracens to make sword blades so keen and hard that they could cut in two most of the swords used today.

There are a dozen different methods of making artificial diamonds, but none of the stones produced by these methods can compare with those made of old French paste, the secret of which is lost. So perfect were paste diamonds that it was difficult for even a person with expert knowledge of diamonds to tell that they were artificially produced, whereas most of the modern artificial diamonds can easily be detected, and their durability is nothing like so great as the old paste diamonds.

Probably not one out of every ten thousand buildings standing in all parts of the world, and built by modern masons, will still be standing 500 years hence. We do not know how to put stones and bricks together as the ancients did, and consequently the buildings we raise nowadays are really mere temporary structures and will be in ruins when the ancient buildings of Greece and Italy, which were built thousands of years ago, are in as good condition as they are now. The secret is not in the bricks or the stone, but in the cement and mortar, neither of which essentials can we make as the ancients made them.

In modern buildings the cement and mortar are the weakest points; in buildings which the Romans and Greeks raised thousands of years ago the cement and mortar are the strongest points and hold good while the very stones they bind together crumble away with age. We cannot, with all our science, make such cement and mortar, and therefore we cannot build such buildings as the ancients raised.

Chemistry, one might imagine, is the science which has, perhaps, made the greatest strides. Yet modern chemists cannot compound such dyes as were commonly used when the great nations of today were still unborn. Now and again it happens that searchers after antiquities come across fragments of fabrics which were dyed thousands of years ago, and they are astonished by the wonderful richness of the colors of the cloths, which, despite their age, are brighter and purer than anything we can produce.

Modern artists buy their colors ready made and spend large sums on pigments with which to color their canvases. The pictures of modern artists will be colorless when many of the works of ancient masters are as bright as they are today. Just as the secret of dyeing has been lost, so has the secret of preserving the colors of artists' paints. Yet the secret was known to every ancient artist, for they all mixed their own colors.

How to make durable ink is another great secret we have lost. Look at any letter five or ten years old and you will probably notice that the writing has faded to a brown color and is very indistinct. Go to any big museum and you will find ancient MSS., the writing of which is as black and distinct as if the MSS. were written the day before yesterday.

The secret of glass blowing and tinting is not yet entirely lost. There are still a few men who can produce glass work equal to the things of this kind which the ancients turned out hundreds of years ago. But the average glass manufacturer cannot produce anything that could at all compare with some of the commoner articles the Egyptians, and later, the founders of Venice, manufactured, and those who still hold the ancient secret guard it so closely that it will probably die with them and be added to the long list of things in which our ancestors beat us hollow.

He Envied Him.

"Was he excited when his companion fell overboard?"

"Not in the least. He simply fanned himself with his hat while they were fishing the fellow out and remarked, 'He always did have all the luck.'"—Chicago Post.

Deadly Duel.

"Did you hear of that duel between those two medical students?"

"No. Pistols or swords?"

"Neither. They prescribed for each other."

Ingenious.

"I can't help admiring the ingenuity of the landlady at our house."

"In what way?"

"At breakfast time she burns a grain or two of coffee on the kitchen stove, so as to fill the dining room with the odor, and then gives us chicory to drink."

THE MAIDEN OF THE SMILE.

In that fair land where slope and plain
Shine back to sun and sky
And olives shield the sprouting grain
When wintry arrows fly,
Where snow fed streams seek sun warmed vale,
Through vineyard scarped defile,
The world we enter with a wail
She greeted with a smile.

Slumbering, she smiled and, smiling, woke,
And when she felt the smart
Of grave, and life smiles still bespoke
Her tenderness of heart,
And nightly when she knelt and prayed
Beside her snow white bed
Her face was one pure smile that made
A heaven about her head.

When love first trembled in her ear
The heart throbs that beguile,
She listened with assenting tear,
Then chased it with a smile.
Sorrow and pain with smiles she bore
Unto her latest breath,
But the sweetest smile she ever wore
Was the smile she wore in death.

—Alfred Austin in Independent.

SELF FLAME OF JEWELS.

The Glow the Diamond Shows When Under Pressure.

A traveler for a diamond house was talking shop the other evening and, speaking of gems, said:

"The most overworked expression used by the unsophisticated and deeply impressed diamond purchaser is, 'It actually looks as if it glows of itself.' Now, it is not generally known that such is actually the case, although not, of course, in the way the public intends. The beauty of the gem in light is, of course, in its remarkable refractive power, but under certain conditions the diamond has more, for it may gleam even in the night with a pale but extremely beautiful light. In short, it becomes phosphorescent. Heated to a certain temperature the internal fire shows itself, and under pressure the same is true.

"Some years ago I went to Amsterdam to purchase some special stones for a California millionaire who had ordered them through our New York house, and while there I was shown the inside workings of the famous diamond cutting establishments of that city. Of all that I saw, however, the 'self flame' of the stones under pressure most surprised me. The manager placed a large rose cut gem between the jaws of a vise and carefully applied a certain amount of pressure. He then extinguished all the light in the shop, and as soon as my eyes had become accustomed to the darkness I saw the diamond emitting a soft radiance of its own like a very pale glowworm. As I remember it, he said that the yellower diamonds were slightly more phosphorescent than the first water stones.

"By the way, you would be really astonished to know the number of jewels which also possess 'self flame' to a more or less extent, and I have often wondered if the alchemists who performed such apparently well authenticated wonders in the middle ages did not know something of phosphorescence and its oddities."

Coal Briquettes for Car Heating.

A new method of heated cars has been adopted in Christiana and Stockholm, according to The Railway Herald of London. The apparatus consists of long, perforated boxes, one under each length of seats. The boxes are filled with red-hot briquettes of compressed coal, prepared so that no smoke or smell results from their consumption. Iron sheeting is arranged under the seats which allows the fumes to escape into the open air. On fresh air passing through a ventilator placed under the coal box at the bottom of the car, the hot, combustible gases pass throughout its entire length, diffusing a steady heat into the car through a set of perforated iron plates placed between the legs of the seats. The speed of the car develops sufficient draught to completely consume the briquettes. It is asserted the system has been found entirely satisfactory, even on the score of economy.

Artificial Leather.

According to the German press, fibroleum, a new artificial leather, has just been invented by a Frenchman. It consists of pieces of refuse skins and hides, cut exceedingly small, which are put into a vat filled with an intensely alkaline solution. After the mass has become pulpy, it is taken out of the vat, placed in a specially constructed machine, and after undergoing treatment therein, is again taken out and put through a paper-making machine. The resulting paper-like substance is cut into large sheets, which are laid one upon another, in lots of from 100 to 1,000, and put into a hydraulic press to remove all moisture. The article is strong and pliable, and can be pressed or molded into all kinds of shapes and patterns. It is said to make the best kind of wall paper. Decorators who have used this article speak of it in the highest terms.

The Questions of Clarence.

"Well, Clarence, what is it?" asked the boy's papa.

"I didn't say anything, papa," replied Clarence.

"I know you didn't, but it is fully five minutes since you asked a question, and I know from experience that another is due about this time."

"Well, papa, what are all those big United States flags made of?" asked the boy.

"Some of them are made of silk, Clarence, but by far the greater number are made of bunting."

"And, papa?"

"Well, Clarence?"

"Are the little flags made of baby bunting?"

Slavery Protected the Negro.

If the negro had been forced to compete for existence in America, he would have been crushed out by the civilized power, as the Indian has been, says Albert Phelps in The Atlantic, but the peculiar institution of slavery protected him not only from this competition, but also, by artificial means, from those great forces of nature which inevitably weed out the weaker organisms and which operate most unrestrainedly upon the ignorant savage. For the first time, perhaps, in the history of the world human beings had been bred and regulated like valuable stock, with as much care as is put upon the best horses and cattle. As a natural consequence the sanitary condition of the negro during slavery was remarkable, especially by contrast with his present condition, and his growth was the abnormal growth of a plant abnormally raised in a hothouse. When, therefore, this mass of helpless beings was thrown upon its own resources by the act of emancipation and when the protection of slavery had been withdrawn, the direst wretchedness and suffering followed.

PARTRIDGE EGGS.

Said to Be More Nutritious Than the Birds Themselves.

"Few persons are aware of the fact," said a well known physician, "but it is true, nevertheless, that the egg of the partridge is one of the most nutritious things in the world. They are not used for eating purposes except in very rare cases, and then it generally happens in remote rural districts. I have known negro families in the state of Louisiana during the laying season to live on the eggs of partridges. And they would flourish handsomely and grow fat on account of the rich properties of the eggs.

"These eggs, of course, never find their way into the market because they are never taken from their nest except by such persons as I have mentioned, and they rob the nests, I suppose, because their principal food supply comes from this source. Quail meat comes pretty high in the market at all times, and the average man will find it more profitable to spare the eggs and wait for the birds when the hunting season rolls around. These men would pass 100 nests in one day without disturbing an egg. The sport of hunting the birds is an additional incentive.

"The average negro does not care so much about this aspect of the case. He figures that the white man, having the best gun and the best dog, will beat him to the bird. So he goes after the egg. One partridge will lay anywhere from 12 to 20 eggs, and a nest is a good find. I know of many families in rural sections who feast on these eggs in the laying season. I have tried the egg myself as an experiment. I found it peculiarly rich. It has a good flavor, is very palatable and in fact is altogether a very fine thing to eat. Really I believe that the egg has more nutrition in it than the fully developed bird, but of course, as one of the men fond of the game in the field, I would like to discourage the robbery of the nests."

THE FOOD WE EAT.

By Far the Largest Portion of It Is Pure Water.

Thrifty housewives when they are paying to the butcher the amount of their weekly account do not realize that a large part of the food for which they are settling is water—pure water.

It is not very generally realized how much water there is in solid food. Certain it is that no natural food is without water, varying in amount from 5 to 97 per cent, or only 3 per cent short of pure water itself. Milk, even straight from the cow, contains very nearly 90 per cent of water or, to be more accurate, from 87 to 88 per cent.

Some solid foods contain more water than does milk. This is especially true of vegetables and fruits. Thus the turnip contains over 90 per cent of water, the cabbage nearly the same amount and the cucumber and vegetable marrow about 95 per cent, while among fruits the strawberry contains nearly 90 per cent of water, the apple 82 per cent and grapes 80 per cent.

Even the various meats used as food contain an amount of water far in excess of the amount of solid constituents. Thus three-fourths of beef and mutton consist of water, which is paid for with the rest at the regular rate per pound. Lamb contains less water—namely, 64 per cent; pork still less, 60.9 per cent, and bacon only 22.3 per cent. It would appear that as the flesh foods increase in the amount of fat the proportion of water as a rule diminishes. Coming to birds, the flesh of the fowl and duck contains about 70 per cent of water and that of the pigeon 75 per cent, while the flesh of the goose contains only 38 per cent, the last being another example of the fat increasing with a corresponding diminution in the proportion of water.

Fishes contain from 40 to 80 per cent of water. The egg, one of the most powerful of nutritives, contains 65.5 per cent of water, the white consisting of 86 per cent and the yolk of 50.9 per cent. The latter, of course, is the more nourishing part. As a rule, foods containing a small proportion of water are not fit for human consumption until they are cooked, which commonly means reducing them to a digestible state by adding water and boiling or baking, and so when they are actually partaken of they contain a good percentage of water.

Wheat flour, for example, contains only 12 per cent of water, while bread contains nearly 50 per cent. It would appear to be necessary, therefore, that food should be in a decidedly moist condition before it is fit for use, and thus water plays a role in food which at first sight does not seem evident. Bacteria cannot live or act except under a wet environment, and chemical change under absolutely dry conditions is impossible; therefore without moisture life would cease and the great vital processes would come to an end.

The Evolution of Warships.

A man need not be a scholar to be an inventor. One of the most successful aeronauts of old times who had made a study of aerial currents and the management of balloons once delivered an address in which he referred to "the anaconda" as "the largest bird that ever flew," and he also remarked that "the mental faculties of a man's mind is so constructed as to bring things down to a pin's point." He also referred to the currents of air as stretchums, meaning strata, and yet he was one of the foremost balloonists of his time.

He was an inventor also of many useful things and was the first man in the country to suggest an ironclad man-of-war with slanting sides. He built a miniature vessel on this plan of sheet iron, placing it in the water and fired musket balls at it at short range. Every ball glanced off. The Merrimac was built on a similar plan, and from that humble beginning the evolution or revolution in naval architecture took its start.

A Tall Smoke Column.

During the burning of the Standard Oil company's tanks at Bayonne, N. J., in July, 1900, an immense column of smoke, shaped at the top like an umbrella, rose into the air, where very little wind was stirring, to an elevation, measured by triangulation, of 13,411 feet, or more than two miles and a half. Above the column white clouds formed in an otherwise cloudless sky and remained visible for two days, the fire continuing to burn and the smoke to rise. After the explosion of an oil tank flames shot up to a height of 3,000 feet, and the heat radiated from them was felt at a distance of a mile and three-quarters, where it was more noticeable than close to the fire.—Youth's Companion.

An Effort to Speak.

Dogs in a native or wild state never bark. They simply whine, howl and growl. The noise which we call barking is found only among those that are domesticated. Columbus found that to be the case with the dogs he first brought to America and left at large, for on his return he tells us that they had lost their propensity to bark. Scientific men say that barking is really an effort on the part of the dog to speak.

SLICING A RATTLER.

THE COLORADO WAY OF TURNING THE DANGEROUS TRICK.

Dexterity and Daring of the Cowboy In Cutting Off the Head of the Reptile After Its Ineffectual Attempt to Strike.

"Did you ever see a cow puncher kill a rattlesnake with a knife?" said a Colorado citizen now in town. "When I first went west, I punched cattle on the Sunset ranch, one of the largest in southern Colorado. I was a tenderfoot, fresh from the east, but no swell head about me. That saved me a lot of trouble. The boys were dead willing to put me next, even to a 14-year-old broncho never halter broken. Among other things, I learned how to kill a rattler with a bowie knife. I killed one with a knife to make my standing good, but after that a gun or a pitchfork was good enough for me.

"I have seen a plainsman ride up to a small sized rattler, jump off his horse, kick at the waving head, avoid the strike and as the reptile came down place a heel upon its neck, coolly take a knife from his belt and dispatch it. I have also seen a live rattler thrown up on a haystack machine, and I have seen the men working on that stack jump, roll, tumble and slide to get away. They could not see the rattler; that was all. In the open they would have played with it.

"A rattlesnake is harmless out of coil. For that reason it wastes no time in getting back into coil after the spring. It will not strike unless it is perfectly sure it can reach its object. Therefore the cowboy must get into reach of the snake's spring. It can spring half its own length, and sometimes more. Of course the larger the snake the more coils, and the more coils the more vicious the strike.

"Dick Haynes was a young daredevil who would go out of his way to play with a rattler. I have seen him kill at least a dozen with a knife, and I saw him when he got such a close call that he dropped the game and used a gun forever after.

"We were out together one Sunday. It was warm, and as we rode he fanned his face with his sombrero. Suddenly he clapped his hat on his head and started his broncho on a lope. 'Watch me get that pison,' he shouted.

"Fifty yards to our right was a rattler. It was trying to get away, but we headed it in an instant and were off our horses. It immediately coiled, and then I saw the biggest snake I have ever seen. It was a diamond rattler and about 20 years old. It had the ugliest head I ever saw, enormous in size, and with a mouth that reminded me of a bulldog's jaw. Dick stopped just long enough to size up its length so as to get an idea of its spring, and then went in on it.

"The strike came like a flash of lightning. The snake struck the ground with a sound like the cracking of a four horse whiplash in the hands of an expert. Dick just saved himself by throwing his body back full length. The snake coiled again before Dick could get to it. I got nervous and called to him to shoot it.

"'That's the first one that ever struck at me and got back,' he said, 'and I'm going to have that pretty head.'

"The rattler was beside itself with rage. It lay, coil upon coil of smooth, glistening length, showing the long reach and powerful spring in reserve. Out of the coils two feet more of body and neck rose straight in the air, and above all that black, venomous head, with glowing eyes and forked tongue, waved, slightly, warily, to and fro.

"Dick stepped in again, more cautiously. He reached the knife nearer and yet nearer to that swaying head. I knew he was getting too close, but I feared to speak to him. Then came the strike, with that marvelous dart of speed. Dick's knife flashed and the snake lay squirming, a headless thing, upon the ground.

"'Let's get to camp,' said Dick. 'It got me in the thumb.'

"We jumped for the saddles and started on a mad run for home. Dick rode with his thumb on the saddle horn and his knife in his other hand.

"'If she begins to swell, off she comes,' said he.

"We reached the ranch, and while Dick poured down whisky we examined the thumb. We could find nothing, not the slightest wound. The snake had struck the handle of his knife, and the strength and suddenness of the impact made Dick lose his nerve. It was a good thing for him. He never went after a rattler again without a long '44.'"

Going All the Time.

"I see a Wisconsin man claims to have solved the perpetual motion problem."

"That's nothing. I have a model of a perpetual motion machine at my house now."

"Does it work successfully?"

"From the standpoint of perpetual motion, you bet it does."

"Have you given it a name?"

"Sure."

"What do you call it?"

"'Jimmie,' and it was 5 years old its last birthday.

Concession to Superstition.

"Thirteen dollars and a half seems a high price for such a comparatively short trip," said the man with the traveling bag in his hand.

"We thought people would rather pay that than $13," replied the agent of the steamer line with an explanatory and apologetic cough.

General Lee's Answer.

After the surrender of Appomattox, General Wise came riding down the road furiously to where General Lee and his staff were grouped. He was splashed with mud from head to heels, and there were great splotches of mud dried and caked upon his face. Addressing General Lee, he asked in a theatrical voice, "Is it true, General Lee, that you have surrendered?"

"Yes, General Wise, it is true."

"I wish, then, to ask you one question, What is going to become of my brigade, General Lee, and what is going to become of me?"

General Lee looked at the splashed warrior for a full minute and then said calmly and in a low tone, "General Wise, go and wash your face."

"Oh, mamma," exclaimed four-year-old Bessie, looking up at the starry skies one evening, "what a pretty place heaven must be when it is so beautiful wrong side out!"

You rob yourself oftener than others rob you.

The large public school building at Carman, Man., was completely destroyed by fire on Thursday. The loss is about $12,000.

U.S. crop returns show the average condition of corn is 52.1, oats 25.1, barley 24.7. Wheat will be issued, pending receipt of annual returns.

J. S. Thompson, proprietor of the Club cigar store, Winnipeg, has been arrested, charged with complicity in a robbery of registered letters from the Winnipeg postoffice.

A SKETCH.

A builder's yard, a ship upon the ways,
The groan of straining planks, the snap of stays,
The cheering of a crowd: "She moves! She's off!"
And with a sudden rush and splash the great ship
Leaves the wharf.

A storm swept, foam tossed sea, a howling gale,
A ship half lost in foam, a rag of sail,
The tolling of a bell, now lost, now clear—
"The shore! The shore!" She strikes in sinking
Waves to disappear.

A summer's eve, a calm and wailing tide,
A dismal stretch of sand that tries to hide
The bones of some great vessel, prow on high,
Outlined against the sunset's last faint glow
Athwart the sky.

WEAKNESS OF MEN AND WOMEN

Could we read the hearts of every man we meet, what a load of sorrow and despair would be disclosed. Indiscretions and Blood Diseases have caused more physical and mental wrecks than all other causes combined. They strike at the foundation of manhood; they sap the vital forces; they undermine the system, and not only do they often disrupt the family circle, but they may even extend their poisonous fangs into the next generation. If you have been a victim of early sinful habits, remember the seed is sown, and sooner or later you will reap a harvest. If your blood has been diseased from any cause do not risk a return later on. Our New Method Treatment will positively cure you and you need never fear any return of the disease. We will give you a guarantee bond to that effect. We would warn you sincerely against the promiscuous use of mercury, which does not cure blood poison but simply suppresses the symptoms.

WE CURE OR NO PAY.

Don't Let your Life be Drained Away, which weakens the intellect as well as the body. There is no room in this world for mental, physical or sexual dwarfs. PROFESSOR HAND KILLED

He Is Supposed to Have Been Filling Torpedoes at the Time.

Explosion Occurred in One of the Victim's Forty Fireworks Storehouses at Hamilton—An Awful Spectacle, the Well-Known Fireworks Man Lingered for a Few Hours After the Occurrence of the Accident.

Hamilton, Oct. 12.—There was another explosion at the Hand Company's fireworks factory, West King street, yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock. Two of the 40 storehouses on the premises were blown up. Prof. William Hand, the head of the firm, was in the house which was first blown up, and it is supposed he was filling torpedo shells at the time. He was taken out of the place in a terrible condition. His face was burned black, and there was not a hair left on his head. He was conscious, however, but he declined to tell the cause of the explosion. He was attended by Dr. James White, who held out only slight hopes for his recovery. The poor fellow was removed in the ambulance to St. Joseph's Hospital. It was thought during the evening he might linger until morning, but between 9 and 10 o'clock Mr. Hand became worse and death ended his sufferings shortly after 10 o'clock last night.

The explosion in the storehouse in which Mr. Hand was at work caused an explosion in an adjoining building. The man in that building got off safely, however.

Prof. Hand was the founder and head of the fireworks firm which has become famous throughout the Dominion. He was about 60 years of age and an Englishman. His family includes W. Hand, who has charge of the Company's operations, and Mrs. H. P. Greay. Deceased was a member of St. George's Society and other societies, and was a most generous-hearted man. Not long ago the deceased's partner, Walter Teale, met a terrible death in the same factory, being literally blown to pieces.

Explosion in a Mine.

Fairmont, W. Va., Oct. 12.—An explosion occurred at the New England mine of the Fairmont Mining Company near here yesterday. Three dead have already been taken out, and six more are believed to be still in the mine, which is on fire. At the time of the explosion, twenty-five men were at work, but all but nine escaped. The explosion was caused by a broken lamp of one of the miners igniting the gas.

Won't Pay Insurance.

Montreal, Oct. 12.—Greenshields, Greenshields & Henneker yesterday took out an action for $10,000 against the Temperance General Life Assurance Company for the amount of a policy on the life of the late Major "Gat" Howard, who was killed by the Boers in South Africa. The company have refused to pay the amount called for by the policy because Major Howard met his death while at war.

Martial Spectacle Only Once Surpassed in Canadian Annals.

Eleven Thousand Citizen Soldiers Pass Before the Duke of Cornwall and York—A Brilliant Reception—Prof. Hand, the Fireworks Man, Killed—Death for Commandant Lotter.

Toronto, Oct. 12.—The second day of the royal visit broke under a cloud. The first day, to put it no less pointedly, was rather damp and depressing. Its successor, while a shade more cheery, in the morning, still provided an obstacle to the full enjoyment of the spectacular review of our citizen soldiers. More than half the time the troops were hidden behind a blanket-like mist. But a review of troops in a mist is better than no review, however much one might wish for an improvement.

The muster of troops at Exhibition Park was an inspiring one, compared with anything that has hitherto been seen in Toronto. Major-General O'Grady-Haly's desire was to have the greatest military spectacle Canada has seen. How far short, if short at all, of that aim yesterday's brave show of eleven thousand men came, modesty forbids the saying. One of the English journalists, who have accompanied the royal party throughout the tour, declared that Melbourne alone eclipsed Ontario's military showing at Toronto.

Barely thirty thousand persons visited the spectacle. Vastly more than a quarter of a million of people were anxious to attend, but the grand stand obstacle was insurmountable, while that portion of the grounds left free was so far removed from the saluting base that the populace saw nothing but bobbing helmets and glinting steel, confused the Duke with the colonel of the Grenadiers, heard nothing but the murmur of massed bands, and imagined rather than witnessed the marshalling of men. The main grand stand has held greater numbers on an ordinary Fair day. The second and cheaper stand was severely disregarded. As if in anticipation of the review conditions, holidaying Toronto lined the route of the royal parade to the park, and sought in a glimpse of the Duke and Duchess solace for all that they knew they would fail to see at the review.

The Arrival of the Duchess.

The band of the 19th Regiment, St. Catharines, under the leadership of William Peel, was posted immediately to the right of the Duchess' stand, in the place of honor, and squads of mounted police and cavalry were drawn up on the right of the band. When the Duchess arrived in the state coach, the 19th band played a strain of "God Save the King," and the military guard presented arms. Accompanying the Duchess was Lady Minto. Her Royal Highness was greeted on the stand by the ladies who had preceded her and Mayor Howland, mounting the carpeted stairway, shook hands with her. For several minutes she remained standing, conversing with those around her, and taking in the scene before her. She was attired in sombre black, relieved by a bouquet of orchids at the breast.

"Here Comes the Duke."

The Royal Standard, fluttering from the top of the flagpole at the reviewing point, announced to the waiting multitude that the Duke was coming. He galloped into the grounds from the Dufferin-street entrance, accompanied by his gaily-uniformed staff, and the band of honor struck up the National Anthem just as he reached the stand. He wore the uniform of the Dublin Fusiliers, of which regiment he is an honorary colonel. The uniform consisted of a scarlet tunic, with a guardsman's busby, and, over the left shoulder, he wore the insignia of the Order of the Garter. On his arm was a mourning band.

Inspecting the Line.

After a wait of a few minutes, the Duke rode out to inspect the line. He was accompanied by his staff. Lord Minto and General O'Grady-Haly, in the scarlet uniform of the Guards, on his right, and the Duke of Roxburghe, in a glittering steel helmet and cuirass of the Life Guards, and others on his left and following him. He passed from around the left flank, and came up by the rear. The massed bands played the beautiful French-Canadian national air "O, Canada" as he went along the line at a slow pace. As the Duke passed each regiment he was saluted by the officers and the colors lowered.

"Oiling Up."

Just a little oil on the engine at the right time may mean the difference between life and death to the passengers and crew. What oil is to the friction of the delicate parts of the engine, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is to the delicate organs of the body. It eases their labor, prevents the loss of power and waste of energy caused by friction. Many a man who was all run down, whose limbs ached when he walked, whose back ached when he laid down, who breathed with difficulty, and coughed constantly, has been perfectly cured by the use of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It purifies the blood, strengthens the stomach and heals weak lungs.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," nor any medicine called "just as good" by the dealer.

Mr. Chas. Henwick, of Leroy, Macomb Co., Mich., writes: "I have never felt better in my life than I do now. I have taken Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery right along. I can now walk quite well with a cane, and hope to throw even that away before long, and as I have had to use crutches for nearly two years, I think I am doing fine. I do not cough now and I can sleep like a school boy. You must know that I have been treated in two hospitals and by three doctors besides, and received no benefit so I think your medicine the only medicine for me."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser in paper cover, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of customs and mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

When this duty was performed, His Royal Highness returned to the stand and dismounted to personally present the medals to the South African veterans, colors to the Royal Canadian Dragoons and Royal Canadian Infantry, and the Victoria Cross and sword to Capt. H. Z. Churchill Cockburn of the Body Guards.

Presents V.C. and Medals.

Capt. Cockburn was the first honored. He it was who led the Canadians who saved the guns at Kroomatipoort, and for this gallant act was granted the V. C. by a grateful sovereign. Capt. Cockburn saluted as he approached the Duke. The coveted trophy was pinned on his breast, the Duke shaking hands and speaking a few kind words to him as he did so.

Then Mayor Howland handed to the Duke the sword given by the city, and this was formally presented to Capt. Cockburn.

The March Past.

The Duke then remounted, and took up his position at the saluting post for the march past. The bands were massed in several divisions, and as each division passed the Duke the band played their regimental marches. For the first cavalry division the march was "Men of Harlesk," and for the artillery brigade the march was "O, Canada." The infantry divisions had many distinct marches, such as "Highland Laddie" for the 48th Highlanders, "Lincoln Post" for the Queen's Own Rifles, "Bonnie Dundee," "The Lincolnshire Poacher," "Here's to the Maiden," "Cock o' the North," "Garry Owen" and "The British Grenadiers" being some of the best.

Order of the Parade.

The order of the military review was as follows

Toronto Firemen Inspected.

Yesterday afternoon the reviewing of the Toronto firemen at work with their water tower, ariel ladder, and other apparatus on University avenue by the Duke and Duchess proved most enjoyable and spectacular. There were 150 men and 24 appliances participating in the display. The men wore their review uniform, red shirts and new helmets. The chief and deputy chief were presented to Their Royal Highnesses, who expressed much pleasure and interest in the display.

Planted a Tree.

At a point just north of the Ridgeway monument in Queen's Park His Royal Highness alighted from his carriage for a few minutes and performed the ceremony of planting a maple tree, and then the royal party drove to the University.

AT THE UNIVERSITY.

The Degree of LL.D. Conferred on the Duke by the Chancellor, Sir William Ralph Meredith.

The ceremony of conferring the degree of LL.D. upon the Duke of Cornwall by the University of Toronto was, as may have been expected, of a purely academic character, and quite without the gorgeous display which is usually associated with a royal function.

Ticket-holders for this function, which was fixed for 4 o'clock, began to arrive between two and three o'clock, and soon the hall was filled.

It was twenty minutes after four o'clock when loud cheers were heard, announcing the approach of Their Royal Highnesses. The band crashed out the National Anthem, and five minutes later the royal guests, accompanied by members of their suite, Their Excellencies, the Premiers of Canada and Ontario, members of the Provincial Cabinet and the University Senate, filed into Convocation Hall.

Received By Chancellor.

They were received at the entrance to the college by the Chancellor, Sir William Meredith, Vice-Chancellor Justice Moss and President Loudon, to the welcoming plaudits of hundreds of students and the general public assembled outside the building.

Just inside the pillars at the entrance Her Royal Highness was presented with a large bouquet of York (white) roses by Miss Houston of Chatham, a graduate in arts of University College, who gracefully performed an act on behalf of the lady graduates and undergraduates. Through the avenue of female grace and beauty they passed to Convocation Hall, preceded by the senior and junior esquire beadles, Messrs. C. A. Moss and Eric Armour, B. A.

The procession entered in the following order, two by two: Capt. Bell and Capt. Graham, Major Denison and Major Maude, Sir John Anderson and Miss Grenfell, Hon. Derek Keppel and Mrs. Maude, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Lady Mary Lygon, Lord Wenlock and Miss Mowat, Prof. Ramsay Wright and Her Excellency the Countess of Minto, President Loudon and Lord Minto, Vice-Chancellor Moss and Her Royal Highness, Chancellor Meredith and His Royal Highness. The exit from the hall after the ceremony was made in reverse order.

A Distinguished Company.

Two large chairs were provided on the dais, and these were occupied by Sir William Meredith, as chairman, who had on his right the Duke and Duchess and on his left Lord and Lady Minto. The remainder of the distinguished company stood to the right and left of the platform.

What They Wore.

The Duke and Lord Minto were gowned in the red robes of an LL.D., while the Chancellor wore for the first time the handsome new robe lately presented by Dr. Hoskin, one of the University trustees.

The Duchess was gowned in black, and wore a bouquet of pink flowers on her breast. Lady Minto was gowned in a handsome cream colored costume, and likewise wore a bouquet of pink flowers on her breast.

The proceedings from start to finish lasted only fifteen minutes. They were opened by His Excellency, who presented the Duke to the Chancellor in the following words in Latin: "Most Honorable Chancellor and the whole of the University, I present to you this distinguished man, George, Duke of Cornwall and York, the son of our alumnus and beloved King, nurtured under the auspicious care of Victoria, our most excellent Queen and Empress, that he may have the degree of Doctor of Laws honoris causa."

The Degree Conferred.

The Chancellor's reply in conferring the degree was likewise in Latin. Sir William said: "Most illustrious Prince, I, by my own authority, and that of the whole University, admit you to the degree of Doctor of Laws, and I thus receive you (extending his hand), the hope of the Empire, into our body."

The scroll of parchment was then presented to the Duke, who retired from his place to sign the historic roll of the University. The presentation was the signal for three cheers, and the singing of "The Red, White and Blue" by the students in the gallery and below.

Very dignified and impressive the Chancellor appeared as he rose to read the address from the University to His Royal Highness.

The Duke's Reply.

Among other things in terse English, in reply, the Duke said:

"I deeply appreciate the high honor of a degree in your distinguished University, which you have just conferred upon me. At the same time, you have reminded me that the undergraduates' roll bears the name of my dear father, (Applause), and, I further notice, he has remained in that position for more than forty years. (Applause.)

A BRILLIANT RECEPTION.

Dazzling Throng of Statesmen, Judges, Stately Matrons and Fair Maids—3,000 in All Attend.

Queen's Park last night saw the social side of the ducal visit brought to a brilliant climax. For the nonce a portion of the ancient and storied Court of St. James was transferred from London to Toronto, and thousands flocked together to do homage to the heir to Britain's throne, and his royal spouse.

It had been announced that Their Royal Highnesses would hold a reception in the Parliament Buildings at 9 o'clock and long before that hour carriages began to stream from all points of the city to the common centre. As the arriving guests swung into Queen's Park they entered a fairyland of light. Chinese lanterns swung in hundreds along the great tree-planted avenues and the Legislative pile itself lifted its huge and brilliantly illuminated bulk against the sky.

This outward brightness was only a forerunner of the still more brilliant scene to be beheld within the building. The Union Jack was much in evidence and above the Speaker's chair was set the Royal Coat of Arms and the royal standard.

At the reception which began at ten minutes to 10 o'clock the Duke wore the dark blue uniform of an Admiral of the British Navy, and the Duchess was attired in a gown of black lisse. A diamond coronet adorned her head, and a diamond necklace her throat, and she wore the insignia of the Order of Victoria and Albert.

On reaching the throne the Duke and Duchess and the Earl and Countess took up a position on the lower step thereof. The reception then proceeded, a few of the most prominent men and women of the nation being admitted by a private doorway and presented first. Sir Wilfrid Laurier's courtly figure, clad in the resplendent Windsor uniform of a King's Privy Councillor, was the first to come down the brilliant double line of military officers. On reaching the dais an aide announced his name, the Premier bowed slightly, and the Duke of York warmly shook his hand. The Duchess received him in the same gracious manner, and the Earl and Countess also shook hands with the Premier. Lady Laurier accompanied him and then followed the Dominion and Provincial cabinet Ministers and their wives, the High Court judges and other notables, the royal party graciously shaking the hand of each person. Then the less distinguished visitors followed in an unending line.

For two hours and twenty minutes—from 9.50 p.m. till 12.10 a.m.—the crush outside the chamber doors continued, and the long line of guests filed before the royal and viceregal couples. The struggle at the entrance was at times terrific, and many women came near to the fainting point. But all fought it through to the bitter end, and until some 3,000 persons, aged Senators, dignified judges, Ministers of the Crown, stately matrons, fair maids and gallant officers had paid their respects at the foot of the dais.

As the long line filed past the Duke or Duchess occasionally spoke a pleasant word to those presented.

The function concluded, the royal procession reformed and passed out into the main corridor, the royal heir and his spouse bringing up the rear. As it moved away the brilliant throng in the gilded chamber enthusiastically sang "God Save the King" and wound up with three resounding cheers and a wild tiger for the "Duke and Duchess of York."

The reception was preceded by a royal banquet in the main corridor of the west wing of the Parliament Buildings, to which about 90 guests sat down.

At 1 o'clock this morning thousands of people were still lining University-avenue in the hope of again catching a sight of the royal party on their way to Government House.

Luncheon to Visiting Journalists.

Yesterday afternoon about 80 guests partook of a luncheon given jointly by the Canadian Press Association to the British and United States journalists accompanying the royal party.

The special guests were: J. E. Vincent of The London Times; E. F. Knight of The London Morning Post; Melton Prior, artist of The Illustrated London News; Mr. Maxwell of The London Standard; J. Watson of Reuter's News Agency; Martin Eagan of the Associated Press; Douglas Story of The New York Herald; W. Sauvelle of La Presse, Montreal, and W. Garveau of La Patrie.

Good Bye To-Day.

To-day Their Royal Highnesses bid farewell to the Queen City to continue their tour through Ontario. The royal train is scheduled to leave the Union Depot at 9 a. m. for Niagara Falls, where the party will remain over night, viewing the scenery around the cataract.

Kruger Strangely Congratulated.

Hilversum, the Netherlands, Oct. 12.—Mr. Kruger was the recipient yesterday of many gifts and addresses, upon the occasion of the second anniversary of the declaration of war in South Africa. Among his visitors were the Burgomaster of Hilversum and other officials.

No Argument Needed.

EVERY SUFFERER FROM CATARRH KNOWS THAT SALVES, LOTIONS, WASHES, SPRAYS AND DOUCHES DO NOT CURE.

Powders, lotions, salves, sprays and inhalers cannot really cure Catarrh, because this disease is a blood disease, and local applications, if they accomplish anything at all, simply give transient relief.

The catarrhal poison is in the blood and the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and trachea tries to relieve the system by secreting large quantities of mucous, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils dropping into the throat, causing deafness by closing the Eustachian tubes, and after a time causing catarrh of stomach or serious throat and lung troubles.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal remedy which will cleanse the blood from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion from the mucous membrane.

The best and most modern remedies for this purpose are antiseptics, scientifically known as Eucalyptol, Guaiacol, Sanguinaria and Dydrastin, and while each of these have been successfully used separately, yet it has been difficult to get them all combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

The manufacturers of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, have succeeded admirably in accomplishing this result. They are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, to be dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane of the throat, and finally the stomach.

Unlike many catarrh remedies Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, opiate or any injurious drug whatever, and are equally beneficial for little children and adults.

Mr. C. R. Rembrandt, of Rochester, N.Y., says: "I know of a few people who have suffered as much as I from catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I used sprays, inhalers, and powders for months at a time with only slight relief, and had no hope of cure. I had not the means to make a change of climate, which seemed my only chance of cure.

"Last spring I read an account of some remarkable cures made by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and promptly bought a fifty cent box from my druggist, and obtained such positive benefit from that one package that I continued to use them daily until I now consider myself entirely free from the disgusting annoyance of catarrh; my head is clear, my digestion all I could ask and my hearing, which had begun to fail as a result of the catarrh, has greatly improved until I feel I can hear as well as ever. They are a household necessity in my family."

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents for complete treatment, and for convenience, safety and prompt results they are undoubtedly the long looked for catarrh cure.

THE LESSON OF HEALTH

IS ONE TAUGHT US BY THE EXPERIENCE OF OTHERS.

Learn This Lesson Well and the Ravages of Disease Will No Longer be so Prevalent—The Story of One Who has Been Benefited and Who Offers Her Experience to Aid Others.

From L'Sorelois, Sorel, Que.

Among the multitudes of ailments that afflict humanity there are few that cause more acute misery than indigestion or dyspepsia, as it is variously called. Both young and old are susceptible to its attacks, and its victims throughout the country are numbered by tens of thousands. Among the disagreeable symptoms which accompany dyspepsia and make it easily recognizable, are weight, uneasiness and a heavy feeling in the stomach after eating, a feeling of weariness, sick headache and dizziness, pains in the stomach, offensive breath, irritability, etc. Ordinary medicines will not cure dyspepsia. They may relieve its symptoms temporarily, but the trouble always returns and each time in an intensified form. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the only medicine which will thoroughly and effectively cure dyspepsia. These pills act not merely upon the symptoms, but on the disease itself through the blood, hence through the stomach, which is strengthened and restored to its normal functions.

Mrs. Alp. Lumier, a lady well known in Sorel, Que., is one of the many who have been released from the clutches of dyspepsia through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and in the hope that her experience will be of benefit to some other sufferer she gives the following story for publication: "For over two years I was a sufferer from dyspepsia or bad digestion. The disease became chronic and I was an almost continual sufferer from headaches, heartburn and heart palpitation. All sense of taste left me and at times my stomach was so weak that I was unable to keep my food on it, and this caused me more distress than one could imagine. Although I tried several remedies, none of them gave me any relief, and I began to regard my life as a burden, rather than a joy as it should be. One day while reading I came across a case similar to my own, cured through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, so in the hope that I would receive similar benefit I decided to give the pills a trial. I had not taken the pills long before I could see that my hopes for recovery were being realized. By the time I had taken half a dozen boxes all symptoms of the trouble had disappeared and I was able to enjoy life as I did before being seized with the malady. I have no hesitation in saying that I think that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the best known cure for dyspepsia, and I would strongly advise all sufferers to give them a trial."

The old adage "experience is the best teacher" might well be applied in cases of dyspepsia, and if sufferers would only be guided by the experience of those who have suffered but are now well and happy through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, there would be less distress throughout the land. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be had at all dealers in medicine or by mail, post paid, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by addressing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CRYING BABIES.

Babies never cry unless there is some very good reason for it. The cry of a baby is nature's warning signal that there is something wrong. Every mother ought to get to work immediately to find out what that something wrong may be. If the fretfulness and irritation are not caused by exterior sources, it is conclusive evidence that the crying baby is ill. The only safe and judicious thing to do is to administer Baby's Own Tablets without the slightest delay.

For indigestion, sleeplessness, the irritation accompanying the cutting of teeth, diarrhoea, constipation, colic, and simple fevers, these marvellous little tablets have given relief in thousands of cases and saved many precious baby lives. Do not give a child so-called "soothing" medicines; such only stupify and produce unnatural sleep. Baby's Own Tablets are guaranteed to contain no opiate or other harmless drugs; they promote sound, healthy sleep because they go directly to the root of baby troubles. Dissolved in water, these tablets can be given to the youngest infant. Mrs. Walter Brown, Milby, Que., says:—"I have never used any medicine for baby that did as much good as Baby's Own Tablets. I would not be without them."

Baby's Own Tablets are for sale at all drug stores, or will be sent direct on receipt of price (25 cents a box) by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SETON-THOMPSON'S ARREST

With Famous Guide Charged With Violations of Game Laws.

Denver, Col., Oct. 12.—Ernest Seton-Thomson, the author of works on wild animals, and John Goff, the guide and hunter, who piloted President Roosevelt through the mountains last winter, have been arrested by State game wardens for alleged violation of the game laws.

The charges are that Seton-Thomson and Goff chased deer with dogs and that they baited traps for mountain lions with venison. The wardens allege that they have ample proof for conviction on both charges and promise to make revelations when the cases come to trial.

Seton-Thomson and Goff have been hunting in Routt County for several weeks. They say that they have not been killing game, much less violating the law, as alleged, and say that the only deer killed was one which Mrs. Seton-Thomson shot to secure an unusually fine specimen of antlers.

NOT FAIR COMMENT.

Mr. (W. L. Walsh, barrister, of Dawson, Y.T., told a representative of The Toronto News that matters were going along smoothly at Dawson. "Governor Ross is giving entire satisfaction. He is proving himself a man of excellent executive ability." We have no doubt that this is true, but whether the Conservative journals will continue to give credit to Governor Ross is another matter. Mr. Ogilvie was generally praised by the same journals until it was supposed that a political purpose would be served by abusing him.—Toronto Globe.

Is it unfair to infer that the Globe in this instance, as in most others, is judging others by itself?

It is quite true that when Mr. Ogilvie received the appointment of Governor of the Yukon Territory the Conservative press spoke approvingly of the selection made, believing that his experience as an explorer and surveyor in that part of the country would enable him to govern wisely and well, and not until he had proved himself an utter failure as an administrator did the Conservative press denounce him and the Government for continuing him there. Unlike the Globe and its echoists, the Conservative press and party "speak and judge of a man as they find him," and not support and defend him, no matter what his defects are simply because he is or was an appointee of the party.

We have it upon the best authority that not a single word of approval of Mr. Ogilvie's administrative ability can be heard in the whole Yukon Territory—unless it might possibly be by some one whom he had unfairly favored—probably from a mistaken view of his duty.

Not so has been the treatment meted out to Mr. Ross. When first selected for the position Mr. Ross was spoken of by the Conservative press as an uncompromising politician who would, it was feared, carry his political likes and dislikes unfairly into his management of the business of the Territory. But just so soon as it was found that he brought a practical mind to guide and govern his administration of the affairs of that portion of the Dominion, the Conservatives acknowledged the fact, and hesitated not, as in the case of Mr. Walsh, who is a Tory of the Tories, to speak of him, as they have found him. It is to be regretted that the Globe and the partisans for whom it speaks is not as honest when dealing with and discussing public men and public questions.

Millions USE Cuticura Soap

Assisted by Cuticura Ointment, the Great Skin Cure, for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, for baby rashes, itchings, and chafings, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Millions of Women use CUTICURA SOAP in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations and irritations, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, for many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, especially mothers. No amount of persuasion can induce those who have once used these great skin purifiers and beautifiers to use any others. CUTICURA SOAP combines delicate emollient properties derived from Cuticura Ointment, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleansing ingredients, and the most refreshing of flower odours. No other medicated soap is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. No other foreign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines in ONE soap at ONE PRICE, the BEST skin and complexion soap, the BEST toilet and baby soap in the world.

Complete Treatment for every Humour. CUTICURA SOAP, to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle, CUTICURA OINTMENT, to instantly allay itching, inflammation, and irritation, and soothe and heal, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, to cool and cleanse the blood. Speaking of children's ardent desire to show their enthusiasm for anything by making a noise, a funny little incident is told. A sturdy youngster of 8 or 9 summers who is visiting his grandmother in a town not a thousand miles from Belleville, has heard a great deal lately about the tour of the Royal party and has apparently been much impressed by the amount of cheering done. A few evenings ago he calmly announced that he would like to have the large kitchen to himself for a while and proceeded to close all doors and windows. Presently there came dimly to listening ears the sound of determined steps; then, in stentorian tones the call "Three cheers for the Duke and Duke-ess!" And if the Royal pair could have heard the war-whoop that followed! Fearful that some Indians had invaded her peaceful domain the good lady hastened down and beheld the little chap, decorated with yards of cut paper, flourishing a whip with paper flag, and shouting at the top of his lungs, "Three cheers for the Duke and Duke-ess."

One of Florence's Jokes.

That genial comedian W. J. Florence had a habit of promising a man a fish or some game when he was about starting on a hunting or fishing trip. Day after day would pass, and the game would not be forthcoming. But almost every day a letter or telegram would come saying that Florence had not forgotten; that Florence was just about sending the game; that there was no cause for worry, as a fine fish or deer was on its way to the express office. At first this solicitousness would cause courteous letters and telegrams in return. As the delay got longer the victim would get impatient and would finally be literally haunted by huge fishes or deer, "with the compliments of W. J. Florence." Then some fine day, when it was least expected, the fish or deer would come.

Are Willow Trees Lightning Proof?

"In all my forty years' experience with trees and plants," said a well known gardener, "I have yet to hear of a willow tree being struck by lightning. Spruce trees, whitewood and pine trees sometimes almost seem to attract the electricity, and oak and other large trees and even many small trees are often maimed and killed. But willow trees seem for some reason to be immune to death or injury in this shape, and I have never seen or even heard of a tree of this family which lightning has ever struck."

Successful and Pleasing Work When the Diamond Dyes are Use.

DO YOU WISH TO SEE THE DIAMOND DYE MAT AND RUG PATTERNS?

The mothers, wives and daughters of Canada who buy fully eighty-five per cent. of all goods consumed in the home, should be extremely careful when they purchase dyes for home dyeing. Some dealers for the sake of large profits are selling poor imitations of the Diamond Dyes, under other names, assuring their customers they are as good as the genuine Diamond Dyes. This low form of deception should be watched by all. In every case insist upon getting the genuine Diamond Dyes; the name appears on each package. If you would like to see the newest designs for mats and floor rugs, send your address to The Wells & Richardson Co., Limited, Montreal, and they will send you free by mail sheets of the "Diamond Dye Mat and Rug Patterns."

"Just a little bit off the top"

So saith the Customs Officer to the United States Shoe.

"Cut away a yard or two of value, before you cross our border!"

Canadians who buy United States Shoes, merely because they are not made in Canada, are thus fined 25% for their lack of perception and patriotism.

The Canadian made "Slater Shoe" is sold in Newfoundland, Bermuda, England and France, in even competition with United States Shoes.

It is sold in Canada, at 25% less than any United States Shoes can be imported.

Note and investigate these prices:

Horse and Buggy Gone

Mr. Thos. Farrell, who resides in the 4th concession of Sidney, is afraid that he is minus a horse and buggy. Yesterday he allowed a young man named Thomas Larabey, who was working for him, to have the outfit, upon the understanding that he was to return last evening. Up to the hour of noon to-day no tidings of the young man and outfit had been heard of. The police are investigating the affair.

THE ROYAL MONTH AND THE ROYAL DISEASE.

Sudden changes of weather are especially trying, and probably to none more so than to the scrofulous and consumptive. The progress of scrofula during a normal October is commonly great. We never think of scrofula—its bunches, cutaneous eruptions, and wasting of the bodily substance—without thinking of the great good many sufferers from it have derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla, whose radical and permanent cures of this one disease are enough to make it the most famous medicine in the world. There is probably not a city or town where Hood's Sarsaparilla has not proved its merit in more homes than one, in arresting and completely eradicating scrofula, which is almost as serious and as much to be feared as its near relative—consumption.

A KNOCK OUT FOR ASTHMA.

You have had many disappointments, filled your stomach with nasty drugs, tried lots of things, but they all failed. Not being a stomach complaint, of course Asthma can't be cured by stomach medicine. But Catarrhozone cures Asthma; it gives it a tired feeling in about fifteen minutes. Inhale Catarrhozone; it makes breathing easy, cures the cough, makes you well. Doctors say there is nothing like Catarrhozone for Asthma. 25 cents and $1.00.

A GENTLE HINT.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Regular size, 75 cts. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at R. Templeton & Co.'s.

When you hear of a fellow being all broken up over a girl you are inclined to enquire how long it took her to break him.

GRACE, STYLE AND FINISH.

You will find that in Grace, Style and Finish, Quick & Robertson's will compare with the productions of the best class of merchant tailors at prices a third to a half less. Each garment is designed with a view to its shape. It will stay in shape on the wearer. No undue drag on the working parts of the garment, each pocket is stayed, collars are properly cut, sleeves and shoulders have the right "set." Design without good cloths is wasted. Every garment is properly and honestly lined with good linings. No shoddy cloths are used.

Quick & Robertson's For Fine Clothes.

There's no use disputing the fact that this store stands pre-eminent in this city as the store for Men's Fine Clothes.

With our large and pleasing varieties, up-to-date style, and good making we've won the trade of every man, and especially the trade of those men who are particular about the Clothes they wear.

And why shouldn't we? You can't find a store that has, ready made, such exclusive styles in suitings and overcoatings as we are showing, and every one of them is from the best Canadian and English mills.

Then, too every garment is built to come up to our high standard—built by the best makers who know how and do give close attention to important parts of tailoring—such as adjusting the collars, shaping the shoulders, proper placing the sleeves and stays and making the button holes.

Clothes made this way never lose their shape and by so doing we have overcome that appearance which marks clothes as being ready-made.

The prices for such goodness you'd expect to be high—but they are not—are no more than you would pay for ordinary sorts elsewhere.

SLIGHTLY DISFIGURED BUT STILL IN THE RING

The Gallant Fifteenth Got Back From the Royal Review at 9 This Morning.

Transportation Facilities Very Poor—Regiment Well Spoken of by Everybody.

Slightly disfigured, but still in the ring, the boys of the Old Fifteenth detrained at the Market Square at 9 o'clock this morning, after being five and a half hours on the train, which they waited for, under arms, for three hours. Judging by the experience of the local regiment, the services of a Kitchener are needed to reorganize the transport service of Canada.

Well, sir, we had a great day yesterday. Following Thursday's long march the boys were not in the best of trim when they arose from their downy couches yesterday morning. Some had trouble in getting on their boots—one poor lad struggled with his for twenty minutes by the watch—but they got them on, and in a few minutes, of course, they were all right. Orders were given for a parade at 10 o'clock, and the boys were taking things leisurely, when suddenly somebody shouted "The Sergeant-Major wants the Fifteenth's markers right away," and everybody rushed for his accoutrements. The Regiment fell in at 9 o'clock, and with the others at once started for the big field in front of the grand stand. There we waited about an hour and a half for the Royal party, and then another three-quarters of an hour while the S. A. medals were being presented. The march past came off in just about the same form as at the rehearsal on Thursday, and the Fifteenth performed quite as well. There were several shouts of "Well done, Belleville!" to gladden the hearts of the boys as they went by the grand stand, and upon my word as a file closer I can swear that they deserved it. You would think the honor of the city and regiment rested on the shoulders of each individual Tommy by the way they stepped out with the real old jaunty swing.

After the march past the regiments all headed for their quarters—but did they get there? Nay, nay, Pauline! The cavalry and artillery fell out, but the faces of the infantry were turned in the direction of Parkdale, thence to the city, and we had a nice little eight mile march to give us an appetite for the dinner we got at 4 o'clock. The route was lined by crowds, who jollied the Tommies, and got paid back with interest. People ran up and asked the boys where the regiment was from, and many favorable comments were heard on the clean and soldierly appearance of the men. One pleasant-faced old lady stood on the curb patting the boys on the shoulder as they went by. It was all very pleasant and inspiriting, and made the boys forget their feet and the cobblestones.

The Fifteenth arrived back on their parade ground at 3:30, and were then given the pleasing information that twenty men from each Company were to parade at half-past five and march to Government House to form a guard of honor for the Royal party. This seemed something like the celebrated last straw, but when the assembly sounded at 5:30 the bulk of the Regiment was on the parade ground, and a few minutes later, in command of Major Pope, the men swung out along the road as though they were good for many a long mile yet. The Regiment formed a semicircle around the entrance to Government House, and after the function was over marched back to quarters, receiving many warm encomiums and liberal applause from the spectators along the streets.

The order to parade for departure was given about 11 o'clock, and about half-past 11 we started for the siding at the gates of the Exhibition Grounds, and that was as far as we got till 3 o'clock, when we entrained. The long wait was enlivened by the antics of Brigadier Jimmy St. Charles, who was the comedian of the Regiment, and marched his improvised brigade round in a style which made the spectators roar with laughter. At 3:30 the "lightning express" pulled out, and, after many rests, the train reached the market square at just five minutes to 9 this morning. The Regiment detrained and paraded on the road to the south of the market square, and ten minutes later, tired but happy, the men marched down to Front and up to the Drill Hall, to the enlivening strains of "The Campbells are Coming." Sure enough, it was a jolly home-coming. At the Post Office a small crowd had gathered to welcome the boys, and led by Col. Ponton and that irrepressible old veteran, Mr. William Johnson, they gave them three hearty cheers.

And that was the home-coming of the old Fifteenth, who returned to their native city, covered with mud and glory!

At the Drill Shed the Regiment was formed into quarter column, Col. Halliwell making a short speech. He hadn't much voice left, he said, but he wanted to thank them and assure them that he was proud of them, both individually and as a Regiment. He would not say any more to them on that point. He had been asked to have the Regiment parade at 8 o'clock on Tuesday morning next, to act as a guard of honor to Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of York, but after the hard work they had gone through in the last few days he did not feel justified in ordering them out. However, he hoped they would turn out, and he left the matter in the hands of the Company commanders. If they would turn out in the same style as they turned out for the Guard of Honor on Friday night they would make him even a prouder man than he was at present.

Col. Ponton also spoke a few words to his old Regiment. He need not tell them, he said, that he was proud of them. They had done honor to themselves and the city, and the people from Belleville who had sat in the stand and saw them go swinging by never felt prouder of the Old Fifteenth than they did then. He urged them to give their loyal support to their new Commanding Officer, Major Halliwell, who would, he was sure, help the Regiment to attain even greater efficiency.

The men were then dismissed and marched to their respective orderly rooms, where hearty cheers were given for the different Company commanders.

NOTES OF THE TRIP.

The N.C.O.'s and men messed at a restaurant on the Exhibition grounds. The first day's "grub" was rather indifferent, but for the second and third day the food was as good as anybody could desire.

The Toronto water went rather hard with some of the men.

Sergt. Wm. Doyle, of D Company, was knocked out yesterday, and the services of the stretcher bearers were requisitioned. He is improving nicely.

Some of the boys thought that, next to Major Maude, the girls with rosettes and swagger sticks were the cutest things on the Exhibition grounds.

Talk about your Maori's or South Sea Islanders, but the fiercest bunch anybody ever ran up against was the band of the Forty-Second, which for two days followed the Fifteenth in the parade. This unequalled aggregation of musicians had one march in its repertoire, and deliberately ground it out hour after hour for two days. In a moment of desperation they did start to play another tune, but the Commanding Officer gave them to understand that the Regiment were fixing bayonets and he wouldn't be responsible for the consequences. So they stopped and fell back on the old tune.

Thanks to the Mail and Empire for this little compliment. Speaking of the march past it said to-day: "The 15th Argyle Light Infantry followed, under Lieut.-Col. Halliwell. The boys from Belleville were not strong numerically, but their bearing was admirable."

Jimmy St. Charles says if he turns out next year it will be with the bicycle corps.

The Fifteenth's officers are a popular lot of gentlemen.

The boys enjoyed it all right, but they wouldn't care to start on another like it this month, or possibly next.

Bugle Major McManus, of the Fifteenth, had the honor of leading the massed bands of the brigade in which the local regiment was placed.

Now its up to the boys to have a good turn-out on Tuesday morning, and help Belleville to do that reception up in style. Fall in, Fifteenth.

DEMONSTRATION NOTES

PROBABILITIES ARE THAT BELLEVILLE'S WELCOME TO ROYAL VISITORS WILL BE MOST SUCCESSFUL.

Col. Harrison, of Ottawa, is very anxious that the 49th Regiment should be represented at the demonstration here on Tuesday morning. Every effort will be made to have at least one company present.

At the close of the concert in Bridge St. Church last night some 200 members of the various choirs of the city churches had a rehearsal for half an hour and practised the pieces it is intended to sing on Tuesday next when the Royal party visits the city. They will meet again on Monday night at the City Hall.

On Monday at 3:30 p.m., the children of all the schools, including the Separate, and the students of the three colleges, will meet on the Central school grounds for a rehearsal.

In reference to the special train conveying His Excellency the Governor-General, Sir Wilfrid Laurier and other distinguished gentlemen, it will back down to the station at 8.45 and remain here for fifteen minutes. It will precede the Royal train eastward half an hour.

OBITUARY.

LIDDELL.

One of Thurlow's oldest residents died at an early hour this morning, when Mr. Andrew Liddell passed away. Death was the result of a stroke on Tuesday. Mr. Liddell, who was in his eighty-sixth year, was born near the farm on which he died and where nearly the whole of his life was spent. It was a quiet, uneventful life, the most stirring episode of which was the time spent under arms in this vicinity during the rebellion of 1837-38. Mr. Little is survived by three sons and four daughters, Robert in Michigan, John and Mrs. Beatrice Osland, of Garden Hill, Mrs. Catherine Liddell, of Owen Sound, Mrs. F. McKenzie, of Plainfield, Mrs. Keirl, of Thurlow, and Charles at home. His wife, one son and one daughter died several years ago. He was a Methodist and a Conservative, and a large circle of friends and relatives will feel that they have indeed lost a friend in whom they could place every confidence and who was worthy of their most sincere esteem.

BURNED TO DEATH AT FOURSCORE

Terrible Calamity Befel Mrs. Catherine Nelson, Late of This City, Last Evening.

Was Carrying a Lighted Lamp and Fell in a Faint, the Lamp Smashing

A most distressing calamity, and one which proved to be fatal, befel Mrs. Catharine M. Nelson last evening. The unfortunate victim, who was upwards of 80 years of age, has for many years resided alone, living in a part of one of her houses on the west side of Coleman street, just north of the Windsor Hotel.

At about 7.30 Messrs. M. Sine, J. Lafferty and others who were in the former's livery stable nearly opposite, heard groans proceeding from the house. They hurried across the street and peering into the window saw fire. They attempted to gain an entrance by way of the front door, but it was locked. This did not, however, debar them from gaining an entrance, as they burst open the door. As they entered the house the vision which met their eyes was one which they will long remember. In the passage way between the front room and the kitchen upon the floor lay the prostrate form of Mrs. Nelson, her clothing being enveloped in flames. Mr. H. Geary, who lives in the adjoining part of the house, was also on the scene and with commendable presence of mind he seized a quilt and threw it over the unfortunate woman and in this manner subdued the flames. She was moved tenderly from the spot where she lay to the front room, and as quickly as possible a physician was sent for.

In the meantime an alarm of fire had been sounded and the brigade was quickly upon the scene. Their services were, however, not required. The flames, which had become communicated to the carpet where the unfortunate woman lay, were extinguished with a few pails of water.

Upon the arrival of Dr. Dolan, who was called in, he ordered the woman to be removed to the hospital and the ambulance was called out to take her to that institution. When taken there and the burnt clothing removed, it was seen that she was terribly injured. The right arm was burned nearly to a crisp and the chest and right side were also badly charred. She had inhaled considerable heat and smoke. Her condition and the shock were such that it was found, owing to her advanced years, that the injuries would prove fatal. Such proved to be the case. At a few minutes before six o'clock this morning she entered upon that long sleep which knows no waking. From the hour of her admission to the hospital until death relieved her sufferings Mrs. Nelson did not entirely lose consciousness.

How the lamentable affair occurred was evident upon examination of the spot where she was found. Scattered about the floor were pieces of a lamp and the unbroken chimney. She had evidently been out in the kitchen carrying the lighted lamp and was proceeding to the front room when she fell, and the blaze ignited her clothing.

It is surmised that Mrs. Nelson was seized with a fainting spell, which caused her to fall. The supposition is strengthened by the fact that some three weeks ago she was found in a faint upon the floor, but soon recovered.

Mrs. Nelson, whose maiden name was Walsh, was born in Ireland some 85 years ago. For upwards of 60 years she has been a resident of this city. Her husband Theophilus Nelson, preceded her to the tomb many years ago. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. James E. Hardy, who resides in Chicago. Mr. Thos. Walsh, who lives in the city, is a brother of the deceased. Mrs. Nelson was a woman who was well-known in the city. She was a member of St. Michael's Church.

A MUSICAL TREAT.

Of the many Scottish vocalists who have charmed the public none has made a greater impression than Miss Jessie McLachlan, one of the foremost vocalists on the concert stage to-day. Miss McLachlan sang, by special invitation before Queen Victoria at Balmoral. She will appear in a concert here on November 5th, under the auspices of Camp Rob Roy, S.O.S. In addition Mr. Geo. Fax will sing and there will be a splendid programme of Scotch music, dancing, etc.

W. C. T. U.

The business of the annual meeting of this Society was completed at the regular meeting held yesterday; Mrs. John Lewis, president, in the chair. Reports of the Fruit and Flower Mission, and of the work for the lumber camps were most satisfactory. Mrs. Howe was appointed organist, and Mrs. Dulmage was elected delegate to the Provincial convention to be held in Stratford this month.

Bridge Street Choir Concert

LARGE ATTENDANCE AND SPLENDID PROGRAMME LAST NIGHT

That prince of vocalists, Mr. Harold Jarvis, certainly has the music-loving people of Belleville at his feet. No singer who has appeared in this city for many years has made the impression created by this handsome Canadian, as was amply evidenced last night, when the auditorium of Bridge St. Church was filled to hear Mr. Jarvis and the talented ladies and gentlemen who assisted him. The programme was furnished by the following artists: Mr. Harold Jarvis, Miss Marie Wheler, Miss Gertrude Trotter and the Bridge St. choir. Mr. Jarvis is quite as much at home in sacred as in secular music. He sang a recitative and aria from "Samson" in a style nothing short of grand, and "The Children's Home" was something those who heard it will never forget. There is no exaggeration in saying that everybody was delighted when they heard that the great vocalist was going to sing, by request, "The Death of Nelson," in which he thoroughly thrilled his audience.

Miss Marie Wheler, Bridge Street's talented soprano, was in excellent voice, and made a most favorable impression. A pure voice, good enunciation well-nigh faultless method, and over it all the gloss and finish of an artist—that's Miss Wheler. She went up to what must have been high C last night, and her notes were as clear and sweet as a bell. Somehow or another, though, the duet between Miss Wheler and Mr. Jarvis fell rather flat.

Miss Gertrude Trotter, in her readings, was excellent, both in humorous and pathetic passages. Her rendition of "Hagar" was thrilling.

The choir, truth to tell, was not quite up to its usual concert form. Those who heard them sing when the Sherlock Male Quartette appeared could not help noticing a difference last night. There was a lack of balance, which rather marred the work of a really good musical organization. They, however, gave a splendid rendition of Sullivan's "O, Gladsome Light."

Mr. Hunt played the accompaniments with his usual good taste, once or twice, perhaps, letting out a trifle too much volume, but that's a matter of taste. His solo, Rossini's overture to "William Tell," was grandly played.

Taken altogether, the concert was an unqualified success, and adds another to Prof. Hunt's long list of favors to Belleville's music lovers.

SILVERWARE STOLEN

ALD. DOYLE'S RESIDENCE THE SCENE OF BURGLARIOUS OPERATIONS.

Some time between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock this morning Ald. Doyle's residence, on Alexander street, was entered by thieves who succeeded in carrying off some valuable booty. Ald. Doyle and wife were going away by the morning train and left their residence about four o'clock. After their departure the other members of the family who were at home retired, leaving the front door unlocked for another member of the family, who was away with the soldiers.

Entrance into the dwelling was gained by the thieves in this way. From off a sideboard in the dining-room a silver tea set was taken, consisting of a teapot, sugar bowl, milk pitcher and spoon holder. The cover of the sugar bowl was left. In addition a handsome gold and silver napkin ring was taken, upon which was engraved the name "Loretta Doyle." Although not definitely known, it is thought that some other articles were taken. One of the sons, Vincent, states that he saw a flash light in his room and heard a noise outside. He got up and looked out of the window, but could see nothing and all was quiet. The robbery was not discovered until the children arose this morning.

The matter has been placed in the hands of the police, who are making every effort to catch the thief.

The B. B. C., Limited

This week, The Belleville Business College, Limited, enters upon her thirteenth year of successful work in the education and training of young men and women for business. During these twelve years, a large number of young men and women have been prepared and qualified at this excellent institution for the business positions being vacated day by day by those who retire from them, and for those created by the increasing volume of trade and commercial pursuits.

The year just closed has been the best year in many respects in its history, and the confidence placed in this College by the local business men is most gratifying, indeed.

During the year graduates of other Business Colleges have been supplied with office assistants by the Belleville Business College. This is due to the fact that these young men and women are not allowed to graduate until they are thoroughly prepared to enter upon and successfully carry out the practical work of Book-keepers and Stenographers and Telegraphers.

During the past few months of this year no less than eighteen of our graduates have entered employment in the Business and Legal Offices of this city ALONE, and the College Management feels justly proud of the kindly interest manifested by the business men of Belleville in the graduates of the College.

Since July, 1901, four young men have gone directly from the College to take important positions in Banking Houses in this province.

During the same months eight of the Telegraphing Class have entered the Railroad service. Those students of former years from the same Department in Railway work are in the same service and have received promotion.

During the year just closed our post-graduate, or advance classes, were attended by a number of students who had already graduated from other Business Colleges.

Parents, who have not fully decided for what business or profession their children should prepare, are respectfully asked to consider the large advantages of this Institution, the Courses of which are unsurpassed by those of any other Canadian College. d&w,19

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

Receipts of live stock amounted to 60 carloads, all told, composed of 829 cattle, 1568 hogs, 1287 sheep and lambs, with about 30 calves.

The bulk of fat cattle offered to-day were of the common to medium classes, which were slow of sale at easier prices.

Good to choice well-finished butchers' and exporters were scarce. Prices for these were firm.

There was a large number of light feeding steers, from 800 to 1000 lbs. each, of which several farmers got supplies at reasonable prices.

Over 1500 hogs were delivered. Prices were easy at $6.50 for selects and $6.25 for lights and fats. Prospects are for lower prices for next week. It looks as the $6.25 would be the best price for selects.

Death for Lotter.

Middleburg, Cape Colony, Oct. 11.—Sentence of death has been passed on Commandant Lotter, the Cape Colony rebel, whose commando, composed entirely of rebels, was captured by Major Scobell south of Petersburg early last month. Lord Kitchener has confirmed the sentence.

Five of Lotter's comrades have been sentenced to the penitentiary for life. One, a youth, has been sentenced to 20 strokes with the rod, to be followed by imprisonment until the close of the war.

THE QUICK PACE OF DECLINING HEALTH.

WASTED NERVES AND WEAKENED BODIES GIVE WAY TO SUFFERING AND DISEASE—THE ACTION OF

DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

There are hosts of people who are susceptible to attack of various kinds of illness. Their symptoms are ever ready to take on disease. They bend under the slightest trial, and their health is jeopardized by every trivial exposure. They lack resisting power, and health declines because there is no nerve force to make good the waste by disease.

At first slight weakness, stomach annoyance, headache, heart fluttering, trembling of the hands and limbs, restless sleep, indicate something is lacking—that something is nerve force. Until the stock of nerve force is replenished the pace of declining health will increase, until lost vitality is expressed in every move.

Pale, languid, nerve-shattered people find exactly what they require in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. It supplies the wants of wasted nerves, rebuilds the wasted cells, and renews the blood. Its wonderful cures are due to the fact that it restores natural nerve force, and it is lack of nerve force that causes most suffering these days. Brain, nerves, heart nerves, stomach nerves, give out, and all sorts of troubles follow.

Mrs. M. A. McCrea, Troy Hill, Ont., writes: "My system was all run down when I began to use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I was weak and very nervous, and felt so tired and worn out that I could scarcely drag myself about the house. It seemed impossible for me to get rest or sleep at night, and I felt that I was gradually growing weaker and more nervous and irritable. Since beginning the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I feel altogether different. It has gradually strengthened my nerves and built up my system wonderfully. I sleep well now, and am being thoroughly restored to health and strength. I believe it is the best medicine to be had for the nerves."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, six boxes for $5.00. At all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Beef Tea.

It is the suggestion of a trained nurse, whose beef tea was most acceptable to a patient to whom in any previous illness it had been repellent, that the beef should be broiled before the juice is extracted. A thick, lean, juicy steak from the round is broiled over a clear fire perhaps two minutes on each side, after which it is cut up into small squares, put into a saucepan, covered with cold water and set on the back of the stove, where it should steep, not boil, for fully two hours. Remember not to add the salt until the dish is taken from the fire and serve it hot unless, of course, it is to be offered as cold or iced beef tea.

A correspondent furnishes some curious instances of the apparent lack of highly developed powers of feeling pain in animals. He has, he says, seen a sparrow, shot flying, fall to the ground and in less than two minutes begin picking up grains that happened to be lying near it. On another occasion a tame rabbit was deprived by a spaniel of its tail, bone and all. It took not the slightest notice of its loss and began feeding again directly it returned to its hutch.

The Children Eagerly Look For Their Dish of

Malt Breakfast Food

Each Morning.

Happy and cheerful reports of the wonderful work that Malt Breakfast Food is doing for growing children come to the notice of the manufacturers every day. Many fathers and mothers declare that their little ones look more eagerly and anxiously for their dish of Malt Breakfast Food each morning than for anything else. All the children relish it and find it delicious and appetizing. Malt Breakfast Food is giving in every instance the happy results that careful parents look for—increase in flesh, purer blood brighter eyes and greater bodily strength. We strongly advise parents to adopt the use of Malt Breakfast Food if their children are not showing evidences of healthy growth. Grocers everywhere.

Joachim's Way.

Joachim is in the habit of interrupting his lessons in violin playing with pointed remarks, which show a lively sense of humor. One day a pupil, who was a native of Konigsberg, played the adagio from the ninth concerto of Spohr. Although he played it correctly, it was a dry performance and Joachim remarked, "My dear B——n, it is no disgrace to have been born in the 'city of pure reason,' but if I were you I would not show it in my playing."

To another pupil who had played the finale from a Mendelssohn concerto very stolidly and heavily he remarked, "I beg for the next lesson that the elves do not come to dance in riding boots." Another youth could not execute a figure that was ornamented with brilliant shakes to his satisfaction. In order to make the character of the passage clear to the pupil Joachim said, "That passage is meant for a garland with blossoms hanging on it—not potatoes."

The Real Dead Sea Fruit.

"Dead sea fruit" actually exists, and not in metaphor only. A recent traveler in the Sahara took a photograph in the desert within a few miles of the oasis of Biskra, and his picture shows a group of "dead sea fruit" or "apples of Sodom," as they are sometimes called. The fruit grows upon the ground on a straggling stalk and is about the size of an orange, golden colored, with bright green stripes, the skin being smooth like that of a melon. It is a strange irony of nature that the fruit which is so beautiful to look at should be a deadly poison. It is interesting to note that the camels which graze upon the aromatic shrubs discriminate between them and this fruit of most tempting appearance.

McMULLEN'S LONG "TERM"

Michael McMullen read in the newspapers of South American Kidney Cure, and when doctors tried hard and had failed to cure him, he, with the faith of a prophet commenced the use of this greatest of Kidney Specifics. In his own words: "Gravel and Kidney Disease had been the bane of my life for eight years. Thanks to South American Kidney Cure to-day I am a well man. I wish I could have every kidney sufferer within the sound of my voice for long enough to tell it." 30

The Schenk Sex Theory.

A Berlin dispatch to the London Post quotes Professor Schenk as saying in a lecture the other day that in his student days he kept silkworms, and, having little means to feed either himself or his pets, they often hungered. He was struck with the fact that the progeny of the worms were nearly all male. Carrying his investigations further, he came to the conclusion that diet exercised an enormous influence on the formation of the sex, which, he maintains, is predetermined in the egg. To influence sex, a dietary system must therefore be pursued for some months.

Going Into Photography.

Mrs. McKee Rankin has decided to quit the stage and devote herself to photography. After the close of the fall season, for which she has been engaged to support Sadie Martinot in "The Marriage Game," Mrs. Rankin will open a studio in New York. She has the care of two grandchildren and gives this as her main reason for retiring. Mrs. Rankin will make the third well known professional to go in for photography. Burr McIntosh is regularly engaged in the work, while Thomas Hadaway, formerly with Augustin Daly's company, has made a success of the picture business.

Nova Scotia's Burning Mine.

The coal shaft is about a thousand feet deep, and the seam is thirty feet thick. It has been on fire since 1880, and the problem of putting it out is no nearer a solution than it was twenty years ago. Water has been let in, but the fire is above the sea level, and the flooding has had no effect. After many futile efforts to extinguish the fire engineers began to direct their efforts toward devising plans for circumventing it and reaching the coal still intact. To that end all the workings and approaches leading to the fire were walled up, and new workings were driven lower down. But every plan so far devised has been a failure. The all conquering fire has broken through, and every new work has been reluctantly abandoned.—Toronto Globe.

Give Everybody a Chance.

Emerson's dictum that we should treat every one as if he were all he ought to be is an excellent rule to practice in daily life. It is human nature to rise to the level that is expected of it. It is not necessary to waste time upon uncongenial people unless you are bound to them by strong family ties, but it is important that all with whom you come in contact be studied, with the desire on your part to give credit for all that is good in them and that nothing in their outward circumstances or appearance be allowed to prejudice you against them.—Ada C. Sweet in Woman's Home Companion.

THE MORBID PRINCIPLE OF RHEUMATISM IS URIC ACID.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

DRIVES IT FROM THE BLOOD AND CURES THE DISEASE.

The Wonderful Medicine Does a Marvellous Work For Mr. G. J. McDonald, of Cornwall, Ont.

The ablest pathologists are of opinion that there is a morbid principle in the blood when rheumatism is present. This morbid principle is uric acid, which circulates with the blood and acts upon the joints and muscles, causing the pains and agonies of rheumatism.

Paine's Celery Compound is the only scientific remedy for the complete banishment of every form of rheumatism. If your joints are painful; if the knees, wrists, elbows or ankles are swollen, a few bottles of Paine's Celery Compound will surely remove all your troubles and pains. A 64 page book "Diseases of the Nervous System and How to Cure Them" is sent free to any address by The Wells & Richardson Co., Limited, Montreal. This book furnishes valuable diet lists for various diseases.

Mr. McDonald for the benefit of rheumatic sufferers writes as follows:

"After giving your Paine's Celery Compound a thorough testing, I am pleased to say a few words in its favor. For three years I suffered terribly from rheumatism. It seemed to me that I was forced to endure all the agonies and pains that a mortal could possibly experience from the dreadful disease.

"While suffering I tried many of the advertised medicines and also doctor's prescriptions, but never found a cure until I procured a supply of Paine's Celery Compound. It worked like a charm—it seemed to strike at the very root of my trouble. I am now cured; all pains are banished, and in every respect I am a new man.

"I shall always consider it a pleasure and duty to strongly recommend Paine's Celery Compound to all who are afflicted with rheumatism."

Heroic Treatment.

In a recent case of pneumonia in Brooklyn 8,500 gallons of oxygen gas was used, the sick man was packed in ice, an alcohol bath was given every 25 minutes, and four quarts of milk with three quarts of whisky were administered daily. The patient recovered.

Stevenson's Cup of Misery.

R. L. Stevenson, writing in 1893 to George Meredith, in an epistle quoted in a new edition of his "Letters," says, with heart touching pathos:

"For 14 years I have not had a day's real health. I have wakened sick and gone to bed weary, and I have done my work unflinchingly. I have written in bed and written out of it, written in hemorrhages, written in sickness, written torn by coughing, written when my head swam for weakness, and for so long, it seems to me, I have won my wager and recovered my glove. I am better now—have been, rightly speaking, since first I came to the Pacific—and still few are the days when I am not in some physical distress. And the battle goes on—ill or well is a trifle so that it goes. I was made for a contest, and the powers have so willed that my battlefield should be this dingy, inglorious one of the bed and the physic bottle. At least, I have not failed, but I would have preferred a place of trumpetings and the open air over my head."

BOILS CURED

When oxygen is lacking in the blood it is generally impure. Oxygen is an element of Nature: it is used by Nature to purify impurities—it is Nature's medicine. That's why Powley's Liquified Ozone is such a valuable preparation to cure blood disorders or system weakness of any kind. Read this evidence.

THE OZONE COMPANY, Ltd., TORONTO, ONT.

Gentlemen: I consider it my duty to inform you that having suffered for 14 years from impure blood and very painful boils, I have been completely cured by using one bottle of your preparation, "Powley's Liquified Ozone." I am thankful to you and gladly give you my testimonial, and should I have any further illness of any description, "Ozone" will be my remedy. I cheerfully recommend its use to all those suffers with whom I come in contact.

The way to treat all blood disorders is by taking Powley's Liquified Ozone in internal doses and outward applications. If you suffer from pimples, sores and boils, bathe the parts in hot water to which you have added two tablespoonfuls of Ozone. Directly after bathe in cold water to which has been added the same quantity of Ozone, i.e., two table spoonfuls. It won't take long—It's a simple treatment and you'll be cured.

Write our doctors about your case. Give every detail and get advice absolutely free. Your letter is confidential. Address the Consulting Department The Liquid Ozone Co., 229 Kinzie Street, Chicago.

QUEER OPTICAL ILLUSION.

An Interesting Experiment With a Pencil and a Wire Screen.

Professor R. W. Wood recently described a rather startling optical illusion which any one may see with a little practice. A lead pencil is held point up an inch or two in front of a wire screen with a sky background. If the eyes are converged upon the pencil point, the wire gauze becomes somewhat blurred and, of course, doubled.

As the gauze has a regularly recurring pattern, however, the two images can be united and, with a little effort, can be accommodated for distinct vision of the combined images of the mesh. As soon as accommodation is secured the mesh becomes perfectly sharp and appears to be nearly in the plane of the pencil point.

If now the pencil is moved away from the eyes, which are to be kept fixed on the screen, it apparently passes through the mesh and becomes doubled. If now the pencil is removed entirely, it will be found that the sharp images of the combined images of the gauze persist, although the eyes be moved nearer to or farther away from the screen.

Now bring the eyes up to within six or eight inches of the plane in which the mesh appears to be and attempt to touch it with the finger. It is not there. The finger falls upon empty space, the screen being in reality a couple of inches farther off.

"This," says Professor Wood, "is by all means the most startling illusion I have ever seen, for we apparently see something occupying a perfectly definite position in space before our eyes, and yet if we attempt to put our finger on it we find that there is nothing there."

BEE BUZZES.

One-fourth of an acre may contain 150 colonies of bees.

An apiary should not be placed on ground thickly set with trees.

Bees secrete wax only when necessary to furnish storage room for honey or brood.

The secretion of one pound of wax necessitates the consumption of twenty pounds of honey.

When a queen is gone, it will be only a few days until the colony will cease to store much surplus honey.

Sometimes, toward the close of the honey season, the bees will destroy the queen cells or kill all of the queens but one, thus destroying the incentive to swarm.

Care must be taken to see that there is a queen in every colony. If she gets lost or is killed, another must be put in her place, as the colony will run down very fast if left queenless.

Never feed bees during the day. It matters not whether there be one colony or many. It causes confusion, and the bees frequently get cross and go to stinging anything they come near.

In getting bees that have swarmed back into a hive much loss may be prevented by stretching a piece of strong canvas on the ground and setting the hive upon it and then shaking the bees on it.

Blacksmith's Backache.

DR. PITCHER'S BACKACHE KIDNEY TABLETS CURE THIS SERIOUS TROUBLE.

There is hardly a blacksmith in Canada who does not know what backache means—the stabbing pain, the sore, lame, stiff back that makes work misery.

Mr. Thos. Leonard, the well-known blacksmith of Port Hope, was troubled, as thousands are, and gladly tells of his cure in the following words:—"My life work as a blacksmith has been a hard one, and my back and kidneys bothered me for a long time. I have tried many medicines without relief, until I got a box of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets from R. Deyell, the druggist. Since then I have had comfort, and am able to work with ease. I am sure those who use your medicine for backache, kidney, bladder, or liver troubles, will never regret it. They are so easy to take, and yet work so well."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets cure so well that you'd be wasting money to experiment with anything else. Price 50 cents a box, at all druggists. The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

FUNERAL OF MR. WALLACE.

The Largest Ever Seen in Rural West York—The Names of the Twenty Pall-Bearers.

Woodbridge, Oct. 14.—All that was mortal of Nathaniel Clarke Wallace, born June 21, 1844, died Oct. 7, 1901, member for West York in the Dominion Parliament, and the Most Worshipful Grand Master and Sovereign of British North America in the local Orange Association, was buried here in Christ Church Cemetery Saturday afternoon. It was, without exception, the largest funeral which ever took place in the rural portion of West York. From east and west, from north and south, teams kept pouring into the village from an early hour, bringing the farmers from the surrounding townships and villages, who desired to pay a last tribute of respect to the memory of a political hero around whom the electorate of West York have rallied through contests covering the past 27 years of Canadian history.

Th postoffice, the hotels, the stores and many residences were draped in black out of respect for the deceased, the flags floated at half-mast, and everywhere on the lapels of the gentlemen coming to the funeral were well-executed vignets of the late distinguished Orangeman and Parliamentarian.

A great host of prominent public men and Orangemen were present from all parts of the country.

The floral tributes were very numerous and reached from floor to ceiling. Among others there were: A pink wreath of roses and carnations from Dr. Sproule, M.P.; cross of white dahlias, lilies and picotees from the Right Worshipful Grand Orange Lodge of Ontario West; circle of roses, asters and lilies, with the words, "Grand Orange Lodge of Manitoba," interwoven on a green disc in the background; an anchor of white roses, maidenhair ferns and candytuft, on a foreground of pink carnations, cosmos, phlox and single dahlias, from the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of B.N.A. A floral flag, measuring four feet across, was from the Liberal-Conservative Association of West York.

The pall-bearers, numbering 20, were Dr. Sproule, M. P., Grand Master of British America; Dr. Perfect, President of the Conservative Association, West York; Hon. Geo. E. Foster, John McMillan, Grand Master Ontario West; Thomas Gilray, Grand Master of Quebec; Munro, Deputy B. M. O. E.; E. T. Essery, D. D. M. O. W.; Thomas Crawford, M. P. P., Irish Protestant Association; W. J. Parkham, P. G. M., B. N. A.; George Taylor, M. P., representing the House of Commons; O. A. Howland, C. M. G., Mayor of Toronto; Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, O. M. B. Love at First Sight.

We talk of love at first sight, but what shall we say of people who have never seen each other marrying and being not unhappy? "Courting," said an Irishman, "is like dying—sure a man must do it for himself."

In some countries—as, for instance, Sweden—this is not the case. There the marriages of young people are made for them by their parents, and they only begin to court when they are wedded. This sounds wrong and absurd in theory, but it often works well in practice. Indeed young people ask the advice of their parents much too little about that which is perhaps the most serious and important undertaking in life—marriage. Too many of them are like the young lady who said she hoped she might be cut into ten thousand triangles if she did not know more of everything than did her mother. So they consult no one and insist on gaining experience at a great cost to themselves.

ROYALTY AT OLD NIAGARA

Ducal Pair Arrived at Queen's Royal Saturday Night

Spent Sunday at the Falls—Ancient Capital Crowded With Visitors—Distinguished Guests Did Not Attend Church—En Route to Niagara From Toronto They Stopped at Brampton, Guelph, Berlin, Stratford, London, Ingersoll and Grimsby.

Toronto, Oct. 14.—The royal visit to Toronto is nothing but a pleasant memory now. It terminated at 9 o'clock on Saturday morning, when Their Royal Highnesses standing on the rear end of the train, as it slowly pulled out of the Union Station, smilingly and graciously acknowledged the ringing cheers and the waving of handkerchiefs from the couple of hundred or so who were privileged to witness the departure. And thus three of the most memorable days in Toronto's history ended.

Brampton at 10.

Brampton, Oct. 14.—The buildings in the vicinity and the station were all gaily decorated and an hour before the royal pair was due the school children, the band and volunteers, with 5,000 loyal Britons, were assembled. At 10 o'clock Saturday the train drew slowly through the crowd and stopped as the rear coach reached the station. The Duke and Duchess were waiting on the platform smiling and bowing. The Mayor received in his official capacity, and six pretty children presented a bouquet to the Duchess, who graciously received them, smiling her pleasure. The Mayor also presented an address, and gracefully withdrew, the crowds cheering, and the band playing. Everybody got a good view of the royal party.

Guelph at 10.30.

Guelph, Ont., Oct. 14.—The Duke and Duchess of York arrived here at 10.30 o'clock on Saturday amid the cheers of a large crowd of citizens and school children. They were received by the Mayor in his official capacity and, after singing the National Anthem, the principal officials of the city and county were introduced. They then proceeded on their way westward.

Berlin at 11.15.

Berlin, Oct. 14.—At exactly 11.15 the royal train pulled in and this was the signal for a mighty shout from thousands of voices. Their Royal Highnesses stepped off the royal train to a raised platform amidst deafening applause. Surrounding the elevated platform were the school children carrying branches and bunches of maple leaves. Their Royal Highnesses were introduced by Major Maude to the Mayor and Town Council. The school children, accompanied by the 29th Battalion Band, sang "The Maple Leaf." Their Royal Highnesses then walked back to the royal train through the guard of honor, made up of the local companies of the 29th Battalion, while the band played "Rule Britannia."

Stratford at Noon.

Stratford, Oct. 14.—The train bearing the royal party reached here at noon Saturday. An immense throng of people awaited their arrival and cheered heartily when the train drew in. A chorus of school children sang the "Maple Leaf" and "God Save the King." There was no formal presentation of the address, but the Mayor and City Council were on hand and were presented to the Duke and Duchess. After a stay of eight minutes, the train proceeded on its way to London.

London at 1 O'clock.

London, Oct. 14.—The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York were given a most enthusiastic welcome on their arrival in the Forest City at 1 o'clock, Saturday. The route of procession was a living mass of humanity. Every window along the route was also filled. At the High School, the school children of the city, to the number of about 6,000, had gathered and greeted the appearance of Their Royal Highnesses with patriotic songs.

At the Victoria Park a most interesting ceremony took place after the reading of the civic address, viz., the presentation of new colors to the 7th Regiment. The scene was intensely inspiring, and will long remain in the memory of those who witnessed it. The royal train left the city shortly after 2 p. m., for Niagara Falls.

At Ingersoll at 2.20.

Ingersoll, Ont., Oct. 14.—Sharp at 2.20 on Saturday the royal train pulled into the G.T.R. depot, and fully 8,000 people awaited to welcome the royal party. On arrival of the train Miss Jean Jackson, daughter of J. B. Jackson, K.C., stepped to the platform of the royal car and presented Her Royal Highness with a bouquet of roses. Major Maude then introduced Mayor Miller and Mrs. Miller, Joseph Gibson, sr., and ex-Mayor Walter Mills, all had the great pleasure of shaking hands with the royal party. The G. T. R. depot was beautifully decorated.

Stopped at Grimsby.

Grimsby, Ont., Oct. 14.—The royal train made a short stop at Grimsby Saturday afternoon. The station was beautifully decorated with flags and bunting. Over three thousand people assembled to see the Duke and Duchess. Major Maude presented Reeve Hewitt, and then two little girls, Misses Bernice Hawke and Marjory Mitchell, and their little escort, Master Gordon Hamilton Burland. These presented bouquets, which were most graciously accepted by Their Royal Highnesses, and won a kiss for each from the Duchess. After three minutes' stop the train pulled out amid great cheering.

AT OLD NIAGARA.

Ducal Pair Arrived at Queen's Royal Saturday Night.

Niagara-on-the-Lake, Oct. 14.—Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York arrived at Niagara-on-the-Lake about 6 o'clock Saturday evening over the Michigan Central Railroad. The royal party was greeted by an immense crowd of people, who cheered lustily. The train conveying His Excellency the Governor-General and Lady Minto arrived at 2.40 p. m., and they were met on the platform by the Mayor and Council. They were then driven to the Queen's Royal Hotel.

On the arrival of the train with the royal party, His Excellency met them and introduced His Worship Mayor Best, who afterwards introduced the members of the Council and the local clergy. The party were then driven to the Queen's Royal, where everything was in readiness for their reception. An immense number of persons from St. Catharines, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and the surrounding country were present to witness the arrival and get a look at the distinguished visitors.

Sunday morning the royal party started for Niagara Falls, where they spent the day. They were conveyed as far as Queenston by the steamer Corona of the Niagara River Line, and from there to the falls by trolley, passing almost under Brock's monument, of which they were afforded a good view. They returned by the same route, arriving shortly after 6 o'clock, the streets being crowded with people anxious to get one more sight of their future King and Queen.

Very many from a distance, as well as the members of old St. Mark's Church, supposing the royal party would attend divine service, were sadly disappointed when they found other arrangements had been made, and that the Duke and Duchess would not be present.

Last evening was quietly spent, and the royal visitors are expected to take their departure this morning.

With the Duke and Duchess as its guests, Niagara-on-the-Lake acquired an importance for a few hours such as it had not had in many years. It was the first capital of Upper Canada and has sheltered royalty before—as far back as 1791, when Edward Duke of Kent visited the region. In all his world-wide realm (prospective) Prince George could not find a quieter spot in which to spend Sunday.

Sunday at Niagara.

Sunday morning the Duke and Duchess attended a private divine service, held in the drawing rooms of the hotel, and this afternoon they took the steamer Corona to Queenston, whence they visited the Falls by trolley. The royal trains are lying here to convey the party hence at 11 o'clock this morning.

The Duke at Hamilton.

Hamilton, Oct. 14.—The arrangements for the reception of the royal visitors to-day are completed. The streets and fronts of stores and offices in the line of procession look most ornamental.

The program is as follows:

10.30 a.m.—Parade of society men at Court House.

11.45—Arrival of the royal train at station and battery salute from Point Hill.

12.30—Continuance of royal parade, via James, King and James and Bold-streets to William Hendrie's residence, for luncheon.

2 p.m.—Continuance of royal procession via Bold, James and King-streets to Victoria Park.

3 a.m.—Continuance of royal procession to Stuart-street station.

3.30 p.m.—Departure of Royal Highnesses and battery salute from Point Hill.

Ottawa's $7,500 Royal Grant.

Ottawa, Oct. 14.—Mr. Justice B. M. Britton presided at the High Court sitting on Saturday, when Mr. W. Wyld, on behalf of Ald. W. H. Lewis, moved for an injunction in the well known $7,500 royal reception grant case. Mr. Taylor McVeity represented the city. After the case was argued His Lordship said there were important questions undoubtedly to be tried. There were exceptional matters connected with this case, and unless the plaintiffs were strictly entitled to an injunction at this stage he should not grant it. If the corporation have not the money in hand they ought to have, and if they had to borrow, those they borrow from must look after them. Under the circumstances of the special act, and the fact that the plaintiff had delayed entering his action, he was influenced in using his discriminatory powers, and he would refuse the motion.

TAPS FROM THE WIRES.

Mr. James Eaton, at one time a well known drygoods merchant, and the only surviving brother of Mr. Timothy Eaton, died on Sunday in Toronto.

Mrs. Eldridge, wife of George Eldridge, G.T.R. engineer, sustained a fractured skull at Brockville, the result of a runaway accident on Friday. She is unlikely to recover.

One hundred thousand dollars will be asked of Congress to pay the physicians who cared for William McKinley in his last illness. This is nearly twice the sum paid for medical attendance upon Garfield twenty years ago, during a period ten times as long, the bill being $57,000.

Trouble Is Feared.

London, Oct. 14.—"A large Afghan force is assembled around Cabul and is maintaining order," says a despatch to The Daily Mail from Simla. "Habib Ullah Khan has appointed a special guard for each European in Cabul, directing that the guards shall answer with their lives for the safety of their charges.

"The Indian Government has postponed the usual move to Calcutta, and Lord Curzon has definitely postponed his projected tour."

The Backslider.

"Many years ago," says the Providence Journal, "in a village not 20 miles from Providence a revival was in progress. A young man, one of indistinguishable twin brothers who had previously been observed, as was supposed, in an attentive attitude at the meeting, rose for prayers, walked to the anxious seat, and there wailed and moaned to such good purpose that the deacons were sure he was on the high road to salvation.

The next day he was overheard in the back yard at home chopping wood and swearing painfully at a refractory log. When remonstrated with for his sudden backsliding, he merely said, "Oh, brother Jim couldn't go to the meeting last night, so I went and hollered for him."

Iron Hand at Last Shown

Terms of September 15 Proclamation Being Enforced.

Royalty at Old Niagara—Funeral of Hon. Clarke Wallace—Four Trainmen Meet Death—Peter Nissen Again Goes Through the Niagara Rapids Steamer Hating Sunk.

Middleburg, Cape Colony, Oct. 12.—Two young farmers, who had twice joined the Boers, have been hanged at Vryburg. The death sentences of a number of other condemned men have been commuted to penal servitude.

Commandant Lotter, the Cape rebel, whose commando, consisting almost wholly of rebels, was captured south of Petersburg in September, and who was sentenced to death, was executed yesterday morning.

Commandant Lotter had been tried and found guilty on eight counts, including sedition, the murder of colored unarmed scouts, the murder of troopers in action, the blowing up of railroads and the cowhiding of British subjects and Europeans. Lotter pleaded that he was a citizen of the Orange Free State, but this was disproved.

Scheepers in Toils.

London, Oct. 14.—Lord Kitchener reports to the War Office from Pretoria under Saturday's date that Gen. French's columns have captured Commandant Scheepers.

Lord Kitchener does not state whether Sheepers' commando, which has been so active in Cape Colony, was captured or not. The British have been in pursuit for a couple of weeks, Scheepers himself was so ill that he was obliged to travel in a buggy.

Commandant Scheepers has been operating in Cape Colony for several months. On July 8 he entered and burned Murraysburg. Later on his laager was captured and it was discovered that while he had some Boers with him, the majority of his men were Cape rebels. Lord Kitchener reported some weeks afterward that a train with stores had been held up and captured by Scheepers' commando eight miles from Beaufort West. Since then Scheepers has been operating in the neighborhood of Mossel Bay, 200 miles due east of Cape Town. Some of the reports said that his commando was made up principally of half-grown Cape Colony boys.

More Boers Banished.

Pretoria, Oct. 13.—Eighteen more Boer officers, captured since Sept. 15, have been permanently banished from the country.

Refugee Death Rate Falls.

Bloemfontein, Oct. 13.—The death rate among the Boer refugees in the camps has decreased considerably. Some of the Boer women in the camp at Heidelberg, it is said, gave their children dog's blood to drink when they were in a critical state. The result naturally was fatal. Forty doctors are now on duty in the different camps, but it is impossible to keep watch on all the refugees and avoid stupid action. It is impossible to obtain fresh meat for all, and the authorities are fixing it so as to get frozen meat. The military people have also provided means for diversion, such as cricket matches, etc.

Arrangements have been made to distribute seed potatoes, cattle, salt and sheep to the farmers.

Cost of the War.

London, Oct. 14.—It was first estimated that the cost of the war would be $50,000,000, with a field force of 47,000 men, which Parliament was assured would complete the conquest of the republics in three months. To-day, when prospect of conquest was never less certain, it has cost $700,000,000, besides 18,000 lives, the aggregate of casualties being 75,000. Since Lord Roberts declared the war over, on the eve of the general election last September, it has cost $350,000,000 in money, 8,000 lives and 27,000 other casualties.

Brodrick Visits King.

London, Oct. 14.—The visit of Mr. Brodrick to Balmoral over Sunday is commented upon with nods and winks in military circles. The summons is believed to have been received on Friday, and is regarded as the sequel of General Buller's amazing speech and the uproar caused by it.

The King Writes Buller.

Manchester, Oct. 14.—The London correspondent of The Guardian says that King Edward sent a letter of warm sympathy to Gen. Sir Redvers Buller, and that this induced the General to make his speech the other day.

Liverpool Reservoir Burst.

East Liverpool, Oct. 14.—A large reservoir, containing 10,000,000 gallons of water, burst yesterday, and caused great damage. No lives were lost, but a score of people had narrow escapes. The money loss will reach probably $150,000. The reservoir, which is owned by the city and which was only completed a few days ago, was filled yesterday morning for the first time.

The Empress Nourishes Vengeance.

Pekin, Oct. 13.—The Dowager-Empress has issued two edicts, one of which establishes three new boards and abolishes many minor offices. The other admonishes officials to enforce the reforms decided in recent edicts, and says: "Myself and the Emperor, for the past year have slept on wormwood and eaten gall," a Chinese metaphor for nourishing vengeance.

Lord Pauncefote's Return.

London, Oct. 14.—Lord Pauncefote of Preston, British Ambassador to the United States, will sail for New York on Oct. 26.

SCHOONER FOUNDERED.

Crew, Found Strapped to Rigging, Taken Off at Amherstburg.

Amherstburg, Oct. 14.—The schooner Montblanc foundered off Barr Point, Lake Erie, Saturday night. The crew were found strapped in the rigging yesterday morning, and were taken off by the tug Cheboygan nearly perished. The cook was the only woman on board, and could not have held out half an hour longer. The crew lost everything but the clothes they had on them. A number of other unknown schooners are at anchor off Barr Point with canvas gone. Vesselmen say it was the heaviest gale of years.

Crowe Will Give Himself Up.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 14.—Chief of Police John J. Donahue yesterday received a letter from Pat Crowe, naming the terms on which he will surrender. Chief Donahue said last night he would request the city and Mr. Cudahy to withdraw the rewards which have been offered for Crowe's arrest and conviction, with the provision that Crowe surrenders himself. He said, if Crowe shall give himself up he will be given all the advantage the law provides.

Caught in the Palace.

Paris, Oct. 14.—The Lisbon correspondent of La Patrie says a telegram has been received at the Portuguese capital from Rio Janeiro, asserting that two Italians were arrested Friday evening last in the corridor of the Presidential palace by an officer of the guard. Both were armed with revolvers and daggers. In Rio Janeiro it is believed they are Anarchists, and intended to assassinate President Camps Salles.

Two Warships Disabled.

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 14.—It is now reported that the two steamers, one apparently disabled, and being towed by the other whose approach the Cape Race lookout announced Friday evening, are the British warships Alert and Columbine. They left here that morning for Halifax, the former having been ordered to proceed to Panama, owing to the disturbances there and the latter to Halifax for the winter.

Thieves Took $800.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 14.—A daring robbery was committed yesterday about noon at the Central Railway Station, and the thieves got away with about $800 in cash. The thief or thieves got in through a window and broke open the Canadian Pacific and Canada Atlantic ticket offices. In the till in the Canada Atlantic office they got the money. The deed was done when the railway men were away.

Damaged by Incessant Rain.

Winnipeg, Oct. 14.—Reports received from various visitors from the country are to the effect that the damage to the wheat crop by reason of the recent wet weather has been very great. Samples of the grain showed that the wheat in shock was growing quite badly. The shocks had been turned and returned in an effort to keep them from rotting.

Heavy Seas Broke Plate.

London, Oct. 14.—The Vulture, another torpedo boat destroyer, has buckled in heavy seas, while on her way from Portsmouth to Portland. She had to return to Portsmouth, where it was found that several of her plates were broken.

Died From Her Burns.

Belleville, Oct. 14.—Mrs. Wilson, who was accidentally burned Friday night, died in the hospital Saturday morning.

A Country Lass,

Health in her beaming eyes, health in her glowing cheek, health in her merry laugh. Yet country air and country hours can't save her from the common experience of women—an experience which dulls the eye, pales the cheek, and turns the laugh to a sigh. Womanly ills come to almost all. But for these ills there is help and healing in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It regulates the periods, stops unhealthy drains, cures inflammation, ulceration and female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

"Miss Ella Sapp, of Jamestown, Guilford Co., N. C., writes: "I had suffered three years or more at monthly periods. It seemed as though I would die with pain in my back and stomach. I could not stand without fainting; had given up all hope of ever being cured, when one of my friends insisted upon my trying Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. With but little faith I tried it, and before I had taken half a bottle I felt better—had better appetite and slept better. Now I am happy to say I am entirely cured, and all done in two months' time, when all other medicines had failed to do any good at all."

Biliousness is cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

FOUR TRAINMEN MEET DEATH

Shocking Accident Two Miles East of Mackie's Station.

Head-on Collision of a C.P.R. Stock Train and a Freight on Saturday Night Between Mattawa and North Bay—Sergt. Allen, a South African Veteran, Among the Casualties—Traffic Delayed for Twenty-four Hours.

North Bay, Oct. 14.—Four men killed, rolling stock damaged to the extent of thousands of dollars, and traffic delayed for hours, are the results of a disastrous accident that took place on Saturday night at 9.30, 3½ miles east of Mackie's, between Mattawa and this place on the C.P.R.

The fatalities were the result of a collision between a stock train from Manitoba and a freight from the east. The stock train, in charge of Engineer Christopher and Fireman James Phillips, left North Bay on Saturday afternoon, and all went well until Mackie's was neared, when the freight train in charge of Engineer George Elliott and Fireman George Thomas was crashed into in a sand cut.

Both trains were going at the rate of 40 miles an hour, and the impact was terrific. Both engines and tenders were derailed as well as several cars.

Phillips, Thomas, Morell and Allen were killed instantly.

Herbert Allen passed through the hottest engagements of the South African war unscathed, and only at the Duke's visit to Quebec had received his medal.

The wrecking crews from North Bay and Pembroke were called to the scene. It will take 24 hours to clear the track. Passengers for the east and west last night were transferred to the Soo train.

This was the second accident to the stock train, as at Wolf Lake several cars were derailed.

THROUGH THE NIAGARA RAPIDS.

Peter Nissen Makes a Second Trip in His "Fool-Killer."

Niagara Falls, N.Y., Oct. 14.—Saturday afternoon Peter Nissen of Chicago made his second trip through the Whirlpool Rapids in his boat, the "Fool-Killer." It was a great success, and Nissen has to his credit two trips through the wild waters of the Niagara River that mark him as a man of nerve. He started from a point near the Falls at 3.30 o'clock, but it took him 10 minutes to reach the point where he retired inside the boat and closed the hatch. At 3.41 he floated under the lower steel arch, and a minute later his craft was battling with the white-capped waves. The smokestack was swept away by the first, and the boat rolled heavily under the force of the waters. Many times the red keel was in full view. Nissen received a frightful tossing.

At 3.44 the boat was in the pool, and soon Nissen raised the hatch and waved to the people. When the boat reached quiet water, he crawled out on deck and kept this position until the boat went back to the entrance, where the water is very rough, and there Nissen went inside again. On the Canadian side, near the entrance, men on shore caught the boat and held it while Nissen landed. He secured no soundings in the rapids, but will take soundings in the whirlpool within a few days. He had no power on his boat Saturday. He stood the trip well.

STEAMER HATING SUNK.

Another of the C. P. R. Skaguay Liners Wrecked.

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 14.—The steamer Hating, sister to the Islander, of the Canadian Pacific Line of Skaguay steamers, was wrecked Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. She now lies hard and fast on the end of Jervis Island, 49 miles north of Vancouver. She had 174 passengers from the Klondike aboard, and all of them are now safely landed on Lasquetti Island. The weather was extremely foggy at the time of the accident.

The World's Wheat Crop

Washington, Oct. 14.—The Department of Agriculture announces that the three most important estimates of the world's wheat crop of 1901, so far made, agree that the crop is larger than that of each of the three preceding years. The estimate follows:

Hungarian Minister of Agriculture, 2,071,860,000 bushels of 60 pounds.

Bulletin Des Halles of Paris, 2,790,310,000 Winchester bushels.

STOMACH DISORDER CURED.

The stomach is probably the most important organ of the body because it is required to do real hard work all the time—to furnish the other organs with energy. Mrs. McDonaugh of Montreal was greatly troubled with stomach disorder. She was tortured with head aches, stomach pains and palpitation of the heart. She tells the story of her cure by Powley's Liquified Ozone

OZONE COMPANY, Ltd.

Gentlemen: It is with much pleasure I write you my testimony to the wonderful curative powers of Powley's Liquified Ozone. For five years I have been troubled severely with indigestion and headaches, and also palpitation of the heart. I took a great many different kinds of remedies but none did me any good. I saw Ozone advertised in the paper and about the first of August I procured a bottle and began taking it. Before I had taken one large bottle I began to feel my usual health returning. I have taken only three bottles and I am completely cured. I can recommend Ozone to every one suffering as I did.

(Signed) MRS. MARY MCDONAUGH,
22 Boyer St., Montreal, P. Q.

The way to take Powley's Liquified Ozone for stomach and bowel disorder is in teaspoonful doses in four parts water after each meal. The Ozone assists the digestion—makes it thorough and prevents fermentation. Powley's Liquified Ozone is the greatest discovery of the age. If you have any distress of the stomach it will cure you like magic.

Consult our physicians about your case. Write full details and you will get a specialist's advice free. Your letters are absolutely confidential. Address the Consulting Department, The Liquid Ozone Co., 229 Kinzie St., Chicago, U. S. A.

THE ANALYSIS OF TEMPTATION.

In his powerful "Story of a Thief," in Frank Leslie's Popular Monthly for October, Mr. C. F. Goss recalls an admirable analysis of temptation. St. Augustine, he reminds us, has analyzed the whole complicated web of events in every temptation and describes it in four words.

"Cogitatio"—the conception.

"Imaginatio"—the forming of the picture.

"Delectatio"—the enjoyment of the deed in thought.

"Acceptatio"—the acceptance of the suggestion.

THE LATEST "HOUSE OF HITS" PUBLICATIONS.

The greatest hit ever made with a ballad by the Primrose and Dockstader Minstrels was made this season by them with "While the Convent Bells Were Ringing." This is a new and beautiful song by Max S. Witt and Robert S. Roden.

"No use in Asking, 'Cause You Know the Reason Why," is an odd coon song, featured by Lew Dockstader himself. He sings it inimitably, and the song, which is by Bob Cole, J. W. & Rosamond Johnson, is a great success.

"A Thousand Leagues Under the Sea," is the title of Petrie's latest and greatest bass song. Our readers of course know his "Davy Jones' Locker," but this is the finest song he has written.

"When the Irish are on Parade," is a character song introducing all the old favorite airs. It is by Heelan and Helf, writers of "Every Race has a Flag but the Coon."

"Ma Heart's Desiah is Miss Mariah" is the greatest hit in a coon song ever featured by Lew Dockstader, the famous minstrel. He says himself that the melody of the song fascinates.

"East Lynne!" Just think of the beautiful but sad incidents embodied in both the story and the play we all like so well. The song is one of Heelan & Helf's greatest efforts.

These songs are issued this month by "The House of Hits," Jos. W. Stern & Co., who will be pleased to send anyone writing them their vocal and instrumental, orchestra and band, S. S. Stewart's Son's Banjo Catalogue, free on application to their headquarters, 34 East 21st street, New York City.

Daily Intelligencer.

A DELIBERATE MIS-STATEMENT.

Such is the declaration of Mr. J. A. Jamieson to the statement by Mr. Tarte that he (Jamieson) had submitted and offered his plans for the construction of a fire-proof elevator to a builder in Buffalo, and that he (the builder) on behalf of the Company he represented "had declined the offer "on the ground that the plans were "of too experimental a nature." This Tarteism Mr. Jamieson pronounces "a deliberate mis-statement with a very transparent object in view."

Mr. Jamieson further stated that he never submitted any plan or plans to the Buffalo elevator builder. On the contrary, he positively declares that he told the builder that he would not submit his plans as the contract though not signed, had been awarded to another.

So much for the reasons given by Mr. Tarte for rejecting the Jamieson plans, which from all that can be gleaned from what has transpired were favored by the Montreal Harbor Board.

The whole transaction shows, as clear as noonday, that Mr. Tarte was determined from the first not to allow the Harbor Board anything to say or do in the matter, knowing that if they had the "rake-off," if any, would not go in the proper preferred direction.

To strengthen his position it was also stated that Mr. Kennedy, the Montreal City Engineer, had pronounced the plans "experimental." This Mr. Kennedy denies, in answer to a question put to him by Mayor Prefontaine, at a meeting of the Harbor Board. Mr. Kennedy replied "that aside from the steel plate construction for the sides to the bins, the work was upon well known scientific lines and could not be judged experimental."

So much for Mr. Tarte's reasons for rejecting the plans and attributing to the Board, as a reason for their anxiety for the immediate construction of the elevator that there was a $20,000 "rake-off" in view.

Why should we moralize or marvel at anything Tarte would say or do? Remembering, as every observer of public events must, the Whalen $10,000 transaction and his unblushing avowal, that he told not the truth when questioned in the House of Commons as to the "rake-off" in connection with the purchase of La Patrie that he did so to prevent the Tories from lying about him, anything he might do should not surprize anyone. Yet Laurier says "there is nothing too good for Turte."

"Birds of a feather flock together," is a truism in this case.

A good story, descriptive of sturdy Canadian independence, is told of parties connected with this city. A young gentleman, who has his B.A. from Toronto University, desired to enter Harvard to take a post graduate course. He left for Cambridge, and shortly afterwards his father received a wire from him saying that Harvard College would not recognize Canadian degrees, and asking what he should do. The father at once wired back: "Come right home. Don't stay twenty-four hours in a country which won't recognize Canadian institutions." It is pleasing to note, though, that the matter has been satisfactorily arranged, and that the young gentleman in question will take the Harvard course.

HEART DISEASE.

SOME FACTS REGARDING THE RAPID INCREASE OF HEART TROUBLE.

Heart troubles, at least among the Americans, are certainly increasing and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, of poor digestion.

Real organic disease is incurable, but not one case in a hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by the same great nerves, the Sympathetic and Pneumogastric.

In another way, also, the heart is affected by the form of poor digestion, which causes gas and fermentation from half digested food. There is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action, hence arises palpitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also poisons the blood, making it thin and watery, which irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible treatment for heart trouble is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimilation of food.

This can be done by the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores, and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time will cure any form of stomach trouble, except cancer of the stomach.

Full sized package of these tablets sold by druggists at 50 cents. Little book on stomach troubles mailed free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

Case Dismissed.

Napanee Beaver; Fay vs. Canadian Pacific Ry.—Action brought by Thos. Fay, of Tweed, for damages caused by the breaking of his little son's leg in the freight shed there in January, 1890. The little fellow, then five years old, had accompanied another older lad to the freight shed, and while the latter was loading a large box on a truck, the truck upset, and it and the box falling on little Fay, broke his leg. The case was tried last year in Belleville, and was traversed to Napanee. The judge stated that no negligence was proved on the part of the railway company, and dismissed it, each side to pay its own costs. W. C. Mikel, Belleville, for plff.; A. MacMurchy for defts.

YACHTING.

Not Much Prospect of a Canadian Yacht.

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 13.—A correspondent to-day interviewed James Ross, of Montreal, aboard his yacht Gundreda, now lying in Sydney. Respecting the story that Canada would build a challenger for the America's Cup, Mr. Ross said:—"Though very much interested in yachting, I have not given this matter much consideration, and I do not think there is anything in the story.

"We have not in Canada," he continued, "the facilities to build a yacht which could successfully compete for the cup. What has been done in this line in previous years did not require the skill and workmanship that a competitor of to-day would. A boat designed in Canada and built in Great Britain would not be a Canadian boat."

Asked to the possibility of such a scheme being on foot, he said:

"No. If it were I would be made aware of it. Further, I do not think, at all events, that any action could be taken in the matter until it is known what Lipton intends to do. That itself should set the matter at rest at the present time as far as Canada is concerned at least."

George Herrick Duggan, of Seawanhaka Cup fame, and who has been mentioned as the designer of a challenger in the event of an effort being made by Canadian yachtsmen to "lift" the America's Cup, declares that the chief difficulty would be in getting a capable crew, who would have to be trained for two years, and to do which, a nursery would have to be established.

A HELPLESS MAN.

A man is certainly in a helpless condition when he has to sit with his leg on a chair for weeks, unable to move. William Grimshaw, Wolfe Island, Frontenac County, Ont., was in this plight. Doctors could do nothing for him and the pain remained in his legs for six months. Three bottles of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure and three boxes of Climax Iron Tonic Pills routed the disease and restored him to perfect health. He now recommends it to all sufferers. This great blood purifier is put up in bottles containing ten days treatment. Price 50 cents at all drug stores or The Dr. Hall Medicine Co., Kingston, Ont.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING

NUPTIALS OF MISS EMILY WRIGHT, OF THIS CITY, AND MR. FRED HICK, OF PICTON.

A pretty home wedding occurred to-day at 11 a.m., at the residence of the bride's father, 59 Queen St., when Miss Emily Wright, of this city, was united in marriage to Mr. Fred Hick, of Picton.

Rev. T. J. Thompson performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by only the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

Miss Louisa Wright, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, while Mr. Fred Elser, of Picton, was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Hick left for the west at 1.35 p.m., and, after an extensive tour through principal cities of the Eastern States, will take up their residence in Picton.

The Intelligencer heartily joins in congratulations.

HOW ONE MILLION IS SPENT.

Not less than one million dollars is annually spent by people seeking an absolute cure for Catarrh, Bronchitis and Consumption. Numerous are the remedies, but the one standing pre-eminently above all others is Catarrhozone. It cures these diseases because it is sure to reach them. Catarrhozone is inhaled into the lungs, throat and nasal passages, and bathes every part of the diseased membrane with its germ-killing, healing vapour. You simply breathe Catarrhozone and it cures. Price 25c. and $1 at druggists, or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

PROVINCIAL ASSAY OFFICE.

MONTHLY REPORT FOR SEPTEMBER.

The laboratory report of the Ontario Government Assay Office located at Belleville and conducted by the Bureau of Mines for the assistance of prospectors and development of mineral lands, shows a total receipt of 177 samples sent in for examination during the month of September.

The assays and analytical determinations aggregated 518, each checked off by duplicate in order to avoid errors before issuing certificates. Of these 10 were for gold, 8 silver, 3 nickle, 7 copper, etc.

Nine samples of iron ores from different parts of Ontario were received for partial or complete examination as to smelting quality, on which 29 determinations were made.

The Bureau of Mines required 465 determinations on which no fees were collected, 53 being done for private parties. The custom work for the public work is done at actual cost, fees collected from all this source amounting to $59.96.

Sixty-two samples for identification, or report as to probable commercial value, as well as for qualitative examinations, giving the constituents but no percentage or values contained were received on which fees amounting to $17.10 were collected. No charge is made for such examinations on samples brought personally to the laboratory.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

All this simply the result of eating and digesting enough, making blood, and thereby strengthening the nerve and brain power. Ferrozone gives a woman's strength to weak girls. Your daughter or wife needs Ferrozone Get it to-day. Price 50c. at McKeown's.

The Guard of Honor

Toronto World; The 15th "Argyll" Light Infantry furnished the Guard of Honor from 7 until 11 o'clock at Government House last night. There were 100 men, with silver band and bugle and drum corps, under the command of Major W. W. Pope, a veteran of 1866, who had for his subalterns Lieuts. John C. McNair and Edgar Geen, both South Africa men. The Duke of Cornwall's uncle, the Duke of Argyll, is honorary colonel of the regiment, and the 15th was the first corps in the Canadian militia to have the distinction of having an honorary colonel.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The first object in life with the Canadian people is to "get rich;" the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health), by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well known August Flower will relieve you at once. Regular size, 75 cents. You can get Dr. G.G. Green's reliable remedies at R. Templeton & Co's.

GRACE, STYLE AND FINISH.

You will find that in Grace, Style and Finish, Quick & Robertson's will compare with the productions of the best class of merchant tailors at prices a third to a half less. Each garment is designed with a view to its shape. It will stay in shape on the wearer. No undue drag on the various parts of the garment, each pocket is stayed, collars are properly cut, sleeves and shoulders have the right "set." Design without good cloths is wasted. Every garment is properly and honestly lined with good linings. No shoddy cloths are used.

The train despatcher has a swell job. What he says goes.

Quick & Robertson's For Fine Clothes.

There's no use disputing the fact that this store stands pre-eminent in this city as the store for Men's Fine Clothes.

With our large and pleasing varieties, up-to-date style, and good making we've won the trade of every man, and especially the trade of those men who are particular about the Clothes they wear.

And why shouldn't we? You can't find a store that has, ready made, such exclusive styles in suitings and overcoatings as we are showing, and every one of them is from the best Canadian and English mills.

Then, too every garment is built to come up to our high standard—built by the best makers who know how and do give close attention to important parts of tailoring—such as adjusting the collars, shaping the shoulders, proper placing the sleeves and stays and making the button holes.

Clothes made this way never lose their shape and by so doing we have overcome that appearance which marks clothes as being ready-made.

The prices for such goodness you'd expect to be high—but they are not—are no more than you would pay for ordinary suits elsewhere.

BUSINESS SUITS—$5, $6.50, $8, $10, $12.
FALL OVERCOATS—$3.90, $5, $7.50, $8.50, $10, $12, $15,

Since Saturday the police made two arrests.

Division Court was held here to-day, presided over by Judge Fralick. A number of cases were disposed of.

Some person yesterday allowed Mr. Reuben Powell's horse to get out of the stable, but the animal was subsequently found.

The police at an early hour this morning were called to Ald. Doyle's house on Alexander street, as it was reported some one was about the premises. The officer responding could find no trace of any person.

All present at the Y.M.C.A. yesterday enjoyed and profited by Rev. D. C. Elliott's address. His subject, "Some Kinds of Impossible Christian Lives," was intensely practical. Next Sunday Mr. T. J. Wilkie, Office Secretary of the Provincial Committee, will likely be present to speak at the afternoon meeting. All who heard him on his former visit will doubtless desire to hear him again.

There is no doubt that Japan tea is doomed to disappear from the teapots of the Canadian people. The introduction of the delicious Green teas of Ceylon, in the well known packets of The "SALADA" Tea Company, whose famous black teas have revolutionized the black tea trade, will prove to anyone trying them that they are far more healthy than the artificially colored tea of Japan; and doctors will cease to object to the drinking of green tea if it is "SALADA" Ceylon GREEN.

A Belleville Gold Medal

The Globe's reproductions of paragraphs from its issues of 50 years ago are very interesting. One of last week's extracts records the awarding of the Provincial Gold Medal to the late William Hutton, of Belleville, C.W., for the best essay on Canada's Agriculture as a pursuit. The essay was printed and circulated in Europe by the Government. The gold medal in the possession of the recipient's grandson (Col. Ponton) is very heavy and a handsome work of artistic engraving. The late Mr. Hutton was the first Warden of the County and was for a time Superintendent of Education with the late Dr. Ryerson. At the Provincial Exhibition of 1851 a paper was read urging the cultivation of the sugar beet, showing that there is nothing new under the sun.

While every effort will be made to change advertisements, no matter at what time received, it must in all cases be understood that, to ensure change, copy should be handed in on the evening previous.

TO-MORROW'S BIG DEMONSTRATION

To be a Thoroughly Democratic Affair—School Children to Have Place of Honor.

Programme as Approved by the Royal Party—Bouquet to be Presented—Notes,

There is every indication that the demonstration to-morrow morning, in honor of the Duke and Duchess of York, will be a grand success. The only hitch in the arrangements so far has been in connection with the military. It seems that there has to be a certain amount of red tape about the appointment of a Royal Guard of Honor, but the Officers and Committee have been keeping the wires warm, and there is every probability that the necessary permission will be obtained.

No one need stay away from the station for fear they won't be able to see the Duke and Duchess. The reception will take place on the west end of the station yard, and the G.T.R. authorities will clear away every freight car possible, so that there will be an uninterrupted view clean to the Canifton road.

The Committee is going to ask the general public to stand on the south side of the station platform.

The school children and College students will be on the north side of the track.

The military will be on the south side of the train, part on the platform and part on the ground.

Next to them will come the pupils of the Deaf and Dumb Institute, who will sign "God Save the King" while other people are singing it.

Next to them will come the City choirs, who will face the school children and students.

Behind the school children will be the Veterans, who will assemble on the north side of the western end of the station platform not later than 8:30 a.m.

The Chief of Police states that for one hour to-morrow morning, while the demonstration is going on, no vehicles of any description will be allowed to enter the G.T.R. yard.

The very efficient Committee has worked hard to make the affair a success, and there is every indication that such it will be.

The Governor-General's train will precede the Royal train by half an hour, and its stay will be very brief, so anybody who wants to see the celebrated Major Maude will need to be alert and watchful.

The only ones presented to the Royal party will be His Worship the Mayor and his daughter, Miss Flossie, who will, on behalf of the citizens of Belleville, present a bouquet to the Duchess.

The whole proceedings will be short and sweet.

The only people provided with positions will be the school children, the City choirs, the pupils of the D. and D. Institution, the Veterans and the Military men—everybody else must look out for themselves.

Their Royal Highnesses, after receiving Mayor Graham and Miss Graham, will appear on the platform of their car, which is specially constructed for the purpose, being at least seven feet above the ground. It will thus be seen that everybody present will have a fair chance of seeing them.

All freight trains on this division will stop running at 2 o'clock to-morrow morning, so that nobody need fear danger on that score.

The only address presented will be one of ten words, delivered by a pupil of the D. and D. Institute.

The school children and students will assemble at their various schools and colleges to-morrow morning at 7:45.

The City choirs will meet to-night in the City Hall for their final rehearsal.

Following is the programme of the proceedings, as approved by the Royal party.—

Reception of His Worship the Mayor of Belleville, R. J. Graham, Esq., by their Royal Highnesses in railway car. Presentation to Her Royal Highness of a bouquet by Miss Flossie Graham, daughter of the Mayor.

Their Royal Highnesses will appear at rear of railway car when the Royal salute will be given by the Military.

The National Anthem to be sung by the pupils of the Kindergarten, Public Schools, the Students of Albert College, Ontario Business College, Belleville Business College and the Choirs of the City Churches.

Three cheers for the King and Queen.

A few words of welcome in the sign language by a pupil of the Provincial Institute for the Deaf and Dumb, to be interpreted by the Principal of the Institution, Robert Mathison, Esq., M.A.

Three cheers for their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York.

Three cheers for their children.

"Rule Britannia" to be sung.

General salute by Drum and Bugle Band, Regimental Band playing National Anthem as train pulls out.

FIFTEENTH WILL PARADE.

Since the above was in type we have learned that it has been definitely decided that the Fifteenth will parade to-morrow morning, whether as a Guard of Honor or otherwise depends on the people at headquarters, but parade it will, anyhow, and everybody connected with the Regiment is requested to be at the Drill Shed at 7:45 to-morrow morning. Uniform, review order.

Quartermaster Slater, of the 49th, told The Intelligencer this morning that he was using every endeavor to have No. 1 Company of his regiment take part in the demonstration, and had not the slightest doubt that the company would make a good showing.

Superintendent Mathison has received the following telegram:

Queen's Hotel,
Niagara-On-The-Lake,
Oct. 14, 1901.

Superintendent Mathison, Belleville:

Their Royal Highnesses have been graciously pleased to signify their wish to see your deaf and dumb children on Tuesday morning at Belleville station, as requested in your letter of the 9th inst. (Signed)

MAJOR MAUDE.

To Choose a Rector

The congregation of Christ Church will meet this evening for the purpose of selecting a Rector. We understand that, in addition to the Rev. W. B. Heeney's name being submitted, two others will be voted upon.

AN ADDRESS TO THE DUKE

(Which will not be read to morrow morning.)

YOUR ROYAL HIGHNESS,—We, the citizens of Belleville, loyal subjects of your good father the King, whom God preserve, desire to present to yourself and your beautiful better half a cordial welcome to this good City of Belleville. Your Highnesses have travelled many miles and gazed on many fair scenes, and we know must be growing weary, so, while regretting that your visit is not longer, we gratefully accept this opportunity of looking on your faces and assuring you that this good City of Belleville, which has many times sent forth its young men to do battle for the Empire, salutes you to-day with the hearts of its people overflowing with love and loyalty. May the blessings of Providence rest upon you; may it be a long time before you are called upon to ascend the throne of Great Britain, and, when that time does come, may you wear the crown with the grace, wisdom and dignity which distinguished your Royal Grandmother and Father. And so good-bye and bon voyage! Just at this time we can think of no more fitting words than those which followed our own brave boys who went to the South African war, "MAY GOD BE WITH YOU."

Police Court

AN ASSAULT CASE.

D. Coyle was charged with assaulting a man named Harrington. The defendant alleges that the plaintiff was driving a hack and allowed it to stand in front of his place after being repeatedly asked not to do so, and he (Mr. Coyle), in speaking to Harrington about it, gave him a push forward, hence the charge. Judgment on Monday next.

CAUSING BODILY HARM.

George Babcock was arrested on the charge of causing bodily harm to his mother-in-law, Mrs. Ella Badgley. On Saturday afternoon George went home, being somewhat under the influence of liquor, and Mrs. Badgley alleges that he struck her, knocking her down, and also kicked her severely, whilst she was lying on the ground. Her testimony was corroborated by other witnesses. The accused was found guilty and was remanded until to-morrow for sentence.

A Horse Attacked With Lock Jaw.

Some few days ago a horse belonging to Mr. John C. Lake stepped upon a nail, which entered its hoof for a considerable distance. As a result the animal suffered lock jaw and last evening had to be shot, Police Officer Hayes doing the act.

Mr. Rosenzi in Toledo.

Toledo Daily News; E. C. Rosenzi, of Philadelphia, Pa., one of the oldest and most successful oil producers in the Pennsylvania oil fields, and an expert in natural gas, has returned from Belleville, Ont., to meet with his associates here, who are Toledo's most prominent citizens, for the purpose of developing new fields in Canada, where Mr. Rosenzi has for the past seven months explored a certain section in the county of Hastings, which, in his belief, will be productive in petroleum and natural gas. He and his associates have leased quite a large tract of land where it is supposed that the surface indications are very promising.

THE PAIN OF SORE FEET.

Just about the most tantalizing of all pains comes from sore feet. To get relief bathe the feet in warm water and then rub them with Polson's Nerviline. It penetrates through the pores of the skin, takes out the soreness, reduces swellings, invigorates the tired muscles, tones up the circulation and prevents the feet from becoming sore again. Nerviline is a protection and safe-guard against the pains and aches of the entire family and cures rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, &c. 25 cents.

YESTERDAY IN THE CHURCHES

Holloway Street.

Thanksgiving services were held in the above church yesterday, and large congregations were in attendance. Rev. D. O. Crossley, of Peterboro, conducted the services. In the morning he gave an excellent sermon on the subject of thank offering, and in the evening a song service was held. The subject was "Higher Ideals and Aspirations of Human Character," being based on the 84th Psalm. The Rev. gentleman during the discourse sang appropriate hymns assisted by the choir. The collections for the day amounted to $250.

Baptist Church.

The Pastor, Rev. O. C. Elliott, preached at both services yesterday. In the evening the Rev. gentleman's subject was "The Great Salvation." The basis for his remarks was taken from Hebrews, 2nd chapter and first three verses.

St. John's.

Rev. Rural Dean Bogert, rector of this church, officiated and preached at both services. In the evening the text was taken from Isaiah, 1st chapter, 18th verse:

"Come now, let us reason together, saith the Lord; though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson they shall be as wool."

Bridge Street.

Both services at this church were yesterday conducted by the Pastor, Rev. Dr. Crothers, who preached two able sermons. In the evening the Rev. gentleman took for his text the 26th verse of the 11th chapter, of Acts:

"And when he found him he brought him to Antioch. And it came to pass that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch."

Emmanuel Reformed Episcopal.

The Rector, Rev. Mr. Gilliland, preached two excellent sermons in the above church yesterday. In the morning there was a children's service, at which the hymns and discourse were specially devoted to the edification of the young. The preacher's text was:

"And the child grew and increased in stature and wisdom, and in favor with God and man."

It was the chief duty of parents to train a child up in the way it should go spiritually. If a child was old enough to do wrong it was old enough to do right, and upon the parents rested much of the responsibility.

Tabernacle.

In the morning the Pastor, Rev. J. H. Locke, preached an earnest and practical sermon from Acts, 2nd chapter, 4th verse:

"And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost and began to speak with other tongues, as the spirit gave them utterance."

In the evening the Rev. J. J. Rice preached, and his discourse was much appreciated.

Christ Church.

At this place of worship yesterday the discourses delivered by the Curate, Rev. W. B. Heeney, were able efforts. In the evening the text was the latter portion of the 6th verse of the 4th chapter of Zechariah:

"Not by might, nor by power, but My spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts."

St. Thomas'.

At the morning service the Rector, Rev. Canon Burke, took part in the services, and also preached a fine sermon from St. John, 1st chapter, 8th and 9th verses. In the evening the Curate, Rev. Mr. Holah, preached, taking his text from the 1st Corinthians, 4th chapter and 20th verse;

"For the Kingdom of God is not in word, but in power."

John Street.

At the morning service, the Pastor, Rev. T. J. Thompson, concluded his series of discourses on the life of Joseph, which have proved interesting and profitable. In the evening the Rev. gentleman's subject was "A Word in Season," the basis of his remarks being taken from verses in the 40th chapter of Isaiah. During the service a suitable anthem was rendered by the choir.

St. Andrew's

The Pastor, Rev. M. W. Maclean, occupied the pulpit at both services, fair congregations being present. The text in the evening was from Matthew, 12th chapter, verses 49 and 50;

"And He stretched forth His hand towards His disciples and said, behold my mother and my brethren.

"For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother and sister and mother."

Bleecker Street.

At both morning and evening services the Pastor, Rev. M. J. Bates, preached, and his discourses were listened to by fair congregations. In the evening some students from Albert College assisted in the service.

SHIP "HARD AGROUND"

A distressing skin disease had well nigh wrecked his good ship "Health," but Dr. Agnew's Ointment came to the rescue and it's timely aid relieved the distress and brought him safe to land.

C. H. Howard, a prominent steamboat man, of Rangeley, Maine, writes:—"Enclosed find thirty-five cents for a box of Dr. Agnew's Ointment. I bought a box in Portland recently for a distressing case of skin disease, and it did me so much good that I want to try another box. It is the only remedy that has ever given me any relief and I believe it will cure me" 35 cts. 31

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one-half, the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done, it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilious habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little effect. But since using 3 bottles of the Vegetable Discovery, the biliousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 60 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know."

Hope is pretty poor security to go to a bank to borrow money on.

THE PUBLIC should bear in mind that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has nothing in common with the impure, deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or hurts, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

• • •

A "sit-down method" won't do a minute in this age of aggressiveness.

• • •

When all other preparations fail, try Holloway's Corn Cure. No pain whatever, and no inconvenience in using it.

• • •

There is nothing else on earth so annoying as procrastination in decisions.

• • •

To get relief from indigestion, biliousness, constipation or torpid liver without disturbing the stomach or purging the bowels, take a few doses of Carter's Little Liver Pills, they will please you.

Lots of men marry because they are not old enough to know better.

• • •

That tired, languid feeling and dull headache is very disagreeable. Take two of Carter's Little Liver Pills before retiring, and you will find relief. They never fail to do good.

• • •

Give the young man a chance; this is the country of the young.

• • •

They make one feel as though life was worth living. Take one of Carter's Little Liver Pills after eating; it will relieve dyspepsia, aid digestion, give tone and vigor to the system.

A man does not necessarily have to be a lawyer to have good, hard sense.

Sleeplessness.—When the nerves are unstrung and the whole body given up to wretchedness, when the mind is filled with gloom and dismal forebodings, the result of derangement of the digestive organs, sleeplessness comes to add to the distress. If only the subject could sleep, there would be the oblivion for a while and temporary relief. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, but will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

• • •

An indiscreet man usually lives to see the folly of his ways; and, if he doesn't, his children do.

• • •

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Nine-tenths of the consumptives date their afflictions from a neglected cold, and the diseases that are caused by wet feet, damp clothes, or exposure are more numerous than are generally supposed. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which frees the lungs from viscid phlegm by changing the secretions from a diseased to a healthy state.

• • •

A man should always be close to the situation, know what he is doing, and not take anything for granted.

• • •

The Flagging Energies Revived.—Constant application to business is a tax upon the energies, and if there be not relaxation, lassitude and depression are sure to intervene. These comes from stomachic troubles. The want of exercise brings on nervous irregularities, and the stomach ceases to assimilate food properly. In this condition Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a recuperative of rare powder, restoring the organs to healthful action, dispelling depression, and reviving the flagging energies.

• • •

There is one element that is worth its weight in gold, and that is loyalty. It will cover a multitude of weaknesses.

• • •

Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is a speedy cure for dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera, summer complaint, sea sickness and complaints incidental to children teething. It gives immediate relief to those suffering from the effects of indiscretion in eating unripe fruit, cucumbers, etc. It acts with wonderful rapidity and never fails to conquer the disease. No one need fear cholera if they have a bottle of this medicine convenient.

Cowansville, Que., Oct. 12.—At the Eastern Townships Dairymen's Board of Trade to-day, 44 factories offered 2723 boxes of cheese; seven creameries offered 205 boxes butter. A. J. Bryce bought 937 boxes at 8⅝c; 175 boxes at 8¾c; 55 boxes butter at 20¼c. J. Odell bought 494 boxes cheese at 8⅝c; 221 boxes at 8¾c. J. Gibson bought 360 boxes at 8⅝c; 56 boxes at 8¾c. J. Burnett bought 43 boxes butter at 20¼c. Nine buyers present. Adjourned to Oct. 19.

Cornwall, Oct. 12.—There were 2222 cheese offered at the Cornwall Cheese Board to-day, of which 1573 were white and 629 colored; 1146 sold; the balance refused to part with their offerings at the price offered, 8¾c being the highest figure bid. The majority sold at 8⅝c. McGregor got 561, McRae 430, Birdsell 180, Weatherspoon 85.

Belleville, Oct. 12.—Twenty factories boarded 1780 boxes white cheese here today. Sales on board, 50 at 8¼c.

Seton-Thompson Acquitted.

Denver, Oct. 14.—Ernest Seton-Thompson, the celebrated writer on wild animals, who, with Guide John Goff, were arrested for an alleged violation of the Colorado game laws, were on Saturday released. Their arrest will cost Warden Bush of Rio Blanco County his position, as Game Commissioner Harris announces that he will be removed. The evidence showed that the two men had baited a bear trap with the carcass of a young deer which had been killed by a snowslide, and the jury promptly acquitted them.

Going Through Canal.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Oct. 14.—As a result of the Fulton's collision with the gates in the Poe lock, the following regulation was put into effect last night to guard against more serious damage in the future: "All steamers must stop their engines when the bow reaches on entering lock, and start them thereafter only upon orders from the canal officials, and never above slow speed."

THE HANDY FOLDING RULE

An Old Standby of the Mechanic in Greater Demand Than Ever.

"There are about a million different kinds of rules," said a dealer in hardware and tools, "the rules being something of well nigh universal use in one form or another in pretty much all trades, but here's one old standby that we sell more of now than ever, this being the folding rule.

"There are plenty of rules that fold, the commonly known two foot rule being a familiar example, but this particular old rule that I speak of is known by name as the folding rule.

"It is made in foot long sections, in various lengths, ranging from two to ten feet and over ten, if required, but three feet, five feet, any number of feet, the rule, whatever its total length, folds up completely into a bundle a foot long. The slats are thin and folded up, and even a ten foot rule takes up little room. It can be quite conveniently carried in the pocket.

"Lots of people use folding rules—plumbers, for instance, in measuring pipes and in measuring places for pipes. In measuring a distance greater than the spread of the arms with a tape two men are required, but one man can measure with a folding rule as far as the rule can reach, and with such a rule he can, single handed, measure around corners or in the angles of wall and ceiling or in any other bend or crevice. We sell lots of them nowadays to electricians, who use them in measuring for wiring houses, and we sell them to various other users, the six foot rule being the one most commonly sold.

"Such rules, of whatever length, are sold by the foot, at 8 cents a foot."

FLOWER AND TREE.

Pruning to excess or too frequent or too long is weakening to the tree.

When a branch is removed, the cutting should be close, leaving no stub.

The apple, pear, quince and thorn can be grafted one on another, with varying success.

Wormy fruit in the orchard is best disposed of by the sheep. They eat all without making any choice, as pigs do.

Planting a few trees every fall or spring, as may be convenient, helps materially to keep up a supply of good fruit.

The cherry, peach, apricot, nectarine and almond require a light, dry and warm soil, but may be grown on loose, sandy soils.

Saltpeter is recommended as a quick acting fertilizer for flower beds that seem to be languishing, especially those that show small and pale leafage.

Peach and plum trees are both less liable to diseases when grown in the poultry yard. The trees will make a better growth and at the same time afford shade for the fowls.

Geraniums that have been used for summer bloomers will not flower again until the late spring months. Geraniums for winter blooming should be grown especially for that purpose by keeping the flower buds nipped off until August.

THE INNS OF NORWAY

PLAIN AND WHOLESOME AND WITHOUT ANY FRILLS.

The Meals Are Formidable Affairs, and Salmon Is Always Served. Guests Are Expected to Eat Heartily and to Wait on Themselves.

At intervals of eight or ten miles along the public highway, usually in connection with the skyds stations, are inns where the traveler will invariably find the comforts if not the luxuries of life—plenty of food and shelter, bed and board. There is no upholstered furniture or velvet carpets or eggshell china, but always neat lace curtains at every window, sometimes in the windows of the stables.

A luxurious American will have to deny himself much that he is accustomed to at home and will encounter experiences and customs that are new and novel to him. But if he is reasonable in his requirements and behaves himself like a gentleman he will always meet with a hospitable although a homely welcome. The Norwegian hotel keepers measure our appetites by their own and give you so much to eat, particularly at the noon dinner, that you are stupid and sleepy all the rest of the day and snooze in your carriage when you ought to be admiring the scenery.

There is no style about the hotels, and the service is poor. The household work is all done by the landlord and his wife and daughters. There are no electric bells, and if you want anything you usually have to hunt for it and help yourself. It is the custom of the country for the travelers to make themselves at home, and you are sometimes compelled to look after your own luggage or it is liable to be left. But you will recover it again after a time. The people are honest, considerate and unselfish, but unpretentious in their hospitality. There are no locks on their doors, for none is needed. Burglars and thieves are absolutely unknown.

The bedrooms are barren of ornaments and easy chairs that we are accustomed to at home. There are no carpets and no rugs on the floor. All the appurtenances are plain and substantial, without any effort at show and very little idea of convenience. The beds are good, but usually the only cover is a comfortable seven or eight inches thick and as heavy and unwieldy as a feather bed. You can't tuck it in at the bottom or at the sides, and it is always sliding off to the floor. It is too much covering for an ordinary sleeper, and when the nights are warm, as they often are, you are compelled to choose between a chill and suffocation.

The pillows are another nuisance. There are usually a bolster of feathers about the size of a barrel and a little bit of a 4 by 9 pillow an inch or two thick, with pretty trimmings upon it. The big pillow is too big, and the little one is two small, and you solve the dilemma by rolling up your overcoat into a ball and using that instead. There is plenty of fresh, heavy, homemade linen—large, square towels that have been woven under the same roof during the long winter days.

The breakfast is abundant and often terrifying. You are at first confronted with five or six different kinds of cheese, an equal variety of cold meats, tinned fish, smoked herring and salmon, cold boiled ham, three or four kinds of cold sausage, strips of dried reindeer meat and half a dozen different jams and preserved fruits. You are expected to partake freely of that sort of provender and usually do so until you learn by experience that dried fish, boiled eggs, veal cutlets and other hot food will soon follow if you are patient. The coffee is usually good, and there is always an abundance of rich, thick cream. There is no warm bread, but five or six kinds of cold bread baked from wheat, rye and oat flour, besides the national "flatbrod," which no Norwegian table is ever without.

The dinner is a formidable affair after the fashion of the ordinary European table d'hote, with soup, fish, roast, salad, preserves and pudding, while for supper you get the same assortment of cheese, cold meats, fish, sausage and preserves that you have had for breakfast and two or three hot dishes. Fish is the staff of life and salmon the mainstay. It is served in some form at every meal, fried at breakfast and supper and boiled for dinner, with strips of cold smoked salmon of a deep rich color on the side at all meals.

The lakes and rivers are well stocked with salmon trout, which are caught in nets and kept alive in tanks until they are needed. You enjoy them the first five or six meals, but after you have had them seventeen or eighteen times in succession they begin to lose their relish. Beer is the ordinary beverage. Everybody drinks it. Claret and Rhine wine can be had at the larger hotels, but never any whisky, brandy or other strong liquors. Local option prevails throughout Norway, and in the country districts the sale of spirituous liquors is forbidden.

Half and Half.

"Have you suffered much from toothache?" asked the dentist.

"A little," answered the young woman in the chair, "but not much. My teeth, I suspect, are like mamma's. She has never had anything done to hers, and she hasn't an unsound tooth in her head."

"How are your father's teeth?"

"Poor papa! His are all gone. They never were anything but mere shells."

"Well," said the dentist, breaking it to her as gently as he could, "it's very evident that you inherit your upper jaw from your mother and your lower jaw from your father."—Chicago Tribune.

Blunt.

"I should like to go to my mother-in-law's funeral this afternoon, sir," said the bookkeeper to the "old man."

"So should I," replied the proprietor as he turned to his desk again.

As His Folks View It.

No man ever fell in love with a woman whom his folks didn't like. He merely becomes "infatuated" with her.

AYER'S
Cherry Pectoral

has been for sixty years the popular medicine for colds, coughs, and all diseases of the throat and lungs. It cures Asthma and Bronchitis, and so soothes the irritated tissues that a refreshing sleep invariably follows its use. No mother fears an attack of Croup or Whooping Cough for her children, with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house. It is a specific for that modern malady, La Grippe. It prevents Pneumonia, and has frequently cured severe cases of lung trouble marked by all the symptoms of Consumption. It is

The Standard Remedy
for Colds, Coughs, and Lung Diseases.

"At the age of twenty, after a severe sickness, I was left with weak lungs, a terrible cough, and nearly all the symptoms of consumption. My doctor had no hope of my recovery; but having read the advertisements of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, I determined to try that preparation. I did so, and since that time, I have used no other cough medicine. I am now seventy-two years old, and I know that at least fifty years have been added to my life by this incomparable preparation." A. W. SPERRY, Plainfield, N. J.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for nearly fifty years and found it to be an excellent remedy for all bronchial and throat diseases." L. H. MATHEWS, Editor News-Dispatch, Oneonta, Ala.

"My first remembrance of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral dates back thirty-six years, when my mother used it for colds, coughs, croup, and sore throat. She used no other medicine in attacks of that sort among her children, and it never failed to bring prompt relief and cure. I always keep this medicine in the house, and a few doses quickly check all colds, coughs, or any inflammation of the throat and lungs." J. O'DONNELL, Seattle, Wash.

"I have sold Ayer's Medicines for forty-five years. I know of no preparation that equals Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for the cure of bronchitis. It never fails to give prompt relief." C. L. SHERWOOD, Druggist, Dowagiac, Mich.

"I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral both in my family and practice, and consider it one of the best of its class for la grippe, colds, coughs, bronchitis, and consumption in its early stages." W. A. WRIGHT, M. D., Barnesville, Ga.

"Some years ago Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cured me of the asthma after the best medical skill had failed to give me relief." F. S. HASSLER, Editor Argus, Table Rock, Neb.

One of Florence's Jokes.

That genial comedian W. J. Florence had a habit of promising a man a fish or some game when he was about starting on a hunting or fishing trip. Day after day would pass, and the game would not be forthcoming. But almost every day a letter or telegram would come saying that Florence had not forgotten; that Florence was just about sending the game; that there was no cause for worry, as a fine fish or deer was on its way to the express office. At first this solicitousness would cause courteous letters and telegrams in return. As the delay got longer the victim would get impatient and would finally be literally haunted by huge fishes or deer, "with the compliments of W. J. Florence." Then some fine day, when it was least expected, the fish or deer would come.

Beef Tea.

It is the suggestion of a trained nurse, whose beef tea was most acceptable to a patient to whom in any previous illness it had been repellent, that the beef should be broiled before the juice is extracted. A thick, lean, juicy steak from the round is broiled over a clear fire perhaps two minutes on each side, after which it is cut up into small squares, put into a saucepan, covered with cold water and set on the back of the stove, where it should steep, not boil, for fully two hours. Remember not to add the salt until the dish is taken from the fire and serve it hot unless, of course, it is to be offered as cold or iced beef tea.

Salt Rheum

It may become chronic.

It may cover the body with large, inflamed, burning, itching, scaling patches and cause intense suffering. It has been known to do so.

Do not delay treatment.

Thoroughly cleanse the system of the humors on which this ailment depends and prevent their return.

The medicine taken by Mrs. Ida E. Ward, Cove Point, Md., was Hood's Sarsaparilla. She writes: "I had a disagreeable itching on my arms which I concluded was salt rheum. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and in two days felt better. It was not long before I was cured and I have never had any skin disease since."

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Promises to cure and keeps the promise. It is positively unequaled for all cutaneous eruptions. Take it.

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

Daily Intelligencer.

Col. Montizambert Ill.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 15.—Principal Grant is able to sit up. To-day he will see the royal party and see the ceremonies at Queen's from a window at the General Hospital. Col. Montizambert, D. O. C., was attacked by illness on the street yesterday. He will be unable to take part in to-day's reception.

New Member for Dauphin.

Winnipeg, Oct. 15.—The Provincial Government, in the new Redistribution Bill, will give an additional member to Dauphin.

Pierre Loti Dying on a Warship.

Paris, Oct. 15.—Pierre Loti, the famous French descriptive writer, officer in the navy and academician, is said to be lying at the point of death on a French battleship now cruising in the China seas. He was recently assigned to duty in the Orient, and The Figaro is now publishing a series of articles from his pen on the Chinese war and impressions of Pekin. News of his desperate illness causes general regret in France, where he is immensely popular. His crisp, romantic style of story-telling has given him a wide vogue.

De Blaquierie Interviewed.

London, Oct. 15.—The Daily Chronicle publishes to-day an interview with Baron De Blaquierie, whose name has been mentioned in connection with the post of Governor-General of Canada. He says he has not been and does not expect to be approached officially on the subject, declaring that among many reasons why he could hardly accept the position even if offered is the fact that his fortune is not large enough.

Remarriage of Divorced Persons.

San Francisco, Oct. 15.—The House of Deputies of the Episcopal Church of America yesterday adopted the proposed canon prohibiting the re-marriage of divorced persons for causes not arising previous to their former marriage. The canon was adopted as it came from the House of Bishops. The vote stood 183 for, 158 against.

At Bottom of Lake Erie.

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 15.—A well-dressed man, about 45 years of age, jumped overboard from the steamer City of Buffalo early yesterday, while the vessel was en route from Buffalo to Cleveland. The steamer was stopped and a diligent search made for the man, but he could not be found.

Will Have Waterworks.

Southampton, Oct. 15.—The voting on the waterworks bylaw here yesterday resulted as follows: 145 for, 15 against.

No Truth in the Rumor.

Montreal, Oct. 15.—Hon. J. Israel Tarte stated yesterday that there was no truth whatever in the report of friction between the Governor-General and the Ministers of the Crown. Lord Minto, the Minister said, is loyal to his advisers, and it was a shame to see His Excellency's name dragged into the newspapers.

WESTERN ONTARIO FINISHED

From Niagara to Belleville in One Day With Many Stops.

Remarkable Enthusiasm Shown by Visited Towns and Cities—Longest Stay Was at Hamilton, Where There Were Addresses, Luncheon and Presentation of Colors to the 13th Regiment—All Places Clothed Themselves in Royal Garb.

Niagara-on-the-Lake, Oct. 15.—The Duke and Duchess of York concluded their stay here yesterday morning, and as the royal train pulled out at 10 o'clock Britain's future King and Queen stood on the back platform of their car, smiling their acknowledgments of the acclamations of the enthusiastic populace.

5,000 at St. Catharines.

St. Catharines, Oct. 15.—The royal train, with the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, stopped here a few minutes yesterday morning. The citizens turned out en masse. The different business houses were closed. Ridley College turned out 100 strong, Principal Miller appearing in his clerical robes and mortar board. The other colleges and schools also attended in a body. A company of the 19th Regiment assembled, under Lieut.-Col. Thairs, as a guard of honor. There was also a representation of the 7th Field Battery, under Major Merritt; 2nd Artillery Brigade Division, under Lieut.-Col. King. At 10.56, when the royal train pulled in, the military performed a salute, and as the Duke and Duchess appeared on the rear platform a tremendous cheer went up from 8,000 throats. Mayor McIntyre stepped aboard with little Marion Merritt, daughter of Major Merritt. The little one bowed and presented the Duchess with a handsome bouquet of flowers. The Mayor then made a short address, to which the Duke replied. A number of prominent citizens were then presented.

Hamilton at Noon.

Hamilton, Oct. 15.—The Duke of Cornwall and York and heir to the British throne, the Duchess, and the ducal party, arrived here from Niagara Falls at noon yesterday. The party was met by Major and Mayor Hendrie, Col. J. M. Gibson, and Col. McLaren.

Little time was lost in entering the carriages and forming the procession. At the City Hall the civic address was read by Mayor Hendrie, and the address from the Daughters of the Empire was presented by Mrs. C. Fessenden. The Duke replied appropriately.

Miss Ethel Walker presented the Duchess with a very handsome basket of flowers. This was graciously received by Her Royal Highness, after which the people on the platform were introduced to the royal pair. In addition to the invited guests, were Chief Bill of the Indian Reserve, and John Flockton, an old sailor who had served more than three years on board the man-of-war Bachante along with the Duke, was honored by a shake of the royal hands. The Duke remembered Mr. Flockton, and made a remark to this effect.

From the City Hall the royal party drove to The Holmstead, Bold street, the residence of William Hendrie, where luncheon was served.

When the royal party arrived at Victoria Park they found the place literally crowded. A salute from the Guard of Honor of 77th Regiment, under Major Ptolemy, welcomed Their Royal Highnesses. The Thirteenth Regiment was drawn up. The old colors of the regiment were retired with beautiful and impressive ceremony to the tune of "Auld Lang Syne," played by the Thirteenth Band. The new colors were then presented by the Duke.

The ducal party drove from Victoria Park to the station, and the royal train left for the west about 4 o'clock.

Reception at Brantford.

Brantford, Oct. 15.—The train conveying Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York arrived here at 4.37. Long before this hour there were assembled at the G. T. R. Station and its surroundings between twenty and thirty thousand people to get a view of the royal party. There was a guard of honor from the Dufferin Rifles, the Collegiate Institute Cadets and Mohawk Institute Cadets. The buildings were decorated with flags, bunting and mottoes. His Worship the Mayor welcomed the distinguished visitors, and, passing through a beautiful arch, they proceeded to the platform, when the Dufferin Band played and the school children, some 1,500 in number, sang "The Maple Leaf," after which Prof. Bell, father of Prof. A. Melville Bell, as a souvenir from the City of Brantford, gave the Duke a complete telephone set. The case of the receiver is solid silver, on which is nicely engraved, "Presented to Their H. R. H. the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York by the citizens of the Telephone City, Brantford, Canada, Oct. 14." On the receiver is a silver band with the city coat of arms heavily cut in. The casket is sycamore wood top and bottom, ends birch, the inside curly ash, inside bottom covered with purple silk on which the set lies, on outside on top of cover is engraved the Duke's coat of arms.

Rev. R. Ashton, Principal of the Mohawk Institute, was present with a Bible presented by Queen Anne to the Six Nation Indians, and received Their Highnesses' signatures in it. The Bible had previously the autograph of His Majesty the King, and the Duke of Connaught.

Two Indian Chiefs, in full Indian dress, were presented, after which the Reception Committee and the City Council were presented and were shaking hands with His Highness the Duke when time to halt was called. The band played the National Anthem, while the visitors took the car and left at 5 o'clock sharp. This was the largest gathering that Brantford ever witnessed.

Stop at Paris.

Paris, Oct. 15.—All places of business were closed, all factories were shut down and the people of Paris and surrounding country turned out en masse to welcome Their Royal Highnesses, the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall, yesterday afternoon. About 5.20 the royal train arrived. The Duke and Duchess appeared on the rear platform, where the Reception Committee were presented and the Duke and Duchess were presented with a handsome bouquet of flowers. The Oxford Rifles, headed by the band, were in attendance. As the train pulled out His Royal Highness repeatedly bowed in response to the hearty cheers.

Woodstock Visited.

Woodstock, Oct. 15.—The royal train arrived at 5.50 p. m. Early in the afternoon the crowds began to gather at the depot, and by 4 o'clock over 10,000 is the estimated number that had gathered. The station was beautifully decorated. A huge platform was erected where the train was to stop and upon which were massed nearly a thousand school children, who sang patriotic songs with the accompaniment of the 22nd Regiment Band. On a private platform, roped in to keep the crowd back, were stationed the Mayor, and City Council, together with a number of prominent personages, who were presented to the Duke and Duchess. The royal party stayed in Woodstock about 11 minutes, during which the immense crowd cheered wildly.

Passed Toronto By.

Toronto, Oct. 15.—The Duke of Cornwall and York and party have left Toronto far behind. They spent a busy day yesterday in Western Ontario and gladdened the eyes of many thousand loyal Canadians.

Out of deference to Their Royal Highnesses' wish there was no demonstration when the train arrived at the Union Station last night. There were very few people in the station even, the public being excluded, and all regular trains stopped from between the hours of 6.15 and 8 o'clock. None of the civic authorities or Government House party was at the trainside, and when the royal train pulled in all the blinds were drawn and the occupants remained inside. It arrived at 7.38 o'clock and left for Kingston at 7.58.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who had remained over in Toronto, joined Their Royal Highnesses, and will accompany the party to Halifax.

The Duke's train stays over night at Belleville, and then proceeds to Kingston, where an elaborate program has been prepared.

Pleased With the Review.

Ottawa, Oct. 15.—Major-General O'Grady-Haly yesterday morning made public the following telegram from the Governor-General, dated Queen's Royal, Niagara-on-the-Lake, Oct. 12:

"His Excellency has been requested by His Royal Highness the Duke of Cornwall and York to make known to you and to all concerned how much pleased His Royal Highness was with yesterday's review, and with all the arrangements connected with it. His Royal Highness was much struck with the large number present on parade, and the general bearing of the troops under arms."

Will Not Go to Halifax.

Ottawa, Oct. 15.—Gen. O'Grady-Haly has received notification that the War Office wishes him to take command at the royal review at Halifax on Oct. 21, and not Col. Biscoe, the senior Imperial officer there. Admiral Bedford is said to object to Gen. O'Grady-Haly assuming command, and is credited with having refused, if he does so, to land sailors and marines from the British fleet to take part in the review. Having vindicated his position and upheld the dignity of the Canadian militia, Gen. O'Grady-Haly has now decided not to attend the review, but to leave the command of the Canadian troops to Lieut.-Col. Irving, D. O. C.

Big Sentence Asked For.

Havana, Oct. 15.—The indictments in the postoffice fraud cases have been sent by the Fiscal to the Audiencia, but have not yet been made public. It is known, however, that the Fiscal has asked that C.F. W. Neely, Estes G. Rathbone and W. H. Reeves, the indicted officials, be sentenced to imprisonment for terms ranging from 24 to 26 years.

The Common Dread of Kidney Disease

Due to the Sudden and Unexpected Deaths Which Result—Constipation a Frequent Cause—The Unusual Efficacy of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

Kidney diseases may last for years and at times may seem to disappear entirely, but unless radical treatment is taken, death is likely to result at some unexpected moment. The most frequent cause of kidney ailments is constipation and neglect to keep the bowels regular and active. With constipation the excretory functions of the kidneys fails, the convoluted tubes become choked up, and the tissues are gradually wasted away. The liver cells also are compressed and destroyed, and the most complicated ailments arise.

So far as is known, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are the only treatment that gets at the cause of kidney disease by quickening and regulating the action of the intestines, as well as invigorating and restoring the kidneys themselves. There must be some great secret for the phenomenal and continual success of Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills. Gradually the demand for them has increased until now there is no similar remedy that has anything like the sale of this great prescription. It seems safe to conclude that much is due to the fact that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have a direct and combined influence on kidneys, liver and bowels.

Mr. Wm. Boyne, of 19 McGee street, Toronto, says: "I was afflicted severely with kidney disease, stone in the bladder, incontinence, deposits in the urine, severe pains in the back, and pains over the loins. I was so bad that I had to get up two or three times in the night, and could then only make water with great pain.

"Though long a sufferer and unable to work, I was confined to my bed for three weeks, and during that time thought I could not possibly endure greater misery. It was then that I began to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. It is with gratitude that I say that they have freed me of all these symptoms and made me a well man."

Aldershot to Get Ready

Peremptory Order From War Office to First Army Corps.

Tour of Western Ontario Finished—Royal Party Goes From Niagara to Kingston in one Day—Killed the Wrong Man—May Have Found North Pole—Killed by G. T. R. Train.

London, Oct. 15.—The Pall Mall Gazette said yesterday afternoon: "Orders have been received at Aldershot to hold every available man in readiness to proceed on active service. The garrison totals 29,000 men."

The above is interpreted as meaning that the Government is desirous of reassuring the public, and not as foreshadowing an immediate demand for the services of the first army corps.

Pro-Boer Sheet Suspends.

London, Oct. 15.—A special despatch from Cape Town says that, owing to the restrictions of martial law, the Pro-Boer South African News has been obliged to suspend publication.

Fighting Mac in Australia.

Sydney, Oct. 15.—Col. Sir Hector Macdonald has arrived unexpectedly at Fremantle, en route to Sydney and New Zealand, where it is understood that he has relatives. He is on 90 days' furlough, and declares that his visit is purely private and quite unconnected with the Federal commandantship, though he acknowledged to an interviewer his willingness to accept it if he were given the chance.

Another Canadian Ill.

Ottawa, Oct. 15.—It is George Douglas, and not Thomas Douglas, who is dangerously ill of enteric fever at Elandsfontein, belonging to the South African Constabulary, and was taken ill on Oct. 8. His father is E. Douglas of Truro, N.S.

Is He a Coward?

London, Oct. 15.—A strong effort is being made to secure the revision of a sentence of penal servitude passed by court martial on Private Sinclair of the Black Watch, for alleged misbehavior at Honing's Spruit on June 22 last. Sinclair was charged with retiring along with others to cover when orders to do so had not been given. Great exception is taken to the evidence given at the court martial, and it is pointed out that a non-commissioned officer declares that he heard the order given to retire. An old commanding officer believes him incapable of cowardice and is backing the appeal.

ATTENTION TO MACEDONIA.

To Capture Every Foreigner to Get the Eye of Europe.

London, Oct. 15.—The Daily Express has received the following from Vienna:

"Todaroff, the driver who accompanied Miss Stone when she was kidnapped, has arrived at Sofia. He says her captors are Turks. The Bulgarian police, who are not satisfied with his statements, are keeping him under surveillance."

Another Kidnaped.

London, Oct. 15.—"It is announced from Bucharest," says a despatch to The Daily Mail from Vienna, "that Herr Rosenthal, the representative of a German firm, has been kidnapped by Bulgarian brigands at Silistria.

"It is rumored that the Macedonian Committee has decided to capture every foreigner within reach in order to attract European attention to the bad state of public security in Macedonia."

The First Schley Witness.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Yesterday in the Schley Court of Inquiry, Judge Advocate Lemley concluded the presentation of testimony for the Government, and the first of Admiral Schley's witnesses was introduced. Captain Francis A. Cook, who commanded Admiral (the Commodore) Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, during the Santiago campaign, and who acted, though unofficially, in the capacity of chief of staff for the Commodore, was on the witness stand the greater part of the day. Captain Cook's testimony was a review of the entire campaign after Cervera's fleet, beginning with the departure of the flying squadron from Key West on May 19, and concluding with the battle off Santiago, July 3. Asked for an opinion as to Admiral Schley's bearing as a commanding officer, he said: "I always regarded him as an enthusiastically, brave and patriotic officer."

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

"I have been thinking of writing to you for some time," writes Mrs. W. D. Benson, of Maxton, Robeson Co., N. C., "to let you know what a wonderful thing Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery did for my little boy. He was taken with indigestion when he was a year and a half old, and he was under the doctor's treatment for five long years. We spent all we made for doctor's bills, and it did no good. He could not eat anything only a little milk and cracker, and sometimes even this would make him sick, and he got very weak; could not sit up all day, and I gave up all hope of his ever getting any better. Looking over one of your books I noticed Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery recommended for indigestion. We bought some and gave to our boy. Two bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cured him. He is well as can be, and can eat anything that he wants and it does not hurt him. He has not been sick a day since, and it has been three years since he took your medicine. I pray that God will always bless you and your medicine."

Charged With Murder.

Dayton, Ohio, Oct. 15.—The formal charge of murder in the first degree was yesterday preferred against Mrs. Mary Belle Witwer, suspected of having caused the deaths of her four husbands and her own children by poison. The affidavit was sworn to by Chief of Detectives Frank McBride, and is based wholly on circumstantial evidence. The chemists' report is promised to-day.

One Year for Most.

New York, Oct. 15.—Johann Most, the Anarchist, was sentenced to one year in the Penitentiary yesterday by Justice Hinsdale, presiding in the Court of Special Sessions, for publishing in his paper, The Freiheit, an alleged seditious article on the day following the shooting of the late President McKinley.

Scale is Spreading.

Toronto, Oct. 15.—The Provincial San Jose Scale Inspector says that the scale is spreading, and he advises farmers, when they discover the pest, to take immediate action, for it is bound to spread if they don't. Many trees are dying from the scale, he says.

WRECKED ON LONELY ISLE.

Evidence of the Desperate Plight of Sailors of a British Ship.

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 15.—The steamship Glenroy brings news from Hong Kong that wreckage has been found on Bikar Island, a small uninhabited island of the Marshall group, which proves that the British ship Manchester came to grief there. The Manchester, Capt. F. Clemens, left New York loaded with kerosene, shipped by the Standard Oil Company just one year ago. Her destination was Yokohama, and shipping men have agreed long since that she must have been lost in a typhoon. Footprints and marks of two boats' keels on the sand, together with other signs, make it certain that Capt. Clemens, his wife, two children and crew have been on the island, and, unable to find water, pushed off again. Plainly marked in the sand were footprints of a woman and children. The body of one sailor was found in a scrubby growth of trees near shore. There were also found bodies of birds, which had been sucked for their blood. As no sign has since been found of Capt. Clemens, his family, and crew, it is supposed that they died of thirst before they reached inhabited islands. The Manchester carried a crew of 25 men, most of them British sailors. The value of the ship and cargo was nearly $500,000.

MAY HAVE THE POLE.

A Norwegian Captain Believed to Have Won the Coveted Goal.

Christiania, Oct. 15.—A strong belief exists in Scandinavia that Capt. Sverdrup of the Fram, has reached the North Pole, and is now returning home. Sverdrup has been away on his expedition round Greenland for 40 months. As Lieut. Peary did not see him in the north of Greenland, it is thought the brave Norwegian never intended to go round Greenland to reach the Pole. In the summer of 1899 Sverdrup was on the northwest coast of Greenland. Lincoln's Sea, to the north thereof, was ice free the following summer, according to Peary. Scientists declare there is a strong probability that Sverdrup seized the opportunity and reached the Pole. No fear is entertained as to the safety of the expedition, which was provisioned for five years.

Displayed Roll of Bills.

Buffalo, Oct. 15.—John A. Clark, a resident of Bullock Corners, Ont., is visiting Buffalo. Yesterday afternoon he started out to do the town. About 5.30 o'clock he found himself in Otto Froelich's saloon at No. 77 Canal street. He bought several drinks and to pay for them had to display a tempting wad. He was seized by one man and searched by two other men who appeared and robbed of $50. John Sylvia, a waiter in Froelich's place, and John J. Luby were arrested. Clark identified Sylvia as one of the men. He had three $5 bills in his pockets. The pair are charged with robbery in the first degree.

Pocket Picking at Hamilton.

Hamilton, Oct. 15.—Officer Miller caught "Bob" Young, the notorious robber, who is a ticket-of-leave man from Kingston Penitentiary, just after he had picked a woman's pocket. The officer recovered the stolen property. Miller also arrested Herbert Thompson, No. 50 Pearl street, on a charge of attempting to pick a woman's pocket.

William Hoth, Locke street, reports that $130 was stolen from his pocket near the City Hall. E. W. Fitzgerald, East avenue, says $22 was stolen from his pocket. A woman named Mrs. Fortman had a gold guinea stick-pin stolen from car.

HE KILLED THE WRONG MAN

Sad Tragedy at Work Point Barracks at Victoria, B.C.

Henry Gill, Sapper of the Royal Engineers, Shoots a Gunner in the Mouth—Had Aimed at Another's Head, But the Intended Victim Turns in Time and the Bullet Missed Him—Victim of the Mistake Dead.

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 15.—A sad tragedy occurred at Work Point Barracks yesterday, as a result of which Gunner Clinnick lies dead, and Henry Gill, sapper, Royal Engineers, aged 20, is under arrest for murder. The murder is a peculiar one, for Gill intended to murder a man other than he shot. He secured a carbine and went to the canteen, where the gunners were playing cards, intending to murder Gunner Mahoney, and on entering the canteen he took aim at the back of Mahoney's head.

Gunner Foster, who was watching the men playing cards saw him and shouted to Mahoney, "Look out!"

Mahoney turned his head just as the carbine was discharged, and the bullet went past his ear and struck Clinnick, who sat opposite, in the mouth. Clinnick slid to the floor bleeding in the mouth, and the others jumped upon Gill, who was borne to the floor.

As he fell he said: "I'm glad I killed Mahoney."

Foster said, "You didn't kill Mahoney, you killed Clinnick."

"My God!" said Gill, "I intended to shoot Mahoney."

Clinnick died soon after being removed to the hospital. Gill is charged with murder.

WHEAT DELIVERIES.

Shipments From Winnipeg East Have Been 4,700,000 Bushels.

Winnipeg, Oct. 15.—Owing to the wet weather during the week the wheat movement has not been so brisk as during the preceding two weeks, but reports from the C.P.R. indicate that there has been no standstill by any means. Up to the present their reports show that the total shipments east of wheat, not including flour, has been 4,700,000 bushels. This is against 511,000 bushels shipped for the corresponding time a year ago, and more than equals the shipments of wheat for the entire year of 1900. For the week ending Saturday, Oct. 12, the total amount of grain in store at country points was 1,877,595 bushels of wheat and 85,000 bushels of oats. Last year for the same week there was in store only 833,944 bushels of wheat and 8,700 bushels of oats at country points. On Saturday there were 90 cars of wheat loaded. The deliveries for the day amounted to 104,050 bushels, and 7,000 bushels of oats at Fort William.

The amount of wheat in store was 1,789,509 bushels on Saturday, which is not very much larger than the previous week. The shipments from Fort William for the week amounted to 812,019 bushels, and the receipts aggregated 765,791 bushels.

Czolgosz Awaiting His Doom.

Auburn, N. Y., Oct. 15.—"Absolutely nothing new with Czolgosz," was Warden Mead's reply to a query yesterday morning. "He has not asked for any spiritual adviser whatsoever. The death warrant has not been read to him yet. He has not suicided, nor given the least intimation that he would like to make away with himself, contrary reports notwithstanding.

"Of course he will not be given the slightest opportunity for this purpose. He ate heartily of his breakfast yesterday morning, and has not a complaint about his health."

Killed by a G.T.R. Train.

St. Mary's, Oct. 15.—A fatal accident occurred at what is known as the "Long Crossing," about a mile west of the Junction Station here yesterday. Mrs. Richard Cannon, who lives about 12 miles from St. Mary's, and two miles from Woodham, in the Township of Osborne, while returning from town alone in her buggy, was run down by a G. T. R. eastbound express train No. 2 and instantly killed. The horse was also killed, and the buggy completely wrecked.

Riot at Kilmarine.

London, Oct. 15.—John O'Donnell (Nationalist) attempted to address his constituents yesterday in Kilmarine, County of Mayo, the scene of recent evictions. He was dragged off the platform several times by the police, and finally, after a fierce struggle, was taken to the barracks. One hundred and fifty police were present at the meeting. The crowd hurled stones, and several persons were injured.

The Reward Withdrawn.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 15.—Edward A. Cudahy yesterday withdrew the reward of $25,000 which he offered ten months ago for the arrest of the abductors of his son. The reward is withdrawn unconditionally. At the suggestion of Mr. Cudahy, the city council will take up the matter to-night, and it is expected will withdraw its offer of $25,000 for the arrest of the kidnappers.

ATTENTION, INVENTORS!

E. G. Siggers, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C., whose ad. appears in our columns, is an attorney, of twenty-one years' active practice and is well recommended to us. His rating will be found in Dun's and Bradstreet's reports, as he owns the "Inventive Age." He has sent us application blanks and other papers and investors who are intending to apply for patents would save time by calling at this office and getting the papers before presenting their applications through any other source.

PRECEDENCE — DENOMINATIONAL EQUALITY.

The Rev. John Potts, D.D., in speaking on the subject of precedence and the reception of the Duke of York in Ottawa, made the following pertinent and sensible remarks, which will in time bear fruit:—

"I find that there has been some little flutter of excitement over the question of precedence at Ottawa. Those who have to do with the Government of this country had better understand the principle upon which things should be conducted in this land. I refer to the equality of denominations. In the absence of a state church the principle of equality must be maintained. The General Superintendent of our Church, Rev. Dr. Carman, who has been elected and re-elected since the time of the union, has jurisdiction over the entire Dominion and Newfoundland and touches Japan and China, and has the representation of the largest Protestant body in the Dominion, is surely equal of any Bishop or Archbishop in this country. What is true of Dr. Carman is true of the Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, and therefore, in my opinion, the heads of all the churches should be on an equality. If it were not for the foolish following of customs that have some ground of right in the Motherland, but not in this country, we should not have this subject cropping up in connection with special state functions. This is a question not for certain officials to decided, but for the Government of the Dominion to settle, and to settle in such a way as that it shall not give cause of irritation in the future. It is a question that should have been settled on a proper basis many years ago."

TIMELY TOPICS.

Good-bye. Good luck go with you!

How many of us fellows will be on deck when the Duke's eldest son makes a tour of the Colonies?

And now we can turn our attention to the price of coal once more.

It will take a long time for the Mayor's dignity to evaporate, after to-day.

And Major Maude was only an ordinary-looking man, after all!

For once he had to take a back seat. He couldn't edit that address which was given in the sign language.

* * *

Well done, gentlemen of the Reception Committee! Well done, everybody!

No doubt the Duke wished he could get through his little business in Kingston as quickly as he did in Belleville.

* * *

There was no question of clerical precedence this morning. The committee put the sky pilots all on the same footing.

The autumn leaves will soon be as red as the rust which decorates the exposed portions of the steam roller.

Golden weddings are becoming quite common in Belleville.

And now the story is going the rounds of how President Roosevelt on one of his famous hunting trips, shot an immense lion while suspended over the face of a precipice, a friend having undertaken the task of holding him by the heels while he gave the immense brute its happy despatch. One does not know which to most admire in the tale—the magnificent lion or the magnificent1 yin'.

Mr. Charles M. Hays, late of the Grand Trunk, drew from the Southern Pacific $155,500 for ten months' work. It would be interesting to learn how much he cut down the section men during that period.

Toronto Star: "Still we adhere to the opinion that large-minded men are a more worthy product of a country than red-coated men."

Can it be that the Star man is too small-minded to wear a red coat himself? If that be so we can understand his sneer at the soldiers.

After the turmoil and excitement of the past week the boys of the Old Fifteenth will be glad to "Stand Easy."

This is the way one of the Fourteenth of Kingston described his Toronto experiences to a reporter:

"During our whole stay in the Queen City hardly one of us got a wink of sleep, and of course we feel blue now in consequence. In the daytime it was nothing but marching, drilling, and marching again, until we could hardly move. It was the hardest week's work that I ever put in in my life."

The trip was no picnic, everybody will admit that, but the above description is very much exaggerated.

AN INTERNAL REMEDY.

A Pleasant Tasting Tablet; Simple, Convenient; Cures Every Form of Catarrh.

The use of inhalers, douches, sprays, salves and powders for catarrh is a nuisance and inconvenience at the best, and cannot compare with antiseptic remedies in tablet form for internal use.

Internal remedies are the only ones which can really reach the seat of the disease which is in the blood and local applications can no more cure catarrh than rheumatism or kidney trouble, the excessive secretion in nose and throat being local manifestations of a deep seated poison in the blood.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the most successful of the various internal remedies, is composed principally of highly concentrated antiseptics, which destroy the catarrh germs in the blood and cause them to be eliminated through the natural channels.

Progressive physicians use and advise Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because they contain no cocaine, no opiate, no enervating drug whatever, but are composed of Guaiacol, Hydrastin, Red Gum and similar catarrh antiseptics, and are so safe and pleasant that even little children may use them with excellent results.

Catarrh sufferers who have wasted time and money on local applications should not despair of a radical cure until a trial of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets has been made.

A complete treatment may be purchased at any drug store for fifty cents.

ANNUAL DINNER

A SUCCESSFUL CHURCH FESTIVAL AT VICTORIA, AMELIASBURG.

A most successful dinner and entertainment was held at Victoria church, Ameliasburg on Friday evening last, the proceeds of which completely liquidated all indebtedness upon the church. About 300 partook of dinner which consisted of a most elaborate spread. After dinner about 8 p.m., the meeting was called to order, when Rev. Mr. Adams, pastor, read a letter from Sir Mackenzie Bowell expressing regrets at not being able to attend and take the chair as agreed upon. The election of a new chairman being necessary ex-Reeve Anderson was unanimously called upon to preside over the meeting. Mr. Anderson was well received, and in a few well-chosen remarks in which he expressed regret at the absence of Sir Mackenzie Bowell, who he was sure was also disappointed by not being able to attend. Short addresses were delivered by Revs. Johnson, Foster and Adams. Two beautiful solos were rendered by Mrs. Rev. Adams and Mrs. Fife. A quintette "We'll mortgage the Farm," was well done. During the evening an autograph quilt was disposed of containing upwards of 400 names. Mrs Ralph Stafford held the lucky number 215. The pastor presented Mrs. Williamson (nee Adams) with a set of nicely bound books for having sold the largest number of tickets. The entertainment closed with singing "God Save the King."

HOW ONE MILLION IS SPENT.

Not less than one million dollars is annually spent by people seeking an absolute cure for Catarrh, Bronchitis and Consumption. Numerous are the remedies, but the one standing preeminently above all others is Catarrhozone. It cures these diseases because it is sure to reach them. Catarrhozone is inhaled into the lungs, throat and nasal passages, and bathes every part of the diseased membrane with its germ-killing, healing vapour. You simply breathe Catarrhozone and it cures. Price 25c. and $1 at druggists, or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

Time flies like an arrow, days and months like a weaver's shuttle.

A HEALTH POLICY

Mr. Sabin insures himself against the ravages of Indigestion and Dyspepsia. Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets is a safe "Policy" to carry. They prevent and cure, act quickly and a convenient "vest pocket" prescription.

"After trying nearly everything the Materia Medica recommended for Indigestion, I find Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets to be the only absolute specific for this most distressing ailment. It certainly has proved so in my case. I give you authority to quote me if it will lighten some other poor sufferer's burden."—James T. Sabin, Secretary of Vermont Mutual Fire Insurance Company, Montpelier, Vt. 60 tablets, 35 cts. 30

A BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION.

As a substitute for a beautiful complexion, some women resort to paint and powder. But the more sensible use "Climax" Iron Tonic Pills, which produce a natural, healthy complexion, make new blood and a robust constitution. Each box contains ten days' treatment. Price 25 cents, at all druggists, or mailed on receipt of price. Address: The Dr. Hall Medicine Co., Kingston, Ont.

MAYNOOTH.

Inspector Mackintosh has completed his work for the fall term in the more northern townships.

Despite the showers of Thursday last a good crowd was present at the village fair.

Among those who took advantage of the C.O.R. excursion to visit friends in this vicinity were Messrs. W. Anderson and D. H. White, of Rawdon, also Mrs. G. Kitchen, of Seymour East and Mrs. H. Spencer, of Rawdon.

The threshing is about done and the grain shows quite light in weight. The straw is very short.

Cattle, sheep and pigs are being rapidly purchased. The buyers seem to be more eager than in the early fall.

Mr. James Grant has become the proud possessor of a hearty coy.

Miss Ballard, of Madoc, is visiting with her brothers at Greenview.

Mr. H. W. Brooks, formerly of Stirling, is to take charge until Xmas. of the new Wicklow School.

Miss Nora Brooks, daughter of Mr. H. W. Brooks, of Monteagle, has gone to spend the winter at her uncle's, Mr. E. Brooks, of Glen Ross.

We have been favored with a couple of winter's snowy gales this last week.

THE PAIN OF SORE FEET.

Just about the most tantalizing of all pains comes from sore feet. To get relief bathe the feet in warm water and then rub them with Polson's Nerviline. It penetrates through the pores of the skin, takes out the soreness, reduces swellings, invigorates the tired muscles, tones up the circulation and prevents the feet from becoming sore again. Nerviline is a protection and safe-guard against the pains and aches of the entire family and cures rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, &c. 25 cents.

BOOK BINDING.

Orders for bookbinding should be left at this office. It is surprising how nice a volume can be made of these magazines, even though they are somewhat soiled from much handling. Books, magazines, or periodicals bound or rebound in any style at very reasonable prices. Blank books, such as journals, ledgers, day books, with any kind of ruling, made to order. All work warranted first-class. THE INTELLIGENCER, Belleville.

THERE HAS BEEN MUCH TALK ABOUT Pyny-Balsam, the greatest modern remedy for coughs and colds. It cures quickly and certainly. 25c. Of all dealers. Made by proprietors of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer.

The more illustrated newspapers there are the better the public appreciates The Illustrated Buffalo Express. It was first in its especial field, and is still easily first in value and interest.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

PLACING TEACHERS.

MODERN PLAN OF BRINGING TUTOR AND SCHOOL INTO TOUCH.

The Business of Supplying Instructors For Institutions of Learning Is Now Largely In the Hands of Special Agencies.

We have advanced a long way beyond the day when ambitious young Nicholas Nickleby found his only opportunity of becoming a teacher in Wackford Squeers' famous advertisement, "N. B.—Assistant master wanted; £5 annual salary." The fitting of schools with teachers and teachers with schools is now a distinct business, one of the myriads of later day industries which flourish in the metropolis.

In the city are several agencies which do a large and remunerative business in furnishing institutions of learning with teachers. These agencies are in constant touch with colleges and normal schools on one hand and with the schools of the country on the other. The agency deals in teachers almost as a merchant does in dry goods. The agency studies its customers and knows the availability of the material it places on the market.

Providing a school with a teacher has come to be almost entirely a business transaction. The normal school or college is the factory which can be relied upon to turn out a certain number of teachers annually. The agency is the market place, and the agent is the salesman who disposes of the college product to the consumers, the ever increasing schools of the country.

One of the largest of the city agencies is on the second floor of a quiet old building not far from Union square. In the main office, which is carpeted and handsomely furnished, eight clerks are at work answering letters and applications from both prospective teachers and from schools. In an inner office the aspirant for the office of pedagogue is put through a series of questions to test his or her ability. On the result of this interview depends the classification in which his services are placed upon the market.

An idea of the modus operandi of the teachers' supply business as it is conducted was given to the writer a few days ago by the manager of this agency. It is usually in junior year at college that a young man decides upon his profession. If it be teaching, he opens a correspondence with the agency, of whose existence he is first informed by the college authorities. The return mail brings him a blank, which he fills out with answers to many questions. He has to tell all about himself, from his religion to his ability in athletics. He also furnishes references which the agency carefully investigates. If they are satisfactory, the young man is invited to visit the agency during his next vacation. On that occasion the questions put to him are verbal ones. His manners, his bearing, his conversation, are all carefully noted and recorded. He is then informed as to what sort of a teacher's position he is eligible for, and his name is in the market.

So much for the history of the applicant's side of the transaction, but all the time that his eligibility is being considered orders are coming in for teachers. Boards of education in various cities want teachers for public schools. City private schools need instructors. Rich men write for tutors for their sons, and there is a demand for governesses and kindergartners.

All the delicate questions of the adaptability of the applicant for the place must be decided by the agent. He brings to his task the result of years of experience, and on its successful performance depends the receipt of future orders for teachers. From both school and applicant the agent receives a commission as his profit on the transaction.

"I am not a teacher myself," said the manager of the agency spoken of, "and never have been one. In fact, I could never quite understand why any clever young person wants to be a teacher.

"I suppose it is because teaching is an intellectual pursuit, and the number of vocations of that kind is not on the increase nowadays. It is certainly a fact that the list of men and women who aspire to be teachers grows longer every year, although much more is required of a teacher now than formerly.

"There was a time when the scholarly attainments and good moral character of an applicant were the only things considered, but that time is past. A teacher to succeed nowadays must have good manners and address. He must have savoir faire and be able to set an example to his pupils in culture and refinement.

"The ordinary pay of a teacher at the beginning is $600 per year. By an exhibition of special excellence in his department he can rise in the profession to be a principal or even a college professor. Although the work of the primary school teacher is infinitely more exacting he is not paid nearly so well as one who labors in high or even intermediate grades.

"For reasons which are incomprehensible to me women teachers are never paid as much as men for the same work. It is not at all unusual for us to receive a letter from some school requesting a teacher for some particular department. It makes no difference to us, the letter will say, whether you send us a man or woman, but if a man the salary will be a third more than to a woman.

"Because a teacher fails to make a success in his first charge it does not at all follow that he is unfitted for the profession. In fact, I frequently send teachers to beginners' positions in the belief that the experience they will receive there will only fit them for the more serious work which will come later on.

"The one besetting sin of young inexperienced teachers is conceit. They think they know it all. To attempt to reason with them or to offer suggestions is worse than useless. The only thing to do is to place them under a year's contract as masters of a lot of boys, in some distant school, whose chief ambition is to make the teacher's life miserable. If they do not lose their conceit during that year's mauling and annoyance, we decide that they are impossible, but they usually do, and when they apply to us for a second engagement they are usually exceptionally competent."—New York Mail and Express.

The Chief Difference.

"The superstition which prevailed in the middle ages is hard to understand in this enlightened era," remarked the optimist.

"Yes," replied the man who prides himself on being a chilly proposition, "it does seem surprising that the palmists and astrologers and other fortune tellers of those days shouldn't have been wise enough to advertise their business as they do now."

Love at First Sight.

We talk of love at first sight, but what shall we say of people who have never seen each other marrying and being not unhappy? "Courting," said an Irishman, "is like dying—sure a man must do it for himself."

In some countries—as, for instance, Sweden—this is not the case. There the marriages of young people are made for them by their parents, and they only begin to court when they are wedded. This sounds wrong and absurd in theory, but it often works well in practice. Indeed young people ask the advice of their parents much too little about that which is perhaps the most serious and important undertaking in life—marriage. Too many of them are like the young lady who said she hoped she might be cut into ten thousand triangles if she did not know more of everything than did her mother. So they consult no one and insist on gaining experience at a great cost to themselves.

Quick & Robertson's For Fine Clothes.

There's no use disputing the fact that this store stands pre-eminent in this city as the store for Men's Fine Clothes.

With our large and pleasing varieties, up-to-date style, and good making we've won the trade of every man, and especially the trade of those men who are particular about the Clothes they wear.

And why shouldn't we? You can't find a store that has, ready made, such exclusive styles in suitings and overcoatings as we are showing, and every one of them is from the best Canadian and English mills.

Then, too every garment is built to come up to our high standard—built by the best makers who know how and do give close attention to important parts of tailoring—such as adjusting the collars, shaping the shoulders, proper placing the sleeves and stays and making the button holes

Clothes made this way never lose their shape and by so doing we have overcome that appearance which marks clothes as being ready-made.

The prices for such goodness you'd expect to be high—but they are not—are no more than you would pay for ordinary sorts elsewhere.

BUSINESS SUITS—$5, $6.50, $8, $10, $12.
FALL OVERCOATS—$3.90, $5, $7.50, $8.50, $10, $12, $15,
CUTAWAY SUITS—$7, $8, $9, $10, $12, $13.

A SQUAW MAN'S LOVE.

W. A. Fraser, who, because of his virile language and fine word painting, has been called the American Kipling, contributes to the November Delineator the best story that has yet come from his pen. It is called "The Offcasting of Nichemous," and it tells how a "Squaw Man" is called back to his desire for culture by some cultured neighbors only to have his aspirations quenched by a rebuff. The remarkable strength of the story is increased by excellent illustrations.

THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE CHEER ROYAL COUPLE

Tremendous Crowd at Station to See the Duke and Duchess of York.

Function Was Short and Sweet—Those Who Were Presented—Notes.

It was wonderful. That's the long and the short of it. Where in the world all the people came from who were up at the station this morning would puzzle a Philadelphia lawyer. When you got up to the station first you said, "Why there are not many people here, after all." But when you got on the platform and looked west you saw nothing but people jammed in together like sardines, all bent on seeing the Duke and Duchess if they had to stand on everybody's corns to do it. As early as seven o'clock this morning, we are told, people began to wend their way to the station, and by the time the Governor-General's train arrived, at 9 o'clock, there must have been easily eight thousand people massed around the station yard. All classes were there, rich and poor alike. The corporation laborer was cheek by jowl with the merchant—the clothes of one, albeit it was his Sunday suit, might be a trifle threadbare, but his loyalty was all wool and a yard wide. He waved his hat and cheered, not so much, perhaps, for the Duke and Duchess as for the old land he came from, whose coming King was before him. The ladies smiled and struggled to see, and did their share of crowding. When a Canadian lady starts out to see anything she is not to be lightly elbowed aside. No, indeed! And the boys and girls, poor youngsters, got rather the worst of it, for the big people were so eager to see that they hardly gave a thought to the little people, a good many of whom had to take it all for granted.

What Was it All For?

And, after all, what were we all crowding and jostling and cheering for? Surely not altogether for the plainly dressed lady and gentleman who stood bowing and smiling on the rear platform of the car? No, gentle reader, not altogether. We were cheering for the great nation to which we belong, on whose flag the sun never sets, whose martial drum beat rolls round the world, and under whose Government men and women enjoy a greater measure of freedom than anywhere else on earth. And in the person of the Duke we were cheering the grandson of the good Queen whose reign was a benediction to the world, and who was rightly named Victoria the Good. And with him we were cheering the gentle-faced lady who will some day sit with him on Britain's throne, and who, as an English Princess, has endeared herself to the hearts of the British people.

A Warm Welcome.

Well, the Royal couple cannot complain about the warmth of their reception in Belleville. Amid rousing cheers and waving flags they came in, and to the same accompaniment they went out. It was a most enthusiastic and demonstrative welcome, even though the arrangements were knocked a little awry. The Royal chorus, composed of the school children and members of the city choirs, were stationed at the western end of the platform and were to have sung "Rule Britannia" and the National Anthem, but the Royal train stopped about twenty-five yards short of where they were stationed, and it is doubtful if the Royal visitors heard them at all. In fact there was such a continuous clatter, cheers and laughter that you could hardly have heard a locomotive whistle. However, the chorus meant well, and what little one could hear was nicely rendered. Mr. R. Blaind led the chorus with his cornet, under the direction of Prof. Hunt.

Last Night's Guard.

The Royal train and Governor-General's train came in about 11.50 last night, and both were taken to the Y, north of the station. A guard was placed around the Royal train, consisting of the following: J. Patterson, L. Soule, J. Miller, C. A. Gibson, H. Renfrew, W. Nelson, E. Spriggs, C. Boyle, T. Hyland, H. Smith and F. Lynn. They stayed on guard till the train backed into the depot at 9:40 this morning.

The Military.

The Fifteenth Regiment paraded about 100 men counting the bands, and No. 1 company of the Forty-ninth had a good muster on parade. The redcoats marched up Bridge street and over the east hill to the station, where they were formed in single rank on the platform on the south side of the train. The Forty-ninth were formed on the north side of the track, just west of the Royal car.

The crush was something awful. The people were packed in like sardines in a box, and many ladies must have suffered considerably from the crowding they received.

The Governor-General's Train.

There was a hearty cheer when the Governor-General's train came in. The band played "God Save the King," the children waved their flags and the scenes was an animated one. The Governor-General's train went farther north than the Royal train. Those presented to His Excellency were: Mayor Graham and the Aldermen present, Mr. W. B. Northrup, M.P., and R. Mathison, of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb. Mesdames Northrup and Mathison were also presented. His Excellency stood on the platform of the car, bowing and smiling to the crowd.

This train's stay was a short one, probably five minutes, and as it pulled out again the band played the National Anthem and the Bugle and Drum Band struck up the "General Salute."

There was a long wait for the Royal train, and the police and soldiers had their work cut out to keep back the crowds which seemed determined to get in a position to see, no matter where they had to get.

"Here She Comes."

At last the cry went up "Here she comes," and Mr. William Johnson, chairman of the Reception Committee, called on his forces to cheer, which they did with a will. The soldiers presented arms, the band played, and every eye was turned on the Duke and Duchess, who, plainly dressed, stood bowing and smiling on the platform.

Major Maude!

The train stopped, and the first person to step off was Major Maude, who asked for the Mayor. His Worship stepped out with dignity, and was presented to the Royal visitors. Following him were Aldermen Bogart, Denmark, and Harris, who were also presented. Then followed Mrs. Sewell, who, on behalf of the local branch of the Daughters of the Empire, presented a magnificent bouquet to the Duchess, which she accepted with evident gratification. Then came little Miss Flossie Graham, the Mayor's daughter, who presented a bouquet on behalf of the citizens of Belleville. The winsome little lady got a sweet smile from the Duchess, who seemed to look on her in an affectionate way.

A Touching Incident.

Then came probably the most interesting incident of the proceedings. Two children from the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, accompanied by Superintendent Mathison, were introduced to their Royal Highnesses, who looked on them with glances full of pity and deep interest. They were to deliver the only address of the day. The address was delivered in the sign language by Master Frederick E. Terrell, a deaf boy, whose parents are both deaf and dumb, and was interpreted orally by Miss Violet Gray, a girl who was born deaf. The Royal visitors exchanged glances of deep interest as the stricken children began. The address was as follows:

> Your Royal Highnesses, The Duke and Duchess of York.
> May it please Your Royal Highnesses,
>
> The deaf children of Canada loved your good grandmother, Queen Victoria,—they love your father and mother, our King and Queen,—and they love you.
>
> May you have a long and happy life.
>
> For the deaf children of Ontario.
> FREDERICK W. TERRELL,
> VIOLET GRAY,
> Pupils.

When the address had been presented by the deaf boy and interpreted by the deaf girl the Duke and Duchess were very much pleased and asked a number of questions about the deaf, asking if the girl were born deaf and expressing the greatest surprise that she should speak so well. They were very sorry their stay here was so short they were precluded from seeing more of the deaf children and wished the Institution every success. Supt. Mathison handed the Duchess some printed matter and an illustrated copy of the Lord's prayer in the sign language.

The vice-regal party were also very much interested in the deaf, Lord Minto asserting that if he ever had occasion to come to Belleville again he would assuredly visit the Institution. A parcel of literature, relating to the deaf, was to-day forwarded to the Governor-General.

Other Presentations.

Mrs. Sheriff Hope next had the honor of being presented; also Police Magistrate Flint, Col. Halliwell and Chaplain Maclean. Other gentlemen presented were: Col. Ponton, ex-Mayor Johnson and Sheriff Hope, and then the train men put up the guards at the side of the platform, signifying that the reception was over.

"Bon Voyage."

The chorus started to sing "Rule Britannia," but the train began to move and they changed it to "God Save the King." The band played, the soldiers presented arms once more, the crowd cheered, the train steamed away, and so ended the most successful and largely attended function in the history of this good City of Belleville.

NOTES OF THE RECEPTION.

The decorations were good. The station never looked so gay.

There was not much fall ploughing done in this vicinity to-day.

• • •

Some of the "plug" hats were of the vintage of long, long ago.

• • •

It was, by long odds, the greatest crowd ever seen together in Belleville.

• • •

Mr. Jos. Guthrie, a former Bellevillian, was conductor of the Governor-General's train.

The thermometer registered 56 when the train pulled out, but it felt like 156 in the crowd.

• • •

"The Mayor just stepped on my feet," said a young lady; "that's glory enough for one day."

• • •

Canifton Street School was first on the grounds this morning, following them came the Separate School.

• • •

The Duke and Duchess look tired out. But by neither look nor act did they show that they were bored.

• • •

When the great Major Maude took matters into his own hands it was all off with the committee.

• • •

The Forty-ninth made a good appearance. In the ranks were men who haven't paraded for years.

• • •

The committee did their work well, but the crowd was too big to handle. "The best laid plans," etc., you know.

• • •

The Duke looks as though a month's fishing, "far from the madding crowd," would do him good.

• • •

And now we can put away the decorations till the 9th of November.

• • •

The teachers and pupils of the D. and D. Institute looked good-natured and happy.

• • •

The weather couldn't have been nicer if it had been edited by Major Maude himself.

• • •

Though large, the crowd was singularly good-natured. We heard of no disturbances.

• • •

Old Sergeant-Major Blaind was out, of course. He might well have been presented to the Duke.

• • •

The popular verdict—"The most spontaneous and largely attended demonstration in the history of Belleville."

• • •

Many poor youngsters are disconsolate. They were unceremoniously hustled to the background, and didn't see the Duke at all.

• • •

The committee desire to express their thanks to Mr. J. L. Tickell, who very kindly took a large wagon load of small children to the station and back.

• • •

We regret that, through an error of the typesetting machine, the Separate and High Schools were yesterday omitted from the list of schools which were to take part in the reception.

• • •

The Veterans, proudly wearing their medals, made a gallant showing. During the crush, however, many of the old boys got lost in the shuffle. No heartier cheers were heard than those which came from the Veterans.

THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

CAPT. AND MRS. WIGGINS, OF THIS CITY, CELEBRATE THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THEIR WEDDING DAY.

The residence of Capt. Wiggins, Bridge St. West, was yesterday invaded by his friends, it being his golden wedding day, he having been united in marriage to Miss Mary Ann Glenn, at the Carrying Place in the year 1851, by Rev. Mr. McIntyre.

After the usual congratulations, an address was read by Miss Susie Parliament, on behalf of the nephews and nieces of Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins. At the proper moment, Miss Bertha Glenn handed to Mrs. Wiggins a case containing a beautiful gold watch and chain; then Miss Maggie Wiggins presented Captain Wiggins with a gold headed cane, both being suitably inscribed.

Following was the address;

> To Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wiggins;
> Dear Uncle and Aunt, — We, your nieces and nephews, have assembled here to offer to you our kindly greetings, upon this auspicious occasion, the fiftieth anniversary of your wedding day, and to express our love and esteem for you, and to rejoice with you that an all wise Providence has guided and kept you through a half century of married life, with all of its joys as well as its toils and sorrows. And while your lives have been characterized by honest industry, as well as a nobleness of purpose and modest Christian endeavor, we all realize with you that not only has the smile of your heavenly Father been upon you, but his hand has also been open and he has given to you bountifully of things temporal, so that your home has been filled with good things. May his smile and benediction still continue to rest on you, and we trust that the influence of your lives, as worked out by the help and grace of the Divine Being, may be a help and an inspiration to be true to ourselves and true to God.
> And now, as an expression of our love, we wish to present to you, Aunt Mary, this gold watch and chain, and to you, Uncle Thomas, this gold headed cane.
>
> May your lives be spared for many years to come to use them, and may a kind and mercifully Providence ever watch over you.
>
> Signed on behalf of the nieces and
> MISS SUSIE PARLIAMENT.
> MISS BERTHA GLENN.
> MISS MAGGIE WIGGINS.
> nephews,

A suitable reply was made by Capt. Wiggins, then all sat down to a sumptuous repast. It is needless to say that the happy couple were entirely taken by surprise and greatly pleased.

GRACE, STYLE AND FINISH.

You will find that in Grace, Style and Finish, Quick & Robertson's will compare with the productions of the best class of merchant tailors at prices a third to a half less. Each garment is designed with a view to its shape. It will stay in shape on the wearer. No undue drag on the various parts of the garment, each pocket is stayed, collars are properly cut, sleeves and shoulders have the right "set." Design without good cloths is wasted. Every garment is properly and honestly lined with good linings. No shoddy cloths are used.

Catholic Foresters' at Home.

Court St. James, Catholic Order of Foresters, gave an "at home" last evening in their hall on Front street. There was a large number present, and an enjoyable time was participated in by all who attended. In the early portion of the evening card playing was indulged in and later an impromptu programme was presented. Refreshments were served at the close.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The first object in life with the Canadian people is to "get rich;" the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health), by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well known August Flower will relieve you at once. Regular size, 75 cents. You can get Dr. G.G. Green's reliable remedies at R. Templeton & Co's.

UNTOLD MISERY — WHAT A WELL-KNOWN COMMERCIAL TRAVELLER SUFFERED, AND HOW HE WAS CURED.—Gentlemen, About five years ago I began to be troubled with Dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time travelling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine and when the third bottle was finished, I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of Dyspepsia. (Signed), T. S. McINTEE.

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung and throat troubles, there is no preparation of medicine can compare with Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to afford prompt and permanent relief. It removes all soreness, and heals the diseased parts. It immediately soothes the most troublesome cough, and by promoting expectoration, removes the mucus which stops up the air tubes which causes difficulty in breathing, thereby gives relief to that depressing tightness experienced in the chest. Public speakers and singers will find Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup of inestimable value, as it speedily and effectually allays all irritation, and huskiness in the throat and bronchial tubes, and gives power to the vocal cords, rendering the voice clear and sonorous. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of "Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup," and whenever a child has taken cold, has a cough or hoarseness, give the Syrup according to directions.

The "Picket."

The picket was generally inflicted on cavalry and artillerymen and was a singularly brutal bit of torture. A long post, near which stood a stool, was driven into the ground. The delinquent was ordered to mount the stool, and his right hand was fastened to a hook in the post by a noose, drawn up as high as it could be stretched, round his wrist. A stump the height of the stool, with its end cut to a round and blunt point, was also driven into the earth close to the post. Then the stool was taken away, and the sufferer had nothing to rest his bare feet upon but the stump, "which, though it did not usually break the skin," says Captain Grose, "put him in great torture, his only means of relief being by resting his weight on his wrist, the pain of which soon became intolerable." One can very well believe him, especially when he makes the addition that a man was not infrequently left to stand in this position for half an hour, although the orthodox period of endurance was 15 minutes.—London Graphic.

DO NOT EXPERIMENT WITH MEDICINES THAT HAVE NO REPUTATION.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

IS THE ONLY MEDICINE THAT IS FULLY GUARANTEED AS A BANISHER OF SUFFERING AND DISEASE.

USED AND RECOMMENDED BY THE ABLEST PHYSICIANS.

In matters of life and health no man or woman can afford to take risks of experiment foolishly. A heedless move, or following the advice of the careless and ignorant, may result in very serious complications.

When the physical powers are impaired, when you are weak, nervous, irritable, despondent, sleepless, or it may be suffering the agonies of rheumatism, and neuralgia, it is wisdom on your part you to use the medicine that has banished these troubles for tens of thousands of others around you.

Paine's Celery Compound, a safe and powerful health-giving medicine now within reach of all, is used and prescribed by the best and ablest physicians.

Avoid worthless substitutes that may be offered you for Paine's Celery Compound. Some dealers recommend other preparations simply because they pay large profits. Your special case demands the use of the best medicine, Paine's Celery Compound. See that the outer wrapper and bottle bear the name "PAINE'S," with the trade mark, the Stalk of Celery; no other is genuine.

The Wheel Problem.

The answer to this question seems simple enough, but probably nine persons out of ten, asked at random, would give the wrong reply. It would appear at first sight that the top and bottom must be moving at the same rate—that is, the speed of the carriage. But by a little thought it will be discovered that the bottom of the wheel is in fact, by the direction of its motion around its axis, moving backward, in an opposite direction to that which the carriage is advancing and is consequently stationary in space, while the point on top of the wheel is moving forward with the double velocity of its own motion around the axis and the speed at which the carriage moves.

EATING FISH.

It is not good form to ask for a second helping of fish.

It is considered extremely bad form to use a knife in dissecting fish.

A little modern fish knife, with an ingenious fork arrangement on one side, is now made.

A bit of lemon is served with broiled and baked fish, and it is in correct form to use the fingers in expressing the juice.

Potatoes are considered a proper accessory to the fish course.

Sliced cucumbers, with plain French dressing, are also served.

With a boiled fish the potatoes are also usually boiled, cut into bits or scooped out and garnished with a little melted butter and chopped parsley.

Never use the fingers to separate the bones from the eatable portion of fish. The bones must be evaded with such dexterity as one can command without other aid than such as a bit of bread held in the left hand may furnish.

The Gallant Cabman.

Nothing perhaps produces quite so much wit from a cabman as a sense of being underpaid, which in most cases means that he has been justly paid. A lady who had been guilty of this kind of justice experienced the usual sense of discomfort when her driver straightened the palm into which she had just dropped her shilling and looked at her speechlessly. She was weakly about to add another sixpence when the cabby's sense of humor prevailed. He transferred the shilling to his pocket and smiled sweetly down at his embarrassed fare. "Course, missy," he remarked, "there was the pleasure o' drivin you!"—London Chronicle.

The autumn exhibitions and fairs held in the various towns and cities of Canada this year demonstrate the important fact that the ladies are deeply interested in the making up of pretty rugs and mats for bedrooms, dining-rooms, parlors and halls. We had the pleasure of examining some beautiful specimens of home work, which commanded the attention of all visitors. In every case these pretty floor ornaments were made from rags, yarns and other materials colored by the popular Diamond Dyes.

Thousands of ladies are now engaged in the working of one or more of the artistic designs made by the manufacturers of Diamond Dyes. If your dry goods dealer has not yet put in a stock of Diamond Dye Mat and Rug Patterns for your convenience, send your address to The Wells & Richardson Co., Limited, 200 Mountain street, Montreal, P.Q., and they will mail you free of cost their sheet of designs.

A VERY CURIOUS BIRD.

The One Young Mark Twain Sprung Upon the Scientists.

Mark Twain's father was an ornithologist. He had several friends who were also enthusiasts on the subject of birds. Whenever any one of them discovered a rara avis it was the custom to have a consultation. Mark had been a witness of several of these bird inquests and had noted the delight the old men took in discussing a new found specimen. One day it occurred to him to provide the Hannibal ornithologists with a real circus in the form of a bird. He killed a crow and also a barnyard rooster. Plucking out the tail feathers of both the crow and the rooster, he substituted the rooster's tail feathers for those of the crow, producing a unique effect. When he had the specimen nicely prepared, he went to his father and, handing it to him, said:

"Here, father, is a very curious bird I shot. I thought you would be interested in it."

The old gentleman gazed upon the specimen with astonishment. That evening the ornithologists of Hannibal were assembled in Mr. Clemens' parlor. The rare specimen was put before them. The discussion was long and learned. The opinions expressed were various. One thought the bird was an offshoot of the bird of paradise family; others had equally ridiculous notions as to its ancestry. But there was one who refused to be swerved by the peculiarity of the bird's tail from the judgment that it was of the crow family.

"Why, just look here," he said, lifting the bird by its tail feathers. He got no further. The feathers came out. There was a quick closing of a door. Mr. Clemens started to leave the room.

"Gentlemen," he said, "please excuse me a few moments. I will see Samuel first and explain later."

As It Seemed to Him.

"I suppose," said Broncho Bob to the eminent tragedian, "that you knew what you were talking about when you said that all the world was a stage."

"Have you any doubts on the subject?"

"Oh, no; not worth arguing over. Only, having lived in Crimson Gulch so many years, I must say it reminds me more of a shooting gallery."—Washington Star.

Not Guilty.

St. John, N.B., Oct. 15.—The trial of George McLaughlin, who was charged with the murder of Harris McLaughlin in May last, was concluded at St. Andrew's last evening, and the jury, after three hours' deliberation, returned a verdict of not guilty. Judge Gregory then dismissed the prisoner.

Five Fatally Injured.

Tunnelton, W.Va., Oct. 15.—By an explosion in a mine here yesterday 13 miners were burned, five probably fatally. The accident was caused by a miner loading a hole with too much powder, causing the dust from the electric machines to ignite and explode.

Only One Person Saved.

Nagasaki, Oct. 15.—The Japanese steamer Tsuruhiko has been wrecked off Majima. Only one person of those on board was saved.

To Make a Glass Cutter.

A glass cutter can easily be made with an ordinary mapping pen and a small piece of carborundum, or carbide of silicon. Cut off a part of the nib to form a small tube. Fit a crystal or part of one of carborundum into the tube, take it out again and dip one end in seccotine or any other cement and replace it. Next wind a piece of fine wire tightly around the tube and part of the handle and fix it in a notch cut in the latter. Put it aside for a day to allow the cement to harden. A glass cutter made thus will do its work as well as the expensive diamond and a great deal better than the ordinary wheel cutter.

A WINGED HUSTLER.

A Particular Mosquito That Is Positively Treacherous.

"I may be put down as a bug on the mosquito question," said a man, "but this does not hinder me from unburdening my observations whenever I think they are of sufficient public importance. For instance, I conceive that every man ought to want to know as much as possible about the habits of the insect which is still playing such an important part in the scientific discussions of the day. I am certain that most persons feel the same keen delight about the mosquito which I feel since the insect has rushed to the front as the main factor in the spread of certain contagions.

"I have found a sneaking member among these winged hustlers, and he is positively treacherous. He is a silent member. He never sings. Of course one-half of the mosquitoes do not sing, but the particular mosquito I am discussing does not fail to sing because he can't sing, but he simply does not sing lest he let his victim know just what he is up to. Singing would spoil the game. He could not carry out his plans if he went about his business singing, so he says nothing. Now, here is the curious thing about this mosquito. In the first place, after one is snugly tucked away in bed he will slip silently under the cover and begin his quest for food. He is an industrious fellow and a quiet worker and generally succeeds in landing a couple of juicy corpuscles before leaving his victim. I have found as many as half a dozen of these mosquitoes under the covering of my bed at one time, and I have observed that they are quite as dexterous with their lance as the older and better known types."

DO YOU DESIRE A CLEAR BRAIN AND STRONG NERVES?

Malt Breakfast Food

FORTIFIES MEN AND WOMEN FOR THEIR DAILY WORK.

Starchy breakfast foods that tax digestion and use up vital energy, make thousands of toilers miserable for the whole day. A writer says; "Men and women should breakfast regularly on foods that keep the brain clear and the nerves strong."

Malt Breakfast Food is the only breakfast grain food in the world that contains food elements in just the proportion needed for perfect and healthy nutrition. Insoluble starch, indigestible particles and irritating properties are always present in oatmeal and other breakfast foods. Malt Breakfast Food has all the health-giving virtues that a perfect health food should possess. It furnishes the largest amount of energizing nourishment for brain and body. Ask your Grocer for it.

Progress of Cremation.

Believers in cremation will derive encouragement from the report just issued by the council of the Cremation Society of England, which shows continued progress of the movement in that country. During the year under review 301 cremations have been carried out by the society at Woking, as against 240 during 1899, being an increase of 25 per cent. This brings the total number of cremations performed at Woking up to 1,824. During 1900 88 bodies were cremated at Manchester, 16 at Glasgow and 40 at Liverpool. This brings the totals at these places to 475, 75 and 102 respectively. The recently formed London Cremation Company has been fortunate in securing an extensive site, which will enable it to make provision for the disposal of the ashes of an immense population for a number of years, and at the same time to create a beautiful place, which will remain an open space.

An Obedient Patient.

An old doctor, whose memory was beginning to fail him, was called in to see a young man who was ill. On arriving at the house he found his patient in bed with nothing the matter with him but a slight cold. After prescribing the usual remedies, he said:

"Now, my dear sir, you must stay in bed till I come again."

He went away and forgot all about his patient. The time flew by. One day the doctor came across the young man's mother in the street. The sight of Mrs. Jones brought his patient to his mind, and with a start he said:

"By the bye, how is your son getting on?"

To his amazement Mrs. Jones replied that he was still in bed, obedient to his commands. He had been there three weeks!

CHILDREN'S KIDNEYS

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets the Most Successful Treatment for the Kidney Weakness of Children.

Mothers know what distress and anxiety they have when the little ones cannot retain their water properly, or have any trouble with their Kidneys.

For any weakness of the Kidneys, bladder or urinary organs of children, Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, which are the prescription of the eminent Specialist, Dr. Zina Pitcher, are the most effectual remedy known to science.

Mrs. W. M. Glover, Pearl St., Brockville, Ont., says; "One of my children that had been suffering from sluggish Kidneys read about Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, and procured a bottle. They removed the whole difficulty promptly. That depressing pain over the Kidneys stopped, dizziness and headaches ceased, and there was a general invigorating of the system. There is no question regarding the merits of these Tablets for the back and kidneys. We have great confidence in them and recommend them highly." Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50 cents a box at all druggists. The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

SAGE ADVICE OF A FATHER.

Counsel That All Young Men Entering Business Should Heed.

"My son," said the fond but wise parent, "you are leaving me to go out into the world. I have nothing to give you but advice. Never tell a lie. If you wish to put one in circulation, get it published. A lie cannot live, but it takes one a blamed long time to fade out of print.

"Always read your contract. A man might consider he was getting a sinecure if he were offered a position picking blossoms off a century plant; but, you see, he wouldn't have a remunerative occupation if he were paid on piecework.

"Be not overcritical. Even the most ordinary sort of a genius can tell when the other fellow is making a fool of himself.

"Remember that the young man, like the angler's worm, is rather better for being visibly alive.

"Be careful in the choice of your surroundings. Environment will do a great deal for a man. For example, flour and water in a china jug is cream sauce; in a pail on the sidewalk it is billsticker's paste.

"Don't forget that there's a time for everything and that everything should be done in its proper time. Never hunt for bargains in umbrellas on a rainy day.

"You may make enemies. If you know who they are, don't mention them. Silence is golden. It saves the money that might otherwise be spent in defending a libel suit. If you don't know who they are—well, abuse lavished on a concealed enemy is like charity indiscriminately bestowed. It's a good thing wasted."

TO DELAY HANGING.

A Month's Respite Asked for Plaine, the Montreal Murderer.

Ottawa, Oct. 16.—Hon. David Mills to-day heard Mr. Cecilion of Montreal argue in favor of Plaine, the Montreal murderer, for a month's respite, so as to get further evidence to establish that Plaine was insane when he committed the murder. The Minister will consider the case. Plaine is sentenced to be hanged on the 25th instant.

Hugh Burnett of Peterboro has been awarded the contract for the construction of a dam on the Otonabee River in connection with the Trent Canal.

Hon. Sydney Fisher says Canada will take four out of the first five awards for dairy cattle at the Buffalo Exposition. We have no Guernseys there, but our Jerseys, Ayrshires, Holsteins and French-Canadians will each take awards.

Two new cases of smallpox have appeared in Ottawa, making 36 in all, since Oct. 6. There are 27 cases in the hospital on Porter's Island. One fresh case was discovered in Hull yesterday, bringing the total number in the last 10 days to 34.

Baptist Union.

Brantford, Oct. 16.—The forty-sixth annual convention of the Ontario and Quebec Baptist Union opened Monday night in Calvary Baptist Church with a very large attendance. The meeting was chiefly devoted to the appointment of the different committees and scrutineers.

At this morning's session, the secretary, Rev. J. G. Brown, read the 35th annual report of the Foreign Mission Board. In the last 88 years the missionary Baptists have increased from 125,000 to a membership of 4,500,000. He also made reference to the mission work in India, which now shows ten mission stations for a population of 1,500,000 tegulas, occupied by 28 missionaries, assisted by nine ordained and seventy unordained preachers. There are 36 native churches, with a membership of 4,176. The treasurer's report shows receipts for the year $40,242.24, disbursements $36,194.93, deficit $548,199.

HEART DISEASE.

SOME FACTS REGARDING THE RAPID INCREASE OF HEART TROUBLE.

Heart troubles, at least among the Americans, are certainly increasing and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, of poor digestion.

Real organic disease is incurable, but not one case in a hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by the same great nerves, the Sympathetic and Pneumogastric.

In another way, also, the heart is affected by the form of poor digestion, which causes gas and fermentation from half digested food. There is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action, hence arises palpitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also poisons the blood, making it thin and watery, which irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible treatment for heart trouble is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimilation of food.

This can be done by the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores, and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time will cure any form of stomach trouble, except cancer of the stomach.

Full sized package of these tablets sold by druggists at 50 cents. Little book on stomach troubles mailed free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

DAY IN EASTERN ONTARIO

Duke and Duchess Pay a Visit to Principal Grant.

A Great Time at Kingston—Queen's University Confers LL.D. Degree on Duke—At the Royal Military College—Thousand Islands Viewed From the Deck of the Steamer Kingston—Night Spent at Cardinal, Ont.

GREAT CROWD AT KINGSTON.

Royal Party Visits a Private Citizen, Principal Grant, C.M.G.

Kingston, Oct. 16.—Before the time arranged for the reception of the royal visitors yesterday Kingston's streets were crowded, the whole countryside having emptied its population into the old Limestone City. The day was beautiful, the air cool and invigorating. The decorations were unusually brilliant. There was tremendous enthusiasm as the Duke and Duchess drove up Ontario street from the handsomely decorated Grand Trunk station to the City Hall. Here, under a picturesque pavilion near the entrances and on the site of Gen. Braddock's fortifications, they heard the civic address of welcome, listened to the singing of 3,000 children and saw them wave flags and shout.

The Duke made a brief, well-timed address, and then received several addresses from adjacent places, which were only handed in. Miss Rilla Kent, daughter of Mayor Kent, gave the Duchess a fine bouquet. A few leading citizens and aldermen were presented.

Visited Principal Grant.

The royal procession then moved to Queen's College through gaily decorated avenues, crowded with shouting spectators, past Monument Park and Hospital, all of historic interest. On the way the Duke and Duchess of York diverged from the route and made a visit to Principal Grant in the General Hospital. This was the first call made on the long tour to a private citizen. The greeting was cordial and greatly pleased the distinguished Principal, who promised, in his joking way, to return it at some future date. The Duchess, during her brief stay, made enquiries of the number in hospital, the staff employed, and spoke tenderly to two sick nurses in a room adjacent to the Principal. Before leaving, the Duke invested Principal Grant with the C. M. G. decoration bestowed upon him by the King.

A Queen's LL.D. Conferred.

At the new Arts building at Queen's a huge platform held dignitaries of church, judicial and civil life. Sir Sandford Fleming, K. C. M. G., Chancellor of the University for over 25 years, received the Duke and Duchess. On the Duke the degree of LL.D. was conferred. Vice-Principal Watson making the presentation address. The newly appointed honorary graduate made a felicitous reply at becoming a member of a university chartered by his illustrious grandmother. Then both the Duke and Duchess opened the second volume of the Domesday Book with their signatures, and H. R. H. the Duke well and truly laid the corner stone of the new building donated to the college by the citizens of Kingston. There were mighty cheering and lusty songs by the students, while a brief time was spent in exchange of good wishes.

At the Military College.

The drive was then resumed to the Royal Military College, the route passing Frontenac Court House, Kirkpatrick memorial, a quartette of fine churches, and then down Princess street, gay with flags, bunting and maple leaves. The party drove across the Cataraqui bridge and at the Royal Military College were greeted by a royal salute by the military staff and cadets, 87 in number, the commandant, Lieut.-Col. Raymond Reade, leading. There was a short inspection by the Duke, followed by a march past, gymnastic display and a salute of 21 guns as the royal pair left. During the visit Miss Mary Reade gave the Duchess a bouquet and presentations were made of the wives of the staff. Shortly after 1.15 o'clock the royal procession retraced its steps to Swift's wharf, where the steamer Kingston awaited them to make a trip to Brockville through the beautiful Thousand Islands. The gracious pair seemed extremely delighted at their reception.

Through Thousand Islands.

Gananoque, Ont., Oct. 16.—The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York and members of the royal suite, accompanied by the Governor-General, Countess of Minto, and Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier, yesterday varied their long railway journey by sailing down among the Thousand Islands from Kingston to Brockville, making a stop here of 15 minutes. A hearty reception was given them. The royal salute was fired from Squaw Point. The school children, 800 in number, sang the national anthem and other patriotic songs.

Brockville Was Gay.

Brockville, Ont., Oct. 16.—Never was Brockville so gaily decorated as yesterday, to celebrate the brief visit of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York. The royal party arrived by the steamer Kingston at 6.15 p.m. Their Royal Highnesses were accompanied by Lord and Lady Minto, Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier, Hon. Mr. Fielding and others. There was a brilliant display of fireworks from the shore and the island as the steamer approached the town. The steamer was met at the landing by a committee consisting of Mayor Bell, Judge McDonald, Senator Fulford, George P. Graham, M.P.P., John Culbert, M.P., Sheriff Dana and H. A. Stewart, barrister. A cheer went up as the Governor-General and the Premier emerged from the steamer. When the Duke and Duchess appeared the crowd shouted themselves hoarse, and the band played a few strains of the National Anthem. A beautiful bouquet was presented to Their Royal Highnesses by little Dorothy Buell, which was graciously acknowledged. A suitable military escort accompanied the royal party on the drive from the wharf to the G.T.R. station. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed along the route of procession, and Their Royal Highnesses repeatedly acknowledged the welcome accorded them. The party boarded the royal train amidst the cheers of the crowd and a blaze of fireworks, and in a very few minutes the train left for Cardinal, where the royal party will remain over night.

Decorating Victoria Bridge.

Montreal, Oct. 16.—The Grand Trunk Railway Company have commenced decorating the centre span of the Royal Victoria Bridge, and by the time the royal visitors arrive there to-day about noon, they will be welcomed by a very tasty and becoming display. A platform, formed of four flat cars, decorated with bunting will be run out to-day shortly before the arrival of the royal train, to enable the Duke and Duchess to step directly from their car to inspect the bridge, and the famous Ford rivet.

12 Warships Await the Duke.

Halifax, N.S., Oct. 16.—H. M. S. Alert and Columbine arrived from Newfoundland yesterday morning. The fleet in port for the reception of the Duke and Duchess of York on Saturday next now numbers twelve.

Will Live at Marlborough House.

Philadelphia, Oct. 16.—The North America on Oct. 13 published the following from its London correspondent: The return of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York from their trip around the world will see them in their new home, Marlborough House. The conferring of the title of Prince of Wales on the Duke will also be simultaneous with his return. The documents transferring this honor have already been prepared and await only the King's signature, which will be appended as soon as the ducal party reaches England.

A Farewell Address.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—The Record-Herald has this from its St. John's, Nfld., correspondent: The Duke of Cornwall and York will leave St. John's Friday next week, bringing to a close his tour of the Imperial colonies. It is expected that before sailing for England he will publish a farewell address to the colonies.

Botha's Rumored Capture.

London, Oct. 16.—A rumor was started on the Stock Exchange yesterday morning that Gen. Botha, the Boer Commander-in-Chief, had been captured. But a despatch from Lord Kitchener, dated from Pretoria Monday evening, contains nothing more important than the weekly summary of captures, a reiteration of the statement that Gen. Kitchener's columns are moving against a considerable force of Boers near the Natal frontier, with which Gen. Botha is supposed to be, and the announcement that Commandant Scheeper's command in Cape Colony has been broken up.

The Poor Pouring In.

New York, Oct. 16.—The Cape Town correspondent of The Times says there has been a renewed influx lately of poor people who hope to reach Johannesburg. Those stranded in Cape Town include many Russian Jews. Efforts are being made to stop the immigration, as the immigrants must be supported by public charity.

Maud Gonne Gone.

London, Oct. 16.—It is reported that Maude Gonne (sometimes called the Irish Joan of Arc) has eluded the vigilance of the authorities, and is now on her way to South Africa. The officers of the principal ports have been notified to watch for her arrival.

More Colonial Troops.

Cape Town, Oct. 15.—No passengers are allowed to sail from Cape ports without military permits.

Four additional squadrons of colonial troops are enlisting for active service.

Kruger Seriously Ill.

Berlin, Oct. 16.—The Muenichenier Zeitung yesterday prints a despatch from Hilversum, which says that Mr. Kruger, in spite of all denials, is severely ill.

There Will Be a Crisis.

London, Oct. 16.—According to despatches published to-day by The Daily Mail, a crisis is imminent in Newfoundland unless the British Government pays more attention to the demands of the colony than has been the case.

Granted a New Trial.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 16.—The Court of Appeals has granted Roland B. Molineux a new trial.

Noted Artist Dead.

Rochester, Oct. 16.—Edwin Landseer Harris, the well known artist, died at his home in this city yesterday, aged 43 years. Heart disease was the cause. His productions were widely distributed.

Women Wonder Why

They are doomed to so much suffering. But are they doomed? Is not the suffering the result of conditions which under skillful treatment might be entirely cured? Thousands of women who had been great sufferers, have learned that suffering was unnecessary after using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It heals diseases of the delicate womanly organs and banishes the headache, backache and other aches which are the consequence of these diseases.

"Favorite Prescription" is absolutely a temperance medicine in the strictest meaning of the term. It contains no alcohol and is free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

"I wrote you for advice February 4th, 1898," writes Mrs. Lena Halstead, of Claremore, Cherokee Nat., Ind. Ty. "I was racking with pain from the back of my head down to my heels. Had hemorrhage for weeks at a time, and was unable to sit up for ten minutes at a time. You answered my letter, advised me to use your valuable medicines, viz., Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and 'Pleasant Pellets,' also gave advice about injections, baths and diet. To my surprise, in four months from the time I began your treatment I was a well woman and have not had the backache since, and now I put in sixteen hours a day at hard work."

Two People Fatally Burned

A Couple of Sad Accidents in the City of St. Catharines.

Britain Has Taken Kowezt—Duke and Duchess in Eastern Ontario—Great Crowd at Kingston—Missionaries Killed—Japan Will Fight For Korea

St. Catharines, Oct. 16.—Anna Phelan, the little 5-year-old daughter of Thomas Phelan, Wellington street, was fatally burned Monday and died last night at 5 o'clock. She was playing in the yard where some rubbish was being burned, and in some way her clothes caught fire. She was frightfully burned over the entire body. She was an only child, and was particularly brilliant and pretty.

William Williams, while working around the furnace at L. M. Schenck's canning factory yesterday afternoon, was probably fatally burned. He threw a pail of tar into the furnace, causing the fire to fly up and burn him very badly in the face, arms and chest. He was taken to the hospital. In the excitement, instead of calling the ambulance, the fire department was called out. He was conveyed to the hospital in the hose cart.

MISSIONARIES KILLED.

Several Suffer Death at Hands of Miss Stone's Captors.

London, Oct. 16.—"Pastors Dimidroff and Zirkoff, with three female mission workers," says a despatch from Vienna to The Daily Express, "have been killed by the band that kidnapped Miss Stone."

Letter From Miss Stone.

New York, Oct. 16.—According to a despatch from Sofia, further word has come from Miss Stone in a letter, in which she says:

"I beg you to hasten sending the ransom demanded, and that as energetically as possible you will represent to the Turkish Government that it stop the pursuit of us by soldiers and Bashibazouks, otherwise we shall be killed by the people in whose hands we are. I pray you to communicate without delay the contents of this letter to the representative of the United States at the Porte, and request his most serious co-operation. Pray for us. We are at peace with God. With hearty salutations, your friend, Ellen M. Stone."

Justify Admiral Schley.

Washington, Oct. 16.—Only one new witness was heard in detail by the Schley Court of Inquiry yesterday. This was Lieut.-Commander James H. Sears, who was Admiral Schley's flag lieutenant during the Spanish war. He gave a detailed account of the entire Cuban campaign. Captain Cook was recalled during the day, and said in answer to a question by the Court that Commodore Schley, during the battle of July 3, was "cool, brave and enthusiastic. I could not imagine any conduct in battle more admirable."

For a Municipal Restaurant.

London, Oct. 16.—British workingmen are advocating the establishment of a municipal restaurant where well-cooked meals, and pure tea, coffee and liquors can be obtained amid comfortable surroundings at moderate prices. A joint deputation of the London Trades' Council and the Social Democratic Federation will invite the London County Council to make an experiment with one such enterprise in the heart of London, where the great new thoroughfare will shortly be opened connecting the Strand and Holborn.

The Attempt a Failure.

Paris, Oct. 16.—The attempt of Count De La Vaulx to cross the Mediterranean in a balloon, which left Les Sablettes, near Toulon, Saturday night, has failed. The Minister of Marine, M. De Lanessan, has received a despatch from Toulon announcing that the cruiser Du Chayla, which was escorting the balloon is returning to port with the balloon and her passengers, which she picked up ten miles east of St. Laurent lighthouse. The balloon was uninjured.

Bounty on Arsenic.

Madoc, Oct. 16.—A very representative meeting of the mining industry of North Hastings was held in the Masonic Hall here yesterday afternoon, the primary object being to arrange to bring before the Ontario and Dominion Governments the necessity for a bounty on refined arsenic. A committee was appointed for this purpose.

Marriage and Divorce.

San Francisco, Oct. 16.—The troublesome question of marriage and divorce was set at rest for another three years yesterday by the action of the House of Deputies of the Triennial Episcopal Convention in rejecting both of the proposed canons on the subject which were passed by the House of Bishops.

Roosevelt for Reciprocity.

Chicago, Oct. 16.—The Record-Herald's Washington correspondent says: President Roosevelt will recommend to Congress in his message next December the general principle of commercial reciprocity with foreign nations. But the President will not suggest any particular form of application of the principle.

Martial Law Proclaimed.

Seville, Oct. 16.—Martial law has been proclaimed here as a result of the general strike which began here yesterday, and the Governor has handed over his functions to the Captain-General. The strikers are overrunning the town, burning the Octroi offices and committing all kinds of violence.

New York, Oct. 16.—The Duke De Alba died in this city to-day from influenza.

Awards to Ontario's Minerals.

Toronto, Oct. 16.—The official list of awards obtained by the Ontario mineral exhibit made by the Bureau of Mines at the Pan-American Exposition confirms the opinion expressed by many visitors that the exhibit was not surpassed by any in the Mines Building, if, indeed, there were any which equalled it. In all, three gold medals, seven silver medals, six bronze medals, and five honorable mentions were adjudged the exhibit, a total of 21 awards. Owing to the method of making and announcing the awards, it is hardly possible to institute comparisons with other exhibits, but an inspection of the list leads to the conclusion that Ontario has done very well, indeed. Certainly no State of the Union fared better, and probably none as well. There was no Canadian representative on the mineral jury of awards.

For Municipal Lighting.

Winnipeg, Oct. 16.—The proposal of the Fire, Water and Light Committee to submit a bylaw for the inauguration of a municipal gas plant for general use of the citizens has created considerable interest. Commissioner Stuart, who has had great experience in connection with the gas business, is busy preparing an estimate of the cost of such a plant, and the city solicitors are preparing a draft bylaw for submission to the ratepayers in the matter, both of which will be submitted at the meeting of the Council.

Famous Anarchist Dead.

London, Oct. 16.—"Romas, the leader of a notorious band of Anarchists, who have destroyed various public and other buildings during the last few months," says a despatch to The Daily Mail, from Cracow, "was arrested at Stanislavow, Eastern Galicia, after a fierce struggle, in which he and a gendarme were wounded, and a child was accidentally killed. Romas hanged himself in the guard house."

Who Will Lead?

Winnipeg, Oct. 16.—The Liberal Association last night elected Andrew Strang president. The machine men were given free play, the old Liberals having little or nothing to do with the proceedings.

It is now said that A. C. Fraser of Brandon, a pro-Sifton Liberal, will be offered the leadership of the local Liberals in the place of Isaac Campbell, who, it is said, refuses to take the job.

Mr. McCarte for Stormont.

Newington, Oct. 16.—At the Reform convention of Stormont and Cornwall, held here yesterday, three candidates were nominated, Mr. J. A. Chisholm, barrister, of Cornwall; Dr. W. A. Munro of Newington, and W. J. McCarte, merchant, of Avonmore. On ballot being taken W. J. McCarte was the choice of the convention.

Damage to Indefatigable.

Halifax, Oct. 16.—The British warship Indefatigable, which was damaged at Quebec by going ashore, will repair here, orders having been received yesterday to that effect. The repairs will cost $200,000.

BRITAIN HAS TAKEN KOWEYT

The New Protectorate Is a Town on the Persian Gulf.

Story Comes From Capital of Persia in a Despatch to a London Newspaper—Source of Rumors of Coming War—British Fleet and Turkish Army Have Been at or Close to the Town for Weeks.

London, Oct. 16.—"It is reported in Teheran," says a despatch to The Daily Mail from the Persian capital, "that Great Britain has declared a protectorate over Koweyt."

Koweyt is the town on the Persian Gulf at which a British fleet has been for several weeks, and near which a large Turkish army has concentrated. This juxtaposition has given rise to stories of hostilities between Turkey and England, but these were apparently set at rest by the announcement of the British Foreign Office that they were there on the same mission, the prevention of hostilities between the Emir of Koweyt and a rival.

Koweyt has always been a semi-independent State. The Sultan of Turkey claims it as a part of his dominions, and not long ago sent an army to force the Emir to pay homage and, presumably, tribute. England has held that the Emir was an independent monarch.

The belligerent talk in St. Petersburg that followed the death of the Ameer of Afghanistan and the possibility of Russia seizing Herat, which would precipitate war with Afghanistan as the theatre, would be sufficient to justify England in taking such an important base as Koweyt, if only to counteract Russia's designs in Persia.

Move for Balkan Dreibund.

Vienna, Oct. 16.—The Reichswear announces that a conference will shortly be held in Belgrade of the diplomatic representatives of Servia, Bulgaria, Montenegro, and that a Russian Minister will be present. It is believed here that the conference is a Russian move toward the formation of a definite Balkan dreibund.

THE ONTARIO TANKARD.

The Ontario Curling Association Fixes the Grouping for the Competition.

Toronto, Oct. 16.—The annual October meeting of the Ontario Curling Association was held at the Walker House yesterday afternoon, when 34 delegates were in attendance. The tankard groups were drafted as follows:

Group No. 1—Toronto, Granite, Caledonian, Parkdale, Prospect Park, Queen City, Brampton, Scarboro Maple Leaf. Umpire, A. F. McLaren. Play at Toronto.

Group No. 2—Hamilton Asylum, Thistle, Victoria, Dundas, Glanford, Niagara Falls, Simcoe. Umpire, R. N. Burns. Play mainly at Hamilton.

Group No. 3—Ayr, London, Forest City, Woodstock, St. Thomas, Bright, Paris. Umpire, J. Steele. Play mainly at Woodstock.

Group No. 4—Orillia, Barrie, Collingwood, Churchill, Beaverton. Umpire, B. H. Ardagh. Play mainly at Orillia.

Group No. 5—Bobcaygeon, Cobourg, Bowmanville, Oshawa, Lindsay, Peterboro Granite, Peterboro Thistle, Campbellford. Umpire, M. Dobson. Play mainly at Lindsay or Peterboro.

Group No. 6—Windsor, Detroit, Grand Rapids, Toledo, Chatham, Thamesville, Glencoe, Ridgetown. Umpire—G. Matheson. Play mainly at Windsor.

Group No. 7—Stratford, Seaforth, Lucknow, St. Mary's, Forest, Harriston, Brantford. Umpire, Robert Reid. Play mainly at Stratford.

Group No. 8—Milton Mintos, Guelph Royal City, Guelph Union, Galt, Galt Granite, Preston, Fergus, Walkerton, Waterloo. Umpire Dr. Russell. Play mainly at Guelph or Galt.

There was only one district cup group fixed, that being No. 1. The others were left to the Executive to arrange for. No. 1 is as follows: Newmarket, Scarboro, Georgetown, Toronto, Lakeview. Umpire, J. Bain. Play mainly at Toronto.

Japan Will Fight for Corea.

San Francisco, Oct. 16.—A war between Russia and Japan over Corea is predicted by Dr. Nicholas Senn, professor of surgery in the University of Chicago, who has arrived here from a tour of the Orient. Said he:

"While I was in Japan I noticed on every hand that the Japanese were making preparations for war with Russia, and they made no secret of it. The cause of the trouble is no secret in Japan. 'It wants Corea. Japan is not large enough for the Japanese. Russia practically holds Manchuria, and Japan does not intend letting this nation extend its influence to Corea if this condition can be prevented; hence the preparations for war."

KIDNEY DISEASE

Powley's Liquified Ozone acts quickly to relieve kidney disease. It cleans out the delicate tracts, soothes the inflammation of the mucus linings and restores these most important organs to health. If you have kidney disorder and experience the dreadful bearing-down pains in the back, miserable headache and all the agonies usually suffered, take Ozone and you will experience very quick relief. We present herewith a very remarkable cure. Mrs. Harvey's daughter had an extremely bad case; the mother's way of telling the story may interest you.

The Ozone Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.

Gentlemen: For the past year my daughter has suffered from kidney disease. This sickness came by degrees, until she was bloated to a great size. She appeared to be growing very fleshy and every joint was full of rheumatism. We tried a good many of the patent medicines called blood purifiers, but received no benefit. We also had a good doctor, but he failed to do any good. At last we were advised by a neighbor to try "Ozone," which we did. The "Ozone" seemed to go right through the whole system and she felt worse, but we were told this was a good sign. We continued the use of it, and soon we noticed the swelling reduced in her hands and feet, and it seemed to reduce the swelling in her whole body.

My daughter also had female weakness. The organs were weak and did not work regularly. The "Ozone" regulated these organs perfectly. She now enjoys perfect health, which I entirely attribute to "Ozone."

Wishing you every success, I am,
Respectfully yours,
(Signed) Mrs. C. Harvey, 223 Dufferin St., Toronto.

"Powley's Liquified Ozone" is the greatest discovery known to medical science. It is making use of oxygen in stable liquid form—something that has never before been done.

If you suffer from a complicated case or desire to know more about the treatment, address our Consulting Department, 229 Kinzie Street, Chicago, Ill., and receive medical advice free.

Lived 101 Years.

Toronto, Oct. 16.—Mrs. Rose Conlin died yesterday afternoon at the residence of her son, Mr. Peter Conlin, 493 Parliament street, at the advanced age of 101 years. Deceased, who was born in Derry, Ireland, has resided in Toronto for the past 75 years, and had been in the best of health until two years ago, when, owing to her advanced age, she was confined to her bed. Her husband, Mr. Patrick Conlin, died in 1885, being 94 years of age. For a number of years he was councillor for St. Andrew's Ward. Mrs. Conlin is survived by four children.

Columbia Is Willing.

New York, Oct. 16.—A despatch to The Times from Paris says the directors of the new Panama Company in a circular to the shareholders, say that Columbia has expressed its readiness to sanction the transfer of the canal to the United States. An estimate of the value of the undertaking is, therefore, being prepared at the request of the Isthmian Canal commission. It will be ready by the time Congress meets.

Propose Congregational Union.

Manchester, Eng., Oct. 16.—Dr. Joseph Parker, chairman of the Congregational Union of England and Wales, proposed yesterday the establishment of a federation of Congregationalism throughout the world, under the title of the United Congregational Church. The assembly voted that a committee should take steps immediately to bring the subject before the subordinate unions.

To Take Over World's Trade.

New York, Oct. 16.—The Journal and Advertiser says that an industrial combination to consolidate the armor plate manufacturers of this country into the building of merchant and warships for the world's trade, and take over the large and growing export trade of the United States Steel Corporation, is about to be organized by J. P. Morgan and his allies.

A NOTED PHYSICIAN

scribe the best, and as I know and have proven that there is nothing in Materia Medica which equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female disorders, I unhesitatingly prescribe it, and have never yet been sorry. I know of nothing better for ovarian troubles and for falling of the womb or ulcerations; it absolutely restores the affected parts to their normal condition quicker and better than anything else. I have known it to cure barrenness in women, who to-day are happy mothers of children, and while the medical profession looks down upon 'patents,' I have learned, instead, to look-up to the healing potion, by whatever name it be known. If my fellow physicians dared tell the truth, hundreds of them would voice my sentiments."—Dr. Wanata, Lansing, Mich.

STONE AS AN EDIBLE

USED TO GIVE BULK TO MEAL—CONTAINS AN OLEAGINOUS SUBSTANCE.

The chief medical officer of Palputand in a recent report says that in a very unusual season like that through which the district has lately passed the people are deprived of seeds and the succulent roots of grasses and even of the green leaves and shoots of plants and trees, nearly everything of this sort found useful in a normal year being hard and dried up. Under these very adverse conditions the bark of trees, especially of khejra (prosopis spicitera), and even ground-up rocks are resorted to, principally to give bulk to the scanty meal and thereby stay the pangs of hunger for a longer time. At present small proportions of ground khejra bark are in use nearly everywhere, and in the proportion of about one part to twenty of flour it does not impair the digestion of the laboring classes, although it does so if taken in excess. Indeed, small quantities of this bark, well ground, are said to aid digestion, and to make up to some extent for the want of fresh vegetables. A soft stone, pilia chata, found on the Bikaner-Marwar border of Jaipur, is largely used in that part of the country to give bulk to the meal. This stone is fragile, and easily ground into fine powder. It contains an oleaginous substance, which has some nutritious qualities, and the people have found that when finely ground and used in the proportion of about one-fourth or three-fourths of flour it does not impair digestion for a considerable time, but when it is used in excess it soon gives rise to malnutrition, emaciation, bowel disease, swollen feet and other signs of starvation. Other barks and earthy substances are more injurious, but the flesh of the cattle that died, which was used extensively, had no ill effects.—London Times.

LOSS OF APPETITE and General Debility are quickly overcome by the use of a few bottles of "The D. & L." Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. Manufactured by the Davis & Lawrence Co. Ltd.

ATTENTION, INVENTORS!

E. G. Siggers, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C., whose ad. appears in our columns, is an attorney of twenty-one years' active practice and is well recommended to us. His rating will be found in Dun's and Bradstreet's reports, as he owns the "Inventive Age." He has sent us application blanks and other papers and inventors who are intending to apply for patents would save time by calling at this office and getting the papers before presenting their applications through any other source.

You can always tell a dead beat by his touch.

The best pictorial newspaper in the United States is The Illustrated Buffalo Express.

Daily Intelligencer.

A BOUNTY ON ARSENIC.

It does not seem likely that the Government can afford to ignore the request unanimously expressed by the gentlemen who yesterday attended the meeting at Madoc, a full report of which, by our own reporter, appears in another column. That the demand is a just one, and the reasons urged in support of it cogent, no one, we think, can deny. Until capitalists come into Hastings County it is altogether likely to remain a terra incognita to the outside world, so far as a complete knowledge of its immense riches and resources are concerned. Other places, under like conditions, have looked to the Government for aid, and not in vain. Why not North Hastings?

We have no doubt that the influential and representative deputation appointed will be quite equal to the task of making out a good case to the Government, and then we can confidently look for a proper working of the north country mines and a consequent increase of prosperity.

LIBEL SUITS.

The editor of the Stratford Herald has had a verdict of $100 and costs rendered against him for telling his readers that the Mayor of a neighboring town had changed a Committee's report.

Mr. W. B. Preston, who has earned for himself a name as a successful agent in the election of Grit Members of Parliament, has commenced a suit in the High Court of Justice asking a jury to assess the editor and publisher of the Ottawa Evening Journal a $10,000 plaster to heal his reputation, wounded and lacerated by the publication of a letter written by Preston's cousin, commenting upon the said Preston's evidence given before the $10,000 Cook Senate Committee investigation.

$10,000 appears to be the favorite sum to claim for Senatorships and wounded reputations.

A VALUABLE INVENTION.

An elector in the County of Drummond and Arthabaska, Quebec, claims to have invented a coat which is both bullet proof and dagger proof. The matter was brought to the attention of the Deputy Minister of Militia by Mr. Lavergne, M.P. In reply, Col. Pinault said that if the coat is as claimed it would yield the inventor as much wealth as the far-famed philosopher's stone, and there was therefore no need for the department taking it up.

Nonsense, Mr. Deputy Minister, this is a question of too great importance to be treated so lightly. You should have told Mr. Lavergne, M.P., to bring his elector and his coat to Ottawa, put it on, and he would test its bullet and dagger resistance qualities, by first allowing an Italian to try his powers with a dagger, and a Strathcona sharpshooter to fire a bullet out of a rifle at him, and that if it stood both tests and the elector was still living, he would recommend the purchase of the patent by the Minister. It is evident Mr. Deputy, you do not appreciate the responsibilities of your position!

TIMELY TOPICS.

And now that the Duke has gone and the Reception Committee is taking a well-earned rest, let's hear from that other Committee which proposes to turn things inside out municipally next January. Come along, gentlemen. Call that public meeting you were talking of, and let's see who are going to be the sheep and who the goats when the ballots are next counted.

It has been discovered that the Duke of York speaks English with just about the same accent as the average well-educated Canadian. Of course he does; so does every English gentleman. Only costermongers and cads mutilate the King's English—the former because they can't help it, and the latter because they can't get people to notice them in any other way. There are, it may be noted, some of the latter species in Canada.

The only ones we feel sorry for in connection with yesterday's celebration are the little children, who were supposed to have the post of honor in the demonstration, and who were unceremoniously pushed aside by grown-up people, stepped on, knocked down even, and forced to take refuge on the outskirts of the crowd, where they saw nothing. The people in authority were not to blame, they were powerless to handle the big crowd, but something might and should be done to recompense the little ones for their discomfort and disappointment. Let the Board of Education give the smaller scholars some kind of a badge or medal to remember the 15th of October by. At present their recollections are not of a pleasant kind.

We don't know that it was necessary for Mr. J. J. B. Flint to write his letter which appears in another column in order to let people know that yesterday's muddle at the station was not due to any neglect on the part of the Committee. Those gentlemen, everybody knows, carried out their part to the letter, acting on information which had been furnished to them and which they had every reason to believe was correct. It was a case of man proposing and Major Maude, the Grand Trunk and some others disposing.

Envy is not the feeling which Canadians develop in contemplating the eternal round of ceremonies which spells life to kings and princes.

It is better to be born at a moderate distance from poverty, with the health and opportunities which are part of the birthright of every Canadian boy, than to be born heir to the throne of England or any other monarchy.

DUTY OF THE PRESS.

(Stratford Herald.)

There seems to be an impression that a newspaper should screen rather than expose the faults of a municipality in which it has its franchise. This is a false and mistaken notion. A newspaper should right wrong if it can. Ostrich-like, some men think our defects will escape notice, and if the press speaks out these silly men charge disloyalty. Travellers and visitors have eyes and tongues. With their eyes they see, and with their tongues they speak.

A HELPLESS MAN.

A man is certainly in a helpless condition when he has to sit with his leg on a chair for weeks, unable to move. William Grimshaw, Wolfe Island, Frontenac County, Ont., was in this plight. Doctors could do nothing for him and the pain remained in his legs for six months. Three bottles of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure and three boxes of Climax Iron Tonic Pills routed the disease and restored him to perfect health. He now recommends it to all sufferers. This great blood purifier is put up in bottles containing ten days treatment. Price 50 cents at all drug stores or The Dr. Hall Medicine Co., Kingston, Ont.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

THE PAIN OF SORE FEET.

Just about the most tantalizing of all pains comes from sore feet. To get relief bathe the feet in warm water and then rub them with Polson's Nerviline. It penetrates through the pores of the skin, takes out the soreness, reduces swellings, invigorates the tired muscles, tones up the circulation and prevents the feet from becoming sore again. Nerviline is a protection and safe-guard against the pains and aches of the entire family and cures rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, &c. 25 cents.

Single Court—Before Meredith C.J.
Toronto, October 15.

Burrell vs. Lott.—Millar, for defendant, moved for an interim injunction restraining the defendant from entering upon the plaintiff's land in the City of Belleville and making erections thereon. The title is in the plaintiff, and he is in possession. The defendant claims the right to erect a pier because he keeps up under an agreement two-thirds of a dam upon the River Moira, and he claims an easement or way of necessity over the plaintiff's land. The plaintiff contended that the easement was not established, and the defendant a mere trespasser, and the plaintiff having the title and being in possession, showed a prima facie case, and the balance of convenience was in favor of enjoining the defendant until the trial at the Belleville sittings, beginning on the 19th November next. S. H. Blake, and E. G. Porter (Belleville), for defendant, contra. The court held that no serious prejudice could arise to the plaintiff if protected by an undertaking such as defendant is willing to give. Therefore, the defendant undertaking not to interfere with the plaintiff or his tenants in the use of the way in question more than is absolutely necessary for the construction of the work in question, and not to incumber the right of way, the motion stands adjourned until the trial, the defendant to expedite the trial. Costs in the case unless otherwise ordered by the trial Judge.

POOR GIRL, PITY HER.

Growing! Yes, into weakness, but not strength. Studies — plenty of them. Tired, of course she is, and weak too. Does not eat enough, and digests far less than enough. This condition is so frequent, but how seldom noticed even by fond parents. Give her Ferrozone, then watch her appetite improve, her cheeks and lips grow ruddy, her step elastic, her spirits buoyant. All this simply the result of eating and digesting enough, making blood, and thereby strengthening the nerve and brain power. Ferrozone gives a woman's strength to weak girls. OBITUARY.

FARRELL.

On Sept. 20th. Mr. John Farrell died at his late residence on the 3rd concession of Kincardine township, County of Bruce, where he resided for many years. The deceased was born in the County of Fermanagh, Ireland, in the year 1821, and came with his parents to America in 1841. The family settled near Thomasburg in the County of Hastings. Deceased was one of seven children, and for several years after his marriage to Jane Rutledge, daughter of Robert Rutledge, of the same county, engaged in farming on what was known as Sugar Island. Subsequently, with wife and family, he removed to Kincardine, Bruce Co., where he resided until his death.

Mr. Farrell had, as a rule, enjoyed good health, but a year ago it became evident that he was failing. The weakening of the body, however, did not impair reason nor cloud memory; all the faculties were in perfect order until the last. He came of a long-lived family and was in his eightieth year.

Deceased was very well known in the community in which he lived and was highly respected by all who knew him. He lived quietly, but there was never any doubt as to where he stood when any moral question was at issue. For many years he was a consistent member of the Methodist Church. The spirit of the Master was shown in his life by deeds rather than by words. The large concourse of friends and neighbors who assembled to pay their last tribute gave some evidence of the esteem in which he was held.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. Rigsby, of Kincardine, who spoke most appropriately from the words "A good name is better than precious ointment." Eccles. 7:1.

A widow and seven children remain, the father's death being the first break in the family.

The Canadian - American, published at Chicago, gives an interesting sketch of Mr. T. C. Cunningham, son of the late J. R. Cunningham, of Roblin's Mills, P.E. County. Mr. T. C. Cunningham was, prior to his leaving for Chicago, a resident of Ameliasburgh, and his many friends in that section of the county will be delighted to hear that his lines have fallen in pleasant places, and that he is now on the high road to prosperity, being established in business for himself and doing well. In concluding its article the Canadian-American says, "Mr. Cunningham is a 32nd degree Mason and a Knight Templar, and very few men in Chicago have a larger or more desirable circle of acquaintances."

For Fine Clothes.

There's no use disputing the fact that this store stands pre-eminent in this city as the store for Men's Fine Clothes.

With our large and pleasing varieties, up-to-date style, and good making we've won the trade of every man, and especially the trade of those men who are particular about the Clothes they wear.

And why shouldn't we? You can't find a store that has, ready made, such exclusive styles in suitings and overcoatings as we are showing, and every one of them is from the best Canadian and English mills.

Then, too every garment is built to come up to our high standard—built by the best makers who know how and do give close attention to important parts of tailoring—such as adjusting the collars, shaping the shoulders, proper placing the sleeves and stays and making the button holes

Clothes made this way never lose their shape and by so doing we have overcome that appearance which marks clothes as being ready-made.

The prices for such goodness you'd expect to be high—but they are not—are no more than you would pay for ordinary suits elsewhere.

DIED IN TORONTO

FORMER BELLEVILLIAN PASSED AWAY ON MONDAY.

Mr. Harry Herring, a former resident of this city, died on Monday last at Toronto. Deceased was born in England in the year 1834, and when a lad came out to this country. For some years he has resided in Chicago and Toronto, where he conducted a butcher's business. A wife survives, but no family. Mr. Herring had been in ill-health for some time. Mr. Charles Herring, of this city, a brother of deceased, was yesterday in Toronto attending the funeral.

HOW ONE MILLION IS SPENT.

Not less than one million dollars is annually spent by people seeking an absolute cure for Catarrh, Bronchitis and Consumption. Numerous are the remedies, but the one standing pre-eminently above all others is Catarrhozone. It cures these diseases because it is sure to reach them. Catarrhozone is inhaled into the lungs, throat and nasal passages, and bathes every part of the diseased membrane with its germ-killing, healing vapour. You simply breathe Catarrhozone and it cures. MANY MINING MEN MEET AT MADOC

Unanimously Decide to Urge Government to Offer Bounty for Arsenic Production

Strong Deputation Appointed to Bring Matter Before Government—Text of Speeches.

(By our own Reporter.)

For some time past those interested in mining matters in North Hastings have been agitating in favor of asking both the Federal and Provincial Governments to grant a bounty, for a few years at least, on the production of refined arsenic. There is every reason to believe that the production of refined arsenic would prove to be both a profitable and permanent industry in the north country. The placing of arsenic on the bounty list is considered imperative, in order that capitalists may be induced to take hold of the enterprise.

A meeting for the purpose of promoting the scheme, and bringing it prominently to the attention of the Governments, was held in the Masonic Hall, Madoc, yesterday afternoon. There was a large attendance, and much interest was manifested in the proceedings.

Belleville was represented at the gathering by ex-Mayor Johnson, Messrs. J. P. Thomas, J. F. Wills, Wm. Webster and H. Burrell.

Amongst those in attendance from other places were the following gentlemen; A. W. Carscallen, M.P., J. W. Pearce, W. A. Hungerford, R. Snell, R. Campion, Dr. Jones, A. Gawley, W. Broadworth, R. O'Connor, J. W. Haight, W. Jones, Marmora; B. O. Lott, Anson; W. J. Moore, Thos. Cross, A. F. Wood, ex-M.P.P., R. S. Allen, James English, W. J. Allen, M.P.P., W. Mackintosh, J. Burns, C. O'Hara, Madoc; J. James, C. James, R. W. Miller, J. Mair, J. Roberts, Actinolite; J. P. Kirkegaard, R. Laycock, Deloro.

The Warden Speaks.

Mr. J. W. Pearce, Warden of the County, was selected as chairman, and gave an address which demonstrated in no uncertain manner his views on the matter. He stated that he would like to have been in Belleville that day to have assisted in the reception to the Duke and Duchess, but he could not be in both places, and so he chose to be present at the meeting. Arsenic, he said, was being produced in this County at present in very good paying quantities. He was in favor of the Government granting a bounty upon arsenic. An effort should be made to induce capitalists to take hold of the mining properties, and an encouragement for them to do so would be a bounty. The people in the district were of one mind upon this matter. It meant increased labor and increased prosperity to the County. We were in the heart of a mineral as well as an agricultural district, and if we could get the assistance of the Government there was no doubt capitalists and mineralogists would come here. The speaker referred generally to the work which was at present being done in the mines in that district.

Mr. Joseph James.

Mr. Joseph James, who has interested himself considerably in this matter, was the next speaker. North Hastings, he said, was pre-eminently suitable to the production of arsenic of a superior quality. The question to consider was whether a bounty would prove beneficial. He thought that it certainly would. There is a large market in the United States for arsenic, which was imported. Why could not this be manufactured here? The benefits to be derived would be great. Other industries would, no doubt follow. In asking the Governments for aid in this matter we were only doing what other countries were doing. The Government had given bounties for other things, why not for this? He hoped delegates would be appointed to lay the matter before both Governments.

Government Official Speaks.

Mr. Thos. Gibson, of Toronto, Director of the Bureau of Mines, was next called upon. He stated that he was not in a position to state what the Ontario Government would do in this matter. Hon. Mr. Davis had expressed regret at not being able to be present at the gathering and hear the matter discussed. The gold mining industry of North Hastings had had a chequered career, but he hoped their fondest hopes would now be realized. This matter of producing arsenic had but recently been brought to the attention of the Government. In speaking of capitalists, the speaker said that many had been looking to the United States for this class of men, but it was a fact that English capitalists were to a great extent developing the mines of this country. Whilst not present to commit himself to any promise, he felt convinced that both Governments would listen with a sympathetic ear to what they had to say in regard to this matter. A bounty of some $125,000 had been set apart for iron ore, which, it was thought would establish a smelter. Of this amount but a small portion had been used, some $25,000 to $30,000. In order to get a bounty, he thought it would have to be shown to the Government that it was more than a local concern. It would have to be shown that it was a benefit to the country as a whole. It would also be well to state to the Government to what extent they desired aid. It would be his pleasure to convey to the Commissioner a faithful and correct account of the proceedings, and the voice of the meeting in regard to the matter in question.

A Mining Man Talks.

Mr. J. P. Kirkegaard, Manager of the Canadian Gold Fields Company at Deloro, stated that in his opinion the Government should take more interest than it does in mining matters. There was in Hastings County a great amount of mineral wealth. Being interested in the production of arsenic, he would have nothing to say as to the bounty, only that he thought it would be a good thing. At present the company he was manager of produced about 60 tons of arsenic a month, and it took about 150 men to do it. If the arsenic industry was fostered to the extent of being able to supply the amount needed in the United States it would amount to some 6,000 tons yearly, and if this was manufactured in Hastings County what would it mean? An expenditure of some $300,000 to $400,000 per annum. It would also foster other industries. In speaking of his company's exhibit of ore at the Pan-American, one gentleman made the remark that he was not aware of the fact that there were such minerals in Canada. They should let the outside world know that there is room here for capitalists and let them be encouraged, and he had no doubt they would soon come.

Mr. W. A. Hungerford.

Mr. W. A. Hungerford said he was pleased at the gathering and pleased to see that all were interested in mining matters. The mining men of this county should know what is best in their interests. Mining in this district will increase rapidly if encouragement is given. We do not wish to dictate to the Governments what they should do in the matter. Mr. Gibson had done all in his power to forward the mining interests of this country. The early attempts at mining in North Hastings were a failure, because we had no mining experts. Some lost their property and money through want of experience. We wish now to wipe away this stain and show to the capitalists that there is wealth in North Hastings. Ores can to-day be mined and assayed at half the expense which they could ten years ago. The Canadian Gold Fields Company have demonstrated the fact that they can successfully treat the refractory ores. The highest grade of arsenic is also made in Marmora to-day. We can sell 6,000 tons of arsenic yearly. What does this mean? The expenditure of $40,000 a month, or half a million a year, in North Hastings. If they could get a bounty on arsenic he had no doubt of the result.

Mr. J. W. Johnson asked what the duty was upon arsenic going into the United States.

Mr. James—"Nothing."

Mr. Huntingdon, continuing, said he hoped a deputation would be sent to the Governments to ask for a bounty. What they wanted to see was the mining properties developed, and there was no reason why the Governments should not assist in their development. In the Township of Madoc there was the largest deposit of ore of any place in the Dominion of Canada. In other Townships there were also valuable mining properties. Why are these not developed? Because we have not the capitalists. Let the Governments give a bounty on arsenic and this will be an encouragement.

Mr. A. F. Wood asked if there was likelihood of a greater demand for arsenic?

Mr. James said that Glass works in the United States, which to-day were not using arsenic as formerly, could, he believed, be again induced to use it. The demand, he had no doubt, would be continually increasing.

Ex-Mayor Johnson.

Mr. J. W. Johnson, of Belleville, was next called upon and spoke briefly but to the point. He stated that he was not a resident of North Hastings, but a resident of Hastings county, and had the prosperity of the County at heart. The Board of Trade of Belleville had taken an interest in this matter, as a result of which he and others representing that body were present at the meeting. The arguments to be brought before the Governments on this matter were, he thought, cogent arguments. In going to the Government they had a capital case. The Governments were committed to the principle of aiding industries. What is needed in this country is population and capital. The Government in this matter should aid them as it had aided in building up the fine cheese trade which we have to-day. It had built that trade up by building cold storages and assisting the dairymen in other respects. It was well to assist in developing new Ontario, but Old Ontario should not be neglected. (Hear, hear.) As far as the citizens of Belleville were concerned, he could assure them that they would have their hearty co-operation in the matter.

Mr. B. O. Lott.

Mr. B. O. Lott, of Rawdon, spoke in support of the bonus proposed. The mining laws of Ontario were by no means perfect, and the flaws should be picked out and remedied. Some of the Government members might say that this was just a local question, but he thought that the bounty proposed on the beet sugar industry was a rather local affair, being for the interest of western Ontario. He was heartily in accord with the object of the meeting.

Lt.-Col. Halliwell.

Lt.-Col. Halliwell said he was in complete accord with what had been said. There was an unlimited supply of arsenic in North Hastings which only needed developing, and the Governments should assist in developing it. It would, no doubt, prove a great industry and a profitable one. The Government only wants it known what the people desire and he believed they would grant it.

Mr. A. F. Wood.

Mr. A. F. Wood, ex-M.P.P., said the question was, Is this industry of sufficient importance for the Government to assist? It could be enlarged and widened out and no doubt be made profitable. The Committee to present the facts to the Government should be composed of gentlemen who were in a position to give all information possible.

Mr. Thomas Cross.

Mr. Thos. Cross said he had listened with a great deal of pleasure to the addresses made. He was in sympathy with the mining business and would do all in his power to promote it. From what he saw from a business man's standpoint, he thought the two companies doing business at present were worth to him in trade more than 30 of the best farmers in the community. While developing arsenic gold was also being developed. Anything he could do to obtain the end sought he would do.

Mr. W. J. Allen.

Mr. W. J. Allen, M.P.P., said this was a step in the right direction, and he felt convinced that good results would follow. The Government had assisted the beet sugar industry and he felt confident that it would assist in this matter. What we want here is capitalists, and the Government should assist in bringing them in, which they can do by giving a bonus on arsenic. He would do all he could to assist in this matter.

Mr. A. W. Carscallen.

Mr. A. W. Carscallen, M.P., said he was in accord with the proposition, and he would do all in his power to assist it. The Federal Government should assist North Hastings in this matter, as they had no harbors to dredge and no canals to build. It meant that capitalists would come in and develop the mines.

A Strong Deputation.

He moved, seconded by Mr. W. Rankin, of Mayo, that the deputation to wait on the Government to lay this matter before them be composed of the following gentlemen:

J. W. Johnson, Mayor Graham, Belleville.

A. W. Coe, Thos. Cross, W. J. Allen, M.P.P., Madoc.

A. W. Carscallen, M. P., J. W. Pearce, P. Kirkegaard, W. A. Hungerford, Marmora.

B. O. Lott, Rawdon.

Lt.-Col. Halliwell, Stirling.

Jos. James, Secretary, Actinolite.

This Committee to have power to add to its numbers.

The motion was carried.

Mr. Johnson asked Mr. Gibson when would be a good time for the Committee to wait upon the Government.

Mr. Gibson said that it should not wait until the session was called but arrange a meeting beforehand.

On motion a vote of thanks was tendered the chairman and various speakers, and the meeting closed with cheers for the King.

MR. FLINT EXPLAINS

THE RECEPTION COMMITTEE WAS IN NO WAY RESPONSIBLE FOR YESTERDAY'S MUDDLE AT THE STATION.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer.

My Dear Sir,—As a member of the Reception Committee, permit me to say that the Committee, in placing the choirs and children, acted upon information given them by the G.T.R. authorities. The officials at the station were informed by the Superintendent that the Royal train would proceed westward to within about thirty feet of the west end of the platform, in order to water all the cars from the pipe newly laid for that purpose. It did not, in fact, proceed nearly so far west as the point indicated, with the result that the choirs and many children were much further from the Royal car than was intended. The Committee was also instructed that an engine and coach would draw the Royal train westward along the main track, next the platform, and then proceed west to a point near the bridge. The Committee was obliged to tell the people it would be necessary to remove from the track to avoid the engine, yet the engine never came, and the train simply backed westward along the track. The Committee was also informed that the rear platform of the Royal car was about two feet higher than the ordinary platform, and therefore the people standing on the south side of platform would have an excellent view over the heads of the Institute children. This statement was erroneous. The Committee was obliged to act upon the information given them. The indefatigable agent, Mr. Coppin, is not in any way responsible for these mistakes. It becomes evident that, considering the nature of the ground, the positions of the several bodies taking part in the procession could only be held with the assistance of the military. Lieut.-Col. Halliwell, his officers and men and the company of the 49th used every effort to arrive on the grounds and hold the positions before the people came, but ten thousand people preceded them and it was found impossible to produce order out of chaos. The Committee used every effort to make the reception a success. Let those who complain attempt to handle 10,000 people, and they will then have some idea what it means.

I am, yours,
J. J. B. FLINT.

UNTOLD MISERY — WHAT A WELL-KNOWN COMMERCIAL TRAVELLER SUFFERED, AND HOW HE WAS CURED.—Gentlemen,—About five years ago I began to be troubled with Dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery from this terrible complaint. I was at that time travelling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine and when the third bottle was finished, I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of Dyspepsia.

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung and throat troubles, there is no preparation of medicine can compare with Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to afford prompt and permanent relief. It removes all soreness, and heals the diseased parts. It immediately soothes the most troublesome cough, and by promoting expectoration, removes the mucus which stops up the air tubes which causes difficulty in breathing, thereby gives relief to that depressing tightness experienced in the chest. Public speakers and singers will find Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup of inestimable value, as it speedily and effectually allays all irritation, and huskiness in the throat and bronchial tubes, and gives power to the vocal cords, rendering the voice clear and sonorous. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of "Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup," and whenever a child has taken cold, has a cough or hoarseness, give the Syrup according to directions.

VARICOCELE

No matter how serious your case may be or how long you may have had it, our NEW METHOD TREATMENT will cure it. The "wormy veins" return to their normal condition and hence the sexual organs receive proper nourishment. The organs become vitalized and manly powers return. No temporary benefit, but a permanent cure assured. NO CURE, NO PAY. NO OPERATION NECESSARY. NO DETENTION FROM BUSINESS.

STRICTURE

Thousands of young and middle-aged men are troubled with this disease—many unconsciously. They may have a smarting sensation, sharp, cutting pains at times, weak organs, and all the symptoms of nervous debility—they have STRICTURE. Don't let doctors experiment on you by cutting, stretching or tearing you. This will not cure you, as it will return. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT absorbs the stricture tissue, hence removes the stricture permanently. It can never return. No pain, no suffering, no detention from business by our method. The sexual organs are strengthened, the nerves are invigorated, and the bliss of manhood returns.

Cures Guaranteed

We treat and cure BLOOD POISON, NERVOUS DEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, STRICTURE, VARICOCELE, SEMINAL LOSSES, BLADDER and KIDNEY DISEASES. CONSULTATION FREE. BOOKS FREE. CHARGES MODERATE. If unable to call, write for a QUESTION BLANK for HOME Treatment.

MAN STANDING GUARD BY NIGHT.

A DEEPLY SUGGESTIVE AND SOLEMN THING TO DR. TALMAGE.

"WHAT OF THE NIGHT?"

The Four Watches of the Night According to the Division of the Ancients—Vivid Description of the Third Watch of the Night—A Whole City at Rest.

Entered according to Act of the Parliament of Canada, in the year One Thousand Nine Hundred and One, by William Baily, of Toronto, at the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Washington, Oct. 13.—In this discourse Dr. Talmage describes some of the scenes to be witnessed late at night in the great cities and warns the unwary of many perils; text, Isaiah xxi, 11, "Watchman, what of the night?"

When night came down on Babylon, Nineveh and Jerusalem, they needed careful watching, otherwise the incendiary's torch might have been thrust into the very heart of the metropolitan splendor, or enemies, marching from the hills, might have forced the gates. All night long, on top of the wall and in front of the gates, might be heard the measured step of the watchman on his solitary beat; silence hung in air, save as some passerby raised the question, "Watchman, what of the night?"

It is to me a deeply suggestive and solemn thing to see a man standing guard by night. It thrilled through me as at the gate of an arsenal in Charleston the question once smote me, "Who comes there?" followed by the sharp command, "Advance and give the countersign." Every moral teacher stands on picket or patrols the wall as watchman. His work is to sound the alarm, and whether it be in the first watch, in the second watch, in the third watch or in the fourth watch to be vigilant until the daybreak flings its "morning glories" of blooming cloud across the trellis of the sky.

The ancients divided their night into four parts—the first watch from 6 to 9, the second from 9 to 12, the third from 12 to 3 and the fourth from 3 to 6. I speak now of the city in the third watch, or from 12 to 3 o'clock.

I never weary of looking upon the life of the city in the first watch. That is the hour when the stores are closing. The laboring men, having quitted the scaffolding and the shop, are on their way home. It rejoices me to give them my seat in the city car. They have stood and hammered away all day. Their feet are weary. They are exhausted with the tug of work. They are mostly cheerful. With appetites sharpened on the swift turner's wheel and the carpenter's whetstone they seek the evening meal. The clerks, too, have broken away from the counter and with brain weary of the long line of figures and the whims of those who go a-shopping seek the face of mother or wife and child. The streets are thronged with young men setting out from the great centres of bargain making. Let idlers clear the street and give right of way to the besweated artisans and merchants! They have earned their bread and are now on their way home to get it. The lights in full jet hang over 10,000 evening repasts — the parents at either end of the table, the children between. Thank God, "who setteth the solitary in families!"

A few hours later and all the places of amusement, good and bad, are in full tide. Lovers of art, catalogue in hand, stroll through the galleries and discuss the pictures. The ballroom is resplendent with the rich apparel of those who on either side of the white, glistening boards await the signal from the orchestra. Concert halls are lifted into enchantment with the warble of one songstress or swept out on a sea of tumultuous feeling by the blast of brazen instruments. A beautiful and overwhelming thing is the city in the first and second watches of the night.

But the clock strikes 12, and the third watch has begun. The thunder of the city has rolled out of the air. The slighest sound cuts the night with such distinctness as to attract your attention. The tinkling of the bell of the street car in the distance and the baying of the dog. The stamp of a horse in the next street. The slamming of a saloon door. The hiccough of the drunkard. The shrieks of the steam whistle five miles away. Oh, how suggestive, my friends, the third watch of the night!

There are honest men passing up and down the street. Here is a city missionary, who has been carrying a scuttle of coal to that poor family in that dark place. Here is an undertaker going up the steps of a building from which there comes a bitter cry, which indicates that the destroying angel has smitten the firstborn. Here is a minister of religion who has been giving the sacrament to a dying Christian. Here is a physician, passing along in great haste. Nearly all the lights have gone out in the dwellings, for it is the third watch of the night. That light in the window is the light of the watcher, for the medicines must be administered, and the fever must be watched, and the restless tossing off of the coverlid must be resisted, and the ice must be kept on the hot temples, and the perpetual prayer must go up from hearts soon to be broken.

Oh, the third watch of the night! What a stupendous thought — a whole city at rest! Weary arms preparing for to-morrow's toil. Hot brain being cooled off. Rigid muscles relaxed. Excited nerves soothed. The white hair of the octogenarian in thin drifts across the pillow, fresh fall of flakes on snow already fallen. Childhood, with its dimpled hands thrown out on the pillow and with every breath taking in a new store of fun and frolic. Third watch of the night! God's slumberless eye will look. Let one great wave of refreshing slumber roll over the heart of the great town, submerging care and anxiety and worriment and pain. Let the city sleep.

But, my friends, be not deceived. There will be to-night thousands who will not sleep at all. Go up that dark alley, and be cautious where you tread lest you fall over the prostrate form of a drunkard lying on his own doorstep. Look about you, lest you feel the garroter's hug. Look through the broken window pane and see what you can see. You say, "Nothing." Then listen. What is it? "God help us?" No footlights, but tragedy ghastlier and mightier than Ristori or Edwin Booth ever enacted. No light, no fire, no bread, no hope. Shivering in the cold, they have had no food for twenty-four hours. You say, "Why don't they beg?" They do, but they get nothing. You say, "Why don't they deliver themselves over to the almshouse?" Ah, you would not ask that if you ever heard the bitter cry of a man or a child when told he must go to the almshouse. "Oh," you say, "they are vicious poor, and therefore they do not deserve our sympathy!" Are they vicious? So much more need they your pity. The Christian poor, God helps them.

Pass on through the alley. Open the door. "Oh," you say, "it is locked!" No, it is not locked. It has never been locked. No burglar would be tempted to go in there to steal anything. Only a broken chair stands against the door. Shove it back. Go in. Strike a match. Now, look. Beastliness and rags. See those glaring eyeballs. Be careful now what you say. Do not utter any insult, do not utter any suspicion, if you value your life. What is that red mark on the wall? It is the mark of a murderer's hand! Look at those two eyes rising up out of the darkness and out from the straw in the corner, coming toward you, and as they come near you your light goes out. Strike another match. Ah, this is a babe, not like those beautiful children presented in baptism. This little one never smiled. It never will smile. A flower flung on an awfully barren beach. O Heavenly Shepherd, fold that little one in thy arms! Wrap around you your shawl or your coat tighter, for the cold wind sweeps through.

Strike another match. Ah, it is possible that the scarred and bruised face of that young woman ever was looked into by maternal tenderness? Utter no scorn. Utter no harsh word. No ray of hope has dawned on that brow for many a year. No ray of hope ever will dawn on that brow. But the light has gone out. Do not strike another light. It would be a mockery to kindle another light in such a place as that. Pass out and pass down the street. Our cities are full of such homes and the worst time the third watch of the night.

In the third watch of the night gambling does its worst work. What though the hours be slipping away and though the wife be waiting in the cheerless home? Stir up the fire; bring on more drinks; put up more stakes! That commercial house that only a little while ago put on a sign of co-partnership will this winter be wrecked on a gambler's table. There will be many a money till that will spring a leak. In the third watch of the night pass down the streets of these cities, and you hear the click of the dice and the sharp, keen stroke of the balls on the billiard table. At these places merchant princes dismount, and legislators, tired of making laws, take a respite in breaking them. All classes of people are robbed by this crime — the importer of foreign silks and the dealer in Chatham street pocket handkerchiefs. The clerks of the store take a hand after the shutters are put up, and the officers of the court while away their time while the jury is out.

In Baden-Baden, when that city was the greatest of all gambling places on earth, it was no unusual thing the next morning, in the woods around about the city, to find the suspended bodies of suicides. Whatever be the splendor of surroundings, there is no excuse for this crime. The thunders of eternal destruction roll in the deep rumble of that gambling tenpin alley, and as men come out to join the long procession of sin all the drums of death beat the dead march of a thousand souls.

In the third watch of the night also drunkenness does its worst. The drinking will be respectable at 8 o'clock in the evening, a little flushed at 9, talkative and garrulous at 10, at 11 blasphemous, at 12 the hat falls off, at 1 the man falls to the floor, asking for more drink. Strewn through the drinking saloons of the city, fathers, husbands, sons, as good as you are by nature, perhaps better. In the high circles of society it is hushed up. A merchant prince, if he gets noisy and uncontrollable, is taken by his fellow revelers, who try to get him to bed or take him home, where he falls flat in the entry. Do not wake up the children. They have had disgrace enough. Do not let them know it. Hush it up. But sometimes it cannot be hushed up when the rum touches the brain and the man becomes thoroughly frenzied. Such a one came home, having been absent for some time, and during his absence his wife died, and she lay in the next room, prepared for the obsequies, and he went in and dragged her by the locks and shook her out of her shroud and pitched her out of the window. Oh, when rum touches the brain you cannot hush it up!

My friends, you see all around about you the need that something radical be done. You do not see the worst. In the midnight meetings in London a great multitude have been saved. We want a few hundred Christian men and women to come down from the highest circles of society to toil amid these wandering and destitute ones and kindle up a light in the dark alley, even the gladness of heaven. Do not go wrapped in your fine furs and from your well filled tables with the idea that pious talk is going to stop the gnawing of an empty stomach or to warm stockingless feet. Take bread, take raiment, take medicine, as well as take prayer. There is a great deal of common sense in what the poor woman said to the city missionary when he was telling her how she ought to love God and serve him. "Oh," she said, "if you were as poor and cold as I am and as hungry you could think of nothing else!"

A great deal of what is called Christian work goes for nothing, for the simple reason it is not practical. As after the battle of Antietam a man got out of an ambulance with a bag of tracts, and he went distributing the tracts, and George Stuart, one of the best Christian men in this country, said to him: "What are you distributing tracts for now? There are 3,000 men bleeding to death. Bind up their wounds, and then distribute the tracts." We want more common sense in Christian work, taking the bread of this life in one hand and the bread of the next life in the other hand. No such inapt work as that done by the Christian man who, during the civil war, went into a hospital with tracts, and, coming to the bed of a man whose legs had been amputated, gave him a tract on the sin of dancing!

I could give you the history in a minute of one of the best friends I ever had. Outside of my own family I never had a better friend. He welcomed me to my home at the west. He was of splendid personal appearance, but he had an ardor of soul and a warmth of affection that made me love him like a brother. I saw men coming out of the saloons and gambling hells, and they surrounded my friend, and they took him at the weak point — his social nature — and I saw him going down, and I had a fair talk with him, for I never yet saw a man you could not talk with on the subject of his habits if you talked with him in the right way. I said to him, "Why don't you give up your bad habits and become a Christian?" I remember now just how he looked, leaning over his counter, as he replied: "I wish I could. Oh, sir, I should like to be a Christian, but I have gone so far astray I can't get back!" So the time went on. After awhile the day of sickness came. I was summoned to his sick bed. I hastened. It took me but a very few moments to get there. I was surprised as I went in. I saw him in his ordinary dress, fully dressed, lying on top of the bed. I gave him my hand, and he seized it convulsively and said: "Oh, how glad I am to see you! Sit down there!" I sat down, and he said: "Mr. Talmage, just where you sit now my mother sat last night. She has been dead twenty years. Now, I don't want you to think I am out of my mind or that I am superstitious, but, sir, she sat there last night, and she said, 'Roswell, I wish you would do better, I wish you would do better.' I said: 'Mother, I wish I could do better. I try to do better, but I can't. Mother, you used to help me; why can't you help me now?' And, sir, I got out of bed, for it was a reality, and I went to her and threw my arms around her neck, and I said: 'Mother, I will do better, but you must help. I can't do this alone.'" I knelt and prayed. That night his soul went to the Lord who made it.

But there is a man who will not reform. He says, "I won't reform." Well, then, how many acts are there in a tragedy? I believe there are five acts in a tragedy.

Act first of the tragedy: A young man starting off from home; parents and sisters weeping to have him go; wagon rising over the hill; farewell kiss flung back. Ring the bell and let the curtain fall.

Act the second: The marriage altar; full organ, bright lights; long white veil trailing through the aisle; prayer and congratulation and exclamation of, "How well she looks!"

Act the third: A woman waiting for staggering steps; old garments stuck into the broken window pane; marks of hardship on the face; the biting of the nails of bloodless fingers; neglect and cruelty and despair. Ring the bell and let the curtain fall.

Act the fourth: Three graves in a dark place — grave of the child that died for lack of medicine, grave of the wife that died of a broken heart, grave of the man that died of dissipation. Oh, what a blasted heath with three graves! Plenty of weeds but no flowers. Ring the bell and let the curtain drop.

Act the fifth: A destroyed soul's eternity; no light, no music; blackness of darkness forever. But I cannot look any longer. Woe! woe! I close my eyes to this last act of the tragedy. Quick, quick! Ring the bell and let the curtain drop. "Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart rejoice in the days of thy youth, but know thou that for all these things God will bring you into judgment." "There is a way that seemeth right to a man, but the end thereof is death."

The Barefoot Fad.

The latest sensation in Dublin is the adoption by a number of society people of the "barefoot" fad for their children. Considerable attention is aroused now and then in the streets about the fashionable squares by the appearance of smartly clad children, walking barelegged and barefooted, all but a slight sandal. The idea is that the children are made hardier and less likely to take cold by this exposure. — Dublin Freeman's Journal.

Love of Christ.

Hope and fear are Gospel motives —but only for children in the faith. The true motive of the Gospel is personal affection working in constant fellowship of life and aim. He who lives with Christ finds it easier to live for Christ. This is the motive power which makes hard duty possible. This is the perfect love which casts out fear.

Corticelli SPOOL SILK

Woman Waylaid by Robbers.

Sarnia, Oct. 16.—As Mrs. James Campbell of Point Edward was driving home on Sunday night, she was waylaid on the road and badly used.

At about 10 o'clock the horse arrived at the Campbell residence, and Mrs. Campbell was found unconscious in the buggy. Her face was terribly cut, she having been struck fairly across the nose with a missle of some sort. Her nose was broken, as was also her cheek bone, and the flesh on her face was terribly gashed. Several teeth were also knocked out. From indications, it appears as if Mrs. Campbell had been knocked from the buggy by the force of the blow she received, as her clothes were all smeared with mud and the ground where the assault occurred shows many blood stains. The culprits evidently put the unfortunate victim back into the buggy and started the horse homewards.

Every Exertion a Task

There is failure of the strength to do and the power to endure; a feeling of weakness all over the body.

The vital functions are impaired, food does not nourish, and the whole system is run down.

A medicine that strengthens the stomach, perfects digestion, invigorates and tones is needed.

What Hood's Sarsaparilla did for John Y. Paterson, Whitby, Ont., it will do for you. He took it as a tonic and general builder of the system, and writes: "I have found no other remedy to compare with it as a restorer of vitality. It drives away that tired feeling, quiets the nerves, and brings sweet refreshing sleep."

CAN DO WORK OF 100 MEN.

Track-Laying Machine That Was Invented by Mr. Hugh Mann.

Winnipeg, Oct. 17.—A track-laying machine that will put down one mile of steel per hour is the result of many months of hard work and experiment, combined with the expenditure of thousands of dollars by the Canadian Northern Railway Company. The machine, which has been invented and carefully improved, tested and remodelled from time to time into its present effective form, is the work of Hugh Mann, the well known contractor. It received a final test on Monday, and has since then been working very satisfactorily in the laying of the tracks for the new C.P.R. yards in Fort Range.

This machine, which cost about $4,000, was built in the C. N. R. shops here, and is regarded by railway men and contractors as one of the achievements of the present century in the line of railway construction. It is claimed for it that it can easily do the work of 100 men, and will lay one mile of ties and steel per hour.

Indians Dying Off.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—The census returns for the Northwest Territories are complete, with the exception of three sub-divisions in East Assiniboia, and six in Saskatchewan, and schedules for some Indian reserves. The total number of Indians returned to the present time is 4,627 for Saskatchewan, 2,420 for East Assiniboia and 1,519 for Alberta, the last named including the population of only two reserves. This is about 5,500 less than the Indian population of the same territories, as published in the report of the Indian Affairs for 1900.

AN INTERNAL REMEDY.

A Pleasant Tasting Tablet; Simple, Convenient; Cures Every Form of Catarrh.

The use of inhalers, douches, sprays, salves and powders for catarrh is a nuisance and inconvenience at the best, and cannot compare with antiseptic remedies in tablet form for internal use.

Internal remedies are the only ones which can really reach the seat of the disease which is in the blood and local applications can no more cure catarrh than rheumatism or kidney trouble, the excessive secretion in nose and throat being local manifestations of a deep seated poison in the blood.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the most successful of the various internal remedies, is composed principally of highly concentrated antiseptics, which destroy the catarrh germs in the blood and cause them to be eliminated through the natural channels.

Progressive physicians use and advise Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because they contain no cocaine, no opiate, no enervating drug whatever, but are composed of Guaiacol, Hydrastin, Red Gum and similar catarrh antiseptics, and are so safe and pleasant that even little children may use them with excellent results.

Catarrh sufferers who have wasted time and money on local applications should not despair of a radical cure until a trial of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets has been made.

A complete treatment may be purchased at any drug store for fifty cents.

DUCAL PARTY IN THE EAST

An Interesting Ceremony on the Victoria Jubilee Bridge.

Gold Rivet, Which Was Put Into Place by King Edward as Prince of Wales, Inspected by His Son, Who Replies to an Address by General Manager Reeve—Royal Party Will Leave for England on Friday Week.

Cardinal, Oct. 17.—About 3,000 citizens from Cardinal and the surrounding country assembled yesterday morning at the temporary station erected by the Grand Trunk, and where the royal trains passed the night, to show honor to the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York. The school children, in charge of Principal Conley, marched from the school, and at the train sang several national songs, and a pretty bouquet of roses was handed to the Duchess by Miss Henderson, little daughter of Mr. Colin Henderson of this town. The Duchess very gracefully acknowledged the gift, and shook hands with Miss Henderson and two other little girls accompanying her. The Duke and Duchess remained on the platform waving their hands and bowing to the crowd, while the train pulled out.

Gift of Lacrosse Sticks.

Cornwall, Oct. 17.—The royal train bearing the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York passed here at 11 a. m. yesterday. There were 4,000 people at the Grand Trunk station to greet Their Royal Highnesses. When the train slackened up Mayor Campbell presented Their Royal Highnesses with a complete set of lacrosse sticks, especially manufactured by the Lally Lacrosse Company for their children. The sticks were encased in a beautiful gold-mounted case bearing a suitable inscription; a set of flag poles and a ball accompanied the sticks. Little Olive, the 5-year-old daughter of Mayor Campbell, presented a beautiful bouquet of flowers to Her Royal Highness, after which the members of the Town Council, the ministers of the different denominations in Cornwall and Judges O'Reilly and Liddell were presented to Their Royal Highnesses, and the train pulled out amid great cheering.

WHERE HIS FATHER STOOD.

Duke of York Receives an Address From the G.T.R.

Montreal, Oct. 17.—The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York are now en route to Halifax, having left this city at 1 o'clock yesterday. Before leaving, however, an interesting function took place on the Victoria Jubilee Bridge. At the suggestion of Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, the president of the G.T.R., it was decided that the royal train should stop in the centre of the new Victoria Bridge and that there, as near as possible to the spot where the present King of England had driven the last rivet of the then world famous Victoria Tubular Bridge, the future King of England should be presented with a souvenir worthy of the occasion, which should mark his visit to the new Victoria Bridge.

"Your Royal Highness now stands where your illustrious father, the King, stood on the 5th day of August, 1860, when he drove the last rivet in the Victoria Bridge, which was considered at that time one of the wonders of the world. The enormous increase in traffic of the country made it necessary in 1897 to reconstruct the bridge, substituting for the single track tubular bridge the one you see to-day, with double track and double roadway, which is known as the Victoria Jubilee Bridge, in honor of Her Most Gracious Majesty, the late Queen. Early in the spring when our president, Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, paid his annual visit, he suggested that we should take advantage of the occasion of the visit of Your Royal Highness to present a souvenir which I have a great deal of pleasure in doing, and trust that you will accept it; and before closing, unless Your Royal Highness commands to the contrary, I would desire, on behalf of my colleagues and myself, to bid you adieu, expressing their wishes and my own that Her Royal Highness and yourself may have a pleasant voyage across the Atlantic and a safe landing on the shores of dear old England."

At the close of the address the general manager handed to the Duke a handsome leather case, containing a souvenir history of the two Victoria bridges, printed on satin, which His Royal Highness was pleased to accept.

In reply, the Duke of Cornwall and York expressed his thanks to the management of the Grand Trunk Railway for the care they had taken of the royal train since it had been upon their system, and stated that it was a great pleasure to identify himself with such a wonderful enterprise as the Victoria Bridge with which his dear father's name was so intimately connected. He wished every prosperity to the Grand Trunk system, and would have great pleasure in telling his father the King of his visit to such an interesting link between the present and the past as the Victoria Bridge.

Given a Bear-Skin Robe.

Sherbrooke, Que., Oct. 17.—A portion of the royal train came through to Sherbrooke, where half an hour was spent by the Duke and Duchess to the gratification of an enormous crowd. The reception was confined exclusively to the public square in front of the Grand Trunk Station. The Duchess graciously received the bear skin robe, and assisted in carrying it a few steps on returning to the train.

The Caughnawaga Indians duly made their presentation.

St. John Waits.

St. John, Oct. 17.—The city is gay with bunting, and last night the special illuminations were tested for to-night's display. There are thousands of visitors here, and the troops have begun to come in.

Duke Sails for England Oct. 25.

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 17.—The Duke of Cornwall and York, by a telegram from Canada, makes large alterations in the program of his reception in St. John's next week, virtually compressing the whole affair into a few hours.

The royal yacht Ophir will arrive Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 23, but the Duke will not land until 11 o'clock the next morning, when the functions will be hurried through.

The State banquet will be given in the evening and the Ophir will sail for England Friday morning.

SO AS TO SAVE CHINA'S FACE

New Manchurian Convention Is on Diplomatic Lines.

Practically the Same as the Withdrawn One of April 5, But It Is More Cleverly Worded—Russia Entrusts to Li Hung Chang the Negotiations by Which She Seeks to Gain Possession of Manchuria.

London, Oct. 17.—"The new Manchurian convention, which has been the subject of negotiation between M. Paul Lessar (Russian Minister to China) and Li Hung Chang is on the same lines as the convention which Russia withdrew April 5," says the Pekin correspondent of The Times, "but it is more cleverly worded so as to save China's face.

"In consequence of previous disclosures a jealous secrecy has been observed, but the important negotiations by which Russia seeks to legalize her occupation of Manchuria have been entrusted to Li Hung Chang, who can be better trusted to serve Russian interests than any other Chinese statesman.

"Prince Ching is indignant because he has been kept in ignorance, and both the Yangtse viceroys have twice protested against the negotiations. The same powerful opposition that was employed before is again endeavoring to prevent the signature of the convention, but Russia's promise to restore the railway from Shan Hai Kwan to Nieu Chwang is a powerful lever in the hands of M. Lessar."

Court Is Fatigued.

Pekin, Oct. 16.—The court arrived at Tung Kuan Friday last, Oct. 11, and will remain there for several days in order to recuperate from the fatigue due to traveling over the execrable roads.

FOR HER BROTHER.

Sixty Square Inches of Cuticle Taken From Brave Miss Mitchell.

Montreal, Oct. 17.—Last July Arthur Mitchell, the 9-year-old son of H. R. Mitchell, dry goods dealer, 595 Wellington street, was severely injured by a railway car near his home, losing his left arm and having a large piece of flesh cut out of his left thigh.

In order that the raw wounds might be skinned over, his sister, Matilda, 17 years of age, offered herself as a subject, and yesterday the hospital doctors removed 60 square inches cuticle from her body and grafted it upon the brother.

Both Violated G.T.R. Rules.

London, Ont., Oct. 17.—The jury in the case of Conductor William Birkett, who was killed by a yard engine at London East a short time ago, brought in a verdict to the effect that Conductor Birkett violated a rule of the Grand Trunk by stepping from a moving train at the East London Station the night he met his death. The jury also reached the conclusion that George Ross, the driver of the engine which struck Birkett, broke one of the rules by having a red instead of a white light on the rear end of the tender when backing down the yard, and the jury further declared that Ross was to blame for failing to stop his engine when he saw the passenger train so near to the station.

Robbed a Comrade.

Windsor, Oct. 17.—A sequel to the grand military review held in Toronto Friday last when the Duke of Cornwall and York inspected 12,000 troops, came up in the Police Court yesterday morning. A. Barber of the Essex Fusiliers was charged with having stolen $25 from the pocket of Hugh McDowell, a comrade, with whom he slept while the regiment was domiciled in the carriage building on the Exposition Grounds. Barber pleaded guilty. He paid into court $18, and promised to produce the balance within a few days. Under the circumstances, the court suspended sentence. Col. Guillott, who was in court, says he will dismiss Barber from the regiment.

Shot Away His Face.

Fort Erie, Ont., Oct. 17.—Young Simons, son of the proprietor of a restaurant at Erie Beach, went out shooting on Monday last, and as he did not return at night, his friends went in search of him, when he was found in the woods with his face badly shot to pieces. It is supposed the gun was in some way discharged while being loaded. Simons was a young man some 17 or 18 years of age.

Fourteen Peasants Killed.

London, Oct. 17.—"The Lemerg papers report bread riots at Taraskova, Eastern Russia," says the Vienna correspondent of The Daily Mail. "In Samara the starving peasants stormed the municipal buildings, and the residences of wealthy persons, setting some on fire. Troops were summoned, and 14 peasants were killed."

Watch Canadian Cattle.

London, Oct. 17.—At a meeting of the Aberdeen Harbor Commissioners Mayor Lyon suggested that the committee should be continued to watch over the cattle question. He also urged that the commissioners should make application for a license being granted for the landing and slaughter of fat cattle.

Toronto Man Sentenced.

Windsor, Oct. 17.—Herbert Kielty, the Toronto man who pleaded guilty to the theft of silverware and other articles from the steamer Pittsburg, was yesterday morning sentenced by Magistrate Bartlett to six weeks' imprisonment in Sandwich Jail.

Canada Leads.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—Canada won $5,641 in prizes for cattle at the Pan-American; United States only $5,669.

11 Killed, 36 Injured.

Vienna, Oct. 17.—The Neues Abend Blatt reports that there has been rioting in Kicheneff, Bessarabia, where one thousand students attacked and wrecked the house of the Governor, the headquarters of the police, and the office of the Official Gazette. Many encounters took place between the students and the police, and 11 persons were killed and 36 injured.

Farmers Are More Hopeful

A Better Feeling in the Northwest as to Threshing.

Baroness Burdett-Coutts Dying Royal Party in the East—Interesting Ceremony on Victoria Bridge—New Track Laying Machine—Scheme to Save China's Face.

Winnipeg, Oct. 17.—All over the province yesterday the weather was reported clear and fine, and, with a higher barometer and indications most favorable, the farmers are hopeful of a good week with their threshing.

Deliveries at C.P.R. points yesterday were higher than for several days, 170,000 bushels.

During the day there were 180 cars loaded for shipment, which is equal to about 180,000 bushels of wheat.

W. L. Parrish has returned from a trip over the Gladstone district. "I met one of the farmers there," said Mr. Parrish, in speaking of the wheat prospects, "who had threshed five acres of his wheat that yielded 50 bushels to the acre. The quality was good, too. There are other cases of big yields throughout the province."

150,000 UNEMPLOYED.

Abnormal Extension of Electrical Industry in Germany the Cause.

Berlin, Oct. 17.—The startling shrinkage in the values of German electrical concerns has been brought to light by statistics showing the price of shares of the leading manufacturing companies compared with their value in January, 1899. Twenty-one companies, whose capital two years ago represented a market value of 444,000,000 marks ($111,000,000), are worth on the basis of yesterday's Boerse quotations only 271,000,000 marks ($67,750,000), a decrease of 61 per cent. The Chucker Company heads the list, with a loss of 53,000,000 marks ($13,250,000), followed by the Allegemeine Company, with 50,000,000 marks ($12,500,000), the Siemens & Halske, 18,000,000 marks ($4,500,000). The Union, which is the German connection of the General Electric Company of America, has depreciated 14,000,000 marks ($3,500,000.)

The abnormal extension of the industry in advance of the country's needs is given as the cause of the unparalleled dwindling of stocks. More than 150,000 men and women dependent on the electrical trade are said to be unemployed at this moment.

Mr. Choate on a Secret Mission

London, Oct. 17.—A Minister of one of the minor European powers vouches for the following story as to Ambassador Choate's real object in going to America at this time:

The United States Ambassador, according to the Minister, takes with him a message of inquiry from the British Government, which is too delicate to be trusted to the cable, regarding President Roosevelt's attitude toward England in case of European complications. At Ambassador Choate's visit to King Edward, just previous to his departure, says the Minister, the matter was fully discussed.

Canadian Killed in Arizona.

Brockville, Oct. 17.—Word has been received in Brockville of the death of Patrick Hussey in Arizona, a former resident of Brockville, under tragical circumstances. He was an old-time engineer on the G.T.R. between Brockville and Belleville. Moving west several years ago he settled in Arizona and was appointed a traveling engineer. This he resigned quite recently to assume his position on a passenger train, and while making his first trip he was killed in an accident.

Died in South Africa

Quebec, Oct. 17.—News has been received of the death of Miss Marie Aimee Lucienne Begin, daughter of Mr. Louis Begin, of Bienneville, Levis, which occurred at the Sanitarium of Berea, Durban, South Africa, on Sept. 12. Miss Begin left during last summer with some nuns and young ladies of Quebec and Levis to become nuns in South Africa.

He Can't Believe It.

He's blowing with all his might and can barely stir the recording hand from zero. There's many a big, healthy looking man who is weak in the lungs. Probably half or two-thirds of his lung surface barely knows the contact of oxygen. He's the kind of man, who, when a cough attacks him, goes galloping down the road toward consumption. Many such a man has found strength and healing for weak lungs and tissues lacerated by coughing and drained by hemorrhages, in the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The healing power of this medicine in pulmonary diseases seems little short of marvelous at times, so extreme are the conditions which it cures. The "Discovery" contains no alcohol, and no narcotics.

"When I started to take your 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mr. A. F. Novotny, of New York, N. Y., Box 1417, "I had a regular consumptive cough, of which I was afraid, and everybody cautioned me and warned me concerning it. I was losing weight rapidly, was very pale and had no appetite, whatever. Now my condition is changed entirely. I do not cough at all, have gained eight pounds in weight, have recovered my healthy color, and my appetite is enormous. I can recommend your medicine to everybody who may be in need of the same, as it is a sure cure."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation.

From Slave to Empress.

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 17.—The Emperor of Corea has invited the foreign representatives to an entertainment to be given on Oct. 23, when Lady Om will be introduced as the new Empress. Lady Om was a slave girl rescued from captured pirates by the Corean court.

Severe Famine Riots.

Vienna, Oct. 17.—The Neue Frie Presse yesterday says that famine riots have broken out in the Government of Saratoff, and that serious conflicts have taken place between the Russian peasants and the troops. Many persons were wounded during the fighting.

Will Limit Manitoba Millers.

Winnipeg, Oct. 17.—Australia's proposed high tariff on flour will deprive Manitoba millers of a profitable trade. The duty, it is thought, will amount to about $1 a barrel instead of 61c.

Notorious Brigand Caught.

Rome, Oct. 17.—The notorious brigand, Mussolino, has been captured after a fierce resistance at Urbino. He had long terrorized Calabria, and is credited with having committed 25 murders.

Moulders on Strike.

Winnipeg, Oct. 17.—The moulders of the Vulcan Iron Works went on strike yesterday over one of the men whom it is thought should not be working as an apprentice.

For the South Pole.

Gothenberg, Sweden, Oct. 17.—Professor Otto Nordenskjold's South Pole vessel, Antarctic, sailed yesterday. All the members of the expedition were on board, with the exception of Lieut. Duse, who will join the vessel at Falmouth. The Antarctic was loudly cheered by thousands of people who assembled to bid her farewell.

Big Railway Suit Begun.

Montreal, Oct. 17.—A railway case involving a large sum of money has just been taken out by MacMaster, MacLennan & Hickson, acting for Ryan & McDonnell, railway contractors, against Mackenzie, Mann & Co., and Donald D. Mann personally. The claim is for the sum of $195,154.97.

A Poor Apple Crop.

New York, Oct. 17.—The commercial apple crop of 1901, according to the final report of The American Agriculturist, is placed at 23,000,000 barrels, against 48,000,000 barrels one year ago, and nearly 70,000,000 barrels in the bumper crop year of 1896.

Was Cool and Courageous.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Admiral Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the Schley Court of Inquiry the entire day. All the witnesses testified that the conduct of the commodore when under fire was cool and courageous.

Russia Moving.

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 17.—The Japan Mail publishes a statement to the effect that Russian officers have been urging Corea to fortify the coasts of the Peninsula, and have offered to secure the money for the purpose without interest.

Halifax, Oct. 17.—Wesley Roberts lost his life in Murray River, P. E. I., yesterday. He shot some birds, and in swimming out to secure them he was taken with cramps and drowned.

Baptists Elect Officers.

Brantford, Oct. 17.—At the session of the Baptist Convention Tuesday afternoon, J. N. Shenstone, Rev. S. J. Moore, Rev. A. Ayer and Rev. R. R. McKey were appointed to fill the vacancies on the Foreign Mission Board.

Rev. G. B. Davis of Woodstock pointed out that 20 years ago there was not a single missionary in the northwestern part of Canada, and the same with India. Ten years ago there were 10 small churches, while at present there are 100 organized churches, with a membership of 7,000 and $20,000 worth of church property.

Following are the officers for the year: President, Rev. A. McNee, Windsor; 1st Vice-President, Rev. W. J. McKay, Stratford; 2nd Vice-President, Hon. John Dryden; Secretary-Treasurer, Rev. P. K. Dayfoot, Port Hope.

The Khan's Copyrights.

Hamilton, Oct. 17.—A suit in the High Court for $1,000 damages has been entered against J. W. Lyon and The World Publishing Company of Guelph for infringement of copyright. The plaintiff is R. K. Kernighan of Beverly, better known as "The Khan," and the allegation is that the defendants have, without his permission, printed the well known poem, "The Men of the Northern Zone." An injunction is also asked for. Very probably proceedings will also be taken against the Newnes Company, Limited, of London, England, and other publishing houses for alleged infraction of Mr. Kernighan's copyright in other well known poems.

BARONESS BURDETT-COUTTS DYING.

Growing Progressively Weaker at Her Summer Country Home.

London, Oct. 17.—Baroness Burdett-Coutts is growing progressively weaker every day at her superb country home, West Hill. Her rapid decline in health dates from the death of Queen Victoria, to whom the great philanthropist was very close and very dear. On news of the Queen's death the baroness lost her customary high spirits and denied herself to her friends. The depression into which she sank has never lifted, and it is now believed that the end of her active and beneficient life is not far off.

BARONESS BURDETT-COUTTS.

The dying peeress was born on April 26, 1814. She is the daughter of the banker, Thomas Coutts, and inherited from him an immense fortune, which, under her careful management, has expanded into proportions which make her the richest woman in the world. It was in 1871 that the Queen elevated Miss Coutts to the peerage of England in reward for her noble and notable benefactions. In 1881 the Baroness was married to William Ashmead-Bartlett, who has been given royal license to use the surname of Burdett-Coutts. Until a few weeks ago she insisted upon attending to the direction of her banking house in London.

For an Ottawan's Murder.

Ballston, Oct. 17.—Joseph C. Banks of Waterloo, N. Y., was arraigned in the Supreme Court yesterday on an indictment for murder in the first degree in shooting and instantly killing Herbert G. Tackaberry of Ottawa at Saratoga Springs, Aug. 16. Banks was superintendent of a circus, and Tackaberry a discharged employe. It is said the men were rivals for the affections of an equestrienne, and that jealousy was the motive of the quarrel and shooting. Banks pleaded not guilty, and asserts the shooting was in self-defence. The trial was adjourned until Monday, Nov. 11.

Preparing for the Mint.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—The Public Works Department is making its arrangements for the erection in Ottawa of the branch of the Royal Mint, which was provided for in the estimates of last session. "I have gone over the ground to-day," said Mr. Tarte, "which we are to use for the mint. The site selected is on Nepean Point. We can get a splendid foundation over on the solid rock, and our purpose is to set up a building that will in every way prove worthy. It will be about 165 feet by 180."

Additional Canadian Awards.

Buffalo, Oct. 17.—The following additional Canadian awards have been made public in a supplement to the list issued by the Jury of Awards of the Pan-American Exposition, and published Oct. 10:

Literary Notes.

Without exception the daintiest, most suggestive, most pleasing little book that has reached this office is "Pressed Flowers from the Holy Land," published by H. B. Greene, Lowell, Mass. It is a small, paper-covered volume, but it is a thing altogether unique in book-making; it contains twelve flowers that grew in Palestine and were there pressed and dried, and are now handsomely mounted in this beautiful little booklet. A more fitting Christmas souvenir can not be imagined.

Order is heaven's first law.—Pope.

TARTE VS. PREFONTAINE.

"NOTHING IS TOO GOOD FOR TARTE!"

The Tartian Ministerial war is being prosecuted with vigor, and great expectations exist as to a final split in the ranks of Grit-Rougeism. Those who anticipated such a result know not of the parties now apparently in deadly political and personal conflict. A similar rebellion existed but a few years ago in the ranks of the same parties. The Rouge Clubs in Montreal passed resolutions condemning, and demanding the removal of Tarte from the Government. The little renegade Tory who now manages, controls and dominates the Grit-Rouge combination laughed in his sleeve and still remains in the Government and chuckles over the growlings and threatening of the malcontents, remembering the declaration of Sir Wilfrid Laurier that "Nothing is too good for Tarte."

His opponents may bluster, fume, and denounce him, but he will apply the lash and they in good time will fall into line and worship at his footstool.

They have done so in the past, and what reason is there to suppose they will not do it again while Laurier remains his mentor and god-father?

"Business is business" and contract "rake-offs" are too powerful factors in the organization of Grit-Rougism to cause a final split in a party so constituted.

Not only has the Great Mogul, who reigns supreme at Ottawa, read the Mayor of Montreal out of the party, but he has fallen foul of Mr. Blair, Minister of Railways and Canals—not however, for the first time. He now modestly demands the management of the proposed expenditure on the Georgian Bay Canal. This is not a mere rumor, for when Mr. Prefontaine was asked the other day if it were true that Tarte was after Blair's scalp, he replied "It was "quite true that Tarte was now "quarrelling with Mr. Blair because "the latter would not admit the contention that the works of the Georgian Bay Canal should be under the "entire control and direction of Mr. "Tarte."

A nice lot to constitute a Government, truly. The little Tory of former days will yet conquer, as Laurier dare not say Nay, he being as much, if not more, under the thumb and control of Tarte than any of his followers.

Tarte knows too much to be thrown overboard.

They dare not turn him out of the Cabinet!

"I have broken with him forever," exclaimed Mr. Prefontaine, the other day. Perhaps so. But he will continue to support the Government of which he is a member!

TIMELY TOPICS.

Many people, we have no doubt, will be surprised when they read in another column of the peculiar position the present Tax Collector, Mr. J. H. Starling, finds himself placed in. It certainly does not appear that, under the circumstances, any blame is attached to him for refusing to take legal proceedings against people who claim they have paid their taxes, when he may have to personally pay the costs of proving the truth of their story. It seems to be the plain duty of the Council to at once pass a by-law, giving the Tax Collector the authority he demands. The other phases of the muddle, perhaps, may not be so easy of solution, but all parties connected with it are now living in the city, and could be called on to give evidence. The quicker matters are brought to a head and the whole business cleared up the better it will be for the city as a whole.

Sir Thomas Lipton intimated in an interview in Chicago that he would challenge for the America's Cup with Shamrock III. If pluck counts, the Irish knight will yet lift the cup.

A Belleville merchant has got the newest thing in flannels. It's a baby.

Come to think of it, it was rather too bad the Duke couldn't find time to come down into the city. He might have seen the exact spot at which his Royal daddy didn't land forty-one years ago.

* * *

Mr. W. J. Diamond's letter, in another column, is on a pertinent and timely topic. No doubt the question he asks will be answered satisfactorily by somebody whose duty it is to guard the city's interests.

* * *

Speaking of the Street Railway, now, the conviction is slowly but surely forcing itself on the public mind that, rather than lose it altogether, the city itself should take over the railway and operate it. It is pointed out that the price is not likely to be prohibitive, judging by what we have been hearing in connection with a proposed purchase, and the electric lighting plant in connection would enable the city to keep a check on any lighting company doing business in Belleville.

* * *

It seems a pity to have the railway tied up. The idea of its being dismantled and taken away piecemeal is especially distasteful, we believe, to the great majority of our citizens. One of Ontario's foremost financial men has, we are told, expressed the opinion that the road, under proper management, could be made to pay. The city has already committed itself to the principle of municipal ownership. Why not, rather than lose it altogether, take over and run the street railway?

* * *

"You seem to be concerning yourself a good deal about municipal affairs lately," said a Front street man to Timely Topics this morning.

"Can you suggest a better subject?" asked the newspaper man.

"What would you like to see done?" asked the Front street man, answering one question with another.

Now, that's quite a question. What would we all like to see done? Well, to begin with, we'd like to see the taxes paid up, and many more permanent sidewalks built next year, and, above all, we'd like to see the best men in the city nominated for the Council, and we'd like to see them run and not resign. And we'd like to see the people who have been doing the grumbling this year come forward and do some of the work themselves next year. Now, that's what we'd like to see, gentle reader. What would you like to see?

ROUGH ON TORONTO.

(Ottawa Citizen.)

Toronto people contracted at a good round sum to feed the troops who were ordered to their city, and then starved them; they represented that nearly all the seats for the review were sold in order to boom a rush and aid the speculators, when as a matter of fact not one sixteenth part of the seats had been sold, with the result that a few thousand dupes and dead heads saw the review while the great mass of outside visitors lined the streets and had to be content with seeing the free "street parade" of the troops, while a quarter of a mile of grand stand inside the ground remained unoccupied. Truly Hogtown immortalized itself last week.

Some of the above may be true, but certainly Belleville's contingent were a long way from being "starved."

It must be hard on little country papers when their "patent insides" miss the train in Toronto, and they have to apologize to their readers and give the snap away. Of course, users of "patent insides" don't show much local enterprise, but even that is better than borrowing blank paper and forgetting to return it.

"That's a bad cold you have," said one gentleman to another this morning. "You ought to put a mustard plaster on your chest."

"I wouldn't dare to go out for a couple of days if I did," said the other.

And he walked off singing "A Policeman's lot is not a happy one."

The decision of Police Magistrate Flint in the case of Rex. vs. Lowery and Howard, shows a peculiar state of affairs. John Smith, if employed by an Ontario corporation, can work on Sunday if he wants to without let or hindrance, but John Smith, if he has a little shop of his own and works in it on Sunday, can be fined and imprisoned. The law makers have blundered sadly, according to the findings of Police Magistrate Flint.

Died in Bridgewater

On Wednesday afternoon, October 16, Mr. Joseph Frost, of Bridgewater, who has been ailing for a year or more, breathed his last. The immediate cause of his death was paralysis, with which he had been confined to his bed for a month past. Deceased was a resident of Tweed about forty years ago, where he ran a carriage shop. He moved to Bridgewater, and has since resided there. He was seventy years of age. His wife preceded him to the grave a number of years ago. Four sons, three of whom reside in Bridgewater and one at Queenston, and four daughters, three residing in Montreal and one at home, survive.

"SYSTEMATIC GIVING"

TEXT OF A PAPER READ AT RECENT MEETING OF THE WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY, IN THIS CITY.

At the recent meeting of the Women's Missionary Society, held in this city, a paper on "Systematic and Proportionate Giving" was read by Mrs. L. Massey, of Wallbridge. The paper justly attracted much attention, and The Intelligencer has been requested to publish it in full, which we do with pleasure, believing that it will be read with interest and benefit:

"The Bible teaches us that men from the beginning recognized their obligations to God. Cain and Abel brought an offering unto the Lord, of the grain from God's field and of the firstlings of His flock. We say God's field and His flock, because 'All things belong to God.' The silver is mine and the gold is mine, saith the Lord. He says, 'The land shall not be sold in perpetuity; for the land is mine, for ye are strangers and sojourners with Me.' Here we see clearly the Divine ownership and that we are God's stewards. He also declares, 'Every beast of the forest is Mine and the cattle upon a thousand hills. If I were hungry I would not tell thee for the world is mine and the fulness thereof.' Now the question arises, what rent or what interest shall we pay God for the use of his property? It has been well said, that the Lord has many farms from which he receives but little rent. We are not left in the dark on this important question. Abraham 'gave a tenth of all,' Jacob promised God that if he would bless him, he would surely give the tenth unto Him. This already recognized principle of giving a tenth to God was incorporated in the Divine law, not giving as a gift, not from impulse, but 'the tithes is the Lord's.' The first tenth of all the increase was for Him and if kept back it had not only to be made up but a fifth part added thereto. We also find the command plainly given, 'Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house.' Surely this applies to us as well as to the Jews, for Jesus commended the law of tithing. He came not to break the law but to fulfil it. While it is definitely stated that the first-fruits both of the flocks and of the field belonged to God, there is ample room left for the heart and conscience to act between different degrees of charity. In addition to the tenth there were trespass-offering, sin-offerings, etc., so that a devout Jew, says Rev. Wm. Arthur, could hardly have spent much less than one-third of his yearly income in religious and charitable gifts. We learn also that these gifts were brought in systematically. Both Philo and Josephus inform us that the Jews were wont every Sabbath to make collections at their synagogues, of their tithes and spontaneous gifts. In keeping with this custom, Paul writes to the Corinthians, "Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye. Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God has prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come." We have here a rule which binds every one to the principle of setting apart, statedly, a portion of his income for charitable uses. And this is by an apostle speaking by inspiration to the church of God. Although the rule here given is universal in its terms, it may not bind every one to the letter of the law. Some have no income—others receive a salary quarterly or annually. But it does seem to require that every one should have a stated season for conscientious apportionment of his means to the Lord's cause.

"While we have many noble examples of Christian giving, that the church has widely departed from the Divine Law is a lamentable fact.

"The scriptures abound with rich promises of blessings, spiritual and temporal to those who honor God with their substance. On the other hand neglect of this duty brings leanness and distress, together with the maledictions of heaven. When ancient Israel withheld the tithe, the devourer destroyed the fruit of the ground and poverty and captivity fell like a blight.

"As hand-maidens of the Lord, let us all practice this Christian grace. We can have a separate purse or a mite box for consecrated money. It is such a pleasure to bestow gifts on our friends. We have no other such a friend as Jesus. And let us unitedly and fervently pray for such a baptism of the Holy Spirit as will lead believers everywhere to enquire how much do I owe my Lord and how can I obey His last great command, 'Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature.'"

MRS. L. MASSEY.

SHOE TAX

The United States duty against Canadian made shoes is 35%.

The Canadian duty against United States shoes is 25%.

Both enter free into Britain, and the Slater Shoe competes successfully there, on even terms, against United States shoes.

A $5.00 Canadian made Slater Shoe would cost you $6.75 in the United States, and would not be worth a farthing more there, than here.

A $5.00 United States Shoe would cost you $6.25 in Canada, but would not be worth a farthing more here than the $5.00 price it was made to sell for there.

Quick & Robertson's For Fine Clothes.

There's no use disputing the fact that this store stands pre-eminent in this city as the store for Men's Fine Clothes.

With our large and pleasing varieties, up-to-date style, and good making we've won the trade of every man, and especially the trade of those men who are particular about the Clothes they wear.

And why shouldn't we? You can't find a store that has, ready made, such exclusive styles in suitings and overcoatings as we are showing, and every one of them is from the best Canadian and English mills.

Then, too every garment is built to come up to our high standard—built by the best makers who know how and do give close attention to important parts of tailoring—such as adjusting the collars, shaping the shoulders, proper placing the sleeves and stays and making the button holes

Clothes made this way never lose their shape and by so doing we have overcome that appearance which marks clothes as being ready-made.

The prices for such goodness you'd expect to be high—but they are not—are no more than you would pay for ordinary sorts elsewhere.

CITY AND DISTRICT.

Advertisements under this heading TWO CENTS A WORD; subsequent consecutive insertions one cent a word. No local charged as less than twenty-five words.

The police report everything as exceptionally quiet at present.

The Mayor, City Clerk and City Assessor were last evening engaged in selecting jurors for 1902.

To-day's market was slimly attended, no doubt due to many farmers being busily engaged in ploughing.

Mr. John Hayes, son of Police Officer Hayes, has secured a position in the local post office.

Toronto News: Rev. J. J. Rice, Belleville, is building a two-storey brick dwelling on the south side of Walker avenue, near Yonge street, at a cost of $1,700.

The annual Convention of the Epworth League of Belleville district will be held in Holloway St. Church on the afternoon and evening of Friday, Oct. 25th. All interested in Epworth League work are invited to attend. 17,24

Many Bellevillians will regret to hear of the death of Mr. Patrick Hussey, an old G.T.R. engineer, which occurred in Arizona. An account of it appears in our telegraphic columns.

THE BAPTIST CONVENTION

SUGGESTIVE REMARKS MADE BY ONE OF THE DELEGATES.

Brantford, October 16.—Rev. Dr. Thomas, speaking at the Baptist Convention here this morning, made some remarks which created a mild sensation. First of all he made an eloquent and forceful presentation of the claims of the superannuation fund, which, he thought, has not had the place in the thoughts, consideration and interest of the people it was entitled to receive. If the brethren have expended their energy in the service of their Master, he prayed that in their declining years the pathway of life be made smooth and comfortable. He deprecated the narrowness, meanness and selfishness of some men in the church pews, who are so small that a thousand of their souls could dance upon the top of a needle without infringing on each other's elbow-room. He deprecated the tendency to throw over a man when he became old; to establish a dead line in regard to the ministry. If a man needed medication for his physical nature, he went to the oldest and most experienced physician, but if he needed medication for his immortal soul he would prefer to go to the sappiest young man in the ministry. (Laughter.) There could be no real dead-line in the ministry, except when the minister is dead. The greater number of the churches in Ontario would, unfortunately, take the dapper young man who parts his hair in the middle and has a sonorous voice, in preference to the man of ripe experience and knowledge He appealed to the congregations not to throw aside the old men for the dapper young men who know nothing.

MR. DIAMOND WANTS TO KNOW

IF ANY STEPS ARE BEING TAKEN TO ENFORCE CLAUSE 16 OF THE STREET RAILWAY AGREEMENT.

To The Editor of The Intelligencer:

Sir,—In Clause 16 of the Street Railway agreement it is provided "That "in case of neglect or failure to run "the cars the required number of "trips and as provided for in this "contract, the said parties shall in "each such case of failure forfeit "and pay to the City the said sum "of ten dollars per day as liquidated "damages and not as a penalty."

Can you inform me as to whether the City Council has taken any action to enforce the payment of the $10.00 a day or not?

As I read the clause, this $10.00 a day shall be paid for all time, i.e., every day the cars are not run—and the clause was made so that the street cars should not be tied up as against the public users; in other words as the franchise was for all time, the forfeiture was made to compel the owners to run the cars as provided for and they had the choice either to run the cars or to pay the forfeiture.

Yours, etc.,
W. JEFFERS DIAMOND.

A GOOD $5 ULSTER.

Yes, hard to get in any other store than the Oak Hall. We have them made of all wool at this price. When we say we say all wool, that is what we mean, not a little wool outside and cotton inside. We guarantee you the best $5 overcoat or ulster sold in Canada to-day, for the money.

BRUTAL DAYLIGHT BURGLARY

TWO ROCHESTER LADIES BEATEN INTO INSENSIBILITY AND RELIEVED OF $3,000 WORTH OF BELONGINGS.

Rochester, N.Y., October 16.—One of the boldest and withal most deliberate burglaries recorded in the history of the city was carried out with consummate skill and brutality at No. 136 Second street yesterday. Two elderly women, Mrs. L. M. French and Mrs. A. A. Gardiner, both about 60 years old, were the victims, and were relieved of personal property amounting all told to over $3,000.

At about 3.30 p.m. three young men, ranging in ages from 22 to 25, beardless and dressed neatly, appeared at Mrs. French's house, and presented a paper which was alleged credentials that they were authorized agents of a local gas company, and said that they wished to examine the gas meters.

After completing their supposed duties the men went away but later returned, "To turn on the gas," which they said they had forgotten to do. After ten minutes in the cellar the men came upstairs, without warning, fell upon the two helpless women, beating them into insensibility. Two of the brutes then stood guard over the prostrate victims, while the third ransacked the house, securing diamonds, watches, sealskin sacques, etc., valued at more than $3,000. Locking the bruised and bleeding women in the cellar the burglars cut the telephone wires running into the house, and after occupying nearly two hours in their work leisurely departed.

One of the ladies mentioned above has friends in Belleville, who sympathize greatly with her over the maltreatment to which she has been subjected.

GRACE, STYLE AND FINISH.

You will find that in Grace, Style and Finish, Quick & Robertson's will compare with the productions of the best class of merchant tailors at prices a third to a half less. Each garment is designed with a view to its shape. It will stay in shape on the wearer. No undue drag on the various parts of the garment, each pocket is stayed, collars are properly cut, sleeves and shoulders have the right "set." Design without good cloths is wasted. Every garment is properly and honestly lined with good linings. No shoddy cloths are used.

G. T. R. Notes

Of late there has been much activity and a rush of business upon this line of railway. At present both passenger and freight traffic is exceptionally heavy.

Yesterday a number of passenger cars containing emigrants passed through here, en route westward.

Horses and cattle in considerable numbers are being transferred eastward. A car load of army horses went through yesterday, coming from the west. They were a fine class of animals.

POOR GIRL, PITY HER.

Growing! Yes, into weakness, but not strength. Studies — plenty of them. Tired, of [illegible] she is, and weak too. Does no[illegible] enough, and digests far less th[illegible]nough. This condition is so freq[illegible], but how seldom noticed even [illegible] fond parents. Give her Ferrozone, then watch her appetite improve, her cheeks and lips grow ruddy, her step elastic, her spirits buoyant. All this simply the result of eating and digesting enough, making blood, and thereby strengthening the nerve and brain power. Ferrozone gives a woman's strength to weak girls. Your daughter or wife needs Ferrozone Get it to-day. Price 50c. at McKeown's.

The Tax Rolls of 1899

SOME REASONS WHY THEY HAVE NOT BEEN RETURNED, AS ORDERED.

A peculiar state of affairs presents itself in connection with the tax rolls of 1899, which, it will be remembered, were ordered by the Council to be returned by the 15th of the present month.

The rolls, by the way, have not been returned, and one reason, it is said, why the Tax Collector has been unable to take legal steps to compel payment of certain taxes is because he declines to become personally liable for costs in case the judgment is in favor of the defendant.

But, how, it may be asked, can the judgment be in favor of the defendant when he is charged on the rolls with a certain amount owed for taxes? Here is the explanation; Certain parties who are charged on the rolls with unpaid taxes claim to have paid them. They refuse to show their receipts and, should the Collector summon them, and they produce their receipts in court, the Collector himself will be mulcted in the costs.

The Tax Collector, under the circumstances, wants the Council to pass a by-law indemnifying him against loss in cases like the above, than he will go ahead and summon the cases. At present he does not feel like moving in the matter and possibly having to pay the costs out of his pittance.

In the meantime the date for the return of the rolls has passed, they have not been returned, and nobody seems to know when they will be returned.

Another peculiar case is mentioned: A certain property-owner is credited on the roll with having paid his taxes; Mr. J. W. Butterfield, late Tax Collector says the party in question has not paid his taxes, and the Mayor has ordered the present Collector to go ahead and collect those taxes. The latter party demurs. He doesn't see how he can legally collect a debt which has been credited as paid. And so the matter stands.

The taxes for the present year, we are told, are coming in very satisfactorily.

HOW ONE MILLION IS SPENT.

Not less than one million dollars is annually spent by people seeking an absolute cure for Catarrh, Bronchitis and Consumption. Numerous are the remedies, but the one standing pre eminently above all others is Catarrhozone. It cures these diseases because it is sure to reach them. Catarrhozone is inhaled into the lungs, throat and nasal passages, and bathes every part of the diseased membrane with its germ-killing, healing vapour. You simply breathe Catarrhozone and it cures. Price 25c. and $1 at druggists, or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

WHY THE CATERERS FAILED AT REVIEW.

THEY MISCALCULATED THE AMOUNT OF HELP THEY WOULD REQUIRE—RUSH AT LAST MOMENT.

(Toronto News.)

When occasion arises again for the military authorities of Ontario to arrange for the catering for any large body of soldiers, such as at the Exhibition grounds last week, they will be more careful in not giving out too large a contract to any one person.

It is claimed that the whole trouble at the grounds in connection with the catering was due to the fact that in a couple of instances the caterers miscalculated the help required to do the work satisfactorily, and at the last moment were unable to get any further assistance.

The caterers were: Mr. Marshall, Mrs. Meyers, and Mr. Tasker of this city, and Mr. Devlin, of Peterboro. Mr. Marshall did very well, but in the other cases the service was not up to expectations, and whether they will be fully recompensed according to agreement is a matter now being considered by the committee who made the arrangements.

THE PAIN OF SORE FEET.

Just about the most tantalizing of all pains comes from sore feet. To get relief bathe the feet in warm water and then rub them with Polson's Nerviline. It penetrates through the pores of the skin, takes out the soreness, reduces swellings, invigorates the tired muscles, tones up the circulation and prevents the feet from becoming sore again. Nerviline is a protection and safe-guard against the pains and aches of the entire family and cures rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, &c. 25 cents.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Fast Mail, one of Lincoln J. Carter's scenic melodramas, drew but a fair audience at the theatre last night, although the scenic effects were splendid and the acting good. It is safe to say that the audience were well satisfied with the production.

Canadian Forestry Association

The report of the second annual meeting of the Canadian Forestry Association has just been issued from the Government press, Ottawa. It contains much valuable information to lovers of forestry, whose name in Canada is legion. The Association seems to be doing a good work, and their efforts cannot be too highly commended.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The first object in life with the Canadian people is to "get rich;" the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health), by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well known August Flower will relieve you at once. Regular size, 75 cents. You can get Dr. G.G. Green's reliable remedies at R. Templeton & Co's.

AN INTERESTING CASE

ALLEGED VIOLATION OF LORD'S DAY ACT DISMISSED BY MAGISTRATE FLINT.

Some days ago the case of Rex vs. Lowery and Howard was tried before Magistrate Flint, which was a case of alleged violation of the Lord's Day Act. The Magistrate gave judgment this morning, of which the following is the text:

I am now called upon to deliver judgment. Defendants are charged with infractions of the Lord's Day Act by working at their ordinary occupations on Sunday in the Trent River Paper Company's works at Glen Miller. I agree with the argument of the learned Counsel for the prosecution, Mr. Porter, that the Company alluded to are merchants within the meaning of the Amended Act. I think the term merchant may reasonably be amplified to cover all classes of persons who buy, sell, and manufacture for sale goods, wares and materials. I would have no difficulty in making convictions in these cases were it not for the decision brought to my attention by the learned Counsel for defendants, Mr. Wright. The case alluded to is The Attorney General vs. Hamilton Street Railway Company. This was a prosecution instituted to punish The Street Railway Company for running their cars on Sunday. The defence was that the Act in question did not include and embrace Corporations, and the Railway Company being a corporation, the Act did not apply to them. The late lamented Mr. Justice Rose held in the Court below that the defendants were not liable not being covered by the Act. The case was appealed and was heard before Justices Burton, Osler and MacLennan. Justice Burton held that the Act bore internal evidence that the Legislature did not intend that it should apply to corporations because it punished infractions by fine and imprisonment and corporations if convicted could not be imprisoned. Mr. Justice Osler held the same view, but based his judgment on a different line of argument. Justice MacLennan simply in a few words decided that the Act did not cover corporations, and I am obliged to follow authority. Four Judges have decided that the Act does not apply to corporations and I am reluctantly compelled to follow their decisions. The Legislature has by its Act, declared that merchants shall not carry on their business on the Sabbath, yet the effect of the decision alluded to is to permit all mercantile enterprises which have become incorporated to carry on their business on Sunday as freely and fully as if there was no Lord's Day Act. For example: Ritchie & Co. can sell every Sunday their goods; their employees are protected from punishment, because their employers are not covered by the Act. The Rolling Mills (if incorporated), can run to their capacity on Sunday. It has been urged strenuously that it is evident the Legislature intended to prevent all these industries from running on Sunday, yet the Act is not broad enough to cover corporations. I must therefore dismiss these cases with costs.

Accident Near Tweed

Tweed News; Mr Thos. Grills met with a serious accident on Monday night, as a result of which he is laid up with a broken shoulder blade. He was returning home from Tweed and when near the C.P.R. tracks his horses became frightened and ran away. He was thrown from the rig and struck the ground very heavily on one shoulder. Besides breaking his shoulder blade, he sustained several bruises. A cultivator was attached to the wagon and this ran over him adding to his injuries.

"I can't account for it," jocularly remarked the defaulting cashier as he made a break for the frontier.

UNTOLD MISERY — WHAT A WELL-KNOWN COMMERCIAL TRAVELLER SUFFERED, AND HOW HE WAS CURED.—Gentlemen, About five years ago I began to be troubled with Dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time travelling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine and when the third bottle was finished, I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of Dyspepsia.
(Signed),

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung and throat troubles, there is no preparation of medicine can compare with Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to afford prompt and permanent relief. It removes all soreness, and heals the diseased parts. It immediately soothes the most troublesome cough, and by promoting expectoration, removes the mucus which stops up the air tubes which causes difficulty in breathing, thereby gives relief to that depressing tightness experienced in the chest. Public speakers and singers will find Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup of inestimable value, as it speedily and effectually allays all irritation, and huskiness in the throat and bronchial tubes, and gives power to the vocal cords, rendering the voice clear and sonorous. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of "Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup," and whenever a child has taken cold, has a cough or hoarseness, give the Syrup according to directions.

TWEED.

S. F. Hill, Toronto, organizer for the A.O.U.W. has been in town for several days past.

Thos. H. Grills, of the 4th concession of Hungerford, was thrown from his rig just on the outskirts of the town on Monday evening and suffered a fracture of the shoulder.

Thos. Sottam, of Madoc, an employee at Lawrence's brick and tile yards had two fingers broken and his hand badly bruised by being caught by a heavy block of wood.

Wilber Gordon is erecting a large dwelling house on the corner of Bridge and Metcalfe streets.

As James Rush, of East Hungerford was returning on Thursday last from Flinton fair with a drove of beef cattle which he had purchased, he had the misfortune to lose some six head at Black Creek crossing of the C.P.R. track a short distance east of here. There is a sharp turn in the road at this point and the animals ran over the cattle guard and the attendants were unable to save them from the west bound express, which was just due.

Five cents spent for any issue of The Illustrated Buffalo Express is a good investment.

TUFTSVILLE.

T. R. Cook, tax collector, of Rawdon, passed through our village on the 14th inst.

J. Bird is all smiles. Dr. Alger, of Stirling, brought a little girl to his home on the 8th.

Mason Clarke visited the Buffalo fair last wee.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Timmon, of Plainfield, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Seeley, of Stirling, and Geo. Eggleton and family, of Anson, attended divine service in the Methodist church here last Sunday.

P. F. LeRiche is spending a week in Toronto.

Mrs. Knox, of Belleville, was a guest of Miss Hendrick last week.

HAD HER IN TWICE

BUT THE MASTER MECHANIC DIDN'T SHUT THE DOOR — THE SAWMILL ENGINEER'S ADVENTURE ON THE RAIL.

One of the best railroad stories of the year is going the rounds of the newspapers of the country and is published as being told by Silas Porter to a gathering of railroad men in Chanute, Wisconsin. Porter was endeavoring to illustrate the point that nearly every man who joins a new party does so because he thinks he could run the Government better than it is being run, and he used the great engineers' strike of a few years ago as the foundation of his anecdote.

A Chicago railroad, finding itself tied up for want of engineers, advertised for men to fill the vacancies. This advertisement came beneath the eye of an old fellow who was running a saw mill engine up in the woods of Wisconsin. The old man was getting only $1 per day and board, and $5 a day offered by the railroad, looked particularly alluring. He reasoned to himself that an engine was an engine and that a man who could keep one going in a lumber camp would have no trouble in handling a locomotive, so he packed up his meagre belongings and lit out for the office of the railroad manager in Chicago.

"What road have you ever worked on?" queried the manager when the Wisconsin man made his appearance.

"Oh, the Marquette & Sheboygan," replied the old man, remembering that this was the road that ran by his former saw mill camp.

"All right," responded the manager. "You go down to the roundhouse and report for duty, telling the master mechanic that I sent you."

In due time old Wisconsin reported for duty, and the master mechanic told him he could get right to work by running "that engine over there into the roundhouse." Mounting the eight wheeler, old Wisconsin opened the throttle, and with a snort she pitched into the yawning doorway. Old Wisconsin hadn't expected so much alacrity on the engine's part and he was pretty badly scared, but before she hit the wall on the other side he managed to reverse her, and with another snort, she backed out on the siding. Here old Wisconsin threw her over for a second time and once more she entered the roundhouse, only to come reeling back again, when, to save the house, he gave her the lever. All this time the master mechanic had been watching the performance with mingled indignation and amazement. As the engine came by him for the second time, he shouted:

"Here, you blankety, blank, blank, why don't you house that locomotive?"

Sticking his head out of the cab window, old Wisconsin shouted back with equal indignation: "I got her in twice, you d—n fool; why in h—l didn't you shut the door?"

Resolution of Condolence

On Friday at the regular meeting of Moira, A.O.U.W., No. 317, the following resolution of condolence was passed:

To Mrs. S. N. Salisbury and family,

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God to remove from our midst our dearly esteemed brother, S. N. Salisbury, therefore be it resolved that we tender to his beloved wife and family our deepest and most heartfelt sympathy in the great and irreparable loss they have sustained.

We can assure the bereaved family that the remembrance of Bro. S. N. Salisbury's devotion to duty as an officer and member of this lodge, and his friendly deeds as a friend and neighbor will not soon be effaced from our minds. As a society, we lament the death of one who spared no effort to promote its welfare.

It is our sincere desire that He who has said "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," will comfort and sustain the grief stricken friends in this their hour of trial, and we trust they will find consolation in the lessons of his exemplary life, and in the hope of a happy reunion.

It was further resolved that this resolution be published in the local papers and in the Canadian Workman.

Signed on behalf of Moira Lodge, A.O.U.W., No. 317,

A Girl Visitor In Town.

When there is a girl guest in town, the first question asked is, "Is she engaged?" If she is, there is a sigh of general relief among the town girls.

Why He Closed.

A youth went forth to serenade
The lady he loved best,
And by her house at evening,
When the sun had gone to rest,
He warbled until daylight
And would have warbled more,
But morning light disclosed the sign
"For Rent" upon the door.

Patches of Raw, Flaming Flesh

Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Only those who have endured the acute torture of eczema, salt rheum or similar skin diseases and eruptions can appreciate the wonderful feelings of relief which come with the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. It is impossible to describe the marvellous healing, soothing influence of this great standard remedy. You can judge of its extraordinary curative properties by the following cases:

Mrs. Ann McDonald, Kingsville, Ont., states:—

"For about three years I was a dreadful sufferer from Eczema. At times the patches of raw flaming flesh would extend from my waist to my neck and from the knees to the ankles. The intense itching almost drove me crazy, and though I tried all the local physicians, they could not even relieve the suffering. The flesh would crack open, and I don't believe any one ever suffered more than I did.

"I was told of Dr. Chase's Ointment, but did not believe that it could help me. After the fifth application of this preparation I began to feel the benefit of its soothing, healing effects, and now attribute a cure to the persistent use of this wonderful remedy. It is truly worth its weight in gold, and I never tire of recommending it to other sufferers."

Mr. J. H. Stevens, harnessmaker, Seaforth, Ont., writes:—

"At the age of three months my son Arnold was attacked by baby eczema on his face, and in spite of all the doctors could do he kept getting worse until his face was a mass of scabs and would ulcerate when he would scratch. It was terrible to see him suffer, but we tried everything until we were discouraged. Hearing of Dr. Chase's Ointment, we got a box and applied it. At once the child was relieved and went to sleep. The first box helped him so much that we got two more, which completely cured him. At nine months his face was as well as could be. He is now fourteen months old and has a fine, clear skin and not a trace of eczema."

Dr. Chase's Ointment is also prompt and effective as a treatment for chafing and itching skin. 60 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

British Soldiers Fight.

London, Oct. 17.—The long standing feud between the Durham and Worcester regiments of infantry culminated last night in a serious affray at Aldershot, when the Worcesters, with fixed bayonets and ball cartridges, attacked the quarters of the Durhams. Severe fighting followed, during which many of the men were injured. A number of the Durhams are suffering from dangerous bayonet wounds.

Finds an Ancient Canal.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The State Department received yesterday from H. M. Criff, a miner and prospector in Colombia, the information that he had discovered the bed of an ancient waterway, from ocean to ocean, lying between the Panama and Nicaragua routes.

Ontario Lumber Cut.

Toronto, Oct. 17.—J. W. Munro, M. P. P., was a visitor at the Parliament Buildings yesterday. He does not think that this year's lumber cut will be as large as last. This cut, he says, will be about 800,000 feet of boards and 12,000,000 feet of logs.

Immigrants Were 50,000.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—The immigration figures for the year are not yet complete, but when they are it will be shown that the number of immigrants arriving in Canada for the year was about 50,000, an increase over last year's figures.

Both Are Well.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 17.—During the night another letter from Miss Ellen M. Stone's companion, Madame Tsilka, was found pasted on her parent's door, announcing that Madame Tsilka had given birth to a child, and that both the infant and the mother were doing well.

Cup of Sorrowful.

Thorold, Oct. 17.—On Monday morning the death occurred here of Louis Conlon, aged 17 years, the youngest son of Thomas Conlon of the well known lumber firm of J. & T. Conlon of Thorold and Little Current. Ont. On the same night his second youngest son, James Conlon, aged 21 years, who had been ill with typhoid fever at Little Current for some weeks, died.

The deceased young men are survived by their sorrowing father and two brothers, John of Little Current and Frank of the School of Practical Science, Toronto, and one sister, Mrs. James Battle of Thorold.

But, oh, I'd hate to live where I would get behind on styles!

Let Him Die First!

"If I get ill, my dear, send me to the hospital."

"What! Among all those pretty nurses? I think not!"

Matrimonial Flier.

Upon the wings of love he flew
To buy the maid a diamond ring.
They're married now, and he today
Flew back to see what it would bring.

Very Bad.

"How do you like my new song?"

"It needs ventilation."

"In what way?"

"The air is bad."

The Great Kidney Specialist.

The Famous Physician Who Has Made Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Diseases a Life Long Study.

DR. ZINA PITCHER.

For many years in the hospitals of Detroit and Professor of Genito Urinary diseases in Michigan College of Medicine, Dr. Zina Pitcher devoted his time to the scientific study of diseases of the Kidneys, Bladder and Urinary System.

By this exclusive devotion to one branch of medical investigation Dr. Pitcher was enabled to perfect a treatment for Kidney troubles that far surpasses any other remedy.

After testing it extensively in private and hospital practice and demonstrating its incomparable superiority to all other forms of treatment, Dr. Pitcher decided to give this great boon to suffering humanity at large and not confine it exclusively to the circles of his private and hospital patients.

He has placed his remedy before the public under the name of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets and so confident is he of the positive curative qualities of these Tablets for backache, lame or weak back, drowsiness, headaches, pain in the loins, brick dust deposits in the urine, puffiness under the eyes, swelling of the feet and ankles, scalding, irritation, frequent rising at night, dribbling, inflammation or ulceration of the bladder, gravel, Rheumatism, Bright's Disease and Diabetes (except in the last stages), bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, constipation, puffy and pasty appearance of the face, dropsy, backache and weakness of women, urinary weakness of children and old people or any symptomatic indications of Kidney disease that to anyone suffering from any of the above troubles, who uses the Tablets faithfully, according to directions, and derives no benefit therefrom, their money will be cheerfully refunded.

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50 cents a box at all druggists or sent by mail. The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

Morgan Guarded by Detectives

San Francisco, Oct. 18.—Extraordinary precautions are taken to guard the person of J. Pierpont Morgan during his stay in this city. In driving to and from Trinity Church, where the convention is held, he is constantly accompanied by Detective Ross Whittaker and other officers of the local force are always hovering near. Whittaker remains on guard at the convention door, and as soon as Mr. Morgan reappears the detective becomes his constant companion until he is again safely housed in the Crocker mansion.

Strike Will Go On.

Toronto, Oct. 18.—On Feb. 3, 1900, 100 iron moulders in the Massey-Harris works at Toronto and Brantford went out on strike because their demands for increased wages were not acceded to. Up to the present the strike has not been settled, and although the strikers have obtained work elsewhere, it was decided to continue the strike in the Toronto and Brantford shops of the company until the demands of the men are recognized by the Union on Thursday.

Drowned in Old Welland Canal.

St. Catharines, Oct. 18.—James Collier, a resident of this city, who has been missing for about a week, was found drowned in the old Welland Canal near Lock 4 yesterday afternoon. It is supposed he was under the influence of liquor and fell into the water. Deceased was 48 years old and a son of the late Richard Collier, one of the first families of the city. He was unmarried. Coroner Goodman decided an inquest unnecessary.

Motor-Car Plow.

Paris, Oct. 18.—An engineer named M. Souza of Vitry-sur-Seine, has made successful experiments with a motor-car plough, and hopes shortly to prove its practical utility.

Stormy on Lake Superior.

Fort William, Ont., Oct. 18.—The steamer Bannockburn and barges Dunmore and Winnipeg arrived at 2 o'clock yesterday, after a stormy passage, taking 12 hours longer than usual from the Soo to this place.

HEART DISEASE.

SOME FACTS REGARDING THE RAPID INCREASE OF HEART TROUBLE.

Heart troubles, at least among the Americans, are certainly increasing and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, of poor digestion.

Real organic disease is incurable, but not one case in a hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by the same great nerves, the Sympathetic and Pneumogastric.

In another way, also, the heart is affected by the form of poor digestion, which causes gas and fermentation from half digested food. There is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action, hence arises palpitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also poisons the blood, making it thin and watery, which irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible treatment for heart trouble is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimilation of food.

This can be done by the regular use after meals of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores, and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time will cure any form of stomach trouble, except cancer of the stomach.

Full sized package of these tablets sold by druggists at 50 cents. Little book on stomach troubles mailed free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

Edward I. O'B. Croker, of Cork, Ireland, said to be a cousin of Richard Croker, is at New York for the purpose of promoting rapid transit between Europe and America. The new steamships are expected to cross from Narragansett Bay to Ireland in three and one-half days.

City Physician Fellberg of Copenhagen, who recently visited the West Indies, is suffering from a strongly developed case of anaesthetic leprosy, which he is believed to have contracted from a woman patient, whom he attended while in the West Indies. The case is regarded as hopeless.

Hon. William Mulock, Postmaster-General and Mrs. Mulock, have gone to Hot Springs, Virginia, where it is to be hoped the rheumatic troubles with which the P.M.G. has suffered lately will be entirely eradicated from his system. The Postmaster-General expects to be absent two or three weeks.

The Indian Secretary, Lord George Hamilton, and the Viceroy of India, Lord Curzon of Kedlestone, have made arrangements for a conference of Indian railroad engineers at Calcutta in December to consider the adoption of a standardization of locomotives, such as exists in the United States.

P. T. Colgan, paymaster of the Virginia Iron Furnaces, Middlesboro, Ky., was waylaid, shot and robbed of $2,000 about midway between this town and the furnaces Thursday. A posse pursued the robbers, but they escaped to the mountains. In their flight they dropped $500. Colgan will recover.

At the regular meeting of the Apostles, held in the Temple at Salt Lake, Utah, on Thursday, Joseph F. Smith was chosen and set apart as President of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in succession to the late Lorenzo Snow, with John R. Winder and Anthony H. Lund as his first and second councilors respectively.

An automatic flush valve, to be used in connection with the Septic tank system of sewage disposal, has been invented by Mr. Martin Quinn of the Public Works Department, Toronto. The invention is approved of by Dr. Bryce, and it is for the purpose of securing the prompt emptying of the tank retaining the liquid, thereby preventing the blocking of the pipes.

Labor Again Wins.

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—The Department of Labor has been notified that the appeal of the mine owners of Rossland against the conviction under the Alien Labor Law has been disallowed. The convictions were the first under the amended Alien Labor Act, and the effect is to greatly strengthen the hands of the labor people in any subsequent prosecutions.

BONES TO BE RE-INTERRED.

An Interesting International Military Ceremony at Lundy's Lane.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Oct. 18.—Saturday, Oct. 19, promises to be the red letter day in the history of Niagara Falls South, being the day set aside for the re-interment of the bones of the nine American soldiers identified as belonging to the 9th United States Regiment, who fell during the battle of Lundy's Lane. The re-interment will be an international military affair. A company of United States soldiers from Fort Niagara will take part in the ceremonies. They will be met at the centre of the upper steel arch bridge and escorted by a company of the 44th Canadian Battalion, who will act as an escort to Lundy's Lane.

It will be a strictly military funeral. In many respects the exercises will be without precedent. The Canadian Government has given the United States soldiers permission to enter Canada with their side arms, and every courtesy has been extended, both the American and Canadian Governments having endorsed the affair.

PROF. GOLDWIN SMITH ILL.

He Is Suffering From Bronchitis at Ithaca, New York.

Ithaca, N. Y., Oct. 18.—Prof. Goldwin Smith of Toronto is ill with bronchitis at the Ithaca Hotel here. In view of his advanced age, 75 years, some apprehension in regard to his condition was entertained last night.

Probably a Suicide.

Niagara Falls, Oct. 18.—Yesterday morning about 6 o'clock Mr. William Thomas and Mr. William Rose, who were down at the Maid-of-the-Mist landing on the Canadian side, noticed a body on the shore which evidently had been washed up from the eddy near the Maid-of-the-Mist landing. At once Coroner Dr. Jas. McGarry was notified, and Morse & Son, the South undertakers, brought the body to their morgue, where it will await identification. It is supposed to be the body of Mrs. Chas. Crocoll of Fort Erie, who has been missing from her home for a few days, and whose footprints were traced by R. Griffin of the Ontario police to the bank of the river.

Shocking Death Near Whitby.

Whitby, Oct. 18.—Death in an especially shocking form came Wednesday night to a young man on the G. T.R. tracks, 2½ miles west of this town. The dead man's name was C. Anderson, and he came from Port Dover, as was discovered from a letter found in his pocket. He was one of the construction gang at work on the new double tracking between here and Pickering, and yesterday morning his lifeless body was found near the tracks, having been run over by a passing train, and terribly mangled. The train completely cut off one of his legs at the thigh. It is thought he sat down on the track to rest and fell asleep.

Not So Near Death.

Philadelphia, Oct. 18.—The North-American's London correspondent says: The reports published in America yesterday and cabled back to London, stating that the Baroness Burdett-Coutts is dying, are hardly justified by the reports of that lady's physicians. It is true that the Baroness is in failing health, which is natural in a woman of 88 years, but it has only been a few days since she made application to be present at the coronation ceremonies next spring.

Earl Russell Released.

London, Oct. 18.—Earl Russell, who in July was sentenced by a court of the House of Lords to three months' imprisonment for bigamy, was released from Holloway Jail early yesterday morning. Earl Russell is in good health.

The application of Countess Russell to make absolute her decree of divorce will be heard Oct. 28. In the event of the application being granted, it is announced, the Earl and Mrs. Somerville will be married a few days later.

Wanted a Wife.

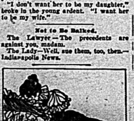
"No, sir, my daughter can never be yours."

"I don't want her to be my daughter," broke in the young ardent. "I want her to be my wife."

Not to Be Balked.

The Lawyer—The precedents are against you, madam.

The Lady—Well, sue them, too, then.—Indianapolis News.



Tears

Many a woman has periodic crying spells. She meets her husband with eyes red and swollen and he cries out: "What has happened?" "Nothing" his wife replies. "I don't know what is the matter with me, but I just had to have a good cry." Men don't have crying spells. It would seem therefore that an affection confined to women must have its cause in the womanly nature. There is no doubt that a diseased condition of the delicate womanly organs, is in general responsible for feminine nervousness and hysteria.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes women happy by making them healthy. There are no more crying spells. "Favorite Prescription" cures inflammation, ulceration and female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

There is no medicine "just as good." Accept no substitute.

"For three years," writes Mrs. Mary A. Sasser, of High, Lamar Co., Texas, "I suffered with falling of the womb, also ulceration of the womb. After using three bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription,' four of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and two vials of 'Pleasant Pellets,' I found relief. I am able to do my work with ease. I recommend your wonderful medicine to all my friends, for I truly believe it saved my life."

Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay cost of customs and mailing only. Cloth binding 50 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Captain and Four Killed

British Meet Boers in Brisk Fight at Twenty-Four Streams.

Duke and Duchess Now on the Intercolonial Railway—New Mormon President Chosen—Prof. Goldwin Smith Ill—Shocking Death Near Whitby—After Coal Lands.

Cape Town, Oct. 17.—In a brisk fight at Twenty-Four Streams, near Piquetberg, yesterday, Capt. Bellew and four other British were killed and several others were wounded.

The British having surprised several camps, the Boers are now in the habit of shifting camp by night. Lately the British columns, after long night marches, have arrived at their objectives only to find the Boers gone.

British columns penetrating Orange River Colony, miles from the railways, find fields of maize or freshly plowed lands, the Boers making off at their approach and returning when the columns pass on. The herds on the high veldt still seem to be numerous. The Boers are living on cattle and mealies, stored in out-of-the-way places.

Boers Reach the Sea.

Cape Town, Oct. 17.—The invaders have reached the sea, a commando of 500 men having penetrated the rich Great Berg River valley to Hopefield and Saldanha Bay, northwest of Cape Town.

The Republicans have secured a number of recruits and considerable quantities of supplies. Gen. French is directing the operations against them.

Teddy May Take a Hand.

Washington, D.C., Oct. 18.—It is firmly believed in certain official circles that Great Britain would welcome intervention in the South African war, if the tender of good offices were made by such a friendly Government as the United States.

The story last night was that our representatives at Berlin, Paris and St. Petersburg have been directed to diplomatically sound those governments as to their attitude. Upon their advice it is said President Roosevelt will base action, permitting them to overcome strong personal desires if the reports should be of an adverse character.

Wearing Bandoliers.

Klerksdorp, Oct. 17.—A party of Boers were discovered on some islands in the Vaal River, near Parys. A detachment of Yeomanry was sent across the river to prevent their retreat. Wearing nothing but their bandoliers the Yeomen stormed the islands, and eventually captured 25 of the enemy.

Reinforcements Going.

London, Oct. 18.—The War Office has completed arrangements for nine more vessels with reinforcements of men and horses to leave for South Africa, Oct. 30.

As some of the largest transports have not yet been allotted their loads it is impossible to give the exact number of men and horses, but the reinforcements include drafts of mounted infantry, regular cavalry, engineers and shoeing-smiths.

Mounted Men Wanted.

London, Oct. 18.—The following extract from a letter written by an officer at the front to his parents in England indicates that Lord Kitchener is still short of mounted men, and that convoys have to run considerable risks on that account:

"We left Krugersdorp to take a convoy through to Rustenburg, consisting of four companies of infantry, one field gun, and a dozen irregular horse."

Did He Expect a Picnic?

Winnipeg, Oct. 18.—Trooper Pouncett, just arrived from South Africa, advises Canadians not to join the Baden-Powell Police, as the treatment is not what it should be.

Col. Hudon Ill.

Kingston, Oct. 18. — Lieut.-Col. Hudon is sick at his residence. When he was in Toronto at the royal review he refused to take the South African medal offered him. His reason was that officers his junior, who had seen little or no service, were decorated with C. M. G., or raised a grade, while he fought at the front and was not remembered except by receiving a medal such as given to ordinary soldiers. Lieut.-Col. Hudon commanded "C" Battery, which marched through Rhodesia and participated in the relief of Mafeking.

Nissen Takes Soundings.

Niagara Falls, Oct. 18.—Nissen, the Niagara navigator, got up steam in his little craft yesterday and made a short trip in the whirlpool about 200 feet away from the Canadian shore in his trip around the pool. The Fool-Killer behaved first-class in the swirling waters of the pool and Nissen intends to make some good soundings of the depth of the water. In fact he made a few soundings yesterday afternoon. As soon as he finishes his work he will make his figures public.

Would Try Winter Navigation.

Quebec, Oct. 18.—Captain Bernier is not only prepared to take in the North Pole, but he is, he states, also ready to try winter navigation from Quebec to the Gulf, provided he is furnished with a steamer similar to the Polavis or the Polavis itself. He said that he would be ready in January or February to embark all the newspaper men on board his vessel, and take them on a visit to Anticosti. He was sanguine of being able to go there and back within eight days.

A Month's Respite.

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—The application for a month's respite in the Leplane murder case will be granted by the trial judge. The Department of Justice referred the matter to him. He has got power under the statute to do this. Leplane was to have been executed on the 25th instant. A month of a respite will likely be given.

AFTER COAL LANDS.

When the Government Has Selected the Others Will Be Dissatisfied.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 18.—The Canadian Pacific Railway and the Crow's Nest Coal Company have been busily engaged during the past two weeks in looking after the selection of the 50,000 acres of coal lands which the Government are entitled to in the Crow's Nest Pass. The Government has the right of selection, with a proviso that the lands selected are to be of equal value with the remainder of the tract.

The Canadian Pacific is endeavoring to get ahead of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company, and the Coal Company is endeavoring to get ahead of the railway, while both are trying hard to get the start of the Government.

A prominent official of the Interior Department, who knows something of the work that has been done by the department in making provisional selections, says that when the selection of the 50,000 acres is completed both the railway and coal companies are likely to be very much dissatisfied.

Dr. Thompson in Waterloo.

New Hamburg, Ont., Oct. 18.—A convention of Liberals of South Waterloo was held here yesterday for the purpose of selecting a candidate to represent the party in the next contest for the Local Legislature. At 3 p. m. a special train arrived from Galt with about 200 delegates. Many others drove into town. The meeting was immediately commenced in the William Tell Hall. Upon adjourning it was announced that Dr. Adam Thompson of Galt was unanimously chosen as the standard-bearer. Hon. G. W. Ross arrived in town by the 4 p. m. train, and in the evening the Premier addressed the delegates to the convention, and the public in the William Tell Hall.

Baptist Convention in Brantford.

Brantford, Oct. 18.—At the Baptist convention yesterday, Mr. Jas. S. McMaster read the financial statement. It showed total receipts on current account for the year just ended $25,750.75, of which $25,227.93 was from the McMaster estate, $502.82 from interest on an old endowment, and $20 from the late L. Janet McIntyre estate. Total expenditure $28,551.26, of which $417.21 is for interest, $8,468.64 on account of art department, $10,957.66 on account of theological department, $3,088.02 for Moulton College, $5,629.73 on account of Woodstock College. Receipts for campus and chapel funds were $17,200.90, expenditure $23,159.99.

Has Been Superannuated.

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—Mr. Ed. Miall, ex-Deputy Minister of Inland Revenue, was presented yesterday afternoon with a gold watch and chain, and locket with diamond setting, by the members of the inside and outside service staff of the Department. The gift was presented in the Deputy Minister's office, the entire inside service and representatives of the outside service were present. The gift cost over $300, and is exceedingly chaste and beautiful in design, and was presented to mark the esteem of the staff for one who for so long wisely and faithfully discharged the duties of the honorable position. Mr. Miall has been superannuated.

Want of Workmen.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 18.—Collingwood Schreiber, Deputy Minister of Railways, who has just returned from a tour of inspection of railways in the west, says that the road between Port Arthur and Winnipeg will not be finished in time this fall to take out any wheat. There is about fifty miles of tract yet to be laid, although the road is graded. The whole reason for the delay, Mr. Schreiber says, is the scarcity of workmen. There is a hue and cry all the way from the Pacific Coast about a lack of workmen. An effort was made to get harvest hands to help in the building, but failed.

The men who sailed the Shamrock II. in her races against the Columbia sailed for home on Wednesday on the American Line steamer St. Louis. Designer George L. Watson and Thomas Ratsey, the maker of Shamrock's sails, left for home on the White Star liner Oceanic.

IN THE MARITIME PROVINCES

Duke and Duchess Now on the Intercolonial Railway.

Big Crowd Cheered Royal Train at Rimouski—Splendid Welcome at Moncton, N.B.—Royal Party Received by the Lieutenant-Governor and His Ministers at St. John, N.B.—Presentations of Colors—A Reception.

Moncton, N. B., Oct. 18.—The royal train proceeded on its journey to the Maritime Provinces Wednesday night, the carriages conveying the Duke and Duchess being transferred to the Intercolonial Railway, that being the fourth road which the royal party has used in its transcontinental trip, the other roads being the C. P. R., the G. T. R. and the Michigan Central. The departure of the royal train from Chaudiere Junction was witnessed by a large crowd, which had been attracted by the presence of the royal visitors. A hearty cheer was given on the train pulling out for the Maritime Provinces. The run throughout the night was uneventful.

Crowd at Rimouski.

At 2 o'clock the train had arrived at Rimouski, where, despite the late hour, a considerable crowd had gathered. At Beaver Brook, some 400 miles from Chaudiere Junction, the royal train stopped for an hour, while the Duke and Duchess and royal suite breakfasted. The Governor-General's train, bearing the Countess Minto, Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier, Hon. W. S. Fielding, Minister of Finance, and a distinguished party, which preceded the royal train by 30 minutes, stopped at Newcastle for breakfast.

At Moncton, 490 miles from Chaudiere Junction, a splendid welcome was given the royal party. Moncton is the headquarters of the Intercolonial, and at this point there was a fine turnout of railway employes and citizens generally. The station platform was packed with a surging mass of people as the royal train passed through.

At St. John, N.B.

At 2 o'clock the party arrived at St. John, N. B., where the Duke and Duchess were received by the Lieut.-Governor and his Ministers. The royal carriage, with out-riders in scarlet, was in readiness at the station, and the procession immediately formed.

At Exhibition grounds the civic address was read and five others handed in. After this a small deputation of the British Army and Navy Veterans' Association of Massachusetts, stepped forward and was presented with a color without further ceremony.

Mr. Lumb, of Massachusetts, who was born on the same day and hour as Queen Victoria, accompanied the deputation.

Following this, at 3 o'clock, was the presentation of colors by the Duke to the 62nd Regiment on Barracks square.

Troops on Parade.

The troops on parade were 50 Hussars, five regiments and bearer company. His Royal Highness was received by the troops in line of quarter columns. There was also a presentation of colors and medals, including a sword of honor to Capt. Jones for good service at Paardeberg. Her Royal Highness was afterwards presented with a muff and boa of New Brunswick mink and ermine from the ladies of St. John, at Caverhill Hall. A reception in the Exhibition buildings in the evening concluded the day's proceedings.

Halifax will be the next and final point to be visited.

NO EVIL DESIGNS.

Suspicious Characters With Revolvers on Person Released at Barrie.

Barrie, Oct. 18.—The two men who were seen lurking about the Grand Trunk switches here early on Thursday morning, Oct. 10, shortly before the royal train arrived, and who were arrested on suspicion of having some evil designs against the ducal party, came up on remand in the Police Court yesterday. When searched on the morning of their arrest three revolvers, a dirk and a large amount of ammunition was found on them. In court yesterday they said they were only trappers and hunters, and were on their way north on a hunting expedition when arrested, and that they had no evil intentions regarding the Duke. There was no evidence put in to disprove their story, and the men were accordingly discharged from custody.

Duke's Escort Returns.

London, Oct. 18.—No. 1 Company, R.C.R.I., which since the arrival of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York in Canada last month, has performed escort and guard duty at Ottawa and Toronto, returned to London last evening. The full band of the 7th Regiment was at the C.P.R. depot to meet the gallant warriors, and marched them to Wolseley Barracks, where they were given a royal welcome.

Schley's Side of the Story.

Washington, Oct. 18.—The presentation of Admiral Schley's side of the controversy was continued before the Schley Court of Inquiry yesterday, eight witnesses being examined. Of these, five were ensigns, and the entire eight had served on board the Brooklyn with Admiral (then Commodore) Schley.

Found a Pot of Gold.

Ottawa, Oct. 18.—William Howard, who works in McLaren's mill at East Templeton, and owns lot 14 in the first range of Templeton Township, claims to have discovered a pot of gold on his farm. He refuses to tell what the value of the gilded find is.

Two Odd Swedish Notions.

At the old fashioned inns and restaurants in Sweden it is customary to charge less for women than for men, on the theory that they do not eat so much.

At some hotels in Sweden a man and wife are charged as one and one-half persons if they occupy the same room. A husband and wife may travel as one and one-half persons by railway, and also by the post routes, furnishing their own carriage.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

The receipts of live stock were not large, 49 car loads all told, composed of 806 cattle, 856 hogs, 1001 sheep and 20 calves.

The quality of fat cattle generally was not good. The market is being crowded with light trashy butchers' cattle, that weigh from 700 to 850 lbs. each. This class are not wanted and of course sell at low prices. Good to choice butchers' cattle, weighing from 1050 to 1150 lbs. each, are scarce, and if anything higher in price. One load of 22 fairly good butchers' heifers sold at $4.25 per cwt. to-day, which would not have brought that figure a short time ago. Export cattle are seemingly neglected by many of the dealers. Of course there are not many being brought forward, and these generally of medium quality. Prices for shippers were unchanged.

In all other classes of live stock prices remained unchanged, with the exception of lambs, which were a little firmer.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK.

Montreal, Oct. 17.—The receipts of live stock at the East End Abattoir this morning were 800 head of cattle, 75 calves, 300 sheep, 400 lambs. The demand was fairly good at the following prices:

Cattle, choice, sold at from 4¼c to 4½c per lb.; good, sold at from 3½c to 4c per lb.; lower grade from 2c to 3c per lb.

Calves were sold from $2 to $10 each.

Sheep brought from 2½c to 3c per lb.

Lambs were sold from 3½c to 4c per lb.

Hogs brought from 6c to 7c per lb.

Milking by Machinery.

Paris, Oct. 18.—One of the novel inventions at Islington Fair is an apparatus which, by means of pulsators, milks cows and effects considerable saving in time and labor. At first cows do not take kindly to the new machine, but it is said that they quickly get accustomed to it, and then prefer it to the hand method.

Threats Against King Edward.

Dublin, Oct. 18.—Judge O'Connor Morris, at the opening of the Roscommon sessions yesterday, said he had received documents purporting to emanate from the United Irish League, marked with a coffin and containing diabolical threats against King Edward.

WEAKNESS OF MEN AND WOMEN

Could we read the hearts of every man we meet, what a load of sorrow and despair would be disclosed. Indiscretions and Blood Diseases have caused more physical and mental wrecks than all other causes combined. They strike at the foundation of manhood; they sap the vital forces; they undermine the system, and not only do they often disrupt the family ties, but they may even extend their poisonous fangs into the next generation. If you have been a victim of early sinful habits, remember the seed is sown, and sooner or later you will reap a harvest. If your blood has been diseased from any cause do not risk a return later on. Our New Method Treatment will positively cure you and you need never fear any return of the disease. We will give you a guarantee bond to that effect. We would warn you sincerely against the promiscuous use of mercury, which does not cure blood poison but simply suppresses the symptoms.

WE CURE OR NO PAY.

Don't Let your Life be Drained Away, which weakens the intellect as well as the body. There is no room in this world for mental, physical or sexual dwarfs. Our New Method Treatment will Stop all Unnatural Losses, Purify the Blood, Strengthen the Nerves, Restore Vitality, and make a man of you. If you are in trouble, call and consult us. Consultation is Free. We treat and cure Drains, Blood Diseases, Varicocele, Stricture, Unnatural Discharges, Gleet, Kidney and Bladder Diseases. No cutting or operations. No detention from business. Everything confidential. Consultation Free. Books Free. Question Blank Free for Home Treatment.

Daily Intelligencer.

STILL THEY CRY.

A short time ago we published an item showing that Mr. Boas, a woollen manufacturer, in St. Hyacinthe, Quebec, had announced his intention to cut down the wages of his employees from 5 to 25 per cent. on account of having lost $170,000 in two years owing to foreign competition, as the result of the reduction in the tariff.

It will be remembered by our friends in the County of Prince Edward that this same Mr. Boas visited that County during a late election contest, and there told the electors that he was a manufacturer and a free trader, and feared not competition from any part of the world; and that in order to secure cheap goods they should vote for the free trade party.

Well, his party succeeded in obtaining power, and he is now experiencing the effects of the partially practical results of his pet free trade theory, as well as his artisans and laborers, who have to submit to a reduction of wages ranging from 5 to 25 per cent.

Mr. Boas is not the only sufferer. Others are beginning to feel the effects of the reduction of duty on woollen goods, owing to a continued increase in importations, which have risen from $7,000,000 to $10,000,000 during the few years that the Grit tariff has been in operation. So serious has the effect upon this branch of industry been, that Mr. Boas is not alone in his complaints, another Daniel has come to judgment. A letter appears in the Toronto Globe, from Mr. Jonathan Ellis, of Port Dover, a gentleman largely interested in the woollen trade, and who is understood also to be a political friend of the present Government. Mr. Ellis speaks of the condition as serious, adding that "if relief is not speedily brought to bear many of our woollen mills must soon cease to exist."

It was predicted long ago that this would be the result of the Fielding tariff upon this particular branch of industry. Free Trade manufacturers, as well as those whom they employ, are beginning to realize what even a partial application of the principle of free trade means.

The destruction of this industry means more to the country than people imagine. The investment in the woollen industry in Canada is now about $15,000,000, there being some 60 mills in operation employing directly and indirectly over 60,000 persons. The closing of these mills and the throwing out of employment so many people would be a serious loss to the country as well as to the individuals affected.

The probabilities are that the Boas class of politicians will, unless relief be given by the Government, sing a different tune to that which they chanted a few years ago.

Were it not for the effect upon labor and loss to honest men and the country, few would sympathize with these free trade tariff muddlers.

TIMELY TOPICS.

The Ontario Government, truthfully says a contemporary, was once a strength, now it is a source of weakness to its followers.

• • •

Why should Liberal candidates have a hard fight made harder and their political lives endangered by Hon. John Dryden's activity in South Dakota? where he spends in a stock farm the money he gets from the people of Canada. Canada is not good enough for him, but Canadian money is.

• • •

"Ontario once had Liberal leaders who enabled followers to carry constituencies in the name and fame of the Government which led them." So says a contemporary. Where is the War Horse?

• • •

An exchange says: "The Mowats, the Frasers, the Pardees, and at his best A. S. Hardy, were not a crew of electric railway magnates, power company promoters, or Dakota ranchmen." True, but the men who form the present Government are.

FROZEN TO DEATH.

Many people were this morning horrified to find their beautiful flowers, which had been left out over night, frozen as stiff as a poker.

• • •

The new Ameer has reduced the taxes of his subjects, which pleases them greatly, though its a mere trifle to him.

• • •

The Royal tour is drawing to a close. A week from to-day they will leave Halifax for England, with, no doubt, a good deal of pleasure. They have heard many brilliant musical selections in their tour of 35,000 miles, but the sweetest tune of all will be "Home, Sweet Home," played by the Ophir's band when she gets into the Mersey. What a jolly time George and his wife will have when they clap their eyes on the little Dukes and Duchesses again. That will be a Royal review, indeed!

"Ah!" said the Duke, after they gave him his LL.D. in Kingston, "I'm going home by degrees." And the audience laughed so heartily that Principal Grant heard them up in the sick room.

• • •

A new danger has been discovered in beer, in addition to arsenical poisoning. It seems that it contains a substance called selenium, which is an irritant poison. However, what will irritate some people the most is that they haven't the price.

• • •

It is extremely regrettable, though, perhaps, only to be expected, that the Grit paper published in this city should have so far forgotten itself as to endeavor to drag party politics into the question of a bonus for arsenic production in Ontario, which would practically mean a direct benefit to Hastings County. One would have thought that any fair-minded man, or newspaper, would have been able, for the sake of the public good, to drop party politics for the nonce and endeavor to advance the interests of the County as a whole. It is sad, nay, pitiful, to think that a Belleville paper could not use common justice in discussing a matter which is for the benefit of Liberal and Conservative alike, but must give vent to its spite and try to throw cold water on the scheme simply because the deputation appointed contains four men who, to quote its own words, are leading Conservatives—Messrs. Johnson, Graham, Allen and Carscallen. It is almost incredible that any paper, arrogating to itself the right to speak for the Government which it supports, should venture the assertion that that Government is so mercenary as to put partyism before the public good.

• • •

The text from which the Grit sheet preaches its sermon is taken from The Intelligencer of Wednesday. Just one little sentence furnishing it: "We do not think the Government can afford to ignore the request so unanimously put." That sentence can in all fairness be reiterated. The Intelligencer had no idea, when the article in question was written, that any paper published in this vicinity was going to be so small-minded as to drag partyism into a matter which was calculated to benefit the County as a whole, without reference to politics, creed or nationality. Partyism, to our mind, is something not to be thought of in connection with this affair. We doubt very much if fair-minded men are thinking, or have thought, of it in this connection.

It is simply a business proposition. If the readers of the Ontario had had a chance to know what went on at the meeting they would have seen that for themselves. However, the Grit sheet had not the enterprise to send a reporter to the meeting, as The Intelligencer did, and the many good points made by the different speakers are not known to the readers of the Grit sheet, which is to be regretted. In effect, what the promoters of the scheme claim is this: If the Government grants a bounty on the promotion of arsenic, the amount paid out for its production in Hastings County can be raised from its present small figure to $500,000 per annum. There is a hard, solid fact, which no amount of innuendo or abuse can gainsay. Who will say that, under the circumstances, it is not the duty of the Government to grant the aid asked? We believe that every honest Liberal in Hastings County will hold up both hands for it, and we believe that the Government ought to think twice before it refuses the request.

• • •

It was always the plan of the Conservative Government, when in power, to endeavor by all means in its power to advance the interests of the country, as a whole, never allowing themselves to be influenced by the thought of party gain. This, unfortunately, is simply another example of what unscrupulous people will do who were not first approached in a matter and who see no probability of a "rake-off."

MANY GOOD REASONS.

The editor of the Globe is not a candidate for the Atchison post office, never has been and would not accept the office if offered him on a silver platter. Besides this, he couldn't get the office if he wanted it, as he once referred to Theodore Roosevelt as a "picturesque ass."

Some esteemed contemporaries, hard up for something to write about, have of late taken to shedding tears over the imaginary "insults" which a large number of democratic Canadian papers have lately been directing, in a jocular vein, at Major Maude. No one with any sense, of course supposes that Major Maude was personally responsible for the many silly things done, in the name of red tape, but his name was signed to the letters and telegrams and it was at him the merry, ha-ha was directed. Certain it is that the newspaper criticism directed at the red tape methods was productive of some good, as witness the fact that the telegram sent to the Mayor of Ottawa, which in substance "hoped that His Worship would know how to behave himself," was not repeated in any other city. We have no doubt at all that Maude is a very decent sort of a chap, but he hardly reckoned with Canadian democracy when he undertook the job. He knows better now.

GREAT EXCITEMENT MAY BE EXPECTED

To-morrow at J. S. McKeown's Drug Store, Where 1000 Samples of Ferrozone Will be Given Away, Absolutely Free to All Who Ask.

LET EVERYONE COME!

A representative of the manufacturers of this wonderful preparation will be in attendance at McKeown's Drug Store all day Saturday for the purpose of conducting a free sample distribution of Ferrozone.

Undoubtedly there will be a large crowd, and those desirous of availing themselves of this most generous offer should come as early as convenient in order to avoid the rush, but nevertheless no effort will be spared to serve all comers promptly.

Ferrozone is the product of long scientific investigations into all diseases arising from impairment of blood and nerve tone, and comes from one of the most favorably known manufactories in America. It is an absolute specific for anaemia, Chlorosis, Brain Fag, Nervous diseases, Fluttering of the Heart, Impaired Appetite, Sleeplessness, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Rheumatism, Loss of Vigor, all Female, Liver, Kidney and Catarrhal affections.

Every sample box of Ferrozone contains a full week's treatment; and you are respectfully invited to come and get one, and inspect our newly Imported Stock of Imported Perfumes.

WANTS INDEPENDENCE

MR. LEMIEUX, A LAURIER SUPPORTER OPPOSES IMPERIAL FEDERATION.

Montreal, Oct 17.—Rodolphe Lemieux, M.P. for Gaspe, and a supporter of the Laurier Government, speaking at a meeting of the East-End Liberal Club to-night, said he rejoiced that the plan to have colonial law lords had been defeated through the instrumentality of Hon. David Mills, whom he considered the best constitutional authority in the country. The creation of these law lords was simply an attempt on the part of Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, to lead Canada into Imperial Federation.

Mr. Lemieux declared himself against Imperial Federation or Imperialism. He believed in British institutions, and was perfectly satisfied with our present status in the Empire. Later, when the country had grown larger, richer and more powerful, we could become an independent power.

As to the admission of Newfoundland, he opposed it entirely, claiming that the union of the old colony with the Confederation would drag Canada into the French Shore difficulty. In a country like this, with its different nationalities, he believed such a question would be the cause of great friction, and would cause great trouble. In any case the finances of Newfoundland were in such a dilapidated condition that it would prove no acquisition to Canada.

"OIL OF GLADNESS"

South American Nervine has proved itself the "oil of gladness" to many a nerve-sick sufferer. It starts to work at the fountain-head of the trouble—the digestion. It tones the stomach, helps to assimilate the food, promotes healthy circulation, stimulates the flow of rich, red blood, accelerates the action of the organs.

ELECTRIC ENERGY WITHOUT WIRES

INVENTORS CLAIM TO BE ABLE TO FREELY TRANSMIT ELECTRO-MAGNETIC IMPULSES WITHOUT USE OF WIRES.

London, Oct. 17.—Messrs Armstrong and Orling profess to have made what may prove to be the most important discovery since the days of Stephenson. They say they believe they have found the secret of freely transmitting electrical energy without wires. The members of the press have been invited to Hughenden to-morrow to witness a series of demonstrations of apparatus, constructed under Orling-Armstrong patents, relating to the reception and transmission of electro-magnetic impulses, without the use of wires, together with the control of the steering mechanism of torpedoes and other sub-marine engines of destruction by means of electrical radiation from a distance without wires or material connection.

ATTENTION, INVENTORS!

E. G. Siggers, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C., whose ad. appears in our columns, is an attorney of twenty-one years' active practice and is well recommended to us. His rating will be found in Dun's and Bradstreet's reports, as he owns the "Inventive Age." He has sent us application blanks and other papers and inventors who are intending to apply for patents would save time by calling at this office and getting the papers before presenting their applications through any other source.

BOOK BINDING.

Orders for bookbinding should be left at this office. It is surprising how nice a volume can be made of these magazines, even though they are somewhat soiled from much handling. Books, magazines, or periodicals bound or rebound in any style at very reasonable prices. Blank books, such as journals, ledgers, day books, with any kind of ruling, made to order. All work warranted first-class. THE INTELLIGENCER, Belleville.

PRINTING WORTHLESS BOOKS

VERSE AND PROSE VOLUMES PUBLISHED AT THE AUTHOR'S EXPENSE.

There is near Philadelphia a really wealthy publishing house that brings out only worthless books, volumes of verse and of prose fiction which have no literary value, and which the house issues at the author's expense. These volumes do not sell; they never appear on bookstands; their editions are about large enough to supply 500 copies to the authors for distribution among their friends. The contents of the volumes, which never fail to include the authors' portraits and brief biographies, are very amusing in their banality. This, for instance, is the rhymed dedication of a novel from this house:—

Friend C—, be seated in the shade;
The pipestem that for you I made
Place in your mouth. A mug of beer
Place by your side. An onion, too,
That it may raise a sympathetic tear,
In case the contents hereof will not do.
Within these pages, then, forgiving look,
For to you I dedicate this book.

Nothing save, perhaps, their versification could be more repellent than the humor of these lines. At the end of the novel the writer takes up verse again and in twenty long stanzas describes a country dance. Here is the concluding stanza, which is not the worst of the twenty:

Alas, for poor Ticklefoot!
Endeth the dance.
He kicketh high heavenward,
Splitteth his pants.

Books of this sort are issued by this firm at the rate of about six a week.—Philadelphia Record.

IN CASE OF FIRE.

Good Housekeeping gives some valuable hints on what to do if the clothing of one's self or companion catches fire. Says the writer: "Your first move should be to get the person at length upon the floor. The easiest and safest way to accomplish this is by tripping. Then roll him over and over. This alone will go a long way toward smothering the flames, but at the same time lay hold of a rug, coat or anything thick, with which the operation can be more speedily and effectually completed. A pailful of water will answer the purpose, perhaps, but do not take even ten seconds to obtain it. It is of vital importance that you make use of the nearest means. Strive to keep the flames away from the upper half of the body, for that is the most vulnerable portion of the human anatomy. Should your own clothing catch fire, it will require all of your courage and training to enable you to act rationally. The natural and almost overpowering impulse is to run. Don't. It only makes a bad matter rapidly worse. Lie down at once and roll yourself up in anything which will assist in smothering the flames. Fire has a strong upward tendency, and it will soon envelop your whole body if you remain on your feet. The danger of your inhaling the flames is also greatly increased, and internal burns are pretty uniformly fatal."

AUTUMN LEAVES.

(For The Intelligencer.)

Sighs fell on Nature's ear; she, with a pang,
Saw leaves, once charming, changed to faded green
And frayed and torn in many a battle scene,
As when her wild, fierce winds their war song sang,
Deep in the mother heart there grew a scheme,
As witching, strange, fantastic as a dream.

Recalled were many artists; they whose part
It was to dye the folded petals red,
With those by whom the sunset tints were spread
And all who gave to flowers their golden heart,
With these there come who paint the pansies, meek;
That sombre hues the too gay leaves may streak.

The sent'nel pines, long vigilant and true,
Slept at their posts, with heaven's lights turned out,
Artists must work while fire-flies dance about
And thirsty breezes sip their fill of dew;
Morning amazed, finds trees in richness drest,
Each lovely leaf seems lovelier than the rest.

And yet—and yet does melancholy blend
With pleased emotions as we thoughtful stand
Viewing the glories of a wonderland
And know 'tis the beginning of the end;
Less sad their fate than ours, who, in truth,
May with returning spring renew their youth.

POOR GIRL, PITY HER.

Growing! Yes, into weakness, but not strength. Studies — plenty of them. Tired, of course she is, and weak too. Does not eat enough, and digests far less than enough. This condition is so frequent, but how seldom noticed even by fond parents. Give her Ferrozone, then watch her appetite improve, her cheeks and lips grow ruddy, her step elastic, her spirits buoyant. All this simply the result of eating and digesting enough, making blood, and thereby strengthening the nerves and brain power. Ferrozone gives a woman's strength to weak girls. Your daughter or wife needs Ferrozone. Get it to-day. Price 50c. at McKeown's.

Quick & Robertson's For Fine Clothes.

There's no use disputing the fact that this store stands pre-eminent in this city as the store for Men's Fine Clothes.

With our large and pleasing varieties, up-to-date style, and good making we've won the trade of every man, and especially the trade of those men who are particular about the Clothes they wear.

And why shouldn't we? You can't find a store that has, ready made, such exclusive styles in suitings and overcoatings as we are showing; and every one of them is from the best Canadian and English mills.

Then, too, every garment is built to come up to our high standard—built by the best makers who know how and do give close attention to important parts of tailoring—such as adjusting the collars, shaping the shoulders, proper placing the sleeves and stays and making the button holes

Clothes made this way never lose their shape and by so doing we have overcome that appearance which marks clothes as being ready-made.

The prices for such goodness you'd expect to be high—but they are not—are no more than you would pay for ordinary sorts elsewhere.

Married at Rednersville

A pretty wedding took place at Rednersville, P.E. Co., on Wednesday, October 16, at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. Mr. Bamforth, when Miss Georgiana Belnap, of Rossmore, was married to Mr. Charles Lossie, of Deseronto. After the ceremony the couple partook of a wedding supper at the residence of the bride's father, after which the happy couple left for their future home in Deseronto.

A Tyendinaga Wedding

On Tuesday morning at 10.30 a wedding took place at St. Charles Church, at Read, Tyendinaga. The bride was Miss Amelia McCormick and the groom Mr. Anthony Farrell, both of Tyendinaga. Rev. Father McCarthy performed the ceremony. Miss Helen Bergoyne, of this city, a niece of the bride, was bridesmaid, whilst Mr. Joseph Farrell was best man. The bride and bridesmaid were attired in costumes of dark fawn broadcloth, with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Farrell have taken up their residence in the city.

A HELPLESS MAN.

A man is certainly in a helpless condition when he has to sit with his leg on a chair for weeks, unable to move. William Grimshaw, Wolfe Island, Frontenac County, Ont., was in this plight. Doctors could do nothing for him and the pain remained in his legs for six months. Three bottles of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure and three boxes of Climax Iron Tonic Pills routed the disease and restored him to perfect health. He now recommends it to all sufferers. This great blood purifier is put up in bottles containing ten days treatment. Price 50 cents at all drug stores or The Dr. Hall Medicine Co., Kingston, Ont.

INCIDENT OF THE TRIP

AN ENGINEER REFUSED TO MOVE HIS TRAIN TILL HE HAD RECEIVED AN ORDER FROM HIS SUPERINTENDENT.

(Montreal Star.)

On board the royal train, October 17.—The Grand Trunk engineer is democratic in his ideas, and while possessed of intense loyalty to the British crown, he is yet a subject of his road. Mr. Geo. B. Reeve is, in a manner, his king, and the railway superintendent his law. This was illustrated at Cardinal, Ont., where the Royal train lay for the night. The two sections of the train were on parallel tracks, side by side. The night was as black as ink and the sections of the train lay in the darkness a quarter of a mile from the bright lights of the station. Only the big bright eyes of the locomotives gleamed down the track into the darkness. Suddenly the piano on board of the Governor-General's train rippled forth in a bright operatic air. The music was just across from the carriage in which the Duke and Duchess were resting. The music was good and the air melodious, and there was a homelike atmosphere about the place as the waves of melody floated out into the night.

His Royal Highness the Duke had had a hard day sailing on the St. Lawrence, and the fresh air of the Thousand Islands made him drowsy and he wanted rest, but there was the piano and the little trills and the crashing chords in the car across the way. A brilliant thought struck His Royal Highness and soon a messenger was on the way to the engineer from the Duke, bearing a polite request that his train should be moved up the road a bit. The engineer, with a piece of cotton waste in his hand, was giving a little good-night burnishing to his pet. The messenger entered bearing the Royal command, but politely put it in the form of a gracious request. The engineer put down his piece of waste and critically eyed the bearer;

"Without an order from the Superintendent I would not move this train for the King of England."

He turned about on his heel and the messenger went back to the Duke.

Soon afterwards, however, the piano was silent.

IMITATION LAMB COATS.

The Oak Hall have just received a shipment of imitation black lamb coats from Newlands & Co., of Galt. These coats are very handsome, fit perfectly and come very reasonable in price. We want to show them to the man who is thinking of buying a low priced fur coat. They are only $20 and a long way better than low priced fur garments. See the Saskatchewan Buffalo robes were are showing from this same firm.

LIFTED THE RICHELIEU

SUNKEN STEAMER TAKEN FROM UNDER THE WATER AT KINGSTON.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 17.—The Donnelly Wrecking Company has succeeded in lifting the sunken steamer Richelieu and bringing her to Kingston. She was lifted by hydraulics and was towed to port, chained to the side of the schooner Grantham. She will be put on a soft bank near to the city, pumped out and repaired.

GRACE, STYLE AND FINISH.

You will find that in Grace, Style and Finish, Quick & Robertson's will compare with the productions of the best class of merchant tailors at prices a third to a half less. Each garment is designed with a view to its shape. It will stay in shape on the wearer. No undue drag on the various parts of the garment, each pocket is stayed, collars are properly cut, sleeves and shoulders have the right "set." Design without good cloths is wasted. Every garment is properly and honestly lined with good linings. No shoddy cloths are used.

Got a Bad Fall

SINGERS MAKE DISCORD

BYRON HICKS IS CHARGED WITH DEFRAUDING A SEWING MACHINE COMPANY.

A man named Byron Hicks, residing at Glen Miller, was arrested last evening by High County Constable Duffin and brought to this city, where he was locked up. He is charged with defrauding the Singer Sewing Machine Company. The accused was for some time acting as agent of the Company at and about Trenton, and it is alleged that he failed to make returns to the company of some collections which he made. Hicks was brought before the Magistrate this morning for preliminary examination. Mr. P. J. M. Anderson for Crown, Messrs. Porter & Carnew for private prosecutor, and Mr. McMahon for the accused.

The case was adjourned until Wednesday next.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The first object in life with the Canadian people is to "get rich;" the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health), by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well known August Flower will relieve you at once. Regular size, 75 cents. You can get Dr. G.G. Green's reliable remedies at R. Templeton & Co's.

MARRIED IN TORONTO

TWO POPULAR BELLEVILLE PEOPLE JOINED FOR LIFE IN THE QUEEN CITY.

A quiet wedding took place in St. Andrew's Church, Toronto, yesterday, when Miss May Biggar, of this city, was married to Mr. Richard A. Bull, paying teller in the Belleville branch of the Bank of Montreal.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. W. Maclean, pastor of St. Andrew's Church, this city. There was no bridesmaid or groomsman, the only persons present were the members of the families of the bride and groom and a few friends.

The bride is a sister of Mr. W. H. Biggar, ex-M.P.P., of Belleville. She was attired in a travelling costume of blue broadcloth, with hat to match, and wore, pinned on her dress, a small bouquet of blue violets. She was given away by her brother, Mr. O. W. R. Biggar, K.C., of Toronto.

At the conclusion of the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bull left immediately for Quebec. Upon their return they will take up their residence in this city, at the corner of Victoria avenue and Charles St.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

HERRINGTON VS. COYLE.

POLICE MAGISTRATE FLINT HANDS DOWN HIS JUDGMENT IN A CASE OF MUCH LOCAL INTEREST.

Police Magistrate Flint has rendered the following judgment in the case of Herrington vs. Coyle:

In this case Mr. Daniel Coyle is the proprietor of the Anglo-American Hotel in Belleville. Since the Street Railway has ceased to run an omnibus carries to the railway station passengers who pay for the accommodation. Plaintiff is in charge of this vehicle and in pursuit of his calling several times entered the hotel of defendant and solicited passengers. The hotel employs one Lambert to carry passengers to and from the hotel, and the proprietor did not wish the plaintiff to solicit in his hotel, and so informed the plaintiff. The defendant has experienced annoyance because the plaintiff frequently permitted his horses to stand in front of the hotel. On the occasion of alleged offence plaintiff was about to enter the hotel and stood on a step partially in the hotel when defendant desired him to leave and placed his hand upon his person and gave plaintiff a slight shove. Plaintiff claims his right to enter hotel, and that defendant is guilty of an assault. Mr. Morden, learned Counsel for defendant, has placed authorities before me bearing upon the case. Guests (which term includes travellers, wayfarers, transient comers) seeking lodging and entertainment have a right to apply to a hotel for lodging, food and entertainment, and cannot be refused provided they are suitable persons who apply, because an inn-keeper is considered by the law as the servant of the public exercising a public vocation. A person who calls upon a guest in a hotel and is peaceable and sober must be admitted, unless the inn-keeper has good and legal reasons why he should not be permitted to enter, but the inn-keeper refuses admission at his peril. If a person enters an inn and his presence is disagreeable to the proprietor or his guests, for good and legal reasons, he has the right to request him to depart; and if the person refuses to do so he can lay his hand gently upon him and lead him out, and if resistance is made may use sufficient force to expel him, but must be cautious in the exercise of that force, for if he exceeds, and uses more force or violence than is necessary he will be liable for an assault. In this case the parties conflict in their testimony and no corroborative evidence is called. I think the better course is to dismiss the case, for the following reasons: Plaintiff admits he was entering the hotel to solicit, which is the very thing the proprietor had requested him not to do. Defendant seeing plaintiff entering had very good reasons for believing he was about to enter and solicit and therefore was quite justified in requesting him to depart. If plaintiff delayed his departure defendant had a right to place his hand gently upon his person and use sufficient force to compel his departure. This defendant did, and I think I cannot convict defendant of an assault, which crime carries with it an intention to do bodily harm. Defendant believed he had a legal right to do what he did, and I cannot therefore under all the circumstances convict.

WHAT BOER COMMANDANT VILJOEN TOLD SIR BINDON BLOOD.

London, Oct. 17.—The Times correspondent, in again referring to the conference of Viljoen and Sir Bindon Blood, says;—It was noticeable that the word "independence" was not mentioned throughout the interview. As to the future of the country Gen. Viljoen had no misgivings. A large number of the Boers would elect to emigrate—to Canada or to Australia, he thought. They had no objection to British rule; in fact, they would prefer to be under it rather than under any other foreign power. But the reason for the emigration would be a dislike to remain side by side in the altered circumstances with the colonials they had known in former days.

WILL MEET IN WINNIPEG

NEXT METHODIST GENERAL CONFERENCE — QUESTION OF NAVAL CHAPLAINS.

Toronto, October 17.—At last the place of meeting of the General Conference of the Methodist Church in September, 1902, has been settled.

The Special Conference Committee dealt with the matter yesterday, and the vote stood 11 to 6 in favor of going to Winnipeg.

In answer to a letter addressed to him, Rev. Mr. Allen, secretary of the Chaplains' Association of the Army and Navy of Great Britain, wrote to say that provision is made in the regulations for the appointment of a Methodist chaplain at the naval stations. A committee was appointed to ascertain the present condition of affairs. The station which the committee is most anxious about is Esquimault, B.C.

The financial embarrassment of St. James' Church, Montreal, was again brought up, and it was decided to request the next General Conference to make an appeal to the Methodist body at large in behalf of the church.

Date of Trial Fixed.

Wm. Rogers, of the Township of Madoc, who was committed for trial on the charge of assaulting and attempting to stab his wife, elected to be tried by the County Judge. He will be tried by Judge Fraleck on Tuesday next.

Menzo Shaul, of Herkimer, lately deceased, incautiously, provided in his will that $21,000 of his estate was to be divided among his third cousins. Eight hundred and seventy persons, from all parts of the United States, are now asking for a share, claiming to have borne that relationship to Shaul. They are represented by 43 attorneys, hence there will be little left for either bogus or genuine third cousins.

UNTOLD MISERY — WHAT A WELL-KNOWN COMMERCIAL TRAVELLER SUFFERED, AND HOW HE WAS CURED.—Gentlemen, About five years ago I began to be troubled with Dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time travelling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine and when the third bottle was finished, I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of Dyspepsia.

(Signed),
T. S. McINTER.

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung and throat troubles, there is no preparation of medicine can compare with Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to afford prompt and permanent relief. It removes all soreness, and heals the diseased parts. It immediately soothes the most troublesome cough, and by promoting expectoration, removes the mucus which stops up the air tubes which causes difficulty in breathing, thereby gives relief to that depressing tightness experienced in the chest. Public speakers and singers will find Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup of inestimable value, as it speedily and effectually allays all irritation, and huskiness in the throat and bronchial tubes, and gives power to the vocal cords, rendering the voice clear and sonorous. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of "Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup," and whenever a child has taken cold, has a cough or hoarseness, give the Syrup according to directions.

IRON AND STEEL RIDDLES.

Some Puzzles About the Metals That Science Cannot Solve.

In view of our apparently extensive knowledge of the nature of iron it may seem strange to still speak about riddles wrought in these metals. Nevertheless, in everyday practice, we are constantly confronted by riddles of one kind or another when dealing with iron and steel, particularly the latter.

Why is it that we can raise the strength of soft staybolt iron of, say, 47,000 pounds per square inch, to 60,000 pounds per square inch either by heat treatment or by repeated application of stress? Why is steel coming from the rolls or hammer weaker and less ductile than the same steel after left lying a day or two, or, better still, a week?

There is no doubt that many tons of suitable material have been either thrown out by mill people themselves or were rejected by inspectors because it failed to meet specifications, causing needless vexation and friction simply because neither the one or the other of the parties knew that steel is in a disturbed physical state after rolling or hammering, no matter how good the material, and should be left to rest, the longer the better. Now, what takes place in the steel during the period of rest?

Another riddle is that we can raise the elastic limit and ultimate strength by a successive application of stresses very much above the original strength. What law, if it is a law, governs this phenomenon? Personally, the author is convinced that many errors of design or inherent weakness of steel have been modified in their probable consequences and breakdowns averted by this peculiar property of steel to gain in strength if allowed to rest after having been subject to stresses within certain limits. It was the knowledge of this fact which enabled the author to fight for steel and defend steel for structural purposes at a time when that metal was not yet a favorite with the engineer by any means. We are all familiar with the discovery of cast iron getting stronger by tumbling in a tumbling barrel, but for all we know it is still an unsolved riddle what the conditions really are producing such effects.—Paul Kreuzpointer in Cassier's Magazine.

PLANT LIFE

A plant that grows in India, called Philotacea electrica, emits electric sparks. The hand which touches it immediately experiences a shock.

Hyacinth and tulip bulbs lifted after the foliage begins to die and kept in a cool, dry place, then reset in October, will produce abundant flowers.

Old geraniums showing a tendency to bloom profusely should be stripped of at least half their buds as soon as they appear to prevent death from exhaustion of the plants.

Flowerpots can be rid of earthworms by pouring on the soil a warm decoction of wormwood and powdered horse chestnuts. The worms will come to the surface and can then be removed.

The marigold is a little weather prophet. If the day is going to be fine, the flower opens about 5 or 6 o'clock in the morning, but if wet weather is in store the marigold does not open at all.

Weak rosebushes may be made to grow by giving them an occasional watering with liquid manure. Care should be taken not to have it too strong. Applying once a week will be better than less often and of greater strength.

The sugar cane of China is said by botanists to be an entirely distinct species from that of India, and this fact is supposed to indicate that the development of sugar cane was carried on independently by two different nations at the same time.

A MODERN BIG HOTEL

ITS CAPACITY, ITS LUXURY AND ITS ENORMOUS EXPENSES.

Public and Private Dining Rooms In Which Over Ten Thousand Persons May Be Served Daily—It Is Practically a Town Under One Roof.

Writers of fiction have outlined plans for the ultimate uplifting of the human race in which they have pictured entire communities living under one roof and yet each family still retaining its privacy. Writing of facts, George Barry Mallon in Ainslee's Magazine tells some surprising things about modern big hotels that shelter persons numerous enough to form a fair sized village. He says:

"If one of New York's big modern hotels could be whisked to the country and spread out in village formation the result would be a model proprietary town of about 3,000 inhabitants. One half of these inhabitants would work in relays night and day for the comfort and entertainment of the other half, whose obligation would be the payment of the bills, which in the aggregate would represent, in addition to the running expenses and perhaps $200,000 a year set aside for the proprietor's profits, the interest on $15,000,000 invested in land, buildings and furnishings.

"Many cities cannot muster a tax list of $15,000,000, so that this town would be conspicuous above all others for wealth, and in completeness of the details that make the material side of life a joy it would be unrivaled. Some of its houses would be constructed for one family exclusively, and others would be arranged in single rooms and in suits. All would be furnished in the most luxurious fashion. In the central warehouse of the town's steward would be found a greater assortment of supplies for the cuisine than in any public market in the world. There would be a row of cookshops, each devoted to the preparation of a special course, ranging from the soups and entrees and roasts to the pastries and coffee. There would be half a dozen big banquet rooms and ballrooms, several music rooms and a well appointed theater or two.

"The town would have of course a telegraph office, a complete telephone system and some means of rapid transit to every house. Enormous boilers would supply the heat, and an electric light plant would furnish the illumination. There would be an ice plant large enough to manufacture fifty tons a day. There would be silversmith, blacksmith and tinsmith shops, electrical repair and machine shops, florists, hairdressing rooms for men and women, Turkish baths, upholstery and furniture shops, decorators and seamstresses, a steam laundry, a messenger service, a printing office, a wine cellar, with half a million dollars' worth of choice vintages, and a clubhouse, with billiard and reading rooms and cafes.

"The town would be policed day and night by a dozen private detectives, and it would have a well trained fire department. There would be a bank, over whose counters would pass millions of dollars each year, and a central executive office, with scores of clerks and bookkeepers and auditors.

"The proprietor of this town would assume all the housekeeping cares of his 1,500 tenants and many of his 1,500 employees. He would provide amusements and act as the court of last resort. It would seem as if the man who was rash enough to attempt the management of such a town, staking his fortune on the issue, must necessarily fail, but as a fair illustration it is not overdrawn. Its parallel is found in a compact form, with no features missing and many added, in the modern big hotel that has reached the highest development in New York.

"Neither the bigness nor the completeness of a big hotel is appreciated by the patron who finds his interests satisfied with the accommodations which it furnishes. He knows in a general way that it may be a dozen stories high and several cellars deep and that the thousand or more guests are attended by servants on every hand, and when he pays his bill he believes that the charges are exorbitant.

"One of these hotels, which differs from the others chiefly in degree, represents an investment of $15,000,000. The 1,400 bedrooms and 750 bathrooms in it are so constructed by a series of inner courts that each opens to the outer air. It has several concert halls and theaters, three great ballrooms, and, in addition to its public dining room, where during horse show week, for instance, 10,000 people are served daily, it has a series of private dining rooms which are arranged for from ten to a thousand persons.

"In the largest ballroom in this hotel was given one night last winter a public ball, attended by 3,500 people, to whom supper was served, and on the same evening in other parts of the hotel were in progress two concerts, a dinner of an association of 300 men and a dozen smaller dinner parties in private dining rooms, each isolated so completely that no one of the 1,500 regular guests need know of it.

"Statistics are not very entertaining, but there are some stories of hotels that they alone can tell, and that of the supplies is one of them. For instance, during a given year one of these big hotels spent for meat $200,000; for poultry, $113,000; for vegetables, $80,000; for fruit, $42,000; for eggs, $12,000; for butter $57,000, and for the flowers used in decorations, and there are flowers on the tables every day, $30,000. The initial investment in silverware was $250,000, and, with the losses that charitably are credited to the souvenir craze and the general wear and tear on table service, about $40,000 a year is spent in keeping this supply up to the hotel's standard.

"One New York hotel that suffered severely from the souvenir spoon and salt cellar mania adopted several years ago the plan of notifying guests that each waiter was responsible individually for all articles on his table and would have to make good any loss. This reduced the taking of spoons to a robbery of the waiter instead of the hotel, and even the souvenir hunter has some conscience about such a theft. In the biggest of New York hotels $50,000 a year is spent in replenishing the linen, and looms in Belfast are busy the year round for it. The expenses of the other hotels for repairs are proportionately as large, for in the fierce business rivalry of the times none of them can afford to get shabby."

Some Entertaining Soap Bubble Tricks

To make a soap bubble rest upon a flower dip a dahlia or other stiff-petaled flower into the solution and then with a pipe or funnel blow a bubble upon the top of it.

To make bubbles and noise, dip the end of an ordinary fish-horn well into the solution and blow gently until quite a large bubble has been formed. Then four or five loud blasts may be sounded on the horn without injuring the bubble in the least.

To make six bubbles inside of one another, dip the end of a straw in the soapy water and after resting the wet end upon an inverted plate or sheet of glass, which should have been previously wet with the solution, blow a bubble about six inches in diameter. Then dip the straw well into the solution again, thrust it through the centre of this first bubble, and blow another. Continue in this manner until the bubbles have all been placed.

YACHTING.

English Yachting Victories.

Although the America's cup races soak up all the available interest of the world while they are pending, says the London Daily Mail, the cup is only one out of a dozen famous trophies that Britain has to struggle with other nations for every year and to the yachting enthusiast there are several races quite as exciting and important. France has her challenge cup, or, rather, we have it, for we wrested it from her two years ago. It is, however, going back to her this year without being raced for at all, owing to a clause in the rules. France has two international cups, and this first one she calls the "Coupe de France." It was won at Cannes, in 1898, by the English cutter Gloria, and is a handsome silver ewer, costing £70. The leading French yacht club, the Union Des Yachts Francais, offered it as open to any nation, defended by the French cutter Esterel. Gloria soon snapped it up, however, and brought it to England. Like the America trophy, it is a challenge cup and open to boats of 20 tons, French rule. There was a challenger in 1899 and another last year, but our neighbors were beaten each time. Every year we race Germany for a cup that throws the America prize into the shade for beauty and value, and is raced for by a big fleet of the biggest and finest yachts afloat. As is the Kaiser's cup, designed and presented by the Emperor himself, and which he always hands to the winning owner in person. It is of solid gold, bearing on one side a medallion of Queen Victoria and on the other side one of the Kaiser, and is open to yachts over 50 tons in an open race from Dover to Heligoland. Britain has always captured the prize without difficulty. Even if we fail to get the one and only America cup, and the States still hold our old prize tight, we have one of hers which she has failed to win back from us, and a fine trophy it is. This is the Cape May International cup, of silver, worth £80, and was first offered by America in 1872 to all nations. The first British yacht to challenge was Sir Richard Sutton's Genesta, and she won it easily, the race being sailed in half a gale of wind. Genesta brought the trophy back, and in 1893 America, being anxious to get it back, sent the Navahoe over here to compete. The King's Britannia, the most successful racing yacht ever built, defended the cup, and beat the American hands down.

UNIQUE MARRIAGE CONTRACT

HOW A BRIDE AND GROOM PROPOSE TO RUN THINGS DURING LIFE.

From Baraboo, Wis., comes the announcement of a unique wedding ceremony. The marriage was performed by a justice of the peace, but in addition to the usual service, the bride and groom both signed written agreements, the husband's contract being in part as follows:

"Believing that the marriage contract is the most sacred known to man, I now desire to make this contract, and do hereby solemnly promise that I will do all in my power to make my wife happy. That when I find that she is irritated from any cause I will not cross or quarrel with her, but will endeavor by tender and loving methods and kind words to soothe and restore her peace of mind.

"Believing that men and women are made in the homes and home life, not in schools and universities, I will do all in my power to make our children's all it should be, according to my most careful thought on the subject; that within three months, if possible, I will have my life insured, making my wife the beneficiary; that I will live within my income and endeavor to save a part of the same to the end that we may own a home; that should I find, after exhausting every effort to make it otherwise, that we are uncongenial or mismated, I hereby pledge my sacred word of honor that I will not oppose divorce to be granted to either of us; and should there be offspring, I hereby pledge my sacred word of honor to provide for the same so far as I may be able to do so, without the intervention of any court."

This agreement was signed by the bride.

"I have with great care and caution agreed that Mr. Reynolds may become my husband, and, having great respect and admiration for him, and believing I have not improperly bestowed the same, and believing in the sacredness of the marriage contract, I now desire to make said contract.

"When he is irritated from any cause I will not cross or quarrel with him, but will, by tender and loving words, strive to restore his peace of mind. That I will live within the income of my husband and will do all in my power to save part of the same; that, should I find we are uncongenial or mismated, I will not insist upon living together. That should our marriage prove to be happy and we are blessed with children I do hereby bind myself to teach them, in order that they may become honorable and useful citizens."

EPIDEMIC HYPNOTIC CRIMINAL SUGGESTION.

A child returned from a public execution to imitate, after the manner of children, what he had seen, and killed himself by hanging. An epidemic of family murder by drowning helpless children is said to be prevalent in London. Several atrocious crimes of the Guldensuppe type followed, in New York, that terrible murder. In some parts of the world there are almost every week chronicled these instances of epidemic crime incited by morbid suggestion derived from public or published initial examples. The newspapers give sinful accounts of the sins, and thus encourage them. Pathologic suggestion and its dangers are facts, the profession should urge upon legislators. Professor Gregory, of Iowa, says: "The excited reflection upon a shocking act by many thousands of persons, including numbers of low intelligence and morals, operates as a dangerous hypnotic suggestion to the crime." In the last five years there have been about 40,000 murders in the United States and 632 lynchings. During this period there have been but 597 legal executions. If capital punishment has the deterrent effect claimed for it, there should have been vastly more of them. We think they do not have that effect, but exactly the opposite one, and are certain it is so as to public executions. —American Medicine.

"If you see it in The Illustrated Buffalo Express it's worth reading."

THE MILKMAN IN BRAZIL.

Takes His Cow to the Customer. Tricks In His Trade.

"There are two ways in which you may buy milk in Brazil," said the man who had just returned. "The milk isn't first rate, and milk and cream are scarce, but there is originality in one way of selling it.

"Sometimes milk is delivered from house to house in glass bottles, carried in wire baskets, something after the fashion of the milkman here, but there the difference begins. The cart used in Brazil is a three wheeled push cart, always painted some dull, dark color. The bottles are typically Brazilian. They are long, small necked, dark green, secondhand wine bottles, which have advantages of their own for the merchant. The customer cannot see the water which he knows is in the milk, and the dark color simplifies the task of washing, which is quite a point to the native.

"But the other way of delivering milk is simon pure Brazilian, and it is a sort of case of the mountain coming to Mohammed. The milk merchant leads his cow around to his customers by a halter. Tied to the cow's tail is a small halter, and at the other end of that rope is a small muzzle halter, which is fastened around the head of a calf. The Brazilian milkman believes that the cow will not give milk if unaccompanied by her calf.

"The merchant, thus leading his merchandise and source of supply, walks barefooted over the uneven stone pavements from customer to customer. In his hand he carries an ordinary sized drinking glass and a tin one pint measuring cup. These he ingeniously raps one against the other, and this is his gong to notify his customers of his approach. A customer reached, the merchant gets down on one knee and proceeds to execute the order while the customer waits.

"The stranger sees no chance for diluting the milk in this system by which the consumer sees with his own eyes the goods produced, but the natives—and they all agree on this point—insist that the milk merchant has under his coat a rubber bottle filled with water and with a rubber tube attachment which enables him to inject the water into the measure along with the milk. Another way the artistic milk merchant has for milking his customer is by producing as much foam as possible. This is done by holding the glass as far as practicable from the source of supply during the process of filling the measure.

"In the best hotels and restaurants on the eastern coast of Brazil I did not once see cream used or offered, and milk as a beverage was very seldom seen, and I did not once see it mentioned on a bill of fare. Milk, such as it is, brings about 15 cents a quart, United States money, and a better supply even at this price would increase the demand materially."

CONCERNING ECHOES.

Effort to Find a Scientific Explanation of Their Eccentricities.

To the eccentricities of echoes there is no end. Some return faithfully to the sender of the original sound, but others are never heard by those who set them in motion. Sometimes an echo returns so quickly that the human ear cannot distinguish it from the original sound. The penetrative power of the human voice is often affected in this way—much to the disgust of speakers—in churches and large buildings. Sometimes, again, one sound will produce several echoes, when it happens that there are several reflecting surfaces in the direction taken by the sound waves—while you may hear echoes of echoes when two sound reflecting surfaces face each other at the proper angle. The subject has been little studied, but is full of interest.

More attention has been paid to the behavior of water waves and light waves than to sound waves, yet the same characteristics are to be found in each form of wave motion. What happens, for instance, when sound waves meet with obstacles is known to happen also to rays of light and may be seen to happen in the case of water waves. Thus, if an Atlantic roller were sweeping inshore, an isolated rock would form no protection. The big wave would simply swirl round the rock, enveloping it equally on all sides and passing on with very little decrease of force. A smaller wave, on the contrary, coming in with the roller, might be wholly checked and flung back by the rock, while a tiny wavelet could be stopped or reflected by a mere pebble.

So it is the same with regard to the phenomenon of sound, which is but another manifestation of wave motion. You may often notice when standing in a field skirted by a wood that a clap of the hands will awaken an echo, though you may shout ever so loudly without response. This is because a clump of trees cannot appreciably arrest the full, deep tones of the human voice or the barking of a dog, while at the same time the minute sound waves set in motion by a short, sharp clap are readily returned off every twig. The analogy might easily be carried farther.

Scotch Names.

A gentleman inquired of a carter in Maryhill the other day how far it was to Milngaire (pronouncing the name of the place exactly as it is spelled), relates The Scottish American.

"There's no' a place of that name hereabouts," replied the carter.

"Oh, yes, it's out this way, but I would like to know how many miles."

"'Millingavee,' ye ca'd it?"

"Yes."

"Let me see, noo. There's Cannlesburn, Bearsden, Stra'blane, Mullguy. Na. I never heard of that place you want."

"How far is it to Mullguy?" asked the gentleman.

"Mullguy's jist oot aboot six mile, if that'll dae as weel," responded the carter.

The Mistakes of Our Friends.

Venerable Dr. Thurston, who is much more at home in mazes of theology than in the amenities of social life, not long ago was introducing to a younger clergyman a handsome widow, a former parishioner of his own, no longer young and extremely sensitive to the fact.

"My brother," said Dr. Thurston, leading the lady forward while his face beamed with genuine affection, "this is Miss Almeda Jennings, one of my old sheep."

Manifest Superiority.

"A poor excuse is better dan none," said the philosophic hobo. "I like it better dan a good one," remarked his companion. "It's more gentlemanly. It ain't so apt to work."

In the Future.

Second Billionaire's Son—I got a railroad.

"That's nothing. I got a whole system."

Farmer's Wife—You said you would saw my wood if I would give you a good dinner.

Weary—Well, madam, I saw your wood, didn't I?

What is meant by our neighbor we cannot doubt. It is every one with whom we are brought into contact, whosoever it be, whom we have any means of helping.

LIFE IN A BIG DESERT

QUEER CREATURES THAT AMUSE AND INTEREST THE TRAVELER.

Insects, Birds and Reptiles Found In the Sand—Funny Freaks of the Tarantula Hawk and the Road Runner—Worrying a Rattler.

There's plenty of life on the desert—not crowds of human insects, rushing and tearing about like crazy ants and keeping up a din day and night that is enough to drive the whole world mad, but interesting, sensible, natural life, full of comedy, tragedy and even humor. If you feel lonesome, you can find company anywhere by turning up a rock or looking under the sagebrush. There's no lack of ingenious, curious little creatures whose ways are worth studying.

Take the tarantula hawk, for example. That's an insect built something like a wasp, or perhaps more like a "devil's darning needle," and it flies about looking for tarantulas just as the hawk soars about keeping his eye peeled for gophers and such provender. When the hawk sees a tarantula, he goes for the big spider, swoops down upon him, stings him and gets away like a flash. The tarantula knows that his only show is to get under cover, and he legs it for home in frantic haste. It's fun to see the big, hairy legged bully duck his head and paddle off through the sand.

If the tarantula is near his house, he may escape by getting to it, tumbling in head first and shutting the door tight, but he's got to hustle for it, because little Jack the Giant Killer is a hustler himself and keeps jabbing away at every jump. If the hairy ogre gets caught out a great way from his castle, his name is Dennis, and he knows it. He flops over upon his back to make a fight, and if he could get hold of the hawk in that position he would make short work of the little chap, but the hawk sees the trick and just keeps sailing around and watching for an opening, and when he catches the spider off his guard he darts in, hits him a lick and gets away like a flash.

Sometimes the hawk will pretend to quit and fly away, but the instant the tarantula is on his feet and scooting for shelter whiz! comes the hawk like a bullet and socks it to him in the back of the head. A few stings like that do up the tarantula. He seems to become dizzy from the poison, staggers a few steps and collapses in a hairy heap. His legs twitch a few times, and that is the end of his marvelous career.

I've been calling the hawk "he" all along, but it isn't that kind of a bird. The tarantula Nemesis is the female hawk, so far as I can judge, because after the spider is knocked out the hawk proceeds to deposit eggs in the remains, and I suppose the eggs are hatched by the heat of decomposition. Possibly the purpose of laying eggs in a defunct tarantula is to provide the young hawks with grub at the threshold of life, so to speak. Whatever the scheme may be, it is death to the tarantula, and for that reason nobody ever harms a tarantula hawk. The insect's sting is said to be poisonous to men, but I never knew one to sting a man.

Then there is the road runner, a joyous, sociable little fellow, whose business in life is worrying rattlesnakes to death. The road runner is a bird somewhat larger than a blue jay, with a saucy topknot and a still saucier tail about a foot in length. He runs as fast as a horse ordinarily travels, and if he once gets into the road ahead of a horseman he will race along for hours and can't be driven out of the road. He could skip aside and get out of the way if he wanted to, but he seems to think that it is his mission in life to keep just ahead of that horse, and nothing can divert him from that occupation.

He is not in the least alarmed, and when he gains too much of a lead he will stop and seesaw with his tail and chirrup merrily until the horse nearly catches up with him. Then away he goes again, as if his life depended upon winning the race. When he wearies of the sport, he disappears in the brush.

I was riding across a cactus desert once when a pair of road runners that had been racing with me turned out of the trail and became suddenly very much excited about something. They paid no more attention to me, and I rode up near enough to see what was going on. They had run across a big diamond back rattler and were preparing to have fun with him. One of them had struck the snake with his sharp bill and the diamond back had promptly coiled himself in a defensive attitude and was springing his rattle wickedly. One of the birds remained near the snake, jumping about and making a great show of hostility, but keeping beyond reach all the time, while the other gathered little bunches of dry cactus, with spines as sharp as needles and almost as hard, which he dropped close to the reptile.

The road runner was as busy as the old boy in a gale of wind, and in a few minutes he had piled a regular little corral of cactus spines all around the rattlesnake. Then the pair of them began to tantalize the snake, and flying at him they provoked him into striking at them, with results disastrous to himself, for every time he launched out he hit into the cactus and got stuck full of the spines.

When the rattlesnake had just about got crazy and was reckless of his guard, the road runners flew up, hovered over him and darted down at him whenever they saw a good chance to hit him. Their sharp bills did great execution, and it wasn't long before they had the rattlesnake laid out as cold as a wedge. They are great generals, these road runners, and they always get away with the rattlesnake. That's why nobody ever shoots a road runner in California.—Exchange.

The Cautious Missionary.

They had strapped the missionary in a huge baking pan and were about to push him into the oven when the cannibal king thoughtfully inquired:

"Have you anything to say?"

"Yes," said the victim gratefully, "will you please remove these few cartridges from my belt? I am afraid they might be prematurely discharged by the intense heat and do me bodily injury."

The humor of the request pleased the cannibal king so much that he set the victim free.

A true test of a man's politeness is the way he treats his wife when nobody else is around.

Fire is not extinguished by fire.—Italian Proverb.

Keeping Roads in Condition.

Fred Grundy, in Farm and Fireside, tells us he has been watching "road-keeper" care for ten miles of black earth road, and he has kept it in good condition, not by macadamizing it or by covering it with crushed stone, but by providing good drainage, by tile in most places, to take the water off, and by digging out some of the worst places about 18 inches deep and filling with broken brick, tile, coal, cinders or whatever will make a firm foundation, and allow water to drain through. Then if the roads are rounded up to allow the water to run off and they get a little attention after every rain, they are easily kept in good condition. The results are much better and the cost much less than they were for the annual turnout of the district to mend, or often to make worse the roads, the job being expected then to be done until the same season comes around another year.

SHOT HIMSELF IN WINNIPEG

Nicholas Flood Davin's Light Has Gone Out

Had Been in the Prairie City Since October 9, But Was Not Himself—Revolver Bought After Considerable Effort—Bullet Entered Mouth and Lodged in the Head—Full Details of the Sad Affair.

Winnipeg, Oct. 19.—"Nicholas Flood Davin is dead." This sentence passed from lip to lip shortly after 4 yesterday afternoon, and everywhere it was received at first incredulously, and then with sorrow.

As details became known it appeared that the Demosthenes of the west had died by his own hand in his 59th year. The rash act seems to have been most premeditated, for he failed in his attempt to purchase a revolver at one store, went on to another and succeeded in obtaining one. Then he entered his room in the Clarendon Hotel for the last time.

Purchased a Revolver.

Thursday morning about 11 o'clock he went into J. H. Ashdown's store and purchased a revolver, and a box of cartridges for $4. He took them away with him, but shortly after 2 turned up again with the weapon. One of the chambers was clogged, and he had been unable to work the extractor, hence he had brought it back to obtain assistance in fixing it.

Taken From Him Again.

Lindsay, the manager, noticed that at the time he was a trifle the worse of liquor, and so, after fixing the revolver, drew it back just as he was about to hand it over, and gave Mr. Davin the purchase money instead.

Got It After a Hunt.

Mr. Davin was not, however, deterred by this, for he went to Messrs. Basker and there succeeded in obtaining what he wanted, telling the clerk, with whom he talked for ten minutes, that he might with practice be able to kill cats with it. This was not the only feature which adds sadness to the tragedy, for the unfortunate man, after failing to secure the weapon he wanted at one store, passed an hour or two in driving around town in a hired hack before trying successfully elsewhere. And even after he had got it safely stowed away in his pocket, he went about much as usual.

Was Not Himself.

It was a little after 2.30 that he dropped into the Queen's Hotel, and there ran across Bernard McEvoy, an old Toronto friend, whom he introduced to Col. Macdonald, and with whom he stopped to discuss the present condition of the redskins for quite a time.

"He seemed," said Mr. McEvoy, in talking of the matter a short time after the tragedy, "very depressed. I could hardly believe it was my old friend talking."

From the Queen's he passed on to another hotel, where he took a solitary drink, and thus came at 3.30 to the Clarendon again. Telling the hackman to wait and take him to the station en route for Regina, he went straight to his room, appearing as usual to the boy who ran the elevators.

A Letter From Regina.

Twenty minutes later another boy was sent up after him with a letter from Regina, which had just arrived. The youngster knocked at the door, and in reply to the usual answer entered the room and handed the letter in. Mr. Davin was at this time sitting at the table, apparently not doing anything. He said nothing, but, taking the letter, turned and seemed as though about to read it, when the boy went out. This boy was the last to speak to the unfortunate man, though not the last to see him, for his room was an inside one number 87 and its window was overlooked by a room occupied by one of the diningroom girls.

Played With Revolver.

"It must have been about ten minutes to four," she said, "that he came over to the window and began to play with a revolver. I stood watching him. I could not make out what he was doing. He was turning it about in his hand and tapping it on the window sill. At one time I thought he must be cleaning it, but of course I could not be sure of it. At all events I did not see him load it and had no idea of the rash act he evidently must have contemplated. After fully five minutes of this aimless turning over and over of the weapon he turned away from the window, and that was the last I saw of him. A minute later I heard a report and thought to myself that man must have shot himself."

Came to Late.

Before the startled girl had time to communicate her fears to anyone, news of the suicide had become known from another quarter. Hotel porter John Baird had orders to fetch Mr. Davin's baggage from his room, and was actually on his way upstairs when the shot was fired. He did not hear anything, but on reaching the room found the door locked, and not being able to obtain any answer to his repeated knocks, climbed in through the aperture, which should have been occupied by the fanlight and unlocked the door. As soon as he got high enough to look in he saw the body of the unfortunate man lying on the bed. His right leg was completely on the bed, but his left hung over as though he had fallen carelessly. He lay there on his back, peacefully and not disfigured.

Horrifying Sight.

The porter was too horrified by what he had seen to make a close examination at that time, but hurrying down he told the clerk at the desk what he had seen, and together they went back again. A cursory examination showed that nothing could be done. Mr. Davin was unmistakably dead, and accordingly two men turned away, and locking the door carefully behind them, went downstairs to telephone the news to the police and secure the services of a doctor. By good chance Dr. MacDonell was in, and within 10 minutes was on the spot. He was too late to do more, however, than formally announce that life was extinct.

It was with the arrival of the doctor and the almost simultaneous appearance on the scene of Detective Leatch, representing the police, that the first examination of the body was made. It was apparent from the appearance of the body that the demented man must have placed the muzzle of the revolver in his mouth and fired directly upwards. There was no sign of a wound on the face or head, which looked as in life, only infinitely more peaceful.

The only sign of the tragedy was the still, lifeless body lying there on the bed and the clothes saturated with blood.

"He must have bled fearfully," said an eye-witness in describing the scene. "Why, when the detective began the necessary search for documents, he got his hand all covered with blood. It was everywhere. It had soaked into the light, black overcoat he wore and into the bed clothes, he was literally deluged in blood."

Expected at Regina.

Search for documents revealed very little, however, except letters which showed that he had been expected back in Regina for some few days, and an unopened letter from his wife, asking how it was he had been detained so long in Winnipeg. This letter it must have been that was taken up to his room shortly before the tragedy. He had little or no money in his pocket, only some ten dollars, but that was hardly peculiar, as he had settled his hotel bill two days ago with the intention of leaving then for Regina.

HEART-SICK.

There are a great many people who have heart sickness, who have no chronic derangement of the heart. When the stomach is diseased it may affect many other organs, and produce all the evidences of diseased heart, diseased liver or kidneys, or disease in some other organ. The inexperienced practitioner treats the wrong disease, and hence the constant statement of Dr. Pierce's correspondents: "Doctors could not help me."

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It increases the assimilative powers, and purifies and enriches the blood. When diseases of organs remote from the stomach are caused by the stomach, the cure of the stomach results in the cure of the other diseases, in heart, lungs, liver, kidneys, etc.

"Six years ago my stomach and heart troubled me so much I had to do something, as the doctors could not help me," writes Mrs. S. A. Knapp, of San Jose, California, Box 191. "I went to San Francisco and had treatment for catarrh of the stomach, and was better for some time, then it came back. I then used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets.' These medicines cured my stomach. I do not have the pain and indigestion as I did. It is very hard for me to tell you what I suffered before I commenced taking your valuable medicine. I recommend it to all the sufferers whom I meet."

A close examination of the room followed, and a box of cartridges was found on a table, with one missing. The revolver itself was tightly clenched in his hand, as though he had shot standing and fallen to the bed, still grasping the weapon with which he did the dreadful deed.

Steps were taken immediately after the tragedy to communicate with his friends in the city, and they conveyed the sad news to his wife.

The body lies at the undertaker's now, awaiting instructions as to the funeral. There will be no inquest.

SKETCH OF HIS CAREER.

No One Who Was Acquainted With Him But Will Regret His End.

Nicholas Flood Davin was in his 58th year. He was an Irish journalist of the school of John Augustus O'Shea, "Ghazi" Power, Edmund O'Donovan and a score of others whose fame will long live in the annals of the British press. The son of a County Limerick medical practitioner, Dr. Nicholas Davin of Ballyscanon, he was educated at Queen's College, Cork, and London University. He was called to the English bar at the Middle Temple in 1868, and got a position in the gallery of the House of Commons as a shorthand reporter for one of the London dailies. During the Franco-Prussian war he represented The Standard and Irish Times, was wounded at Montmedy, and had the greater misfortune of being in Paris during the siege. He was kept in prison for a few weeks.

He "floated out" to Canada in the early seventies and worked first on The Globe staff. Later on he joined The Mail, and was a popular member of the old U. E. Club on King-street. He was called to the Ontario bar in 1874, and was made Q.C. in 1890. He defended Bennett for the murder of Hon. George Brown. He was one of Sir John Macdonald's star stumpers in the N. P. campaign of 1876-77, and was put up by the Conservative party to contest Haldimand against the father of the present member, Colonel Thompson. One of Mr. Davin's jokes at the expense of his opponent almost gained the young Irishman the riding, and the joke is not yet forgotten in Haldimand. He was sent to Washington by Sir John Macdonald to report upon the Indian schools, and afterwards went out to Manitoba about the same subject. He was secretary of the Royal Commission of 1880 on the C.P.R., and was also secretary of the Chinese Immigration Commission in 1884. In 1882 he moved out west and established The Regina Leader, returning as member for West Assiniboia in 1887.

Mr. Davin was a hard literary worker. He put an amazing amount of labor into his biographical work, "The Irishman in Canada," and published while in the Northwest "Eos, an Epic of the Dawn," "Culture and Practical Power," "The Fair Grit," "British v. American Civilization," "Ireland and the Empire," "The Earl of Beaconsfield."

AN OAKVILLE GIRL MISSING.

Visited Brother-in-Law in Amherstburg and Disappeared on Monday.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 19.—Mystery surrounds the disappearance of Miss Laura Doty, a young and beautiful girl of Oakville, Ont. Miss Doty had been visiting at the home of her brother-in-law, Rev. W. E. Kerr, of Amherstburg, and on last Monday the minister brought her to Detroit and put her on board a Grand Trunk train. She expected to return to her home by the way of Port Huron. Mr. Kerr returned to Amherstburg. When Miss Doty did not reach Oakville at the expected time, her mother waited for a day, and then telegraphed to find if her daughter had left Amherstburg. Possible places along the line were queried, but the girl seems to have dropped from sight. Mr. Kerr will search for some clue in Detroit, and then will go to Port Huron.

Mr. Tarte's Ultimatum.

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—In a letter to the chairman of the Montreal Harbor Commissioners, Hon. J. Israel Tarte states finally that he cannot consent to the Jamieson plans for the erection of an elevator, which are wholly of an experimental character, but it prepared to give his immediate approval to any plans prepared on known basis.

Moulders Back at Work.

Winnipeg, Oct. 19.—As the result of an interview, which the iron moulders of the Vulcan Iron Company, who were on strike, had with the management yesterday, the men decided to go back to work.

Ten, Killed, Six Wounded.

Washington, Oct. 19.—The following cablegram was received at the War Department yesterday afternoon:

"Manila, Oct. 18.—Forty-six men, Company E, 9th Regiment, U. S. Infantry, under First Lieut. Geo. W. Wallace, in field Lower Candara, Samar, were attacked by 400 Bolomen, Oct. 16. Our loss 10 killed, 6 wounded, names not received. Eighty-one of the enemy left dead on the field. Enemy beaten off. (Signed), Chaffee."

Received the Boer Envoy

Story That Roosevelt Will Stop the War Gaining Credence.

Nicholas Flood Davin Shoots Himself in Winnipeg. Sketch of His Career—Pan-American Will Remain Open Till November 15th—Fast Atlantic Service.

Washington, Oct. 19.—Further credence was given yesterday to the report that President Roosevelt is considering the question of mediation to bring the South African war to a close. Gen. O'Beirne, agent of the Boer Government in this country, had quite a long conference with the President.

General O'Beirne asked to be excused from a discussion of the conference. He did state, however, that the meeting with the President was very gratifying, and that he had been given assurances that Roosevelt would be pleased to receive from him such statistics as the general was in possession of in reference to the war.

The general's friends state that they believe the envoy will have no trouble in convincing the President that it is the mission of the United States to extend its good offices to both the Boer and British Governments in such a manner as would bring the conflict to a close.

Botha's Force Dissolved.

New York, Oct. 14.—From Newcastle, Natal, a correspondent of The Times sends a despatch, which says that a large number of Boers are near Pongolabosce and Slangapies, while a commando of 300 holds a position southeast of Piet Retief.

Commandant-General Botha has dissolved his force, which numbered 2,000, and has left his men to escape as best they can. He, himself, with a few followers, has gone north through a small unguarded space near Piet Retief.

The main interest of the moment, says the despatch, centres in the operations around Pongolabosce, where the British are gradually enclosing the Boers.

Refugee Population.

London, Oct. 19.—Returns from the refugee camps in South Africa for September show a total white population of 109,418; deaths among the whites, 2,411, of which 1,964 were children. The colored population is shown to be 38,494, among whom there were 301 deaths during the month.

Austria May Intercede.

Vienna, Oct. 19.—The Unterhaus yesterday elected Dr. Kaiser as first vice-president of that House. In returning thanks, Dr. Kaiser seized the occasion to interpellate the Government on its attitude in regard to the South African war. He insisted that Austria ought to intercede to secure through arbitration an end of the "robber war now waged by Great Britain." That country, he added, should be obliged to conform to the exigencies of humanity and international law.

Port Perry Boy Sick.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 19.—A cable from Hon. Joseph Chamberlain to the Militia Department says that Richard Douglas Muir, whose father resides at Magregor, Manitoba, was wounded in the arm at Reit Point on Oct. 10, and that Frank Nott of Port Perry, Ont., is dangerously ill with enteric fever at Elandsfontein.

Canadians in Danger.

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—The wives and families of the Canadians serving as officers of the South African Constabulary are said to be stationed at Malmesbury, the place reported yesterday as occupied by the Boers.

One Canadian Missing.

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—The following despatch from Mr. Chamberlain to His Excellency the Governor-General has been received at the Militia Department:

"London, Oct. 17.—Please inform H. Tunstead, 698 St. Patrick street, Ottawa, that H. Tunstead is reported missing. Jagersfontein Drift, Oct. 12. (Signed) Chamberlain."

Will Be the Largest Yet.

London, Oct. 19.—The Admiralty has sent instructions to Devonport to prepare for the construction of a battleship larger than any now existing. Her displacement will be 16,500 tons and her length 425 feet. She will be the first vessel of the King Edward class.

Pope in Perfect Health.

Rome, Oct. 19.—The recurring newspaper reports that the Pope is suffering from weakness and is subject to fainting spells have called out a denial from the Vatican. His Holiness is in perfect health, gives audiences regularly and passes the fine days in gardens.

TEACHER SWALLOWS POISON.

Tragic Death of James E. Wallace of Morrisburg at Toronto.

Toronto, Oct. 19.—James E. Wallace, a middle-aged school teacher, ended his existence yesterday in his room at the Stag Hotel, corner of King and York streets, by swallowing a quantity of carbolic acid. What led Wallace to end his life is not known, but it is known that he contemplated the act as early as Tuesday last. He was well known in Ottawa and Morrisburg, where, from all accounts, he was well liked. Letters found in his possession show that he was on the teaching staff of the Ottawa Collegiate Institute from 1883 to 1898, and held a second-class professional certificate. From the capital he went to Morrisburg, and for two years was employed as salesman in the stationery store of W. A. Plantz, who gave him an excellent recommendation. Wallace came to Toronto on Saturday last, and registered at the Stag Hotel, arranging for sleeping accommodation only.

Beside the body was found a 3-oz. bottle of carbolic acid, from which the label had been removed. A letter was also found, dated Tuesday, which was not addressed to any one in particular.

It read: "I am sorry to have caused so much grief to my friends, particularly to my wife and my mother. It may be, God will sometime forgive me for it all, and for the act which I am now to commit. To my friends who have shown kindness to me I would say I appreciate it fully, and wish they will not have cause to regret it. To those who have injured me, I would say, I bear no ill-will, but only trust they may yet see what a mistake they made. Goodbye." (Signed) J. Wallace.

Everything pointed to a case of suicide, and Coroner Spencer, who issued a warrant for an inquest to be held to-day at 3 p.m. Relatives of deceased have been notified of Wallace's tragic death.

IMPRISONED IN A TUNNEL.

Rock Cave in Carrying Death to an Undetermined Number.

New York, Oct. 19.—Fifty tons of rock caved in the Rapid Transit Tunnel at 167th street and Broadway yesterday, carrying death to an undetermined number of the forty men who were at work far down below the surface in the burrow.

The known dead are: Peter O'Hara, aged 65; Daniel Kelleher, aged 60; Luigi Danis, aged 25; Patrick Madden, foreman.

Many of the others were imprisoned in a small chamber of the excavation, and their fate will not be known until the rescuers, who are digging toward them, reach the point where they are entombed. They are 600 feet south of the great shaft at the intersection of 167th street and Broadway, and 110 feet underground, and it is feared that a majority of them have been either crushed or suffocated to death. The cave-in occurred at 9.45 o'clock, and its cause and the responsibility for the deadly results can scarcely be determined until there has been an official inquiry.

A Terrible Case of Eczema

Powley's Liquified Ozone Works Miracles With Vincent O'Neill of Toronto.

He Was Treated in St. Michael's Hospital Without Improvement.

No. 1. Taken February 28, 1901, when suffering from Eczema.

No. 2. Taken June 12, 1901, cured by Powley's Liquified Ozone.

Vincent O'Neill, 108 Mitchell Ave., Toronto, Canada, a lad aged sixteen years, first came to the attention of our Toronto office about February 28, 1901. He was then suffering from an aggravated case of Eczema, (Lupus Erythematosus), involving the entire right side of the face, both eyes and lips. The affected parts were a mass of incrusted matter, discharging profusely, the appearance being so offensive that it was difficult to remain in the room with him. He reported as follows: The discharge began about the spring of 1899, and steadily became worse. He entered St. Michael's Hospital early in October, 1900, and remained there under treatment three months and a half, until January 27, 1901, without improvement, and was then discharged from the hospital. A month later he came to us.

Powley's Liquified Ozone was administered internally and as a local dressing in strength 1-4, gradually increasing to equal parts. The improvement was observed almost at once; the discharge gradually ceased the general health improved, and at the end of twelve weeks, his face was perfectly clear. He is now entirely well. The above photographs tell the tale better than mere words. We refer you to him.

THE PHOTOGRAPHER'S STATEMENT.

That there may be no question that the photos numbered 1 and 2 are genuine and reproduce faithfully O'Neill's features before and after taking Powley's Liquified Ozone we present herewith the solemn declaration of Mr. Fred Micklethwaite, Photographer, 11 King Street, W., Toronto, that they are absolutely as he made them. They have not been retouched in any way and represent one and the same person, namely Vincent O'Neill.

DOMINION OF CANADA, PROVINCE OF ONTARIO, COUNTY OF YORK, } To Wit:

In the matter of the cure of VINCENT O'NEILL 108 Mitchell Ave., Toronto.

I, FRED MICKLETHWAITE, of the City of Toronto, in the county of York, Photographer, do solemnly declare that on or about the 28th day of February, 1901, the boy Vincent O'Neill was brought to my studio, and that photograph No. 1 is a correct portrait of the condition of his face, that photograph No. 2 was taken June 12th, 1901, and is a correct representation of the condition of his face at that time. That both the photos, Nos. 1 and 2 represent the same boy, and are not retouched in any way. I understand that his recovery is due solely to the use of Powley's Liquified Ozone, and I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true and knowing that it is of the same force an effect as if made under oath and by virtue of the Canada Evidence Act, 1893.

FRED MICKLETHWAITE.

Declared before me at the City of Toronto, in the County of York, this 27th day of Aug. in the year of our Lord, 1901. {SEAL} JAMES J. WARREN, Commissioner, Etc., Temple Bldg.

WHAT HIS FOREMAN SAYS:

July 12th, 1901.

To Whom it May Concern:

Vincent O'Neill is in my employ and is the young man that was cured by Powley's Liquified Ozone. He is well and works every day, and is free from his former serious face trouble.

Signed, W. D. VARRY, Foreman Tin Department, Gurney Foundry Co., Toronto.

Powley's Liquified Ozone is stable oxygen. It supplies the body with this element. It is blood food—purifying and healthening that function. It cures all forms of skin trouble, makes a pure clear complexion. Its life-giving and invigorating action is simply marvelous. The uses of Ozone are as varied as those Nature makes of it. It is the greatest discovery of the age Ozone is life.

PAN-AMERICAN TILL NOV. 15

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy and Mr. Ross Closeted Together.

Proposed Combine of All the Sulphite Mills in the United States and Canada—A Remarkable Sabre Duel of 72 Rounds Near Leghorn, Italy—Workman on Big Hotel in Toronto Falls 50 Feet and Is Killed.

It is the intention to prolong the Pan-American till Nov. 15.

Ex-Governor Pillsbury of Minnesota died at 2.38 Friday morning at Minneapolis. He was unconscious all day.

Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, President of the C. P. R., was closeted with Premier Ross at Toronto for an hour or so Friday.

At Sarnia, in the Middleton v. Wilkinson case, the jury Friday morning awarded the plaintiff $5,000. It was a breach of promise case, in which the plaintiff sued for $15,000.

A meeting will be held in Boston to discuss a combination of all the sulphite mill companies in the United States and Canada. Manufacturers are to be paid for their mills in stocks.

By falling 50 feet from an iron frame at the new hotel, Toronto, on Friday afternoon, Andrew Irwin sustained such serious injuries that he died shortly afterwards in the Emergency Hospital. His skull was fractured.

The Provincial Game Warden has issued between 5,000 and 6,000 deer hunting licenses this season, through 225 deputy wardens. He also instructed 40 men to look after the hunters' camps and see that the law is enforced.

The tobacco trade war has already commenced, the American trust having notified its retailers of a large reduction in the price of cigarettes. The struggle between the Titans of British trade and the American trust is likely to be very severe and prolonged.

A despatch from Rome says that Salvator Quintavalli, the Anarchist who returned from the United States with Bresci, the assassin of King Humbert, has been committed to prison by the court at Porto Ferrajo, Island of Elba, on the charge of being an accomplice of Bresci.

At Lexington two storeys of the Wigle House were completely gutted by fire on Friday, with all contents, including in some instances the personal property of the boarders and servants. The building and contents are insured for $4,000, and the damage is thought to be about $2,000.

A remarkable duel with sabres has taken place near Leghorn, between Lieut. Herivers of the artillery and Signor Ferrini. They fought 72 rounds, and, although actually slashing and thrusting at one another for an hour and forty minutes, they both escaped with slight cuts.

A tramp who gave his name as Charles Keenor, and claimed to come from Toronto, attacked Chief Pow of Tilsonburg when he atteampted to arrest the Weary Walker. Thursday afternoon he was brought before Magistrate Hare to answer to a charge of murderous assault and was given eighteen months in Central Prison.

PAUNCEFOTE SAILS OCT. 26.

New Canal Treaty Will Be Signed in Washington.

Washington, Oct. 19.—Lord Pauncefote will sail for the United States on the 26th instant, before the British Cabinet Council has had an opportunity to review the protocols, which embody in principle the proposed new Hay-Pauncefote canal treaty. It is thought here, however, that that fact will not delay sensibly the final negotiations, which will take place here between Secretary Hay and Lord Pauncefote, for it is the intention that the new treaty, like that which it will replace on the docket of the Senate, shall be finally drafted and signed in the City of Washington. It is said that when the new document is framed the "Fortifications" clause will have been found to have dropped out, leaving the United States at liberty to fortify the canal, but it is distinctly stated that it is not obliged to do so, and in fact there is no present intention of erecting fortifications, which, it is stated, would be much more expensive than a fleet of battleships and less useful.

Campaign Begins in Lincoln.

Niagara-on-the-Lake, Oct. 19.—Dr. Jessup opened his campaign by a well attended meeting here last night. The speakers were: Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, Vice-President of the Ontario Conservative Association; Dr. Jessup, E. A. Lancaster, M. P., and A. W. Wright. Mr. McKinnon, Liberal candidate, was in town, but though invited did not attend.

Fast Atlantic Service.

Montreal, Oct. 19.—Sir Christopher Furness arrived from Quebec yesterday and was closeted with Lord Strathcona for the greater part of the afternoon discussing the question of a fast Atlantic service. Sir Christopher left yesterday afternoon for Ottawa and the west.

Another Exhibition.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 19.—Hon. Sydney Fisher has received a request from Wolverhampton, England, that Canada will be represented at the Exhibition there in 1902. Offers for space in the main building and for the Canadian building are given. The Earl of Dartmouth is President of the Exhibition. The idea of the Exhibition is to illustrate the industrial and scientific progress of the British Empire and of foreign countries.

Ocean Liner Ashore.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 19.—The steamer Manchester Trader, from Hamburg to Antwerp, is ashore at the entrance to Sydney harbor. She has 200 passengers. The water is calm.

Capt. Goldsworthy is now awaiting instructions to send the passengers to their destinations by rail.

Mr. Sifton to Go West.

Ottawa, Oct. 19.—Hon. Clifford Sifton will leave on his western trip in the first week of November.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM!

BALLOT - BOX STUFFERS AND SWITCHERS IN DEMAND!

The Mail and Empire calls attention to the fact that a circular has been issued by the Ross Government, instructing the agencies that have been employed upon the voters' lists to keep up their organization, and not "to lapse into 'inactivity.'" The agencies are urged to "press on" with a view to polling a big vote for Ross and his candidates. The official organizer adds an interesting demand for meetings, and for the formation of "new clubs." Where meetings are called the organiser will supply speakers, loaded with facts and figures. But all meetings must be adequately advertised "by notices in the public "press, by posters, and by a general "distribution of circular, letters, sent "through the post." "It frequently "occurs," says the organizer, "that "speakers are disappointed to find "that a meeting has received but a "paltry advertisement, and the only "way to insure good results is as "above outlined." The organizer is particularly anxious to meet associations and clubs in secret or, as he puts it, "where members only are in "attendance," and to spend "a few "quiet hours" with "the workers," instructing them what to do, so that "skilled men" may put "good methods into practice." He says:

"Regular business meetings of associations and clubs will be held where only members are in attendance, and I would be pleased to attend these regular meetings and devote an hour or so to a talk on organization; for whatever else may be done in the way of fostering political sentiment, results will not be up to our anticipations unless our friends put into practice good methods of organization. We cannot have too many of our best men skilled in the knowledge of organization. It is all very well for people to organize and shout, 'Organize!' 'Organize!' 'Organize!' but a few quiet hours spent in preparing the organization for a riding is worth more than days of generalizing and shouting."

"We cannot have too many of our "best men skilled in a knowledge of "organization," says the head machinist. So he will devote an hour or so to a talk on organization "where only "members are in attendance," in order that men may be "skilled" in putting "good methods" into practice. The organizer prefers to give his instructions to polling sub-division committees, and he repeats that he will be glad to attend meetings, "not for "general public discussion, but for a "better understanding of the political "conditions of the constituency, and "an appreciation of the principles of "organization." This circular, calling for secret meetings, where "only members are in attendance," for the training of "skilled men" in the employment of "good methods" so that there may be "an appreciation of the "principles of organization," and results satisfactory to the machine should put all honorable citizens on their mettle. Measures should be taken at once to protect the rights of the electors in the polling booths. The machine state [illegible] of constituencies with its "skilled men" at the last election, and we know by the election courts what the "skilled men" did in the West Elgin, West Huron and North Waterloo bye-elections. There ought to be vigilance committees in every polling division to circumvent the Ross agents.

TIMELY TOPICS.

The Hon. J. Israel Tarte tells the people that he has no quarrel with the Governor-General. Why should he, if what it said be true, that Laurier wanted Prefontaine knighted, that Tarte objected and that the Governor-General sustained the objection. Surely that should suffice to maintain peace and harmony in the Cabinet.

The people of the United States, it is said, intend spending $2,000,000 upon an arch, commemorative of McKinley, in Washington, and $1,500,000 at Canton, Ohio, the late President's home. Better a good deal invest the greater part of it for the benefit of the widows and orphans.

A physician in the State of Indiana has discovered that consumption may be cured by the smoke of burning leaves. This is the time of year when an abundant supply of medicine can be obtained cheap.

The Khaki Court met in Ottawa the other day and then adjourned sine die. Who were the blunderers in this case? Who gave the original order not to appear in Khaki? Who disobeyed orders? and who disbanded the court? Scott, it is said, in the absence of the Minister of Militia. What a lot of bunglers, truly!

Mr. Tarte wants to see a building erected in Canada for a geological Museum, that will not be laughed at 10 or 15 years hence. He does not like the site. It belongs to the Government, consequently there can be no "rake-off" in the purchase. Surely the contrast would open the door to the well-informed operators.

Mr. Ross has been telling the prohibitionists that if all goes well he will introduce a bill in the Legislature to put an end to the traffic in intoxicants in Ontario. This is for the good people to believe. The others are being encouraged to vote for Ross by the story that he has wicked partners who will not let the good man hurt the traffic which provides so much in the way of oil for "the machine," and indirectly gives many places for party distribution. There are lots of Barnums who think the people were made to be bumbugged, and there are many who for the sake of "party" are willing to be bumbugged.

People who are going to run for aldermanic honors in New York next election are charged with "not being interested enough in the city to pay their personal taxes." If that objection holds good in New York it might in other places.

Less than two weeks, and the Pan-American will be but a memory. Just now the directors are trying to figure out what the loss will be.

* * *

The extensions made to the waterworks during the past summer have proved of great convenience to our citizens. It is not improbable that there may, next year, be a substantial discount for people who pay promptly.

* * *

"Has there been much business in bicycles this summer?" said The Intelligencer to a dealer in wheels this morning.

"Hardly anything at all," was the reply, "the bottom has dropped out of the trade in this city."

And that shows how strangely things run. In Picton, during the past summer, the writer was told by a bicycle dealer that he had sold more wheels during the present year than he had in the three previous years. The craze must have been about over in Belleville before the Picton folks heard of it.

Mr. Terence McGovern, who has accumulated much coin and collateral by handing out upper cuts and swings to opponents in the squared circle, seems to have more sense than is usually possessed by the short-haired fraternity. Being quizzed by a sporting writer recently in regard to his saving habits, so different to those of his fellows, the pugilist said:

"'The rest of them can be good fellows. I cannot see a thing in standing up to the bar and laying your money down simply to hear people tell what a good fellow you are. I am willing to be thought the other thing and keep my coin. I have a nice family, and like to romp with the kids better than anything else in the world. Some body is going to come along some day and find the point of my jaw. Then I will be dead as a drawing card,' and being a good fellow at that stage of the game does not get anybody anything. My way suits Terrence pretty well. So if you will let me go I'll buy a little something to drink and be on my way.'"

Gen. Buller is going to make another speech, and his friends are wondering which foot he is going to put in it this time.

A REMARKABLE OVERSIGHT.

(Montreal Star.)

The Belleville Police Magistrate has decided that corporations are not included in the scope of the Lord's Day Act. This is a remarkable oversight on the part of the Ontario Legislature, because, admitting that corporations have no souls, it is only charitable to assume that their employees have some.

The Duke will soon be gone, but it will take some time to clear up the heartburnings and jealousies which his visit engendered throughout Canada. The latest kick comes from Halifax, where the common people, headed by the aldermen's wives, have hurt the feelings of the military by refusing to keep away from the Duke. It was ever thus; stern devotion to duty to the smart set brings obloquy and curses in its train.

It costs the youth of Smith's Falls $2 and costs for swearing on the public streets. Thirty arrests have been made in two weeks.

The Countess of Aberdeen, wife of the former Governor-General of Canada, speaking at a gathering in Dundee, Scotland, said that Great Britain had squandered her sons and her money in Africa, while she allowed the Americans to buy up commercial interests here and in Canada. The noble Countess, it would appear, has not yet acquired that control of her talking apparatus which is supposed to be one of the characteristics of a "high-born lady."

It was gratifying to his many friends in Belleville when they read that Mr. W. D. Robb, Superintendent of Motive Power on the Grand Trunk Railway, was one of those presented to the Duke and Duchess of York during the ceremonies on the Victoria Bridge at Montreal. Mr. Robb started from the bottom and has steadily worked his way up. This again proves the truth of the old adage, "You can't keep a good man down."

Poor Davin! One of the most brilliant men who ever raised his voice in the Canadian House of Commons, his sad end will be deplored by everybody.

A few grains of salt should be taken with that story, that President Roosevelt will mediate to stop the Boer war. One very necessary feature to successful arbitration is that both parties should be willing to arbitrate. The British people may be sick of the war, but they are not too sick to fight any nation which tries to interfere in a matter which doesn't concern them. President Roosevelt can find plenty to do in the Philippines. If he's a wise man he'll fight shy of South Africa, and we think he will.

Lame Back
In the Morning.

There are many people who find it a difficult task getting up in the morning, on account of a terrible pain and soreness across the small of the back that makes rising a painful and discomforting operation. Ever know what it was to have your back so bad that when you'd try to get out of bed you'd almost scream with the pain!

Can't do much of a day's work starting off with a back as bad as that—not fit for pleasure either. Well, all this backache and pain, this stiffness and soreness comes because the kidneys are clogged up, can't do their work properly, and your back has to suffer for it.

Just try a box or two of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. What a change you'll find coming over you! You'll be able to spring from your bed in the morning as lively as a cricket, and feel refreshed and fit for your daily duties.

TOUCHED THE SPOT.

Joseph Weeks, Beckwith Street, Smith's Falls, says: "My back was in a bad way. I was desperately lame, and there was a dull grinding pain over my kidneys. At times I had headaches, and often I was dizzy, particularly if I had been stooping. I tried first one thing, then another, but there was no permanent benefit till I began using Pitcher's Kidney Tablets. They go right to the spot and I found prompt relief. Nothing before ever did me as much good. I would suggest to anyone suffering in that way to try them."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50c. a Box, at all druggists or by mail, The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

BREAKS UP OBSTINATE
COLDS

EXTERNAL evidence of a Cold is coughing, sneezing, and running at the nose.

INTERNAL effects are more serious; weak heart action, labored respiration, and inactivity of the bowels.

The use of Dr. Humphreys' Specific "77" awakens the numbed vitals, starts the blood coursing through the veins, relieves the congestion; arouses the sluggish liver, permits the system to cleanse itself — the Cold is "broken up" and passes off.

of Pile Torture.

James Kenton, Memphis, Tenn., says: "I suffered the tortures of itching piles for years, and not even mercurial ointment would relieve me. One 50 cent box of Pyramid Pile Cure cured me entirely." All druggists sell it. Book, "Piles, Causes and Cure," mailed free. Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich.

The Disappearance Act

A horse belonging to Mr. John Graham, of Sidney, was placed in a stall in the Dominion House stables, and when the hostler went to attend it he could not see the animal. The floor had given away, and the animal had momentarily dropped out of sight. The horse, after considerable difficulty, was rescued.

Enterprising Circus Men

The City Clerk has received a communication from the manager of Ringling Bros.' Circus, stating that that organization purposes issuing a book descriptive of scenes and incidents in the different places which their show has visited, and asking for either a photograph of some of the points of interest in Belleville or a short description of the city. The City Clerk is thinking of sending a picture illustrating Front street while the last 24th of May procession was passing down towards the City Hall.

A body was recently disinterred in the cemetery at Three Mile Bay, Jeff. Co., that had been buried nearly 25 years. It was found that the body had turned to stone and weighed more than 700 pounds.

PERSONAL ...AND... SOCIAL.

The Intelligencer invites all its readers to contribute to this column all items of a personal nature, such as the arrival or departure of guests, the movements of well-known people, business men, etc. All that is required is to send a post card or to telephone The Intelligencer.

Mr. E. D. O'Flynn, of Madoc, was in the city to-day.

Mr. W. H. Pearson, Jr., of Toronto, was in the city to-day.

Mr. J. Phippen, who has been seriously ill for the past two weeks, is now convalescent.

Mr. W. J. Thomson is sufficiently recovered from his recent illness to be able to attend to business again.

Mr. Ernest Bullen, of Chicago, arrived here yesterday. The dangerous illness of his wife is the cause of his visit.

Mrs. J. E. Thomson, Winnipeg, left for home this morning after a few weeks visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Price.

Rev. Dr. Gardiner and wife, of this city, have gone to Uxbridge to be present on Tuesday next at the marriage of a grand-niece.

William Clazie, the young man who was injured by a horse some time ago, has almost entirely recovered from the injuries received.

Mrs. Harry Hutchison and Miss Margaret Ryan, of Montreal, are visiting Miss Robertson, Rear street, on their way home from the Pan-American.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

CURED MR. J. BEECHINOR, OF SHILOH, ONT., OF RHEUMATISM AND SCIATICA.

IT MATTERS NOT HOW SERIOUS YOUR TROUBLES ARE, THE GREAT COMPOUND WILL PERMANENTLY CURE YOU.

Autumn months bring rapid weather changes disastrous to all who suffer from rheumatism. Pains and tortures increase seven-fold, and death reaps his harvest from the ranks of rheumatism as this season.

If you are a sufferer from any form of rheumatism, cast aside the medicines that you have too long experimented with and test the virtues of Paine's Celery Compound, that great specific for rheumatism that has worked such marvellous cures in all parts of our Dominion. Mr. Beechinor, permanently cured after five years of suffering, urges the afflicted to use the remedy that saved his life. He says:

"For five years I suffered from sciatica and rheumatism, at times being so bad that I could not walk or put my hand to my mouth. If I attempted to do any work I would be crippled for weeks. I took medical treatment, patent medicines, Turkish and mineral baths, but all failed to meet my case. I tried Paine's Celery Compound, and after using six bottles I feel like a new man, and can do a hard day's work and feel none the worse for it. I have also gained in weight, and can truly say I am permanently cured."

AN INTERNAL REMEDY.

A Pleasant Tasting Tablet; Simple, Convenient; Cures Every Form of Catarrh.

The use of inhalers, douches, sprays, salves and powders for catarrh is a nuisance and inconvenience at the best, and cannot compare with antiseptic remedies in tablet form for internal use.

Internal remedies are the only ones which can really reach the seat of the disease which is in the blood and local applications can no more cure catarrh than rheumatism or kidney trouble, the excessive secretion in nose and throat being local manifestations of a deep seated poison in the blood.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the most successful of the various internal remedies, is composed principally of highly concentrated antiseptics, which destroy the catarrh germs in the blood and cause them to be eliminated through the natural channels.

Progressive physicians use and advise Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because they contain no cocaine, no opiate, no enervating drug whatever, but are composed of Guaiacol, Hydrastin, Red Gum and similar catarrh antiseptics, and are so safe and pleasant that even little children may use them with excellent results.

Catarrh sufferers who have wasted time and money on local applications should not despair of a radical cure until a trial of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets has been made.

A complete treatment may be purchased at any drug store for fifty cents.

STORMY LIFE NEARLY OVER

EDWARD S. STOKES, SLAYER OF "JIM" FISK, IS AT DEATH'S DOOR.

New York, Oct. 18.—At the age of 60, Edward S. Stokes is dying of old age. His life has been one of the most remarkable and strenuous of any passed in New York. In his 60 years he has lived more than a century.

Mr. Stokes is barely able to recognize his nearest relatives and friends, and now in pain and semi-consciousness, is ending the career of the man who killed Jim Fisk, and whose sensational threats against Jay Gould and the other Erie Railroad managers were a world-wide topic of discussion 30 years ago.

Stokes is best known to the present generation as the proprietor of the Hoffman House, his interest in which he sold out to Grahams Polly, of Brooklyn, for $200,000.

ALL DEALERS

Quick & Robertson's
For Fine Clothes.

There's no use disputing the fact that this store stands pre-eminent in this city as the store for Men's Fine Clothes.

With our large and pleasing varieties, up to date style, and good making we've won the trade of every man, and especially the trade of those men who are particular about the Clothes they wear.

And why shouldn't we? You can't find a store that has, ready made, such exclusive styles in suitings and overcoatings as we are showing, and every one of them is from the best Canadian and English mills.

Then, too, every garment is built to come up to our high standard—built by the best makers who know how and do give close attention to important parts of tailoring—such as adjusting the collars, shaping the shoulders, proper placing the sleeves and stays and making the button holes

Clothes made this way never lose their shape and by so doing we have overcome that appearance which marks clothes as being ready-made.

The prices for such goodness you'd expect to be high—but they are not—are no more than you would pay for ordinary suits elsewhere.

BUSINESS SUITS—$5, $6.50, $8, $10, $12.
FALL OVERCOATS—$3.90, $5, $7.50, $8.50, $10, $12, $15,
CUTAWAY SUITS—$7, $8, $9, $10, $12, $13.

Civic Committees Meet

POLES ON FRONT STREET — ACCOUNTS PASSED — DISCUSSION RE RETURN OF TAX ROLLS.

The various Civic Committees met last evening, and considerable business was transacted. All the members of the Council were in attendance with the exception of Ald. La Roche.

PUBLIC WORKS.

Ald. Harris, chairman, presided over this Committee. The following accounts were passed:

Pay Sheet No. 20	$442 66
W. P. Clarke	12 48
C. P. Holton	11 52
R. Templeton	24 00
Duckworth & Brough	2 00
Marsh & Henthorne	62 50
Mac Machine Co.	16 97
Rathbun Co.	319 42
J. Lewis Co.	28 50
J. Lewis Co. (cement)	2,515 93

The City Surveyor was instructed to make some necessary repairs to sidewalks.

FIRE, WATER AND LIGHT.

Ald. McFee, chairman, presided over this Committee. The accounts presented and passed were:

W. McGie	$2 50
W. P. Clarke	2 00

Poles on Front Street.

The question of placing poles on Front street between the Market square and the upper bridge, by the Trenton Electric & Water Company, caused considerable discussion as to what material they should be. The Clerk read a number of letters which he had received from other cities as to which were preferable, metallic or wooden poles. The Committee recommended that metallic poles be placed on Front street, in accordance with the contract.

PARKS.

Ald. Bogart, chairman, presided. The only business transacted was the passing of the following accounts:

W. H. Beatty	$ 50
E. McGrath	17 50
J. W. Walker	3 72
C. Herring	3 50
W. W. Chown & Co.	3 10
W. P. Clarke	6 60

MARKET AND CITY PROPERTY.

This Committee was presided over by Ald. Punter, chairman. The accounts passed were:

J. Weir	$35 00
D. Gallagher	3 90
J. Weir, contingent	1 40

The question of a new furnace for the City Building was brought up. The chairman stated that it would not be necessary to procure a new furnace this year as the old one had been placed in a first-class condition by Mr. L. Soule.

EXECUTIVE.

Ald. Doyle, chairman presided over this Committee. The accounts recommended to be paid by the other Committees were endorsed and an additional account of the C.P.R. Telegraph Co., for 93 cents, was ordered to be paid.

The Committee recommended that the Solicitor be requested to write to the Provincial Government asking for an Order-in-Council granting a re-adjustment of the matter of the Administration of Justice account between the City and the County of Hastings.

A lengthy discussion took place in reference to the tax collection and the position the Collector finds himself placed. The only definite action taken in reference to the matter was that the Collector was instructed to go on and make the collections as he is doing.

The Committees then adjourned.

SASKATCHEWAN BUFFALO ROBES.

These robes closely resemble the genuine Buffalo. With ordinary care they will last from 10 to 20 years and fully longer than goat robes. They are lined with a very superior class of material and both the outside and inside is made without seams, so that there is no chance of ripping. Then again, they are all interlined with rubber, making them windproof and waterproof. The prices, $7 and $8, according to size. Come and see them.—Oak Hall.

Explosion of a Lamp

A hanging lamp exploded last evening about 7.30 at the residence of Mrs. J. T. Warrington, Bridge street, but fortunately the blaze was extinguished before much damage was done. Some curtains destroyed and the woodwork about a window scorched was the result of the damage. The Fire Brigade were called out, but their services were not required.

GRACE, STYLE AND FINISH.

You will find that in Grace, Style and Finish, Quick & Robertson's will compare with the productions of the best class of merchant tailors at prices a third to a half less. Each garment is designed with a view to its shape. It will stay in shape on the wearer. No undue drag on the yielding parts of the garment, each pocket is stayed, collars are properly cut, sleeves and shoulders have the right "set." Design without good cloths is wasted. Every garment is properly and honestly lined with good linings. No shoddy cloths are used.

Rolling Mills To Start Again

SYNDICATE, HEADED BY A MONTREAL GENTLEMAN, MAY TAKE OVER THE WORKS.

For some time past negotiations have been quietly proceeding for the reopening of the Rolling Mills, and it will be good news for our citizens that there is every likelihood of a successful termination.

The parties who will operate the mills, should things turn out satisfactorily, are headed by a Mr. Pike, of Montreal, who seems to be at the head of the syndicate, and who is the only one who has so far been in direct communication with the civic authorities.

The present position of affairs is this: The Trust and Loan Company, of Toronto, who have first claim on the works, have given an option to the parties spoken of, who are to make a deposit of $10,000 and show to the satisfaction of the above Company that they can command capital to the extent of $100,000. So far the negotiations have been most satisfactory, and it is expected that Messrs. Pike et al. will secure the lease from the Trust and Loan Company. In that case they will enter into the same arrangements with the city as formerly were enjoyed by the Abbott-Mitchell Company.

The matter will, no doubt, be brought before the Council on Monday night next. Everybody will hope that the matter will be satisfactorily arranged and the Mills once more start work.

POOR GIRL, PITY HER.

Growing! Yes, into weakness, but not strength. Studies — plenty of them. Tired, of course she is, and weak too. Does not eat enough, and digests far less than enough. This condition is so frequent, but how seldom noticed even by fond parents. Give her Ferrozone, then watch her appetite improve, her cheeks and lips grow ruddy, her step elastic, her spirits buoyant. All this simply the result of eating and digesting enough, making blood, and thereby strengthening the nerve and brain power. Ferrozone gives a woman's strength to weak girls. Your daughter or wife needs Ferrozone. Get it to-day. Price 50c. at McKeown's.

NEW ELECTRIC RAILWAY.

BETWEEN TORONTO AND BROCKVILLE—SURVEYORS AT WORK.

Smith's Falls World: Our readers will be interested to learn that this morning surveyors were in town laying out a route for a proposed new electric railway between Toronto and Brockville. The new line will also extend to Ottawa and Cornwall. It is proposed that the new line will shorten the distance between Toronto and Kingston by 35 miles. The company is asking no bonuses or exemptions, and as soon as the survey is completed application will be made for a charter and work on the road commenced at once. The surveyors drove all the way from Toronto here accompanied by Mr. Carson, of Kingston.

HOW ONE MILLION IS SPENT.

Not less than one million dollars is annually spent by people seeking an absolute cure for Catarrh, Bronchitis and Consumption. Numerous are the remedies, but the one standing pre-eminently above all others is Catarrhozone. It cures these diseases because it is sure to reach them. Catarrhozone is inhaled into the lungs, throat and nasal passages, and bathes every part of the diseased membrane with its germ-killing, healing vapour. You simply breathe Catarrhozone and it cures. Price 25c. and $1 at druggists, or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

THE STOCK DISAPPEARED

PECULIAR CASE OUT ON THE FRONT OF THURLOW.

A peculiar case comes to light on the Front of Thurlow. It appears that Messrs. Gay, two brothers who for a time conducted a dairy in the vicinity mentioned, some two miles east of the city, became involved in their affairs and made an assignment. They had a large number of cattle, pigs, etc., and three men were placed in charge to watch the stock. In spite of their supposed vigilance, ten cows, five pigs and a number of articles were missing off the place when the sale took place on Wednesday last. Where the animals went to is not known and the creditors are making every effort to find out.

The Market

The market to-day was but an ordinary one. Considerable farm produce was offered for sale and prices were good, being as follows: Butter, 23c. to 25c.; eggs, 14c. to 16c.; chickens, 35c. to 70c.; ducks, 65c. to 90c.; wild ducks, 50c. per pair; potatoes, 40c. to 50c. per bag, and apples, 40c. to 50c. per bushel.

Local Legal.

Single Court—Before Meredith, C. J.
Toronto, Oct. 18.

Mullett v. Swetman.—J. H. Moss, for defendants, appealed from orders of Local Master at Belleville setting aside notice of trial, and striking out paragraph 5 (a) statement of defence respectively. H. L. Drayton, for plaintiff, contra. Reserved.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The first object in life with the Canadian people is to "get rich;" the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health), by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well known August Flower will relieve you at once. Regular size, 75 cents. You can get Dr. G.G. Green's reliable remedies at R. Templeton & Co's.

Picked Up On Front Street

SOME THINGS A NEWSPAPER MAN SAW AND HEARD ON OUR PRINCIPAL THOROUGHFARE THIS MORNING.

Front street on Saturday is a busy thoroughfare, as everybody knows, and a newspaper man, who started out for a walk on it this morning found to-day no exception to the rule. The wonder was that people, being so busy, found time to talk, but they did.

Mr. Diamond's Letter.

The first party the newspaper man bumped up against was a gentleman greatly interested in the street cars.

"Have you had anything in reference to Mr. Diamond's letter yet?" he asked.

"Not a word," said the scribe.

"I was very glad to see that letter in print," he went on, "but I want to tell you right here that I am not in favor of The Intelligencer's suggestion that the City buy the road, and I'll tell you why. It would be muddled, like everything else the City Council handles."

"Come, come," said the newspaper man, "isn't that rather too sweeping a statement?"

"Perhaps you may think so," said the emphatic tax-payer, "but that's my opinion. No, sir, I don't believe the City should take that road if they could get it for nothing."

Business is Slack.

"How do you find business?" was asked a gentleman who caters to the public a good deal.

"Frightfully slow since that Toronto trip," he said. "Most of my patrons seem to have taken their money up to Toronto and blown it in. If money is as short everywhere as it is in Belleville just now it will take the country some time to recover from the effects of the Royal visit."

The Oil Men.

Meeting Mr. F. S. Wallbridge, The Intelligencer asked if he had heard from Mr. Rosenzi, who is at present in Toledo. It was learned that the expert borer who had been engaged had backed out at the last minute, but Mr. Rosenzi expected to engage another at once and be in Belleville early next week, when boring will at once begin.

A Horse Car Story.

A small group were talking, and the newspaper man stopped to listen.

"No, sir," said one, "we don't want any more horse cars in Belleville."

"They'd be better than nothing," said another.

"Possibly," said the first fellow, "but very little."

"Every time I hear horse cars mentioned," said another gentleman, "I think of the little old sentry boxes on wheels which used to adorn Front St., and it reminds me of an incident I saw down by the Harbor Master's office. The car had just come from the station and had some passengers aboard. The horse was evidently thirsty, for all of a sudden it drew the car off the track, passengers and all and deliberately went down and plunged into the water, where it stayed till it had drank its fill. The ladies screamed and the driver sawed the horse's jaws, but it was after a drink, and got it."

A Municipal Reformer.

"How is municipal reform getting on?" said the newspaper man to a well-known property-holder.

"Swimmingly," was the reply.

"When are you going to have a meeting?" he was asked.

"I don't think there is any use of having a public meeting," said the other. "My idea is that the property-holders should agree on a ticket and then quietly work to have that ticket elected. You know as well as I do that nobody wants to get up in public and state his objections to any man or men. I think the thing can better be managed quietly. We want to try and get the best men in the city in the Council next year, and the quicker a start is made the better."

The Water Commissioners.

The newspaper man was walking off when the property-holder called him back.

"I was just thinking," he said that it is none too soon to begin to think about our Water Commissioners for next year, as well as the Aldermen. It is to be hoped the gentlemen who take office on the Board next year will, if they want a salary, tell the people so before they allow themselves to be elected."

A Clothesline Scandal.

"Did you hear about the clothesline sensation?" said a fellow who gives the papers lots of "tips."

"What was that?" said the scribe.

"A supposedly respectable man was caught at his neighbor's clothesline one night this week," said the other.

"His name?" said the scribe, eagerly.

"You'd faint if I told you," said the other, and not another word would he say.

The Steam Roller.

"I see the upper bridge has been replanked," said a west side taxpayer to the newspaper man. "Why don't they take the planks that are left and build a shed over the steam roller?"

And the scribe promptly gave it up.

Death of a Young Man

Irvine Tweedy, aged 20 years, died last evening at the residence of his mother, Mrs. John Tweedy, 3rd concession of Thurlow. Deceased had been ailing for some time, being a victim of lung trouble. The young man was a nephew of Mr. Alex. Ray, of this city. The blow is a severe one to Mrs. Tweedy, who, within four years, has lost her husband and three sons. The sympathy of the community will go out to her in this new affliction which she has been called upon to bear.

Consumptive People

Can Secure Renewed Health and Strength.

The Rich, Red Blood Made by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Gives New Strength to Every Nerve, Fibre and Organ of the Body.

From the Budget, Shelburne, N.S.

Among the young ladies of Shelburne, there is none to-day, who more fully bears the impress of perfect health than Miss Lilian Durfee. Unfortunately this was not always the case, as a few years ago Miss Durfee became ill, and her friends feared that she was going into decline. A doctor was called in and prescribed, but his medicines did not have the desired effect. Her strength gradually left her, her appetite failed, she had frequent headaches, was very pale, and finally grew so weak that a walk of a few rods would completely fatigue her. The young lady's family sorrowfully observed that she was steadily failing, and feared that consumption would claim her as a victim. One day a friend urged that she should give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial, but the idea at first was not favorably entertained; it seemed hopeless to expect that any medicine would help her after the doctor's treatment had failed. However, this good friend still urged, and finally prevailed. By the time the third box was used, there was an unmistakable improvement in Miss Durfee's condition. Cheered by this, the pills were continued, and in the course of a few weeks the former invalid, whose strength was taxed by the slightest exertion, was almost restored to health. The use of the pills was still continued, and a few weeks more found Miss Durfee again enjoying perfect health.

To a reporter who interviewed her, she said;—"I believe that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life, and I earnestly recommend them to all who fear that consumption has laid its grasp upon them."

That the facts related above are not in any way exaggerated, is born out by the following statement from Robt. G. Irwin, Esq., the well-known stipendiary magistrate for the municipality, who says;—"I distinctly remember the pale face of Miss Lillian Durfee and the regrets of friends as they expressed their conviction that she would soon be compelled to say farewell to earth. Miss Durfee, however, carries the unmistakable credentials of good health, and frequently expresses her indebtedness to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Pale and anaemic girls, or young people with consumptive tendencies, will find renewed health and bodily vigor through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills are an unfailing cure for all diseases due to a watery condition of the blood, or shattered nerves. Sold by all dealers in medicine or sent post paid on receipt of 50c. a box, or $2.50 for six boxes, by addressing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

ESTIMABLE LADY DEAD

MRS. J. FRITH JEFFERS PASSED TO HER REWARD LAST NIGHT.

Many were the expressions of regret heard to-day when it became known that Mrs. J. Frith Jeffers had passed away. She had been seriously ill for some time and her demise was anticipated. At 10.30 last night she expired. Deceased, whose maiden name was Mary Adelaide Ketcheson, was a daughter of Mr. Elias C. Ketcheson, of the first concession of Sidney, where she was born 52 years ago. Some 29 years ago she was united in marriage to Mr. J. Frith Jeffers, during which period they have resided in Picton, Peterboro, London, Toronto and this city, coming here four years ago. Mrs. Jeffers was in every sense of the word a true Christian lady, having been for many years a member of the Methodist Church. A husband, but no family, survive. To Mr. Jeffers will be extended the sincere sympathy of a large circle of relatives and friends.

AMUSEMENTS.

"A Home Spun Heart" was presented to a small audience at the opera house last night. It is a melodrama of the rural farm life order, with many thrilling incidents throughout the play.

THE PAIN OF SORE FEET.

Just about the most tantalizing of all pains comes from sore feet. To get relief bathe the feet in warm water and then rub them with Polson's Nerviline. It penetrates through the pores of the skin, takes out the soreness, reduces swellings, invigorates the tired muscles, tones up the circulation and prevents the feet from becoming sore again. Nerviline is a protection and safe-guard against the pains and aches of the entire family and cures rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, &c. 25 cents.

A POSEY.

The following incident is reported from one of the public schools in the poorer section of Boston;

"Say, teacher, here's a tuberose I brought you," said a smudged face youngster the other day.

And beaming her thanks, she asked him where he got it.

"Oh, say, dat was easy," he replied. "I got it off'n a dead lady."

DEATHS.

JEFFERS.—At her residence, corner Bridge and Charles streets, on Friday, 18th October, Mary Adelaide, wife of Mr. J. Frith Jeffers.

To Those of Sedentary Occupation.—Men who follow sedentary occupations, which deprive them of fresh air and exercise, are more prone to disorders of the liver and kidneys than those who lead active, outdoor lives. The former will find in Parmelee's Vegetable Pills a restorative without question the most efficacious on the market. They are easily procurable, easily taken, act expeditiously, and they are surprisingly cheap considering their excellence.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

The deliveries of live stock at the cattle market to-day were large, 75 car loads all told, composed of 807 cattle, 1937 hogs, 1527 sheep and lambs, with about 50 calves.

The quality of fat cattle offered to-day was about the same as has been coming during the forepart of the week, generally not good. Good cattle are scarce, especially choice butchers', and these command good prices, while the common grades were, if anything, easier in price.

PHYSICAL EXHAUSTION

Brought This Woman Near to Death's Door—Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Made Her Feel Healthy and Young Again.

There is cause for rejoicing among women on account of the marvellous assistance given to them at the trying times of life by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. By instilling into the blood that vital principle which goes to create new nerve force, this celebrated food cure, gives energy and vitality to every organ of the body, and ensures strength and regularity to the peculiarly feminine organism.

This portion of the anatomy is a mass of nerves, and health and regularity depend almost entirely on the condition of the nerves. For this reason Dr. Chase's Nerve Food proves of incalculable value to women from maidenhood to that time of life when change comes to the feminine functions.

Mrs. Charles Keeling, sen., Owen Sound, Ont., writes:—"It is a pleasure to tell what benefit I have derived from Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I am 55 years of age, and for about five years my life was one of great suffering from nervousness, weakness and extreme physical exhaustion. I could not sleep, and hot flushes would pass through my body from feet to head. I consulted many family physicians and two other doctors, but they told me that about my time of life I was likely to be troubled that way. I continually grew worse, and despaired of ever being cured. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food came to my notice, and as we have Dr. Chase's Receipt Book, I have confidence in the doctor. I was so surprised at the help I received from the first box that I bought three more. They built me right up and made me feel healthy and young again. They have proved a great blessing to me, and I hope this testimonial will be of help to some weak, nervous woman suffering as I did."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, by Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

FAREWELL TO ST. JOHN.

The New Brunswick City Give Their Royal Highnesses a Rousing Send-Off—Halifax To-Day.

St. John, N. B., Oct. 19.—The royal visitors were farewelled yesterday at noon as enthusiastically as they were welcomed the day before. The royal train left at 12.36. There was a dense throng of people about when Their Royal Highnesses drove to the depot. There were farewells to the Lieut.-Governor, Mayor, Consul-General Blount of Boston and others, and the royal train drew out on its way to Halifax while the cheers of thousands went up. The royal couple stood on the rear of their car and bowed their acknowledgment of what was a magnificant ovation.

Halifax, Oct. 19.—The royal train arrived at Amherst about schedule time, and the Duke and Duchess were given a most enthusiastic greeting by the immense concourse of people who assembled from far and near. The royal pair alighted on a profusely decorated platform and were presented to the Mayor and town councillors, while the Amherst band played the National Anthem.

The Governor-General's train reached Windsor, 14 miles from this city, at 10.45, and the royal train 30 minutes later. They will remain there for the night. The first train will reach Halifax at 9.30 a. m., and the second one at 10 o'clock.

Forest Man Was Killed.

Birmingham, Mich., Oct. 19.—East and westbound freight trains on the D.G.H. and M. Railroad came together head-on on the curve near Maple Orchard, five miles west of this place at 5 o'clock yesterday morning. Three men, who were riding in the first car on the westbound train, were caught in the wreck and crushed to death. They were R. Moffatt, engineer; H. Luce, fireman; Otto Nuerenberg, brakeman. Moffatt has been in the employ of the road 13 years. He was 32 years old, and belonged to Forest, Ont.

French Miners Are Armed.

Paris, Oct. 19.—The reply of Premier Waldeck-Rousseau to the Secretary of the Miners' Federation, regarding the Government's intentions towards their demands, is not considered very satisfactory to the men, whose committee will meet Sunday and resolve whether to strike or not on Nov. 1. Ten thousand Gras rifles, from which the rifling has been removed in order to avoid their seizure as military weapons, are now in the hands of the miners. The Government will seize these weapons immediately on the declaration of a strike.

Major Fowlds Dead.

Hastings, Ont., Oct. 19.—Major H. W. Fowlds, 40th Battalion, died at his residence in Hastings, Ont., on the 17th inst. of peritonitis. He will be buried with military honors Monday, 21st inst., at 3 p. m.

Square Men, But—

In the mountains of Berks county, Pa., where Dutch shrewdness matches Dutch thrift, the proprietor of a hotel was bargaining for a supply of chickens.

"Now, look here, Fred," said the hotel man familiarly to the farmer, "don't you feed them chickens before you bring 'em here, and don't you let 'em get wet."

"All right, Charlie," said the farmer, "but I don't want to see 'em go hungry."

"That's all right, Fred, but I ain't a-payin' 12 cents a pound for corn, and I ain't a-buyin' water at the same rate."

"All right, Charlie, and I'll bring my scales along."

"No need of that, Fred. I've got good scales here."

They parted, and I asked the hotel man just what he meant.

"Oh, Fred's all right," he said. "He's one of the squarest men alive, but all the same I ain't a-payin' live weight for chickens stuffed full of wet corn and with wet feathers. But don't misunderstand me. Fred's a square man."

I walked down to Fred's farm. He was jolly and smiling. "Charlie's a fine fellow," he said, "one of the squarest men in the county, but I'm goin' to take them scales, all the same."

Too Particular.

A business man who had eaten a meal at a restaurant where he frequently took his midday luncheon walked up to the cashier and said:

"I find I haven't a cent of change about me today. If you will kindly let me owe for this until I come in again, which will certainly be in a day or two, I will square up then."

The cashier was not a good judge of human nature, or was under the influence of momentary irritation, for she replied:

"We don't run any accounts at this shop. If you haven't anything to pay with, you can leave something with us as security."

"I didn't say I hadn't any money," the customer rejoined. "I said I had no change. Please take the amount of my check out of this."

And he took a fifty dollar bill out of his pocketbook and handed it to the astonished cashier.

"It will be better to pay it now perhaps," he added, "than to leave something as security, for you will not be likely to see me here again."

Then picking up his change, which comprised about all the money the cashier could find in the establishment, he bowed and walked out.

Before and After.

"Before I was married I used to accuse my fiancee of smiling so often in order to show her pretty teeth."

"And after marriage?"

"I soon found out that she could show her teeth without smiling."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

THE INVALID'S DELICATE STOMACH ALWAYS TOLERATES

Malt Breakfast Food

The great virtues of Malt Breakfast Food, as well as its tonic and corrective influence on the organs of digestion, are well known to physicians and those interested in pure food products.

Invalids and dyspeptics who cannot tolerate oatmeal and other grain foods, find that Malt Breakfast Food is relished and easily retained on the weak stomach. The invalid is pleased to note after a few meals of Malt Breakfast Food that every function of the system is energized and invigorated. Malt Breakfast Food stands unequalled as a builder and strengthener for the weak and run down. Many of Canada's ablest medical men are now regularly prescribing Malt Breakfast Food for invalids and convalescents. It is the only breakfast food that produces muscle, tissue and solid flesh. Your Grocer will recommend it.

Painful.

A little story comes from way back concerning Forrest, the tragedian.

It was during his last appearance played at Niblo's. At the time he was suffering untold torture from the gout. A sort of runway had to be constructed from the stage to the dressing room, for he was quite unable to step up or down stairs.

The performance had been "Coriolanus," and Forrest was petulant from pain and tired with his work. He stumbled against the runway, causing such a twinge in his toe as to make him cry out with the pain.

A young actor standing by unfortunately addressed the tragedian at the wrong time, saying:

"Dear me, Mr. Forrest, that must have been exceedingly painful."

"Not half so painful as your acting," was the crusty response.

He Saw Double.

Mr. Lushleigh came up the stairway with his shoes in his hand and his hat hanging precariously upon one ear, singing "We won't go home till morning" with wondrous disregard for pronunciation and melody. Mrs. Lushleigh met him with a cold stare and exclaimed:

"Well! To see you in such a condition! William Henry Lushleigh, I am beside myself with indignation!"

"Thash ri'," agreed Mr. Lushleigh, moodily watching the bureau as it waltzed about him, "thash ri'; you're beshide y'shelf. I c'n see you right there beshide y'shelf. Glad you tol' me. Was beginnin' to think I'sh a bigmisht."

The Stomach's Hard Lot.

Sixty per cent of canned vegetables have been found to contain food preservatives, and of thirteen popular brands of extract of lemon not one contained any oil of lemon, and most of them were colored with aniline dyes. Alas for the American stomach! What shall be done to preserve that?—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

A Perfect Boy.

"I never heard of but one perfect boy," said Johnny pensively as he sat in the corner doing penance.

"And who was that?" asked mamma.

"Papa—when he was little," was the answer, and silence reigned for the space of five minutes.

INSURES LOVE AND A HAPPY HOME.

L. W. KNAPP, M.D.

How any man may quickly cure himself after years of suffering from sexual weakness, lost vitality, night losses varicocele, etc., and enlarge small weak organs to full size and vigor. Simply send your name and address to Dr. L. W. Knapp, 1781 Hull Bldg., Detroit, Mich., and he will gladly send the free receipt with full directions so that any man may easily cure himself at home. This is certainly a most generous offer and the following extracts taken from his daily mail show what men think of his generosity.

"Dear Sir:—Please accept my sincere thanks for yours of recent date. I have given your treatment a thorough test and the benefit has been extraordinary. It has completely braced me up. I am just as vigorous as when a boy and you cannot realize how happy I am."

"Dear Sir:—Your method worked beautifully. Results were exactly what I needed. Strength and vigor have completely returned and enlargement is entirely satisfactory."

"Dear Sir:—Yours was received and I had no trouble in making use of the receipt as directed, and can truthfully say it is a boon to weak men. I am greatly improved in size, strength and vigor."

All correspondence is strictly confidential, mailed in plain sealed envelope. The receipt is free for the asking and he wants every man to have it.

BIG FIRE AT SYDNEY, N. S.

Large and Flourishing Mercantile Establishments Burned.

Worst Conflagration Nova Scotia Has Seen Since Windsor Was Wiped Out—Began With Oil Stove Explosion—Loss Estimated at $300,000—Much of the Business Part of the City Destroyed.

Sydney, N.S., Oct. 20.—Chaos reigns in Sydney to-night. Where large and flourishing mercantile establishments stood yesterday there is now nothing but smouldering ruins. Tall chimneys, charred brick walls and smoking debris tell the story of the greatest conflagration in the history of Sydney. The scene to-night is in striking contrast to the scene of last Sunday night, for there are very few stores standing, and those that are are enveloped in darkness. Disorder and confusion reign, and hundreds of citizens, drenched to the skin from the downpour of rain, jostle and knock one another about in their mad desire to gaze on the scene of devastation.

An Oil Stove Overturns.

Citizens and firemen all fought vigorously to stay the progress of the flames. Shortly before 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the alarm was sounded, and it was not long before the citizens of Sydney realized that the greatest conflagration in the history of the town was about to launch forth in all its fury, and all on account of the overturning of an oil stove in the large furniture store of Gordon & Keith, on the western side of Charlotte-street, which was being used for melting glue.

Leaped Across Street.

A strong northeast wind was blowing, and the flames soon leaped across the street to buildings occupied by H. Balls & Co., butchers; Chappell & Warren, bakers and confectioners, and Isaac Greenwell. A few doors north of the last-named store stood the brick three-storey department store of Prowse Bros. & Crowell, and the flames spread with lightning rapidity to it, and it was soon a mass of flames, and nearly the whole of the Prowse stock was consumed. The blaze shot across the street to Burns' corner, also down Prince-street, toward Bentinck-street.

In less than an hour the whole east side of Charlotte-street, from Prince William to Pitt, was in flames. The next street east of Charlotte is Bentinck, and a number of cottages on the west side of this street proved ready victims of the fire; and their sparks ignited a number of houses on the east side of the street.

Beyond Their Power.

But, while the firemen were successful in some quarters, they were unable to cope with the sea of flames in other sections. It was a task beyond the power of human skill. Three blocks on Charlotte-street, two blocks on Prince, one on Pitt, three on Bentinck and one on George were all ablaze at one time, and the spectacle was gruesome. It was then that the firemen worked with might and main. Eight thousand feet of hose were out, which included 900 feet belonging to Glace Bay, 1000 feet belonging to North Sydney, and 1000 feet belonging to the Steel Company. The local firemen had the assistance of the brigades also from the above-mentioned places. Besides this, Mr. J. H. Means, superintendent of the blast furnaces, with 30 negroes from the furnaces, rendered good service.

Dynamite Used.

Mr. J. F. Wieschusin, architect of the Steel Company, secured a large quantity of dynamite, and, with the assistance of some employes of the works, used it to good effect. For three hours the fire burned with great fury along the above-mentioned streets, and it was thought that the whole of the town would be destroyed. But shortly before 6 o'clock the conflagration seemed to centre around the corner of Pitt and Charlotte-streets, and every effort was made to keep it there. It was then quite dark, and myriads of sparks floating about in the air formed a fascination to the gruesome. Several nearby buildings were ignited, but in every case the firemen were on hand and saved them. At length it became apparent that the worst fire Nova Scotia has seen since Windsor was wiped out was under control. Vacant lots at the corner of George and Prince-streets prevented the spread of the flames in that direction. The City Hall and the Baptist Church, both on Bentinck-street, narrowly escaped.

List of Victims.

The following were burned out:

On Charlotte-street—Gordon & Keith, furniture; A. R. Carr, jewelry; A. D. Gillis, groceries; Blanchard, Bentley & Co., drygoods; A. Hagel, bakery; F. Falconer, harness; James Shaw, confectionery; A. D. Ingraham, grocery; John Menzies, jewelry; H. Balls & Co., butchers; Prowse Bros. & Crowell, department store; Isaac Greenwell, stoves and tinware; Chappel & Warren, bakery; John McLellan, residence; Maritime Premium Company, clothing; M. Bates, painter; McDonald, Hanrahan & Co., drygoods; S. Bruce & Son, druggists; Dr. Rice, Dr. A. D. McGillivary; J. E. Pattillo, stationery; Union Bank of Halifax; A. McQuarrie, fruits; H. A. Johns, Dr. Forbes; T. Pistone, hotel; W. Reynolds' Clothing Co.; Mrs. Beaton, millinery; Kelly & Dodie, photographers; Neil Ferguson, tailor; Mills, McKenzie & Ross, drygoods; R. Curry, jewelry; C. P. Moore, hardware; Stanfield & McLeod, books and stationery.

On Bentinck-street—O. E. Weeks, harness store and residence; J. P. Conway & Co., hotel; F. A. Crowell, residence; John McKinnon, two residences; A. McQuarrie, residence and barn; C. W. Hill, residence; McNeil & Mrs. D. Matheson, residence; McNeil & Gough, meat market; Sutherland, residence; Captain Florian, two houses.

On Prince-street—Charles Sullivan, tinsmith; Joy, restaurant; Ball, undertaker; Allan & Reid, victualers; John McLean, residence; Colin McKinnon, forge.

On Pitt-street—McNeil & Gough, meat market; Dick, restaurant, and Tobin, residence.

On George-street—Falconer's carriage warehouse; Mrs. McNeil, residence, and Mrs. McGinnis, residence. The majority of people burned out will rebuild. A. D. Ingraham states that he will commence at once the erection of a brick building, and Prowse Bros. and Crowell will probably do likewise.

Insurance Loss $200,000.

At present only the roughest estimates as to both the total loss and the total amount of insurance carried can be made. The total loss will reach $300,000, of which about $200,000 is covered by insurance.

J. E. Burchell represents the British America, the Canadian, The Imperial, The Liverpool, London and Globe, The Phoenix of London, the Queen, the Sun, the Union, the National and the Western. He says the loss of these ten companies will be about $60,000 to $70,000, fairly evenly divided between them, except that the National had comparatively few risks.

The companies represented by A. M. Crofton, the secretary of the Board of Trade, with their approximate losses are, The Royal, $6000; the Phoenix of Hartford, $6000; the Hartford, $8000; the Caledonian, $6000.

Property Insured.

On the whole nearly all the property destroyed carried fair insurance. Prowse Bros., the large drygoods establishment, had $43,000 on their stock, $8500 on the building. Unfortunately for the drygoods merchants burnt out, they all had their full stock of fall and winter goods.

Other insurances at present known are: McDonald, Hanrahan & Co., $6000; Bates' Block, $6000; Maritime Premium Co., $8000; Gordon & Keith, $10,000; A. D. Gillies, $4000; Blanchard, Bentley & Co., $10,500; A. Hagel, $3000; W. Falconer & Son, $3000; Aradia House, $20,000; C. P. Moore Block, $13,000; Reynolds Co., $8000; Pattillo's book store, $2300.

A great deal of assistance was received from outside.

Third Attempt at Suicide.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 21.—Robert Nichols, grocery clerk, attempted suicide by cutting his throat from ear to ear. Disappointment in love was the cause. This is the third time he has made the attempt. When he went to his room to commit the rash act his sister followed him, but was too late to prevent the attempt.

Will Not Travel on Sunday.

Philadelphia, Oct. 21.—The North American's London cable says King Edward has stunned society by placing the ban on Sunday entertainments of every sort. The news came out as a result of his declining to leave Scotland for London on Sunday. It is said he will not encourage Sunday dinner parties at restaurants or other diversions.

MISS DOTY STILL MISSING.

Oakville Girl Was Last Seen on Train Near Sarnia.

Detroit, Oct. 21.—Rev. W. E. Kerr of Amherstburg has failed to locate his sister-in-law, Miss Laura Doty, who mysteriously disappeared Monday night on her way home to Oakville, Ont. Mr. Kerr successfully traced the girl by Grand Trunk conductors until the train passed Sarnia. The conductor running between Sarnia and Hamilton said he remembered her, as she asked him when he took up her ticket, if the train stopped at Oakville that night. Mr. Kerr returned to Amherstburg last night and wired the young girl's relatives in Toronto and Hamilton. They replied that they had heard nothing of her. This morning Mr. Kerr set out again to search for her between Sarnia and Hamilton. She is said to be a pretty girl, and her mother is wealthy.

Part Of Face Shot Off.

Lanark, Oct. 21.—Saturday evening L. Jackson and George Fair, two young boys from Watson's Corners, seven miles from here, went out partridge hunting. They became separated in the bush, and Jackson returned home alone. A search was at once instituted for young Fair, who was only 13 years of age, and kept up all night, but not until about 4 o'clock Sunday evening was the body found, cold in death, part of his face having been shot off. The supposition is that the gun was discharged in some unaccountable manner. Deceased was the youngest son of Mr. George Fair, sr., Watson's Corners.

A Life-Saver Dead.

Detroit, Oct. 21.—Capt. James G. O'Neil, well known among the vessel men of Detroit for the past 30 years, died at midnight Friday night at his residence in Windsor. Capt. O'Neil was born on Bois Blanc Island, 52 years ago. In early years he was marine reporter for several of the Detroit newspapers. In this capacity he made a remarkable record in life saving. It is said that he saved over 25 persons from drowning during his experience on the Detroit River.

Two Men Drowned.

Cross Village, Mich., Oct. 21.—Two men in charge of the famous Skilligalee lighthouse, at the entrance to the Straits of Mackinac, were drowned early yesterday by the upsetting of a boat used at the lighthouse to reach the mainland. The men are named Bourisseau and Grubben. Grubben's body was recovered, but that of Bourisseau is still at the bottom of the lake.

Landslide in Barbadoes.

Kingston, Jamaica, Oct. 21.—Mail advices from Barbadoes give particulars of a landslide covering five hundred acres of land, in the district of Boscobel. Nearly a hundred houses were destroyed, and the island's best plantations were ruined. The district was devastated. The Governor has started a relief fund.

An Island of Phosphates.

London, Oct. 21.—"The British cruiser Pylades reports," says a despatch to The Daily Mail from Sydney, N. S. W., "that she has annexed an ocean island west of the Gilbert Island. The island, which has hitherto been a British protectorate, is rich in phosphates.

Police Saved Her Life.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Oct. 21.—Mrs. Edson Taylor made no attempt to go over the Falls yesterday, she having been notified by Chief Dinan of the Niagara Falls, N.Y., police that if she attempted to do so in the city limits she would be promptly arrested.

Disaster in England.

Heywood, Eng., Oct. 21.—The roof of the Nayden colliery here fell yesterday, entombing several of the miners. Two dead bodies have been recovered.

Finances in Bad Shape.

Washington, Oct. 21.—The State Department has been informed by Mr. U. S. Hill at Amsterdam, under date of Sept. 23, that the project of draining the Zuider Zee and adding new fertile land to the kingdom of the Netherlands, has been withdrawn from the State's Genera by the new ministry. The matter thus has been disposed of, probably for a long period. Mr. Hill says that the state of the Dutch budget renders such an undertaking at this time inadvisable, and, moreover, the fall in the price of land has diminished the demand for new agricultural holdings.

Duke Leaves Canada To-day

Visit to St. John's, Newfoundland, May be Cut Out.

Big Fire at Sydney, N. S.—Large Mercantile Establishments Burned—War News—De Wet May be Dead—Oakville Girl Still Missing—Commercial Travellers' Tax to be Abolished.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 21.—The royal party yesterday spent its last day in Canada. In the morning Their Royal Highnesses were expected to attend divine service at St. Paul's Anglican Church, but the Governor-General and the Countess were the only prominent members of the royal party that attended. An immense congregation had gathered in the expectation of seeing the royal couple.

The Bishop of Nova Scotia, Rev. Dr. Courtney, preached a sermon in which he said that the belief in the divine right of kings was dead, and he thanked God that such was the case. Robert Burns, he contended, was the man whom he considered had done more than any other in his generation to establish the equality of mankind.

In the evening there was a dinner at Admiralty House, which the Duke and Duchess attended. The warships were illuminated this evening and presented a very pretty picture.

The royal couple leave for St. John's, Newfoundland, at 11 o'clock to-day by the Ophir. It was announced yesterday that if any foggy weather comes up after the departure of the Ophir from Halifax the royal party will cancel their engagements at St. John's, Newfoundland.

Sunday afternoon, Premier and Lady Laurier and Lieutenant-Governor and Lady Jones lunched on the Ophir with Their Excellencies. Her Royal Highness presented Lady Laurier with a handsome silver snuffbox, on the top of which is a crown made of diamonds.

Photos of Their Royal Highnesses, with their autographs, were presented to the other visitors. To-night, the Duke and Duchess attended a dinner at the Admiralty House.

The Ophir will leave at 9.30 in the morning, and the ships of the fleet will accompany her as far as Sambro. Besides the Diadem and Niobe, the Crescent and another warship will accompany the Ophir to Newfoundland.

The Duchess on Saturday evening, expressed to Lieut.-Governor Jones, her regret at leaving, and her unbounded admiration for Canada, which, she said, was the best place they had seen. She said she would like very much to spend six months in Canada.

Saturday at Halifax.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 21.—The biggest crowd ever seen in this city assembled Saturday to greet the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York. The train arrived at 10 o'clock. The royal party were met by Admiral Bedford, Gov. Jones and other dignitaries, while the forts and ships fired salutes of 21 guns. Addresses were presented from the City of Halifax, the City of Charlottetown and various bodies.

This over, the Duke and Duchess, seated in the state coach, which has accompanied them throughout the trip, started off in what was called the royal procession. The streets were lined on both sides with soldiers, standing ten feet apart. All traffic was ordered suspended. Thousands of persons were packed solidly behind the soldiers, and craned their necks to catch a glimpse of the passing show. At the Parliament House a stop was made, while the Duke presided at the laying of the cornerstone of a memorial to the soldiers who fell in South Africa. The Monument Fund was raised by popular subscription, and is said to be the first erected in this way in the British Empire.

The Duke of Cornwall's arrival at the Common, where the review of 10,000 soldiers, with the Naval Brigade, took place, was marked by a royal salute of 21 guns, fired from the citadel. Thirty thousand persons lined the ropes and cheered when the future King appeared. The post of honor was given to the Naval Brigade, and, nearly 5,000 strong, the tars made a fine showing. The regiments marched past in quarter column, saluting the Duke, who was surrounded by a brilliant suite. After the review, medals were presented to South African veterans. Then came the presentation of colors to the 66th Princess Louise Fusiliers, one of the city militia regiments. After a religious service, the Duke made a brief address. He alluded to the fact, which he said was pleasant to him, that the regiment was called after his dear aunt, who still cherished lively recollections of the pleasant years she spent in Canada.

At night a state dinner took place at Government House, and the city and fleet were illuminated.

DUKE'S FAREWELL WORD.

Impressed With the Heartiness and Cordiality of the Reception Throughout the Dominion.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 21.—The following farewell address to the citizens of Canada was issued late last night by the Duke of York:

H.M.S. Ophir, at Halifax, Nova Scotia, Oct. 19, 1901.

Dear Lord Minto,—Before leaving Canada I am anxious to make known thru you with what regret the Duchess and I bid farewell to a people who, by their warm-heartedness and cordiality, have made us feel at home amongst them from the first moment of our arrival on their shores.

I should like particularly to express our gratitude for the generous feeling which has prompted all classes to contribute towards that hearty and affectionate welcome which we have met with. This has been strikingly shown, not only in the demeanor of the crowds, and the general manifestations of rejoicing with which we have been greeted, but also by the trouble and ingenuity displayed in the illuminations and street decorations carried out with such conspicuous taste and success by private persons, as well as by the government and local authorities.

We are greatly touched to find in the smallest and most remote places thru which we passed what great efforts had been made by the inhabitants to manifest their kindly feelings towards us.

I recognize all this as a proof of the strong personal loyalty to the throne, as well as a declaration of the deep-seated devotion on the part of the people of Canada to that unity of the Empire of which the Crown is the symbol.

We wish to record our sincere thanks to the Dominion government, the Provincial authorities, the municipal bodies and private individuals, for their generous hospitality, their kind forethought and the extreme care and trouble they have bestowed upon all the arrangements for the reception and accommodation of ourselves and our staff. I feel that we are specially indebted to Mr. Pope, by whom so much of the detail was ably dealt with.

Wherever we have been the police duties were admirably carried out. We wish to express our special obligation to the Commissioner of the Dominion Police and other police officials for the excellent manner in which they have discharged the important responsibilities devolving upon them.

Short as, unfortunately, our stay in Canada had to be, it was sufficient for us to understand something of its boundless possibilities, and the scope which it affords to those who, with a spirit of enterprise, determination and willingness to work, desire to seek a wider, less crowded and richer field than that offered by the congested industries and professions of the Mother Country.

I trust that these possibilities may be taken advantage of in the future, and that suitable emigrants from the Mother Country may come in large numbers. At Calgary, we witnessed a large and representative gathering of Indians. Then and on other occasions addresses were presented from different tribes. I was glad to hear of the progress they have made and the contentment in which they live under the arrangements made for their benefit by the Dominion government.

One of the most important features of our visit was the enormous distance traversed by rail, and we feel a difficulty in adequately thanking the Dominion government for all that was organized and most effectually carried out for our railway journeys. The train built especially for the occasion by the Canadian Pacific Railway was a marvel of convenience and comfort, and nothing seems to have been forgotten which might tend to reduce the fatigue inseparable from such a long journey. Special facilities were afforded to enable us to see the most striking points of interest in the vast regions of magnificent scenery thru which we passed, while we received every possible attention and consideration from the officials and servants of the company.

To the authorities of the Grand Trunk and Intercolonial Railways also our special thanks are due for all trouble and consideration which they devoted to providing for the part of our journey which lay over their lines, and for the efficiency and success with which all the services were performed.

We hope that the public did not suffer on account of the special arrangements made for our traveling, which, perhaps, necessitated some interference with the general traffic.

I am especially anxious to record my appreciation of that splendid force, the Northwest Mounted Police. I had the pleasure of inspecting a portion of the corps at Calgary, and was much struck with the smart appearance of both men and horses, and with their general steadiness on parade. They furnished escorts thruout our stay in Canada, frequently horsed our carriages and found the transport, all of which duties were performed with ready willingness and in a highly creditable manner.

The reviews which were held at Quebec, Toronto and Halifax enabled me to judge of the military capacity of the Dominion and of the splendid material at its disposal. Many of the corps showed smartness and soldier-like bearing. I was glad to find that a field hospital organization has recently been provided, as well as a company of engineers.

I was much interested in our visit to the Royal Military College at Kingston to see what excellent provision the Dominion government has made available for the preliminary military education of its militia officers.

Every country now recognizes the necessity of securing the greatest possible military efficiency in return for its outlay on defence, and that the material at hand should not be sacrificed for the lack of adequate training and leading, which can best be insured by a fully qualified staff. I was delighted to have the opportunity of presenting a large number of medals to officers and men for services in South Africa, and it was most gratifying to see with what enthusiasm they were welcomed by their fellow citizens.

It was a great pleasure to us to be accompanied thruout our tour by the distinguished Prime Minister of the Dominion. As this must have been done at a great personal inconvenience we are all the more grateful to Sir Wilfrid Laurier for his valuable help and companionship.

And finally to Lady Minto and yourself we wish to express our most sincere thanks for the unfailing kindness and generous hospitality which we have received as your guests, and also for the great pleasure and valuable assistance that we realized in the presence of either Lady Minto, or both of Your Excellencies, during our long journey. I am further anxious to record my thanks to Major Maude for the efficient manner in which he and the rest of your staff dealt with the exceptionally heavy and anxious work, and overcame the numerous difficulties connected with our tour, and for all that they have done to help me and my own staff.

We wish it had been possible to remain longer in Canada, and by availing ourselves of the many pressing invitations received from different centres, to become acquainted more intimately with its various districts and their people, but we have seen enough to carry away imperishable memories of affectionate and loyal hearts, frank and independent natures, prosperous and progressive communities, boundless productive territories, glorious scenery, stupendous works of nature, a people and a country proud of its membership of the Empire, and in which the Empire finds one of its brightest offspring.

Our hearts are full at saying farewell. We feel that we have made many friends in all parts of the Dominion, and that we owe and gladly extend to its people our sincere friendship and good wishes. May the affectionate regard which all races and classes have so generally shown ever knit together the peoples of Canada and strengthen the existing tie that unites the Empire.

Believe me, dear Lord Minto, very sincerely yours,

(Signed) GEORGE.

Kruger Receives Report of a Rebellion in Cape Colony.

Boer's Work of the Past Three Months—Russian Intervention in South Africa Discredited in Brussels—Kitchener's Objective Point—General Dewet Again Reported Dead—Burghers Take Oath of Allegiance.

London, Oct. 21.—(Tribune cable.)—The capture of Gen. Botha is now Lord Kitchener's chief objective point. The despatches are most confusing, representing him one day as heading northward, and the next as doubling back southward. The natural explanation is that, after his retirement to Wakkerstroom, he learned that the British columns were pressing upon him from various directions, and broke up his force into small bands, which are moving north, south and west. The British pursuit of Botha's transport has been unsuccessful, and, while a large force has been concentrated in the Wakkerstroom District, the prospect of making a large capture of Botha's men is unpromising. Diversions in other districts for the relief of Botha have been looked for, but there is no definite information. De la Rey and Kemp have crossed the Vaal into the Orange River Colony for this object, but no British reverse has been reported. Dewet and Steyn are not mentioned in any despatches. The Boer bands in Cape Colony are acting independently, and with increasing audacity, for they have been perilously near Cape Town, but they seem incapable of serious fighting, and exhaust their resources in looting. No reprisals for the drastic British methods of dealing with treason in Cape Colony have been reported. The change of policy was well-timed, since the Boers are apparently unable to take prisoners.

Armed 15,000 Afrikanders.

London, Oct. 21.—"Mr. Kruger has received a report from Mr. Schalkburger that the greater part of Cape Colony is in open rebellion," says a despatch to The Daily Mail from Brussels, "and that the Boers have armed 15,000 Afrikanders within the last three months."

Referring to the movements of Prof. F. De Maartens of the University of St. Petersburg, who is also a member of the Russian Privy Council, the Brussel's correspondent of The Standard denies that he has any mission from the Russian Government bearing upon the South African situation, and asserts that Boer circles in Brussels discredit the possibility of Russian intervention.

De Wet May Be Dead.

Durban, Natal, Oct. 20.—General Dewet's recent inactivity has produced the impression among military men that he is either dead or incapacitated through illness or wounds. According to a letter from Pretoria, a prominent Boer recently wrote to a friend there, relating the terrible hardships suffered by the Boers in the field, especially from lack of surgeons. "Dewet, for example," wrote the Boer, "suffered the most terrible agony before he died. He was wounded in the shoulder by a splinter from a shell, and the wound gangrened, owing to its being dressed with dirty rags."

Five Boers captured at different places recently said that Dewet was dead, but each gave a different version of his death. Against these reports is the statement of Piet de Villiers, the field cornet recently taken prisoner in the northeastern part of the Orange River Colony, who said that, on the morning of his capture, he took breakfast with General Dewet.

Burghers Take Oath of Allegiance.

Bloemfontein, Oct. 20.—One hundred and twenty-five Orange Free State burghers in the Kroonstad, Harrismith, Durban and Thabanchu districts have recently taken the oath of allegiance to Great Britain.

Two Canadians Killed.

Pretoria, Oct. 20.—A force of Canadian scouts surprised a Boer laager near Balmoral.

The Boers fled after a short fight.

The Canadians had two men killed and an officer and two men wounded.

Boer Lawyers in London.

London, Oct. 21.—Many persons were surprised to find that Dr. Krause, the former Governor of Johannesburg, who was arrested here on the charge of treason, was a member of the English bar. As a matter of fact, however, there are so many men who were formerly subjects of the Transvaal Republic, and the Orange River Free State who are now seeking to practice at the English bar that their claims are to be considered shortly by the Joint Discipline Committee of the Four Inns of Court. The committee will have to determine whether the legal status of some of the applicants is that of an alien, an alien enemy, a rebel, a traitor or a British subject.

Rhodes and Beit Sick.

London, Oct. 21.—Rumors that Cecil Rhodes was in a serious condition caused a heavy slump in Rhodesian securities this week. He has arrived with Dr. Jameson and Alfred Beit at Salso Maggiore, Italy, where he proposes to stay six weeks. Alfred Beit is out of health, and owing to the pressing attentions of aristocratic matchmaking mothers has caused it to be made known that he can never marry.

Tug's Crew Drowned.

Detroit, Oct. 21.—The tug Christian, supposed to be from Toledo, Ohio, with a crew of five men, in command of Capt. Harlow, was run down and cut in two by the steamer J. J. Albright, Saturday night, at the upper end of Grosse Isle, which is about nine miles below the city. The five on the tug were drowned. Capt. Harlow is supposed to be one of them. The names of the others have not yet been learned.

Many Seriously Injured.

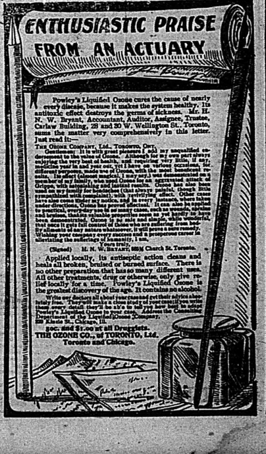
Macon, Ga., Oct. 21.—A freight train collided with a passenger train on the Southwestern Saturday afternoon at Wise, Ga., and ten of the crew and passengers from Montgomery and elsewhere along the line were seriously injured. Those seriously hurt are: Mrs. Georgia Smith and three children of Smithville, Postal Clerk Albert Stanton of Atlanta, Ga.; Ben Epperson, baggagemaster; Nash Everett, a negro fireman on passenger train; Wallace Scoville, engineer on passenger train; Sam Knowles, express messenger; Munroe Barnes, a negro porter; Fred Hill, colored, Atlanta.

Fool Killer Has Vanished.

Niagara Falls, Oct. 21.—Peter Nissen nearly lost his life in his strange little craft "The Fool Killer" on Thursday, and now the craft is nowhere to be found. He went out into the whirlpool to take soundings, and was knocked about in the eddy for over seven hours, having entirely lost control of his craft. When an opportunity presented itself he abandoned the boat and jumped to shore, falling in shallow water and climbing up on the rocks. He was almost exhausted. Friday Nissen went down to the pool in search of "The Fool Killer," but it had disappeared.

Foundered Off Long Point.

Buffalo, Oct. 21.—It was learned Saturday night that a vessel foundered in Lake Erie off Long Point in the 50-mile gale that swept over the lake Friday night and this morning. The captain of the steamer Donnacona, which arrived at Port Colborne this afternoon, brought the first news of the disaster. He reported having passed through the wreckage of what was evidently a two-masted vessel, with a single smokestack. Large quantities of lumber, ties and shingles were floating about. A tug put out from Port Colborne to investigate, and has not yet returned.



ENTHUSIASTIC PRAISE FROM AN ACTUARY

Powley's Liquified Ozone cures the cause of nearly every disease, because it makes the system healthy. Its antitoxic effect destroys the germs of sickness. Mr. H. N. W. Bryant, Accountant, Auditor, Assignee, Trustee, Carlaw Building, 28 and 30 W. Wellington St., Toronto, sums the matter very comprehensively in this letter. Just read it:—

The Ozone Company, Ltd., Toronto, Ont.

Gentlemen: It is with great pleasure I add my unqualified endorsement to the value of Ozone. Although for my own part always enjoying the very best of health, and requiring very little, if any, medicine year in and year out, yet I have on various occasions, for different purposes, made use of Ozone, with the most beneficent results. Its effect (almost magical, I may say,) was demonstrated on a member of my family, who used Ozone for an aggravated attack of Grippe, with astonishing and instant results. Ozone has also been used on my family for headaches (that always painful, though little sympathized with complaint), with revivifying effect. Other cases have also come under my notice, and in every instance, where taken under directions, Ozone has proved effectual. It can also be applied to practical, every-day use in so many cases, such as wounds, sprains and bruises, that its valuable properties seem as yet hardly to have been demonstrated. Ozone is so safe and simple, while wonderful, that once it gets full control of those who are suffering from bodily ailments of any nature whatsoever, it will prove a sure remedy. Wishing your company every success and a prosperous career in alleviating the sufferings of humanity, I am,

Yours truly,
(Signed) H. N. W. Bryant, 565½ Church St. Toronto.

Applied locally, its antiseptic action cleans and heals all broken, bruised or burned surface. There is no other preparation that has so many different uses. All other treatments, drug or otherwise, only give relief locally for a time. Powley's Liquified Ozone is the greatest discovery of the age. It contains no alcohol.

Write our doctors all about your case and get their advice absolutely free. They will make a close study of your case; if you write them every detail they'll be able to tell you how best to adapt Powley's Liquified Ozone to your case. Address the Consulting Department of the Liquified Ozone Company, 229 Kinzie St., Chicago, Ill.

BLOOD POISON
If you ever contracted any blood disease you are never safe unless the virus or poison has been eradicated from the system. At times you see alarming symptoms, but live in hopes no serious results will follow. Have you any of the following symptoms? Sore Throat, Ulcers on the Tongue or in the Mouth, Hair Falling Out, Aching Pains, Itchiness of the Skin, Sores or Blotches on the Body, Eyes Red and Smart, Dyspeptic Stomach, Sexual Weakness—indications of the second stage. Don't trust to luck. Don't ruin your system with the old fogy treatment—mercury and potash—which only suppress the symptoms for a time, only to break out again, when happy in domestic life. Don't let quacks experiment on you. Our New Method Treatment is guaranteed to cure you. Our guarantees are backed by bank bonds, that the disease will never return. Thousands of patients have been already cured by our New Method Treatment for over twenty years. No experiment, no risk—not a "patch-up," but a positive cure. The worst cases solicited. We treat and cure Nervous Debility, Sexual Weakness, Gleet, Blood Poison, Stricture, Varicocele, Kidney and Bladder Diseases, and all diseases peculiar to men and women.

How They Did It in Stratford

(Woodstock Express.)

The visit of the Royal party to Stratford was a regular windfall to the local papers. It afforded the editorial writers the opportunity they were looking for, and the way they are enjoying it is delightful to see. The Beacon and the Herald have massed their batteries for the present, and they are raking the unfortunate City Council with what the war writers call a withering fire. The whole affair of the reception, it appears, was woefully mismanaged. The Aldermen are accused of having thought of nobody but themselves, and judging by the exhibition they made, they must have thought but little even of themselves. The Mayor, when he was presented to the Duke, said, "How do you do, Your Honor?" And one of the Aldermen informed His Royal Highness that he had "met his dad forty-one years ago." Not only that, but the Aldermen, after they had been presented, turned their backs upon Royalty and walked away. Where, oh! where, was Major Maude? No platform was prepared, and the Duke very properly refused to get down into the mud, and in almost every conceivable way, if we are to judge from the local papers, the affair was mismanaged. The editors are very properly scandalized; but they have themselves partly to blame. Why did they not open a school of instruction for the Mayor and Aldermen, and have them posted in the way they should conduct themselves? As for the Royal party, we doubt not that they enjoyed it immensely. It was such an abrupt departure from what they had been accustomed to.

TENDENCY OF CATARRH IS TO SPREAD.

Just a slight matter at first, but because slight, neglected; but the seed sown brings forth a dangerous harvest, Consumption, which is the harvest of death. Better spend a few moments each day inhaling Catarrhozone, an aromatic antiseptic that relieves at once, clears the nasal passages and restores lost sense of taste and smell. Daily Intelligencer.

STRATTON — ANARCHY — WHITNEY.

The Hon. James Stratton, a member of the Ontario Government, is now, what is familiarly termed, "stumping" Ontario, in defence of the Government of which he is a member. He, in addition to being a Grit, ingenious in his way, and like his leader the Hon. George Washington Ross, a copyist, and can appropriate another's idea as readily and as unblushingly as did his leader, who took the poetical effusion of another and palmed it off as his own.

The Tammany rings in the United States are telling the people that the exposers of wrong doing of peculators and corruptionists who figure in the various "rake-offs" are anarchists; and that such exposures led to the murder of President McKinley. This idea was at once seized upon by the Hon. James Stratton and utilized by him in a speech delivered in Cornwall a few days ago. After denouncing the shooting of the late President he exclaimed:

> "Canada was fortunately, as yet, free from the spirit of Anarchism, but it was just such violent and untruthful utterances as those directed by Mr. Whitney against 'those in authority' which had deservedly brought yellow journalism into discredit with all right-minded people."

Mr. Stratton is now smarting under the exposure of an attempt made by a few of his friends, consisting of his typewriter, foreman in his printing office, and others, near relatives and hangers-on, to secure in Peterboro a lease of a water-power from the Dominion Government for which the said Government had refused $4 per horse power and subsequently leased or promised to lease the same power to the Stratton syndicate for 60 cents per horse power.

The exposure of this "rake-off," as might be expected, has raised the ire of the Honorable gentleman to such a pitch as to lead him to denounce Mr. Whitney as an Anarchist, and as a contemporary pertinently puts it, the people "must not know the truth or they will all turn Anarchists." The same journal continues:

> "It is a curious and interesting fact that the machine in Pennsylvania—a thieving, corrupt, and ballot-stuffing organization, an agency for the grabbing of charters, and for the sale of franchises to corporations—used two weeks ago precisely the same argument as that Mr. Stratton has employed. Seizing upon Czolgosz, just as Mr. Stratton does, it defended all the rogues from criticism on the ground that if 'those in authority' were exposed Anarchy would be the result. 'No language,' said the Philadelphia Record in reply, 'is too severe for Czolgosz and men of his type. But it is to be borne in mind that the assassin who undertakes to murder the Republic by killing one man in seventy-five millions of men is a bungler by comparison with the scoundrels who seek to assassinate free government by corrupting the ballot-box. Our laws do not adequately provide for the punishment of the Anarchists, who, with knife and bullet seek the lives of their victims, nor for the punishment of those craftier Anarchists who seek to strike at the life of the nation by poisoning the source of authority.'"

TIMELY TOPICS.

The fact that there is good reason to hope for the reopening of the Rolling Mills, which news was published exclusively by The Intelligencer on Saturday evening, has caused the spirits of many people in this vicinity to rise. It is still persistently stated by some people that Messrs. Mackenzie & Mann are interested in the matter, but that is something which only time will tell. However, Belleville people won't worry much who runs the mills so long as they start again and the people in charge carry out the conditions, which, it is confidently asserted, there is good reason to hope for.

Tests, it is reported, have been made of the sugar beets grown by Mormons of Southern Alberta, and it is said that the proportion of saccharine matter is 25 per cent. higher than in the beets grown in the vicinity of Salt Lake City. Capitalists from Utah are considering the erection of a sugar beet factory in the Canadian colony. If this be true Canadian capitalists should take hold of the enterprise and not leave the profits of such an industry to go into the pockets of foreigners.

A "special organizer" from Boston, who has been over in New York State trying to work up a strike among wood-workers, has been arrested as a public nuisance. That is as it should be, and may the punishment fit the offence. This is the kind of treatment that should have been meted out to that fellow Wilson, who came to Canada from the U.S., and lived like a fighting cock for months, out of the earnings of the workingmen.

The Church Times, organ of the ritualists, contains an attack on King Edward for attending the services at the Crathie Presbyterian Parish Church. The King, declares this newspaper, is a "Catholic prince," and as such ought not to be found worshipping in the capital of the Presbyterians and conforming to a "different religion" in Scotland. Queen Victoria, continues the Church Times, attended the Crathie Church because of her "Jacobite sympathies," and the King "ought to know better than to follow her example."

These ritualistic bigots should try and remember that we are not living in the time of James the Second, and that the King is as much the head of the Presbyterian Church as he is of the Church of England. This kind of intolerance might be tolerated coming from a Roman Catholic organ but not from a pretended Protestant one.

Writing from Brandon, a party who saw something of the doings of the Duke's shooting party gives some interesting particulars. He says: "It was an immense success. There was not a hitch of any kind, and I hear that the Duke told his host that he had enjoyed every moment from the time he left the platform till he set his foot on it again. He (the Duke) shot very well, indeed, as he ought to have done, being one of the best shots in England. But some of the others were very bad. We got a bag of 600 ducks, but if the rest of the party had shot decently we might have killed 1000.

"The Duke complained very bitterly that during the thirty-five days he has been in Canada they had kept him unceasingly with his nose to the grindstone, and had done all they could to beat him out of this shooting trip, which was the one bright spot he had looked forward to.

"I hear from private sources that the Duke's host had to provide, altogether, shooting for fourteen guns—no small undertaking. Four were placed at Qu'Appelle Lakes, where they got 234 ducks; eight at the main camp, and two snipe shooting with a friend near Winnipeg. It must have been quite an undertaking to handle such a large party at such intervals without any sort of a hitch, especially as it was not a part of the Government programme and they did all in their power to prevent it.

SEASONABLE HINTS.

GUARD YOUR HEALTH IN FALL AND EARLY WINTER.

A change from warm to cold is always attended with more danger than from a cold to a warm temperature, hence the greater mortality from lung and throat diseases at this season of the year as compared with spring.

The best protection against colds is not so much in extra clothing as in good digestion.

If the digestion and circulation are good, colds will be unknown.

Poor digestion causes poor circulation of the blood and when in this condition severe colds are contracted on the slightest provocation.

People who make a regular practice of taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals are free from colds, simply because their digestion is perfect, the heart strong and regular, and the whole system fortified against disease.

It requires little argument to convince anyone that the best safeguard against colds, pneumonia and changes of temperature is a good stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after meals are dissolved and mingling with the food cause it to be promptly digested and assimilated; they do this because they contain nothing but harmless digestive elements, which digest meat, eggs and other food even when the stomach itself is weak and flaccid.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets make people well and keep them well, and the best habit you can acquire is to keep daily use of them at meals to make the digestive organs strong and vigorous.

The Duke's host had to bear all the expense himself, and rumor says it cost him fully $3,000. But the fact that it was the only private hospitality the Duke accepted while in Canada must be very gratifying."

* * *

The above bears out what we said at first—"If the Duke had had his own way he'd have put in a few days fishing on the Bay of Quinte.

THIS FITS MANY PLACES.

(Brockville Times.)

The apathy of the ratepayers is responsible chiefly for the municipal muddling which curses many towns and cities in Canada. It is so in Brockville. There is any quantity of talk and very little action when the times comes to elect better men to office. It is almost idle for a newspaper to advocate reform, criticise muddling administration or protest against extravagance if the ratepayers are too indifferent or too steeped in party politics to support it by intelligent action. If sensible municipal management is desired the ratepayers will have to act as well as talk. Otherwise the municipality will go deeper and deeper into the hole.

The guns which fired the Royal salute to the Duke shook Halifax, and the Duke will shake it himself to-day.

It is safe to say that Major Maude will throw at least fifteen fits when he sees the following paragraph from the New York Dramatic Mirror:

"Smith O'Brien's Company, in The Game Keeper, was the subject of an unusual honor at Ottawa, Can., recently, when the Canadian Pacific Railway extended to them the exclusive use of the private car occupied by the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall during their recent visit to that city. The Company used the car in making the rest of their jumps through Canada."

LAID TO REST.

OBSEQUIES OF THE LATE MRS. J. FRITH JEFFERS THIS AFTERNOON.

The funeral of the late Mrs. J. Frith Jeffers took place this afternoon and was numerously attended. The teachers and students of Belleville Business College attended in a body. The religious services at the home of the deceased were conducted by the Rev. Dr. Crothers, assisted by the Rev. J. H. Locke and Rev. Charles E. McIntyre, of Napanee. The bearers were Messrs. W. R. Aylesworth, R. J. Graham, Wm. Johnson, F. E. O'Flynn, Charles M. Reid and J. A. Tousaw.

Amongst those in attendance from a distance were Mr. Jeffers' sister, Mrs. (Rev. James) Graham, of Toronto; his brother and sister-in-law, Dr. Wellington Jeffers and Mrs. Jeffers, of Lindsay; a nephew, Rev. John W. Graham, Jr., Pastor of Great St. James Methodist Church, Montreal; and the Hon. George A. and Mrs. Cox, Toronto.

The floral tributes from friends in the city and different parts of the province were many and beautiful.

SANTOS-DUMONT DID THE TRICK

SAILED AROUND THE EIFFEL TOWER, BUT WON'T GET THE PRIZE.

Paris, Oct. 20.—M. Santos-Dumont, the young Brazilian aeronaut, made an ascension in his new dirigible balloon from the Park station of the Aero Club at 2.42 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He doubled the Eiffel tower and returned successfully to St. Cloud in twenty-nine and a half minutes, but the guide rope was not seized immediately, and it took forty and three-fifth seconds more to bring the balloon down.

Consequently a discussion has arisen as to whether M. Santos-Dumont has won the prize of $20,000 offered by M. Henri Deutsch for any aeronaut who could make the trip in thirty minutes. A committee has been appointed to decide the matter. Great crowds of people witnessed the attempt of M. Santos-Dumont, and there was much enthusiasm when he landed. M. Deutsch kissed the young Brazilian, who declared he was ready to make another ascent if the decision of the committee was against him.

Count de Dion approached M. Santos-Dumont and said he had failed to get the prize by forty seconds. M. Dumont replied, "All right. I shall start again now." The crowd opposed this, saying the prize had been fairly won.

It is expected that the committee will still say that it cannot award the prize, since the actual terms and conditions were not fulfilled.

DISHONORABLY DISCHARGED.

ESSEX SOLDIER STOLE MONEY WHILE IN TORONTO.

Windsor, Oct., Oct. 19.—According to regimental orders, issued yesterday, by Lieut.-Col. Guillot, commanding the Twenty-First Essex Regiment, Alexander Barber is dishonorably discharged from the regiment for having committed theft from a comrade, and is struck off the strength of No. 4 Company. Barber is the man who was convicted in the Windsor Police Court of having stolen money from Hugh McDowell, of Walkerville, while the regiment was in Toronto.

INTERCOLONIAL IN DISTRESS.

BIGGEST DEFICIT EVER KNOWN IN RAILWAY'S HISTORY.

Ottawa, Oct. 20.—The deficit on the Intercolonial for the year ending the 30th of June last is the largest in the history of the administration of Government railways in Canada, exceeding one million dollars. It is said that the accountants of the department are engaged in the task of reducing the deficit by the process of charging up to capital account items of expenditure which had been placed to current account, where they properly belong.

The growing expenditure of the Government is taxing the energy of the Minister of Finance to find the requisite funds to pay the bills. In order to tide over the financial difficulty, the Minister has had to obtain a temporary loan in England, amounting to $2,500,000.

PRO-BOER BOURASSA

A SAMPLE OF THE TREASONABLE ROT HE IS INDULGING IN AT MONTREAL.

Montreal, Oct. 20.—Mr. Henri Bourassa, M.P. for Labelle, made a characteristic speech at a meeting held here to-night. The gathering was composed of distinctly pro-Boer sympathizers. Mr. Bourassa was announced to speak on Great Britain and Canada, but the member for Labelle devoted the greater part of his speech to a denunciation of Great Britain for the South African war. Mr. Bourassa said that the war had shown how weak the English army was, and the other nations did not now have any fear of her. Nobody knew what her boasted navy could do as it had never been tried.

Mr. Bourassa also ridiculed Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, who, he said, was responsible for this disastrous war, and also amused himself with the pretensions of the Royal family. Mr. Bourassa also ridiculed the Canadians receiving titles, and said the Canadian constitution should be modified so as to prevent Canadians from receiving Imperial honors. Mr. Bourassa also said he was in favor of maintaining Canada's connections with Great Britain, as Canadians were not yet worthy of independence, and annexation to the United States would mean the death of the French race. Mr. Bourassa's sentiments were applauded.

A GENTLE HINT.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Regular size, 75 cts. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at E. Templeton & Co's.

Quick & Robertson's
For Fine Clothes.

There's no use disputing the fact that this store stands pre-eminent in this city as the store for Men's Fine Clothes.

With our large and pleasing varieties, up-to-date style, and good making we've won the trade of every man, and especially the trade of those men who are particular about the Clothes they wear.

And why shouldn't we? You can't find a store that has, ready made, such exclusive styles in suitings and overcoatings as we are showing, and every one of them is from the best Canadian and English mills.

Then, too, every garment is built to come up to our high standard—built by the best makers who know how and do give close attention to important parts of tailoring—such as adjusting the collars, shaping the shoulders, proper placing the sleeves and stays and making the button holes.

Clothes made this way never lose their shape and by so doing we have overcome that appearance which marks clothes as being ready-made.

The prices for such goodness you'd expect to be high—but they are not—are no more than you would pay for ordinary sorts elsewhere.

BUSINESS SUITS—$5, $6.50, $8, $10, $12.
FALL OVERCOATS—$3.90, $5, $7.50, $8.50, $10, $12, $15.

At the City Council meeting this evening a number of important matters will be discussed.

The Ambulance was called out on Sunday morning to take a young man to the hospital who was suffering from fever.

No less than three business places on Front street were found insecure at an early hour on Sunday morning by the police.

A despatch from Washington states that an original pension of $6 per month has been granted by the U.S. Government to John Van Norman, of Belleville, Ontario.

A rough and tumble fight occurred for a few minutes on Campbell street on Saturday evening, but no person was seriously hurt.

A fine large dog, belonging to Mr. Hardy, residing on Holloway street, was found dead this morning on the premises. It was run over a few days ago which it is thought caused its death.

Japan tea drinkers, we would advise you to give "SALADA" Ceylon GREEN Tea a trial. It is as far ahead of Japan tea as "SALADA" black is ahead of all other black teas.

The Bible Society

At a meeting of the local Branch of the Bible Society, held in the Y.M.C.A. parlor on Friday afternoon, it was decided to hold the annual meeting on Wednesday evening, 30th inst. The Rev. D. A. Thompson, of Hastings, is to speak on the "Trials and Triumphs of the Bible." It was noted with deep regret that since the last meeting the Hon. President, Mr. W. Reeves, and Mr. J. Forin, a member of the Executive have been called to the "Home above."

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

In the absence of Mr. T. J. Wilkie, one of the Provincial Secretaries of the Y.M.C.A., who was expected to speak at our meeting yesterday, his place was filled by the General Secretary.

All present enjoyed hearing the phonograph selections.

Last week some needed improvements were made in the gymnasium, enlarging the floor space for class work and basketball. Other improvements are contemplated.

To-morrow, at 8 p.m. our gymnasium class meets for organization. All members desiring to enter the same kindly remember the time and be on hand to meet Mr. Elliott.

ORGAN RECITAL

PLEASING PROGRAMME FURNISHED BY MRS. MacCOLL AND TWO OF HER PUPILS ON SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

The organ recital given in the Tabernacle on Saturday afternoon by Mrs. (Dr.) MacColl, assisted by Mr. Frank W. Robinson, violin, and Mr. James P. Pratt, vocalist, was a very pleasing affair. Mrs. MacColl showed herself to be an organist of marked ability, and one hardly knows which to admire most, her ability or versatility. Mrs. MacColl had chosen numbers from the works of the greatest composers of organ music, ranging from the majestic, florid music of Batiste and Guirand to the dainty and sprightly movements of Spinney and Lemaigre. All were excellently played, though the latter numbers were given with a freedom and naturalness which was not so much in evidence in the heavier selections. In all her numbers, however, Mrs. MacColl played with sympathy and excellent technique. One would think, after hearing her play, that the organ was her favorite instrument.

Mr. Robinson furnished three numbers to the programme, chosen from Handel, MacKenzie and Braga. He was in fairly good form, and in MacKenzie's Benedictus, played with marked sympathy and beauty of tone. The Handel number was nicely played, but on the whole the young violinist was hardly up to his usual form, and appeared to show the effects of lack of practice.

Mr. Pratt sang two numbers, and his rendition of "The Heavenly Song," by Gray, was a very nice bit of vocalism. With a really excellent method, and a total lack of those absurdities which some people seem to think are necessary to a public singer, Mr. Pratt always leaves a good impression on any audience which listens to him. His second number, "The Plains of Peace," was not quite so pleasing as the first, being marred slightly by rather heavy accompaniment.

Taken altogether, it was a very pleasant hour and a half which Mrs. MacColl furnished to her admirers on Saturday afternoon.

TO HELP ST. JAMES'

PROMINENT METHODISTS TAKE STEPS TO AID MONTREAL'S DEBT - BURDENED CHURCH.

At the last meeting of the Bay of Quinte Conference a Committee was appointed to take such steps as it deemed best regarding further financial assistance to St. James' Methodist Church, Montreal.

The first meeting of this Committee was held in Bridge St. Church on last Saturday afternoon, all the members being present, viz.: Rev. A. C. Wilson, President of the Conference; Rev. T. M. Campbell, ex-President; Rev. Dr. Crothers, ex-President; Rev. S. T. Bartlett, Secretary; and Messrs. E. D. O'Flynn, of Madoc, and Wm. Johnson, of this city. The Rev. Dr. Williams, pastor of St. James' church, Montreal, was also present.

The Rev. Dr. Williams presented the present financial position of the church, after which a resolution was unanimously passed expressing confidence in the management of the affairs of that church and hoping that the efforts now being made would result in the liquidation of the debt.

HOW TO GET UP AN APPETITE.

Distaste for food often follows Grippe and fevers, and is associated with a general weakness of the system. To impart a real zest for food, and give power to the stomach to digest and assimilate, no remedy can equal Ferrozone. This is a new and startling discovery. It strikes at the root of disease, and by removing the cause, cures quickly and permanently. Ferrozone will quickly enable you to eat and digest anything. Mr. McKeown, druggist can tell you a great deal more about Ferrozone, how it cures and why it cures. Call to-day and see him. Price 50c.

YESTERDAY IN THE CHURCHES

John Street.

Anniversary services were held in this church yesterday, and sermons appropriate to the occasion were preached by Rev. Professor Ross, of Queen's University, Kingston. Large congregations were present at both services, and the discourses delivered were instructive and inspiring. In the evening the Rev. gentleman took for his text the 5th verse of the 24th chapter of St. Luke:

"And as they were afraid and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them; Why seek ye the living among the dead?"

At both services the choir rendered special music, Mrs. Jas. Grant singing solos.

Bleecker Street.

Both services yesterday were conducted by the Pastor, Rev. J. M. Bates. The text in the morning was from Acts, 1st chapter and 8th verse:

"But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you; and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth."

The subject discussed was "The Moral Standard of Greatness," and was ably presented by the speaker.

Emmanuel Reformed Episcopal.

The Rector, Rev. W. J. Gilliland, preached at both services yesterday. In the evening his text was taken from the 25th verse of the first chapter of the General Epistle of James:

"But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed."

What was needed to-day in church circles was less sentimentalism and more hard work. The Saviour Himself was not a dreamer, but "a doer of the work." If His Example were followed nowadays Christianity would be better able to fight the world, the flesh and the devil.

St. Andrew's

Rev. M. W. Maclean, pastor, officiated and preached at both services yesterday, and his discourses were most attentively listened to by good congregations. In the evening the subject discussed was "Moses' watchfulness over Jethro's flock," the text being the first three verses of the 3rd chapter of Exodus.

Bridge Street.

There were large congregations present at both services at this place of worship yesterday. The Pastor, Rev. Dr. Crothers, preached two able sermons. In the morning the subject was "Mercy," and the text was the 5th verse of the 85th Psalm;

"Wilt thou be angry with us forever? Wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations?"

At both services Miss M. Wheler sang a solo, which was much appreciated.

Baptist Church.

The Pastor, Rev. O. O. Elliott, occupied the pulpit at both services and addressed good congregations. In the evening the subject was "Keep My Commandments," and the text was the 14th, 21st and 23rd verses of the 14th chapter of St. John.

At the conclusion of the evening service the ordinance of baptism was administered to a young lady.

Tabernacle.

At the morning service the Pastor, Rev. J. H. Locke, preached an excellent sermon, taking for his text the 11th verse of the 5th chapter of 2nd Corinthians;

"Knowing, therefore, the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences."

In the evening Mr. W. T. Wilkie, of Toronto, who is connected with Y.M.C.A. work, gave an admirable address to young people.

St. John's.

The Rector, Rev. D. F. Bogert, officiated and preached at both services yesterday. In the evening the subject was "Keeping from Evil," taken from St. John, 17th chapter, and 15th verse:

"I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from evil."

St. Thomas'.

At this place of worship in the morning the Curate, Rev. Mr. Hoish, assisted, and also preached. In the evening the Rector, Rev. Canon Burke, filled the pulpit. His text was taken from Hebrews, 11th chapter and 4th verse;

"By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts; and by it he being dead yet speaketh."

Christ Church.

The Curate, Rev. W. B. Heeney, preached at both services yesterday. At the morning service Rev. Mr. Fleming, of Shannonville, assisted. Rev. Mr. Heeney in the evening preached from the scripture text found in St. Matthew, 7th chapter, 23rd verse;

"And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you; depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

Holloway Street.

The services at this church yesterday were conducted by the Pastor, Rev. J. R. Real, who preached two excellent sermons. In the evening his discourse was upon the flight of Jonah, the text being a portion of the 3rd verse of the 1st chapter of Jonah;

"And he found a ship going to Tarshish, so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish, from the presence of the Lord."

At the morning service Miss Watson rendered a solo very acceptably, and in the evening Mrs. Real sang.

Has Judge Lazier Been Retired?

PERSISTENT RUMOR THAT THE SENIOR COUNTY COURT JUDGE HAS BEEN SUPERANNUATED.

A rumor has been freely circulated upon the street this afternoon to the effect that a change has been made in the judiciary of Hastings County.

It is stated that Judge Lazier has been placed on the superannuated list, Judge Fraleck promoted to the position of Senior Judge, and Mr. W. J. McCamon appointed Junior Judge.

A number of persons whom it was thought were in a position to verify the rumors were spoken to by The Intelligencer, and in some cases they answered that they had heard such a rumor, but could not state that it was true.

One leading Liberal said he believed it was true, and if the change indicated had not yet been made it soon would be.

THE BOARD OF TRADE

WILL THIS EVENING MAKE A RECOMMENDATION, RE THE STREET RAILWAY, TO THE CITY COUNCIL.

At the recent meeting of the Board of Trade a matter discussed at some length was that of the Street Railway. A Committee composed of the President, Mr. J. G. Frost; Mayor Graham, ex-Mayor Johnson, Dr. Galbraith, O. P. Holton and J. A. Laidlaw was appointed to look into the matter. This Committee met on Saturday evening and drafted a report which was presented at a meeting of the Executive of the Board of Trade held at 4.30 this afternoon. The report as adopted will be presented to the Council this evening.

MARRIED AT ST. MICHAEL'S

NUPTIALS OF MR. JAMES LYNCH AND MISS NELLIE BAWDEN, BOTH OF THIS CITY.

A pretty wedding took place at 7:30 this morning, at St. Michael's church. The bride was Miss Nellie Bawden and the groom Mr. James Lynch, both of this city. Rev. Mgr. Farrelly performed the ceremony. The bridesmaid was Miss May Bawden, sister of the bride, and Mr. Michael Lynch, brother of the groom was best man. After the nuptial knot had been tied the wedding party repaired to the residence of the bride's mother, South Front street, where a dainty wedding breakfast was partaken of. Mr. and Mrs. Lynch will reside in the city.

MR. HUNT TO THE PUBLIC

IS WORKING IN THE PUBLIC INTEREST AND CONFIDENTLY LOOKS FOR SUPPORT.

To The Editor of The Intelligencer;

My Dear Sir,—Will you kindly allow me space in your valuable paper to make a few explanations re the course of Popular Concerts to be given this fall and winter under my management. I have undertaken this course in order that we may have the privilege of bringing to Belleville first-class artists and hear them at moderate prices. This would be impossible if not given in a course and in connection with an entertainment bureau. I have selected the very best travelling organizations so as to give pure, refined and artistic entertainments, such as can be enjoyed by all classes of our citizens. I make no apology in saying that I will manage these concerts and give a course of high-class entertainments that will be both beneficial and enjoyable, and I look for the hearty support of the citizens in this undertaking. Thanking you for your valuable space, I am

Yours very sincerely,
V. P. HUNT.

FIRE ON CANIFTON ROAD.

SUPPOSED TO BE A CASE OF INCENDIARISM.

A small frame barn, belonging to Mr. John O'Neil, who resides on the Canifton road, just north of the railway track, was destroyed by fire shortly before midnight Saturday. Some wood near by, belonging to Mr. P. Milne, was also burned. The Fire Brigade soon reached the place after the alarm was given, and prevented the flames spreading. How the fire originated is not known, but it is supposed to be a case of incendiarism. Mr. O'Neil had an insurance of $75 on the building.

A SICK STOMACH.

UNTOLD MISERY — WHAT A WELL-KNOWN COMMERCIAL TRAVELLER SUFFERED, AND HOW HE WAS CURED.—Gentlemen, About five years ago I began to be troubled with Dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time travelling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine and when the third bottle was finished, I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of Dyspepsia. (Signed), T. S. McINTEE.

For coughs, colds, bronchitis and all lung and throat troubles, there is no preparation of medicine can compare with Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It never fails to afford prompt and permanent relief. It removes all soreness, and heals the diseased parts. It immediately soothes the most troublesome cough, and by promoting expectoration, removes the mucus which stops up the air tubes which causes difficulty in breathing, thereby gives relief to that depressing tightness experienced in the chest. Public speakers and singers will find Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup of inestimable value, as it speedily and effectually allays all irritation, and huskiness in the throat and bronchial tubes, and gives power to the vocal cords, rendering the voice clear and sonorous. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of "Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup," and whenever a child has taken cold, has a cough or hoarseness, give the Syrup according to directions.

A Sure Cure for Headaches. — Bilious headache, to which women are more subject than men, becomes so acute in some subjects that they are utterly prostrated. The stomach refuses food, and there is a constant and distressing effort to free the stomach from bile which has become unduly secreted there. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are a speedy alterative, and in neutralizing the effects of the intruding bile relieves the pressure on the nerves which cause the headache. Try them.

If a few drops are taken in water when the symptoms are noticed no further trouble will be experienced.

To Those of Sedentary Occupation.—Men who follow sedentary occupations, which deprive them of fresh air and exercise, are more prone to disorders of the liver and kidneys than those who lead active, outdoor lives. The former will find in Parmelee's Vegetable Pills a restorative without question the most efficacious on the market. They are easily procurable, easily taken, act expeditiously, and they are surprisingly cheap considering their excellence.

Marriage at Thirty.

The celibacy question is a delicate one to discuss, but it seems to me that if by giving young workingmen a chance of lodging themselves comfortably and respectably when they first become self supporting you prevent them from getting married to girls as young as themselves and acquiring a quiverful of babies before they are well out of their teens far more good than harm is likely to result in the long run from this operation. Young men of the middle class at the present day rarely marry under thirty, many of them not till they are well past that age. So far as I can see, neither they nor society are the worse for deferring their nuptials. The lower you go in the social scale the stronger are the reasons against a man marrying young.

A Discourager.

"I don't believe in feeding tramps at the door," said Mrs. West. "You feed them once, and they are sure to come back."

"Well, I don't know. I always give them bread when they come to my door, and I can't say I ever knew a tramp to come a second time."

"Oh, well, Mrs. Yeast, you make your own bread, do you not?"

That was all that was said, and yet Mrs. Yeast went down the street like a straw hat on a windy day.

Loose Knife Blades.

Sometimes a table or kitchen knife blade becomes loose from the handle. When this occurs, take the blade out and fill two-thirds of the cavity with resin mixed with sawdust. Heat the shank of the knife very hot and press it in quickly and solidly. When it cools, you will find that the blade is fixed firmly.

Equal to the Occasion.

Gladys—There, now, mamma's gone to the matinee and has forgotten her pocketbook.

Frank—Don't you worry about mamma. She'll unlock the box office with a hairpin

A Suggestion.

Girls, if you are as fastidious in the selection of a husband as you are in the selection of a new hat, you'll never have any trouble matrimonially.

BAITING THE ENSIGN

UNHAPPY LIFE OF THE GERMAN ARMY CANDIDATE OFFICER.

The Petty Miseries and Humiliations to Which the Unfortunate Youngster Is Subjected by His Superiors In Public Places.

In Germany the prestige of the uniform is often bought at the price of petty miseries and humiliations. Hazing, when conducted in the intimacy of the military school, among youths of the same age, has at least the saving quality of privacy, but the baiting of the unhappy candidate officer, which is a feature of the German service, carries with it the added humiliation of being made to amuse both superior officers and the outside public.

The young candidate officer is obliged by the regulations to live with the officers, to take his meals with them and to pass all his leisure hours in their society. At the end of the day, tired out with the fatigues of a service still new to him, the poor fellow would rather go to bed. But no, he must follow them to the casino or the beer halls. "Come, come! A young fellow of your age to be tired! You mustn't!"

"At your orders, Herr Lieutenant," he is bound to reply. "I mustn't."

"You're all right. You're going to be one of us. Only you must not get tired."

"At your orders, Herr Lieutenant."

"Perfectly. You will come to the beer garden with us. We will pick up the others. We will show ourselves. Do you know, my boy, you don't show yourself enough. I have heard it remarked. You isolate yourself too much. It is not permitted in an ensign. When you get to be captain or major, you will go out when you please, but for the instant you must come out with us."

"At your orders, Herr Lieutenant."

Entering the beer garden the officers join a group of friends, coolly abandoning the candidate to his fate, which is to find a chair and sit in a corner alone. No one notices him. He lights a cigar and sups a mug of beer. As no one addresses him and as he has not the right to open his mouth except to reply, "At your orders," he is silent. He finishes his second cigar. Suddenly one of the officers, pitying him, may hold up his mug of beer, saying, "To your health, ensign." He knows his etiquette. He rises, straightens up, and, as if moved by clockwork, raises his own mug to his lips and empties it at a single gulp.

Half an hour passes. Then a captain, it may be, will begin in a sympathetic tone, "I say, ensign, how old are you?"

"Twenty years old, Herr Captain."

"Donnerwetter! You are old."

"At your orders, Herr Captain."

"My faith, here's to your health, ensign."

The unfortunate youth rises, straightens up, empties his mug and falls to his seat again, in the midst of the most profound neglect. Suddenly he is roused from his dreams by a well known voice.

"I say, young man, how old are you?"

"Twenty years old, my commandant."

"Thunder! You are old."

"At your orders, Herr Commandant."

"Well, here's to your health, ensign."

Up, gulp and down again.

"The commandant has been chatting quite familiarly with the ensign," remarks some one.

"Ah?" says some one else.

"What did the commandant ask you?" says a third, as if overcome with curiosity.

"He asked me my age, Herr Lieutenant."

"I have often wanted to ask you the same question. How old are you?"

"Twenty years old, Herr Lieutenant."

"You are very old."

"At your orders, Herr Lieutenant."

"My faith, to your health, ensign."

Up, gulp and down again. At last he imagines the hour of deliverance is at hand. It is time he ought, by the regulations, to be in bed. He starts to pay for his drinks.

"Where are you going, ensign?"

"I must go in. I have not permission."

"Go on, but no, my friend. Stay with us, quiet and comfortable. You don't need any permission so long as you are with us. We'll take you back."

"At your orders, Herr Commandant. Walter, a beer."

Still higher officers at the lower end of the table, pretending to notice for the first time the silence of the young candidate, express the desire to hear him speak. How otherwise would they be able to judge his abilities?

One of his lieutenants begins with him.

"When do you go to the school of war, ensign?"

"Oct. 1, Herr Lieutenant."

"Do you know where you are to go?"

"At your orders, Herr Lieutenant, I shall probably be sent to Hanover."

"Thunder, what luck!"

"At your orders, Herr Lieutenant."

"My faith, here's to your health!"

Up, gulp and down again. Silence.

"When are you to be named officer."

"In eighteen months, Herr Lieutenant."

"How old are you?"

"Twenty years old, Herr Lieutenant."

"Thunder and hail, but you're old!"

"How old did you say you were?" interrupts still another as if burning with curiosity."

"Twenty years old, Herr Lieutenant. I am very old."

"You—oh—perfectly!"

And when the company breaks up this last officer will say to the others: "A good sort of chap, our ensign. It's a pity he is so impertinent."

The next morning, after drill, the doyen of the lieutenants will call him aside and make a little speech.

"I say, ensign, a lot of complaints have been addressed to me this morning in regard to your conduct last night at the beer garden. I give you a friendly tip, because you know it can't continue. I'm told that you talked entirely too much, that without being in any way invited you gave your opinion on a lot of subjects and that you pushed yourself into notice continually. You are still much too young, ensign, to permit yourself to have a personal opinion on this thing or that thing. You are still much too young, remember that!"

"At your orders, Herr Lieutenant."

A Grim Coterie.

A very grim gathering takes place every May at the house of a certain gentleman living in a large west end square, says London Tit-Bits. Many years since, when traveling in America, the host had the misfortune accidentally to kill a man, and ever since, on the anniversary of this tragic event, he has held a dinner to which are invited only such as, like himself, have unwittingly caused the death of a fellow creature.

Will Abolish It.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 21.—The Department of Trade and Commerce is notified that the Government of Jamaica has decided to abolish the commercial travelers' tax. The tax is found to have a deterrent effect on the opening up of closer trade relations between Canada and Jamaica, and its removal is expected to be followed by a considerable increase of business between the two countries.

Two Odd Swedish Notions.

At the old fashioned inns and restaurants in Sweden it is customary to charge less for women than for men, on the theory that they do not eat so much.

At some hotels in Sweden a man and wife are charged as one and one-half persons if they occupy the same room. A husband and wife may travel as one and one-half persons by railway, and also by the post routes, furnishing their own carriage.

SPECIAL TO DAIRYMEN

MONTREAL BUTTER AND CHEESE ASSOCIATION ISSUES A CIRCULAR.

The following has been received from Mr. J. Stanley Cook, Secretary of the Montreal Butter and Cheese Association, with a request for its publication:

Montreal, Oct. 15.

To the Dairymen of Canada.

Gentlemen,—At a general meeting of this Association, held on the 10th inst., it was resolved to issue a circular to the Dairymen of Canada, strongly advising them to turn their attention to butter more generally, and to discontinue the manufacture of cheese entirely after 1st November, for the following reasons:—

1st. That fodder cheese hurts the consumption, thus diminishing the demand for grass goods and lowering its price.

2nd. That the outlet for cheese is limited, and everything depends on the quality to induce a large consumption.

3rd. That the consumption of cheese is not increasing, but diminishing, while the consumption of finest creamery butter is rapidly growing.

4th. That the price of butter is higher on an average all the year round than cheese, for the finest qualities.

5th. That the manufacture of butter is more profitable than cheese, not only in the comparative price, but in that the farm stock and the land are better sustained.

6th. That in order to maintain high prices, there must be a continuous supply of finest butter, and as the flow of milk is lessening now, it is most urgent that the quantity should be kept up as much as possible, and to divert the milk from cheese to this article is the only way to keep up the supply.

Butter should be shipped fresh weekly to command the best price.

GENERAL NOTES.

It is recommended that all factories should be fitted up so as to make either cheese or butter.

Cheese should be held three weeks at a temperature of 60 degrees to ensure proper curing. Serious complaints continue to come of cheese being shipped much too green.

Packages, both of cheese and butter, are still made of much too thin wood.

REASONS FOR KEEPING SHEEP.

Professor Shaw, of the Minnesota School of Agriculture, gives several reasons why a little flock of sheep should be kept on every farm. They ought to be kept to tidy up the farm. They will clean up the weeds and grass along the lanes, fence corners and the sides of highways. They will take the weeds in the stubble and those left in the pasture by other stock, and they like such food and thrive on it, as they like a variety. One sheep will consume about as many weeds in a summer as the average farm boy could be persuaded to destroy. This summer feed costs practically nothing and is really a benefit to the farm.

The expense of the winter feeding is not great. They use but a few pounds, say three or four, of dry matter in a day, and they pay well for that with lambs and wool. The well-fatted sheep or lamb will furnish the best of meat for the warm months to the farmer's family. There is seldom trouble from disease among them when running in small flocks with other animals.

To this Prof. Shaw must have added, says the American Cultivator, the fact that no animal returns as much fertility to the farm for the value of the food given as the sheep, whether in the shed during the winter, or running out in good weather, when they distribute their rich fertilizer more evenly and in condition to be available for plant food than do other animals.

And no animals require so little time and labor for the value of their products. To be fed and watered in winter, to be looked after at the lambing season, to have a little care in feeding the lambs during the period of growth, and to shear them once a year. No grooming every day, no milking twice a day, no danger of much worse than a little bumping by the ram, if he gets vicious, which is not as bad as being gored by the bull or the old boar, kicked by the horse or bitten by the dog.

But sheep like best a high and dry pasture, and they thrive best there. In fact, they prefer rather scanty and what we would think poor feed to the rank feed of moist meadows or swamps. In such they may contract foot rot, and while in rich feed they may grow heavier and have heavier fleeces, the wool gets coarser.

This preference of the sheep for high and dry land, and of lying down to rest upon the highest point, that they may feel the wind as it blows in summer, has one advantage. Their droppings are scattered upon what is usually the poorest or thinnest soil, and while some may be washed down the sides of the slope, it is put where it is needed even in that case, to compensate for the yearly wash from high to low lands.

REV. K. MACLENNAN DEAD

WELL - KNOWN PRESBYTERIAN DIVINE PASSES AWAY AT KINGSTON.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 18.—The Presbyterian Church lost an able divine in the death of Rev. Kenneth Maclennan, who passed away this morning, aged 68. The deceased was formerly a Professor of Queen's University, but more recently held a professorship in Morin College, Quebec, at the same time having charge of a church at Point Levis. At different times he was stationed in Dundas, Whitby, Peterboro, and Charlottetown. Deceased leaves a widow, one son, W. A. Maclennan, Vancouver, B. C., and three daughters, Mrs. McCone, Ottawa; Mrs. Fidler, of Brockville, and Miss Maclennan, at home.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages; and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

LYNDHURST.

On Saturday, Oct. 12th, Bishop Mills paid his second official visit to parish of Leeds Rear. The three churches were nicely decorated with flowers; Confirmation with a celebration of the Holy Communion in St. John's Church at 11 a.m. There were 11 candidates—3 males and 8 females. Rev. T. Leech and Rev. D. Jenkins and the Rector took part in the service. The Bishop was pleased at the large number of communicants and the hearty manner in which the services were rendered. Service was held at St. Peter's Church, Seeley's Bay at 3 p.m.; St. Luke's Church, Lyndhurst at 7.30 p.m. All the congregations were good and the people were delighted to meet their Bishop. Some people followed the Bishop from place to place. St. John's Church rejoices in many improvements, the font has been restored. It now has a polished marble shaft and a stone base. There are new falls for the lectern and prayer desk with a cross and crown on the one and a circle and a triangle on the other. There is a new Bishop's chair made of oak. The old clapboards have been replaced by matched siding.

The Irish lad who wanted a nate aisy job would rapidly change his mind when he knew Bishop Mills and his work.

The Pill That Will Is the Pill You Want.

Pills are necessary but not nice. Cathartics are not confections. The fewer pills that you take the better. It's aggravating to take pills that don't and pills that won't. It's soothing to know that when you take a pill it's the pill that will do the work for which it's taken.

Ayer's Pills

have gained a reputation for their sure results. The pill that will is Ayer's. For all liver troubles, diseases of the stomach and bowels, sick headache, biliousness and heartburn, Dr. Ayer's Pills have proven a specific, and they

as they have cured thousands of others whose testimony is a matter of record. Ayer's Cure Book is sent free by Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass. Send for it if you want to know more of the power of these pills than is proven in the following testimonials.

"I suffered nearly all my life with bowel complaints, enduring much pain, and I tried almost all the cathartic remedies advertised in the newspapers, without obtaining permanent relief until I used Ayer's Cathartic Pills. The result obtained from the use of these pills was wonderful. They not only gave immediate relief but effected a permanent cure."
R. C. STODDARD, Delhi, Ont.

"I was ill for some time with liver trouble. My back ached and my skin turned as yellow as saffron; I became unable to do any work, and at last was confined to my bed too weak to move without assistance. I commenced the use of Ayer's Pills and less than half a box cured me. I owe my present good health to their use, and I am never without them."
WM. OAKLEY, Lobelville, Tenn.

"I have used Ayer's Pills with excellent results for constipation. I find that they do not gripe nor purge, but do give relief." CHARLES R. WHITE, Pittsgrove, N. J.

"I have used Ayer's Pills since 1845, and consider them superior to all other pills on the market. I always keep them in the house in case of emergency, and at one time they cured my wife of dyspepsia. I have found them good for all diseases caused by the Southern climate."

Eruptions

Dry, moist, scaly tetter, all forms of eczema or salt rheum, pimples and other cutaneous eruptions proceed from humors, either inherited, or acquired through defective digestion and assimilation.

To treat these eruptions with drying medicines is dangerous.

The thing to do is to help the system discharge the humors, and strengthen it against their return.

Hood's Sarsaparilla permanently cured J. G. Hines, Franks, Ill., of eczema, from which he had suffered for some time; and Miss Alvina Welter, Box 212, Algona, Wis., of pimples on her face and back and chafed skin on her body, by which she had been greatly troubled. There are more testimonials in favor of this great medicine than can be published.

Official Trade's Union.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 22.—The furniture and cabinet workers of Minsk have organized a club of 400 members under official control. The workingmen of Nicolayeff have also been encouraged to organize a union. It appears that it is now the Government's avowed policy to direct the workingmen's movements by means of organizations under official control. The president of the club at Nicolayeff is the local chief factory inspector.

Fast Atlantic Line.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—Lord Strathcona said yesterday that he believed Sir Christopher Furness would submit his proposals for a fast Atlantic steamship line to the Government if the subsidy was suitable. It will be necessary first to improve the St. Lawrence route, so as to make it as safe as possible. Lord Strathcona favors a point in Cape Breton, probably Sydney, as the terminal for the line.

Will Give Others a Chance.

New York, Oct. 22.—Sir Thomas Lipton will not be a challenger for the America's Cup next year.

Dead in Chicago.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 22.—Jeremiah J. McCarthy, general western passenger agent for the West Shore Railroad, and a railroad man for sixty years, is dead here, the result of heart failure. He was a native of Canada. His body will be taken to his old home in London for interment.

Committee the Brigands.

London, Oct. 22.—The idea that the capture of Miss Stone originated with the Macedonian Committee is corroborated, according to the Vienna correspondent of The Daily Mail, by the fact that numerous Macedonians in Sofia have offered to mediate with the brigands.

Sharp Attack of Lumbago.

Know what Lumbago is?
Pain catches you right in the small of the back,—makes stooping over or rising up excruciating agony.
Wrong kidney action is the cause of the trouble, and if you let Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets set the kidneys working right you'll be quickly cured.
Here is some evidence:

Mr. James A. Searls, the well and favorably known boot and shoe merchant of Norwich, Ont., made this statement:—"During a recent sharp attack of Lumbago, in which the pain was extremely severe, I took a bottle of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. They took the pain out of my back so quickly, and as far as I can see made a cure that is so permanent, that I consider them unequalled for that most prevalent and painful affliction. I am only too pleased to recommend them to other people who may be suffering as I was."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50c. a box, at all druggists or by mail. THE DR. ZINA PITCHER CO., Toronto, Ont.

VAIN ARE KRUGER'S APPEALS

No Nation Will Pay Heed to Ex-President of Transvaal.

Denial of President Roosevelt's Rumored Intervention to End the Boer War—New President of the United States Is Entirely in Harmony With the Policy of the Late President Regarding Matters Connected With South African War

New York, Oct. 22.—The Herald has this from Washington: "President Roosevelt is entirely in harmony with the policy of the late President McKinley in all matters connected with the war in South Africa, and so far as known among his most intimate official associates there is no reason to believe he will change his attitude in the least."

This announcement, coming from an authoritative quarter, will set at rest the rumors in circulation since Mr. Roosevelt's entrance into the White House to the effect that he proposes to intervene in some way in behalf of the Boers. These rumors have created some annoyance in official quarters, especially one published yesterday announcing that the United States was sounding some Powers of Continental Europe with a view to ascertaining if they were prepared to act with her in restoring peace in South Africa. No such action has been taken or is contemplated by the administration.

It is furthermore stated that no Power of Europe has made any representations to the United States on the subject of interference in South Africa, and it appears to have become the settled purpose of Europe to pay no heed to the appeals of President Kruger and his committee.

More Trained Mounted Men.

London, Oct. 22.—The Daily Express learns that Lord Kitchener has wired an urgent demand to the War Office for more trained mounted men.

Third Year of War Begun

London, Oct. 22.—Two years ago yesterday, Oct. 21, the Boers invaded British territory and began the war.

New Scouts Were Caught.

Heilbron, Oct. 21.—Further details are to hand concerning Colonel Wilson's engagement on the Rhenoster River.

The Boers having heard that a column without guns was marching from Kroonstad to Heilbron, concentrated five commandoes, about 500 strong, under Commandants Boshoff, Talgaand, Venter, Mayer and Went, on the Rhenoster River, presumably with the object of capturing our convoy, which had to pass through an awkward drift.

By a smart night march Colonel Wilson arrived at the Rhenoster River at dawn on Oct. 4, and sent a squadron of fifty men to reconnoitre towards Paardekraal.

The Boers, who were occupying strong positions on the hills, allowed the squadron to proceed undisturbed for three miles, when they suddenly opened a heavy fire. A desperate fight ensued, the scouts fighting pluckily until their ammunition was nearly exhausted, and finally 13 of them were captured.

The casualty list shows that in addition to the prisoners the British lost 12 killed and wounded.

Darinell in Zululand.

Eshowe, Oct. 21.—General Darinell and staff and Bethune's Brigade, with the Imperial Light Horse are now here.

Rain has been falling continuously for the last 36 hours, and the roads are in a terrible state. The difficulties of transport are enormous, and both men and animals are suffering great hardships.

Boer Leaders Banished.

Pretoria, Oct. 21.—Twelve more Boer leaders, including Commandant Scheepers, whose capture was announced Oct. 12, have been permanently banished from South Africa.

Commandant Marais a Prisoner.

London, Oct. 22.—A despatch from Kroonstad, dated Oct. 16, says 14 Boers, who were captured at Reit Vlei, have arrived there. Among the number was Commandant David Marais, whose laager was captured on Oct. 1.

Killed in Action.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—A letter from the War Office to Mr. John Brown of No. 6 Lippincott street, tells of the death of his son Walter, who was killed in action at Stoffelberg, Cape Colony, on Sept. 13. Walter Brown had been away for seven years, and was a member of Methuen's Mounted Infantry.

Jailer Back at Work.

Sarnia, Oct. 22.—Sheriff Flintoft has received word from Toronto to the effect that Jailer R. O. McArthur has been reinstated as governor of the Sarnia jail, the order to take effect immediately. Mr. McArthur was at once notified, and resumed his position. This action on the part of the Government carries with it the complete exoneration of Mr. McArthur from any neglect of duty with regard to the escape of the prisoner Robert Thompson from the county jail recently.

City Wants Power.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 22.—At last night's meeting the City Council decided to write to the Minister of Railways asking upon what terms the Dominion Government would sell or rent to the City of Winnipeg the electric power to be developed at St. Andrew's locks.

St. John As a Winter Port.

St. John, Oct. 22.—At a meeting of the Civic Board of Works yesterday afternoon it was stated positively that the Elder - Dempster steamers would run from St. John this winter, giving a direct weekly passenger and freight service to Liverpool.

Canada's Pulp Wanted.

Ottawa, Oct. 22.—The Department of Trade and Commerce has received a report from C. E. Sartum, the commercial agent in Norway and Sweden, for the month ending Sept. 30. He says that the waters in the rivers are so low that the lumber mills have had to shut down. There is, he says, a scarcity of pulp on the Continent. Last year 10,931 people emigrated from Norway and Sweden.

WILL RESTORE THREE PROVINCES.

Summary of the Agreement Between Russia and China.

London, Oct. 22.—A summary of the Manchurian Convention, which Li Hung Chang and M. Lessar, Russian Minister at Pekin, are negotiating, is telegraphed by the Shanghai correspondent of The Standard.

According to this Russia agrees to return to China the three provinces of Liao-Tung, Kirin and Hei-Lung-Kiagh, north of Sunga River, and to withdraw the Russian troops from Liao-Tung during the current year, from the other two provinces gradually, within two years.

China agrees to employ Russian officers to drill the Manchu troops of Tsing Chi, the Tartar general of Mukden. This convention is so favorable to China that it is considered probable another agreement exists, which is still kept secret.

To Choose an Heir.

Pekin, Oct. 21.—A new heir to the throne will be appointed when the Dowager-Empress meets Prince Ching and several of the viceroys at Kai-Feng, capital of the Province of Honan, where there will be a general discussion of the affairs of the Empire. This news is believed to be authentic, as it was received from high Chinese officials. The present heir has proved to be dissipated and uncontrollable. Moreover, his father's status as a banished prince makes his succession contrary to Chinese traditions. The candidate of the Empress is said to be Peitze, a nephew of Prince Tuan, who is intellectually weak.

Arranging for Electrocution.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 22.—Warden Meade of Auburn Prison spent seven hours yesterday in conference with Superintendent of State Prisons Cornelius V. Collins, arranging the details for carrying out the sentence of death imposed on Leon F. Czolgosz, the murderer of President McKinley. There will be but 26 witnesses admitted, the law limiting the number. It is believed that the execution will take place before 6 o'clock on the morning of Oct. 28, or, if everything cannot be gotten ready on that day, on a similar hour on the 29th.

Tried Two Routes to Death.

Winnipeg, Oct. 22.—On Saturday Robert Nichols, a young Englishman, aged 24, an employe of F. E. Weldon & Co., grocers, made an attempt to take his life by cutting his throat. This proving unsuccessful, late Sunday night, after his removal to the General Hospital, he suddenly assaulted his attendant and made a second attempt to end his existence by jumping headlong from a second storey window of the hospital. Although this attempt was not a success, the unfortunate young man now lies at the point of death.

British Steamers Preferred.

Wellington, N. Z., Oct. 22.—Parliament strongly favors the proposition to assist a British rather than an American line for the mail service. The Chambers of Commerce urge the Government not to propose a retaliatory tariff against the Australian Commonwealth, preferring a conciliatory attitude. The plan for state-owned coal mines, if adopted, would enable the Government to acquire mines and compete with private owners. After a profit of 5 per cent. is secured the price of coal is to be reduced.

The King Closely Guarded.

London, Oct. 22.—The Despatch announces that unprecedented precautions against Anarchists have been taken for the return to London of King Edward and Queen Alexandra on Monday. Scotland Yard detectives have been despatched to the north, and the whole line of the railway is being vigilantly guarded by men who have been specially selected for that purpose. The paper attributes this vigilance to the assassination of President McKinley.

96 Years Since Trafalgar.

London, Oct. 22.—Yesterday was the ninety-sixth anniversary of the battle of Trafalgar, and the Nelson monument in Trafalgar Square was again gaily decorated by the Naval League.

New Plague Cases.

Rio Janeiro, Brazil, Oct. 22.—There were two new cases of bubonic plague here Sunday. There were three new cases yesterday. At the hospital there are 52 plague patients.

Symbols of Success

A vacant chair and a portrait on the wall—strange symbols of success! Yet, in many a home these are the symbols of the success of the man who did not find time to care for his health, or neglected the increasing warnings of disease which Nature gave him. When the stomach is "weak" and food is imperfectly digested and assimilated, it is only a question of time until the break-down comes. The stomach is the very center of vital power and must be kept in health if sickness is to be avoided. Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It increases the supply of pure, rich blood, and gives the body strength to withstand the strain put upon it by the struggle for success.

"I was a sufferer from what the doctors called indigestion, but after trying several eminent physicians failed to get a cure," writes Mr. Frank Merick, of Independence, Jackson Co., Mo., Box 472. "Some of my symptoms were soreness in pit of stomach, fullness, tired feeling, constipation; sometimes soreness would extend to bowels. Some one recommended me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which I did, and after taking only a few bottles of 'Discovery' and your 'Pleasant Pellets' can say I derived more benefit from them than any other medicine I ever tried. I began to gain flesh from the start. Have recommended it to others and will continue to do so."

The sluggish liver made active by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Good Ship Ophir Has Sailed Away

Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York Leave Canada.

Kruger's Appeals Are in Vain—Roosevelt Will Not Intervene in Boer War—Three-Year-Old Child Burned to Death—Many Accidents Yesterday Session Early in January.

Halifax, Oct. 22.—The royal yacht Ophir, with the royal party, left for St. John's, Nfld., yesterday. The wharves were lined with thousands of spectators, who gathered and waved handkerchiefs as the royal yacht, accompanied by the fleet, steamed down the harbor. The band on the Ophir played "Far Away" and "Auld Lang Syne."

The Ophir had a narrow escape from grounding. She collided with a buoy because of the very bad handling of the vessel by Commodore Winslow. The engines had to be reversed, and the steamer finally got straightened out, and the consternation that prevailed for a time subsided.

The forts saluted the royal yacht, and the troops of the garrison lined Point Pleasant and cheered and waved their handkerchiefs as the fleet passed.

Sympathy With Sufferers.

Halifax, Oct. 22.—Last night Mayor Crowe of Sydney received the following telegrams from the Governor-General:

The Mayor of Sydney: I have just received the following message from H. M. S. Ophir: "The Duchess and I are distressed to hear of the disastrous fire at Sydney. Please express our sympathy with the sufferers. Trust no lives have been lost.

"(Signed) George."

To the Mayor of Sydney: "Her Excellency and I sincerely sympathize with the people of Sydney in the damage caused by the disastrous fire, which we trust may not be as heavy as at first feared.

"(Signed) Minto."

Will Greet the Duke.

New York, Oct. 22.—The Times has the following from London: The King returns to town early next week quite recovered, it is said, from his recent touch of lumbago, and he stays in London until the end of the month, when he goes to Portsmouth to welcome home the Duke of Cornwall and York, whose return is gratifying to the nation.

Khedive to Visit the Soudan.

Cairo, Oct. 22.—Abbas Hilmi, the Khedive, has decided to leave Cairo Nov. 20, to pay his first visit to the Soudan. The Province is now entirely pacified, and is enjoying unwonted prosperity. Sir Frederick Wingate, the Sirdar, is making great preparations for the reception of the Egyptian Sovereign, and it is hoped that the Khedive's visit will eventually induce many of the Egyptian fellaheen to settle in the Soudan.

Burglars Make Big Haul.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—A sensational robbery, which netted the perpetrators $76,068 in stamps, was discovered here yesterday when the Wholesale Stamp Department of the postoffice was opened for business. Investigation developed the fact that the burglars had crawled under the flooring about 300 feet, bored a hole in the bottom of the vault, secured the stamps and escaped, carrying their booty in a wagon.

No News of Missionaries.

Constantinople, Oct. 22.—The officials of the United States Legation are still without news from the missionaries who are seeking to make an arrangement with the abductors of Miss Ellen M. Stone and her companion, Mme. Tsilka. It is regarded as probable that the missionaries will use the nearest telegraph when the terms of the ransom are settled, directing where and how the cash shall be sent.

Poison As a Cancer Cure.

Berlin, Oct. 22.—Injections of malarial blood as a cure for cancer are proposed by Professor Frederick Loeffler. Finding that amid tropical conditions most conducive to malarial cancer is of extreme rarity, he was led to the conclusion that when malaria is administered as a therapeutic it acts as a antidote to cancerous disease.

Ancient Throne Room Found.

Berlin, Oct. 22.—The German expedition investigating the site of ancient Babylon, has discovered the throne room of the great King Nebuchadnezzar, an enormous place about 600 feet broad and 170 feet long, the entrance immediately opposite the alcove in which the throne stood.

The Lizard at Valleyfield.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—Mrs. P. Godin, a woman living at Valleyfield, near Montreal, who has been suffering from supposed stomach trouble for the past three years, was seized with a coughing spasm a few days ago, and coughed up a lizard over five inches long.

Last Week's Wheat Shipments.

Winnipeg, Oct. 22.—The wheat shipments from Fort William during the past week were the heaviest for any week during the year, being 1,027,006 bushels.

To Overthrow the Cabinet.

Yokohama, Oct. 22.—The Marquis Ito's party has initiated a strong movement to overthrow the Cabinet. Important political developments are anticipated.

Charged With Murder.

Berlin, Oct. 22.—A former Haysville young man, Charles Simmons, has been arrested at Blue Earth, Miss., charged with the murder of a Mrs. Porter. He was sentenced to seven years in Kingston Penitentiary from Cobourg some years ago, but the night before he was to be taken to Kingston he broke jail and has not been heard of until now.

STRICKEN WITH LEPROSY.

Sad Fate of Amelia Burder, Missionary in India.

Paris, Oct. 22.—Word has been received from India that Amelia Burder, a missionary to the lepers, has been stricken with leprosy in India. She is well known in Canada. Years ago Dr. and Mrs. McLaurin brought home with them from India a young native girl, Amelia Keller. On her return to India with the McLaurins she became the wife of Jonathan Burder, a young native preacher of acknowledged talent. It was a happy union, and the young couple exerted a wide influence for good in the Telugu field, but last year Jonathan was stricken down with cholera and now comes the more terrible intelligence that Amelia and her two sons have been pronounced lepers. It seems that Charlie Burder, a brother of Jonathan, was a leper, and instead of driving him out to wander in wretchedness as the natives do, these Christian relatives kept him in their home and took care of him as long as he lived.

CO-OPERATIVE PLAN IN FORCE.

Chicago and Southwestern Railway Resume Its Operations.

Anderson, Ind., Oct. 22.—The Chicago and Southwestern Railway resumed operations yesterday under the co-operative plan after having been tied up by a strike for more than two weeks. The office and trackmen resumed their respective places, and the road is running as usual in every department. The officers of the company now believe that with the heavy shipment of coal from the Indiana fields the future of the road and workmen as well will be very satisfactory. The profit-sharing experiment is being watched with much interest.

Mr. John Lee Nominated.

Ridgetown, Oct. 22.—The Liberals of the east riding of Kent held a convention at the Grand Opera House here yesterday for the purpose of nominating a candidate to succeed the late Robert Ferguson. Two hundred and nine delegates out of a possible 211 turned out. John Lee of Highgate and George Johns of Bothwell were nominated. After speeches of the candidates ballots were taken, Lee receiving 160 votes and Johns 48. Mr. Lee's nomination was then made unanimous. Hon. Richard Harcourt, Minister of Education, then addressed the meeting.

Session Early in January.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—According to the Hon. G. W. Ross there will be another session of the Legislature before the elections. The session, he says, will be held early in January. By calling the House early, it is thought that prorogation may take place before April 1, the time on which the Parliament would have expired, but for the bill of last session, extending its life. The reports of the various departments are said to be well advanced for presentation to the House.

Died After Resigning.

London, Oct. 22.—Sir Archibald Levin Smith, who recently resigned the post of Master of the Rolls on account of ill-health, died last night in Morayshire, Scotland. He had rowed thrice with Cambridge against Oxford. He was born in 1834.

PLAIN TALK

TO CATARRH SUFFERERS.

Every person suffering from catarrh in its many forms, knows that the common lotions, salves and douches do not cure. It is needless to argue this point or to cite cases of failure, because every victim of catarrhal trouble knows it for himself if he has tried them.

A local application, if it does anything at all, simply gives temporary relief; a wash, lotion, salve or powder cannot reach the seat of the disease which is the blood.

The mucous membrane seeks to relieve the blood of catarrhal poison by secreting large quantities of mucous, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils descending to the throat and larynx, causing an irritating cough, continual clearing of the throat, deafness, indigestion and many other disagreeable and persistent symptoms.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal treatment; a remedy which will gradually cleanse the system from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion always present in the mucous membrane.

The best remedies for this purpose are Eucalyptol, Sanguinaria and Hydrastin, but the difficulty has always been to get these valuable curatives combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

Recently this has been accomplished and the preparation put on the market under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets; they are large pleasant tasting lozenges, so that they may be slowly dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane and finally the stomach and intestines.

An advantage to be considered also is that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, morphine or poisonous narcotics, so often found in catarrh powders, and the use of which often entails a habit more dangerous than the disease.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cts. for full sized package and are probably the safest and most effectual catarrh cure on the market.

LITTLE TOT BURNED TO DEATH

3-Year-Old Daughter of a Farmer Plays With Matches.

Mother Nearly Insane With Grief—Child Left Alone for Only a Few Minutes, But Found Beyond Recall—Blew Hole Through His Body—Archie McFayden Almost Cooked by Escaping Steam—Other Accidents.

Windsor, Oct. 22.—The three-year-old daughter of Pierre Dupont, a well-known farmer, residing in Sandwich East, was left alone by its mother yesterday, and, in some way, obtained a box of matches, which became ignited. The little one's clothing was a mass of flames in an instant, and when the parents arrived soon afterwards, the body had been burned almost to a crisp. The mother is nearly insane with grief.

Blew Hole Through His Body.

Dauphin, Oct. 22.—Archie McFayden, engineer of a threshing engine, was instantly killed on Thursday afternoon. He was in the act of backing the engine to the separator to couple up to move. He backed too far, and was jammed, some steam valves were broken and the escaping steam blew a hole into his body and almost cooked him before the engine could be moved up. He was 23 years old and unmarried. His remains were shipped home to Sherbrooke for burial.

Little Boy Killed.

St. Thomas, Oct. 22.—A fatal accident occurred on the Michigan Central at Ruscombe yesterday morning, Willie Woodward, aged 14, a lamp boy in the employ of the company, being the victim. How the accident occurred no one knows. Conductor Abbott found the dead body of the lad. The head had been severed from the body.

Amputated Both Legs.

Kingston, Oct. 22.—Joseph Goodwin, aged 35, sailor on the schooner Acacia, left his boat yesterday morning to go up street to make some purchases, and was run down by a K. & P. locomotive as he crossed the tracks and had both legs taken off at the knees. He was taken to the General Hospital, where he died within an hour. He was a native of Newfoundland and unmarried.

Three Lives Were Lost.

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 22.—A telegram received here tells of the wreck of the steamer H. Goddard, running on Lake Labarge, in Northern British Columbia, and a loss of three lives. The only name given in the despatches is that of Charles Edward McDonald of this city, captain of the steamer, who has a widow and children, who are at present in Seattle. The Goddard was owned by the Upper Yukon Consolidated Company of this city.

Lost Both Feet.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—In an accident yesterday morning on the Grand Trunk Railway, near Dunbarton, Frederick McCune, a cook for the construction gang of the railway, was so badly injured that it was found necessary to amputate both of his feet. McCune in some way was struck by a railway van between Port Union and Whitby. The trucks of the van passed over both his feet, crushing them terribly and fracturing his leg just below the thigh. He was brought to Toronto and removed to the General Hospital. Shortly after his arrival the physicians amputated both of his feet. McCune last night was resting easily. He is 19 years of age and lives at Port Union.

Struck by Boston Express.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—Harry Smard of Point St. Charles, an employe of the Grand Trunk Railway, was struck yesterday at 8.30 o'clock by the Boston express, near the Victoria Bridge, while the train was running at the rate of about forty miles an hour. The unfortunate man was hurled into the air and thrown about 75 feet. His skull was fractured, and he was otherwise badly smashed up.

Fell From the Yards.

Halifax, Oct. 22.—The barquentine New Dominion arrived at North Sydney yesterday afternoon and the captain reports that on Friday afternoon when off the Prince Edward Island coast George Pyke, one of the crew, fell from the yards and was drowned. He belonged to Newfoundland.

Ended Her Life.

Dutton, Oct. 22.—Miss Nancy McNabb, who resides with her brother, Mungo McNabb, at Lawrence Station, committed suicide Sunday, while the rest of the family were at church, by taking a large dose of Paris green. Several hours afterwards she told the family of her deed, when medical aid was of no avail. The deceased was subject to melancholy.

Suicide of a Scotchman.

Hamilton, Oct. 22.—Robert Millen, the young Scotchman, who cut his throat at the farm of Benjamin Hunt, about a mile over the mountain, last Friday, died yesterday morning about 10.30. He had no relatives in this country, but his body will be buried by his employer.

A Singular Suicide.

Vienna, Oct. 22.—The failure of Boden Credit Bank at Oedenburg, Hungary, led to a singular suicide. Manager Schladers, whose defalcations caused the failure, made a confession to his wife, who handed him a pistol and advised him to kill himself, which he did. His wife will be arrested as an accessory to the act.

Murder Case on Wednesday.

Brantford, Oct. 22.—Brantford fall assizes opened here yesterday afternoon. His Honor Justice Meredith presiding. There are three criminal cases on the list. Mrs. White's case on the charge of murder may come up on Wednesday.

The Worst Is Feared.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—The worst is feared for Mr. Walter E. H. Massey. Last night, the physicians in attendance on the sick man handed out the following bulletin:

"We have to announce a sudden change for the worse, with grave complications, which took place the day previous, in the condition of Mr. Massey. There is only a possible chance for his recovery."

Accident or Design.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—Lying at the Western Hospital in an unconscious condition is Sadie Patterson, aged 18 years, who last night swallowed a quantity of poison at the residence of John Irving, 68 St. Patrick street. It is not known what prompted the girl to commit the act, but it is believed that it was taken accidentally. The physicians hold out hopes for her recovery.

Chronic Cases of Kidney Disease.

INTENSE SUFFERING, GREAT WEAKNESS, LINGERING MISERY—CURES EFFECTED BY

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Most people are familiar with the symptoms of kidney disorders—pain in the back, deposits in the urine, loss of flesh, smarting when passing water, indigestion and constipation. Kidney disorders are too painful and too fatal to be neglected. The most prompt and thoroughly effective treatment that was ever offered for kidney disease is Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. That this is true is proven by such evidence as the following:

Mr. Thomas A. Embree, general merchant, Springhill, N.S., writes:—"As the result of a severe cold settling on the kidneys I contracted kidney disease which lingered for years, causing me much suffering from terrible pains in the back. For some time I was entirely unable to work, and, although I tried several physicians I could only obtain slight temporary relief.

"Having heard of the merits of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in many similar cases, I began to use them, and after taking seven boxes was completely cured. The cure is due entirely to the use of the great medicine which has since cured several persons to whom I recommended them."

Mr. Mortimer Chase, Consecon, Ont., states: "This is to certify that I was troubled with kidney disease so badly that life was a burden to me. I could find no ease either night or day, as the pains in my back were almost unendurable, and to stoop over would almost set me crazy. I lost flesh to such an extent that I was reduced to 115 pounds, my general weight being 140 pounds. I could not sleep or rest, no matter what position I was in.

"For about four years I was in this dreadful condition. My father and brother told me about Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills which had benefitted them, and I began using them. After taking part of a box I began to feel somewhat better. I have taken in all seven boxes, and am now as sound and well as ever I was, able to do a man's work and with no recurrence of my former kidney complaint."

"Mr. J. J. Ward, J. P., certifies that he knows Mr. Chase to be a man of truthfulness and integrity, and believes this statement of his cure to be perfectly correct."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have by far the largest sale of any similar preparation. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Daily Intelligencer.

TARTE'S ULTIMATUM.

J. Israel Tarte has written a letter to the chairman of the Montreal Harbor Board, in which he tells the members of the Board that he will not accept the Jamieson plans for the elevator, because they are experimental, though those who know best have declared that they are not to the extent to which he says they are. Not only does he tell these gentlemen that he is the sole judge in the matter, but he displays colossal impudence when he declares that "The "clamor of political opponents and "of parties interested cannot pos"sibly make me deviate from my "duty."

This is cheek and impudence unparalleled even in Tarte's political meanderings. "Political opponents" forsooth! Who are the gentlemen who have been resenting the insults of this renegade Tory? Mr. Prefontaine, Mayor of Montreal, has been and is one of the most pronounced Liberals in the Province of Quebec and succeeded in being elected in two constituencies at the last election. Mr. Bickerdike is an English Liberal, and represents one of the electoral divisions in Montreal, and is an ardent supporter of the Laurier Cabinet; Mr. Torrance is also a Liberal. In fact, there are but one or two on the Board who are supporters of the present Government. Yet these are the gentlemen who are denounced as his "political opponents," and interested parties. Why? Because they resented his charge that $20,000 had been offered to secure their votes in favor of a certain contract.

Truly, the cheek, impudence and effrontery of this man has never been equalled.

TIMELY TOPICS.

It is sad to think that so much oratory went to waste in the Council Chamber last night in connection with the tax rolls of 1899. After arguing the matter for an hour by the clock, and smiting the Tax Collector hip and thigh for not obeying its orders, the Council adjourned without taking any action in the matter. The Collector will return those rolls when he gets ready, and the Aldermen can put that in their pipes and smoke it. However, there was a good deal of force in the remarks of Ald. Denmark, and we commend a perusal of them to our readers. A very full report of the Council proceedings will be found on our third page.

Opinions differ as to the wisdom of the Council in taking over the Street Railway and putting it into the hands of Mr. Vandyke. Some people, who always have their blue glasses on, are inclined to think that the City will eventually have another white elephant on its hands. This view, however, hardly seems to be borne out by a dispassionate study of the facts.

* * *

Mr. Vandyke agrees to put up at once 10 per cent. of the purchase price—$675—and pay 5 per cent. interest on the balance, guaranteeing to extend the road to Trenton by next August. The Mayor has stated that the Bank of Montreal could sell the plant for a larger sum than the city pays. If Mr. Vandyke fails to carry out his part of the agreement the City will still have the road, and its use till next August cannot, surely, lessen its value so much that the City would lose money in case of its eventual sale piecemeal.

The extension of the road to Trenton must surely increase its business. Many people will be delighted at the prospect of a car line to the cemetery, which in the summer is sure to pay well. Above all things it must not be forgotten that the move is one in the direction of progress. Nearly everybody, we are sure, would hate to see the road dismantled and taken away. If the service is extended and run on business principles we are inclined to think that Mr. Vandyke will find his venture a paying one. Anyhow, we can't see how the City stands to lose in the matter.

* * *

Anybody who has sympathy on tap should extend some of it to Ald. Doyle, who surely has troubles of his own just now. The worthy Alderman says the money he counted on and has a right to expect is not forthcoming, through no fault of his but through the fault of people whom the City should control, but either can't or don't. Under the circumstances, not being able to satisfy hard-hearted bank "managers so easily as he is himself expected to be satisfied, the worthy Alderman asks to be relieved of his duties as Chairman of the Executive. And his fellow-aldermen laugh rudely at him, and tell him anybody could pay bills with money; now let him show his cleverness and pay them with wind!

If the street cars could run by wind power, they could easily have their storage batteries charged at the City Hall.

* * *

It was noted when the Ophir left Halifax that she sat much lower in the water than when she arrived. Must have been all those addresses in the hold.

* * *

If you hear a peculiar grinding sound nowadays, don't be alarmed. It isn't the Municipal Reform Association sharpening its axe — its only Mr. Rosenai boring for oil.

* * *

"All right, gentlemen," says the Trenton Electric Company, "you can have any kind of poles you like, so long as they're wooden ones."

* * *

The Aldermen had better have a care, or the City officials may discharge them.

* * *

Did those dog fish which were taken from the Bay of Quinte have a tag on?

* * *

The Czar's visit to France has not been as productive as his advisers had hoped. It is reported from Vienna that Russia has failed to obtain a loan in Paris and is now looking to London. Just imagine the Bear applying to a country which the Russian press have been stating is on the verge of bankruptcy and decadence.

* * *

Tarte's paper, La Patrie, nominates Mr. Archibald Campbell as Grit candidate in West York, the late Hon. Clarke Wallace's seat. Having kept his seat and his hat on in the House of Commons while "God Save the Queen" was being sung, Mr. Campbell is evidently a man after Mr. Tarte's own heart. But the West Yorkers can be depended on to turn him down again. They are loyal people.

* * *

Sir Thomas Lipton says he won't get married till he lifts the cup, which puts him a good way off as a matrimonial possibility. Still, Sir Thomas might have better luck on the matrimonial sea.

* * *

At the risk of giving our readers a slight shock we must beg them to prepare for the West Hastings bye-election. It is said that the Government intends to bring it on shortly. As the young ladies say, "This is so sudden." Now, will our friends the Grits tell us the name of the victim?

* * *

The Duke of York, who will some day rain over us, sailed away in a snowstorm, while the band played "Hail to the Chief."

* * *

The fact that the Duke of Hamilton is going to be married will cause a flutter in the Ambitious City. That other gay gallant, the editor of the Spec., will be making goo-goo eyes at the girls next.

* * *

Montreal Witness: "Mr. Tarte's paper is daily growing more wild in its utterances." Good gracious, here's old sober-sides raising the "race cry!" M. Henri Bourassa will kindly lead in the "Marseillaise."

REUNION OF THE CONGREGATION

MEMBERS OF JOHN ST. CHURCH PASSED A PLEASANT EVENING.

A congregational reunion, to celebrate the 54th anniversary of the John Street Presbyterian Church, was held last evening in the Sunday School rooms. The attendance was very large and a pleasant evening of social intercourse was participated in by all who attended. Mr. A. U. Northrup presided over the gathering. Rev. Dr. McTavish, of Deseronto, was present and gave an address, as did also the Pastor, Rev. T. J. Thompson. Solos were given by Mrs. Jas. Grant and Mr. J. Johnson, and Mrs. Grant and Miss Coleman gave two duets. At the close of the programme, refreshments were served.

After Sweet Things

WANTS 5,000 DAMAGES

AFTERMATH OF THE ACCIDENT IN WHICH WILLIAM E. RICKETT CAME TO HIS DEATH.

On Saturday evening, August 25th, of this year, a man named William E. Rickett was the victim of an accident, which caused his death an hour later. He was riding upon a load of wood, with Mr. P. Milne, when one of the stakes broke, causing the horses to run away, with the above result.

In consequence of this accident, Mrs. Rickett, wife of the deceased, has issued a writ against Mr. and Mrs. P. Milne, of this city, claiming $5,000 damages. It is alleged that the accident was caused by negligence on the part of Mr. Milne.

HAD BAD MEMORY

MAN HIRED A HORSE FROM A FRANKFORD LIVERY AND FORGOT TO RETURN IT.

Last evening Chief Newton received a telephone message from Mr. Wesley Nelson, liveryman, of Frankford, stating that on Sunday a man named Alfred Odell had hired a horse and buggy from him, to go to Stirling and had not returned.

It was thought that Odell had stolen the outfit and the police were asked to be on the lookout for him.

Between the hours of five and six o'clock this morning Officer Hayes saw the party in question driving down Front street and arrested him. Odell was considerably under the influence of liquor and stated that his home was in Brighton and he had just drove in from Madoc. He also represented to the officer that he was a cattle buyer, and had been out in the country purchasing cattle.

The prisoner was remanded until to-morrow.

Pisciculture.

For some days past Mr. John Weir, of this city, has been procuring some specimens of dog and bill fish from out of the bay for shipment to the hatchery at Ottawa. Yesterday an attache of that department came here and took away 27 dog fish and 2 bill fish. It is said that the object in procuring these specimens is to determine what they subsist upon, and if they are so destructive to other fish as is supposed. The specimens obtained were good ones.

A GENTLE HINT.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Regular size, 75 cts. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at R Templeton & Co.'s.

GRACE, STYLE AND FINISH.

You will find that in Grace, Style and Finish, Quick & Robertson's will compare with the productions of the best class of merchant tailors at prices a third to a half less. Each garment is designed with a view to its shape. It will stay in shape on the wearer. No undue drag on the varying parts of the garment, each pocket is stayed, collars are properly cut, sleeves and shoulders have the right "set." Design without good cloth is wasted. Every garment is properly and honestly lined with good linings. No shoddy cloths are used.

Sudden Death in Hungerford

Tweed, Oct. 21.—Charles McLean, Sr., of the 2nd concession of Hungerford, died very suddenly on Saturday afternoon last. He was assisting at potato digging on his farm, when he was seen to fall. His son rushed to his aid and assisted his father into the house, when he dropped over dead. Deceased was about seventy years of age, and of a robust constitution. He is survived by his wife and a family of four sons and two daughters.

The funeral was held to-day, services being conducted in St. John's (Anglic.) Church, Moneymore, interment taking place in the Union Cemetery at Thomasburg. The late Mr. McLean was a staunch Conservative and a highly esteemed resident of the township.

Quick & Robertson's
For Fine Clothes.

There's no use disputing the fact that this store stands pre-eminent in this city as the store for Men's Fine Clothes.

With our large and pleasing varieties, up-to-date style, and good making we've won the trade of every man, and especially the trade of those men who are particular about the Clothes they wear.

And why shouldn't we? You can't find a store that has, ready made, such exclusive styles in suitings and overcoatings as we are showing, and every one of them is from the best Canadian and English mills.

Then, too, every garment is built to come up to our high standard—built by the best makers who know how and do give close attention to important parts of tailoring—such as adjusting the collars, shaping the shoulders, proper placing the sleeves and stays and making the button holes

Clothes made this way never lose their shape and by so doing we have overcome that appearance which marks clothes as being ready-made.

The prices for such goodness you'd expect to be high—but they are not—are no more than you would pay for ordinary sorts elsewhere.

CITY TO BUY THE STREET RAILWAY

It Was Unanimously So Decided at Last Night's Meeting of the City Council.

Will be Loaned to Mr. Vandyke, Who Promises to Extend it to Trenton.

Tax Collection—Ald Doyle Wanted to Resign—Hot Shot for City Officials.

The rumor that business of importance in connection with the Street Railway and other matters were to come up at last night's meeting of Council probably accounted for the large audience which was present when the meeting was called to order. The fate of the Street Railway was settled last night. The Council thought it better for the city to buy it than to allow it to be dismantled and taken away piecemeal. It seemed that the Mayor's friend, Mr. Vandyke, of Grimsby, was willing to take the road and run it if the city would buy it for him, and this is the way the case stands now—the city buys the road from the Bank of Montreal for $6,750; Mr. Vandyke pays to the city 10 per cent. of the purchase price and takes over the road, giving the city a mortgage on it; he to pay 5 per cent. per annum on the balance of the purchase price till it was paid up. Mr. Vandyke guarantees to extend the road to Trenton, and to have the same in operation by the 1st of next August. The City Solicitor, it may be remarked, gave it as his opinion that the city had no legal right to buy the road, but the Council decided to take chances, as a desperate case requires a desperate remedy. There was a good deal of oratory over the tax collections, and Tax Collector Starling came in for his share of criticism. The question of poles on Front street also gave the City Fathers a chance to talk, which they were not slow to take advantage of. The Board of Trade sent in a communication in reference to the Street Railway, which was acted upon at once. Ald. Doyle wanted to resign his office as chairman of the Executive, because the orders of the Council were not being carried out, but the balance of the Aldermen gave him the merry laugh. Who before ever heard of an Alderman complaining because of a little thing like that!

Council opened at 8:10, all the members being present.

Minutes of previous meeting read and confirmed.

Communications.

A letter was read from the Council of the Board of Trade, which at a meeting held yesterday afternoon, decided to recommend to the City Council that they send a competent man to the different centres of trade, in order to try and get prominent financiers to interest themselves in the Belleville Street Railway and form a company to extend and operate it; also that the Council at once take steps to see that the city's interests in regard to clause 16 of the agreement be looked after, and that the Bank of Montreal be informed that the $10 a day forfeiture clause will be firmly insisted upon and every possible step taken to safeguard the city's interests.—Laid on table.

From the Trenton Electric Company, asking the city to pick out the poles they wished used on Front street, and offering to put up the metal poles provided the city assumed all risk in the matter. However, the Company believed the wooden poles were best.

Purchase of Street Railway.

The City Solicitor wrote giving his opinion in regard to certain clauses of the Street Railway Act. A municipality could, providing no Street Railway were in existence, build one and operate it after giving a month's notice in the newspapers and providing the by-law empowering the same was carried by a vote of the people; but in the present instance, which in his opinion was simply a question of purchase, they had no right to acquire the Street Railway unless further powers were given them by the Legislature.

The following accounts were presented and passed;

Reports of Committees.

The reports of the various committees, as already published, were read, and the Council went into Committee of the Whole on reports, Ald. LaRoche in the chair.

The 1899 Tax Rolls.

The report of the Executive Committee was first taken up. It was all plain sailing except one clause, which stated that, should the Tax Collector find it necessary to issue distress warrants for any taxes due on the rolls of 1899, and should the party so sued be found to have paid his taxes, the Council will be responsible for whatever costs may accrue in the matter.

Ald. Doyle said that this was a matter of great importance. The rolls for 1899 should have been returned by the 15th inst., and unless they were returned it would be impossible to properly carry on the business of the city. There was now, it seemed, no definite time for the return of the rolls. If the orders of the Council were not to be carried out he would like to know how the business of the city was to be run. When Mr. Butterfield left the city last June there was $63,859.75 owing to the city in taxes. The City Treasurer had told him that the present Collector had collected $9,742.29 on the rolls of 1899 and 1900. The 1899 rolls had been extended many times, and now, when the time had arrived for their return there was nothing definite done. What were they going to do? He was not a lawyer, and didn't know whether the bondsmen could be held after the time had been extended so often. The taxes should be collected, which would obviate the necessity of borrowing money from the bank. He had always opposed extending the rolls beyond the second year, as it was distinctly unfair to the people who did pay promptly.

Ald. Falkiner wanted to know which rolls Ald. Doyle was talking about.

Ald. Doyle said the rolls of '99.

Ald. Falkiner—"Can you tell me how much is owing on the rolls of '99?"

Ald. Doyle—"The City Treasurer has told me——"

Ald. Falkiner—"I would ask you, sir, as Finance Minister, how much is owing on the rolls of '99. Can you tell me or can you not?"

Ald. Doyle—"Sit down and I'll tell you."

Ald. Falkiner—"You can't tell me, so I'll tell you. There is just $3,200 owing on the rolls of '99."

Peace reigned once more, and Ald. Doyle closed by saying that he could not be expected to do his duty as Chairman of the Executive when City officials did not seem ready to do their duty.

Ald. Falkiner said that only $3,200 was owed. Incidentally he remarked that Ald. Doyle was out of order.

Ald. Panter's View.

Ald. Panter said the '99 roll had been ordered to be returned by the 15th inst., and, whether the taxes were collected or not the orders of the Council should have been obeyed.

Ald. McFee wanted to know what position the Council would be in if its orders had been obeyed.

Ald. Falkiner said the City would be no better off.

Ald. Panter did not see why the Council's orders were not obeyed. People who owed could then pay their taxes to the City Treasurer.

The Mayor's Warm Words.

The Mayor said the rolls had been ordered to be returned. It was a deliberate case of disobedience of orders. The question was, were they prepared to let Mr. Starling go on and do as he pleased, regardless of the orders of the Council?

Ald. Denmark Defence.

Ald. Denmark said it might be as well for the Council to know the law on the subject. The only legal remedy they had was to issue distress warrants against Tax Collector Starling and his sureties. Would that be fair. He (Mr. Starling) had collected nearly $41,000 since he was appointed, which, he thought, showed that he was trying to do his duty. He would have to return the rolls under oath, and would have to swear that he could not collect taxes from certain parties. That he could not do, for by law you could not force a man to produce a receipt, and until some cases had been up in court there was no way of being certain. It looked as though they were trying to get Mr. Starling to run his neck into a noose. The speaker thought the Council's action guaranteeing the Tax Collector against loss was enough, and things would in the end come all right.

The Mayor said Ald. Denmark's contention would be all right if Mr. Starling had asked before for this authority. He had had the rolls since July. Why did he not ask for this power before. It seemed to him a lame excuse. The time had expired, and then he came and asked for further time.

Ald. Grills Didn't Like It.

Ald. Grills did not believe in these excuses. If a man worked for him and didn't obey orders he would tell him to go. Who was running the City, anyhow? The Council or the City officials? He thought it was Mr. Starling's duty to have brought those rolls back and explained matters. For his part, he felt like never extending the rolls any more. If people were given to understand that their taxes had to be paid they would pay them.

That ended the discussion, and the clause carried.

Poles on Front St.

When the communication from the Trenton Electric Company, re poles on Front street, came up, Ald. Bogart made a strong plea in favor of wooden poles. He had always opposed poles on Front street, he said, but if they were necessary he wanted to see the best used. They had received correspondence from many cities showing that the consensus of opinion was in favor of wooden poles. He wanted the matter referred back till they got more information on the subject, and made a motion to that effect.

Considerable discussion, pro and con, ensued. Some of the Aldermen thought the fact that iron poles cost about three times as much as wooden ones explained the Trenton Electric Company's objection to them.

The Mayor thought a way out of the difficulty might be found by putting the poles in the back yards of Front St. stores. The manager of the Electric Company had told him this could be done.

It was decided to refer the matter back, and a Committee consisting of Ald. McFee, Harris, and Grills was appointed to interview Front St. property-holders in regard to having poles in their yards.

Ald. McFee objected to serving on the Committee, as he was very busy, but the motion carried.

The Street Railway.

When the letter from the Board of Trade, relating to the Street Railway, came up, the Mayor said the matter had been discussed at considerable length by that body. The City Solicitor had given his opinion that the City had not the legal right to buy the road. They could go to the people with a by-law to build a road, but could not go to the people with a by-law to buy a road already built. However, the Legislature would meet soon, and then they could, he felt sure, obtain the necessary permission.

Ald. Falkiner, solemnly—"I suppose you have great influence with the Ontario Government, Mr. Mayor?" (Laughter.)

Continuing, the Mayor said there was a gentleman present who was willing to take over the road and extend it to Trenton, under certain conditions. He wanted the City to buy the road. He would then take it over on a mortgage, paying 10 per cent. of the purchase price down, and 5 per cent. per annum on the balance, and would guarantee to extend the road to Trenton before the 1st of next August. He moved that Mr. Vandyke be heard.

Mr. Vandyke Explains.

Mr. Vandyke said he happened to be in Belleville when the road was offered for sale, and that was how he came to know about it. He knew the road was a money-loser at present, but thought that by extending it to Trenton it could be made to pay. Around Beamsville and St. Catharines, where he came from, they had no better surroundings than there were here, yet an electric road was doing well. He was willing to take the road, pay 10 per cent. down and 5 per cent. interest on the balance, and would put the road in operation at once, guaranteeing to extend it before next August.

The Aldermen seemed to lend a favorable ear to Mr. Vandyke, but Ald. Doyle was a little dubious about the legality of the matter.

The Mayor said they could afford to take chances on the legality. Whether it was legal or not he thought they should do it, as it was in the interests of the city. He moved that the Street Railway be purchased by the city from the Bank of Montreal.

Ald. Doyle wanted to know the price.

The Mayor said they had an option on the road for $6,750, which expired on the 23rd inst.

Ald. Doyle wondered if the Bank would not take less.

The Mayor said he had been shown letters which offered more than that for the plant, but the Bank was willing to let the city have the road at a less price, in order to keep it here.

Ald. Doyle, still cautious, wanted to know where the money was coming from. He was still dubious about the legality.

Our Resourceful Mayor.

The Mayor said there was a way round everything. The city now owned the road-bed, and they could buy the rest of the plant as equipment.

Ald. Panter wanted to know if the city had anything by which they could hold Mr. Vandyke.

The Mayor said they had an agreement in writing.

The Mayor's motion, which provided that the Street Railway be purchased from the Bank at a price not exceeding $6,750, was carried unanimously; the Committee rose and reported, the report being adopted.

Enquiries.

Ald. Denmark wanted to know when a drain on Great St. James St. would be repaired.

Ald. Harris said he would see to it.

Ald. Grills wanted to know if a hydrant would be put on Albert St.

The Mayor thought it should, but couldn't say.

Ald. Falkiner wanted to know if a motion was necessary to bring about repairs to Bridge St., from Murney's Hill to the lower bridge.

The Mayor—"No."

Ald. Panter asked when the rolls for 1899 were to be returned.

The Mayor — "On October, 15th. 1901." Continuing, His Worship said they could deal with the Tax Collector's conduct under the head of motions.

Ald. Panter wanted to know if certain city officials had made returns to the Council, as ordered.

The Mayor—"No. The city officials have been very delinquent in their duty."

Somebody in the audience objected to the Mayor's statement, in language more forcible than elegant, and there was a brief pause while Police Officer Hayes escorted the offender to the sidewalk below.

Ald. Doyle asked if certain lots, bought in by Mr. London for the city, had yet been transferred.

The City Solicitor said the matter was now in process of execution.

Ald. Doyle wanted to know if anything had been done towards advertising lands to be sold for taxes.

The Mayor said the City Solicitor and himself, in the absence through illness of the Treasurer, had tried to get the matter in shape, but found it impossible to do so during the present year. They had decided to leave it till next year, and sell the lands all together, and thus save a bill for advertising.

Ald. Doyle asked how the $3,400, which was this year expected as a result of the sale of lands for taxes, was to be provided. It was in the estimates, and now he was told he couldn't get the money.

"The Merry Ha-ha."

The Aldermen answered Ald. Doyle's question by laughing at him. "That's your problem," they said, "you're Chairman of the Executive."

Introduction of By-laws.

Ald. Doyle introduced a by-law which authorized the City to raise money for the purpose of granting a blank sum of money to the Water Works for the purpose of extending the system.

The by-law was read a first time and then Ald. Panter suggested that the sum required should be inserted.

Ald. Doyle said $5,700.

The Mayor nearly broke Ald. Doyle's heart by moving that the amount be fixed at $10,000. There was, he said, an overdraft of previous years, on which the Commissioners were paying 5 per cent., which should be included in this by-law and thus save 1 per cent. It amounted to $4,300, and covered the extension to the Rolling Mills, building a coal shed, etc.

Ald. Doyle Objects.

Ald. Doyle thought this was the thin edge of the wedge. He believed the Water Commissioners were very economical gentlemen, but really the Council should keep a check on them. The Commissioners were always asking for money.

Ald. Bogart pointed out that the Commissioners must have money. If the works were ever to pay they must have customers, and these extensions were costly. By passing the by-law they would institute a saving of 1 per cent. on a debt of $4,300, which was a good thing.

Ald. Grills is Aggressive.

Ald. Grills thought the quicker the Council took charge of the Water Works the better it would be for all concerned. He had very little faith in the way the works were at present being managed.

After some further discussion the by-law was read a second and third time, passed and numbered 999.

Wants to Enforce Clause 16.

Ald. Bogart, under the head of motions, asked for the suspension of the rules for the introduction of a motion instructing the City Solicitor to inform Messrs. S. A. Lazier & Sons, and also the present holders of the mortgage on the Street Railway, that the city will look for the fulfillment of clause 16 of the Street Railway agreement, which provides for a forfeiture of $10 per day, for every day during which the cars fail to run.

Ald. Falkiner asked who they expected to collect it from.

Nobody seemed to know, and Ald. Denmark and Falkiner had a legal discussion over the matter. They agreed that the motion could not do any harm, at all events, though they did not think the city could collect from the Bank of Montreal. They could, however, sue S. A. Lazier & Sons every evening if they wanted to.

The Mayor said this matter had been discussed in the Board of Trade, and lawyers had differed.

Ald Falkiner—"Most certainly, sir. They always do."

Ald. Bogart's motion carried, the Mayor jocularly remarking that they would stop the money out of the purchase price of the road.

The Woes of a Finance Minister.

Ald. Doyle asked for the suspension of the rules for the introduction of his resignation as chairman of the Executive. His reasons were that the tax collections were not made according to law, his authority seemed to be ignored, and he had suffered both physically and mentally through it.

Ald. Falkiner—"That's not a motion, Mr. Mayor. That's a dying confession." (Laughter.)

The Mayor asked if the rules should be suspended to allow Ald. Doyle to present his resignation, and the Aldermen cheerfully voted it down.

Ald. Doyle, seated in his chair, resignation in hand, was the picture of woe, but the rest of the Council seemed to look on it as a huge joke.

That concluded the business, and the Council adjourned.

THEY DROVE PIMPLES AWAY.—A face covered with pimples is unsightly. It tells of internal irregularities which should long since have been corrected. The liver and the kidneys are not performing their functions in the healthy way they should, and these pimples are to let you know that the blood protests. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will drive them all away, and will leave the skin clear and clean. Try them, and there will be another witness to their excellence.

AT DEATH'S DOOR.—DYSPEPSIA CONQUERED.—A GREAT MEDICAL TRIUMPH.—Gentlemen,—My medical adviser and others told me I could not possibly live when I commenced to use Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery for Dyspepsia. My case was one of the worst of its kind. For three years I could not eat meat and my weight decreased from 218 to 119 lbs. All the food I took for thirteen months previous to taking the Vegetable Discovery consisted of milk. I am now entirely cured and have regained my usual weight, can eat anything with a keen relish and feel like a new man. I have sold over thirty dozen Vegetable Discovery since it cured me, as I am well-known and people in this section know how low I was, and thought I could not possibly be cured. They are eager to try this grand medicine. It certainly saved my life as I never expected to recover when first I commenced using it. I am not exaggerating anything, but feel glad to be able to contribute this testimonial and trust it may be the means of convincing others of its merit as a certain cure for Dyspepsia.

Signed, JEAN VALCOURT,

If you have a cough or cold do not neglect it; many without a trace of that hereditary disease have drifted into a consumptive's grave by neglecting what was only a slight cold. Had they used Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup before it was too late, their lives would have been saved. Mr. A. W. Levy, Mitchell, writes: "I think Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup the best preparation on the market for coughs and severe colds. About six years ago I caught a severe cold which settled on my lungs, and for three months I had a cough. I had a physician attending me, but gradually grew worse until I was on the verge of Consumption, and had given up hopes of being cured, when I was induced to try Bickle's Syrup. Before I had taken one bottle I found myself greatly relieved, and by the time I had finished the second bottle I was completely cured. I always recommend it for severe colds and consumption."

HAD LA GRIPPE.—Mr. A. Nickerson, farmer, Dutton, writes: "Last winter I had La Grippe and it left me with a severe pain in the small of my back and hip that used to catch me whenever I tried to climb a fence. This lasted for about two months, when I bought a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil and used it both internally and externally, morning and evening, for three days, at the expiration of which time I was completely cured."

FOR INFLAMMATION OF THE EYES.—Among the many good qualities which Parmelee's Vegetable Pills possess, besides regulating the digestive organs, is their efficacy in reducing inflammation of the eyes. It has called forth many letters of recommendation from those who were afflicted with this complaint and found a cure in the pills. They affect the nerve centres and the blood in a surprisingly active way, and the result is almost immediately seen.

DR. JEFFERS' TRIAL SERMON

INTERESTING REMINISCENCES BY MR. THOMAS CASEY, OF NAPANEE.

Mr. Thomas W. Casey has just been supplying to the Napanee Beaver a sketch of the early Canadian Embury families, who were among the first U. E. Loyalist pioneers who settled on the South Fredericksburgh shore of Hay Bay, Lennox county. They were relatives of Philip Embury, who preached to the first Methodist congregation in America, established in New York, when it was yet a British town of 10,000 population. He also helped establish the first Methodist class in America; was the first class-leader; helped build the first Methodist Church and was one of its trustees.

Philip Embury's brother, David, and his sons, John and Andrew, came to the Bay of Quinte with the U.E. Loyalists and were prominently identified with the earliest Methodists there. A number of the descendants of both these families are now among the well-known residents of Belleville and Hastings county, and have been for many years. Andrew Embury's house, on Hay Bay was, for many years, a Methodist preaching place, and it would seem from the narrative that there the Rev. Wellington Jeffers, D.D., preached his trial sermon. He was for years the popular pastor of the Bridge St. Church here, and spent his last days in this city. Our well-known townsman, Mr. J. Frith Jeffers, of the Business College, is a son of his.

THE TRIAL SERMON.

Mr. Casey writes as follows:

"The late Rev. Wellington Jeffers, D.D., who became one of the most influential and eloquent Methodist ministers in Canada, and was for years editor of the Christian Guardian, once told the writer, with a considerable amusement, that it was at Andrew Embury's house he preached his trial sermon before the Church Official Board, preparatory to being recommended for the ministry. That was a trying ordeal for young men and he was particularly sensitive and bashful. Rev. Anson Green, D.D., whose fame became general all over Canada, was the Presiding Elder at the time. He was present and so were most of the official members. He said, 'I got greatly embarrassed at the sight of all those grave old men before me, and in order to avoid looking at them I shut my eyes and, being a good deal embarrassed, I went through with what I had prepared about as fast as I well could. I was then very anxious to know what they thought and whether I would be considered competent to pass. One of the old class leaders came and took me by the hand and said, "Well, I never before knew it was possible for a man to talk as long as that without taking his breath."'

Young Jeffers was then requested to retire while his case was being discussed and disposed of, and it turned out that he passed. "But that was all the note of comment," he said, "I ever heard from one of them about my trial sermon." Many another young Methodist preacher of those days had good reason to remember the ordeal they passed through in connection with their trial sermons.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Embury died at an old age—he at about 85 years—and they were buried in the Vandewaters' burying ground near Hay Bay shore, east of No. 1.

The Work is Now Easily and Well Done by
DIAMOND DYES
The perfect coloring of all cotton and mixed cotton and wool rags for the making up of mats, rugs and carpets, is easily accomplished when the Diamond Dye special Cotton colors are used. These scientifically prepared cotton colors are the only unfading cotton dyes now before the ladies of Canada. They are fast to sunlight and washing. They produce the most lovely and brilliant shades and are so simple to use that a child may dye successfully with them.
If you are a lover of homemade mats and rugs, collect your cotton rags, send to The Wells & Richardson Co., Limited, Montreal, for pattern sheet of "Diamond Dye Mat and Rug Patterns," which will enable you to choose your own designs of any required size. When you have selected your design, use the Diamond Dyes to color your rags as per shades on mat or rug pattern. Pattern sheets mailed free to any address.

YOUNG WOMAN PREVENTS HER FATHER FROM ELOPING.

Indianapolis, Oct. 18.—Joseph Weishiser, a wealthy farmer and widower of Tipton county, who celebrated his sixtieth birthday last week, started to elope last night with Miss Minnie Emery, the twenty-year-old daughter of a neighbor. Miss Pauline Weishiser, the farmer's daughter, suspected her father's intentions, and set a watch upon him. Half an hour after he left with his intended, Miss Pauline mounted her bicycle and started over a muddy road in a drizzling rain after the elopers. She overtook them jogging along towards the county seat in a buggy.

Jumping from her wheel, the girl grabbed the horse by the bridle and compelled her father to turn around and accompany her back home. Miss Emery was left at her father's door and Mr. Weishiser went home with his daughter, who declares that he shall not marry.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND
Cures Sick People and Makes Them Feel Young Again.
A CURED MAN SAYS:
"I FEEL JUST AS BRIGHT AND YOUNG AS A BOY."
AFTER MANY FAILURES WITH PHYSICIANS AND MEDICINES, MR. McGRUER WAS SAVED BY PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND.
All the combined powers on earth cannot stem the tide of truth that sweeps over this Dominion of ours in regard to the curing and life-restoring virtues of Paine's Celery Compound. The thousands cured year after year send such strong and convincing letters of testimony that the most hardened skeptics are forced to admit that Paine's Celery Compound does possess medical powers unknown to other medicines.
The following letter from Mr. A. R. McGruer, Dixon's Corners, Ont., assures you that, no matter how desperate your case may be, Paine's Celery Compound will do more for you than you can possibly hope for. Mr. McGruer says:
"Some time ago my condition of health was alarming, and I suffered very much. I was laid up three days out of every week, and I often said to my friends that it would be better if it was the Lord's will that I should be called away. Three of the best doctors attended me, but could not relieve me in any way. It was then I was advised to use Paine's Celery Compound, which brought relief at once. After using this great remedy, I find myself a new man, and feel just as bright as a boy of eighteen years. I think Paine's Celery Compound is the greatest medicine in the world."

EVEN GRITS GROWL.

The War Office has been buying Canadian grain through American houses. Is this the way to cultivate a cordial feeling between the colonies and the Mother Country? Canada is entitled to some consideration for the favors shown to Britain in its preferential tariff.—Kingston Whig.

What is the use of whining about what Canada is or is not entitled to? If the report is true, let the Dominion Government put in a formal complaint to the home authorities by cable and have the matter righted. It is a straight business proposition. Some chappie in the War Office, who probably only knows one place called "America," is paying more for oats in the United States than oats can be bought for in this British colony, and, moreover, is giving the foreign country a preference.—Ottawa Citizen.

"When all that the doctors could do failed me, I was induced to try South American Rheumatic Cure. After taking one bottle I was not only able to leave my bed, but surprised my friends by walking down town. I think it a wonder." 36

Mr. Gilmour, of Trenton, was in town Thursday.

Mr. Fellon is camping over on Chad's Grove.

Mr. A. Chase has purchased a fine new wagon.

WHAT PUT OUT THE PIPE.

Pat Knew Just When He Had to Stop Smoking.

It was 3 o'clock in the morning. The Fulton street car stood on the bridge loop. It was well filled with a sleepy, ill natured crowd. Even the motorman and conductor seemed tired and out of sorts. The inspector who directed the movements of the cars was simply bearish. His answers to the few questions asked him were growled out in quick, short monosyllables.

Just as the signal was given for the car to start for Brooklyn a big Irishman, half seas over, rolled aboard and fell into a seat. He was humming a rollicking Irish tune in a rich brogue. His very presence seemed to scatter the bad humor of the sleepy crowd.

Hardly had the car got well upon the bridge when he pulled out a short pipe, filled and lighted it and sent a puff of smoke skyward. The second puff brought the conductor with a rush, and every one looked for trouble.

"You shouldn't smoke," said the conductor.

"Thot's what me sister tells me," replied the Irishman.

"You mustn't smoke," angrily snarled the conductor.

"Thot's what me doctor tells me," was the good natured answer.

"You shan't smoke here, and if you don't stop I'll throw you out," shouted the conductor.

The great, hulking Irishman raised himself, keeping one hand on the back of the seat, while even the man in the rear woke up and looked forward eagerly to the expected fight. With a half leer and a grin the Irishman said:

"Faith, now yer talkin'. Thot's what me wife says. Begorra, I know she manes it, and I sthops."

Suiting his actions to his words, he took his pipe from his mouth, thrust it into his pocket, fell back into his seat and closed his eyes. Every one laughed. The conductor, with a sheepish look, turned back to the platform of the car, while the passengers guyed him. The man on the rear went to sleep again, and the big Irishman snored

The Plague in Foochow.

London, Oct. 22.—The Church Missionary Society has received mail reports showing that the bubonic plague is ravaging Foochow and vicinity. Fifteen hundred cases of the disease are reported daily, and for a couple of weeks upwards of a thousand coffins have been carried out of the city each day.

Malt Breakfast Food
IS A PERFECT HEALTH FOOD FOR THE YOUNG AND OLD
Malt Breakfast Food, delicious and appetizing, combines the health-giving properties of pure Malt with the strength-yielding virtues of the choicest Wheat. It is the most nutritious of all grain foods because the greatest concentration of nutriment is gained when the elements of the choicest whole Wheat are presented in a form which the stomach most easily assimilates. The action of the Malt on the Wheat produces effects in Malt Breakfast Food which make it the most nourishing and satisfying of all known grain foods. Malt Breakfast Food in its manufacture is predigested, so that the weak stomach perfectly appropriates every particle. No dyspepsia, no indigestion, no stomach troubles when Malt Breakfast Food is made a regular morning dish.

There is one savings bank in New York city which has deposits of more than $68,000,000 and a surplus of more than $7,000,000.

A Chicago arithmetician figures that the average drummer talks 12,000 words a day, or in a working year of 300 days about 3,600,000.

The average annual product of each cow in the country, as figured by the department of agriculture, is: Milk, 380 gallons; cheese, 300 pounds; butter, 130 pounds.

In Paris no street music is allowed after 9 o'clock in the summer and 8 in the winter, while in Limoges bells must not be rung before 6 in winter or 5 on summer mornings.

The salary of most of the assistant secretaries of cabinet departments is $4,500 a year, but most of the assistant attorney generals get $5,000 a year and the solicitor general $7,000.

Many woods have sugar and gum in their composition, and the presence of these elements is generally shown by the attraction the wood seems to have for many kinds of insects.

It is a curious fact that while Americans have been able to produce wooden matches in the cheapest possible manner they have never been particularly successful in the manufacture of high grade wax matches.

Collapsing and Exploding Boilers.

"There is a good deal of inaccuracy in the popular talk about boilers blowing up or exploding," said an old boiler maker. "If too much pressure is exerted on the interior of a boiler which is weak in any part, the weak part will give and the boiler will collapse. If anybody is standing near it at the time, he runs the risk of being fatally scalded by the steam, but the boiler stays just where it was and nothing is wrecked but the boiler. This is what sometimes happens to kitchen boilers, which never can, in the true sense, blow up or explode. But when the boiler is equally strong in every part and steam is generated so suddenly that it has no chance to escape through the safety valve a real explosion occurs; the boiler is torn from its fastenings and tears through the air like a tremendous cannon ball. Such an explosion is attended by a general wreck of everything in the path of the boiler and usually by horrible fatalities."

The umbrella has taken a firm hold upon the native of India, or at any rate upon the Bengali. No less than 3,000,000 umbrellas are imported into the country every year.

SEASONABLE HINTS.

GUARD YOUR HEALTH IN FALL AND EARLY WINTER.

A change from warm to cold is always attended with more danger than from a cold to a warm temperature, hence the greater mortality from lung and throat diseases at this season of the year as compared with spring.

The best protection against colds is not so much in extra clothing as in good digestion.

If the digestion and circulation are good, colds will be unknown.

Poor digestion causes poor circulation of the blood and when in this condition severe colds are contracted on the slightest provocation.

People who make a regular practice of taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals are free from colds, simply because their digestion is perfect, the heart strong and regular, and the whole system fortified against disease.

It requires little argument to convince anyone that the best safeguard against colds, pneumonia and changes of temperature is a good stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after meals are dissolved and mingling with the food cause it to be promptly digested and assimilated; they do this because they contain nothing but harmless digestive elements, which digest meat, eggs and other food even when the stomach itself is weak and flaccid.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets make people well and keep them well, and the best habit you can acquire is to keep daily use of them at meals to make the digestive organs strong and vigorous.

CRUELTY IN PHILIPPINES.

American Soldier Who Shot Four Children Playing on the Road Will Be Hanged.

Washington, Oct. 23.—The records in 20 court martial cases, wherein the charge was murder, have been received at the War Department from Philippines. In the majority of cases the headquarters of division of the sentences of death by hanging were imposed and approved. All of them bore features of unusual barbarity and cruelty, in some so marked as to warrant special mention.

From the records in one of the cases, it would appear that depravity in the Philippines is not confined to the Filipinos. Harry Cline, employed as a teamster by the United States army, while stationed at Paranaque, P. I., took a bicycle ride into the country one day, and came upon four small native boys gathering grass.

"While there was no other apparent motive than natural depravity," says General Chaffee, "he proceeded to shoot these boys with his revolver, wounding three and killing the fourth. He was sentenced to be hanged."

Uncle Sam Has His Troubles.

Washington, Oct. 23.—The Navy Department has received the following from Rear-Admiral Rodgers:

"Cavite, Oct. 22.—Active insurrection in Samar. New York leaves to-day for Catbalogan with 300 marines to return to Basey and Ilalangiga to co-operate with army. Nearly all naval forces concentrated on Samar patrol. Services Arethusa and Zafiro, two colliers, needed and being utilized. (Signed) Rodgers."

A Far Reaching Decision.

Hamilton, Oct. 23.—In Holden v. G.T.R., a suit for damages brought by Mrs. Holden for the death of her husband, who was an engineer, Judge Falconbridge heard argument yesterday morning.

Mr. Cassels set up that the fact that the deceased had membership in the Grand Trunk Provident Society, and that as the plaintiff had accepted the $250 insurance, it acted as a release of the company from further liability on account of death.

Mr. Staunton took the opposite view.

Judge Falconbridge found that the formation of the Grand Trunk Provident Society, the membership in it of the deceased, and her receipt of the $250, constituted an answer to the action, and the action must be dismissed with costs.

This decision was looked upon as a most important and far-reaching one. It was stated that it would entirely overrule the Workman's Compensation Act in all cases where a company, by a system of insurance, protected its employes, provided the employes took advantage of such insurance.

The case will be appealed.

Miss Laura Doty Found.

London, Oct. 23.—Miss Laura Doty, the handsome young girl who has been missing for over a week, having disappeared while on the way from Amherstburg to Oakville, was arrested here yesterday by Detective Thomas Nickle. The detective met the girl on the street and recognized her at once from the description which he had received only an hour before. When taken to the police station and questioned by Chief Williams, the girl at once admitted her identity, but refused to make any explanation whatever. Miss Doty's friends in Oakville have been notified. Miss Doty positively declines to be interviewed. John Mason of Oakville has been arrested at the Western Hotel, having been in company with Miss Doty. Mason is a married man.

Dutch Troops Loose Heavily.

The Hague, Oct. 23.—The latest news from the Dutch East Indies is of the most unfavorable character. In Acheen, Sumatra, where a warlike, brave and devoted native tribe has set Dutch aggression at defiance since 1873, there have been vigorous assaults on the Dutch troops, who have lost considerably.

The number of the killed and the wounded on the Dutch side during September has exceeded largely that of any previous month for some years.

From Java come reports of an alarming shortage in the coffee crop, which only amounts to 96,000 piculs (12,700,000 pounds), against 225,000 piculs (29,735,333 pounds) last year.

Buried at Beechwood.

Ottawa, Oct. 23.—The remains of the late Nicholas Flood Davin of Regina, whose shocking death in Winnipeg last Friday startled his many friends, were laid away in Beechwood Cemetery yesterday afternoon. At the cemetery chapel a short service was conducted by Rev. Dr. Moore of Bank Street Presbyterian Church, assisted by Rev. Thurlow Fraser. Hon. John Haggart, Sir James Grant, Hon. J. C. Patterson, Charles Marcil, M.P., N. A. Belcourt, M. P., Thomas Birkett, M.P., and a number of leading citizens attended the funeral. Among the floral tributes was a wreath from the Manitoba Government.

John Redmond at Cork.

Cork, Oct. 23.—John Redmond, M. P., arrived here yesterday on his way to the United States. He was received by an immense crowd and numerous addresses were presented to him. In the course of a general reply, Mr. Redmond re-asserted that he was not going beyond the Atlantic on a begging mission, but rather to appeal to Irish-Americans to take "their proper places in fighting the battles of the Old Country."

Two Substantial Estates.

Toronto, Oct. 23.—The will of the late Hon. George William Allan of Moss Park, Senator, entered for probate yesterday, disposes of an estate valued at $86,200.

The late Thomas Milburn, head of the patent medicine firm of T. Milburn & Co., left an estate of $57,665, chiefly composed of real estate, and $10,000 in stocks.

Belleville Electric Road.

Belleville, Oct. 23.—The City Council last night decided to purchase the electric street railway from the Bank of Montreal for $6,700 and sell it to Mr. Vandyke of Grimsby, who agrees to pay 10 per cent. down with interest balance at 5 per cent., and extend the road to Trenton by August next.

WOMAN TRIED FOR MURDER

Considerable Interest Is Taken in Brantford Assizes.

Mrs. White Charged With Killing Her Husband by Administering Poison—Hearing Was Begun Tuesday Afternoon—A Number Rejected as Jurors—L. F. Heyd, K.C., Defending, and F. A. Anglin, K.C., Prosecuting.

Brantford, Oct. 23.—The trial of Mrs. Josephine White, who is accused of the murder of her husband, commenced at the Assize Court at 1.30 yesterday afternoon. The great interest taken in the case was shown by the fact that the court room was crowded. The Crown prosecutor in this case is Mr. F. A. Anglin, K. C., of Toronto, and Mr. L. F. Heyd, K. C., is acting for the prisoner.

Mrs. White was arraigned before the court adjourned Tuesday afternoon and pleaded not guilty. The Crown was ready to proceed yesterday morning, but Chief Justice Meredith preferred that there should be no break in the receiving of evidence, and appointed that the hearing should commence during the afternoon.

The work of selecting a jury commenced at 2 o'clock, Mrs. White having been brought in a few minutes before that time. John Gilbert, farmer, of South Dumfries; Robert Armstrong, laborer, Paris; William Creighton, jr., butcher, Burford; Ellison Cooper, machinist, Brantford; William Dalton, tailor, Brantford; Joseph Broadbent, Charles Caroll, machinist, Brantford; John D. Grant, clerk, Brantford; James Secord, farmer, Burford; Chris. Eaton, steamfitter, Brantford, were challenged by the defence.

The Accepted Jury.

The jurymen accepted for the trial were: Russell Cooper, farmer, Burford; William Bridge, farmer, Burford; Thomas McGrory, farmer, Brantford; Thomas H. Brown, carpenter, Brantford; Alfred Hess, farmer, Burford; William Aulseybrook, farmer, Brantford; Thomas Helliker, farmer, South Dumfries; John Roberts, farmer, Brantford; Walter Ash, farmer, Brantford; C. B. Longstreet, farmer, Brantford; John Detwiler, foreman, Brantford; David Papple, farmer, Brantford.

Mr. Anglin, Crown prosecutor, addressed the jury, referring to the fact that it was a rare thing to find direct evidence in cases of premeditated crime. What had to be taken into consideration were the motive, the opportunity and the means. The facts were not of a complicated character, but they required the closest attention. The circumstances attending the death were then reviewed on behalf of the Crown. There would be evidence adduced to show, he said, that strychnine was the cause of death and to show that the unpleasantness which existed between Mr. and Mrs. White was of a serious character, since witnesses would say that Mrs. White had said that she intended to secure a divorce. There would be evidence to show that the prisoner bought, used and knew the use of arsenic and also that arsenic was found in the remains of the deceased. The Crown did not charge that the arsenic was administered by Mrs. White with murderous intent, but rather to cause an illness which might make the death from strychnine poisoning less suspicious.

Still Exporting Gas.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 23.—Government Inspector Charles Stiff claims to have discovered that natural gas is still going to Detroit from Windsor. He has reported the find to the Ontario Government, and recommended that the Interior Construction Company of Detroit, which imports the gas across the river, and which has a lease of the river bed from the Ontario Government, be ordered to remove its submarine pipes from the Canadian channels. Mr. Stiff returned to Toronto yesterday morning.

Appeal Direct to the Czar.

Stockholm, Oct. 22.—The Finnish Senate has decided to forward to the Czar the people's great petition against the new army law promulgated by Russia. It was feared that the Senate would deny the right of the people of Finland to petition the Government. The petition, which is couched in caustic language, will now be read by the Czar, and his answer will be awaited with much interest.

SUNNY WOMEN.

Who has not known the woman whose disposition is described by that one word "sunny?" There's always a laugh lurking on her lips. Her cheeks are ever ready to dimple in smiles. Her household influence is as brightening and stimulating as the sunshine. Nothing can be crueler than to have this sunshine blotted out by disease. But this is a common cruelty. The young wife who was the sunshine of the home becomes its shadow. Every young wife should know the value of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in the protection and preservation of the health. It promotes regularity, dries the drains which enfeeble body and mind, and cures inflammation, ulceration and female weakness. It nourishes the nervous system and gives to the body the balance and buoyancy of perfect health. It is a strictly temperance medicine.

"I can say that your medicine cured me," writes Mrs. Maud Pearce, of Stoneville, Fairfield Co. Ohio. "I had suffered about twelve years from female weakness and I had almost given up, thinking there was no cure for me. Then I heard about Dr. Pierce's medicine and thought I would try it, and can say that seven bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' made me well. I am now able to do my own housework. I took about twelve bottles in all of Dr. Pierce's Medicines. Took some of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' 'Favorite Prescription' and some of the 'Pleasant Pellets.'"

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation.

General Buller Gets a Set Back

The Commander-in-Chief Has Taken Decisive Action.

Sultan of Turkey May Make Trouble—Cruelty of an American Soldier—Woman Tried for Murder—No News of Miss Stone—Pan Will Close on November 2.

London, Oct. 23.—Sir Redvers Buller has been relieved of the command of the army corps in consequence of the speech he made on Oct. 10 after the luncheon given in his honor by the King's Royal Rifles, dealing with his famous despatch to General White at Ladysmith. He has been placed on half pay, and General French has been appointed to succeed him.

In the official announcement the War Office says that the Commander-in-Chief, "after full consideration of all the circumstances and the explanations furnished," recommended that General Buller be relieved, which has been done.

The Press on General Buller.

London, Oct. 23.—This morning's papers, almost without exception, sympathize with General Buller. In fact they express so much appreciation of his services to the country that it is easy to see they wish Mr. Brodrick and Lord Roberts had not terminated his professional career. They express, however, the opinion that no other course was possible if public confidence in the administration of the army was not to receive a very severe shock. The Daily News stands alone in its outspoken condemnation of the official decision, and urges General Buller's friends not to rest until they have got Mr. Brodrick out of the War Office.

GENERAL BULLER.

Leyds Put Down.

London, Oct. 23.—Advices from Brussels states that Dr. Leyds at present occupies a subordinate position to the Boer delegates, Messrs. Fischer, Wessels and Wolmarans, who are now practically supreme in the Boer councils owing to Mr. Kruger's growing age and fatigue. Mr. Kruger was 76 on Oct. 10.

Immediate Boer Reprisals.

New York, Oct. 23.—The Vienna correspondent of The London Times, quotes The Pester Lloyd, which says it learns from The Hague that Mr. Kruger, Dr. Leyds and Messrs. Wolmarans and Fischer have held a council of war at Villa Caracasa to consider what answer is to be made by the Boers to the executions in South Africa. There is said to be no doubt among the Boer leaders that diplomatic protests are inadequate. All present at the meeting, except Mr. Kruger, says the report advised immediate reprisals, that for every Boer prisoner executed a captured British officer be shot. Mr. Kruger opposed this plan on the ground that he did not wish to give the campaign the character of a war between savages, although it had already become a war of extermination.

To Them Dewet Is Alive.

The Hague, Oct. 23.—The former residents of the Transvaal who are now in this city entirely discredit the rumors of the death of General Dewet, emanating from Durban, Natal.

St. John's Wait.

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 23.—The British royal yacht Ophir and her consort are expected to arrive here this morning with the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York. Elaborate preparations have been made for the reception. More than 500 fishing vessels are here to participate in the festivities.

Closed November 2.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 23.—The Board of Directors of the Pan-American Exposition yesterday afternoon adopted the following:

"Resolved, that Saturday, Nov. 2, at midnight, be fixed as the time of the final closing of the Exposition."

350,000 Bushels a Day.

Winnipeg, Oct. 23.—The weather has been remarkably fine the past few days. The C. P. R. is now carrying wheat to Fort William elevators at the rate of three hundred and fifty thousand bushels per day.

American Flag Stolen.

Winnipeg, Oct. 23.—American Consul Graham, on his return to the city after two days' absence, found that the American flag, which continually flies in front of his residence, had been stolen.

Honor for Koch.

Berlin, Oct. 23.—Emperor William has conferred upon Surgeon-General Koch, the noted physician, the rank of Major-General.

The Pope Is Very Weak.

London, Oct. 23.—Dalziel's Rome correspondent states that the Pope had an alarming recurrence of his intestinal trouble on Saturday night, and that yesterday His Holiness is in a state of great weakness.

CONFERENCE OPENED.

Pan-American Nations Meet in the City of Mexico.

City of Mexico, Oct. 23.—The Pan-American Conference was formally opened yesterday afternoon by Hon. Ignacio Marsical, Minister of Foreign Relations, who, in the course of his address, commented on the fact that more than eleven years have elapsed since an international American conference, destined to promote a friendly understanding and material harmony between the nations of this hemisphere, met at Washington for the first time in history.

"Since then," he said, "events which have occurred in the whole world and the efforts made in Europe with the noble object of attaining similar results, may serve us as a guide and example to push forward such a delicate understanding. Every step that humanity takes in the true path to progress, if taken along the true direction for every step, having for its object humanitarian interests, is a conquest that can never be lost. It is therefore the duty of statesmen to obtain the greatest practical results from these advancements and impressions which are really indestructible.

"There is no doubt whatever of the sentiment of the friendship and sympathy cultivated to such a high degree to our northern neighbor among the representatives of the three Americas and the marked tendency of our age is well defined.

"Gentlemen, I am sure that in your approaching labors you will take advantage of such favorable elements. I am also certain that you will do your utmost to avoid all spirit of dissension. Love of country and our absolute identification with it is undoubtedly an obligatory virtue, and one of our most sacred duties."

NO NEWS OF MISS STONE.

More Missionaries Sent in Search—Mme. Tsilka Dead.

Constantinople, Oct. 23.—Should no news be received during the next 48 hours from the missionaries, who are seeking the captors of Miss Ellen M. Stone and her companion, Mme. K. S. Tsilka, more missionaries will be sent to assist in looking for the brigand band.

One Is Dead.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 23.—It is reported that Mme. Tsilka, the companion of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary, captured by brigands, died recently in captivity.

Killed by Torture.

London, Oct. 23.—The Morning Leader publishes the following communication, dated Saturday, Oct. 19, from Sofia: "On the frontier near Grussbelovo yesterday five fugitives from Baniska, Macedonia, among them a brother of Mme. Tsilka, Miss Stone's companion, were shot dead by Turkish frontier guards, while endeavoring to cross into Bulgarian territory.

"Great brutality exists in the territory between Baniska and the frontier. Turkish officials have arrested over 100 residents of Bulgarian nationality and subjected them to torture in order to wring from them information as to Miss Stone's whereabouts. Several of them have died under torture."

At the Sultan's Nod.

Vienna, Oct. 23.—"Miss Stone was captured," says the Sofia correspondent of The Neues Wiener Journal, "not by brigands, but by a detachment of Turkish cavalry, at the instigation of the Sultan."

Charges Against Inspector.

Stoney Creek, Oct. 23.—The investigation into the charges made against Thomas Macklem, license inspector of South Wentworth, began here yesterday morning. Before the hour set for the commencement the hall was well filled with both residents of the district and also of Hamilton. Provincial Inspector J. K. Stewart, Toronto, is in charge of the investigation, and with him, at the head table, were seated Rev. Charles Deacon, who made the charges, supported by Rev. C. E. Morrow of Bartonville. The charges are seven in number. Among them are the following: "That Mr. Macklem is an incompetent inspector," and that in specific instances he did not do his duty.

Islander Inquiry Ended.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 23.—The Islander inquiry closed yesterday and the findings of the court will be given on Wednesday morning. Capt. LeBlanc, pilot of the lost steamer, advanced the opinion that some of the bulkhead doors must have been opened and denied all the stories of the drunkenness on the part of himself and the late Capt. Foote. Firemen and others testified that the doors were shut.

Fatal Rush in a Theatre.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 23.—Hundreds of people attempted to rush out of the Temple Theatre yesterday afternoon because the cry of fire was raised, when a little flame was seen about the Polyscope machine. In the scramble scores of people were knocked down and more than 20 were badly hurt, while it is feared that two or three will not survive their injuries.

The North Bruce Trial.

Toronto, Oct. 23.—The trial of the election petition against James Halliday, Conservative M.P. for North Bruce, will be held at Wiarton, Dec. 10, before Sir John Boyd and Mr. Justice MacMahon.

ENGLAND GETS A SET BACK

Europe's "Sick Man" Crops Up in an Unexpected Place.

Sultan of Turkey Refuses to Sign Convention Giving England a Foothold at Koweyt—Crisis Brewing on the Persian Gulf, But Official News From the Porte Must Be Accepted With Considerable Mental Reservation.

Constantinople, Oct. 23.—The Sultan has refused to sign the convention giving to England a local foothold at Koweyt, the proposed terminal of the Bagdad Railway.

London, Oct. 23.—Official news from Constantinople must always be accepted with a mental reservation, and not believed until corroborated from some more reliable source. But if this announcement be true it is likely to bring to a crisis the trouble that has been brewing in the Persian Gulf.

Russia and Japan Friends.

London, Oct. 23.—"On the authority of Count Lamsdorff, I am able to declare," says the St. Petersburg correspondent of The Daily Telegraph, "that the relations between Russia and Japan are quite amicable, and that the rumors of a likelihood of war are quite unfounded.

"Certainly the Corean question will not cause a rupture, because Russia and Japan recently arrived at an agreement, which makes Corea a sort of buffer state, both agreeing to respect her territorial integrity."

Fear New Chinese Revolt.

London, Oct. 23.—European merchants in Hong Kong and Shanghai are convinced that there will be a renewal of the disturbances in China at no distant period, according to General A. W. Greely, who is at present in London, homeward bound from the Philippines.

Slaughter of Rebels.

Berlin, Oct. 23.—It is announced in a despatch received here from Swatow that one hundred and forty rebels have been executed, and that order has been restored in the Hsing Ning district, where several missions were recently destroyed.

INSPECTOR ARMSTRONG DEAD.

Toronto Officer Took Overdose of Strychnine to Induce Sleep.

Toronto, Oct. 23.—Police Inspector Robert Armstrong is dead as the result of an overdose of strychnine, which he took about midnight in the form of a sleeping powder. Despite all efforts of the physicians the popular officer passed away at 12.55 this morning. Deceased was 58 years of age, a native of Ireland, and was one of the oldest and most respected officers on the force. He was an active church worker. He is survived by his widow, three sons and one daughter. One son is Rev. G. A. Armstrong of Waterloo.

About Shamrock III.

Glasgow, Oct. 23.—Sir Thomas Lipton, while desiring to avoid monopolizing the British side of the America's Cup contests, has already taken a step towards a third contest for the trophy. Captain Robert Wringe had a long conference with Mr. Fife, jr., as to whether he would undertake designing the Shamrock III. for a series of races in 1902. It is understood that Mr. Fife considered the time too short to do his best work, but was willing to design a challenger to race in the autumn of 1903. No absolute arrangements can be made until Sir Thomas Lipton arrives, but there is little doubt that a challenge will be sent.

Mr. Massey's Condition.

Toronto, Oct. 23.—The condition of Mr. Walter E. H. Massey was a little improved yesterday morning, but he is still critically ill, and has only a bare fighting chance for recovery. On Monday night his life was despaired of, and it was thought that he would not live until morning. Last night the report handed out by the physicians was that the improvement in the morning had continued throughout the day.

Big Seizure of Furs.

Montreal, Oct. 23.—A thousand dollars' worth of mink skins and coon tails, belonging to the Russian Fur Company of Montreal, have been seized by the United States Customs authorities at Rouse's Point, it being alleged that the goods were undervalued. The firm claim that they were valued at what they paid for them, and state that they will carry the matter to the higher officials at Washington.

Sir Lipton Sails for Home.

New York, Oct. 23.—Sir Thomas Lipton sailed for home yesterday on the Celtic. Before going aboard he said he had not given up the fight for the America's Cup. As the vessel pulled out from her dock he was forced to bow and wave his handkerchief continually in response to the cheers from those on the dock. Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht, the Erin, will sail at noon to-day.

From Crow's Nest Pass.

Petrolea, Oct. 23.—Mr. James Peat of this town, who has had 40 years' experience in the oil business in Petrolea, has just returned after a month's visit in the Crow's Nest Pass. Mr. Peat is confident that crude oil can be obtained in large quantities and a far higher gravity than the Petrolea crude. All it requires is to develop the country.

Found Dead in the Woods.

Ottawa, Oct. 23.—Mrs. Todd, an aged woman of Fallowfield, who was missing since Friday, was found dead yesterday morning in the woods near her home. It is supposed that she went out to gather firewood and succumbed to heart failure.

Goldwin Smith Returns Well.

Toronto, Oct. 23.—Prof. Goldwin Smith, who was taken ill last week at Ithaca, N. Y., while on his way to Yale, arrived home last night at 10 o'clock. The venerable professor was somewhat fatigued after his journey, but otherwise was feeling very well.

A. W. Fowler, M.P., Safe.

Hampton, N.B., Oct. 23.—In the Election Court yesterday the petition against the return of A. W. Fowler, M.P., Conservative, was dismissed with costs.

Case Without the Ban.

Rochester, Oct. 23.—Father Strandinski returned last night from seeing Czolgosz at Auburn. He declares the convicted man as without the ban, a wholly incorrigible and utterly worthless case.

To Test Koch's Theory.

New York, Oct. 23.—Doctors in this city will inoculate a cow with human tuberculosis bacilli to test Dr. Koch's theory.

Will Visit United States.

Berlin, Oct. 23.—The annual trip of the German Husbandry Society in 1903 will be made to the United States.

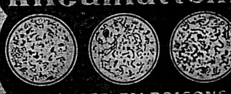
Rope Works Burned.

Hamilton, Oct. 23.—Main's rope works, Strachan street, was destroyed by fire last evening. Two frame buildings, 400 feet long, were burned down. A brick cordage works adjoining was also destroyed, and two frame houses owned by Main were damaged. The loss on buildings, stock and machinery is estimated at $12,000. The insurance is only $7,500.

Rheumatism



IS CAUSED BY POISONS AND GERMS IN THE SYSTEM

MUSCULAR RHEUMATISM CURED.

Physicians of the modern school claim that Rheumatism is caused by the poisons or toxins eliminated by certain germs. From recent research this theory is undoubtedly correct. What you need to correct such a disorder is Powley's Liquified Ozone. The antiseptic effect of the oxygen it contains destroys the germs and antidote the poison or toxins they form. We don't make this claim without being able to substantiate it. Read our proof.

THE OZONE CO., LTD., TORONTO, ONT.
Gentlemen: I have much pleasure in stating that I have fully recovered from an attack of muscular rheumatism, due undoubtedly to the use of your "Ozone." I consider it an excellent remedy as a tonic and blood purifier, and will never be without it.
(Sgd.) C. L. BUCHANAN, 228 St. Urbain St., Montreal, P.Q.

There is no other preparation known that has the power to cure disease that is possessed by Powley's Liquified Ozone. It is made up of oxygen in stable liquid form and makes cures where all other means fail. Powley's Liquified Ozone is endorsed by a great many Canadian physicians and used by them regularly in their practice.

If you desire our physicians to give you advice on your particular case, make a detailed statement of just how you feel and the way you are afflicted. They will give you advice absolutely free of charge. Address the Consulting Department of the Liquid Ozone Company, 229 Kinzie Street, Chicago, Ill.

days in bed with intense pain and suffering. I was under the physicians care for over a year without any relief, when my attention was called to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by several of our Mormon women who had been cured through its use. I began its systematic use and improved gradually in health, and after the use of six bottles my health was completely restored, and for over two years I have had neither ache or pain. You have a truly wonderful remedy for women. Very sincerely yours, MRS. HULDA JAKEMAN, Salt Lake City, Utah."

Just as surely as Mrs. Jakeman was cured just so surely will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure every woman suffering from any form of female ills.

ONTARIO LIBERAL LEADERS, STOCK COMPANY PROMOTERS, ETC.

The Toronto Telegram, which deals in blunder-buss hits at both parties, made a bull's eye when it fired its last shot at those who are now leading the Liberal party in Ontario. It says:

"Liberal candidates in the constituency are degenerating into a lot of overloaded pack-mules, who must stagger along under the responsibility of explaining that it is all right for Hon. J. M. Gibson to be an electric railway magnate, for Hon. J. R. Stratton to be a power company boss, and for other members of the Government to be reaching for franchises. The leaders who formed the Ontario Government in the best days of Liberalism in Ontario were not dabblers in every kind of joint stock company and followers in the constituencies did not have to do a great deal of explaining on the personal account of the Cabinet Ministers."

In England, members of a Government who dabble in stock companies, have to resign. In Canada, Grits use their positions to enrich themselves.

THE OTONABEE WATER POWER AND THE HON J. R. STRATTON'S DENIAL.

The Grits are being put to their wits end to finding an excuse for the Hon. J. R. Stratton's denial that he is interested in the Otonabee Power Company in view of the publication of the list of Charter Directors of the company, who are F. J. Jamieson, Stratton's business manager; Roland M. Glover, Stratton's bookkeeper; W. A. Stratton, K. C., Vice President, Stratton's brother; Guss L. Hay, Stratton's brother's law partner; R. H. Hall, Stratton's brother's law partner's relative; A. Hall, Stratton's brother's law partner's uncle.

In addition to these interesting facts the prospectus announced that amongst those who had taken stock was Hon. J. R. Stratton, president of the Peterboro Lock Company, and yet the Grits deny that the Hon. J. R. Stratton, Provincial Secretary, has any interest directly or indirectly in the company.

Why this denial, if there were nothing wrong in securing from the Dominion authorities a lease at 60 cents per horse power, for which the same Government has been offered or demanded $4 per horse power, but which they were obliged to cancel, after a protest had been made by the people of Peterborough, whose offer of $4 per horse power had been rejected; and then offer the same power to competition, but in such a way and upon such terms as to secure the lease to the Stratton Company. It was a job of the most transparent "business is business, you know," kind.

The line taken by the Toronto Globe in its defence of Mr. Stratton is of a somewhat different character, it does not say the transaction was either good or bad, but "that the attacks which are made in the Tory papers on Mr. Stratton are largely due to the fact that the Minister is regarded as a formidable opponent," and that "it is his services to the Liberal party that constitute his offence in the eyes of the Opposition journals, and Liberals are very apt to rally about a man whose offence is of that character." It will be seen that the Globe does not pretend to justify or defend this iniquitous transaction by the Dominion Government in giving to the Stratton syndicate a lease of a water power at 60 cents a horse power, for which $4 had been offered and refused by the same Government. It is sufficient for the Globe to know that Mr. Stratton is a Goliath in debate and has done good work for the party. That covers any and all iniquities that the Government might perpetrate in his favor. It is to be regretted that such is the degradation to which politics has fallen in the ranks of new Liberalism.

TIMELY TOPICS.

Our friends the Grits are working overtime trying to get a victim to gun against Mr. E. Guss Porter in West Hastings. Just at present all their forces are being brought to bear on Mr. R. T. D. Cummings, of Trenton, but that gentleman shies at the proffered honor. He doesn't believe in allowing himself to be set up just to be knocked down.

• • •

"I was at the Council meeting on Monday night," said a gentleman to The Intelligencer this morning, "and was surprised to see such a small representation of our citizens among the audience. Was that an average representation?" he asked.

The newspaper man assured him that it was more than average; it was large—for Belleville.

"I can't understand," said the other, "why the people of this city don't take a more active interest in civic affairs. I don't know of anything which does so much good as publicity in municipal matters. It makes the people at the head of affairs hew closer to the line, as it were."

The above, it may be remarked, is what The Intelligencer has contended all along. The only way to bring about a healthy public interest in municipal matters is to let people know what is going on. For some time past the City's business has been practically conducted in secret. An important matter, in which the citizens are deeply interested, is as good as settled before the ratepayers in general have a chance to find out anything about it. It comes up in Council and, unless some Alderman kicks over the traces, is quietly passed, and the ratepayers never know what arguments were used to bring it about, or who used them.

• • •

This may be all right; perhaps people like to go it blind, but we doubt it. For some time, when the reporters were allowed in to the Committee meetings, there was hardly a man or woman in Belleville who had not a fair knowledge of, and an intelligent interest in, municipal affairs. Then the Council adopted the Star Chamber method, and the result has not been satisfactory.

• • •

The Aldermen are not elected to shoulder so much responsibility as some of them try to assume. They are simply the representatives of the people. And they make a big mistake if they imagine that any eleven men who were ever elected entirely stripped the tree of knowledge in Belleville.

• • •

Little boys continue to smoke cigarettes on the streets, and those who should be interested in the suppression of the evil work overtime trying not to see them at it.

• • •

It may safely be remarked that the pork factory is a plant of slow growth.

• • •

Wouldn't it be dreadful if somebody would kidnap the steam roller and hold it for ransom.

• • •

Many people are favorably impressed with Mr. Vandyke's plan to run the Electric Railway to Trenton. With facilities for hauling freight, the road, people think, would pay handsomely.

• • •

The idea of poles on Front street is not looked on with favor. If it be possible to compromise by placing the poles in the back yards it certainly should be done.

• • •

The little folks are beginning to save up for Christmas. They know that Santa Claus helps those who help themselves.

• • •

The clang of the street car gong will be welcomed on Front St. again.

• • •

There were lots of flies on Belleville people yesterday. Must have blown up from Kingston.

• • •

The odor of burning leaves is not exactly sweet incense to the nostrils. It marks the coming of another hard winter.

• • •

Some people think the members of the City Council should advertise for a few yards of backbone and cut out the oratory.

• • •

Nearly everybody will agree with the merchant who says that poles on Front street would be an eyesore and a menace to public safety.

• • •

The Front street roadway needs patching. At present it is more holey than righteous.

• • •

Many complaints are made about the lower bridge, the driveway of which is in a very poor state of repair.

• • •

Those fellows who stole the preserves last night probably got into the cellar by prying off the jamb of the door.

There is much sound sense in Mr. W. A. Hungerford's letter, which appears in another column. The future of Canada depends greatly on the development of its mining industries, and this particularly applies to Hastings County. Mr. Hungerford's letter should make excellent material for the deputation appointed to wait upon the Government.

There was consternation at the City Hall this morning for a time, when Ald. Doyle, chairman of the Executive, refused to attach his signature to the various cheques which were to go to pay off the different accounts against the city. The accounts had passed the Council, but the cheques, of course, needed the signature of the chairman of the Executive. We understand that Ald. Doyle insisted on pressing his resignation, which he tried to hand in on Monday night; and there was talk of a special meeting of Council to-night to appoint a new "Finance Minister," but the Alderman finally changed his mind and signed the cheques.

Some effort should be made to clean up Front street. This afternoon paper was blowing about in a way calculated to frighten restive horses. The sand on the sides of the street, too, will soon be dust, and might better be removed in its present state.

"I'd be very sorry to see the Street Railway plant taken away from Belleville," said a gentleman who travels about the neighboring country a good deal. "It was a great convenience. You'd be surprised," he went on, "how dead Peterboro seems without one. The people there are very sorry they let it go."

Mayor Graham stated at the Council meeting on Monday night that Tax Collector Starling did not ask to be indemnified against loss in cases of distress until after the 15th of this month, the date on which the rolls were to be returned. Mr. Starling says that he appeared before the Executive Committee two weeks after he was appointed, and then asked the Council to indemnify him, but no action was taken in the matter. This statement is made in justice to Mr. Starling.

GET COMFORT.

There is little comfort in life when a person is afflicted with pain. Donald Babcock, farmer, Harrowsmith, Ont., was a sufferer from rheumatism for years. When advised to take Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure he did so, and two bottles of this wonderful preparation, with two boxes of Climax Iron Tonic Pills, completely cured him. He has not had a twinge of pain since, and attends to his duties regularly. This great blood purifier is put up in bottles containing ten days treatment. Price 50 cents at all drug stores or The Dr. Hall Medicine Co., Kingston, Ont.

Dates of Trials Fixed

Charles Woodcock, of Trenton, committed for trial on the charge of indecent conduct, was brought before Judge Lazier yesterday afternoon and elected to be tried by His Honor. Trial was fixed for Monday, November 4th.

J. Haslip, of Tweed, committed on the charge of assault, will be tried before Judge Lazier on Monday next.

A GENTLE HINT.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Regular size, 75 cts. ARSENIC IS AN ASSET

HASTINGS COUNTY MIGHT CONTROL THE TRADE OF THIS CONTINENT.

(Mail and Empire.)

Mr. T. W. Gibson, director of the Bureau of Mines, has returned from a tour of inspection in the mining sections of Hastings County, and is enthusiastic over the Belmont gold mine in that district.

The owners of the mine are the Cordova Mining and Exploration Company, and results have been so good that they are about to increase their mill of 30 stamps to a capacity of 100 stamps. There are ten well-defined veins, and although the ore is not high grade, it is profitable and averages $6 per ton. Mr. Gibson also visited several other properties and sees reason to believe that Hastings County could produce all the arsenic used in America. The Deloro gold mine at present produces it. The people down there are alive to the question, and are about to ask both Federal and Provincial Governments for a bounty on the production of arsenic.

TENDENCY OF CATARRH IS TO SPREAD.

Just a slight matter at first, but because slight, neglected; but the seed sown brings forth a dangerous harvest, Consumption, which is the harvest of death. Better spend a few moments each day inhaling Catarrhozone, an aromatic antiseptic that relieves at once, clears the nasal passages and restores lost sense of taste and smell. The immediate effect of Catarrhozone is magical, so prompt and efficient. Cure is certain and permanent if you use Catarrhozone. Price $1. Small sizes 25c., at druggists or Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

Successful Tea Meeting

The Centre Street Mission tea meeting, held last night, proved very successful. The church was filled, and the ladies had provided a sumptuous repast. Rev. E. Woodcock presided, and directed a good programme. Speeches were given by several ministers of the city, interspersed by good singing. The College boys were on hand and helped to make things pass pleasantly. Mr. Burns and Miss Elvins gave several pleasing numbers. Much credit is due to Mr. and Mrs. Marsh, also the ladies, for the success of the meeting. Proceeds $20, which will go to the debt on the mission.

Why The War Drags

Mr. Bennett Burleigh, the veteran war correspondent who is still in the field in South Africa with the troops, in one of his recent letters gives one explanation of why the war drags on. He says: "How can it be hoped for that the war can be ended in a day when there are column leaders who take the field with as many wagons and Cape carts as they have men—a vehicle with horses to spare for each soldier? To such columns going about eight to ten miles a day, starting late when the sun has taken the damp out of the morning air, and outspanning early in the afternoon upon a pleasant camping-ground, campaigning is glorified picnicing. With miles of wagons to guard, the aggressive fighting force is nowhere, and the columns are as manacled men striving to give chase to foxes. It is not in such fashion the fleet-mounted Boer is to be cornered and thrashed."

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

Quick & Robertson's For Fine Clothes.

There's no use disputing the fact that this store stands pre-eminent in this city as the store for Men's Fine Clothes.

With our large and pleasing varieties, up-to-date-style, and good making we've won the trade of every man, and especially the trade of those men who are particular about the Clothes they wear.

And why shouldn't we? You can't find a store that has, ready made, such exclusive styles in suitings and overcoatings as we are showing, and every one of them is from the best Canadian and English mills.

Then, too, every garment is built to come up to our high standard—built by the best makers who know how and do give close attention to important parts of tailoring—such as adjusting the collars, shaping the shoulders, proper placing the sleeves and stays and making the button holes.

Clothes made this way never lose their shape and by so doing we have overcome that appearance which marks clothes as being ready-made.

The prices for such goodness you'd expect to be high—but they are not—are no more than you would pay for ordinary sorts elsewhere.

A TALK WITH MR. VANDYKE

Man Who Will Run the Street Railway Explains His Position

Has No Doubt of Future Success of Road—Transfer Not Yet Made.

The Intelligencer this afternoon had a short talk with Mr. Vandyke, the Grimsby man who is to shortly take over the Belleville Street Railway. It took considerable time to locate Mr. Vandyke, but he had no objection to talking when the newspaper man approached him.

"People are wondering, Mr. Vandyke," said The Intelligencer, "why you have not bought the Street Railway out and out yourself, instead of getting the City to buy it for you."

"I am paying them good interest on their money," said Mr. Vandyke, "and by the time I get the road running to suit me it will cost me nearly as much money as the City is putting into it. For that matter," he went on, "I could pay the bank what it demands for the road and then make a thousand dollars by selling it for scrap. But I am not in the scrap business. I know enough about suburban electric roads to know that inside of a year people in this city will be coming trying to get stock in the Company I intend to form."

"You intend to form a Company to extend the road, then?" asked the newspaper man.

"I do," was the reply, "but I intend to hold most of the stock in it myself. I don't see," he went on, "what the people of this city have to fear in the matter. If I should throw the road back on their hands they would still have security for their money. But I am not doing business that way. I am not running round the country for my health; I think there is money in this road, and I expect to make it."

"Do you expect to extend the road in the city?" he was asked.

"Had I secured this road three weeks sooner," said Mr. Vandyke, "I would have given the people a service around Bridge St. this fall. As it is I expect to run out to the Institute before long."

"Might we ask what your line of business is, Mr. Vandyke?" said the inquisitive newspaper man.

"I have a factory in Grimsby," said that gentleman, "something on the same line as your Mayor, Mr. Graham. I also own a store, and on Friday of this week the people of Grimsby will vote on a by-law to see whether they will acquire by purchase the electric light plant which is at present owned by me."

"Owned?" said the newspaper man, with the rising inflection.

"That's what," said Mr. Vandyke, and he pulled from his pocket a copy of the advertisement calling on the ratepayers of Grimsby to vote on the by-law.

"When do you expect to have the Belleville road in operation again?" asked the newspaper man.

"I can't tell," said Mr. Vandyke. "I have to go home to-night, on account of that by-law vote, and can't possibly get back before Monday."

"The road has not yet been taken over from the Bank?" said the scribe.

"No," was the reply. "The necessary arrangements have not yet been made. The Mayor is now in the City Treasurer's office attending to them."

"Do you think the transfer will be made to-day?" he was asked.

"No," said Mr. Vandyke, "I don't see how it possibly can be. There is too much to do."

As the newspaper man was making for the door the Grimsby man said:

"Now please understand that I don't want any newspaper puffing in this matter. My family will get enough to eat even if I don't get the Belleville Street Railway. If anybody has a better proposition than mine to make to your city I am willing to drop out. But it seems to me I am trying to do the fair thing, and I think that in the end it will pay me and the city, too."

"Good-day," said the scribe, and left Mr. Vandyke to the enjoyment of his cigar.

The Rogers Case.

Wm. Rogers, of Madoc Township, who was on trial yesterday afternoon before Judge Fralick, charged with threatening to do harm to his wife and neglecting to support her, was adjudged not guilty of the former charge, but was convicted of the latter. His Honor, however, allowed the accused his liberty on condition that he appear when called upon for sentence. Rogers stated that he was willing to support his wife if she would live with him, but Mrs. Rogers stated that she did not want any more to do with him, and left the court room in company with her mother.

HAD A SWEET TOOTH

ROBBERS MADE A GREAT HAUL ON HERCHMER AVENUE LAST NIGHT.

Thieves last night made a good haul at the residence of Mr. James Marskell, Herchmer Ave., and in consequence will have an abundant supply of preserves for the winter.

An entrance was obtained into the cellar, which appears to be the only part of the house visited, and 100 jars of preserves and pickles were taken, also a crock and a half of butter, and a quantity of choice seed potatoes.

The entrance was effected by opening the cellar door. About midnight one of the inmates of the house heard a noise about the premises, but did not arouse the other inmates or make any alarm. Two men were seen near Mr. Marskell's residence about 1 o'clock this morning, but they appeared to be walking toward the city.

The robbery has been reported to the police who are making every effort to find out the thieves.

SATISFACTION.

There is a class of manufacturers in the clothing business to-day that cut down the value of a garment until its strength and virtue are gone. This class of clothing is sold by some firms and the reputation of the clothing trade goes with it. When you see suits and overcoats at $2.00 and $3.20, watch out. The Oak Hall will sell only such clothing as will give their patrons perfect satisfaction, and the prices will be low enough, too.

PRAISE FOR COL. BIGGAR

WAS WARMLY THANKED BY DUKE FOR WORK IN CONNECTION WITH MEDALS.

Ottawa, Oct. 22.—Their Excellencies the Governor-General and the Countess of Minto arrived from Halifax by special train at 5.30 this afternoon. Major Biggar was on the train. He has had charge of all the arrangements for the distribution of the South African medals during the Royal tour. Over 1,600 medals were distributed, leaving about 800 still to be disposed of by the department. Major Biggar is coming in for considerable commendation for the admirable manner in which all the arrangements for the presentation of the medals were made and carried out. In not a single instance was there a hitch. The Duke of Cornwall and York sent for the Major on board the Ophir and warmly thanked him for what he had done, at the same time asking his acceptance of autograph photographs of the Duchess and himself.

GRACE, STYLE AND FINISH.

You will find that in Grace, Style and Finish, Quick & Robertson's will compare with the productions of the best class of merchant tailors at prices a third to a half less. Each garment is designed with a view to its shape. It will stay in shape on the wearer. No undue drag on the various parts of the garment, each pocket is stayed, collars are properly cut, sleeves and shoulders have the right "set." Design without good cloths is wasted. Every garment is properly and honestly lined with good linings. No shoddy cloths are used.

"It's a secret," said he, "but I don't mind letting you in. I swallowed three raw eggs on my way to the hall and kept one in my pocket as a reserve. I sat down on the pocket, and now I don't know whether it was that egg or the other three that did me good."

THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD ASSIST

In Developing Canadian Mining Industries, Says Mr. W. A. Hungerford.

How Other Governments Aid the Miner—Some Pertinent References.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Dear Sir,—At the meeting held in Madoc on the 15th inst., to consider the question of a bounty on arsenic, I made two propositions after I had spoken on the arsenic question, which I stated would be the means of developing our country, in my opinion better than any other policy the Government could adopt; one was a bounty on ores, the other, That the Government should assist in development work. In making these propositions I was not aware how far any Government assisted mining on these lines.

In conversation with Mr. J. Walter Wells, C.E., of the Government Assay office, Belleville, about two months ago, I told him I was in favor of giving a bonus on ores on certain conditions. He stated the Australian Government assisted mining, but at the moment did not know particulars. After I had spoken at the meeting I left the hall. In my absence, I was informed some misunderstanding had occurred regarding my statements. To settle the question I wrote Mr. Wells, asking him to give me what data he had regarding the bounties, etc., paid by the Australian Government. The following are extracts from a letter received from Mr. Wells in reply to my enquiries:

1st. Construction of mining roads for prospectors.

2nd. Maintaining at least 10 diamond and other drills for public service in prospecting for, and locating the size of deposits.

3rd. Maintaining stamp batteries in different parts of the Country for public use in testing gold ores.

4th. Maintaining public assay offices free assays to bona-fide prospectors.

5th. Maintaining a School of Mines for training men to work in mines.

NEW SOUTH WALES.

1st. Maintaining Metalurgical works for testing all kinds of ores free of charge.

2nd. Maintaining public assay offices; free assays to bona-fide prospectors, charges to others.

3rd. An appropriation of $125,000 yearly is made by the Government Prospecting Board to be spent in assisting bona-fide attempts to sink shafts, etc. Part of this money goes to keeping up at least 13 diamond and other drills which are used in locating and exploring the size of deposits; part is spent in assisting private miners to sink shafts who for lack of means could not carry on the work. In case either attempts proved satisfactory, and a mine is the result, a refund is demanded by the Government as soon as the industry is paying dividends.

4th. A School of Mines to train men in mining.

5th. A full staff of geologists is kept up.

WEST AUSTRALIA.

1st. Maintains a public assay office; free assays to bona-fide prospectors.

2nd. Maintains public stamp mills for treating gold and other ores in different parts of the country for the use of prospectors to test ores, and also as custom mills, at no charge to prospectors. These mills are a success.

3rd. Maintains a full staff of experts to do Government work.

I think, Mr. Editor, with these facts before us, you cannot but admit, that my second proposition, which almost corresponds with clause three of New South Wales, which was that the Government should assist in our development work, was a fair and reasonable one, and as the results have been so satisfactory in Australia, why cannot our Government adopt a policy on these lines and open up the mineral wealth of this Province? If a rich and prosperous mining country like Australia should require Government assistance in order to develop their mineral industries, how much more do we in Ontario require it?

By assisting our mining interests, the Government will show that they have confidence in our mines, and that fact alone will stimulate capitalists to invest in our country. All we want in order to procure capital is developed properties. The days of selling prospects are past, properties must be developed in order to sell them. Our farmers are not miners. They have not been educated to mining, but our young men will become miners if they have an opportunity to learn, and the only way to give them that opportunity is to open up our mines. By doing this we not only add wealth and property to our country, but we increase our population, and we keep our young men at home.

Lumbering in this section is a thing of the past and can never return, the future prosperity of Ontario depends on her mineral wealth, and no matter what the next Government may be, they must adopt a strong and vigorous mining policy.

We in this section want a bounty on arsenic, which is a totally separate question. Besides that bounty, we want assistance on lines similar to those which I have mentioned.

Let the deputation that is to wait on the Government be prepared to give the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, and with these facts before them, I believe they will give us the assistance we ask.

I remain, Yours truly,
W. A. HUNGERFORD.

THEY DROVE PIMPLES AWAY.—A face covered with pimples is unsightly. It tells of internal irregularities which should long since have been corrected. The liver and the kidneys are not performing their functions in the healthy way they should, and these pimples are to let you know that the blood protests. Parmalee's Vegetable Pills will drive them all away, and will leave the skin clear and clean. Try them, and there will be another witness to their excellence.

AT DEATH'S DOOR.—DYSPEPSIA CONQUERED.—A GREAT MEDICAL TRIUMPH.—Gentlemen,—My medical adviser and others told me I could not possibly live when I commenced to use Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery for Dyspepsia. My case was one of the worst of its kind. For three years I could not eat meat and my weight decreased from 219 to 119 lbs. All the food I took for thirteen months previous to taking the Vegetable Discovery consisted of milk. I am now entirely cured and have regained my usual weight, can eat anything with a keen relish and feel like a new man. I have sold over thirty dozen Vegetable Discovery since it cured me, as I am well-known and people in this section know how low I was, and thought I could not possibly be cured. They are eager to try this grand medicine. It certainly saved my life as I never expected to recover when first I commenced using it. I am not exaggerating anything, but feel glad to be able to contribute this testimonial and trust it may be the means of convincing others of its merit as a certain cure for Dyspepsia.

If you have a cough or cold do not neglect it; many without a trace of that hereditary disease have drifted into a consumptive's grave by neglecting what was only a slight cold. Had they used Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup before it was too late, their lives would have been saved. Mr. A. W. Levy, Mitchell, writes: "I think Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup the best preparation on the market for coughs and severe colds. About six years ago I caught a severe cold which settled on my lungs, and for three months I had a cough. I had a physician attending me, but gradually grew worse until I was on the verge of Consumption, and had given up hopes of being cured, when I was induced to try Bickle's Syrup. Before I had taken one bottle I found myself greatly relieved, and by the time I had finished the second bottle I was completely cured. I always recommend it for severe colds and consumption."

FOR INFLAMMATION OF THE EYES.—Among the many good qualities which Parmelee's Vegetable Pills possess, besides regulating the digestive organs, is their efficacy in reducing inflammation of the eyes. A PERSUASIVE WORD

"COME" MAY BE FOUND 678 TIMES IN THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

MIGHTIEST OF ALL SOLICITANTS.

Imperial But Tender, It Is Found at the Front Door of the Bible—The Queen of Words, for While Other Words Drive This One Beckons With All Gentleness.

Entered according to Act of the Parliament of Canada, in the year One Thousand Nine Hundred and One, by William Baily, of Toronto, at the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Washington, Oct. 20.—In this discourse Dr. Talmage calls all people to gladness and opens all the doors of expectancy; texts, Genesis vi, 18, "Come;" Revelation xxii, 17, "Come."

Imperial, tender and all persuasive is the word "come." Six hundred and seventy-eight times it is found in the Scriptures. It stands at the front gate of the Bible, as in my first text, inviting antediluvians into Noah's ark, and it stands at the other gate of the Bible, as in my second text, inviting the postdiluvians of all later ages into the ark of a Saviour's mercy. "Come" is only a word of four letters, but it is the queen of words, and nearly the entire nation of English vocabulary bows to its scepter. It is an ocean into which empties ten thousand rivers of meaning. Other words drive, but this beckons. All moods of feeling hath that word "come." Sometimes it weeps and sometimes it laughs. Sometimes it prays, sometimes it tempts, and sometimes it destroys. It sounds from the door of the church and from the seraglios of sin, from the gates of heaven and the gates of hell. It is confluent and accrescent of all power. It is the heiress of most of the past and the almoner of most of the future. "Come!" You may pronounce it so that all the heavens will be heard in its cadences or pronounce it so that all the woes of time and eternity shall reverberate in its one syllable. It is on the lip of saint and prodigate. It is the mightiest of all solicitants either for good or bad.

To-day I weigh anchor and haul in the planks and set sail on that great word, although I am sure I will not be able to reach the farther shore. I will let down the fathoming line into this sea and try to measure its depths, and, though I tie together all the cables and cordage I have on board, I will not be able to touch bottom. All the power of the Christian religion is in that word "come." The dictatorial and commendatory in religion are of no avail. The imperative mood is not the appropriate mood when we would have people savingly impressed. They may be coaxed, but they cannot be driven. Our hearts are like our homes—at a friendly knock the door will be opened, but an attempt to force open our door would land the assailant in prison. Our theological seminaries, which keep young men three years in their curriculum before launching them into the ministry, will do well if in so short a time they can teach the candidates for the holy office how to say with right emphasis and intonation and power that one word "come." That man who has such efficiency in Christian work and that woman who has such power to persuade people to quit the wrong and begin the right went through a series of losses, bereavements, persecutions and the trials of twenty or thirty years before they could make it a triumph of grace every time they uttered the word "come."

You must remember that in many cases our "come" has a mightier "come" to conquer before it has any effect at all. Just give me the accurate census, the statistics of how many are down in fraud, in drunkenness, in gambling, in impurity of in vice of any sort, and I will give you the accurate census or statistics of how many have been slain by the word "come." "Come and click wineglasses with me at this ivory bar." "Come and see what we can win at this gambling table." "Come, enter with me this doubtful speculation." "Come with me and read those infidel tracts on Christianity." "Come with me to a place of bad amusement." "Come with me in a gay bout through the underground life of the city." If in this city there are twenty thousand who are down in moral character, then twenty thousand fell under the power of the word "come." I was reading of a wife whose husband had been overthrown by strong drink, and she went to the saloon where he was ruined, and she said, "Give me back my husband." And the bartender, pointing to a maudlin and battered man drowsing in the corner of a bar-room, said: "There he is. Jim, wake up. Here's your wife come for you." And the woman said: "Do you call that my husband? What have you been doing with him? Is that the manly brow, is that the clear eye, is that the noble heart, that I married? What vile drug have you given him that has turned him into a fiend? Take your tiger claws off of him. Uncoil those serpent folds of evil habit that are crushing him. Give me back my husband, the one with whom I stood at the altar ten years ago. Give him back to me." Victim was he, as millions of others have been, of the word "come."

Now, we want all the world over to harness this word for good as others have harnessed it for evil, and it will draw the five continents and the seas between them — yea, it will draw the whole earth back to the God from whom it has wandered. It is that wooing and persuasive word that will lead men to give up their sins. Was skepticism ever brought into the love of truth by an ebullition of hot words against infidelity? Was ever the blasphemer stopped in his oaths by denunciation of blasphemy? Was ever a drunkard weaned from his cups by the temperance lecturer's mimicry of staggering step and hiccough? No. It was, "Come with me to church to-day and hear our singing;" "Come and let me introduce you to a Christian man whom you will be sure to admire;" "Come with me into associations that are cheerful and good and inspiring;" "Come with me into joy such as you never before experienced."

With that word which has done so much for others I approach you today. Are you all right with God? "No," you say, "I think not. I am sometimes alarmed when I think of him. I fear I will not be ready to meet him in the last day. My heart is not right with God." Come, then, and have it made right. Through the Christ who died to save you, come! What is the use in waiting? The longer you wait the farther off you are and the deeper you are down. Strike out for heaven! You remember that a few years ago a steamer called the Princess Alice, with a crowd of excursionists on board, sank in the Thames, and there was an awful sacrifice of life. A boatman from the shore put out for the rescue, and he had a big boat, and he got it so full it would not hold another person, and as he laid hold of the oars to pull for the shore, leaving hundreds helpless and drowning, he cried out, "Oh, that I had a bigger boat!" Thank God I am not thus limited and that I can promise room for all in this gospel boat. Room in the heart of a pardoning God. Room in heaven.

I also apply the word of my text to those who would like practical comfort. If any ever escape the struggle of life, I have not found them. They are not certainly among the prosperous classes. In most cases it was a struggle all the way up till they reached the prosperity, and since they have reached these heights there have been perplexities, anxieties and crises which were almost enough to shatter the nerves and turn the brain. It would be hard to tell which have the biggest fight in this world, the prosperities or the adversities, the conspicuities or the obscurities. Just as soon as you have enough success to attract the attention of others the envies and jealousies are let loose from their kennel. The greatest crime that you can commit in the estimation of others is to get on better than they do. They think your addition is their substraction. Five hundred persons start for a certain goal of success. One reaches it, and the other four hundred and ninety-nine are mad. It would take volumes to hold the story of the wrongs, outrages and defamations that have come upon you as a result of your success. The warm sun of prosperity brings into life a swamp full of annoying insects. On the other hand, the unfortunate classes have their struggles for maintenance. To achieve a livelihood by one who had nothing to start with and after awhile for a family as well and carry this on until children are reared and educated and fairly started in the world and to do this amid all the rivalries of business and the uncertainty of crops and the fickleness of tariff legislation, with an occasional labor strike and here and there a financial panic thrown in, is a mighty thing to do, and there are hundreds and thousands of such heroes and heroines who live unsung and die unhonored.

What we all need, whether up or down in life or half way between, is the infinite solace of the Christian religion. And so we employ the word "come." It will take all eternity to find out the number of business men who have been strengthened by the promises of God and the people who have been fed by the ravens when other resources gave out and the men and women who, going into this battle armed only with needle or saw or ax or yardstick or pen or type or shovel or shoe-last, have gained a victory that made the heavens resound. With all the resources of God promised for every exigency no one need be left in the lurch.

But the word "come" applied to those who need solace will amount to nothing unless it be uttered by some one who has experienced that solace. That spreads the responsibility of giving this gospel call among a great many. Those who have lost property and been consoled by religion in that trial are the ones to invite those who have failed in business. Those who have lost their health and been consoled by religion are the ones to invite those who are in poor health. Those who have had bereavements and been consoled in those bereavements are the ones to sympathize with those who have lost father or mother or companion or child or friend. What multitudes of us are alive to-day and in good health and buoyant in this journey of life who would have broken down or dead long ago but for the sustaining and cheering help of our holy religion! So we say, "Come!" The well is not dry. The buckets are not empty. The supply is not exhausted. There is just as much mercy and condolence and soothing power in God as before the first grave was dug, or the first tear started, or the first heart broken, or the first accident happened, or the first fortune vanished. Those of us who have felt the consolatory power of religion have a right to speak out of our own experiences and say, "Come!"

What dismal work of condolence the world makes when it attempts to condole! The plaster they spread does not stick. The broken bones under their bandage do not knit. A farmer was lost in a snowstorm on a prairie of the far west. Night coming on and after he was almost frantic from not knowing which way to go, his sleigh struck the rut of another sleigh, and he said, "I will follow this rut, and it will take me out to safety." He hastened on until he heard the bells of the preceding horses; but, coming up, he found that that man was also lost, and, as is the tendency of those who are thus confused in the forest or on the moors, they were both moving in a circle, and the runner of the one lost sleigh was following the runner of the other lost sleigh round and round. At last it occurred to them to look at the north star, which was peering through the night, and by the direction of that star they got home again. Those who follow the advice of this world in time of perplexity are in a fearful round, for it is one bewildered soul following another bewildered soul, and only those who have in such time got their eye on the morning star of our Christian faith can find their way out or be strong enough to lead others with an all persuasive invitation.

"But," says some one, "you Christian people keep telling us to 'come,' yet you do not tell us how to come." That charge shall not be true on this occasion. Come believing! Come repenting! Come praying! After all that God has been doing for six thousand years, sometimes through patriarchs and sometimes through prophets and at last through the culmination of all the tragedies on Golgotha, can any one think that God will not welcome your coming? Will a father at vast outlay construct a mansion for his son and lay out parks white with statues and green with foliage and all a-sparkle with fountains and then not allow his son to live in the house or walk in the parks? Has God built this house of gospel mercy and will he then refuse entrance to his children? Will a government at great expense build life saving stations all along the coast and boats that can hover unhurt like a petrel over the wildest surge and then, when the lifeboat has reached the wreck of a ship in the offing, not allow the drowning to seize the life line or take the boat for the shore in safety? Shall God provide at the cost of his only Son's assassination escape for a sinking world and then turn a deaf ear to the cry that comes up from the breakers?

"But," you say, "there are so many things I have to believe and so many things in the shape of a creed that I have to adopt that I am kept back." No, no! You need believe but two things—namely, that Jesus Christ came into the world to save sinners and that you are one of them. "But," you say, "I do believe both of these things." Do you really believe them with all your heart? "Yes." Why, then, you have passed from death into life. Why, then, you are a son or a daughter of the Lord Almighty. Why, then, you are an heir or an heiress of an inheritance that will declare dividends from now until long after the stars are dead. Hallelujah! Prince of God, why do you not come and take your coronet? Princess of the Lord Almighty, why do you not mount your throne? Pass up into the light. Your boat is anchored, why do you not go ashore? Just plant your feet hard down, and you will feel under them the Rock of Ages. I challenge the universe for one instance in which a man in the right spirit appealed for the salvation of the gospel and did not get it. Man alive, you are going to let all the years of your life go away with you without your having this great peace, this glorious hope, this bright expectancy? Are you going to let the pearl of great price lie in the dust at your feet because you are too indolent or too proud to stoop down and pick it up? Will you wear the chain of evil habit when near by you is the hammer that could with one stroke snap the shackle? Will you stay in the prison of sin when here is a gospel key that could unlock your incarceration? No, no!

As the one word "come" has sometimes brought many souls to Christ, I will try the experiment of piling up into a mountain and then send down in an avalanche of power many of these gospel "comes." "Come thou and all thy house into the ark;" "Come unto me all ye who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest;" "Come for all things are now ready;" "Come with us, and we will do you good;" "Come and see;" "The Spirit and the bride say 'come,' and let him that heareth say 'come,' and let him that is athirst come." The stroke of one bell in a tower may be sweet, but a score of bells well tuned and rightly lifted and skillfully swung in one great chime fill the heavens with music almost celestial. And no one who has heard the mighty chimes in the towers of Amsterdam or Ghent or Copenhagen can forget them. Now, it seems to me that in this Sabbath hour all heaven is chiming, and the voices of departed friends and kindred ring down the sky, saying, "Come!" The angels who never fell, bending from sapphire thrones, are chanting, "Come!" Yea, all the towers of heaven, tower of martyrs, tower of prophets, tower of apostles, tower of evangelists, tower of the temple of the Lord God and the Lamb are chiming "Come! Come!" Pardon for all, and peace for all, and heaven for all who come.

When Russia was in one of her great wars, the suffering of the soldiers had been long and bitter, and they were waiting for the end of the strife. One day a messenger in great excitement ran among the tents of the army shouting, "Peace! Peace!" The sentinel on guard asked, "Who says 'peace?'" And the sick soldier turned on his hospital mattress and asked, "Who says 'peace?'" And all up and down the encampment of the Russians went the question, "Who says 'peace?'" Then the messenger responded, "The Czar says 'peace.'" That was enough. That meant going home. That meant the war was over. No more wounds and no more long marches. So to-day, as one of the Lord's messengers, I move through these great encampments of souls and cry: "Peace between earth and heaven! Peace between God and man! Peace between your repenting soul and a pardoning Lord!" If you ask me, "Who says peace?" I answer, "Christ, our King, declares it:" "My peace I give unto you!" "Peace of God that passeth all understanding!" Everlasting peace!

Anyone may hate the wrong, but it requires strength to do the right.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

Receipts of live stock were fairly large, 77 carloads, composed of 1340 cattle, 250 hogs, 1361 sheep and lambs, and 40 calves.

Trade was fair, with a little more activity than for several markets. Prices for fat cattle were about the same as our last quotations. The best loads of exporters did not bring over $4.80, and few reached that price.

NOW IS THE TIME
Seasons change. We can't change them. We can't prevent the coming of cold and damp airs.
But we can prevent the sore throats, the coughs, colds and lung troubles by taking Scott's Emulsion. Nothing does more to make the tender throat tough. Nothing gives such strength to weak lungs.
Don't take risks—when it's easy to be safe. Now is the season for taking Scott's Emulsion in season.
We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

VARICOCELE
No matter how serious your case may be or how long you may have had it, our NEW METHOD TREATMENT will cure it. The "wormy veins" return to their normal condition and hence the sexual organs receive proper nourishment. The organs become vitalized and manly powers return. No temporary benefit, but a permanent cure assured. NO CURE, NO PAY. NO OPERATION NECESSARY. NO DETENTION FROM BUSINESS.
STRICTURE
Thousands of young and middle-aged men are troubled with this disease—many unconsciously. They may have a smarting sensation, sharp, cutting pains at times, weak organs, and all the symptoms of nervous debility—they have STRICTURE. Don't let doctors experiment on you by cutting, stretching or tearing you. This will not cure you, as it will return. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT absorbs the stricture tissue, hence removes the stricture permanently. It can never return. No pain, no suffering, no detention from business by our method. The sexual organs are strengthened, the nerves are invigorated, and the bliss of manhood returns.
Cures Guaranteed
We treat and cure BLOOD POISON, NERVOUS DEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, STRICTURE, VARICOCELE, SEMINAL LOSSES, BLADDER and KIDNEY DISEASES. CONSULTATION FREE. BOOKS FREE. CHARGES MODERATE. If unable to call, write for a QUESTION BLANK for HOME Treatment.

The Stimulus of Pure Blood

That is what is required by every organ of the body, for the proper performance of its functions.

It prevents biliousness, dyspepsia, constipation, kidney complaint, rheumatism, catarrh, nervousness, weakness, faintness, pimples, blotches, and all cutaneous eruptions.

It perfects all the vital processes.

William Ross, Sarnia, Ont., took Hood's Sarsaparilla to make his blood pure. He writes that he was all run down, his appetite was gone, and his nerves were so unstrung he could not rest nor sleep. He had tried many remedies without benefit when Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and he began its use. Three bottles of this medicine entirely cured him.

Thos. Miscampbell in Algoma.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Oct. 24.—At the convention of the East Algoma Liberal-Conservative Association, held here yesterday afternoon, and at which there were in attendance about 115 delegates from all over the district, Andrew Miscampbell, M. P. P., for East Simcoe, was chosen the candidate to contest this riding at the next provincial election. Dr. Fell of Gore Bay, a prospective candidate, resigned in Mr. Miscampbell's favor. A well attended public meeting was held in the evening, and amongst the speakers were: A. W. Wright of Toronto, the Conservative organizer; Dr. Fell and John McKay, who has been chosen as candidate in the Reform interests for this riding.

Rill Committed.

Halifax, Oct. 24.—The preliminary examination of Julius Rill, charged with the murder of Nathan Kaptan at Clark's Harbor, was concluded at Barrington yesterday afternoon. Magistrate Watson committed Rill for trial at the spring session of the Superior Court.

Deadwood, S. D., Oct. 24.—Three men lost their lives in the Holy Terror mine at Keystone last night from foul air.

EASY TO FIND

When you find a medicine that makes your regular food taste good, when you find a medicine that strengthens a weak stomach—then you know you're going to put some flesh on.

Scott's Emulsion does these things. We recommend it whenever the system needs more flesh. If you are thin and able to eat begin regular doses. That's your part. Scott's Emulsion will do the rest. Not flabby—but solid flesh.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

CENSURED PILOT LEBLANC

The Islander Court of Enquiry Finds Him Blameable.

He Had Seen Ice Ten Minutes Before the Wreck, But Continued to Run at Full Speed Through Floating Ice—No Evidence of Intemperance—Custom of Leaving One Officer in Chargeat Night Also Condemned—Ship Was Seaworthy.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 24.—The finding of the Court of Inquiry into the Islander wreck was given out yesterday morning. The finding says, in part:

The steamer Islander was totally wrecked at 2.15 a. m., Aug. 15, by contact with an unknown substance, presumably an icedrift, much submerged. The Islander sunk in less than 20 minutes after the collision, in deep water, resulting in the loss of life of the master, 16 of the crew, 23 passengers, and two children.

She was fully officered and manned, with a crew of 65, completely equipped and seaworthy previous to the accident. She was navigated as customary in trade navigation, being left alternately with the master and pilot. The master had no special instructions from the owners, and distribution, management and discipline of the crew were left with him. The master did not realize the danger, hence, the lack of prompt and resolute measures in rousing the crew and placing officers and crew to each boat.

The capacity of the boats was sufficient, but the rush to the boats at the last minute was beyond control of the few officers and crew putting out the boats, thereby preventing the rescue of several valuable lives.

While praise is due those who remained till the ship sank under their feet, the fact cannot be ignored that there was unpardonable lack of appreciation of the existing danger to their fellow-passengers shown by those in the boats, regarding the rescue of others who were unable to reach the boats.

No special instructions were given to the pilot regarding navigation or speed, in the event of falling in with ice, and the pilot, Leblanc, is open to censure for keeping the ship full speed at the rate of 14 knots an hour where he had seen ice ten minutes before.

The court condemned the custom of leaving but one officer in charge at night, and found no proof in the evidence that the wreck was due to the intemperance of the mate or officers.

John Mason Leaves Canada.

London, Ont., Oct. 24.—John Mason, who eloped with Miss Laura I. Doty, was before the Police Magistrate yesterday morning. No information having been laid against him he was discharged.

The Police Magistrate pointed out to him the enormity of his crime, and told him if ever he were found guilty before him of any crime he would send him to the penitentiary for a long term, and that the best thing he could do would be to leave the city at once. Mason took the court's advice, and left for the east.

Mrs. Doty arrived in the city Tuesday night, and broke down utterly when she met her daughter at the Police Station. The girl admitted having met Mason here by prearrangement. Mason promised to take her to Chicago, where he would get a divorce from his wife and marry her. Miss Doty's friends believe Mason's object was to get possession of $7,000 which the girl has in the bank in her own right.

More Than 150 Killed.

Colon, Oct. 24, via Galveston.—The Colombian Government formally announces that General Pompilio Gutterrez defeated Oct. 15, near Amablama (on the Magdalena River, west of Bogota), insurgent forces from the Department of Tolima and Condinamarca, united under General Marin and General Durban, after a desperate engagement lasting three hours. According to the official announcements the insurgents retreated, after losing 160 killed, among whom was General Vicente Lombana, and several captured, together with a large supply of ammunition. The Government loss exceeded 50.

W. A. Charlton Renominated.

Vittoria, Oct. 24.—The Liberal convention of the south riding of Norfolk met here yesterday. The object of the convention was to select a candidate for the Ontario Legislature. The following persons were nominated: Frank Rowlby, Simcoe; A. P. Barrett and C. S. Killmaster, Port Rowan; Oliver Austin, Lyn Valley; Jonathan Ellis, Port Dover; John Alton, Houghton; A. H. Smith, Charlotteville; A. H. Rose, Woodhouse, and John Murphy, Silver Hill. All withdrew in favor of the present member, W. A. Charlton of Lynedoch, whose nomination was made unanimous. Mr. Charlton, in a short speech, accepted the nomination.

The Murders Not Confirmed.

Washington, Oct. 24.—The State Department has heard nothing from any official source to confirm the Austrian reports of the killing of the brother of Madame Tsilka by Turkish troops, or the death of the lady herself.

Wheat Damage Minimized.

Winnipeg, Oct. 24.—C.P.R. officials recently wired to their agents at the grain stations in every part of the province and Northwest Territories to furnish reports as to results of threshing. These have now been received, and, with but a few exceptions in the Red River Valley, they greatly minimize damage done by recent bad weather. The quality of the wheat will, as a rule, grade No. 1 Northern.

Accidents at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Oct. 24.—Pat Murphy, the clever quarter-back of the Rough Riders football team, had his jawbone broken at practice yesterday afternoon. It is not yet known how serious the injury is, but he will be out of the game for some time. Fraser of the Collegiate team had his collarbone broken.

Is Evidence Of Poisoning.

Prosecution in the White Murder Case is Through.

Islander Pilot is Censured—Court of Enquiry Finds Him Blameable—Winston Churchill Says South African War is Now an Unmitigated Nuisance.

Brantford, Oct. 24.—The White murder trial was continued yesterday morning, and when the court adjourned in the evening all the evidence for the Crown had been put in.

Mrs. Partridge of Hamilton was the first witness called in the morning. She said she knew Mrs. White. The last time she saw her in Hamilton was a couple of days after Good Friday. She was then at her son's home. When Mrs. White visited at the home of the witness in Hamilton previously, she said that she fairly hated her husband, that the world was wide and she had lots of money to go over it. The prisoner also said that her husband would follow her wherever she went. This conversation took place upon the witness asking if Mr. White was living at home. She said that he was not, that she could marry another man in Brantford if her husband were dead, and that she would marry over his coffin.

Witness, on cross-examination by Mr. Heyd, said she had had a difference with George White, who owed her money for board. Mr. and Mrs. White had been separated, but any time she had visited them they seemed to get on well together.

Albert H. Strickland was called to prove the absence of one of the Crown's witnesses, Mary Irving. The witness said that the woman had gone to the United States, but he did not know to what place. He had bought her furniture some time in July. She was employed as a collector. The witness could not say that the woman was not still in Canada, but inferred that she was going to the "other side" to live, because she was persecuted in Brantford. The girl lived with her mother at 75 Chatham street.

Deposition Ruled Out.

Other witnesses were called to show that an effort had been made to locate the witness, and Mr. Anglin, Crown prosecutor, asked that the evidence given by Mary Irving at the police court hearing be admitted. The defendant's counsel opposed this, and His Lordship ruled that he would not allow the admission of the deposition.

Charles Williams testified that he was at Strowbridge's livery stable on the Sunday morning of White's death. Mrs. White came across the road and telephoned to Dr. Marquis to come as quickly as possible, that Mr. White was seriously ill. Ten minutes later Mrs. White came to the front door and called him over, saying Mr. White was very sick. Witness went into the house and found White sitting in a chair and complaining of pains in his legs. Witness went after Frank White, and then after Dr. Marquis, and when he returned to the house White was lying on the bed, his arms and legs stiff, his face drawn to one side and his hands clinched.

Cross-examined, witness said Mrs. White, while at the telephone, was very anxious to have the doctor come quickly. She was frightened and seemed to feel very badly. Her manner was natural.

Dr. Marquis on the Stand.

Dr. Marquis was then called.—He told of Mrs. White coming to him the day before White's death, when she described what her husband appeared to be suffering from. The doctor told her people did not often die of that complaint. The next day Mrs. White telephoned for witness, and shortly afterwards sent a messenger for him. Witness described the condition of White when he arrived, and said: The convulsions came on absolutely without warning, and there were general symptoms of convulsive seizure. There were symptoms characteristic of strychnine poisoning. The first convulsion lasted from one to two minutes, and was followed by an interval of rest, during which there was relaxation of the muscles. As soon as the first convulsion was ended, the witness turned the patient over, and the deceased went into another convulsion. This was scarcely as bad as the first one. Witness put a glass to the lips of deceased, and another convulsion followed. Then the patient became unconscious. Witness also made two hyperdermic injections of whiskey to keep the heart going. He was at the time quite decided that it was a case of strychnine poisoning.

Mrs. White asked what was the matter with Mr. White and he replied that the deceased was suffering from decided brain irritation or something to that effect. He did not tell her that strychnine poisoning was the cause of the attack. Mrs. White said nothing as to what her husband had taken.

Died From Convulsions.

He gave no certificate of death until two days after the death. He made a post-mortem examination and found indications of the individual having died from convulsions, but from the examination made with Dr. Bier, he could not say what the cause had been. Half a grain of strychnine, the witness said, was a fatal dose, and the effect of strychnine would be noticed very shortly after the drug was taken. Convulsions would follow very raidly. Strychnine placed in solid food, if swallowed, would not be tasted, and if it were taken by a person addicted to smoking or drinking, the taste would not be very noticeable. The witness said that arsenic taken in small doses not sufficient to kill would give a person the feeling of having a cold, and would cause vomiting. A full dose would be from two to two and a half grains. If arsenic were administered in small grains for two or three days, there would be symptoms of cold in the head, which symptoms would continue for several weeks.

On cross-examination, Dr. Marquis said that on Sunday of the death he was sure of strychnine poison and he did not change his opinion. He said he did not adopt any means recommended in the books for overcoming strychnine poison, because he recognized that there was no hope and that the poison had been taken half an hour or more before his arrival.

Action of Poison.

Dr. Bier was the first to take the stand in the afternoon. He said that he had conducted a post-mortem examination with Dr. Marquis upon the body of the late Charles White. There were slight traces of organic disease, but nothing sufficient to cause death. Half a grain of strychnine, he said, was a fatal dose, although death was sometimes caused by less. Death would ensue in from ten minutes to half an hour. The symptoms would be tightness of the chest, cramps, spasms, and a fear of impending death. The cramps usually were felt in the legs first, affecting the rest of the body afterwards. The bending of the body backwards was characteristic of the poisoning. Death usually ensued within two hours, if the patient survived that time he had a chance for his life. If strychnine were covered up in food it need not be tasted at all. If arsenic were administered in small doses on successive days it would probably cause nausea and then vomiting. If it were administered for three days it might cause nausea within two days. In reference to the treatment of the case by Dr. Marquis, the witness said that he would have to see the case before he could say anything about it.

P. C. Chapman testified that he had made enquiries at the drug stores in Hamilton and in Brantford with a view of finding if Mrs. White had purchased any strychnine. He had not been able to find that she had bought strychnine.

Re-examined by Mr. Anglin, the witness said that he could not find that any strychnine had been purchased by Mrs. Charles White.

H. S. Pierce, the undertaker, gave evidence concerning the embalming of the body of White, saying no strychnine or arsenic was used.

The defence, it is expected, will occupy the greater part of Thursday.

MR. BLAKE AT OTTAWA.

Discussed Ontario Mines Act With Hon. David Mills.

Ottawa, Oct. 24.—Hon. Edward Blake arrived in the city yesterday morning by the Toronto train and returned again at 11 o'clock in the forenoon. He had an appointment with Hon. David Mills, Minister of Justice. Mr. Blake met Mr. Mills and Mr. Newcombe, Deputy Minister of Justice, at the Russell House. It is understood that the business which brought Mr. Blake here was to discuss with Mr. Mills the Ontario Mines Act. This is an act which was passed by the Ontario Legislature, but it is said to, in some way, infringe upon Dominion rights, and has not yet been put in force. There is a clause which provides that the act will not come into force except by the proclamation of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council.

Death of Fred. Archer.

Pittsburg, Oct. 24.—Frederick Archer, the great British organist, who, since 1880 has been a resident of this country, died yesterday at his home in this city of cancer of the stomach. Mr. Archer had been director of Carnegie Music Hall here since 1895. In 1887, he was conductor of the Boston Oratorio Society, and founded the Pittsburg Symphony Orchestra in 1896. Two years thereafter he was appointed musical examiner of the University of Toronto, and, during the time of his residence in this city, he officiated as organist of the Church of the Ascension. In England, where he was born in 1838, Mr. Archer occupied an eminent place as an organist. He gave 2,000 consecutive recitals in London, all of which were largely attended and hugely successful. In 1852 he was appointed organist of St. Clement's Church and Merton College Chapel in Oxford, his native city. He was subsequently made organist of the Royal Panopticon and joint conductor with Sir Julius Benedict of the London Vocal Association.

AN UNMITIGATED NUISANCE

Winston Churchill So Declared in His Leicester Speech.

The Young M.P. Urges Preparation for a New Campaign With a Refreshed Army—Danger Greater Now Than Two Years Ago—General Botha, With 4,000 Troops, Encamped Near Laing's Nek—Another Canadian Dead.

London, Oct. 24.—Winston Churchill, M. P., in the course of a speech at Leicester last night, which is much commented upon to-day, declared that the war in South Africa had become "an unmitigated nuisance."

"The danger is greater to-day than it was two years ago," Mr. Churchill declared, "and the means of meeting the strain are being seriously reduced."

He urged the Government to "relieve Lord Kitchener of the heavy detailed work and prepare for a new campaign with a refreshed army and a definite plan."

Where Botha Is.

London, Oct. 24.—A despatch from Brussels says it is reported there that Commandant-General Louis Botha is encamped with 4,000 men between Wakkerstroom and Ermelo.

GEN. BULLER IS NOW OUT.

His Notice of Dismissal Was Not Long in Being Obeyed.

London, Oct. 24.—The afternoon newspapers yesterday agree that the dismissal of Gen. Buller from the command of the First Army Corps, and placing him on half-pay was inevitable. It appears that the General was only officially notified of the decision late Tuesday evening, the notification being delivered at his official residence at Aldershot, by a special messenger from the War Office, at about the same time that it was issued to the newspapers. Yesterday's army orders at Aldershot announce that Gen. Buller has already given up his command.

Canadian Casualties.

Ottawa, Oct. 24.—The following casualties among Canadians in the South African Constabulary were reported to the Militia Department yesterday:

Harvey Gale Milne, died from enteric fever at Petrusberg, Oct. 21; father is J. Z. Milne, Qu'Appelle.

Trooper J. B. De Wolf, dangerously ill with enteric fever at Bloemfontein; father is J. De Wolf, Ingersoll.

Henry Tunstead of Ottawa, who was reported missing, has re-joined his corps.

LIABLE TO DEATH.

Ordering a Strike in France—Tantamount to Civil War.

London, Oct. 24.—"It has transpired," says a despatch from Paris, "that the Government warned each member of the Miners' Committee, who adjourned yesterday at St. Etienne without making public the result of their deliberations, that in ordering a strike under present conditions he would render himself liable to a sentence of death for inciting to civil war, and that the Government would prosecute, if necessary. This action, it is believed, caused the committee to temporize."

Slashed With a Razor.

Hamilton, Oct. 24.—At about 5 o'clock, William Green, Strachan street, had an altercation with John Nolan, who resides at the corner of Picton and John streets, and Nolan pulled a razor and slashed Green on the head. Green fell bleeding. He was taken to Dr. Balfour's surgery, where the cuts were sewed up. Twelve stitches were required to close the wounds. The police caught Nolan, and locked him up on a charge of feloniously cutting and wounding. The prisoner is about 22 years of age. Although Green lost a great deal of blood, there is no danger of his losing his life.

No English Trust.

London, Oct. 24.—On the authority of the secretary of one of the largest steel companies in England, it is said that there will not be any steel trust formed here. There may possibly be some combinations of the smaller concerns, but the steel trade of England is practically in the hands of three firms, and these concerns emphatically deny that they contemplate amalgamation or absorption.

Mr. Massey's Condition.

Toronto, Oct. 24.—Mr. Walter E. H. Massey is still at death's door. Yesterday morning there was a little improvement noticeable in his condition, but at noon hour it was apparent that he was sinking. During the afternoon and last night he showed no signs of improvement, and continued to grow weaker. Very little hope is held out for his recovery.

The King's Birthday.

Ottawa, Oct. 24.—The Governor-General has received a cablegram from the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain to the following effect: "It is His Majesty's wish that the usual birthday dinner in the colonies be given in 1901 and 1902 on 9th November." His Excellency will observe the King's wish so far as Canada is concerned.

Anglo-Brazilian Question.

Rio Janeiro, Brazil, Oct. 24.—The Anglo-Brazilian boundary question is being pushed to a solution. The British and Brazilian commissioners have decided to refer the question to the King of Italy for arbitration.

S. S. Convention.

Toronto, Oct. 24.—Yesterday, the second day of the Provincial Sunday School Convention, which is being held in the Metropolitan Church, was highly successful. The papers read were very instructive.

Two Babes Abandoned.

Ottawa, Oct. 24.—Two babies, only a few minutes old, were found lying in a pillowcase on Notre Dame street yesterday morning at four o'clock. The infants are both girls. They were taken in by Mrs. Jean Lablance, and the whole neighborhood flocked to see the children. One was blue with the cold and may die. The police are looking for the mother.

Is Your Child in Danger?

Croup, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough and Severe Chest Colds are Threatening.

It is the old story of wet feet, exposure to cold and dampness and chilled bodies. Towards night the hoarseness comes and the hollow, croupy or tight chest cough. Then mother's anxiety, for she knows the danger and the suddenness with which the little ones are sometimes snatched away. When you think of the thousands of times that Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine has saved the lives of the little ones it is scarcely to be wondered at that mothers look upon it with confidence and satisfaction.

Mr. Peter Sidey, 530 Clinton street, Toronto, states:—"Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is, in my opinion, a splendid remedy for children, being at once soothing and easy to take. It cured my two-year-old girl of a bad cold and croupy cough. It was no trouble to get her to take it, and the relief was remarkably quick."

Mr. D. Graham, 45 Callendar street, Toronto, states:—"My boy, aged six years, was developing all the symptoms of pneumonia when we commenced giving him this valuable remedy. It very quickly checked the advance of disease, and in a few days he was as well as ever and at school again."

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine

Is an idea medicine for chidren because it is remarkaby p easant to take and is perfecty free from Morphia. It is one of the few remedies for diseases of the throat and ungs which thoroughy cures the cold as well as the cough. There are other preparations of linseed. Be sure you get Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, with portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase on the bottle. Price, 25 cents; family size, three times as much, 60 cents. The more illustrated newspapers there are the better the public appreciates The Illustrated Buffalo Express. It was first in its especial field, and is still easily first in value and interest.

"If you see it in The Illustrated Buffalo Express it's worth reading."

Daily Intelligencer.

AS WAS ANTICIPATED.

A few days ago the Intelligencer expressed the opinion that it would not be long before Tarte and his supporters would attribute the action of the members of the Harbor Board of Montreal in resenting his insult that $20,000 had been offered by a Contractor to members of the Board to the fact that he was a Frenchman. Such prediction has been verified. Tarte's paper La Patrie, of the 19th October, after berating the members of the Board in a vindictive manner, indulges in this language:

"In their (members of the Board) eyes everything done by the Minister of Public Works is bad, for he was impudent enough not to think as they do, and he has the capital defect of BEING A FRENCHMAN!"

Not only does Tarte and his organ attribute any and all opposition offered to his mode of conducting public business to the fact that he is a Frenchman, but the Toronto Globe assumes the same role and indulges in the unholy occupation of introducing the race cry whenever it can be made to play a part. Here is a specimen:

"It is because Mr. Tarte is a French-Canadian that The Mail attempts to lug him into Provincial politics."

The people of Ontario will ere long learn how to appreciate this kind of political warfare.

This item was intended to do political service in the Province of Quebec, where it will be seized upon by the Tarte press and blazened forth to the French reader as a specimen of Tory hatred of the French race. Such is Globe-La Patrie political honesty.

TIMELY TOPICS.

It is gratifying to see the Aldermen take the proper amount of interest in the Street Railway matter, though surely nobody expected Mr. Vandyke was going to get the road into his hands without entering into a hard and fast agreement. The interests of the City, no doubt, will be properly safeguarded. We are glad to see some of the Aldermen express their views on the matter. We cannot see how it can fairly be construed that the City stands to make a bad bargain in buying the road. If, after a reasonable length of time Mr. Vandyke fails to buy out the road from the City it can be taken back and sold for scrap, the City being in the end possibly a gainer, certainly not a loser, for which we have the word of His Worship the Mayor.

This was a case in which something had to be done quickly in order to save the road. Nobody, we think, would like to see the plant sold piecemeal, yet that is what would have happened speedily had something not been done. In last night's Intelligencer Mr. Vandyke gave an explanation of his position to the people. If they are not satisfied with it now is the time for them to speak. If they want the road sold and taken away as scrap let them say so, and, if the majority is with them, the Aldermen are bound to defer to public opinion. But it is a poor plan to find fault without being able to offer a better suggestion. Let's have a thorough discussion of the question, so that the will of the majority may be carried out.

• • •

Ald. Doyle, perhaps, is hardly to be blamed for adhering to his determination to resign. It will be seen that the Council last night, at a special meeting accepted his resignation as Chairman of the Executive, and appointed Ald. Falkiner to succeed him. The thanks of our citizens are due to Ald. Doyle, who, we believe, honestly tried to do his duty to the City to the best of his ability. It remains to be seen whether another Alderman can satisfactorily fill the position and contend with the things which caused the late "Finance Minister" to resign. However, it is not with feelings of unmixed pleasure that one sees the oldest Alderman in the Council, who has for almost a generation served the City, compelled, as he says, to give up the most honorable position in its gift because the City's employes refuse to obey the Council's orders. It is to be hoped that Ald. Doyle's protest will not have been made in vain.

A lady who was present at the meeting in question tells us a good story. At an entertainment held recently in a church not a thousand miles from this city, a minister, in the course of his address, made the remark that an account of the proceedings would be published in The Ontario, where many people would see it. Another minister, who followed, said the account would also be published in The Intelligencer, where everybody would see it.

• • •

Ald. Doyle says The Intelligencer was misinformed yesterday when it stated that he refused to sign the cheques. He says he went to the Treasurer's office yesterday morning and signed the cheques without hesitation. We regret the statement, which was probably caused by a misunderstanding.

• • •

Many people are protesting very strongly against the proposal to put up poles on Front St. As one gentleman puts it; "The Bell Telephone Company, Street Railway Company and Trenton Electric Company have been successfully combatted for years, and it seems almost incredible that the city has to give way at last. I think it would be foolish, if not criminal for the Council to allow poles to be erected, for sooner or later they will cause accidents and possibly loss of life."

• • •

Mr. Tarte has written a letter in which he thanks the Almighty that he is not responsible for the Montreal Harbor Commissioners. Inasmuch as over half of the said Commissioners were appointed by the Government it will be seen that Hon. Mr. Tarte is not very flattering to his colleagues or himself, either.

PINS HIS FAITH TO DR. PITCHER'S BACKACHE KIDNEY TABLETS.

Mr. C. H. Parker, Tilsonburg, Ont., the well-known butcher of that town, has been using Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets for a backache and kidney trouble that had been bothering him. When asked to give his opinion of these Tablets, he made this statement:—

"During a recent, sudden sharp attack of backache and kidney trouble, due to cold caught in the shop, I was induced to try Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. I got a bottle and after I had used half of them the pain was gone. This I think is rapid enough results for anyone. I think they are a mighty good medicine."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are the newest and most effective remedy for backache, lame or weak back, Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy, puffiness under the eyes, swelling of the feet and ankles, gravel, rheumatism, specks floating before the eyes, kidney weakness of children and old people and all urinary troubles." ST. THOMAS' CHURCH.

No more ideal spot for a church could be found than that occupied by the above, the premier Anglican Church of Belleville, on the beautiful site, corner of Church and Bridge streets. As viewed in summer, with its grey stone walls, o'ergrown with ivy, its wealth of greensward and neatly kept walks, St. Thomas' comes about as near to being an "English" Church, in the literal sense of the word, as one can see without crossing the Atlantic. The appearance of the edifice has been greatly enhanced by the addition of a tower, recently built. The congregation hope that some day the tower will grow into a steeple.

The history of St. Thomas' Church goes back eighty-one years.

In the year of our Lord 1820 the first Church connected with the Anglican communion was built on the corner of Bridge and Church streets, just in front of the present St. Thomas' Church. Its front, we are told, came out level with the street. It was built of brick, and a picture of it, now in the possession of Mrs. Benjamin, George St., shows it to have been rather an unpretentious edifice, compared with the church of to-day. Many of the seats in the old church were the old-fashioned square pews, with high backs, something like the luncheon rooms in a modern restaurant. The pulpit and prayer desk were of the well-known three-decker style, placed in the centre of the church. Behind them was the chancel. The vestry was at the west end of the church, and the clergyman, having to change gowns twice during the ordinary service, had to make many visits to the vestry.

Mrs. Benjamin can claim the proud distinction of being the oldest pew holder in any Belleville church. When her family attended the little red brick church there were no houses at all on the East hill, back of the church. Where Bridge St. Church now stands there was a frame house, which was occupied by Mrs. Benjamin and her family. That lady herself, whose husband founded The Intelligencer, has been a resident of Belleville for sixty-nine years.

The first Rector of Belleville was the Rev. Thomas Campbell, peace to his ashes. After fifteen years' incumbency of St. Thomas' Church, he died on September 17, 1835, at the early age of 47. He was succeeded by Rev. Mr. Cochrane, who had taken Mr. Campbell's duty during his illness. Mr. Cochrane remained Rector for three years only.

In 1838 the Rev. John Grier was appointed to the Rectorship, and in 1855 it was found necessary to build a new church, as the membership had outgrown the old one. One informant tells us that the reason for building the new church was because the old one was unsafe, as at each swing of the church bell the building would tremble, but people who attended the old church say the cause was lack of room.

In 1855, then, the new church was built on the present site, nearly in its present form.

Through the courtesy of Mrs. Benjamin we have been privileged to see a copy of the document which was placed under the corner stone of the church. It will make interesting reading to many people. Most of the gentlemen mentioned are dead, but their monument, in the shape of the beautiful Gothic church, will stand the storms for many a long year yet.

The document, which is printed on satin, was done at The Intelligencer office, and reads as follows:

"A memorial deposited this 30th day of May, in the year of our Lord 1855, when laying the corner stone of this St. Thomas' Church, in the parish of Belleville, of which parish the Rev. John A. Grier, A. M., is Rector, and Francis McAnnany and John Lovel Badcock are Church Wardens. Should future events lead to the discovery of this memorial, it will be a token to those who follow after what their forefathers have undertaken for the church and cause of religion.

"This edifice was commenced when the following contributions had been made:

"Edward Murney, M.P.P., Lewis Wallbridge, Erastus Holden, £250 each.

"Rev. John Grier, Geo. A. Ridley, James Whiteford, Hon. John Ross, £100 each.

"William Hope, B. F. Davy, Henry Corby, Charles L. Herchmer, William M. Meyers, Wellington Murney, James Lister, £50 each.

"F. McAnnany, C. G. Le Vesconte & Co., Geo. Benjamin, £40 each.

"Henry Bull, Henry Bull, Jr., Samuel Bull, Geo. Filliter, £37.10 each.

"S. S. Fenden, Charles L. Coleman, R. J. Everett, £32.10 each.

"Smith Bartlett, A. Ponton, T. Grant, £25 each.

"Q. MacNider, Geo. E. Henderson, W. H. Coleman, Henry Easton, £20 each.

"Zenas Dafoe, Thos. S. Campbell, E. H. Coleman, £12.10 each.

"L. H. Henderson, Philip Hambly, A. R. Dougall, William Dafoe, D. Askerill, David Smith, Thos. Hurd, John Bell, Robert Gordon, Job Lingham, £10 each.

"Ed. Chandler, W. P. Wilson, Thos. Earle, £8 each.

"James Easton, E. G. Dorland, £7.10 each.

"William Breakenridge, E. H. Denjamin, Henry Frost, James Todd, William Wensley, W. H. Ponton, £6 each.

"Robert Clark, Francis Clark, Charles Green, Robert Wallis, P. Mills, J. L. Badcock, B. Walton, T. Boselley, John Burke, C. P. Simpson, Robert Newbery, W. Smart, David Reed, James Harrison, John S. Turnbull, R. Wallbridge, A. Burdon, J. Bonter, £5 each, and several others of smaller sums.

"Building Committee — Henry Bull, chairman; James Whiteford, treasurer; George Benjamin, secretary; Francis McAnnany, William Hope, Lewis Wallbridge, B. F. Davy, Henry Corby, John Lovel Badcock.

"Architect — H. H. Horsey, Esq.; builders, John Regan, Andrew Northcott, all of Belleville.

"The corner stone was laid by George Neville Ridley, Esq., assisted by the St. George's Society of the Town of Belleville, of which Samuel Finden, Esq., is President.

"There are 150 communicants in this congregation, and the last census, taken in the year A.D. 1852, gives the personal religious census of Belleville as 939 Church of England, and in the County of Hastings 6,915.

"We deposit in a box, wherein this document is laid, a copy of the Belleville Intelligencer, now in the 22nd year of its duration, and also a copy of the Hastings Chronicle, in the 13th year of its duration, as well as a copy of The Church, in the 18th year of its duration, together with the various coins of the realm and such other tokens of the times as will show our position and state of forwardness and prosperity as a colony of Great Britain, A.D. 1855."

DESTROYED BY FIRE.

The above church was destroyed by fire on February 26, 1876, and was not again opened for public service till December, 1879. During the interval the congregation worshipped in the City Hall and Metropolitan Hall.

The present church was built on the walls of the one destroyed, so that the same dimensions, and practically the same appearance, are maintained.

In September, 1861, Rev. Mr. Grier, feeling the need of assistance in his work, called to his aid the Rev. Septimus Jones, who proved a very earnest and zealous worker. He remained Curate for two years, and then left to take charge of a new congregation in another part of the town. The Rev. A. Baldwin was then appointed Curate, and since his time many bright and learned gentlemen have acted as curates.

The Rev. John Grier departed this life in 1870, when the Ven. Archdeacon Patton was appointed Rector, but that much esteemed gentleman died after being with St. Thomas' four years.

He was succeeded in May, 1874 by the present incumbent, Rev. Canon J. W. Burke, whose name years ago became a household word in Belleville as an eloquent preacher and an uncompromising opponent of evil in every form.

The present church has a seating capacity of about 600, is furnished with elegant appointments, stained glass windows, and all the accessories which go to make up a substantial English Church of the present day. The organ, built by Warren, of Toronto, is noted as a grand instrument, while the reputation of the organist, Mrs. (Col.) Campbell, has spread to many places outside of Belleville.

The stained glass windows were put in by McCrusland, of Toronto.

Two tablets are on the walls, one in memory of the late Quentin MacNider, and the other for the late Major Leaf Crosier.

The church contains four memorial windows—one for the late Francis McAnnany, one for Mr. Quentin MacNider, one for Rev. John Cochrane, second Rector of St. Thomas', and the other in memory of Rev. John Grier, for thirty-two years the beloved Rector of Belleville.

Rev. Mr. Holah is the present Curate and the Church Wardens are Messrs. W. B. Northrup, M. P., and C. M. Stork.

THE CHURCHYARD.

Walking round the churchyard, one is impressed with the fact, gleaned from the names on the tombstones, that the names of many people who once walked the streets of Belleville are now unknown here. Following are a few of them quoted at random; Archer, Sole, Relyea, Sessions, Zwick, Eggleton, Cotton, Pake, Bilton, and many others.

One quaint inscription meets the eye. It appears on a tombstone erected to the memory of a good lady who died in 1840, and it seems probable that much of her spirit died with her, inasmuch as the inscription sets forth that "In the recollection of her husband, and through much afflictive trial, she never gave him a Dark Look or an Angry Word."

That lady must have died young. She was too good for this world.

SPECIAL MEETING OF CITY COUNCIL

Ald. Doyle's Resignation Accepted—Ald. Falkiner The New "Finance Minister."

Alderman Talk on the Street Railway Deal—City's Interests to be Looked After.

A special meeting of the City Council was held yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock for the purpose of considering the resignation of Ald. Doyle as Chairman of the Executive Committee.

The members in attendance were: Mayor Graham, Aldermen Bogart, La Roche, Harris, Falkiner, Denmark, Panter, Grills and McFee.

The Mayor stated that he had called the Council together to take some action in regard to the resignation of Ald. Doyle, which had been placed in his hands.

Ald. McFee said that no doubt Ald. Doyle wished the Council to accept it and he moved that it be accepted.

Ald. Harris seconded the motion which was unanimously adopted.

The Mayor stated that a motion would be in order to have the vacancy filled. It was necessary that someone should be selected at this meeting.

Ald. McFee moved, seconded by Ald. Panter, That Ald. Bogart be selected as Chairman for the balance of the year.

Ald. Bogart Declines.

Ald. Bogart said he did not wish to accept the position now. He thought that, as the estimates had been passed and the various sums apportioned to the Committees had been about expended, Ald. Doyle might have remained Chairman for the remainder of the year. He did not know just how the finances were, and if there was any snarl or anything not just right he did not wish to take the position.

Ald. Denmark moved, seconded by Ald. Harris, That Ald. Falkiner be Chairman.

Ald. Panter said that Ald. Bogart was thoroughly conversant with the finances and he hoped he would accept the position.

Ald. McFee stated that his principal object in nominating Ald. Bogart for the position was the fact that he was familiar with the work of the finances.

Ald. Falkiner Elected.

Upon a vote being taken, three voted for Ald. Bogart and five for Ald. Falkiner.

The Mayor declared Ald. Falkiner duly elected as Chairman of the Executive Committee.

THE STREET RAILWAY.

Ald. Panter said that he desired to speak of another matter and obtain some information if it could be given in reference to the Street Railway. He wanted to know if the purchase had been completed. He thought that the whole scheme should be submitted to the Council.

The Mayor said they could not make any agreement with Mr. Vandyke until he has made an agreement himself, which has not yet been made. An agreement and a by-law would have to be drawn up by the Solicitor and the same would have to be ratified by the Council. The position of affairs was as stated at the Council meeting, namely, That Mr. Vandyke agrees to pay to the City 10 per cent. of the purchase money and give the City a mortgage on the road and pay 5 per cent. per annum on the balance of the purchase price until it is all paid for. If Mr. Vandyke did not even extend the road at present he proposed to expend some $4,500 in improving the present roadbed. The City, by this transaction, saves the road from being taken away, and there is every probability of its being extended.

Ald. Bogart thought there should be something more definite as to the payment of the balance of the purchase money.

The Mayor—"We have as yet no agreement with Mr. Vandyke."

Ald. Panter—"We should have something more definite from Mr. Vandyke than we have at present."

The Mayor said he was pleased to get these ideas from the Aldermen in reference to this matter which was an important one. When matters had been arranged a special meeting of the Council could be held and the subject thoroughly discussed.

Ald. Denmark thought Mr. Vandyke should put in writing what he is prepared to do. We want to have him bound in this matter.

The Mayor suggested that the Solicitor draw up an agreement which meets with the Council's view, and have the same submitted to Mr. Vandyke for his signature.

Ald. Grills thought the City would not lose anything by taking over the road. If they had to sell it, he felt certain they could get more for it than they paid.

The Mayor said that if Mr. Vandyke did not make a satisfactory agreement with the City some one else might take the road.

Ald. Harris thought the City was making a good investment. They were getting a great deal for a little money. If Mr. Vandyke should throw the bargain up he did not think the City would lose anything. If the road was sold he believed the City would get all it paid for it and more, too. If some who found fault would only give a dollar or so to help the City along he thought it would be better for the City. He believed Mr. Vandyke would take hold of the road and extend it.

This ended the discussion upon the subject.

TALE OF A TARPAULIN.

The Mayor stated that Mr. A. M. Ketcheson had asked him for the loan of one of the tarpaulins to cover over some part of a building he was repairing.

Ald. Harris said the same gentleman had asked him for it and he would not loan it without the consent of the Council.

Ald. McFee moved that the request be not granted, which motion prevailed.

The Council adjourned.

REFUSES TO BE EXEMPTED

JARVIS ST. BAPTIST CHURCH, TORONTO, AGAIN INSISTS ON PAYING ITS TAXES.

Toronto, October 23. — The Jarvis Street Baptist Church has followed its yearly practice of voluntarily paying taxes. In a letter to the City Treasurer yesterday, the Treasurer of the church, Mr. John Firstbrook, says:—

Herewith please find cheque for $587.50, an instalment of taxes for 1901 on the property of the Jarvis Street Baptist Church, on a valuation of $50,000 at 11 3-4 mills on the dollar.

As there is no means of arriving at the correct amount of exemptions apart from property owned by the city, by computing it at two mills, the same as last year, we make the rate as above mentioned, 11 3-4 mills, not including school tax, which will be paid separately. The church decides voluntarily to pay taxes on its property so exempt on the above-mentioned basis, making the total amount of taxes (not including local improvement rate), of which the enclosed cheque covers the first instalment.

In making this payment on behalf of Jarvis Street Baptist Church, I am directed to formally protest against exemptions, and especially against the exemption of ecclesiastical properties, as contrary to the principles which should govern the relations of civil authorities to religious bodies, and request that the corporation shall use its influence to have the law amended so as to abolish such exemption.

TOMMY ATKINS INDIGNANT

AT GENERAL BULLER'S REMOVAL—TO MAKE A PUBLIC DEFENCE.

London, Oct. 23. — The officers and men at Aldershot, which was General Buller's headquarters, are greatly surprised at his removal from the command of the First Army Corps. It is stated that most of the regimental officers hold that the punishment more than meets the crime. The privates are generally indignant. General Buller was perhaps the most popular officer in the service with the men, whose cause he always championed, and for whom he made things easy.

The prominent evening papers generally express regret at General Sir Redvers Buller's enforced retirement from the army, but regard it as the inevitable consequence of his indiscretion in his recent speech. General Buller's next public appearance will be on November 30, when he is to be entertained at dinner by the Devonshire Regiment. It is considered likely that he will make a public defence of his conduct on that occasion.

A news agency states that the notification of the commander-in-chief's decision removing him from the command of the First Army Corps was conveyed to General Buller late yesterday afternoon by a special messenger from the War Office. General Buller was apparently unmoved when he received the news. He was evidently prepared for it.

The Times in an editorial article to-day comments on the removal of Gen. Buller from the command of the First Army Corps.

The editorial says an opportunity to resign was given to Sir Redvers, but he preferred dismissal. His choice only throws into stronger relief the amazing defects in judgment and in sense of military discipline marking his Westminster speech. That speech challenged judgment, flouted his superiors, who were Gen. Buller's shield, and trampled on discipline, which was his bulwark. The Times adds:—

"Gen. Buller has developed the defects of his qualities. His tenacity has become obstinacy, his masterful spirit has grown into insubordination, and his self-reliance has blinded him to what was painfully obvious to others."

HOW TO GET UP AN APPETITE.

Distaste for food often follows Grippe and fevers, and is associated with a general weakness of the system. To impart a real zest for food, and give power to the stomach to digest and assimilate, no remedy can equal Ferrozone. This is a new and startling discovery. It strikes at the root of disease, and by removing the cause, cures quickly and permanently. Ferrozone will quickly enable you to eat and digest anything. Mr. McKeown, druggist can tell you a great deal more about Ferrozone, how it cures and why it cures. Call to-day and see him. Price 50c.

SOME DROLL MOMENTS.

"THE DEEMSTER."

Do not fail to see this unmistakably greatest event, at the opera house Friday and Saturday nights and Saturday afternoon matinee. 2t

Each day is like a furrow lying before us; and our thoughts, desires and actions are the seed that each minute we drop into it. Thus we are ever sowing; and what we have sown springs up, and bears fruit, even although we may fail to recognize our own work.

Five cents spent for any issue of The Illustrated Buffalo Express is a good investment.

THEY DROVE PIMPLES AWAY.—A face covered with pimples is unsightly. It tells of internal irregularities which should long since have been corrected. The liver and the kidneys are not performing their functions in the healthy way they should, and these pimples are to let you know that the blood protests. Parmalee's Vegetable Pills will drive them all away, and will leave the skin clear and clean. Try them, and there will be another witness to their excellence.

AT DEATH'S DOOR.—DYSPEPSIA CONQUERED.—A GREAT MEDICAL TRIUMPH.—Gentlemen,—My medical adviser and others told me I could not possibly live when I commenced to use Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery for Dyspepsia. My case was one of the worst of its kind. For three years I could not eat meat and my weight decreased from 212 to 119 lbs. All the food I took for thirteen months previous to taking the Vegetable Discovery consisted of milk. I am now entirely cured and have regained my usual weight, can eat anything with a keen relish and feel like a new man. I have sold over thirty dozen Vegetable Discovery since it cured me, as I am well-known and people in this section know how low I was, and thought I could not possibly be cured. They are eager to try this grand medicine. It certainly saved my life as I never expected to recover when first I commenced using it. I am not exaggerating anything, but feel glad to be able to contribute this testimonial and trust it may be the means of convincing others of its merit as a certain cure for Dyspepsia.

If you have a cough or cold do not neglect it; many without a trace of that hereditary disease have drifted into a consumptive's grave by neglecting what was only a slight cold. Had they used Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup before it was too late, their lives would have been saved. Mr. A. W. Levy, Mitchell, writes: "I think Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup the best preparation on the market for coughs and severe colds. About six years ago I caught a severe cold which settled on my lungs, and for three months I had a cough. I had a physician attending me, but gradually grew worse until I was on the verge of Consumption, and had given up hopes of being cured, when I was induced to try Bickle's Syrup. Before I had taken one bottle I found myself greatly relieved, and by the time I had finished the second bottle I was completely cured. I always recommend it for severe colds and consumption."

TWINKLING LIGHTS.

Six Hundred Fishing Vessels Decorated With Bunting Greeted Ophir at St. John's, Nfld.—Night Illumination.

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 24.—The royal yacht Ophir, having on board the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, convoyed by four British cruisers, arrived here at daylight yesterday morning. The city was profusely decorated, and over 600 fishing vessels had assembled in these waters, all decorated with bunting. People from the warships say the marine prospect was one of the finest witnessed throughout the tour of the Duke and Duchess. The fleet arrived here ahead of time, allowance having been made for foggy weather, which was not encountered. There is no program for the day, but the Duke, last evening gave a dinner to the Governor, Sir Cavendish Boyle, and the state dignitaries, on board the Ophir.

The celebration last night was exceedingly enthusiastic. The weather was clear, and the town fairly blazed with illuminations and fireworks. The Ophir, Crescent, Diadem, Niobe, Prosper and Charybdis were electrically lighted. Fifteen sealing steamers, moored in a long line, showed festoons of marine lanterns, while eight hundred fishing vessels were similarly decorated, making a veritable forest of twinkling lights spread over the whole harbor. From the hills surrounding the city 60 bonfires flamed. A thousand torch bearers paraded the city, and then massed near the wharf where the Ophir was moored, to be inspected by the Duke and Duchess. Five hundred fishing boats paraded the harbor, lighted with lanterns.

The Duke and Duchess expressed themselves as delighted, and said the assemblage of shipping in the port, with the abundant bunting, formed one of the finest displays they had witnessed during the tour. It is reported that the Diadem grazed a rock while entering the port.

By Wireless Messenger.

London, Oct. 24.—Cruisers belonging to the Channel Squadron will be stationed, 100 miles apart, down the Channel, and out to sea, to send, by wireless telegraphy, the first greetings of the Duke of Cornwall and York to King Edward and Queen Alexandra.

WAITED TILL HE HAD MONEY.

Windsor Man Will Prosecute His Son-in-Law for Murder.

Windsor, Oct. 24.—William McCartney, a tailor of this city, has retained Attorney J. W. Hanna to take steps toward the prosecution of Frank Osler, who, he alleges, killed his daughter, to whom Osler was married. Osler is now serving a term of four and a half years in the Kingston Penitentiary for stealing, but Hanna says he will proceed at once to have him pardoned for the purpose of trying him on the charge of murder.

The death of Mrs. Osler occurred on Aug. 2, 1897, in her home at Rodney, Ont. According to Coroner George W. Ling's certificate, which is now in McCartney's possession, the woman's death resulted from a broken neck. Dr. Lake of Ridgetown also swore that the neck was broken.

The Ontario Government promised, according to McCartney's story, to make a thorough investigation into the case, but has not done so. He had no money then himself to push the case, but now has accumulated enough cash to carry on the prosecution. Osler is about 35 years of age, and is a native of Chatham.

Kicked to Death.

Creemore, Oct. 24.—William Dougherty, a respectable and well known farmer of this district, living about one mile from Meaford, went out to attend to his horses last night. About an hour later his wife, wondering at his not returning, found him lying dead behind his horses. He had been kicked in the head, and death had been instantaneous. He was 37.

Uncle Sam is Anxious.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 24.—That the Samar disaster has put a new aspect upon affairs in the Philippines, appears in a telegram received this morning at the Detroit Recruiting Office. "Enlist all stations for infantry and cavalry with applicants fitted for foreign service."

Templeman or Smith.

Victoria, Oct. 24.—It is reported here in political circles that the vacancy in the Dominion House caused by the elevation of Sir Louis Davies to the Supreme Court Bench, will be filled by a man from the west. The choice is between Senator Templeman and Ralph Smith, M.P.

PLAIN TALK

TO CATARRH SUFFERERS.

Every person suffering from catarrh in its many forms, knows that the common lotions, salves and douches do not cure. It is needless to argue this point or to cite cases of failure, because every victim of catarrhal trouble knows it for himself if he has tried them.

A local application, if it does anything at all, simply gives temporary relief; a wash, lotion, salve or powder cannot reach the seat of the disease which is the blood.

The mucous membrane seeks to relieve the blood of catarrhal poison by secreting large quantities of mucous, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils, descending to the throat and larynx, causing an irritating cough, continual clearing of the throat, deafness, indigestion and many other disagreeable and persistent symptoms.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal treatment; a remedy which will gradually cleanse the system from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion always present in the mucous membrane.

The best remedies for this purpose are Eucalyptol, Sanguinaria and Hydrastin, but the difficulty has always been to get these valuable curatives combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

Recently this has been accomplished and the preparation put on the market under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets; they are large pleasant tasting lozenges, so that they may be slowly dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane and finally the stomach and intestines.

An advantage to be considered also is that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, morphine or poisonous narcotics, so often found in catarrh powders, and the use of which often entails a habit more dangerous than the disease.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cts. for full sized package and are probably the safest and most effectual catarrh cure on the market.

THE GIRL PHILOSOPHER.

Her Story of Her Meeting With the Accident Insurance Man.

"You know Tom," began the girl philosopher, twisting a new ring about her third finger.

"Yes," exclaimed the other two in chorus. "When is it to be?"

"You know Tom," began the other again, who would tell things in her own way or not at all. "And you know there was a fire at our house in which the old maiden lady on the third floor had her nose seriously burned. What I am going to tell you is related both to the fire and to Tom. It was the evening after, and I was practicing at the piano, trying to appear as though I were not awaiting him. Formerly, when waiting for the man whom I was going to marry, I would have been reading a book. But they all seemed to see through that. They knew very well that the book was a ruse and that I was just making up my mind what to say after the first greeting. So I ceased reading and nowadays practice on the piano."

"It is hard to know what to say after that greeting," remarked the fluffy haired girl.

"Is it?" asked the sallow young woman innocently.

"Yes," replied the philosopher. "One is apt to grow red and look silly. Then he always says, 'Well, what are you laughing for?' and you always reply, 'Nothing at all,' and then you giggle. He laughs in little jerks and asks you how you are. You say: 'All right. Hasn't it been a perfectly lovely day?' I used to get a book just before he came and think out things to say during such trying moments, but now I play the bumblebee song or something which is not too noisy, for I always manage to hear every footfall on the veranda. That evening after the fire I was singing"—

"What risks you take," ventured the sallow young woman.

"So I failed to listen for the footsteps as usual," proceeded the speaker. "I had just reached a high note and was endeavoring to get that vocal quiver that is so fetching when some one directly behind my chair coughed slightly. It was so sudden that I forgot all about the line of action I had planned. I had intended to be cool to him, for you see, I was most—er—cordial the evening before. You should never be too cordial to a man twice in succession, you know."

"I know," answered the fluffy haired girl, with a conclusive nod.

"But it was awfully sudden," said the sallow young woman. "Did you mistake him for a book agent?"

"No such good luck, or good behavior, either," admitted the philosopher. "I just said, 'Oh, Tom!' and I am afraid I left some of my new powder on his coat. He seemed to be about as surprised as I, for he backed away several steps and, removing my hands gently from his shoulder, remarked, 'I am afraid you are mistaken.'"

"What!" exclaimed the listeners.

The philosopher nodded vigorously and bit her lip as though she was about to laugh or cry. "It wasn't Tom at all," she finally gasped weakly, "but an accident insurance man who had come to see about the maiden lady's burned nose. The maid answered the door, you know."

"What did you say?" inquired the fluffy haired girl.

"I must have stammered a little, but I remember saying that I thought he was some one else."

"And he?"

"He said he wished he were."

"Impudence!" ejaculated the sallow young woman. "You really should tell Tom at once, for as long as you are wearing his ring"—

"But it is not his ring," said the philosopher, defiantly, holding up her hand. "It's the accident insurance man's."

Her companions looked at each other in speechless surprise. The fluffy haired girl finally managed to inquire:

"When?"

"Since one week after he came out to inquire about the injuries of the maiden lady. Wasn't she a dear to poke her nose into the fire?"

Tablecloths.

All housekeepers like to have tablecloths ironed with only one fold through the center. To keep them after this laundering they are best rolled on a stick. Each tablecloth has its own stick, as long as the cloth is wide when folded lengthwise through the center, the sticks being neatly covered with, first, several folds of flannel and afterward with muslin. When the cloth is ironed in one fold, one end is evenly pinned to the stick and the cloth loosely rolled on it, so that it will not crease. Afterward the whole is slipped into a long, narrow bag and laid in the linen closet, or in the long drawer of the sideboard, if that is kept for the purpose.

Light Without Flame.

If one or two pieces of phosphorus of the size of peas be inclosed in a small bottle half full of olive oil and kept for some little time, the air space in the bottle will become filled with a phosphorescent vapor. The phosphorescence will fade, but may be renewed by simply uncorking the bottle. Sufficient light will be given out to tell the time by.

Snakes and Noises.

It is a curious fact that there are certain kinds of noises which attract snakes. The whir of the mowing machine is one, and in six months as many as 120 cobras alone have been killed on a grass farm in India by getting in front of the advancing machine.

Obliging.

Lady (to village jobber, who for days has been "working" in the house)—Can you tell me when you are likely to have finished this job?

Jobber—If you can tell me, mum, where I'm likely to get another.

Grit Tactics Again

Another Conservative postmaster, in the person of Mr. Thompson, of Moneymore, has been unceremoniously removed to make room for one of the faithful. Commencing with October 1st, the mail carrying from Roslin, as well as the keeping of the post office, has been performed by John W. Burley, a very prominent Grit. The change was effected, we understand, without any tenders being called for, as no doubt they were not wanted. The new P.M. (who by the way is a renegade Conservative, and who left no great gap in that party when he flopped), is very proud of his position and sometimes imagines himself Postmaster-General. He is the only Grit in that section so that in this case the Government was not besieged by office-seekers, and the successful applicant did not have to rely on his past record of party serving in order to qualify for the position.

"Cure-Alls" Didn't Cure

Only a Kidney Specific of the genuine merit of South American Kidney Cure can ever hope to cope with insidious kidney diseases in all its forms.

"For two years I was greatly troubled with an affection of the kidneys—frequently unfitting me for work. I tried many patent medicines and "cure-alls," without getting any relief, for I had intense pain almost constantly. South American Kidney Cure was recommended to me. A few hours after commencing its use I got great relief. Four bottles cured. It is worth its weight in gold."—Frank S. Emerick, Alviaston, Ont. 38

MASSASSAGA

Mrs. Herman Sherrif, of Picton, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thrasher last week.

Miss Anna Broad is visiting friends in Newcastle this week.

Miss Mabel Morden is the guest of Mrs. W. S. Mabee this week.

Miss Gladys Roblin, of Sidney is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. A. E. Thrasher.

A number from here attended the services of the A.O.U.W. at Roblin's Mills on Sunday afternoon.

A very interesting meeting was held at the Epworth League on Sunday evening, conducted by Miss Grace Jose. Subject, "Heroes of Christian History."

Mr. Byron Frederick attended the meeting of the Council on Tuesday last.

The Huff Island bridge is receiving a coat of gravel and stone.

A GENTLE HINT.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Regular size, 75 cts. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at B. Templeton & Co.'s.

GARDENVILLE.

Mr. Harte, of Trenton, has moved in town.

Mr. J. Dymond has moved his grocery and the post office across the road.

The weather has been quite stormy in this district this week.

The threshing is about done, but the straw is quite short.

There are quite a few ducks in Weller's Bay at present, Mr. R. Chase and Mr. B. Fellon got over 200 last week.

Mr. Wrightmyer, of Belleville, and Mr. S. Rowe, of Trenton, are shooting ducks here.

Mr. Gilmour, of Trenton, was in town Thursday.

Mr. Fellon is camping over on Chad's Grove.

Mr. A. Chase has purchased a fine new wagon.

TUFTSVILLE.

S. Tufts had a very successful husking bee last week.

Mrs. George Cooke and Florence Cooke were guests of John Cooke at Ivanhoe on the 15th.

Mrs. Geo. Carr, of Ridge Road, is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gay, of Foxboro, spent Sunday with her parents.

The news of the death of Irvine Tweedie in Thurlow on the 18th cast a gloom over our village. He was well known here. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved mother.

What might have been a serious accident occurred on the 17th. When Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Bennett were driving to attend a funeral at Foxboro, their horse became frightened when a short distance from home. The buggy was overturned and the occupants thrown out. Mrs. Bennett escaped with a sprained wrist, while Mr. Bennett had his shoulder badly hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ashley spent Sunday in Foxboro.

Mr. E. Bennett and Pearl Bennett were in Kingston during the visit of the Royal party there.

Mrs. W. S. Clarke, Mrs. Jas. Stapley and Mrs. Geo. Clarke attended the funeral of the late Irvine Tweedie on the 21st.

BLESSINGTON.

Husking bees are the order of the day, and deer hunting the topic.

Mrs. John Miller, of Madoc, is visiting her father, John Sparrow.

Mrs. Gilbert Ross is on the sick list.

Miss Theda Cole spent a few days of last week with Mrs. Wm. Bates, of Sidney Crossing.

Mr. Adam Leslie has sold his farm to Mr. Henderson, of Lime Lake.

Mr. Jas. R. Gay, of Belleville, spent Wednesday last with friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cole were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Loucks on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sills, of Canifton, spent Sunday at Jno. Robjnson's.

ATTENTION, INVENTORS!

E. G. Siggers, Patent Lawyer, Washington, D. C., whose ad. appears in our columns, is an attorney of twenty-one years' active practice and is well recommended to us. His rating will be found in Dun's and Bradstreet's reports, as he owns the "Inventive Age." He has sent us application blanks and other papers and inventors who are intending to apply for patents would save time by calling at this office and getting the papers before presenting their applications through any other source.

TURRIFF.

Threshing is done and crops in most cases very light. Many farmers will not have enough feed to winter all their stock, and buyers do not seem as anxious to buy cattle as in former years. Buyers from the front might find it to their advantage to take a trip north.

Mining operations have been begun on H. McGee's farm.

About twenty people from this station attended Picton Fair.

Jailer Appleby and wife, of Belleville, are camping at McPhee's dam.

Mrs. McArthur, of McArthur's Mills, mother of Mrs. James McInnes, of this place, died last week.

Mr. J. Jarman, an old and respected resident of L'Amable, is dead.

The Agricultural Society held their thirty-fifth show on the 1st of October. A good attendance and nice weather made it a success.

A family of colored people named Wilson gave an entertainment at the school house last night.

Miss Louie Towns gave a birthday party last week.

Mrs. Byron and Mr. Sturgeon are still here, working in the Holiness Movement.

A portable sawmill is to start work as soon as the cold weather sets in.

One of our young men has started housekeeping all alone.

BOOK BINDING.

Orders for bookbinding should be left at this office. It is surprising how nice a volume can be made of these magazines, even though they are somewhat soiled from much handling. Books, magazines, or periodicals bound or rebound in any style at very reasonable prices. Blank books, such as journals, ledgers, day books, with any kind of ruling, made to order. All work warranted first-class. THE INTELLIGENCER, Belleville.

VERY REMARKABLE.

(Exchange.)

A very remarkable story is current with regard to General Sir Ian Hamilton's spectacles. It appears that the gallant officer, then a subaltern, lost a pair of spectacles in the battle of Majuba Hill. They were apparently picked up by a Boer whom they suited, and who kept them for twenty years. In the early part of the present year the spectacles were found on the body of a dead Boer. There could be no doubt as to their identity, for the case had General Hamilton's name on it, and they were in due course returned to their original owner.

VOL. 35. BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25 1901. NO. 146

The Stimulus of Pure Blood

That is what is required by every organ of the body, for the proper performance of its functions.

It prevents biliousness, dyspepsia, constipation, kidney complaint, rheumatism, catarrh, nervousness, weakness, faintness, pimples, blotches, and all cutaneous eruptions.

It perfects all the vital processes. William Ross, Sarnia, Ont., took Hood's Sarsaparilla to make his blood pure. He writes that he was all run down, his appetite was gone, and his nerves were so unstrung he could not rest nor sleep. He had tried many remedies without benefit when Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and he began its use. Three bottles of this medicine entirely cured him.

SORE NECK

Take Scott's Emulsion for scrofula. Children often have sores on the neck that won't heal up. The sores may come and go. Parents may not know what's the matter nor what to do. Scrofula is the trouble and Scott's Emulsion is the medicine.

Scott's Emulsion heals the sores. But that is not all. Scrofula leads to consumption. This is the real danger.

Scott's Emulsion is the "ounce of prevention" that keeps off consumption.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

Mrs. Annie Taylor Went Over the Falls in a Barrel.

She Is Uninjured Save a Scalp Wound—Glad She Made the Trip, and Prayed All the Time—A Graceful Descent to the White Foaming Waters 158 Feet Below—Was in the Barrel Forty-five Minutes.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Oct. 25.—Mrs. Annie Edson Taylor, 50 years old, went over Niagara Falls on the Canadian side yesterday afternoon.

She escaped without a broken bone, her only apparent injuries being a scalp wound 1½ inches long, a slight concussion of the brain, some shock to her nervous system and bruises about the body. She was conscious when taken out of the barrel. The doctors in attendance upon her last night said that she was somewhat hysterical, that her condition is not at all serious, and that she probably will be out of bed within a few days.

Mrs. Taylor's trip covered a mile ride through the Canadian rapids, which occupied 18 minutes, before she reached the brink of the precipice. Her barrel as it passed through the smoother, swifter waters that rushed over into the abyss, it rode in an almost perpendicular position with its upper half out of water. As it passed over the brink at 4.23, it rode at an angle of about 45 degrees on the outer surface of the deluge, and descended as gracefully as a barrel can descend to the white foaming waters, 158 feet below. True to her calculation the anvil fastened to the bottom of the barrel kept it foot downwards and so it landed.

It could not be seen as it struck the water below, because of the spray, but, in less than half a minute after it passed over the brink, it was seen on the surface of the scum-covered water below the Falls. It was carried swiftly down to the green water beyond the scum, then half way to the Maid of the Mist landing. It was caught in what is known as the Maid of the Mist eddy, and held there until it floated so close to the shore that it was reached by means of a pole and hook, and drawn in upon the rocks at 4.40 o'clock or 17 minutes after it shot the cataract. Ten minutes later, the woman was lifted from the barrel, and, half an hour later, she lay on a cot at her boarding house at First street, in Niagara Falls, on the American side.

She thanked God that she was alive, thanked all who had helped her in any way, said she would never do it again, but that she was not sorry she had done it, "if it would help her financially." She said she had prayed all the time during the trip, except during "a few moments" of unconsciousness, just after her descent.

The barrel in which Mrs. Taylor made the journey is 4½ feet high, and about three feet in diameter. A leather harness and cushions inside protected her body. Air was secured through a rubber tube connected with a small opening near the top of the barrel.

Destroyed Natural History Building.

Toronto, Oct. 25.—Fire yesterday destroyed the Natural History Building at Exhibition Park, and the city will lose about $2,500 by it. The building was valued at $4,000, and was insured for only $1,500, divided among 46 companies doing business in Toronto. Of the insurance $500 represented the extra amount put on when the buildings were handed over to the military authorities. The policy was only for 20 days, and expires on Saturday. The Natural History Building was built in 1882.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

The run of live stock was not large, 60 carloads all told, composed of 853 cattle, 1500 hogs, 1600 sheep and lambs and 30 calves.

The quality of fat cattle in general was not good. There were no choice well-finished exporters and only a few lots of good butchers' cattle offered.

Trade was fair; while there was no rush in any line, still there was steady business nearly all day.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK.

Montreal, Oct. 24.—The receipts of live stock at the East End Abattoir this morning were 600 head of cattle, 50 calves, 500 sheep and 400 lambs. There was a good attendance of butchers and a good trade was done at the following prices:

Cattle—Choice sold at from 4¼c to 4½c per lb.; good sold at from 3½c to 4c per lb.; lower grade, from 2c to 3c per lb. Calves were sold from $3 to $10 each. Sheep brought from 2¾c to 3c per lb. Lambs were sold from 3½c to 4c per lb. Hogs brought from 6c to 6¼c per lb.

The Programme At St. John's

Frequent Rain Showers Make it Unpleasant for Royalty.

Woman Went Over Niagara Falls in a Barrel—Witnesses Say Suicide in White Murder Trial—Startling Order From British War Office—Big Loss at the Pan-American.

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 25.—The program of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York was carried out yesterday amid frequent rain showers. The royal party landed at 11 o'clock, not any of them wearing uniforms, and drove to the Government House under an escort of mounted police, through streets lined with sailors and marines from the fleet. At the Government House, Sir William White, chairman of the Citizens' Committee, presented an address of welcome, to which the Duke replied in suitable terms.

The Governor of Newfoundland, Sir Cavendish Boyle, then presented the people's gifts, two splendid caribou heads, mounted for the Duke, and two albums containing photographs of native scenery for the Duchess.

The women of the colony, through Lady Whiteway, presented the Duchess with a mink carriage rug.

The Duke, later, laid the commemorative stone of the new court house, and then children, numbering 4,500, in the rink presented the Duke and Duchess with a Newfoundland dog, harness and cart for the royal children. The Duke thanked them.

The only function during the afternoon was a reception by the Duke and Duchess in Government House, which was attended by about 500 persons. When the affair was partly over, it was suspended for a time, as the Duchess became somewhat faint in consequence, it is understood, of her condition. The reception closed at ten minutes past four.

The royal party then drove to the dock and went on board the Ophir, where the Duke and Duchess rested for a few hours, returning at eight o'clock to attend the state banquet at Government House, and to drive through the city at 10 o'clock for a view of the illuminations, which, as the weather had improved, were general.

At 11 o'clock the Duke and Duchess returned to the Ophir, which will sail for England at daylight to-day.

Remembered the Cadets.

Kingston, Ont., Oct. 25.—Col. Reade, commandant at Royal Military College, has had a kindly worded message from the Duke of Cornwall and York, who forwarded an engraving of her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, for the college mess room. The message was written on Oct. 20 on the H.M.S. Ophir. The Duke expressed his great pleasure at inspecting the cadets and his admiration of the smart manner in which they performed their drill and gymnastics.

Prince of Teck Found His Ticker.

Ottawa, Oct. 25.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier reached here yesterday morning, having returned from his trip with the royal party. A telegram was received here yesterday by Lieut.-Col. Sherwood, stating that the Prince of Teck had got his watch where he had placed it for safekeeping, and which he thought was stolen at Halifax.

Chaplain's Body Found.

Halifax, Oct. 25.—The dead body of Chaplain Black of H. M. S. Charybdis has been found in the woods at St. John's, Nfld. There were two bullet holes in his head, and a revolver firmly grasped in his right hand.

Admiral Schley on the Stand.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Admiral Schley yesterday took the stand in his own behalf at the court of inquiry, which is investigating his conduct as commander-in-chief of the flying squadron during the Santiago campaign. He was summoned a few minutes after the court convened at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. He made full explanation of the whole movement against Santiago and the Spanish fleet.

RIB THROUGH HIS LUNG.

Mr. Honeywell Fell From a Barn Loft to Death—Manitoba's Wheat Is Little Damaged.

Count von Moltke of Berlin has gone to the United States to study the transportation system.

There is no foundation for the story that the Crown Prince of Germany will visit the United States next spring.

Mrs. Margaret White, aged 50, and Aldroney Snow, aged 50 years, were burned to death at Gloucester, Mass., on Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Ann Wiltshire, wife of Mr. William Wiltshire of London East, Ont., committed suicide Thursday morning by taking poison.

The Manitoba Government harvest report to be issued shortly will show that there has been little damage in the quality of the wheat outside of the Red River Valley.

W. F. Luxton, for many years editor of The Manitoba Free Press, and recently editor and manager of The St. Paul Globe, will return to Winnipeg to reside Nov. 1.

The writ for the bye-election in East Kent has been issued. The nomination will take place on Nov. 4, and the election on Nov. 11. This is the seat held by the late Robert Ferguson.

The third International Congress on Weights and Measures, sitting at Paris, has solved the delicate problem of the precise determination of the kilogram and has broached the important commercial question of the numeration of yarns.

The 36th annual convention of Ontario Sabbath School Workers, which has been in session for the past three days in the Metropolitan Church, was concluded Thursday evening. This convention was probably the most successful in the history of the association.

Mr. Honeywell, a well-known resident of Haldimand Township, on Thursday fell out of the loft to the ground floor and received injuries from which he died about three hours later. Several ribs were broken, and one rib was driven into the lung. His skull was also fractured. Deceased was 74 years of age.

EVERY MAN TO REPORT.

A Startling Notice From the British War Office.

London, Oct. 25.—An error committed by some of the provincial police has led to premature notice of the fact that the War Office contemplates the possible contingency of having to call out every volunteer in the country. The War Office has distributed to the police officers throughout the Kingdom bills ordering all reservists, militia, yeomen and volunteers to report themselves without delay to headquarters, with the view of active service. These bills are accompanied by letters ordering that the former be kept in a safe place until telegraphic orders to post them up are received. The police of Lancaster overlooked the letter and posted the bills, causing widespread perturbation.

Boer Force Surprised.

Cradock, Cape Colony, Oct. 24.—Col. Lukin to-day surprised a force of Boers at Steinkrautz. One Boer was killed and twelve taken prisoners.

Recovered Two Guns.

London, Oct. 25.—Reporting to the War Office, Lord Kitchener wires as follows: "Colonel Campbell's column, operating near Slangapies, has recovered two guns which the Boers had captured at Scheeper's Nek."

Another Constable Dead.

Ottawa, Oct. 25.—The Militia Department has received the following cable from the High Commissioner at Johannesburg:

Johannesburg, Oct. 24.—Trooper Harry Smallwood, of the South African Constabulary, died of dysentery at Bashar. The next of kin is C. Smallwood, West Heat, Congleton, Cheshire, England.

The Dynamite Question.

New York, Oct. 25.—The first move in the direction of a settlement of the Transvaal dynamite question is an offer of the Transvaal Dynamite Company, which is a German concern, to supply explosives at 30 shillings per case under the figure ruling before the war, says The Tribune's London correspondent. On the basis of the rate of consumption of the explosive by the Rand mines prior to the outbreak of hostilities, this would mean a saving of about $2,500,000 a year.

Roberts and Buller.

London, Oct. 25.—The storm of discussion regarding the dismissal of Gen. Buller from the command of the First Army Corps shows no diminution. It is asserted that there has been a very strong feeling of animosity between Lord Roberts and Gen. Buller ever since the capture of Pretoria, and that for a week the former had vainly endeavored to persuade the latter of the advisability of resigning.

To Honor Dr. Dumant.

Christiania, Norway, Oct. 25.—Although the fact is not officially announced, it is regarded as assured that Dr. Henri Dumant, the Swiss physician, who was recommended by the Swiss Rigsdag to the committee entrusted with Nobel's annual prize for the encouragement of peace and arbitration, will be awarded that prize this year. Frederick Passy, the former member of the French Chamber of Deputies, received the next highest vote.

Beet Sugar in the Northwest.

Winnipeg, Oct. 25.—Experiments in the vicinity of Lethbridge with sugar beets has proved most successful. The percentage of sugar in beets has shown so large that Knight, the millionaire sugar manufacturer of Provo, Utah, has decided to erect a $200,000 factory at Raymond, near Lethbridge. He is now preparing 3,000 acres of land for cultivation for beet production.

Taken Sick at a Wedding.

Bath, N.Y., Oct. 25.—One hundred guests were at the wedding last night of Clarence Carr and Miss Nellie Thomas at the home of James R. Thomas of Cass Corners. After the party, over 90 of the guests, including the officiating clergyman, Rev. George Scherer, were prostrated. Some of the cases are serious, though not necessarily fatal.

Railway for North Ontario.

Toronto, Oct. 25.—The Ontario Government, next spring, will build a railway from North Bay, northward. The Commissioner of Public Works, who made this announcement yesterday, thinks that the line could be completed in a year, or, at least, Lake Temiscaming could be reached in that time.

Largest in History.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 25.—The production of anthracite coal in Pennsylvania this year will be the largest in the history of the trade. Approximately the output will be about 10,000,000 tons more than in 1900, when the production was 45,107,484 tons.

Canadians for the Navy.

London, Oct. 25.—Admiral Hopkins, at a dinner given by the London Chamber of Commerce, declared that if some one would only make a move by holding up their hand in favor of the idea, ten thousand of the forty thousand Canadian fishermen would join the royal navy. Those who had joined in the past, he said, had proved to be the very best of seamen.

Plotted to Take Shah's Life.

London, Oct. 25.—"News has been received here from Teheran," says a despatch from St. Petersburg to The Daily Mail, "of the discovery of a serious plot on the life of the Shah. The leaders of the conspiracy were the Shah's two brothers, the Grand Vizier, Sadr Aazam, and the Shah's son-in-law. The two brothers have been banished for life to Ardebil."

Great Send-Off.

Queenstown, Oct. 25.—Messrs. John E. Redmond, Patrick A. McHugh and Thomas O'Donnell, the Nationalist members of Parliament, who are to visit the United States in behalf of the Irish cause, sailed for New York yesterday morning on the steamer Majestic. They were given a great send-off.

Mr. Massey's Condition.

Toronto, Oct. 25.—The relatives and friends of Mr. Walter E. H. Massey were given some encouragement last night when it was given out by the physicians that there is still a hope for recovery.

The License Investigation.

Toronto, Oct. 25.—At Stoney Creek yesterday morning Chief Inspector Stewart of Toronto continued the investigation into the charges preferred against License Inspector Macklem of South Wentworth.

At the afternoon's session Commissioners Smith and Stewart both declared Inspector Macklem to be a competent officer, whose work they were satisfied with.

Czolgosz to Die on October 29.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 25.—Leon F. Czolgosz, the murderer of President McKinley, will be electrocuted at 7 a. m. on Tuesday, Oct. 29, at Auburn Prison.

The Bureau of Mines have been notified by Mr. Fred. Folger of Kingston that he has discovered a well defined vein of molybdenite in Miller Township, Frontenac County.

EAST BUFFALO CATTLE MARKET.

East Buffalo, Oct. 24.—Cattle—Offerings, 2 cars; fairly good demand, unchanged. Veals—Common to choice, $5 to $7.50. Hogs—Offerings, 23 cars; steady for good pigs; lower for others; fair to choice yorkers, $6 to $6.25; mixed packers, $6.30 to $6.40; medium to choice heavy, $6.40 to $6.65; pigs, $5.80 to $5.90; roughs, $5 to $5.75. Sheep and Lambs—Offerings, 30 cars; lower; common to fancy lambs, $3.50 to $4.75; good to choice yearlings, $3.50 to $3.75; choice wethers, $3.40 to $3.50; choice to extra mixed, $3 to $3.25; culls and commons, $1.25 to $2.

SEASONABLE HINTS.

GUARD YOUR HEALTH IN FALL AND EARLY WINTER.

A change from warm to cold is always attended with more danger than from a cold to a warm temperature, hence the greater mortality from lung and throat diseases at this season of the year as compared with spring.

The best protection against colds is not so much in extra clothing as in good digestion.

If the digestion and circulation are good, colds will be unknown.

Poor digestion causes poor circulation of the blood and when in this condition severe colds are contracted on the slightest provocation.

People who make a regular practice of taking Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals are free from colds, simply because their digestion is perfect, the heart strong and regular, and the whole system fortified against disease.

It requires little argument to convince anyone that the best safeguard against colds, pneumonia and changes of temperature is a good stomach.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after meals are dissolved and mingling with the food cause it to be promptly digested and assimilated; they do this because they contain nothing but harmless digestive elements, which digest meat, eggs and other food even when the stomach itself is weak and flaccid.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets make people well and keep them well, and the best habit you can acquire is to keep daily use of them at meals to make the digestive organs strong and vigorous.

WITNESSES ALL SAY SUICIDE

Evidence for the Defence in the White Murder Trial.

White Was Ever Complaining and Frequently Talked of Killing Himself—Many Persons Testify to His Lugubrious Conversation—Baking Soda Found in House After Death, Used to Make Harmless Cake—The Day's Proceedings.

Brantford, Oct. 25.—The White murder trial continued yesterday morning, and the defence side was begun.

Peter Schram, a boarding house keeper, with whom White lived, testified that deceased spent much money in drink. He was not a well man, and often complained of pain across the chest, took medicine, sometimes from boxes and other times from bottles. He had also talked life insurance and of suiciding when he had been drinking, saying that he would drown himself, that he was no good, and that he had no friends. He talked of joining a benefit society when he could afford it. White had told the witness that he got into trouble with his wife over his drinking habits, but that she liked him in all other respects.

Talked of Being a Corpse.

Philip Monthe of Toronto, formerly of Brantford, said that once, while drinking with White, the latter said that he was always in trouble and could not get along. He said that he was better dead than alive. White said: "If you find me a corpse in the morning, don't be a bit surprised." He pulled a bottle out of his pocket. The witness told him not to talk like that, or he would not stay with him. Witness stayed all night with the deceased. Another time, the witness said that White met him and said to him: "Another dose like that would have fixed me."

"I asked him what he meant," said the witness, and he said: "You know what I told you about before."

Mr. Anglin cross-examined the witness at length. Monthe was positive of the exact words used by White in 1897. "If you find me a corpse in the morning, don't be a bit surprised." He could not tell how many glasses of liquor White had had that night. Witness said that he had often been drunk since that time, and was known as a heavy drinker.

Spoke of Suicide.

W. D. Foster of Hamilton swore that, while he was boarding at Schram's with White, someone was drowned in the river. Witness remarked to White that it was a sad thing. White said he didn't know about that. He believed that death ended all, and that he would be ready to go at any time, and that, if his troubles multiplied to such an extent that he could not bear them, he would take his own life. White's condition at nights was similar to that of a person suffering from delirium tremens. When White spoke to him about the hereafter, he spoke seriously.

How He Sometimes Felt.

Thomas Maddock of Hamilton said that he was in Brantford in 1899, and boarded at Schram's. He knew White, who was always complaining of pains across the chest. White had told him that he only cared for one of his sons, Frank, and that, if it were not for him he would end his life. Witness, as he was often coming from work late at night, often met White by the river, and walked to the house with him. On one occasion, White said that he felt like throwing himself into the river. Cross-examined by Mr. Anglin, the witness said that White never spoke about his wife, and did not seem to wish to go back to her. He was very fond of his son Frank, but was always worrying.

Showed a Paper.

Miss Maggie Secord saw White the Thursday before he died. On that day, she was at Mrs. White's house. White came in and threw himself in a chair, and complained of his heart troubling him. He put his hand in his pocket, and, pulling something out something wrapped in a paper, said that there was something in that that would fix his troubles some of these times. She told him not to talk like that, and threatened to report him.

On Saturday she saw him again. He told her that Josephine had got him a prescription from Dr. Marquis, but that he had never had it filled, and that it did not matter much. At the Thursday interview, he said that if he died suddenly, no one was to be blamed but himself. She threatened to report him, but did not do so, since she did not attach much importance to what he said.

Tired of Life.

Charles P. McGregor said he had known White from boyhood. White drank heavily at times, and complained of heart trouble and stomach trouble. This extended over a long period of time. Witness had heard White say repeatedly that he was tired of life, and that he would like to put himself out of the road. He was at the residence on the Sunday that White died. He saw a baking powder on the table; beside it were a tumbler and spoon. He was present when the body was embalmed, and saw the fluid put in the body. He was at the house on Sunday when the coroner called. He remembered seeing Mrs. White showing the coroner a paper. He could not say where it came from.

An Important Witness.

Alice Chamberlain of Hamilton testified that White complained often of pains in his stomach. He often said he was tired of life. Witness had seen White take powders. Her attention had been attracted, and she asked him what he took them for. He made no reply, but colored up. She was in White's house on Sunday, and, after going upstairs, went into the kitchen, where she saw the baking powder can. Mrs. White was there, frightened and worried. Mrs. White's household effects were afterward sold. She was present, and she took the can home. Soda was in it, and she used it a couple of times. She had heard him say that he was affected with piles.

On cross-examination, the witness said that she had used the soda for baking a cake, and that no one had suffered any ill-effects from eating the cake. Mrs. White had never discussed at any time the separations from her husband.

Other witnesses testified along similar lines.

Mrs. White Collapsed.

Mrs. Josephine White, after bravely facing the attack of counsel for nearly two hours, collapsed last night under the relentless cross-examination of Mr. F. A. Anglin, the Crown prosecutor, and her condition was so serious that the court was adjourned. The prisoner entered the box confident and smiling, and refused the chair which Mr. Heyd offered her. During the examination by her counsel she maintained her self-control thoroughly. Mr. Heyd confined his questions to the main points of the case, and as a result the evidence in chief had a distinctly good effect.

Rice Is Back in Toronto.

Toronto, Oct. 25.—Fred Lee Rice, the only surviving member of the notorious Rutledge gang of bank robbers, is back in Toronto again and will be kept at the jail until the charge of murder hanging over him is disposed of at the Criminal Assizes, which open at the City Hall on Monday at 2 p.m. Rice has been in Kingston Penitentiary since June 27 last. He was brought to Toronto again yesterday afternoon.

MR. PETTYPIECE AS A SUPPLIANT.

He Asks Premier Ross, Personally for Aid to Build Drains.

Toronto, Oct. 25.—H. J. Pettypiece, M.P.P., was at the Parliament Buildings yesterday as a suppliant. He was accompanied by Reeve Lampman of Bosanquet Township, and asked Premier Ross for assistance from the Government in building two drains. For one of them, the Roger drain, $280 was asked, this being properly chargeable against Indian lands, which are exempt. It was claimed that 40 farms would be benefitted by this drain. For the other drain the Government was asked to provide a common outlet. About 200 farms would be benefitted, the delegation claimed.

The Premier gave the usual stereotyped answer to the request, that it would receive the Government's serious consideration. Reeve Lampman then withdrew, and Mr. Ross and Mr. Pettypiece had a long private talk.

This is the first time Mr. Pettypiece has been in the Parliament Buildings since he got after Hon. John Dryden for being connected with an American ranching company.

Killed on the Michigan Central.

Niagara Falls, Oct. 25.—A terrible fatality occurred at an early hour yesterday morning in the yards of the Michigan Central at Montrose. Delos Rowe of Chippewa was walking on the track when he was run down by a freight train in charge of Engineer Charles Stephens. Rowe's legs were crushed below the knees and his left arm close to the elbow. His face was badly gashed. After being taken to the depot he recovered consciousness and asked for Venerable Archdeacon Houston, who was sent for. Within an hour the injured man died. The deceased was a large man, weighing nearly 200 pounds. He was 43 years of age. He had lived in Chippewa for 18 years. A wife and six children mourn his loss. The eldest is 14 and the youngest a few months old.

Swedes Likely to Strike.

Stockholm, Oct. 25.—At a meeting of the Workingmen's Association held here yesterday, a vote was taken by ballot to decide if certain trades should strike in order to force the adoption of manhood suffrage. The majority of those present voted in favor of the strike and deposited one day's pay per member to form a strike fund. The final decision will be taken when the labor congress meets in January. It is hoped that the reform bill now in preparation by the Government will meet the ideas of that gathering.

Prince Murat Dead.

Paris, Oct. 25.—Prince Joachim Murat died yesterday at his chateau at Chambly. General Prince Joachim Napoleon Murat was born at Bordentown, N. J., on July 21, 1834. He was the eldest son of Prince Napoleon Lucien Charles, who died in 1878, and was the grandson of the King of Naples. The mother of the deceased prince was Caroline Georgina, daughter of Thomas Frazer of Bordentown, N. J. She died in 1879.

Brigands Found at Last.

Constantinople, Oct. 25.—The missionaries who are operating from Samakov, Bulgaria, are at last in touch with the brigands who abducted Miss Stone and her companion, Mme. Tsilka, according to the despatches received here yesterday, though whether negotiations for the ransom have actually been opened is not disclosed. The missionaries on the spot are expected to conclude the business with the utmost despatch.

Quebec Nominations.

Drummondville, Que., Oct. 25.—J. A. Laferty, Liberal, and Napoleon Garceau, Liberal, were nominated yesterday in Drummond for the Local House.

Vaudreuil, Que., Oct. 25.—Dr. Pilon, Liberal, and T. Thaurette, Independent Liberal, were nominated for this county.

$4,000,000 Lost at Buffalo.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 25.—The decision of the directors to close the Pan-American Exposition on night of Nov. 2 enables the accountants to make a fairly accurate estimate of the loss which the Pan-American will suffer. It will exceed $4,000,000. The stockholders will receive back nothing for the $2,500,000 which they put in. Contractors who built the Exposition will lose $1,000,000, and the issue of $500,000 second mortgage bond will be defaulted, as well as 20 per cent. of the first-mortgage bonds.

New Ameer Encourages Trade.

London, Oct. 25.—A despatch from Simla to The Times says it is reported that Ameer Habib Ullah has made a liberal advance to the merchants of Cabul for the purpose of stimulating trade and reviving the former flourishing commerce with India, which Ameer Abdurrahman's short-sighted fiscal policy practically destroyed.

WEAKNESS of MEN AND WOMEN

Could we read the hearts of every man we meet, what a load of sorrow and despair would be disclosed. Indiscretions and Blood Diseases have caused more physical and mental wrecks than all other causes combined. They strike at the foundation of manhood; they sap the vital forces; they undermine the system, and not only do they often disrupt the family circle, but they may even extend their poisonous fangs into the next generation. If you have been a victim of early sinful habits, remember the seed is sown, and sooner or later you will reap a harvest. If your blood has been diseased from any cause do not risk a return later on. Our New Method Treatment will positively cure you and you need never fear any return of the disease. We will give you a guarantee bond to that effect. We would warn you sincerely against the promiscuous use of mercury, which does not cure blood poison but simply suppresses the symptoms.

WE CURE OR NO PAY.

Don't Let your Life be Drained Away, which weakens the intellect as well as the body. There is no room in this world for mental, physical or sexual dwarfs. Our New Method Treatment will Stop all Unnatural Losses, Purify the Blood, Strengthen the Nerves, Restore Vitality, and make a man of you. If you are in trouble, call and consult us. Consultation is Free. We treat and cure Drains, Blood Diseases, Varicocele, Stricture, Unnatural Discharges, Gleet, Kidney and Bladder Diseases. No cutting or operations. No detention from business. Everything confidential. Consultation Free. Books Free. Question Blank Free for Home Treatment.

"A RECORD BREAKER."

INCREASED EXPENDITURE.

SWOLLEN TO $56,256,167.

The enormous annual increase in the expenditure of public funds since the Liberals under Tarte and Laurier came into power, and the consequent increase in the taxation of the people, can be better understood and realized after a careful study of the figures compared as they are in the following article.

Let every elector who desires to learn and know how the Dominion is governed from a monetary standpoint study the facts and the figures given by Government officials, which are under the mark, as will be shown when the full statement is made public. Briefly stated the account stands thus:

Expenditure from revenue	$46,700,000
Capital expenditure	9,556,169
Total expenditure	$56,256,169
Revenue	52,800,000
Deficit added to debt	$ 3,456,169

This summary is, of course, subject to revision. The revenue is drawn partly from railways, canals, and public works, and partly from taxes. The amount collected as taxes is put down at $38,432,644. Of this sum $28,137,999 comes from Customs, and $10,294,645 from Excise.

It is interesting to make a comparison with a view to noting how we are swelling our annual expenditure under the "economy" policy which was promised in 1896. First, let us look at the expenditures. These have grown thus:

1895	$42,872,338
1896	44,096,385
1897	42,972,755
1898	45,334,281
1899	51,542,635
1900	52,717,466
1901	56,256,169

Speaking in round figures, there was last year an increase of $13,400,000 over 1895. This was one of the years in which Sir Richard Cartwright "viewed with alarm" the enormous expenditures, which he declared "an outrage" and "a disgrace to the country." Compared with 1896 the increase is $12,200,000. It was in 1896 the increase is $12,200,000. It was in 1896 that the ruling politicians of to-day came into power promising to economize, as Mr. Mills said, by three, four, and perhaps five millions of dollars annually. The revenue is to be judged chiefly by the taxes. Here is a table showing the taxation:

1895	$25,446,198
1896	27,759,285
1897	28,648,626
1898	29,576,455
1899	34,958,069
1900	38,242,223
1901	38,432,644

Our taxation is $13,000,000 higher than it was in 1895, and $10,700,000 higher than in 1896. The average increase is $2.60 per head, or $13 for every head of a family of five. It is equivalent to a mortgage of $2,500 on every family in Canada.

The net result of the operations is a deficit of nearly $3,400,000. This is paid out of borrowed money. At 3 1-2 per cent. it means a permanent addition of $122,500 yearly to our obligations. It is an astonishing exhibit, because it will be remembered that the Ottawa gentlemen distinctly promised to commence the reduction of the debt, with a view to its ultimate extinction, without delay.

For the new year into which we have just entered tremendous estimates were taken, as follows:

Main estimates	$50,398,823
Supplementaries	8,369,241
"	1,240,476
"	30,000
Railway subsidies	3,558,472
French steamship subsidy.	100,000
Lead ore bounty	100,000
	$63,797,012

But this does not cover all the obligations. We may have to pay $1,000,000 for iron and steel bounties, and several millions on account of railway grants voted in previous years. So that the progressive increase is maintained. While we have already jumped many millions a year in our taxes and our outlays, there is no indication that we have reached the end of our tether. On the contrary, the promise is that as we have submitted to the extortions of the past, we may expect to submit to further extravagances in the future. We have increased our expenditures by $12,200,000 as compared with 1896; our taxes by $10,700,000, and our debt, $3,400,000 last year, or $12,000,000 since the promised debt reducers have been in office.

Are not these figures worthy of the serious consideration of every taxpayer in the Dominion?

Time is flying and still there is no Grit candidate to contest West Hastings against Mr. E. Guss Porter. It begins to look as though the Fishery Inspector and the would-be Senator will have to toss up for the "honor." Most of the leading Grits in the Riding are walking lame, owing to their legs having been pulled so much, but the sadly-needed victim doesn't turn up. Meanwhile several prominent Liberals in this vicinity are becoming pretty well acquainted with the scenery between here and Ottawa, while the fate of a certain official trembles in the balance.

Success of a Canadian Boy

Many of our readers will remember Mr. Robert Weatherspoon, the old Grand Trunk engineer, who ran the first train over the Grand Trunk from Montreal to Belleville. He is now in the city visiting his old friends and associates. He informs us that his son David, who served his time in the machine shop in Belleville under Mr. Robb, who left here eleven years ago, is now general manager of the steel works in Joliette, Ill., drawing a salary of $250 a month, and that young Will is now running an engine between Garrette, Ind., and Chicago.

Belleville boys, as a rule, make their marks, wherever they go.

A GENTLE HINT.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. Regular size, 75 cts. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at B. Templeton & Co's.

Notes From the Hospital

WHAT A NEWSPAPER MAN SAW AND HEARD DURING A BRIEF VISIT THIS MORNING.

If there is one thing more than another that Belleville people ought to be proud of it is the Hospital, which is certainly doing a blessed work for the people of this district. Quietly, unostentatiously, the good work goes on. The wonder is how people ever got along before the Hospital came into existence.

A newspaper man who visited the institution this morning was much impressed with the evidences of thoroughness which he saw. Miss de Pencier, the Lady Superintendent, bears her weight of cares and responsibilities with grace and dignity, and the evidences of her thorough methods are noticeable everywhere, while the smiles which light up the faces of the patients when she enters a ward shows that her authority is mildly enforced and gracefully accepted.

The Lady Superintendent very kindly showed the newspaper man around the Hospital, expatiating on what had been done, what hadn't been done, and what she hoped to see done before long. A new west wing is what the Hospital needs, so Miss de Pencier says, and, like the little boy in the picture, she won't be happy till she gets it. The corridors of the different wards are sadly in need of rubber matting, which would help to bring quietness to the patients—something a sick person generally craves.

At present there are 26 free beds in the Hospital, and 15 private rooms, the rents of which range from $3 to $10 per week.

Walking round the building one couldn't help admiring the neatness which is everywhere in evidence. The nurses, in their simple white dresses, are certainly not the Hospital's least attractive feature.

"How large a staff have you?" was asked the Lady Superintendent.

"Ten nurses-in-training," was the reply, "whose term of service is three years."

There were but six nurses when Miss de Pencier took charge, which shows that the Hospital's scope of operations is enlarging.

The Contagious diseases ward is not crowded at present, there being two cases of measles in it; both adults.

Three cases of typhoid are just convalescing. They came from Deseronto. Miss de Pencier informed the newspaper man that all the virulent cases came from outside. Those from Belleville were uniformly light. A good sign, that surely.

All Treated Alike.

"Do you give any preference to city patients, Miss de Pencier?" that lady was asked.

"All patients are alike to us," was the reply. "We have always been able to accommodate any who were brought here, though sometimes it has been rather hard to do. No, our public wards know no distinctions. If a tramp comes he gets the same treatment as anybody else."

A Brave Little Chap.

On entering one of the public wards the newspaper man saw a little pale face, surmounted by yellow hair, lying on a pillow.

"This is an interesting case," said Miss de Pencier. "This is Master Adam Brown, who was so terribly burned the other day. He lost most of the skin on his body, and the doctors are going to try skin grafting. He is a dear, brave little man, only two years old."

And the scribe passed on, after wishing little Adam luck.

Another little child, from Trenton, had just recovered from an attack of appendicitis.

The rear verandahs, facing the bay, were occupied by patients who were enjoying the beautiful autumn sunshine. The view is a splendid one. The verandahs have been widened; certainly a most desirable change.

NOTES.

Mr. Hope McGinnis, who was so terribly injured by a horse some time ago, is now convalescent, and left for his home this afternoon. He bears but few marks of his injuries, on which he is to be sincerely congratulated.

The Hospital should get its new wing, but some of the patients will probably get theirs first.

Some of the endowed rooms are beautifully furnished, notably the one which owes its existence to the generosity of Mr. H. Corby.

WEDDED AT WINDSOR

NUPTIALS OF A YOUNG LADY WELL-KNOWN IN BELLEVILLE SOCIETY.

The Evening Record, published at Windsor, Ont., thus describes the wedding of Miss Ada Laing, sister of Mrs. C. M. Stork, of this city. During her residence in Belleville Miss Laing was very popular in social circles, being a vocalist of ability and a favorite wherever heard:

"Amid an artistic floral decoration and a profusion of autumn foliage, Miss Ada S. Laing, of this city, was united in marriage with Charles H. Cogan, of Detroit, at All Saints' church last night, Rev. Canon Hincks officiating. The elite of Windsor society attended the fashionable event and completely filled the large church edifice.

"At the entrance of the bride, leaning on the arm of her brother, Major F. H. Laing, the full-surpliced choir sang the appropriate selection, 'The voice that breathed o'er Eden.' The bride was met by the groom at the altar and was given away by her brother.

"The bride's gown was white organdie over cream taffeta silk, trimmed with a profusion of silk ribbon. She carried white roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Irene Laing, who was attired in white organdie and carried pink carnations. The groom was supported by R. T. Geary, of Sarnia.

"After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, 7 Bruce Ave. Canon Hincks fittingly toasted the bride, whom he had known as a Sunday school teacher and active church worker.

"The splendid array of presents testified the degree of esteem in which the bride was held by her friends. The teachers of All Saints' Sunday school made a present of a handsome silver candelabrum and her scholars a set of silver spoons. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold brooch with pearl maple leaf setting.

"Mr. and Mrs. Cogan left at 10.30 p. m. for Chicago on a bridal tour and will on their return take up their residence on Theodore St. in Detroit, Mr. Cogan being employed in the auditing department of the Pere Marquette railway."

Miss Jessie N. Maclachlan, who will sing at the Camp Rob Roy concert here on Nov. 5, has made it her life's work to popularize Gaelic and Scottish music, and she is acknowledged to be one of the best interpreters of Highland and Lowland song at present on the platform. Her voice is a powerful soprano of fine quality, with an extensive register; she sings with spirit and brilliancy, and renders with exquisite feeling every shade of sentiment from the fiery and dramatic to the soothing and charming. As a concert singer she is a host in herself.

"Silence is the wit of fools." When you have anything worth talking about, talk everlastingly, and if you talk sense the people will heed your remarks. CHARACTERISTIC GRIT TRICKERY

How a "Sharp" Scribbler Tried to Sell His Work to Both Parties

Mr. Whitney Declined It, But Geo. W. Ross Thought it a "Good Thing."

Gritism and trickery go hand in hand.

This is a well established fact and it has recently received another forcible illustration in connection with a campaign document just issued by the Rossites.

The effusion consists of a pamphlet, purported to be written by one C. R. Mabee, who is described as a "Life long Conservative who has become disgusted with Whitney and the Conservative party." Here is a sample of Mabee's style:—

"Under your (Whitney) leadership, the Conservative party has been greatly overpowered by the delicious poison of the destructive and ever-to-be avoided siren, sloth, whose deadly venom has preyed upon its vitals and turned a healthful organization into a cesspool of confusion. Here it has grown torpid and become corrupted, as water is corrupted unless it moves."

How's that for trashy buncombe? Just who this man Mabee is, is thus described by the Mail and Empire;—

"It seems that there came from the United States during the last winter, a gentleman who had issued in the Presidential election campaign, literature for both parties in Ohio. This gentleman, who gave his name as Mr. C. R. Mabee, presented himself to leaders of the Conservative party and offered to prepare and to circulate campaign literature of the style and type he had prepared and circulated for both the Democrats and Republicans in his native State. The samples submitted were "hot stuff" and it was gathered from Mr. Mabee that with a little help he could make it equally hot for Messrs. Ross and Co. Both by cartoon and by direct statement he could so show up the members of the Government, their machine, and their corporation interests as to accomplish their defeat. The advantage of Mr. Mabee's scheme was represented to be its comparative freedom from expense. The party could supply the material and Mr. Mabee for his part would print the book and sell it to Conservative candidates, thus making his profit. The suggestion was not favorably entertained. It was felt that in addressing the public, the platform speech or the plain honest statement of the case would be fairer to the people than an Ohio production such as Mr. Mabee suggested. Mr. Mabee thereupon made his proposition to the Ontario Government for a campaign production of a like character, but giving Mr. Whitney an overhauling instead of attacking the War Horse. The proposal was submitted to Premier Ross, Mr. Stratton and other Ministers. It was accepted by these honorable gentlemen on the condition that they should supply the material which should represent Mr. Mabee as a life-long Conservative who had for many years watched Mr. Whitney's career with misgivings and had been forced reluctantly to the conclusion that Mr. Whitney was not the man to lead, and that it would be well for Conservatives to transfer their support to the old War Horse and the machine."

What do men of decency think of this contemptible scheme?

(Toronto World.)

The impression prevails that campaign document No. 1, to wit, the Mabee pamphlet, was ill-born, and that the whole thing had better have been left unwritten. That is, from the standpoint of Liberal politics. As a business speculation for Mr. Mabee, it will, no doubt, prove a success through the advertising it has received. The notoriety his work has achieved ought to please Mr. Mabee, since his political convictions have been shown to be secondary to gain.

A gentleman who has known Mr. Mabee for years told the World something of the young author's career. Mabee is, it seems, the son of a Conservative store keeper in Vittoria, South Norfolk, but the young man never cast a vote in Canada. He graduated as a doctor of medicine at a Detroit university, and resided in the States about 10 years. In Ohio, Mabee produced two campaign documents during one election contest, one for the Democrats and one for the Republicans. To one he attached his name, the other was left unsigned. He could "roast" both political parties with equal facility, and, no doubt, made his work remunerative. It is not said that he posed as a "life-long Democrat" or a "life-long Republican," but, at any rate, by signing his name to one document, he sought to give it some importance. Obviously, he could not sign both documents. This writer of campaign literature came back to Canada about two years and a half ago, and told people with whom he is acquainted that he was going to get up some political literature. How he succeeded is now pretty well known.

Yesterday afternoon, a gentleman, who has always voted for the Liberal party, told the World that he disapproved of the tactics of the Globe in the Mabee affair. It was unfair for the organ to put forth this man as a Conservative who has turned on his party through conviction. "I can't be accused of being a Conservative," he said, "but the whole thing is a foolish piece of business for the Globe. Knowing Mr. Mabee well, I am satisfied he has no political convictions, although his father is a strong Conservative. The young man is simply 'out for the stuff,' and it does not concern him which political party he gets it from. He can do some clever work in his line, and will do it for both parties, if they will pay him for it. And who can blame him? It is his business."

This gentleman furthermore stated that he was not looking for notoriety, and asked that his name be not mentioned, but he was seriously considering the advisability of writing a communication to the Globe, condemning the organ for such questionable tactics.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

WILLIAM RYAN, OF DESERONTO, NOW IN THE CITY HOSPITAL.

Mr. Wm. Ryan, who resides in Deseronto, but is well known in this city, was last night the victim of a painful accident and one which will incapacitate him from working for some time. He came to the city and was making preparations to go out hunting. He was at the residence of his mother-in-law, on Dundas street, and had taken a revolver apart and after cleaning and reloading it was about to lay it away when in some manner one of the cartridges exploded. The bull went through the fleshy part of the right arm and, striking a bone, split, a portion of the bullet going up and a portion of it going down, making an ugly wound. The unfortunate man was taken to the hospital, where his injuries were attended to, and he is doing as well as could be expected.

THE BEST $10 OVERCOATS.

The best in style, the best in fit, the best in cloth and the best in workmanship and trimmings. All these points the Oak Hall coats have superior to any coat in the market at the price. PICKLE IN A PICKLE

ALLEGES THAT SAMUEL POPE MALTREATED HIM BADLY.

Mr. John Pickle, who resides in the 4th concession of Sidney, was in the city this afternoon interviewing the Police Magistrate in regard to law. His face and neck bore evidence of his having been harshly used. He alleges that a man named Samuel Pope attacked him and struck him in the face with a large stone, which cut his right eye very badly, almost closing it up, and also cut his head badly. He also alleges that Pope tried to strangle him. The affair will be ventilated in the police court.

GRACE, STYLE AND FINISH.

You will find that in Grace, Style and Finish, Chick & Robertson's will compare with the productions of the best class of merchant tailors at prices a third to a half less. Each garment is designed with a view to its shape. It will stay in shape on the wearer. No undue drag on the various parts of the garment, each pocket is stayed, collars are properly cut, sleeves and shoulders have the right "set." Design without good cloths is wasted. Every garment is properly and honestly lined with good linings. No shoddy cloths are used.

AWFUL HOLOCAUST IN PHILADELPHIA

Nine-Story Factory, Full of Inflammable Materials, in Flames.

Employes Numbered 300—Streets Piled Up With Dead and Dying People,

Who Had Jumped From the Windows—Number of Dead Not Known.

(Special to The Intelligencer.)

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 25.—A fierce fire is raging on Market street, between 12th and 13th Sts.

The fire started at 10.30 a.m., in the nine-storey building occupied by Hunt, Wilkinson & Co., furniture and upholstering manufacturers.

Although the structure was fire-proof, it was filled from cellar to roof with highly inflamable material.

Hundreds of men and women were employed by the firm. When the firemen reached the scene the street was literally piled up with the bodies of people who had jumped. Some were dead, others were dying.

About 11.30 o'clock the walls of the Hunt, Wilkinson building fell. This gave the firemen opportunity to work on the other buildings that were ablaze, and at 12 o'clock the fire was believed to be under control.

The wholesale and retail rubber warehouse of Latta & Mulconroy, adjoining Hunt, Wilkinson & Co.'s building, was on fire, but the flames could be confined to the upper storey. Stories conflict as to the number of persons killed.

LATER.

Hunt, Wilkinson & Co. employed 300 people, mostly girls.

The fire is believed to have started on the second floor of their building, where 15 persons were at work.

It is not known whether any of these escaped. When the rear wall of the building fell a number of bodies were lying in the small street in the rear, variously estimated at from six to thirty, and they were covered with hundreds of tons of brick and twisted iron.

The police says that twelve are known to have been killed and they hesitate to estimate how many bodies are in the ruins.

Dozens of streams of water are plying on the red hot ruins, and as soon as the men can get to work hundreds of their employees will begin to search for the bodies.

Sporting News.

YACHTING.

Race For America's Cup Next Year.

London, Oct. 25.—Sporting Life says that a number of prominent English yachtsmen have formed a syndicate to build a yacht to challenge for the America's Cup next year. The membership of the syndicate is confined to British subscribers who comprise many well-known politicians. Some of the members stipulated that the yacht shall be built on the Thames. A number of noted firms are anxious to obtain the honor of constructing the boat. The newspaper does not mention any of the members' names. The syndicate's decision to challenge is based upon Sir Thomas Lipton's resolve not to challenge again for the Cup until 1903.

HOW TO GET UP AN APPETITE.

Distaste for food often follows Grippe and fevers, and is associated with a general weakness of the system. Drunk.

Stephen Lynch was charged with this offence. As he had not been up before the Magistrate for some time, he was allowed to go.

Vagrancy.

Levi Weese, who is partially paralyzed and unable to work, was brought up on this charge. He was sent up for a month.

GET COMFORT.

There is little comfort in life when a person is afflicted with pain. Donald Babcock, farmer, Harrowsmith, Ont., was a sufferer from rheumatism for years. When advised to take Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure he did so, and two bottles of this wonderful preparation, with two boxes of Climax Iron Tonic Pills, completely cured him. He has not had a twinge of pain since, and attends to his duties regularly. This great blood purifier is put up in bottles containing ten days treatment. Price 50 cents at all drug stores or The Dr. Hall Medicine Co., Kingston, Ont.

THEY DROVE PIMPLES AWAY.—A face covered with pimples is unsightly. It tells of internal irregularities which should long since have been corrected. The liver and the kidneys are not performing their functions in the healthy way they should, and these pimples are to let you know that the blood protests. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will drive them all away, and will leave the skin clear and clean. Try them, and there will be another witness to their excellence.

AT DEATH'S DOOR.—DYSPEPSIA CONQUERED.—A GREAT MEDICAL TRIUMPH.—Gentlemen,—My medical adviser and others told me I could not possibly live when I commenced to use Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery for Dyspepsia. My case was one of the worst of its kind. For three years I could not eat meat and my weight decreased from 219 to 119 lbs. All the food I took for thirteen months previous to taking the Vegetable Discovery consisted of milk. I am now entirely cured and have regained my usual weight, can eat anything with a keen relish and feel like a new man. I have sold over thirty dozen Vegetable Discovery since it cured me, as I am well-known and people in this section know how low I was, and thought I could not possibly be cured. They are eager to try this grand medicine. It certainly saved my life as I never expected to recover when first I commenced using it. I am not exaggerating anything, but feel glad to be able to contribute this testimonial and trust it may be the means of convincing others of its merit as a certain cure for Dyspepsia.

If you have a cough or cold do not neglect it; many without a trace of that hereditary disease have drifted into a consumptive's grave by neglecting what was only a slight cold. Had they used Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup before it was too late, their lives would have been saved. Mr. A. W. Levy, Mitchell, writes; "I think Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup the best preparation on the market for coughs and severe colds. About six years ago I caught a severe cold which settled on my lungs, and for three months I had a cough. I had a physician attending me, but gradually grew worse until I was on the verge of Consumption, and had given up hopes of being cured, when I was induced to try Bickle's Syrup. Before I had taken one bottle I found myself greatly relieved, and by the time I had finished the second bottle I was completely cured. I always recommend it for severe colds and consumption."

ENGLAND'S SEA GYPSIES.

A Strange Little Tribe That Lives Always on Boats.

A strange and almost unknown part of the population (if it can be called that) of the British isles is the queer semiwild folk known as sea gypsies. Real gypsies they are, differing from their fellow gypsies in the fact that they always live on the sea and that, never having mingled with landsmen, their type is much purer and more nearly resembles the original.

There are about 500 sea gypsies in Britain. They cruise along the coast, seldom touching the land, but always close to it, in old and weatherbeaten craft that may have carried their grandfathers.

When the tide is out, the old craft will often drop anchor by a sand bank island far out at sea, and her crew will grub for cockles with their hands, filling a score of baskets, but saying nothing to each other, for they are almost out of the habit of speech. They find fifty shellfish where the ordinary fisherman finds one, but they rarely do the same thing two days running, and in the next hour they may be snaring rabbits on a headland miles away.

The sea gypsies are wild eyed and thickset. Their hair is always either jet black or golden. They are still of almost pure Norse or Danish descent, never having used the land and mixed with the shore folk to any extent. Their hands seem to be all thumbs instead of fingers, so powerful and stubby are the digits, because they have done nothing but haul ropes and dig in the wet sand.

Government Dairies

Mr. J. A. Baddick, of the Dominion Dairy Department, has returned from inspecting the Dominion Dairy Stations in Nova Scotia. These stations, which are situated at Scotsburn, Mabou, Nappan, are doing good work, although, owing to the drought, the output will not be unusually large. It is, however, of an excellent quality, so that a considerable quantity of it is being sent to the West Indies, where only the best quality of butter finds a market. The buildings for these dairy stations were put up by the farmers themselves, and are first-class in every respect. Each station is in charge of a Government expert, and the farmers are charged 3½ cents a pound for the butter manufactured from the milk which they supply.

He Was Satisfied.

A farmer entered an office in central New York and sent this message to a woman in Canada: "Will you be my wife? Please answer quick by telegraph." Although he waited the rest of the day, he got no answer, but the next morning he got a night dispatch, sent collect, but favorable. The operator in expressing his sympathy said, "Little rough to keep you in suspense so long."

"Look a-here, sonny," the farmer remarked, "I'll stand all the suspense. Any woman that'll hold back her answer all day to a proposal of marriage, just so thet she kin send it half rate at night, is economical enough to make up after I git her for all the loss of time and injury to feelin's I've suffered waitin!"

A SONG FOR SCHOOL.

Some boys, when they come into school
(And some girls, too),
I grieve to be obliged to say
That this is what they do:
They wiggle
And jiggle,
They bang their heads
And giggle;
They twitter
And titter,
They bounce and flounce
And flitter.
Whatever thoughts their mind may fill,
They've no idea of keeping still.

Some boys, when they take up their books
(And some girls, too),
I weep to be obliged to say
That this is what they do:
They batter them,
They tatter them,
They crumple, rumple,
Scatter them;
They scrawl them
And maul them;
They snatch and pull
And haul them.
It makes me very sad to state
A schoolbook's is a wretched fate.
—St. Nicholas.

He Had Business.

MILITARY HEADQ'RS.

Sentinel—Halt! You can't go into this hickory nut.

Caller—That's all right. I want to see the kernel.

Principal Requirement.

"How's your voice?" the superintendent inquired of the man who had applied for a position as conductor on the street car line.

"Excellent," replied the applicant. "I can call out the names of the streets so every one will understand."

"Oh, that's quite immaterial," returned the superintendent. "Let's hear how you would cry: 'Move up! There's lots of room in front!' That's what counts when it comes to packing a car."

Value of the King's Crown

The crown worn by King Edward at his coronation will be enlarged, but its weight will be kept down to the lowest possible degree. Now that it has become an object of great interest after a long seclusion many questions are rife concerning it. The man in the street, who is most impressed by the cash value of an object rather than by its historic or sentimental associations, is particularly anxious to know how much the crown is worth. The question is more easily asked than answered. Sixty years ago the crown was valued at something like £113,000, but it is considered that the gems have a higher value now apart from that which historic importance confers.

A Few Points.

During the past year 882,000 pieces of mail matter addressed to British soldiers in South Africa were returned as undeliverable.

Stamp collectors will be interested to learn that on July last Greece issued a new set of postage stamps, differing considerably from the older ones.

At some hotels in Sweden a man and his wife are charged as one and a half persons if they occupy but one room, the woman presumably being regarded as the half—from a gastronomic standpoint.

Coaches for the Coronation.

In view of the coronation next year, all the state coaches are being overhauled and put into repair, as many of them were in sadly dilapidated condition through want of use. Lord Salisbury and the Duke of Portland both possess beautiful state coaches, and so do the Duke of Norfolk, the Duke of Devonshire, the Duke of Marlborough, and the Duke of Beuccleuch; while Lord Londonderry's and Lord Cadogan's are perhaps the best turned out. The various embassies also have splendid coaches, the handsomest being that of Count Deym, the Austrian ambassador, which makes a brave show with its deep purple liveries picked out with white.—Lady's Magazine.

Two More Cases of Itching Piles

That Could Not be Cured by Any Treatment Except

Dr. Chase's Ointment.

There is probably no other medical preparation in this country which has been so thoroughly endorsed by the best and most respected people as Dr. Chase's Ointment. This is undoubtedly accounted for by the fact that people who are free from the misery of itching piles are anxious to let other sufferers know what has cured them and because Dr. Chase's Ointment is the only actual cure for this torturing and frightfully common disease.

Mr. John Harvey, Mayor of Arnprior, Ont., states:—"Only persons who have experienced the torture of itching piles can form any idea of what I suffered from the horrible disease. I was advised to try Dr. Chase's Ointment, and can positively say that it has completely cured me. I had tried very many so-called cures for piles, and can truthfully say that there is no remedy on the face of the earth like Dr. Chase's Ointment for this purpose. I would not be without it for any amount of money, and can heartily recommend it to all sufferers, as it is the best thing I ever used."

W. E. Talbot, of Talbot Bros., tobacco merchants, 382 George street, Peterboro, Ont., states: "It is from a desire to help other sufferers that I offer a statement of my experience with Dr. Chase's Ointment as a cure for itching piles. I was for a long time troubled with this unpleasant and torturing disease, and though I tried very many treatments, remained uncured until I came across Dr. Chase's Ointment. It was highly recommended to me, and I find that every word of praise that is given it is true. I can truthfully say that I am completely cured, and, knowing the misery that the ailment produces, I am anxious to have others know of the surprising virtues of Dr. Chase's Ointment."

PLANTS AND ANIMALS

AN ARGUMENT IN FAVOR OF A BELIEF IN THEIR IMMORTALITY.

The Consciousness Displayed by Plant Life and the Intelligence and Powers of Reason Shown by the Lower Order of Animals.

Dr. Thomas G. Gentry in his book, "Intelligence In Plants and Animals," published by Doubleday, Page & Co., leaves no reason for doubt as to his position in the controversy over the immortality of animals. He says frankly:

> I claim not for the lower animals the slightest equality with man. What I claim for them is a higher status in creation than is generally attributed to them. I claim for them a future life where they will receive a just compensation for the sufferings which so many of them have to undergo in this world. Most of the cruelties which are perpetrated upon animals are due to the habit which man has, in his exalted opinion of self, of considering them as mere automata, without susceptibilities, without reason and without the capacity of a future. * * * Not alone are we of the upper walks of being made the possessors of the inner life, but all nature shares it in common with us, and love is its expression and the method of its action.

What are the characteristics of man which justify, which indeed compel, belief in his immortality? First, his mind, intelligence, spirit—call it what you will. But does man alone possess this precious, this indestructible, spirit? The author emphatically rejects the theory. He asserts that the proofs of the spirit are to be seen in intelligence and in the affections, that animals possess both and that even plants show signs of the former.

Through the darkness of the earth the tender radicles of plants make their way. A stone impedes their progress; they turn to right or left before touching it, follow its outline round in an almost parallel course, but never touching. If a worm burrow or some chink in the ground a few inches away offers a path which need not be forced, the radicle turns abruptly and seeks it out. How does this rootlet at once sense and avoid the stone? How conjecture the neighboring but invisible crevice?

There are flesh eating plants, the droseras or sundews. Dr. Gentry says of them: "That these plants manifest a comparatively high order of consciousness there can be no question. Try them with insects or rare bits of meat as articles of diet and in a few hours the leaves will have folded around the food and commenced their curious process of assimilation. Mineral substances, such as bits of chalk, magnesia and small pebbles, have no such effect. They seem to ignore these things just as an intelligent animal would if they were placed by its side."

Certain minute plants have the power of locomotion. They will abandon an arid spot and creep toward moisture. If a poisonous fluid be placed in their path, they will avoid it; if a nourishing substance be placed at one side, they will wander toward it. Other plants change the position of their branches or leaves to meet or to avoid the sun. Consciousness, then, clearly appears in plant life. "It is to plants," says the author, "what mind is to man and animals, controlling their actions when such are for their well being and good. If mind persists in a future state, then consciousness, which may be considered as mind in plants, must also persist, for it is not likely that the source of all consciousness, which we worship as God, could be unmindful of the least of his children."

And animals? Among them we do not have to seek painstakingly for evidence of consciousness. All have that, all have intelligence in greater or less degree, many have reasoning power, some have the qualities which we are accustomed to regard as purely human—affection, unselfishness, generosity, magnanimity. Memory is a quality so general in animals that it is needless to recount here instances. Generosity is often shown by birds which feed the offspring of others that have been slain. The author cites several cases where the fledgelings and their sponsors were of different varieties. Magnanimity. Who hasn't seen a big dog gently set aside a snarling terrier which he might annihilate with a grip of the jaw if he would? Sometimes it is shown by brutes to less magnanimous men.

So, too, of the less admirable qualities of man—qualities which nevertheless presuppose possession of a mind. The animals have most of them. Malice, pride, jealousy, anger, revenge, have all their exemplifications in the life of dumb brutes. If they have souls to be saved, perchance they have sins to be expiated as well.

How closely the higher orders of animals approach in intelligence the lower orders of men is clearly shown in this book. For a time the exigencies of theology compelled us to regard this gulf as infinite, but one who contrasts the ways of the high bred, well trained house dog with those of some of the more brutalized aborigines will doubt whether the abyss which separates them is so very wide. Animals have some idea of numbers. "The crow has been known to count as far as the number six, and a dog I once had knew as well as I did when Saturday came." There are Australian savages who cannot equal these performances.

"The sense of beauty," continues the author, "which has been declared peculiar to men, is innate in birds. Certain bright colors and certain sounds when in harmony excite in them pleasure as they do in man. * * * If we are to judge from the hideous ornaments and the equally hideous music admired by most savages, it might be urged that their æsthetic faculty was less highly developed than it is in some species of birds."

The author's conclusion may not be shared by all, but all will surely recognize its beauty:

> When man was placed on this earth, or rather when in the sequence of events, which was brought about by the prescribed scheme of divinity, he appeared upon the earth, he was given control of all the creatures of God's hands to rule them as his judgment seemed best. They were a necessary part of the plan of creation.
>
> God gave the man directions concerning them and what they are, and we refer to the domesticated species especially. They have thus been made through man's wise, intelligent and thoughtful selection. * * * That they will pass into the future life with him, at least such as have shown their fitness to endure, there can be no doubt in the mind of any one who pauses a few brief moments in the rush and turmoil of everyday life and considers the matter with all due seriousness.
>
> All existence, as we have elsewhere claimed, is a unit. All life, like all love, is divine. There can nothing exist that does not contain some sort of development of soul. There is no escape from this assertion. Instead of isolating ourselves, then, from the humbler creatures of God's workmanship let us recognize them as our kin and include them in the grand scheme of redemption and as partakers with us in the future state of Divine Love and in higher and endlessly higher development and progress.

Tried and Convicted Too.

Politics in the west, even more than in the east, says the author of "Life and Sport In California," is a profession. I remember two men who were candidates for the office of district attorney. One had served before; the other was a young man conducting his first campaign.

The veteran was speaking in a small town, and after setting forth his own claims he spoke as follows of his opponent:

"I understand that Mr. X. is in every sense a worthy and honorable man, but I ask you to remember that he has never been tried—he has never been tried."

"That's so!" exclaimed a voice. "You've been tried, old man, haven't you—and convicted, too, you know?"

After due inquiry it appeared that the veteran had been, indeed, indicted for horse stealing and convicted. He was not elected.

THE HIGHER PRIVILEGE.

For some the narrow lane of "must,"
Be mine the highroad "may;"
Better to love, be happy, trust,
Than simply to obey.

O troubled over many things,
Choose thou the better part,
Service unconscious of itself
And childlikeness of heart!

Why cast your burden on the Lord
And strive to drag it too?
Call work an opportunity
Till it grows joy to you.

"Ought" is a servant's word, not mine;
I sign no grudging pledge.
I am a child and son; my toil
Is only privilege.

Who'd be a thrall to vain debates
Of "were this right or wrong"
When he might toss these cares to God
And catch instead a song!

Why breathe earth's heavy atmosphere,
Forgetful we can fly,
When the high zenith, "God is Love,"
Allures us to the sky?

The virtues hide their vanquished fires
Within that whiter flame
Till conscience grows irrelevant
And duty but a name!
—Frederick Lawrence Knowles in Zion's Herald.

FACIAL NEURALGIA.

The Cause of and Treatment For This Distressing Malady.

This term is used to designate recurring paroxysms of pain, usually affecting but one side of the face.

The cause of the trouble is, of course, an important consideration, since if it can be found there is a chance that it may be removed, and its removal will eventually, although perhaps not immediately, terminate the attacks.

This tracing of the pain to its source—the point where some form of inflammation irritates the delicate nerve endings—is not always easy. One naturally looks first to the teeth, which are often at the root of the trouble, but the nose, the throat or the ear may each be the seat of disease which occasion the neuralgia, or it may be chargeable to some disorder of the stomach or to a deranged condition of the general health, although the two latter causes are more often accessory rather than primary.

In almost every case the sufferer is compelled, from the severity of the pain, to seek temporary relief in whatever way he may.

When an attack is allowed to proceed without the employment of any means to ameliorate it, the initial dull pain increases by darts and throbbing, slowly becoming more violent and rapid until the sufferer shrinks almost as if from blows. Then, having reached its worst, it gradually or suddenly vanishes.

Heat applied externally in some form is always beneficial. It may be applied to the face and neck by means of the hot water bag or bottle or of the more primitive hop bag or salt bag. The important thing is to have the bag large, thick, soft and flexible, so that it may long retain its heat and fit easily and closely to the face and neck.

Recurrence of the attacks is caused by exposure to cold and dampness, especially to damp winds, and by any exposure or injury of the nerves especially affected. It is common, for example, for an attack to recur with severity after the removal of an offending tooth, especially if its removal is attended with laceration of the gum or jaw.

Internal remedies, best used under the physician's direction, are frequently necessary. Treatment, however, is never to be confined to the relief of pain; the sufferer should invariably be sustained with tonics and an abundance of food. A generous diet, especially in the matter of fatty food, like butter, cream and olive oil, is important.

Strength is lent to the theory that malaria frequently complicates facial neuralgia by the fact that the remedies employed against malaria almost always lessen the force of neuralgic attacks.

The chances of being permanently relieved from neuralgia are less in persons past middle age than in the young and vigorous. For this reason, if for no other, efforts to locate and annihilate the cause should be determined from the beginning.—Youth's Companion.

Long Hair and Nervousness.

The man who runs a certain bathhouse is full of theories about difficult diseases, and some of his theories are at least interesting. Speaking to a patron who had very thick hair, he said:

"I see you are one of those nervous people. You had better take pine needle baths."

"What made you conclude I was nervous?" inquired the gentleman.

"I knew it from your hair," was the reply.

"How so?"

"Because all thick, coarse haired people are nervous."

"Why?"

"Well, it stands to reason, doesn't it, if you overplant a small patch of ground you will deplete the soil? It's the same way with a man's head. When a man has a big crop of coarse hair, his nerves pay the penalty. Baldheaded men are seldom nervous."

Young Men Should Not Shun Politics.

We shall have reason to hail it as a wholesome sign of the times when American youth cease to be indifferent to politics. A country in which any man, however obscure his origin, may, through determination to overcome obstacles and fine strength of character, arrive at the highest distinctions in the gift of the republic, ought to stimulate young men to splendid endeavor and rich achievement. One regrets to observe an aversion on the part of many men to study political economy and a singular lack of responsibility in wielding that power of the unit, which is so tremendous a force in our national life.—Ladies' Home Journal.

For Art's Sake.

"Griselda," said the visiting relative, "you ought not to try to sing when you are shaking with the chills."

"I haven't got the chills, auntie," replied the church choir soprano "I am practising on my tremolo."

His Grounds For Confidence.

She—Your proposal of marriage comes quite unexpected.

He—So much the better.

She—Why, pray?

He—Because it's the unexpected that usually happens.

He is happy whose circumstances suit his temper, but he is the more excellent who can suit his temper to any circumstances.

Keeping Roads In Condition.

Fred Grundy, in Farm and Fireside, tells us he has been watching "road-keepers" care for ten miles of black earth road, and he has kept it in good condition, not by macadamizing it or by covering it with crushed stone, but by providing good drainage, by tile in most places, to take the water off, and by digging out some of the worst places about 18 inches deep and filling with broken brick, tile, coal, cinders or whatever will make a firm foundation, and allow water to drain through. Then if the roads are rounded up to allow the water to run off and they get a little attention after every rain, they are easily kept in good condition. The results are much better and the cost much less than they were for the annual turnout of the district to mend, or often to make worse the roads, the job being expected than to be done until the same season comes around another year.

IN THE BLACK DIAMOND.

The Remarkable Properties of a Piece of Cannel Coal.

A pound of cannel coal is a lump about the size of a man's fist. Out of this dyes can be distilled sufficient to color the following lengths of flannel three-quarters of a yard wide: Five feet of yellow, 3½ feet of scarlet, 2 feet of violet, 2 inches of orange, 4 inches of turkey red and 8 inches of magenta. By judicious blendings you can obtain 16 distinct yellow shades, 12 orange, 30 red, 15 blue, 7 green and 9 violet, in all 89 separate tints. These colors are made from the waste left over after the gas has been extracted.

Take a ton of good cannel coal and distill it in a gas retort. It will give 10,000 cubic feet of gas, 25 gallons of ammoniacal liquor, 30 pounds of ammonium sulphate, 15 hundredweight of coke and 12 gallons of coal tar. It is this liquid which 40 years ago was burned in the furnaces or sold as cheap as wagon grease at $1 a ton that now yields not only these lovely colors, but medicines and scent enough to stock a chemist's and perfumer's soap.

Besides these coal tar gives us that greatest boon of the man whose doctor won't let him take sugar—namely, sacharin. Of this substance one pound is equal to two hundredweight of sugar, as far as sweetening power goes. It is quite wholesome and is, into the bargain, a capital disinfectant. Jam made with saccharin ought to keep forever.

Another Review Recalled.

The review which the Czar Nicholas II. witnessed the other day at Betheny recalled to The London Chronicle the splendid scene close by, on the plains of Vertus, at which Alexander I. was present in September, 1815, when 150,000 Russian soldiers passed before the allied monarchs, who had recently destroyed the power of Napoleon. "After reviewing the troops Their Majesties ascended the Aime hill, where they had previously lunched, and from this eminence witnessed the manoeuvres. The Emperor of Austria sat between the King of Prussia and the Emperor Alexander. To the right of the Czar were the Prince of Wrede, the Duke of Wellington and the Prince Royal of Bavaria. Behind was a crowd of superior officers of the different armies, and above on the summit of the mountain was a single lady, the Duchess of Wellington. It was remarked that amongst the vast throng of spectators were many Englishmen and English women. At a signal given from the mountain 150,000 voices cried 'Hurrah,' and at another signal 150,000 rifles were discharged, followed by 500 pieces of cannon. The chronicler of the time records the interesting fact that the banquet which followed was served by the famous Careme, Prince Talleyrand's cook, the provisions being accompanied by an escort of cavalry. Soldiers turned the spits."

RENTS HIGH IN CALCUTTA.

Suggestions to Speculators to Invest in Apartment Houses

U. S. Consul Patterson, in a letter to the State Department from Calcutta, says there is a fine opportunity for investments in hotels and apartment houses there. Says he:

"The congested condition of the European quarter of Calcutta is such that rents are extravagantly high, and various propositions are being discussed for its relief, among others the building of suburban residences, several miles out, to be reached by electric tramways; but this would not prove satisfactory, as the people here prefer to live in the city.

"If a building company with sufficient capital would come here and erect first-class apartment houses, of six or eight stories, not more, as the ceilings must be high on account of the hot climate, with elevators and all modern improvements, they would be taken by Government officials and merchants at a large rental.

"The people here are too conservative to start such an enterprise, but those requiring apartments would soon see the advantages over ordinary dwellings in cheaper rates and in requiring fewer servants; besides, as many residents go to the hills during the hot months, the rooms could be left in charge of janitors more easily than houses.

"Where ground is as costly as it is in the European quarter of Calcutta, on account of its limited area, apartment houses properly constructed would bring the desired relief and be paying investments. A dwelling hous paying investments. A dwelling house, such as is regarded first class, of two or three stories, with a good-sized compound (ground), rents for from $2,000 to $3,500 per annum.

"This consulate general, that occupies a flat on the second floor, seventy by ninety feet, with eighty steps to reach it and no elevators or other modern improvements, rents for $1,850 per annum. I mention these instances to show what rents are here, and they will be higher unless some way is provided to relieve the situation, as the city is growing rapidly.

"Calcutta is a city of about 800,000 population, the capital of British India. The residence of the viceroy, as well as of the officers of the secretariat and the officials connected with the government, with their thousands of employes, but without one first-class hotel. During the cold season the native princes and other wealthy citizens of India visit Calcutta, besides tourists from every part of the world; hotels are so crowded that it is almost impossible to secure rooms at any price, and tents are put on the roofs for the accommodation of guests. I know of no place where first-class hotels are more needed or would bring better returns on the investments than in Calcutta."

Deathbed Flattery.

Almost every dying person is liable to be allured by the solemn attitude of the company and the restrained or flowing torrents of tears and emotions to an alternating conscious and unconscious comedy of conceitedness. The seriousness with which every dying person is treated has undoubtedly been the very finest enjoyment of his life to many a poor despised devil and a sort of indemnification and partial payment for much privation.—Works of Nietzsche.

Cents East and West.

"There is always a scarcity of pennies in the west," says an official of the Philadelphia mint, "and a superabundance of them in the east. Every little while the banks out there set up a hoot and cry for pennies, but our banks here are ever glad to rid themselves of their surplusage in these coins. It is difficult to see why such a state of things should be. I'm sure a penny is just as dear to the easterner's heart as to the westerner's. One would no more throw a penny away than would the other, yet here we always have too many pennies. There they never seem to have enough."

Catarrh

The cause exists in the blood, in what causes inflammation of the mucous membrane.

It is therefore impossible to cure the disease by local applications.

It is positively dangerous to neglect it, because it always affects the stomach and deranges the general health, and is likely to develop into consumption.

Many have been radically and permanently cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It cleanses the blood and has a peculiar alterative and tonic effect. M. J. McDonald, Trenton, Ont., writes: "I had catarrh, my system was weak, blood was bad, and my liver torpid and inactive. I tried many medicines without benefit until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has completely cured me and I highly recommend it to all sufferers."

CONSUMPTION

Right food—right medicine—right time—these three things are of the utmost importance to the consumptive. Right food and right medicine—these are contained in Scott's Emulsion of pure cod-liver oil. Right time is at first sign of disease. Right time is now.

Canada and Australia's Tariff.

Ottawa, Oct. 26.—The Dominion Government has been notified that the new tariff recently submitted to the Parliament of Federated Australia is in force throughout the Commonwealth. The probability now is that the Canadian Government will shortly pass an Order-in-Council abrogating the tariff preference to New South Wales, which has now become merged with the rest of the Australian colonies, excepting New Zealand. It would be anomalous, not to say absurd, to continue a tariff preference to New South Wales when the conditions upon which it was granted have ceased to exist. There is an impression abroad that as soon as the Canadian Government has had time to consider the altered state of affairs resulting from the new fiscal policy in Australia inquiries will be set on foot with a view to ascertaining whether Hon. Edmund Barton and his colleagues would be favarable to a reciprocal trade arrangement. There is, however, no official basis for this impression, the Government as yet having had no time to deliberate upon the situation.

The Australian Tariff.

London, Oct. 26.—The Melbourne correspondent of The Times says the condemnation of the Western Australian Assembly of the Federal Tariff bill is significant, as indicating that the State Legislatures will criticize the acts of the Federal Parliament. In spite of the defection of a few members in consequence of the high tariff proposals, which they regard as a breach of the pledges made by Mr. Barton, the Premier, it is believed that the Federal Ministry will have a majority of eight.

Will Canada Be There?

London, Oct. 26.—Australia and New Zealand are sending military contingents to the King's coronation next year. It is expected Canada will also be represented. Men who have seen service in South Africa are getting preference in these contingents, and the Imperial Government is anxious that Hon. Dr. Borden, the Canadian Minister of Militia, should have picked men in the contingent from the Dominion.

WILL KNOW HER FATE TO-DAY

Addresses of Counsel in White Murder Trial All In.

Sir William Ralph Meredith, the Judge, Will Take Several Hours to Thoroughly Review the Evidence—Began His Charge, But In View of This Fact an Adjournment Was Taken—Mr. Anglin, K.C., Very Fair.

Brantford, Oct. 26.—In the White murder trial the accused resumed her testimony yesterday morning. She said that she might have mentioned something about the insurance to Mrs. Bush when she called, but that she would not swear that she had not told Mrs. Bush that she was the beneficiary. The witness could not remember what had been said either by the doctor or by Mr. White. She remembered that her husband had said that he was awful sick. She did not hear him say that he was going to die. She remained in the room while her husband had the first convulsion, and until the doctor pronounced him dead. Then she was taken downstairs. She thought her husband was dead until the time that Dr. Marquis came down and told her that he was still alive. It was while she was downstairs that she told Dulmage that she had given her husband soda in water and soda in tea. She could not remember having told Dulmage that her husband had eaten a heavy breakfast. She did not think that she had told Dulmage that the first she knew of her husband's being ill was when she found him on the floor on his hands and knees, suffering from a cramp. She did remember telling Dulmage that her husband had taken a seidlitz powder, and she had asked him if he thought that the glass of liquor her husband had taken on Saturday night was responsible for the illness. Mrs. White said that she did not see her husband take the seidlitz powder, and she did not know where he got the water. Her husband was always taking medicine, but she did not know where he got it. She did not know that she was likely to be charged with the murder of her husband at the time of the inquest. The evidence of Scherer, she said, was a fabrication. Scherer was telling what was untrue, and his evidence was spite-work. He owed her $12 and she had told him to get out. This caused the ill-feeling.

Charles Nixon, Andrew Simpson and Dr. Bier were recalled. Dr. Bier said that as far as he knew arsenic and strychnine were not sedatives to produce sleep. The Indian root pills were not an emetic, and were not prescribed by physicians. In answer to a question from Mr. Heyd, the witness said that he had heard of persons dying from being poisoned by beer. To Mr. Anglin, Dr. Bier said that he had never heard of anyone dying from strychnine poisoning by drinking beer.

F. W. Merrill, druggist, said the Indian root pills contained neither arsenic nor strychnine.

The jury then retired while Mr. Anglin argued on the admissability of the evidence of George White, an emphatic denial being given by him to the statements of two other witnesses. His Lordship decided that the evidence was not to be admitted.

L. F. Heyd, K. C., for the prisoner, began his address to the jury about 1.30 o'clock.

At the close of Mr. Heyd's address the court adjourned for fifteen minutes, after which Crown Attorney Anglin addressed the jury. He closed with the words: "Be men, and remember you owe a duty to your country. If there is a doubt in your minds, gentlemen, let the accused have the benefit of that doubt."

His Lordship Chief Justice Meredith, in addressing the jury, repeated to them the oath which they had taken upon commencing their duties, and charged them not to allow sympathy or anything else prevent their discharging that duty faithfully. He spoke of circumstantial evidence—many cases as being the only tangible evidence that could be taken in making a conviction. The Crown in this case depended almost entirely on circumstantial evidence.

After a few further remarks on the case, His Lordship announced to the jury that he intended to thoroughly review the evidence, which would take some hours, and advised an adjournment until Saturday morning. The jury agreed, and court adjourned.

Dr. Walker Is Appointed.

Toronto, Oct. 26.—The Provincial Government has appointed Dr. T. L. Walker, assistant superintendent of the India Geological Survey and curator of the India Geological Museum, to the professorship of mineralogy and petrography in the University of Toronto.

Dr. Walker is a native of Ontario, and originally a graduate of Queen's University. Subsequently he graduated with high honors at the University of Leipzig, and became examiner and lecturer in mineralogy in the University of Calcutta. He has served for four years at his present Indian post. He presents the highest testimonials from Prof. Zirkel and Prof. Wislecenus of the University of Leipzig and from the director of the India Geological Survey.

Rev. Mr. Lewis' Investment.

Windsor, Oct. 26.—A. H. Clarke, barrister, Windsor, acting for the Rev. J. Pitt Lewis, Toronto, has issued a warrant against H. T. Ellis of Windsor, asking an accounting for money which Rev. Mr. Lewis alleges he entrusted to him to invest in mortgages. Lewis avers that Ellis invested about $5,000 in mortgages, which afterwards could not be realized, and that the agreement was that if the loans turned out bad all losses were to be made good.

Mother Drowns Herself.

Beeton, Oct. 26.—Mrs. William Brawley, a highly respected resident of Beeton, killed herself here Thursday night. The deceased contracted blood poisoning from a pin pricking her in the hand about 12 days ago, and a few days later was forced to take to her bed. Her hand was swollen, and the family physician, who was called in, ordered her to remain quiet. Last night she drowned herself in a small creek near her home. From different indications the suicide is supposed to have been premeditated, and caused by a feeling that she would not get well. The unfortunate woman was about 37 years of age, and leaves a husband and two children.

Boy Run Over at Scarboro.

Toronto, Oct. 26.—Twelve-year-old James Duggan met a terrible death yesterday afternoon at Scarboro while returning from school. He was struck by the Grand Trunk International Limited train and death was instantaneous. The lad was a son of James P. Duggan of [illegible] street. The family were to remove to [illegible] weeks time. Deceased's father left for Ohio only a few days ago to make preparations for the reception of his family at their new home.

Terribly Injured.

Georgetown, Oct. 26.—Threshers were working at Malcolm McPherson's, lot 18, concession 5, Esquesing, yesterday, when one of the belts on the separator flew off. Robert Swackhammer went to adjust it without stopping the machine, and in so doing had his right arm caught in the belt, and he was thrown against a double flange driving wheel on the cylinder. The injuries sustained are terrible. It is hardly possible that he can recover.

Arbitration at Ottawa.

Ottawa, Oct. 26.—The sittings of the arbitration in the case of the English Lloyds against the Sturgeon Falls Pulp Company, Limited, were resumed yesterday in the office of the Supreme Court Registrar. Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick is arbitrator. The dispute is as to the value of spruce lands which the Sturgeon Falls Pulp Company sold Lloyds.

Eighteen Known To be Dead

More About the Holocaust in Philadelphia Yesterday.

Mrs. White Will Know Her Fate To-day—Mr. Chamberlain Proposes to Limit Irish Obstruction—A Mother Drowns Herself—Mr. Davin Had a Fall—Canada and Australia's Tarriff.

Philadelphia, Oct. 26.—Eighteen known dead and property loss amounting to upwards of $500,000, is the awful result of a fire, which occurred yesterday in the business portion of the city. The number of injured is not known definitely, but fully a score of victims were treated at various hospitals. Police and firemen were last night delving into the ruins in search of bodies supposed to have been buried beneath the debris, as it is feared that others besides the known dead may have lost their lives in the flames.

The buildings destroyed were the eight storey structure occupied by Hunt, Wilkinson & Co., upholsterers and furniture dealers, and three three-storey buildings occupied by small merchantmen.

Never in its history has Philadelphia experienced a fire which spread with such great rapidity. At 10.20 o'clock yesterday morning the blaze broke forth, and one hour later the horrible sacrifice of life had been made, and the immense loss of property had been accomplished. The origin of the death-dealing conflagration is unknown.

Roasted to Death.

Such a disastrous fire, attended with so great a loss of life in such a brief period, was never before known in this city. Men and women died a lingering, agonizing death in the presence of thousands of spectators, who were unable to lift a hand to their assistance. The rear of Hunt, Wilkinson & Co.'s building faces on Commercial street, a small thoroughfare. On the fire escapes at this end of the building two men and one woman were slowly roasted to death, while the horror stricken throng on the street below turned sick at the sight. In front on Market street, a woman driven to despair, leaped from a window on the top floor, and was dashed to death on the pavement. These are but a few of the heartrending scenes attending the conflagration. Firemen claim to have seen men and women unable to reach the windows or fire escapes burned to death in the interior of the building.

Hunt, Wilkinson & Co.'s [illegible] when the fire started, were employes, and the remainder were customers and outside workmen, who were engaged in putting the finishing touches on the new eighth floor. Most of those killed were at work on the sixth floor, where women were engaged in sewing.

There were 11 employes and a number of outside workmen on the eighth floor. Among those on the eighth floor who jumped and were killed were M. A. Sparrow, an expert electrical contractor, and Chas. E. Sparrow, his nephew, and assistant. A colored scrub woman also jumped from this floor, and was crushed to death in the street.

At 2 o'clock the fire was out. The loss last night was estimated at half a million dollars.

Big Fire in London.

London, Oct. 26.—A big fire has been raging since 1 o'clock in the four storey building of the London Tobacco Curing Company, situated in the rear of the Helena Costume Company's big building on King street. How the fire started is not known, but when it was first discovered it had gained considerable proportions. At 2 a.m. the Tobacco Company's building was completely gutted, nothing but the walls remaining, and the fire was not got under control until 2.30 a.m., after it had spread to the Helena Costume Company's block. No estimate of the loss can be given at this hour, as it is not known if this season's tobacco crop has been stored. The damage to the Helena Costume Company's block will not be heavy.

MR. DAVIN HAD A FALL.

His Widow Clears Up Some Alleged Misstatements.

Ottawa, Oct. 26.—According to Mrs. Davin, who is at present stopping with relatives in Ottawa, entirely erroneous reports were circulated regarding the death of her husband, the late Nicholas Flood Davin, ex-M.P. Speaking of the tragic affair Mrs. Davin stated that deceased had neither political, financial, nor business worries. She also denies that her husband had been drinking to excess lately. He went up to Winnipeg on legal business, and while there wrote her regularly once, sometimes twice a day, the letters being bright and cheerful. Friends who met him there have, according to his widow, borne her out on this point.

Mrs. Davin spoke of an accident which befell deceased a few days before his death, which she holds responsible for his condition. In an endeavor to secure some books from a high library shelf he fitted up a temporary support, which he had ascended, when it gave way, throwing him to the floor. Mrs. Davin states he arose in a dazed condition, only to fall to the floor again, striking the back of his head violently. He complained afterwards of dizziness and was delirious at times. Mrs. Davin expressed a wish to accompany him to Winnipeg, but he assured her that the trouble was only a trivial one. She is satisfied that the head trouble, following the fall, unbalanced his mind, causing him to do the Ameer Led by a Woman.

London, Oct. 26.—It is reported from Peshawar, says a Simla despatch to The Times, that Ameer Habib Ullah, following the counsel of his father, consults the mother of Umar Jan on all important state affairs. She is a royal princess, was the chief wife of Abdurrahman, and enjoys much prestige, but she does not head any faction against Habib Ullah, as Umar Jan is only 12 years old.

Will Sell Ten More Seats.

Montreal, Oct. 25.—There was an important meeting of the Stock Exchange yesterday. A proposition to issue ten new seats was first on the program. It was proposed by Ralph Forget and seconded by Andrew Wilson. The motion passed by 34 votes to 6.

Five Killed by Explosion.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa Oct. 26.—A terrific explosion of gas occurred in the Buttonwood mine of the Parrish Coal Company, situated one mile south of this city late yesterday afternoon, which caused the death of five men and the injury of nine others.

A Toronto Horse Wins.

Kansas City, Mo Oct. 26.—At the horse show last night South Africa, owned by Crowe & Murray of Toronto, won the Kansas City star purse of $500 for horses in harness.

Good Harvest Weather.

Winnipeg, Oct. .—Beautiful summer weather the past few days has made everything very brisk throughout the whole of Western Canada. Reports from the country to the C.P.R. show that farmers are very busy and are marketing their grain freely. Yesterday the quantity of grain received at C.P.R. points was nearly 400,000 bushels.

Teacher Burned.

Windsor, Oct. .—Sister Isabelle, head teacher in the Separate School, Sandwich, was severely burned about the face while lighting the gas stove in the school yesterday morning. As she applied the match the flames burst into her face, igniting her heavy veil. She quickly threw her apron around her head, and smothered the fire, but not before it had scorched the skin in many places and singed her hair. The pupils became panic-stricken and rushed from the room. In the crush a number of little ones were seized, but no one was injured. It is not thought that the sister's face will be disfigured.

A Cross Clerk

Is a rarity. For the most part the young woman behind the counter is smiling and obliging, though her back hurts, her side pains, or her head throbs distractingly. The wonder is, not that a clerk is sometimes irritable, but that she so rarely shows irritation, when every nerve is quivering and she hardly knows how to hold her head up.

The nervous condition, headache and weakness, which are the results of irregularity or a diseased condition of the womanly organs, can be entirely cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It regulates the functions, stops enfeebling drains, strengthens the nervous system and promotes the general health of the entire body.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free of charge. All correspondence private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"Having used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' during the past year," writes Mrs. Mattie Long, of Plouis Valley, Perry Co., Pa., "I can truthfully recommend the medicines for all female weakness. I have used several bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' which I consider a great blessing for weak women. I was so nervous and discouraged that I hardly knew what to do. Your kind advice for home-treatment helped me wonderfully. Thanks to Dr. Pierce."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure dizziness and sick headache.

NOW SIR ROBERT BOND.

Only Premier of Colony Knighted During Duke of York's Tour—Royal Party Sails for Home.

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 26.—The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York started for England at daylight yesterday morning on board the royal yacht Ophir, with the British cruisers Niobe and Diadem forming the escort. The flagship, the first-class cruiser Crescent, accompanied the Ophir outside the port, and fired a farewell salute.

The Duchess, who has recovered from Thursday's faintness, attended the state dinner last night. Prior to the dinner the Duke conferred on Robert Bond, the Premier of Newfoundland, the honor of knighthood, making him a Knight Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George.

Sir Robert Bond is the only colonial Premier who has been so honored during the royal tour.

BASIS OF CANAL TREATY.

London, Oct. 26.—The Times, in an editorial article yesterday, says it has reasons to believe that the basis of a new arrangement regarding the Isthmian Canal has been settled by principle by the British and United States Governments. It has long been acknowledged, says The Times, that under the altered circumstances it would not be to Great Britain's practical advantage to insist on every jot and title of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, though that treaty is still legally valid, and is technically protected by a clause in the Constitution of the United States. In the matter of the canal, as in others, the American Senate checked the policy of Mr. McKinley. The editorial adds:

> "We have never thought it expedient or reasonable to stand on our strict rights under the treaty. With a system of complete maritime freedom, Great Britain cannot fear, and may have much to gain from, the opening of a canal, whether by the Nicaragua or Panama line. The most formidable obstacle is the resistance, open or secret, of the railway interests. The uncompromising jingoes maintaining that the control of the canal by the United States must be absolutely unfettered, have also to be reckoned with."

TAPS FROM THE WIRES.

According to The New York Herald advices from the Pacific coast of South America, yellow fever is epidemic in Buenaventure.

The attempt to dispose abroad of Japanese bonds of 50,000,000 yen has failed. This, it is expected, will seriously affect the position of the cabinet.

A man named E. Battleby, of Point St. Charles, shot himself at Stillwell's eating house, Montreal, on Friday morning and was dead when found.

The Macklem investigation at Stoney Creek has been finished, and Inspector Stewart will go over the evidence and report. It will be some time before the report will be made known.

Colin MacDougall, K. C., one of the oldest and best known citizens of St. Thomas, dropped dead Friday afternoon, just as he rose from his bed, where he had been resting. Deceased was born in Elgin County on March 3, 1834. A widow and two children survive him.

Demand Manhood Suffrage.

Winnipeg, Oct. 26.—The labor party of this city is demanding manhood suffrage in civic elections, and this will probably be one of the chief issues in the coming municipal election.

LIMIT IRISH OBSTRUCTION

The Colonial Secretary Talks of Ireland and Irishmen.

Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, Addressing 8,000 People in Edinburgh, Announces the Government's Next Move—New Rules for the House to Be Framed—Present Representation of Ireland Declared to Be an Abuse and a Scandal.

Edinburgh, Oct. 26.—Mr. Chamberlain, the Colonial Secretary, addressing upwards of 8,000 persons in Waverley Market, Edinburgh, last night, announced that the Government intended to frame new rules for the House of Commons, so as to limit Irish obstruction.

"We propose," said he, "to bring forward rules which shall give to the majority of the Commons greater control over its own business and greater control over the men who insult and outrage it; and we shall endeavor to protect the mother of Parliaments from those who would destroy her usefulness and reputation."

But this was not the only thing Mr. Chamberlain declared the Government intended to do.

"The present representation of Ireland is," said he, "an abuse and a scandal. No alteration can be made except in immediate anticipation of a general dissolution, and we are not contemplating that. But when we get nearer to the time we shall ask you whether you think Irish representation is so precious to you, is so valuable to the national interests, more, it is desirable to continue on a scale which gives the Irish representation enormously exceeding the proportionate representation of Scotland and England."

The Colonial Secretary went on to point out that on the basis of population Ireland had 30 members too many in the House of Commons, and on the basis of her contributions for Imperial purposes, as considered at the time of the union, she had from 40 to 50 members too many.

"I say that this constitution is an abuse," he continued, "and there is no reason why it should be perpetrated."

In another portion of the speech, which was largely devoted to the Irish question, he observed: "If these gentlemen who now openly shout for the Mahdi and pray for the Boers, if they had a Parliament of their own, if all the strings of Irish Government had been in their hands, if they had had the power, I am not certain that they would have refused to pay their contribution to the war, and that they would have placed us in a position of embarrassment."

About the War.

In reviewing the war in South Africa which he declared again had been forced upon Great Britain by the Boers, he said the Government acknowledged that it had made a mistake as to the time of ending the war, and that he admired the tenacity [illegible] meet this tenacity with equal resolution. Then followed what is regarded as a most important declaration:

"I think the time has come or is coming," said the Colonial Secretary, "when measures of greater severity may be necessary, and, if that time comes, we can find precedents for anything we do in the actions of these nations who now criticize our 'barbarity' and 'cruelty,' but whose example in Poland, in the Caucasus, in Algeria, in Tonquin, in Bosnia and the Franco-German war we have never approached."

HOW HE WHIPPED CERVERA.

Admiral Schley Tells the Story, Clearing Up Important Points.

Washington, Oct. 26.—When the Schley Court of Inquiry adjourned yesterday Admiral Schley had not completed his testimony in chief. The chief event of the day was the Admiral's relation of the events of July 3, when the American fleet sent Cervera's squadron to the bottom of the sea or to the beach. He told his story of this historical occurrence in plain words and in unaffected style. He cleared up many important points, and indicated that he knew all phases of the event.

Appeal to Russia Fails.

London, Oct. 26.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of The Times says Mr. Van der Hoeven, one of Dr. Leyds' secretaries, has been trying to persuade the Russian Government to take the initiative in order to bring the South African conflict before a court of arbitration. He is unable to accomplish his purpose, as Russia, after summoning The Hague Conference, could not act in opposition to its ruling that the consent of both parties is essential to arbitration.

Release Ordered.

London, Oct. 26.—The War Office has ordered the immediate release of three members of the Fifth Victorian Contingent, who, resenting Brig.-General Beatson calling the command "White livered curs," were tried by court martial and sentenced to death for mutinous conduct, General Kitchener commuting the sentence to 12 years' penal servitude.

Fifteen Persons Drowned.

TRADE WITHIN THE EMPIRE.

Duty of Britain to the Colonies in Matter of Food Supply.

Toronto, Oct. 26.—The duty of Britain to the colonies in the matter of trade and particularly as regards the food supply was the most vital note struck at the meeting of the British Empire League in St. George's Hall last night. The point was made by Hon. G. W. Ross, who advocated a vigorous propaganda on this line and also in the matter of emigration from Britain to the colonies, which, he said, to be effective, should be in the hands of a commission. Hon. G. E. Foster forcibly endorsed the proposition that Britain should deal with the colonies in preference to dealing with alien countries, wherever practicable and this, he said, would prove the compensation within the Empire for its enormous responsibilities and sacrifices. Dr. Parkin took a different line and called for a propaganda to be sent from Canada to know why at this critical stage—Canada's boasted mobile forces were unrepresented in South Africa, while Australia, New Zealand and the South African colonies had thousands of men in the field. Sir Frederick Young, an accredited member of the League from Britain, spoke of Imperial Federation, which as he proposed it, would in no way conflict with the self-government of the colonies.

Preference Within the Empire.

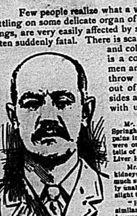
London, Oct. 26.—The rumor was revived yesterday that Mr. Chamberlain intends to launch some proposition for the establishment of an imperial mutual preferential tariff before the next general election, which is now looked for as soon as the war is really over. It cannot be traced to any substantial source, but it would not surprise politicians.

They Long to Retaliate.

Manila, Oct. 26.—The people of the island of Samar have been notified to concentrate in the towns, otherwise they will be considered public enemies and outlaws, and will be treated accordingly. Intense feeling exists among the troops in Samar. If they can meet the enemy in the open there will be great retaliation.

Mr. Massey's Condition.

Toronto, Oct. 26.—Mr. Walter E. H. Massey's condition showed a little more improvement yesterday. This change has given his friends some encouragement, and the hope is still held out that he may recover. Last night the improvement had continued slightly.



Cold Settled on the Kidneys.

Deep-seated Kidney Disease Defied the Skill of Physicians—Great Sufferings From Lumbago and Backache.

Few people realize what a vast proportion of serious illnesses arise from cold settling on some delicate organ of the body. The kidneys and liver, as well as the lungs, are very easily affected by sudden changes of temperature, and the results are often suddenly fatal. There is scarcely a man who is subject to exposure to dampness and cold but will be interested in the following letter. It is a common experience with farmers, teamsters, railroad men and laborers to have a cold settle on the kidneys and throw these organs, as well as the whole digestive system, out of order. There is usually backache, pains in the sides and limbs, deposits in the urine, pain and scalding with urination and irregularity of the bowels.

Mr. Thomas A. Embree, general merchant, a highly respected citizen of Springhill, N.S., was completely laid up with kidney disease, lumbago and pains in the back. He was unable to attend to business, and his sufferings were only temporarily relieved by physicians. In the following letter he tells of his remarkable recovery brought about by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Mr. Embree writes:—"As the result of a severe cold settling on the kidneys I contracted kidney disease, which lingered for years, causing me much suffering from terrible pains in the back. For some time I was entirely unable to work, and though I tried several physicians I could only obtain slight temporary relief.

"Having heard of the merits of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills on many similar cases, I began to use them, and after using seven boxes was completely cured. The cure is due entirely to the use of this grand medicine, which has since cured several persons to whom I recommended them."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

So many thousands of cases of serious kidney disease have been cured by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills that they have come to be considered an absolute cure for all kidney derangements. They are purely vegetable in composition, prompt and pleasant in action, and thorough and far-reaching in their effects. They are endorsed by doctors, lawyers, ministers and others, and are beyond doubt the most efficacious treatment obtainable for diseases of the kidneys and liver. One pill a dose; 25 cents a box; at all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

PARTYISM RUN MAD.

We do not overlook the fact that for many years while the Conservatives were in power at Ottawa they displayed no interest in behalf of the arsenic business, nor to any noticeable extent in behalf of any other industry in this county.—Ontario, Oct. 19th, 1901.

Such is the defence of a false position taken by the Grit sheet of this city. It is to be regretted that the editorial columns of even a Grit sheet should be controlled by an ignoramus, or what probably is worse, one who strings sentences together to deceive, not to enlighten, its readers.

Every student of Canadian history knows that the arsenic industry had not been developed when the Conservatives were in power, and everyone knows that the policy of the Conservative party and Government was to encourage all industries either by tariff protection or by bonuses, and it is equally well known that the policy of granting bonuses by the Conservative Government was condemned in the most virulent terms by the present men in power, and by their supporters, as robbery, legally and otherwise, and it is also known that notwithstanding their denunciations they have not only, in this particular adopted the Conservative policy, but have actually extended it, yet this pretended enlightener of the public says the Conservative party did nothing to encourage the industries of the country. All this because two or three enterprising Conservatives were put upon a deputation to wait upon the Government urging an extension of the policy of bonusing, which they have adopted and fathered.

Truly, partyism in this, as in other cases, has run mad.

Perhaps if there were a little "rake-off" in sight a different tune might be sung. "Business is business, you know," in some political latitudes.

TIMELY TOPICS.

The question of home work for pupils who attend the public schools has long been a fruitful topic of discussion. Opinions on the subject are sure to differ, but probably if a vote were taken the great majority of parents would be found decidedly in favor of "schooling during school hours."

* * *

Writing on this subject, "A Parent" says: "The home school task is poor educational economy, and in many cases is liable to result in permanent injury to the health of pupils. Properly constituted boys and girls can absorb all the learning that is good for them during school hours and embellishment to the mind claimed at the expense of the body is, as stated, poor educational economy. In many places the subject is being vigorously discussed and the practice of imposing "home work" unsparingly condemned. Inspector Park, of West Kent, has of late been arguing against the practise, and the parents of that section are zealously backing him up in his wise suggestions. It is an experiment needed everywhere where there are shortcomings and advantages, and our Board of Education should not delay taking action in the matter. It is an abuse which cannot too quickly be reformed."

* * *

There is undoubtedly a certain amount of truth in the remarks of our correspondent. Too much of this "home work" is bad, but many people think that a certain amount of it, say not more than could be done in half an hour, would be beneficial. Anyhow, as our correspondent suggests, it would be a good subject for the Board of Education to ponder over. We would willingly give space to the views of other parents on the matter.

* * *

The fact that the Grit newspapers and the leading Grit politicians are busily engaged in denouncing and vilifying Mr. Whitney is the best possible proof that they fear him.

* * *

Col. Ponton's appreciative words in reference to our article on St. Thomas' Church are gratefully noted. It is the intention of The Intelligencer to give a brief history of each church in its turn. St. Michael's will next be dealt with.

That woman who went over Niagara Falls in a barrel ought to be courageous enough to ride a bicycle on Sinclair street.

The municipal ball has started to roll, and now it's up to the rolling mills to do something of the same kind.

* * *

"I was greatly interested in your account of a visit to the Hospital," said a subscriber. "I think, as you do, that we ought to be proud of the Hospital, and prouder still of our Belleville ladies, whose unitiring exertions brought it here." Sure enough. Three cheers for the ladies!

* * *

If the Street Railway keeps on earning $10 a day for the City, Ald. Falkiner ought to be able to declare a dividend when Christmas comes.

* * *

The trees on the park are getting lop-sided, owing to the wind blowing so much from one direction. The Chairman of Parks is undecided whether to trim the trees or put a high wall on the windward side of the island. Perhaps if all the taxpayers with a pull went down there a couple of hours each day in summer the trees might be induced to lean the other way.

ing of the two holidays which come next month, and think they might very well be merged into one. Many people in Belleville think the same thing.

* * *

The people of Belleville, during July last, used nearly eight million gallons of water more than during any other month in the year, which shows that it takes a lot of Adam's ale to satisfy a Belleville man's thirst when the weather is warm.

* * *

Buller made things easy for his soldiers, and naturally they loved him. But the trouble is, there appears to be some truth in the statement of his critics that he made things easy for the enemy, too, which is quite another grade of philanthropy, don't you know.

* * *

The Duke gave Laurier a gold snuff box, which is a gift not to be sneezed at. He might have given Tarte a Union Jack to fly at the masthead of his new dredge, but he knew the place of honor was reserved for the Tricolor.

Picton people are agitating for a return to the old ward system of electing the Council. The Gazette says:

"There are a large number of people who honestly believe that the various wards would be looked after with greater satisfaction to the rate-payers than under the present system. To return to the old system, as we understand it, a petition must be signed by 20 per cent. of the rate-payers, in order to submit a by-law at the next municipal election. Nearly all over the country an agitation is springing up, indicating that a change from the present system is needed badly."

Opinions on the above matter would be divided in Belleville, for it is certain that approval of the present system of electing Aldermen is not by any means unanimous. Some people are outspoken in the belief that the existing system has been tried fairly and found wanting. "In a multitude of counsellors," they think, "there is wisdom."

It takes "Fighting Joe" Chamberlain to give his political enemies a Roland for their Oliver. It is altogether likely that the members of the Home Rule party are calling Mr. Chamberlain many uncomplimentary names, after his recent speech at Edinburgh, but the Colonial Secretary doesn't worry about a little thing like that. One thing is sure, unless the Government changes its mind there will be fewer obstructionists in the House of Commons, which will be an excellent thing for that body and the Empire, too.

* * *

The case which came up in the Police Court to-day, when seven boys were charged with selling stolen castings to a second-hand dealer, again proves the necessity of enforcing the law which forbids a second-hand dealer from buying from anyone under 15 years of age. Though they undoubtedly did wrong, the boys were not old enough to fully realize the nature of the crime—but no adequate excuse can be made for the party who received the stolen goods. Actions of this kind simply throw temptation into the way of the rising generation, and cannot be too sternly dealt with.

PLAIN TALK

TO CATARRH SUFFERERS.

Every person suffering from catarrh in its many forms, knows that the common lotions, salves and douches do not cure. It is needless to argue this point or to cite cases of failure, because every victim of catarrhal trouble knows it for himself if he has tried them.

A local application, if it does anything at all, simply gives temporary relief; a wash, lotion, salve or powder cannot reach the seat of the disease which is the blood.

The mucous membrane seeks to relieve the blood of catarrhal poison by secreting large quantities of mucous, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils descending to the throat and larynx, causing an irritating cough, continual clearing of the throat, deafness, indigestion and many other disagreeable and persistent symptoms.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal treatment; a remedy which will gradually cleanse the system from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion always present in the mucous membrane.

The best remedies for this purpose are Eucalyptol, Sanguinaria and Hydrastin, but the difficulty has always been to get these valuable curatives combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

Recently this has been accomplished and the preparation put on the market under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets; they are large pleasant tasting lozenges, so that they may be slowly dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane and finally the stomach and intestines.

An advantage to be considered also is that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, morphine or poisonous narcotics, so often found in catarrh powders, and the use of which often entails a habit more dangerous than the disease.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cts. for full sized package and are probably the safest and most effectual catarrh cure on the market.

BABY'S ILLS

EVERY MOTHER SHOULD BE IN A POSITION TO PROMPTLY RELIEVE THE MINOR AILMENTS OF HER LITTLE ONES.

The baby who is always plump always has a good appetite, always has a clear eye and a rosy cheek, and is always active and playful, is the choicest treasure this life affords. The medicine which keeps babies in such a condition, or which restores them to it when they are ill is certainly a priceless boon to humanity. There are many medicines which produce sleep, but their action upon the child is similar to that which whisky or opium has upon a full grown man. They deaden and stupify and are the most injurious things which can be given to children.

The only safe course is to use nature's remedies. Nature has provided a vegetable cure for every ill, and her remedies for children's disorders are scientifically compounded in Baby's Own Tablets. For diarrhoea, constipation, colic, simple fever, croup, irritation when teething, indigestion and all the disorders of children so familiar to mothers, this remedy is conceded by the medical profession to be without an equal. Its effect is gentle, soothing, promptly curative and never failing. It will save pain, anxiety, doctor bills and perhaps a life. All mothers who have used Baby's Own Tablets for their little ones speak of them in terms of warmest praise. Mrs. Ben. Seward, Forfar, Ont., says; "I have used Baby's Own Tablets and can highly recommend them to all mothers. My baby was cutting his teeth, and was very cross when I first gave them to him. They acted like magic; he cut his teeth almost without my knowing it, and gave him such ease that they proved a blessing both to the child and myself. He has not been sick since I gave them to him." Baby's Own Tablets can be procured at any druggist's, or will be sent post paid on receipt of 25 cents by addressing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

TROTTING.

Sidney Pointer Was Too Fast For Deveras at Napanee Yesterday.

Napanee, Ont., Oct. 25. — Sidney Pointer defeated Deveras in the matched race here to-day, winning in three straight heats. Deveras, with a mark of 2.11 1-4, is owned by Antoine Wendling, of Brockville, and was driven by W. McPherson. Sidney Pointer, 2.07 1-4, was driven by his owner, W. W. Moffatt, of Picton. The race was for $250 a side, and brought together nearly all the sports in this part of the country. The last heat was particularly exciting. Sidney Pointer led the whole mile, until they reached the head of the stretch, when he broke, and Deveras passed him. Sidney quickly recovered, and the finish was one of the closest possible, Pointer winning by only a fraction. The time was as follows; 2.16 1-2, 2.17 1-4 and 2.17 1-2. The last heat would have been a very fast one had it not been for the break, which was overlooked by the judges, owing to a break Deveras made in the first quarter of the heat.

DESERONTO DOINGS

WHAT IS GOING ON IN THE HUSTLING LITTLE FACTORY TOWN.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Deseronto, Oct. 25.

Chief Gunyou has resumed his duties again, after a long spell of severe illness. For a while it looked as though he would not weather the storm.

Deseronto's new opera house will open on November 2nd. It is a credit to our little town.

Mr. S. Burrows, of Belleville, was in town on Thursday.

The Sons of England band has received, from Mr. John Dalton, a handsome gift of a set of artistic music stands.

It is reported that the Scotchmen of Deseronto will celebrate St. Andrew's Day by a banquet in the evening.

The annual meeting of the Bible Society will be held in the Methodist Church on Monday evening next. Rev. Mr. Locke, of Belleville, will conduct the service.

A Teacher's Worries.

FREQUENTLY RESULT IN A BREAKDOWN OF HEALTH.

Headaches, Backache, Dizziness, Poor Appetite and Insomnia the Outcome —How to Avert These Troubles.

From the Review, Windsor, Ont.

Only those engaged in the teaching profession realize how much care, worry and perplexity is met with daily. It is, therefore, little wonder that there are so many health breakdowns, especially among young ladies who follow this calling. Miss Christine Pare, of Ojibway, Ont., is one who has suffered much in this respect. To a reporter of the Windsor Review, Miss Pare said; "For several years, while teaching school, I was continually troubled with headaches, dizziness and a weak back. I tried several doctors and medicines, but got no relief. I became so badly run down that I thought possibly a change of employment would give me relief. I gave up my school and tried other duties, but the result was disappointing, as the trouble seemed to have taken a firm hold upon me. The headaches grew more and more severe, my appetite failed me and I was frequently compelled to take a rest in order to overcome dizziness. A friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I decided to try a box, and before they were all used I found much relief. I continued taking the pills for some time longer, every day gaining new health and strength, and now I feel as well as ever I did in my life, and am never bothered with the old troubles. You may say, therefore, that there is nothing I can recommend so highly as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

Young girls who are pale and weak, who suffer from backaches, headaches, loss of appetite, palpitation of the heart, and other symptoms that overcome so many in early womanhood, will find a certain and speedy cure in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills make rich, red blood, strengthen the nerves and give new life and vigor to the whole body. The genuine bear the full name, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People on the wrapper around every box. Sold by all dealers or by mail post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by addressing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Trusts and Guarantee Company, Limited, 14 King street west, Toronto, has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late Thomas Milburn, of Toronto, who died recently, leaving a large estate, consisting of stocks in various companies, and real estate in Toronto and Montreal, amounting in all to $60,000. The late Mr. Milburn was until recently the proprietor of the Milburn Patent Medicines which are now being manufactured by the T. Milburn Co., Limited.

To see "The American Girl" at the opera house, Friday, Nov. 1st, means to enjoy a rare amusement treat. The play is H. Grattan Donnelly's best effort, and he relates an interesting story in a charmingly fascinating manner. The company, which is under A. Q. Scammon's direction, is one of especial merit and is most evenly balanced. The central figure in the play is George F. Hall. Two very clever children, Gracie Russell and Daisy Stampe, have important parts and make the most of their opportunities.

WILL BEGIN BORING FOR OIL NEXT WEEK

DELAYS HAVE BEEN UNAVOIDABLE, BUT WORK WILL SOON BE RUSHED.

Mr. E. C. Rossousi informs The Intelligencer that there has been a great deal of trouble in connection with shipping the oil boring machinery from the other side, but the difficulties have at last been overcome, and it is expected that the derricks and the rest of the appliances will be here in a very few days, so that it is altogether likely that operations may be begun by the end of next week.

THE ROSS OUTFIT BADLY BUNCOED

Premier Ross Understood to Have Paid $500 to "Smooth" Mr Mabee.

Who is Mabee?—A Self-Confessed Hireling, a Fakir, Pure and Simple.

Concerning the man Mabee, who has just jumped into unenviable prominence by posing as a "Disgusted Conservative" when he was quite willing to sell his services to either party, the Toronto World hands out the following interesting screed;

"There is nothing to distinguish him from a thousand men who patronize five-cent barber shops. His name was about the only thing by which he could have been identified until Hon. Mr. Ross picked him up. Now he is known as the man who faked George Washington Ross and Organizer Smith. Whilst his particular action shows that Mabee possesses some shrewdness it also lets in a flood of light on the weak side of George Washington's character. It appears that before Premier Ross endorsed him Mabee had been to see Mr. Whitney, to whom he unfolded his scheme. His proposition was that he would pose as a 'Disgusted Reformer,' and in that capacity would vilify Premier Ross, and, in an insidious way, proclaim the virtues of Mr. Whitney. The latter saw at a glance that he was dealing with a fakir, and he told him to get out. He got out. Then Mabee went to Premier Ross and unfolded his counter-scheme. He undertook to pose as a 'Disgusted Conservative,' and to vilify Whitney and sing Ross' virtues in a high key. Owing to the scarcity of men who will say a good word of the Ross outfit the Premier snapped up his offer with the alacrity of a drowning man throwing out his hand to grasp a straw. The question of who Mabee might be did not occur to him in his anxiety to swell the number of the stragglers throughout the province who will shout 'Hurrah for Ross!' The $500 that George Washington is understood to have paid Mabee to pose as a 'Disgusted Conservative' is worse than wasted. The pamphlet which appears with the name of Mabee on the title page cannot rise above the level of Mabee himself. And who is Mabee? As we have already said, he is undistinguishable from a thousand men who patronize five-cent barber shops and free-lunch counters. We do not wish to injure the young man. We imagine he is well able to take care of himself, and that he will always be able to get three square meals a day. But it is a duty we owe the public to disclose the true inwardness of the Ross-Mabee deal. Mabee is a self-confessed hireling. He doesn't pretend to have any reputation as a public man or otherwise. If you were to ask him he would confess to you that he was a fakir. He is laughing up his sleeve at the way he took in Ross and Organizer Smith. As for the Mabee imprint on the campaign volume bearing his name it damns the book at the outset. Imagine Mr. Ross going to the country heralded by a nondescript of the Mabee type! Here is one of the blasts of the Mabee horn;

"The history of the Liberal party in Ontario shows them to be deserving of future trust. It stands for all that is good and progressive. They are as able and willing to grapple with social, political and administrative reforms as on the day when the people's mandate first placed them in office.

"Just previous to blowing this blast in favor of the Ross outfit, Mabee had called on Mr. Whitney and offered to shout throughout the country at the top of his voice the following among other choice epigrams;

"'This stone was erected in memory of the 'Ross Machine,' which died of self-inflicted wounds in a cess-pool of iniquity. Calm, thinking villains whom no faith could fix of crooked counsels and dark politics!'

"Little wonder Mr. Whitney showed the fakir the door. What a simpleton Premier Ross must be to be taken in by a fakir, who, in Ross' presence, says the members of his Government are paragons of virtue, and, when his back is turned, shouts out to the crowd that the Ross Machine died in a cess-pool of iniquity!

"This is the man whose imprint adorns the title page of the political Bible upon which Ross relies for his salvation!

"When the sinner is on his death-bed he calls upon anyone and every-one to save him. The Ross outfit is fastened to the electric chair. Hence its yelping 'Mabee, Mabee, save us!' There would be more sense if instead of yelling for Mabee the outfit called for Cap. Sullivan, Jim Vance, Tom Lewis and the rest of the Machine. Cap. Sullivan might again do good service with the Machine. Mabee is one of the instruments that Providence has placed in the hands [illegible] George Washington Ross to lure [illegible] to his own destruction. But [illegible] ted that he is, George [illegible] does not yet realize the [illegible]

Mrs. White Not Guilty.

(Special to The Intelligencer.)

Brantford, 4.20 p.m.—The verdict in the White murder trial is "Not Guilty." Mrs. White was tried on the charge of poisoning her husband.

ST. THOMAS' AND THE PAST

COL. PONTON GIVES ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS, AND WRITES IN A RETROSPECTIVE VEIN.

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Not merely to the members of St. Thomas' Church (one of the oldest Rectories in Canada), but to all citizens who have associations of memory with Belleville's past, is your contribution in yesterday's issue, full of interest and value.

As I am not an Anglican, I can speak freely not merely of our pride in this beautiful edifice and site, but also of the universal esteem and regard in which the venerable Rector of St. Thomas' and the old citizens who worship there, are held by the whole community who recognize how closely identified and continuously connected the congregation of St. Thomas' have been with the early history and growth of our city. The Belleville Historical Society had mapped out for this winter's work the records of the various churches of the city, embodying as they do the chronicles of the community. You have anticipated them, or rather have furnished a stimulus and example of what is possible, for you have, by no means exhausted the material available even in regard to this Mother of Churches. There are other epitaphs. Many of the old marbles have been removed from the churchyard to the cemetery. You have done much to awaken recollection, for though "the people remember their dead," yet the light of some families has gone out altogether, and none remain even to remember.—

"For the names we loved to hear
Have been carved for many a year
On the tomb."

There are other documents also. It may be interesting to note that the Church Lands were granted by George IV. to the then Rector of St. Thomas' and his successors in 1825, and that the Church was consecrated by the then Bishop of Quebec in 1828.

We may hope for further contributions from the facile pen of your contributor, "J. D. F." St. Andrew's, St. Michael's, Bridge Street and other Churches, would be found rich for research, and the preservation of these details will form the basis for a future history of Belleville—perpetuating the testimony of those who are too fast passing from among us to "where beyond those voices there is peace." As one of Thackeray's ballads has it;—

"The kind old voices and old faces
Our memory can quick retrace;
Around the board they take their places
And share the cup and Bouillabaisse."

And perhaps I may be pardoned (in this retrospective connection) recalling that this day (October 25th), is St. Crispin's Day, when Henry V. made his famous trumpet-tongued address to the English troops before Agincourt:—

"This day is called the feast of Crispian;
He that outlives this day, and comes safe home,
Will yearly on the vigil feast his friends
And say—To-morrow is St. Crispian;
Then shall our names,
Familiar in their mouths as household words,—
Harry the King, Bedford and Exeter,
Warwick and Talbot, Salisbury and Gloster,—
Be in their flowing cups freshly remembered.
This story shall the good man teach his son;
And Crispin Crispian shall ne'er go by,
From this day to the ending of the world,
But we in it shall be remembered.
We few, we happy few, we band of brothers."

Belleville people, past present or future, neither crave or expect such prophetic fame, but at least let the spirit of those words abide, for they are our heritage equally with all those who are English born — the links and the watchwords of our national spirit, which, self-reliant because of our past, presses on—to face our destiny as Anglo-Saxons will.

W. N. PONTON.

Epworth Leagues Meet in Convention

SUCCESSFUL AND INSPIRING MEETINGS HELD YESTERDAY — THE NEW OFFICERS.

The seventh annual Epworth League Convention of the Belleville District was held in the Holloway St. Methodist church yesterday afternoon and evening.

The attendance of delegates from the district was good, and it was evident that they were there to make the most of their time and to obtain new ideas and new methods of work.

The presence of Mr. Crews, the General Secretary, was of great assistance in making the Convention successful, though, on account of hoarseness, he had to stop in his evening address before he had dealt with his subject fully.

Perhaps the most helpful part of the day's proceedings was the Departmental rally in the afternoon, when the Convention broke up into five smaller meetings to discuss the work of the different departments.

A paper on "Junior League work," by Mrs. Real, aroused renewed interest in this important branch of League work.

The Secretary's report showed a decrease in membership, but a substantial increase in Missionary givings.

In the evening the addresses delivered by Mr. Crews, and Dr. Crothers were listened to with careful and appreciative attention by the audience.

The singing of Miss Watson, Mr. Moore and the Male Quartette added greatly to the pleasure of the convention.

Honorary President — Rev. Dr. Crothers.
President—Mr. T. G. Bell.
Christian Endeavor Vice-President.—Mr. H. Emerson.
Missionary Vice-President — Miss M. Johnson.
Literary Vice-President — Mr. P. Anderson.
Social Vice-President.—Mrs. W. R. Pennock.
Jr. League Vice-President—Mrs. J. R. Real.
Sec.-Treas.—E. R. Doxsee, B.D.
Representative to Conference—Rev. E. A. Tonkin.
Members of Executive. — Miss L. Phelps, Miss Watson, Mr. Esmond, Mr. E. G. Clarke, Mr. Claude Pope.

THE JUSTICE MILL

MANY IMPORTANT CASES BEFORE MAGISTRATE FLINT TO-DAY.

Police Magistrate Flint was a busy man to-day, many interesting cases being brought up before him for trial.

Trespass.

Wm. H. Anderson, who said his home was in the County of Middlesex, was accused of sleeping in Mr. Roy's barn without permission. He promised, if discharged, to leave the city at once. Permission was given, and William, when last seen, was heading for the station.

Insulting Language.

Chester Storey was charged with using insulting language toward Stephen Garrett. He admitted the offence and was fined $1.50.

Misappropriation.

Alfred Odell, of Glen Miller, was charged with fraudulently converting to his own use a horse, harness and buggy, the property of Wesley Nelson, of Frankford. It will be remembered that the accused was arrested here on Tuesday last, whilst driving the outfit down Front street. Mr. Wesley Nelson swore that Odell hired the outfit from him on Sunday last and promised to return that night, but did not do so. The horse appeared to have been harshly used and the buggy was damaged. He (Mr. Nelson) had also to pay for the horse's keeping here.

A number of witnesses were examined on both sides, and it was apparent that Odell was under the influence of liquor and did not realise what he was doing. He was convicted of the offence, and instead of being locked up was allowed to go upon entering into an agreement to pay all expenses, amounting to some $30. Mr. Anderson represented the Crown and Mr. W. P. McMahon the accused.

Theft of Castings.

Seven boys were charged with taking some castings belonging to Mr. J. M. Yerex and selling same to Mr. Hughes, second hand dealer. The boys, whose ages range from 11 to 13, stated that all the money they received was 15 cts. Mr. Yerex stated that the castings were valuable and he lost some $30 or $40 worth. The boys were each orderted to pay $2.50, or in default 10 days in jail.

A MARVELLOUS DISCOVERY !

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

THE GREAT MEDICAL TRIUMPH OF MODERN TIMES.

A MEDICINE THAT HAS CURED THOUSANDS WHO WERE PRONOUNCED INCURABLE.

That great physician, Professor Edward E. Phelps, M.D., LL.D., has given to suffering humanity the greatest blessing that medical scientific research ever produced. This world-boon is known as Paine's Celery Compound, now popular in every part of the civilized world.

Paine's Celery Compound is not a common nervine, sarsaparilla, or bitters, but a marvellous discovery that has marked a distinct step in medical practice. The ablest physicians and the leading chemists and scientists readily admit that it takes first place as a disease banisher.

Paine's Celery Compound has proved itself to be a positive and certain cure for all nervous diseases, rheumatism, neuralgia, dyspepsia, liver and kidney troubles and blood diseases.

Reader, if you are a victim to disease and suffering, give this wonderful medicine an immediate trial. It will certainly banish your troubles and permanently cure you. Thousands of testimonials from all parts of our own Dominion—some of them from your friends and near neighbors—prove that Paine's Celery Compound is a true life-saver. See that your dealer gives you "PAINE'S" the kind that cures; accept no substitute.

THE TABLE.

The years have sped since first I led
You to the table, dear,
And you sat over [illegible]
And your smiling face.

A year or two flew past and you
[illegible] not alone;
A little one was in your arms,
Your darling and my own.

And then another year or so,
And some one else was there,
And "Willie" sat near me, you know,
While "Tottie" claimed your care.

The years have sped since first I led
You to the table, dear,
And you looked queenly at the foot
And I looked kingly here.

To-day as I look down at you,
On either side I see
A row of hungry little ones
All gazing up at me.

We've added leaves, one after one,
And you are far away—
Aye, thrice as far, my dear, as on
That happy, happy day.

But though we sit so far apart—
You there and I up here—
Two rows of hearts from my fond heart
Stretch down to you, my dear.

Thank God for every extra leaf
The table holds to-day,
And may we never know the grief
Of putting one away.

—Chicago Record-Herald.

WHEN MOTHER RIGGED THE SPANKER BOOM.

From the Baltimore American.

Readin' 'bout this yachtin' race, it somehow takes me back
To when I was a codger in the town
of Hackensack;
It minds me how us youngsters had to steer our course just so,
Or else the storm of punishment would soon begin to blow;
An' pa was the perleecin' boat that sounded warnin' calls,
But mother rigged her spanker boom
—an' then look out for squalls!

Now, kids—you take 'em big or small
—is mostly like a yacht,
They're tricky in their movements and they'll never toe the scratch;
They need a hand to steer 'em, or the course they'll never learn,
An', like a watch, the proper way to steer 'em's by the stern.
An' that's why pa's great moral pleas
in wreckage oft would fall,
But mother rigged her spanker boom
and looked out for a squall.

Them tender recollections of the days that's long gone by
Brings up a happy picture to my intellechul eye—
A picture of the gladness that into my bosom shipped
Each time my biggest brother was the one that mother whipped.
So on this little proverb all my recollection stalls;
When mother rigs her spanker boom you'd best look out for squalls.

SMART MEN BEFORE TO-DAY.

(Philadelphia Record.)

The most modest admit that man existed and had reached a complex social condition at least seventy centuries ago. There are scientific reasons for assuming that it required thousands of years for the race to achieve the social conditions which are revealed by the lettered tablets of 5,000 B.C. The ruins of an extensive system of water works afford presumptive evidence that there was a hustling business community at Babylon; for people who do not hustle cannot pay plumbers' bills. The tablets prove the use of a printing press and of a revolving cylinder with raised type. It is known that at Alexandria in its day of greatness there were fire engines based on modern principles. In Andalusia there was a system of pipes which carried perfumed air from gardens into the beautiful homes. The human race did not begin its career yesterday, at any rate, and inventive genius was known before our own day. Thakore Sahib, a learned Indian prince, maintains that therapeutics and even surgery were well advanced among the Hindu people at an early period of their long history; that vaccination, anaesthesia and even antiseptic surgery were known two thousand years ago. Wendell Phillips used to insist that every social problem which we attack with so much zeal to-day was discussed to rags in Egypt centuries ago. Many centuries before Gutenberg the Chinese had movable type. We have reason to be proud of modern achievements, but there were smart men long before our day. A visit to a museum of antiquities must inspire respect for early man.

Angier's Petroleum Emulsion

With Hypophosphites

A REMEDY YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT

Angier's Petroleum Emulsion combines the remarkable soothing and healing property of a specially prepared Petroleum with the well-known tonic qualities of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. This Emulsion is not a quack medicine, or even a patent medicine. It has been thoroughly tested and is largely used in hospitals. It has been prescribed by the medical profession in the United States since 1880, and in Great Britain since 1892. In advertising it, we wish to avoid everything that savors of quackery and confine ourselves to simple, straightforward statements of what our preparation is and what it will do. These statements we back up by testimonials taken from genuine bona fide letters. They tell how Angier's Petroleum Emulsion has cured Coughs, Weak Lungs, Faulty Digestion, Bowel Disorders, and Wasting Diseases, as well as the beneficial manner in which it acts when given to puny children, pale women and all enfeebled people.

CURED COUGH:—We received a line from you on Feb. 4th, and you asked if we had tried Angier's Petroleum Emulsion. We have tried it. My son took one sample bottle. It was very good, so he got three fifty cent bottles. For some time he was troubled with a severe cold on the chest and lungs, and at night he would cough something terrible. He thought that he was getting consumption. He lost in weight and strength, and also lost his color; but after taking three bottles of your preparation, he gained in weight and strength and his color came back. He honestly believes that Angier's Emulsion cured him, and would not be without it. You are at liberty to publish this if you desire.
JOHN H. JONES, Clark Street, London, South Ont.

BRONCHITIS:—I have been suffering from a severe attack of Bronchitis which left me in a very weak state with a most distressing cough. I tried many things, but nothing seemed to do me any good. At length I was persuaded to try Angier's Petroleum Emulsion, and after a few days trial, I began to feel better. Since then I have been gradually improving. I have continued to take the medicine, and am glad to say that my cough is gone. I am a little stronger and appetite better. I hope soon to be quite well. Please insert this in your paper, as it may induce some others to try your valuable medicine.
CAROLINE CAMERON, 47 Carleton Street, Toronto, Ont.

A PHYSICIAN RECOMMENDS ANGIER'S FOR ACUTE BRONCHITIS:—I have been thoroughly convinced that in the treatment of Bronchitis in the acute stage, I have never found such an immediate relief as I found in using Angier's Emulsion with Hypophosphites, and fully recommend it to the medical profession. I shall continue to use it in all cases indicated. J. J. WATKINS, M.D., Covington, Ky.

CAUTION:—The phenomenal success of ANGIER'S PETROLEUM EMULSION has been the means of producing many untried and worthless imitations. Always be sure you get the genuine ANGIER'S Petroleum Emulsion, as imitations made with ordinary Petroleum do not have the same effect. Angier's Petroleum Emulsion is made from oil obtained from particular wells and refined by a peculiar process, which is known only to the manufacturers of Angier's Petroleum Emulsion. All druggists sell it. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle.

Paper Quilts.

In some parts of England there is quite a trade carried on by poor people in making paper quilts for their poorer neighbors. They are simply composed of sheets of brown paper sewed together and perforated all over at distances of an inch or two apart, covered with chintz or cretonne on one side and lined with patchwork or old sheets—anything available, in fact. They make surprisingly warm covers and are much appreciated.—London Tit-Bits.

Hands Off.

"What have you got that sign 'Hands Off' posted outside your works for?" asked the curious individual.

"Because," returned the jocular mill owner "my men are on strike."

MORE LIGHT ON THE FOOD QUESTION.

Malt Breakfast Food

THE ONLY TRUE HEALTH FOOD ON THE MARKET.

Food experts and analysts have fully demonstrated that the great majority of prepared breakfast foods are not up to the proper standard of purity. Such foods hamper digestion and give rise to many serious stomach derangements.

Malt Breakfast Food is a natural food producing natural conditions. It increases and maintains digestive energy; its freedom from insoluble starch and irritating properties enables it to restore and rebuild the weak and overworked stomach, so that this organ can do its proper work. Malt Breakfast Food gives more true bodily nourishment in one meal than all other combined foods can afford in a week. A single package treated in your home will make it a permanent friend. At all Grocers.

Mutton Fat.

Most of the odor of roasting lamb and much of the strong flavor of mutton may be avoided by asking the butcher to remove every particle of outside fat as well as the transparent tissue covering the shoulder or leg. It is that absorbs the flavor from the wool and gives the taste so disagreeable to most people. All first class butchers will do this if asked when [illegible]

Cheerful.

Mistress—But didn't Mrs. Upperten leave any message when you told her I was not at home?

Servant—No, ma'am. She simply gave a sigh of relief and said, "Thank you, Jane," and drove away.

Railroad Men's Backache.

Men who work on the railroad whether in the capacity of engineers, firemen, machinists or trackmen, find that the heavy work they do and the exposure to change of weather and temperature very hard on their back and kidneys.

There are few railroadmen who do not complain of kidney trouble in some form.

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets have proved themselves the greatest benefactors of all classes of railroad men. They give ease to the aching, sore back, clear up the urine, relieve the scalding and burning, and impart new life and vitality to the urinary organs.

PLASTERS NO GOOD.

Mrs. Mary Wilson, living on Albert Street, Sarnia, Ont., has confidence in Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets. Her son George, employed as a machinist on the Grand Trunk R.R., has been cured of lumbago by using them. Mrs. Wilson said: "Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets that I brought my son from Geary's drug store has cured him of that constant pain and lameness in the back that caused him the greatest misery. He had tried plasters and other remedies, but nothing gave him the permanent relief obtained from these Tablets. The whole difficulty has quite disappeared and with it the accompanying weariness and lack of energy. He has no headaches nor kidney trouble, but is enjoying perfect health. I can honestly recommend these Tablets to anyone having any trouble with their backs."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50c. a Box, at all druggists or by mail. The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

LUDWIG AND EUGENE.

From Handsomest Prince in the World to a Bloated Sot—How a Careless Woman's Influence Changed Him.

During the Third Empire a young man appeared at the Tuileries. Eugene kissed him, and in the process declared him to be the handsomest prince in the world. At the compliment the young man blushed, and blushed still more at the embrace. His name was Ludwig. By profession he was King. In addition, he followed the entirely genteel vocation of lover. But an amateur merely. He had yet to learn that the art of loving and the art of being loved are separate and distinct. This young woman, afterwards Duchesse D'Alencon lived in the heart of a Bavarian forest. A poet who chanced to encounter her there has related that he mistook her for a sylph — one of those enchanting apparitions that dwelt in dim green woods and long German ballads, and whom princes used to woo. Ludwig mistook her for a saint. To err poets and princes are liable alike.

Ludwig looked as if he had stepped from a fairy tale. As he looked he acted. He charmed peasants and empresses. He suggested romances incarnate and enthroned. These suggestions his cousin lived to see him change into realities. She lived to see him dot the country he ruled with palaces of enchantment. She lived, too, to see him hide himself in them. She lived to see the handsomest prince in the world change into a bloated sot. She lived to realize that it was her work, and so realizing, perhaps was glad to die. For, if not a saint, at least she was human. When ultimately, in cups of champagne, strained through violets, he tried to drown his reason, she lost her own. Subsequently, as noted, she lost her life. It may be that it was fate that felled her, yet in that case it is a pity that fate was so slow. Had it but throttled her in the cradle, or smothered her in the green and quiet of the slumbrous wood, Europe might have enjoyed the spectacle of an ideal King reigning ideally.—Edgar Saltus in the Smart Set.

Thought He Needed It.

"Yes, I've been mistaken for all sorts and conditions during my wanderings," said Ernest Seton-Thompson, hiding himself eyes deep in a garbage heap back of the Yellowstone Park Hotel to watch the antics of some bears over their food. He had naturally put on the oldest clothes he could muster for the occasion. Digging away in that unsavory pile, he did not exactly convey the impression of opulence. "It really didn't occur to me, however, just how my actions might be interpreted," he said, "until some tourists hallooed to me from the edge of the wood:

"'Say, my man,' one of them called, 'come out of that. Here's a plunk for you, and the cook'll give you something to eat up at the hotel.'"—New York Times.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 28.—More seizures of Japanese schooners by Russians are reported, making in all five schooners, and the boat's crew of a sixth to fall into the hands of Russian authorities for being within the prescribed limits around the seal rookeries across the Pacific.

Burglars at Shedden.

Shedden, Ont., Oct. 28.—Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock, while Mrs. Mercell was absent, some person effected an entrance to her house by removing the screen from a back door. They secured about $25 in cash, a silver watch and some silverware.

25 Insurgents Killed.

Manila, Oct. 28.—The constabulary report a fight with insurgents near Passi, Province of Iloilo, Island of Panay, in which 25 insurgents were killed and three captured, together with a quantity of arms and ammunition.

Three Killed by Train.

Milwaukee, Oct. 28.—Three persons were killed and one was seriously injured by a Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul train last night while driving over a grade crossing at Oakwood, near here.

In Darkest London.

London, Oct. 28.—West and Central London were enveloped Saturday night in a black fog, which plunged the entire fashionable part of the city into impenetrable darkness. The scenes about the emptying theatres were chaotic, the cries of the confused and helpless people only adding to the confusion. Link boys ran about trying to lead fashionable equipages out of danger, giving London a mediaeval appearance. Many accidents have already been reported from the Charing Cross and other hospitals.

The Volga Traffic Blocked.

London, Oct. 28.—A despatch from Odessa to The Times says the water of the Volga is falling at an alarming rate, [illegible] that there is no hope of getting the accumulated traffic through before the river is icebound. Several hundred steamers and barges are aground. Grave charges of mismanagement and corrupt practices have been made against the contractors and officials connected with the administration of the Volga waterway.

Common Sense.

The term "common sense" puzzles so many people, for we all must sorrowfully admit its uncommonness. Common sense is that sense which is common to all the five senses or the point where the five senses meet, supposed to be the seat of the soul, where it judges what is presented by the five senses and then decides the mode of action.

SOUND AS A DOLLAR

That is the result of a course of treatment with Scott's Emulsion. We have special reference to persons with weak lungs and sensitive throats.

Scott's Emulsion does some things better than others. This is one of them. It has a peculiar action on the throat and lungs which gives them strength and makes them tough.

That's how Scott's Emulsion drives out coughs, colds and bronchitis. It keeps them out, too.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

CHARGE WAS NOT SUSTAINED

Mrs. White Found "Not Guilty" of the Murder of Her Husband.

Affecting Scene in Court Room When the Verdict Was Announced—Greeted Her Two Sons In Tears—Intense Strain During Trial Has Left the Defendant Almost a Nervous Wreck—Trial Long and Thorough.

Brantford, Oct. 28.—After a trial lasting all week, Mrs. Josephine White was late Saturday afternoon declared not guilty of the charge of poisoning her husband. The jury retired at 11.25 a. m., and were out of the courtroom until 4.02 p. m.

As the afternoon passed the expectation of a verdict of acquittal faded away, and the least anyone looked for was a disagreement of the jury. As the jurymen filed into their places there was an intense suspense and almost oppressive silence.

When the foreman announced the decision arrived at Mrs. White burst into tears, and as she stepped out of the dock to greet her two sons, the scene was an affecting one. She was immediately surrounded by a number of friends, who offered their congratulations on the result.

Mrs. White emerged from under the shadow that has hung over her during the past six months almost a nervous wreck. She has been subjected to an intense strain during the trial, and reaction has succeeded the tension.

The trial was a long and thorough one. There were many witnesses examined, and the opposing counsel exerted their best abilities in developing their cases. The addresses of the counsel were long and exhaustive. Mr. Heyd, K. C., for the defence, addressed the jury four hours, and Mr. Aaglin's address occupied three hours and twenty minutes. His Lordship Justice Meredith, in summing up the case, spoke for two hours and forty minutes. His Lordship's charge was concluded at 11.25, and was an able and impartial view of the evidence.

This is the second poisoning trial here in six years, and in both cases, Mrs. White and Mrs. Hartly, the charge was not sustained.

The Duke's Speeches.

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 28. — The Duke's great tact, so frequently exhibited on his tour, was conspicuous here. His speech was admirable in its references to the fact that Newfoundland was an appanage of the British Crown before Australia was discovered, and to the fact that the men of Devon, who beat the Spanish Armada, learned their seamanship on the banks of Newfoundland. The speeches of the Duke of Cornwall have attracted universal admiration in British North America. They have always been contained within the limits of four pages of foolscap, written in a large, round, plain hand. They have been particularly noticeable as referring in felicitous phrase to the local history and particular environment of the various places at which they have been delivered.

Czolgosz's Father's Message.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 28.—The Associated Press is made the medium of the last message from the father of Leon F. Czolgosz, the condemned assassin, who will pay the penalty for his terrible crime in Auburn Prison next Tuesday morning. In an interview yesterday afternoon the elder Czolgosz was asked what he had to say finally to his unfortunate son.

"The old man's eyes filled with tears as he replied: "Tell Leon that I hope that he may rest in peace; that he will become reconciled to God and will meet his end bravely. Tell him that as much as I and all of our family regret his most unhappy plight that we can do nothing to interfere; that he alone is responsible for his unfortunate position, and that he must meet his punishment as a consequence."

Over 200 Killed.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 28.—The China mail brings news of outrages at Hin Meng, where a German church has been burned, and the missionaries narrowly escaped with their lives. The triad rebels afterwards attacked the town, and there was a fight in the streets between the triads and the townspeople, in which the rebels were victorious, and about a hundred of the inhabitants were killed. Gen. Wu afterwards marched a force of Imperial troops to meet the rebels, of which they killed over 200.

The King Edward VII. Coins.

London, Oct. 28.—For the first time in many years the British mint will not issue any new money at Christmas. The first issue of the coinage of King Edward VII. will be as early in 1902 as is possible. Before the date of issue the coinage will be heralded by a royal proclamation describing minutely the character and appearance of each coin, without which formality none could be legally put into circulation. Most of the dies of the Victorian coinage will then be destroyed.

Mr. Whitney at Havelock.

Havelock, Oct. 28.—A political meeting, in the interest of Dr. Ford, Conservative candidate for the East Riding of Peterboro, for the Legislature, was held on Saturday night, in the Town Hall here, which was entirely filled. Mr. Whitney in his speech covered all Provincial political topics.

Manchurian-Siberian Railway.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 28.—According to a despatch to the Novoe Vreyna from Vladivostock, the Russian general, Grodekoff, accompanied by the Russian Assistant Minister of Finance, M. Romanoff, will soon open the Manchurian-Siberian Railway.

Gold Coinage of World.

Washington, Oct. 28.—A table prepared by the Director of the Mint shows that the coinage of gold for the world during the last calendar year was $354,936,497, a decrease from $466,110,614 for the preceding year. The coinage of silver was $177,011,902, an increase over the preceding year of $10,884,938.

TAPS FROM THE WIRES.

Horse thieves are at work in Pickering and Whitby Townships.

Two cases of smallpox are reported in Kingsville, and several houses are said to be quarantined.

Twenty-three persons have been eaten by wolves, says The Neue Wiener Journal of Vienna, while working in the fields near Witebsk, Poland.

The death occurred on Saturday morning of Mr. James Grant, late clerk of the Township of London, and one of the best known citizens of London district, aged 60 years.

W. H. Gillard, head of the firm of Gillard & Co., wholesale grocers, Hamilton, died Friday night from apoplexy. He was in his usual health shortly before 8 o'clock.

On the second anniversary of the opening of the Stony Creek Battlefield Park on Saturday Alex. Muir of Toronto, author of "The Maple Leaf Forever" planted a maple tree.

A maniac ran amuck near Beechwood, a small settlement eight miles west of Iron River, Mich., Saturday, and as a result two persons beside himself are dead, and a fourth is dying.

At Niagara-on-the-Lake a large ice house, located in Paradise Grove, and owned by the Michigan Central Railway Company, was totally destroyed by fire about 8 o'clock Saturday night. Incendiary.

Two-year-old Josephine Marie McCollum choked to death on Saturday afternoon at the residence of her grandfather, Peter Freyseng, Toronto. The child's death followed quickly after that of her mother and father.

Arthur Burger of Toronto, his son Charles, aged 7, and John Figg, were injured in an exciting runaway accident on Sunday. Lord Minto, which Burger was driving, ran away, throwing them out. Burger is suffering from scalp wound and concussion and his son and Figg from painful bruises about the head and face. The horse was killed by striking a telegraph pole.

No Hope of His Recovery.

Toronto, Oct. 28.—Although there was a little improvement noticeable in the condition of Mr. W. E. H. Massey on Saturday and yesterday morning, he became worse again in the afternoon, and no hope whatever is now held out for his recovery. At midnight the family handed out the following bulletin: "The improvement in Mr. Massey's condition, which has been in evidence for the past 36 hours, suffered a very serious check late on Sunday afternoon. His physicians in consultation, offer practically no hope for his recovery, as perforation of the bowels has occurred. He is not expected to survive many hours."

Used Earth's Currents.

London, Oct. 28.—The naval attaches of the United States, German and Austrian Embassies in London yesterday officially inspected the Orling-Armstrong system of wireless telegraphy and telephony, in which earth currents are used. Commander Clover, representing the United States, operated the transmitter. Messages in Morse characters were satisfactorily sent a distance of three-quarters of a mile. A short iron rod was stuck in the ground at the sending and receiving stations, and the instruments connected with these rods. The inventors claim to have operated in a similar manner over a distance of 20 miles.

Czar to Visit Britain.

London, Oct. 28.—It is said in both official and diplomatic circles that the Czar and Czarina have accepted invitations from the King to visit this country next summer or autumn. The visit, which will be paid either to the Solent or to Scotland, will extend over at least a week. Their Imperial Majesties will come direct from Russia, escorted by a flotilla.

New Spur Line for Quebec.

Quebec, Oct. 28.—It is learned from authentic sources that the Great Northern Railway has given the contract for the construction of a branch line of railway from St. Gabriel to Garneau Junction to E. C. Loss, a Chicago contractor. The work will be undertaken as early as possible.

Gen. Buller Gains Sympathy

Said to be the Victim of the Cecil Rhodes-Beit Party.

Halifax Banker Arrested—Murder in Montreal—Mrs. Taylor Threatened With Brain Fever—The Duke's Speeches—Brockville Boy Killed—A Father's Actrocious Deed.

New York, Oct. 28.—It would be impossible to exaggerate the intensity of the feeling aroused by the announcement on last Wednesday of Gen. Buller's dismissal from the command of the First Army Corps and his retirement on half pay. The Sun's London correspondent wires: Unanimous as was the condemnation of his appointment to the command of this corps, and scathing as were the denouncements of his extraordinary speech by practically the entire press, the news of his dismissal has brought to light a great host of his friends, who declare that he is a martyr to an intrigue second only to that of the Dreyfus case.

Sir Redvers Buller most angry but least responsible friends declare that he is the victim of the Cecil Rhodes-Beit party, who have forced the Government to depose a man who has opposed and belittled them in South Africa. Others accuse Earl Roberts, the commander-in-chief, of taking off the head of the most important of the "Wolseley gang." The greatest number, perhaps, think that Secretary of War Brodrick, alarmed at the outcry against the appointment of Gen. Buller, made the speech of the latter an excuse for dismissing him in order to save himself.

Whatever reasons they advance there is no question but that Gen. Buller's friends have made him a great popular hero. Demonstrations have been made in the music halls, in one of which in London even Earl Roberts' picture on the bioscope calls forth a few hisses.

Nothing more clearly indicates the strength of public feeling for Sir Redvers Buller than the fact that in some few papers in the country and in four London papers, the universal idol, has been openly attacked, and his work in South Africa belittled in comparison with Buller's Natal campaign.

Since his speech at Aldershot, Gen. Buller has come to London, and very wisely kept silent, not showing himself in public.

Botha Rejoins Burger.

Newcastle, Natal, Oct. 27. — Commandant General Botha, with a small escort, has rejoined Schalk-Burger, whose movable Government is established to the westward of Amsterdam, guarded by 100 horsemen. Gen. Botha's forces have separated into small commandoes, which are operating in a rough, bushy country well adapted to Boer tactics. Several British columns are hunting them.

Chasing the Boers.

Matjesfontein, Cape Colony, Oct. 27.—Col. Scobell, after chasing the Boers under Commandant Smuts almost day and night for two weeks, eventually drove them to the north. Gen. Knox's column arrived at Beaufort West on Sunday to refit. It is now moving again. Commandant Scheepers, who was captured recently and taken to the hospital at Beaufort West, is progressing favorably.

Situation Has Improved.

Pretoria, Oct. 27.—Of late a number of young Cape rebels have taken the field in the western province, but most of them are unarmed. They roam about the desolate country in the west and northwest portions of the colony, doing little damage and taking good care to avoid the British columns. The situation in the Cape Colony has greatly improved.

More Boers Shot.

London, Oct. 28.—The South African mail brings news that several Boers who were captured wearing khaki uniforms were court-martialled and shot. It seems also that Commandant Theron crossed the Cape Town lines, west of Louw River Station, Sept. 23.

"Please Do."

Philadelphia, Oct. 28.—The North American's London correspondent says: I am told that General Kitchener, in a recent despatch to the War Office, reports the receipt from Generals Botha and Dewet of information saying that if any further executions of Boers took place they would shoot any of Kitchener's higher officers who were captured. Kitchener, it is reported, replied: "Please do." The War Office has suppressed the despatch.

Dutch Consul to Leave.

Brussels, Oct. 28.—The relations between Holland and Great Britain again appear to be somewhat strained. According to intelligence which is being circulated here, Great Britain asked Holland to recall her consul at Pretoria, because he was suspected of facilitating treasonable correspondence. Holland has given the consul indefinite leave of absence.

Boer Motion in French Chamber.

Paris, Oct. 28.—George Berry, a Nationalist member of the Chamber of Deputies, has informed the Ministry of his intention to introduce a motion in the Chamber, instructing the Government to join with other nations in obliging England to remove the women, children and aged people from the concentration camps in South Africa to healthy, neutral territory.

Threatened With Brain Fever.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Oct. 28.—Mrs. Anna Edson Taylor may not get over the effects of her trip over the Horseshoe Falls as easily as first supposed. Evidences of greater uneasiness began to manifest themselves Saturday night, and yesterday morning she was far from resting as well as on the first day following her trip. Mrs. Taylor has been troubled with dizziness and headache. The doctors have frankly told her that she is threatened with brain fever, and she is not as clear in her statements as to her experience as she was right after the plunge.

Killed While Hunting.

Montreal, Oct. 28.—News was received last night from Lachute, Argenteuil County, that Mr. J. W. Simpson, the former member for that county in the Quebec Legislature, had succumbed to an accidental gunshot wound. From what can be learned Mr. Simpson was out Saturday hunting with some friends, when one of his friend's gun was discharged and Mr. Simpson was wounded in the shoulder. Everything possible was done for him, but he lingered until yesterday afternoon, when he passed away. Mr. Simpson was 51 years old and was very popular.

Fleeing for Their Lives.

Uniontown, Pa., Oct. 28.—The western slope of the Allegheny mountains through Fayette County are ablaze from the Yough River through into West Virginia, and mountaineers are fleeing from their doomed homes with their families. Careless hunters started a dozen fires during the past week, and the brush is as dry as tinder. The destruction has been enormous to crops, fences, barns, stock and dwellings, with many narrow escapes from cremation in homes that were surrounded by the flames.

Drowned at Sarnia.

Sarnia, Oct. 28.—About 1 o'clock Saturday morning a man named John Young was drowned while trying to board the steam barge Advance, which had pulled into the Grand Trunk wharf to allow a passenger to get off the boat. Mr. Young made a jump as if to catch the steam barge, but it was too far away, and he fell into the river between the boat and wharf.

Willie Sutton of Brockville Killed.

Brockville, Oct. 28.—A sad accident occurred here Saturday morning, by which an eight-year-old lad named Willie Sutton lost his life. He was riding on a loaded coal cart, and in some manner fell of the cart, his head striking the hub of the wheel in the descent. He died a few minutes afterwards.

McGinnis Drowned.

Winnipeg, Oct. 28.—The body of John McGinnis, an aged resident of Beaver Mill, who had been missing for over a week, was found near the mouth of the Rainy River. He had been drowned. The dead man was 65 years of age, and was well known in the Rainy River and Rat Portage districts.

Hand Amputated.

London, Oct. 28.—Mr. O. Burrows, a Westminster Township farmer, had his right hand caught in a part of a threshing machine and before it was released it was badly crushed. He was taken to the city hospital and his hand amputated Saturday afternoon.

Crushed by a Train.

Winnipeg, Oct. 28.—William Gammond, a farmer, was badly crushed by a freight train at Fort William Saturday. He wanted to cross the track and was crawling under the train when it started.

LUNG TROUBLE RELIEVED

It is nearly always the same story with lung trouble. If the system is not right, slight affections of the bronchial tubes lead to graver and more serious ailments. Now if the system is healthy the disease will be thrown off quickly—if not consumption is the probable end. Make the system healthy with Powley's Liquified Ozone, and you'll prevent any serious complications.

We want you to read Mr. Bery's statement:

The Ozone Co., Ltd.

Gentlemen: I have much pleasure in testifying to the amount of good that Powley's Liquified Ozone has done me. I was very ill all winter with pleurisy of the left lung, and it left me with a most distressing cough. I heard of Ozone and tried it, with very satisfactory results. I cheerfully recommend it to everybody. I write this testimonial absolutely free from dictation, for I think it my duty to every man, woman and child.

(Signed) C. Bery,
283 St. Hypolite St., Montreal, P. Q.

Oxygen has been made use of before to cure disease, but only in gas form. In Powley's Liquified Ozone we give you oxygen in stable liquid form, pleasant to take and as powerful to cure disease as oxygen can be. Powley's Liquified Ozone is Nature's way of curing the ailments to which the flesh is heir. You can't improve on Nature if you tried a thousand years.

Our Consulting Department is in charge of competent and able physicians who will give you advice if you write them full details of your case. Don't neglect every particular. Your letters are strictly confidential and nothing ever goes outside this office. Address the Consulting Department of the Liquid Ozone Company, 229 Kinzie Street, Chicago, Ill.

A MONTREAL MURDERER.

A Brutal Crime Committed for Only a Few Cents.

Montreal, Oct. 28.—Tobie Hanson, a Dane, 24 years old, is locked up in the Westmount police cells for a brutal murder committed Saturday night. Hanson met a young lad about 12 years old, named Samuel Marrotte, the son of Samuel Marrotte, one of the best known citizens of Montreal, on the street near his father's home at Westmount. He followed the boy into some fields and then deliberately knocked him down and put an end to his life by cutting his throat. Hanson's explanation is that he wanted money, but all he got was a few cents, which the poor little lad had on him. Hanson, after killing the lad, threw his body on a high pile of stones and proceeded on his way. The boy's body was found a few hours afterwards, but nothing was known as to how he came by his death until this morning, when Hanson walked into Montreal police headquarters and gave himself up. He was handed over to Westmount police. Hanson stated he had only been in this country a few months and that he had worked for some months at the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec.

Sailing of the Antarctic.

London, Oct. 28.—Dr. Otto Nordenskjold's ship, the Antarctic, left Falmouth on Saturday for her eighteen months' voyage to the Antarctic Circle. She will call at Buenos Ayres, sailing thence almost due south of Cape Horn in the hope of reaching land on the Atlantic side of the Antarctic by Christmas. This is the first expedition to that particular region, and the results are awaited with interest by British geographers as coming from a practically unknown land. Zoologists especially are anxious to obtain data of the whales, seals, seabirds and possibly other living creatures.

His Hand Torn Off.

Tecumseh, Ont., Oct. 28.—Mr. R. Ducharme of this place had his left hand torn off while feeding a corn husking machine Saturday afternoon.

Italian Prince Accused.

Rome, Oct. 28.—Another art scandal affecting a member of the Italian aristocracy is much commented on here. Prince Barberini is summoned to appear on Nov. 26 to be prosecuted under the Pacca law on a charge of selling mediaeval masterpieces outside of the Kingdom of Italy.

A Sour Stomach

IS OFTEN THE REAL CAUSE OF A SOUR TEMPER.

That the condition of the digestive organs has a marked effect upon the character or disposition is a truism as old as the hills. Old Ben Jonson wisely said, "the pleasure of living depends upon the liver," and it is a fact which none may dispute that a sunny disposition more often results from a healthy digestion than from any other cause.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called sour stomach or heartburn, is caused by slow digestion of food; instead of being promptly digested and converted into blood, bone and muscle, it lies in the stomach for hours, fermenting and decaying, creating gases, which cause pressure on the lungs and heart, short breath and general discomfort and irritation.

Such half digested food is indeed poor nourishment for the body, brain and nerves and the result is shown in irritable tempers, unaccountable headaches and that depressing condition usually called the "blues," but how quickly all these disappear when appetite and digestion are restored.

Laxative medicines only irritate the already irritated stomach and bowels and have no effect upon actual digestion of [illegible].

The se[illegible] course to follow is to make use [illegible] natural digestives like Stuar[illegible] [illegible] Tablets after meals until [illegible] stomach has a chance to recuperate.

The natural digestives which every healthy stomach contains are peptones, diastase and Hydrochloric and lactic acids and when any of them are lacking the trouble begins. The reason Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are so valuable and successful in curing stomach troubles is because they contain, in a pleasant concentrated tablet form all these absolutely necessary essentials for perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

Henry Kirkpatrick, of Lawrence, Mass., says; "Men and women whose occupation precludes an active out door life should make it a daily practice to use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals. I have done so myself and I know positively that I owe my present health and vigor to their daily use.

"From the time I was 22, when I graduated from school, with broken health from overwork, until I was 34, I scarcely knew what it was to be free from stomach weakness. I had no appetite whatever for breakfast and very little for any other meal.

"I had acidity and heartburn nearly every day and sometimes was alarmed by irregularity and palpitation of the heart, but all this gradually disappeared after I began using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I can eat my meals with relish and satisfaction, which I had not known since I was a growing boy."

The success and popularity of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is enormous, but it is deserved, and every druggist in the United States, Canada and Great Britain has a good word for this meritorious preparation.

HALIFAX BANKER ARRESTED

It Is Thought, However, That the Case Will Be Settled.

Had Been Manager of the British North American Branch at Fredericton—Was Dismissed a Few Days Ago—The Present Trouble Is Due to a $6,000 Deposit That Could Not Be Found When Wanted.

Halifax, Oct. 28.—The arrest was made last night of a young banker, A. Harley, who 10 or 12 years ago came to Nova Scotia and entered the service of the Bank of British North America. His advancement in the bank was rapid, and a few years ago he was given the post of manager of the bank's branch at Fredericton.

A few days ago he was dismissed from his position. He went from Fredericton to Boston, and under instructions from the general manager of the bank it is stated that he was under detective surveillance while in that city. He managed, however, to elude his shadows, but on Friday night returned to Halifax, where his wife was. Last night with his wife he boarded the night express for Boston, but was arrested on a warrant two minutes before the departure of the train.

Some time ago a gentleman from Scotland, who was visiting Fredericton, deposited in the Bank of British North America there $6,000, receiving the regular deposit receipt therefore from the manager. The Scottish gentleman went to Montreal and recently presented his cheque to the British North America branch in that city for $6,000, but was told that there were no funds to his credit.

The bank's inspector immediately investigated the matter, with the result that the Fredericton manager was arrested. Subsequently, events were as stated above. It is supposed that Harley intended, after reaching Boston, to sail for England. It is probable that the matter will be quietly arranged to-day, and that no prosecution will result.

King Edward's Health.

London, Oct. 28.—Reynolds' weekly newspaper, an ardent pro-Boer sheet, is the first British paper to assert that King Edward is suffering from cancer of the throat. In yesterday's issue it declares that since His Majesty's accession three operations have been performed for the removal of papilloma of the left vocal chord, and that one was removed from the right vocal chord last week.

"Assistance was hastily summoned," says this journal, "as His Majesty was breathing with difficulty, and an immediate operation was performed. But it was regarded as only a temporary relief, the injured epitholum now having become a cancerous growth and serious developments are expected."

Born Near Brantford.

Rossland, B. C., Oct. 28.—A report is to hand from Spokane, Wash., that Miss Elizabeth Hoggan was found dead in a room at the Pacific Hotel, where she had registered from Rossland. The indications pointed to death from heart failure. The deceased was about 30 years of age, a native of Newport, near Brantford, Ont., and has a brother at Burton, B. C., and a sister at Montros, Col. She was a trained nurse at the Women's Hospital in Buffalo, N. Y., and had a responsible position there.

In King Alfred's Memory.

New York, Oct. 28.—In a number of New York churches yesterday services were held in commemoration of the millenial of King Alfred. Ceremonies incident to the event will be continued to-day, and it is the intention of those who promoted these ceremonies to establish some fitting, permanent memorial to the famous King in the New York Public Library.

Chili in Fighting Mood.

London, Oct. 28.—"The Chilian Government announced the mobilization of the army for the end of November ostensibly for manoeuvres," says a despatch to The Daily Mail from Buenos Ayres. "The Argentine fleet has been ordered to be provisioned and coaled and the sailors are working day and night. Three thousand manifestants have arrived."

Rockhill Reported at Last.

Washington, Oct. 28.—The final protocol closing the negotiations at Pekin between the Chinese Plenipotentiaries and the representatives of [illegible] Powers was submitted by special Commissioner Rockhill to the State Department is a long document, consisting of twelve distinct articles, on Saturday. The information was given to the public months ago.

Helped to Kill Goebel.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 28.—Ex-Secretary of State Caleb Powers was Saturday again convicted of being an accessory before the fact to the murder of Governor William Goebel in January, 1900, and for the second time has been sentenced to imprisonment for life. The case will be appealed.

Where Miss Stone Is.

London, Oct. 28.—"A trustworthy report is in circulation here," says a despatch from Sofia to The Daily Telegraph, "that Miss Stone is in the village of Belitza, close to the frontier."

Russia and China Agree.

London, Oct. 28.—"It is officially announced in St. Petersburg," says a despatch from the Russian capital: "that Russia and China have concluded an agreement as to Manchuria."

Lineman Electrocuted.

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 28.—W. Dockings, a lineman of the British Columbia Electric Railway, while working on the wire from Gold Stream, which brings power to the city, on Saturday night was accidentally electrocuted, and was found the next morning dangling from a pole to which his dead body was attached by his belt. He was a resident of Victoria.

One Man Saved

From a wreck will attract the world's attention to the life-saver. Yet let the life-saving be continued every day, and very soon it attracts no public attention. If the scene of the saving of one life by that life-saving remedy, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, could be made to stand out alone, like a picture on a screen, it would attract the notice of the whole nation. By a curious contradiction the very frequency with which the "Discovery" saves life, robs the fact of general interest. For obstinate coughs, bronchitis, weak lungs, and other diseases of the respiratory organs, "Golden Medical Discovery" is the one medicine which offers certain help, and almost certain cure. It contains neither alcohol nor narcotics.

"Only for Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I think I would be in my grave to-day," writes Mr. Moses Miles, of Hilliard, Uinta Co., Wyoming. "I had asthma so bad I could not sleep and was compelled to give up work. It affected my lungs so that I coughed all the time, both day and night. My friends all thought I had consumption. My wife insisted on my trying 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I have taken four bottles and am now a well man, weighing 185 pounds—thanks to Dr. Pierce."

Father's Atrocious Deed.

Chicago, Oct. 28.—Because he was denied the sight of his two little children, James Kennedy, a laborer, on Sunday murdered his wife and killed himself. They were married 12 years ago, but quarreled recently, and separated.

Russia Imprisons Sealers.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 28.—More seizures of Japanese schooners by Russians are reported, making in all five schooners, and the boat's crew of a sixth to fall into the hands of Russian authorities for being within the prescribed limits around the seal rookeries across the Pacific.

Burglars at Shedden.

Shedden, Ont., Oct. 28.—Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock, while Mrs. Mercell was absent, some person effected an entrance to her house by removing the screen from a back door. They secured about $25 in cash, a silver watch and some silverware.

25 Insurgents Killed.

Manila, Oct. 28.—The constabulary report a fight with insurgents near Passi, Province of Iloilo, Island of Panay, in which 25 insurgents were killed and three captured, together with a quantity of arms and ammunition.

Three Killed by Train.

Milwaukee, Oct. 28.—Three persons were killed and one was seriously injured by a Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul train last night while driving over a grade crossing at Oakwood, near here.

In Darkest London.

London, Oct. 28.—West and Central London were enveloped Saturday night in a black fog, which plunged the entire fashionable part of the city into impenetrable darkness. The scenes about the emptying theatres were chaotic, the cries of the confused and helpless people only adding to the confusion. Link boys ran about trying to lead fashionable equipages out of danger, giving London a mediaeval appearance. Many accidents have already been reported from the Charing Cross and other hospitals.

The Volga Traffic Blocked.

London, Oct. 28.—A despatch from Odessa to The Times says the water of the Volga is falling at an alarming rate, and that there is no hope of getting the accumulated traffic through before the river is icebound. Several hundred steamers and barges are aground. Grave charges of mismanagement and corrupt practices have been made against the contractors and officials connected with the administration of the Volga waterway.

Common Sense.

The term "common sense" puzzles a many people, for we all must sorrowfully admit its uncommonness. Common sense is that sense which is common to all the five senses or the point where the five senses meet, supposed to be the seat of the soul, where it judges what is presented by the five senses and then decides the mode of action.

SOUND AS A DOLLAR

That is the result of a course of treatment with Scott's Emulsion. We have special reference to persons with weak lungs and sensitive throats.

Scott's Emulsion does some things better than others. This is one of them. It has a peculiar action on the throat and lungs which gives them strength and makes them tough.

That's how Scott's Emulsion drives out coughs, colds and bronchitis. It keeps them out, too.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

CHARGE WAS NOT SUSTAINED

Mrs. White Found "Not Guilty" of the Murder of Her Husband.

Affecting Scene in Court Room When the Verdict Was Announced—Greeted Her Two Sons in Tears—Intense Strain During Trial Has Left the Defendant Almost a Nervous Wreck—Trial Long and Thorough.

Brantford, Oct. 28.—After a trial lasting all week, Mrs. Josephine White was late Saturday afternoon declared not guilty of the charge of poisoning her husband. The jury retired at 11.25 a. m., and were out of the courtroom until 4.02 p. m.

As the afternoon passed the expectation of a verdict of acquittal faded away, and the least anyone looked for was a disagreement of the jury. As the jurymen filed into their places there was an intense suspense and almost oppressive silence.

When the foreman announced the decision arrived at Mrs. White burst into tears, and as she stepped out of the dock to greet her two sons, the scene was an affecting one. She was immediately surrounded by a number of friends, who offered their congratulations on the result.

Mrs. White emerged from under the shadow that has hung over her during the past six months almost a nervous wreck. She has been subjected to an intense strain during the trial, and reaction has succeeded the tension.

The trial was a long and thorough one. There were many witnesses examined, and the opposing counsel exerted their best abilities in developing their cases. The addresses of the counsel were long and exhaustive. Mr. Heyd, K. C., for the defence, addressed the jury four hours, and Mr. Aaglin's address occupied three hours and twenty minutes. His Lordship Justice Meredith, in summing up the case, spoke for two hours and forty minutes. His Lordship's charge was concluded at 11.25, and was an able and impartial view of the evidence.

This is the second poisoning trial here in six years, and in both cases, Mrs. White and Mrs. Hartly, the charge was not sustained.

The Duke's Speeches.

St. John's, Nfld., Oct. 28. — The Duke's great tact, so frequently exhibited on his tour, was conspicuous here. His speech was admirable in its references to the fact that Newfoundland was an appanage of the British Crown before Australia was discovered, and to the fact that the men of Devon, who beat the Spanish Armada, learned their seamanship on the banks of Newfoundland. The speeches of the Duke of Cornwall have attracted universal admiration in British North America. They have always been contained within the limits of four pages of foolscap, written in a large, round, plain hand. They have been particularly noticeable as referring in felicitous phrase to the local history and particular environment of the various places at which they have been delivered.

Czolgosz's Father's Message.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 28.—The Associated Press is made the medium of the last message from the father of Leon F. Czolgosz, the condemned assassin, who will pay the penalty for his terrible crime in Auburn Prison next Tuesday morning. In an interview yesterday afternoon the elder Czolgosz was asked what he had to say finally to his unfortunate son.

"The old man's eyes filled with tears as he replied: "Tell Leon that I hope that he may rest in peace; that he will become reconciled to God and will meet his end bravely. Tell him that as much as I and all of our family regret his most unhappy plight that we can do nothing to interfere; that he alone is responsible for his unfortunate position, and that he must meet his punishment as a consequence."

Over 200 Killed.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 28.—The China mail brings news of outrages at Hin Meng, where a German church has been burned, and the missionaries narrowly escaped with their lives. The triad rebels afterwards attacked the town, and there was a fight in the streets between the triads and the townspeople, in which the rebels were victorious, and about a hundred of the inhabitants were killed. Gen. Wu afterwards marched a force of Imperial troops to meet the rebels, of which they killed over 200.

The King Edward VII. Coins.

London, Oct. 28.—For the first time in many years the British mint will not issue any new money at Christmas. The first issue of the coinage of King Edward VII. will be as early in 1902 as is possible. Before the date of issue the coinage will be heralded by a royal proclamation describing minutely the character and appearance of each coin, without which formality none could be legally put into circulation. Most of the dies of the Victorian coinage will then be destroyed.

Mr. Whitney at Havelock.

Havelock, Oct. 28.—A political meeting, in the interest of Dr. Ford, Conservative candidate for the East Riding of Peterboro, for the Legislature, was held on Saturday night, in the Town Hall here, which was entirely filled. Mr. Whitney in his speech covered all Provincial political topics.

Manchurian-Siberian Railway.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 28.—According to a despatch to the Novoe Vreyna from Vladivostock, the Russian general, Grodekoff, accompanied by the Russian Assistant Minister of Finance, M. Romanoff, will soon open the Manchurian-Siberian Railway.

Gold Coinage of World.

Washington, Oct. 28.—A table prepared by the Director of the Mint shows that the coinage of gold for the world during the last calendar year was $354,936,497, a decrease from $466,110,614 for the preceding year. The coinage of silver was $177,011,902, an increase over the preceding year of $10,884,938.

TAPS FROM THE WIRES.

Horse thieves are at work in Pickering and Whitby Townships.

Two cases of smallpox are reported in Kingsville, and several houses are said to be quarantined.

Twenty-three persons have been eaten by wolves, says The Neus Wiener Journal of Vienna, while working in the fields near Witebsk, Poland.

The death occurred on Saturday morning of Mr. James Grant, late clerk of the Township of London, and one of the best known citizens of London district, aged 60 years.

W. H. Gillard, head of the firm of Gillard & Co., wholesale grocers, Hamilton, died Friday night from apoplexy. He was in his usual health shortly before 8 o'clock.

On the second anniversary of the opening of the Stony Creek Battlefield Park on Saturday Alex. Muir of Toronto, author of "The Maple Leaf Forever" planted a maple tree.

A maniac ran amuck near Beechwood, a small settlement eight miles west of Iron River, Mich., Saturday, and as a result two persons besides himself are dead, and a fourth is dying.

At Niagara-on-the-Lake a large ice house, located in Paradise Grove, and owned by the Michigan Central Railway Company, was totally destroyed by fire about 8 o'clock Saturday night. Incendiary.

Two-year-old Josephine Marie McCollum choked to death on Saturday afternoon at the residence of her grandfather, Peter Freyseng, Toronto. The child's death followed quickly after that of her mother and father.

Arthur Burger of Toronto, his son Charles, aged 7, and John Figg, were injured in an exciting runaway accident on Sunday. Lord Minto, which Burger was driving, ran away, throwing them out. Burger is suffering from scalp wound and concussion and his son and Figg from painful bruises about the head and face. The horse was killed by striking a telegraph pole.

No Hope of His Recovery.

Toronto, Oct. 28.—Although there was a little improvement noticeable in the condition of Mr. W. E. H. Massey on Saturday and yesterday morning, he became worse again in the afternoon, and no hope whatever is now held out for his recovery. At midnight the family handed out the following bulletin: "The improvement in Mr. Massey's condition, which has been in evidence for the past 36 hours, suffered a very serious check late on Sunday afternoon. His physicians in consultation, offer practically no hope for his recovery, as perforation of the bowels has occurred. He is not expected to survive many hours."

Used Earth's Currents.

London, Oct. 28.—The naval attaches of the United States, German and Austrian Embassies in London yesterday officially inspected the Orling-Armstrong system of wireless telegraphy and telephony, in which earth currents are used. Commander Clover, representing the United States, operated the transmitter. Messages in Morse characters were satisfactorily sent a distance of three-quarters of a mile. A short iron rod was stuck in the ground at the sending and receiving stations, and the instruments connected with these rods. The inventors claim to have operated in a similar manner over a distance of 20 miles.

Czar to Visit Britain.

London, Oct. 28.—It is said in both official and diplomatic circles that the Czar and Czarina have accepted invitations from the King to visit this country next summer or autumn. The visit, which will be paid either to the Solent or to Scotland, will extend over at least a week. Their Imperial Majesties will come direct from Russia, escorted by a flotilla.

New Spur Line for Quebec.

Quebec, Oct. 28.—It is learned from authentic sources that the Great Northern Railway has given the contract for the construction of a branch line of railway from St. Gabriel to Garneau Junction to E. C. Loss, a Chicago contractor. The work will be undertaken as early as possible.

Gen. Buller Gains Sympathy

Said to be the Victim of the Cecil Rhodes-Beit Party.

Halifax Banker Arrested—Murder in Montreal—Mrs. Taylor Threatened With Brain Fever—The Duke's Speeches—Brockville Boy Killed—A Father's Actrocions Deed.

New York, Oct. 28.—It would be impossible to exaggerate the intensity of the feeling aroused by the announcement on last Wednesday of Gen. Buller's dismissal from the command of the First Army Corps and his retirement on half pay. The Sun's London correspondent wires: Unanimous as was the condemnation of his appointment to the command of this corps, and scathing as were the denunciations of his extraordinary speech by practically the entire press, the news of his dismissal has brought to light a great host of his friends, who declare that he is a martyr to an intrigue second only to that of the Dreyfus case.

Sir Redvers Buller most angry but least responsible friends declare that he is the victim of the Cecil Rhodes-Beit party, who have forced the Government to depose a man who has opposed and belittled them in South Africa. Others accuse Earl Roberts, the commander-in-chief, of taking off the head of the most important of the "Wolseley gang." The greatest number, perhaps, think that Secretary of War Brodrick, alarmed at the outcry against the appointment of Gen. Buller, made the speech of the latter an excuse for dismissing him in order to save himself.

Whatever reasons they advance there is no question but that Gen. Buller's friends have made him a great popular hero. Demonstrations have been made in the music halls, in one of which in London even Earl Roberts' picture on the bioscope calls forth a few hisses.

Nothing more clearly indicates the strength of public feeling for Sir Redvers Buller than the fact that in some few papers in the country and in four London papers, the universal idol, has been openly attacked, and his work in South Africa belittled in comparsion with Buller's Natal campaign.

Since his speech at Aldershot, Gen. Buller has come to London, and very wisely kept silent, not showing himself in public.

Botha Rejoins Burger.

Newcastle, Natal, Oct. 27. — Commandant General Botha, with a small escort, has rejoined Schalk-Burger, whose movable Government is established to the westward of Amsterdam, guarded by 100 horsemen. Gen. Botha's forces have separated into small commandoes, which are operating in a rough, bushy country well adapted to Boer tactics. Several British columns are hunting them.

Chasing the Boers.

Matjesfontein, Cape Colony, Oct. 27.—Col. Scobell, after chasing the Boers under Commandant Smuts almost day and night for two weeks, eventually drove them to the north. Gen. Knox's column arrived at Beaufort West on Sunday to refit. It is now moving again. Commandant Scheepers, who was captured recently and taken to the hospital at Beaufort West, is progressing favorably.

Situation Has Improved.

Pretoria, Oct. 27.—Of late a number of young Cape rebels have taken the field in the western province, but most of them are unarmed. They roam about the desolate country in the west and northwest portions of the colony, doing little damage and taking good care to avoid the British columns. The situation in the Cape Colony has greatly improved.

More Boers Shot.

London, Oct. 28.—The South African mail brings news that several Boers who were captured wearing khaki uniforms were court-martialled and shot. It seems also that Commandant Theron crossed the Cape Town lines, west of Louw River Station, Sept. 23.

"Please Do."

Philadelphia, Oct. 28.—The North American's London correspondent says: I am told that General Kitchener, in a recent despatch to the War Office, reports the receipt from Generals Botha and Dewet of information saying that if any further executions of Boers took place they would shoot any of Kitchener's higher officers who were captured. Kitchener, it is reported, replied: "Please do." The War Office has suppressed the despatch.

Dutch Consul to Leave.

Brussels, Oct. 28.—The relations between Holland and Great Britain again appear to be somewhat strained. According to intelligence which is being circulated here, Great Britain asked Holland to recall her consul at Pretoria, because he was suspected of facilitating treasonable correspondence. Holland has given the consul indefinite leave of absence.

Boer Motion in French Chamber.

Paris, Oct. 28.—George Berry, a Nationalist member of the Chamber of Deputies, has informed the Ministry of his intention to introduce a motion in the Chamber, instructing the Government to join with other nations in obliging England to remove the women, children and aged people from the concentration camps in South Africa to healthy, neutral territory.

Threatened With Brain Fever.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Oct. 28.—Mrs. Anna Edson Taylor may not get over the effects of her trip over the Horseshoe Falls as easily as first supposed. Evidences of greater uneasiness began to manifest themselves Saturday night, and yesterday morning she was far from resting as well as on the first day following her trip. Mrs. Taylor has been troubled with dizziness and headache. The doctors have frankly told her that she is threatened with brain fever, and she is not as clear in her statements as to her experience as she was right after the plunge.

Killed While Hunting.

Montreal, Oct. 28.—News was received last night from Lachute, Argenteuil County, that Mr. J. W. Simpson, the former member for that county in the Quebec Legislature, had succumbed to an accidental gunshot wound. From what can be learned Mr. Simpson was out Saturday hunting with some friends, when one of his friend's gun was discharged and Mr. Simpson was wounded in the shoulder. Everything possible was done for him, but he lingered until yesterday afternoon, when he passed away. Mr. Simpson was 51 years old and was very popular.

Fleeing for Their Lives.

Uniontown, Pa., Oct. 28.—The western slope of the Allegheny mountains through Fayette County are ablaze from the Yough River through into West Virginia, and mountaineers are fleeing from their doomed homes with their families. Careless hunters started a dozen fires during the past week, and the brush is as dry as tinder. The destruction has been enormous to crops, fences, barns, stock and dwellings, with many narrow escapes from cremation in homes that were surrounded by the flames.

Drowned at Sarnia.

Sarnia, Oct. 28.—About 1 o'clock Saturday morning a man named John Young was drowned while trying to board the steam barge Advance, which had pulled into the Grand Trunk wharf to allow a passenger to get off the boat. Mr. Young made a jump as if to catch the steam barge, but it was too far away, and he fell into the river between the boat and wharf.

Willie Sutton of Brockville Killed.

Brockville, Oct. 28.—A sad accident occurred here Saturday morning, by which an eight-year-old lad named Willie Sutton lost his life. He was riding on a loaded coal cart, and in some manner fell of the cart, his head striking the hub of the wheel in the descent. He died a few minutes afterwards.

McGinnis Drowned.

Winnipeg, Oct. 28.—The body of John McGinnis, an aged resident of Beaver Mill, who had been missing for over a week, was found near the mouth of the Rainy River. He had been drowned. The dead man was 65 years of age, and was well known in the Rainy River and Rat Portage districts.

Hand Amputated.

London, Oct. 28.—Mr. O. Burrows, a Westminster Township farmer, had his right hand caught in a part of a threshing machine and before it was released it was badly crushed. He was taken to the city hospital and his hand amputated Saturday afternoon.

Crushed by a Train.

Winnipeg, Oct. 28.—William Gammond, a farmer, was badly crushed by a freight train at Fort William Saturday. He wanted to cross the track and was crawling under the train when it started.

A MONTREAL MURDERER.

A Brutal Crime Committed for Only a Few Cents.

Montreal, Oct. 28.—Tobie Hanson, a Dane, 24 years old, is locked up in the Westmount police cells for a brutal murder committed Saturday night. Hanson met a young lad about 12 years old, named Samuel Marrotte, the son of Samuel Marrotte, one of the best known citizens of Montreal, on the street near his father's home at Westmount. He followed the boy into some fields and then deliberately knocked him down and put an end to his life by cutting his throat. Hanson's explanation is that he wanted money, but all he got was a few cents, which the poor little lad had on him. Hanson, after killing the lad, threw his body on a high pile of stones and proceeded on his way. The boy's body was found a few hours afterwards, but nothing was known as to how he came by his death until this morning, when Hanson walked into Montreal police headquarters and gave himself up. He was handed over to Westmount police. Hanson stated he had only been in this country a few months and that he had worked for some months at the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec.

Sailing of the Antarctic.

London, Oct. 28.—Dr. Otto Nordenskjold's ship, the Antarctic, left Falmouth on Saturday for her eighteen months' voyage to the Antarctic Circle. She will call at Buenos Ayres, sailing thence almost due south of Cape Horn in the hope of reaching land on the Atlantic side of the Antarctic by Christmas. This is the first expedition to that particular region, and the results are awaited with interest by British geographers as coming from a practically unknown land. Zoologists especially are anxious to obtain data of the whales, seals, seabirds and possibly other living creatures.

His Hand Torn Off.

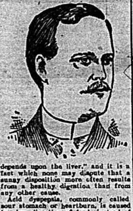
Italian Prince Accused.

Rome, Oct. 28.—Another art scandal affecting a member of the Italian aristocracy is much commented on here. Prince Barberini is summoned to appear on Nov. 26 to be prosecuted under the Pacca law on a charge of selling mediaeval masterpieces outside of the Kingdom of Italy.



A Sour Stomach

IS OFTEN THE REAL CAUSE OF A SOUR TEMPER.

That the condition of the digestive organs has a marked effect upon the character or disposition is a truism as old as the hills. Old Ben Jonson wisely said, "the pleasure of living depends upon the liver," and it is a fact which none may dispute that a sunny disposition more often results from a healthy digestion than from any other cause.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called sour stomach or heartburn, is caused by slow digestion of food; instead of being promptly digested and converted into blood, bone and muscle, it lies in the stomach for hours, fermenting and decaying, creating gases, which cause pressure on the lungs and heart, short breath and general discomfort and irritation.

Such half digested food is indeed poor nourishment for the body, brain and nerves and the result is shown in irritable tempers, unaccountable headaches and that depressing condition usually called the "blues," but how quickly all these disappear when appetite and digestion are restored.

Laxative medicines only irritate the already irritated stomach and bowels and have no effect upon actual digestion of food.

The sensible course to follow is to make use of simple natural digestives like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals until the stomach has a chance to recuperate.

The natural digestives which every healthy stomach contains are peptones, diastase and Hydrochloric and lactic acids and when any of them are lacking the trouble begins. The reason Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are so valuable and successful in curing stomach troubles is because they contain, in a pleasant concentrated tablet form all these absolutely necessary essentials for perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

Henry Kirkpatrick, of Lawrence, Mass., says; "Men and women whose occupation precludes an active out door life should make it a daily practice to use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals. I have done so myself and I know positively that I owe my present health and vigor to their daily use.

"From the time I was 22, when I graduated from school, with broken health from overwork, until I was 34, I scarcely know what it was to be free from stomach weakness. I had no appetite whatever for breakfast and very little for any other meal.

"I had acidity and heartburn nearly every day and sometimes was alarmed by irregularity and palpitation of the heart, but all this gradually disappeared after I began using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I can eat my meals with relish and satisfaction, which I had not known since I was a growing boy."

The success and popularity of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is enormous, but it is deserved, and every druggist in the United States, Canada and Great Britain has a good word for this meritorious preparation.

HALIFAX BANKER ARRESTED

It Is Thought, However, That the Case Will Be Settled.

Had Been Manager of the British North American Branch at Fredericton—Was Dismissed a Few Days Ago—The Present Trouble Is Due to a $6,000 Deposit That Could Not Be Found When Wanted.

Halifax, Oct. 28.—The arrest was made last night of a young banker, A. Harley, who 10 or 12 years ago came to Nova Scotia and entered the service of the Bank of British North America. His advancement in the bank was rapid, and a few years ago he was given the post of manager of the bank's branch at Fredericton.

A few days ago he was dismissed from his position. He went from Fredericton to Boston, and under instructions from the general manager of the bank it is stated that he was under detective surveillance while in that city. He managed, however, to elude his shadows, but on Friday night returned to Halifax, where his wife was. Last night with his wife he boarded the night express for Boston, but was arrested on a warrant two minutes before the departure of the train.

Some time ago a gentleman from Scotland, who was visiting Fredericton, deposited in the Bank of British North America there $6,000, receiving the regular deposit receipt therefore from the manager. The Scottish gentleman went to Montreal and recently presented his cheque to the British North America branch in that city for $6,000, but was told that there were no funds to his credit.

The bank's inspector immediately investigated the matter, with the result that the Fredericton manager was arrested. Subsequently, events were as stated above. It is supposed that Harley intended, after reaching Boston, to sail for England. It is probable that the matter will be quietly arranged to-day, and that no prosecution will result.

King Edward's Health.

London, Oct. 28.—Reynolds' weekly newspaper, an ardent pro-Boer sheet, is the first British paper to assert that King Edward is suffering from cancer of the throat. In yesterday's issue it declares that since His Majesty's accession three operations have been performed for the removal of papilloma of the left vocal chord, and that one was removed from the right vocal chord last week.

"Assistance was hastily summoned," says this journal, "as His Majesty was breathing with difficulty, and an immediate operation was performed. But it was regarded as only a temporary relief, the injured epitholum now having become a cancerous growth and serious developments are expected."

Born Near Brantford.

Rossland, B. C., Oct. 28.—A report is to hand from Spokane, Wash., that Miss Elizabeth Hoggan was found dead in a room at the Pacific Hotel, where she had registered from Rossland. The indications pointed to death from heart-failure. The deceased was about 30 years of age, a native of Newport, near Brantford, Ont., and has a brother at Burton, B. C., and a sister at Montros, Col. She was a trained nurse at the Women's Hospital in Buffalo, N. Y., and had a responsible position there.

In King Alfred's Memory.

New York, Oct. 28.—In a number of New York churches yesterday services were held in commemoration of the millenial of King Alfred. Ceremonies incident to the event will be continued to-day, and it is the intention of those who promoted these ceremonies to establish some fitting, permanent memorial to the famous King in the New York Public Library.

Chili in Fighting Mood.

London, Oct. 28.—"The Chilian Government announced the mobilization of the army for the end of November ostensibly for manoeuvres," says a despatch to The Daily Mail from Buenos Ayres. "The Argentine fleet has been ordered to be provisioned and coaled and the sailors are working day and night. Three thousand manifestants have arrived."

Rockhill Reported at Last.

Washington, Oct. 28.—The final protocol closing the negotiations at Pekin between the Chinese Plenipotentiaries and the representatives of the Powers was submitted by special Commissioner Rockhill to the State Department is a long document, consisting of twelve distinct articles, on Saturday. The information was given to the public months ago.

Helped to Kill Goebel.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 28.—Ex-Secretary of State Caleb Powers was Saturday again convicted of being an accessory before the fact to the murder of Governor William Goebel in January, 1900, and for the second time has been sentenced to imprisonment for life. The case will be appealed.

Where Miss Stone Is.

London, Oct. 28.—"A trustworthy report is in circulation here," says a despatch from Sofia to The Daily Telegraph, "that Miss Stone is in the village of Belitza, close to the frontier."

Russia and China Agree.

London, Oct. 28.—"It is officially announced in St. Petersburg," says a despatch from the Russian capital; "that Russia and China have concluded an agreement as to Manchuria."

Lineman Electrocuted.

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 28.—W. Dockings, a lineman of the British Columbia Electric Railway, while working on the wire from Gold Stream, which brings power to the city, on Saturday night was accidentally electrocuted, and was found the next morning dangling from a pole to which his dead body was attached by his belt. He was a resident of Victoria.

One Man Saved

From a wreck will attract the world's attention to the life-saver. Yet let the life-saving be continued every day, and very soon it attracts no public attention. If the scene of the saving of one life by that life-saving remedy, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, could be made to stand out alone, like a picture on a screen, it would attract the notice of the whole nation. By a curious contradiction the very frequency with which the "Discovery" saves life, robs the fact of general interest. For obstinate coughs, bronchitis, weak lungs, and other diseases of the respiratory organs, "Golden Medical Discovery" is the one medicine which offers certain help, and almost certain cure. It contains neither alcohol nor narcotics.

"Only for Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I think I would be in my grave to-day," writes Mr. Moses Miles, of Hilliard, Uinta Co., Wyoming. "I had asthma so bad I could not sleep and was compelled to give up work. It affected my lungs so that I coughed all the time, both day and night. My friends all thought I had consumption. My wife insisted on my trying 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I have taken four bottles and am now a well man, weighing 185 pounds—thanks to Dr. Pierce."

LUNG TROUBLE RELIEVED

It is nearly always the same story with lung trouble. If the system is not right, slight affections of the bronchial tubes lead to graver and more serious ailments. Now if the system is healthy the disease will be thrown off quickly—if not consumption is the probable end. Make the system healthy with Powley's Liquified Ozone, and you'll prevent any serious complications.

We want you to read Mr. Bery's statement:

The Ozone Co., Ltd.

Gentlemen: I have much pleasure in testifying to the amount of good that Powley's Liquified Ozone has done me. I was very ill all winter with pleurisy of the left lung, and it left me with a most distressing cough. I heard of Ozone and tried it, with very satisfactory results. I cheerfully recommend it to everybody. I write this testimonial absolutely free from dictation, for I think it my duty to every man, woman and child.

(Signed) C. Bery,
285 St. Hypolite St., Montreal, P. Q.

Oxygen has been made use of before to cure disease, but only in gas form. In Powley's Liquified Ozone we give you oxygen in stable liquid form, pleasant to take and as powerful to cure disease as oxygen can be. Powley's Liquified Ozone is Nature's way of curing the ailments to which the flesh is heir. You can't improve on Nature if you tried a thousand years.

Our Consulting Department is in charge of competent and able physicians who will give you advice if you write them full details of your case. Don't neglect every particular. Your letters are strictly confidential and nothing ever goes outside this office. Address the Consulting Department of the Liquid Ozone Company, 229 Kinzie Street, Chicago, Ill.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

HOW IT IS DONE.

The first object in life with the Canadian people is to "get rich;" the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health), by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well known August Flower will relieve you at once. Regular size, 75 cents. You can get Dr. G.G. Green's reliable remedies at R. Templeton & Co's.

Daily Intelligencer.

STRATTON, THE GLOBE, AND OTONABEE WATER POWER.

The Toronto Globe returns to the defence of the Provincial Secretary, the Hon. Mr. Stratton, and after indulging in the usual amount of condemnation of its opponents, winds up its article thus:

> The facts are—(1) That Mr. Stratton refused to become a shareholder in the company; (2) that a draft prospectus drawn up prior to his refusal is, in a cautiously-worded paragraph, described as the actual prospectus; (3) that the real prospectus has been suppressed; (4) that the impression is sedulously conveyed that Mr. Stratton is a shareholder.

If these are the facts as they really exist, then an unwarrantable use was made of Mr. Stratton's name by his friends for the purpose of giving to others the idea that his influence would be of service to the Company.

Be that as it may, the fact remains that Mr. Stratton's name appeared in what was prepared as a prospectus of the Otonabee Water Power Company, and that that Company was composed entirely of Stratton's relations, employees and those who were connected in business or otherwise with the Stratton family, hence the public were justified in coming to the conclusion that the Provincial Secretary had an interest in the Company, and that his influence had been used with the Dominion Government to secure the right to use the water power at sixty cents per horse power, after having demanded over $4 per horse power from the corporation of the town of Peterboro.

It will be noticed by the readers of the Globe, that it does not refer in any way to the action of the Dominion Government in this particular transaction. It is too monstrous to defend, therefore silence reigns in the Globe editorial room upon the subject.

Its silence is evidence of the iniquity of the transaction. Bad, indeed, must it be when the Globe refrains from rushing to the rescue of the Minister who perpetrated the job.

TIMELY TOPICS.

Did you, or anybody else, ever see nicer fall weather than this? Hardly ever!

• • •

The oldest inhabitant says it reminds him of the year they had the open winter, when there was a picnic at Mississauga on New Year's day, and the icemen had to deliver their frozen goods to customers all through the winter. (This latter may be taken with a grain of salt.) However, we can hardly hope for a winter of that kind again, and the only picnic next New Year's will be that indulged in by the nominees of the Municipal Reform Association.

What a pity the Fifteenth didn't have enough left of that $200 the City gave them to get those cannon mounted at the Park.

Hallowe'en is coming. Have you taken any precautions against the visits of the boys yet? You'd better get a gait on if you want to keep your gate on.

• • •

"I certainly agree with the remarks of your correspondent who writes against 'home work' for school children," said a gentleman this morning. "How would a mechanic like it if he were compelled to take his work home with him and busy himself with it when he felt like resting? If the authorities would 'cut out' the useless subjects in the curriculum and let the children get their schooling in school hours I believe it would be better for all concerned."

• • •

Well, it's altogether likely there will be a change in the manner of administering educational matters in Ontario before long. When Mr. Whitney gets into power he will eliminate the abuses as well as do away with the evil which places the pocket books of parents at the mercy of people who print school books. There will be no more paying fifty cents for a book which it costs six cents to place in the hands of the booksellers.

• • •

Yes, it's time for a change. Honest Liberals will tell you so themselves. The present organization of incapables which misgovern Ontario has been tried and found wanting. For years they have struggled along, living on the reputation made by former leaders, giants in political matters. The robes of the giants ill fit the present pigmies, whose political stock-in-trade is abuse of their opponents, aided by corruption of the deepest dye and shallow, pitiful subterfuge which would deceive nobody.

• • •

Hon. G. W. Ross, petty politician, plagiarist and trickster, sees the handwriting on the wall. Every man who has the interests of the province at heart should now do all in his power to bring about the defeat of the present aggregation of stock jobbers and promoters, who use their positions to further their personal ends. Take off your coat and work for Mr. Whitney, who stands for honest government, cheap school books, a secret ballot and reform. It is time for a change!

• • •

Kingstonians are agitating for cheaper nurses for people of moderate means. And, judging by expressions which one sometimes hears, Kingston is not the only place where much good could be done in that direction. The profession of nursing is a highly creditable one, but should not be entered into solely for the love of gain. If any hard and fast rule is used it should be the golden rule. It is altogether likely that many an estimable man or woman, fallen sick, have been hurried into their grave by seeing Scylla in the shape of a big doctor's bill on one side, and Charybdis in the shape of a big nurse's bill on the other. The laborer is always worthy of his hire, but he shouldn't try to make the bill mount up higher than is necessary.

Many papers are agitating against the observance of Nov. 9, the King's Birthday, as a holiday. Why not change the date of Thanksgiving day so that it will fall on November 9 each year? It's present date, November 28, is too late for Canada, anyhow, and there is no earthly need for copying the fashion of our friends across the line. If either holiday is to be abolished it might well be the one which falls on November 28.

Police Magistrate Flint is coming in for a good deal of "jollying" from various newspapers in Ontario over his decision re the recent alleged violation of the Lord's Day Act, but so far no one accuses him of being wrong in his premises.

LATEST FROM MARS.

Billvil, Oct. 28.

Prominent citizen died of heart failure this morning. Heard that Grits had found a man willing to run in West Hastings.

Interest in municipal affairs at fever heat. Chances for Councell's election by acclamation next January very slim. Twenty-seven candidates now in the field, all sure of being elected.

Scheme on foot to buy new steam roller, to keep the other one company.

People are wondering who will be Mayor next year. Present Mayor urged to run, but says "Not for Pierpont Morgan's millions." Has got enough civic honors to last him a thousand years.

Present aldermen all wondering which of them will be elected next year. Mental strain very heavy on some of them.

Street Railway still earning $10 per day.

The fact that Reynolds' Newspaper says King Edward is suffering from cancer may be taken as pretty good proof that nothing of that character ails His Majesty. The wish was no doubt father to the thought with that malodorous journal.

• • •

If reports be true, Kitchener is a grim joker. Lately, so the story goes, he received letters from Botha and De Wet threatening to shoot British generals who fell into their hands. The Sirdar's reply was to the point, "Please do!"

• • •

ALTOGETHER LIKELY.

(Hamilton Herald, Independent.)

We are of the opinion that those Mabee pamphlets will cost the Liberal party more than the $40 per thousand paid for them.

• • •

WHO IS THE "DISGUSTED CONSERVATIVE!"

Never having heard of this man Mabee who is palming himself off as "A Disgusted Conservative," a friend wrote to a leading Conservative in Toronto, asking who he was. Here is the answer:

"I did not know that such a person as Mabee had an existence even. I know nothing about him, and therefore regret I cannot give you any information."

The Mail and World have let some light in upon the subject, which prove him to be a fit companion for ballot box stuffers.

MABEE TIPS.

Whitney showed himself to be a man of honor when he refused to accept the services of that fellow Mabee to vilify and slander his political opponent. That he left George Washington Ross and his ballot switchers to do.

• • •

Degrading indeed, must Grit politics be, when the leader of a party hires a fellow to lie about his opponents.

• • •

Mail and Empire: According to the Globe, Mr. Whitney is lying low. Meanwhile, Mr. Whitney's opponents are lying hard.

• • •

If Kruger were as clever as the "Old War Horse," he would become a "Disgusted Britisher," and smash the whole Empire with a pamphlet.

With Mabee, of Ohio, added to the list of machine statesmen, Mr. Dryden, of Dakota, will have a confrere who will give him far more sympathy than he deserves from Mr. Stratton.

The Ross Government had the ballot-boxes stuffed with bogus ballots at the last election. Now it is "stuffing" the people with bogus literature by a disgusted "life-long Conservative."

• • •

How considerate it is for "those in authority over us" to import a "disgusted Conservative" all the way from Ohio to help Mr. Stratton stamp out Anarchy in this province. It was not from the Imperial statesmen that the "War Horse" learned the trick; he probably got it from Croker—the "War Horse" of Tammany.

COULD NOT WALK.

Some people become so crippled with rheumatism that they cannot walk for months at a stretch. A number of cases were brought up in this court to-day, keeping the Magistrate busy until a late hour this afternoon.

Tried on Three Charges.

Thos. Harris, Jr., was charged with three offences, namely, assaulting Wm. Welsh and Hugh Davidson and using insulting language towards Jas. Davidson. The charges were rather of a trifling nature when investigated and Harris was fined in all $6.50.

Soliciting Passengers.

Frank Downs, a porter at the Anglo-American, was accused of soliciting passengers, at the G. T. R. station, for Walter Lambert, which is contrary to the By-law. Considerable evidence was taken and the result was that the case was dismissed. Mr. Carnew appeared for the accused.

Assault Case Dismissed.

The assault case, John Pickle vs. Samuel Pope, was before the Court to-day, and was dismissed by the Magistrate. The complainant did not show up in court, and the evidence was all in defendant's favor. Costs against Pickle.

Broke His Leg

Mr. James Rowe, of this city, was yesterday the victim of an accident which will lay him up for some time. He was visiting at Mr. Grass' on William street, when he accidentally fell, and in such a manner as to break his right leg above the ankle. The fracture was reduced by a physician and the unfortunate man is doing as well as could be anticipated.

FORTY SHEEP STOLEN

FROM THE GAY FARM, PROPERTY OF MR. EWEN, OF THIS CITY.

Robert Bunnett, residing in the Front of Thurlow, was on Saturday afternoon on trial before the Magistrate charged with receiving stolen property. It appears that two men, one named Leonard Crawford and the other unknown, drove 40 sheep into Mr. Bunnett's place, the same having come off the Gay farm, being owned by Mr. T. R. Ewen, of this city, under a chattel mortgage.

Bunnett claims that he did not know the sheep were from the Gay place. A few days after they had been left there some 30 mysteriously disappeared during the night and have not yet been found. The other 10 are still at Mr. Bunnett's place.

In connection with this transaction it came out in evidence that one Robert Snook was instrumental in having the sheep taken from the Gay farm, and in consequence of this he was placed under arrest on Saturday evening, charged with fraudulently removing the sheep.

Crawford cannot be found, and it is stated that he has gone to the United States.

The case against Bunnett was not decided and will not be until the charge against Snook has been investigated, which was begun this afternoon.

PERFECT CURE FOR BRONCHITIS. This disease can be treated only by a remedy carried to the affected parts along with the air breathed, for nature intended these organs for the passage of air alone, and sprays, atomisers and internal medicines utterly fail. But Catarrhozone doesn't fail, for it goes wherever the air breathed goes, and its healing antiseptic vapor is sure to reach every affected part. Catarrhozone is inhaled at the mouth and after passing through every air cell of the breathing organs is slowly exhaled through the nostrils. Catarrhozone protects and heals the inflamed surfaces, relieves congestion, allays inflammation, and perfectly cures all bronchial affections. Price $1. Small size 25c. NOT GOOD AT COUNTING.

(Montreal Star.)

The St. Louis Star does not regard the census returns as showing the hopeless decadence of Canada. It remarks: "The fact that Canada, with only one-fifteenth of the population of the United States, has a trade of more than one-sixth of this country is rather an astonishing revelation." It certainly looks as though the census enumerators of Canada had strangely failed to count a large part of our population, or those of the United States had counted some of theirs more than once, or the people of this country are considerably better off than their neighbors. The probability is that a little bit of all three would be found to be the explanation.

TO BREAK UP A COLD.

All you require is a glass of hot water, a little sugar and thirty drops of Polson's Nerviline. Take it real hot, and in the morning you will wake up without a cold. When depressed or tired, try Nerviline; it will tone you up better than stimulants. Nerviline wards off all sickness and keeps people well. Large bottles 25c.

Smiling as a cure for the blues is recommended by a physician who has made nervous diseases a specialty. It is a favorite saying that "if you keep the corners of the mouth turned up you can't feel blue."

It's Loathsome, It's Disgusting.

Instant Relief and Permanent Cure Secured by the use of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder.

Here's strong evidence of the quickness and sureness of that wonderful remedy, Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder: "For years I was a victim of Chronic Catarrh—tried many remedies but no cure was effected until I had procured and used Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. First application gave me instant relief, and in an incredibly short while I was absolutely cured."—James Hendley, Dundee, N.Y. 41

NOTED MUSICIANS.

Waldteufel, the greatest waltz composer of the present day, Dudley Buck and other noted musicians have written some fine selections especially for the Peerless Schubert Lady Quartette, of Chicago. You will enjoy every minute of their entertainment to-night at the opera house, because it is bright and entertaining from beginning to end.

"THE AMERICAN GIRL."

A beautiful play will be presented at the opera house, Friday, Nov. 1. It is entitled "The American Girl," and was written by H. Grattan Donnelly, author of "Natural Gas," "Ship Ahoy," "Darkest Russia," etc. "The American Girl" is a comedy-drama of the highest type, and appeals to all classes alike. One critic, speaking of the play said: "After a man sees 'The American Girl' he believes that there are no women on earth so plucky and noble as the women on this side of the ocean; after a woman sees this play she must feel more compassion for her sex than she ever did before."

GRACE, STYLE AND FINISH.

You will find that in Grace, Style and Finish, Quick & Robertson's will compare with the productions of the best class of merchant tailors at prices a third to a half less. Each garment is designed with a view to its shape. It will stay in shape on the wearer. No undue drag on the various parts of the garment, each pocket is stayed, collars are properly cut, sleeves and shoulders have the right "set." Design without good cloths is wasted. Every garment is properly and honestly lined with good linings. No shoddy cloths are used.

YESTERDAY IN THE CHURCHES

Notes of Services in Belleville's Different Places of Worship Yesterday.

John Street.

At this place of worship yesterday the Pastor, Rev. T. J. Thompson, was the preacher of the day and both of his discourses were attentively listened to by good congregations. In the evening his remarks were based upon the 15th chapter of Exodus, referring to the two camping places of the children of Israel on their journey to the promised land. The first camping place they came to was called "Marah," owing to the bitterness of the water, the second place was called "Elim," the waters being sweet.

During the service the choir rendered an appropriate anthem and Mrs. Grant sang a solo entitled "Keep me from the Stain of Sin."

Bridge Street.

The congregation at Bridge Street Church last evening was the largest which has assembled in that edifice for some time. The singing by Miss Wheler and the choir was much appreciated, whilst the Pastor, Rev. Dr. Crothers, preached an able and inspiring sermon on "Repentance." The text was taken from Acts, 17th chapter, 30th verse;

"And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men everywhere to repent."

Emmanuel Reformed Episcopal.

Good congregations were present at both services in the above church yesterday. The Rector, Rev. W. J. Gilliland, preached, and in the evening took his text from the 17th verse of the 55th Psalm:

"Evening and morning, and at noon, will I pray and cry aloud, and he shall hear my voice."

The sermon was an admirable dissertation on the different forms of prayer. Only by approaching the Almighty in the proper spirit, admitting his omnipotence and at the same time trying to live up to His commands, could anybody hope to have their prayers answered. Next Sunday morning the Rector will preach on "Personal Identity in Heaven."

Tabernacle.

At the morning service the Pastor, Rev. J. H. Locke, officiated and preached. In the evening the Rev. E. A. Tonkin occupied the pulpit and gave a fine discourse. His text was the 28th verse of the 21st chapter of Matthew:

"But what think ye? A certain man had two sons and he came to the first and said 'Son, go to work to-day in my vineyard.'"

A solo was rendered most acceptably by Mr. Ridley.

St. John's.

The Rector, Rev. Rural Dean Boggert, conducted the services and preached both morning and evening. Good congregations were present. In the evening the text was taken from the epistle of Jude, 1st chapter, 3rd verse;

"Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints."

Bleecker Street.

Yesterday was a day for young people, and all the services were well attended. Rev. M. J. Bates took his text at the morning service from Prov. 23, 26 verse "My son, give me thine heart." In the afternoon over 60 of the young people and children signed a temperance pledge in a service of much interest. At night the pastor took his text from St. Mark 13 and 37; "Watch," emphasizing the signs and sins of the times from which the young should seek separation to develop a full and true character.

Christ Church.

In the absence of the Curate yesterday, the Rev. M. Fleming, of Shannonville, conducted the services and preached two excellent sermons to good congregations. In the evening his text was from St. Luke, 7th chapter 22nd verse;

"Then Jesus answering said unto them, 'Go your way and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached.'"

St. Andrew's.

Large congregations were in attendance at both services yesterday. The Pastor, Rev. M. W. Maclean, preached, and his discourses were of a high order. In the morning the text was the 24th verse of the 5th chapter of Galatians;

"And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts."

Holloway Street.

There were good congregations present at the services held in this church yesterday, which were conducted by the Pastor, Rev. J. R. Real. In the evening the Rev. gentleman gave a forcible discourse on the following scripture text;

"What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?"

The singing by the choir and male quartette was appropriate to the service.

St. Thomas'.

At the morning service the Rector, Rev. Canon Burke, preached an excellent sermon. In the evening the Curate, Rev. Mr. Hoish, occupied the pulpit and gave one of his usual fine discourses.

Baptist Church.

The services at this place of worship were yesterday attended by good congregations. Rev. O. C. Elliott, pastor, was the preacher of the day and his discourses were both pleasing and profitable. In the evening the text was taken from Amos, 4th chapter, 12th verse;

"Therefore thus will I do unto thee O Israel, and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel."

HUNTING COATS.

If you intend going out North this Fall, you want to secure one of Oak Hall's grand hunting coats. We have different styles and different prices but all made for the bush. These coats can be used as well for ordinary wear, so they do not have to be put aside after the hunting season is over.

A SERIOUS CHARGE

JOHN HASLIP, OF TWEED, UP BEFORE JUDGE LAZIER.

John Haslip, a young man hailing from the village of Tweed, was this morning placed on trial before Judge Lazier, charged that he did seduce one Mary A. Thompson, of Tweed, a girl under the age of 16 years. Some evidence was taken in the case which was of a damaging nature, and an adjournment was made until Monday next to obtain further witnesses. Mr. Anderson for Crown and Mr. C. W. Craig for the accused.

MR. SMITH WAS DISCHARGED

HIS EXPLANATION CONCERNING THE GAY CATTLE SATISFACTORY TO THE MAGISTRATE.

The charge of receiving stolen cattle, preferred against Frank Smith, of Sidney, was disposed of on Saturday afternoon by the Magistrate, resulting in the accused being discharged. Smith, in his evidence, testified that some three weeks ago two men—one rather young and the other middle aged, called him out of bed about 3 o'clock in the morning and asked him to allow them to leave nine head of cattle there for a few days. He made no enquiries of who they were or to whom the cattle belonged. They were milch cows, and after being there some days they were missed, being taken away during the night. Subsequently three returned and were still at his place. Mrs. Smith corroborated her husband's statement. From the description of the cattle they were, no doubt, the same that were taken from off the Gay farm in Thurlow, and were included in a bill of sale which Mr. J. M. Parrott had against them.

Mr. Anderson appeared for the Crown; Messrs. Porter and Carnew for Parrott, and Mr. Roberts for the accused.

KINGSTON ROAD CHURCH

Will hold its annual Tea-meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 30th. Tea served at 8 o'clock. Admission 25c. 1t

Stolen From Worshippers

A telephone message was received by the police here yesterday afternoon stating that during the service in the R.C. Church at Grafton, Sunday morning, two men visited the shed in rear of the church and stole two dark overcoats and a whip from rigs. The culprits were traced as far east as Trenton, where they were lost sight of. From the description of the men and the rig they drove, they evidently did not visit this city.

The Break Repaired

The repairs to the gas main which was broken on Pinnacle street was made to-day. The break was a large one, necessitating the placing in of a new length of pipe.

WHITNEY WHACKS THE GRIT LEADERS

Addressed a Splendid Meeting at Havelock on Saturday Night Last.

Talks on the Issues of the Day and Dresses Down Ross and Mabee.

Havelock, Ont., Oct. 27.—Mr. J. P. Whitney addressed a splendid meeting here last night in the interests of Dr. Ford, the Conservative candidate in East Peterboro.

Electors were present from the surrounding townships, and from several points in the contiguous riding of North Hastings.

Last night's meeting was held in the Town Hall, which was crowded, the gallery being filled entirely by ladies. The interior had been lavishly decorated in honor of the Conservative leader. Over the platform was a large banner with the prophetic inscription, "Whitney and Victory." Mr. Whitney's reception was an inspiring one, and he rewarded it with a capital speech, in which he dealt trenchantly with some of the latest phases of the political situation. He was ably seconded by Mr. J. W. St. John and by Dr. Ford.

The chair was occupied by Mr. F. Birdsall, president of the Liberal-Conservative Association of East Peterboro. Others on the platform were:—J. A. Sexsmith, Reeve of Belmont Township; J. Andrews, Reeve of Asphodel; W. A. Hungerford, manager Atlas Arsenic Co., Deloro; Dr. H. M. Jones, Marmora, and Dr. Ford, the candidate.

After speeches by the chairman, the candidate, Dr. Ford, and Mr. J. W. St. John, Mr. Whitney was introduced, being greeted by rousing cheers. He defended the party system as absolutely necessary under British Constitutional Government. The fault had been, not too much party, but too much partyism. Replying to the old cry that he had no policy, he pointed out that year after year the Opposition had made suggestions which the Government had appropriated and worked into bills of their own. It was true the Opposition had never got so far in its progressive policy as to employ the Pritchetts and others of the same stripe to go about the country, to open the ballot-boxes, to steal the ballots, and then carry them to the Parliament Buildings and place them in the custody of the Government, where they were afterwards burned and destroyed by the servants of the Government. (Hear, Hear.) That was the sort of progressive policy which the Opposition would not allow to go without punishment when the time came.

After touching on the maladroitness of Hon. Mr. Stratton, the different pulp wood steals and the necessity for a better mining policy, Mr. Whitney made some trenchant remarks on

The School Book Ring.

Mr. Whitney explained the methods by which it excluded Mr. George N. Morang from the publication of school books. He charged that the ring telegraphed to the English publishers, whereby the latter refused Mr. Morang the use of copyrighted selections used in the school books of Ontario. "I venture to tell you," said Mr. Whitney, "that when all the iniquity which centres around and radiates from the school-book ring of this province is exposed, as it will be, there is not a man in the province who will not have his credulity taxed when he finds what has taken place in regard to the school books, which you people have to pay for, and pay for so dearly, for the instruction of your children."

The Election Frauds.

Mr. Whitney also dealt incisively with the election frauds. The West Elgin commission, he declared, had been appointed to strangle enquiry. In North Waterloo it was a mock trial.

Hot Shot for Stratton.

Mr. Whitney called attention to Mr. Stratton's extraordinary statement at Newington, that the expenditure of the province was $81,000 greater in 1874 than in 1900. In 1874 $1,300,000 of Sandfield Macdonald's cash surplus was distributed among the municipalities, and in addition, $164,000 of clergy reserve money was paid out. Mr. Stratton's statement was a straight attempt to mislead the people, and was unworthy of any public man.

The Mabee Pamphlet.

Mr. Whitney went on to say that the audience had doubtless heard of a pamphlet said to have been written by a Mr. Mabee, though it did not always follow that the name on a book was the name of the writer. He had little to say with regard to that pamphlet, as he could not discuss every nauseous thing uttered against himself.

"I have only this to say," he added; "that a number of months ago this man attempted to induce me to allow him to issue a pamphlet as Conservative literature, something on the lines of the one he has issued now against us. And what will you think when I tell you that in the book which he himself brought to me and asked my permission to use as the basis of ours was an attack on the late President McKinley?"

A Violation of Honor.

"This is the doctrine, this is the style which the Hon. George W. Ross, Premier of the Province of Ontario, is not ashamed or afraid to adopt today in order to defeat me. Is it not a strange thing that I refused to have anything to do with this, and at last was threatened that it would be issued as Conservative campaign literature against my will, and then lo and behold, the Hon. G. W. Ross takes this man to his arms and he instructs him to issue a pamphlet with all sorts of vilification against the humble individual who now addresses you, the very same thing which I told this man he should not issue against George W. Ross!" (Hear, bear.)

I was never so sure of anything since I arrived at years of discretion than that Mr. G. W. Ross will be some day the sorriest man in the Province of Ontario that he took this man to his heart, and issued this book as Grit campaign literature." (Applause.)

The leader was tendered another ovation upon finishing, and the meeting dispersed with cheers for the King and Mr. Whitney, and the singing of "God Save the King."

A Word about Our Furs.

Furs are not like cloth. They are not made by the yard. They are a matter of expert selection. That is the reason we can not only recommend but guarantee our Furs. They are selected and matched by the most reliable expert furriers, who have thousands of skins at their disposal to choose from in making a garment. Take a Persian Lamb Coat, for example. You have, perhaps, seen them where there seemed to be four or five different classes of curl in the same garment. We would like you to examine our Coats and see how beautifully they are matched. The furriers who made these coats employ the most skilled workmen, and every item of lining and trimming that enters into their make up is of the best. Then there is a smartness of style and fit about them that can only be found in the highest grade work. You run no risk in buying from us, as we guarantee every garment—Caperines, Muffs, Fur Lined Capes, Gauntlets, Boas, Men's Coon Coats, Ladies' Astrachan and Bokhara Coats, Electric and French Seal Coats, Men's and Boys' Fur Caps.

THEY DROVE PIMPLES AWAY.—A face covered with pimples is unsightly. It tells of internal irregularities which should long since have been corrected. The liver and the kidneys are not performing their functions in the healthy way they should, and these pimples are to let you know that the blood protests. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will drive them all away, and will leave the skin clear and clean. Try them, and there will be another witness to their excellence.

AT DEATH'S DOOR.—DYSPEPSIA CONQUERED.—A GREAT MEDICAL TRIUMPH.—Gentlemen,—My medical adviser and others told me I could not possibly live when I commenced to use Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery for Dyspepsia. My case was one of the worst of its kind. For three years I could not eat meat and my weight decreased from 219 to 118 lbs. All the food I took for thirteen months previous to taking the Vegetable Discovery consisted of milk. I am now entirely cured and have regained my usual weight, can eat anything with a keen relish and feel like a new man. I have sold over thirty dozen Vegetable Discovery since it cured me, as I am well-known and people in this section know how low I was, and thought I could not possibly be cured. They are eager to try this grand medicine. It certainly saved my life as I never expected to recover when first I commenced using it. I am not exaggerating anything, but feel glad to be able to contribute this testimonial and trust it may be the means of convincing others of its merit as a certain cure for Dyspepsia.

If you have a cough or cold do not neglect it; many without a trace of that hereditary disease have drifted into a consumptive's grave by neglecting what was only a slight cold. Had they used Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup before it was too late, their lives would have been saved. Mr. A. W. Levy, Mitchell, writes: "I think Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup the best preparation on the market for coughs and severe colds. About six years ago I caught a severe cold which settled on my lungs, and for three months I had a cough. I had a physician attending me, but I gradually grew worse until I was on the verge of Consumption, and had given up hopes of being cured, when I was induced to try Bickle's Syrup. Before I had taken one bottle I found myself greatly relieved, and by the time I had finished the second bottle I was completely cured. I always recommend it for severe colds and consumption."

Dogs of War.

The "dogs of war" have been more than a figure of speech for thousands of years. They were used in Egypt 400 B. C. The Romans, the Teutons and other fighting nations of antiquity depended much on them for sentinel and defense purposes. In the middle ages they are said to have even worn armor. The Spanish discoverers used bloodhounds in tracking the Indians in this country, and dogs were likewise, it is stated, made of service by our armies in the Philippines.

Natural History.

They were admiring the rattlesnake in the state museum and had been informed that it was much in need of live rats.

"Will he swallow a rat whole?" questioned one.

"Naw," growled the custodian. "We have to take 'em out of the holes first."

BLOOD POISON

If you ever contracted any blood disease you are never safe unless the virus or poison has been eradicated from the system. At times you see alarming symptoms, but live in hopes no serious results will follow. Have you any of the following symptoms? Sore Throat, Ulcers on the Tongue or in the Mouth, Hair Falling Out, Aching Pains, Itchiness of the Skin, Sores or Blotches on the Body, Eyes Red and Smart, Dyspeptic Stomach, Sexual Weakness—indications of the second stage. Don't trust to luck. Don't ruin your system with the old fogy treatment—mercury and potash—which only suppresses the symptoms for a time, only to break out again, when happy in domestic life. Don't let quacks experiment on you. Our New Method Treatment is guaranteed to cure you. Our guarantees are backed by bank bonds, that the disease will never return. Thousands of patients have been already cured by our New Method Treatment for over twenty years. No experiment, no risk—not a "patch-up," but a positive cure. The worst cases solicited. We treat and cure Nervous Debility, Sexual Weakness, Gleet, Blood Poison, Stricture, Varicocele, Kidney and Bladder Diseases, and all diseases peculiar to men and women.

ODDITIES OF GENIUS.

Physical Failings That Fell to the Lot of Famous Men.

The face of Oliver Cromwell was disfigured with moles, pimples and warts. He must have been very proud of them, however, for when his portrait was being painted by Sir Peter Lely he swore he would not pay for it unless these facial disfigurements were quite clearly shown.

Hogarth, the famous painter, had a prominent scar on his forehead, which was the result of an accident in his early days. He made this appear still more prominent in a portrait of himself which he painted with his own hand.

The great Napoleon was subject to epileptic seizures, one of which it has been said lost him the battle of Waterloo.

Lord Byron, who was otherwise a magnificent specimen of a man, had a clubfoot of which he was anything but proud. If, however, it detracted from his appearance and hindered locomotion, it did not hamper his genius. Byron was possessed of a morbid fear of going out of his mind.

Indeed, all poets are said to be more or less mad. Cowper was certainly subject to fits of lunacy, as was likewise Chatterton, who killed himself in a fit of derangement. The same is true of Rousseau, Cervantes, Southey and Swift.

Alexander Pope was a hunchback, with a very caustic tongue, which once resulted in his being as good as told that he was "a crooked little thing that asks impudent questions."

Throughout his life Sir Walter Scott could only walk with a limp. As a boy he was afflicted with paralysis, which left him permanently lame.

The late James Payn, the novelist, was extremely deaf, in which respect he resembled Edison, the world renowned electrician and inventor.

Milton was totally blind when he produced the masterpiece of his marvelous genius. From his youth up he suffered acutely from gout, which was the primary cause of the loss of his eyesight.

As anybody could gather from his works, Thomas Carlyle was a chronic dyspeptic. A state of irritation appears to have been his normal condition, and, although in the absence of his peculiar ailment he might have been a far more amiable being, his writings would certainly have lost some of their most prominent characteristics.

Like Demosthenes, Charles Kingsley was afflicted with stuttering, but he did not cure himself of the failing as did the famous Athenian orator by practicing speaking with pebbles in his mouth.

Perhaps the most famous of European surgeons was also the most nervous. This was Billroth of Vienna, whose hands were subject to violent trembling. But he operated with such celerity that his hand had no opportunity of trembling.

The Cow Which Pays Best.

During the five years of careful investigation in regard to the cost of production of butter between cows spare and angular in form and cows carrying considerable superfluous tissue, our records show that in every instance the cow that carried the least flesh charged the least for butter, and just in so much as one cow was a little smoother and plumper than the other would her butter product cost more than the other. It should be borne in mind that the results are from accumulated testimony, showing not only that every day, every week, every month, but during her entire lifetime, the spare cow is better. That she should be so much better is almost incredible, strong and uniform as the evidence is.—Prof. Haecker, in Farmers' Review.

He Could Stand It.

Girl—Are you a lover of music, professor?

Professor—Yes, I am; but it does not make any difference. Just go on and play away.

Safer and as Sure.

Joe—If you have anything mean to say about a man, say it to his face.

Billy—Oh, it will get around to him almost as quick.

Who never laughs a bit.
To laugh at nothing's better than
To worry over it.

THE BATTLES OF LIFE

DEMAND NERVE FORCE, ENERGY, VITALITY—THE WEAKLINGS GO TO THE WALL — DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD A TRUE FOUNTAIN OF HEALTH.

What use has the world for men and women who have not courage enough to face the battles of life? Every day men are failing and women are growing discouraged and despondent because they lack the nerve force which is absolutely necessary to health and strength, and which supplies energy and ambition to body and mind. It is not too much to attribute nine-tenths of the sufferings of humanity to waning nerve power, the vital principle of life itself.

Is it any wonder that the heart's action grows weak and irregular, the digestion poor, the liver and kidneys sluggish and inactive, when the vital force stored up in the nerves is consumed or wasted by disease, worry or over-exertion of the mental and physical powers? We are living too far from nature's rules, burning the candle at both ends and wasting nerve force without thought of how it is to be replenished. The effects are carelessly overlooked until prostration, nervous collapse or insanity overcomes us and renders restoration next to impossible.

In his immense practice in the United States, the very home of nervous diseases, Dr. A. W. Chase studied the cause of these ailments, which are slowly sapping millions of young men and women of the vital spark of life and energy. The result of his tireless investigation and experiment was the giving to the world of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, the most marvellous nerve restorative that man has ever known.

There is no use of talking about old methods of treatment being as good as this new system of Dr. Chase's. Facts prove beyond a shadow of a doubt the surprising upbuilding effect of this great food cure. By making note of your weight from time to time, while taking it, you can observe the gradual upbuilding influence of this treatment. The color returns to the cheek, the energy and ambition to body and mind, you have new hope, new confidence and a new determination to succeed in life's battles. The Pill That Will
Is the Pill You Want.

Pills are necessary but not nice. Cathartics are not confections. The fewer pills that you take the better. It's aggravating to take pills that don't and pills that won't. It's soothing to know that when you take a pill it's the pill that will do the work for which it's taken.

Ayer's Pills

have gained a reputation for their sure results. The pill that will is Ayer's. For all liver troubles, diseases of the stomach and bowels, sick headache, biliousness and heartburn, Dr. Ayer's Pills have proven a specific, and they

Will Cure You

as they have cured thousands of others whose testimony is a matter of record. Ayer's Cure Book is sent free by Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass. Send for it if you want to know more of the power of these pills than is proven in the following testimonials.

"I suffered nearly all my life with bowel complaints, enduring much pain, and I tried almost all the cathartic remedies advertised in the newspapers, without obtaining permanent relief until I used Ayer's Cathartic Pills. The result obtained from the use of these pills was wonderful. They not only gave immediate relief but effected a permanent cure."
R. C. STODDARD, Delhi, Ont.

"I was ill for some time with liver trouble. My back ached and my skin turned as yellow as saffron; I became unable to do any work, and at last was confined to my bed too weak to move without assistance. I commenced the use of Ayer's Pills and less than half a box cured me. I owe my present good health to their use, and I am never without them."
WM. OAKLEY, Lobelville, Tenn.

"I have used Ayer's Pills with excellent results for constipation. I find that they do not gripe nor purge, but do give relief." CHARLES R. WHITE, Pittsgrove, N. J.

"I have used Ayer's Pills since 1845, and consider them superior to all other pills on the market. I always keep them in the house in case of emergency, and at one time they cured my wife of dyspepsia. I have found them good for all diseases caused by the Southern climate."
A. L. JONES, Elizabeth City, N. C.

LIGHTNING CALCULATORS.

Wonderful Ability of the Negro Children in the West Indies.

"One of the oddest things I came across in my wanderings," said a traveler recently returned from the West Indies, "was the extraordinary aptitude of negro children for mental arithmetic. I visited a good many of the public schools and saw some astonishing exhibitions of this faculty, which is probably the last with which one would credit the grandchildren of African savages, as many of the West Indian negro children are. The currency of the islands is of course British, so that calculations of any sort are more complicated than with us. Yet an inspector or visitor can ask a school full of ragged urchins what would be the cost of seven gross of handkerchiefs at 5 pence 3 farthings apiece and receive the answer almost as soon as the words are out of his mouth, and doubtless long before he had himself worked it out. This can be kept up all day to the great enjoyment of the children, who regard that sort of thing as sport.

"The same children, when confronted with a reader, may make sad work of it and seem certainly little above the average. Even when made to do sums on a slate they are not brighter than most white children. Perhaps that statement should be qualified, for there is no doubt that the children of pure blooded Africans develop phenomenally for the first five or six years of their lives and, indeed, until twelve or thirteen years old are fully the equals, intellectually, of white children. I have never seen white babies as intelligent as some of these negro infants at the same age. But when past twelve their minds seem full grown, and it is not easy to teach them, except in cases here and there. All these observations, however, apply to children of negroes whose parents or grandparents were brought from Africa when full grown.

"There are many West Indian negroes who do not speak English, and there are large societies named according to the part of Africa from which the members or their parents came. A Nangobar, for instance, would not think of joining a Kongo society. So they all stand much nearer to Africa than do our negroes, which makes the observation of their characteristics very interesting. Unfortunately, they do not seem to retain to any marked degree this faculty for rapid calculation when they reach manhood. And even if they did they would be so backward in other respects that their value as clerks would be slight."

SPONGES AND SPONGERS.

The sponge industry of the United States is carried on in the waters surrounding the Florida keys.

The fishing grounds extend along the south and west coasts of the peninsula and have a total area of from 2,000 to 3,000 square miles.

Key West is the center of the industry and New York city is the receiving and distributing point for the product.

Two hundred small boats and several schooners, managed by about 800 spongers, are regularly engaged in the fishing.

The annual crop of sponges is between 5,000 and 6,000 bales, and would be many times greater but for the ignorance and impatience of fishermen in not allowing time for the "baby sponges" to mature.

Repeated attempts at planting and cultivating the sponges artificially have proved unsuccessful.

The estimated value of Florida's annual crop of sponges is about $550,000.

The quality of the Florida sponge ranks next to that of the West India, the Mediterranean and the Red sea.

The real Turkish sponges are found only in the beds of the Mediterranean, and sell readily for as high a price as $50 and even $70 a pound.

Next in quality to the Turkish sponge is our own Florida sheep's wool sponge, so named because of its softness and fineness of texture, which sells at from $1 to $3 a pound.

The average weight of a sponge when placed on the market is from one ounce to one pound. Only the small sizes are found in American waters.

It requires from three to seven years for a sponge to mature and reach marketable size.

The Monument Dwindled.

The widow of a French deputy came the day after the funeral to consult a great sculptor on the subject of a monument for her husband's tomb. The sculptor suggested a portrait bust. "Only a bust," she cried indignantly. "I wish at least a statue with allegorical figures."

A week later, when the sculptor had the model of the group well in hand, came a note saying that she had decided that the bust, after all, would be in better taste. For some weeks the artist worked on the bust. At length the young widow arrived on the arm of an attache of legation. She opened her lorgnette and inspected the bust. "It is very like him," she said finally, "but a bust is so commonplace; a bronze medallion would be in far better taste."

The monument actually bears a medallion in bronze, under the niche intended for the full length statue of the deputy.

A Wave of Water.

There is no necessary connection between the advance of a wave and the forward movement of the water composing it, as may be seen by running the fingers along the keys of a piano. An inverted wave travels along, but the keys merely move up and down. Similarly, a wave may often be observed running along the ripe ears of golden grain while the stalks are firmly rooted in the soil. The onward progress of a sea wave is easily perceptible, and by watching some light substance floating on the surface the fact is revealed that the water is not moving with the same velocity.—Chambers' Journal.

A Legal Query.

Tired of the long winded oratory of the attorney for the defense, the judge interrupted him.

"Mr. Sharke," he said, "may I ask you a question?"

"Certainly, your honor. What is it?"

"Language," said the judge, "we are told, is given to conceal thought or words to that effect. Inasmuch as you don't seem to have any thought to conceal, I would like to know why you are talking?"

It is funny that though pretty nearly everybody is at the bottom of the ladder of success that is where the greatest room is for more.

Scrofula

This root of many evils—

Glandular tumors, abscesses, pimples and other cutaneous eruptions, sore ears, inflamed eyelids, rickets, dyspepsia, catarrh, readiness to catch cold and inability to get rid of it easily, paleness, nervousness and other ailments including the consumptive tendency—

Can be completely and permanently removed, no matter how young or old the sufferer.

Hood's Sarsaparilla was given the daughter of Silas Vernooy, Wawarsing, N. Y., who had broken out with scrofula sores all over her face and head. The first bottle helped her and when she had taken six the sores were all healed and her face was smooth. He writes that she has never shown any sign of the scrofula returning.

Noted Oarsman Dead.

Halifax, Oct. 29.—A telegram from St. Louis has announced to relatives here the death at Fern Ridge, Mo., of John McKay, the oarsman, who for three years, with Jake Gaudaur, was double-scull champion of the world. McKay was born in Dartmouth, N. S., but resided in Boston many years, where he won many races and was an instructor in rowing. He was about 40 years old.

Verdict of Wilful Murder.

Montreal, Oct. 29.—The coroner's jury returned a verdict of wilful murder against Hansen, the Westmount murderer of the boy Marrotte.

King Alfred Launched.

London, Oct. 29.—The King Alfred, the largest cruiser in the world, was successfully launched at Barrow-in-Furness yesterday morning. The King Alfred cost £1,011,759. She will have a speed of 23 knots.

WAR CLAIMS SETTLED.

American Commissioner Is Pleased With England's Generosity.

London, Oct. 29.—At the resumption of the seating of the South African Compensation Commission yesterday, Major-General Sir John C. Ardagh, on behalf of the Government, announced that all claims of foreign countries had been settled diplomatically, with the exception of those of the Netherlands and France, as follows: The United States, £6,000; Austria, £15,000; Germany, £30,000; Russia, £4,000; Italy, £12,000; Spain, £150; Sweden and Norway, £1,000; Switzerland, £250; Belgium, £800; and Denmark, £250.

Newton Crane, who represented the United States before the commission, regards the settlement as most favorable for the American claimants, of whom there are only 15. The average, after the expenses are deducted, will be £333 for the Americans, against £68 for the claimants of other countries.

"The terms are generous," said Mr. Crane, "inasmuch as no court would have compelled Great Britain to pay a penny. The amount is 14 per cent. of the claims, while the award under the treaty of Washington to British subjects who suffered through the civil war was 8 per cent."

MATRIMONIAL AGENCY SEIZED.

Toronto Junction Was the Scene of This Cupid-Assisting Venture.

Toronto Junction, Oct. 29.—Yesterday morning a raid was made by Provincial Detective Greer, Postoffice Inspector Henderson and Chief of Police Royce of the Toronto Junction force upon a matrimonial agency, conducted in the Kilburn Block by a man named B. Kohan. The business was formerly conducted at 829 West King street and at Alliston, but was removed to the Junction about a month ago, where he rented a typewriter and brought with him two clerks. Kohan received some forty letters every day, and Chief Royce, suspecting that swindling operations were being carried on, reported the circumstances to County Crown Attorney Dewart, and yesterday morning's raid resulted.

The letters and literature used by the agency were seized. The postmarks are mostly those of American towns and cities, but two letters received yesterday morning are from the Hamilton district. To people desiring information, letters containing very tempting offers are sent, and a fee of $2 charged. An agency of the same kind at Syracuse, conducted by Kohan, was closed by the United States postal authorities.

Killed by a Train.

St. Thomas, Ont., Oct. 29.—Jonas Cline, a prosperous farmer living two miles west of Kingsville, was killed yesterday evening, while walking on the Michigan Central Railway track. The track is double at this point, and, stepping from one track to pass a freight, he was struck by a train coming in the opposite direction.

Killed Near Oakville.

Oakville, Oct. 29.—An Italian railway employe, named P. Nigunera, working on the Grand Trunk track, was killed two miles east of here yesterday afternoon, about 4 o'clock. He had stepped out of the way of a westbound freight and immediately in front of the fast eastbound express, and was instantly killed.

Thrown Before an Engine.

Moncton, Oct. 29.—Samuel Landry, while driving down a hill to the railway station at Memramcook yesterday afternoon was killed by the C. P. R. express from Halifax. His horse ran away, and upset the wagon, and threw Landry in front of the engine.

Explosion Injures Three.

Leavenworth, Kansas, Oct. 29.—By an explosion of a Colt's automatic firing gun at Fort Leavenworth yesterday, Capt. Chas. T. Menoher and five men of the 28th Battery of Field Artillery were wounded, three severely.

The Rice Case.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—The Court of Common Pleas and King's Bench was opened yesterday. His Lordship, Chief Justice Falconbridge's charge to the grand jury was brief. He explained his regret that the crimes on the calendar comprised the highest degree of gravity and magnitude—crimes for which in case of conviction the death penalty could be imposed. Murder was defined and explained clearly to the jury. The case of Fred Lee Rice and the incidents leading up to the murder of County Constable William Boyd were reviewed briefly. After advising the jurors that it was not their duty to try but to determine whether there is sufficient evidence to place a man on his trial, and suggesting that their visits be confined to the jail, His Lordship adjourned the court till 10 o'clock this morning. The Rice case was considered by the grand jury after adjournment.

Death of Walter Suckling.

Winnipeg, Oct. 29.—Walter Suckling, the well known real estate agent and manager, died Sunday night at St. Louis, Mo. Mr. Suckling was prostrated with fever about six months ago and while he was recovering he was stricken severely with paralysis. An operation was made last Saturday to remove a clot of blood from the brain, and it was after this that death came. The funeral will take place here.

Mr. Hutton in South Simcoe.

Tottenham, Oct. 29.—The Liberal convention held at Tottenham yesterday to select a candidate to represent the party in the coming election, was very largely attended. There were three candidates nominated, Lincoln Hutton and Dr. Stuart of Bolton, and Neil Drummond of Adjala. After balloting, Mr. Hutton was chosen, the meeting making the selection unanimous.

Carbide Dust Explosion.

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—John McPherson was instantly killed about 3.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by an explosion in the mixing room of the Ottawa Carbide Works, Victoria Island. The present theory is that the explosion was caused by an accumulation of carbide dust. This dust explodes in much the same manner as does dust in flour mills.

Valleyfield Strike Over.

Montreal, Oct. 29.—The strike in the Montreal Cotton Company at Valleyfield is over, and the men will go back to work as soon as the mills re-open.

Smallpox in Quebec.

Quebec, Oct. 29.—There are thirty cases of smallpox in Quebec, and some of them are very serious. The situation has become alarming.

The Schley Inquiry.

Washington, Oct. 29.—The cross-examination of Admiral Schley was begun yesterday. Nothing sensational developed and the only outburst in the court occurred when Mr. Rayner, Admiral Schley's counsel, objected to a line of inquiry of the Judge Advocate, designed to criticize Admiral Schley's alleged failure to formulate a plan of battle, with the declaration that as Admiral Sampson was in command, his junior had no right to plan an order of battle. Admiral Schley concluded his direct examination, which was concluded about ten minutes after the court convened yesterday morning, with a statement of the effect of the fire of the respective fleets at Santiago, showing that 36 per cent. of the hits suffered by the enemy was scored by the Brooklyn's 5-inch guns, while his ship received 70 per cent. of the hits from the Spanish ships.

Not Overelated.

"I suppose," said the effusive lady who was visiting the Meektons, "that your wife is sure that she has the best husband that ever lived."

"Yes," answered Meekton, with something like a sigh. "But at the same time I don't believe she thinks that is saying much for me."

If You Have Asthma

Bronchitis, or a Severe Cold on the Chest and Lungs, Doctors Will Point You to Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine as the Most Effective Treatment.

For every class of disease there is one medicine which stands pre-eminent as being superior to all others. In the case of Asthma, Bronchitis and all throat and lung ailments the recognized treatment is Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Doctors do not hesitate to say that when the patient becomes flushed and exasperated in his struggle for breath, wheezes loudly and experiences intense agony in his chest and lungs there is no preparation available that will give such prompt and thorough relief as

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine.

Mrs. G. H. Reid, North Augusta, Ont., says:—"Being troubled with bronchitis and asthma for a long time, have tried several remedies, but all failed to touch the spot, until I tried Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. I got relief from the first bottle. I can highly recommend it to all humanity suffering from throat or lung troubles. And you are at liberty to use this testimony as you see fit."

Mrs. George Budden, Putnamville, Ont., says:—"I feel it my duty to recommend Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, as I had the Asthma very bad; could get nothing to do me any good. A friend of mine persuaded me to try this remedy, as he had tried it, and it proved successful. I tried it and it cured me. I am thankful to-day to say I am a well woman through the use of this remedy. I keep it in the house all the time and would not be without it."

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is so well known in the homes of Canada that it seems unnecessary to add further comment, but a word of warning may be needed. There are other preparations of linseed and turpentine, imitations of Dr. Chase's. Be sure the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase are on the bottle you buy. Twenty-five cents a bottle; family size, three times as much, 60c. All dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Death Claims Mr. Massey

Well-Known Citizen of Toronto Succumbs After Long Illness.

Canada For Canadians—Movement to That End Among Railwaymen—Matrimonial Agency Seized—The Rice Case—War Claims Settled—Race War Near New Orleans.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—Walter E. H. Massey died at his summer residence at Dentonia Farm yesterday afternoon. Mr. Massey, who took a turn for the worse on Sunday, sank rapidly yesterday, his death occurring about 4 o'clock.

The family and all the near relatives, who have been at the bedside for the past few days, were present when the end came. The doctors, early yesterday morning, gave up all hopes of their patient's recovery.

For several days Mr. Massey has been hovering between life and death, but as late as Saturday the physicians had hopes of his recovery. A new complication set in Sunday, and all chances for Mr. Massey living were given up.

Thirty-Seven Years Old.

The late Walter Edward Hart Massey was born on April 4th, 1861, in the village of Newcastle, Ontario, where his father, the late Mr. Hart A. Massey was in business as a manufacturer of agricultural implements.

LATE WALTER E. H. MASSEY.

When Mr. Massey was seven years old his parents removed from Canada to Cleveland, Ohio, where he was educated in the public schools of that city, and also in the Brooks Military Academy, where, in addition to the usual branches of a liberal education, he received a thorough military training.

In 1882 the family removed to Toronto, Mr. H. A. Massey finding it necessary to give the Toronto factory his closer attention. Walter, who had a strong predilection for literature, scientific research and mechanical engineering, entered Boston University in 1883. He was, however, not permitted to remain there very long, as his eldest brother, Mr. Charles A. Massey, the general manager of the company, died in 1884, necessitating his being called home to familiarize himself with the details of the business, in conjunction with his father and elder brother, Mr. C. D. Massey, he becoming at the same time a director and secretary and treasurer of the company.

A Tour of the World.

He made a tour of the world in 1887-8 in company with his younger brother, Frederic Victor, and during his trip he wrote a series of letters descriptive of his travels to the employes of the company, which were afterwards published.

In 1891 came the amalgamation of the Massey Manufacturing Company with A. Harris, Son & Co., Limited, Brantford, and Massey & Co., Limited, Winnipeg, into one organization, which is known to-day as Massey-Harris Co., Limited. Mr. Massey became one of its directors and its assistant general manager. On the death of the president, Mr. Hart A. Massey, in 1896, Mr. W. E. H. Massey was elected president of the company in his stead.

He was president of the Canada Cycle and Motor Company; first vice-president of the Toronto Board of Trade; president of the City Dairy Company, Limited, Toronto, and of the Verity Plow Co., Limited, Brantford; director and secretary-treasurer of the Sawyer & Massey Company, Limited, Hamilton; and director of the following companies: Bain Waggon Company, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.; National Trust Company, Limited, Toronto; The Carter-Crume Company, Limited, Toronto; director of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, and director and vice-president of the Insurance Agency Corporation.

He was extensively engaged in the importation and breeding of high-class Jersey, Guernsey and Ayrshire cattle, which he kept on "Dentonia Farm," his summer residence. Mr. Massey was director of the National Sanitorium Association, and a trustee of the Massey Music Hall and Fred Victor Mission.

A Leading Methodist

He was a prominent member of the Methodist Church, and was also a regent of Victoria University and one of the treasurers of the Twentieth Century Thanksgiving Fund of the Methodist Church. Mr. Massey attended for some years Central Methodist Church on Bloor street, of which he was a member and trustee and was also leader of the Young Men's Bible League of that church, which office he had held since its inception ten years ago. He was married on July 11th, 1888, to Miss Susie M. Denton of Boston, Mass., and leaves besides a widow, four children, three girls and a boy, the eldest being a girl twelve years of age.

The Funeral.

The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from deceased's late residence, 550 Jarvis street, to Central Methodist Church, thence to Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

On learning of the death of Mr. Massey, President A. E. Ames of the Board of Trade, yesterday called a meeting of the Council for this afternoon at 4 o'clock, at which arrangements will be made for the members to attend the funeral. A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association will be held for the same purpose.

LETTER FROM DEWET.

"God Has Chosen Me to Lead My Brothers," He Says.

Geneva, Oct. 29.—A wealthy Swiss lady, at present staying at Lancy, a suburb of Geneva, lately received a letter from General Dewet. The letter was written at Modderfontein, on Aug. 18, and bears the Delagoa postmark. The Swiss lady lived for many years in the Transvaal, and knew the Boer general intimately.

In the course of the letter General Dewet says:

"God only knows when the war will end. I and my commando are determined to fight to the last. I see by the papers you sent me that both sides accuse each other of cruelty to prisoners. Don't believe these newspaper reports; they are false.

"Both sides treat their prisoners with as much consideration as possible under the circumstances.

"We have all we require to satisfy our simple wants, as we have captured enough stores to last us a long time. It is only our horses that suffer during our long marches of 10 and 12 hours.

"God has chosen me to lead my brothers, and I shall fulfil my trust to the last."

Four New V.C.'s.

London, Oct. 29.—It was announced in Sunday night's Gazette that the King has been pleased to confer the Victoria Cross on Sergeant H. Hampton, 2nd Battalion Liverpool Regiment; Private H. G. Crandon, 18th Hussars; Private C. Kennedy, 2nd Battalion Highland Light Infantry, and Private E. Durrant, 2nd Battalion Rifle Brigade. In all four cases the acts of gallantry were performed in South Africa.

Bay Full of Torpedoes.

Cape Town, Oct. 28.—At the present time Table Bay and the waters immediately adjoining are full of stray torpedoes. The fact is sufficiently alarming, and captains of ships coming into or leaving the bay have to keep a sharp lookout for dangerous craft.

Canadian Poultry Win Honors.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—Canadian poultry at the Pan-American won more prize money in proportion to the number of entries than did the exhibit of the United States.

Mr. William McNeill of London was awarded the silver cup for the best collection of Poland chickens in competition with all America, and on Saturday was negotiating with a representative of the Chilian Government for the sale of Canadian poultry to the value of $2,000.

Mr. G. C. Creelman, Superintendent of the Farmers' Institutes, says that Ontario exhibits of fruit and live stock were a surprise to visitors from all parts of the continent, and were the subject of much favorable comment.

In the prepared lines of fruits she has secured three silver medals, and one bronze medal for four exhibits.

Ontario Mortuary Returns.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—The following list, issued by the Provincial Board of Health, shows the deaths in Ontario from contagious diseases for August and September last and September, 1900, to have been as follows:

	Sept. 1901.	Aug. 1901.	Sept. 1900.
Total deaths	1,959	1,828	2,490
Scarlatina	15	5	3
Diphtheria	45	26	42
Measles	2	2	2
Whooping Cough	17	12	29
Typhoid	41	30	58
Tuberculosis	165	171	172

Sensation at Napanee.

Kingston, Oct. 29.—Sunday evening a young man named Lester Moffat of Napanee, infatuated with Miss Evans, a member of the Tom Marks Dramatic Company, attempted suicide at the Hotel Iroquois, by chloroform, because Miss Evans spurned his love. Medical assistance saved his love. Medical attendance saved the young man's life. The alarm was given by the young actress.

Sultan Pays More.

Constantinople, Sunday, Oct. 27.—A further instalment was paid yesterday on account of the contract with the Cramps of Philadelphia for a cruiser, making the total paid in the neighborhood of £70,000.

CANADA FOR CANADIANS.

A Movement Among Railway Employes to This End.

Five Canadian Railway Orders to Organize Independent of International Bodies—Reasons Given for the Step—At Present They Have No Prestige in Their Own Country—Taxed $150,000 Yearly—How Expenses Would Be Reduced.

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—A movement is on foot to organize an order to be known as the Canadian Order of Railwaymen, independent of the International bodies, which control the various orders in Canada. Those directly interested in the movement are the engineers, the firemen, the trainmen, the conductors, and the telegraphers.

Recent developments are responsible for the new movement, as it has been demonstrated to Canadian railroad men that as an organized body they have no prestige in their own country, owing to their connection with international organizations. Canadian railway men remit over $150,000 a year to the headquarters of these international associations in the United States.

Convention on Nov. 20.

If sufficient encouragement is given to the movement, steps will be taken to call a convention to meet at Ottawa about Nov. 20 to establish a grand division. In the prospectus just issued, and distributed among railway men in this city, it is set out that the objects of the new organization are: to bring the five classes of railway labor in Canada into closer contact for their mutual benefit and protection; to make it a national organization to be conducted and governed by Canadian executives; to further the interests of the members and form a fraternal body to assist its members in sickness or disability; to provide an insurance department; to provide favorable legislation for railway employes, and to oppose unjust anti-railway legislation; to limit by practice and organization and regulate the supply of skilled railway employes in the operating departments for the purpose of alleviating the privations and sufferings which bear heavily on the unemployed railway wage earners, and indirectly upon all engaged in transportation through unnecessary over-production of railway employes, and to protect the interests of its members under all conditions that may arise.

Expenses Will Be Curtailed.

The proposed order will curtail expenses by doing away with class organization and placing the affairs in one corporate body, rendering it unnecessary to contribute to the maintenance of five grand lodges, and formally to insure recognition with railway property managements by placing affairs in the hands of grand officers, not liable to be placed in the humiliating position of being refused an audience on account of being foreigners.

That Canadians are fully competent to manage their own affairs there is no room for doubt, as there are in Canada some of the best men in the railway service.

WILL SEARCH FOR MISS STONE.

Six Bulgarians Have Undertaken the Task of Finding Her.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Oct. 29.—Six young Bulgarians have banded themselves to search for Miss Ellen M. Stone and Madame Tsilka, and with the consent of the Bulgarian authorities, have left Samakov for Mehomia with this object in view.

The absence of news about Miss Stone has led to a revival of the report that she has already been killed and that the brigands have dispersed.

Half Ransom Ready.

Constantinople, Oct. 29.—A point which is much discussed among those here who are interested in the case is what shall be done if the brigands insist on being paid the £25,000 (Turkish), which they at first demanded, scarcely half that sum is available thus far, and it is believed that should an agreement on reduced terms be impossible, the offer of a less sum than £25,000 (Turkish) will be withdrawn, even at the cost of the life of Miss Stone.

Militia Did Admirably.

Ottawa, Oct. 29.—The following militia order was issued yesterday:

The Major-General commanding desires to convey to all ranks of the Canadian militia his very great satisfaction at the highly creditable manner in which the forces carried out all the ceremonial duties required of them during the recent tour of Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York. At the royal reviews held at Quebec and Toronto, the general appearance of the troops, their soldier-like bearing and their steadiness under arms was, with but few exceptions, excellent, and earned the approval of His Royal Highness.

Big Fire in Montreal.

Montreal, Oct. 29.—Messrs. Colin & MacArthur's wall paper establishment was destroyed by fire last evening and the loss to building and stock is estimated at $100,000. Two hundred hands are thrown out of employment.

Politics by the Sea.

Charlottetown, P.E.I., Oct. 29.—Argument in the Martin McKinnon election trial was resumed yesterday and the judges gave judgment last evening, re-opening the case.

HE MET DEATH UNREPENTANT

Czolgosz Refused to Heed the Words of the Priests.

Belief That the Murderer of President McKinley Would Go to the Chair Glorifying Anarchy—Body Will Be Buried in Prison Yard—Kinetoscope Man Wanted to Get Pictures and a Museum Man Asked for the Body.

Auburn, Oct. 28.—By 7.15 o'clock to-morrow Leon F. Czolgosz will have paid the tribute with his life to the law as the murderer of President William McKinley, and, unless he undergoes great change of heart and strength in the few hours of life left to him, he will go to the electric chair to be killed, unconfessed and unrepentant. He suffered a slight nervous attack late to-day, but remained sullen and stoical up to the time the prison closed at 10 o'clock. He refused to heed the words of the priests who came to make spiritual preparation for death, and declined to either re-embrace Roman Catholicism or renounce anarchy. Thus, unless he changes his mind, there will be no religious ceremony at the end. He showed no strength of love for kin, nor did he turn to any of those higher considerations which ordinarily claim the thoughts of men occupying his position. He may have suffered untold torture, but outwardly he seemed sullen and indifferent.

Will Not Surrender Body.

The state is not to surrender possession of his body, and by sundown it will have been secretly interred in ground controlled by the officials of Auburn Prison. Waldeck Czolgosz, brother of the murderer, foreseeing endless difficulties and possibly angry demonstrations, in an attempt to give the body ordinary burial, heeded the advice of Superintendent of States Prisons Collins and Warden Meade, and formally relinquished all claim to it. He merely stipulated that at the close of the autopsy, the body should be buried intact. All chance of an unhappy and unfortunate sequel to the execution, either in displays or of popular contempt, or the exhibition of ghastly relics, is, therefore, finally stopped.

The plan of burning his clothing and papers will be carried out immediately after the execution.

The electrical machine is ready for its work: Auburn Prison is carefully guarded; the city is in its usual calm, and there seems to be no circumstance standing in the way of a successful and expeditious execution of the law.

Fakirs Want Murderer's Clothes.

The resolution of Superintendent Collins to prevent spectacle or sensation in the transportation and burial or cremation of the body of Czolgosz took new zest from two offers that were submitted to-day by men of questionable enterprise. A museum keeper in one of the larger eastern cities telegraphed him an offer of $5,000, spot cash, for either the body or the garments of the murderer, and the owner of a kinetoscope wired Warden Meade that he would pay $2,000 for permission to take a moving picture of the murderer entering the death chamber.

Refused to Do It.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 29.—The Buffalo Crematory Company has refused to cremate the remains of Czolgosz.

RACE WAR NEAR NEW ORLEANS.

Three White Men and Eleven Negroes Killed Already.

New Orleans, Oct. 29.—The Picayune's Amite City special says: Three white men and 11 negroes killed was the startling and terrible news from Washington Parish last night. Your correspondent has just conversed with a man from Franklinton, and he confirms the above information, but he knew nothing of what has happened since Sunday evening. The first news of the race riot was brought here yesterday by Cornelius Mixon, who, with his mother, left from near Franklinton yesterday morning. He stated that white men rode into Franklinton at 2 o'clock in the morning, asking for help, saying that the negroes were up in arms threatening to exterminate the whites. The scene of the trouble is at or near Balltown.

NURSING MOTHERS

A mother's poor health is bad enough for the mother but worse still for the nursing baby.

Mothers find Scott's Emulsion a nourishing and strengthening food. If the breast milk is scanty or thin Scott's Emulsion will make it rich and more abundant.

When mothers take Scott's Emulsion the babies share in the benefits. Thin babies grow fat. Weak babies get strong.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.
SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto.

Dr. Wiley Coming.

Toronto, Oct. 29.—The Ontario Agricultural and Experimental Union has been exceedingly fortunate in securing a promise from Dr. W. H. Wiley, Washington, D.C., to give an address to our Agricultural College on the sugar beet industry. Dr. Wiley is the chief of the division of chemistry of the United States Department of Agriculture. This address will be given at the time of the annual meeting of the Experimental Union, and will likely take place in the Convocation Hall at the College, on Monday evening, Dec. 9.

Ophir Due November 1.

London, Oct. 29.—The Ophir is due at Spithead at half past nine on the morning of November 1. It is understood that the King will go out to meet her in his favorite yacht, the Osborne, and he will proceed the Ophir into harbor.

GRACE, STYLE AND FINISH.

You will find that in Grace, Style and Finish, Quick & Robertson's will compare with the productions of the best class of merchant tailors at prices a third to a half less. Each garment is designed with a view to its shape. It will stay in shape on the wearer. No undue drag on the various parts of the garment, each pocket is stayed, collars are properly cut, sleeves and shoulders have the right "set." Design without good cloths is wasted. Every garment is properly and honestly lined with good linings. No shoddy cloths are used.

57—62 THE CRITICAL AGE.

Height of vigor passed — nature's power slowing down, vitality less, recuperative power less, endurance less. Stop the progress of decay, tone up the weakened nerve centres, impart vigor to the tiring brain, prepare for the crisis. A means of remarkable potency in the renewal of decreasing vigor is found in Ferrozone. It brightens up the whole being, imparts a sense of power and strength. By the use of Ferrozone old age is pushed back twenty years. Ferrozone gives strength, vigor, endurance, vim. Your druggist has it. Get a box to-day at McKeown's.

There is nothing else on earth so annoying as procrastination in decisions.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The first object in life with the Canadian people is to "get rich;" the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health), by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well known August Flower will relieve you at once. Regular size, 75 cents. You can get Dr. G.G. Green's reliable remedies at R. Templeton & Co's.

WHAT THE "DISGUSTED CONSERVATIVE" THOUGHT OF PREMIER ROSS.

Every day brings to light some new feature in the character of the man whom the Hon. George Washington Ross has taken to his bosom as a loving accomplice in an endeavor to ruin an honorable man. It appears that this importation from Ohio, to play the role of a "Disgusted Conservative," was quite as willing, had his offer been accepted, to denounce Ross and colleagues, as he has done Mr. Whitney and the Conservative party.

We owe an apology to our readers for occupying so much space with exposures of this new Grit ally from Ohio, but as he has been championed by the Globe as a fellow-worker in the ranks of Gritism, on account of his disgust with the Conservative leader, it is well that he should be fully known, and duly appreciated.

The Mail and Empire gives the following interesting account of this man Mabee. It is worth reading and remembering:

"Before Mr. Ross had employed the Ohio campaigner to become a 'disgusted life-long Conservative' the Ohio gentleman persisted in submitting campaign ideas to the Conservatives, with a view to instructing the public on the subject of Mr. Ross' iniquities. Mr. Whitney refused to allow such unfair material to go to the people, and turned the Ohio gentleman down. The views that Mr. Ross' Ohio friend wished to circulate with reference to him and the other celebrities are, however, interesting.

"At the outset Mr. Mabee implied that these Ministers are not straight in so far as their financial relations to the province are concerned. Mr. Mabee wrote:

> "The Public Accounts are stuffed with figures, just as the ballot-boxes are stuffed with votes."

"This unfair insinuation was pressed home by an illustration, showing two Ministers at the windows of the Parliament Buildings handing out to confederates packages labeled 'stolen goods.' Mr. Mabee proceeds to say:

> "The reason your taxes are higher is because the Government has hired 1,000 more officers. They only had 11,280 officers before, and they needed another 1,000."

"This is not true. There are but 7,000 officials, according to the latest count, and there has not been an addition of more than 500 to the staff during the past four years. Moreover, the salaries are not all paid in taxes. A large number of the officials grow wealthy by fees. With reference to Mr. Ross Mr. Mabee wrote thus:

> "Mr. Ross' Record — Clothed and fed by the taxpayers for thirty years. Received in salaries nearly one-quarter of a million. He has held over twenty-six offices."

"This is unjust. Mr. Ross began to hold office in 1871, and although he has for thirty years drawn upon the Public Treasury, his official positions have numbered but five. He has not received a quarter of a million from the public. As a school official for twelve years he drew $36,000. As Minister of Education for 16 years he received $71,600, and as Premier he has taken into the till $15,200. Altogether his receipts have been but $122,800—which is a very different thing to a quarter of a million.

"The Ohio gentleman was particularly eloquent on the subject of the Ross school-book monopoly, and most anxious to protect widows, orphans, and washwomen from that oppression. He shouted in large letters:

> "Husbands, wives, fathers, mothers, brothers, and sisters, in the name of God and justice, can you countenance, aid, or abet the robbery of our widows and orphans by the Ross School Book Ring? Many a hard-working washwoman, deprived of her helpmate, is compelled to scrub from early morning until sunset for the money with which to buy her child a school book which cost less than six cents to publish. Read the signed statements of reliable publishers:
> Washwoman's daily wages ... 50c
> Price of school book ... 50c
> Cost of publishing ... 5c
> "In the name of humanity turn Ross, the originator of this monopoly, out of office. The school-book ring pay pew rent, but God pity their guilty souls!"

"This, of course, exaggerates the situation in such a manner as to be most unjust to the Government. Washwomen do not spend all their earnings on school books. If they are widows their families ought not to be so large as to necessitate the purchase of one school book per day. Besides, school books which cost six cents to publish are not sold for more than twenty-five cents.

"Mr. Mabee in his proposed Conservative campaign document was particularly impressed with the insolivity of Mr. Ross and his colleagues in New Ontario, and pointed out that these politicians were practically giving our natural wealth away. This is a rather curious point, because when Mr. Ross employed Mr. Mabee to become a 'life-long Conservative' he promptly took the other line. He submitted for Conservative use the following:

> "Clergue is lord of all the vast natural wealth of Algoma, of which Ross and his colleagues have remained in complete ignorance, shutting their minds against the pleadings of Mr. (now Sir William) Meredith, Mr. Whitney, Mr. Miscampbell, and other live and energetic representatives of the people in the Assembly."

"But Mr. Stratton's literary artist makes him say in 'life-long Conservative's' pamphlet, which the Ontario Government has issued:

> "Mr. Whitney went into the Legislature and opposed making Ontario a progressive province. He would not develop our natural wealth. He wanted no new railways and no New Ontario."

"It is in poetry, however, that the gentleman excels. Before he became a 'life-long Conservative' he wished to sing to the public thus:

We all admire the Yankees for their enterprise and zeal;
For their up-to-date corruption and ability to steal;
But when it comes to crookedness,
abuse of public trust,
To the gang that's now in Toronto take off their hats they must!

"Mr. Whitney showed himself to be an honorable man when he refused to have anything to do with the Ohio gentleman and his campaign material. It is a pity that Mr. Ross, instead of licensing this gentleman to slander Mr. Whitney in the garb of a 'life-long Conservative,' did not take the same drastic course as that pursued by the Opposition leader. If Mr. Ross had been animated by a sense of decency rather than by a desire to shoot at his opponent from behind the hedge, he would not have been caught in this unhappy transaction.'"

What do honest Liberals think of this man, who has enlisted into their ranks to do the scurvy work of the party, under the plea of being a "Disgusted Conservative?"

The tactics of Gritism were low and debasing before, but this last exploit is a step still lower in political degradation.

Of 1533 Orange Street, Los Angeles, Cal., writes: "I had been afflicted with my eyes for over a year with such a dreadful itching and inflammation that I could not use them for anything. Physicians had given me many different remedies which were like using so much water; they measured my eyes for glasses, which I got and wore for some time, but they did not benefit me in the least. My mother desired me to write to Dr. R. V. Pierce and explain the condition of my eyes. I did so, and after following your advice, and using eight bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' and eight of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' can say my trouble is entirely cured. I would advise any one so afflicted to try these wonderful medicines. My health was never so good as it is now, and I shall never tire of praising Dr. Pierce's medicines."

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter and secure a specialist's advice free of charge.

TIMELY TOPICS.

A gentleman signing himself "Taxpayer" writes as follows:

My dear sir,—Glancing at a Montreal paper recently, my eye was caught by the heading of an advertisement, "Assessments and Tax Rolls," and, reading the advertisement itself, I was much struck with the different methods used in Montreal for the collection of taxes and those which prevail in Belleville. This advertisement, signed by Wm. Robb, City Treasurer, and dated October 25th, sets forth that—

"All persons whose names appear as liable for the payment of any tax or assessment are hereby required to pay the amount thereof to the undersigned, at his office, within ten days from this date, without further notice. With reference to the foregoing public notice (called for by the charter), ratepayers are reminded that interest will accrue from and after the delay therein specified, and that legal proceedings to enforce payment will immediately thereafter be taken."

I would respectfully submit the foregoing to the attention of the gentlemen who govern our city, and ask them if legislation along the same lines would not be beneficial for Belleville?

• • •

His Worship the Mayor is keeping a sharp eye on the City officials these days, one proof of which was given on Saturday last. It was for some time the practice of a certain public servant to buy produce on the market, presumably for other people, as the quantities purchased were too large for his own consumption. He was told by the Mayor that this would not be allowed, and that he must desist. On Saturday last the same official purchased fourteen pounds of butter, "for a friend," and the Mayor happened to get his eagle eye on him. The Riot Act was at once produced and read to the King's taste. "You must decide to do one thing or the other," said the Chief Magistrate, "and decide quickly, too. If I see or hear of your again buying goods on this market, other than for your own consumption, I will order your instant dismissal." It is pretty certain that one of those irons is out of the fire for good.

• • •

Judge Barron, of Stratford, has warned people that if they allow a dog to run loose, which has a habit of running at passing horses, and a runaway takes place, which results in a fatality, the owners of the canine are liable to prosecution for manslaughter. If the owner purposely turns a dog loose to frighten people, and death results, he is liable to a charge of murder. There are enough vagrant curs running around this city to cause a couple of dozen cases of manslaughter or dogslaughter.

• • •

The desire of some people for "realism" leads them to strange lengths sometimes. On Thursday last, Inspector Archibald seized the cylinders of a phonograph in a Toronto cigar store which purported to give the genuine shrieks of a negro burning at the stake. The promoter was invited to promptly leave town.

There are plenty of people in Canada who could have been spared better than Mr. Walter E. H. Massey. But he left a splendid example for other people to follow.

The Municipal Reform Association held a caucus last night. Slowly, silently, relentlessly the M. R. A. is doing its work. Only strictly gilt-edged people are among its list of nominees for next year's Council. "New blood in the Council!" is the rallying cry. Many of the present aldermen, the M. R. A. thinks, have honorably earned a rest, and politely, but firmly, they will receive an invitation to "Go away back and sit down." Keep your eyes and ears open for the M. R. A. It is the real thing in municipal politics, and is bound to make its power felt when the ballots are counted next January.

The habit which some people have of indulging in indiscriminate encores to musicians and singers is one which might well be put a stop to. After a vocalist has rendered an exacting song or a musician a selection which greatly taxes his or her nervous force, it is nothing more than refined cruelty to ask them to come out again and repeat their efforts. A liberal amount of applause, of course, is only natural, and gratifying to the performers, but when, on a recall, the singer or musician appears and bows his or her acknowledgments the audience might well be satisfied. Concert programmes, as a rule, are quite long enough, without encores, and if managers would insist on the programme being started on time, and instruct the performers to pay no attention to the encore fiends, two aggravating incidents generally connected with Belleville concerts would be eliminated.

• • •

The Young Liberals of Toronto have condemned the Mabee pamphlet in unqualified terms, which shows that they have some decency left in them even if their venerable leaders haven't. The fact that the pamphlet was endorsed by Hon. G. W. Ross makes the condemnation of the young Liberals all the more severe. The Mabee pamphlet will probably be the rock on which the Grit party splits.

A ROYAL PUBLICATION.

One of the most handsome pieces of printing, and a publication that will come to have historic interest, is the specially prepared time table of the tour through Canada of T.R.H., the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, embracing that portion of the Grand Trunk Railway System, over which the Royal couple travelled in the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec. Never before did a time table assume such a sumptuous guise, and it reflects the utmost credit upon the Grand Trunk Railway System.

The book in question is a tall octavo one of one hundred pages printed on special deckled edge linen paper. The letter press is in black and red; the text is descriptive of the route from North Bay, Ontario, to Toronto, London, Niagara Falls, Brantford, Woodstock, Hamilton, Belleville, Kingston, Brockville, Cornwall, Montreal, Sherbrooke, Richmond and Quebec, with marginal time table, distances from North Bay and distances from Montreal, as well as showing the altitude above sea level of every point along the route. Blank pages are interleaved opposite every page for pencilled memoranda. The book is profusely illustrated, the numerous half-tone views being printed on superfine paper ornamented with emblematic devices printed in grey ink, the half-tones being printed in black ink.

Edition-de-Luxe copies for presentation to T.R.H., the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, and other persons of distinction in the Royal party, are bound in blue-grey ooze calf with appropriate stamp and silk binding ribbons in the Royal colors. The Ducal crown, which appears on front page of cover, being printed in gold and enameled. The ordinary edition is bound in stiff grey paper, the side title with Ducal crown and maple leaf decorations in red and gold, all bound with scarlet silk cord and enclosed in grey envelope. The Edition-de-Luxe copies were enclosed in boxes of the Royal purple color, with the Ducal crown printed on the outside in gold.

Nowhere in all their tour had Their Royal Highnesses provided for them so beautiful a hand book, and the Duchess remarked on this beautiful work. It reflects great credit on the enterprise of the Grand Trunk Railway.

In addition to this Royal Souvenir, the Grand Trunk also issued a very handsome edition of their book entitled "Across Niagara's Gorge," bound in green ooze calf lined with brown silk, the inside being printed in heavy enameled paper in the Luxotype process. They also issued a Vest-Pocket map of the entire System, showing the route of the Royal party while on their line. This map is printed in four colors, mounted on silk and bound in smooth calf skin cover, ornamented in gold.

An investment in a policy of life insurance is far preferable to deposits in a Savings Bank. They both accumulate interests and take care of deposits, but the life company does more, it provides for the payment of a larger sum in case of the death of the depositor. S. At the Grand Concert in the City Hall, on Tuesday evening, November 12th, in aid of the Library of the Mechanics' Institute, the following ladies and gentlemen have kindly promised to assist: Mrs. Jas. Grant, Miss Wheler, Mr. and Mrs. Parker (Bank of Montreal), Miss Jessie Robertson, Miss Bawden, Mr. V. P. Hunt, Mr. Milburn, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Wright the celebrated violinist from London, England. There will also be given the Double Sextette "Tell me Pretty Maiden," from the opera of "Florodora," which has had a run of 300 nights in London, and New York.

A new play, by Hal. Reid, entitled "At Cripple Creek," will be the attraction at the Carman Opera House, Oct. 31st. This is a vital and moving picture of life in our far West, the scenes being laid in a mining camp in Colorado and the characters embracing many types of American life in that region.

ASSASSIN CZOLGOSZ DIED THIS MORNING

Was Electrocuted at 7:12 O'Clock—Showed No Fear of Death.

Talked Freely to Officials, and Was Not Sorry for His Deed.

(Special to The Intelligencer.)

Auburn, N.Y., Oct. 29. — Leon F. Czolgosz was executed in the death chamber at the State Prison here at 7:12:30 o'clock this morning.

He made but a brief speech before death. He said he was not sorry for what he had done, but expressed regret that he had not seen his father.

Czolgosz went to the chair in exactly the same manner as have the majority of all the other murderers in this State, showing no particular sign of fear but in fact doing what few of them have done, talking to the witnesses while he was being strapped in the chair.

"I killed the President because he was an enemy of the good people—of the good working people. I am not sorry for my crime."

These were the words as the guards hurried him into the chair. Words he supplemented a moment later by talking through the half adjusted face strap: "I am awfully sorry I could not see my father."

Czolgosz retired last night at 10 o'clock and slept so soundly that when Warden Mead went to the cells shortly before 5 this morning the guard inside had to shake Czolgosz to awaken him. He sat up on the edge of his cot and made no reply to the Warden's greeting of "Good morning."

The prison official took from his pocket the death warrant and read it slowly and distinctly to the assassin, who hardly raised his eyes during the perfunctory ceremony.

Electrician Davis made this statement as to the execution:

"I used 1700 volts of electricity, turning it into the body at full voltage for 7 seconds and then slowly reducing it for 45 seconds. Then I threw the full voltage on again for 2 seconds. Then, at the suggestion of Dr. MacDonald, I turned it on again for a few seconds. I did not think there was any necessity for the third contact and the lack of resistance shown when it was administered proved that life was extinct. The body showed eight amperes of resistance—that is little more than would be given by a larger or stouter man where the current could have more chance to percolate. It was as successful an execution as I ever operated at in all my experience."

The body will be buried in the regular prison plot in the local cemetery.

As a result of the autopsy, Czolgosz's brain was found to be normal, or slightly above normal.

This demonstrated to the satisfaction of the physicians that in no way was his mental condition, except as it might have been perverted, responsible for the crime.

YOUR WINTER OVERCOAT.

Think and talk about this matter to-day—but don't stop at that—come to the Oak Hall and see just what excellent value we are selling this season. About the prices and quality, we don't hesitate to put our reputation back of the claim that the material of our overcoats is better, and the prices we sell them for are lower, than your experience can recall.

An Aged Lady Dead

Mrs. Fannie Brown, aged 83 years, died last evening at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Cornell, Kingston Road. Deceased was born in the township of Richmond, where she resided for many years. Mrs. Brown had lived in this vicinity for some time. Deceased was a member of the Methodist church. The remains will be taken to her former home to-morrow for burial.

SNOOKS ON TRIAL

CHARGED WITH FRAUDULENTLY REMOVING SHEEP FROM THE GAY FARM — THE CASE ADJOURNED.

The trial of Robert Snooks, of Thurlow, on the charge of fraudulently removing from off the Gay farm a number of sheep which were covered in a chattel mortgage, held by Mr. T. E. Ewen, was continued before the Magistrate yesterday afternoon. The interest manifested in these proceedings is keen, as evidenced by the number who are in attendance at the court.

Robert Bunnett in his evidence stated that Snooks and one Leonard Crawford brought some forty sheep to his place, thirty of which were subsequently taken away. Crawford took some away, as did also Snooks. He did not know who owned the sheep, but thought that Crawford did.

Albert Premo, one of the parties engaged to watch the stock, etc., testified that he did not see anything taken away. He said that there were many persons about the premises and it was difficult to watch all.

Snooks in his evidence swore that he was hired by Crawford to assist in taking the sheep to Bunnett's place and was also paid by the same party to take some away. This was before the sale. He had heard that the Gay Bros. were in difficulties, but he did not know what was under seizure. He did not know where Crawford was at present.

The Magistrate stated that he would adjourn the case until Saturday next; also the case against Robert Bunnett. He said the transaction was unprecedented in the County of Hastings. Cattle, sheep, swine, horses and other chattels to the amount of several hundreds of dollars had been fraudulently taken away, and every effort should and would be made to find out the guilty parties. Such an act could not be lightly passed over.

Mr. Anderson represented the Crown; Messrs Porter & Carnew for private prosecutor, and Mr. Denmark appeared for Snooks.

TO BREAK UP A COLD.

all you require is a glass of hot water, a little sugar and thirty drops of Polson's Nerviline. Take it real hot, and in the morning you will wake up without a cold. When depressed or tired, try Nerviline; it will tone you up better than stimulants. Nerviline wards off all sickness and keeps people well. Large bottles 25c.

THE THEATRE

SCHUBERT SYMPHONY CLUB.

A small audience assembled in the opera house last night to listen to the Schubert Symphony Club. The performance deserved better patronage, but unfortunately, entertainments of the kind given by the above company do not as a rule get crowded houses in Belleville. However, it can safely be said that those who did attend last night enjoyed the programme. One of the lady vocalists was suffering from indisposition, and the quartette dwindled to a trio. They sang in excellent form, with a total lack of apparent effort or mannerisms. Many ambitious amateurs could well copy these Chicago ladies. The violinist, Master Tommy Purcell, a youngster apparently about 16 years of age, played some difficult music with fairly good method and brilliant technique for one so young. He is a versatile little chap, as, in addition to his violin solos, he played leading mandolin and gave a recitation in good style. The soloists were good, particularly the soprano and contralto. The selections by the Mandolin and Guitar Club, while pleasing, were not by any means the best feature of the programme.

PERFECT CURE FOR BRONCHITIS.

This disease can be treated only by a remedy carried to the affected parts along with the air breathed, for nature intended these organs for the passage of air alone, and sprays, atomizers and internal medicines utterly fail. But Catarrhozone doesn't fail, for it goes wherever the air breathed goes, and its healing antiseptic vapor is sure to reach every affected part. Catarrhozone is inhaled at the mouth and after passing through every air cell of the breathing organs is slowly exhaled through the nostrils. Catarrhozone protects and heals the inflamed surfaces, relieves congestion, allays inflammation, and perfectly cures all bronchial affections. Price $1. Small size 25c. CITY AND DISTRICT

Two prisoners and a tramp were occupants of the cells last night.

The back door of a Front street business place was found open by the police last night.

A gum machine was found outside of a business place last night and taken to the police station for safe keeping.

"The American Girl," which is Manager Adams' offering for Friday, Nov. 1, has elements that are reminiscent of "Little Lord Fauntleroy," its plot being cast on something of the same lines, while its comedy is just as wholesome and refreshing, its heart interest of equal force, and its denouement as happily satisfactory. It is a play of much more than ordinary merit, the story beginning in an engaging way and being interesting to the end. Prices 25, 35, 50c.

After the Deer

A number from the city and vicinity left to-day for the north in search of deer, the open season for which commences on Friday. Amongst those who went were the following: Messrs. S. W. Vermilyea, A. Walbridge, D. Grass, sr., D. Grass, jr., Parry and G. Roblin, G. Horne, Jas. Knox, B. Baker, Wilbur Clapp and Capt. Bottum.

CURED TOTAL PARALYSIS!

It puzzles the Doctors and astonishes his patients how South American Nervine cures so many who are "given up to die"—it never fails.

"My wife was stricken with nervous prostration, which developed into total paralysis. We had hardly any hope of her recovery, but had heard of the great cures made by South American Nervine in cases of nervous troubles. We decided to try the treatment, and it was astonishing the results that followed the taking of three bottles—it worked wonders indeed. I feel I cannot speak too highly of this great remedy."

OVERCOAT THIEVES NOW IN LOCK-UP

But Officer Hayes Had to Do Some Sprinting to Land His Man.

Exciting Scene on Front St. Last Evening—Stolen Property on Prisoners.

You ought to have seen "Pat" Hayes run! Last night Constables Morton and Hayes came across two men on Front street, near the fire station at the upper bridge, whom they took to be the fellows wanted for stealing overcoats at Grafton on Sunday morning. Constable Morton grabbed one fellow, whose name turned out to be Stewart, and the other, named Thompson, broke ground and went across the bridge as though the officer had asked him for a loan. It was a stern chase, but Constable Hayes followed the man up Moira street and caught him as he was trying to climb a fence. While running the suspect dropped a coat on the road.

Thompson made quite a bluff and used anything but complimentary language towards the officer.

"You've no right to arrest me," he said. "I live here."

However, the Constable knew better, and took him down to the Police Station, where Constable Morton had safely housed his chum.

It will be remembered that, on Sunday morning last, two men stole coats and other articles from rigs in the rear of the Grafton Roman Catholic Church. Constable Smith, of Colborne, communicated with the local police, asking them to look out for the men, which was accordingly done.

It appears that two strangers visited the different second-hand stores of the city yesterday, and disposed of two overcoats. They were in the act of selling a coon coat, when the officers spotted them. Their arrest followed, as above described.

The accused gave their names as William Stewart, of Rochester, aged 25, and William Thompson, no home in particular, aged 28.

When searched at the police station Stewart had $1.67 upon his person. Thompson's wealth amounted to $3.50.

The prisoners also had a bottle of whiskey and a number of trinkets.

A description of the men and the articles they were in possession of was sent to the Constable at Colborne, and this morning the following telegram was received from him;

Colborne, Oct. 29.

"All right. Hold the men. Will be down at 9 o'clock to-night."

OTHER CHARGES.

On Saturday last a post card was received from the Chief of Police, Whitby, which stated that two men had stolen a horse, buggy and outfit from near Pickering, and giving a description of the horse and outfit. It appears that yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock two men drove a horse and buggy into the shed in rear of the Methodist church on the Kingston road, about two miles east of the city. Later in the evening some employees of Mr. Nelson Lingham heard the horse pawing and trying to break loose. They took the horse out of the shed and put it in a stable close by, and this morning informed the city police of what they had done. The police at once took charge of the horse and buggy and found that everything pointed to the property being that stolen from near Pickering.

A party who lives near the Kingston road church saw two men drive the horse into the shed yesterday afternoon, and claims to be able to identify them.

There is every reason to believe that the men arrested yesterday are bad characters, who would have caused no end of trouble and annoyance in the city and district had not their arrest been brought about by the police.

Police Court

Junk Shop Man Fined.

William Hughes, who keeps a junk shop, was charged with buying iron from boys under 15 years of age, which is contrary to the by-law. The accused stated that two boys brought the iron to his place and said that they had picked it up on the commons. The Magistrate fined the accused $1 and $1 costs, and stated that he would do all in his power to enforce the by-law.

Articles Stolen

Mr. Samuel Pope, of Sidney, whilst in the city yesterday had an overcoat stolen from him. It was left in a vehicle under a shed.

Last evening a whip was taken from a buggy which was allowed to stand in a back yard on Front St. for a few minutes.

Keeping it Out of the Paper

(Kingston Whig.)

There are interested parties ready to throw themselves into the breach at every important occurrence and importune the newspapers to suppress some news item, and sometimes it happens several times a week. Men will expect an item to be suppressed when the entire community is already talking about it, and its publication would harm no one. If the paper declines to "leave out" the item the applicant becomes very indignant; if it yields and a contemporary later publishes the news it never occurs to the gentleman that he has injured the legitimate business of a newspaper and that he ought to apologise. On the contrary, when a local newspaper "leaves out" an item which appears later in an out-of-town journal the very men who ask for its suppression are the first to say, "You must read foreign papers to get the news."

Did it ever occur to those who request a newspaper not to publish a report that it would be just as reasonable to ask a merchant not to make a sale? You are asking the newspaper to omit its most attractive feature and to become tedious merely for your benefit. Possibly you may have business relations with the newspapers. That certainly gives you no right to make exactions.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one-half, the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done, it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilious habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little effect. But since using 3 bottles of the Vegetable Discovery, the biliousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 80 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know."

THE PUBLIC should bear in mind that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has nothing in common with the impure, deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or hurts, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

Sleeplessness.—When the nerves are unstrung and the whole body given up to wretchedness, when the mind is filled with gloom and dismal forebodings, the result of derangement of the digestive organs, sleeplessness comes to add to the distress. If only the subject could sleep, there would be the oblivion for a while and temporary relief. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, but will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Nine-tenths of the consumptives date their afflictions from a neglected cold, and the diseases that are caused by wet feet, damp clothes, or exposure are more numerous than are generally supposed. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which frees the lungs from viscid phlegm by changing the secretions from a diseased to a healthy state.

The Flagging Energies Revived.—Constant application to business is a tax upon the energies, and if there be not relaxation, lassitude and depression are sure to intervene. These come from stomachic troubles. The want of exercise brings on nervous irregularities, and the stomach ceases to assimilate food properly. In this condition Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a recuperative of rare powder, restoring the organs to healthful action, dispelling depression, and reviving the flagging energies.

Wheat Lower—Lower Cables Had Effect on American Markets—The Latest Quotations.

Monday Evening, Oct. 28.

Wheat cables were weaker to-day. December wheat in Liverpool was ¼d to ⅜d lower at closing to-day than on Saturday. Corn futures also declined from ⅛d to ¼d.

Chicago wheat weakened to-day, with lower cables, and December closing was ½c lower than Saturday. December corn declined ⅝c, and December oats held steady at 36½c.

THE VISIBLE SUPPLY.

As compared with a week ago, the visible supply of wheat in Canada and the United States has increased 1,311,000 bushels. Corn has increased 187,000 bushels, and oats have increased 308,000 bushels.

To recapitulate, the visible supply of wheat in Canada and the United States, together with that afloat to Europe, is 98,704,000 bushels, against 98,393,000 bushels a week ago, and 87,309,000 bushels a year ago.

What is meant by our neighbor we cannot doubt. It is every one with whom we are brought into contact, whosoever it be, whom we have any means of helping.

If it's true that children get their growth while asleep, no wonder some babies are of such slow growth.

A Daily Nuisance.

A SIMPLE REMEDY WHICH WILL INTEREST CATARRH SUFFERERS.

In its earlier stages catarrh is more of a nuisance than a menace to the general health, but sooner or later the disease extends to the throat, bronchial tubes and even to the stomach and intestines.

Catarrh is essentially a disease of the mucous membrane, the local symptoms being a profuse discharge of mucous, stoppage of the nostrils, irritation in throat, causing coughing, sneezing, gagging and frequent clearings of the throat and head.

The usual treatment by local douches, snuffs, salves, etc., often gives temporary relief, but anything like a cure can only be obtained by a treatment which removes the catarrhal taint from the blood and the disappearance of the inflammation from the mucous surfaces.

A new remedy which meets these requirements, and which so far has been remarkably successful in curing catarrh is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

These tablets act upon the blood and mucous membranes only. They can hardly be called a secret patent medicine, as they are composed of such valuable remedies as Sanguinaria, Hydrastin, Eucalyptol and similar cleansing antiseptics which cure by eliminating from the blood and mucous surfaces the catarrhal poison.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are large, pleasant tasting lozenges taken internally, allowing them to dissolve slowly in the mouth, in this way they reach the throat, fauces and the entire alimentary canal.

If desired, they may also be dissolved in water and used as a douche, in addition to the internal use, but it is not at all necessary to use a douche; a few of them dissolved in the mouth daily will be sufficient. However, when there is much stoppage of the nose, a douche made from these tablets will give immediate relief, but the regular daily use internally of these tablets will cure the whole catarrhal trouble without resorting to the inconvenience of a douche.

Dr. Bement states "that the internal treatment for catarrh is rapidly taking the place of the old plan of douching, and local application and further says that probably the best and certainly the safest remedy at present on the market is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, as no secret is made of their composition and all the really efficient remedies for catarrh are contained in this tablet."

Druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at fifty cents for full sized packages. Ask your druggist and if he is honest, he will tell you there is no safer, more palatable, more efficient and convenient remedy on the market.

Praise for Ontario.

Some sage has said that the civilization of a country is shown by its roads. This being true, it is to be hoped that the agitation now making head in different parts of the country will not cease until we are as well provided for in this way as the best of the ancients. Of course our railroads surpass all their facilities for transit, but if our ordinary roads are to be left as long without care as some of the prehistoric highways that have been discovered in various parts of the world, they would look like "the roads in Scotland before they were made." But there has already been progress, and the methods of Macadam, whom Scott referred to as the "Colossus of Roads," are being applied in a modified form in every part of the country that boasts of gravel pits. Road building has become a science worthy the attention of the most skilled engineers, and experts are already abroad in the land. The Province of Ontario has for some years past been setting an example that might be followed with profit in all of our States. The Government employs an engineer to oversee roadbuilding and to teach the art to all municipalities willing to learn. In this country the agitation has been left largely to interested parties, the bicycling and automobile interests, but the good work is growing, as shown by the convention recently held in Buffalo.—Harper's Weekly.

A Learned Rector.

The idea that the business of a clergyman is to maintain and spread belief in a particular religion which he believes to have been revealed and of a bishop to see that he does it is slowly dying away until there is a doubt whether learning is of any use, and the man who possesses it, especially if it be of the older kind, is regarded often with kindness, no doubt, and sometimes with admiration, but usually with a pity from which contempt is not entirely absent. "What could you you expect?" said a county town magnate a few years ago when told that the largest parish was falling into disorder. "Why, E. [the rector] is a Hebrew scholar."

The King of Ranges, "Buck's Happy Thought"

Significant Facts About Happy Thought Ranges

More Happy Thoughts are made every year than all others combined.

More Happy Thoughts are in use to-day than of any other stove or range the country ever saw.

Not one user of a Happy Thought but is pleased with it beyond measure.

Not a single buyer of a Happy Thought has ever regretted his choice.

'Tis said "There is a best in everything." In view of above, are we claiming too much in stating that the Happy Thought Range is the best on earth?

AT COST OF HIS LIFE

HOW ONE MAN'S PHILOSOPHY OF LIFE HAS PROVEN TO BE FALSE.

He Made Money the Chief Object of His Life, But, Just as He Had Built a Noble Mansion as a Resting Place After Terrible Toil, He Died—Better Live Day by Day.

The living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy.—I. Timothy, vi., 17.

An acquaintance of mine has just given me an object lesson, but it was at the cost of his life. He has shown me how not to live if one wishes to achieve the greatest success, and yet he was not only a good and true man, faithful to public and private duty, but something of a philosopher. The sad fact is that he proved his own philosophy to be false.

In the flush of youth he dreamed a splendid dream. He saw that money will buy almost everything that is desirable, so determined to sacrifice his mind, his body, his pleasures to its acquisition.

"When I get the fortune I am in search of," he said in the twilight of an autumn day long ago, "I will cease from labor and give myself to the enjoyment of my remaining years. Until then I shall think of nothing but the purpose I have in view."

Time passed and he was what the world calls fortunate. His wealth accumulated and he built a noble mansion as a resting place after terrible toil. But he paid too large a price for what he wanted—his health, and the very ability to enjoy which he hoped to greatly gratify. Only last week the slow funeral procession moved by the unoccupied mansion on its way to the cemetery. His dream was not realized. Just as he thought to live, he died. Hardly yet on the shadowy side of middle age the summons came, and he obeyed the imperative demand to leave all. His mistake was that he had reckoned on enjoying himself by and by, whereas no one can be certain of having any by and by.

Religion teaches us to make use of every opportunity for happiness, and to let none slip if it be possible to hold it. God never intended that we should give up all to-day in order that we may enjoy all to-morrow. Life may be hard, even as the desert is barren, but in the desert there are oases, and it is a duty to trend our steps toward them and to spend a few hours in their grateful shade. Even in the midst of our anxiety or our incessant toil there are moments of respite, and if we avail ourselves of them the heart is lightened and the body is strengthened. It is just as much a man's duty to be happy whenever he can be as it is to pray. This world is not only beautiful, but it will make our souls beautiful if we learn to appreciate it. Gloom and despondency are sometimes inevitable, but when the sun breaks the clouds, even for an hour, we should grasp that hour and concentrate it with a smile. There is no life which is always dark, and if we allow ourselves to be so impressed by the hardships we undergo that we cannot enjoy a restful afternoon we do ourselves an injury. The habit of looking for the light is oftentimes rewarded by our finding it in unexpected places, while the habit of looking for misery invites misery to come and abide with us.

Religion, as I understand it, is the most cheering and cheerful philosophy of life known among men. It tells us of a God who has so planned our experience that we shall grow broader-minded and larger-hearted with every fleeting year. The boy in school thinks his lesson irksome, but the refreshment of recess and an occasional holiday makes his task easier. We are all in God's school, and if at times our resources are taxed and we are bowed down, there are other times when the rainbow shimmers in the sky. Let us bear with courage, and especially let us indulge in the buoyancy and hilarity of youth whenever the chances offer. The heart must be kept from growing old.

And religion tells us also that the present is merely the short journey to a larger and wider future; that the grandest realities of life lie beyond the horizon of time; that death, which we so much dread, is an angel clothed by a false imagination with a black robe, a radiant messenger who will lead us into the light of a better day, wherein we shall meet those from whom we have parted, but who still hold a warm place in our affections, and that the soul which accepts this truth can never be wholly sad or despondent.

Life is not a tragedy, but a great privilege. It is not a vale of tears, but an upward climb to the mountain top, from which it is but a step to glory and heaven. There is no querulousness, but only joy and religion. Do your work nobly then, and if as time slips away it brings a smile as well as a tear, accept the tear, but do not ignore the smile. Determine to be happy, to find enjoyment wherever it is hidden, as the bee finds honey in the flowers. Religion can laugh as well as weep, and under its influence life is like music, which has notes in the major as well as the minor key. Be as cheery as your circumstances allow, and let no day go by without a search for the happiness which it may possibly conceal under the guise of a hardship.—From sermon by Rev. Dr. George H. Hepworth.

When You Are Cleverest.

The human mind is at its fullest power between the ages of 40 and 60. Swift was 49 when he wrote "Gulliver's Travels," and John Stuart Mill 56 when his essay on "Utilitarianism" was published. When "Waverley" came out Sir Walter Scott was 44 years old. Milton was between 54 and 59 when he wrote "Paradise Lost." Defoe was within two years of 60 when he wrote "Robinson Crusoe."

Wages in Lieu of Notice.

A quaint story of a master builder and a British workman is told by a trade journal.

Having heard that the men did not start work at the proper time, the employer thought he would step down about 6.30 one morning and see.

Going up the road he caught sight of a joiner standing smoking, with his kit not even opened.

Simply asking his name, which he found to be Malcolm Campbell, he called him into the office and, handing him four days' pay, ordered him to leave at once.

After seeing the man clear of the yard, he went up to the foreman and explained that he had made an example of Malcolm Campbell by paying him off for not starting at the proper hour.

"Great Scot, sir!" ejaculated the foreman, "that chap was only lookin' for a job!"

World's Great Dams.

The British Government has undertaken to restore the ancient order of things by storing the flood waters of the Nile, so that by irrigating, once more the desert lands of Egypt will be in a condition to supply cotton, cereals and other products enough for the markets of the world, since three crops can be raised in a year. This is to be accomplished by the erection of dams across the channel of the Nile. Two of these are now nearing completion, thanks to British energy and capital, which has made the undertaking possible. It is of interest to know that 25,000 natives and Italians are now at work in shifts of 12,500 each by night and day in completion of the dam. The same quarries that supplied stone to King Mena are being worked by them, and the grooves and notches of laborers who extracted rough material for the temples of Philae and Cleopatra's needle were found by the men who are using modern implements propelled by steam to obtain stone for the dams.—Leslie's Magazine.

Crane Island.

In Lake Minnetonka, Minnesota, there is a picturesque island which takes its name from the fact that it is uninhabited by man and given over to the cranes. Generations back these birds decided upon this spot for a summer resort. As times went on and the surrounding islands populated no man had the heart to disturb them, until now Crane island is pointed out from passing boats as one of the curiosities of the northwest.

Kidney Troubles of Children.

There are many mothers blessing Dr. Pitcher and his wonderful Backache Kidney Tablets. This remedy has proved so successful for that serious affliction of children—bed wetting—that mothers rejoice to know of a positive cure. The Tablets have a strengthening and tonic influence on the weak urinary organs of children and enable them to retain their water naturally.

Don't let your child grow up with this weakness blighting his life. Have the trouble cured in time before it does permanent injury to the health.

THE DIFFICULTY REMOVED.

Mrs. W. M. Glover, Pearl Street, Brockville, Ont., says: "One of my children that had been suffering from sluggish kidneys read about Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, and procured a bottle from F. R. Curry's drug store. They removed the whole difficulty promptly. That depressing pain over the kidneys stopped, dizziness and headaches ceased, and there was a general invigorating of the system. There is no question regarding the merits of these Tablets for the back and kidneys."

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets are 50c. a Box, at all druggists or by mail. The Dr. Zina Pitcher Co., Toronto, Ont.

To Succeed Judge Fortin.

Montreal, Oct. 30.—The Liberal electors of the County of Laval held a convention at St. Vincent de Paul last night to consider the question of of a candidate to fill the vacancy in the House of Commons caused by the appointment of Mr. Fortin to the bench. It was decided to offer the candidature to Mr. Gardian Menard, a prominent resident of the county.

Premier Farquharson Nominated.

Charlottetown, Oct. 30.—Premier Farquharson yesterday received the unanimous nomination of the convention of the Liberal party of West Queen's, called to nominate a candidate to contest for the seat made vacant by the elevation of Sir Louis Davies to the Supreme Court bench. A strong resolution was passed showing why the choice of the convention should be given the portfolio held by Sir Louis Davies.

Ontario W.C.T.U.

Stratford, Oct. 30.—The annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Ontario opened at the City Hall here yesterday morning with a large attendance of delegates representative of the order throughout the Province. Mrs. S. G. E. KcKee of Barrie, president, presided. The session was opened with a consecration service, after which various reports were read and adopted.

Admits the Pope Is Failing.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—The Record-Herald's Rome correspondent wires: Dr. Lapponi, Pope Leo's medical attendant, admits that His Holiness is aging rapidly and visibly. He sleeps very little and eats very little. His memory is weak with regard to present affairs, but tenacious of past events.

Prof. Shuttleworth Resigns.

Toronto, Oct. 30.—At a meeting of the Ontario Cabinet yesterday afternoon, the resignation of Prof. A. E. Shuttleworth of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, who held the chair of chemistry, was accepted, and Prof. Harcourt of the college staff was appointed to the position.

Troops Not Needed.

New Orleans, Oct. 30.—It is believed that the riot between negroes and whites at Balltown is ended. A telegram was received from Governor Heard at 8.30 o'clock yesterday morning countermanding the instructions to General Glynn to send troops to Balltown.

The Ottawa Liquor Case.

Ottawa, Oct. 30.—In the Police Court yesterday John Huckell, proprietor of the Brunswick Hotel, was fined $25, under the Ontario Act, for refusing to remove the blinds from his bar window. Licensed victuallers will appeal the case.

SAYS RICE FIRED THE SHOT

Constable Stewart's Story at Trial of Last of the Gang.

Grand Jury Returned a True Bill Against Rice for the Murder of County Constable William Boyd, and the Trial Then Proceeded—Line of Defence Hinted at—Will Try to Show That Jones Killed Constable Boyd.

Toronto, Oct. 30.—Fred Lee Rice spent the whole of yesterday in the dock at the Criminal Assize Court, listening to evidence laid before 12 jurors, who will determine whether or not he murdered County Constable John Boyd.

The counsel engaged in the case are: Hugh Guthrie, M. P., of Guelph, who is conducting the prosecutions at the court, and Messrs. T. C. Robinette and J. M. Godfrey, who appear for the prisoner, Rice.

True Bill Was Returned.

Mr. Hugh McMath, J. P., announced the result of the grand jury's finding in the case promptly at 10 o'clock, the hour at which the court opened. Rice was brought in and escorted to the dock by Officers Severs and McIlwain. He was arraigned and a plea of not guilty entered.

The jurymen chosen to try him are these:

Robert B. Powell, grocer, 440 Spadina avenue; Philip Rynard, farmer, Georgina; Thomas Shortiss, confectioner, 48 Walton street; Henry Pye, piano regulator, 50 Bellevue place; Lewis Ramer, piano maker, 39 Balmuto street; Abraham Kingdom, farmer, Etobicoke; William T. Watson, boltmaker, 833 West King Street; Thomas N. Northcott, gentleman, 24 Walton street; Benjamin Pearce, machinist, 236 Lippincott street; Francis Dundas, gentleman, 88 Annette street, Toronto Junction.

The Crown had eight stand outside and the prisoner, entitled to 20 challenges, used 18.

Crown Prosecutor Guthrie opened the case for the Crown.

County Constable Walter Stewart, the Crown's chief witness, told of the drive from the City Hall to the jail on the night of June 4. Everything went well till the corner of Sumach and Gerrard streets was reached, when the parcels containing the revolvers was thrown in by some person, and a scramble ensued. Rice and Rutledge each secured a revolver and ordered the constables to throw up their hands. Boyd was immediately shot dead.

"Who was it that fired the shot that killed Boyd?" asked Mr. Guthrie.

"Rice did," answered the witness.

Stewart continued the recital of the story of the tragedy, and the recapture of the prisoners. He told how the prisoners got out of the cab, and how he shot Jones from the door of the hack.

The Line of Defence.

The cross-examination of the witness by Mr. Robinette furnished the first definite clue to the line to be pursued by the defence. Stewart admitted that, although Jones, who died as a result of witness' bullet, was hand-cuffed to his fellow prisoners, he could raise his arms and use his hands quite freely. Although Stewart was positive that only one shot was fired inside the cab, he admitted he did not look in the direction of Rice at the instant of the explosion.

Thomas Crittenden, jr., druggist, at the northeast corner of Gerrard and Sumach streets, was called when the court resumed at 2 o'clock. On the evening of the murder he was standing about 20 feet east of Sumach street, on Gerrard street, when the hack carrying the prisoners approached from the west. His attention was attracted by a stiff hat (produced) falling out of the north entrance. The vehicle was going very slowly, and Crittenden, after picking the hat up, ran around to the south side and looked in. Rutledge, who was sitting on the right hand side, had a revolver. Rice's left hand was across the carriage door. Immediate across the carriage door. Immediately after he looked in he heard a "bang" and the carriage door was kicked open. Rice came out first, and was followed by Jones and Rutledge, in the order named. As soon as the prisoners were clear of the hack, someone inside fired a shot, and the shots were returned by Rice and Rutledge. The latter fired three or four, and Rice three shots. Rice then turned around, facing the east, and made for the car. Jones, the man in the centre, was shot and had to be dragged on to the car.

Mr. Robinette, in cross-examination, pointed out to Crittenden that, at the preliminary investigation, on June 7, he had sworn that he had seen no revolver in the hands of the man on the other side. The witness made some explanation unsatisfactory to Mr. Robinette, and the lawyer accused Crittenden of talking over his evidence with Detective Forrest. The witness denied this, and, on continuing his evidence, he admitted that if Rutledge had Stewart's revolver, the only place he could have got it was in the hack. In conclusion, he said he would not like to swear that he saw any part of the revolver in Rice's hand.

Hack Driver's Story.

Robert Highley, who drove the party from the City Hall, described the position of the prisoners in his carriage. Rice was on the left, Jones in the centre, and Rutledge on the right hand side. "Before we started," said Highley, "one of the prisoners remarked, 'Hurry up, we are in a hurry to-night.'" He drove by way of Albert, James, Queen streets, Wilton avenue and Parliament and Gerrard streets. At Sumach street, he heard a scuffling in the cab, and someone said, "Let me out!" After more than one shot had been fired inside, Rutledge came out first, Jones next, and Rice last. They ran around in front of the horses and jumped on the street car.

Seldon Kohlmeyer, the motorman on the street car upon which the men jumped, said several shots were fired before the hack stopped. When they boarded the car, Rice made a grab for the controller handle and started the car. Kohlmeyer cut the power off, when one of the two said, "Keep the car going, or I'll shoot you!" Rutledge pointed a revolver, and the motorman had him in one hand and Rice in the other. Just then, Stewart came aboard, struck both prisoners over the head, and they fell, Rice saying, "I'll give up!"

Heard Nine Shots.

Motorman Robert Wilson of a car standing on the north track, heard five shots before any of the prisoners left the hack. In all, nine were fired. Stewart took the revolver from Rice on the car, and Jones said, "We'll give up!" Robert Apnis, who took a revolver from Rutledge, and William Green and James Simpson also gave unimportant evidence dealing with the struggle on the platform of the car, and the recapture of the prisoners. Guards Spanton and Dodds also related the details of the efforts made to subdue the prisoners. The former swore positively that it was he who got Constable Stewart's revolver from Rutledge. Motorman Thos. Malone, who was proceeding west along Gerrard street with his car, when he saw the revolvers thrown into the hack, was the last witness examined before the court adjourned. The trial will be resumed at 10 o'clock this morning.

PRAIRIE IN A BLAZE.

Great Tract of Land Burned Over—The Fire Still Going.

Winnipeg, Oct. 30.—One of the worst prairie fires of recent years started shortly after noon Monday near the C.P.R. track, between Bergen and Rosser, about eight miles from Winnipeg.

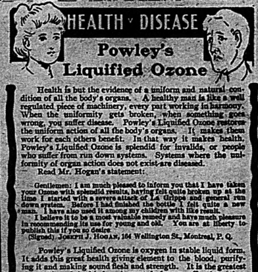
At the time there was a strong wind blowing from the south, amounting to about a small hurricane. This drove the rapidly-spreading flames in front of it at a terrific rate, and it is estimated that a tract of land five miles wide and twenty miles in length has been converted into a charred waste. At an early hour this morning the fire had reached the bush south of Stonewall, and was still making rapid headway.

Nearing the End.

Washington, Oct. 30.—The cross-examination of Admiral Schley was continued throughout the session of the Court of Inquiry yesterday. The progress made was exceedingly slow. Practically the whole day was consumed in questioning the Admiral about the cruise from Cienfuegos to Santiago, and the motives and influences that governed him in turning back after his squadron had arrived in the vicinity of the latter port. This latter branch of the cross-examination had not been concluded when the court adjourned.

Young Lad Shoots Himself.

Winnipeg, Oct. 30.—The young son of Peter Manson, a farmer, living at Rabitt Lake, a few miles from Rat Portage, shot himself fatally yesterday. He was taking a loaded gun down from the wall, when by some means it went off and the charge entered the abdomen. The boy lived about half an hour.



HEALTH v DISEASE

Powley's Liquified Ozone

Health is but the evidence of a uniform and natural condition of all the body's organs. A healthy man is like a well regulated piece of machinery, every part working in harmony. When the uniformity gets broken, when something goes wrong, you suffer disease. Powley's Liquified Ozone restores the uniform action of all the body's organs. It makes them work for each others benefit. In that way it makes health. Powley's Liquified Ozone is splendid for invalids, or people who suffer from run down systems. Systems where the uniformity of organ action does not exist are diseased.

Read Mr. Hogan's statement:

Gentlemen: I am much pleased to inform you that I have taken your Ozone with splendid results, having felt quite broken up at the time I started with a severe attack of La Grippe and general run down system. Before I had finished the bottle I felt quite a new man. I have also used it among my children with like result.

I believe it to be a most valuable remedy and have much pleasure in recommending its use for young and old. You are at liberty to publish this if you so desire.

(Signed) JOSEPH J. HOGAN, 164 Wellington St., Montreal, P. Q.

Powley's Liquified Ozone is oxygen in stable liquid form. It adds this great health giving element to the blood, purifying it and making sound flesh and strength. It is the greatest preparation of the kind. A great deal more efficacious than drugs or stimulants.

Normal Life To Be Resumed

Repeopling of the Transvaal and Orange River Colonies.

Constable Stewart Says Rice Fired the Shot Which Killed Boyd—Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show in a Wreck—How Czolgosz Acted Before Electrocution—Young Lad Shoots Himself.

Durban, Oct. 29.—The Imperial authorities have reached the conclusion that the early repeopling of the Transvaal and Orange River Colonies is advisable, so that the normal industrial and agricultural life of the colonies may be resumed.

In the course of a speech yesterday afternoon, Lord Milner of Cape Town said it was useless to wait until the war was over in a formal sense. It might never be over, he declared, but it was burning itself out, and, in time, "we ought to show ourselves master in the house we have taken, by rebuilding it and beginning to live in it."

"Bobs" Wants to Fight Again.

London, Oct. 30.—It is now tacitly acknowledged in official circles that Field Marshal Lord Roberts is not only anxious to go out to the Transvaal again in command of the forces, but he has even offered to do so. The desire, or rather request, to that effect was received by Mr. Brodrick, Secretary of War, within a week, and may have something to do with the hurried return of the Marquis of Salisbury from the continent at the time when it was expected he would remain away for at least a month.

"Bobs" wants to succeed Lord Kitchener, whose stock has been steadily falling for several months in the light of the meagre and disagreeable intelligence constantly trickling out from the South.

Botha's Narrow Escape.

Pretoria, Oct. 29.—Commandant-General Botha's recent escape from the British columns pursuing him was a close affair. Major Remington marched on the commander-in-chief's quarters at night, only to find that Botha had got off with a few hundred yards' start, leaving his hat, revolver and papers behind. Ten prisoners, including Commandant Hans Botha and former Landdrost Schutt Botha and former Landdrost Schutte, were captured.

Severe Fighting.

London, Oct. 30.—A despatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, Monday, Oct. 28, says he has received reports of important fighting on Oct 24, near Great Marco River, when Delarey and Kemp attacked a British force, and were only repulsed after severe fighting, leaving 40 dead on the field, including Commandant Oosthuizen. The British lost 28 men killed and had 55 wounded. The Boers carried off eight British wagons. The Republicans appear to have paid special attention to the guns, as 37 gunners and drivers were killed or wounded.

Lord Kitchener mentions a number of minor affairs, and says this week's "bag" consisted of 74 Boers killed, 16 wounded and 355 made prisoners. In addition, 43 Boers surrendered and the British captured 471 rifles, 75,950 rounds of ammunition, 210 wagons, 530 horses and 8,000 head of cattle.

The Real Issue.

London, Oct. 30.—Mr. Chamberlain, the Colonial Secretary, speaking yesterday in Cupar, Scotland, repeated the arguments he has frequently used in justification of the Government's South African pacification policy. He defended himself from the accusation that he was responsible for the war by declaring that again and again Great Britain had been on the eve of a struggle with the Boers, not over the question of franchises, but on the issue whether Briton or Boer should be predominant in South Africa.

Criminals at St. Catharines.

St. Catharines, Oct. 30.—Chief Justice Meredith opened the Fall Assizes on Monday afternoon. King v. Anson Myles, who pleaded guilty to a charge of indecent assault, the charge of rape being withdrawn. He was sentenced to two years in the Central Prison.

The grand jury returned a true bill of manslaughter against James Murphy, and no bill against Thos. McCue, charged with attempting to discharge a loaded revolver with intent to do grievous bodily harm.

Royal Investiture.

London, Oct. 30.—King Edward yesterday personally conferred the insignia of various orders on 250 to 300 officers and others recently decorated. The investiture, which was held in St. James' Palace, was attended by all the state ceremonial.

The two eldest sons of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, Prince Edward and Prince Albert, dressed in sailor suits, were interested spectators of the scene.

Negotiations With Brigands.

London, Oct. 30.—"It is officially stated that the United States Legation in Constantinople has opened direct communication with Miss Stone's captors," says a despatch from Sofia to The Daily Telegraph. "The Bulgarian Government has allowed the celebrated Rilo Kloster (southwest of Samakov) to be searched, and two suspected monks to be arrested."

Mr. Maxwell Holds Burrard.

Ottawa, Oct. 30.—In the Supreme Court yesterday morning judgment was delivered in the Beauharnois, Two Mountains and Burrard election appeals, based on the preliminary judgments. The results of the court's decision is that the election trials proceed against Mr. Loye and Mr. Ethier, Liberal members for Beauharnois and Two Mountains respectively, but Mr. Maxwell, Liberal member for Burrard, is confirmed in his seat.

New Filipino Leader.

Manila, Oct. 30.—Malvar has issued a new proclamation, appointing himself captain-general and reorganizing the Filipino army under two lieutenant-generals and four generals of division. Every guide caught aiding the Americans will be treated immediately as a traitor.

Taken to Fredericton.

Halifax, Oct. 30.—Adam Harley, who is charged with embezzling $6,000 from the Bank of British North America, was taken back to Fredericton last night for trial.

Two Killed at Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 30.—A. Cummings, brakeman, of Winnipeg, was run over by a train and killed yesterday.

Fred Joy, aged 15, while on a handcar, was run down and killed by a C.P.R. train yesterday.

Three Years for Stealing.

Winnipeg, Oct. 30. — John Falk, who pleaded guilty to stealing registered mail matter from the Winnipeg Postoffice, was yesterday morning sentenced by Judge Bain to three years in the penitentiary.

Suicide Finally Succeeded.

Winnipeg, Oct. 30.—Twice foiled in his attempt to destroy his life, Robert Nichol, a young clerk, was successful on the third attempt yesterday afternoon, when he cut his throat with a razor.

The run of live stock was not large—56 carloads, all told, composed of 787 cattle, 820 hogs, 1389 sheep and lambs, with about 60 calves. Besides the above, there were five loads of Manitoba horses, consigned to J. H. Baird, per C.P.R.

Trade, while far from being brisk, was fair, as there was a light run. The best lots only were sought after, while the poorer grades were slow of sale. Prices were about the same as last week, as will be seen by the sales given below.

Chafing and Itching Skin

Dr. Chase's Ointment

There is no single organ in the human body which exerts such a wide influence over the other organs as does the liver. It has been well named the regulator of the system. Once the liver grows sluggish and fails to filter bile poisons from the system, there comes pain, disease and death. The head aches, the tongue is coated, the bowels become constipated, the digestive system is thrown out of order, and foul impurities that should be removed from the body, are thrown back into the blood stream, to find their way to the weak spots of the human frame.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills have a direct action on the liver, and bring prompt relief and lasting benefit. Nearly everybody is familiar with the extraordinary virtues of this famous treatment. Here is a sample of the letters received from cured ones:—

Mr. John Skelton, the well-known bridge builder of 101 Sherwood street, Ottawa, states:

"I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for kidney and liver derangement, brought on by exposure, and find them better than any pill or medicine I have ever used.

"They cleansed my system and made me feel healthy and vigorous and better in every way. I can recommend them as the best liver and kidney medicine that I know of."

Mrs. G. Bird, Harriston, Ont., says:

"I have suffered agonies from sick headache and dizziness, often having to take to my bed. Reading of your celebrated Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, I tried a box of them. They indeed are wonders—relieve quickly."

Mr. James Baird, postmaster, Consecon, Ont., states:

"It gives me and my wife much pleasure to recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills as a family medicine of superior value. We use them in preference to all other pills in our family, and I might here state that they cured me when suffering from biliousness, and also cured my wife of sick headache, from which she suffered severely."

PAID THE FINAL PENALTY

Leon F. Czolgosz Successfully Electrocuted at Auburn.

Murderer of President McKinley Said He Was Not Sorry for His Crime, and Claimed That It Had Been Done in the Interests of the Working People—Talked While Straps Were Being Adjusted—Body Destroyed by Acid.

Auburn, Oct. 30.—At 7.12.30 o'clock yesterday morning Leon F. Czolgosz, murderer of President William McKinley, paid the extreme penalty exacted by the law for his crime. He was shocked to death by 1,700 volts of electricity. He went to the chair in exactly the same manner as have the majority of all the other murderers in this State, showing no particular sign of fear, but, in fact, doing what few of them have done, talking to the witnesses while he was being strapped in the chair.

"I killed the President because he was an enemy of the good people—of the good working people. I am not sorry for my crime."

These were his words as the guards hurried him into the chair.

Words he supplemented a moment later, mumbling them through the half adjusted face strap were: "I am awfully sorry I could not see my father."

Prisoner Slept Soundly.

Czolgosz retired Monday night at 10 o'clock, and slept so soundly that when Warden Mead went to the cell shortly after five in the morning the guard inside had to shake Czolgosz to awaken him. He sat up on the edge of his cot and made no reply to the warden's greeting of good morning. The prison official took from his pocket the death warrant and read it slowly and distinctly to the assassin, who hardly raised his eyes during the perfunctory ceremony.

Just as the warden stepped away from the cell door Czolgosz called to him and said; "I would like to talk with the superintendent." The warden responded: "He will be down presently."

LEON F. CZOLGOSZ.

Then the condemned man rolled over on his cot, apparently anxious to sleep again. At 5.15, however, the guard brought to him a pair of dark trousers, with the left leg slit so as to allow the free application of the electrode and a light grey outing shirt. He was told to get up and put these on, which he did.

Contrary to the usual custom he was given a new pair of shoes. When dressed he laid down on the cot again, and in this attitude Superintendent Collins found him at 5.30, when he went down to visit him.

The superintendent stood in front of the steel bars, and when the guard had called Czolgosz's attention, he said:

"I want to make a statement before you kill me."

"What do you wish to say, Czolgosz?" asked the superintendent.

"I want to make it when there are a lot of people present. I want them to hear me," said the prisoner.

"Well, you cannot," said the superintendent.

"Then I won't talk at all," said the prisoner sullenly.

After the superintendent left the guards brought Czolgosz's breakfast, consisting of coffee, toast, eggs and bacon, and he ate with quite a good deal of relish. When he was partaking of this the witnesses were gathering in the office of Warden Mead, and at 7.06 o'clock the procession passed to the death chamber, going through the long south corridor.

After testing the death chair Warden Mead gave the signal to have the prisoner brought in, and, at 7.10.30 o'clock Chief Keeper Tupper swung open the big steel door leading to the condemned cells, and as the steel bars behind which Czolgosz had been kept were swung aside and two guards marched the prisoner out into the corridor, two others following behind, and the chief keeper walking in front.

Step Was Not Firm.

The guards on either side of Czolgosz had hold of his arms, either as if to support him, or to keep him from making a demonstration. As he stepped over the threshold he stumbled, but they held him up, and as they urged him forward toward the chair he stumbled again on the little rubber covered platform upon which the chair rests. His head was erect, and with his gray flannel shirt turned back at the neck, he looked quite boyish. He was intensely pale, and as he tried to throw his head back and erect, his chin quivered very perceptibly. As he was being seated he looked about at the assembled witnesses, with quite a steady stare, and said:

"I killed the President because he was an enemy of the good people—of the working people."

Not Sorry for His Crime.

His voice trembled slightly at first, but gained strength with each word, and he spoke perfect English. "I am not sorry for my crime," he said loudly, just as the guard pushed his head back on the rubber head rest and drew the divisible strap across his forehead and chin. As the pressure on the straps tightened and bound the jaw slightly, he mumbled: "I'm awfully sorry I could not see my father."

"It was just exactly 7.11 o'clock when he crossed the threshold, but a minute had elapsed, and he just had finished the last statement when the strapping was completed and the guards stepped back from the man. Warden Mead raised his hand, and at 7.12.30 Electrician Davis turned the switch that threw 1,700 volts of electricity into the living body. The rush of the immense current threw the body so hard against the straps that they creaked perceptibly. The hands clinched up suddenly and the whole attitude was one of extreme tenseness. For forty-five seconds the full current was kept on, and then slowly the electrician threw the switch back, reducing the current volt by volt until it was cut off entirely. Then, just as it had reached that point, he threw the lever back again for a brief two or three seconds. The body, which had collapsed as the current was reduced, stiffened up again against the straps. When it was turned off again Dr. MacDonald stepped to the chair and put his hand over the heart. He said he felt no pulsation, but suggested that the current be turned on for a few seconds again. Once more the body became rigid. At 7.15 the current was turned off for good.

Execution Successful.

From the time Czolgosz had left his cell until the full penalty was paid, less than four minutes had elapsed. The physicians present used the stethoscope and other tests to determine if any life remained, and at 7.17 the warden, raising his hand, announced;

"Gentlemen, the prisoner is dead."

The witnesses filed from the chamber, many of them visibly affected, and the body, which, five minutes before had been full of life and vigor, was taken from the chair and laid on the operating table.

Czolgosz Was Responsible.

Almost the entire attention of the physicians assigned to hold the autopsy was directed towards discovering, if possible, whether the assassin was in any way mentally irresponsible. The autopsy was conducted by Dr. Carlos F. MacDonald, an expert alienist, and former President of New York State Lunacy Commission; Dr. E. A. Spitzka of New York, and Prison Physician Gerin. The top of the head was sawed off, through the thickest part of the skull, which was found to be of normal thickness, and it was the unanimous agreement, after microscopical examination, that the brain was normal, or slightly above normal. The autopsy was completed shortly before noon.

The Body Destroyed.

The body was placed in a black-stained pine coffin; every portion of the anatomy being replaced, under the supervision of Dr. Gerin and Warden Mead. Shortly afterwards it was taken to the prison cemetery, and an extraordinary precaution taken to completely destroy it. A carboy of acid was obtained and poured upon the body in the coffin after it had been lowered into the grave. Straw was used in the four corners of the grave as the earth was put in, to give vent to such gases as might form.

It is the belief of the physicians that the body would be entirely disintegrated within twelve hours. During that time, and as long as deemed necessary, a guard will be kept over the unmarked grave.

WILD WEST SHOW WRECK.

One Hundred and Ten Horses Killed in the Collision.

Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 30.—One hundred and ten of the ring horses of Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show were crushed to death in a railroad wreck near Lexington at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. Among the horses killed was "Old Pap," Col. Cody's favorite saddle horse. He says his loss is $60,000. The accident was the result of a head-on collision.

Sentenced to 15 Years.

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 30.— Sapper Gill of the Royal Engineers, who a couple of weeks ago shot Gunner Clinnick of the R.G.A. while shooting at Gunner Mahoney of the same regiment, was yesterday found guilty of manslaughter, and was sentenced by Judge Drake to fifteen years in the penitentiary. He is only 21 years of age.

Mr. Ganong, M.P., Safe.

St. John, N. B., Oct. 30.—The Charlotte County election protest against G. W. Ganong, M. P., was dismissed yesterday.

A Business Proposition.

A successful business career cannot be achieved without sound health. The business man should guard his health as he guards his capital; for health is part of his capital and the impairment of that capital affects every business interest. A sedentary occupation and quick lunches, soon show their effects in a sluggish liver. The use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure "liver trouble" as well as indigestion and other diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition.

The "Discovery" strengthens the body by supplying Nature with strength making materials. It contains no whisky, alcohol or other intoxicant.

"After three years of suffering with liver trouble and malaria," writes Mr. Edward Jacobs, of Marengo, Crawford Co., Indiana, "I gave up all hopes of ever getting stout again, and the last chance was to try your medicine. I had tried all the home doctors and received but little relief. After taking three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and one vial of his 'Pleasant Pellets' I am stout and hearty. It is due entirely to your wonderful medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets assist the action of "Golden Medical Discovery."

TO MOTHERS

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Mothers need not dread childbearing after they know the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. While I loved children I dreaded the ordeal, for it left me weak and sick for months after, and at the time I thought death was a welcome relief; but before my last child was born a good neighbor advised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I used that, together with your Pills and Sanative Wash for four months before the child's birth;—it brought me wonderful relief. I hardly had an ache or pain, and when the child was ten days old I left my bed strong in health. Every spring and fall I now take a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and find it keeps me in continual excellent health."—MRS. J. H. HASKINS, 3248 Indiana Ave., Chicago, Ill.—$5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.

MRS. J. H. HASKINS.

Care and careful counsel is what the expectant and would-be mother needs, and this counsel she can secure without cost by writing to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass.

CANADA AT THE PAN-AMERICAN FAIR.

Canada has no reason to be ashamed of her showing at the Buffalo Fair as a summary of the winnings of, erican is exceedingly creditable, es Canadian live stock at the Pan-Am pecially when compared with the winnings of the American stock. Practically all the live stock awards were in cash, hence the comparative statements given with regard to Canadian and American cattle are therefore indicative of the relative merits of the exhibits—the Canadian winnings more than cover the expenses of exhibiting. A general summary of the winnings is as follows:

	United States.	Canada.
Cattle	$3,912.40	$3,111.60
Sheep	1,290.62	2,152.50
Swine	165.00	377.50
Total of United States	$5,368.02
Total of Canada		5,641.60

Being $372.58 in excess of half the prizes offered in these departments.

In reference to the award of prizes and management of the show generally, Mr. Hutchison, the Canadian representative at Buffalo stated in an interview that the announcement of the awards did not create the greatest harmony. A casual glance over the list of medals and diplomas won by different States and countries is, according to Mr. Hutchison, anything but a fair estimate of the relative merits. In some instances a job lot of exhibits which did duty at previous exhibitions were arranged to secure medals awarded for single exhibits, while exhibits equally as good or better, which were arranged as a "collection," only secured one medal.

In the dairy department the reverse was the case, the Yankee cheese secured the gold medal, it being artistically arranged as a collection of different makes of cheese. The Canadian exhibitors depended on quality not quantity or appearance, and only secured the silver medal. Other awards, however, are to be made and the Canadian September and late summer cheese will likely make a better showing.

We understand that the Gold Medal was awarded to Canada for the best display of agricultural products.

Perhaps, after this, notwithstanding the drawbacks pointed out by Mr. Hutchison, our cousins south of 45 have learned that Canada is not so bad a place to live in after all.

TIMELY TOPICS.

Most people are averse to having two holidays next month. Nine-tenths of the newspapers agree that if one of the holidays is to be dispensed with it should be the one which falls on November 28th. The King's birthday we ought, as loyal subjects, to keep. The other is only an attempt to copy a Yankee custom, which we in this country can very well get along without. If the people at the head of affairs won't change the date of Thanksgiving day no great amount of harm will be done if it is ignored altogether. But the King's Birthday should be duly honored by loyal Canadians, and, we think, will be.

It strikes us that the safest company a man can have in case of a runaway is his own thoughts.

The fact that five men have already been shot in the Maine woods this season, having been mistaken for deer, should be a warning to local Nimrods. That kind of shooting is dear sport.

A correspondent of the Military Gazette urges the adoption of such legislation as would necessitate three years identification with the volunteers before the enjoyment of the privileges of the franchise. The idea is not at all a bad one. A proper military training would hurt no young man, but, on the contrary, better fit him for the duties of citizenship.

THE DIFFERENCE.
(Hamilton Spectator.)

In the Mabee matter the difference between Whitney and Ross is this: Whitney said "Get out!" Ross said "Come in."

• • •

What's the matter with the Grit papers? They are as mum as oysters about the value of their discovery of a "disgusted Conservative." Has he proved a boomerang?

Newspapers have made many a man, who had little claim to greatness, other than the puffing he got. The Globe is doing its share towards making a hero of Laurier. The trip of His Royal Highness the Duke of York was made glorious by his being accompanied by Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The Globe says his presence wherever the Duke was seen "made it impossible for Sir Wilfrid to travel without recognition, and as a consequence there was a disposition everywhere to make him a leading figure in the remarkable journey." No doubt this is true, if applied to the Bourassa type of politicians, not otherwise.

Herr Maurer, a Berlin journalist, has been condemned to spend four months in prison because he printed in his paper an article approving of President McKinley's assassination. Those who chatter as well as those who do murder are getting their deserts. The administering of a little more of this prison medicine would do good.

Between 60 and 70 candidates will write for the preliminary and 250 for the qualifying civil service examinations in Ottawa, Nov. 12 to 15. What a scramble there will be for places among the faithful. Our sympathy is extended to all Grit M.P.'s.

The St. Albans Messenger says the only way for Canada to obtain the benefits of reciprocity with the United States is to become annexed to the United States. "We have not been aware of any agitation in favor of reciprocity in this country for the past ten years." So says a contemporary. It is quite true there has been no demand for reciprocity lately. Why? Because the Grits are in power. Let them be relegated to the opposition benches, and if politically profitable the howl will begin again.

J. P. Morgan is paying for the installation of an electric light system in St. Paul's Cathedral, at an expense of about £9,000. The papers think it is a reproach to rich Englishmen, that the benefaction should be left to the generosity of a man who is not British. The Londoners can bear the reproach, and Morgan the expense. Honors are even.

Judging from recent events, the Grits of this vicinity are more anxious to get their relatives into the Post office than they are to get into Parliament themselves.

THIS CALLS UP REMINISCENCES.
(Toronto World.)

There has been a big fight in the St. Catharines City Council over street lighting contracts, and the electric light people have won. The city hold stock in the Gas Company, nevertheless, a tender from that company was turned down. The Standard indicates that there was a sudden conversion of some aldermen over night. Was the Montreal method repeated in the Garden City?

• • •

Mr. C. R. Mabee, of Toronto, who has just been doing some pamphlet work for both political parties, was in the city to-day. Mr. Mabee's object in visiting Belleville is not known, but he probably came to take a few lessons in mendacity and vilification from the local Grit sheet. And assuredly he came to the right place.

THE FADETTES.

Montreal Star: A large crowd attended the concert given last evening in Windsor Hall by the Fadette's Woman's Orchestra. It was the inauguration of the second season of the popular course of entertainments, and if the standard of last evening's entertainment was any criterion of the succeeding ones, the course should prove most successful. The Fadettes are certainly one of the best woman's orchestras coming to the city, and last evening they were accorded a most hearty reception. Every number on the programme was encored and the audience even insisted on a number of the encores being repeated. The programme was a well varied one. The playing of Miss Rauck-Wilczer, the violin soloist, was especially enjoyed, and she very graciously responded to three encores. Miss Mildred Rogers, who possesses a very sweet mezzo-soprano, sang the cantabile from "Samson and Delilah." On being recalled she rendered "Down in Lovers' Lane" in a very pleasing manner. Miss Hartman gave a few recitations. The work of the orchestra was especially admired in the execution of the overture from "Mignon" and the "Imps and Goblins," by Puerner.

This splendid company will appear under the auspices of Prof. Hunt, at the opera house next Monday night.

Chapter of Accidents

(Picton Gazette.)

The little palace steamer "Quinte" met with a series of mishaps on Friday last en route to Napanee. She left town in the morning with a party of jolly sports on board destined to attend the horse race at Napanee, and under command of Capt. Williams. All went well until near Deseronto, when some part of the machinery gave way, which caused a delay of several hours at Deseronto. The Napanee trip was then abandoned and the "Quinte" headed for home. When a short distance from Deseronto a second similar accident occurred, which took some time to repair. Finally all was in running order once again, and the trim little steamer was nicely contesting a trial of speed with the fleet steamer "Ella Ross," when suddenly her shaft broke and the little craft lay, helpless upon the bosom of the Bay of Quinte. This last mishap occurred near Bolton's Cove, and the engineer being unable to repair it at sea, she was paddled ashore by means of the fire shovel and beached. During Friday evening and Saturday she gradually filled through the shaft hole and sank. Lying in somewhat of a dangerous position, it was decided to raise her on Sunday, which job was very satisfactorily done by the Roblin wrecking company, and brought safely into the harbor by the tug Wilder-Lighthall.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,

WELLINGTON.

The departure of our summer visitors has made our village very quiet. Judging from numbers, we feel that as a resort during the hot months, we are yearly growing in favor.

The popular proprietor of the Wellman House appears quick to anticipate the requirements of guests. The improvements to lawn on lake shore and the providing music every evening are much appreciated.

The kind acts of some of our visitors will not soon be forgotten. The encouragement of good work was felt.

The Harvest Festival Services were held in the English Church on Sunday, Oc. 20. The regular clergyman Rev Mr. Nimtleon, had secured the Rev. Dr. Nimmo as preacher for the occasion, and the Dr. delivered two very eloquent and appropriate sermons. The church was beautifully decorated with fruit, flowers, vegetables and also many very pretty maple leaves. The services were all bright and hearty. The Young People's Guild in connection with the church gave a Maple Leaf Tea in the Music Hall on Thursday evening, which was well attended and much enjoyed. The tables groaned under the weight of good things. The hall was pretty as a picture and was much admired. Willing and tasteful minds and hands must have spent much time on it. A chaste banner, "The Maple Leaf for Ever," and two maple leaf arches were prominent features, but the most admired of all were the many pretty young ladies.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The first object in life with the Canadian people is to "get rich;" the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second (good health), by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well known August Flower will relieve you at once. Regular size, 75 cents. You can get Dr. G.G. Green's reliable remedies at R. Templeton & Co's.

A Lover's Presents

Fredericton, Oct. 25.—Judge Gregory on Monday, 21st Oct. set aside the verdict entered for the plaintiff a few weeks ago in the parish of Sheffield civil court in the case of Charles W. McBeath vs. John Jordan, in which the plaintiff sought to recover from the defendant the value of a number of gifts made by him to the latter's daughter in consideration, as he alleged, of her promise to marry him, and ordered a verdict for defendant with costs of review. The record of the trial was a most interesting one. The particulars filed by plaintiff comprised more than twenty gifts, including dresses, hats, boots, shoes and stockings and a stick-pin, ranging in value from $2.75 for a dress down to 5 cents for a stick-pin."

The only way for such lovers to do in future is to make the presents after not before marriage. In such cases the donor would be sure of the wife and the presents too.

HEROIC HEART "FOOD"

Dr. Agnew's Cure for the heart is heroic because in cases of heart disease seemingly beyond all human aid it goes to the very brink of the "Black River" and snatches from it the heart-sick victim.

In a trice it allays pain—in a twinkling it gives strength and vigor and it works a quick and permanent cure as by magic. It is the one great heart remedy which rightly bears the crown of supremacy and on which is inscribed the life words, "It never fails." Thirty minutes after taking the first dose, the sick heart forgets its pain. Try it. 43

JACK'S ATTIRE.

The black handkerchief which the sailor of the English navy knots around his throat was first worn as mourning for Nelson, and has ever since been retained; while the bright stripes around the broad blue collar of the sailor's jumper commemorate the victories of Trafalgar, Copenhagen, and the Nile. The broad blue collar itself is older than Nelson, and was first adopted at that period when sailors plastered their hair into a stiff pigtail with grease and powder.

IN THE CENTRE OF AFRICA the fame of Pain-Killer has spread. The natives use it to cure cuts, wounds and sprains, as well as bowel complaints. Avoid substitutes, there's only one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis'. 25c. and 50c.

THE TWO CROOKS WERE IDENTIFIED

As the Men Who Stole the Horse and Buggy From Whitby on Friday.

Taken Back This Morning to Stand Trial on Serious Charges.

Mr. Wm. E. Caverley, High Constable, of Whitby, accompanied by Mr. John A. O'Connor, a yeoman who resides near that town, arrived in this city last evening. Their mission was to see the two men, Thompson and Stewart, arrested here on the charge of horse stealing near Whitby, and also the theft of overcoats at Grafton. In view of the fact that the charge of horse stealing is a much more serious offence than that of larceny, Constable Smith, of Colborne, did not come here, having been advised by Chief Newton that the alleged thieves would be taken to Whitby to stand their trial for horse stealing.

From Mr. O'Connor it was learned that one of these men, Thompson, was at his place in the early part of Friday night last. He is easily recognised from the fact that he is minus the top of three fingers of the right hand. During that night a horse and harness belonging to Mr. O'Connor was stolen and a buggy and two robes taken from Mr. Simon Irvine, who resides about two miles from Mr. O'Connor. The outfit which was found here proves to be the stolen property.

In conversation with The Intelligencer Mr. O'Connor said he desired to express his gratitude to Chief Newton and the members of the local police force for the activity they had displayed in this matter and the clever manner in which they had succeeded in bringing the culprits to justice. It appears that within the past few weeks some three or four horses and conveyances had been stolen in the neighborhood; in fact, matters had come to such a pass that the farmers had formed themselves into a vigilance committee for the purpose of assisting the constables in tracing the thieves. Mr. O'Connor left this morning for his home, intending to drive there.

Constable Caveley left on the 11.30 train for the west this morning, taking with him the two prisoners.

DRUNKEN INDIANS

CAUSE INJURY TO A WELL-KNOWN GENTLEMAN OF THIS CITY.

Last evening about 8 o'clock Mr. F. M. Clarke was wheeling up from Shannonville, when he had an experience which he has no desire to have repeated.

About two miles east of the city he was wheeling along the right hand side of the road, when a buggy coming from the opposite direction approached. The conveyance was also on the same side. Mr. Clarke went to go across the road to take the opposite side when as he did the driver of the rig pulled the horse across and the result was a collision. Mr. Clarke was thrown from the wheel and had the right side of his face badly bruised, the eye being almost closed. In addition his shoulder was hurt. The horse took fright and in its endeavor to get away upset the buggy throwing out the two men who proved to be Indians somewhat under the influence of liquor. They were not hurt.

Two Game Fowls Stolen

George Bowler, who resides on College street, reports to the police that about 6.30 last evening two game fowls were stolen from his place whilst he was partaking of his evening meal. He says he saw a tall man in the yard shortly before he missed the fowls, and he believes he was the thief.

Grits Have Found A Candidate

WHO WILL TAKE THE NOMINATION IN WEST HASTINGS UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS.

TRENTONIANS INSIST THAT NEXT CANDIDATE MUST BE A BELLEVILLE MAN.

Have you heard the news? Our friends the Grits, after months of trouble and worry, have unearthed a candidate who is willing, under certain conditions, to oppose Mr. Porter in West Hastings. It is a sad tale—from one point of view.

The members of the Reform Association met yesterday morning, in their rooms on Front street, and read the latest document from the Government, which set forth that a candidate must be found forthwith.

The great men of the party were there, every one of them anxious to see a candidate selected, but every one of them determined that he wouldn't be the candidate himself.

Much interest was aroused by the reading of a despatch from the Grits of Trenton and Frankford, which set forth that the candidate to oppose Mr. Porter must be a Belleville man. The Trenton Grits intimated that they had already done their duty in fighting a losing battle last election. They were not to be "jollied" any more.

After the reading of this despatch gloom settled over the meeting like a pall.

Some outspoken gentlemen flatly gave their opinion that it was useless to put a candidate in the field, as he was sure to be beaten, but it was pointed out by the more experienced members of the party that, even though the candidate was defeated, the seat of patronage would be shifted from Trenton to Belleville, which was a change devoutly to be wished for.

After five men had been offered and refused the nomination, the "unanimous" choice of the gathering fell on a well-known architect and builder, whose name, as a wearer of "war paint" round election time, has become a household word in this city.

This gentleman agreed to accept the nomination, but with a very important reservation. He agreed to put on his war paint, fight manfully and carry the Grit banner to certain defeat, but he must not be asked to put up one dollar for campaign expenses.

Some people fainted when this announcement was made, and much conversation was indulged in in the effort to show the prospective candidate that his action was something altogether unprecedented in the annals of Gritism.

One delegate insinuated that, as the prospective candidate had already received four contracts from the Government, he was in duty bound to put up "the stuff."

But all the talk was in vain. The candidate thought that if he gave his time and talents he was doing quite enough, and all the persuasive powers of the Grit heelers couldn't move him.

And the meeting broke up with the understanding that the builder would be the candidate—providing he could be induced to hand out the sinews of war. In case he refused to do so, there would be no election, and Mr. E. Guss Porter would go in by acclamation.

The Grits of West Hastings are very sad to-day. It was hard enough to have nearly 900 majority registered against them last election; it was harder still to have the most influential men of their party refuse to run in a hopeless cause, but for a candidate to refuse to "put up" for campaign expenses, well, that was the straw which broke the camel's back.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

MR. JOHN A. McNEIL REMEMBERED BY HIS SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS.

Yesterday evening the members of Mr. John A. McNeil's class in the Tabernacle Methodist Church surprised their "Leader" by visiting him at his residence on Bettes street. The visitors, after presenting him with an enlarged photo of himself, beautifully framed, sat down to an impromptu banquet, after which a pleasant hour was spent in social intercourse. "Blest be the tie that binds" was sung, and the visitors took the bus, which carried them home again. The leader was entirely taken by surprise—scarcely able to utter a word in response to the address. The presentation was made by Mrs. (Rev.) W. G. Hudgins and Mrs. W. L. Henniger. The address, which follows, was read by Mrs. John R. Post:

To Mr. John A. McNeil, Classleader in the Tabernacle Methodist Church, Belleville, Ontario.

Dear Brother,—As members of this class, both individually and collectively, we desire to express to you our heart-felt thanks for your wise counsel and kindly leadership during the past twenty years. In reviewing the years gone by we realize to some extent what a help you have been to us in the past. We trust that we may be long spared to each other as co-laborers in the Master's cause.

In the name of the class, we desire to present to you this picture as a slight token of our deep regard trusting that the sight of it may bring to your memory thoughts of the profitable hours spent together as leader and class.

Craving for your continued wisdom and guidance in the discharge of your every duty, both secular and religious, and praying that God may abundantly bless you and yours during the remaining years of your earthly pilgrimage, giving you an abundant entrance into the New Jerusalem, for which our earthly sojourn is but a preparation.

Yours in Christian Fellowship,
THE CLASS.

57—62 THE CRITICAL AGE.

Height of vigor passed — nature's power slowing down, vitality less, recuperative power less, endurance less. Stop the progress of decay, tone up the weakened nerve centres, impart vigor to the tiring brain, prepare for the crisis. A means of remarkable potency in the renewal of decreasing vigor is found in Ferrozone. It brightens up the whole being, imparts a sense of power and strength. By the use of Ferrozone, old age is pushed back twenty years. Ferrozone gives strength, vigor, endurance, vim. Your druggist has it. Get a box today at McKeown's.

BADLY INJURED IN A RUNAWAY

Mr. Samuel Cornelius, of This City, Had a Narrow Escape From Death Last Night

Horse Ran Away on Canifton Road—Driver Lost His Presence of Mind.

A runaway accident occurred on the Canifton road at a few minutes before 6 o'clock last evening, which resulted in Mr. Samuel Cornelius, painter, of this city sustaining serious but fortunately not fatal injuries.

In company with Mr. Wm. Ward, the injured man was riding home from Corbyville, being seated in a buggy. Passing the ruins of the Lazier mill the horse became frightened at something lying on the side of the road and started off at a rapid gait.

Ward, who was driving, jumped out of the buggy, and, in doing so, took the lines with him. Cornelius was thus at the mercy of the fast running horse, being unable to reach the lines which were trailing upon the ground. The horse continued running for some distance, and, when near Stapley's lime kiln, situated on the eastern bank of the river, dashed towards it. Parties who were in the vicinity feared that the horse, buggy and occupant would go over the embankment, which at that point is about 15 feet high. Mr. Cornelius, realizing the dangerous position he was in, made an attempt to get out, and in doing so was thrown from the buggy, which undoubtedly saved his life, as the horse and buggy plunged over the embankment.

Strange to say the animal was not seriously hurt, but the rig was reduced to kindling wood.

As quickly as possible Mr. Cornelius was picked up, and it was seen that he was badly hurt. He was placed in a passing conveyance and conveyed to his home on Moira street and two physicians were summoned to attend him. Upon examination it was found that he had suffered a dislocation of the shoulder blade, was cut about the head, which came in contact with the rocks and also complained of internal pains. His injuries were attended to and this morning he was reported to be doing well, and likely to be around again in a short time.

Ward escaped with a few bruises about the body.

Those who went to look after the horse expected to find it lying dead, but were surprised to find it walking about in the water with the shafts of the buggy attached to it. The only injuries discernable were a couple of cuts on the legs.

Mr. Cornelius' escape from what seemed certain death was miraculous, as had he been taken over the embankment he would no doubt have been badly mutilated.

COULD NOT WALK.

Some people become so crippled with rheumatism that they cannot walk for months at a stretch. Mr. John Connell, Bedford Mills, Ont., suffered great agony with muscular rheumatism in his legs and could not walk for two months. Four bottles of Dr. Hall's Rheumatic Cure made a well man of him. This great blood purifier is put up in bottles containing ten days' treatment, 50 cents, at all drug stores, or Dr. Hall Medicine Co., Kingston, Ont.

HUGH GAY ARRESTED

IN CONNECTION WITH RECENT EVENTS AT THE GAY BROS.' FARM.

Another act of the drama in connection with the Gay Bros.' cattle and sheep was enacted this afternoon, when Hugh Gay was arrested upon a warrant which charged him with the following offence. "That he did, during the month of February, 1901, obtain credit from Reuben B. Cooper, and an advance on grain and feed by false and fraudulent statements, and that said statements were made with fraudulent intent."

The accused was placed in custody by Constable McCrodan, and taken to the police station. The charge will be investigated to-morrow.

PERFECT CURE FOR BRONCHITIS. This disease can be treated only by a remedy carried to the affected parts along with the air breathed, for nature intended these organs for the passage of air alone, and sprays, atomizers and internal medicines utterly fail. But Catarrhozone doesn't fail, for it goes wherever the air breathed goes, and its healing antiseptic vapor is sure to reach every affected part. Catarrhozone is inhaled at the mouth and after passing through every air cell of the breathing organs is slowly exhaled through the nostrils. Catarrhozone protects and heals the inflamed surfaces, relieves congestion, allays inflammation, and perfectly cures all bronchial affections. Price $1. Small size 25c. QUIET HOME WEDDING

NUPTIALS OF MISS MAGGIE DUFFIN AND MR. GEORGE F. SHARP.

A quiet home wedding took place at 10 o'clock this morning, at the residence of Mr. Robt. Duffin, Front street, when his eldest daughter, Miss Maggie, was united in marriage to Mr. George F. Sharp, of Sidney.

Rev. M. W. Maclean, of St. Andrew's church, performed the ceremony. Miss Jennie Skelly, of Melrose, was bridesmaid, whilst Mr. Walter Glass, of Trenton, did honors for the groom. After the wedding repast Mr. and Mrs. Sharp left for the east, where they will visit many places of interest before returning. The young couple have many friends here who will unite in wishing them every happiness.

Christmas Suggestions

Seem singularly out of place this beautiful weather, but the shortening days remind us that Christmas is not very far off. Our goods are arriving daily but will not be shown for some time, in order that they may not become commonplace. We have, however, received one line which we wish you to see that you may judge of our preparation for the festive season. Our south window will contain them for the balance of the week only, after which they will be withdrawn from sale until the balance of our goods are shown. They are a line of Calendars—entirely new and pretty—but a description can not do them justice. See them for yourself and have first choice.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one-half, the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done, it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilious habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little effect. But since using 3 bottles of the Vegetable Discovery, the biliousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 60 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know."

THE PUBLIC should bear in mind that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has nothing in common with the impure, deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or hurts, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

Sleeplessness.—When the nerves are unstrung and the whole body given up to wretchedness, when the mind is filled with gloom and dismal forebodings, the result of derangement of the digestive organs, sleeplessness comes to add to the distress. If only the subject could sleep, there would be the oblivion for a while and temporary relief. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, but will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Nine-tenths of the consumptives date their afflictions from a neglected cold, and the diseases that are caused by wet feet, damp clothes, or exposure are more numerous than are generally supposed. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which frees the lungs from viscid phlegm by changing the secretions from a diseased to a healthy state.

A QUESTION AS TO INFLUENCES.

Rev. Dr. Talmage Preaches on Forces That Affect Our Lives, But Which We Seldom Recognize, at the Same Time Giving Due Weight to Human Freedom and Accountability.

Entered according to Act of Parliament of Canada, in the year 1901, by William Baily, of Toronto, at the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Washington, Oct. 27.—In this discourse Dr. Talmage demonstrates that we are affected by forces that we seldom recognize and enlarges upon human accountability. The text is Job xxxviii, 31, "Canst thou bind the sweet influences of Pleiades?"

What is the meaning of that question which God put to Job? Have we all our lives been reading it, and are most of us ignorant of its beauty and power and practical suggestiveness? A meaningless passage of Scripture many thought it to be, but the telescopes were busy age after age, and astronomical observations kept on questioning the skies until the meaning of my text comes out lustrously. The Pleiades is a constellation of seven stars appearing to the naked eye, but scientific instruments reveal more than 400 properly belonging to the group. Alcyone is the name of the brightest star of that group called the Pleiades. A Russian astronomer observed that Alcyone is the centre of gravitation of our solar system. Hugh Macmillan says that the sun and its planets wheel around that centre at the rate of 422,000 miles a day in an orbit which it will take 19,000,000 years to complete. The Pleiades appear in the springtime and are associated with flowers and genial warmth and good weather. The navigation of the Mediterranean was from May to November, the rising and the setting of the Pleiades. The priests of Belus noticed that rising and setting 2,000 years before Christ.

Now, the glorious meaning of my text is plain as well as radiant. To give Job the beautiful grace of humility God asked him, "Canst thou bind the sweet influences of the Pleiades?" Have you any power over the laws of gravitation? Can you modify or change an influence wielded by a star more than 400,000 miles away? Can you control the winds of the springtime? Can you call out the flowers? How little you know compared with omniscience? How little you can do compared with omnipotence!

The probability is that Job had been tempted to arrogance by his vast attainments. He was a metallurgist, a zoologist, a poet, and shows by his writings he had knowledge of hunting, of music, of husbandry, of medicine, of mining, of astronomy and perhaps was so far ahead of the scholars and scientists of his time that he may have been somewhat puffed up; hence this interrogation of my text. And there is nothing that so soon takes down human pride as an interrogation point rightly thrust. Christ used it mightily. Paul mounted the parapet of his great arguments with such a battery. Men of the world understand it. Demosthenes began his speech to the crown and Cicero his oration against Catiline and Lord Chatham his most famous orations with a question. The empire of ignorance is so much vaster than the empire of knowledge that after the most learned and elaborate disquisition upon any subject of sociology or theology the plainest man may ask a question that will make the wisest speechless. After the profoundest assault upon Christianity the humblest disciple may make an inquiry that would silence a Voltaire.

Called upon, as we all are at times, to defend our holy religion, instead of argument that can always be answered by argument let us try the power of interrogation. We ought to be loaded with at least half a dozen questions and always ready, and when Christianity is assailed, and we are told there is nothing in it and there is no God and there never was a miracle and that the Scriptures are unreasonable and cruel and that there never will be a judgment day take out of your portable armory of interrogation something like this: "What makes the condition of woman in Christian lands better than in heathen lands? Do you think it would be kind in God to turn the human race into a world without any written revelation to explain and encourage and elevate and save? And if a revelation was made, which do you prefer—the Zenda-Vista of the Persian or the Confucian writings of the Chinese or the Koran of Mohammed or our Bible? If Christ is not a divine being, what did he mean when he said, 'Before Abram was, I am?' If the Bible is a bad book, what are the evil results of reading it? Did you see any degrading influence of the book in your father or mother or sister who used to read it? Do you not think that a judgment day is necessary in order to explain and fix up things that were never explained or fixed up? If our religion is illogical and an imposition upon human credulity, why were Herschel and Washington and Gladstone and William McKinley its advocates?? How did it happen that our religion furnished the theme for the greatest poem ever written, 'Paradise Lost,' and to the painters their greatest themes in the 'Adoration of the Magi,' 'The Transfiguration,' 'The Last Supper,' 'The Crucifixion,' 'The Entombment,' 'The Last Judgment,' and that all the schools of painting put forth their utmost genius in presenting 'The Madonna?' "

Why was it that William Shakespeare after amazing the world as he will amaze the centuries with the splendor and power of "The Merchant of Venice," and "Coriolanus," and "Richard III.," and "King Lear," and "Othello," and "Macbeth," and "Hamlet," wrote with his own hand his last will and testament, beginning it with the words, "In the name of God, amen! I, William Shakespeare, of Stratford-on-Avon, in the county of Warwick, in perfect health and memory (God be praised!) do make and ordain this my last will and testament through the only merits of Jesus Christ, my Saviour, to be made partaker of life everlasting and my body to the earth whereof it is made?" Had Shakespeare lost his reason when he wrote his faith in Christ and the great atonement? Put your antagonist a few questions like that, and you will find him excusing himself for an engagement he must meet immediately.

These words also recognize far-reaching influences. Job probably had no adequate idea of the distance of the worlds mentioned from our world, but he knew them to be far off, and we, who have had the advantage of modern sidereal investigation, ought to be still more impressed than was Job with the question of the text, as it puts before us the fact that worlds hundreds of miles distant have a grip on our world. There are sweet influences which hold us from afar. There may have been in our ancestral line perhaps 200 years ago some consecrated man or woman who has held over all the generations since an influence for good which we have no power to realize, and we in turn by our virtue or vice may influence those who shall live 200 years from now. Moral gravitation is as powerful as material gravitation, and if, as my text teaches and science confirms, the Pleiades, which are 422,000 miles from our earth, influence the earth, we ought to be impressed with how we may be influenced by others far away back and how we may influence others far down the future.

Astronomers can easily locate the Pleiades. They will take you into their observatories on a clear night and aim their revealing instrument toward the part in the heavens where those seven stars have their habitude, and they will point to the constellation Taurus, and you can see for yourself. But it is impossible to point to influences far back that have affected our character and will affect our destiny. We know the influences near by—paternal, maternal, conjugal—but by the time we have gone back two generations, or, at most, three, our investigations falter and fail. Through the modern interesting habit of searching back to find the ancestral tree we may find a long list of names, but they are only names. The consecration or abandonment of some one 300 years ago was not recorded. It would not be so important if you and I, by our good or bad behavior, blessed or blasted only those immediately around us, but our goodness or badness will reach as far as the strongest ray of Alcyone—yea, across the eternities. Under this consideration, what do you think of those who give themselves up to frivolity or idleness and throw away fifty years of their existence as though they were shells or pebbles or pods instead of embryo eternities?

I suppose one of the greatest surprises of the next world will be to see what wide, farreaching influence for good or evil we have all exerted. I am speaking of ourselves, who are only ordinary people. But who can fully appreciate the farreaching good done by men of wealth in Great Britain for the working classes—Mr. Lister of Bradford, Edward Akroyd of Halifax, Thomas Sikes of Huddersfield, Joseph Wentworth and Josiah Mason and Sir Titus Salt? This last great soul, with his vast wealth, provided 756 houses at cheap rent for 3,000 working people and chapel and cricket ground and croquet lawn and concert hall and savings bank, where they might deposit some of their earnings, and life insurance for those who looked further ahead and bathouses and parks and museums and lecture halls with philosophical apparatus, the generous example of those men of a previous generation being copied in many places in Canada and the United States, making life, which would otherwise be a prolonged drudgery, an inspiration and a joy.

Notice also in my text the influence of other worlds upon this world. We all regard the effect which our continent has upon other continents or one hemisphere upon the other hemisphere. Great harvest or drought on one side of our world affects the other side of our world. A panic in Wall street, New York, has its echo in Lombard street and the bourse. The nations of the earth cablegrammed together all feel the same thrill of delight or shock of woe. But we do not appreciate the influence of other worlds upon our world. The author of my text rouses us to the consideration. It takes all the worlds of known and unknown astronomy to keep our world in its orbit. Every world dependent on other worlds. The stellar existence is felt all through the heavens. Every constellation is a sisterhood. Our planet feels the benediction of Alcyone and all the other stars of the Pleiades. Yes, there are two other worlds that decide the fate of our world — its redemption or its demolition. Those two worlds are the headquarters of angelology and demonology. From the one world came Christ, come ministering spirits, come all gracious influences. From the other world rise all satanic and diabolic influences. From that world of moral night rose the power that wrecked our poor world six thousand years ago, and all the good work done since then has not been able to get our world out of the breakers. But the signs of distress have been hoisted and the lifelines are out, and our world's release is certain. The good influences of the consecrated people in our world will be centupled by the help from the heavenly world, and the divine power will overcome the demoniac. O man, O woman, expand your idea and know the magnitude of a contest in which three worlds are specially interested! From all the seven worlds which my text calls the Pleiades there come no such powerful influences as from the two worlds that I am now mentioning. My only hope for this world is in the re-enforcement that is to come from another world. But that is promised, and so I feel as sure of the rectification of all evil as though looking out of my window to-day I saw the parks and the gardens flowering into another paradise and the apocalypse angel flying through the midst of heaven with the news that the kingdoms of this world would have become the kingdoms of our Lord.

My text called Job and calls us to consider "the sweet influences." We put too much emphasis upon the acidities of life, upon the irritations of life, upon the disappointments of life. Not sufficiently do we recognize the sweet influences of the wife. We men are of a rougher mold, and our voice is loud, and our manners need to be tamed, and gentleness is not as much of a characteristic as it ought to be, and we often say things we ought to take back. It is to change this that the good wife comes in. The interests of the twain are identical. That which from outsiders would be considered criticism and to be resented becomes kindly suggestion. Sweet influences that make us better men than we otherwise would have been or could have been!

The last chapter of Proverbs recognizes the good wife's influence when it says, "Her husband is known in the gates when he sitteth among the elders of the land"—that is, his apparel indicates that he has some one to look after his wardrobe, and his manners show that he is under refining influences at home. But no one fully appreciates the sweet influences of the wife until the dark day comes and the slight symptoms become serious and the serious phases of the disorder pass into the fatal and the temperature is 106 and medical ingenuity is exhausted and you are told for your consolation that "while there is life there is hope," which means that there is no hope at all, and the precious life flutters and is gone, and you must put out of sight the one who from the day she took the vow amid the orange blossoms under the marriage bell had been to you more than all the world besides. Then you realize as never before what had been the sweet influences.

Sweet influences of friendship! If we have behaved ourselves tolerably well, we have friends. In our days of mirth they come with their congratulations. In times of sorrow they come with expressions of solace. In times of perplexity they come with their advice. They are with us at weddings and at burials. If there is anything good in us, they find it out, and our frailties they overlook and excuse. If something appears against us, they say, "Wait till I hear the other side." If disaster shall befall us, we know from whom would come the first condolence. Family friends; church friends; business friends; lifelong friends. In our heart of hearts we cherish them.

Sweet influences of our holy religion, surrounded as we are by all the amenities of Christian society—men and women who have felt the refining and elevating power of the gospel! Sweet influences of the Sabbath, fifty-two of them chiming their joy into every year! Sweet influences of the Scriptures, with their balm for all wounds and their light for every darkness! When the heirs of a vast estate in England wished to establish their claim to property worth $100,000.00, they offered a reward of $500 for the recovery of an old Bible, the family record of which contained the evidence requisite. But any Bible, new or old, can help us to a vaster inheritance than the one spoken of, one that never fades away.

The stories of that world and its holy hilarities come in upon our souls sometimes in song, sometimes in sermon, sometimes in hours of solitary reflection, and they are, to use the words of my text, sweet influences. But there is one star that affects us more with its sweet influences than the centre star, the Alcyone of the Pleiades, and that is what one Bible author calls the Star of Jacob and another Bible author calls the Morning Star. Of all the sweet influences that have ever touched our earth those that radiate from Christ are the sweetest.

Sweet influences of the Holy Ghost, with all its transforming and comforting and emancipating power. When that power is fully felt, there will be no more sins to pardon, and no more wrongs to correct, and no more sorrows to comfort, and no more bondage to break. But as the old time ship captains watched the rising of the Pleiades for safe navigation and set sail in Mediterranean waters, but were sure to get back into port before the constellation Orion came into sight — the season of cyclone and hurricane — so there is a time to sail for heaven, and that is while the sweet influences are upon us and before the storms overtake the delay. Open all your soul to the light and warmth and comfort and inspiration of that gospel which has already peopled heaven with millions of the ransomed and is helping other millions to that glorious destination. Do not postpone the things of God and eternity till the storms of life swoop and the agitations of a great future are upon us. Do not dare wait till Orion takes the place of the Pleiades. Weigh anchor now and with chart unrolled and pilot on board head for the reunions and raptures that await all the souls forgiven. "And they need no candle, neither light of the sun, for the Lord God giveth them light, and they shall reign forever and ever."

A Sour Stomach

IS OFTEN THE REAL CAUSE OF A SOUR TEMPER.

That the condition of the digestive organs has a marked effect upon the character or disposition is a truism as old as the hills. Old Ben Jonson wisely said, "the pleasure of living depends upon the liver," and it is a fact which none may dispute that a sunny disposition more often results from a healthy digestion than from any other cause.

Acid dyspepsia, commonly called sour stomach or heartburn, is caused by slow digestion of food; instead of being promptly digested and converted into blood, bone and muscle, it lies in the stomach for hours, fermenting and decaying, creating gases, which cause pressure on the lungs and heart, short breath and general discomfort and irritation.

Such half digested food is indeed poor nourishment for the body, brain and nerves and the result is shown in irritable tempers, unaccountable headaches and that depressing condition usually called the "blues," but how quickly all these disappear when appetite and digestion are restored.

Laxative medicines only irritate the already irritated stomach and bowels and have no effect upon actual digestion of food.

The sensible course to follow is to make use of simple natural digestives like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals until the stomach has a chance to recuperate.

The natural digestives which every healthy stomach contains are peptones, diastase and Hydrochloric and lactic acids and when any of them are lacking the trouble begins. The reason Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are so valuable and successful in curing stomach troubles is because they contain, in a pleasant concentrated tablet form all these absolutely necessary essentials for perfect digestion and assimilation of food.

Henry Kirkpatrick, of Lawrence, Mass., says: "Men and women whose occupation precludes an active outdoor life should make it a daily practice to use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after meals. I have done so myself and I know positively that I owe my present health and vigor to their daily use.

"From the time I was 22, when I graduated from school, with broken health from overwork, until I was 34, I scarcely knew what it was to be free from stomach weakness. I had no appetite whatever for breakfast and very little for any other meal.

"I had acidity and heartburn nearly every day and sometimes was alarmed by irregularity and palpitation of the heart, but all this gradually disappeared after I began using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and I can eat my meals with relish and satisfaction, which I had not known since I was a growing boy."

The success and popularity of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is enormous, but it is deserved, and every druggist in the United States, Canada and Great Britain has a good word for this meritorious preparation.

THE ESQUIMO
The Esquimo eats blubber. The lumbermen eat pork. These people are constantly exposed to cold and physical strain. Experience has taught them that fatty foods give warmth and nourishment.
For those who have cold and thin bodies, or are threatened with consumption or any wasting disease, there is no fat in so digestible and palatable a form as Scott's Emulsion. Physicians prescribe it.
We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

VARICOCELE
No matter how serious your case may be or how long you may have had it, our NEW METHOD TREATMENT will cure it. The "wormy veins" return to their normal condition and hence the sexual organs receive proper nourishment. The organs become vitalized and manly powers return. No temporary benefit, but a permanent cure assured. NO CURE, NO PAY. NO OPERATION NECESSARY. NO DETENTION FROM BUSINESS.
STRICTURE
Thousands of young and middle-aged men are troubled with this disease—many unconsciously. They may have a smarting sensation, sharp, cutting pains at times, weak organs, and all the symptoms of nervous debility—they have STRICTURE. Don't let doctors experiment on you by cutting, stretching or tearing you. This will not cure you, as it will return. Our NEW METHOD TREATMENT absorbs the stricture tissue, hence removes the stricture permanently. It can never return. No pain, no suffering, no detention from business by our method. The sexual organs are strengthened, the nerves are invigorated, and the bliss of manhood returns.
Cures Guaranteed
We treat and cure BLOOD POISON, NERVOUS DEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, STRICTURE, VARICOCELE, SEMINAL LOSSES, BLADDER and KIDNEY DISEASES. CONSULTATION FREE. BOOKS FREE. CHARGES MODERATE. If unable to call, write for a QUESTION BLANK for HOME Treatment.

Nothing Tastes Good

And eating is simply perfunctory—done because it must be.

This is the common complaint of the dyspeptic.

The only way to cure dyspepsia, which is difficult digestion, is to give vigor and tone to the stomach and the whole digestive system.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cured Mrs. Frances Blondin, Pembroke, Ont., Benj. Webb, Clinton, Ont., and W. A. Nugent, Belleville, Ont., all of whom suffered greatly from dyspepsia. Mrs. Blondin writes, "I am fully cured"; Mr. Webb, "It worked like a charm, restored a healthy appetite and toned my whole system"; and Mr. Nugent, "I cannot praise it too highly for the good it has done me."

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Electric Road Sold.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 31.—The Windsor Street Railway System was formally transferred at a meeting yesterday afternoon to the Everett-Moore syndicate. By the transfer the railway becomes purely American, every Canadian director having sold his stock.

75 Families Homeless.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Seventy-five families lost their homes, and $250,000 worth of property was destroyed in a fire last night, that started in Peterson & Company's picture frame factory at Union street and Austin avenue.

Found Dead.

Winnipeg, Oct. 31.—At Gretna yesterday afternoon H. R. Wilson, a law clerk, employed in the office of Cameron & Phillips, was found dead. Deceased had been drinking and no inquest will be held.

'SPATCH-COCKED' DESPATCH

Gen. Buller's Challenge and His Message to Gen. White.

The National Review, Which Got It From a Ladysmith Civilian, Publishes It—An Alleged Explanation of Fact That Buller and White Did Not Co-operate—Bul'er, of Course, Is Yet to Be Heard From.

London, Oct. 31.—The National Review gives the essential terms of the "Spatch-cocked" despatch of Sir Redvers Buller to General Sir George White, when in command of the beleagured British garrison at Ladysmith. According to this authority the message ran as follows: "I have been repulsed. You will burn your ciphers and destroy all your ammunition. You will then make the best terms you can with the Boers after I have fortified myself on the Tugela."

General Buller, in the speech which led to his dismissal from the command of the first army corps challenged The National Review to publish the completed despatch and to explain how it was obtained, declaring that he would then publish a certified copy of the original and allow the public to judge the matter.

The editor of The National Review now explains that he got the despatch from a civilian who was in Ladysmith at the time and who said there was nothing secret about it.

He asserts also that he understands that both General Buller and General White have officially asked permission to publish the authorized version, and he cannot conceive why permission has been withheld.

The same informant, giving an alleged explanation of the fact that there was no co-operation between General Buller and General White during the battle of Colenso, says General White was informed that the attack was fixed for Dec. 17, but General Buller commenced the attack Dec. 15, to the dismay of General White, who had not completed his preparations.

Imaginary and Misleading.

London, Oct. 31.—The Morning Leader characterizes The National Review's version of General Buller's despatch to Sir George White as "imaginary and misleading."

A Brigade of Cavalry.

London, Oct. 31.—The War Office sent orders to Aldershot last night directing that a brigade of cavalry be prepared to start for South Africa about the middle of next month.

Two Successful Fights.

London, Oct. 31.—Lord Kitchener, in a despatch from Pretoria, dated Tuesday, Oct. 29, says: Col. Byng surprised a Boer command October 25, and captured twenty-two prisoners, including Field Cornets Spanneberg and Onisthuisen.

Col. Fortesque, the despatch adds, had a day-long running fight with Muller's Boer commando on October 27, northwards of Balmoral. He killed 4 Boers and captured 54 prisoners, 36 wagons and much stock.

Ontario Soldier Ill.

Ottawa, Oct. 31.—A cable was received at the Militia Department yesterday stating that George Arnold Rogers is dangerously ill of enteric fever at Krugersdorp. Rogers is a son of J. Rogers of Holstein, Ont.

Trouble Getting Mounts.

Toronto, Oct. 31.—Lieut.-Col. H. F. Dent, with Dr. Thomas Boorhill and Major Gore, is in the city and will inspect some horses at the Exhibition Grounds this morning. He is buying mounts for the British army in South Africa and has shipped over 6,000 from Montreal since March.

Duke of York Nears Home.

London, Oct. 31.—4 a. m. — The British squadron escorting the royal yacht Ophir, bearing the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, was sighted at 1 o'clock a.m. to-day, six miles off the Lizard.

A wireless message had previously reported the Ophir 50 miles from Scilly Islands.

A FAMILY TRAGEDY.

Husband Hanged Himself While Wife Lay Dead in Bed.

Toronto, Oct. 31.—John Armstrong hanged himself in the cellar of his home at 54 Defoe street yesterday afternoon and his wife, Jane, was found dead in bed. It was plainly evident that the man had suicided, but the cause of the woman's death will be sought when a post-mortem is made to-day.

Armstrong was about 55 years of age and his wife apparently 10 years younger. They had been married for over 20 years and according to the stories of those who knew them well, they were remarkably fond of each other. The surmise is that when Armstrong went home he found his wife dead and in the intensity of his grief went down to the cellar and ended his existence. Both had been drinking heavily since the Duke's visit.

KING TO GO TO ITALY.

His Majesty, It Is Said, Will Spend the Winter in San Remo.

London, Oct. 31.—The Italian newspapers, according to despatches from Rome and other Italian cities, report that King Edward will pass the winter at San Remo.

No Illness at Homburg.

Berlin, Oct. 31.—Advices from Homburg state that people there who most constantly saw King Edward during his recent visit declare that he manifested no symptoms of illness, and refuse to believe the sensational reports printed of late.

Boy Courted Death.

St. Catharines, Oct. 31.—Willie Montonio, an 8-year-old boy, living in Merritton, was crushed under the wheels of car No. 16 on the street railway at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and life was extinct before he could be released from the trucks. The accident occurred at Merritton on the main street, and a dozen people were eye witnesses to the fatality. The boy was playing on the track, and, as the car approached around a corner, an older brother pulled him out of danger. As his brother let go the little fellow laughed and rushed back on the track. The car was by that time within a length of the reckless boy, and although an effort was made to stop it, the momentum was too much, and the boy was beneath the wheels.

Killed by Hogs or Sheep.

Ridgetown, Ont., Oct. 31.—A sad and fatal accident occurred near Botany about ten o'clock Tuesday morning. Mrs. James Robertson, an elderly lady, went to the pasture to salt the sheep, and while doing so, it is supposed, was knocked down by a ram. While lying on the ground the unfortunate woman was attacked by a drove of hogs. It is not known whether the sheep or hogs killed her, but when found by a neighbor about 5 o'clock, she was terribly torn, one arm being entirely eaten off and the other nearly so, great holes were eaten in her sides and her lungs were also torn out. The accident happened too far from the house for cries to be heard. Deceased was 84 years of age.

Fatally Burned.

Guelph, Oct. 31.—Mr. H. L. Walker's little seven-year-old son Hallie, had gone to bed, but had got up again in his nightshirt and had been standing in front of a lighted grate on Tuesday night. No one was in the room at the time, and in some way his clothing took fire. Before the flames were extinguished he had received injuries which, it is feared, will result in his death.

Progressing Satisfactorily.

Constantinople, Oct. 31.—The negotiations for the ransom of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the abducted American missionary, are progressing satisfactorily.

Ah Quan Will Hang.

Vancouver, Oct. 31.—Ah Quan, the Chinese murderer, will be hanged Jan. 14.

Murder Trial Nearly Ended

Rice Says He Did Not Shoot Constable Boyd.

France to Face Matters with the Porte—Gen. Buller's Despatch—Family Tragedy in Toronto—Seventy-five Families Homeless.

Toronto, Oct. 31.—The first witness called at the opening of the court yesterday morning was William Hyde, who keeps a grocery store at the corner of Gerrard and Sumach streets, where the tragedy occurred. As the hack containing the prisoners and constables passed the corner he saw a man run away from the vehicle and down Sumach street. Thinking that one of the prisoners had escaped, he gave chase, following the fugitive as far as Sumach Place, when he saw the last of him. He came back and found Boyd dying in the hack. Hyde heard two shots fired inside the vehicle.

Court Crier Kemp was employed as the subject of a demonstration by Dr. John Caven, as to the course of the bullet through the brain of Constable Boyd. Dr. Newton Powell was called and examined as to injuries received by the dead prisoner Jones. Mr. Robinette elicited from him an admission that the fatal wound may have been received while in a sitting posture. Dr. Peter's evidence differed in no important detail from that given by Dr. Powell. Cross-examined, he also admitted that Jones might have been shot while sitting. Dr. Ross testified that the wound received by Boyd was necessarily fatal. Policemen Page and Steele also gave unimportant evidence, and Miss Maclaren, a nurse at the General Hospital, testified that no revolver was found in the pockets of Boyd when he was admitted to the institution.

Eleven Shots Fired.

When the court resumed at 2 o'clock Sergt. Archer and Detective Forrest testified as to the revolvers in the case. There were seven exploded shells in the cylinders of the two Colts' revolvers thrown into the hack. Stewart's 38-calibre revolver had four exploded cartridges and one unexploded, making 11 shots fired altogether. Forrest described the bullet mark he found on the front seat of the cab, and said it could not be made from a shot from the inside of the vehicle. County Constable Burns, a close friend of the dead officer, said Boyd occasionally carried a revolver.

Defence Begun.

This closed the Crown's case, and Mr. Robinette asked that Stewart Buchanan, 428 Sumach street, and W. J. Callow, whose names were on the back of the indictment be called by the Crown. "I do not propose to call these men, My Lord, unless I must. I do not desire their evidence," said Mr. Guthrie.

Judge Falconbridge had said earlier in the day that the Crown was not bound to call such witnesses, and Mr. Robinette was compelled to examine them on behalf of the defence. During their examination Mr. Guthrie objected that a question put by Mr. Robinette was leading, and this led the judge to say, "I will allow Mr. Robinette a little latitude, because the witnesses' names are on the back of the indictment."

Rice's Own Story.

"Fred Lee Rice," called Mr. Robinette, and the prisoner stepped from the dock into the witness box, closely followed by Constable McIlwain, who had him in charge. Rice looked straight at Mr. Robinette, and, in reply to the latter's question, he said: "I was born in Champagne, Ill., 27 years ago, and have lived there all my life. I was educated there in the State University, and my parents, who are of English descent, are still there. My father is a native of Virginia, and my mother of Virginia. Prior to 1897 I was in business at Champagne, being secretary and manager of a telephone company, and was interested to the extent of $7,500. After 18 months, the company passed into the hands of a receiver, the treasurer having decamped with all the money. In 1897 I went to Denver, Colorado, and was arrested for forgery at Cripple Creek. For this I received three years in the State Penitentiary, and served about two-thirds of the term. I received my liberty in 1899, and up to the time I received my sentence from Judge Macdougall it was the only time that I had been arrested."

FRED LEE RICE.

Fatal Ride.

Rice then related all the occurrences in connection with his arrest, his conviction and his 21 years' sentence to Kingston Penitentiary. Continuing, he was asked about the fatal ride to the jail, and the package that was thrust into the hack.

"Did you have any knowledge from any source that that package was coming?"

"None whatever."

"Did you have any connection with it?"

"No, sir."

"Did Jones or Rutledge ever speak to you about it?"

"No, sir."

"Did you ever have any communication with any one outside?"

"No, sir."

Rice was here asked to step down, and was handcuffed by County Constable Stewart to Detective Forrest and Constable McIlwain, to show that with the cuffs used in the cab the prisoners could use their hands and arms freely.

How It Was Done.

Continuing his story, Rice gave this version of the shooting: "When the package came into the window Rutledge and Stewart made a grab for it. Rutledge's left shoulder was against Stewart's right, both facing south when Rutledge's hat fell out of the window. Boyd had hold of my right hand. Jones shoved himself back on the seat, afraid of being hit. I had not done anything so far. Boyd put his foot on my breast and drew a revolver from his hip pocket and fired at Jones. I threw up my hand and another shot came somewhere from my right and struck Boyd."

"Jones said to me. 'Take this. I'm hit,' at the same time, giving revolver to me. I did not have one when Boyd was shot. I did not point a revolver at Stewart, although I had it in my hand. Stewart then said, 'I give up; get out.' Rutledge led the way out, having two revolvers in his hands; told me afterwards that he took one from Stewart." When Rice was questioned as to the shooting outside the hack, he said that he fired too low to kill.

Rice Cross-Examined.

Mr. Guthrie opened his cross-examination of Rice by asking him if he did not get into some serious trouble around his home.

"Did you go to South America because you forged your father's name for $50?"

"No, sir. I went there for the benefit of my health," was the reply.

"Did you not rob your uncle of several hundred dollars by forging his name on the Champagne National Bank?"

"No, sir."

"Was your first forgery in Colorado?"

"Yes, sir."

Continuing, Mr. Guthrie asked Rice when he and his pals planned the raid on Canada. He also showed Rice some sheets giving the population of towns in Canada, the number of banks and the time at which trains departed. Rice claimed that the list was gotten up for business purposes, but for what business he would not say. Rice was also questioned closely about his ability to handle revolvers, and also about his connection with the other two men. His story relating to the actual shooting was unshaken.

In reply to Mr. Robinette Rice said it was not till he got out of the carriage that he decided to escape. He had every opportunity to shoot County Constable Stewart and Motorman Kohlmeyer, but did not take advantage of it.

Drs. Godfrey, Spence, McConnell and Smuck were called and gave it as their opinion that Jones was shot as described by Rice, while sitting inside the hack. The court adjourned at 5.30 p. m., till 10 o'clock this morning.

Schley's Generosity.

Washington, Oct. 31.—At the inquiry yesterday Admiral Schley was allowed to explain that Admiral Sampson declined to receive the first report because it did mention the presence of the New York.

"I felt that the victory at that time," said Admiral Schley, "was big enough for all, and I made this change out of generosity, and because I knew if the New York had been present she would have done as good work as anybody else."

FRANCE TO FORCE THE PORTE

The Gaul Will Make a Demonstration Against Abdul Hamid.

Entire Mediterranean Squadron Has Left Toulon, With Orders to Proceed to the Levant—Complete Satisfaction Is to Be Demanded—If It Is Refused, the Customs House of Nearest Point in Turkey Will Be Seized.

Paris, Oct. 31.—The entire French Mediterranean squadron left yesterday afternoon, says the Toulon correspondent of The Figaro. While one division put in at Salins-d'Hyeries, another, composed of three battleships and two cruisers, under the command of Admiral Caillarde, proceeded to the Levant. Two thousand troops will be added to this force. Admiral Caillarde's orders are that, if complete satisfaction is not immediately given by the Ottoman Government to all the claims of France, he shall seize the customs house of the port nearest his squadron. It is believed his destination is the Island of Mitylene. The island commands the entrance to the Dardanelles and the Gulf of Smyrna.

Several morning papers confirm The Figaro's Toulon advices.

Rumors to the same effect were current in Paris late last evening, but the Foreign Office professed to know nothing about the matter.

AUTOMOBILE IN A CRASH.

Struck by a Wildcat Engine—One Man Fatally Injured.

Westbury, L.I., Oct. 31.—A collision occurred here yesterday between an automobile, run by Henry Fournier, the French automobile expert, and a wild cat engine of the Long Island Railroad. Besides Mr. Fournier, there were on the automobile H. B. Fullerton, an official of the Long Island Railroad, H. J. Everall, Arthur Lewis and two newspaper men, named Batchelder and Gerrie.

It is feared Mr. Fullerton was fatally hurt, his skull being fractured. He was also badly hurt about the legs, and his face was frightfully cut. Mr. Batchelder also was severely injured, though the doctors say he probably will recover.

A Toronto Man in It.

All six men were hurt and the machine demolished. Those injured: N. B. Fullerton, special agent of the passenger department of the Long Island Railroad, badly cut about the head and face and compound fracture of one leg. A. G. Batchelder of The New York Journal, and who is chairman of the National Cyclists' Union Board of Control, broken leg and other injuries; J. H. Gerrie, New York Herald, broken shoulder and leg. (Mr. Gerrie was formerly of The Toronto Mail).; Arthur Lewis and Henri J. Everall, this city; Henri Fournier, this city, foot sprained.

JUDGESHIPS IN THE WEST.

Cabinet Council Said to Have Made at Least Two Appointments.

Ottawa, Oct. 31.—At yesterday's Cabinet meeting it is said that the question of vacant Chief Justiceship of the Northwest Territories was settled. It goes to Justice Maguire, who was in the Yukon for a time, but who is now on the Supreme Court bench of the Territories. He will be removed from his present district at Prince Albert and go to Calgary.

Judge Prendergast, a County Court judge in Manitoba, will get the vacant judgeship on the bench, and will be located at Prince Albert, where Justice Maguire now is.

Judge Scott, now at Calgary, will probably go to Edmonton.

New Zealand's Labor Laws.

London, Oct. 31.—A despatch to The Times from Wellington, N. Z., says the Upper House of the New Zealand Legislature has affirmed the principle that either party to an industrial dispute may go past the Conciliation Boards direct to the Arbitration Court. The fact that this motion was carried by both houses against the Government is regarded as significant of a change of feeling in regard to labor legislation.

Greece Will Take Crete.

London, Oct. 31.—A despatch to The Times from Constantinople, says that the Turkish Ambassador at St. Petersburg has informed the Sultan of Turkey that the annexation of the Island of Crete to Greece is imminent and inevitable.

Redmond Has Come.

New York, Oct. 31.—John G. Redmond, Patrick A. McHugh and Thos. O'Donnell arrived yesterday from Queenstown on the Majestic.

Angier's Petroleum Emulsion With Hypophosphites

CURES CHRONIC LUNG AFFECTIONS

The strongest proof of the value of Angier's Petroleum Emulsion in the treatment of Chronic Lung Affections and Consumption is the fact that it is prescribed extensively by eminent lung specialists, and is used in large consumption hospitals. It restores appetite, improves digestion, assimilation and nutrition. Helps increase the weight, and a greater vitality and power of resisting disease is secured. It soothes and heals the pulmonary mucous membrane, and enables the lungs to repel disease germs and to withstand the harmful influence of adverse climatic conditions. Unlike cod-liver oil it is pleasant to take and agrees with the most delicate stomach. It has great power to relieve coughs, night sweats and diarrhoea.

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION.—We take this occasion of recording another personal experience with Angier's Petroleum Emulsion which you may be interested in. Same was prescribed by our editor, Dr. Fisher, for one of the Century's staff last spring with unusually satisfactory results. The patient had taken a deep cold which settled upon the lungs, and there was already pronounced dulness in one lung when the Emulsion was prescribed. Within a few weeks the incipient trouble was all over through a strict adherence to Angier's.—Medical Century Pub. Co., New York.

CAUTION:—ANGIER'S is the original Petroleum Emulsion and is made with a special oil obtained from particular wells, and carefully purified by our own process. Imitations made with ordinary petroleum cannot have the same effect, and besides being useless, many of them are dangerous for internal use. ANGIER'S Petroleum Emulsion costs a trifle more than imitations, but it is vastly superior and worth many times the price asked for it. It is for sale at all druggists. Two sizes, 50 cts. and $1.00 a bottle.

Nervous Headache.

Irritability, Sleeplessness, Feelings of Lassitude and Depression, Weakness and Irregularity of the Bodily Organs.

These are the symptoms which point to a depleted nervous system. They tell of thin, weak, watery blood, of wasting vitality and lack of energy and ambition. They warn you that nervous prostration, locomotor ataxia, paralysis and even insanity are possibilities of the future.

It is folly to neglect nervous diseases, folly to suppose that they will disappear of their own accord, and still greater folly to deaden and destroy the nerves by the use of poisonous narcotics. It is a serious matter to trifle with the nerves. It is a question of life and death.

Mrs. Henry Clarke, Port Hope, Ontario, states:—"I have used seven boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for nervousness and a completely run down system, and can heartily recommend it as a wonderfully effective treatment. Before using this remedy I had been in very poor health for some months. I seemed to have no energy or ambition, felt tired and listless most of the time, and could scarcely drag myself about the house. I was weak, irritable and nervous, could not sleep well, and felt discouraged about my health. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has taken away these symptoms and given back my usual health and vigor, consequently I endorse it fully."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

Fills the shrivelled arteries with new rich blood, strengthens and revitalizes the nerves by forming new nerve force and gradually and thoroughly overcomes disease and weakness. It forms new healthy tissues and gives a well rounded form and clear, healthy complexion to all who use it. 50 cts. a box, 6 boxes for $2.50. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Daily Intelligencer.

WHAT A LIBERAL PAPER THINKS OF LAURIER'S ADMINISTRATION.

The Winnipeg Tribune, owned, published and edited by the late Liberal member in the House of Commons, Mr. R. L. Richardson, writes as follows of the gentlemen whom he was elected to support, and whom he has supported since his paper had existence. It is a true picture of the party of pretences:

"The Liberals have been in office for six years, and yet the tariff holds practically all the protective features of old under the old regime; corruption stalks through the land; the railway subsidy system is worse than ever it was; the public debt has been largely increased; the expenditures, instead of being reduced three or four millions annually, as promised, have jumped from thirty-seven millions to sixty-three millions; an immense area of public lands has been alienated, and in practically every point where reform was promised the Liberals have discounted the records of their predecessors."

SUGAR BEETS — GOOD SHOWING BY THIS DISTRICT.

The idea of a beet sugar factory for Belleville seems rather visionary at present, but if this city doesn't get one it won't be because the necessary qualifications are lacking. It will be remembered that the Board of Trade appointed Mr. John Barber to superintend the distribution of sugar beet seed to farmers in the surrounding country, and to generally look after the cultivation, etc. Mr. Barber forwarded specimens of the beets grown to the Agricultural College, at Guelph, and recently received the following letter, which speaks volumes for this district as a beet sugar raising centre:

To John Barber, Esq., Belleville.

I am pleased to be able to report to you that the beets from Belleville are giving a very high percentage of sugar—from 15 to 18 per cent.—and the specimens are much better than from many places.

E. SHUTTLEWORTH, Agricultural College,
Guelph.

There is something definite for the Board of Trade and City Council to work on. No time should be lost in making known Belleville's advantages. Other places are agitating in the matter. This city might well do the same.

The Gay Case

The following letter has been received:

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Sir,—Mr. Hugh Gay's statement is that he supposed he was signing a note and did not know it was the statement as to his property. Mr. Gay was not familiar with business and simply signed, as he supposed, as security for his brothers. Mr. Gay had no intention of deceiving Mr. Cooper or anyone else.

That Runaway Accident

To the Editor of The Intelligencer:

Dear Sir,—In your issue yesterday you stated—"Driver lost his presence of mind and jumped from the rig leaving Mr. Cornelius at the mercy of the horse." Such are not the facts and imply cowardice on my part. I rose from the buggy seat to secure a shorter hold of the reins when the horse swerved suddenly causing me to lose my balance and consequently I was thrown out. I did not lose my presence of mind in the least and am certain I could have controlled the animal if I had not lost my balance. I certainly did my best for both under the circumstances. Kindly correct and oblige. Yours truly,

WM. WARD.

ED. NOTE—The Intelligencer cheerfully gives space to Mr. Ward's letter, though the account of the accident published in this paper was entirely in accord with the information furnished to our reporter.

ST. MICHAEL'S.

No one will deny that the Roman Catholics of Belleville have a perfect right to be proud of their church. Massive, imposing, severe almost in its Gothic architecture, this grand edifice, situated on the west side of Church street north, seems likely to be the church home of generations of Roman Catholics yet unborn.

"You have a very handsome church, sir," said the writer to Monsignor Farrelly.

"That's true," said the Rev. gentleman, with a smile; "and there's a handsome debt on it, too."

You see, the Monsignor, like every other Irishman, must have his joke, even though the subject is rather a bitter one.

But the Roman Catholics of Belleville had not always such a beautiful edifice to worship in. The records show that in 1827, when the first altar was set up in this city, they had to be content with a small wooden building, about 20 x 30, which stood on the southeast corner of the same lot on which the present church stands.

Rev. Michael Brennan was the first priest, and under his loving and fostering care the parish of St. Michael's flourished like a green bay tree. A typical Irish-Canadian priest was worthy Father Brennan, who seems to have been respected and loved by Catholics and Protestants alike. Many are the stories told of the kindly gentleman, which show that the desire of his heart was to see all men dwell together in unity. In the old days sectarian feelings sometimes ran high, and Catholics and Protestants cheerfully broke each other's heads "for the pure love of God," as the old song has it. These deplorable "ructions" were always frowned on by Father Brennan, who invariably, when he saw one, broke up the fight by moral suasion when possible. If that would not answer, he wielded his good black thorn lustily in the effort to bring about a cessation of hostilities. Like Mark Twain's hero, he would have peace if he had to fight for it, and many an impulsive Roman Catholic, who had been sturdily exchanging buffets with a Protestant adversary, fled precipitately when the stalwart priest and his trusty blackthorn came upon the scene. Lucky, indeed, would the offender be if he escaped without a few bruises, for Father Brennan was not one of those who believed in sparing the rod and spoiling the parishioner. The way he used to sometimes enter places where "dances" were being held and drive his flock home is fresh in the memory of a few Belleville people to-day. Forty-two years the Rev. gentleman ministered to the spiritual wants of his people. He died on October 31st, 1869, just exactly 32 years ago to-day, sincerely mourned by people of both creeds. The good priest lies buried at the northwest corner of the present church, the inscription on his tombstone reading as follows:

"In memoriam the Very Rev'd. Michael Brennan, first pastor of this church, who died October 31, 1869, in the 73rd year of his age. Deceased was a native of Moongein County, Kilkenny, Ire., and labored faithfully over 40 years in the vineyard of his Divine Master. Requiescat in Pace."

In 1837 the second church, a stone edifice, was built. It stood just north of the present church, and among the workmen employed were Mr. Copeland, father of Mr. James Copeland, of this city, and Mr. Horrigan. The former constructed the woodwork and the latter the stone work. For fifty years the congregation of St. Michael's worshipped in this church, but it was at last found to be too small, besides falling into bad repair.

A LADY WHO REMEMBERS THE OLD CHURCH.

Miss O'Carroll, who resides on Ann street, has the honor of being probably the only one now living in Belleville who attended the little old frame church. She remembers distinctly being taken to the church, when a child, by her mother.

Miss O'Carroll has many interesting reminiscences to tell of early days in Belleville. The first mass ever said in this city was celebrated in Elmer's brewery, which stood in rear of where Mr. Alex. Ray's drug store now stands. This was somewhere about the year 1825. The little frame church was built some time before a regular parish priest was appointed for Belleville. Miss O'Carroll, when a child, was shown, by her mother, a tree at which a missionary had been burned by Indians in early days. This tree stood just in rear of Messrs. Geo. Ritchie & Co.'s.

After the stone church was built in 1837 the little frame church was moved to the Grammar School property (now the High School grounds), where it was used as a Catholic school until about 1845, when it was destroyed by fire.

Miss O'Carroll was kind enough to show the writer the records appertaining to the building of the second church. The first meeting to arrange for its erection was held on Sunday, August 27, 1837, there being present Rev. Father Brennan, chairman; Messrs. Donald McLellan, Martin Ryan, Peter O'Reilly, John O'Carroll, Patrick Samon, Hugh McGinnis, John Donoghue, Francis McConnaughy, James Spence, Joseph Champagne.

Mr. John O'Carroll was secretary, and the first six gentleman mentioned above were named as the Building Committee.

Mr. Joseph German, then of Trenton, was given the contract for building the church, "by the perch."

On June 18, '38, the Building Committee resolved that the work done by the contractor was not satisfactory and in accordance with the contract, and the work was taken from him. Tenders were again called for, and the contract was given to Messrs. Matthews and Duff, who also built the Belleville Court House and Jail.

There was a procession the day the corner stone of the church was laid, and Miss O'Carroll remembers seeing the Hon. Edmund Murney riding a white horse, and also saw him lay a sovereign on the corner stone.

The corner stone was laid by Bishop O'Donnell.

About 40 years ago an addition was built to the church, in the shape of a handsome front.

It had always been supposed that when the corner stone of the 1837 church was laid it contained coins of the realm, the different Canadian papers and much valuable data, but when the above church was torn down, after the building of the present church, the corner stone was found to contain nothing but dust. How its contents—if there were any—disappeared will probably never be known.

Miss O'Carroll has often heard her mother speak of the affection which existed between Rev. Mr. Campbell, the first Rector of St. Thomas', and Rev. Mr. Brennan, and the good feeling was shared by the parishioners of both gentlemen.

THE PRESENT CHURCH.

The erection of the present church began in 1886, the corner stone being laid on the 22nd of August of that year. The edifice was blessed and opened for Divine service on October 7th, 1888, a large congregation being present, among whom were many Protestant friends of the Pastor. It is a source of pride to Monsignor Farrelly that many Protestant gentlemen subscribed to the building fund of his church. The architect was Mr. J. Connolly, of Toronto. The contractors were: Mr. Thomas Hanley, woodwork, and Messrs. Quinlan and Stewart, stone work.

The building, complete, cost about $55,000, which includes seating, heating apparatus and gas fixtures.

The seating capacity of St. Michael's is estimated at 900.

The organ at present in use was in use in the second church. It was bought in 1850, being made by Hager & Vogt, of Hamilton, C. W. Miss Stella Mackie is the very efficient organist, and the choir numbers sixteen voices.

Everyone who has ever entered St. Michael's Church has admired the polished granite pillars, twelve in number, which help to relieve the sombreness of the surroundings. These were donated, and the donors may be inferred by the different inscriptions, viz.:

Pray for the souls of the relatives of Mr. and Mrs. John Doyle.

Pray for the souls of Michael and Ellen O'Heron.

Pray for the soul of James McGurn.

Pray for the souls of Stephen O'Brien and wife; also my mother, M. J. Grainger.

Donated by Mrs. James Butler and family.

Donated by James Grant.

Donated by J. B. Murphy, M.D.

Pray for the soul of Mary McCarty.

Pray for James Mackie and family.

Donated by Archie McDonnell and family.

Donated by Walter Cahill and family.

Donated by Francis Dolan and family.

The beautiful memorial windows were donated by Patrick Judge O'Horo, Maria O'Horo, Mrs. Mary Daley, J. F. Dolan, M. D., Mrs. Catherine Roach, Mary and Luke O'Neill, Michael and James Downs, Society of "Children of Mary," Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hanley, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Conway, Stephen Wade.

The walls are adorned by handsome pictures of the "Stations of the Cross," in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Adamson, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Brennan, Mr. John Callaghan, Mrs. Henry Deacon, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. William Power, Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Lynch, Mr. James Grant, Mrs. James Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Richard O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McEvoy, Mr. Timothy Quinlan, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. William Deegan, Mr. Denis Hanley.

The beautiful carved altar of St. Michael's has been greatly admired. The church has two smaller altars and six statutes.

THE PRESENT PASTOR.

The fact that St. Michael's, during the seventy-four years of its existence, has had but two parish priests, is certainly extraordinary. The present incumbent, Monsignor James Farrelly, was born in the very year that Father Brennan took charge of the parish. The high esteem in which Monsignor Farrelly is held by people of all classes was shown when that gentleman celebrated his Golden Jubilee recently. It is quite safe to say that the mantle of good Father Brennan fell on worthy shoulders when Father Farrelly became parish priest of St. Michael's. It was the intention of the Archbishop to retire the Monsignor at the time of his Golden Jubilee, on account of his advancing age, but his parishioners objected so strongly that the idea was quickly abandoned.

But if St. Michael's has had few parish priests it has had many curates, who have left pleasant memories behind them. Their names follow: Revs John Brennan, Michael Connolly, Patrick A. Twohey, David Farrelly, Bernard Murphy, Michael Feahy, Michael O'Donoghue, Patrick A. Hartigan, John D. O'Gorman, James Connolly, Patrick O'Brien, John P. O'Brien, Alexander Carson, Michael Crowley, Arthur E. Sheedy.

THE CEMETERY.

The Roman Catholic cemetery, situated near the station, contains many handsome tombstones, but the "Silent City of the Dead" is not kept in such good repair as it might be. The work of vandals is apparent in the shape of broken gravestones, etc., and many of the older stones have become so sunken and leaned over that it is impossible to read the inscriptions. Here, too, as in St. Thomas', one is struck by the names of former Bellevillians which are now never heard on our streets. Following are a few of them: Handrahan, Slevin, Aylward, McAvoy, Love, Bradshaw, Howson, Perreault, O'Neale, Blando, Defrane, Karr.

The earliest interment recorded on a stone is that of Edward Dissett and Elizabeth, his wife, who were buried in 1827.

There are many quaint epitaphs, a couple of which may fittingly close this article:

"All you that read with little care
And turn away and leave me here;
Remember that you, too, must die
And be entombed as well as I."

And perhaps no better index to his character could be found than the epitaph which appears on the gravestone of an old Irish gentleman:

"When the Lord takes me I wish to be buried here, along with my daughter and grandchildren, friends and old neighbors; and may the Lord, by the intercession of His Blessed Mother, grant me rest in peace. Amen.

57—62 THE CRITICAL AGE.

Height of vigor passed — nature's power slowing down, vitality less, recuperative power less, endurance less. Stop the progress of decay, tone up the weakened nerve centres, impart vigor to the tiring brain, prepare for the crisis. A means of remarkable potency in the renewal of decreasing vigor is found in Ferrozone. It brightens up the whole being, imparts a sense of power and strength. By the use of Ferrozone, old age is pushed back twenty years. Ferrozone gives strength, vigor, endurance, vim. Your druggist has it. Get a box today at McKeown's.

Cruelty to a Cat

Some boys were last night cruelly tormenting a cat on Pinnacle street. They placed the cat under a box and then set fire to the box. The cat got away and was recaptured, and a second attempt was made to destroy it in the same manner. The affair was reported to the police, who are endeavoring to find out the names of the boys.

Light Weight Potatoes

Inspector Downs to-day had two parties summoned before the Magistrate, charged with offering for sale some bags of potatoes which were under weight. The parties were W. M. Shorey, of Sidney, and Valentine Joyce, of Thurlow. Both cases were dismissed, after the Magistrate had warned the parties of the consequence if the offence was repeated.

Literary Notes

The S. S. McClure Syndicate announces the publication of the last work of the late Sir Walter Besant, under the title "No Other Way." It is a dramatic story, based upon a peculiar condition of the English penal system. November 3rd is the date of the first instalment.

The editor of the Review of Reviews, in "The Progress of the World," for November, discusses President Roosevelt's principles of appointment, as related to his "Southern policy"; the tariff and Cuba; the demand for publicity in the management of trusts; the ship - subsidy scheme; the Isthmian canal; the Pan-American Congress at Mexico; the New York municipal election; the various State campaigns; and many other topics of the hour.

More Church Loot

Rev. J. C. Wilson, of Brighton, has written to the Chief of Police, stating that during the service on Sunday morning last a coon skin coat was stolen from a conveyance which was in the shed in rear of the church. The coat in question is no doubt the one in possession of the police, which was found with the horse thieves, Thompson and Stewart, who were arrested here.

Doctors prescribed the strongest liniments with no more effect than water, but this great remedy had me up and about my work, and as well as ever, after taking only a couple of bottles." 44

BELLEVILLE BRANCH OF BIBLE SOCIETY

Held its Annual Meeting at the Baptist Church Last Night.

Officers Appointed—Some Inspiring Addresses—Work of the Society.

The annual meeting of the Belleville Branch of the Bible Society was held last evening in the Baptist Church. There was a good attendance, the various evangelical churches being well represented. The meeting proved to be one of the best ever held by the Branch.

Rev. Dr. Galbraith, President, occupied the chair, and associated with him on the platform were Revs. Dr. Crothers, O. C. Elliott, T. J. Thompson, R. Wallace and D. A. Thomson, of Hastings.

The meeting was opened by devotional exercises consisting of singing, prayers by the President and Rev. T. J. Thompson, and scripture reading by Rev. R. Wallace.

The chairman gave a brief address referring to the work done by the British and Foreign Bible Society during the past century. At the commencement of the century some 4,000,000 Bibles were in circulation, whereas at the close there were upwards of 400,000,000 in circulation, printed in almost all known languages. The ladies were now taking great interest in this work there being at present 616 Bible women in the Eastern lands.

Mr. H. C. Hunt, Secretary, presented his annual report. He referred to the fact that during the past year two members had died, who had taken much interest in the society, namely, Mr. Wm. Reeves, Hon. President, and Mr. John Forin, a member of the Executive Committee. The report recommended the following as officers for the year:

Hon. President—Mr. R. Dunnahill.
President—Rev. Dr. Galbraith.
Vice-Presidents — Major Caswell and S. A. Gardner.
Treasurer—Mr. A. G. Northrup.
Secretary—Mr. H. C. Hunt.
Executive—Resident ministers in city churches with Messrs. W. W. Chown, Mayor Graham, W. H. Gordon, W. Deacon, R. Templeton, J. W. London, W. P. Hudson, W. McKeown, W. B. Riggs, T. Stewart and Dr. Goldsmith.
Depository—Mr. R. Templeton.

Mr. A. G. Northrup, Treasurer, presented the financial statement which showed a balance on hand of $6.15. The collections during the year had not been very large, not up to the average.

On motion of Rev. T. J. Thompson, seconded by Major Caswell, the reports were received and adopted.

Rev. D. A. Thomson, of Hastings, a representative of the Provincial Society, gave the address of the evening which was full of valuable information as to the work the Society had done and was doing. In the Bible, the inspired book of God, was to be found, he said, the best of poetry, the best of art, and the best of literature. From the Bible the brilliant writers of the world drew their inspiration. The Bible Society has given to the world the Bible printed in 317 languages, in order that all mankind might read it. It has brought the Bible from the Latin and Greek tongue down to the English and other languages. Through the missionaries the Bible has been instrumental in accomplishing an immense amount of good. The Society was doing a grand work. It was their duty to assist in sending this book far and near, so that all may know of the redemption of the world from sin. Throw out the life line to all, that they may be saved.

Rev. Dr. Crothers spoke briefly, commending the remarks of the previous speaker, and the good work the Society was accomplishing. At present it was sending forth 16,000 copies of the Bible daily. This was a grand field to work in, and an interesting subject to talk upon.

The appointing of collectors for the city was then proceeded with, and resulted as follows: Mrs. Boldrick, Mrs. Greenleaf, Mrs. Conger, Misses Martin, Dafoe, Waters, Jack, Sprague, Anderson, Hitchon and V. Handley.

The meeting was brought to a close by the singing of the Doxology and the Benediction pronounced by Rev. D. A. Thomson.

PERFECT CURE FOR BRONCHITIS. This disease can be treated only by a remedy carried to the affected parts along with the air breathed, for nature intended these organs for the passage of air alone, and sprays, atomisers and internal medicines utterly fail. But Catarrhozone doesn't fail, for it goes wherever the air breathed goes, and its healing antiseptic vapor is sure to reach every affected part. Catarrhozone is inhaled at the mouth and after passing through every air cell of the breathing organs is slowly exhaled through the nostrils. Catarrhozone protects and heals the inflamed surfaces, relieves congestion, allays inflammation, and perfectly cures all bronchial affections. Price $1. Small size 25c. TIMELY TOPICS.

The question of "home work" for school children is engaging the attention of a good many people in this vicinity just now. The consensus of opinion among those who are in a position to have a practical knowledge of the matter is that "The Intelligencer is pretty nearly right." "I don't like it," said one gentleman, "and would be glad to see it abolished."

From what we have been able to learn, it is for the sole purpose of "cramming" pupils that "home work" is given to them. The public has fallen into the error of judging a teacher by the number of pupils he or she "passes" at the annual examinations. In order to enhance their own reputations a few teachers crowd their pupils. We are told of one case where a female teacher gave a young pupil two hundred words to learn to spell in one evening at home. That child was not fairly getting an education. She was being worked beyond her powers.

Other teachers give "home work" to their pupils as a means of punishment, and with this system, perhaps, no fault can be found. A boy or girl is given lessons to do, which are easily within their powers if they apply themselves. If they fail to do so, and don't master the lessons, they have to take them home and study them.

• • •

A small amount of home study, perhaps, does no harm. Possibly the parents could aid the teachers in judging the capabilities of the pupils. But one thing is sure—The practice of "cramming" pupils to enhance the reputations of teachers is bad in principle, and might well be dealt with by the Board of Education.

Hallowe'en, with its attendant festivities, must be a blessing to some people. Those Kingston old maids, now, will to-night jolly themselves with the thought that some day they'll have husbands, and what a relief it must be to their friends when they don false faces!

Writing on the subject of encores at concerts, the Montreal Witness makes the following highly pertinent remarks, which will be heartily endorsed by many people in Belleville:

"The encore is a nuisance, not only to the competent performer, but also to the more discriminating part of the audience. Part of the satisfaction of all art is anticipation, and repetition not only palls but disappoints. We have heard the reciter or the singer, or we have seen the painting or the sculpture, and a certain effect has been wrought upon us that we do not even wish to have repeated there and then. By trifling so with the emotions we dissipate them and nothing is precious. The singer or player who has been wrought up to effort is as a rule neither mentally nor physically fit to give us the same quality at the clapping of the hands. And even if the thing were possible, it would only be an anti-climax. Encores have the further ill-effect of disturbing the programme, which nowadays is often the result of some weeks of thought. The programme usually affords a full meal and encores can tend only to satiety. There are many indeed who stay away from entertainments because of the overtax upon their time and powers and their trenching upon the hours of sleep. Great singers, like Sims Reeves, have refused to respond to encores for reasons here suggested, and the great violinist, Ysaye, played his programme through regardless of recalls. Lesser artists cannot afford such independence, but audiences might show more self-respect."

The latest importation from the United States is the "rummage sale." People give away things they don't want and then some charitable concern sells them to people who don't want them. An affair of that kind ought to be very successful in Belleville. Some of the "plug hats" which bloomed on the day of the Royal reception would make a fine nucleus for a "rummage sale." Then the military people might contribute the cannon and the civic authorities the steam roller.

SERGEANT FINED

NEGLECTED TO TURN OUT TO CHURCH PARADE — WILL BE DISHONORABLY DISCHARGED.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 29.—Victor Raper, the orderly sergeant who was charged with refusing to join the church parade of the Twenty-First Essex Regiment on Sunday, was assessed $1.25 costs by Magistrate Bartlett to-day. Raper appeared at the muster in civilian's clothing and failed to give any reasonable excuse for not turning out.

Col. Guillot says Raper will now be dishonorably discharged from the regiment.

THEIR SILVER WEDDING

PLEASANT FUNCTIONS AT THE RESIDENCE OF MR. W. W. CHOWN LAST NIGHT.

CHOWN—WHEELER.—At the residence of the bride's father, October 30th, 1876, by Rev. Mr. Scammell, of Christ Church, Mr. W. W. Chown, of Kingston, to Miss Alice, daughter of Mr. John Wheeler, of Tamworth.

Yesterday being the 25th anniversary of that wedding, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Chown were at home to their numerous friends, at their residence on the corner of Victoria avenue and Church street. From the hours of 7 to 11 p.m. many assembled at the home to offer congratulations and were handsomely entertained by the host and hostess.

It was an evening of rare enjoyment, everything being done to make all feel perfectly at home. The interior of the home had been especially prepared for the occasion, nothing being left undone to enhance the pleasure of the invited guests.

During their residence in this city Mr. and Mrs. Chown have made a host of friends, all of whom expressed the wish that, as they had reached the 25th anniversary of their marriage, they would live to see their golden wedding.

MEN OF MARK.

More often than you probably imagine, men of mark buy fine ready-to-wear clothing, such as the Oak Hall sell, not only because it saves their money, but because they know what good progress has been made in this class of merchandise. Some of the most progressive and wealthiest citizens buy their clothing at our store. Isn't that a pretty good indication that we can suit any man in any walk of life? Suppose you try for yourself.

OIL BORING OPERATIONS

WILL BE COMMENCED IN A FEW DAYS—WORK NOW UNDER WAY.

Mr. F. S. Lembrick, of Toledo, Ohio, arrived in the city last evening. This gentleman is the master mechanic of the company to which Mr. Roesnzi belongs, and his mission is to begin the erection of derricks necessary for oil boring operations. Mr. Lembrick will begin work immediately. The remainder of the machinery is coming by freight, but is expected in a day or two. The derricks cost between $500 and $600 apiece. Mr. Lembrick was taken to Melrose to-day, where he will at once commence operations.

The first well will be sunk on the farm of Mr. Collins, and many people will watch for the result with interest.

HOW IT IS DONE.

The first object in life with the Canadian people is to "get rich;" the second, how to regain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health), by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a despondent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well known August Flower will relieve you at once. Regular size, 75 cents. You can get Dr. G.G. Green's reliable remedies at R. Templeton & Co's.

The Overcoats Identified

Mr. W. H. Smith, chief constable, of Colborne, was in the city to-day and identified the two overcoats which were stolen on Sunday at Grafton by the horse thieves Thompson and Stewart. Constable Smith states that other articles of apparel were stolen at the same time and place.

Christmas Suggestions

Seem singularly out of place this beautiful weather, but the shortening days remind us that Christmas is not very far off. Our goods are arriving daily but will not be shown for some time, in order that they may not become commonplace. We have, however, received one line which we wish you to see that you may judge of our preparation for the festive season. Our south window will contain them for the balance of the week only, after which they will be withdrawn from sale until the balance of our goods are shown. They are a line of Calendars—entirely new and pretty—but a description can not do them justice. See them for yourself and have first choice.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Mr. David Smith, One Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrup & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one-half, the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done, it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilious habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little effect. But since using 3 bottles of the Vegetable Discovery, the biliousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 58 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know."

Sleeplessness.—When the nerves are unstrung and the whole body given up to wretchedness, when the mind is filled with gloom and dismal forebodings, the result of derangement of the digestive organs, sleeplessness comes to add to the distress. If only the subject could sleep, there would be the oblivion for a while and temporary relief. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will not only induce sleep, but will act so beneficially that the subject will wake refreshed and restored to happiness.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Nine-tenths of the consumptives date their afflictions from a neglected cold, and the diseases that are caused by wet feet, damp clothes, or exposure are more numerous than are generally supposed. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which frees the lungs from viscid phlegm by changing the secretions from a diseased to a healthy state.

HOW THEY CHOSE A HEADSMAN

TRIALS AND TRIBULATIONS OF THE TRENTON TOWN COUNCIL.

A Trenton correspondent, who had evidently been reading "The Arabian Nights," gives the following amusing account of how the office of Police Magistrate was filled:

Most Eminent Ruler of the Faithful; Your abject and unworthy slave sends greeting, and with prayers that heaven's light may ever shine most brightly upon your august presence, such things that he has seen and heard as may seem fitting to be called to your attention.

Wearied and footsore, and borne down by the cares of my mission, I arrived for the time at the town called Trenton. This place was passing quiet and promised much to relieve the tired feeling of man and beast, and your slave gave thanks to Allah for the promised and needed repose.

Scarcely were my limbs stretched to enjoy sweet repose, when a murmuring sound reached my ears. Methought I heard the braying of asses and the hum of bees gathering honey, in my native eastern hills. In my mind arose the picture of the Pyramids in the distance, the lazy Nile and the tinkling of Caravans. In wonder I hastily arose to learn the cause of all this strange excitement, and upon inquiry learned that the Chief Head Man, who expounds and carries out the law of this land had abandoned his place, doubtless to escape the bow string, and a new one was wanted. This position carried the magnificent salary of $300 per year. Eager to learn the manners and customs of this people, despite fatigue and bodily ills, I hied myself to the tabernacle where the people assembled, and, taking my position in a favorably dark corner, was able to discern the manner in which this people choose their head men. I expected to see, as in my own land, the contestants appear armed for battle and the question settled by the strength and skill of the sword arm.

There were four persons anxious to be the headsman of this tribe:

George, of the tribe of Young, a man of goodly proportion, who followed the calling of a scribe, who already possessed some knowledge of the duties of a headsman, and was desirous of taking the position, in order that the place might benefit thereby. This man much impressed me and he promised much.

Robert, of the tribe of O'Flynn, also wished the position, for no other reason that I could learn.

Alexander of the tribe of Forbes, was also an applicant, but when his name was called he answered not.

Thomas, of the tribe of O'Rourke, desired to take the position, because he would then know that the duties thereof would be ably performed.

All the candidates talked much and promised more, and any one had made a model headsman had he performed one tithe of what was said.

Each candidate for the office boasted of the great number of fat steers he had led to the bull ring for sacrifice, and there was much noisy strife between George, of the tribe of Young, and Thomas, of the tribe of O'Rourke, as to which had the advantage, and the friends of each cheered on the contestants.

At this point, in this, to me, most interesting proceeding, lo! another candidate appears—James, of another and second tribe of Young, hostile to the other, a man also a scribe in a lesser degree, a man bowed down already with the cares of office and his "Hookah," with which he sent out great clouds of smoke, giving him the appearance of a spirit of fire. This man desired office, because already holding one office he could more fittingly discharge the duties of two until a third might arise also to be gathered to his bosom.

All the candidates spoke in heated terms and some times were interrupted by the speech of opponent candidates, friends and supporters. There were persons present having charge of parts of the place for the people.

Thomas, of the tribe of Shannon, sitting in the Council of the place, expressed his view that the person to be appointed must build a board roadway to his domicile, in order that his way might be smooth during his daily walk.

Harvey, of the tribe of Dickey, with much chewing of atmospheric space, supported each candidate in turn, was largely in evidence and much pressed his personality on the assembled people. This man should have been appointed, for in an assembly where a headsman was to be chosen for his power of speech and endurance thereat, he had easily borne away the wreath of laurel.

Arthur, of the tribe of Bywater, controlled the fierce bickerings of the contestants and their friends. He held in his hand a mace, or war club, but why such a weapon was required to preserve the peace among people who fight only with the swaying wind, and who use only such force as to utter "you're another," I learned not.

George, of the tribe of White, talked long and eloquently in behalf of Alexander, the absent one, but his words availed nothing and the grains of wisdom fell in barren ground.

William, of the tribe of Fitzpatrick, also used the strength and length of his tongue to no purpose.

After the atmosphere became clouded by frequent turmoil and the Hookah of James, lots were cast and the lot fell to Thomas, of the tribe of O'Rourke. Then there was much muttering, and George, of the tribe of Young, waxed furious, charging that several whom he had placed in the bull ring had escaped therefrom, and cast in their lots against him, not rightly and unjustly.

The other candidates were silent.

Robert, of the tribe of O'Flynn, only having one lot, asked the man who so cast in his lot to arise to his feet and partake of his hospitality, and, no one arising, immediately departed and indulged in the needed refreshments alone.

After much mutterings and threats, which I was informed were never executed, the people dispersed and I wended my way to my abode to ponder over the things I have written.

Such is the manner, Most High, of appointment among this people; each man striving to run down his neighbor in order to possess some little advantage already enjoyed by such neighbor.

BEN ABOU.

A Daily Nuisance

A SIMPLE REMEDY WHICH WILL INTEREST CATARRH SUFFERERS.

In its earlier stages catarrh is more of a nuisance than a menace to the general health, but sooner or later the disease extends to the throat, bronchial tubes and even to the stomach and intestines.

Catarrh is essentially a disease of the mucous membrane, the local symptoms being a profuse discharge of mucous, stoppage of the nostrils, irritation in throat, causing coughing, sneezing, gagging and frequent clearings of the throat and head.

The usual treatment by local douches, snuffs, salves, etc., often gives temporary relief, but anything like a cure can only be obtained by a treatment which removes the catarrhal taint from the blood and the disappearance of the inflammation from the mucous surfaces.

A new remedy, which meets these requirements, and which so far has been remarkably successful in curing catarrh is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets.

These tablets act upon the blood and mucous membranes only. They can hardly be called a secret patent medicine, as they are composed of such valuable remedies as Sanguinaria, Hydrastin, Eucalyptol and similar cleansing antiseptics which cure by eliminating from the blood and mucous surfaces the catarrhal poison.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are large, pleasant tasting lozenges taken internally, allowing them to dissolve slowly in the mouth, in this way they reach the throat, fauces and the entire alimentary canal.

If desired, they may also be dissolved in water and used as a douche, in addition to the internal use, but it is not at all necessary to use a douche; a few of them dissolved in the mouth daily will be sufficient. However, when there is much stoppage of the nose, a douche made from these tablets will give immediate relief, but the regular daily use internally of these tablets will cure the whole catarrhal trouble without resorting to the inconvenience of a douche.

Dr. Bement states "that the internal treatment for catarrh is rapidly taking the place of the old plan of douching, and local application and further says that probably the best and certainly the safest remedy at present on the market is Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, as no secret is made of their composition and all the really efficient remedies for catarrh are contained in this tablet."

Druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at fifty cents for full sized packages. Ask your druggist and if he is honest, he will tell you there is no safer, more palatable, more efficient and convenient remedy on the market.

The King of Ranges, "Buck's Happy Thought"

Canada's Favorite

The Happy Thought Range is Canada's Favorite and 150,000 of Canada's best cooks know the merits of it. Everything for the convenience of the cook is found in The Happy Thought. It has Patented Transparent Oven Doors, Unobstructable Oven Damper, and Patent Reservoir Damper, Patent Corrugated Oven Plates and Double Reinforced Oven Walls. It's the only Range that has or can have our own peculiar construction of Fire Box, Oven, Flues, etc., and the only practical system of thorough Oven Ventilation.

Committed for Trial.

Montreal, Oct. 31.—Hansen, the self-confessed Westmount murderer, was formally committed for trial at the November term of the Court of King's Bench yesterday. While he still pleaded guilty to all that he has confessed, the law reads so that a plea of "not guilty" must be entered at his trial, with all the chances of an ordinary prisoner.

Died After Vaccination.

Ottawa, Oct. 31.—John McLaughlin, 18 years old, dropped dead yesterday on Sapper's Bridge, while looking at a boat in the canal. He was a woodworker and always enjoyed good health. A few days ago he was vaccinated, and this is thought to have affected his heart. Three physicians tried to save his life, but failed.

King's Birthday a Legal Holiday.

Ottawa, Oct. 31.—No proclamation will be necessary making November 9th, the King's birthday, a holiday. The statute now covers this, making it a legal holiday.

CHATTERTON.

Wedding bells are soon to ring.

Mr. George Humblin has returned from the North-west.

Mr. S. Foster has purchased a fine farm in P. E. Co.

The many friends of Miss Katie Vanderwaters are pleased to see her home again looking so well.

Mr. Palmer entertained a number of friends on Sunday.

Mrs. Campbell is on the sick list.

TUFTSVILLE.

A number from here attended the services at Holloway on Sunday last, held in memory of the late Mrs. Garvin Cragg.

Mrs. George Carr, of Ridge Road, passed away early Monday morning, after a brief illness. The funeral took place on Tuesday morning from her late residence. The interment was at West Huntingdon cemetery. A husband and four children are left to mourn the loss of a kind mother and helpmate.

The License Commissioners of North Hastings met in this village on Oct. 29th.

Miss M. Cooke has given her residence a new coat of paint, greatly improving its appearance.

House Work

Seems easy to a man, but there is a great deal of lifting and reaching to do; a great many trips up and down stairs to make in the course of day's house work. It's hard where a woman is well. For a woman suffering with some form of "female trouble" it is daily torment. There are thousands of such women struggling along, day by day, in increasing misery. There are other thousands who have found a complete cure of their disease in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It stops debilitating drains, cures irregularity, heals inflammation and ulceration, nourishes the nerves, and gives vitality and vigor. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. It contains no opium, cocaine nor other narcotic.

"For a number of months I suffered with female trouble," writes Miss Agnes McGowne, of 1212 Bank St., Washington, D. C. "I tried various remedies, but none seemed to do me any permanent good. The doctors said it was the worst case of internal trouble they ever had. I decided to write to you for help. I received a very encouraging reply, and commenced treatment at once. I had not used your 'Favorite Prescription' a week before I began to feel better, and, as I continued, my health gradually improved. It is improving every day."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay cost of customs and mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for a book in paper covers, or 50 stamps in cloth, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

SIR WILFRID WILL GO.

Coronation Ceremony in June—Short Session of House First.

Montreal, Oct. 31.—La Patrie's Ottawa correspondent says: "The news spread about by the Conservative press to the effect that Sir Wilfrid had received an invitation to attend the coronation is premature. The Prime Minister informed me yesterday that he expects it from day to day, and will accept.

The ceremony will take place in June, and this will be a good reason for a short session, in order that the Premier may leave Ottawa after the prorogation of the House. He will be accompanied by Lady Laurier and Mr. Bordeault, his private secretary.

Notes From Ottawa.

Ottawa, Oct. 31.—General O'Grady-Haly left yesterday to inspect the permanent corps at Halifax and Fredericton.

Joseph Pope, C.M.G., has been commissioned by the Government to write an official account of the royal trip through Canada. It will be illustrated with photographs taken by the Government photographer.

Irish Meeting Broken Up.

Dublin, Oct. 31.—A force of constabulary broke up a United Irish League demonstration at Kilmain, County Mayo, yesterday, though the meeting had not been proclaimed. The police refused to allow John O'Donnell, M.P., or Peter Regan, a league organizer, to speak. William Redmond was thrown about, and O'Donnell was assaulted and dragged through the streets. Regan's hand was broken from a blow from a constable's baton, and a dozen men, women and children were trampled on or clubbed.

Bill to Regulate Strikes.

Madrid, Oct. 31.—The Minister of the Interior, Senor Moret, proposes to regulate strikes by legislation, and to that end he has introduced a bill in the Cortes legalizing ordinary strikes if from four to fifteen days' notice is given to the authorities. Strikes stopping the works of an entire town or tending to produce a lack of necessaries will be illegal, and the leaders in such strikes will be punished by imprisonment. Similar conditions will govern the employers coalitions.

W.C.T.U. of Ontario

Stratford, Oct. 31.—Yesterday morning the W. U. T. U. convention was occupied with reports from several departments of the Union's work. Scientific Temperance in Public Schools, by Mrs. C. B. Bigelow of Cornwall, Work Among Lumbermen and Miners, by Miss Kate Fisher of Wingham, Work Amongst Africans, by Mrs. R. D. Livingston of Tilsonburg, Evangelistic Work, read by Miss Harris, Exhibitions and Fairs, by Mrs. S. Hilborne of Toronto, Lecture Bureau, by Mrs. Mary Brownell of Toronto, Flower, Fruit and Delicacy Missions, by Mrs. Bryant. Unfermented Wine, by Mrs. Acheson, who also reported on Sabbath Observance, Juvenile Work, by Mrs. Alice B. Reed of St. Thomas, read by Mrs. Bigelow. All the reports were well received, and on some of them interesting discussions ensued.

Whale in Montreal Harbor.

Montreal, Oct. 31.—Here is a whale story. Yesterday afternoon a whale 40 feet long appeared in the harbor and a member of the harbor police fired a dozen shots into the monster and still the whale lives. The visitor is one of the thresher species.

Verdicts of "Not Guilty."

St. Catharines, Oct. 31.—The jury in the Murphy manslaughter case brought in a verdict of "not guilty." "Not guilty" was the verdict in the case of Seymour Smith and his wife, Precilla Smith, charged with theft of documents.

BLOOD HISTORY

Born in bone marrow—dies in the liver. This is the beginning and the end of the rich, red blood that keeps us all alive. Blood history makes a fascinating story.

Scott's Emulsion often plays a most important part in blood history. At the very beginning—that is where its influence is greatest.

Scott's Emulsion is a blood food—a rich material for making new blood. Nothing better for bringing color to pale faces.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like.

OBITUARY.

MRS. WILLIAM JORDAN.

At an early hour Tuesday morning Mrs. Isabelle Jordan, beloved wife of Mr. William Jordan, of the 8th concession of Tyendinaga, died very suddenly. Cause of death was heart failure. Deceased was well up till Monday evening about four o'clock, when she was suddenly stricken with a pain around her heart and died Tuesday morning at two o'clock. Everything that could be done to save her life was done, but the good Lord our Heavenly Father thought the tie of affection of a loving wife and mother must be broken and called her to himself. Mrs. Jordan was a daughter of the late Thos. Robinson, of the Township of Hungerford, and 23 years ago was married to Mr. William Jordan. She was 44 years, 9 months of age when she died. She leaves a loving husband and five children, three daughters and two sons to mourn her loss, namely, Thomas, Ida, Stella, Wellington and Gertie, all at home. The remains were laid in St. Paul's cemetery, Roslin. Mrs. Jordan had been a member and worker of St. Paul's Church for many years.

IN MEMORIAM.

In memory of Mrs. William Jordan, our beloved wife and mother, who died Oct. 22, 1901.

A loved mother God has taken home,
  Our hearts are sadly chilled,
For she has left a vacant chair,
  That never can be filled.

Even as the winter breezes kill
  The blooming summer flowers,
So death did rob, with icy chill,
  This fond, dear mother of ours.

No mother could have fonder been (Her memory is warm).
Kind tokens of her love are seen
  Throughout this home of ours.

The hearts for her are sad to-day,
  Who won her heart and love.
We know that God will give us grace,
  And we all shall meet above.

But though on earth her merry face
  Will never greet us more,
We know that He will give us grace
  To meet on heaven's shore.

And when we think of that dear form,
  Which now is still and cold,
Thank God we know where she has gone,
  Her name with Christ enrolled.
